Nebraska Normal Commencement.

The eightieth annual Commencement of the Nebraska Normal College closed Friday evening with the banquet of the Alumni Association. The program during the week were all of a high order and all who attended were well pleased with them.

Commencement week was opened Friday evening, July 30, by the department of Education under the direction of Margaret A. Carroll. The play "Uncle Rub" was given by members of this department at the opera house. On account of the inclement state of the weather many were kept away from the performance. A good crowd, however, enjoyed every moment of the evening's entertainment.

On Saturday evening at the College Chapel was held the annual contest between the Philomathean and Crescent Literary societies. The individual winners for the evening were as follows: Elenora C. Borg (C) received the $10.00 prize for the best essay. W. E. Williams (C) was awarded first place in the recitation contest, by the judges. Miss von Brantitsch (C) received the highest mark in the oration, while Mr. Nordgren (P) received the prize for the best debate. By a narrow margin, the Philos won the contest.

On Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. W. Kipppatrick delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating classes. His remarks were full of interest and good advice to all. Rev. Osborne and Rev. Ringer assisted with the services of the afternoon.

The Y. W. C. A., Y. M. C. A. and Catholic Club held their union meeting in the Chapel at 8 o'clock in the evening. Miss Mahood spoke for the Y. W. C. A., Dan T. Burgess for the Y. M. C. A. and Julia Power represented the Catholic Club. The work of all three associations has been very strong during this school year.

Monday evening found a large audience in the Chapel to hear the "Ticker Prize Oration Contest." This program was most interesting. After the six young people had spoken, the judges retired to make their decision. The prize of $20.00 was given to Joseph A. Chicoine, who had for his subject, "Duties to our Republic."

The "Mines Recitation Contest" drew a large crowd to the Chapel on Tuesday evening. Many remarked that it was the best of its kind that they had been privileged to hear. After the program of eight numbers had been given, the judges announced that Miss Frances Bartels was entitled to the medal given by Mr. Mines. Miss Bartels read "Molly and Jimmy Baker."

One of the most interesting programs of the week was that given Wednesday evening in the Chapel when the "Crucial Debate Contest" was presented to the graduates and the prizes awarded as follows: "The Most Substantial Improvement"—Grace Soderberg. The Best Oration—Joseph A. Chicoine. The Best Debate—Orva Stine. First Rank in Scientific Class—Amy G. Mahood. First Rank in Teachers' Class—Chas. R. Chinn. First Rank in State Certificate Class—Ernest G. Anderson. The Best Recitation—Frances Bartels. First Rank in Commercial Department—Willard Losey.

The Honor Roll—Ernest G. Anderson. During the evening, the different classes entertained the audience with their class songs and yells.

On Friday morning at nine o'clock, the members of the Alumni Association and this year's classes met in the Chapel when the program for Alumni Day was begun. Speeches were given by members of all the classes from the first class in 1889 to the present class. Different members of the faculty were also called upon for brief remarks. At the conclusion of the program, all repaired to the campus where Mrs. Pile had an excellent luncheon awaiting all.

In the evening, at six o'clock, the banquet hall was thrown open for the annual Alumni Banquet. The gymnasium was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the tables were resplendent in all that goes to make up a well appointed banquet. After justice had been done the five course dinner, chairs were pushed back so that all might thoroughly enjoy the toasts to follow. Toasts were responded to by different members of the Association and also Dept. State Supt. Peck and E. O. Garrett made short talks. The evening's program and the year's Commencement as well closed with all rising and singing the College song.

Of Interest to Kindergarten Patrons

An interesting letter recently received from Miss Manning by a Wayne friend states that she has been for some weeks attending the Chicago Kindergarten College. This excellent college has filled many prominent city positions throughout the United States, also in Japan and other foreign countries. Miss Manning writes: "Let me assure you at once that I am more than satisfied with my selection of a school. I am getting a true psychological basis for the work, and can now understand why this college has furnished teachers for prominent city positions."

"My daily morning work consists of observation and practice in a kindergarten conducted for day nursery children. I come in contact with the poorer class of city children, and have an admirable opportunity for seeing what great good may come to such little ones through this first step in education. Froebel certainly was a wonderful, wonderful man. I am fully convinced that if mothers knew the underlying thought of the kindergarten as taught by Froebel, there would be no hesitancy in committing their children to its broadening influence. Kindergarten principles should be applied to all stages of education, so broad are they in their scope. I am so glad for my summer's experience. I shall carry away an inspiration which will be lasting, and so helpful in any walk of life."

There is no doubt of the fact that the mothers of Wayne who have children eligible to the kindergarten are fully anticipating the opportunity which this department will afford, and keenly appreciate the scope of the benefits to be derived from its broad and comprehensive training. In St. Louis where for many years the kindergarten has formed an integral part of the public school system, pupils are received into this department at the age of six years. While it is doubtless true that an earlier and more plastic age is more to be desired, yet there is one important fact to be considered, and which in the future will demand our most thoughtful attention—which is indeed holding the thought of thinking educators everywhere. We hurry our little ones into school, and hurry them from grade to grade for fear they miss promotion, and if they do not later weary of school—if their little bodies do not become weakened and their little brains overtaxed, it is a matter for congratulation. Let the little ones have a natural and easy development—there is plenty of time. Let their little bodies develop and their minds gradually unfold just as God meant they should do. Every element which enters into the kindergarten plan has its educative value, and is an essential part of the splendid foundation upon which is to be reared in after years the beautiful and complete structure.

Indians are Ball Players

Wayne, reinforced by a pitcher from Sioux City, failed to land the goods for the locals last Thursday, but then at that he couldn't win the game without better team work against the red men. Up to the 7th inning it was 4 to 4, but at this critical point the Indians woke up and with the assistance of costly errors on part of the locals, whipped six men over the plate, the finish being 10 to 4. Umpire Harry Fisher certainly did his share to win the game for the locals, but as one fan remarked, "an umpire can't do all of it." The Indians gracefully gave up every contested point and easily had plenty of admirers among the Wayne audience. Captain Witter's men played a extra ordinary good game but they are not in the same class as the Walthill boys. The fielding of Ray Reynolds—and Ray did some hitting also—was first class, and Johnny Ahern carried off the honors as a shortstop, and will be a leaguer some day if he wants to be.

Revision 33 1-3 Upwards, By Dad!

Herman Henney of the German store showed the DEMOCRAT man a letter he received this week from a large wholesaler announcing a raise of thirty-three and one-third per cent. on all hosiery, because of the recent revision of the tariff—upwards, by dad! Perhaps some of you republicans are still laboring under the delusion that a special session of congress was called to revise the tariff downwards; fact there was a little talk of that sort of thing last summer, and some people were foolish enough to believe that the beneficiaries of a high tariff were actually going to cut off their own income. Candidate Taft was the greatest of all these beneficiaries, and we common, cheap dupes won't know how much tariff dope we have taken until we get the figures for it, and you may rest assured that the deal was a profitable one. We will now begin to reimburse the gentlemen who paid for the republican campaign last year and it's going to take our socks for a starter. Here's hoping they will get what's in some of them.

We notice that one of our old Winside boys is to be at the Cedar county institute that will convene at Hartington, Aug. 23 as per the following announcement: "Robert I. Elliott has been for the past year at the head of the school at Chadron and this summer is superintendent of the junior normal at Broken Bow. He will instruct in grammar, geography and school management for beginners.—Winside Tribune.

Four Carloads of Pianos for San Francisco Stopped at Omaha, Nebraska, and Sacrifice Sale Ordered.

One of the leading piano manufacturers of Chicago having shipped four carloads of high grade pianos billed for San Francisco, and after having shipped them received a telegram from their retail store at San Francisco that owing to the flooded condition of all railroads leading into the city it would be absolutely impossible for the road having the pianos in charge to land them in San Francisco inside of the next three weeks, and even then they would have to be subject to an unavoidable amount of dampness, which in all probability would ruin every piano in the shipment, and request that the factory delay the shipment of these pianos until further orders. It being too late to do this, and the pianos had already started, they were ordered stopped at Omaha, and we were wired to take charge of the shipment and sell them all, even at a sacrifice.

The unloading of these pianos on us without any notice, and our ware-rooms already crowded, makes it necessary that we sell off this shipment of pianos as rapidly as possible in order to make room to display our own stock of goods of our fall trade.

Every piano a strictly high grade instrument, not a commercial piano in the entire lot. The cases and veneers are the most beautiful ever shown, making a display of piano beauty such as has never been seen west of Chicago.

REMEMBER

These are all specially built sample pianos, and consequently are far above the ordinary pianos of the same make. With every piano we give Every piano guaranteed a life time by both the manufacturer and ourselves. We ship pianos everywhere. If not as represented don't take them. They are many times finer than any description we could give. If you ever expect to buy a piano embrace this opportunity. It is the greatest offer of the kind ever made, and this time only by force of circumstances.

Notice—We will publicly publish any dealer who attempts to buy any of these pianos for speculation.

The lazy bug has come around.— You can see that he's got me; I feel about as lazy as the bug now seems to be.

Less than six weeks more of summer. And shortly after that you will be making up your mind that never more will you growl about hot weather.

Will the 9,776,000 words used in the tariff debate cost the ultimate consumer a dollar a word? Probably.

And still there are people who contend that it is going to be hotter here after. Get used to it.

This whole tariff business is just a joke. Don't pay any attention to it. Most of you don't know a d—n thing about it, anyway, so what's the use of worrying.

An Oklahoma postmaster explained to the department a trifling delay in the mail as having been occasioned by the carelessness of a citizen who had shot another citizen in the postoffice and mused up the place. Beats all how careless some people get. He should have shot him in the R. F. D.

Sioux City Tribune: Abraham Lincoln's description of our national government of one of the people by the people and for the people, may have been accurate in his day. Now it is inapt. It is a government of the people by senators representing less than one-tenth of the people, controlled by five of the nine justices of the supreme court, for the benefit of one person out of each 100,000 of the people.

Gus Hansen says this paper was misinformed on the Linseng-Way trial over a kit of tools. There was no evidence to prove the tools in controversy belonged to Dr. Leisenring, nor that Mr. Way had been told they belonged to the doctor. It's a very difficult affair to mention in print—because both

It was hot in Beverly yesterday and Mr. Taft spent a lazy day. He went to church only once, then sat on the porch and read. We rather expected he would run a few foot races, beat a few high-jumping records and learn a few new clog steps on the front porch. It is pleasing to learn that he spent the Sabbath in a proper manner.

The mayor of Kenosha, Wis., is stirring up a pot of trouble because he believes the female bathers are wearing skirts too short. The old boy should go to Crystal lake where they wear them short enough to suit any prohibitionist. Durn'd if I can remember whether they wore any skirts at all or not; seems to me that all I saw was legs, and I was too much interested in wondering how they looked when they were calves to ever notice where they wear skirts.

Thaw's lawyer was melted to tears when he made his plea. He knew it was his last chance at the money.

Things are getting dull in Washington and Tama Jim Wilson has come in for another retirement from the official family. Jim is about the only fellow who can eat his cake and still have it.

Talking about harvesting reminded Squire Feather of an incident that occurred at old Laporte half a century ago that Historian Crawford may forget in his old petters' romance. Dr. Crawford and Janitor Jas. Harmon tried each other out on a Marsh halvester. Jim worked it slick, getting all the little bundles and crowding the fat ones into the big doctor's arms. When the machine finally stopped, Mr. Feather says that all his old partner could do in his completely exhausted condition was to cry: "Pet! Pet! Pet! bring me some water!"

John Morgan had his fortune told Tuesday night and he thought it sounded very plausible and quite probable for the future, but the joke attachment was on Squire Feather. The squire said he would pay for the job if John would consent to have it done, and was under the presumption that the expense was 10 cents, like the rest of the Midway attractions. It fairly took the old gentleman's breath away when the Madame announced fifty cents, and the dignified clerk of the courts will have more sense than cents next time.

Editor Closson and Jas. Shannon of Carroll, saw the league ball game at Omaha last Sunday, so the latter tells the Democrat, and the editor-lawyer was one of the noisiest fans on the grounds. How about this, Richard? Do you figure that after losing ten thousand dollars worth of reputation you can cut out the Sunday school-teaching and take in the Sunday ball games.

The post card fad has finally got Charley Martin—on one of them.

A certain Wayne man kicks on the 9-hour closing law because he used to visit around a little, and now he says the fool men go home before dark and that bars all his sport.

What's the matter with the pure food law taking an interest in the sale of mouldy berries, as well as stale eggs?

Too hot to even chase the perspiration from your face. Too hot for corn—juice or rye, or even barley—corn. Too hot to travel—on the ties or dusty road. Too hot to write letters or print them here in prose.

It is too bad that Boche had to go to the penitentiary before the primary election. He might have done some work for Judge Barnes—Madison County Reporter.

Perhaps not. This man Boche has killed two men and is considered a bad man generally, but he may draw the line on Barnes after the Norfolk episode some time ago.

One of the brilliant remarks made by young Mr. Hayward at the late republican state convention was that "Bryan

YOU'RE going to have this coming fall, a chance to buy and wear the best clothes in the world; the kind of clothes that well-dressed men are always glad to buy.

Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes are to be the feature of our line the coming season; and we want every man of you to know it early, and keep it in mind for the time when you next think of buying clothes.

We are making a specialty of these goods because we want you to get the greatest possible value for your money. You want value; that's the only real way to economize in clothes; and value means the sort of quality Hart Schaffner & Marx put into their goods. They're all-wool, in every thread of the fabrics; they represent the products of the best weavers in the world, and they offer a greater variety for your selection than you'll find in any half dozen other makes put together.

But all-wool, vitally important as it is to your interests as a wearer, is not the only thing we know about Hart Schaffner & Marx quality. These clothes are designed right; the whole question of fit depends on that; and it's important to you to know that you can be correctly fitted without trouble here. They're correct in style, of course; and perfectly tailored; these makers know their business well enough not to spoil good all-wool fabrics, fine linings and trimmings by designing and tailoring that are wrong. Hart Schaffner & Marx are the best clothes makers in the world; and every dollar of value they put into the goods is there for you to get out in the wear.

There's a lot of inferior, cotton-mixed clothing in the market; pretty poor stuff, some of it. It looks pretty good; enough so to enable dealers to charge a good price for it; it isn't as a rule worth what it costs.

was making Nebraska the baking oven for fool vagaries." The young man should have gone farther and said that when one of these "vagaries" got nicely baked, the republican party was sure to not only claim it but act as if they liked it better than some of their own old dishes.

Ex-Gov. Sheldon emerged from his cave of gloom long enough the other day to say that he "believed the people were sorry they defeated me," and then went away to sulk again. Up to the hour of going, to press we have not heard of anybody wearing sackcloth and ashes or mourning because Sheldon got it in the neck, and if he thinks there is a wild demand for him he should, by all means, get into the scrap next year and try for the governorship again.

The Wayne Herald man, after hearing Governor Shallenberger speak, gravely and authoritatively announces that he "Lacked Depth." This is very important if true and Bro. Woodruff is entitled to great praise for his masterly discovery, but he should have told his anxious readers, just about how much depth a Governor should have to satisfy such a talented critic. In their blind ignorance most Nebraskans think Gov. Shallenberger has plenty of depth, width and thickness for all practical purposes and also a weight that will flatten out any republican who runs against him next year.

Adams Evangelistic Company

Last Sunday evening the Adams Evangelistic Company received a splendid and attentive audience. A forty minute sacred concert was rendered proceeding the sermon delivered by the evangelist, on "God's Great Salvation." The verdict of those present was one of satisfaction and delight. These people surely know how to present music with all its sweetness and effect.

Next Sunday will be another great day. At 11 a. m. also at 8 p. m. services will be held, also at 8 p. m. another forty minute sacred concert will be given proceeding a short crisp sermon. If you did not hear these people last Sunday, you have another opportunity on Sunday next.

This company represent the Church of Christ (Disciples) and expect in a short time to organize and establish their work here permanently. They will also erect a building and locate a minister who will take charge in a short time. All Disciples are requested to make themselves known to the Evangelistic Co., either by postal card or their presence at the opera house.

Services will continue every night next week commencing at 8 p. m. prompt. Hear the music. It is worth your while.

The report sent out one day last week by the Associated Press to the effect that Mr. Bryan had decided to leave Nebraska and establish a new home in Texas, brought out some queer comments from politicians in Nebraska. Some who but a day prior to the report had spoken of Bryan as a dead duck in politics now expressed regret at the loss the democratic party would feel at his removal from the state. Since Mr. Bryan has emphatically stated that he has no intention of leaving Nebraska, we shall watch with interest the statements of those politicians who had such kind words for him when they believed he was going to Texas, but who have been very ready to speak ill of his political doings as long as they believed him a fixture in Nebraska.

C. S. Leslie Dead.

Wayne friends of C. S. Leslie will be surprised and pained to learn of his death at his home near Hockins last Sunday morning. Mr. Leslie, upon his last visit to Wayne, appeared to be in very poor health. The Hoskins Headlight has the following obituary:

Charles Stephens Leslie was born in Clarksville, Iowa, November 14, 1857, being 51 years, 8 months and 24 days old at the time of his death. On December 20, 1878, he was joined in marriage to Miss Lucetta Woolley, at Independence, Iowa. To them were born seven children of which two died in infancy. Besides a wife the deceased is survived by his mother, one sister and one brother in Denver and his five children Mrs. Francis Spohn, Frank, Lillian, John and Varian. The family had made their home in Wayne county for the past fourteen years; living near Winside for several years before coming here. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. McKen at the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock and interment was in the town cemetery. The order of Odd Fellows of which he was a member had charge of the services. He was also a member of the Highlanders and Woodmen. Deceased was a man whose friends were many and whose honesty and integrity were the guiding star of his life. A manly form, so recently insistent with life is crumbling in the dust. A heavy drapery has fallen on the community and darkened the home where he loved to dwell. A multitude of friends have attended the funeral of Charles S. Leslie and borne witness to the deep love and grief with which he was consigned to his earthly abode.

The Lincoln Fair.
Along about September when the harvestin' is done,
I like to take the folks to town and have a little fun;
I harness up the three-year-olds and pull the surrey out,
And 'ere the sun is fairly up am well upon my route.
There's Grandma Parsons in behind and Caroline and Jane,
While both the boys and Uncle John ride on a load of grain;
And my little woman, Mary, sits beside me on the seat
A lookin' young as ever and a dozen times as sweet.
I used to take her years ago to singin' schools and such,
But since we homesteaded out here we haven't pleased much;
It was certainly hard sleddin' for the first few years, I guess,
And the babies kept a comin' and the hot winds more or less.
We had about all we could do to keep from goin' under,
But now them times is over, and we're goin' to rest, by thunder!
We're goin' to take a week off from the labor and the care,
And recreate our spirits at the good old Lincoln fair.

I like to see the punkins, and I like to see the stock,
I like to hear the crowin' of the fancy Plymouth Rock,
And I like to go with Mary to the art exhibit where She's got an old log cabin quilt—the purtiest that's there.
And then she's got some currant jelly and quince preserves that—say, when the preacher comes to our house you can't drive the man away!
Talk about your fancy cookin'—let me tell you she knows how;
She's one o' them old fashioned wives they ain't a raisin' now!
I like to see the implements, the new machines, and all,
But that ain't why I'm goin' up to Lincoln in the fall;
I want to go with Mary and see how glad she'll be
To take me around the hull concern and show the things to me,
And talk about the good old fair nigh thirty years ago.
When Lincoln was a little place and things went mighty slow,
And there weren't no devil wagons snortin' up and down the street
Them times was purty backward, but Mister, they was sweet!

Marshal Dan Maher was down from Carroll Monday, visiting and attending business matters. Dan is one of those "right" fellows who are built close to the ground where you can always see what they are made of. The biggest mistake Dan has made in recent years was not to be a democratic candidate for sheriff of Wayne County. But then we democrats can write his name on the ballot and nominate him anyway.
Whalen's good ice cream at the bakery.

An old-line democrat took the Democratic hat to task the other day for getting into the republican party on the matter of county superintendent. It took about two minutes to find out that the old timer was a red-hot bright man, nothing white about him. There appears to be a lot of democrats crazy to vote for Prof. Bright, and it may be possible that with their help Mrs. Littell may be defeated. You republicans who want Mrs. Littell nominated should get her friends out to the primary election. There was a time when you were coaxing Prof. Bright to take this honor and he would have none of it. You have the opportunity now to elect just as competent an official and a superior president of schools who will take more interest in, and do more hard work for the schools, than anyone else mentioned for the place. Any of you democrats don't like it is them, just lump it.
See yourself enjoying yourself eating cream at Whalen's.

Mrs. L. H. Ealton of Buda, Ill., is visiting her mother and sister, Mrs. McRae and Mrs. Chas. Madden.
Wm. McCabe tells the Democrat he will contest the petition of Mrs. McCabe for a divorce to the last resort. Billy states that his wife had she did not want their baby at all, when she left here, but desired his mother to keep the little girl, and he now believes that her plea for the child is made to give her a better standing in court. He also says that he offered her ten thousand in settlement but that he is not worth anything in his own right and is of the opinion that her suit will avail her nothing as to alimony. The joker in this bill to Bill would be found if the court should order Bill to go to work and support his wife.

An $80 crowd saw a good game of ball yesterday, Bobby Black and his Knights from Sioux City having to play their best to defeat Wayne 3 to 1. As is usually the case Wayne had two or three errors credited to her, seemingly inexcusable errors, that lost the game. Twirler Sabs, and in fact all the boys played brilliant ball with the above exception.

Ponca defeated Bloomfield at Wakefield last Friday by the close score of 2 to 0.
Pitcher Hoyt of Sioux City who officiated for Wayne last Thursday in a losing game with the Indians, had been married just the night before, which may in a measure have accounted for his numerous first base on balls and inability to curve them over the plate.
Caught in His Own Trap.
A farmer from north of Randolph named Maybe shot his left hand off Tuesday evening in a most peculiar manner, and accompanied by Dr. Kerley of Randolph was taken to a hospital in Sioux City yesterday morning for an operation. Maybe told the Democrat that he set a trap, with a shotgun, for the purpose of getting a neighbor's boy whom he suspected of poisoning his stock. He got the string on the trigger a little too tight and the gun went off while arranging it, doing Maybe no injury. He then fixed the thing just right and went around the barn to see where the shot had struck the building. Here is where Maybe went wrong for he at once had a bad slip in his thinking apparatus, forgot all about the trap in going back and ran right into it, the string worked perfectly and the shot just grazed his stomach, and his left hand being slightly extended the whole charge caught him in the wrist, tearing off the thumb and first fingers and riddling the whole hand. Dr. Kerley stated that amputation would be necessary. Maybe said the boy in question had been put out of school, and he, Maybe, was blamed for it. He had lost two steers and one hog, evidently poisoned, and he had sat up all night for weeks trying to catch the suspected parties until worn out, and the gun trap was the solution. Maybe took desperate chances, and most people would agree that he got a disastrous but merited lesson.

The Escape from Worry

Give us a winding road, a sky full of white floating clouds, a river and a bridge over which to rumble, a lake, blue and inviting, among green hills, an hour's run to dinner, and the sense of power and control at the wheel of a Rambler—and we will have no thought of business cares.

With the

Rambler

The Car of Steady Service

there is added to the pleasure of touring the satisfaction of freedom from the worries of the road.

The great economy and efficiency of this car is due to such exclusive Rambler features as the offset crank shaft, straight-line-drive, safety spark retarder, Rambler Spare Wheel, etc. Let us prove this to you. Call and we will explain these Rambler features in detail, and by actual demonstration; no obligation on your part whatever.

Seven Passenger Model, forty-five horse power with offset crank shaft, $2500. Other models, $1150 to $2500.

Plymouth Binder Twine

SAVES TIME AND GRAIN

Twine is a small item, but good twine saves a lot of expense in harvest time. Every time your machine is stopped the delay costs you money. Time in harvest season is always valuable, and sometimes extremely precious on account of the condition of weather or grain. Be sure you use the best twine—PLYMOUTH TWINE. Then you will be safe from the annoyances, delays, expenses, which ordinary twine causes. Plymouth Twine works perfectly in every machine. More of it is made and used every year than any other kind, because it is known to be the best and has been for years. Binds more sheaves with less expense, no knots, no breaks, and is guaranteed full length and extra strength. Get Plymouth Twine from the local dealer. Look for the wheat-sheaf tag.

NOTICE

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF WAYNE COUNTY, NEBRASKA
In the matter of the application of George Peters, guardian of the estate and persons of Willie Peters, Henry Peters, George Peters, Jr., Hurlbur Peters, and Elsie Peters, minors, for license to sell real estate of said wards. Now, on this 15th day of July, 1909, the matter came on for hearing in open court upon application of George Peters, guardian of the estate and persons of Willie Peters, Henry Peters, George Peters, Jr., Hurlbur Peters and Elsie Peters, minors, for license to sell real estate of said wards an undivided one thirty-fifth interest of each of said wards, and to Lots four, five and six in Block 44, Village of Hoskins, Neb. The proceeds of said sale to be used for the support, maintenance, and education of said wards and the surplus, if any, to be invested in some productive stock or placed at interest for the benefit of said wards, and that it will be for the benefit of said wards that said real estate be sold. And it was submitted to me and it appeared to me from said petition that it would be beneficial to said wards that the said real estate be sold. It is therefore ordered that the next kin of said minors and all persons interested in the estate and in said real estate, appear before me, the judge of said court, at chambers at court house in the city of Wayne, County of Wayne, State of Nebraska, on the 17th day of September, 1909, at 9 o'clock a. m. to show cause, if any there be, why license should not be granted to said George Peters, to sell the said wards' interest in the real estate above described for the purposes above set forth.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be served on all persons interested in the estate and said real estate, by publication of a copy of this order at least three successive weeks prior to time of said hearing in The Nebraska Democrat, a weekly newspaper published and printed in said County of Wayne, and that it shall not be necessary for me personally to serve a copy of this order on next of kin of said wards and all personally interested in said estate. ANSON A. WELCH, Judge of District Court of Wayne, Nebraska.
