CONGRESSMAN MORSE TALKS

Progressive Statesman Addresses Normal Students and Citizens on "Citizenship."

Tuesday morning Congressman Morse, who is in the state in the interest of progressive ideas in government as expounded by his fellow Wisconsinite, Robt. LaFollette was doomed to wait at Wayne for a branch train north and responded to an invitation to speak to the Normal students at the college chapel. Many of the business men responded to an invitation to attend and listen to his talk on citizenship. The speaker was at a disadvantage, coming as he did to speak in Nebraska as a partizan for one faction of a political party and being enthused with his subject, by being in a place where he felt that he should not step over the bonds of propriety and talk partizan politics. He spoke of congress as a body and paid tribute to his fellow members and the general desire that prevails among them to have their name written in history as having done something for their country. He would have the women granted their rights to vote; paid eloquent tribute to women in general and to Francis E. Willard in particular.

He spoke briefly of the two ideas of popular government: One to give the people the power, the other to vest governing power in the hands of the few; one to give opportunity to all, the other to the few. Said that with the initiative and referendum the professional lobbyist would be out of a job, and that the recall belonged to the people.

He told of the reforms that have been enacted into law in his state, and that the question of giving the ballot to the women would soon be settled. Conservation of natural resources for the people he believed to be a duty that legislators could not neglect longer, and stated that the foundation of all trusts and combines was based on monopoly of resources that never should have been allowed to go from the people.

Speaking of the satisfaction of the Wisconsin people with the progressive laws enacted he expressed the opinion that should those who fought so hard to secure their enactment, all die, the people would not and could not be induced to return to the old order of things.

It was an interesting meeting that was held at the court house last evening when C. A. Randall spoke to a large audience on fire protection, and we regret that the crowded condition of our columns make it impossible to give a detailed report of the meeting today, but it is good enough to keep.

On The Wrong Track—Switch Off

Two Wayne boys were caught on the wrong train Sunday night. The train crew on the freight between here and Emerson found a car unsealed when at Wakefield and when discovered two young fellows tried to make an escape. The train crew found that they were still on the train and sent word to this place to have an officer meet them here. They were taken charge of by Sheriff Porter, and were identified as John Wright and Lyle Rathbun of this place. An examination of the car which was found open showed that a number of boxes had been broken open and contents investigated, and some shoes had been taken from one box, and shoes were found in the boy's possession when caught.

Tuesday morning Sheriff A. H. Maskell of Dixon county and D. Meisendick of Sioux City, a railway official who deals with such cases, came and took the boys to Ponca for a hearing, as the offense was committed in Dixon county. It looks like a clear case, and there is a possibility of the boys having to do time in a state institution. Wright, we are sorry to say, does not bear the best reputation but we incline to listen to the claim of the Rathbun boy that he was ever persuaded to whatever part he may have had in the matter; and, like old dog, Tray, was caught in bad company.

We are informed that there has been more or less pilfering about the trains and depots, and that the fate which may be in store for these boys may have a wholesome effect upon those who may think it easy to pilfer a little. But one is surely taking too much risk for all that can be hoped to gain when he pilfers from the railroad or other big corporations. We are sorry for the young men and their parents and friends.

Wayne Defeats Randolph in Debate

A large audience heard the debate between the Wayne and Randolph high schools last Friday evening in the high school auditorium. The proposition debated was, "Resolved, That the Movement of Organized Labor for the Closed Shop Should Receive the Support of Public Opinion." Wayne maintained the affirmative and was represented by Clement Crossland, Bernard McConnell and Tracy Kohl. Randolph on the Negative was represented by Pine Wagner, Edith Willey and Alfred Reese. The debate indicated much hard training by both teams as they showed thorough mastery of the question. According to the judges the direct argumentation and refutation of the two teams was about a tie, but in delivery and rebuttal the Wayne team had a margin over their opponents and were therefore given the victory.

The judges were Supt. C. M. Matheny of Emerson, Supt. D. D. Gibson of Lyons and Prof. Edwin Maxey of the Nebraska State University. Prof. W. D. Redmond of the State Normal was the presiding officer. Excellent music was furnished by the high school orchestra and the State Normal quartette.

After the program the local high school gave a reception in the gymnasium which was thoroughly enjoyed. The auditorium and gymnasium were beautifully decorated in the high school colors and with Wayne, Randolph and other high school and college pennants.

Death of John Weir

Last Thursday morning John Weir, well known to many people in this county, where he has long been a land owner and a frequent visitor, was found dead in his bed at his home near Chicago. He went to bed in his usual health after a busy day's work about his place. He was past 76 years of age and had led an active life, accumulating considerable wealth, a large part of which he invested in land. He owned more than 1100 acres in this county, nearly 8,000 acres in Michigan and a farm of more than 500 acres where he died.

Seven children survive him, some of whom have sometimes lived here. A number of relatives and tenants on his Wayne farms went to attend the funeral as noted elsewhere.

Omaha creek wiped out a mile or more of the Burlington track near Homer, if the term "wiped" can be applied to so much water.

The Senatorial Situation at Home

There is a peculiar situation in this senatorial district, and the democrats of Wayne and Wayne county have not been awake to the position they are in. With the district so "strongly democratic" that the nomination by the democrats is equivalent to an election, no republican filed for the office and there was no strong or marked objection to having Phillip H. Kohl go back to Lincoln as senator, and there should be none, for he voted for the best progressive measures and did good work for all the district, and especially for Wayne in securing aid for the school here. In filing for the nomination he signed statement No. 1, which is to say that he will vote for the choice of the people for United States Senator, so why worry?

Most of them in this county have forgotten that Chas. Graff, a former member of the legislature from Cuming county, and who then opposed the state purchase of the Normal school at Wayne, has also filed for the democratic nomination, and that his nomination is equivalent to an election, the same as Mr. Kohl's nomination would mean election for him. Now study the situation; Cuming county is larger and more populous than either Wayne or Pierce, and add to that the fact that it is a county that gives a strong democratic majority. Then in that county a contest is on which will bring out a large vote and naturally they will, many of them, vote for a man from their own county. What then is necessary for the Wayne friends of Mr. Kohl to do? Why simply go to the polls next week Friday and vote and take another democrat with you and ask him to vote. Not that Mr. Kohl will not carry this county, but that the increased activity in Cuming county may not bring to the polls enough democratic voters to outnumber the democratic vote of both Wayne and Pierce counties. It certainly will not be to our advantage to send a new senator from our district this year, and we will not if the Wayne democrats will do their simple duty. Will you?

Last week S. D. Berg closed a deal whereby he purchased the Kate Clothing Store at Wayne, and has already taken possession of the same. This store has been conducted in Wayne for a number of years and is said to enjoy an excellent patronage. And it is needless to say that "Sam" is the man for that line of business, for he knows the clothing business from A to Z. He is the gentleman who started the store which is now known as the Durfee Clothing Co., the largest and best of its kind in Pierce county, which he conducted for several years. The people of Wayne are fortunate in securing such a live and up-to-date business man as Mr. Berg. During his residence in Pierce he was always a live wire, and always boosting for the town. Our people elected him as their mayor for one term, and in this capacity he was public-spirited and progressive and always working for the best interests of the town. It is with regret that we see Mr. Berg leave.

Equally as much as her husband, Mrs. Berg will be missed. She has always taken an active part in social and church affairs, for a number of years being a member of the Congregational church choir. While the people of Pierce will generally regret to see them leave, yet all wish them much joy and prosperity in their new home. Pierce County Leader.

State Normal Notes

The next meeting of the Board of Education will be Tuesday, April 16.

Miss Mable Bentley was called to Tilden Friday by a message announcing the death of her grandmother.

Elmer R. Rogers, one of Holt county's successful teachers, enrolled Monday and will take work in the Normal until the close of the summer term.

This year the Seniors will present the class play, "An American Citizen." The play will be given under the direction of Miss Piper, the class sponsor.

This week 5,000 summer school bulletins will be mailed to the teachers of northeast Nebraska.

Miss Fern L. Vernon of Dixon county is a new student. Miss Vernon has had one year's experience in teaching and comes to Wayne to prepare for a higher grade of certificate.

A. H. Viele, member of the Board of Education and executive committee member for Wayne, spent Tuesday at the Normal and conferred with President Conn. in regard to improvements now in progress.

August Nordgren, class of 1911, has been re-elected principal of the Bellwood schools at an increased salary. Mr. Nordgren has not yet accepted the position and may decide to enter the State University next year.

Foreman Sterner is authority for the statement that the new building will be ready for use by the departments of science the first of June. In that event the dedication exercises will be held during commencement week. Governor Aldrich has been engaged to give the address on this occasion.

Professor Lewis, accompanied by Gerald E. Cress, James E. Brittain, and Jesse H. Wichman went to Peru Thursday morning and the debate with the Normal of that place will occur on Friday evening.

This team will have the negative side of the initiative and referendum question.

Dr. A. L. Bixby of the Nebraska State Journal has been selected as one of the judges in the debate with Kearney. While Mr. Bixby's acceptance has not yet been received it is hoped that he will be present next Friday evening.

On last Sunday morning the Christian Associations held an early morning Easter service, which was well attended by the student body and a number of young people from town. Miss Piper gave the Scripture reading and Miss Beechel offered prayer. Vocal solos were sung by Miss Nangle and Miss Gambler and Miss Kingsbury read a paper on the Resurrection.

Citizens of the town should not miss the debate in the chapel of the Normal school on next Friday evening. On that occasion one of our debating teams will meet the Kearney Normal and discuss the question concerning the adoption of the Initiative and Referendum. This is a live, up-to-date question and it will be ably handled by each of the opposing teams. The fact that the adoption of the initiative and referendum as a part of our state constitution will be before the voters of this state at the April primaries makes the question one of great importance in Nebraska. Edward W. Hesse, Eugenia Madson and Ralph W. Sterling, representing the Wayne school will uphold the affirmative side of the question and the negative will be defended by the Kearney Normal.

Mrs. Hannah Ockerman Miller died at an early hour this morning at the home of Mrs. Bruner, where she lived for a number of years. She lacked a month of being 90 years of age, and had been failing for some time. She was mother of P. L. Miller of this place. The funeral will be held from the home of Mrs. Bruner at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Primary Returns From Illinois

All eyes were watching for returns from the great state of Illinois Wednesday morning, anxious to know the verdict of the voters of that state at their first presidential primary preferential vote. A telephone message from Sioux City the evening before did not sound good to the standpat men, for it said that Roosevelt had two votes to Taft's one, and the more complete returns showed that he had done even better than that. The vote shows conclusively that the people favor the recall, the initiative and referendum progressive movements in general; for there was Wilson progressive, Clark progressive and Teddy the same, and all of the standpatters united on the president, and yet he could not win. In fact there would have been no such primary in Illinois had not the progressive sentiment been too strong to overcome. Progressive sentiment is sweeping the country like a tidal wave and the standpatters of all parties are in the last ditch. The people are the power to be reckoned with.

No official figures are yet out, but returns indicate that Roosevelt had 230,000 votes, Taft 119,000, LaFollette 37,000. Of the democrats Clark is credited with 220,000, Wilson 80,000. For senator, Lawrence Sherman won over Senator Colloom.

The nominees for governor are Dineen, republican, and Dunne, democrat. In the nomination of Edward F. Dunne, the democrats of the state have named the biggest, best and brainiest man in the race.

Two Fine Readings

Wayne people who were so fortunate as to hear Miss Gora Mel Patten last year in her delightful and appreciative rendering of "The Blue Bird," and "The Servant of the House," will be glad to have an opportunity to hear her again next Monday evening at the Methodist church in her interpretative reading of "Tomorrow." This is a book just appearing and dealing with the Burbank theory of flower culture as applied to the human race. It is a drama with the scene laid in California. Time 8 o'clock. Admission 25 cents. Tickets for sale at Jones Book Store.

Miss Patten comes under the auspices of the Womens Clubs of Wayne who have arranged for a free reading Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Methodist church, to which they cordially invite all mothers and other women interested in child life. Miss Patten will then read Wedekind's "Awakening of Spring," dealing with the period of adolescence.

Miss Patten's work is thought-producing as well as entertaining and she always leaves a place richer for her presence.

Coleridge remains wet by a majority of 18.

About Base Ball

There was a meeting at Wakefield last Thursday of interested professional and business men from Coleridge, Laurel, New Castle, Bloomfield, Carroll, Winside, Wayne and Wakefield to try to solve the base ball problem of the coming season. The object was to see if some arrangement could be reached whereby the teams would more nearly represent the home player, and eliminate the importation of professional players, or at least limit the number, and so arrange that the different towns playing in a circuit would all be in practically the same class. The meeting did not get beyond the discussion stage, as it was a sort of gathering of volunteers and no one was there with authority to act for his community. We think the question should be followed up and some plan devised whereby the national game can be played and enjoyed in the smaller places at an expense that is not prohibitive and in a manner that will encourage the home player to participate. The home man with some ability does not like to always be playing second fiddle to a bunch of professionals who are depended upon to get the glory of a victory and let the home player stand the blame if a winning is not made.

U. R. Invited

The debate between the Wayne State Normal and that of Kearney will occur next Friday evening in the chapel of the Normal. On the same evening debates will be held between Peru and Wayne at Wayne and between Peru and Kearney at Kearney. The result will determine the State championship. Let all Wayne be present on the hill next Friday evening. Admission fee 25 cents.

Inenery, D. H. Surber, J. H. Chichester, Dean Hanson, John Schalmus, Siemon Goeman, Perry & Gildersleeve one car each, and E. Beckenhauer two cars, a total of 11 cars.

I wish to call the attention of voters to the amendment to the constitution that appears third on the ballot. If passed it will take our penal and eleemosynary institutions out of politics. This amendment was endorsed at the state meeting of the society for Charities and Corrections, nearly unanimously and after receiving expert advice from Iowa and Illinois. I am sure it should receive an affirmative vote. J. T. HOUSE

If the movement started by the Publicity Bureau of the Commercial Club of Omaha is successful, Nebraska and Omaha will be included in the 1912 tour of eastern automobiles. The tour replaces the Gidden affair, which was discontinued last year. Manufacturers and eastern owners, have planned a tour from New York to Denver. Commercial clubs in the state will be asked to get in correspondence with the New York office and urge the route to be changed to include Nebraska. It is estimated that more than 100 cars will be in the tour and possibly three hundred people.

Lovers of high class music will have a rare opportunity to hear the best, there is when the Thomas Orchestra of Chicago and the Mendelssohn Choir of Omaha give their annual spring concerts in Omaha on April 22 and 23. The Thomas Orchestra, which is under the direction of Frederick Stock, has sixty men, making a total of 220, which will appear on the mammoth Auditorium stage at one time.

A. M. Jacobs and wife returned Friday evening from California, where they spent the winter, and he reports an enjoyable time. The climate in winter is almost perfect. But with all that he did not lose his love for Wayne county. In his opinion, if their farm land and blue sky out there is worth up to $1800 per acre, then is Wayne county land worth $1000 per acre. No one knocks there, if he does they run him out of the country; if one gets the worst of a bargain, he looks for a bigger sucker than he was and passes it over to him at a profit if possible. Mr. Jacobs enjoyed the winter there much, but he enjoys the home coming much more. His farm lands evidently are not for sale to invest in southern California, and their many friends are glad of this. Mr. Jacobs says that if Wayne county people would put half the energy into boom thunder, that they do there, real estate prices would go up skyward in a hurry.

The Columbus Telegram replies to a question which no doubt many people are asking and in order that issues may be made clear we reproduce the greater part of the article. There are many voters who have no particular choice in delegates, who have a preference for presidential candidates and the platform. Possibly the editor makes too great a distinction between delegates, and their influence, but every delegate should make his position plain so that the voter may know whether or not the man he votes or is in accord with his views. Here is the question and answer:

Editor Telegram:
In the coming primary election am I going to be able to help nominate a president, or merely help elect a delegate?
I have no particular choice among delegates, but I do have a choice for president.

Now, as you are acquainted with the delegate candidates, and know all about them, would it be asking too much of you to tabulate or tag them, so that I would have the best chance in helping to nominate my choice of the democratic candidate for president. I am sorry to bother you at such a busy time, but I want to know.
Yours, Truly,
O. F. Flory.

Yes, you will have your part in helping to nominate a candidate for president. The ballot will provide a place where you may express your choice of presidential candidates, and your vote will be counted. At the same time you will have a chance to vote directly for delegates to the democratic national convention. You ask the editor of the Telegram to "tag" the candidates for delegates, so that you may be able to vote for those delegates who would best represent your views as to the choice for president. That is easy. There will be four delegates-at-large, and twelve district delegates to elect. In order that our St. Edward friend may understand just now the candidates for delegates at large stand we shall group them under two headings, stand-pat and progressive.

The men put forward by the stand-patters as their choice for delegates-at-large are: G. M. Hitchcock, Fred Volpp, and Thomas Smith.

If our St. Edward correspondent desires to promote the cause of Harmon, Underwood, or some other presidential candidate who is pleasing to men who manage the criminal wealth of the country, then he should vote for those three men who are committed to the cause of Harmon. If they could not aid the cause of Harmon, then they would give their votes to some other stand-pat candidate. If our St. Edward friend wants to see a stand-pat platform written by the democratic national convention, then he should vote for the three men named above, because they are solidly anchored to the elements which are working to build a stand-pat platform for the national democracy. If our friend from St. Edward desires to spit upon W. J. Bryan and the principles for which he stands, then he should vote then he should vote for the three stand-pat candidates for delegates as they are named above because each of those candidates hates Bryan with a hatred to intense to conceal, and if the three men above named should be chosen as delegates to the Baltimore convention, they would consider themselves commissioned to do all in their power to thwart the hopes and plans of Mr. Bryan and all other progressive democrats in the task of nominating a progressive democrat for president, and also in the task of writing a progressive platform.

The men put forward by the progressive democrats of Nebraska as their choice for delegates-at-large are: W. J. Bryan, I. J. Dunn, Geo. L. Loomis, W. H. Westover.

If our St. Edward correspondent desires to promote the cause of Governor Wilson, Champ Clark, or some other presidential candidate who is pleasing to progressives, then he should vote for Bryan, Dunn, Loomis and Westover for delegates-at-large, because these four men are committed to the progressive cause, and if they shall be elected as delegates, and if they should accept a commission as delegates, they would do all in their power to secure the nomination of Governor Wilson, Champ Clark, or some other progressive democrat as the candidate for president. If our St. Edward friend desires to see a democratic national platform which will ring true to those of the great bell of liberty, then he will cast his primary vote for delegates who are known to be believers in progressive principles.

Those who go as delegates to the national convention will be in honor bound to support the candidate who shall receive a majority of preferential vote at the primary. Conditions may arise under which a man might be elected as a delegate, and then feel in honor bound to decline the election. Suppose the majority voice of the April primary might say that Governor Wilson is the choice of Nebraska democrats for president, and suppose that G. M. Hitchcock might at the same primary, be elected as a delegate-at-large to the national convention. Under such circumstances G. M. Hitchcock would be in honor bound to decline the election as delegate, because he, being opposed to all progressive principles, could not in honor take part in nominating a progressive candidate, and he could not in honor assist in the making of a progressive democratic platform. Under such circumstances, even such a man as Mr. Hitchcock would decline an election as delegate, and he would ask that some other person—one in harmony with progressive principles, be selected to represent the progressive sentiment expressed at the Nebraska primary.

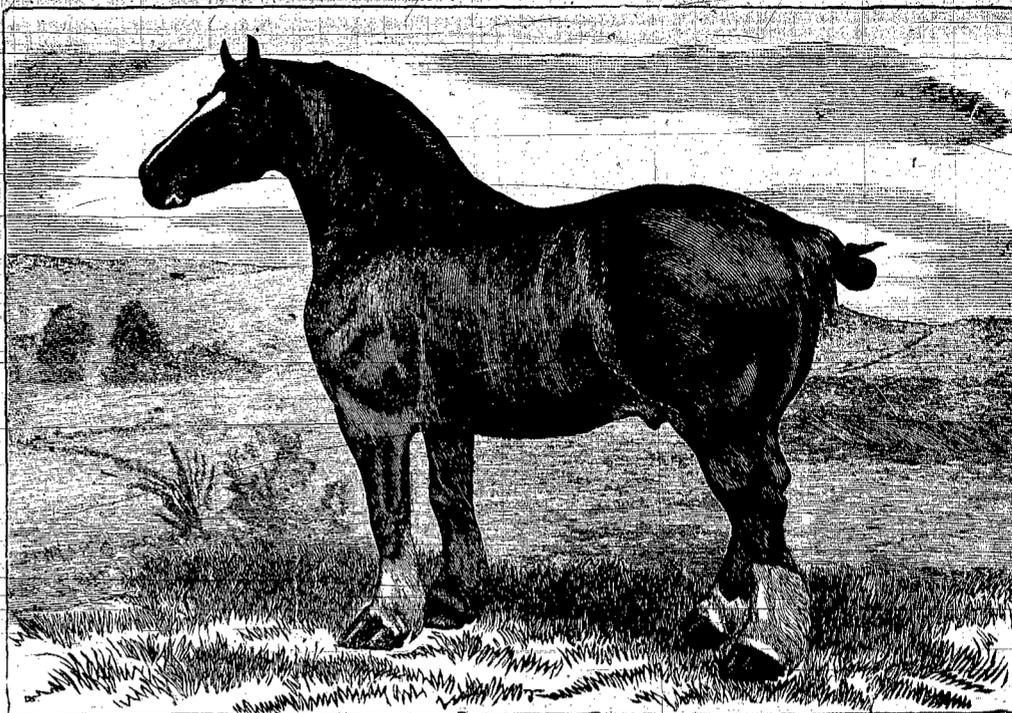

On the other hand, suppose the Nebraska preference vote should be favorable to Harmon, or some other stand-pat candidate, and suppose that at the same primary Mr. Bryan should be elected as a delegate to the national convention to represent the stand-pat sentiment expressed at the primary. In such case Mr. Bryan would be in honor bound to decline an election as delegate, and to ask that some person who believes in stand-pat principle, take his place as delegate, and for the very reason that Mr. Bryan could no more in honor take part in nominating a stand-pat candidate platform than Mr. Hitchcock could in aiding the nomination of a progressive candidate or in writing a stand-pat platform than Mr. Hitchcock could in aiding the nomination of a progressive candidate, or in writing a progressive platform.

We trust this explanation will make the situation very clear to our St. Edward correspondent. We believe he should have no difficulty in discovering just how to vote his own principles at the primary. If he is in favor of having the corporation element dictate the affairs of the democratic party in Nebraska, then he ought to vote for Harmon for president, and for Hitchcock, Volpp and Smith as delegates, because all the corporation influences in Nebraska are voting that way this year. The Telegram does not say that every Nebraska democrat now supporting Harmon is a corporation democrat, but we do say, and emphasize the saying, that every paid political worker for all the railroads and other public service corporations in Nebraska is supporting the Harmon movement and also supporting Hitchcock, Smith and Volpp for delegates-at-large. And so we advise our St. Edward friend to vote for the Harmon programme if he wants to please the stand-pat and corporation element in the state and in the nation. But if he believes in progressive principles; if he believes that the democracy of Nebraska ought to be kept away from the control of stand-pat and corporation influences, then he should vote for either Wilson or Clark for the presidential choice, and vote for Bryan, Dunn, Loomis and Westover as delegates.

The "Busted" Oil Trust

The Standard Oil company, which the Supreme court of the United States solemnly "dissolved" some few weeks ago, has declared a dividend of 2,900 per cent. This action, which was taken by "The Standard Oil Company of Indiana," was made for the purpose of hiding the tremendous profits of the company. It was what is called a stock dividend; that is, instead of giving the share holders so much cash, the capital stock of the company was increased from one million to thirty millions, and the shareholders were given the extra shares, gratis. The man who owns one share, therefore, gets twenty-nine additional ones, from each of which he will draw dividends in the future.

Since the "disolution" of the trust, several melons of this sort have been cut. The Vacuum Oil company, a subsidiary, recently increased its stock from $2,500,000 to $15,000,000, and it is reported that the Standard Oil company of Kentucky is to declare a dividend of 2,500 per cent shortly. "Naturally," says the Wall Street Journal, the official mouth piece of Big Business, "the old Standard Oil stock holders are much elated over the Supreme court decree."

Yes, quite naturally!

Don't forget to vote on the 19th.

Willis Reed of Madison should not be forgotten when you come to mark a name for the Senator.

It is reported on good authority that the unspeakable Hearst is managing the Champ Clark campaign in Illinois. We hope that it is not true.

Roosevelt says that there never was a party guilty of such gross abuse of the Federal patronage as is the republican party. We have believed that for years.

President Taft will have most of the delegates from Iowa, all from Utah, and by his support of Lorimer made an open bid for the support of the gang in Illinois.

School men who are in a position to know tell us that R. V. Clark, the democratic nominee for state superintendent, is a competent man, and no other kind should be named for that great office.

Every Wayne county democrat who believes that Philip H. Kohl made a good record at Lincoln owes him a vote at the primary on the 19th, and that is the day to pay the debt. We know that we owe it.

Wm. M. Maupin is a competent, cheerful and popular candidate for a lot of trouble, for if nominated and elected railway commissioner he will make trouble unless the laws are complied with, but his shoulders are broad and sturdy, so let's give it to Will.

Woodrow Wilson carried Wisconsin over Champ Clark by a vote of three to one. He wins 22 of the 26 delegates, and carried 63 out of 72 counties. This was the verdict of the people in a state-wide primary. It seems that the people are for Wilson and the politicians from some other politician.

We want every voter who is entitled to vote at the primary next week Friday to ask himself this question: "What will it profit me and my children if I remain and toil in the field all day and through neglect, allow the powers of monopoly to forge its chains more tightly, so that the trusts and combines may take the largest part of the profits of my harvest?"

Floyd Seybolt of Geneva is making a clean, swift race for the democratic nomination for state treasurer. He graduated from the farm and has made good as a banker. He is qualified to fill the duties of the office. He will have support of nearly all who have met him while he was touring the state. We were expecting a cut so that we could let you see what a nice looking man he is but it failed to reach us.

The Junior class gave the following descriptive program of the high school classes last Friday morning with Verne Marstel er presiding: History and description of Freshmen, Luella Bush; Sophomores, Goldie Chace; Juniors, Ina Elming; Seniors, Lotos Relyea. The gift presented to the high school by the class of 1911 has finally arrived from Omaha and has been placed in the high school room. It consists of two beautiful large pictures—The Coliseum and the Forum. These two pictures add wonderfully to the decorations of our high school, and are very highly appreciated by all. In these two beautiful pictures the class of 1911 has certainly left a most worthy gift to its Alma Mater.

Chief Deputy Fire-Commissioner, C. A. Randall, addressed our public schools on Wednesday afternoon on the subject "Fire Prevention." Mr. Randall impressed his hearers with the appalling facts regarding the loss of property and life due to carelessness and a lack of knowledge of explosives and inflammables. He gave some very excellent suggestions for preventing explosions, and fires Mr. Randall urged the children to bring their parents to hear him at the court house. All enjoyed Mr. Randall's talk very much.

Every democrat should plan to attend the primary election next week Friday, the 19th, and vote at least once. Vital questions are at stake. Members of the party have struggled for years to bring political questions of great importance to the position they now occupy, and if you believe that they have done a good work and hope to secure the best results from it, do not fail to do your duty on the 19th of April. Votes are what count, not an indifferent approval.

The remainder of the evening was then spent in a musical game. The verse and chorus of ten different old fashioned songs was passed to each member. Each song contained

POLITICAL ADVERTISING

The County Attorneyship and the Taxpayers

THE TAXPAYERS, whose money pays the bills, should use the same care and good judgment in electing a County Attorney that they would use in selecting an attorney to look after important personal matters which needed legal attention. An inexperienced or incompetent county attorney can lose the county and the tax-payers a lot of money, while a county attorney of ability and industry and integrity will save the tax-payers much money. At the request of a number of heavy tax payers Mr. Fred S. Berry has filed for the republican nomination for County Attorney. He has practiced law in the different State and United States Courts for several years. He has no time to make a campaign. If you think he is the RIGHT MAN for the office he will appreciate your support, and if elected he will look after Wayne county to the best of his ability and save the tax payers money wherever he can do so. Speaking of Mr. Berry the Dakota County Herald states "Attorney Fred S. Berry has filed for the nomination for County Attorney of Wayne county. Mr. Berry served as county attorney of this county for two years and made a splendid record as prosecutor."

four divisions and each member had to find the remainder of his song, which then formed a quartette, the four then singing the song. This created much amusement and gave them an opportunity to learn a little about "harmony". The guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Beebe, Prof. and Mrs. I. H. Brittel, Mrs. Beckenhauer and the Misses Killen and Kingbury. Delicious refreshment were served by the committee at an appropriate hour. The evening was one of rare entertainment and highly enjoyed by all.

Woman Gives Tip That Leads to Capture of Escaped Trusty.

GOOD TIME TO BE FORFEITED.

Sheriff Hyers Receives State Warrant for $300 for Returning Three Escaped Convicts to Penitentiary. Pugsley Minimizes Wheat Loss.

Lincoln, April 10.—Fred Schaefer, the trusty convict who decamped from the penitentiary when sent to work in the barn, is now back in prison, thanks to a woman's wit.

The convict stopped at the home of Mrs. Fred Buel, near Sprague, and asked for something to eat. She gave it to him, and while he was eating she went into an adjoining room and telephoned the authorities. Schaefer became suspicious and departed, but stopped at the house of a neighbor, where he was captured by Warden Melick and returned to prison.

For his few hours of liberty Schaefer will forfeit four months' good time, and in addition will no longer have the privileges of a trusty. He would have been released in August if he had not made the attempt to escape.

Sheriff Hyers of Lancaster county has received a state warrant for $300 for returning Gray, Dowd and Morley to the penitentiary, the former two being dead. This is the regular reward for the return of prisoners. He has also received a warrant for $200 for procuring evidence against those who smuggled arms and explosives into the penitentiary. As yet the reward for the arrest of the convicts has not been claimed by anyone.

Board of Health Report.

The state board of health has issued bulletin No. 1. This shows the board since its organization in 1891 has issued a total of 4,454 certificates to practice medicine in Nebraska. Of this number 154 were practicing physicians who were not possessed of diplomas, but under the provisions of the law were granted permission to practice. The last of these permits was issued in 1895. Of the total permits issued 1,111 were issued the first year the law was in operation, 1,221 have removed from the state after receiving permits and 210 have died, leaving 3,171 certificates in force at the present time. Of these, 2,327 are of the so-called regular school, 473 eclectic and 271 homeopathic. Of the total number who have taken the examinations of the board, 325 have failed to pass. During the year 1911, 13,987 male children were born, 12,832 girls, all but sixty-nine of the births being additions to the white population. There were 293 sets of twins and three sets of triplets. There were 11,499 deaths reported to the board during the fiscal year. The report shows there were 11,556 marriages performed and 1,714 divorces granted.

Buffalo Supervisors Want Office of County Judge Declared Vacant.

In the district court at Kearney a petition was filed by the Buffalo county board of supervisors asking that the office of county judge be declared vacant and that the costs of the suit be paid by the present incumbent, Judge F. M. Hollowell, who is serving his third term in that office.

As causes for the allegations the judge is charged with having collected illegal fees in the amount of $383.75. Another charge is the practicing of an attorney and drawing up papers in cases covering estates that came before his own court.

Pugsley Minimizes Loss.

C. W. Pugsley of the state farm was asked how much truth there was in reports of winter killing of winter wheat, and replied that he thought the stories were exaggerated. "It is undoubtedly true," he said, "that considerable wheat has been killed, but there is no particular section affected, the losses being well distributed over the state and in no case exceptional. I would say that the loss is slightly above the ten year average and considerably less than the average of the last three years." Mr. Pugsley does not consider the condition at all serious.

ENSILAGE FED BEEVES, $7.90

Veteran Nebraska Feeder Lands Fat Cattle in the Top Notch.

George D. Butterfield of the feeding firm of W. H. Butterfield & Son, was on the South Omaha market with a bunch of cattle that averaged right around 1,500 pounds and brought $7.90, the high price of the day. They loaded at Norfolk.

"These cattle were bought last fall and fed in the usual way from October until about Dec. 1, when we opened our silos," said Mr. Butterfield. "From then on we divided some of the cattle and made an effort to compare gains on several rations, combining corn, ensilage and alfalfa in various proportions. We found the ensilage good and economical feed, but are not yet ready to say just what is the best ration. It was certainly a very hard season for feeding. From about Christmas to the 5th of February there were only two days on which the mercury got as high as zero or above and more than once it went as low as 40 below."

The Messrs. Butterfield are among the most extensive feeders in Nebraska and have a good many cattle still on feed.

ISSUES GASOLINE ORDER

Randall Notifies Dealers That Fluid Must Be Kept Underground.

Fire Commissioner Randall is sending out a circular to all dealers in gasoline that the fluid must be kept in an underground system hereafter and that prosecutions will follow if the order is not respected. He takes the stand this authority is given him in the law which makes practices which endanger life and property by fire a nuisance, and he insists that unless gasoline is kept underground it is a great menace. He consoles the dealers by telling them the saving in evaporation by putting it underground will more than pay for installing the system.

Inquiry Over Ballot.

The county clerk of Custer county has written to Secretary of State Watt asking for advice. Some want him to place opposite the names of candidates for delegates to the Republican national convention the designation of who they are for and others object to any designation except Republican. Mr. Watt replied to him as he has to others who asked the same question, that the law provides for no designation except "Republican" or "Democrat," as the case may be, and beyond that he cannot give advice.

Two Laws Upheld.

Robert J. Wallace of Buffalo county gets a new trial on the charge of stealing hogs, but incidentally the supreme court holds valid the law making the stealing of hogs a felony, regardless of the value of the animals stolen, and also holds valid the indeterminate sentence law. The court decides that the creation of a prison board is not investing that board with judicial powers. The case is reversed on the ground that the evidence did not warrant a verdict of guilty.

Commissioner Are Busy.

The rooms of the state railway commission are almost deserted, Commissioners Clarke and Hall being in South Omaha hearing a case involving the rate on live stock in mixed carlots. The next big job the commissioners have on hand is the hearing on the physical valuation of the Burlington road, which is set for April 17, and in view of the marked difference between the figures of the company and the state's experts it will probably be a lengthy affair.

Buying Seed Corn.

The agricultural experiment station has sent out a bulletin to Nebraska corn growers urging them to get seed not only from their own state, but from their own section of the state. So far as growing qualities are concerned, it is asserted, Nebraska seed, while poor, is as good as that of other states and seed brought in, seldom, if ever, yields well for several years, until it becomes acclimated.

Pioneer Dies at Age of Ninety.

Herman, Neb., April 10.—Charles H. Burdick died at the farm home of J. H. Cameron, near here. He was ninety years old and had lived in Nebraska since 1854. He had been hale and hearty until recently. Four children survive him, William, South Dakota; Edison, Decatur; Mrs. J. H. Cameron and Mrs. Emma Spore of Herman. He is survived also by his second wife, his first wife having died in 1875.

Dies of Blood Poisoning.

Mrs. Louis Lehms, residing a few miles west of Edgar, died of ptomaine poisoning, as a result of eating weiner-wurst. The whole family were more or less affected, but Mrs. Lehms, who had been in poor health for a week or two, was not able to overcome the effects and died of the poison.

Court Settles Black's Salary Suit.

In the case of the Kearney Baseball and Athletic association against H. S. Stevens of Grand Island, president of the Nebraska State Baseball league last year, the association was awarded $120 and the defendant charged with costs, all resulting from the Black salary case.

West Point Farmer Is Poisoned.

Frank Barcal, a farmer who lived near West Point, is dead as the result of accidental poisoning. He had been sick for some time and got hold of a bottle containing wood alcohol, which he had mistaken for the medicine prescribed for him. He died in a few hours.

Stickney Gasoline Engines ARE THE BEST

Economy—We Can Help You

You know that you should have a Stickney Engine but do you know what size will do your work most economically, both in cost of fuel and in the expenditure of your time as an engine too small to do the work is not true economy. It is not economy to overload your engine nor to run it at too high a speed. Again the right size of an engine will not give proper results unless the pulley sizes are right and the hook up is correct. This is where we can help you before you buy as well as look after you when you have bought.

Once more let us offer our help and show you the Stickney Engine—its outside igniter, its perfect cooling system, its automatic mixer, its ball bearing governor and its three point suspension.

Among The Churches of Wayne

BAPTIST CHURCH

(Rev. B. P. Richardson, Pastor)

On last Sunday morning the band of church-fellowship was extended to thirty new members. Some others are to be received soon. We feel the responsibility of having so many "babes in Christ," to train and lead. Among this number some were well advanced in years, while others were from our Sunday school, scarcely half a score of years yet.

We were pleased to see with us Mr. and Mrs. Kimball from Wakefield on last Sunday.

All were saddened on Sunday morning when our superintendent, Mr. O. A. King told us that would be his last Sunday with us. He goes to Denver, Colo., to live. For about twelve years he has been closely connected with our school and for many years our superintendent. The school adopted some resolutions of respect and appreciation of his work among us. It will be hard to find another to take his place.

On Wednesday evening at 7:30 will be our prayer-meeting. This will be followed by a conference of officers and teachers of the Sunday school.

Friday afternoon the officers and program committee of the Women's Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. Norton.

Next Sunday the pastor will preach at both services. The morning sermon will be on: "The Legacy of Jesus."

A cordial invitation to you to worship with us.

METHODIST CHURCH

(Rev. Wm Gorst, Pastor)

Within a few days Rev. Jacob Adrien of Fremont and Rev. Hiram Burch of University Place have each given $2,000 to the Endowment fund of Nebraska Wesleyan University. Both of these men are very old and were among the earliest pioneer ministers in Nebraska and Colorado. Many years ago Mr. Adrien organized Cherry Valley church in Colorado, before Denver was in existence, and his organization has been developed into great Trinity church of Denver, while Mr. Burch organized the first M. E. church in Nebraska at Nebraska City in 1854.

Mrs. I. H. Brittel assisted by several ladies will entertain the Ladies Aid society this afternoon. Last week's prayer-meeting was quite largely attended and was an excellent and helpful service.

238 attended Sunday school last Sunday.

This week on Tuesday and Wednesday the district conference and also a meeting of Laymen was held at Laurel. Prof. Hickman read a paper on The Federation of Churches.

Next Sunday the pastor will preach morning and evening with the subjects, "God's Limitless Gifts" and "Next Friday's Primaries Pending Amendments."

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

(Rev Alexander Corkey, Pastor)

"The Singing of the Birds" will be the theme for the sermon by the pastor at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. In the evening he will continue his sermons on Genesis. His subject next Sunday evening will be "The Flood, or Earth's First Catastrophe after the Creation of Man."

The Woman's Missionary society meets on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. J. Felber. The foreign subject to be studied will be "India," and the home topic is "Good Citizenship."

The Sunday school begins at 9:50 a. m. There is a ten minute song service at the opening of the school. Preaching service begins at 11 o'clock. The Juniors meet at 8 o'clock in the lecture room of the church, and the C. E. society meets at 7 p. m. The evening service in the church begins at 8 o'clock.

Niobrara Presbytery, which includes all the Presbyterian churches in North-East Nebraska, meets at Lynch on April 16-18. The local church will be represented by the pastor and Elder Arthur Parry.

ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC CHURCH.

(Rev Father Kerns, Pastor)

First Mass next Sunday morning in Carroll at 9 o'clock and second Mass in Wayne at 11:45. Benediction after Mass. Sunday school at 3:30.

Easter Sunday was fittingly observed, great numbers assisted at both Masses and in the evening. The man cut flowers and Easter lilies on the alters added their fragrance and beauty to the joyful celebration of the greatest of all Feasts, The Resurrection of Christ. The choir rendered Carey's Missa Brevi in a most praiseworthy manner and should feel a just pride in their success.

Washington Political News

By C. H. Tavenner

Washington, April 8, 1912.— A perusal of the "literature" sent out daily by press agents of both Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt reveals that these candidates for the honor of leading their party are making a lot of noise and kicking up a lot of dust about everything except the one thing that is going to be the real issue of the coming campaign, namely, the tariff.

All the Democratic candidates are not only willing, but anxious to tell the people where they stand on the tariff. Look to the opposition headquarters for a discussion of this vital subject, and you are greeted with a silence so thick that it could be cut with a knife. Mr.
Roosevelt is busy trying to arouse the people with the "recall of Judges" issue, and Mr. Taft is trying his best to stand pat. The Democrats, on the other hand, are citing facts and figures to drive home the one great truth that the cause of the present high cost of living in this country is due to the high tariff wall, and to that alone.

So apparent that it became that the tariff trusts have been using the tariff all these years as a weapon to gouge profits out of the consumers of the land, that it is next to pathetic to hear the protectionists in Congress still shouting, as they occasionally do, that to remove the tariff, or reduce the rates of the present law, would take away the "protection from the American working man." Protectionists orators in both Houses of congress, driven to desperation by the knowledge that the people at last understand the real issue, are making a last frantic effort to drag out the old, tattered bogey man of "Competition-with-the-pauper-of-Europe," in the hope of making the voters once more swallow the bait. But the tariff will not down, and the protectionists' cries are becoming weaker and weaker.

The Democratic investigations, which were so much derided when they were first put into operation taught lessons which are daily sinking deeper and deeper into the minds of the people. The light thrown on the methods of the steel trust by the Stanley committee; the exposure of the rottenness in the administration of the Agriculture department by the Moss committee; the shameful conditions in the woolen industry as brought out by the Rules committee investigation; the petty manipulation of public moneys in the State Department, as shown by the inquiries of the Hamlin committee, and the various other revelations by the Democrats of the House, all revealing that wherever the light was thrown, maladministration, inefficiency and actual graft lay exposed, all have served to convince the people that the Democrats not only have proven worthy of the trust placed in them a year ago, but that they are worthy of those "graver responsibilities" which Speaker Champ Clark said the party would prove itself capable of carrying.

The battle of next November is going to center around the tariff, which is the mother of all the evils that have grown up under the present system, despite the efforts of the protectionists to side track that question and bring less important issues to the front.

Another Chance For Taft

The Democratic wool bill of last year proposed a reduction of 50 per cent in the rates on wool, and it passed the House by a vote of 221 to 100. The same bill has again passed the House, this time by a vote of 189 to 92.

When he vetoed the bill last year President Taft gave as his reason the fact that the tariff board had not reported. Now, in the light of the tariff board's report, the Republicans of the House have submitted a bill which calls for a reduction of 40 per cent in schedule K, or just two per cent less than the bill which the president vetoed.
The tariff board, therefore, vindicates the Democratic bill, if such vindication was necessary, which is doubted. The Democrats knew, long before the tariff board was created, that the wool rates were too high, and President Taft knew it also, for in his speech at Winona, Minn., he characterized the Payne-Aldrich wool tariff rate as "indefensible."

As things now stand, neither the president, nor the republican party as a whole, nor the high protectionists will have any excuse for blocking the present bill. If any of them do stand in its way, they will convict themselves of deliberately trying to grant a special privilege, namely, the privilege of robbing the consumer, to the wool trust magnates.

Oregons Honor System

Governor Oswald West said in an address at San Francisco last Sunday that his experience with the "honor system" in the Oregon penitentiary leads him to the belief that about one-third of the men sentenced for crime can be reformed and made into good citizens.
But the process must begin when the men enter the prison and not when they leave it.

He believes in studying the men when they enter, classifying them, and giving them the sort of treatment their best development requires. In the case of hardened criminals and degenerates, he believes in the "old fashioned prison methods."

But most of them are brought into trouble through idleness and ignorance, and it becomes the duty of the state to start the work of reformation as soon as they reach the prison. As to the working of the "honor system" the said:

In Oregon I have direct control of the state penitentiary, and we have adopted the honor system there. There are about 462 convicts, not including about 120 whom I have now out on parole.
Of that 462 more than 200 are outside the walls, working principally on the highways of the state. They have absolutely no guard and wear civilian's clothes. Many are not required to return to the prison at night and one gang is working several hundred miles away. There is a man with them, but he can hardly be called a guard—merely an overseer. He carries no weapons, and the other day when he found he needed a larger forte for his work, he left his son, a mere boy, with the gang while he went back to Salem to take out another crowd from the prison.

Of the paroled men, about 87 per cent have made good. My idea is that many of these fellows don't know how to work, and we have found that as soon as we can teach them what application means the difficulty of handling them is solved in large degree. Nebraska State Journal.

Co-operative Advertising

Several towns that have made a success of co-operation among the merchants have adopted a new idea of co-operative advertising, says an exchange. They select some day, or two days perhaps, and then each business man in the town offers for that date some special value.

They arrange also in some places for a market day, making a special attraction in the line of the sale of farm produce and machinery and live stock. People are encouraged to bring to town whatever they have to sell, being sure that on that date there will be a good crowd of purchasers. Some towns hold these sales every month and others hold them only two to four times a year. All these schemes help to advertise the town and to keep people coming to it.

ARE MICROBES IN YOUR SCALP?

It Has Been Proved That Microbes Cause Baldness.

Professor Unna of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. Sabourand, the leading French dermatologist, discovered that a microbe causes baldness. Their theory has time and again been amply verified through research experiments carried on under the observation of eminent scientists. This microbe lodges in the Sebium, which is the natural hair oil, and when permitted to flourish it destroys the hair follicles and in time the pores entirely close, and the scalp gradually takes on a shiny appearance. When this happens there is no hope of the growth of hair being revived.

We have a remedy which will,
we honestly believe, remove dandruff, exterminate the microbe, promote good circulation in the scalp and around the hair roots, tighten and revitalize the hair roots, and overcome baldness, so long as there is any life left in the hair roots.
We back up this statement with our own personal guarantee that this remedy called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will be supplied free of all cost to the user if it fails to do as we state.

It will frequently help to restore gray and faded hair to its original color, providing loss of color has been caused by disease; yet it is in no sense a dye, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic accomplishes these results by aiding in making every hair root, follicle, and pigment gland strong and active, and by stimulating a natural flow of coloring pigment throughout the hair cells.
We exact no obligations or promises—we simply ask you to give Rexall "93" Hair Tonic a thorough trial and if not satisfied tell us and we will refund the money you paid us for it. Two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain it in Wayne only at our store, the Rexall store, Shulthies Pharmacy.

THE MONEY MAKING CAPON.

Just fifty years after Columbus discovered America Andrew Borde wrote, "Of all tame fowle a capon is most beste, for it is nutrytyve and is soon dygested."

Shakespeare was stuck on capon, too, and for over 2,000 years it has been pronounced the "moste beste" in the old world, yet has only been known fifty years in this country.

Here is a fowl that "tastes better than turkey," sells higher, is more easily raised, for which there is a great demand and the raising of which disposes of cockerels at big profit, and yet comparatively few raise them.

Old roosters are sold at 8 to 10 cents, which is below cost, whereas if capon-ized young and kept eight to twelve months they bring from 25 to 30 and even 50 cents per pound.

Early chickens are sold at $1 to 60 cents per pair at a pound to three pounds weight, and these first pounds cost most, whereas a capon, after this first stage growth, is a cheap feeder, reaches as high as eighteen pounds and pays better than broilers.

Cockerels are seldom fat. They get stagger early, seldom bring a profit and by their continual chasing cut down weight of themselves and hens. By a simple operation, full directions of which come with the instruments.

RIVERSIDE CAPONS.

these loud mouthed, scrapping, troublesome males are denatured and are often more profitable than laying hens.

Operation is performed when birds weigh from two to four pounds, at two to four months old. When done later the risk is greater.

Early birds make best capons. June, July and August are the best months to caponize, the usual time of growth being from eight to twelve months.

Large breeds are best. Largest capons are most popular.

Best subjects are Brahmas, Cochins, Rocks, White Wyandottes, straight.
The finest cross is Dorking male and Brahma hen. Their pullets mated to Indian Game.

This gives compactness of Dorking, size of Brahma, big breast, yellow skin and juiciness of Game.

Indian Game and Cochin, Houdan and Brahma, Langshan or Brahma, with Rocks, bring good birds. Like the steer, a capon puts on flesh and fat, becomes quiet, ceases to crow, fights but little, does not chase hens and does not exercise enough to reduce weight. The operation lengthens out the period of growth, and flesh retains the tenderness, palatability and sweetness of spring chicken.

It must cause but little pain, for the subject will eat during the process, the wound heals quickly, and very few die from the operation. The comb is always removed, as this is the distinguishing mark of capons, as also the feathers left on head, neck, breast, wing, tail and thighs when dressed.

DON'TS.

Don't be morose nor lachrymose nor in your biz be comatose.

Don't give roosters whisky to cure colds. This is especially dangerous in a dry state.

Don't let Jack Frost kiss the checks of your Black Spanish Biddies. Such osculation spells ruination.

Don't heat the poultry house. Hot air is essential to political success, but of the roosters makes a mess.

Don't forget that big balloon bay windows on pouters who prize while on mere man 'tis size we fear that takes the prize for drinking beer.

Don't skimp a layer on feed for fear she will get too fat. Two ounces of her feed at least go to her egg, the richest of products, and the rest for heat, tissue, feathers and waste.

Don't let success at winning cups take you into turning a fancy fowl flesh factory into a fancy fowl feather plant. However gay, hens that can't lay can't pay. It's not feathers, but utility spells stability.

DON'T YOU SWEAR.

It's only a few months ago,
It was that awful hot,
You sizzled and you tizzled
And most turned to a grease spot.

You cried: "Were I a millionaire I'd buy a cake of ice,
And sit on it all day and night!
You bet that would be nice!"

My friend, the frost and snow are here And ice a foot thick too, Now help yourself. It all is free.
Here is the chance for you.

Just sit right down upon the street—Yes, squat quick anywhere—But, mind, when you get that hard knock, You bawled for ice, don't swear.

FEEDING AND DRESSING CAPONS.

Capon should have no feed the day before operation and no water the morning it occurs and as soon as made capons should be penned by themselves, given a moderate amount of mash and plenty of water. Let them

DRESSED PHILADELPHIA STYLE

sleep at first on straw, as roosting opens the wound, which should heal quickly without stitching.

A grass run is desirable, and the object in feeding should be a big frame, fancy flesh and fine finish. Capons are,
for bonton trade; therefore the more quality the more money, the greater the pains the greater the gains.

Therefore give them your best care, and they will respond with pounds of fine flesh. Hoppers of wheat, cracked corn, beef scrap, bulled oats, grit, shell and charcoal and plenty of fresh water should be kept before them. A moist mash of two parts bran and one each of wheat midds, ground oats and cornmeal, wet up with skim milk, should be fed twenty minutes at night.

Two weeks before market remove hoppers and three times a day feed a milk moist mash four parts cornmeal, two of wheat midds, two of ground oats and one of wheat bran. Throw in a little cracked corn between meals.

Capons are dry plucked—head and feet left on, and feathers are left on head, neck, breast, wing joints, thighs and tail as in the picture, the a la mode Philadelphia style. Feet, mouth and head should be washed, and in packing the head should be wrapped in paper to keep blood from smearing the carcasses. They should be clean of pinfeathers, perfectly cooled and shipped in clean boxes or barrels lined with white paper.

FEATHERS AND EGGSHELLS

The best way to dispose of soft corn is to slice it in a vegetable or bone cutter. The cob is sweet, contains some protein, and when fresh and juicy the hens and cattle like it.

The first cold snap often catches young stock that is still in summer quarters, and many a bunch of fine pullets has been spotted for winter laying by colds and roup contracted through such neglect.

The "Don't Worry club," a bunch of young men camping along the Dol-klofen, Pennsylvania, and who claimed to be able to live on $10 a month, all they had, had something to worry about when arrested for stealing chickens and fined $30.

White Caps in Indiana dogged a man two hours with stirrup leathers. He was under suspicion of stealing turkeys, but no formal complaints had ever been made against him. He recognized his assailants and had them arrested for assault and battery.

Yes, it is a wonder how some people miss dressed poultry at market. You will find them also sticking their finger nails into the butter to taste it and handling the steaks on the butcher's stand. Such manners belong to the hog period of the dark ages.

Poultry culture is even advancing in the far islands of the sea, the Faroe Islands, in the north Atlantic, where it rains 278 days per year, being the latest to report. As grain is all imported from Denmark and Scotland, poultry is fed boiled whale meat, potatoes and beet root. India Runner ducks are the specialty.

A writer in the London Times has been trying to scare the English people into fits by telling them preserved eggs give folks the colic, and a New York reporter also states that he recently ate with relish a Chinese egg fifty years old and felt good on it. It is up to our readers who are expert to pick out the liar in the case.

So many of our poultry editors are advising invalids to go into the poultry business. "The work is so healthy and interesting that one forgets it is work, and the money comes easy." Yes, in your mind or the void where your mind ought to be. It is healthful, interesting, but there is hard work, often disappointment, and money comes no easier than in other pursuits.

TESTED THE ANTS.

Experiments That Seem to Prove the Insects Have Memory.

Experiments are continually being made to test the memory of animals, such as the elephant, the dog, the bull, but it would seem a thankless undertaking to ascertain whether the ant has a memory. Nevertheless a scientist in South America thinks he has succeeded.

Isolating two of the largest specimens of tropical ants he could find, he so arranged their receptacle that they could get no food without climbing over a circular slant into another compartment. Over this slant when the food was not there he placed a crimson cord, and the ants very soon learned to interpret the signal and never attempted to climb over it.

Thinking after a time that there might be something in the color that repelled them automatically, as the bull is affected unpleasantly by red, he replaced the red cord by cords of varying colors, always with the same result after the ants had made a few excusions over the slant and come back hungry. They he tried plain cloth and even paper, but the result was invariably the same. After a number of trials the ants refused to climb the slant when there was any sort of "signal."

Finally the scientist reversed the signal, having food beyond the slant only when it was visible, and after an infinite number of trials the ants accommodated themselves to the change.—

LABOUCHERE'S COPY.

After It Was Finished He Lost All Interest in Its Fate.

It was a matter of absolute indifference to Labouche what became of anything he wrote after he had written it. When he had corrected the proof or if he was away from England when he sent his copy to the post he took no further interest in it whatever.

Before I had discovered this trait in his character I used to write and apologize for cutting, perhaps six columns down to two, or sometimes offer an excuse for not using any of it at all. At last he wrote to me: "You need not sentimentalize about my stuff. I send it to you to do what you like with."

But one felt a lingering compunction long afterward about consigning the fruits of so much labor to the waste paper basket, and, after all, Labouche was the proprietor of the paper. Once or twice, therefore, I have excused myself for "not sentimental-izing" about some article that he had sent.

One such occasion he writes: "Dear —: I am the only person, I believe, on the press who does not care in the least whether his lucubrations do or do not appear in print. It has always appeared to me that the making of an art (article) requires two persons, one to write it, the other to cut it down, and generally to cut out what the first man most admires."—London Truth.

Wanted His Money Back.

A young man had taken his wife to a show, and as there was no one to look after the baby they had brought it along. It cried lustily all through the first act. At the close of the act an usher came down the aisle and informed them that if they could not keep the baby quiet they would have to go to the box office, get their money back and go out.

They succeeded in squelching the baby, and all went well for a time.

Then, five minutes after the last act had commenced, the young father leaned over and said, "How do you like the show?"

"Rotten!" was the reply.

He was silent for a moment, and then, leaning over again, he whispered:
"Stick a pin in the baby."—Every-wealthy the building of the Allegheny

John Hadley certainly surprised his friends when he was married last Wednesday at Plattsmouth to Miss Kitty Ellis of Cromwell, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Hadley arrived here Friday and will go to house-keeping on John's farm just south of town. We welcome Mrs. Hadley to the community and hope that everything good comes to both of them in their married life.

On last Wednesday evening the people of Sholes and vicinity were treated to a high class musical entertainment by a blind man and his wife of Friend, Nebr. The lady who was blind at birth, does marvelous work on both piano and guitar and possesses a good contralto voice. Their work would be difficult to surpass by those who are blessed with sight. Contrary to all rules the collection was not taken until just before the last number, the result of which showed that Sholes is not going to be left behind in such benefits.

The last number of the lecture course was the Midland Concert company who were here last Saturday night and gave their entertainment in spite of the fact that their train was an hour and a half late. These ladies are certainly artists in their lines and deserve the many compliments they are receiving. Miss Bates was with the company and delighted the audience with her remarkable ability as a reader. Miss Lang's work with the violin ranks as the best, and the Misses Geneva and McCracken possess voices of wonderful richness. While the course did not pay out financially, yet the committee feel that their money was well spent.

Odd Fellows Celebrate Anniversary

Monday night marked the first anniversary of the organization of the Odd Fellows lodge in Sholes, and was duly celebrated after the business meeting this week by the members of the lodge, the Rebekas and a few invited friends.

William Closson, as master of ceremonies, opened the program by introducing Richard Closson who addressed us in his able and pleasing manner and also gave a short account of the history of this branch of the I. O. O. F., when organized. This was followed by an interesting talk by the Rev. San of Randolph, who had walked from that burg to do his part in making the celebration a success. Miss Iva Root then gave a reading appropriate to the occasion, which was followed by an instrumental solo by Miss Emma Clark. The program was closed by an instrumental duet by Misses Alice Root and Clara Burson.

The banquet next occupied our attention. Two long, beautifully decorated tables were spread the length of the hall and loaded with the viands prepared by the Rebekas. The ladies found their partners by drawing slips of paper on which the names of the gentlemen were written and soon the places were filled by the merry, social crowd. After the banquet, addresses by W. H. Root, Dr.

Caulk and others were listened to and appreciated, then two pleasing readings by James Stevens helped materially with the entertainment.

Last but by no means least, was a talk by the founder of this Sholes branch of the I. O. O. F., Warren Closson. It was difficult to realize that the delightful evening was over. About fifty-six were in attendance.
