Neihardt's "Poetry of the Soul."

World Herald: Here is a partnership in art as well as a nuptial partnership; the wedding of John G. Neihardt of Bancroft and Miss Mona Martinson of New York. He is a man of letters who, in the past three years, has been making a name for himself in the field of prose, fiction and verse. She is a sculptor well known in the east, but still better known abroad. In the spring of 1907 an important work of hers was exhibited in the Paris salon: It was a life picture called "The Maiden."

With Rev. T. J. Mackay officiating, the marriage ceremony was held Sunday afternoon. It was an informal event with no guests present aside from the mother of Mr. Neihardt.

This is the initial visit of the bride to the west. Although she is young in her art she has already had wide recognition. It was of her, some two or three years ago, that F. Edwin Elwell, curator of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, said in an article published in the Arena Magazine, that he considered her the most gifted of the younger generation of women sculptors.

Words of such warm praise are, of course, to be considered an honor, but not to the same degree as is the bare fact that for five years she studied under Rodin, the pre-eminent master of France, whose statue of Balaic is acknowledged by art critics to be one of the most striking pieces of modern sculpture.

As to Mr. Neihardt, his work in the eastern magazines began to attract wide attention some three years ago. His collection of short stories called "The Lonesome Trail" received many congratulatory reviews, both in America and in England, but his lyric sequence, "A Bundle of Myrrh," published a year ago, is the work which has done most to bring his name into prominence.

In an essay on Mr. Neihardt's book of poems, published in Putnam's Monthly last June, Gerald Stanley Lee has the following:

"That first morning when the poems came I did not read them through. I was too happy in the middle of the book, and in the middle of the idea that there could be such a book, not to go out doors on the meadow and think about it, think how there really was such a man, a latent, big contemporary, a possible classic, a man singing as if he were singing three thousand years ago or a thousand years from today. After the first two pages I was to glad merely to take him as poetry. He was 'news' and there was nothing to do but go out doors with him and look at Mount Tom and the sky and the world with him, and think how it made it all over to suppose there was a man like this in it—not under a headstone visited by pilgrims and young ladies, or in a classical dictionary, but walking about this minute, in the town of Bancroft, Neb.

Since then Mr. Neihardt has been placing his verse with the leading periodicals. Last summer, for the Outing Magazine, he went down the Missouri river from the head waters to Sioux City in an open boat. His descriptive articles of that journey are to be a feature of that magazine during the coming year.

A representative piece of prose fiction by Mr. Neihardt appeared over a year ago in "The Smart Set." The tale, a novelette called "The Discarded Fetish," was a character study of unusual strength, which earned much favorable comment from the reviewers, both in the east and in the west.

City Council Doings.

The city dads met in the State bank Monday evening, owing to bad winds cutting off the light in the council chamber. But little business was transacted aside from allowing bills, but these occupied the attention of the aldermen for a long time, there being a mix-up over labor bills of Geo. Griffith and Theodore Mildner. The latter was a "new fireman" for a week, under the supervision of Moler and Griffith, and he threatened to sue the city for some $1250! The city dads finally figured that the cheapest way was to pay all of it. The amounts relieved from the city treasury were:

Ralph Crockett, labor,	$ 3 50
H. S. Ringland, freight,	146 87
Ralph Rundell, supplies,	17 44
C. B. Havens, & Co., coal	144 40
G. W. Griffith, labor,	24 40
H. A. Moler, salary,	100 00
Robert Henley, salary,	50 00
The Valves Sales Co., valves,	4 55
Theodore Mildner, labor,	12 50
F. A. Berry, salary,	76 05
Wayne Tel. Ex.,	2 00
George L. Miner, salary,	60 00
George Heady, labor,	18 00
Felber's Pharmacy,	1 60
John Harrington, lumber,	157 76
Clark Skadden, labor,	1 50
Fred Hendricks, barn rent,	2 00

Mayor Ley had been around part of the business section with a petition for sewerage, and met with good success in getting signers. The work of securing the necessary signatures will be pushed and preparations for work on a system be completed by spring time.

DAN HARRINGTON, the Leading Clothier

Thanksgiving with the home folks, but all returned for their classes on Friday.

Miss Brandt of the Carroll schools visited classes Friday. Miss Patrick of Randolph spent a few hours visiting classes on Saturday morning.

Dr. Lutgen successfully operated on Mr. Pingree Hughes last Saturday, removing his soft palate and some other growths from his throat.

Miss Van Connert went to Tekamah Saturday, returning Monday morning. Misses Anna and Jennie Bellows spent Sunday with friends in Emerson.

Miss Hewins, assisted by some of her advanced students, will give a musical entertainment in the chapel Saturday evening, Dec. 12. A splendid program has been prepared, and the public is invited.

Mr. Leo Pryor of last year's teachers' class, was among our list of visitors last week. Mr. Pryor is principal of the Magnet schools and is popular with both pupils and patrons.

Friday evening the school was invited to witness two basket ball games, one between the first and second teams of boys, and the other between the Stars and Stripes of the girls' teams.

Miss Nellie Trent of Madison spent Thursday and Friday with her sister Avis. Miss Nellie is teaching near Madison and is planning to spend next year with us and complete the Scientific course.

The new term will open Dec. 28 and a large number will enroll at that time. A great many young men from the farms will take up the twelve weeks' agriculture course, while several will enroll in some of the graduating classes.

The social Saturday evening in charge of the Girls' Athletic Club was enjoyed by all present. Since the Athletic Club was in charge it was thought that something along the line of athletics would be appropriate in the way of entertainment, so a "track meet" was the feature of the evening.

Miss Charlotte M. White conducted chapel exercises Saturday morning and gave one of the most instructive talks of the year. Her subject was "Thankfulness." Nearly every one who has ever attended our school knows Miss White, and she is a friend to every Normalite.

Among new students to enroll this week are: Messrs Albert Riessen of Randolph, Wm. Oleson and Lawrence Jacobs of Newman Grove, Harry Springer and Clyde Goodell of Waterbury, Chas. Harris of Emerson, Delbert Carlson of Wakefield, Alex Chicoine of Jefferson, S. D.; Peter Kuhl of Plainview, J. F. Brabec of Leigh, Lessie Yenglin and sister Eva of Spencer, and Miss Mary Scott of Wayne.

That guaranteed good attraction, "A Breezy Time," will be presented at the Wayne Opera House, one night only, Monday, Dec. 7. This show bears an excellent reputation throughout this section of the country, due to previous successful visits here, and as the managers of the company have a greatly enlarged and all new production this season, a pleased and satisfied capacity audience will no doubt be in attendance. A particularly pleasing feature with "A Breezy Time" this year is the "Leisnering Trio of Acrobats," about whose acting nothing but praise has been heard. The cast is headed by Miss Pearl Goding as "Daisy" and Mr. Harry Woolf as "Heiny." All the songs are late hits. The music is of the catchy, whistling variety, the girls are pretty and can sing and dance in an entrancing manner.

..We Make It Easy..

ONE of the most important considerations in selecting your Xmas gifts is to know that you are getting quite the right thing for the person for who you are buying it. We often hear women say, "I just don't know what to get my husband for Xmas," or, "I wish I knew what my Father would appreciate for Xmas." Well now, that is just the line of work in which we are prepared to help you. We have been helping women to select the right kind of Xmas presents for men and boys for nearly thirty years, and we know the needs of men and what they appreciate. Come to us and let us help to select your presents. It matters not whether you want presents for your husband, your father, your grand-father or your brother, or even your sweetheart, we can help you select it, and you will be assured of getting the right thing for the person who you are buying it for. Our store is full of useful Xmas goods, which makes Xmas shopping a pleasure which it should be. In selecting your Xmas gifts for men and boys, see that they are useful articles, as they are always appreciated more by men than bric-a-brac stuff. We can not tell you in this small ad all the useful Christmas goods which we have for your inspection, but we offer a few suggestions which might start you in the right direction.

A Good Suit of Clothes

is not only a desirable present but also a useful and sensible one, and when you consider the make of the suits which we sell, and the prices at which you can buy them, it makes a present that you can easily afford for your Husband or Father.

Make Him Happy

The man who on Xmas morning receives two suits of STALEY wool underwear will certainly be a happy man, for he will then know that his wife has no intention of asking for a divorce, and that she does not want him to die, and your memory will be dear to him for at least two years.

An Overcoat or Fur Coat

you know is just what your Husband has been talking about buying all fall and winter, or it may be that he has had his eye on one of those fine Fur-lined dress overcoats which we have, and what a pleasant surprise it would be to him to receive such a useful present on Xmas morning.

Kill Two Birds With One Stone

The best Xmas present any Mother can make to her Boy is a new suit or overcoat, and very likely the Boy needs them too, so you can fill a want and make an Xmas present at the same time. Or it may be a warm cap or a pair of mittens that he wants, we have them all and they last longer than toys.

Among the Many Useful Things

that any man or boy will be pleased to receive, is a pair of house slippers. Our stock of the same is new and up to date. A fine bath robe, or a lounging robe, fine dress shirts, and the latest styles in neckwear, a pair of silk suspenders, a collar bag, a box of linen handkerchiefs, or a silk reefer muffler, a nice silk umbrella, or a pair of fine dress or street gloves: Space will not permit us mentioning the many other useful articles which we have, but if you will visit this store when doing your Christmas shopping you will be sure of finding presents such as men and boys appreciate, and goods can be exchanged after Christmas.

BY DAD

After all the talk and worry about it, it will be awfully funny to have the tariff revised and never feel it.

Judge Sullivan certainly puts a crimp in Gov. Sheldon's petty politics, by refusing to play second fiddle in the governor's supreme court appointments.

A party of men were discussing the Lundburg-Shuttles family history in the postoffice lobby the other day, as to the whys and wherefores of so much publicity, when Jim Britton butted in with: "What's the difference, all come from Adam, anyway."

"Brother Charlie" heads the list with a contribution of $140,000 to the republican campaign fund. Of course it will never be known who put it up to "Brother Charlie."

When Andy Carnegie talks of reducing the tariff on steel there is a suspicion that it should be spelled differently.

When a certain Fremont editor goes to church, says the News, it is such an unusual occurrence that he always knocks. The Fremont churches must be different from those in Wayne. By dad, I've been "knocking" for a long time, already, but no one opens the door.

The editor of the Fremont News asked a sassiety miss if that town what she expected to find in her stocking on Christmas morning. "My leg, of course," she archly answered. Wayne girls haven't any legs; nothing but limbs, by dad; but they are beauties.

Well, if Bryan moves to Texas he can continue to "carry his home state."

Norfolk News: E. P. Wilson, the Wayne superintendent, was over last week for a conference with Dr. O. R. Meredith relative to the Fourth district of the Christian church. The annual convention will be held in June at Craig.

Here's a chance for some of you Wayne married men, old bald-heads, who are gay:

Dear Madam: I have seen your advertisement in this week's paper. I want a place to work in a small family where there are no young men. I am a good cook and neat and handy and pleasant to go along with, and only 23 years old, going on 24.

Every man thinks I am extra good looking and I have been bothered most to death at nearly every place I have worked by men running after me. I want to get a place away from the village where men won't chase after me.

I worked for two ladies at Canaan and lost my job because their husbands took me out driving nights. If your husband is an old man I can get along with you.—Sioux City Tribune

The most mistaken man in the world is he who thinks he is doing a profitable thing for himself by loafing when his employer is not around to see.—Record-Herald.

"Uncle Joe" sends word that he is in favor of "honest tariff revision." The people are anxiously waiting for "Uncle Joe's" definition of honesty.—Record-Herald.

Or rather a practical demonstration of his honesty, would go farther in removing the horrible suspicion that Joe is the greatest faker of modern times.

The Brooklyn Standard Union editorially states that three children to a family should be the limit; that since we have no wars to decimate the population five children are too many and tend to depreciate the quality of them all. That is all very nice—in theory, but how, please, are we going to manage to not have more than the three? And, again, the DEMOCRAT family at present consists of five and they couldn't be any better if there were only three, or even less. >

The story—shameless tale—of Boni and Kelle is a case of the pot calling the kettle black, or even worse. This country has her Whites and Thaws, but we'll "em off" or put them in the bag-house sooner or later.

Philadelphia society women are having blushes tattooed on their cheeks says the Chicago Record-Herald. Philadelphia must be where the society women wear dresses with a slit up the side.

In some of the states the socialists are complaining that their votes were not counted. In some of the states there were also a lot of votes that were not counted for Bryan.

The season of year is now here when it doesn't make much difference whether the new five dollar gold pieces can be stacked or not.

Reports are again in circulation, to the effect that the south toe of the Gatun dam has sunk. This is about the 'stenth time this dam story has been put in circulation.

No wonder Walt Goldie can rattle the coin, the DEMOCRAT last week advertised over 19 columns of display advertising to say nothing of the paid locals. When he gets a "barrel," we'll have to run Walt for congress.—Randolph Enterprise.

Been trying, by dad, to get that "barrel" for a long time, abernjt. But we can run faster in present condition, and you know, Dan, it would be only "running," any way.

Here's a good one from the Sioux Falls Press: The members of the lumber trust say emphatically before the house committee on ways and means that it is not a trust. That being so, it is of tremendous scientific importance that the lumbermen disclose how rival dealers, supposedly competitors, succeed in quoting identically the same prices at identically the same moment. It is a marvelous psychological performance.

Hobson has thrown another fit and is now protesting against the withdrawal of the battleship fleet from Manila. In his efforts to scare the

Curled Rheumatism.

Nearly everybody is susceptible to a twinge of rheumatism, sciatica, toothache, headache or neuralgia, and it's never safe to be without a good remedy for an emergency of this kind.

No matter what kind of pain you have the beneficial effect of Sloan's Liniment is immediate. You lay it on lightly—no rubbing whatever—and a pleasant warmth is felt at once. The Liniment penetrates right to the bone and quickly stops the pain.

Mr. Chas. J. Budlong of Anthony, R. L., Box 125, writes: "For many years I was a great sufferer from rheumatism. My hips would swell to enormous proportions and my knee joints would pain me in the most excruciating, awful manner imaginable. I used often to have to fall from the bed into a chair and thence to the floor when I wanted to get from my bed. I used only some six or eight bottles of your celebrated Liniment and was cured. I cheerfully recommend its use to all rheumatic sufferers. Refer to me if you please."

A Grand Postal System.

Not long ago the money order clerk at Pampanga, in the Philippines, paid a beautiful young Filipino the amount of her order, but on the margin was written a message which he was asked to read to the young woman. It was this: "I send you 20 pesos and a dozen kisses." Glancing at the shy, dusky maiden, he said: "I have paid you the money, now I suppose you wish the kisses." "Yes," she said. "If my husband has sent me any pesos (kisses $1 each), I want, remember, to be asked the order," was promptly paid. On reaching home the little beauty burst out to a group busy playing Filipino bridge. "What do you say, this American postal system has old Spanish system beaten a mile. Here my husband sent me a dozen kisses along with the money order, and the kind gentleman with the black beard gave me 20!"

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, taken internally, acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the system. Catarrh being a disease of the blood, the proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

WHITE HOUSE "BUD" BEGINS LEADERSHIP

Miss Ethel Roosevelt Sets New Fashion in Theater Dress— Designs Own Gowns.

Washington dispatch: Although Miss Ethel Roosevelt's formal entrance into society has been announced to take place at a White House ball on December 23, this most interesting bud of the year has already "arrived," and is making her presence felt. Miss Roosevelt has very decided convictions on the matter of dress and is making good her title to leader in this as in various other lines. Having passed a great part of the summer with her aunt, Mrs. William S. Cowles, whose experiences in London, New York and Washington have given her an international reputation among social leaders, the White House bud has profited by many of Mrs. Cowles' precepts and is following in the footsteps of her distinguished and clever kinswoman.

The latest evidence of this is Miss Roosevelt's recent appearance at the theater in full dress, a departure from all Washington precedents, and most acceptable to society, which has made up its mind to follow the pace of the president's young daughter. The occasion was a presentation of a new play at the National when Miss Roosevelt appeared with her parents in the presidential box wearing a low-necked gown of light blue satin crepe, made in the prevailing close straight lines, with its upper portion almost entirely of white lace. The latter was employed in a flat rounce across the slight décolletage and also formed the sleeves, which came to the elbow. A huge corsage bouquet of gardenias gave a still further festive touch to the gown, which is uncommonly pretty and becoming.

She wore no gloves and her hands were free of any adornment in the way of rings. Her hair was simply arranged in a coiffure of rather low pompadour.

Miss Roosevelt wears the simplest of tailor gowns when simplicity is in order, but proposes to dress quite accordingly in her position.

Many of the gowns to be worn during her first social season were designed by Miss Ethel, one which is intended for the coming winter is made of soft pale yellow silk; another, designed as a calling costume, is of pale blue velvet, with a long directive collar and a high, shirred, shawl collar. On good authority it is said it will be a white handkerchief linen embroidered in white forget-me-nots.

'LITTLE MOTHER' LOST LIFE GETTING DINNER

15-Year-Old Catherine Newcomb Fatally Burned Cooking for Orphan Flock.

New York—Catherine Newcomb, a child of 15, was burned to death at No. 315 Fulton st., Brooklyn, while preparing dinner for her five brothers and sisters, to whom she had been a "little mother" since the real mother of the family died six years ago.

The father, Thomas N. Newcomb, a carpenter's assistant, took his lunch with him when he went to work in the morning, leaving "Catherine" to get the family meal for the little ones in the humble home in East New York.

The girl's dress caught fire from the gas stove while she was cooking. She tried in vain to beat out the flames, screaming for help. The next oldest girl, Esther, 13, ran in from an adjoining room and succeeded in smothering the fire with her own hands had been severely burned.

The little ones got no dinner in the excitement attendant on the accident and the Bradford Street hospital, where she died that night.

Girl Who Is Clever Golfer

Miss Harriet Curtis

Washington, D. C.—One of the best fields of women golfers that ever competed in a tournament are assembled at the Chevy Chase club to play in the fourth annual women's golf championship of the United States.

The route is of golf yards and is backed by trees and is well bunkered. Owing to the fact that a large gallery was present the first tee was ruffed off to keep the onlookers from encroaching on the players.

Miss Harriet S. Curtis, of the Essex Country club, Manchester, Mass., runner-up in the tournament last year, carried off first honors by winning the medal play by completing the course in 85, which was one ahead of Miss M. W. Phelps of Brookline, and Miss Georgiana Bishop, of Brookline.

NEW "COLLAR BONES."

Women who are annoyed and troubled at the constant work of placing leather bones in wash waists are delighted over a new invention.

The manufacturers borrowed it from the home dressmakers. It has been done before, but it has never been turned out by factories, so that the work is lessened.

The new collar bones are made of a strip of whalebone which is not sewed in, but merely slipped in.

The tape is sewed to the stock and remains in it as long as it lasts. The whalebones are pulled out every time the waist goes to the tub and replaced before it is worn.

Genuine ruby glass owes its color to the presence of particles of gold too small to be seen without the aid of the strongest microscope.

From the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

He was a good little boy and very thoughtful. He had heard about the great severity of water throughout the country. He came to his mother and slipped his hand into hers.

"Mamma," he said, "is it true that in some places little boys and girls have scarcely enough water to drink?"

"That is what the papers say, my dear."

His mother gave him a fond look.

The Tables Turned.

The amenities of political campaigning are amusingly illustrated by a story told by a southern congressman. It appears that during the campaign a certain such delivered some years ago by John Sharp Williams in Mississippi he was interrupted by a sudden yell from a man in the audience.

"I had been rubbed by pickpocket."

"I did not know that there were any pickpockets present," promptly suggested Mr. Williams, in order to get a laugh.

How Could He Know.

It would appear that M. Santos Dumont, the famous aeronaut, had a pretty wit. He was once called as a witness in a case concerning a disputed will, and during his cross-examination he was much puzzled by a very conceited young lawyer. "Now tell me," said the latter, speaking of the deceased testator, "was not Mr. K. in the habit of talking to himself when alone?" "I'm sure I don't know," replied Santos Dumont. "You don't know?" And you have told the court that you were an intimate friend of his. Why don't you know?" "Because," replied the aeronaut, "I was never with him when he was alone."

JUST DOUBLE

320 ACRES Instead of 160 ACRES

As further inducement to settlement of the Wheat Raising Lands in Western Canada, the Canadian Government has increased the area that may be taken by a homesteader to 320 acres—160 free and 160 to be purchased at $2.00 per acre. These lands are in the grain-raising area, where mixed farming is also carried on with unqualified success.

A railway will shortly be built to Hudson Bay, bringing the world's markets a thousand miles nearer these wheat fields, where schools and churches are a prominent climate excellent, and a wide choice of all settlements and local markets good.

"It would take time to assimilate the revelations that are made to the great empires of the North of us unfolded at every turn."—Confidence of a National Editor, who visited Western Canada in August, 1908.

Dolls! DOLLS! Dolls!

SPECIAL DOLL SHOWING

On Friday and Saturday of this week we will have every doll in our stock exhibited, and will make these two days a special Christmas opening. We have a very large and complete line of Dolls, and of every style and make, and we advise the women who want Dolls this year to make their selections early and thereby having the complete stock to select from. You can make your selections and have the same laid away for you till later, if you so wish.

We have Dolls that range in price from 5c to $6.00. Be sure and attend our special Doll showing Friday and Saturday and see what an assortment of Dolls it is possible for one store to have.

China and Cut Glass

Our store should be first on your list of shopping places for China and Cut Glass. This will save you lots of worry, as every foot of space is full of suggestions. Buy your wife that coveted new Dinner Set for Christmas, and she will forgive you any of the shortcomings you may have been guilty of the past year.

We have an array of fancy China and bric-a-brac. And our stock of Cut Glass embraces many beautiful and costly pieces, as well as many of the smaller pieces. Prices range from 75c to $20.00. Our prices on Fancy China and Cut Glass are universally lower than other stores in Wayne.

Our $20.00 Show Doll

which will be displayed in our south window, is the most beautiful Doll we ever saw. It is about the size of the average two-year old child. This Doll will be placed in the window Friday morning at $20.00 (the actual value of the Doll), and the price will be reduced $1.00 each day except Sunday until sold. We want every little girl in town to watch the price on this Doll, as no doubt some little girl will get it at a very low price.

Edison Phonographs

Christmas means more to the children than to any one else. This Christmas will mean more than any that have passed if an Edison Phonograph is among the gifts. It is something that will give them more real wholesome pleasure for the longest time than anything else you could buy.

Bring the children in to hear the Phonograph and let them decide. We have a full line of the instruments, and all the new records which play four minutes. You have been thinking of buying a phonograph all year. Now is the best time of the whole year to buy one.

TOYS — TOYS — TOYS

TOYS TILL YOU CAN'T REST

This being our first year in buying Toys, we evidently did not know when to stop buying. The result is we have Toys enough for the whole town, and in order not to have any of them left after Christmas we have marked them at very low prices. The most common utterance we have heard in our store the past week is, "My, we could never before buy toys in Wayne as cheap as you are selling them."

We have Toys of every conceivable kind. Electrical Toys, Mechanical Toys, Iron Toys, Tin Toys, Wooden Toys, Leather Toys, Plush Toys, Felt Toys and Woolen Toys. We have Toys from every quarter of the globe, and the prices are as low as you can buy them in the department stores in the city.

Do not fail to have our store on your list of shopping places, as when you enter our store your worry will be ended, you will find what you want, and the price will be so you can afford to buy it:

Sioux Falls Press: A Sioux Falls physician states that he has been visited by two young boys who were suffering from hemorrhages of the lungs.

Almost every child knows what it means when blood gushes up through the windpipe. The physician advises the patient to go to Colorado or Mexico and it is just possible that he may come back.

And it was found by this doctor that these two boys had been led into the first stages of tuberculosis of the lungs by the use of cigarettes.

A few weeks ago one of the classes in the Sioux Falls high school went into the country for a hay-rack ride. They had not gone far before two of the boys asked permission to light cigarettes.

The others objected, fearing they would start a fire in the hay in which they were nestled.

"Oh, well, then, we'll get out and walk a while," said one of the boys. "I am so nervous I have got to smoke."

Boys in their teens coughing up blood that should be coursing through rugged lungs!

Boys in the quick growing years talking about nerves, when they should not know such things as nerves were in their bodies!

Thousand of men who feel no ill effects from constant use of cigars or a pipe, would break and collapse under the tenacious cigar habit. The reason of course, is that the smoke of a cigar or a pipe is drawn into the mouth and then exhaled through the mouth or nose. The cigarette being milder, its smoke is inhaled deep down into the lungs, and the nicotine is given direct access to the delicate tissues of the organ of breath.

If boys must indulge in tobacco, let them take it in the form of cigars or through a pipe. If any can stand up under the cigar habit, it is the adult of strong constitution. There is no mawkish sentiment in a crusade against cigarettes if it is rightly presented.

The more irreligious and unsympathetic physician can give any boy reasons enough for avoiding cigarettes, aside from all moral considerations.

Sometimes it doesn't occur to a boy filled with the energy and enthusiasm of expanding muscles, that health is a great deal easier to keep than to recover, and that vitality, once gone, never returns.

Rensell Bell-Enterprise: The Mothers' Child Club in Sioux City has at last discovered that playing marbles makes gamblers. Yes, and playing progressive euchre, whist or other games at home where boys look on makes gamblers of them. Singers makes of boys star actors and girls prima donnas. Parents cannot be too careful. Pure water and constant prayer is what makes pure souls. Kisses and pecks, and to eat potatoes causes an early embonpoint; plumpness of the body. To dance causes heat and warm thoughts. To go to a theatre furthers immorality. Many hypocrites are made in churches. Education is the root of evil. Ladies, we can serve you with experience. We have lived in France, in Germany, in Italy and in other countries and we have found that children should be raised away from Sioux City on pure water and prayers. Down with the marbles.

The Alton, Iowa, Democrat remarks: "The advertising grafters of the Omaha corn show send us an item which says the grand prize is a machine that will husk 1,500 bushels of corn in a 10-hour day and adds that this is as much as three ordinary men can do, and we are wondering where the three Sioux county men are that can husk 1,500 bushels in a day." The Democrat should remember that the corn that will be on exhibition in Omaha will be very large—possibly larger than the gaff of the grafters who are attempting to get free advertising for it.

Carl Seely, former oil inspector and editor of Madison, sends the following story from Seattle: A stranger in Seattle stopped an Irishman on the street and asked him if he could tell him where the hospital was. "Well," says the Irishman, "I am not well acquainted round here, but does yez know where Mike Casey's saloon is?" The stranger said "yes," he had just passed there. "Well, thin," says the Irishman, "You just go up to Casey's saloon, stick yer head in the door and yell 'to hell with the Pope!' and when yez wake up ye will be in the hospital, all right."

Are you on good terms with the coal man? Asks Bixby.

It is generally contended by those who favor the legalized booze business that the sale of intoxicants is increased rather than diminished by prohibitory law. A recent circular sent out by the brewers calls attention to the increase of opium smoking in the state of Maine where people are driven to it by their inability to get beer or whisky to get drunk on.—State Journal.

A college professor says that a century and a half hence there will be no more children. We may expect that shortly after that there will be no damp-ple college professors.

Columbus Telegram: Last Saturday a man in the good city of York was found dead in bed, and the papers reported that death was due to excessive drinking of whiskey, the dead man having been soaked in booze for weeks. I don't understand it. I have been told that York never had a licensed saloon.

The passenger on the Omaha train out of Sioux City the other day witnessed a rather amusing episode. Two nervous, fussy women, traveling alone, one bound for Omaha and the other for Dallas, S. D., were the center of attraction. As the train started the Omaha woman inquired of the other as to her destination. "Dallas," she answered. "Why, you are on the wrong train; this train goes south to Omaha and Dallas is north in Dakota." At this the Dallas woman flew through the cars for the conductor, that official informing her that she was on the right train. Then the Omaha woman got excited and wanted the train stopped so she could get off, as she didn't want to go to Dallas. At this point an old gentleman got into the game by flashing a long ticket in front of the brakeman as the latter entered the car and insisted on knowing whether that train was going north or south. The brakeman then explained to the excited crowd that the train was bound south, for Omaha; but that it would overtake the Norfolk train at Emerson, where passengers for Dallas would have to change cars.

Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 30-Nov. 1

A series of circumstances has influenced me to sell my farm, consequently we must dispose of our Logan Valley herd of Shorthorn Cattle, which will embrace upwards of 100 head, besides some sixty calves, which will be sold with their dams. There will be some fifteen young bulls of serviceable age in this offering, balance beings cows and heifers. Cows are mostly sired by either Baron Gloster 133091 or King Abbotsburn 185254, both pure Scotch bulls, followed by young Contractor 217260 and Queen's Champion 305660, which are also Scotch bulls. Queen's Champion and Councilor, his own brother, are included in this sale. These cows are a useful lot of milking and breeding cows, practical workers, as will be seen by the number of calves. These cattle will be sold directly off pasture, without grain, consequently are thin in flesh and will sell for much less than their real value. This certainly affords a rare opportunity to buy some good and well-bred Shorthorns.

It was at Quimper, in Brittany, that a tourist found an old woman, selling trinkets. What is the price of this? he asked, taking up an antique line of silver and sapphires. "I sold the old woman," "For my sweetheart," "My trinkets," "For my trinkets," "Nonsense," "And the tourist turned angrily away, saying, "I will take it for 10 francs."

Many of us make a great deal about too much ammunition and yet the truth of the matter is that we are literally beating our weapons of war into plowshares and other useful instruments to help the farmer, the soldier and the housewife. The government always uses the best steel in making cannon so that as soon as these weapons are out of date it can sell them to the farmer.

Lady Wilfred Laurier, wife of the premier of Canada, reported in a recent speech to the women of the foundation a number of women had recently gained recognition in the higher institutions of learning in Canada. Among the women mentioned were giving special satisfaction by their work.

One-time hotel rates in England were low. For instance in the days of Queen Elizabeth the charge at the "White Horse" hotel for a night was 1 penny. Dinner cost six pence (12 cents) and offered choice of beef, mutton or pigge or fish.

When the British association paid its visit to South Africa three or four years ago, the eminent seismologist, Professor John Milne and the celebrated Cambridge physicist, Professor Woodshead, took club and ball to the Victoria Falls on the Zambezi river, and there the man of earthquakes established a noble record by being the first to have seen the Victoria Falls, representing a very excellent carry of 100 yards.

The American navy now leads the world in accuracy of shooting. Six years ago it was behind the navy of every first class power. Six years ago the standard for firing heavy turret guns—which are now a battleship's sole means of offense—was that the average of hits on the target now in use would not be once an hour. At present these are the average of one and a half shots a minute; they hit the target once a minute.

Consul General E. St. John Gaffney, of Dresden, states that the production of German picture post cards has recently diminished considerably. The foreign demand is, however, still great. It is estimated that 100,000,000 since the beginning of the year 1917. Compared with the previous year, this shows a diminution of 150,000,000. The United States is said to be Germany's best market for picture post cards. Asia and Australia are also good patrons of this form of art industry.

The Bogoslofs are a group of three small volcanic islands in the southern part of Bering sea, and 37 miles north-west of the island of Alaska. One of these islands, Chaitka Rock, has been known since 1746. The other two are known since 1832, while the third one, Perry Island, rose from the sea about the time of the San Francisco earthquake of 1906. According to a letter to Science this island has now sunk into the sea.

Of the total oil production of the world in 1907, the United States is credited with over 33 per cent. Russia produced 23 1/2 per cent. and all countries combined outside of these about 37 per cent. The total production of the world was 1,240,000,000 barrels in 1907. The production of Russia was 166,995,335 and of United States 418,574,349 barrels.

The Indian population of New York state is as follows, the figures being for the year 1906, the latest obtainable, taken by the several reservations: Allegany, 806; Cayuga, 1,000; Seneca, 1,204; Onondaga, 628; St. Regis, 1,206; Oneida, 1,035; Tuscarora, 384. The total of 5,069 is but four less than was shown by the Indian census of 1892.

The Vanderbilt fortune, once the greatest financial power in the United States, probably reached its greatest moment, to not far from $300,000,000. Of this, William Kissam Vanderbilt, who controls the majority of the family properties, holds in the neighborhood of $100,000,000. He has 15 descendants of the Commodore, whose share among themselves the remaining $200,000,000.

Tea drinking in the German army is to be encouraged in future, on the suggestion of the emperor. In many camps tea has been regularly served for some time. The military authorities state that the serving of tea in camps as well as of coffee on long marches at the field kitchens is considered advisable.

A curious insect has arrived from the South American continent in London. It is a small, black, head gleams a red ruby lamp, and its green lights glow forth from each side of the little creature. These peculiar insects are called "fireflies" and the railway has the largest collection of them in the world.

The number of physicians practicing in Paris is placed at 2,500, but only one-half of these make more than $1,000 a year. Doctors do some very good work, but in some cases this figure is greatly exceeded.

General Interest.

Miss Julia K. Seaverus, of Randolph, will succeed Miss Laura Monfort as teacher in district No. 74.

Next month we will publish a complete list of the certificates in force in this county next month, giving the name of the holder.

On December 16th the teachers of Wayne county will hold their first Central Association meeting. This meeting will be an all-day session and one of the best ones of the year.

Do your pupils eat their noonday lunch at their own desk or do they do so while wandering around the room?

Each pupil should eat at his own desk and be held responsible for its neatness as well as for its freedom from dirt.

In one district the patrons are complaining that the teacher is not strict enough; in another they say that she is too easy; in another they say that she has graded the pupils down too much; and in another she has them doing some advanced work. These complaints make a fellow grit his teeth.--Frank Pilger, in School News.

That is nothing.

In Wayne county the superintendent has had all these complaints from the same district.

When a teacher says that she want to teach a certain branch for the "review" it will afford her, you can safely conclude that such a teacher has but very little of her selfish heart in her work, or she would not be willing to sacrifice, on the altar of selfishness, the best interests of a whole class for the sake of "review." Such a teacher is a menace to society. The Normal School and College is the place for "review."

WAYNE COUNTY TEACHER

Wayne, Nebraska, Nov., 1908

Certificates of Award.

Certificates of Award have been issued to the following persons during the last two months: Ethel Woods, district 52; Myrtle Sundahl, district 13; Elmer Jones, 52; Mae Nellen, 28; Gladys Francis, 52; Lydia Barnhardt, 3; Darwin Jones, 44; Dewey Thomas, 56; Wendell Thomas, 56; Martha Behmer, 9; Emil Reinhardt, 37; Willie Sievers, 2; Leo Farran, 58; Gladys Sweigard, 55; Wayne Porter, 44; Alice Root, 80; Alfred Ulrich, 21; Matte Stanton, 52; Harry Griffith, 52; Loyd Kesterson, 52; Loyd Weible, 28; Marcus Holtgren, 28; Nancy Steele, 69; Ora Husted, 39; Clara Madsen, 27; Minnie Riggert, 41; Dina Nickel, 9; John Leslie, 9; Willie Stuer, 52; Annie Griffith, 52; Louise Rosacker, 52; Cecil LaCroix, 52; David Morris, 36; Reuben Lyons, 68; Iva Laase, 31; Jack Allensworth, 52.

Diplomas of Honor.

Diplomas of Honor have been issued to Miss Myrtle Sundahl of district No. 13, Matte Stanton, District No. 52, and to Elmer Jones of district No. 52. Elmer Jones shows a record that few can boast of, six years of perfect attendance.

That is nothing.

In Wayne county the superintendent has had all these complaints from the same district.

When a teacher says that she want to teach a certain branch for the "review" it will afford her, you can safely conclude that such a teacher has but very little of her selfish heart in her work, or she would not be willing to sacrifice, on the altar of selfishness, the best interests of a whole class for the sake of "review." Such a teacher is a menace to society. The Normal School and College is the place for "review."

There are several ways in which a teacher may win popularity in a community, but there is only one way to win popularity as a teacher, and that is to win it by teaching a little better school than did your predecessor.

It is alright, and essential to be friendly, cordial, etc., but when a teacher undertakes to win her way by her social proclivities she is a failure, no matter how popular she may be in a social way.

"My children are never punished at home and they SHALL NOT be punished at school" is the ultimatum sent to one of our teachers who was about to inflict corporal punishment upon a boy whose home training, as above indicated, would develop traits that might require nothing less than corporal punishment. The boy received the punishment, but how much good did it do when such "rot" is instilled in him at home?

In communities where Sunday night revelries are almost a weekly occurrence, the teachers are certainly working against great odds.

The children of many families come to school, if at all, from ten o'clock until noon, often bearing the signs of the previous night's debauchery in company with parents. Such conditions exist right here in Wayne county and every neighboring county, and it will take more than the present compulsory education farce to overcome it.

In a district where the teacher did not have a single recitation in the afternoon for a period of two weeks before an entertainment, there is little wonder that prejudice exists against "programs."

If you can not have a program without taking time from the work, excepting time for rendering the same, you better not have any. Of course such indulgence will insure the popularity of a teacher among the school children, but it should receive the censure of the community.

We hope to hear of several good, live literary societies being organized during the next few weeks.

Every society that I have known to fail, failed because of the interference of rowdies. A man, respected in the community should be responsible for order, and if an appeal to decency is not sufficient other measures may be resorted to.

The most approved water jar can be purchased of J. W. Epler, in Wayne, which will last for years.

No need of compelling children to drink the filth that will accumulate in an open vessel standing for any length of time in a schoolroom. Using the same precaution adopted by the Shoes Consolidated district there is no reason why the principal cause of much sickness will be removed. The district mentioned secured family drinking cups so that in case a particular family is afflicted in any way the greatest danger of scattering the disease is removed. However, if the "family cups" are not used the jar is certainly a wonderful improvement over the old open pail arrangement.

We wish to apologize to the readers of the Wayne County Teacher for indulging in a controversy with the editors of the Winside Tribune, or rather for following it up after it became a purely personal matter with the Tribune people.

More especially do we owe this apology to those who live in Winside and immediate vicinity and know the circumstances. We again admit our weakness in giving consideration to the disgusting, meaningless, ### personal items that have appeared in that paper. It is purely a case of "getting even," hence hereafter we will allow them all the satisfaction that they can secure from the dirty personalities in which they indulge.

Brother Goldie suggests one of two procedures, the other is leave such things alone, which we will choose, and devote the space to matters more consistent with our work.

Miss Jessie Kissel will succeed Edna Allen in district No. 34.

Are you master of the situation or is the situation the master of you?

Mr. Henry St. John, who teaches in district No. 23 as Miss Sear's successor, will teach the remainder of the year.

Has your school house floor been oiled this year? One seventh of all deaths are caused by consumption, the direct result of breathing into the lungs the germ laden dust particles. The expenditure of very little money for floor oil may go far toward arresting the inroads made on human life by this fatal disease.

Many of our teachers are obliged to spend at least half a day in securing their salary at the close of the month.

It seems as though there ought to be some arrangement making it possible for a teacher to get her order without so much inconvenience. Many directors send the order to the teacher by the pupils on Thursday, so that she may send it to the moderator the same evening and have it returned the following morning.

Teachers and school officers should understand that if this office wishes to endorse the wares of any agent we will give them a written statement to that effect.

While very few would be influenced one way or the other by such an endorsement, there are however a few who can be influenced by such endorsement in the hands of a smooth agent, hence I positively refuse to give such endorsement and if any agent represents to the contrary they misrepresent.

The present compulsory education law is adequate to overcome the tendency of some people to place a higher estimate upon child labor than upon his mental training.

There are too many loop holes. A law compelling every parent to send their children to school until they have completed the eighth grade, or full time until they are 15 years of age, would probably be inductive to more intensive farming and better trained children. We understand that many members who comprise the next legislature will favor a bill for a more stringent compulsory education law.

The Y. M. C. A. organization as being worked out in this district, composed of Cedar, Dixon and Wayne counties, will in all probability prove to be as potent a factor in the building up of the moral, physical and intellectual forces in Nebraska as it has in other states.

The plan of this organization is to reach out its benefits to those who have hitherto been overlooked as well as to strengthen other fields. The district secretary, Mr. Hollaway, has received much en### couragement over the district and it is to be hoped that he will find willing assistants in this county.

In Wayne county a certain school district failed to provide hitching posts for the visitors' horses and as a result County Superintendent Littell was obliged to tie his splendid driving horse to a wire fence.

The usual thing happened. The horse cut her foot badly. We advise Supt. Littell to stay away from school houses where hitching posts are not provided. If the districts cannot afford to put in good posts, the county superintendent cannot afford to risk having his horse crippled or disfigured. In the above case Littell lost what money cannot replace.

—Frank Pilger in School News.

The current impression that the country boy and girl knows more than the town and city boy and girl about the common things about them is a wrong one.

Of course there are exceptions, but as a class the village, town and small city boy and girl have outstripped their neighbors in acquiring a knowledge of common things, notwithstanding their environment. This fact has become so prominent that the United States government has appointed a Commission on the Rural Life, which has, as one of its many objects, the training of the country children to see and enjoy those things about them.

We are in receipt of a pamphlet from the American Book Company, dealing with the question: "Is there a School Book Trust?"

This company has been charged, by some competing companies, as being one of the largest and most powerful trusts outside of the Standard Oil Trust. The American Book Co. has offered pretty strong argument to show that they are not a trust. Whether they are or not they publish some excellent books and sell them at a reasonable figure, hence outside of their competitors it makes very little difference as to the outcome of the controversy.

During the last two months there has been reported to this office 35 cases of tardiness on the part of the teacher and 134 on the part of pupils.

Taking for granted that teachers who did not report on tardiness (of teacher) there are fourteen cases to be added, making a total of 49 tardy teachers. Is it not a wonder that so many pupils earn perfect attendance certificates? Eighteen parents have been reported during this period who are not complying with the compulsory education law. I find upon investigation, that four out of this number are exempt under the provisions of the law. The other fourteen have agreed to comply with the law. Ten of the fourteen were keeping their children out to work, the other four for the reason that they "did not like the teacher," none of whom could give one well established reason why they "did not like the teacher."

Baker-Hickenbotham.

Miss Amelia O. Baker of Wayne, Nebr., and William Hickenbotham of this city were married last evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Sacred Heart parsonage by Rev. Fr. M. J. Dermont in the presence of a few of their immediate relatives and friends. The newly-married couple will commence house-keeping at once in apartments at the Rehfeld flats.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Anna Baker, also of Wayne, Nebr., and the groom by his brother, Walter Hickenbotham of this city. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hickenbotham, C. E. Hickenbotham, Miss Mable Russell of Miller, Walter Hickenbotham, Miss Anna Baker, Miss Anna Laueremann and James Shea.

A little good-natured fun was indulged in at the expense of the newly-wedded couple by adorning the carriage which took them from the parsonage with all sorts of signs and decorations, such as usually tell the public of affairs of such a nature. They were driven at once to the home of the groom's parents on Fourth avenue east, where a bountiful wedding supper was served, following which the young couple were given many useful and beautiful presents.

The wedding was a result of acquaintance which commenced several years ago in Timmons county, N. D., where both young people were living on their claims. They both proved up recently and start in life with a half section of Dakota land for an asset.—Aberdeen American.

Sholes News

Asher Hurlburt and wife visited at the home of Walt Hurlburt on Sunday.

Ed. Teadtke came up from Wayne Saturday to husk corn for Asher Hurlburt. Ed. says he don't mind husking, 125 bushels per day but he hates to unload it.

There was a family reunion of the Closson family at the home of E. W. Closson in Sholes on Thanksgiving. Earnest of Omaha, Richard of Carroll, William of Wareham and their families were present, seventeen in all. Several turkeys, geese and ducks were devoured, and many other good things in proportion.

Quite an interesting entertainment was given last Wednesday evening by the pupils of the Sholes school. The school room was filled to its full capacity and the program was carried out to the letter. We venture the assertion that Sholes has as good as well conducted schools as there are in the county.

Asher Hurlburt claims that it was a mistake about his buying a sorghum mill. It was a saw mill instead, and it was 400 acres of popcorn he intended to plant. He expects to pop the whole crop at home and ship it to various points in the United States and Canada.

Doesn't Like Evans.

The Winslow Tribune is no doubt correct in the following: R. E. Evans is about the lightest legal timber to be found in the state: "We are sorry to notice that R. E. Evans of Dakota City has been resurrected and is being talked of as one of the new supreme judges. This is nearly as bad as running John B. Barnes. Evans' a fourth class lawyer not known outside of his county, was suddenly lifted from obscurity by enemies of Judge Norris, and at the end of his term was beaten so badly that he dropped out of sight, and the only time he has been heard of since was two years ago when he attempted to hurt Judge Graves by a contemptibly dirty and malicious statement. Northern Nebraska blushes now for one supreme judge and the appointment of Evans would be another blot on the judicial ermine."

BY DAD

With severe winter storms, ice and snow in the east; big snows in the west; bad floods, desolation and death in the south, by dad, what's the matter with Nebraska?

That local in another column written by Charley Sellers, ought to get some buyers. Charley looks good to us.

Editor Donovan of the Madison Reporter is to be state game warden, at a salary of $1500 per year. That looks like small "game" for a man of Donovan's intellectual size.

If we are to return to the dust from whence we came, wonder how many women will be found in chicken gizzards on the great judgment day—rib dust makes good chicken food, you know—Fullerton Post.

And nearly all women grab for the gizzard, proving the old saying that they like to "eat each other up."

Some of the "particular ones" who raise their voices in holy horror against the sheath gown make more of a display almost any rainy day: "Stolen sweets are always sweetest," and ankles "unconsciously" displayed are not always neatest.

Chicago complains that $50,000 worth of counterfeit money is in circulation in that city. That isn't bad considering the exciting campaign they had there.

Dr. D. K. Pearson, the Chicago philanthropist, 89 years old, is broke after giving away $4,000,000 and getting in debt to the tune of $450,000. There is still a prospect that Carnegie and Rockefeller may get foolish.

Andy Carnegie has been asked to appear before the tariff commission. I don't know what for, but evidently it isn't to tell what the common people want.

This direttore gown business is getting to be something fierce. A London dispatch says:

"Thus the pretty secrets of the direttore costume have become known. At the bazaar she held at Sutherland house, her town residence, the duchess of Marlborough ran across the marble hall in pursuit of her aunt, Mrs. William Tiffany, and slipped on the polished marble. She kept her feet, but the peplum of her robe flew out to reveal a tight satin petticoat close to her knees with a wide sash of cherry ribbon. The duchess wore a most becoming direttore gown of sapphire velvet covered with gold embroideries and a cherry ribbon arched her slender waist."

Didn't suppose they were getting the thing set up so high that a news paper man could see what was around the waist.

Like many another office holder, Uncle Joe Cannon is "coming to his milk" when he sees the teat slipping away from him.

Good news comes from Kentucky. The night riders, having attained their main object, the success of the tobacco storing system, will quit night riding. It must be as much of a relief to Kentucky as the prospect of the end of Communism is to Iowa.

Mrs. McRaney's Experience.

Mrs. M. McRaney, Prentiss, Miss., writes: "I was confined to my bed for three months with kidney and bladder trouble, and was treated by two physicians but failed to get relief. After taking two bottles I felt like a new person, and feel it my duty to tell suffering women what Foley's Kidney Remedy did for me." Raymond's Drug Store.
