LAD BREAKS WORLD RECORD

James Graves Does 25 Miles in Auto In 32:33 3-5.

Sioux City Journal: Not satisfied with having won four races with the car he was driving James Graves, an 18-year-old chauffeur from Wayne, Neb., broke a world's record at the meet of the Sioux City Automobile club yesterday by driving a fully equipped touring car twenty-five miles on a track in 32:33 3-5. The car is a Buick, four-cylinder, 20-horsepower, owned by George Wilson, of Kingsley, Ia.

Very distinctly the driving of this young man was the big feature of the race. Barney Oldfield and Charles Soules came in for their share of the applause, but neither was able to make the showing made by the Wayne boy, who has been driving a car scarcely two years.

The record was made in the last race of the day, which was the first heat of 35-mile derby open to cars owned by members of the Sioux City Automobile club. The races which the lad took with his car were the five-mile jaunt for touring cars, the free for all three-mile race, the novelty race and the derby. Today Graves will drive the same car around the track in an attempt to break the fifty-mile track record and also to better his record for twenty-five miles. The best previous twenty-five mile record for that type of car was established at Minneapolis last Wednesday, and the time was 34:45 4-5.

In the derby Graves ran his car with astonishing precision. His fastest time for the mile lap was 1:16 and his slowest time was 1:18.

One on Charles Craven.

Winside Tribune: Charles Craven made his appearance at the depot Monday afternoon with a green cloth grip like father used to carry in the old country, and met with a hearty reception from the bunch that makes the trains. Mr. Craven was asked repeatedly when he came over, how long he had been in this country, if he had got a job as yet and if he was going to Wayne to get his naturalization papers. While his personal attire was not symbolic of the old country, the grip sure was and on the train to Wayne fellow passengers (Harry Prescott and E. W. Tucker) say that confidence men tried to sell him a gold brick, a farm in the bottom of the Missouri river and $1000 worth of "good" money for $3.50. While nothing has been learned of his reception in Wayne, it is surmised that he kicked the grip under the depot platform and then sneaked down after dark and got it.

THEY GOT THE GLAD HAND

Mr. and Mrs. W. Benshoof Get a Royal Reception

The following is taken from the Blue Grass (Iowa) Times, and will please Wayne county friends of the Benshoof family:

A two days' celebration was held in Blue Grass July 4 and 5 in honor of the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Benshoof to their old home that they left long years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Benshoof are now residents of Wayne, Neb., and left Blue Grass thirty-eight years ago. Last week they returned for a long visit and preparations were immediately made to celebrate in true home-coming style. Mr. Benshoof is a brother of J. Benshoof, Jr., of Blue Grass, Mrs. Benshoof is a sister of J. P. Cooper of Muscatine county, and Mrs. Louis Platt is a niece of Mr. Benshoof. Mr. Benshoof was always a leader in Fourth of July celebrations when he lived in the town, so it was decided to begin the celebration on this day. The Platt home was the scene of the event and at noon forty people gathered around the banquet table. After dinner the party repaired to the park and watched the Fourth of July celebration given by the M. W. A. and the Benshoofs met many of their friends of former days. In the evening a picnic supper was enjoyed.

On the 5th of July the celebration was transferred to the Cooper home. Here the guests gathered in the morning and an all-day reunion was held. Old times were talked over and events of former years recalled, making the reunion a very pleasant one. Mr. and Mrs. Benshoof will remain in Iowa until some time in August.

Political Hot Air.

Sioux City Tribune, July 20th:—With a view of promoting harmony in the democracy of the Third congressional district of Nebraska a conference of the democratic leaders of that district is being held this afternoon at the Mondamin. In attendance are J. P. Latta, of Tekamah, present state senator from the Seventh district; J. C. Ecker, of Winside, and C. A. Kingsbury, a Ponca attorney. S. E. Cobb, of Emerson, editor of the Emerson Enterprise, came in with the politicians.

Mr. Latta desires to go to congress from that district and will submit his name to the primaries, which will be held in Nebraska on September 1. Ed. Howard, of Columbus, also would like to go to congress and C. A. Kingsbury has aspirations in that direction. It appears to be the desire of those leaders to eliminate one of the three, thus preventing the three-cornered fight which must be the result of all of them staying in the race. The indications are that Latta and Howard are the two most prominently mentioned and so that there need not be too much strife in the democracy it is the hope that in the interests of harmony one of those opposing Latta will withdraw, leaving the field to but two. Thus the conference.

As Latta has been in the state senate for one term, elected from an almost solidly republican district, it is the hope and thought of that district's democracy that he can get enough votes to defeat J. E. Boyd, of Neligh, the present incumbent in congress.

President Pile to Europe.

Pres. J. M. Pile has secured transportation to Europe, to sail from New York October 1st, returning November 21st. Pres. Pile was some months ago selected as a delegate to an educational congress of noted educators to be held in England. He will also visit other foreign countries and it is hoped the trip will thoroughly restore him to his general good health. He has been much improved of late weeks.

Berry for County Attorney.

Atty. Frank Berry last Saturday filed for the democratic nomination for county attorney. This makes a four-cornered contest between Wilbur and Berry, democrats, and Closson and Davis, republicans. Every little helps to get out a big Bryan vote in the county.

Ed. Pratt Gets His

A special to the Sioux City Tribune says Jas. and Ed. Pratt, of Wakefield, have been bound over to the district court for bootlegging. Ed. Pratt was a Wayne bartender for a number of years. Wakefield has been very lax in going after the illicit booze sellers.

J. Hamlin Expires in Crystal Lake.

Stricken with heart failure just after entering the waters of Crystal lake at Central park at 10:30 o'clock this morning J. Hamlin, of Allen, Neb., died before friends who were within a few feet could take him from the lake, and before they had placed him on the banks and called in medical aid in the hope that there still remained the spark of life. All efforts to resuscitate him were in vain.

Hamlin, who is a wealthy retired farmer, of Allen, came to Sioux City Saturday evening for a few days with Barry Feldman at Crystal Lake. Today, after eating a hearty meal he and G. E. Chapman, of Sioux City, went bathing. While but a short distance from the shore and in shallow water, a form of convulsions appeared to seize Hamlin, his head went under water and he was powerless to help himself. Those who noticed his actions hastened to his aid, but when they had reached him there was nothing to indicate that life remained.

Dr. Charles H. Maxwell, of Dakota City, was called, but could do nothing to revive him and expressed the belief that death had been caused by shock. B. F. Sawyer, county coroner, was notified at Jackson, Neb., and will make arrangements for the inquest.

It is said that Hamlin went to Crystal Lake with the intention of spending a few days fishing. He secured a tent and was boarding with Mr. Feldman, who conducts the hotel at the lake. Previous to his taking up his residence in Allen, Hamlin farmed near the town and had accumulated considerable property, it being estimated that he is worth at least $75,000.

Chautauqua Opens Today.

Big Crowds are Expected all Week.

The Second annual Wayne Chautauqua opens today under the auspices of the Commercial Club.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bright are visiting at Winside.

The big feature today was Wausau's great parade. A first class band headed the aggregation of the "elephant", "rooster" and the "American Girl". An automobile parade and the Wayne band made it one of the most spectacular exhibitions ever seen on Wayne's streets.

Gen. John C. Black of Illinois is the first speaker and the Chautauqua committee expected his address this afternoon to be one of the best of the course.

James Coyle and family of Lincoln are visiting at the Moran home.

The big fine Judge Landis imposed on Standard Oil was knocked out by corporation Judge Grosscup. Gas will go lower now, and the advance to Rockefeller's pile since last Thursday is $15,840,000. The peculiar thing about this advance in oil stocks is how did the brokers learn a week in advance that the court would set the $20,000,000.00 fine aside?

President Pile was "at the telephone" to his friends this week, and promised to be down town soon.

The battle of ballots in the campaign for state superintendent will be one of great interest in Nebraska this fall especially in the republican ranks before the primaries. There are at least three active candidates for a place on the ticket. E. C. Bishop, who has been connected with the office of state superintendent for several years, has the advantage in at least two ways: in the first place he has "precedent" in his favor, another that his name appears on the ballot first. The other two consumption realize this handicap and are making inroads on the strength of the Deputy Superintendent. Geo. Carrington of Auburn will in all probability receive the honor of the nomination, as he seems to be choice of all those who are familiar with the situation, and who know the candidates.

To date some districts have failed to send in their reports for the year just closed. Our annual report has been kept open for these delinquents, but it seems in some cases the officers are determined to cause the district to lose their state money, by reason of neglecting to attend to this matter. We are willing to do all in our power to aid in making out these reports provided, that the proper officer can not do so, but after this is done we feel that we have done our part.

School officers should get together and balance their books before making a report to this office. There are instances in this county where the treasurers are registering orders "not paid for lack of funds" when the director's report shows all the way from two hundred to twenty-two hundred in the hands of the district treasurer. I do not think it is any evidence of dishonesty, but shows that the books are not made to correspond as they should.

From "Dumb Animals."

Geo. T. Angell, in "Our Dumb Animals," publishes the following: "Criticism of the address of William H. Taft, Secretary of War, at the tomb of General Grant in New York on Memorial Day is not confined to Grand Army veterans.

"Secretary Taft alleged that General Grant left the army in 1854 rather than face court-martial on account of a weakness for strong drink, and citizens of all political parties and of all classes of society are talking about it.

"At the tomb of General Grant on Memorial Day, Secretary Taft addressed an audience, including the relatives and friends of our great army commander, which probably has been and will be commented upon, by nearly every one of the 20,000 newspapers and magazines to which our paper goes every month.

"In his first sentence he tells of the squalid surroundings of President Lincoln in his boyhood. Squalid, in the dictionary, as Mr. Taft must know, is defined as 'foul, nasty and filthy.' President Lincoln was not born, as Secretary Taft was, into what is called 'the upper 400,' and had not the nearly advantageous of that high position, but that his surroundings were 'foul, nasty and filthy' is something which I have never heard before.

"In regard to what he said about the early life of General Grant, I need make no mention, as it will be published in nearly every newspaper and magazine in America. But he says nothing about General Grant's military ability, as reported in various actions and as exhibited in his refusal to attend even a horse race.

"I am sure that under his command our navy officers would not have been found at a Sunday bullfight at Havana, or the the more recent bullfight at Lima, Peru. Nor did he ever encourage those under his command to get up boxing matches for amusement, nor would he have approved of our battleship fleet being employed on Sundays at Magdalena Bay, from six o'clock in the morning until night, firing great guns and little at targets. Nor did he ever leave his presidential duties to go off on hunting expeditions to shoot animals for the fun of wounding and killing them."—GEO. T. ANGELL.

Omaha Buys Space.

Yes, very soon all country sheets will get their little "dough," for filling Omaha's wide streets with people for the show. All Sir-tien pays in cash the price for country weeklies; pull to editors the "iron" looks nice, with columns far from full. If local merchants take the space, no ads like this we'll take; yes, we'd return with tender grace, the check for Norfolk's sake. That drawing card, Ak-Sar-Ben's reign, which come around each year, is just put on that it may drain our state towns far and near. And there they flock with wallets fat, around the streets they roam; they spend their cash and purchase that which they should buy at home. Can't our good merchants realize how much they lose this way? Get up some sales, then advertise—you'll find that it will pay. Those outside merchants never fear to save up shelf worn stock; they know that once in every year our dear, good people flock to Omaha and there they try, their hard earned cash to "soak," at prices which are boosted high and then they hike home "broke."

Again they buy at local stores; they charge it on the books. If they're refused, O my, the roars! and goodness, see those looks! So advertise and advertise; use brains and printers' ink; this will you get our people "wise" make them sit up and think! Norfolk Press.

Wm. Pond and his sister Mrs. Rick Lawman left last Friday for Cedar Rapids, Ia., in answer to a telegram that their father, Dr. Pond of that place, was dying. Saturday Rick Lawman received word of the old gentleman's death and he went there Saturday to attend the funeral. Dr. Pond was a prominent figure in Northwest Iowa towns for the past forty years.

Editor Chas. Weiss of the Hartington Wachtler was assaulted by Conrad Welsner, of the same place, for a roast Welsner got in the Wachtler, Welsner, Weiss and Wachtler—that's enough to make any Irishman mad.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank our friends and neighbors for their loving sympathy and beautiful floral offerings at the death of our son and brother.

Nothing "pulls the hair" like a bum shave. Go to Mahbott & Root and get a "good feeling," antiseptic

BY DAD

Thos. Robertson, a Missourian, made a vow that he would not have his hair or beard cut until Bryan or some other democrat was elected president. The vow was made in 1896. What a job some barber will have next November.

Some republican papers are extolling Candidate Taft because he isn't going to be like Bryan—make speeches. My dear republican brethren, have you read any of Taft's speeches? You have at least heard what he said about Gen. Grant being a drunkard and Lincoln being reared in squalid surroundings. Here is a "speech" that Taft delivered the other day. If Taft hadn't said it, and the Chicago Record-Herald had not printed it, as Taft's "speech," why you would say it was "squalid." "We have come up into this beautiful valley for health and rest. We are getting a great deal of inspiration, those of us who have come into it for the pure air. Some of us haven't taken the water yet. I have not felt the necessity, on the score of health, to do that, although I am bound to say that the enthusiastic hosts at the hot springs have suggested it. I said to them that my feeling re-minded me of the epitaph in a graveyard. I was well, I wished to be better, I took a physic and here I am. So like a good husband I have ventured to allow Mrs. Taft to take the baths."

The Sioux City ball team is going down the line like the Taft and Sherman ticket.

The more states you put in the "Bryan column" this year the nearer you will arrive at an accurate result—in November.

Bixby of the State Journal blames the democrats for starting the civil war. Bixby's heart may be in the right place, but his stomach—well, for a reformed booze-fighter, if he hopes it as he does his Daily Drift, the poor devil is hardly accountable for what he says about the democrats.

The lark came up to meet the sun and carol forth its lay; the farmer's son took down his gun and at him blazed away. The busy bee arose at 5 and hummed the meadows o'er; the farmer's wife went for his hive and robbed him of his store. The little ant, rose early, too, his labors to begin; the greedy sparrow that way flew and took his antship in. O, birds and ants and bees, be wise, in proverbs take no stock; like me, refuse from the bed to rise till half past eight o'clock.

Lincoln young ladies are wearing Bryan's picture on their hose, because they know Billy is going to get there. Clyde Ecker says the fad is an old one with Winside girls, he having seen his photo socked on the hose himself. Open-work would probably fit Clyde's phiz the better.

Howells Journal: Congressman Boyd is billed for the political bonnyard with the remainder of the Cannonites. The people of the district want a congressman who will represent them and not one who is simply a jumping jack for the chief representative of the trusts in the lower house of congress.

The anti-saloon league at Shuyler, attempted to close up the saloons because of blinds obscuring the doorways. The district court decided the matter against the league and substantiated his opinion with supreme court decisions. "As usual it was some preacher who was not satisfied with the manner in which the saloons were operated.

She—If a man loves his wife as much as she loves him, he will stop wasting money on cigars if she asks him.

He—Yes, but if his wife loves him as much as she ought to love a man who loves her enough to stop if she asks him, she won't ask him.—Best joke in last week's Judge.

John Bouquet of Randolph was arrested, charged with starving his cow. There is no telling what will happen in these chronic prohibition communities.

It is said Wayne has a young lady whose mirror is entirely covered with cobwebs. She must be blind.—Norfolk Press.

More likely it is the back of the mirror that is covered with cobwebs—and dust.

A farmer came to town with a load of butter and eggs in his automobile, last Friday and as he pulled up in front of Epler's store he shouted "whoa!" but he was away down in front of Stodden's saloon before he got his wagon stopped.

Seems as if the prohibitionists are going too far. If they follow up their platform they will have things fixed so they can't get a drink when they want it.

When the battleship fleet arrived at Honolulu by common consent she was pronounced a "lulu."

There is one thing you can safely bet on: That $29,000,000 fine against Standard Oil will not be paid before the November election. You will hear and read a lot of stuff about the president insisting that it be paid and about the Standard begging for mercy, and all that, but when you know that the fine has been paid just whistle and we will come over and hear about it.

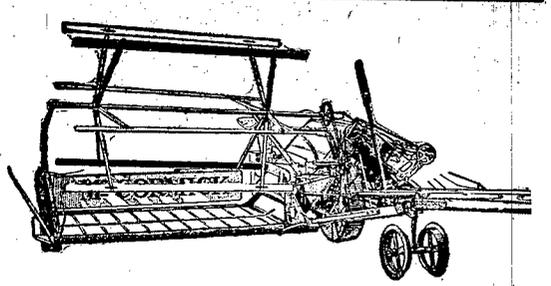

Oren C. Benedict and wife of Pittsfield, Mass., have just celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. They eloped in 1848 and are being punished good and plenty.

The prohibitionists didn't have any man for whom they could cheer for eighty-five minutes.—Exchange.

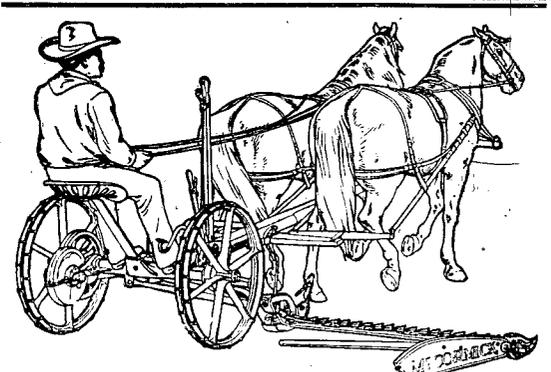

They probably had to leave the cheers at home.

stated that the secretary of state had designated the Winside Tribune as one of "the republican papers" of the county to publish the proposed amendments to the constitution, a $625 grant that is like finding the money. Since the Tribune is one of the most effective democratic papers in the state, this discrimination against the republican Index of Carroll will not sit well on Editor Closson's stomach.

Miss Lillian Ross, 880 East 34th Street, New York, writes: "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured my nervous system, relieved my headache, and gave me a good appetite. I had been unable to eat for months, and I feel it a duty to let others know of it."

Miss Katherine Grand, Lafayette St., Denver, Colo., writes: "Thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am well, after suffering for months from nervous prostration."

Miss Ellen M. Olson, of 17 East St., New York, writes: "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me of backache, and gave me a good appetite. I had been unable to eat for months, and I feel it a duty to let others know of it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ill, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has aided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

The total value of the precious stones produced in the United States during the year ending March 31, 1920, was $471,300, as compared with $205,000 in 1919. This great increase is due chiefly to a very large output of sapphires, which are both the blue and the variegated variety. The total production of sapphires in the United States for 1920 is estimated at $229,500. Tourmaline is another gemstone of importance, and is placed at $44,120. THE BACON HOG.
Owing to the fact that corn is not grown in northeastern Minnesota as safely and abundantly as barley and wheat, the bacon breed of hogs is profitable to raise a bacon breed of hogs rather than the lard breeds. For this reason a bacon breed (the large improved Yorkshire) has been raised exclusively on the experiment farm. It is this breed that is raised so extensively and profitably in Canada and on precisely the same feed as is grown here in abundance, clover, roots, barley, peas and the by-product of the dairy, skim milk.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse, but you must see that it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Castoria causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. A. F. Peder, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria in many cases and have always found it an efficient and speedy remedy."

Dr. E. Down, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria in my practice for many years with great satisfaction to myself and benefit to my patients."

Dr. Edward Parrish, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria in my own household with good results, and have advised several patients to use it for its mild laxative effect and freedom from harm."

Dr. J. B. Elliott, of New York City, says: "Having during the past six years prescribed your Castoria for infantile stomach disorders, I most heartily commend its use. The formula contains nothing deleterious to the most delicate children."

Dr. C. G. Sprague, of Omaha, Neb., says: "Your Castoria is an ideal medicine for children, and I frequently prescribe it. While I do not advocate the indiscriminate use of proprietary medicines, yet Castoria is an exception for conditions which arise in the case of children."

Dr. A. Harker, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprietary preparation. It is a pure and reliable medicine for infants and children. It is the universal household remedy for infantile ailments."

Dr. H. F. Merrill, of Augusta, Me., says: "Castoria is one of the very finest and most remarkable remedies for infants and children. In my opinion your Castoria has saved thousands from an early grave. I can furnish hundreds of testimonials from this locality as to its efficiency and merits."

Dr. Norman M. Geer, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "During the last twelve years I have frequently recommended your Castoria as one of the best preparations of the kind, being safe in the hands of parents and very effective in relieving children's disorders, while the ease with which such a pleasant preparation can be administered is a great advantage."

Echo of Bismarck's Dismissal.
A new version of the events leading up to Prince Bismarck's dismissal from the post of imperial chancellor is furnished by the Allgemeine Nachrichten, which is published in connection with the death of Dr. Roth, Reich's council minister in Berlin, the Swiss federal council in Bern, and a Swiss newspaper in Bern, where Emperor William II. convened a labor conference at Berlin, to which Prince Bismarck privately visited Dr. Roth, who pressed him to insist on Bern as the seat of the conference. The emperor, hearing of Prince Bismarck's visit, himself went to Bern, and on the 18th of March, 1890, he himself of the truth of the report. The following day the emperor dismissed Prince Bismarck and at the same time presented Dr. Roth with a portrait of himself, inscribed with the Latin inscription: "In memory of March 19, 1890."

ITCHING HUMOR ON BOY.
His Hands Were a Solid Mass, and Disease Spread All Over Body—Cured in 4 Days by Cuticura. "One day we noticed that our little boy was all broken out with itching sores. We first noticed it on his little hands. His hands were not as bad then, and we didn't think anything serious would result. But the next day we heard of the Cuticura Remedies being so good for itching sores. By this time the disease had spread all over his body, and his hands were nothing but a solid mass of this itching disease. I purchased a box of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment, and that night I took the Cuticura Soap and lukewarm water and washed him well. Then I dried him and took the Cuticura Ointment and anointed him with it. I did this every evening and in four nights he was entirely cured. THE BACON HOG.

Owing to the fact that corn is not grown in northeastern Minnesota as safely and abundantly as barley and wheat, the bacon breed of hogs is profitable to raise a bacon breed of hogs rather than the lard breeds. For this reason a bacon breed (the large improved Yorkshire) has been raised exclusively on the experiment farm. It is this breed that is raised so extensively and profitably in Canada and on precisely the same feed as is grown here in abundance, clover, roots, barley, peas and the by-product of the dairy, skim milk.

Center of Things.

Lincoln, Neb., July.—(Special Correspondence)—Mr. Bryan will be formally notified of his nomination on August 12, and the notification will take place at Fairview. In 1896 Mr. Bryan was notified and made his address of acceptance at Madison Square Garden, New York. In 1900 he went to Indianapolis to receive the notification. This time he remains at home, and the occasion will be seized upon to make one of the greatest democratic demonstrations ever held in the west.

Friday evening, July 17, witnessed a striking demonstration at Fairview. On that evening a large crowd of representative union men—republicans, democrats, socialists, prohibitionists and independents—journeyed to Mr. Bryan's home to present to him the unanimous endorsement of the Lincoln Central Labor Union, which endorsement was adopted at a meeting of the body on the Tuesday evening before. Mr. Bryan listened to the reading of the resolutions and then made a short address to the visitors. Then an hour was spent in social intercourse on the big lawn, and in the house looking at the hundreds of souvenirs Mr. and Mrs. Bryan brought back from their tour of the world.

"No man who knows Mr. Bryan can envy him his fine home and his evident success in life," said one of the visitors. "There is nothing too good for a man like Bryan. I felt just as much at home in that big house as I do in my little cottage on North Twenty-sixth street."

John W. Kern made a hit with the workmen of Lincoln when he was here the first of the week. He met a number of them at different places and he demonstrated his ability as a "mixer" from the very start.

One night last winter a jolly company assembled at Mr. Bryan's home to celebrate an anniversary, no matter what. While refreshments were being served Mr. Bryan was telling about the different kinds of fruit he and Mrs. Bryan had eaten while on their journey abroad.

"Did you eat any kumquarts while you were in Ceylon?" asked one guest.

"O, yes; we found them very plentiful there," replied Mr. Bryan.

"We didn't have any kumquarts in Ceylon," said Mrs. Bryan, with a smile.

"O, yes we had plenty of them. I remember how delicious they were," said Mr. Bryan.

"Not kumquarts," said Mr. Bryan with a smile.

"Well, those were not kumquarts," said Mrs. Bryan decisively.

"No, they were not kumquarts, come to think of it," said Mr. Bryan humorously.

"They merely looked and tasted like kumquarts."

"Which little incident sets forth very clearly that in some matters Mr. Bryan 'takes chicken'."

The writer has the handling of some 3,000 or 4,000 exchanges on The Commoner, and he has been wonderfully interested in noting the attitude of the democratic newspapers towards Mr. Bryan's candidacy.

Two of Pittsburg's big dailies are in line once more. Several big southern dailies are back in the democratic column again. There is cold comfort in the newspaper situation for those republicans who gleefully figured that Mr. Bryan's daily newspaper support would be no better than it was in former campaigns. With such papers as the Boston Globe, Philadelphia Item, Utica Observer, Louisville Courier Journal, Pittsburg Post, Charleston News and Courier and the Cincinnati Enquirer supporting him, and a lot of big republican newspapers admitting Mr. Bryan's strength and fitness, democracy can get along very well without the support of some of the daily newspapers that claim to be democratic but invariably give aid and comfort to the enemy.

Perhaps a few figures concerning the popular vote in 1900 and 1904 will be interesting. Much has been heard of Mr. Roosevelt's wonderful majority, but an analysis of the figures show that Mr. Roosevelt's increase over the McKinley vote hardly makes good the natural increase in the voting strength of the republic. In 1900 McKinley received 7,207,923 votes. In 1904 Roosevelt received 7,524,459, or 416,536 more than McKinley. In 1900 Parker received 6,358,163 votes. In 1904 Parker received 5,882,754, or 1,275,339 fewer votes than Bryan received four years before. Roosevelt's excess over McKinley was only about 33 per cent of the loss sustained by Parker. If these figures mean anything at all they mean that Roosevelt's majority was due to democratic apathy and not to Roosevelt's popularity. The conditions in democratic ranks now is vastly different from the conditions existing in 1904. Then the party was disorganized; now it is united.

The democratic national committee met at Fairview on Monday, July 13, but did not select a chairman. A sub-committee of eleven was selected, and this committee will meet in Chicago soon and announce the selection of a chairman. Mr. Bryan will meet with the committee in Chicago and by that time the plan of campaign will have been perfected.

Mr. Bryan agreed nearly a year ago to deliver the Labor Day address in Chicago and will therefore be in the windy city on the first Monday in September. The Chicago trades unions are preparing to make it the greatest labor demonstration ever pulled off in any city or country.

Mr. Bryan, realizing that the work of the campaign will consume all of his time, has decided to withdraw from active editorial work until after the election. Acting upon this determination he will soon issue a notice to that effect, asking that he be not held responsible for any editorial utterances of The Commoner unless the same appears over his signature. He further adds that all profits accruing from The Commoner between now and election will be turned over to the national committee for campaign purposes. Mr. Charles W. Bryan, who has been publisher of The Commoner since its inception, will be in entire charge of the paper, with Mr. Richard L. Metcalfe as editor-in-chief, assisted by a capable corps of assistants.

The "immense farm" owned by Mr. Bryan, according to the eastern press, consists of exactly 105 acres. It does not all lie in one piece, there being several five and ten-acre tracts that are isolated. It is all good farming land, and owing to its proximity to Lincoln, is worth perhaps $250 an acre. The "alfalfa lawn" which you have read about so much is a figment of the correspondents' minds. The Fairview lawn is blue grass. The famous alfalfa field is not owned by Mr. Bryan, but is leased by him because it lies directly in front of his property and between him and the street railway line. The $50,000 "mansion" cost Mr. Bryan about $14,000, and it was built by union labor working by the day at above the union scale, street car fare added. The "$20,000 barn" cost about $2,000. There is a comfortable little cottage on the farm for the farm foreman, and it cost perhaps $1,500. There is also another cottage which stood upon a piece of land purchased by Mr. Bryan, and which is occupied by one of the farm hands. Mr. Bryan denies being a farmer, but admits that he is an agriculturist. He explains the difference in this way: "A farmer is a man who makes his money on the farm and spends it in town; an agriculturist is a man who makes his money in town and spends it on the farm." Mr. Bryan is rated as the second wealthiest man in Lancaster county, his assessment showing property to the amount of $85,000. The Nebraska assessment averages about four-fifths of the real value.

Now big corps of newspaper correspondents in Lincoln are all "Bryan men," although not all of them will vote for him. They are a unit in pressing Mr. Bryan's uniform courtesy and his efforts to add to the comfort of their stay in Lincoln. They have a fine tent on the Fairview lawn, and it is equipped with tables and necessary stationery. They have received notice that in case of a storm the Bryan home is open to them. He exerts himself to help the newspaper boys, but they long since learned that when Mr. Bryan feels the necessity of refusing an interview on some particular question it is useless to apply the reporter's "pump." All they can get on such occasions is a fund of good stories that sends them away feeling like their efforts have not been in vain.

In figuring out the election returns he who puts Nebraska in the "doubtful," or "republican" columns is exhibiting only a thorough ignorance of the situation. Mr. Bryan carried Nebraska in 1896 by nearly 15,000. He lost it in 1900 by less than 8,000—and Nebraska is more thoroughly for Bryan now than it was in 1896. Mr. Bryan will carry Nebraska.

Wright is Still "Fresh."

Schuyler Free Lante: Since Judge Thomas gave his opinion in the saloon remonstrance cases the remonstrance element in the city has had much to say relative to that decision and has said much in condemnation of Judge Thomas that was not complimentary, to put it mildly. They have much to say as to the decision not being just nor according to law or evidence and even go so far as to insinuate that he was improperly influenced. So far as Judge Thomas is concerned, he needs no defense on the part of this editor and all such criticism will not be considered by people of good sense, and those who know Judge Thomas know that he is too honorable a man to go outside law and justice in any decision. It will become a set of people who have so much to say as to law violations and who carry on underhanded persecutions, to give vent to spite work under the idea of enforcing the law, to resort to the talk they do when they cannot have their way. Such talk is the rankest sort of disrespect for the law. We are told that Rev. T. J. Wright, the local Methodist pastor, took occasion in a recent sermon to criticize Judge Thomas and make a very disrespectful comment that reflected upon the court's honor and honesty. We have had a number of reports to late concerning remarks Rev. Wright has made relative to public matters and men in connection with his sermons and none were to his credit. If he seems fit to swerve from his religious teachings to make comment concerning public affairs and to criticize public men, he places himself in line of the same thing and he must not complain if he gets same. While Rev. Wright may be led to do and say as he does by what he considers his religious duty or his pastoral license, yet we consider that part of his work is very rank, even for one outside the church. All we shall say now is that when he makes remarks derogatory to Judge Thomas he is speaking of a man, who, while he has his faults, is a man of honor and of high character. Rev. Wright is decidedly fresh on short acquaintance.

This is what Hon. Jake Moore State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol For Dyspepsia: "E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Dear Sir: I have suffered more than twenty years from indigestion. About eighteen months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 lbs; in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in all my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity may be benefited. Yours very truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904. Sold by J. T. Leahy."

R. Y. APPELBY.

John C. Sprecher, editor of the Schuyler Free Lance, had never been heard of until he, an ex-populist, announced that he was for Mr. Bryan. This move—backwards—will get John well advertised in the republican press as a political freak, which he most certainly is.

The sober sense of the country will not invite the election of Mr. Bryan. It will not turn the great affairs of the government of the United States over to nutting opinion, personal pique and murderous insurrection. Sioux City Journal.

What do you think of the above sort of stuff for the great "safe and safe" Sioux City Journal? "Murderous insurrection" indeed! And Bryan stands with Roosevelt as alike as two peas in a pod. Truth of the matter is such hide bound corporation organs as the Sioux City Journal unquestionably is, have felt all along that the Roosevelt policies were dangerous and disturbing and all the rascals have been on netles, but their newspaper organs did not dare express themselves as it would have eliminated them from any future chance at the pie counter. Just how they felt towards Roosevelt may now be learned by watching their abuse of Bryan.—Coleridge Blade.
