Suicide of Prof. Dimick

Sterling, Neb., Dec. 18.—Special: That Prof. J. A. Dimick, superintendent of the public schools here, was driven to his death by the stories of scandal mungers is the opinion held Mrs. Dimick and the friends of the family.

Prof. Dimick has been in charge of the local public schools for several years and apparently had the implicit confidence of a majority of the people. During the past week stories commenced to circulate that while nothing criminal occurred, he had been unduly intimate with a number of the young women in the school. Within a day or two all of the young women mentioned wrote letters to Mrs. Dimick, entering a complete denial. The matter, however, preyed upon the mind of the professor. He talked it over with his wife and afterwards with the members of the board of education and was assured that it was the belief that there was no truth in the reports.

Friday evening, after the close of school the professor returned to his home as usual. As he entered the house he asked his wife if she could have an early supper, as he desired to attend a meeting and did not want to miss any portion of it. Mrs. Dimick replied that the meal would be ready in a few minutes.

Going into the family bedroom, the professor secured a rifle that stood at the foot of the bed, inserted a cartridge and taking the weapon, passed into the front room. There he stopped, placed the muzzle of the gun against his right temple and the gun on the floor, heleaned over and pulled the trigger, sending a bullet through his brain, death following instantly.

The above is from the daily papers of last week. Prof. Dimick was well known to the Wayne county teachers, having been principal of schools at Winside in 1907. The Democrat is informed by one who ought to know that the dead educator's domestic life was not what it might have been, and that this might have had more or less to do with his tragic taking off.

Local News.

Cadwell vs. Criss was the title of a row cleaned up in Judge Britton's court last Saturday. The parties live in Roosevelt park and this was not their first inning before his honor. Cadwell accused Criss of assaulting him, the particulars appearing to be that the two men "made up" after a recent bit of trouble. Criss invited Cadwell to a party at his house and when the door of the Criss domicile was opened for his entrance something hit Cadwell on the bridge of the nose, giving him a bad cut. A big crowd of ladies and gentlemen were witnesses Saturday, and the evidence all tended to prove that Mr. Cadwell was assaulted by a son-in-law of Mr. Criss, who has since that date returned to his home in Missouri, so the defendant was found not guilty, and the county holds the sack for the costs.

Anchor Grain Co. for all kinds of hard and soft coal. A film caught fire at the Crystal theatre last Sunday night just after the first show was concluded, creating considerable excitement among the attendants who made a rush for the exits. The burning film was kicked out into the street and no damage resulted aside from a scare.

L. E. Berkhmeier, brother of Oscar was in Wayne from Malvern, Io., Saturday and Sunday and an interested spectator at Summers' sale of Shorthorns. Mr. Berkhmeier says this is the wrong time of the year for such a sale, and states they will pull off a good big one in Wayne next May or June.

Wm. Von Seggern returned home from college Monday morning.

You probably cannot tell all wool from half cotton, but you can know positively what you are getting by buying Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes from Dan Harrington.

Leslie Welch, a law student at the state university, and his sister Florence are both home from Lincoln for the holidays.

Harry Armstrong went to Hubbard Monday morning to do a day's plumbing.

J. O. Brown was down from Winside Monday.

The Democrat has a choice piece of property at Crystal lake for sale. Two of the best acres of beach, good, new cottage, boat and summer furniture, all for sale at a reasonable figure.

Link Jones left Wayne for the east last Friday and said he might never come back.

L. M. Owen and Chas. Thompson were in Wakefield Friday to attend the Diltz sale of Herefords.

LOST—Pair of nose glasses with a chain. Finder please leave at Democrat office.

A $225 gas engine, good for ordinary work, to trade for a cow or cows. See the Democrat

Jas. Larson got into Wayne last Friday morning with a carload of cows, calves and colts, from Lynch, Neb. Jim says he got very poor trying to farm near Lynch. The 15th of December he tried to have a sale but only five buyers attended; the clerk told him only three of the five were any good, so Mr. Larson called the sale off and shipped his stuff to Wayne. He says he is coming back to good, old Wayne county to live, having lost nearly all his wealth by trying something new. Billy Larson, who is also in the western part of the state has not done much better than his brother Jim.

A five-year-old Shorthorn cow for sale. FRED SEBALD.

Vern Tower was a visitor from Laurel over Sunday.

Dan Maher, Henry Wellman, N. C. Petersen and Gus Loburg were visitors from Carroll Monday.

N. C. Petersen, who farms two miles east and two miles south of Carroll, will have a big farm sale of stock and other property Friday, January 21st.

About ten families are going to leave Carroll next March and find new homes at Ardo, Idaho, where some twenty Carroll men have taken homesteads under the Carey act. Those going out there to live are Dan Maher, Henry Wellman, Jenk Zimmerman, Ernest Klebe, Al Conyers, Geo. Edwards, Hugh Edwards and Julius Herman. Fred Wilcox also goes out to see the country.

Worms often kill children. WORM-OLA will remove all worms.—Felber's Pharmacy.

An amended petition has been filed in the district court in the suit of Moritz Esche against N. A. Stodden, Chas. Endress and the United States Fidelity & Guaranty Co., and United Co., for $5000 damages. The petition now alleges that plaintiff received injuries at the hands of Gene Leahy and Geo. Miner, and is decidedly a most on these gentlemen, indicating a pretty interesting state of affairs if the charges alleged can be substantiated in court.

L. M. Owen bought 16 head and C. B. Thompson 5 head of Hereford cattle at the Levi Diltz sale last Friday.

DR. GAMBLE, OSTEOPATH Rheumatism and Chronic diseases a specialty.

J. A. Gasper, who lives south of Wayne, leaves next month for Bridgewater, S. D., where he has bought a farm. Mr. Gasper has been a resident of Wayne county for over twenty years and wears sorry to see him make such a poor move.

G. C. Eksman and Nels Johnson were visitors from Carroll Saturday and ordered sale bills for a joint sale they will have at the Carroll stock pavilion Jan. 8th.

J. H. Mitchell was a visitor from Wakefield Saturday.

It's worth something to the men of this town to be able to step into such a clothing store as Dan Harrington's and get ready to wear such clothes as Hart Schaffner & Marx make.

Twenty-two below zero last Sunday morning, and it was cold as Christmas.

The Summers' Shorthorn cattle sale last Saturday was well attended but the prices ranged low, the cows selling the same as grades at the farm sales, from $50 to $75.

LOST—Ladies' gold watch with a short chain. Finder please return to this office or to Mrs. Joe McCoun, Winside.

The masquerade dance last Saturday night was well attended and an enjoyable time was had by those who are not afraid of going out in the cold for a "hot time."

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Thompson from Dalton, Neb., visited in Wayne the past week.

Guy Surber shot a coon last Friday and had a possum dinner Sunday, an unusual find and feast in Nebraska.

Joe Atkins and Milo Krempke were in Omaha Monday with a carload of sheep. Joe's Wayne friends were not a little bit worried about him and he got many a warning to hang onto his watch when he left town.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spahr observed the twentieth anniversary of their marriage last Sunday with a dinner, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Barker and Miss Florence Henyan being guests of the family.

The marriage of Mrs. Helen Henyan and G. W. Barker took place last Saturday. They will be at home in Clinton, Io., after Jan. 1st, 1910.

Mrs. A. A. Welch was a Tuesday Sioux City visitor.

Oscar Edwards left Tuesday morning for Ashton, Idaho.

C. W. Hiscox was a passenger to Sioux City Tuesday.

P. H. Kohl was in Omaha on Tuesday.

Sam Temple leaves tomorrow for an eight days visit at Norfolk and Lincoln. It may be longer and it may be shorter. Sam wasn't sure just how long he could stay away.

Jas. Larsen is going to have a sale of cattle and horses at the Wayne stock yards tomorrow afternoon.

Leo Hughs, the young man who got lost while driving out to Carl Surber's three weeks ago, and thereby about froze to death, will hardly recover from the terrible experience. Mac Miller was talking to a relative of Hughs' a couple of days ago and learned that Hughs was in very bad condition and not expected to live. Parts of his hands and feet were amputated but that did not improve his condition. It is reported that there will be a heavy damage suit arising from this man's disastrous boozing.

TO LET—80 or 90 acres farm land, one-third rent. Batching room, barn room for four horses. Two miles south of Carroll. W. B. McDONALD.

G. H. Kellogg of Butte was in town Monday on his way from Omaha where he had cattle on the market.

Leo Gaertner was an arrival home from Omaha Monday.

C. A. Berry and Miss Effie Porter surprised their friends last Thursday afternoon by getting married and heing themselves away on the evening train west. Mr. and Mrs. Berry returned Monday evening and received the congratulations of their numerous Wayne friends and acquaintances.

J. R. Rindell's delivery team got a little extra exercise Tuesday morning. While in the east part of town a tug came unhooked, the tongue fell down, ran away, tongue stuck in ground and broke, the driver being sent by wireless to the earth.

Judge Graves will hold court in Wayne tomorrow and hear arguments in the Watt vs. Moats et al suit and probably also hear some divorce petitions; the Goeman vs. Goeman case being one of them.

Royalty and Royal 400

Don't forget to buy the latest and most popular game of the season to help entertain you and your family these long cold evenings, Royalty and the Royal 400. There is nothing like them for amusement. Pretty faces and cute expressions. Now on sale at the drug stores and book stores.

Otto Sebald, now of Omaha, was visiting his parents last week. Otto is now head of the traveling fraternity for the Royal Insurance Co., in Nebraska, a lucrative and responsible position.

DIED—Murland John, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harder, living 6 miles north of Wayne, on Friday morning, December 17th. The child was only one month and two days old when death came. The funeral was held from the German Lutheran church of this city on Sunday afternoon, Rev. Karpenstein officiating. Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Harder have the sympathy of the entire community in their great bereavement.

Jas. Stanton was down from Carroll Friday to sign up county warrants.

H. A. Moler was a passenger to Omaha to see Mrs. Moler who spent the week there.

Less than twenty-five Carroll ladies were enroute to Sioux City on Saturday morning, presumably to do their Christmas shopping.

Aug. Loburg was down from Carroll last Friday and in visiting with John Morgan accused the latter, or Strickland or Charley Thompson of stealing a steer from a shipment he made to Chicago some time ago. It cost August several simoletons to square the matter and find out where he got off at.

The Randolph commercial club is planning to put in an independent local telephone system, because the present company doing business there charges $3 for business and $1.50 for residence phones. If Randolph can make a profitable investment of this kind there is surely room in Wayne for another city system. The Randolph Times states that outside parties would be glad to get a franchise in that town to do business on a lower rate. Wayne probably has twice the number of phones that Randolph has, and no doubt the Wayne

Commercial club could induce a little competition in this city that would reduce phone rates to where they were before one company had a monopoly of the business and raised the rates to the maximum rate.

Andy Blazer bought a couple of Suffolk brood mares at J. W. Black's sale in Randolph last week for which he paid $325 and $180.

If you are particular about your clothes, and you ought to be, go to Dan Harrington's, and see the line of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes that they sell.

A Big Success

The Wayne Variety Store

Our New Store Is An Assured Success

Our new opening day crowd was larger than we expected in our wildest dreams, so that we were unable to attend to all our visitors, unprepared as we were for such a throng. And during the days following the store has been crowded with hundreds of shoppers.

This is indeed very gratifying and has encouraged us to extend ourselves to the utmost to make the store A Permanent Success And an Innovation in Merchandising that will be heartily appreciated by everyone within trading distance of this store.

We were sold out of some goods right on opening day, but by the time you get this issue in your hands

Local News.

People coming from Wayne Saturday evening witnessed a laughable sight. Gus Seemeyer drove home in a sled with a lot of junk he bought at a sale when the old sleigh box gave away and there was a mixup of lightning rod agent, corn sheller, wash tubs, fork handles and a lot of other articles too numerous to mention, piled up in the snow. Yes, anything is liable to happen to a fellow coming home from town.—Wisner Chronicle.

High grade Pennsylvania oil at 20c per gallon at Rundell's.

The Democrat man was asking Veterinary O'Neal where he was going last Friday morning, and the doctor said he had a job he didn't like, and pulling a telegram from his pocket showed us an order from State Veterinary Jackson to go to Randolph and inspect twenty head of cattle from Atlantic, Iowa, making a tuberculin test and to keep the stock in quarantine until they were tested and found all right. About this time a stranger "batted in" with some question, but Doc turned him down with the remark that he was "speaking to some one else." The fellow rubbed around until sure of what we were discussing, then said, "But say, Tim, the fellow who owns them cattle." It was a for-lunate incident meeting the man as Dr. O'Neal did not have to go to Randolph until Monday, the cattle being then in the Wayne yards and in bad condition from exposure, neglect and several days on the car when one day should have sufficed to get them to Randolph. There was also a Hereford herd bull missing from the land, and the owner of the stock, who had a sale billed for Randolph on Saturday, was certainly up against a hard proposition.

FOR SALE—An 8-room house, with bath, hot and cold water, fine basement, good barn, cement sidewalks, etc. For further particulars call at this office.

It speaks pretty well for the good taste in dress of the men of this town to see so many of them buying Hart Schaffner & Marx overcoats of Dan Harrington.

The Navajo Indians who occupy a portion of the San Juan county through which the explorations of Dean Cummings and party led them, are reckoned among the wildest tribes now in America. They had made their boast that no white man ever got out of that country alive; but the Cummings party felt that they were in no real danger as a portion of the time they were guided by Mr. Wetherell, with whom and the Navajos great friendship existed. Mr. Wetherell who with his family lives at the trading post Ojato (the Indian name for moonlight) has spent the greater part of his life in the southwest, "and possibly," says one writer, "no other man in the world is so familiar with the remains of the so-called 'Cliff Dwellers.'" He has made numerous collections for Eastern museums.

For the past six years he has confined his time to the Navajos, establishing trading posts in different parts of the reservation. Through his honest but strict dealings with them, Mr. Wetherell has won the friendship of the entire Navajo nation.

"Mrs. Wetherell," the writer continues, "is even a greater favorite with the Navajos than her husband. She has spent her entire life among them, and speaks their language even more correctly than the Indians themselves. Her excellent knowledge of their tongue gives her a decided advantage with 'her children.'" She arbitrates their troubles, advises and doctors them; she teaches them the better methods of farming and sheep raising; she gains their respect by treating them as brothers and sisters.

Dean Cummings is now in the field clearing out ruins, and will soon return to Salt Lake when he will be able to name the date of his coming lecture in Wayne. It will doubtless be the first or second week in January.

The Girl From U. S. A.

The new musical comedy drama, "The Girl From U. S. A." which is due at the opera house Dec. 28, carries the auditor nearly round the world, as its scenes are laid in France, Turkey and China. It has an intense love story, a catchy type of comed, and delightful musical numbers that leave no place for eneei all through the three acts. A capable company of singers and players and a bevy of pretty chorus girls in ravishing costumes, who have been receiving flattering press comments in other places visited, will give the piece the first performance here.

Johnny Creedon, who has been at Ellsworth, Minn., several months, is again chef and private secretary to Phil Sullivan.

Judge Boyd of Neligh, was a passenger to Omaha. The ex-congressman doesn't look as though politics was worrying him any.

"Nothing like it on the stage today" can be safely said of "The Girl From U. S. A." It is a play of intense interest set to music, in which singing and acting talent of high merit and a big chorus of footlight beauties will be heard. The American girl pits her wit, ingenuity and courage against the greatest odds in foreign lands and wins out every time. It matters not if it is Turkish pasha, or Chinese mandarin, she beats him at his own game always. See her at the opera house on Dec. 23 and hear the dumerous song bits which have become household favorites.

A Merry Christmas And a Happy New Year

To all our Patrons and Friends

BY DAD

A vote of over two to one against the franchise grabbers in Sioux City ought to open the eyes of the rampant, stand-pat Sioux City Journal of its standing in this part of Nebraska. (The Sioux City Daily Tribune is the only Iowa daily paper to subscribe for and assist with a dozen copies of Uncle George's Canonized anti-people's publication.)

The Sioux City Journal and the Book are now raked in the same boat, or rather both are "overboard."

Manager Britton says "The Girl From U. S. A." is good, the best thing ever seen of the local play house. Of course he is good.

No use putting up a straw man when a stack of straw sells for $10, as happened at a sale near Wayne this week.

W. H. Morris tells one of the best Christmas stories I have heard. W. H. was at one of the big shows in Council Bluffs waiting to be shown in his room, one evening, when a highly intoxicated individual of the sporting fraternity, with dude clothes and a silk tie called for the immediate attention of the hotel porter. As the latter assisted the sport into the elevator, after apologizing to Mr. Morris for the delay, the dazed-up drunk, squinting up at the elevator performer, dejectedly whimpered: "Shav, Krismons is all gone to hell, ain't it?"

It is doubtful whether President Taft and Vice-President Sherman can find enough whitewash in the Bullinger investigation to blind even the republican party.

The Democrat wishes you a Merry Christmas, but the most anyone gets out of Christmas is in making others happy.

"Ducky" Holmes is going to get in another "league" next spring according to the following from the Sioux City Tribune: "Ducky" Holmes, baseball magnate, will get a trial in the federal court at the May term, by the action of Judge Hutchinson in removing the case. Holmes last summer attacked Joseph W. Baker, secretary and treasurer of the state board of mine examiners, at Mizou park while a ball game was in progress, and took care out of the mace with a broken nose, a cut on the forehead and various other injuries. A personal damage suit for $7,900 was brought against Holmes.

A lady from the east was paying her first visit to a farm home near town recently. The farmer's boy was feeding a chicken and the lady asked, "What would you do if that chicken laid an egg?" "Sell it to a museum," replied the boy. "That chicken's a rooster."

At a school one day a teacher having asked most of his pupils the difference between an island and a peninsula without receiving a satisfactory answer, he came to the last boy. "I can explain it," said the bright youth. "First get two glasses. Fill one with water and the other with milk. Then catch a fly and place it in the glass of water! That fly is an island, because it is entirely surrounded by water. But now place the fly in the glass of milk and it will be a peninsula, because it is nearly surrounded by water."

The boy went to the head of the class. Halley's comet will be visible to the naked eye about the same time somebody sees the first robin.

You don't hear the ice man complaining about the cold weather. His crop is coming on splendidly.

It is almost dull enough these days to go into the Congressional Record for "news."

From moving pictures taken in an airship with the camera pointed downward we ought to get a good idea of how this old earth looks in its great state of rolling.—World-Herald.

Or see at least how Rockefeller, Morgan, Taft and Aldrich "roll" us.

Now if we get a reverse verdict from the ground hog it will mean many a cold day to ease up on.

Of course Shallenberger could not eject Dahlman. The governor is too much of a politician for that.

Promises to be good from Donahue and Dennison must be said in the wounds of the Omaha prohibits.

Judge Britton puts a poster to the Democrat in the Carl Albert probate notice. When Carl Albert died the estate went to probate under Judge Hunter's authority. The judge died and so the matter was again taken up and then the Hoskins Heallight "died" and publication has to be started over again as per notice elsewhere. We asked Judge Britton if he figured the Democrat went next and he replied: "Well, it's up to you or me, isn't it?"

One thankful thing about the Christmas is that it is not so meaningless as the Taft smile.

An Oyster Bay woman "licked three" burglars who were getting the best of her husband. Oyster Bay must be where they throw the soap into 'em.

A Columbus paper, the Telegram, speaking of a preacher's sermon delivered in that city, says:

He quoted approvingly the words of a certain minister who sent word to one of his laymen to "go to hell," the congregation to hell following a request to the preacher that he talk more Christianity, and less prohibition politics from the pulpit. He told of a mother who said she wanted her boys to be brave enough to touch liquor when they wanted it, and leave it alone when they did not want it. And then he told his hearers that the devils in hell had long been writing to welcome the mother of those boys.

Looks like though Wayne hadn't suffered so severely from the preachers' after all, does it?

Elbert Hubbard, who made the Roycroft shop at East Aurora, New York, famous says: "I have been a wage earner and foreman and employer. I have a thousand men on my pay roll at a time and I tell you that the man with the bank habit is the one who never gets laid off. He's the one who can get along without you but you cannot get along without him. The bank habit means sound sleep and good digestion and cool judgment and many independence. The most healthful thing I know of is a bank book. There are no microbes in it to steal away your peace of mind. It is a guarantee of good behavior."

Better lay in a supply of brooms. It is predicted by someone that they will sell for $1 next year.

An Irishman lying on his death bed was questioned by his inconsolable prospective widow. "Poor Mike," said she, "is there anything that would make ye comfortable? Anythin' ye ask for I'll get for ye." "Please Bridget," he responded, "I think I'd like a wee taste of the ham I smell a boilin' out in the kitchen."

"Arrah, go on," responded Bridget. "Divin' bit of that ham ye want." "Tis for the wake."

If "when the days begin to lengthen the cold begins to strengthen" we'll soon be as bad off as "North Pole Cook."

All the little tads were in Sunday school last Sunday, but next Sabbath they will have to play with those new toys.

Who will get to glory first, the fellow who left his team stand out doors last Sunday night in twelve degrees below zero weather for the man who went to the picture show? Isn't it too bad we haven't a councilman who will look after these freezing equines or resign his job?

It wasn't a Winside bride who enquired of her groom where the Porter house was, because her hubby told her he liked their steaks the best.

Tuesday was the shortest day of this year, but we'll probably be "short" several days early in the next.

The roads are pretty rough for St. Claus, but if St. Claus Kay gets that new light in at the bridge it will help some.

Ten't at all likely that anybody has discovered it.

Dispatches state that Roosevelt has not yet succeeded in shooting a giant hog, one of the accomplishments he had hoped for. There is one there all right, and in close proximity to Teddy's gun.

It is reported that all one place in Wayne lacks is the frozen window curtains and a red light.

A St. Louis janitor committed suicide because he couldn't keep warm. Probably he has valuable assistance now.

Recurring to the matter of names, a Kentucky town named Somerset turned from "wet" to "dry" and at Tuesday's election turned back from "dry" to "wet." And Fall River, Mass., which has been on the water wagon has fallen again, wouldn't be surprised to see some of the Drinkwaters go to boozing or Beers get on the water wagon New Year's day.

A shortage in the crop of automobiles is predicted for next year. It is feared the estimated output of 135,000 will not supply the demands of buyers. Perhaps some of us will have to take flying machines.

Why is it that if, as the Norfolk News last summer stated, Otto Voget was a resident of that city, he is now "going to locate in Norfolk," as per the News of last Thursday.

The question, "Did the navy aid Col. Astor?" is now up in congress. No doubt it did. That was of more importance than looking after the bodies of 63 American seamen who for eleven long years have laid in the hulk of the battleship Maine in Havana harbor and giving them a decent burial.

Washington dispatch says the lawmakers are not eager for work and that there will be little general legislation. Still the lawmakers expect to remain in Washington until the end of April or beginning of May. Why don't they get home for Christmas and stay there?

Recently a Cherokee woman went to Sioux City for a week's visit, leaving her unmarried sister to take care of the house during her absence. On her arrival she discovered that her watch, a small affair, was missing. She thought it had probably dropped on the dining room rug, so she "phoned to her sister at home."

"Let me know if you find anything on rug in dining room."

A few days later she got from her sister a letter saying:

"I was to let you know if I found anything on the dining-room rug. This is what I found this morning: Three beer corks, 18 cigar butts, five cigarette ends, four blue chips, 36 burnt matches and one pink satin slipper.—Cherokee Democrat."

Wonder if this wasn't the Democrat man's rug?

"Man wants but little here below. Nor wants that little long. Is what they sang some years ago— But it's now another song. The words we use are different quite. Though fully as sublime—

"Man wants every d—n thing in sight And wants it all the time."

The Standard Oil company seems to be dissolving like the old woman kept tavern.

Chris Christensen and Mr. Albertson were up from near Pender over last night.

Mrs. C. D. Martin's near death, has been unconscious most all the time for several days. Mrs. Martin has been doctored and operated upon for years for cancer, but the disease has now about won its victim.

"The Nebraska Power Co." of Omaha has written the Wayne Commercial club for an open meeting in which to advise our people of what the company is going to do or can do in the way of supplying power to Nebraska towns.

The scheme of the Omaha people is to harness the Loup, near Columbus, and make the power obtained furnish electricity for the rest of the state. This is done a great deal out in the mining country, the wire cables being heavy and hung on iron posts. The Commercial club will meet representatives of the Omaha company some time after New Years.

If you are a lover of singing, heart-stirring climaxes and a prolonged round of laughter, pay the opera house a visit on Dec. 28, when "The Girl From U. S. A." comes our way. You cannot fail to enjoy the powerful story of this briskly moving musical comedy drama and the solos and quartets which have been big hits everywhere the company has been this season. A handsomely costumed chorus of fine singing voices will be seen and heard often during the action of the play.

Miss Maude and Carl Grothe were arrivals this morning from Yankton, S. D.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gibson and son were arrivals this morning from Omaha to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Goss.

Nathan Chace and son were up from Stanton last evening.

Mrs. Dan Shannon of Carroll, visited at the home of Tom Shannon the latter part of the week.

Mr. Driscoll, of Iowa, is visiting at the home of Mr. Geary.

J. H. Brugger and wife and daughter, Eulalia, of Chapin precinct were in town the first of the week visiting Mrs. Brugger's parents, P. Pryor and wife.

Excellent, Special Program

Christmas at the Churches

At the St. Paul's Lutheran church on Christmas Eve the S. S. will render a Christmas program entitled "Christmas Greetings" at 7:30 p. m.

A Christmas program will be given at the German Lutheran church Friday Dec. 24th, commencing at 6:30 p. m., consisting of recitations and songs and the distribution of the usual presents of books and other good things. On Christmas Day, Dec. 25th, the usual Christmas services will be held at 10:30 a. m., and on Sunday Dec. 26th, services will be held at 3 p. m.—J. H. Karpenstein, Pastor.

The Presbyterian church will have a Christmas tree and a special song and recitation program Christmas eve, to which everyone is invited.

At the M. E. church a cantata will be given by the primary department and a tree loaded with sweets and gifts for the little folks.

The annual Christmas exercises will be held Friday evening Dec. 24, at the Baptist church. The program will consist of songs, recitations and drills. We invite our many friends to enjoy the evening with us.

New Year's services at the Baptist church will be held next Sunday when some of the plans for the work of the year will be outlined by the pastor, Charles Nicholas, will sing a solo, at the morning service and the male quartette will sing in the evening.

School Notes

"Educate your children. Educate them in the great eternal principles of justice and right which underlie the entire length of human existence."—Horace Mann.

Our schools close this evening for the holiday vacation. Begin again Monday Jan. 3, 1910.

Grade two has thirty-one pupils who have been neither absent nor tardy for the month just ended. This is very good when we consider the severity of the weather.

The Teachers' League met at the home of Miss Bressler, our Domestic Science teacher, last Thursday evening and all had a royal good time. As this was the last evening Miss Schauwaker, our Kindergarten director, was with us and (who we understand went away to get married) the teachers very appropriately made this meeting in the form of a little linen shower for her. We are indeed very sorry to have lost this very efficient kindergartner, but hope to fill the vacancy with one equally as good.

Miss Dora Lewis, who has been assistant to Miss Schauwaker all fall, has charge of the kindergarten this week and is doing very well with the little tots.

On Tuesday morning Mrs. W. C. Wightman gave the big school and grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 a very interesting and instructive talk on "The Cliff Dwellers or Prehistoric Americans."

All enjoyed the talk very much and we feel very grateful to Mrs. Wightman.

Mrs. A. E. Oberman, our excellent Latin teacher has resigned her position. We do not like to lose Mrs. Oberman, but she insists that Dr. Oberman needs her to keep house for him.

Miss Mabel Lewis of Emerson has been elected to our Latin Department and will begin her work here Jan. 3.

The pupils of the fourth grade each made a beautiful 1910 calendar which they will present to their parents as Xmas gifts.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.

Jeffries and Gotch in Sioux City

Jim Jeffries and Frank Gotch will be the attraction at the New Auditorium, Sioux City, Jan. 8th. The announcement will be hailed with delight by scores of sports in this section of Nebraska and no doubt a large number of people who are not so sporty, but anxious to see these champion athletes will go from Wayne to Sioux City on this date—to do some shopping. Gotch will wrestle with Dr. Roller and Jeffries spar with his trainer.

MAN DISAPPEARS FROM TRAIN AND LEAVES NO TRACE

Walks Out of Car and Is Supposed to Have Fallen Off, But Cannot Be Found.

Grand Island, Neb., Dec. 21.—The local police and officials are completely baffled over the disappearance of a passenger from train No. 3, west bound, Tuesday night.

The aged man, a stranger here, it is believed, bought a ticket for Sidney, Neb. From the description given of him by the conductors and conductor.

After the conductor had passed him and got to the third car back, the old man had got up from his seat, wandered back and had gone into the vestibule of the car, and had not returned, and that the vestibule door was open.

Conductor Peterson investigated a thorough search of the train, but no sign of the man was seen. At 6:30 p. m. he telegraphed the dispatchers here, relating the incident, and it was decided here to send a switch engine, caboose and crew to look for the man.

CAPITOL DOME IS WIRED WICE; NOT PAID FOR

Labor Commissioner Under Fire of Board for Transcending His Authority

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 20.—George D. Ballard, an electrical contractor, presented the state with his claim of $47.50 for wiring the dome of the capitol for electric lights.

Mr. Ballard presented, was considered too large by Cowles, so he rejected it without consulting the board, and then employed Frank Wheeler to do the work for $30.

Mr. Ballard insisted that such things should be reported to the board before any action is taken. Mr. Ballard informed the board that he would withdraw his claim and give the work to the state before he would reduce it.

DANISH WISE MEN REPORT ADVERSE TO COOK'S CLAIM

Savants Are Not Agreed and Animated Scene Follows in Their Consistory

Copenhagen, Dec. 20.—The Associated Press is informed by a high authority that the committee of the University of Copenhagen, in its preliminary investigation of his records, failed to discover proof that Dr. Frederick A. Cook had reached the north pole.

It appears that the data so far submitted is not held sufficient to establish the explorer's claim. The result of today's discussion was a request on the part of the committee that the investigating committee continue its work. This will probably be done.

Public opinion is gradually turning against Cook. The consistory of the university at a secret session today received a preliminary report covering the first stage of the work of the committee which is examining the North Polar records of Dr. Frederick A. Cook.

Better Use a Gun, Howard

As a rule the average prohibitionist sets himself up as better than his fellows. He wraps himself in the cloak of religion, and then proceeds to brand as agents of the devil all men who do not subscribe to the prohibition creed. While always calling attention to his own goodness, he is always pointing to the badness of all men who do not believe in prohibition. And the strange feature of it all is the fact that the average prohibition writer has an utter disregard for truth. I have often pointed out the shameful slaughter of truth by my prohibition friends, and now I have occasion to present another exhibit. Down in the prohibition town of Tekamah, in the prohibition county of Burt, there is published a newspaper with prohibition leanings, the Tekamah Journal. This paper is published in the home town of Congressman Latta. Last week's issue of the Tekamah prohibition paper contained the following editorial paragraph:

Edgar Heward, whose editorials the Omaha brewery bunch are using as arguments against county option, is a thorough believer in the ultimate destruction of the liquor. He is like some of the old gutter toppers, thinks the only way to kill the evil is to drink it all up. Edgar is a lush of the first water and no doubt is one of the best personal patrons of the brewer and distiller that can be found in Nebraska. As a politician he is a barnacle to his own party, a breeder of trouble and discord, and as a candidate for the republicans to fight against he would take first prize.

I admit that some of my arguments against prohibition have been circulated by the merchants and manufacturers of Omaha, in an effort to defeat the prohibition programme in Nebraska. I am not ashamed of the fact. And yet it does not seem fair that the newspaper which takes the part of personal organ for Congressman Latta in his home town should viciously slander me in order to promote the cause of Congressman Latta and prohibition. I never had the pleasure of meeting the editor of the prohibition newspaper in Tekamah. It is not possible that he ever saw me intoxicated. It is not possible that he ever saw any man who told him that I am a "lusher."

I do not claim any credit for my ability to drink intoxicants moderately. I could not drink them immoderately if I should try. My intelligent stomach would not permit me. I regret that Congressman Latta's prohibition friends have seen fit to consign me to a drunkard's gutter, in order to promote the prospects of the Tekamah congressman for a re-nomination. I have not yet announced myself as a candidate for the nomination. There will be time enough for Mr. Latta's prohibition friends to assail me after I shall have announced my candidacy. I do not write in anger. I have long suffered under the false accusations of my prohibition friends. I simply suggest that if the editor of the prohibition newspaper in Mr. Latta's home town will take the trouble to make some inquiry among the newspaper editors of the state, with many of whom I have enjoyed happy relations for twenty-five years, he will discover that he has shamefully misrepresented one who never did him harm, and who bears him no malice nor ill will. And I further suggest to Congressman Latta that he would better revise his programme for a re-nomination, and revise it pretty quick. EDGAR HEWARD.

gram spent two weeks in Oklahoma recently, and made inquiry among all classes of people regarding the guarantee law. We didn't fine anybody opposed to the law, except a few bankers whose banks and whose souls are owned or controlled by some bigger bankers in Kansas City. The people like the law. They say it enables them to sleep soundly, never fearing the loss of their deposits in the banks. They are anticipating that some federal judge will wake up some morning with the belly-ache and while in that condition will write a decree of death against the law. That is the only nightmare which is bothering the common herd in Oklahoma just now.—Columbus Telegram.

Wm. Allen White on Girls

You are a pretty girl, my dear; we will admit that, an unusually pretty girl. You are striking, you have a figure and when you pass the hotel the men turn to look at you, and you have the front room lighted up four nights in the week. There is no doubt of your popularity—none at all, my dear, so you don't have to plead that as an excuse for the way you are going. And you know how you are going—so does everyone else in town. And it's too bad you insist on accentuating the fact that you are a she-creature. Your dress, your gait, your general air and attitude is that of a female rather than that of a person, and when a man is around, if you could see the way you act you would blush; it isn't one man in particular, just any old pair of trousers. Good Lord, girl, stop flirting and get some sense. Take off that dress that outlines your figure until you look naked and put on clothes like other women. Don't say that those clothes make you look stylish; what they do is to make you look indecent. Don't devote so much time to the fact that you wear petticoats, and spend a little time considering yourself as a human being.

Of course, we know you are smart, my dear, you know a lot—a lot of things you have no business knowing and that shows also. If you knew what was written on your face you would be ashamed to go out doors; but it is all these everyone of those vain things that fill your silly head. And where your treasure is there your heart is. As one thinketh so be it, and you are so plainly in evidence that it is pitiful how you advertise yourself.

And you are someone's pride and joy; your father doesn't see what other men see, your mother may see and fear, and perhaps she is trying to make you see, too but you think she is slow. You think she doesn't ever have a good time. You think she is too strict. But no girl who was ever cut up in a doctor's office and thrown into an old suit case or a trunk and tossed into the creek ever thought she would end that way. She always knew much more than her mother, and always thought her mother too strict.

Of course it hasn't come to that yet. But it's along in that direction—just down at the turn of the road to the left. There is the bend in the river; there is where they will throw the suit case; and yonder under that straw pile by the barn—there they will bury the head; perhaps your pretty head with all that light in your eyes; with all that read in your lips, with all that glow on those cheeks—your pretty head would not come out from under that straw pile looking as it looks today.

It is not pleasant; still you are not pleasant to look at my dear for all these things are written upon you and you are a pretty girl, an exceptional pretty girl, my dear, but only— Just don't. You understand just don't.
