Does Your old Separator GET ALL The Cream? QUALITY COUNTS

Not Sometimes but Always

The Great Western Cream Separator
Guarantees the Highest Type of Up-To-Date Construction

When you buy a cream separator you should demand an "up-to-date" machine. Don't buy a machine that was "in style" ten years ago—a high tank, exposed gears—plain bearings set in holes cut in cast iron frame are all evidences of a back number.

The Great Western is made throughout with the absolute accuracy of a high grade watch. Skims closest (hot, cold or stale milk) because it follows every law of nature. Equipped fully with imported ball bearings—guaranteeing the highest running separator in the world. High crank, so the operator doesn't have to break his back. Self-flushing, self-draining bowl gears enclosed, which work automatically in a bath of oil. Low down tank—low down and compact frame.

The Great Western carries the strongest guarantee ever issued—it protects you for five full years.

We furthermore guarantee satisfaction to you—any kind of a trial, without one cent of expense to you, or obligation either.

DAHLMAN TELLS WHERE HE STANDS

Democratic Candidate for Governor Answers Questions Put to Him by Kearney Paper.

FRANK STATEMENT OF POSITION

Rejects Certain of Planks of His Party's Platform.

AGAINST DAYLIGHT SALOON LAW

Considers the Statute Bad, but Does Not Urge Appeal.

FOR STRICT LAW ENFORCEMENT

Opposes County Option or Other Amendment of the Slocumb Law and Favors Initiative and Referendum.

"My attention has been called to an article in the Kearney Democrat which asks me 'a few fair, square questions.'" said Mayor Dahلمان yesterday. "It is desired that these questions be answered in a public manner, in order, the Kearney paper says, that every democrat in the state may know where I stand in regard to the democratic platform.

"The Kearney Democrat is no more anxious to have the people know exactly where I stand than I am myself, I have never had a conviction I was ashamed of or afraid of. I don't expect to win and don't want to win by fudging anybody. I want to deal fairly and frankly with the people of my state. If they agree with me I would be grateful for their support, but I have no desire to gain any man's support under false pretenses.

"These are the planks of the democratic platform as to which the Kearney Democrat wants to know where I stand:

"First—The daylight saloon law.
"Second—Strict enforcement of our present laws.
"Third—The initiative and referendum.
"Fourth—Campaign contributions.
"Fifth—County Option.

"I will state my position in regard to each of them and will try to do so in a way that no man can misunderstand me.

Stands by Platform.

"I was opposed to the daylight saloon law at the time of its passage as a denial of the right of home rule and local self-government. I think now exactly as I did then. I am a democrat, however, and I stand on my platform. If any direct effort should be made in the legislature to repeal this law, I should not lend it the slightest encouragement or support, either personally or officially. I shall instigate no such effort myself. I realize that this law has given satisfaction in many communities, though it has failed to give satisfaction in others. I think that any effort to appeal it at this time would be inopportune and unwise, in view of the more important questions that confront us. If, however, the legislature should of its own motion and without any assistance on my part, repeal this law, I would sign the bill repealing it.

"I stand squarely for strict enforcement of our present laws, including the daylight saloon law. It is because I am opposed to county prohibition and to state prohibition. I think a reasonable temperance law like the Slocumb law, which can be enforced and which the people respect, is a better temperance measure than a radically restrictive policy, which can not be enforced and which makes for lawlessness and disregard for the law.

For Present Liquor Laws.

"I think the strictly regulated legal saloon, operated under the sanction of a majority of the people of the community and with the hours of opening and closing fixed by law, is far less harmful than the unregulated illegal drinking joint would be, operated at all hours of the day and night, paying no license and subject to no supervision. One good law that can be enforced is worth a hundred that can't be. The latter do far more harm than good. I think our present liquor laws can be enforced and I pledge myself, if elected, to their enforcement.

"I am in favor of the initiative and referendum.

"As a candidate for governor I will refuse to accept any contributions from any railroads, corporations, trusts, breweries, distilleries or saloons, as well as from any person whom I know to be pecuniarily or prejudicially interested in securing or defeating legislation." There never was a time when I did not depend on the plain people rather than on the wealthy and favored classes for my support. I have been recklessly attacked as 'the candidate of the brewers,' but every man who knows me knows that I am fighting prohibition, not because the brewers are also fighting it, but because of my love for personal liberty and the rights of the humblest citizen to enjoy the privileges which our form of government intended him to have. It is to the plain people that I shall look for support in this campaign, for it is their battle I am fighting.

Opposed to Option.

"I am opposed to county option, first, last and all the time. I should veto a county option bill if the legislature passed it. I should do this the more readily since it is a matter of common knowledge that some county option constituencies in the older portions of the state enjoy as much as three times the representation in the legislature as do the anti-county option constituencies in other portions. This state might, on direct vote, go against county option by 20,000 majority and still, owing to an unfair apportionment, elect a county option legislature. But if this state elects me governor there will be no county option law except over my veto.

"I regard county option as the first step to prohibition. So does the Anti-Saloon league, and it frankly says so. So do all the other organized forces that are fighting for county option. There is no difference in theory or practice between county option prohibition and state prohibition. Each would give to one town the power to vote prohibition on another town without its consent. Each is a manifestation of fanaticism, intolerance and bigotry. Either would lead to lawlessness and secret vice and crime. I am everlastingly opposed to both.

"I have tried to answer the Kearney Democrat frankly. I hope I have satisfied both its editor and all other citizens who may have had some doubt as to my attitude. If there be anybody who still doubts, all he has to do is to ask me. And he may be sure that after I have answered, my course after election will be exactly in keeping with my promises to the people before election."

Piano Contests vs. Merit.

About the sickest looking proposition in print is that Sioux City Journal piano contest. There doesn't appear to be many suckers among the stand-patters. Or perhaps it's because there are not many Joe Cannon enthusiasts in the northwest—Wayne, Nebraska, Democrat.

This sweeping condemnation hits a great lot of newspapers. That it does may argue that too many papers are in the field, possibly that able men are needed to operate them. Sure it is that "piano contests" are quite necessary—necessary to get subscribers and necessary to impress the advertiser that managers will have them if they have to give a piano to every reader.

The unfortunate side of this plan to get readers is that once men conceive the notion that it is worth a piano to read the paper they not only demand the piano but something to boot. Already some people demand automobiles.

It is necessary for a successful publisher nowadays, when advertising income is so important a part of the whole income, to have subscribers, even though they are not readers. A big list is formidable in itself. And if the editorial policy of a paper will not attract and hold readers then the piano plays the good part of substitute.

Editorial management appears to be less and less a factor in obtaining subscribers, judging by the "piano contests" going everywhere. It is only one form of the leadership that grips men and makes them readers and believers in and boosters for the paper and buyers from its advertisers. Papers with such compelling management need not be numerous. When papers become too numerous then "piano contests" and all other kinds of thimble-rigging schemes must be expected. Then there is a battle on for survival. This justifies all contests—this law of self preservation.—Sioux City Tribune.

A peculiar thing happened at Hastings Monday. A horse escaped from a burning barn, ran two miles afire with the flesh dropping from him, and entering another barn set it afire and partly consumed it.

The opening of the Wayne State Normal is an event that all Northeastern Nebraska should rejoice in. The Wayne Normal means much to the people of Nebraska and especially this section of the state. It is located in a progressive little city, with surroundings of the best type, and we believe that taken from every standpoint the Wayne Normal will be the most successful and the best in the state. It opens September 19.—Pender Times.

Chas. McLeod was in town from Stanton over Friday night last. Speaking of the senatorial contest between himself and P. H. Kohl, Mr. McLeod is of the opinion that it should be conducted on good principles, with no personalities whatever, inasmuch as either candidate will give this section of the state their best personal efforts. Mr. McLeod believes that about the one issue is county option and in the little he has been over the district finds the voters have already made up their minds how they are going to vote—for or against county option, rather than for Kohl or McLeod. He stands squarely for a county option bill while Mr. Kohl is just as strongly opposed to such a change in the liquor laws of the state.

The Nebraska City News deposes and narrates of the republican nominee for governor as follows, to-wit:

There is one thing about Aldrich, the republican candidate for governor, that we like, and that is he is not afraid to say what he means. A few days ago some friends were asking him how he would placate Victor Rosewater and the Bee and secure their support. His reply was that he "didn't give a d—n whether Rosewater and the Bee supported him or not. As Mr. Rosewater recently remarked, 'there is nothing ambiguous about that statement.'

ADD FISH FROM THE DEPTHS

Strange Marine Forms Brought Up With Deep Sea Cable Sunk for Ten Years

Strange monsters the like of which have seldom been seen by man were dragged from a depth of 5,500 feet by the crew of the cable ship Burnside when they repaired the Alaska cable off Mt. St. Elias last month.

AS IT APPEARED TO HER

Mrs. Oelrichs Evidently Didn't Think Much of Mr. Blank's Earning Capacity.

Mrs. Herman Oelrichs, the best-dressed woman in Newport, criticized very pertinently, at a recent dinner, the new dinner gowns of Faquin and Calot.

These clinging and filmy gowns are chiefly remarkable for the V-shaped back that they possess. The V—it is incredible, but it is true—opens all the U. S. army signal corps system. On board were a score of huge flasks filled with alcohol. In them floated strange shapes which it was hard to believe were once living creatures.

Balls of red hair which looked like mangled human heads proved upon dissection to be a strange kind of deep water crab. Flesh colored round masses were found clinging to the cable by minute tentacles. One creature was shaped like the diablo toy.

Practical Matching

What the little girl with the 15 cents in pennies wanted was some red ribbon of a particular shade for her mother.

Mrs. Oelrichs stared at one with astonished eyes at a dinner, and her neighbor said: "Isn't that new gown of Mrs. Blank's a dream? Old Mr. Blank is so detailed success was a blind man, in whose hands the rod is said to have done marvels.

A Strong Preacher. The minister's eight-year-old daughter was returning with her parents from church, where the district superintendent had that morning occupied the pulpit.

"Oh, father," asked the little girl, her face alive with enthusiasm, "don't you think Brother C. is a very strong preacher?"

Gratified by this evidence of unusual intelligence on the part of his offspring, the minister eagerly inquired into her reasons for her statement.

"Oh," replied the little miss, artless when he stamped his feet—"Just because he said he was a very strong preacher."

Another strange marine creature is shaped like an octopus but has at least two dozen tentacles instead of eight. Many octopuses were found clinging to the cable, but they were thought too common to preserve.

While sections of the cable pulled up for inspection were found covered several feet deep with strange plants and animal life, seaweed, black instead of green, sponges and sea urchins predominated.

The Counterfeit Southerner

Of course, there are many counterfeits. A most amusing imitation is one that often passes for the typical southerner in New York.

The Philadelphian milk dealers, who recently raised the price of their product to nine cents a quart and then lowered it again to eight again.

He wears a wide black hat, mounts the table and yells whenever the band plays a southern melody.

Wasted Sarcasm. The Philadelphia milk dealers, who recently raised the price of their product to nine cents a quart and then lowered it again to eight again.

They are rotten with midew," he objected, and indeed, when we tested them, we found them ready to fall to pieces at a blow.

They are not yet out of the woods," he said, "but his name is de Tavernay, there is no pressing danger.

which was found enveloped in the tentacles of a young octopus. When brought to the surface its body was swollen like a balloon.

The section of cable upon which all this strange life was found had been down 10 years at a depth of a mile and a half.

They went down the stairs into another room, even more luxuriously furnished. The great bed stood at one side with curtains drawn.

"Will you please come into this shop with me?" she asked innocently.

"Certainly," he chickabiddy," he replied, "if I can be of any use. What is it?"

"Who can tell," she retorted, and she turned away from me to gaze down at the scene below.

"The wine had done its work—had converted harmless peasants and cow-ering wretches into bloodthirsty brutes, animated by a kind of frenzied rage."

Hoodwinking Clergymen

When a small clique of men put up a scheme to harness the clergy of America and induce the ministers to in turn "blitch up" the members of the churches, we should all take notice.

They couldn't harness the preachers here, had cause except by deceiving them.

Ministers of the gospel are essentially and fundamentally honest, but, like all men who work for the public good, they are at times misled by false statements.

Trust them when they have exact truth to speak from.

Now for the story which should interest every one for we are all either receivers of wages or we pay to wage earners and the freedom of each individual is at issue.

In various papers the following statement has been printed. Read it carefully at least twice.

"Interest in Labor Sunday. Labor Sunday—the Sunday preceding Labor day—will be observed generally this year and in future years throughout the United States.

"Labor Sunday—the Sunday preceding Labor day—will be observed generally this year and in future years throughout the United States.

There is seldom a day passes but somewhere in our country from one to a score of our fellow men are assaulted or murdered by members of this band.

Then remember the homes blown up or burned. The families hounded, the rioting, burning of street cars, wrecking of trains and attempted or successful killing of passengers.

The general disturbance of industry and the thousands of dollars forced from tax payers to pay extra police, sheriffs and militia to protect, even in a feeble way, the citizens from the mobs of members of the American Federation of Labor.

Then you will realize why the great peace-loving majority of over 40 million Americans protest against the growth of this crime-tainted organization comprising perhaps one and one-half million men, of which it is estimated at least seven-tenths are peace-loving citizens and are members by coercion and are not in sympathy with the three-tenths who have gained control and force their methods.

We find that a few designing men have seized control of the American Federation of Labor, just as some three or four capitalists have secured control of the great railroads and other interests and are now twisting and turning them into machines for personal profit and fame.

These men cunningly plan to force workmen to join and pay 25 to 75 cents a month in fees.

Various methods are used to "induce" workmen to join.

First, they talk of the "tyranny of capital" making slaves of workmen.

Then they work up enthusiasm about the "brotherhood of man" and other talk which experience has shown excites the emotions of workmen and they are induced to join and pay fees to the leaders.

The 5000 workmen in Battle Creek are, as a rule, free from the dictates of the great Labor Trust and still get the highest wages in Michigan.

If they had yielded to the smooth talk of the agents of the trust and joined, they would pay in fees from $125.00 to $2000.00 a month to the big trust and be subject to strike orders any time.

Now they save that and put the money into homes and family comforts.

But the managers of the American Federation of Labor have worked hard and long to harness them.

The trust has sent small bales of money and last winter 18 "organizers" to tie up Battle Creek. They hired halls, gave picture shows, smokers, etc., as an investment, looking to rich returns when they succeeded in having them tied hand and foot.

But they failed and the last of these "organizers" left Battle Creek on May 1st saying "it's no use."

The workmen knew the record of this great trust and formed their own association to protect their rights and also to protect them from the big Labor Trust.

In Philadelphia some 4000 independent street car men, who mainly had families, had their own union and refused to join the big trust, preferring to be free to work or not as they pleased.

But the trust planned to force them into the fee-paying ranks, so a strike was ordered to compel the traction company to kick out these men and hire only Labor Trust members.

It was not a question of wages or hours but to push the free men out of their positions where they were earning good money to support their families. The strike was ordered, not to raise wages or reduce hours, remember, but solely to throw out members of an independent union and make places only for Labor Trust members, and thus show the independent men that they first paid fees to the trust managers.

Incidentally the people of Philadelphia must submit to no car service, no trolley and bloodshed with millions in losses while these fee-hunting, note-hoarding trust leaders were busy plotting the world that industry cannot be carried on except by workman who first bend the knee, bow the head and pay fees.

How these men as strike leaders love to see their names in the papers each morning! It's meat and bread to their souls.

Then think of the lordly power, and don't forget the steady flow of money squeezed from the workman's hard earned pay envelope.

But when these leaders "tie up" any industry no man can hold a job who refuses to pay fines even on trumped up charges, and steadily pay fees whatever they are.

The workman is absolutely at the mercy of this band of men who have secured and hold control.

Many and many an honest workman has raised his voice and appealed to the yoke of Gomer, et al. But as one writes, "At every convention of the American Federation of Labor, strong opposition comes up but at the critical moment the impassioned orator appears and most dramatically puts the spot light on the leader and covers him with a mawkish film of martyrdom and the emotional delegates yell in delight, forgetting the instructions in the peaceful workings of a house who desire to free themselves from the odium of membership under the great advocates of strike, boycott, violence and hate."

So we see the unequalled insolence with which these trust leaders propose to "induce" ministers to pull their chestnuts from the fire by preaching modern aggressive and violent labor "trust" methods.

There is a better way to secure justice for workers, as will appear further along.

Just a little diversion here.

I am charged with having first brought to the attention of the public some years ago, the name "Labor Trust."

A trust is a combination of men or organizations for the purpose of selling their product at a profit and restricting production to effect it.

We will say a large Oil Company gathers up smaller ones and thus controls production.

The Labor Trust "gathers in" local trade organizations and thus has power to say how much work each man shall do.

The Oil Company may "use methods" to force an unwilling dealer to join.

The Labor Trust goes further and slug the independent man if he tries to sell his labor without paying fees and "obeying orders." They are both exactly alike in purpose, which, in both cases is entirely selfish to gain power and money for the leaders.

Certain Labor Trust members do not hesitate to use violence, dynamiting of property, burning homes of independent men and even murder to force obedience.

The Oil Company doesn't go so far. Both are extremely dangerous to the welfare of people and communities, for power placed in the hands of a few men either representing Capital or Labor is almost always abused and the public suffers.

Remember, reader, that your safety lies in strenuous opposition to all trusts when they ride over and dictate to the people.

Only by opposing their growth can you retain your personal liberty.

Now to ministers.

The average congregation is made up of about 90 per cent. of free citizens and much less than 10 per cent. of members of the Labor Trust.

The free citizen wants to hear words defending the rights and independence of the common man, free from the arbitrary dictates of any self-seeking organization either of Capital or Labor.

stroyed, men murdered and the long, long list of atrocities practised by Labor Trust members on other human beings who cannot agree with their trust methods.

Now for the better way.

Workmen are now organizing in the old fashioned trades unions of "guild" type, affiliated with the National Trades and Workers Association.

"Ah, mademoiselle, could the other that does not matter?"

"She turned from me with a gesture of impatience. Your mind travels always in a circle."

"Of which you are the center. What other figure could you mind describe, revolving as it does, about you?"

"She started, nevertheless. I think your star would have done better by you had it permitted you to continue your circle."

"You would have arrived there with a free heart, ready to fulfill your oath to your father; you would have had no opportunity to forget your duty. Your life would have been a beautiful one."

"The life of an ox would answer that description," I answered. "Yet I am very far from envying the ox."

BY DAD

Bound to have a hot time in Wayne, by dad, if we have to put cayenne pepper in it.

Tuesday's dailies brought the shocking intelligence that a boom for Sunny Jim Sherman for president had been launched "way down in the Ozark mountains." That ought to be a capital place to "discover" a "strong sentiment" for the re-election of Slippery Elmer to the United States senate.

Judge A. A. Welch, so Sam Davies tells us, is the only Wayne republican to receive an invitation to assist in the reception to Roosevelt at Omaha. Judge Welch can therefore be judged as the only progressive republican in Wayne of state prominence. The party "machine" and owners thereof, as well as the press, have little use for Teddy the Terrible. The republican voter, though, is not being properly reckoned with this political race.

The real "walking curiosities" are some of these christian gentlemen out with a long tongue of defamation for their fellowmen. It is past under standing how otherwise good men lose all semblance of decency or common sense when they become thoroughly saturated with the belief that their mission on earth is to prevent men from drinking beer unless they can afford to buy it in case or barrel lots. Say, if it appears rather dull living in Wayne north of the railroad track, try a residence in Roosevelt park. That locality was certainly well-named.

A fellow can stand it, or will stand it, to have it "rubbed into him," and "broken off in him," and salt put in the wounds, time and again, but you never can tell when he, like the woman, won't turn.

This is the week of sport at Carroll but we have not missed many of the Wayne sports from home. It takes wet Winside to draw a Wayne crowd away from home.

A certain Wayne family were leaving Crystal lake last Friday in a hurry to catch the Burlington train for Sioux City, enroute home. It was a close shave for time and the parents and five children had a good start on the quarter of a mile run to the boxcar depot, when one of the younger members cried in alarm, "Oh, we've forgotten the baby!" That was one instance where a count before flight would have revealed the missing. By dad, I always count mine when moving them from one point to another.

A Wayne county farmer made the statement this week that he hoped we would have a panic just to teach the hired hands of the present day a lesson. This farmer claims that years ago, when about twelve dollars per month was the going wage on the farm, employes saved more money than they do now at $35 per month, no milking to do, all riding instead of walking machinery, no wood to chop and only certain hours to work. A horse and buggy provided for Saturday nights and Sundays, and then the employer always afraid to lose the job for fear the hired man will tell him to go to Texas. It is some change, by dad. But we also notice that the farmer is nowadays wading in wealth instead of chattel mortgages and facing a famine.

The Cherokee, Iowa, Democrat feels that it is fortunate we have only one ex-president. Well, we'll soon have two of them—but one of them will be too dead to excite public attention.

Roosevelt sold advance copies of his speeches to the plate houses and we could buy them for 25 cents per column. But plate matter from Teddy is cold and uninteresting. What the people want is the teeth! the big stick! the sight of the lion-hunter, and see him vomit up smoke and fire, and fairly drip in the blood and brains of the corrupt standpatter.

A Wayne young man who is more slow than bashful recently had his girl out riding and she tried to make it easy for him in every way possible. Giving up in despair she was silent a long time and Harry said:

"What's the matter?"
"Oh, I feel so blue," she said, "no-body loves me and my hands are so cold."

"You should not say that," answered Harry, "for God loves you and your mother loves you and you can sit on your hands."

Why shouldn't John D. Rockefeller love the earth. Where else would he strike oil?—Norfolk News.

He may strike oil in hell some day, but it will be boiling hot stuff when he does.

There was lots of excitement on Main street last Saturday night caused by trouble between Mrs. Lenora O'Connell, wife of Oliver O'Connell, and Miss Anna Criss, the latter throwing cayenne pepper into the eyes of Mrs. O'Connell, causing the assaulted woman to shriek with pain. Monday Miss Criss was taken before Judge Britton and pleaded guilty to assault, being fined $10 and costs or some $15.00. The Democrat understands the trouble has been long-standing and further court action may be taken before peace is restored.

They all call for it on ice cream days—Whalen's.

IS A MONUMENTAL SUCCESS.

R. Durrin & Co. Doing an Unprecedented Business in Tombstones.

"Just drop in here and see the fine lot of monuments we are putting out now," was the invitation handed the Democrat man the other day by that sage and sculptor, R. Durrin. "Then if you feel like it you might touch us up in the paper a little bit," continued the student of stonology. "It certainly was an imposing and beautiful lot of marble memorials that our vision rested upon for the next half hour, and Prof. Durrin is a most entertaining instructor on the various kinds and qualities of marble used for this purpose, and he has all the varieties the earth produces unless it be the "marble heart."

One particularly fine piece of marble and workmanship, weighing over 6600 pounds, was being finished for a patron at Carroll. Another large and handsome monument was for Mrs. Charlotte Hurlburt; a memorial to her late husband, Orlando M. Hurlburt. Then there was a fine piece for a Hoskins family; another for Pender, one going to the Welsh settlement, not to mention the numerous local orders.

Of Prof. Durrin it can be most truthfully said that "his works will live long after him," and all over northeast Nebraska.

H. B. Stocking of the firm of Jewel & Stocking, Plainview, is assisting Mr. Durrin during the present rush of business.

EXCURSION NOTICE.

There will be a regular excursion to the San Luis Valley, Colo., on Tuesday Sept. 6th. In this valley you will find the cheapest good irrigated land in the United States today. Mr. Shaahan of the Gibson Land Co. will be in Wayne the last of this week and will be glad to give any information desired as to these lands. If you intend buying land for either a home or investment, better plan to go next Tuesday. For particulars phone or see Clyde Oman.

A young son of Will Baird is seriously ill with appendicitis.

P. H. Kohl came home from Omaha yesterday feeling under the weather. Phil says Jim Dahlman is nominated for governor beyond question and that there is no chance of a recount showing any other result.

A big crowd of Wayne people are in Carroll today.

The most important, essential in the wearing apparel of the American woman today is "Style." The question of "How long will a garment wear?" has been supplanted by the query, "Is it the very latest and most becoming style?" So in addition to furnishings, good cloth, good lining and good trimmings, the successful merchant must see that the suits, coats, and skirts he sees are of the most desirable and most popular styles.

We go to great pains to find styles winners in our garments every season. No one manufacturer shows all the best styles, so we do not buy all our goods of any one maker. As we specialize in Ladies' Ready To Wear Goods, and do an especially large business in suits and coats, we are visited each season by salesmen from many of the best houses in the country.

This fall we looked over the stocks shown by five of the most prominent manufacturers in the coat and suit business and selected for our stock the cream of the styles offered in all these lines. If you read the best Fashion magazines, you are doubtless familiar with the names, "Style-Craft," "Prince-Biederer," "Worth Styles," "Sunshine Garments," and "Bischof Styles"—these are the names given the garments put out by five houses famous for their high-class garments, and we chose our stock after a careful examination of their garments. When it comes to style combined with quality and fair price you'll find this stock by far the finest in Wayne.

Mac Miller Going to—Arizona

Joliet, Ill., Aug. 31.—To Joe Morton, Sioux City, Mo.; Alice won easily, time 2:11 1/2. Gil Harrison.

The above telegram indicates that the chorus to that popular song which runs "What's the use of dreaming dreams that ne'er come true?" does not apply to the case of McClelland Miller, of Wayne, Neb., who owns Alice L. Woodford, by Woodford Wilkes, one of the best performers sent out from the Woodland race park in many seasons. M. Miller bred and raised Alice, and when she was a suckling, romping at the side of her dam, Alice G. Miller, who had his ups and downs on the turf, used to take friends out to the pasture and point out the filly. He would say, "Boys, there's going to be my breadwinner." It appears he was right.

Alice L. Woodford, bay in color, grew to be a handsome animal in a Nebraska pasture. From the first time she ever wore a harness she showed an ambition to trot. She was possessed of a good head, an even balanced gait, a fine disposition, and had consistency personified. Her early training was over the half mile track at Wayne, Neb., and as a youngster she could trot at a 40 shot. With all his hopes centered on the ability of this promised filly to make him a creditable race horse, which now has been realized, Mr. Miller became hopelessly crippled from rheumatism. In 1908 he "laid the mare up." Early last spring he brought her, together with her half sister, Mary Ann, to the Woodland park race course. His faith in Alice had never wavered. Miller, hobbling around on crutches, did all of his own training. It was necessary to lift him onto the "bikes" on "workout" days, and after a heat he personally superintended the care taking of the horse. Gradually Alice rounded into superb form. It was the talk of the track how "McMiller," as he is called by horsemen, could drive so well. All during the early work he allowed no one to touch his favorite horse. He often called her his bank account. One day, when Alice stepped a mile in 2:08, Miller said "If Alice can stay sound, boys, she can win enough money for me, and she and I will winter in Phoenix, Ariz." This is where Miller wants to go in an effort to regain his health. Now it looks as if his dream had come true.

Alice L. Woodford made her first appearance in the great western circuit at Peoria, Ill., in a $1,000-stake race. In a big field of horses she was second. Miller had employed the services of "Gil" Harrison, one of the best of western drivers, who did the piloting. Harrison still is driving Alice. At Peoria, she was second in 2:09 1/2. Her next start at Galesburg, where she won a $600 purse, taking a mark of 2:14. From Galesburg she was shipped to Joliet, Ill., where she won yesterday in a class event carrying a $500 purse. After dropping the first heat to Castle Dome, in 2:13 1/2 and 2:14 1/2. From Joliet, Alice L. Woodford goes to Hamline, Minn., and from there comes to woodland to start at the Interstate Fair races—Sioux City Journal.

...Peter Schuttler Wagon...

About the Building of a Schuttler Wagon

Some men are so constituted that whatever they do must be done right. They can no more slight any part of their work than they can change day into night. Everything must be made as good as they can possibly make it.

That's the way the original Peter Schuttler did his work, and PETER SCHUTTLETS SONS HAVE BEEN MAKING WAGONS IN THE SAME CAREFUL WAY EVER SINCE. And today the name "SCHUTTLETS" on a wagon stands for the highest possible QUALITY, just as it did when the first Schuttler wagon was made.

Quality is the only thing known around the Schuttler factory. The cost of building a wagon is never considered in the beginning, but every wagon is made just as good as it is possible to make it, and the selling price fixed afterward.

This explains why, in the face of the ever increasing scarcity and consequent advance of wagon material on one hand, and a constant demand for lower prices from the consumer on the other, Schuttler wagons retain the same high standard. Their makers don't know how to make them otherwise. The difference between a Schuttler wagon and a common wagon is only a few dollars, so why take chances on a common wagon, when you can have THE BEST WAGON MADE.

FALL MILLINERY IS HANDSOME

Tall Turbans and Large, Graceful, Mushroom Effects Principal Features.

The Misses Van Gilder have just returned from an extended visit from the eastern wholesale millinery markets.

Knowing that the ladies of Wayne and vicinity are greatly interested in the hat styles for the coming season, the Democrat reporter called on them yesterday to get some definite information on this all important subject.

"The new fall millinery is the prettiest yet," said the Misses Van Gilder. "I feel sure that every woman who loves becoming headgear—and where is there one who does not?—will be greatly pleased with the new ideas that have been brought out."

"Turbans in Hindu effects and drooping brim, mushroom ideas along new lines are the principal features. The crowns of the small hats and turbans are usually quite high, and the brims in some cases rise so abruptly from the face that the outline of the hat has a tendency to remind one of a warrior's helmet."

A number of pretty poke effects are shown, even in the large hats, and the brims often bend into a point at the front. Some of these poke effects in the large brims bend so as to almost conceal both ears.

"Very large hats, including the mushroom brims, slant to the back in such a manner that they may touch the nape of the neck and shoulders. Among milliners these have the very appropriate name of "Cape" hats, and there is the one-sided droop—the brim being brought down to almost touch one shoulder."

"Persian silk, bright colored zibiline, satin, brocaded silk, velvet and beaver cloth all enter prominently into the making of hats. Ostrich plumes, for the better hats are tremendously popular. It will also be a big season for wings."

"And what are the new colors?" "They are many. Brass color is decidedly new and especially important. Bright blues, including the new Bleriot blue, are strong. Bright blue combined with black makes a pleasing combination. Flame reds are also much in favor. Emerald green, sand color, pink, old rose and maple are quite popular. Black and white combinations are the reigning fad in Paris and New York." —ADV.

They'll waltz him up and down upon a rail, and alter nearly turn him head and tail, or howsoever they may best enjoy the views in Venice or the site of Troy.

The festive calf will blithely snuff and snort and deftly tip up where the hair is short, and in the quiet even afterglow the quail will pipe his dul-cet piccolo. The bold insurgent will insure the more, and fill the planet with his dreadful roar, and each one betting he will not be last, and autumn candidates will gallop past.

The new progressive and the Democrat, the uninsurgent that are standing pat, and in the midst of them, unfaint of heart, our Mr. Bryan on the water cart. A maze of issues, and a mass of men, and lo, a gallus busting now and then, and not especially alarmed by it, the trusts desisting till the swarm has lit.

The man from Elba trying to come back,
And the poor consumer in his cul-de-sac
Unknowing if the quaking earth portends
Death of the near approach, perhaps,
Of friends.

But howsoever and be it as may, the dread mosquito will have had its day and joining Satan in its spectral growth, have made it real hell there for them both. The while the earthly remnant of it swigs upon the window screen, and drying clings to that, post which, though wanting mortal fire, it still holds with its face against the wire.

The sad first day of school will come to pass,
And the barfoot boy will hide but in the grass,
And by the time we've caught, these malcontents
The Crippen chase will look like thirty cents.

Milady Fashion in her hobble skirt will stride the pavement with the men alert to set her right side up again in case she should in time turn turtle any place. It does beat thunder what the women wear, and how they stick on other people's hair, constrict their middles and constrain their toes and what happiness they attach to clothes. But bless us, are they after all to blame, or had they been in these things quite the same if Mother Eve's first thought, as we suppose, had not been necessarily of clothes? Was it to be expected in her case that with a man somewhere upon the place she ever thought of anything at all but gowns, slipovers, or perhaps a shaw?

But anyhow, the crawfish will have hold?
And the pumpkin shown the faintest trace of gold.

The sassafras will don a redder dress,
And the gods will crowd around the cider press.

Or prohibition or whatever will, here is a fountain that shall serve us still a place of restin and a steal away out of the desert and the heat of day. A place of quiet and the shade of palms, of irrigation and the soothing balms, that no reformer till the poles embrace shall ever capture for a bathing place.

The hosts of labor will parade the street, which will remind us of a happy feat in arbitration from the olden days when Julius Caesar was a sort of czar. It is related of that ancient time that sweet September in the Roman clime was hot as blazes, and the union file could only march about half a mile. It wasn't anything at all, they say, to watch the mighty pageant get away, the music playing and the flags displayed, and see it suddenly duck for the shade. The gasping drummer with his sounding drum, the bronzed mechanics who perhaps had come a dozen squares, and in the frantic rout, age and apprentice with its tongue stuck out.

The faint impression the procession made on Roman capital for long dismayed the union leaders, when the serried ranks at times not even passed the Roman banks. And so it was when mighty Caesar came, and having found the populace a flame, he showed September from the seventh place along to ninth, which has remained the case. He merely interchanged it with July, but when he asked them how was that for high, they fairly inundated him with smiles, and have since been doing about twenty miles.

The autumn equinox will come around, And Roosevelt, by that time eastward bound, Will aid it in the making of such storms As they may find necessary to a few reforms.

And then the sun will turn still softer yet,
And the bold October, having duly set His planes, and carefully put on his brake,
Will see what sort of landing he can make.

Tom Evans of Traer, Iowa, was an arrival from Idaho Monday night and went to Carroll for a few days visit before returning to Iowa. Tom says he had a long visit with the Wayne and Carroll people at Ashton and Arco. He says it was some windy at Ashton, as Frank Owen put it "windy enough to blow," etc. At Arco he saw Messrs. Woodward of Winside and Maher of Carroll. The former lives in Arco, but Maher was "way out on a farm where he had to haul water for the household twelve miles, and go four miles to get water for six head of horses and four cows. "Going some" for even an irrigated country. Mr. Maher said he was going to move to Arco this fall. Mr. Evans said that Geo. Harrigfeldt was the smartest man in all that country and brought back photographs of "the man for the state legislature." Ashton Idaho, Mr. Evans thought better of than any country he saw on his trip, but he is not all crazy to move out there.

L. C. Gildersleeve states that the Democrat was in error last week in saying that hogs took a drop and that he would lose on a bunch bought of J. T. Bressler. Although the Democrat did not make any such statement, only that "what tickled Simon was a drop in the market." Mr. Gildersleeve thinks it was a "slaam" at his business methods, and that hogs were higher all week instead of lower, and for proof of the Democrat's bad guess showed us the receipts of the sale in a profit of over $46.

F. M. Skeen tells the Democrat that he will probably ask for an injunction restraining the city from putting in a cement walk fronting his property south of the depot, a contract for which work was let at last Monday night's council meeting to Ray Perdue, the lowest and best bidder. Mr. Skeen takes exception to this rather offensive procedure on the ground that neither the city nor other property owners have as yet built cement walks in that particular part of the street, that the city has not taken legal action to enforce such construction of these other property holders, and that his present platwalk is in good repair. We notice, however, that other parties have been treated with the same courtesy as Mr. Skeen.

J. H. Ruebeck tells the Democrat that he was on the range for seven years, on the same ranch that Jim Dahlman was over-seeer, and three years was a personal companion of Dahlman's in the round-up. Mr. Ruebeck says Dahlman was wild then, twenty-six years ago, but known as one of the best and squarest cowboys in the country. What mystifies J. DURING THE LONG SCHOOL SEASON

Within a few days your children will be going off to school again. Perhaps they will go to the country school, the village high school, or away to college; but in either case you can reach them at any time over the Bell Telephone.

There's not a college of any size in the country that does not use the Bell Service, and most high schools and many country schools have installed Bell Telephones, because it is the only service that is instantaneous, satisfactory, and universal.

BY THE WAY, HAVE YOU A BELL TELEPHONE?

A Question

(From the Wayne County Teacher)

We have been asked the question recently why pupils of town schools are permitted to take the eighth grade pupils' examination and if they fail are promoted just the same as those who pass, while the rural pupil must pass this examination or remain in the grade another year. It seems only justice that a pupil from a town school should meet the same requirements that one from the country does.

The eighth grades of Carroll, Winside and Hoskins have taken the pupils' examination, given by the county superintendent, for a number of years and promotion has been based partially upon this test; that is, those who fail on this examination are not promoted unless conditionally.

The testimony of all grammar room teachers with whom we have talked has been that pupils do better work when they know they must prepare for this examination than when they do not have this test to meet. This is logical for the reason that the grammar grades are the hardest to "hold in line" and any incentive to do better and more thorough work should be brought to bear upon them.

Beginning School the First Day

There should be no uncertainty, no hesitancy, this first day.

Be on time. Open school with a brief talk and, if possible, with music.

For the first few days it might be well to dispense with the singing unless you are confident you can sing well the songs you have chosen. I would make it an invariable rule to have singing after the first few days. Every pupil in the public schools should know and sing our national songs.

Permit pupils to select their seats and deskmates. Follow this rule as long as their conduct meets your approval.

Enroll the school. Pass slips of paper and have the older pupils write their names and ages. Assign lessons at once and begin regular work. Within ten minutes from the time school calls, the pupils, with the exception of the beginners, should be busy with their lessons. As soon as the older pupils have settled down to work give your attention to the beginners. During the first month or two, the beginners should have plenty of outdoor play.

Have some system for calling and dismissing your classes.

Have some system for sending pupils out to play at recess, (look up the pronunciation of this word) and for calling them again to the room. In good weather, send all the pupils from the room at recess, throw open a few windows and give the room a thorough airing.

After school arrange your permanent program from the data you have gathered through the day.

Cool us inside and out—a dish of Whalen's.

BY DAD

Mrs. "Jack" Cudahy of Kansas City was granted a divorce within ten minutes after she had filed the case. This ten minute stunt was pulled off for "protection of the children" and for their sake no testimony was introduced relating to her escapades with Banker Lillis. She need not have been so particular about the children at this time. She should have thought of them a long time ago. The stigma is there just the same and the unfortunate little ones will bear it or it will haunt them all their lives—Pender Times.

Rats! If they are Cudahys or Lillis' by breeding or principle, this scandal won't haunt them anymore than a yellow rabbit.

Some of you real dry ones ought to be willing and glad to do a christian duty—vote for Dahlman so as to remove him from the seething wickedness of Omaha, to the grand, white-rabbit, throne in dry, dirty, dusty Lincoln.

Funny isn't it? When Shallenberger was making the race for governor he got the support of both prohibition and anti-prohibition forces on—identically the same statement of his position that Candidate Dahlman now makes. If you don't believe it look up Shally's campaign speeches and pledges.

Then there is the Sioux City Tribune that lambasted the political life of Bryan. Then pounded Shallenberger and lauded Sheldon to St. Peter's door. Now it would tear Jim Dahlman limb from limb because Shallenberger has been such a wonderfully great governor, and in the meantime is so sorry for Bryan's political ambitions that it believes the old man will eventually "come back" and pound his democratic enemies to death.

The Pierce Call says that the Pierce Leader, a bitter democratic antagonist of Dahlman for governor, has placed itself "between the devil and the deep sea." Which is the "devil" and which the "deep sea" is easy of solution, for isn't Aldrich the "salt water candidate?"

It is claimed that one can cure a cold by merely going up 5,000 feet in an airship. Never tried it, but we know that one stands a mighty good chance of reaching a climate where he won't feel the cold.

Mayor Gaynor has been permitted to do a little walking. Some people are getting mighty anxious for him to run, and he may in 1912.

The great spectacular—the world's greatest press agent, has started on his campaign of speech making. He is loaded clear to the muzzle and wants to know if he isn't the greatest man that ever lived. If he had started a little earlier he might have gone out and extinguished those forest fires—"blowed" 'em out.

It is said that Esperanto, the language which its enthusiasts hope to make universal, contains no "cuss" words. It will never become popular among automobilists.

James A. Patton says the world faces the greatest shortage of wheat in ten years. It would be a good idea for Jim to buy all he can.

The farmers who own motor cars are in favor of good roads. Some of the others are knoekers.

Rockwell City Advocate: Billy Sunday denies the rumor that he will quit evangelistic work. In a letter written in response to a request for a statement regarding the matter Sunday says: "The report that I am to retire is all nonsense—bunk—hot air. I never dreamed of such a thing. My life's work is to preach. That is what I shall do until I die." Well, the cause of Christianity has withstood and overcome a great many obstacles, and is certain to survive, despite the avowed intention of this prince of black-guards.

An Auburn man is suing his wife for divorce because she went out seventeen years ago to make a call and has not yet returned. Beats all how impatient some men become as they grow old.

Says the Wayne, Neb., Democrat: "What do you know about a Wayne woman doing her neighbor's washing on Saturday, giving birth to a baby Saturday night, and getting out another neighbor's washing on Monday. These match-waisted women would die off like flies in hot soup in a race like that."—Cherokee Democrat.

Yes, and that is only a small part of this remarkable instance where necessity knew no law of custom. When this infant was born the only other occupant of the house was a small child less than two years old. There was absolutely no other attendant save the mother; no doctor, nurse, or even neighbor, and with the assistance of only the ghostly stork the new baby was made welcome and comfortable.

"The Workers" will give a church in the basement of the M. E. social Friday evening. An admission of five cents will be charged for the program, after which social games will be played. Refreshments served at the close of the program.

Norfolk News: If the pledges made by the republican platform of 1908 are to be carried out in full, as the people wanted them to be carried out when they elected Taft, then the president must give a congress that will work with him toward the redemption of those pledges, and not one that will block the desired legislation and even overthrow the protective principle that the republican party stands for.

"Whipping Up" in Court.

Tuesday afternoon Judge Britton's court was busy over a case entitled State vs. John Farrell, E. B. Perry charging defendant with stealing a buggy whip from his barn near the stock yards. The matter was put before a jury, Messrs. Jos. Atkins, Ray Reynolds, John Larson and A. E. Bressler. Atty. Berry defended Farrell and a great amount of testimony was elucidated, that of the defendant being somewhat mixed as to the alleged transaction, he claiming that he owned a whip, had put it in Perry's buggy shed, had taken it away again, and that when Perry sent word to bring it back or he would send the sheriff after him he returned the whip to Perry's barn but did not see Perry about it, but was willing to give up the property rather than have trouble about it. The most interesting part of the program was between the attorneys, Mr. Berry stating that if they wanted to get evidence to hang a man they could get it at a certain livery barn if they had money to pay for it, etc. To all this Prosecuting Attorney Davis took exception and the court finally quelled the discussion along these ethical points. The jury found the defendant guilty as charged.

John Farrell worked for several years hauling brick for John Sherbaha and for the past two weeks has been living on Simon Goeman's place north of town. Judge Britton fined Farrell $5 and costs, the costs aggregating some twenty-five dollars. An appeal bond was signed by Simon Goeman. Mr. Perry says he has been pestered by petty thieving about his barns for years and he simply figured that he had to do something to put a stop to it.

Two Great Ball Games.

Wayne county enjoyed two great ball games last week, Thursday and Friday, with Gayville, S. D., although the visitors were practically ex-state league players and do not live in the little village of Gayville. It was, however, the best ball team that has visited Wayne this year, the same team having given the classy nine of LeMars, Ia., two shut-outs. In the first game Vic Simon went on the mound for the locals and did good work until the 7th when the visitors began hitting the ball viciously and some rotten errors in the field gave the game away, seven to two at the close. Friday's contest was closer, 2 to 0, Wayne playing a superb game in the field, a good many hits being gleaned by the visitors off of Sabs, although the latter did some fine pitching. Big crowds were present at each contest and everybody got their money's worth.

Gleaned from Annual Report

From Wayne County Teacher:

Out of 134 teachers employed in the county last year, 13 were men.

There was an average of 161 days of school for each district in the county.

The school census shows a very slight increase over last year, there being 3577 children of school age this year. Out of this number 2748 were enrolled in school.

The average daily attendance of the county was 1751.

The amount expended on the schools in round numbers was $68,000 or an average cost of $19 per child.

The average salary of male teachers was $68.50 a month; of female teachers $45.50.

There are 82 districts in the county; 84 school houses and it requires 113 teachers to supply the schools.

There are but five districts in the county which have unpaid bonds.

The average tax levy was 11 1/2 mills.

Where no certificate is indicated the teacher in question has not completed the examination.

Of General Interest

Get ready for the first day.

Experience is the best teacher, but the fees are heavy.

A teacher should not work for her pay—the pay should come as a result of doing good work. He who works well gets paid well as a natural result.

A lazy teacher should have chosen some other profession.

"To-day is short; tomorrow never comes. If you have anything to do,

GET BUSY"

Teacher, are you the kind of person that a child ought to copy? If you are not, better give up your school.

Interest in any line of work is contagious. If you want your pupils to be interested in their work get intensely interested in it yourself.

The best way to study history is to study the lives of the men who made it.

Teachers are servants of the public and it is utter folly to insist upon engaging in amusements, harmless in themselves perhaps, of which the community disapproves.

Anything that weakens a teacher's character, detracts from her success as a teacher. Things that may appear of no moment to some, loom up like mountains to others.

Eighth grade pupils should be gotten in line for their work at the beginning of the year. Exert every influence to secure promptness and regularity. Hold out to them the importance of persevering in their work, now that they have gotten so far, until the course is finished. The course of study should be followed closely and an endeavor be made to have 75 per cent. of those who attempt the pupil's examination pass. For the last three years but one-half of those who were in the eighth grade have graduated.

Out-door games at noon and recess are beneficial to both teacher and pupil. We see no reason why a teacher cannot participate in a game of "Wood Tag", "Hide and Seek" or "Dare Base" and yet retain her womanly dignity. At least for a while, until a teacher feels that she "knows" her school and has perfect control, she should be on the play grounds at intermissions. Most unorthodox originates on the play grounds and the wise teacher "prevents" instead of punishes wrong doing.

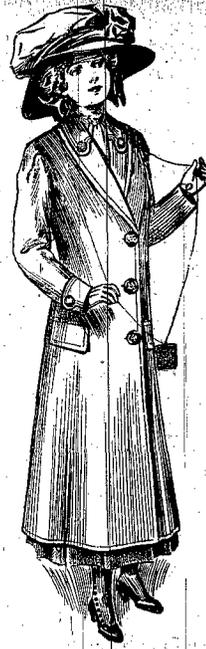

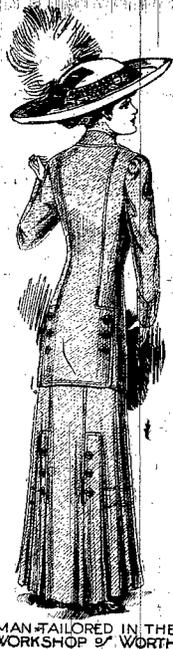

Somewhere Dickens speaks about a chorus in which each singer took the tune he liked the best and sang it to his hearts content. We often think of that chorus when a body of women attempt to transact any business. Each one takes the topic uppermost in her mind and leads everything back to that with the result that very little business is accomplished. Woman's greatest lack is her executive ability. Professor Gregg's training class in Parliamentary Law ought to be a help to the teachers of Wayne county in this respect.

Whatever you do, when you go out to your school don't listen to the tales of woe concerning the last teacher or the family troubles of the patrons of the district. Beware the woman whose sentences always begin with "Have you heard" and end with a question mark. It would take a search warrant to find the grain of truth in her story. The worse thing in any community is a gossiping woman or perhaps it is a gossiping man. Both are non compos mentis.

A certain school officer was well pleased this week when the teacher, a beginner whom they had hired, came into the district, looked over the school house and supplies, made a list of the things necessary to begin school, talked intelligently of term summary and classification report and gave evidence of knowing something of the work she was to undertake. So often a beginner is so ignorant of the technicalities and methods of teaching that it seems a crime to let her begin a school. To cap the climax, that kind never realize their deficiencies and are so self-satisfied with the fact that they have earned a third grade certificate, or have graduated from High School that they can never be told anything.

Quite a number of school officers have sent in their subscriptions to the Wayne County Teacher. We certainly appreciate the favor with which this little sheet meets among the teachers and school officers.

If your teacher does not show enough interest in her work to call at the school house and familiarize herself with the conditions, she is one who does not fully comprehend her duty, nor does she care about getting a right start. No teacher can walk into a strange school on Monday morning and do herself credit. A teacher should know who was enrolled last year, where each left off in every study, what grades were made, and have a program arranged before the day school opens. She should have work prepared for the beginners, lessons "looked up" for the more advanced—in fact school should open at 9 o'clock on the day set.

MAN-TAILORED IN THE WORKSHOP OF WORTH

The New Suits, Coats and Skirts Are Here

Now is the time to select your new suit or skirt. The stock is complete today--all the newest models bought while in the east week before last are here. At no time this fall will you have a larger or finer stock to choose from than is right here now. These goods are not the product of any one manufacturer. No one maker gets out all the best styles, consequently we choose each season the very cream of all the styles offered by several of the best factories in the country and by so doing we get for you a variety of models to choose from, every one of which was selected for its fine style. Style is the most important feature demanded in a suit by well dressed woman of today and consequently we use our very best efforts to get style in the suits we buy for you. Of course you expect all wool goods, good linings and trimmings, and we see that you get them just as good as it is possible to make them--in fact, there is not a reputable manufacturer in the country today but knows that he has to use the best of materials--every good merchant demands that as a matter of course--but there must be more than good cloth--there must be STYLE, and that is where we specialize. Let us show you these suits. We make a specialty of the Ready to Wear business and there is no necessity of your going away or sending away for a suit as long as we are here to serve you. If you are hard to fit we'll have a suit made for you and you need pay no money until you try it on and find it satisfactory. We'll save you some money, too, as our expense of selling these goods is light compared to the city stores and catalogue houses.

My Method of Doing Business

I BUY in very large quantities at lowest prices for spot cash direct from the Distillers and Producers.
 I SELL BY MAIL at WHOLESALE PRICES to consumers.
 MY SELLING-EXPENSE is very small because I employ no traveling men to solicit business for me. I carry no book accounts, therefore have no losses by bad debts. I cut off all the expensive methods of the old style credit houses and give you the benefit of the saving. Mine is the most economical way of placing Wines and Liquors before the buying public—my price list gets the business for me at the lowest possible expense.
 MY GOODS are first-class in every particular and guaranteed to conform with all Pure Food Laws.
 MY PRICES are lower than any house in the trade. I understand them all.
 MY TERMS are F. O. B. Sioux City—Cash with order.
 MY GUARANTEE is back of everything I sell—if not satisfactory for any reason, goods may be returned at my expense of freight both ways and your money back.
 MY FACILITIES are second to none—we are prompt and careful in the filling of all orders.

Special Mid-Week Services.

The Presbyterian church of Wayne expects to hold special evangelistic services early in November, and with a view to preparing for these meetings, some special mid-week services will be held at the church every week during September and October. These mid-week services will be held on Wednesday evening of each week and the lives of eminent men of God in all ages will be studied. Different members of the church will portray the lives of the men who have been active in past years in promoting religion in the world. The program of these meetings will be as follows:

Date	Subject	Leader in Discussion
Sept. 7—Moses		A. R. Davis
Sept. 14—Abraham		Mrs. Ringland
Sept. 21—Paul		Fred Phillo
Sept. 28—M. Luther		Supt J. H. Kemp
Oct. 5—John Knox		Miss C. White
Oct. 12—John Wesley
		Mrs. D. Harrington
Oct. 19—David Livingstone
		Mrs. H. G. Leisenring
Oct. 26—D. L. Moody
		Mrs. W. H. Morris

Presbyterian Notes

The regular services in every department of the work of the church will be resumed next Sabbath.

The morning service of worship begins at 10:30 at which time the pastor will sound the key-note for the work of the coming fall and winter. His text will be "To Every Man His Work."

The Sunday school meets at 11:45, at the close of the morning worship.

The C. E. society will meet at 7:00 to resume its regular prayer meetings for the year. New topic cards will be distributed.

The evening service will be a popular service in the interests of the wage-earners, as next Sabbath is Labor Sunday.

Labor Sunday.

Next Sabbath, Sept. 4th, has been set apart in the Presbyterian church of America as Labor Sunday. This is an effort on the part of the church to get in closer touch with the working people of America, especially in the large centers of population. Labor Sunday will be observed next Sabbath evening at the Presbyterian church. The pastor will speak on "The Labor Question." As the Founder of Christianity was at one time a laboring man in very humble circumstances the Christian church has always taken a keen interest in the welfare of those who toil.

Howard on Dahlman.

The Columbus Telegram, a strong "Shallenberger for governor" newspaper, now sizes it up as follows:
 In any event the democratic party will be in good shape to elect a governor. The good administration of Governor Shallenberger will appeal strongly to the people in case he shall be finally declared to be the nominee. The personal strength of Mayor Dahlman will be as potent on election day as it was on primary day.

And now, looking at Mr. Dahlman as the democratic nominee (as he must be pending the recount), we see in his candidacy many elements of strength. His personality is great. This must be admitted, even by his bitterest opponents, the admission being supported by his immense primary vote in a contest in which he appeared to have only a fair chance to win second money. James C. Dahlman has been caricatured as an immoral man. That is not the fact. It is true that he has often taken a drink of whiskey when he should have taken beer or water, but during all his strenuous career as sheriff of a frontier county, and mayor of a great city, he has never neglected the call of public duties. It is true that Mr. Dahlman has often played poker and bridge whist, but the man does not live who could ever say that Jim did not hold and play an honest hand.

In our view Mayor Dahlman will easily defeat the republican nominee for governor. Not because Mr. Aldrich is unworthy, for indeed he is an excellent gentleman. Mayor Dahlman will defeat Mr. Aldrich on the issues in the campaign. The issue will be clear. The election of Mr. Aldrich will be a victory for the prohibitionists. There is no use looking at the situation in any other light. We say Mayor Dahlman will win on such an issue, because we do not believe Nebraska is a prohibition state. And it is well that the issue should be clear. It will be better to pass upon this prohibition question right now than to put it aside for a season. If the majority in Nebraska shall speak this fall in favor of Mr. Aldrich for governor, then we may confidently look for a quick-step toward state prohibition, because Mr. Aldrich and his followers are fast running in that direction, and he would certainly sign a legislative enactment for prohibition, and he would certainly endorse a plan to submit a prohibitive amendment to the constitution. On the other hand Mayor Dahlman, in the office of governor, would certainly veto any legislative step in the direction of prohibition. This makes the situation pleasingly plain. The contest will be stripped of all side issues. There will be one issue only—prohibition versus anti-prohibition, and the people of the state will declare against prohibition.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

The following proposed amendment to the constitution of the state of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska, to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 8th, A. D. 1910.

"A JOINT RESOLUTION to amend Section one (1) of Article seven (7) of the State of Nebraska.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

Section 1. (Amendment constitution proposed.) That section one (1) of article seven (7) of the constitution of the State of Nebraska, the same concurring, be so amended as to read as follows:

Section 1. (Who are electors.) Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a resident of this state six months next preceding the election day of the county, precinct or ward, for the term provided by law, shall be an elector; provided, That persons of foreign birth who shall have declared their intention to become citizens conformably to the laws of the United States and are voting at the taking effect of this amendment, may continue to exercise the right of suffrage until such time as they may have resided in the United States five years after which they shall take out full citizenship papers to be entitled to vote at any succeeding election.

Section 2. (Ballots.) That at the general election nineteen hundred and ten (1910) there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection the foregoing proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage. At such election, on the ballot of each such elector, for or against said proposed amendment, shall be written or printed the words: "For proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage," and "Against said proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage."

Section 3. (Adoption.) If such amendment shall be approved by a majority of all electors voting at such election, said amendment shall constitute section one (1) of article seven (7) of the constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Approved April 1, 1909.
 Geo. C. Junkin, Secretary of State, of the state of Nebraska do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska is a true and correct copy of the original, and that said proposed bill, as passed by the thirty-first session of the legislature of the State of Nebraska, as appears from said original bill on file in this office, and that said proposed amendment is submitted to the qualified voters of the state of Nebraska for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on Tuesday, the 8th day of November, A. D. 1910.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the great seal of the State of Nebraska. Done at Lincoln, this 29th day of July, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ten, and of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Thirty-fifth, and of this State the Forty-fourth.
