A Savidge Affair.

O'Neill Frontier: After having spent thirty-two years together and raising a family of eight children, Mrs. Anna Savidge filed suit for divorce from her husband, Martin P. Savidge, farmer, stockman and telephone magnate of Deloit. They were married at Columbus, Neb., on January 15, 1877, and have been residents of this county over twenty years. As grounds for divorce Mrs. Savidge alleges extreme cruelty and cites several instances. She alleges that defendant owns 640 acres of Holt county land worth $65 an acre and 200 miles of telephone line in Holt county and adjoining counties, worth $10,000. In addition to the above the petition further alleges that he owns personal property, which aggregates about $10,000, and that he is in debt about $10,000. Plaintiff asks divorce and custody of the two minor children, and as she is without means asks further that she be awarded suit money, counsel fees and such further relief as may be just.

The above family will be "well" remembered by old residents of Wayne, Mr. J. trading his well business here to his brother George, who has done it better. Their martial mischief evidently comes from too much republican prosperity, which has caused lots of people to become mean, selfish and dissatisfied.

Jules Chaon has moved to the Welch farm a mile south-west of town which he leased just a few days previous to Mr. Welch selling it to Clyde Omaha.

Tom Hill returned to Wayne last week, having been detained from going to Missouri by the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Geo. Phifer, in a Sioux City hospital.

Mrs. H. S. Ringland got a bad fall and serious injuries last Saturday by falling off a chair. She was dusting a room in her home and in some manner fell from a chair, making a desperate effort to save herself one hand doubled under when the floor was struck, breaking both bones of the wrist.

Altona news in Wisner Chronicle: John Paulsen moved through here to his new place near Carroll. John is the only one I found on the road claiming the roads were good. There is nothing like keeping in good humor. Phil Sullivan cleaned Altona pretty well out on livestock. He bought W. C. Thies' chickens and hogs and the only horse Chas. Meyer had, and is still trying to get more. A Swede farmer moving up from near Oakland to north of Wayne, got into a tight place near Fergus McGuire's place. A snowdrift had been shoveled through but the good people had not figured on the Swede's hay rack being wider than a wagon box, so he got jammed in and stuck until Mangels pulled him out.

Death of Wm. Thompson.

Wayne people were surprised and shocked last Friday to learn that Bill Thompson was dead at his home south of Wayne. Mr. Thompson had been in town Wednesday, seemingly well and hearty, as he has been all his life time. While going from the house to his barn Thursday forenoon he fell to the ground, without any warning of illness, and although everything possible was done for him he died that evening about eight o'clock. In early life deceased was a sailor; an Englishman by birth and of rugged constitution. While getting some repairs from Geo. Stringer on Wednesday he remarked that he might never need them, but his sons would, showing that he may have had some premonition of early dissolution. He has lived on the farm near Wayne for over twenty-one years, was a man of sterling honesty, a hard worker and a good-natured, well-liked neighbor.

Wm. Thompson, was born in England on June 5th, 1846, died on March 4, 1909, aged 63 years, 8 months and 29 days. On the 24th of March 1873 he was united in marriage to Miss Rebecca Pettet of Littleport, Eng. to this union were born four sons and five daughters. About 34 years ago the deceased with his family came to America, and settled in Illinois; after living there for some time moved to Iowa, where he resided until about 18 years ago when he moved with his family to Wayne, Nebraska, where he continued to live until his death. There remain to mourn his loss a wife, three sons and five daughters. William P.; Levi P.; of Wayne, Neb.; George P. of Carroll, Neb.; and Mrs. A. L. Suhr of Wayne, Neb.; Mrs. E. Doland of Westington, S. D.; Mrs. S. B. Miller of Carroll, Neb.; Pamle and Sarah Thompson of Wayne, Neb.

The funeral service was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the St. Paul's Lutheran church, conducted by Rev. C. J. Ringer, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Greenwood cemetery.

President J. M. Pile Passes Away.

Although expected, by those caring for him, the death of President Pile of the college fell like a pall upon Wayne citizens at eleven o'clock today, one of the saddest of deaths, as future years of usefulness meant much to the community, state and nation. The demise of President Pile is a public calamity; a greater loss to the people at large than to his family and friends.

The funeral will be held at his late residence on College Hill, the place founded by this great educational leader, on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, private. A public memorial service will be held at the chapel same hour; interment being at Greenwood cemetery.

As the DEMOCRAT goes to press today, Thursday, there is little opportunity to speak of the life and works of the deceased. James Madison Pile was born at Hardingburg, Kentucky, Oct. 30, 1858. He moved to southern Indiana in 1877, where he met Prof. Pinkham, president of Earlham college, whose influence led him into educational work. Later he attended the Northern Indiana university where he graduated with honors in 1881. Since his graduation he has been a teacher first in Michigan, coming to Nebraska in 1889. Since that time he has been prominently identified with the educational work of this state. He married a college classmate, Miss Ellen Meek, in 1883. To this union was born two sons and one daughter.

Death of R. J. Armstrong.

R. J. Armstrong, one of the conspicuous, pioneer characters of Wayne, is no more, having passed away last evening at eight o'clock. It had been known for some weeks that there was no hope for Mr. Armstrong's recovery, although everything possible was done to prolong life. Last fall his friends were not aware of his illness until he was taken to Kansas City for surgical assistance, the fatal malady then being discovered. Since that time he has been confined to his home, being down town but once or twice. "Bob" belonged to Wayne a old school of citizens which are fast thinning out. Of rugged constitution and equally brusque integrity, to have him for a friend meant his friendship under all circumstances. Bob was the sort of man who should live to be a hundred, and he will be missed from the ranks as few others could.

Robert J. Armstrong was born in Montreal, Canada, sixty-eight years ago. With his family he came to Wayne in 1884, and for a number of years was in the dry business, and for some fifteen years or more engaged in the coal business. Four sons and one daughter were members of the family, one son being killed in Omaha about twenty years ago. James of Kansas City, and Robert from Gloverville N. Y., arrived last Monday. Mrs. E. A. Forbes of Rhinelander, Wis., arriving last week. The younger son, Harry of Sioux City, has been taking care of his father's business the past winter. The funeral will be held Friday morning, from his late residence, at ten o'clock, Rev. Sharpe conducting the services.

Going to Sell the College.

A telephone message received yesterday from P. P. Kohl stated that the Wayne delegation there to induce the legislature to buy the Wayne college and make it a state institution, would not return to Wayne before Sunday or Monday. A continued forceful effort is being made by the Wayne men to accomplish what all Nebraska people want—except a few jealous hogs like Norfolk—a state normal at Wayne. The DEMOCRAT understands that a very good report was made by the delegates from Lincoln to Wayne. By the first of the next week the matter will no doubt be definitely decided.

KUPPENHEIMER cravenette coats are good to look at too—and they are good to wear, and good in a great many other ways. We show two styles in these coats this season, the "Naval," a "button to neck" model, and the "Watershed '09." Both are beautiful coats and both have that KUPPENHEIMER Label. This label—by the way—is something that you should have in your spring clothes. Once you have it you will always have it. Come in and ask to see these coats. Try them on—and you will see at a glance that they are coats well worthy of the KUPPENHEIMER Label.

Under storm clouds or fair skies, the "Watershed '09" and "Naval Watershed" are equally good form, good style, good protection—and superior quality distinguishes them as it does every other KUPPENHEIMER garment.

In the office of the Outlook Mr. Roosevelt will have two rooms, a stenographer and a private telephone. The stenographer will be kept busy recording names of new members of the Ananias club.

What's the difference between Billy Sunday's graft and Maybray's? Sunday gets 'em crazy over religion, and Maybray found plenty of "Mikes" who loved a horse race or fight. The effects of Sunday's brand of religion would appear to be the most harmful of the two if his suckers have no recourse in the courts.

A Chicago plumber named Lemon has just married a widow who possesses a fortune. This is Lemon aid of the genuine brand. —Commoner.

Or rather Lemon aid from a second-hand squeezer that will greatly "stir" the Lemon.

Of course Mr. Roosevelt's "introductory editorial" was a red-hot roast for the many brands of journalism he has reason to dislike. Roosevelt is a warm proposition but he is going where the climate will be very agreeable for his spectacular abbreviations.

The "Belden" Progress wants Billy Sunday prosecuted for grafting.

Rev. Mr. Sharpe, the Methodist pastor at Wayne, has resigned, in order, the Democrat says, "to go to a dryer climate." The saloon fight in Wayne has apparently been given up.—Norfolk News.

The "Show Girl" was snow-bound at Wayne several days last week. The one with the picture hat and "cartoon" face probably regretted that it wasn't in Norfolk they had been overtaken by the storm where she made a hit with a local "masher." —Norfolk Press.

But if one day in Norfolk cost her $20, three days would have financially busted the whole company.

The Columbus Telegram of last week paid this column an undeserved compliment. It made us think of a lot of silly women carrying flowers to a negro ravisher—they don't recognize the wool-kinks in the wood pile. The DEMOCRAT man shines—like the scissors or Roosevelt's Ananias club; that's all. There is positively no "Ed. Howe" nor "Josh Billings" streak in our make-up; not a tarnal bit. Take back your brace of bouquets, Mr. Howard, or we'll call on "Jessie James" for assistance.

A couple weeks ago a printer who had a hard-luck story of being snow-bound, starved and frozen, called on the DEMOCRAT on Sunday for assistance. He gave the name of "Anderson," honest Swede fellow, and we took him in and he "took us in." We gave the fellow $3 for $1.00 worth of work, so he could ride on the cars, etc. Then, as he had no overcoat we gave him a good coat that cost us $18 only two years ago. After he was gone we "missed" a new 13-in composing stick. Now, if any print shop this side of Hades gave this particular chap two bits for that stick; we want to learn if possible where the whelp is, I will follow him with a monkey wrench to the antipodes if we get half a chance, and will further swear on a stack of bibles that the next tramp printer who looks in at this sanctum will think he's struck—hell at last.

The dispatches announced that Mr. Roosevelt spent his first day as private citizen in a quiet manner. Being a private citizen he will perhaps be a little more careful whom he forces into the Ananias club.

A number of women of Columbus, Ohio, have been circulating a petition addressed to Mrs. William H. Tall, asking that she should not permit the serving of wine at the dinners in the White House. Now is the time for poke-noses to get their work in. Poor deluded mortals. Too bad that some more of them don't have any dogs to fondle.

Well, the DEMOCRAT is glad Shumway is hanged, if he had to be hung. He probably isn't half as bad off as that Sioux City man.

The Sioux City Journal, whose editor has been a member of congress, is telling too many truths about the "ways and means" to suit some of the "upstarts" and their supporters. The Journal sometimes has a happy faculty of puncturing a bubble.—Exchange.

The Sioux City Tribune, the other evening, had a story about a boy shooting at a cat, but hitting a "bride of eighteen years." The DEMOCRAT must insist that the boy's aim was good: he hit the cat.

Society Notes.

It happened at the "shower" that Mrs. Geo. Sherbahn gave last week for Miss Ellen Morgan that was. All the young married women were telling of the many "showers" that each one had been the recipient of. "O! I wish I might have a shower," said Helen McNeal. And because the position of the Star of her nativity was propitious, being in juxtaposition with the planets Jupiter and the Sun, and she sat with her left shoulder towards the moon, with her hands crossed, the left over the right, in a room containing three doors and three windows, her wish came true. It was up at Mrs. Blaine Skeen's Thursday night, where she had been invited for supper, the crowd coming dressed in sheets and pillow-slips, each carrying packages which were showered at their victim. Some of the packages were very large indeed, to contain such dainty little gifts, but after much unwrapping, a dozen pretty handkerchiefs were her reward. A jolly evening followed.

Quite a number of visitors were present Friday afternoon at the high school when a debating contest took place to decide who should go on the team to Oakland. The subject for debate was "Shall we have Postal Savings Banks?" and the debaters were David Meeker, William Sharpe, Herbert Welch, Richard Forbes Ben McEachen and Charles Nicholas. All the boys did so well that the matter of decision was a hard one. The judges who were Charles Beebe, A. R. Davis and Rev. Ringer, decided in favor of the three first named. The date for the joint debate Friday, March 26th.

The young people have sadly missed the band concert all these dreary months and are looking forward with pleasure to the one in the opera house, St. Patrick's night. Mrs. Morris and other vocalists will give selections at the band concert.

The fourteen young ladies and gentlemen who attended the party given by J. M. Strahan report a splendid good time. Dancing was the amusement, Miss Mary Mellor presiding at the piano. The large dining room was cleared for the occasion and this with the other rooms made an ideal place for the dancers. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Strahan and the young folks were all on their best behavior so that they might be asked again. The invited guests were the Misses Marguerite Heckert, Alma Craven, Neva Orr, Goldie Chace, Marjorie Kohl, Eva Mellor, Luella Bush, Messrs Tracy Kohl, Leslie Epler, Harry Gildersleeve, Vernie Marsteller, Pete Lewis, John Bressler, Francis Jones.

There will be a Grand Ball given by the Woodman drill team in the opera house April 14, 1909. Every body invited. By Committee.

Rosy "Rosebud!"

It is purported as a fact that there are those who in this last Rosebud drawing last fall, and who live in this neighborhood contemplate dropping their fling privilege. It is inconceivable to the writer how anyone being in the lucky drawing could possibly form any such conclusion except they have been misinformed or are ignorant of the true facts. I would advise, by all means, that anyone holding 2000 or less to under no circumstances fail to avail themselves of their fling privilege. There's hardly any sacrifice too great to justify one in not doing so. It is a very desirable country; good crops, good water, an abundance of rain. The country in Gregory county is proving up very fast, both country and the towns, and it will be a repetition in Tripp county. To show in what estimate the country is held is partly proven by prosperous farmers coming in from Iowa and Nebraska who last fall bought several farms near Gregory for $60.00 per acre or $9600.00 per quarter, and it is not going to stop at that price, either, but would want you to put this fact in your pipe and smoke it that in less than 25 years hence, it will be selling for $100.00 per acre, or is it because this is not a veritable paradise with its streets paved, with silver and gold that you feel inclined to avail yourself of the great opportunity now held forth.

The north half of Tripp county has on an average a vast scope of as fine country as can be found in the state, and will be just as desirable as the land in Gregory county that is now selling at $40.00 to $60.00 per acre, nice town all ready for business. The writer has been in this country since it was opened up and knows the conditions and circumstances. Do not fail to file and hold to it. Truly, ANDREW ELIASON, Wakefield, Neb

Middle Place Closed.

The middle place, or "My Place," is closed up under an attachment by Chesterman of Sioux City. The account is about a hundred dollars and there is some speculation as to why it was not fixed up and the saloon kept open for business. The DEMOCRAT understands that Chas. Endress, the licensee and manager, left some time ago and his whereabouts are unknown, and that the brewery or other interested parties cannot do anything in the premises without furnishing evidence that they and not Endress are the real owners. Two saloons in Wayne appear to fill the bill just as well, anyway.

Good Dramatic Criticism.

The late Richard Mansfield always felt that he owed more to the wise discernment and staunch support of THE CHICAGO RECORD-HERALD than to any other agency, outside himself that contributed to his ultimate triumph as an actor. Ask any disinterested observer of theatrical matters today who is the best dramatic critic in Chicago, and ten to one he will say James O'Donnell Bennett of THE CHICAGO RECORD-HERALD. Mr. Bennett is unquestionably the leading critic in his domain in the West. He writes with a fearless fairness and a keen appreciation of real merit that makes his articles a genuine force for the betterment of the stage. His knowledge of the history and principles of dramatic art is sufficient to lend depth to his utterances, yet he has the newspaper man's knack of making his work breezy and interesting for the average man and woman. His columns are always newswy as well as reliable in their judgments. Anyone who will follow the dramatic, musical, literary and art departments of THE CHICAGO RECORD-HERALD from season to season need have no fear about keeping abreast of all that is latest and finest in the movement of modern culture.
