ALL FOR TAFT

Nebraska Gives Miss Democracy Her Only Consolation.

Before this issue of the DEMOCRAT reaches its readers practically everybody will know "how she went," the help for Taft and "prosperity." The DEMOCRAT expected almost beyond question, for the past three weeks that Taft would be elected, but never by such an overwhelming vote. New York state, where the "laboring man" was going to throw off his yoke, went the Taft way like sheep to the slaughter.

When the returns came in Tuesday night democrats generally took early trains for home, but yesterday morning probably the greatest surprise for all parties was the election of A. C. Shallenberger governor of Nebraska, and a good, safe majority in the state for Bryan. This was better than local democrats had ever hoped for—Sheldon's defeat. Congressman Boyd also got it in the neck, while his master, Speaker Cannon, whom he repudiated, has a bigger majority than ever in his Illinois district. Dave Rees, democratic candidate for state senator, lost out by just about the vote he lost through writing this DEMOCRAT "that letter." The republican papers of the district took this letter up and republished it, and it no doubt had effect to lose Mr. Rees fifty votes.

Adam Pilger came in a nose ahead of John Morris, for state representative, about 30 votes.

College Notes

Misses Robertson and Van Conett spent Sunday visiting at the home of the former's uncle.

Prof. Sauntry made a business trip to Emerson Saturday afternoon. He returned.

Mrs. J. A. Maronda, formerly Miss Emma Palmer, and little daughter of Emerson, spent Saturday and Sunday with college friends.

Prof. Huffer has the Scientific class in geology this term. Several who are not members of the regular class are taking the work.

Several new students enrolled Saturday and Monday, some of them to enter the graduating classes and some to prepare for county examination.

Mrs. Pile had a safe and pleasant voyage, arrived safely in England and is enjoying her visit very much. She will return about the 20th of December.

Rev. Sharpe visited the Hill Tuesday morning. He conducted Chapel exercises and gave the students an inspiring talk. We are glad to welcome visitors to all our exercises.

Prof. Hunter gives the lecture at one o'clock Saturday. He will speak of some phase of manual training work. His talk will be interesting as well as instructive. The public is invited to attend.

The new catalogs are now ready for mailing. They differ but little from the old one, except that the manual training and agriculture departments are well written up.

The Hallow'en social held in the gymnasium Saturday evening was in charge of the young women of the Christian association. Several appropriate attractions were in evidence. A neat little sum was raised to go into the Y. W. C. A. treasury.

Miss Virginia Mayden of Craig enrolled Saturday for the term. Miss Mayden was a student here several years ago and finds things much more pleasant now than formerly.

Last Friday evening being President Pile's birthday anniversary, the members of the Girls' Athletic club gave him a pleasant surprise at supper time and presented him with a neat traveling bag.

President Pile, Profs. Fred Pile, Bright, Sauntry and Miss Kingsbury went to Lincoln Wednesday to attend the state teachers' association. They will return Saturday. They have supplied teachers for their classes and school work goes on as usual.

During the pleasant weather of the past week work has been started on a running track on the Hill. More attention will be paid to this sort of work in the future than has been done in the past.

James Pile has spent some time this fall fixing up new cases and re-arranging things in the museum, which now occupies the old library room. The museum will be open for inspection Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Visitors are welcome, however, at all times.

August Nordgren of the Scientific class has found it necessary to drop out of school for a month. Lack of help on the farm during the corn picking season makes it necessary for him to be home at that time.

Prof. Bright addressed a union meeting of the Christian associations Sunday afternoon. A large number of students attended the meeting. Prof. Bright made a thorough visit to the Holy Land last summer and is well qualified to speak on the many interesting things to be found there.

Among pleasant visitors on the Hill this week were Misses Nannie Cassell and Rebecca Moore of McLean, and Miss Gleason of Hoskins. These young ladies are all teaching and have a few Society Notes.

Bethasar Court T. B. H. No. 14. There will be a regular meeting of the court on Thursday evening Nov. 6, '08, at 8 p. m. You are earnestly requested to be present. H. E. Corbit, Scribe.

The bible study circle were most enjoyably entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Graves last Monday evening with a social, in honor of Mrs. Graves' mother. About forty attended. Light refreshments were served and games and conversation made it an agreeable evening.

The U. D. club have become quite noted in Wayne for their elaborate and delightful functions and this year was no exception to the rule. It was the ladies turn to entertain and they gave a three course dinner at the H. S. Welch home on last Friday evening. Like a drowning man clutching a straw the men got hold of a rope at the garden gate which led them through the garden and basement up the back way into the brightly lighted dining room. Cards and a guessing game were enjoyed later in the evening and a gypsy appeared on the scene telling each fortune in rhyme, the witticism and puns of which greatly impressed her listeners.

The C. E. society of the Presbyterian church gave a social at the Will Gildersleeve home on last Friday evening. A number of their friends had been invited and all were ready in a hay rack of huge dimensions when the horses, not having the true Hallow'een spirit, refused to go. Maybe they saw spooks and goblins invisible to the human eye, at any rate they balked and two fresh teams had to be gotten. These seemed to be the ones fated to go and the crowd started off in a jolly humor. About 10:30 weenies and marsh mallows were toasted at a big bon fire, which followed after coffee, pumpkin pie and past doughnuts. In quantity enough to last until the next Hallow'een.

The Shakespeare club celebrated "All Saints' Eve" with Miss Stocking at the Relyea home on Saturday evening inviting all the teachers and a few other friends. The decorations were most fantastic and symbolic consisting of stalks of corn, pumpkins and black cats so numerous that there was no question as to the nine lives of each being there. On the porch were two large letters, S. C., behind which was a black cat and all illuminated by an electric light bulb. In a corner of one room was a "wooded bower" with the proverbial fire and cauldron, and a wonderful witch with wonderful fortunes to tell, some of them so uncanny and spook like that they made her hearers think of Graves and other ghostly things. The guests were kept busy during the evening in following the rules and regulations which were a "code of signs" which had to be closely followed to appease the "Fates." For instance in passing each other on the stairs each girl (?) whistled to keep off bad luck and then had to go through bad effects of the whistling. Altogether with some other sign to keep off the Hallow'een parties ever given in Wayne.

LOCAL NEWS.

Business is going to boom, now again, that election is over. If your eyesight is not keen to see all the opportunities that open up before, then have Optician Vail make a free examination and give you properly fitted glasses.

Howard Whalen's lunch tables are kept busy these days. Hot coffee, chocolate or bouillon, with one of those fat, delicious sandwiches, is a feast for a man without an appetite.

That "ad" of Frank Gaertner's in the furniture store window is both ingenious and artistic. It is a swift advertisement of "feathers," isn't it, B. F.

Lots of money "changed hands" on the result, but we are of the opinion that it is a poor way to keep the filthy lucre in circulation.

Some ambitious boy or girl, who is not afraid to work, can have an opportunity of learning the printing business by calling at this office.

Violin and Clarinet lessons will be given by A. G. B. Ohmert, west of P. O. FOR SALE CHEAP—One oak bedroom suit, one oak extension table, one oak rocker, one oak sideboard, one couch, one dresser and commode combined, six common dining room chairs and one cane rocker. These things are in good condition and will be sold right.

ROBERT E. JONES.

Irm Jastram voted in Wayne Tuesday morning, then returned to West Point where he has been making his home for several months. We hope the democrats didn't let Irm vote at West Point. One vote of his kind was enough for the occasion.

FOR SALE—All my registered Percheron mares and colts. If taken soon, F. F. MOLES.

E. W. Closson of Sholes and Dan Maher of Carroll attended the joint debate Monday night.

When you want to play pool, go where the tables are first class and you have an opportunity to play a scientific game. Mox Moeller's place.

A large audience greeted Messrs W. E. Reed of Madison, and Richard Closson of Carroll, in their joint debate last Monday night. In justice to all parties Mr. Closson surprised his own party friends. They expected to see him knocked into a cocked-hat the first round, whereas he put up a much better argument all the way through the debate than United States Senator Burkett did on the same issues in Wayne a few weeks ago. Closson may be a little on the rough and ready order, but he has more nerve than his political associates in Wayne county, and he certainly "showed" his brethren if he didn't make any republican votes out of democrats. W. E. Reed is one of the best political speakers in the state and the DEMOCRAT man felt like hitting the fellows who allowed the "joint debate," with a stuffed club. Everybody would have enjoyed a two hours speech from Mr. Reed, but over three hours of that sort of a debate was too much for human nature. We will never be guilty of taking a front seat in another such performance.

The best billiard table in the city at Max Moeller's. When you want a game of billiard's take a good table for it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reynolds are planning to build a house on the lots west of Harry Fisher's residence.

Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Pound of Ponca, Neb., came Friday evening on a visit to Mesdames Epler and Norris. Saturday afternoon the ladies were entertained at the home of Mrs. Epler and Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Philcox.

Mrs. R. Philcox returned on Friday evening from a most delightful visit with her cousin, Mrs. Stowell of Michigan.

A letter received from Mrs. Pile last Saturday by a friend in Wayne, states that they had just landed at Plymouth, England. She had a most delightful voyage, being sick only half a day. Their ship, the Majestic, was in direct communication with several other ships and with land during the entire voyage. The tour includes a number of cities in England, Scotland and France.

I have several choice bargains in Wayne Co., farms can be bought below regular price of surrounding lands if sold, quick. Also some good cheap Dakota farms. W. F. ASSENHEIMER, Altona, Neb.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup not only heals irritation and allays inflammation, thereby stopping the cough, but it moves the bowels gently and in that way drives the cold from the system. Contains no opiates. It is pleasant to take, and children especially like the taste, so nearly like maple sugar. Sold by J. T. Leahy.

Letters received from the Northrops states that they are all happy in their new home. Mrs. Northrop was warmly welcomed by the Ladies Auxiliary of the commercial club. Frank Ford is in the university and Katherine in a very fine high school. Mr. Northrop has procured an office and has gone into law practice which is a paying business at Eugene. The children are enjoying the new experience of nutting expeditions.

Miss Claire Moran attended a large dancing party at Craig on Saturday evening.

Geo. Kane was up from Sioux City the first of the week.

Jas. Wachob was an over Sunday visitor from Stanton. Jim is beginning to lose that tuckered out expression he carried last spring, and his frequent visits to Wayne lend color to the belief of his friends that he is recovering his former good health.

Whaler's for hot cocoa and Lanches. At the home of his aunt, Mrs. Harry Craven, Harry Gildersleeve with Leslie Epler and Frances Jones gave a very fine party to their crowd on Halloween night. A real witch appeared on the scene dressed as only witches are and telling their fortunes as only witches can. She must have camped very near town as she knew all the goings and comings of the crowd and caused much laughter by her apt prophecies. A number of games had been arranged in which spooks and goblins figured largely. The girls and boys are very grateful to Mrs. Craven for her share in giving them such a delightful evening.

Mr. Cunningham is prouder than ever of his Idaho ranch since a pair of twin girl babies have arrived there. They belong to Mr. and Mrs. Chichester and put in an appearance on the 27th.

Little Hester McNeal celebrated last Friday evening with a Halloween party for a number of her friends.

Miss Frances Welch of Creston, Io., is expected this week on a visit to Marguerite Chace. The girls are "Lake Okoboji" friends.

The other day two of our local boys went to meet the train, dressed in their very best and wearing looks that bespeke very plainly that they anticipated something when the train pulled in two young ladies stepped off but stepped out of sight. The look of disappointment that came over the faces of those two gentlemen was certainly agonizing but when they discovered that the ladies had arrived they smiled large smiles that were happy. Later we may publish the names of these "boys."

An Iowa grocer was standing on the top of a barrel of pickles the other day when it broke and he took an involuntary bath in brine. A young woman who saw the accident was given a pound box of candy not to say anything about the grocer's brine bath until the pickles were sold. Nebraska Solidly Democratic

Late returns show that Nebraska will have at least four out of five, and perhaps five democratic congressmen. The legislature will be strongly democratic in both houses. Nebraska has the smallest per cent of illiteracy of any of the states, which in a measure accounts for the above result.

A Hot Lemonade will cure your cold. Felber's Pharmacy.

Wasn't she bulky? If I were a parent I know what I'd do; I'd keep still, and mind my own business, and let my children have some fun. There's Tom Cutler lives with his aunt, and has a bully time. He goes Wood-chucking and ceiling, Sundays, has no best clothes, and no pocket handkerchiefs to bother him, crawls under the canvas of every circus tent, earns money at the theatre, sleeps in the stable when he likes, and always has his pocket full of peanuts. He says he wouldn't be bothered with parents if he could have them for nothing, and he thinks if I hadn't any it would be money in my pocket. That's my sentiments.

County Sunday School Convention.

At the Wayne county Sunday school convention held at Winside last week, there were delegates from ten of the twenty schools in this county. Those going from Wayne were Rev. Thos. C. Osborne, F. H. Jones, E. B. Young, Mrs. Mines and Mary Mason. Forty-one delegates registered and they with the other visitors, were royally entertained by the good people of Winside. The state workers, Prof. Steidley and Miss Stooker were present and spoke upon almost every phase of Sunday school work. Rev. Chas. Lewis of Lincoln, also gave interesting addresses upon the adult bible class movement. The convention was one of intense interest and profit. Wayne county is one of the banner counties, with every prospect for continuing in that class. The next convention will be held at Carroll.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Chas. S. Beebe; vice-president, O. A. King; secretary-treasurer, F. H. Jones; Supt. of Teacher-training, E. P. Wilson; Home Department, Mrs. C. A. Grothe; Elementary Department, Miss Mary Mason; Supt. of Temperance Department, Mrs. Geo. Yaryan; Supt. of Adult Department, Rev. A. W. Ahrends; Supt. of Pastor's Department, Rev. C. J. Ringer.

Your Strongest Defense

against dyspepsia and other ills is the use of Superlative Flour in your baking. Then you can say good-bye to heavy bread, soggy rolls, etc.

A Loaf of Superlative Flour Bread can be eaten hot or cold with equal safety. The flour contains only the nutritious and wholesome parts of the wheat with nothing added to make it weigh more or to improve its color. Order a sack and it will prove its own best advertiser.

Snow Flake Flour

Snow Flake, our second grade, is a very good flour for the price.

BY DAD

And Bill won. Such is politics. Hurrah for Bill. A Madison man bet his whiskers against a load of hay. 'Rah for Bill, anyway. Anyway it's all over us. Looks more and more like—winter. And that smile will wear for eight years.

Now let's hear from Haskell and Hearst. Who would ever have figured it Shallenger.

Who was running for president, anyhow; Roosevelt or Hearst? Well, everybody appears well pleased, so let it go at that.

Nebraska will have what she voted for, a state bank guarantee law. The next thing on tap is Thanksgiving. Are you prepared to be thankful.

Anyway, by dad, it was an "educational campaign," if a little expensive. Did you notice how business was booming the day after Taft was elected? Aren't you sorry you did not put your money in that old sock instead of into election.

Wonder, by dad, why Boyd didn't have any republicans working for him in Wayne county.

For a long time it seemed as though election day would never get here, and now we are sorry that it did.

It was that signing up in a Hoskins saloon that did the business. It certainly was a "warm endorsement."

It certainly is tough on the fellows who put up a dollar each to get such bad news with the utmost dispatch.

The political cut-throats of New York city, Tammany hall, got what was coming to them. 'Rah for Gov. Hughes.

The automobiles were all republican Tuesday, and the "campaign expenses" will not even be published after election.

If election went against you, you still owed a summer ice bill, and you had no credit to buy coal, what would you do—to be saved?

After seeing the "Bachelor's Honey-moon" the other night one of the wise boys said: "Carrying a chorus with a show is only a matter of 'form'."

People's tastes differ. You can't get the man with a new over coat and the man who has to buy his to agree on what constitutes ideal October weather.

You republicans who feel bad over Gov. Sheldon's defeat should not let it hurt too much. A. C. Shallenger is a better man than Geo. Sheldon ever will try to be.

The American people may rule, by dad, but you have to interfere seriously with their pocket books to make them vote for what they know is best for their country.

The Supreme court of Tennessee has held that a jury has a perfect right to bold prayer service. And it might truthfully be added that mighty few of 'em do it.

A gentleman remarked that he did not know that George Savidge was a physician until he noticed by last week's DEMOCRAT that he had gone to Kansas to make a railroad well.

A. R. Davis gave F. A. Berry a horrible beating for county attorney, and the democrats are to blame for it, lots of the identical democrats Berry has been helping out of their troubles.

It looks as though Teddy was going to Africa a little early after his appointee takes possession. But it is probable that Taft will have to run the government to suit the eastern fellows who put up the dough.

Sniggles—"What's the matter Squiggles; you seem very happy today?"

Squiggles—"Oh, you know my wife is deaf and dumb and she's got rheumatism in her fingers."

Merchants say that the number of women in town who buy laces, and have them charged on the bill as flannels, is surprising. It seems that all men are alike; they object to paying for useless things, but are reconciled easily to bills of necessities.

Six months ago an Omaha woman presented her husband with a child of the usual Nebraska size now she has presented him with twins. And Roosevelt was so busy managing the campaign that he didn't even reward her with an autograph letter or a photograph of his teeth.

A "Twenty Years Ago" item in last Sunday's Sioux City Journal said that a sporting man of Wayne, Neb., bet $500 in Gov. Commons' pool room, with a Sioux Cityite, that Harrison would defeat Cleveland. The Wayne sport hit it a little better that time than some of them did twenty years later.

The week of election is always a hard week to fill up a country paper with live news. If a fellow's side wins, he feels too good to attend to business, and if he loses he doesn't care whether school keeps or not. These reasons are valid in this instance, because this item was penned before election results were known.

The Winside Tribune, now that the campaign is over, can direct its mud batteries towards County Superintendent Little. There is only one apology to make for the superintendent of Wayne county's schools. The only way to fight an adversary who recedes to the tactics of a skunk is to take a pitchfork to it.

Chas. Killian was the only man in town yesterday I saw wearing a "I paid my dollar, did you?" Charley said he wasn't ashamed of it, and indeed he has no reason to be. The result of the election has not yet made wrong right. William Jennings Bryan is still a living example of the best there is in the human race.

W. E. Reed completely annihilated his opponent, Richard Closson, on the woman question. Mr. Closson went into ecstasies because republicans had passed laws requiring women to sit down at their work. Mr. Reed said, by dad, the democratic plan was to have the ladies do no work at all—in the high tariff, protected sweatshops.

They say Dr. Frank Gamble hushed corn one day last week to pay for a team to drive to a Halloween party, and after getting his load for the trip the team balked, and Frank had to hire another pair of horses that were not up to such tricks. Funny how hard a doctor will work for fun, and how much he gets for his easy work when there is no fun in sight.

Some people know how to treat a fellow when they think a fellow is down, and some others do not. It takes a whole lot more good sense to pass through a beating in an election as a gentleman should, than enjoy a "great victory." Another good thing to put under your lid is not to "holer" too much until the goose is too dead to come back and squawk at you.

Six weeks ago, had the national election been held, Bryan would have undoubtedly made a sweeping victory. The huge bogue man of hard times, coercion of the laboring men and the spending of millions to drive in or buy the voters by the trusts, did the business. This is of small moment now the mischief has been accomplished, but lots of 1908 Taft voters will live to rue it.

The most remarkable thing about the results was the way the saloon element in the First ward voted for the prohibitionists on the ticket, and some anti-saloonites in the Third voted for Shallenger, who was elected by the brewery interests of the state. Say, by dad, these saloon men in Wayne who voted for Randall and Morris, have got a good strong think coming in the near future.

Walt Mason in Emporia Gazette: He has never yet succeeded in providing for his wife; there are things she's always needed, and she'll need them all her life; but you ought to hear him dwelling on the party's sinful deeds, and the country's crying needs! Rags his kids are always wearing, and they're often shy of shoes; is it strange their ma is swearing, is it queer she has the blues? Looks as though he didn't care if they forever have bare shanks, he's so busy with the tariff, and the laws that govern banks!

A Wayne man said the other day "This is the season of the year when every trusting and obedient man of a family is expected to hump himself like a thousand legged worm carrying house plants into the cellar where the tender diocantaneau psyttachinelinis psoddim and the choice bianthus gerielan psottolueuses glasticus will not get their feet frozen. If anything will give a man paralysis of the hind leg it is the care of a lot of sick jimpon weed and billious dog-fennel handicapped by Latin names a yard long."

They tell a great horse story on Frank Powers the drayman. Mr Powers lost a horse last week through over-feeding or fast driving, and had a big hole dug in which to bury the brute. Another dray team hauled the carcass to the tomb, but in some manner the live horses slipped into the hole instead of the dead one. It appears to have been some stock Ed. Ellis traded Mr. Powers, and Ed. intimates that it wouldn't make much difference which animals staid in the hole.

A New York correspondent writes to his paper that high life is what makes bank failures. He says.

"When you can go into a restaurant at 2 o'clock in the morning and behold $6,000 worth of women's gowns at the tables and $3,000 worth of food in process of consumption, something is wrong. And when you observe half a million dollars' worth of automobiles waiting to take this one supper crowd to their homes—or elsewhere—you may be sure that there is queer bookkeeping somewhere."

Yes, and by jinks that's why we dumps out here in the country would like to have these high flyers guarantee our bank deposits.

A good lady friend of the DEMOCRAT advises me to "take the church for it," the M. E. church, where our worthy competitor obligated himself last Sunday. That might be a wise measure and it might be otherwise. The church is the place that should be all sunshine, good fellowship; and charity for all. We'll have to admit a weakness. It is a bright Sabbath morning; you go with your better-half to a place of worship; at the door you meet a deacon whom you honestly believe to be the dirtiest liar and small beat of the city; what are you going to do about it? It takes a powerful good sermon to take the "bad taste" out of your mouth. The "contamination" of that hypocrite's touch seems to stick to you all day. It brings to mind a story I heard John Kate tell the other day. A certain man whom he knew in Wayne for years, and whom he wouldn't even pass the time of day on Wayne's streets, met him in another city after a long absence. He ran up to Mr. Kate and held out his hand, like a long lost brother. "What in Hades was I to do?" asks John. Of course we non-church-goers are all wrong in this presumption; we ought to go to church; we ought to remember our own short-comings; the "streaks" left behind in the path we have followed; but it takes a big, broad-hearted, charitable man to do that. One so good that he doesn't need to go to church. Bixby sings—

I'm glad the campaign fight is fought And we may now essay To turn our melancholy thought From politics away.

I'm sick of seeing "statesmen" reach For place and power, and pie, I'm weary of the blarney speech Kept up since last July.

We've been as patient as the best With elephant and mule, And now the people want the rest More than they want to rule.

For all the fellows who were beat, Those who of votes were shy, Who bravely went down to defeat With heads erect and high;

For those who since the fight was fought Are feeling said and glum, I have today this cheering thought— The worst is yet to come.

That black foreboding is a part Which all who lose must bear; The deep, cold sinking at the heart Is ever present there.

But chiefest cause to sigh and groan, For those who felt the ax, The campaign money that was blown (And that is no small tax)

Can by no process be restored To those who let it go, And these high rates, for clothes and board— Oh, what a world of woe!

Obituary.

Gustaf Alfred Swanson, was born in Linköping Lan, Sweden Sept., 16,
1839, died at his home at Hoskins,
Oct. 28, 1908, aged 69 years, 1 month and 12 days. His father, John Swanson and his mother, Catharine Swanson were natives of the same state. In 1853 they came to America with their family of seven children three sons and four daughters, to Hanover, Henry county, Ill. Gustave Alfred Swanson lived with his parents on the farm. On the 14th of Aug.
1862, he enlisted in Co., H, 112th Ill.
Volunteer Infantry, and served in the army of the west, and participated in all the active battles of his regiment, which were 21 general engagements 60 skirmishes. He was honorably discharged June 20, 1865, served almost three years.

On the 25th of January, 1879, he was married to Miss Caroline C. Larson, daughter of Lewis J. and Mary C.
Larson. To them were born nine children; Joseph E., Luther E., Sophie
C., Alfred N., Amanda C., John P., Lida A., Otta S. and Samuel Edgar.
In 1885 they came to Wakefield, Dixon county, Nebr. The deceased is survived by two brothers, John V.
and Swan, two daughters, Mrs. Frank Sederstrom and Mrs. Amanda Neff, four sons, Luther E., Alfred N., Otto S. and Samuel Edgar. Those of the family who preceded him in death were Lydia A. who died in infancy, Joseph E. in 1897, John P. in 1902, and his wife in 1905.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon, a short service was held at the home by his pastor Rev. C. J.
Ringer, after which the body was taken to Wayne on the 1:30 P. M. train where the funeral service was held at the St. Paul's Lutheran church of which he was a faithful member, after which the remains were laid to rest in the family lot in the Greenwood cemetery. The members of the G. A. R. met the corpse at the train, and marched ahead of the procession to the church, and had charge of the services at the grave.

Hank and His Honk.

Dallas News: Hank Slaughter had the novel experience of an automobile runaway, Thursday, out in Tripp county. He was ten miles from town when his auto got stuck in the mud.
He started it on the slow speed, which is the most powerful on the pull. He put his shoulder to the back of the car and pushed. He released the car from the mud and it started down the road. Everything would have then been all right had not something happened to Hank. When he started to go after the car, he didn't start. In working around in the mud to push the car out he had mired both of his feet, and the car was gaining speed ahead down the trail. Hank finally pulled his feet out of the mud (and stuck 'em in the sand) and ran after the car. He did not overtake the machine until he had run a quarter of a mile.

Men Past Sixty in Danger

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders usually enlargement of prostate glands. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Remedy should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rockport, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old." Raymond's drug store.

for state senator.—Cribner Rustler

Pneumonia Follows a Cold
but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals and strengthens the lungs and prevents pneumonia. Raymond's drug store.

Whatever else may be the result of the Tripp county land lottery, it was surely a beautiful gift for the North western railroad. It is estimated that they have profited something like a million and a half from carrying the land seekers.—Fremont News.

You can cure dyspepsia, indigestion, sour or weak stomach, or in fact any form of stomach trouble if you will take Kodol occasionally just at the times when you need it. Kodol does not have to be taken all the time.
Ordinarily you only take Kodol now and then, because it completely digests
the food without the aid of Kodol.
Then you don't need Kodol any longer.
Try it today on our guarantee. We know what it will do for you. Sold by

A Gay Old Girl

It's an often occurrence that the local management gets a poor attraction at the opera house, but Mr.
Britton feels safe in offering the Reginald Poole, the prince of comedians in the three act screaming musical farce comedy, "A Gay Old Girl," which plays at the Wayne Opera House, Monday, Nov. 9th. This attraction comes in its original entirety from its Metropolitan engagements, and with special scenery, elaborate wardrobe, electrical effects and an excellent company of twenty singers, dancers and comedians, you need have no fear but what you will get your money's worth. And the company manager has guaranteed satisfaction or your money back.

Stimulation Without Irritation

That is the watchword. That is what Foley's Orino Laxative does.
Cleanses and stimulates the bowels without irritation in any form. Raymond's drug store.

Advertising space in the DEMOCRAT is strictly ten cents per inch, and that up to a half page, which is $7; full page $12. Locals 5 cents per line. No reduction from these prices will be allowed, under any circumstances. We would rather lose the cheap-priced advertisements, if only for the purpose of treating all patrons alike. Ten cents per inch for display advertising is about the lowest in the country. The Wakefield Republican, with probably half the circulation the Democrat has, charges and gets 15c per inch, so a Wakefield merchant tells us. Many small sheets of a few hundreds circulation run better than the ten cent rate.

Must we expect more yellow newspapers when we make print paper of corn stalks?

Rev. I. W. Williamson Testifies

Rev. I. W. Williamson, Huntington, W. Va., testifies as follows: "This to certify that I used Foley's Kidney Remedy for nervous exhaustion and kidney trouble, and am free to say that Foley's Kidney Remedy will do all that you claim for it." Raymond's
