GOV. SHALLENBERGER,

who will succeed Elmer Burket in the United States senate, in 1910. If not, why not? THE DEMOCRAT believes that Gov. Shallenberger is the logical and more than probable successor to Burket. The fact that Mr. Bryan has declined to accept the nomination unless forced on him puts the governor directly in the limelight. Edgar Howard of the Columbus Telegram, a better authority on democratic plans for the future, says the party needs Mr. Shallenberger as candidate for governor. Well, there is plenty of timber for this lesser responsibility. For instance what's the matter with Howard? Or, to get "nearer home," Wayne county can furnish a winner for governor in 1910 in the person of Hon. F. H. Kohl.

THE DEMOCRAT is for Shallenberger for United States senator, from the primary to a seat with Cummins, LaFollette, et al.

A Sensational Complaint.

Mortiz Esche, a man 45 years of age who has been about Wayne the past year or so, has at least set some of the natives to guessing—or cussing. In suits instituted last Thursday by Esche, through his attorneys W. W. Young and Geo. A. Eberly of Stanton, N. A. Stodden and Chas. Endres and their bondsmen or sureties are made defendants to the tune of $5000 each, damages alleged to have been sustained by plaintiff by reason of liquors sold by defendants to divers persons. The petition of plaintiff recites that he was staying in rooms in the Wightman building, apartments rented by Sam Davies and John Ringold. That on the night of Feb. 20, 1909, George Minor and Eugene Leahy came to these rooms in an intoxicated condition, accompanied by other parties in like condition, said intoxication being produced by liquors sold by defendants. That four additional cases were sent for from defendants, which made the parties violently intoxicated, and that Minor and Leahy made a vicious assault upon plaintiff; that he was knocked down, kicked in back, head and ribs; was now under a doctor's care, unable to work and a nervous wreck, etc.

This affair was a little jollification in honor of Jas. Leahy's wedding, so the DEMOCRAT understood at the time, there being a large number of invited guests, but "the press" being snubbed. A party present told this paper that they were all having a good time. Esche and Miner got to scuffling and the former went to the mat. About this time, Leahy noticed that Esche had hold of a bottle and he got into the fracas. The DEMOCRAT is also informed that Marshal Miner only attended the function in his official capacity, so he claims, and the fact that the mayor and council took no action in his case would not indicate any serious culpability on his part. Gene Leahy paid a fine of $10 for his interest in the assault.

Two Qualified Liquid Emporiums.

It took the city dads quite awhile Tuesday morning to determine the size of the "wetness" of Wayne for this municipal year. The principal difference of opinion was which two applicants of the three should be given the grand privilege of disbursing fire water and famous Milwaukee—Nulife or Stortz. After the old council had adjourned sine die and the two new members, Albert Jacobs and W. W. Kingsbury, had been sworn in, bonds of city clerk and treasurer were approved, and then the matter of saloon licenses taken up. The application of A. N. Stodden was first read, but before a vote could be taken a member of the council called for a star session to discuss who should be who. The applicants and spectators withdrew from the council room and an agreement soon reached by the council. More stringent regulations were decided upon, that is, all backrooms are to be abolished for drinking purposes, and all "cures" and habitual drunkards given the "dry" signal. Upon calling in the three applicants for license Messrs A. N. Stodden and J. H. Rehder were handed diplomas, and J. C. Jeppsen of Bloomfield, the party who wished to reopen the "middle saloon," turned down. During the discussion there was a good strong sentiment in favor of making the town dry, but the instructions given the board at the last election, in favor of license, could not be ignored. As a matter of fact nearly all the councilmen who fought for the license side of the issue one and two years ago, now have strong "dry" theories. One more year of seeming disregard to conduct the saloons according to state and city laws and regulations will surely wind-up the booze business in Wayne, if it isn't cleaned out without regard to how they are conducted.

The following committees were then appointed by the mayor: Street and alley, Geo. Stringer; Frank Strahan and Albert Jacobs, Finance committee; J. W. Jones, F. L. Neely and Albert Jacobs, Electric Light committee; F. L. Neely, W. W. Kingsbury, J. W. Jones, Water committee; Albert Jacobs, F. L. Neely, W. W. Kingsbury, Claims committee, W. W. Kingsbury and F. L. Neely, sewer committee, Frank E. Strahan, S. W. Jones and Geo. Stringer; City marshal, Geo. Miner; City attorney, F. A. Berry; City physician, W. C. Wightman; City engineer, C. A. Chace; Assistant City engineer, Chas. Craven. Motion made and 2nd that the appointments of the mayor be approved.

Moved and 2nd that F. L. Neely be chairman for council the fiscal year.

New Suits Filed Against Saloon-keepers.

On April 27th Atty Wm. V. Allen and his law partner Mr. Dowling, filed new suits against a number of Wayne saloonmen and ex-saloonmen, in behalf of Mrs. W. F. Nieland, in the sum of $5000 each suit. In a former action a demurrer by the defendants was sustained by the court, in that individual suits should be instituted instead of bunching the defendants together. The indentures for April 27th are Chas. Endres, J. H. Rehder and their bondsmen Chas. Nies, Hermán Milder and bondsmen Carl C. Thompson, Peter Thompson and bondsmen. This will bring the matter up again next term of court.

Two Fire Alarms.

There were two calls to fires last Saturday, the first being about 7:30 a. m. to Dr. Heckert's residence, where a defective pipe set fire to the kitchen. It was put out with little damage resulting, although the whole fire department was out to fight the fire.

In the afternoon another alarm was rung in the fire being at the Frank Gaertner residence, where the kitchen wall became ignited from the range. Considerable damage was done to the walls of the room, the fire creeping up through the partitions before being noticed, and it being a close shave for total cremation of the house.

Married.

On Wednesday, April 28th at 3 o'clock p. m., in the beautiful decorated Evang. Theophilus church, occurred the marriage of Miss Lydia Ulrich to Mr. Otto Fleer, in the presence of a very large circle of relatives and friends. Mr. William Wittler of Laurel acted as groomsmen and Miss Lisette Ulrich as bridesmaid. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Adolph Matzen, a reception took place at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ulrich, southwest of Wayne. The groom is a highly respected, industrious young man and well known in the community.

The young couple will make their home on a farm 5 miles south-west of town and have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for their future happiness.

Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Bartels celebrated their golden wedding at their home near Carroll, May 1, 1909.

Christian Bartels and Miss Anna Schroeder were married at Schulverdingen, Germany, May 1, 1859. They came to America, to Fort Wayne, Ind., in 1882; later, in 1884, to Carroll county, Iowa, and from there to Wayne county, Neb., 1893. Nine children were born to them, seven of whom are living, and were present at the reunion except one daughter living at Westside, Iowa, Mrs. Christian Brockmann. Twenty-eight grand children and one great grandchild, are the descendants.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Bartels are Henry C., Mrs. Margaret Brockman of Westside, Iowa, Mrs. Anna Hofeldt of Coleridge, Fred of Carroll, Mrs. Emma Petters, Carroll, Mrs. Hannah Goeman, Wayne, William of Carroll.

Both these grand old people are in the best of health and greatly enjoyed the festivities of the occasion.

Proclamation by the Mayor.

Knowing that we have the best and cleanest town in the state; which means that Wayne has the best and most enterprising citizens in any town of its size in the state. Therefore, be it resolved that we all go to work at once and clean up the rubbish in the alleys. And it is the wish that we set aside Saturday, May 8, 1909 for the final wind-up of the cleaning. There will be a committee visit on you on above date. So have your alleys and yards in line shape. The whistles may blow and the bells ring to remind you that it means time to clean up.

The Telephone Girl.

The telephone girl sits still in her chair And listens to voices from everywhere;

She hears all the gossips, she hears all the news. She knows who is happy and who has the blues.

She knows all our sorrows, she knows all our joys; She knows every girl who is chasing the boys;

She knows of our troubles; she knows of our strife, She knows every man who talks mean to his wife.

She knows every time we are out with "the boys," She hears of the excuses each fellow employs;

She knows every woman who has a dark past, She knows every man who's inclined to be "fast."

In fact there's a secret beneath each saucy curl Of that quiet, demure, looking telephone girl.

If the telephone girl told all she knows It would turn half our friends into bitterest foes.

She could sow a small wind that would in a gale Engulf us in trouble and land us in jail;

She could let go a story (which, gaining in force) Would cause half our wives to sue for divorce.

She could get all our churches mixed up in a fight, And turn all our days into sorrowing night;

In fact she could keep the whole town in a stew If she'd tell a tenth part of the things that she knew.

Oh, brother, now doesn't it make your head whirl, When you think what you owe the telephone girl?—Western Star.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Jews were out of Wayne, bag gage and all Monday morning. If the DEMOCRAT was a good guesser we would state that these gentlemen didn't take in enough coin in Wayne to pay for livery hire. Such sales as they put on may be profitable in "dead towns" where the business men feel that paying for advertising in a local paper is money thrown away, but in Wayne it's different, and the Sheenie's find the "picking" very thin.

A. A. Wollert has put in a machine for sharpening lawn mowers that does the job cheaply and right. See his "ad" elsewhere.

John W. Evans of Omaha will be in Wayne soon to do piano tuning. All desiring first-class work leave order at Jones Bookstore.

Ed. Ellis and Ed. Merrill were in Sioux City Monday.

Nels Nelson and Bert Hyatt shipped cattle and Dan McManigal hogs to Omaha Monday.

J. M. Cherry went out to Scotts Bluff Tuesday to look at the country.

Miss Florence Welch has taken Mrs. A. E. Littell's place in the public schools.

Joe Baker, now of Presho, S. D., visited parents and old friends in Wayne the past week.

Sam Barley and Jake Welbaum came home from Sholes Monday where they put in a week doing carpenter work for Walter Weber.

For good millet, Cane Rape and alfalfa seed see Voget.

Chas. Wright, the mail carrier, had an exciting experience with Mrs. Connelly, a tenant in Mr. Wright's house, west part of the city last Saturday night.

Mr. Wright ejected the Connelly family and threw their furniture out in the street, so the DEMOCRAT is informed by parties who saw it. Mrs. Connelly filed a complaint against her landlord, but later Saturday night Mr. Wright evidently thought better of the matter and replaced her goods in the house.

Mrs. J. M. Pile and daughter Helen were in Sioux City Tuesday.

Lowie Bros. High Standard Liquid Paint, and the best grade of Varnish at Voget's.

H. S. Welch left Tuesday on a trip to his farm in South Dakota.

C. A. Berry left Tuesday on a visit in Iowa and South Dakota.

Geo. Grunemeyer was in Sioux City Tuesday.

A receiver for the stock of wet goods in the "middle saloon" was in Wayne Monday, and by authority of the federal court transferred the stock to J. C. Jeppsen. The goods and fixtures will be removed elsewhere.

The lowest prices on Lawn Mowers, screen doors, screen-wire, poultry netting, Lawn and Field Fence at Voget's.

Dr. Sibley was up from Sioux City Sunday to see E. A. Littell. Dr. Sibley found the patient in very serious condition, but stated the patient needed the best of nursing, another nurse being secured, and that if he, Mr. Littell, could hold out for another week he would no doubt recover.

Mrs. Geo. Grunemeyer was very ill the first of the week, but is now recovering nicely.

Miss Ella Hurlburt was a Saturday visitor in Wayne from Sholes.

Mayor Friday of Norfolk proposes to handle the saloon business in Norfolk on good business principles or not at all.

The city council was divided on seven or more saloons, and Mayor Friday was emphatic that the council should give every good man a license who had the price; show no preference in the matter whatever. The result is that Norfolk went dry Tuesday morning, the council refusing to repeal an ordinance at present in force that there shall not be more than seven licenses granted.

THE LEADING CLOTHIER

BY DAD

South Sioux City Record: When the daylight saloon law passed by the legislature goes into effect, the Wayne Democrat editor will have to quench his thirst with that "due" from delinquent subscribers.

Nit! Nit! my smart young friend. The Wayne Democrat is a different sort of a newspaper from anything your youthful fancy has yet foreseen. It is only newspapers of the Record class that quench their thirst with "delinquent due."

The Fullerton Post gets it about right when it describes it as the "marriage altar."

We don't keep one in our business, but the following from the Coleridge Blade will be interesting to those who do: Those who are using male animals for public purposes must get a certificate of the correctness of the pedigree from the secretary of the Department of Animal Husbandry at Lincoln and place same where stands are made and if no such certificate can be obtained the animal must be advertised as "grade" in the newspapers and public places or the owner subjects himself to a fine of $100 or jail sentence of 30 days, or both.

The lid is on, when it is on, hereafter in Wayne, and it is "on" 24 hours each day to the old soaks who can't pry it off.

The discerning daily papers have discovered that Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth have taken a cottage by the seashore, will not entertain their friends this summer, but are not exactly sure as to the date of the stork's visit. It might be opportune to remark that the Princess will not entertain company this summer, either, but we are not looking for the stork, at least not that I am aware of.

Harry Fisher played a horrible joke on John Kate last Thursday, that might easily have had a more gusty ending. Harry bought a suit of clothes at the Kate store, having the boys wrap it up in some brown paper, after carefully pulling off all tags. Then he sidled down Main street to where the Jews were holding forth, and luckily ran on to Mr. Kate's store, and though he, Harry, had just come out of the 7-day adventurers from Israel. With a jolly to Kate he asked the latter to step into the chicken factory and see the bargain he had just gotten from the descendants of the cross erecutors. Mr. Kate was of course much pained to find a leading Wayne merchant buying his clothing from these transients, but he went over the suit thoroughly. "They pull off all the tags," he ejaculated. "You never can tell what kind of clothing those fellows sell." Holding it up to the light: "Half cotton, too," he continued, after Harry had explained that he bought the duds for $100 at $4.50. When Mr. Kate entered his own store later on the boys were surprised to have him break the news: "Well, those Jews are doing some business!" They sold Harry Fisher a suit of clothes!" and he looked so mouthish over it that the clerks couldn't keep down the giggles. Surmising that he was "stung," Mr. Kate picked up a package and hustled for home. Harry says, however, that Kate certainly knows clothes if he didn't recognize his own. He bought the suit cheap, a half dollar combination, and that John gave him exactly the information he got from the store.

Editor W. H. Weeks of the Norfolk Press claims to have a beg spread 115 years old that was made by his great-grandmother. That spread must have been made when it was a crime for a man to kiss his wife on Sunday.

or for the kids to talk above a whisper, but the law-makers of those days never figured that 115 years later on in the mad whirl of civilization the statutes of this great and wonderful country of ours would require the bed covers to be nine feet long.

The board of general appraisers in New York has made a solemn ruling that "cradles are not furniture." Yesterday I noticed a newly married man taking bed springs and mattress and a baby cab from a Wayne furniture store. Was the cab "furniture?"

Do not raise a row,

Several Sioux City milk dealers have been arrested for putting water in their milk. Wonder what would happen if some of the milk sold in Wayne should be inspected, as it should be? It would be hard sometimes to discover which was being spoiled—good water or good milk. Now that the city council is in the reforming business, let's have the milk reformed.

We don't know just what time they put on their new hats over there, but if poor old Abdul Hamid has to buy the latest creations for all of his wives at this time his cup of woe is certainly full to overflowing.

When a fellow is down there is nothing like everybody "taking a shot at him." That has certainly been the experience of Herman Mildner in Wayne the past few years. The fact that Mildner had all the money he has invested in Wayne in brick buildings and a neat, clean residence; that in all the years he has been in Wayne he never got drunk nor disgraced himself—any more than an anti-saloonteer believes it is a disgrace to be in the saloon business; that he has never been a tax dodger, a bearer of scandal or evil against his neighbor; that he has always been "first on the list" for a boost for any enterprise; all this until the anti-saloon league got after him and made him the scape-goat for about all of the evils the saloons in Wayne. Gave him all the penalties for running an illegal saloon without any conviction in a court of justice. Perhaps some readers of this paper may say the DEMOCRAT is always in the wrong in standing by a friend if that friend be in the saloon business, and perhaps the DEMOCRAT is wrong, but although we do not owe Mr. Mildner anything aside from what our faulty judgment, as you may term it, dictates, the DEMOCRAT, in this little item speaks of what it knows to be absolute facts and from a personal acquaintance of conditions as they have existed. The terms dictated by Mr. Mildner Tuesday morning that we must not allow Herman Mildner to go behind the bar of the Rehder saloon if the latter took out license, was a wrong deduction, and a more than arbitrary one, over which the city council has absolutely no rights. If this saloon license should not by right be granted to Rehder with the option of hiring Mildner or the Mildners, it is entirely wrong that it be granted at all. Mere suspicion of the actions of saloon men, if followed out, would land them all in the penitentiary. It is the writer's very best and conservative judgment that if put to the actual test Herman Mildner's honesty, reliability as to his word in a business transaction or any other obligation, is just as good as any other citizen in Wayne. As we said in the beginning, when a fellow gets kicked by one jackass he can look for the whole herd to follow suit.

Judge Smith McPherson says he will "lose no sleep" over Representative Murphy's resolution to have him investigated. It has also been quite apparent that the railroads, corporations and million dollar thieves "lose no sleep" when brought before Judge McPherson.

We always knew that Norfolk was hoggish," wanted the whole earth and a high-board fence around it, but it remained for the News to discover that the Norfolkites are also tight-wads, as follows: "When a Norfolk woman put a half dollar in the collection plate at a certain prominent local church the other day, the man passing the plate said, "thank you."

Last Sunday was a quiet day for Teddy the Terror. Wishing to spend a quiet Sabbath he and the Kermit stole away from camp and did their hunting before breakfast, bagging eight lions, four tigers, three wildbeests and six woodticks. The beasts were all of normal size. There was much surprise in the camp when Teddy and Kermit came marching in with their game. When it was spread out the 200 or more native followers joined in a war dance and fell upon their knees and kissed Teddy's feet. They had never seen anything like it before, Teddy was well satisfied with his mornings hunt, especially so on account of the fact that he and Kermit had taken only two cartridges apiece with them when they started out.

Jas. C. Dahlman certainly made a great win of it in Omaha, going into the "dry" wards and getting a bigger vote than three years ago. Even the Bee's story that Dahlman was a Mubray "Mike" had no effect on the Omahogs' voting propensities for a wide-open town.

Norfolk must be in terrible distress these warm days with no foaming lager to quench her chronic thirst.

The city council at O'Neill decreed that the drugstores should pay the same license for permits as the saloons paid for license. The drug stores didn't want any.

A City Beautiful.

The school essays on "How to Make Wayne Beautiful" are nearly all completed. Six committees of five ladies each have been appointed to read and judge them. Fifty per cent will be allowed for subject matter, thirty for English and twenty for writing. The papers bear no names, they are simply numbered. The prizes will be displayed in a window in Harrington's Clothing store on Saturday, May 8.

Much interest has been aroused in this most important subject, and we hope that some of these papers may be printed. One splendid result of this work will be that it will bring us all in closer touch with the actual work done in our schools.

Terrible Dust Storm.

The wind certainly blew a few last night, it being one continuous, 60 or 80 mile an hour gale from dusk to daylight. Everything was dust this morning, most of South Dakota except the rocks landing in Nebraska. Conductor Adair says the coaches this morning, at Norfolk Junction, had to be dug out of the sand before starting on the run. Adair also stated that a dispatch from Plainview was to the effect that that town had burned down completely.

Don't forget that Saturday the 8th, is cleaning up day in Wayne. Each person is expected to help look after his own block, in a way, so that if your neighbors are not at work give them a gentle reminder. See that your block is clean. The ladies had expected to have the band play during the evening but on account of it being Saturday it was impossible, however they will play tonight which will be just as much enjoyed. At four o'clock the Queen of the Fairies and her attendants will be out in their flower laden chariot to inspect the streets and alleys, so see that everything is in readiness at that time.

DR. GAMBLE, OSTEOPATH—Rheumatism and Chronic diseases a specialty.

The recent decision of Judge Welch in the Perry vs. Clark tiling case has put a number of Wayne county farmers guessing where they will beat in the future on the tiling proposition. If the supreme court sustains Judge Welch in this trial it will establish a new precedent in the matter of draining water off one farm to the detriment of the farm below it. For instance take several miles of a sloping valley; the upper farm is tiled and flows a constant stream on the second, the second farm is tiled and runs a bigger flow of water over the third. This makes it very wet at the lower end of the valley, but how is the owner thereof going to determine how large tiling he must put in, and if no artificial ditch is made to drain off the entire flow isn't his land more likely to be made a worthless swamp? The supreme court decision on the question will be a valuable asset to all farmers in the state who contemplate tiling their farm.

Mr. Harold Geisse of San Antonio, Texas, left for home this week after a pleasant visit at the Theobald home.

Miss Florence Welch taught at the Ward school during the absence of Miss Buschman, who was called away on account of the death of an aunt.

The Harmony Guild of the Presbyterian church, after a 6 months study of the Moslem World, indulged in a social meeting at the home of Mrs. William Gildersleeve. At 5:30 the porch of W. O. Gamble was besprinkled with a bevy of beautiful young ladies with their well-filled baskets, and when the carriages arrived great pains were taken to see that none of these were left behind. On arriving at the house, the guests were charmed to find it so beautifully decorated with festoons of crepe paper from each chandelier to the corners of the room.

At 7:00 o'clock all sat down to an elaborate three-course dinner, which consisted of pressed chicken, cream potatoes, cold ham, jelly rolls, potato chips, olives, pickles, salad, nuts, lemonade, orange ice, coffee, chocolate cake and angel food, fit for the gods, even if the center did drop out. It was hard for the judges to decide which one did the most justice to the repast, although the race was exceedingly close between Mrs. M. and Miss N. The rest of the evening was very delightfully spent in singing and piano selections by different members.

At half past nine, all bade adieu to Mr. and Mrs. Gildersleeve, thanking them for their hearty hospitality and for all they had done toward making the meeting of the evening so enjoyable for the young ladies of the chapter.

Teacher Refused to "Board Around" Special to the Tribune.

Lincoln, Neb., May 5.—Because Edward E. Young, a wealthy farmer south of the city, didn't like the teacher of the district school and remarked that she was crazy, an unmerciful liar and unfit to instruct the young, he is the defendant in a suit for $12,000 damages, prosecuted by Miss Jennie Fitzgerald, the teacher.

Miss Fitzgerald got into trouble because she refused to board around as had been the practice, and there was a rumour that started about this and ended in the Young faction on the board having her dropped before her year was out. She sought to join them, but failed. Afterwards she sued and recovered salary for the term for which she was hired. Now she says Mr. Young must prove what he said or pay her damages, since she has been 17 years a teacher and her reputation has been damaged and her school lost because of his remark.—Sioux City Tribune.

C. B. Thompson went to Chicago Saturday with a car load of horses.

Aug. Deck, the victim of the Hoskins fracas, was in town last Friday to see his physician, Dr. Naffziger.

Mr. Deck is getting over his injuries slowly, so he reports. As one of the earliest homesteaders of western Wayne county, a man of unimpeachable veracity, a heavy taxpayer and of high-standing in his community, he takes this trouble of his later years to heart very seriously.

Before you buy a gasoline stove see the Columbia Vapor Stove at Yoget.

Mrs. Frank Cooper of Carroll was a passenger to Omaha last Friday to visit her brother, Louis Evans, who is in a hospital in that city.

Aug. Loburg, Asher Hurlburt, Jos. Dobbin and Aug. Deck were visitors from the western part of the county Friday.

All kinds of hard and soft coal at the Anchor Grain Co's. elevator.

C. A. Berry was in Emerson Saturday.

Pender Times. Jack Liveringhouse, a lineman on the local telephone exchange, was quite badly injured this week by having a telephone pole fall with him. Liveringhouse was on the cross arm of the pole loosening some wires preparatory to replacing the pole with a new one. The ground had been taken away from around the pole. W. P. Jones, who was working with him and who held a rope attached to the pole was ordered by Liveringhouse to try the same to see if it would move. The result was that the pole fell with Liveringhouse strapped to it. He is able to be around but has not worked any since the accident.

Pat Coleman is now able to sit up on a chair, is learning how to walk, and will soon be able to demonstrate to his many friends that breaking a thigh bone won't keep a good man down and off the street—not forever.

Optician Vail is the busiest man in northeast Nebraska. His skill as an oculist and his success in fitting glasses has given him a large business.

Ganderbone's May Forecasts.

The shades of night were falling fast as through the Afrio jungle passed A wounded lion badly hit And followed by a crowd, to-wit:

- One ex-President,
- Four trackers,
- Two gun bearers,
- One water boy,
- Three photographers,
- Two stenographers,
- One taxidermist,
- Two skimmers,
- One ammunition wagon,
- And 400 bushbeaters.

At length the lion reached his lair, Backed into it in deep despair, And vowed so long as life was his To fight, though sorely wounded, viz:

- One leg shattered
- Two knife slashes on back,
- Four ribs hicked in,
- One dum-dum bullet in head,
- Two steel-nosed bullets in body,
- One ear blown off,
- And bitten through the wind-pipe.

The shouting and the tumult grew, The angry bullets spat and flew, And when the king of beasts was not The following fireworks were shot:

- Six skyrockets,
- Two flowerpots,
- One spinwheel,
- Four Roman candles
- Three Booker Washington chasers,
- Two medium-sized bombs,
- And one son-of-a-gun.

May gets its name from Maia, who was the mother of Mercury, the Roman god of prosperity. If business is going to improve at all, it will do so under this favorable sign, for May was named for and dedicated to gain, and during its thirty-one days business has usually been good and money comparatively abundant.

In addition to mercury's temple in Rome, an altar was raised to him over a well near the Porta Capena, and here the merchants repaired on the festival of the god (May 25) to sprinkle their goods with tie waters of the well, that they might be purified and yield a big profit. This was the origin of watering stocks, and even to this time the 25th of May is a holiday in Wall street and the New Jersey Legislature.

Wake me early, mother darling, at the breaking of the day, for I'm to be queen of the May, mother, I'm to be queen of the May. I have the bonnet mother—it's the strangest ever seen and you bet your bottom dollar it's the bonnet makes the queen. It has the seeming, mother, of a cool-hood upside down, with the spout projecting backwards from the flower-covered crown, while the circling ball upon it passes underneath my chin—wake me early! I am crazy for the voting to begin.

The meadowlark will warble, and the apple tree will bloom, the frog will woo his true love with his melancholy boom, the barefoot boy will issue his spring challenge to the tack, the lamb will frisk and gambol like a jack-knife in the back, the playful winds will frolic in the fields of waving green, and the terrible mosquito press his face against strain.

Come out into the garden, Maude, the vines begin to run, and the seed our Congressman sent out are sprouting every one. The zumbo and the oyster plant are seven inches high, and the mint (I wonder does he know the state has voted dry? A Congressman in Washington can keep himself so wet that even if his state is dry, he's likely to forget.) However that may be, the squash was never looking fatter, and the first fruit of his seven terms is threatening the platter.

The news from Washington will be

What it has always been

Since Roosevelt stepped down and out

And Taft was ushered in.

The capital will rise at 8,

Retire again at 10,

Get up for lunch at noon and go

To bed at 1 again,

Arise at 5, stay up till 8,

And finally retire,

And there will not be a dog-gone thing

To put upon the wire.

The correspondents who were wont to listen at the cracks will sit around the White House steps engaged at playing jacks. The President will ride upon his bucking rocky horse, the gun men will turn up their toes and perish of remorse, the tariff argument will drone its weary way along, the strong will battle with the weak, and right will wrestle wrong, the vested interests will howl, the planter will protest, the miner will exhort for the law to succor the oppressed, the women will combat the tax upon a Paris hat, and about the time we settle it we won't know we're at.

Until the 20th May will be under the zodiacal sign of Taurus the Bull. Mr. Roosevelt will by this time have reached the Albertine Basin, and the influence of Taurus will cause him to do a good deal of roaring. The lions and other fairly good roarers will compete with him a while, but after they have heard him roar two or three times they will bust up a good deal of brush getting on the other side of the Congo.

People born under Taurus have very intricate minds and they understand the tariff debate. They are unerring in love, and generally marry their affinities at the outset. There is a natural attraction between persons born under opposite signs of the zodiac, and a Taurus man usually marries a Scorpio woman, or that is, being born in May, he marries a woman born in October. This is said to be a natural match, or one in which the chance of divorce is reduced to the minimum.

The password for May will be Lions and the storm center for this month will be Uganda. The first shipment of skins will arrive about the 28th, and anybody wishing one can have it by subscribing to Scribner's Magazine and The Outlook.

And then the month of June will come With all its newlyweds, And ever westbound ship will bring A lot of skins and heads.
