The per capita wealth of the Indian is approximately $2,130, that for other Americans is only a little more than $1,300. The lands owned by the Indians are rich in oil, timber and other natural resources of all kinds.

OUR VOICES

I think our conversational soprano, as sometimes overheard in the cars, arising from a group of young persons who have taken the train at one of our great industrial centers, for instance, young persons of the female sex, we will say, who have bustled in full dressed, engaged in loud, strident speech, and who, after free discussion, have fixed on two or more double seats, which having secured, they proceeded to eat apples and hand round daguerotypes—I say, I think the conversational soprano, heard under these circumstances, would not be among the alluresments the old enemy would put in requisition were he getting up a new temptation of St. Anthony.

CRIMINALS FROM THE GASTHER

The harmless customer leached across the cigar counter and smiled at the cashier at the new cashier. As he handed across the amount his dinner check called for he ventured a bit of aimless converse for he was of that sort.

THE "COUNTRY CHURCHYARD"

Those who recall Gray's "Elegy in a Country Churchyard" will remember that the peaceful spot where "the rude forefathers of the hamlet sleep" is identified with St. Giles' Stoke Poges, Buckinghamshire. MUSLIM TRADITIONS

Ramadan is the month exalted by Moslems above all others. In that month the Koran—according to Moslem tradition—was brought down by Gabriel from heaven and delivered to men in small sections. In that month, Mohammed was accustomed to retire from Mecca to the cave of Hira, for prayer and meditation. In that month Abraham, Moses and other prophets received their divine revelations. In that month the "doors of heaven" are always open, the passages to hell are shut, and the devils are chained. So run the traditions.—The Christian Herald.

THE LEAGUE OF POLITICIANS

The League of Politicians has been formed in Berlin. It aims at incalculating better manners among the people of Berlin. It was founded upon the initiative of Frauheim Cecelia Meyer, who was inspired by an existing organization in Rome. In deference to the parent organization the Berlin league has chosen the Italian motto, "Pro gentilezza." This will be emphasized upon an attractive little medal worn where Germans are accustomed to wear the insignia of orders. The idea is that a glance at the "fallsman" will annihilate any inclination to indulge in bad temper or discourteous language. "Any polite person" is eligible for membership.

THE GERMAN STORE

A Few Reasons

Why you should trade Now at the Wayne Variety Store

More or less, all of us were a little reckless in spending money during Christmas time. Any such extravagance has to be made up now by more economical buying.

The Variety Store, With Its Low Prices,
Is the Store for the Economical Buyer.

White spending money for others during Christmas time, the housewife generally forgets or sacrifices herself. She does in house and kitchen without many things she ought to have, but the buying of which she puts off until after Christmas.

Next Week We Get A Big Variety of
New Household and Kitchen Goods To Select From

Our special Saturday sales, which we shall continue next year, will be big money-savers for you. A new feature of our store will be a number of unadvertised special bargains, which we shall scatter about our store. We might have, for instance, amongst a lot of 75c teakettles one marked 10c. Such prices refer to the single article so marked only, and the lady who discovers one of those specials will have a find indeed.

Specials will be a distinguishing mark of our store next year.

BY DAD

A phonograph was used to furnish music at a Kentucky funeral. As the corpse didn't turn over every body was satisfied the poor thing was dead.

The Chicago Record-Herald says a Canton, Ohio man wants his wife to wear 60 cent hats. Why a Canton man? Is there a man in Wayne who doesn't want his wife to wear 60 cent hats?

"In future," says Dr. Wiley, "the air will furnish heat, fuel and power." Say, we have the air, alright, but the future may spoil a Wayne drayman.

Somebody claims to have invented a new kind of mince pie. Now, if he will just invent some other kind of a dream to go with it we'll put one over on that nightmare.

Still time enough to get those new "looking glasses," for 1911. Next year may look better to you if you have Optician Vail fit you out so you get the correct focus on things material to your welfare.

The Christmas joke is on Editor Gene Hase of the Herald. His little daughter bought a nice, dress shirt and thought to greatly surprise her papa by placing it where the clean, old, old one should be. The man of heavy cares put it on and never knew it was new until his office devil fell in a fit over the unusual apparition. The very idea of a newspaper man owning two shirts was considered most miraculous a few years ago.

The Democrat is informed by a close friend of J. T. Bressler's that the latter will not under any circumstances accept another term as mayor. Probably being mayor wouldn't be so bad under different circumstances, but John T. helped make the circumstances just what they are. It won't be necessary to enquire whether certain members of the council would accept another term.

The week after Christmas is about as prolific for news as the week after a hot campaign, in a country newspaper office.

The legislature convenes Tuesday, Jan 3rd. The "news from Lincoln" will occupy a "first page" position for a few weeks, but it will probably be the same old story.

An Omaha chauffeur got three years in the pen for running over a pedestrian, but this didn't happen until there had been several people run down and killed by reckless drivers.

What's become of that new depot the commercial club was going to have built at Wayne?

"If there is such a thing as reincarnation, that fellow will take the form of a pup and will have the mange all the time, and no decent dog will associate with him," is the way one man expressed his opinion of another today.—Madison Post.

We can beat that time in Wayne. Here we have what is supposed to be a man who only lacks the mange.

Subscribers or readers of newspapers may not know it, but nine tenths of the grief of a country editor is keeping his subscription accounts cleaned up. That is, collecting from those who really want the paper, and getting the deadbeats off the list.

The World-Herald and Bixby of the State Journal are indulging in a very uninteresting debate on booze and prohibition. But these disagreements we will always have with us until the millennium arrives.

Mr. Bryan announces that either FOLK, GARDNER, or HILSON will suit him as the Democrat's nominee for President in 1912. Now what does Judge Parker think of the situation?—Record-Herald.

Parker will at least be able to understand that any of the above gentlemen may be a lesser evil than the republican nominee.

The Madison Post, after a couple years experience, will change from a semi-weekly to weekly publication. That was the Democrat's experience ten years ago.

The Winside Tribune is lead to believe that Mayor Dahlman notified the chief of police to close the Omaha joints at 8 o'clock, as soon as the "wet" state senators finished their star session.

And Teddy was the chief pass grabber of the universe—he took a whole train at a grab, and lots of them.

Senator Narris Brown wants Santa Claus to put Victor Ross water in somebody else's stocking this year.—Winside Tribune.

Why take him out of his union suit? It is now proposed to investigate Roosevelt. There seems to be a growing desire in this country to investigate all public nuisances.—Winside Tribune.

You may have been a late Christmas shopper, but you still have time to pay for the Democrat before another year of grief is upon you.

Gov. Aldrich has made a long, strong threat of how he is going to make Omaha be good after he becomes an active executive. The Omaha Bee is lead to believe Aldrich is only fooling. Sometimes "these fotters" fool the foolish.

Bixby says: "If the doctors cannot tell what is killing a fellow, they call it a 'general breakdown.'" That's news to us. We have been led to believe that they always opened them and pulled their leg.

Oh why should the spirit of mortal be proud if he is still picking turkey bones?

What do you suppose Fred Sebald said when he got an invitation to Pawelski's dance?

Wayne people did not suffer as much from Christmas as the people of the wet burgs. Where the wetness flowed freely it took three days—Tuesday to recover from the effects of Monday.

The census department of the government made A. H. Carter and T. A. Strong "put back" part of the money paid them for counting noses. This department of Uncle Sam is evidently as near correct in the book-keeping methods as in counting the people.

We would like to have Doctor Williams' opinion of Dr. Cook.

Shall the senate in the manner Stamped Q. K. by Volpp and Tanner. Organize to help the brewers, who are now a deal too strong? Men with shirt-fronts smooth and starch.

Of the bug-juice oligarchy. Who are here to boost the brewers and to do the people wrong?

It would do me good to yollup. Such a pumpkin-head as Volpp Were I stationed in the senate to protect the people's rights.

And in like effective manner I would make it warm for Tanner; I would carry out my purpose if I had to sit up nights.

I would say: "You cannot line us up to stand for King Gambrinus; For that predatory monster, though you travel as he bids.

All the profit that inures From this trucking to the brewers, You are welcome to, my hearties, I'm for Mollie and the kids.

Let's be square with one another, And with all the state, my brother, Though it be in private business or in party politics;

Let the int'rests stand from under, Let the people rule, by thunder.— This is not the grafter's doctrine, but it suits me bully." BIX.

—Bixby in State Journal.

Over at Manson, Iowa, a Y. M. C. A. was recently organized. One night last week thirty-five of the boys were lined up for examination and when the physician had concluded it was found that twelve of the youngsters, from 13 to 17 years, were afflicted with "tobacco heart." The boys all confessed to being pipe and cigarette smokers. All of them are members of the "best families" and "well brought up." It is more than likely that about the same condition would be found in other towns or this town.

Manson Democrat: Now, young fellow, don't whine that there is no such a thing as opportunity any more and tell everybody that will take the time to listen to you that there is no chance for a young man. There is plenty of chance. Right now, everywhere, there is a chance for young people who will work.

The farms, the business houses, the banks are all looking around eagerly for young men and women who have brains, energy, common sense and get-up to them. They want somebody that is not a machine—somebody that can do things "different," as they say. They despise the machine in human form, the clock-watcher, the drone, the sport, the blase woman and the professional salary-grabber. They want somebody who will get at work on time and stay at work until the clock strikes or the whistle blows, instead of eternally watching the clock and figuring out little schemes to beat the boss. When they find the right person, that person is not "ground down" or "held back" for a minute, but is pushed forward, helped and raised in salary. The big business interest is always on the lookout for timber for department heads. The men in those positions wear out every now and then and new blood must be secured. It must be taken from the younger people, hence there is always an opportunity for advancement there.

The country editor who makes good in his little home town can always find a good job at a city newspaper desk at a good salary if he wishes to take it. The country banker can always go to the city and find big money with large financial institutions. The traveling salesman who attends to business and gets the orders can always find plenty of houses willing to give him a larger salary on a long-time contract. Opportunity not only knocks at your door, but actually goes into your bedroom and yanks you out by the hair of your head. If you go back to sleep again it's nobody's fault but your own. But opportunity is not hanging around to seize hold of you if you stink of cigarettes and booze, or if you insist on always talking religion instead of business. Sensible business people don't use cigarettes and booze, haunt moving picture shows and eat late suppers with beauties. Neither do they parade their religion in the business places, rather they wrestle with their conscience and do their praying in the privacy of their homes. Business of the progressive kind does not want a lot of false hair and face powder scattered over the top part of its stenographer, either. Neither does it buy her flowers and take her out to lunch.

Young man, young woman, do you know that "success" is spelled with just four letters? It is. Here's the way to spell it: W-O-R-K.

Here is the kind of an obituary a Georgia editor put up for a man:

"Poor Jim Jones slung his earthly garments on a limb and swam the river yesterday. He did not stand back because the water was cold, but plunged right in and struck out for the other shore and met the angels smiling. Jim was a poor man but had his subscription paid up to his home paper and got there in good shape."

Special Notice.

Having sold my business and expecting to give possession January 1st, I am desirous of closing all book accounts between Dec. 20th and Jan. 1st, 1911.

All who are owing me on account will confer a favor by making settlement by that time. Respectfully, Pokes the Ex-Booze Fighter.

They say it "takes a thief to catch a thief" likewise it takes an old booze-fighter who once upon a time tried to clean up the whiskey proposition by drinking all the red-eye, to use the hammer on temperate men who can take a rational view of prohibition. Bixby of the State Journal, for this reason, is led to believe that all men who are opposed to prohibition are in the same fix as he was "in his cups." The following from the "Daily Drift" of Tuesday's State Journal will interest Wayne people. Bixby's answer to Senator Volpp is not of any special moment. He simply crawls away from the danger:

It pays to be fair and just and generous. For that reason we take pleasure in printing the following letter, which is self-explanatory. It is post marked at Scribner, and bears date December 24:

"You are certainly assuming a great deal in The Journal of the 24th inst., by calling me a pumpkin-head. You do not know me personally, and as my record in the last session was such that no one needs apologize for you are transgressing your rights as a newspaper man. I wish to let you know that I am no brewery hireling, have not been benefited by them to the value of one cent, and I thank my Maker that I never needed such; neither am I a drinking man, much less a reformed drunkard. Yours for absolute fairness, FRED VOLPP."

Cadwell—Paulsen.

Mr. Freeman Cadwell and Miss Anna Paulsen, were married at West Point by Judge Dewall last Wednesday. They were accompanied by Miss Minnie Paulsen, sister of the bride, and Mr. Fred Ehl of Beemer. After the ceremony the newly-wedded pair went to Beemer where they were guests of the bride's uncle, Claus Harder, and family, and returned to Wisner Thursday. They have the best wishes of many friends for a long and happy life.—Wisner Chronicle.

State Normal Notes

Professor and Mrs. J. G. W. Lewis are spending the week at Broken Bow. Professor L. A. Carnahan of the Columbus business college spent Tuesday in Wayne, the guest of President Conn. President Conn returned from Lincoln on Saturday evening of last week where he attended a meeting of the Board of Education.

John L. Stine of Wakefield, Nebr., was in Wayne last Friday and made arrangements for a friend to enter the Normal on January 3. Mr. Stine expects to move his family here in the near future because of the excellent school privileges afforded by the town.

Mrs. J. G. W. Lewis has been employed as assistant in the shorthand and typewriting department, her work to begin on January 3. This action was taken by the board because of the large number of students who will enroll for this work during the winter term. Mrs. Lewis has had years of very successful experience in teaching shorthand and typewriting, and her selection for this place will greatly strengthen the work of the commercial department.

On Thursday Professor House announced the program for the preliminary debates. Obituary.

Erastus W. Steele was born in Fazelwell county, Vt., June 2, 1858. Died at his home four and one-half miles southwest of Wayne, Dec. 23, 1910, aged 57 years, 8 months and 23 days.

He was married to Caroline Atkins of Smythe county Vt., Nov. 26, 1879. To this union were born nine children, one of whom preceded him to the home beyond while yet in his infancy.

In the spring of 1903, he moved with his family to Pilger, Neb., near which place he resided for one year, then moving to Wayne county where they have resided since.

He united with the M. E. church quite early in life, and since coming to Nebraska united with the Grace M. E. church south of Wayne.

His death was very sudden and was therefore a great shock to his relatives and friends. The deceased leaves to mourn his loss, a wife, five sons and three daughters. Also two brothers and three sisters, all of whom reside in Vermont.

He was a member of M. W. A., having a policy for $1000.

Presbyterian Notes

At the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning the subject of the sermon will be "The New Year—A Prospect." In the evening the subject will be "The Old Year—A Retrospect."

The Week of Prayer will be observed by the Presbyterian church with prayer-meetings held next week in different homes. The closing prayer-meeting will be held on Friday evening at the church. The subject of the prayer-meetings will be as follows: Monday evening, "The Fatherhood of God;" Tuesday evening, "The Brotherhood of Man;" Wednesday evening, "The Christian Church;" Thursday evening, "Christ in the Home, School and Nation;" Friday evening, "The World for Christ." At all the meetings special prayer will be made for the success of the proposed Tabernacle Meetings in Wayne during March next.

The Brotherhood class of the Sunday School is now in charge of Prof. J. T. House. Beginning with the first of the year this class will do some special work under his leadership with a view toward a better understanding of what is meant by Christian citizenship and a Christian community. Special investigation of social conditions as they exist in Wayne will be made.

If you want to know how to make Wayne the best and busiest town in the state or any state, go back to the saloon system, strictly enforcing the anti-treating clause of the Slopomb law, and the eight o'clock closing law in the evening. Then have business houses close at eight p. m. instead of 6:30 p. m. Put business men on the city council. Let the church that can't compete with educational amusements die the death of the righteous. Forbid transients and women the right to control matters of public import, etc., etc. Of course none of these things are going to be secured, and to tell the absolute truth of the matter the Democrat doesn't care whether they are or not.

Madison Post: "She fell and broke her leg between the First National Bank and the depot" said one girl to another yesterday afternoon. Between the National Bank and the depot must be a very convenient place to have an injury on the leg.

Herman Heineman was in town from Wakefield yesterday.

The subject of discussion was "suckers," and when asked how he come to bite on a fake advertising scheme C. A. Chace replied: "I want you to understand that the solicitor for that ad. was a mighty handsome looking woman." Then the query was "how did she ever land Temp?" for Temp has the reputation of never "loosening up" for anybody. "I can tell ye how she done it," volunteered Mel Norton, who is president up the joint while Temp is away. "Temp, he up an told her she was mighty good to look at, and what would she give him for taking the ad; a kiss? An she said she couldn't, and begorra he walked around him behind the counter and he kissed her an thim he giv her the dollar and a half." By dad, the Democrat would like to hire that kind of a solicitor.

Mrs. Alexander Laurie.

The late Mrs. Alexander Laurie died at her home near Corbett on Monday, Dec. 12th, 1910, aged 80 years, 6 months and 17 days. Mrs. Laurie's maiden name was Marion Thompson and she was born in Dumfrireshire. She was married at Osbawa and she and her husband, who died in 1899 moved to lot 5, con. 22, Mc Gillivray in 1878.

Mrs. Laurie was stricken with paralysis in Corbett Presbyterian church on Sunday morning. She has been Bible Class teacher for the past 15 years and had just finished teaching the lesson when it was noticed that she was sitting with bowed head. Upon examination it became apparent that this faithful servant had been stricken while at her post of duty. Dr. Caw was summoned and she was removed to her home. She never rallied and passed away on Monday.

To be in possession of her faculties, up to the last, to be permitted to labor until the last conscious moment, to have the heart and the mind, with which to go to a class Sunday after Sunday as she went down the slope and the shadows grew long behind her, who could ask for a more beautiful old age or for a kinder death than this. God was gracious to his servant and filled her years with usefulness and blessing.

She leaves three sons, Alex., of Nebraska, James, of Rebecca, John on the homestead and four daughters, Mrs. Wm. Leask, Osbawa, Mrs. Geo. Jones, Ottawa, Mrs. Jas. McIntosh, Nebraska and Mrs. Freeman Talbot, Highgate.

The funeral took place on Wednesday. Interment at Parkhill Cemetery, Rev. Mr. Carriere, of Grand Bend, her pastor, conducted the services.—Parkhill (Ont.) Gazette.

Sudden Death of E. W. Steele.

Erastus W. Steele, for many years a farmer of Wayne county, passed away suddenly at his home southwest of Wayne last Saturday, of apoplexy. Mr. Steele and his son were skinning a calf that had died from eating cornstalks and in leaning over he suddenly fell to the ground. The son endeavored to help him to the house but the father became rapidly worse, being conscious for about twenty minutes after being stricken and dying three or four hours later. Dr. Blair was hurried to the Steele home but could do nothing to revive him. The funeral was held Monday afternoon from the M. E. church in Wayne, Rev. A. Fester of Winside preaching the funeral sermon.

A Newspaper That's Right.

The Sioux City Tribune has been on the right side of everything that has happened in a public way for many years. It has not always been popular in some circles, because it has been in advance, but the public judgement has finally, in every instance, supported it to a remarkable degree. It is therefore the fashion among high class newspaper readers to watch The Tribune. Subscribe for it through this newspaper, or send through your postmaster, direct to The Tribune, Sioux City, Iowa. Subscription price $2.00 a year.

Obituary.

Ellen Anna Maria Haglund, daughter of Alfred Haglund of Wakefield, died at her claim near Winner, Tripp county in South Dakota, December, 21, 1910.

She was taken sick with rheumatism on Thanksgiving day, and later diphtheria developed, causing her death. Her father and brother were with her, and the best of medical skill, together with the attendance of trained nurses, was employed to save her life, but in vain.

Ellen Haglund was born in New Windsor, Ill., in 1878. She came with her parents to Wayne county, Neb., in 1891. Most of her life was spent in this locality and for the four and one-half years preceding her going to Tripp county she was a resident of Wayne, where she made many friends by her sterling worth of character and her gentle and loving ways. She was a member of the Swedish Lutheran church at Wakefield.

At the time of her death she was about to make proof upon her claim in Tripp county, where she and her brother Frank had spent the last fourteen months, and she had looked forward to joining the family circle at the home near La Porte for the holidays.

She leaves to mourn her death, besides her friends and other relatives, her father and mother, three sisters and three brothers.

GOLDS CURED IN ONE DAY

"I regard my cold cure as being better than a Life Insurance Policy."

ONE REDEEMING FEATURE

When Papa Hears It He Urges Only Son to Grab Girl Quick.

The only son had just announced to the family his engagement.

"What that girl remarked his mother. 'Why, she squints.'"

"She has absolutely no style," commented his sister.

"Red-headed, isn't she?" asked auntie.

"I'm afraid she's flighty," was grand-ma's opinion.

"She hasn't any money," said uncle.

"And she doesn't look strong," chimed in the first cousin.

"She's stuck up, in my opinion," as separated the second cousin.

"She's extravagant," was the opinion given by the third cousin.

"Well, she's got one redeeming feature at any rate," remarked the only nephew facetiously.

"What's that?" chorused the charitable band.

"She hasn't a relative on earth," Papa had not yet spoken, but now he did.

"Grab her, my boy, grab her," he said.

HIRAM CARPENTER'S WONDERFUL CURE OF PSORIASIS.

"I have been afflicted for twenty years with an obstinate skin disease, called by some M. D.'s, psoriasis, and others leprosy, commencing on my scalp, and in spite of all I could do, with the help of the most skillful doctors, it slowly but surely extended until a year ago this winter it covered my entire person in the form of dry scales. For the last three years I have been unable to do any labor, and suffering intensely all the time. Every morning there would be nearly a dust-pail of scales taken from the sheet on my bed, some of them half as large as the envelope containing this letter. In the latter part of winter my skin commenced cracking open. I tried everything, almost, that could be thought of, without any relief. The 12th of June I started West, in hopes I could reach the Hot Springs. I reached Detroit and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lansing, Mich., where I had a sister living. One Dr. ... treated me about two weeks, but did me no good. All thought I had but a short time to live. I earnestly prayed to die. Cracked through the skin all over my back, across my ribs, arms, hands, limbs; feet badly swollen; toe-nails came off; fingers pale and hard as a bone; hair dead, dry and lifeless as old straw. O my God! how I did suffer.

"My sister wouldn't give up; said 'We will try Cuticura.' Some was applied to one hand and arm. Eureka! there was relief; stopped the terrible burning sensation from the word go. They immediately got Cuticura Resolvent, Ointment and Soap. I commenced by taking Cuticura Resolvent three times a day after meals; had a bath once a day, water about blood heat; used Cuticura Soap freely; applied Cuticura Ointment morning and evening. Result: returned to my home in just six weeks from the time I left, and my skin as smooth as this sheet of paper. Hiram E. Carpenter, Henderson, N. Y."

The above remarkable testimonial was written January 19, 1880, and is republished because of the permanency of the cure. Under date of April 22, 1910, Mr. Carpenter wrote from his present home, 610 Walnut St., So., Lansing, Mich.: "I have never suffered a return of the psoriasis and although many years have passed I have not forgotten the terrible suffering I endured before using the Cuticura Remedies."

CURIOUS EVENTS OF THE PRESENT YEAR

Odd and comic things which have served to entertain the Nation.

New York.—Human Interest! The newspaper reader, consciously or not, is always looking for it, and it takes no long experience to show him that he is not apt to find it "first page, top column." History may be broken into two parts, but as Huxley once wrote: "Four fifths make the sum of human things, and 'back' in his paper, half-buried, perhaps, among the real estate items, will be usually come upon the unconsidered 'little things' which are the life of the world's heart beats.

DIRIGIBLE AIRSHIP IS SAFE IN HEAVY WIND

Walter Wellman Says That With Sea Room No Storm Even Could Harm One.

It is generally supposed that navigating the air in a huge dirigible airship must be perilous during a heavy wind storm. It is not so, according to Walter Wellman, the inventor of the present attempt to cross the Atlantic ocean in the airship 'America' in Hampton's Magazine, says:

"Men who thought there was danger that the 'America' might be torn to pieces by a storm had not reflected well upon the physical conditions surrounding a ship of the air. A steamship or sailing vessel is buffeted by wind and wave, but it is partly immersed in an ocean of fluid which offers great resistance and subjects it to the physical conditions surrounding a ship of the air. A steamship or sailing vessel is buffeted by wind and wave, but it is partly immersed in an ocean of fluid which offers great resistance and subjects it to the physical conditions surrounding a ship of the air."

"The Great Art of Dying. To die without rebellion and without weakness is the masterpiece of a man. A mountain guide—whose name the London Daily Mail does not mention in narrating the story of his heroism—with two others, was leading a party over one of the most dangerous passes of the higher Alps."

The men, as is usual, were tied together by a long rope. As they scaled a wall of ice they slipped on the edge of a frightful chasm. The guide was at the end of the rope.

Without his weight there was a chance for the others to regain their footing; with it, his experienced eye told him, there was none. With instant courage he drew his knife from his belt and said quietly to the man next him:

"Tell mother how it happened, Edmond." He cut the rope and fell, never to be seen again.

Not What He Asked For. A small boy hurried into the corner butcher shop and told the proprietor his mother wanted a nice, tender turkey for Thanksgiving, and she wanted it dressed. The butcher selected just such a bird from the lot in the window, and said, with satisfaction:

"Here's a dandy, my boy—just what your mother wants!" "No, it ain't!" returned the youth. "That turkey hasn't any clothes on."

The Significant Wink. "I think," said the weary stranger, "that I'll go somewhere and take 40 winks."

The hack driver looked puzzled. "What's the trouble?" "I was wondering whether you wanted me to drive you to a hotel or a drug store."

WOMANLY WISDOM

From the Farm Journal. Some people grumble because the rose has thorns; they ought to be thankful that thorns have roses. Bring the soul into command and make the body obey orders.

Don't make ginger cookies and then have the jar and the cookie jar when the jar could not find it.

I find turkey fat, after it has been tried out, a splendid substitute for butter in making cookies or biscuits.

Gruels are more tempting to the sick if whipped to a froth with an egg yolk, and served in a pretty, dainty cup.

When your stocking feet are past mending, cut off the legs for bags to put over the broom when wiping walls or floors.

Stretch the neck of a sweater becomes stretched too loose from wearing, shrink it by dipping it in clear, warm water, then drying.

To prevent velvet carpet from unraveling, it is a good plan to unravel all the top edges and tie together the ends of warp.

Some jars of nicely canned fruit, or glasses of jelly or pickles make a Christmas present that is always acceptable to the recipient.

When you make doughnuts, remember that it is only a hole that fills the fourth of March, but a test since congress, excepting his six months of army service, he has spoken constantly and in every quarter of the globe.

There are plenty of men in the United States who could deliver old-time orations, but they have concluded that in this age of highest intelligence that the plainest speaking is the better.

Sun-Fish Stops a Steamer. Few maritime experiences have been recorded stranger than that which befell the Fiona, a twin-screw steamer belonging to the Colonial Sugar Refining company, of Sydney, New South Wales, says the Wide World Magazine.

When the Fiona was off Bird Island, about 40 miles north of the Cape Horns, on her way from the Clarence River to Sydney, at 4:45 p. m. all hands were alerted by a sudden shock, as though the steamer had struck a solid substance.

The result was strange and inexplicable. The engine was brought up 'all standing' and the starboard engine was quickly stopped and a boat lowered and sent to investigate.

At Paris, Mich., Marvint, flying for the 'Coupe Femina,' has kept in the air for 63 minutes. If no woman beats that before the end of the year the 'coupe' will be hers.

She is madamelle, aloft in an Antonette, regarded by her male rivals? One may not know, but one may guess. One has but to recall the case of the 10-year-old boy who roared up to the top of the Eiffel tower to perform antics for the entertainment and surprise of two little girls on the ground.

Hearing a noise behind him, he turned to find that one of his admirers had come up to him and announced that she had been descending to reap the plaudits of the second little girl below.

So true is it that what asks of woman is not emulation but appreciation. The man who looks at the woman who remains in the grand stand with her gaze on high. Then when the airman comes down she is there to comfort and applaud.

The girl on the edgeplate was "unwillingly" to be the best of the best. Mile. Marvint herself is not quite sure that aviation is just the thing for woman. "Flying," she says, "requires qualities of sang-froid, initiative and prompt decision that not one in four of the fair sex possesses. Those who have been active in sports all their lives can hope to fly an aeroplane."

NO MAN IS STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man does not feel just right, when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed for strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so gives health and strength to the whole body.

$1.50 pays for the Democrat to Jan.
1st, 1912. There is nothing beats it for the money.

Stanton is to have a new democratic newspaper, or rather a democratic newspaper. This will no doubt make peevish Al Pontreuil mad.

According to letters written to Bryan's Commoner there are a few Democrats in the country who want Bryan to run again in 1912. And according to the Commoner Bryan will have to be allowed to select the candidate or that candidate will be slaughtered by Bryan.

No matter what condition the republican party is in, in 1912, the R. O.
P. can figure that so long as Bryan is Bryan the luck of elections will be on the republican banners.

It is said that half of the Pittsburg steel mills are idle and that 75,000 men in one district are out of employment.
When 1912 rolls around just remember that this happened before the Democrats got into power.

According to the Waterloo, Io., papers Billy Sunday raked in $8,449 for his effort in that city. It is the largest amount ever given him in any Iowa City, and Waterloo claims the circus was worth the money.

The Cedar County News says that
"The government pays the railroads
nine cents a pound for hauling papers.
The government furnishes the cars in which they are hauled, and the men to receive the bags and throw them off the trains. But the express company will haul mail and furnish the cars for half a cent a pound. Certainly they must pay the railroad company still less. Reminds one of the story of Fighting Bob Evans. A man in the pew which Fighting Bob invaded at church one Sunday handed him a card with this message, "I pay $5,000 a year for the exclusive use of this pew."
Evans handed it back with the message, "You pay too damned much."

Dixon County Murders.

Judge Graves sentenced Wm. Fleg, the Dixon county murderer, to life imprisonment. A good many murderers escaped in Nebraska, but the first and last trial in Dixon county both landed their men. The first trial, many years ago, was an informal one, conducted by the early settlers. It was opened with prayer, and a preacher presided.
The murderer admitted his guilt and a vote was taken as to how he should be punished. It was almost unanimous in favor of hanging, and the prisoner was accordingly executed. Yet you will hear men argue that without a written constitution, a multiplicity of officers and courts, all would be anarchy. Which is mere bosh. A judge who is just does on the average as well as the just men who elected him. He does better sometimes on account of his experience and training. Sometimes he does not so well on account of that same training, which binds him to musty precedents, and confusing him among a multiplicity of laws, gets him to groping about as to what is the law instead of going straight ahead toward what is justice. The people tried one man and hanged a murderer.
Judge Graves tried one and the guilty man gets a life sentence. Give the people and the judge each one long mark.—Cedar County News.

These Heinous Contests.

One of the most despicable and pernicious practices which has grown so alarmingly of late is the so called guessing or voting contests carried on by some daily and weekly newspapers.
The Louisiana lottery which was long since prohibited by the government, was a mild form of amusement in comparison with the heinous practice now in vogue to swell their subscription list. People who took chances in the Louisiana lottery, as a rule, did so secretly and no one was the wiser for it, while on the other hand, the newspapers work up a rivalry between communities and individuals which is outrageous, to say the least. And not the least feature by any means is this terrible strain it entails upon the young ladies who are picked victims of the contest; for after the excitement has passed away they are nearly always physical wrecks and too often, mental wrecks as well. We have known strong, able bodied business men to be led like a sheep into the whirl of these contests who emerged ruined not only financially but physically. We know of a strong, able man, who was considered a good business man, to allow his daughter to enter a contest and when the contest closed the business of the victim was placed in the hands of a receiver and within 12 months the victim was laid in his grave. Now, if these contests have such a terrible effect on man, what do you suppose the effect is on the innocent girls who are made the victims of this worst of all forms of gambling. Fathers and mothers should prohibit their daughters from entering these heinous contests.
The government should prohibit the use of the mails to such papers as carry on these contests, and if that cannot be brought about, then the legislature should be petitioned to enact a law prohibiting this worst of all forms of gambling.—Verdigree Citizen.

Veteran's Letter to Corporal Dorsett Hotel Leonora—Madison Ave. and 63rd St., New York, Dec. 11, 1910.
My dear old Corporal Dorsett:—

It was with a great deal of pleasure that I opened your letter the other day and learned that you were still alive when so many of our old comrades with whom we served have gone before us.

You and I are fortunate to be spared to see what a wonderful country has grown up out of the fragments that the rebels in the old war days had smashed it into, and have the great satisfaction of feeling that old Company B did its part in man fashion and the old regiment and the faithful men that stood by it to the bitter end of the war did theirs, and that we all have a glorious record to point to.

Company B was the best company in the old Regiment, and it was to you boys, always staunch and true in every emergency, that it owes its fine reputation. It is a pity that you could not have been with us in Newport this fall at our 9th reunion—we could get only forty-five together out of the 1500
that we once carried on our rolls.

It was very sad, yet very pleasant
Captain Kelly was there in better health than for several years back, and the same old comrade you loved forty-five years ago, Captain Peck, Lieutenant Parker of Company E and Lieutenant Niles were the only other officers.
At least one-half of the men present were recruits who came to us on the Beimuda Hundred Front in the fall of 1864. They have survived because they never had the strain and exposure that you original men had, and they never ought to have more than one-half the pension that you original men have,
who went in from real love of country instead of love of large bounties. I always make a great difference between the original men of July, 1862, and the men who went in near the end of the war.

I send you a paper containing a speech I made before the graduating class of the Military University; because it contains a new picture of me, so you can see what your boy Colonel has grown into in the forty five years since we parted. I still am on horseback every day, and rode sixty miles and back to make the address. I shall send your letter to Captain Kelly, who will be glad to hear from you. Also to Lieutenant Niles who is trying to get the names of all the Vt. men. I have no roster of 9th or of Co. B. Maybe when I go up to Vermont I can copy Co. B from the Adj. General's report and send it to you. I hope your life has been successful and you are comfortable in your old age.
Very affectionately your old Colonel,
EDWARD H. RIPLEY.
