FLEGE GETS FROM ONE TO TEN YEARS IN PRISON

Dixon County Farmer, Twice Convicted of Slaying His Sister, Denied a New Trial at Pender

Pender, Neb., May 18. Judge Graves today sentenced William Flege, convicted of manslaughter, in killing his sister, Louise, after having been convicted at a previous trial at Ponea, whose case was remanded by the supreme court for trial again to an indeterminate sentence of from one to ten years.

The court heard arguments for a new trial which he overruled.

Berry Brothers who were attorneys for the defense state that the case will again be appealed to the Supreme Court of the state, expecting to again secure a new trial, and F. S. Berry went to Lincoln Tuesday to act in the matter.

For Wayne and its Business Men

It is generally conceded that the Wayne papers are fully up to the average Nebraska county seat paper in all the points that go to make a newspaper valuable to the business men of the place where it is published, and we are not complaining because of lack of patronage, but it seems strange to us that some lines of business here are not and have not been represented in the Wayne papers for a year or more that we know of, while like lines in surrounding towns are constantly inviting those who wish to purchase in those lines to deal with them. We know that some people in Wayne territory have listened to the appeal. Don't miss a good opportunity to invite people to come to your place of business.

Pardon Asked For Schon

M. E. Schon so well known here, who was caught in bad company in Iowa about a year ago, and implicated in a little burglary deal, much to the surprise of all who knew him here, was given an indeterminate sentence, is now likely to be pardoned. The pardoning board of Iowa is investigating his record here where he is best known. We believe that he was caught in the only bad act he ever did, from all that we can learn of him here. The surprise was general when he was convicted, as the deed was so foreign to anything that was ever thought of in connection with Schon, and we believe that he always bore a good reputation.

Rimel-Nelson

About fifty relatives and friends of the bride and groom, assembled at the pleasant country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rimel at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Lucile and Mr. C. R. Nelson. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Ina Hughes sang "I love you truly" accompanied by Miss Pearle Hughes at the organ. The young couple took their place under a flower bedecked canopy of green and white where the sacred vows were impressively administered by Rev. Parker Smith, former pastor of the Baptist church at this place, now of Sheldon, Iowa.

The bride was tastily attired in a gown of white embroidery and carried white roses. Miss Rue Rickabaugh, her bridesmaid, was gowned in pink and white-voile, carrying pink roses. Oscar Anderson acted as best man.

After the congratulations a wedding dinner was served. Some time was then devoted to social pleasantries after which the guests departed.

The bride has lived near Wayne for sometime. She is a young lady of pleasing personality and highly esteemed by all who know her. She will be greatly missed in home and church circles.

The groom is a young man of high standing among his many friends in Wayne. He is now engaged in business at Powell, Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson are both active working members of the Baptist church at this place, who will be greatly missed in church and social circles. For the past four years Miss Rimel was an active member of the choir.

Numerous valuable and dainty presents attest the high regard in which they were held, and they will take with them to their western home the best wishes of the community.

After a short visit at the home of the groom's parents, the happy couple will leave for their new home. A host of friends will wish that there may be a full realization of all their fondest anticipations of a happy and useful life.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. A. J. Boston, Mr. C. Boston of Malvern, Iowa, and the Misses Georgia and Mildred Van Kirk of Silver City, Iowa.

Encampment Initiation

Last evening the Odd Fellows who belong to the Wayne Encampment of that order made a night of it. The degree team from Blair who were here when this popular branch of Odd Fellowship was instituted, were here and initiated ten candidates into the camp.

When the work was over a banquet was served at the Vibber Cafe and all enjoyed an hour about the banquet table as only a jolly crowd of lodge men and candidates can enjoy such a treat.

Following were the visitors from Blair: W. P. Samson, J. C. Eller, A. J. Taylor, J. P. Jensen, H. C. Jensen, A. Hanna, J. M. Gollehon, H. C. Blaco, Andrew Madsen, F. Gray, H. Farr.

These gentlemen were much alive to the beauties of Wayne, and were out early for a morning stroll, some going as far as the college. They were interested in municipal affairs, and are evidently boosters at home. They were much pleased with Wayne, and noted great improvement since their first visit here a few years ago.

Lundburg-Will

Announcements from Mrs. Peter Lundburg of Portland, Oregon, received here the first of this week telling of the marriage of her daughter, Miss Anna Laura, and Mr. William F. Will, both most favorably known to Wayne people, came as a great surprise to their many friends here. They were married at the home of the bride's mother, May 8th, 1912 and will soon be at home at Laramie, Wyoming, where the groom, who is in the forestry service of Uncle Sam, has headquarters. Mrs. Lundburg and family moved from here about four years ago, and the groom, who is a son of Gus Will and wife of this city, has been in the forestry service of the government for several years and has been advanced to a responsible position. The Democrat joins their many friends in extending wishes of happiness and prosperity.

ROOSEVELT FIRST IN OHIO

Ex President Called by Ohio Republicans to Save the Country, or at Least The Party

Returns from the Ohio primary held Tuesday show conclusively that the republicans of the state do not want President Taft as the candidate. It has been thus where ever the voter has got a whack at him. The rank and file of that party appear to want Roosevelt to again become their candidate. At any rate they are opposed to or afraid of Taft. With the popular disapproval the delegates who are tied to the president by Federal patronage are tugging at the strings to get away, for the majority of such are pie-eaters, and they do not want to miss the pie.

Latest reports indicate that Roosevelt will have at least 32 of the 48 delegates, and some place his number at 42. The Roosevelt lead is about 20,000. LaFollett received a liberal vote.

Governor Harmon carried the state over Woodrow Wilson by a less majority and will have a majority of the delegation from Ohio to the convention at Baltimore. Champ Clark and W. J. Bryan each received many votes though not named on the ballot.

Berg Sells Clothing Business

The sale of the Berg Clothing business to Messrs. Blair & Mulloy, of Fremont, comes as a surprise to all, and to Mr. Berg as much as to any, for he came to Wayne intending to remain, but the town and business looked good to others and in an unguarded moment he priced the business and would not back out. We hope that he will remain in Wayne and take up some other line, for he is of the class of citizen we like to retain.

The new proprietors come vouched for as business men of high character, and citizens above reproach, and they will be welcome to Wayne. Of them the Fremont Tribune says:

"Fred Blair, after working in one clothing store without interruption for 14 years, has decided to abandon his present position and go into business for himself. He went up to Wayne, Neb., last Saturday night, looked over the $15,000 clothing stock in the well-known Berg store, and within 24 hours had passed his check to close the option. He will go to Wayne next Monday to assume charge. With him later will be financially associated John Mulloy, one of the well known Fremont young men. Mrs. Mulloy is very ill at present and hence why Mr. Mulloy defers going to Wayne at once. Fred Blair started as a clothing store clerk with Nathan Sampter, and he has continued to hold down the job to the present time, though the store has changed hands several times in the fourteen years he has been with it. He has always been a steady and faithful fellow, commanding his share of business among acquaintances, and now that he enters business for himself, he should, with his knowledge of the trade, make a success from the very start. His many friends hereabouts will certainly wish him all possible prosperity and will regret he is to leave Fremont."

To Visit Native Land

A party consisting of W. A. Williams and wife of Wayne and John R. Morris and wife of Carroll left here Saturday afternoon, and are now well out on the Atlantic, enroute to visit their native land, Wales. Mr. Williams tells us that he was but a small boy when he came with his parents to America, and as he has never been back, to him it will be more like visiting a foreign country than a home coming. Relatives and the scenes will be as new to him.

Mr. Morris came from Wales when but about ten years of age, coming to southwestern Iowa, where he had a sister living. His father was a shepherd in Wales and his first occupation in the new world was herding sheep, and as he had learned much of that work with his father, was able to give the flock better care than most men would have done. With his wife he visited Wales seven years ago. He has numerous relatives there and anticipates a happy family reunion. Numerous friends were at the depot to bid them goodbye and wish them a safe and pleasant journey. They plan to be absent several months.

Death of Mrs. Hansen

Mrs. Christian Hansen was born April 8, 1869, and died at her home near Carroll Tuesday, May 21, 1912, at 10 o'clock p. m., aged 43 years, 1 month and 3 days. Minnie Jensen was born in Denmark and came to America in 1889 and was married to Christian Hansen March 8th of the same year, at Blair, Nebraska, and came to Wayne county soon after. Five children were born to this union, three of whom survive, Anna, James and Alfred E., all at home. Besides her husband and children she leaves a brother, Soren Jensen, at Blair, a mother and seven sisters and a brother in Denmark.

During her long residence in Wayne county, she made many sincere friends. She was a kind and loving wife and mother, always ready to lend a helping hand to a friend in need. A patient sufferer during her long illness during which everything that loving hands could do, was done to relieve her but without avail.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the stricken husband and children in this their great loss.

The funeral services were held at Carroll this afternoon, conducted by the Rev. Swartz of Morningside.

A CARD OF THANKS.

To the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the illness and burial of our beloved wife and mother we beg to express our sincere thanks and appreciation. Christian Hansen and Family.

TELLING OF SCHOOL WORK

School News of Interest at Commencement Time. The Field Meet and School Notes.

The pupils will receive their final reports on Friday.

Final examinations this week on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The high school orchestra will furnish music for the Class Play tonight.

The ninth grade had a party in the gymnasium last Thursday evening.

The eighth grade had a party last Friday afternoon. They played games and had light refreshments.

A good number of the high school students and teachers accompanied the track team to Bloomfield last Friday.

Class play tonight at the opera house. Don't fail to see it. Every member of the graduating class is represented in this play.

Recent visitors were Miss White, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Rippon, Mrs. Beaman, Mrs. Shook, Mrs. Lutgen and Miss Plumleigh.

Commencement tomorrow evening at the M. E. church. Dr. A. E. Turner, formerly president of Hastings College will give the class address. Mr. Turner's subject is "The Earmarks of an Educated Man".

The class of 1912 numbers twenty-eight boys and twelve girls as follows: Paul Mines, Tracy Kohl, Clement Crossland, Harry Gildersleeve, Bernard McConnell, Willis Fleetwood, J. M. Strahan, Harold Weber, Margaret Heckert, Neva Orr, Alma Craven, Bessie Lauman, Ida Hinrichs, Dorothy Von Seggern, Bernice Beebe, Myra Bell, Grace Ash, LaVern Garwood, Hazel Norton and Lucille Scaee.

The Baccalaureate Services

The baccalaureate address to the senior class of the high school was given by the Rev. Dr. Gorst last Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church. The theme, "God has set his heart upon man" was very clearly and logically developed and the entire address was replete with inspiring thoughts and valuable suggestions.

The music furnished by the choir of the Presbyterian church was well up to their usual high standard and added much to the pleasure of the large and appreciative audience.

The State Championship Debate

The high school State Championship Debate was held at Lincoln last Saturday. Ten boys and one girl, representing the same number of districts, competed for honors in this debate. Tracy Kohl of the local high school represented the northeast district and debated in his usual convincing and pleasing style. Tracy had a hard place on the program, being the last speaker, but he did not let this apparent handicap bother him in the least. The judges announced that five debaters tied for first honors but after careful comparison of figures they awarded first, second and third honors to Geneva, Lincoln and Wymore respectively. We do not know for certain and have no way of finding out, but we believe our representative was one of the five who tied for first honors on the first ballot.

High School Field Meet

The high school was dismissed last Friday so that teachers and students might attend the Northeast Nebraska Athletic Meet at Bloomfield, over forty availing themselves of the opportunity. Contestants and visitors from ten towns were present, the attendance being about fifteen hundred.

The cup and first honors were won by Bloomfield, who had sixteen points to their credit at the start. Wayne won second honors, despite the fact that two other teams had a lead of fifteen points each from base ball and basket ball. The following are the places won by the Wayne boys:

Relay, 1st. Team, Strahan, Leahy, Marsteller, Gildersleeve, Hurdle, 2d. Marsteller. High jump, 1st. Marsteller. Discus, 4th. Leahy. Hammer throw, 3d. Leahy. 220 yard dash, 2nd. Gildersleeve. 100 yard dash, 4th. Strahan. 220 yard dash, 4th. Strahan. High jump, 4th. Jones. Broad jump, 3rd. Gildersleeve. Total number of points won 25 1-3.

The prettiest event of the meet was the relay race in which our team far outdistanced any one of the six others entered.

Wayne should be proud of the showing made by our team, since this is the first attempt. As only two of our contestants graduate the prospects are very bright for a strong team next year. Much credit is due to Mr. Leavens for the excellent showing made this year.

A New Sunday School

A Sunday school was organized last Sunday at the Bell school house 5 miles northeast of Wayne, by Missionary Young. The school was christened "Sunshine Union Sunday school". They will meet at 3 o'clock each Sunday afternoon. A number of Wayne people attended the meeting Sunday and listened to a talk by Miss Glen, who spoke of mission work in China.

The following officers were then elected:

Supt., Miss Grace Soderberg. Ass't. Supt. Swan Soderberg. Secretary, Miss Nettie Samuelson.

Treasurer, Fred Olson. Organist, Miss Nettie Sandahl.

The ice men at Norfolk are about to have an inning. The price of ice at that place this summer will be 25 per cent higher than face of the fact that ice was plenty abundance. So it is not a short-in the human.

A Home Poet

Last week the Democrat quoted a little from Prof. House regarding the bard at Bancroft, John G.
Neihardt. This week we give the first poem of his new volume of verses, just out, entitled "The Stranger at the Gate."

THE WEAVERS

Suns flash, stars drift,
Comes and goes the moon,
Ever through the wide miles
Corn fields croon
Patiently, hopefully,
A low, slow tune.

Lovingly, longingly,
Labors without rest
Every happy corstalk,
Weaving at its breast
Such a cozy cradle
For the coming guest.

In the flowing pastures,
Where the cattle feed,
Such a hidden love-storm,
Dying into seed—
Bluegrass, slough grass
Wild flower, weed!

Mark the downy flower-coats
In the hollyhocks!
Hark, the cooling Wheat-Soul
Weaving for her flocks!
Crown time, June time,
Moon of baby frocks!

Rocking by the window,
Wrapt in visionings,
Lo, the gentle mother
Sews and sings,
Shaping to a low song
Wee soft things!

Patiently, hopefully,
Early, late,
How the wizard fingers
Weave with Fate
For the naked youngling
Crying at the gauntlet!

Sound, sight, day, night Fade, flee thence;
Vanished is the brief, hard
World of sense;
Hark! Is it the plump grape Crooning from the fence?

Droning of the surf where Far seas boom?
Chanting of the weird stars
Big with Doom?
Humming of the god-flung Shuttles of a loom?

O'er the brooding Summer
A green hush clings,
Save the sound of weaving
Wee, soft things;
Everywhere a mother
Weaves and sings

Big Lotus

One of the most annoying things to the animal-keeper with a menagerie is the surprising ignorance and indifference of many people toward the rare and costly beasts and birds of the forest. There are not half a dozen real zoological gardens in this entire country, and hence about the only opportunity a majority of the people of this country have to study natural history from real life is upon the occasional visit of some of the big circuses.

Although wild beasts are vanishing before the advance of civilization, and the increase of the earth's population, and though it is certain that all wild beasts will become extinct in time, yet a larger portion of the public fails to inspect the menageries that are brought to their doors.

The Gollmar Brothers paid $6,500 for a giant hippopotamus. It is a magnificent specimen of the river horse of the River Nile, and a most interesting source of study for the student of nature. Very few people can tell whether a hippopotamus is web footed or whether it has teeth. The average person does not know that it is an animal allied to the elephant; that it has a thick and heavy body, short legs, terminated by four toes; a short tail, skin without hair, except at the extremity of its tail, and that it feeds on herbage exclusively.

"Big Lotus," the "hip" with the Gollmar Shows, knows his value, and he also knows that the public is not as well acquainted with him as it pretends to be.
When he first joined the circus he seemed annoyed because the cheap, sickly, treacherous little monkey attracted more attention than he did; but he is over that now.
Although he is not paid the hon-age and attention that is his due, this giant beast does not show his disappointment, but lies contentedly in the mammoth tank of water in the bottom of his cage, and in parade he will occasionally make goo-goo eyes at the crowds or open his great mouth. When the menagerie is opened he is so provoked that people devote so much time to the other numerous attractions of the Gollmar Brothers zoological display that he frequently turns his back to the whole crowd.

United Doctors, Specialists Will Be at the Boyd Hotel on MONDAY, JUNE 3

and will remain ONE DAY ONLY!

Remarkable Success of These Talented Physicians in the Treatment of Chronic Diseases.

Offer Their Services Free of Charge

The United Doctors, licensed by the state of Nebraska for the treatment of deformities and all nervous and chronic diseases of men, women and children, offer to all who call on this trip, consultation, examination, advice free, making no charge whatever, except the actual cost of medicine. All that is asked in return for these valuable services is that every person treated will state the result obtained to their friends and thus prove to the sick and afflicted in every city and locality, that at last treatments have been discovered that are reasonably sure and certain in their effect.

These doctors are considered by many former patients among America's leading stomach and nerve specialists and are experts in the treatment of chronic diseases and so great and wonderful have been their results that in many cases it is hard indeed to find the dividing line between skill and miracle.

Diseases of the stomach, intestines, liver, blood, skin, nerves, heart, spleen, kidneys, or bladder, rheumatism, sciatica, diabetes-bed-wetting, leg ulcers, weak lungs and those afflicted with long-standing, deep-seated chronic diseases, that have baffled the skill of the family physician, should not fail to call.

According to their system no more operations for appendicitis, gall stones, tumors, goiter or certain forms of cancer. They were among the first in America to earn the name of the "Bloodless Surgeons," by doing away with knife, with blood and with all pain in the successful treatment of these dangerous diseases.

If you have kidney or bladder troubles bring a two-ounce bottle of your urine for chemical analysis and microscopic examination.

Deafness often has been cured in sixty days.

No matter what your ailment may be, no matter what experience you may have had with other physicians, it will be to your advantage to see them at once. Have it forever settled in your mind. If your case is incurable they will give you such advice as may relieve and stay the disease. Do not put off this duty you owe yourself or friends or relatives who are suffering, because of your sickness as a visit this time may help you.

Remember, this free offer is for one day only.

Married ladies must come with their husbands and minors with their parents.

DESCRIPTIVE OF CALIFORNIA

Gladys Goldie Writes Interesting Letter Descriptive of Their New Home to Former Schoolmates

Wilmington, California. My Dear Schoolmates:—I wouldn't be surprised if you have given up hope of ever expecting answers to your fine train letters. I certainly enjoyed them and have missed you all very much, but never-the-less it was much easier to make new friends than I ever expected it to be. I thought I was having pretty hard luck when, after just getting acquainted in Ontario, to have to move again; but I knew many more people here inside of a month than I did in Ontario during the three months we were there.

Ontario is certainly a very pretty place of about 4,500 population. Our orange grove is on the outskirts of the city and was very interesting. It is not the kind of grove any easterner would expect, and I for one, was disappointed in it. The trees are on the average about fourteen feet tall. The trunk is very short, not more than a couple of feet in height; the limbs gradually droop to the ground for about three feet in height, and at some distance ahead, making a circle big enough for one to be inside around the trunk and not to be seen by one passing by. It is next to impossible to climb one, for the limbs are woven close together and have thorns like the rose tree. The foliage is a rather dark green and is thick. The lemon tree is similar to the orange in every comparison, except that the lemon leaf is of a much lighter shade of green.

The ground is plowed once a month, after and before irrigating and as one walks through the grove you sink into the ground up to your shoe tops, because it is so soft. A long cement trough of about three cubic feet, runs at the head of the grove, there are four little doors of about four inches tall in every space between the rows of trees. At irrigation the water goes through these into furrows. These furrows are also made square around every tree.

The water always goes to the other end of the grove, but it always has to be watched so that it will not close up the furrows.

The trees are planted in even rows and space enough between them to make room for a team of horses and plow to go through both ways as well as diagonally. There are usually no other trees in the grove, but we had others, such as the peach, prune, plum, lemon, grapefruit, quince, nectarine and fig.

The oranges are ripe at just about the middle of March, but there was a heavy frost through this part of the country a short time ago, and a great many groves were frozen, but ours seems to be all right.

Here in Wilmington there is an immense fill going on. Wilmington is on the bay and the work is done by what is called a dredger. By this, dirt and water is worked out of the bay and runs through immense pipes onto the land, making the ocean deeper by twenty feet and the water runs back through pipes into the bay, while the mud piles on the ground.

You wonder how we get to stores? A large walk supported by poles in the air, about seven feet high, runs through the principal street (the only business street there is.) Walks of these kind also join onto the large one from the stores. Only one section is filled at a time. They are on the third section now and they expect to be through in May. Hundreds of Japs are working on it. One day when I was going to the station at noon, the Japs were having their lunch and the one that was nearest, I noticed was eating with chop sticks. These were wooden and about as large around as a pencil. He had two in his right hand and with the one in the left hand would push the food on to it. He certainly handled them cleverly.

Great things are expected of Wilmington. Many think and it is all probable that it will be the city and not Los Angeles. The place is commonly called, "a-city on stilts" or "The city in the Air." A street car runs through, from San Pedro, Los Angeles, and Long Beach, which you have all likely heard of. Most people do nearly all their shopping in those places and I have been many times, but could not describe them; for in all except Long Beach I have never gone outside of the business section. When we first came to Wilmington the lady whose husband was editor before we came here, had a party for us the Friday before school started, and in that way I made quite a few acquaintances.

The eighth grade here is much easier than the seventh. I seldom bring a book home unless it is Spanish, and I confess that don't begin to be easy.

We have cooking, sewing, and solid work, but no gymnasium. By next September we expect to have a new school house built but when I think how long it took for ours there to be built, it hardly seems possible for it to be finished so soon.

This summer I spent a day in the San Bernardino Mountains with some Ontario friends. We drove to the foot hills and then started upwards. The roads are fine. I saw water that ran up hill, but every one smiled and I think there was some joke about it. We went to a camp where there is a large boarding house; we had an early lunch and then started up the canon trail.

That canon is the prettiest place I have seen yet. There is shade all of the way, we went up about a mile and a half. Sometimes you come upon a dark place, it is so shaded. There are huge boulders, and we came cross one family (just three) eating a luncheon on a very flat one.

We had gone perhaps a mile or more when we came to an extremely narrow hill with a very steep descent. A water fall was the cause of it. Its height was one hundred feet. To get up on the other side was a frail ladder, with a still more frail railing. We wanted to go on so we started to climb it. It did give one a dizzy feeling, but coming back was the worst of all. On the other side one had to descend only about six feet, which shows to an extent how great the ascent was; but after this we went no farther for one of the party was afraid to try it. (I don't blame her myself, for if I had been as fleshy as she was, I certainly would have staid behind.) There were no flowers but everything was green, mosses and trees of every description.

Among the flowers we have on our lawns are roses, (these are in bloom now) daffodils, heliotrope, all kinds of geraniums, china and easter lilies, smilax, violets, sweet Mary, Martha Washington, oxalis and a magnolia tree, which has the whitest, largest and most beautiful blossoms on it. The five-petals measuring from a yellow center are about six inches long. The tree is considered one of the prettiest in California.

We have had rather drizzling weather for the past two weeks, but before that the weather was fine. Sometimes it is said to rain for a week or more at a time, but the most this winter was a day and a half.

I was in the ocean bathing once and I don't think I will try it again for some time. Perhaps you can guess why, but it certainly was fun to let the great breakers dash over you, sometimes over your whole head.

I have found a great many friends here, but I often wish I was back there to go sleigh and bob-sled riding in the snow.

Your friend and schoolmate, GLADYS GOLDIE.

Gollmar Brothers Shows

The Gollmar Brothers Shows have completed all arrangements to exhibit in Wayne May 31st. The Gollmar Brothers Circus has advanced rapidly during recent years, until it has reached the front rank of the biggest on the road. It advertises a greater number of features and, judging from the comments of the press and others who have seen it, the Gollmar Brothers Circus produces all it advertises. With the Gollmar's from six to eight acts are to be seen at one time in the rings, hippodrome track, on the stage and in mid-air. The management of a show the size of the Gollmar Brothers does not expect the people to be able to watch all of the many features but they arrange to have several acts of various kinds at the same time, so that the spectator may take his choice and enjoy those that he admires most. People's tastes differ, it is necessary for a circus the size of the Gollmar Brothers to be cosmopolitan in character, in order that all may be pleased, and those who have seen it know that it pleases and satisfies the most critical. The Gollmar Brothers shows will positively appear in Wayne May 31

What Good Farming Means

BANKERS LIFE OF LINCOLN

This Wonderful Life Insurance Company Was Twenty-five Years Old April 6th.

On April 6th, the Bankers Life Insurance company of Lincoln, Nebraska, was twenty-five years old. The growth of this company is unparalleled in the history of Life Insurance in this country and its record is not approached by any other company in America. It has done and is now doing business, at a lower expense rate, and at a lower premium rate per thousand, and is giving its policyholders more for their money than any other company doing business in Nebraska. So remarkable is this company's record that its methods have been studied by insurance experts everywhere and it has been the subject of many comments from the Insurance Journals. Twenty-five years old and with about $5,500,000 assets and all these assets are farm mortgages—and not a dollar so invested has ever been lost by the company in its history. The man who is looking for "safe and sane" Life Insurance should surely investigate the Bankers Life of Lincoln. He will find it thus: The dollars of the policy holders are guarded with a jealous care. There are no exorbitant salaries. No nepotism. No favoritism. It is a great business machine like a clock. Today this company is as strong as the strongest and surely does stand first in the minds of the thinker in its home state.

Nebraska people who want the best in Life Insurance should look this great company up. His money stays at home and helps build up our own great state of Nebraska. The writer of this article has a $5,000 20-year policy, 18 years old. He is proud of it and looks forward to the short years when it matures. The maturity policies of today show such great returns that this policy will be a great help to his bank account that day. He hopes also that a great many more Nebraskans, will take advantage of their own great company, The Bankers Life Insurance Co., of Lincoln, Nebraska.

Judge M. H. Dodge Dead

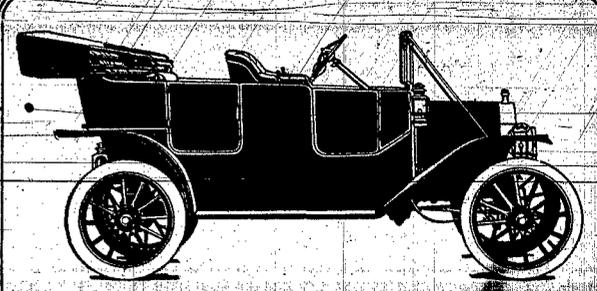

Hartington, Neb., May 19.—After fighting for two years against a constantly growing cancer, during which time he underwent seventeen operations. M. H. Dodge, 40 years old, county judge, died this afternoon at 3 o'clock. For a year and a half after he became afflicted Judge Dodge by sheer grit kept at his work, but six months ago he was forced to take his bed. He was serving his third term at the time of his death. Besides his wife he leaves one daughter. Funeral services are to be held tomorrow at 3 o'clock. William F. Bryant, who has been acting county judge since Judge Dodge became bedridden, will continue the duties indefinitely. Judge Dodge formerly lived in this county and has many friends here who will regret his untimely death.

Against Income Tax Bill

Washington, May 17.—The senate finance committee today authorized a favorable report on the Lodge substituted for the house free sugar bill and an unfavorable report on the so called house excise-income tax bill, which proposed a tax on incomes in excess of $5,000 a year. The Lodge sugar bill would eliminate the differential and the duty of the standard tariff, and leave the duties otherwise practically as at present. More votes for the election of senators by the people.

The State Association of Commercial clubs at their recent meeting at Hastings passed a resolution asking the state to appropriate $100,000 to be used for advertising the resources and natural advantages of Nebraska in the more populous east. Then they voted a resolution down that would ask the taxing powers to cease to levy a tax on machinery and tools necessary to the production of a living, including farm machinery and draft horses. If the legislature should pass a law to stop fining people for improving farms and homes in this great state, and give a manufacturing concern a chance to live without taxing the machinery necessary to work with they would do more to advertise Nebraska than most any other way.

The socialists have at least one good feature in their political religion, for every man's politics if sincere, is a part of his religion. That is they are always and forever against war in every form. This shows that they may at least hope some time to be classed as civilized.

A danger signal! At last the world is beginning to comprehend that excessive weight in a man—or an automobile—is a sure indication of trouble ahead. We are selling seventy-five thousand new Fords this year because they are lightest, rightest—and most wonderfully economical.

All Fords are Model T's—all alike except the bodies. The two passenger runabout costs $590—the five passenger touring car $690—the delivery car $700—the town car $900—f. o. b. Detroit, completely equipped. Get latest catalogue from Von Seggern Auto Co.—or direct from Detroit factory.

The new standard for measuring self-goodness is to be as good as you think the other people should be.

The M. E. general conference now in session at Minneapolis voted by a majority of 141 not to change the rules forbidding dancing and kindred amusements.

Wonder how many Wayne county farmers will plant an acre or two of pop corn this season. A good crop of pop corn is valued higher than two or three crops of common corn. It is an experiment worth trying.

Read the advertisement in the Democrat and then you will trade with those who advertise. If the reader who goes for an advertised bargain would mention the fact to the merchant that he saw it advertised it would please the man who is selling and be simple justice to all.

Roosevelt is wonderfully worked up over the wrongs the American people have endured since they accepted as their leader the man he recommended. He now admits that he made a mistake that time, but from careful reading of his reported utterances, that is the ONLY mistake he has ever admitted that HE made.

If Taft is as spineless as Theodore says he is, and Teddy is as great a rascal as William proves him to be, one should be in the home for the feeble minded and the other in the penitentiary rather than in the White House. It nothing to the credit of our nation that such a squabble could be possible in this land of the free.

After reading both sides of the controversy very carefully and comparing it with the two records we are inclined to believe that both Roosevelt and Taft are telling the truth about each other, in which event neither of them are really fit to follow in the footsteps of Washington, and both should be barred from ever again warming the presidential chair.

What will the "interests" do if, since Roosevelt has become so violently progressive at the mouth, the Chicago convention (we won't call it republican until we can know what its going to be) names him as its candidate and the democrats at Baltimore unite on Bryan, as said "interests" fear they will? If they feared Roosevelt as they do Bryan they would fight them both.

Will Maupin's Weekly takes a dip at the M. W. A. new rates and thinks that because the new rates are not as high as some old line companies they are all right. They should not be as high as the old line rates, for the order was not organized for profit, but protection. Brother Maupin admits that he is not a member of the order and we can believe that way he tells about the rates.

If some enterprising company wanted to venture into a profitable industry in this part of Nebraska we believe that they could do a nice business in a broom factory, for of late years the supply made in this country has not been equal of the demand. When broom corn sells at more than $1.00 per ton it must be profitable to raise. And if the large factories can ship the raw material across a continent and make it into brooms and ship it back again at a profit, a factory that made a small supply for markets near home would certainly pay. The raw material could be home grown, and the power necessary for the work is very little. Why not investigate the broom business?

Social Notes

The Acme's enjoyed their annual picnic dinner at the home of Mrs. Walter Weber this week. The elaborate spread consisting of four courses was highly enjoyed by the ladies and their husbands and a few invited guests. After refreshing themselves at the dinner table the remainder of the day was spent in guessing games and other amusements. Those receiving were Mesdames Weber, Britell, Jacobs and Duerig and those assisting in serving were the Misses Ruth Bressler, Helen Blair, Fannie Brittel and Mary Williams, a niece of Dr. and Mrs. Williams. Guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. Harker, Mr. Williams, Mesdames Chas. Shulthies, Pile and Wm. Wright. It is spoken of as a most delightful affair.

The U. D. club enjoyed their annual picnic at the city park on Tuesday afternoon when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. H. S. Welch. Vice president, Mrs. Hufford. Secretary, Mrs. Ringland. Treasurer, Mrs. Kinne. The club has adjourned for the season and will resume their work late in September.

Mrs. Wm. Mellor was hostess at the meeting of the Bridge Whist club Tuesday evening. Three tables were occupied by the players, Miss Edna Neligh receiving the prize, a silver photo frame and the booby prize being given to Mrs. Kohl. Delightful refreshments were served and the club adjourned to meet next week with Miss Ruth Bressler.

The Bible Study Circle met with Mrs. Brown this week, there was a large attendance and an interesting and helpful meeting. The ladies will go out to Mrs. Wm. Christensens one mile north of town next Wednesday. Those wishing to ride will please meet at the German store at two thirty sharp.

A pleasant evening party was given last Friday evening at the home of Thos. Hughes and wife in honor of Mr. Nelson and Miss Rimel. Eight or ten guests enjoyed the evening, following a delightful two course supper.

The Shakespear club has postponed their meetings indefinitely owing to other work of importance and will resume the study of the book they have been reviewing at the conclusion of which they will adjourn for the season.

Mrs. Dr. Lutgen entertained her Sunday school class and their lady friends at her home last Thursday evening. Various games were played and impromptu refreshments served. A jolly evening is reported.

The Helping Hand society met for a social hour with Mrs. Jacobs this morning. The ladies brought their sewing and remained for luncheon.

The Minerva club has postponed its annual picnic party until the 18th of June, owing to Commencement and other reasons.

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Gorst entertained at dinner Tuesday evening.

The Cradle.

LEVINS. Wednesday, May 15, 1912, to Harlow Levins and wife, a daughter.

Mrs. John Hackel of Buffalo Gap, South Dakota, sister of Christian Hansen spent several days with her brother during the illness and death of his wife.

Mrs. Ella True Conner is here from Fairbury visiting her friend, Miss Charlotte White.

State Normal Notes

The return baseball game with Norfolk was played with the Norfolk team Wednesday.

The athletic association has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Martin Clough; first vice president, Fay Clough; second vice president, Alfred Lewis; secretary Ray Hickman; treasurer, Wm. Van Camp.

On Friday morning of this week the chapel exercises will be in charge of the members of the G. A. R. The program will be held at 10 o'clock and will consist of music, a reading by Miss McBeth and short addresses by members of the Post.

Inquiries are being received in regard to the work of manual training in the grades during the summer. Professor Huntemer will have a class in elementary woodwork at 1:30, in which boys in grades six, seven and eight will be admitted without tuition charge. All boys who wish to enroll in this class should report at the Manual Training department on Monday morning, May 27 at 9 o'clock.

On next Tuesday afternoon will take place the annual field day program. The following events will be carried out: 100 yard dash, pole vault, hammer throw, one-half mile run, 220 yard dash, discus throw, high jump, and one-half mile relay race. The events will take place in the order given and will be immediately followed by a baseball game between the Alumni of the school and the present State Normal team.

The Calendar of events for commencement week are published in full in this issue. The members of the faculty and graduating classes unite in extending to the citizens of the town a most cordial invitation to be present at all of the exercises during the week. Wednesday morning at 10:30 we know will be busy time, but it is earnestly hoped that even the busiest business man will take one hour off and listen to the address of Richard L. Metcalfe.

The work of the model school during the summer will include the kindergarten and first, third fourth and fifth grades. The children are expected to be in school during the morning hours, 9-12. As only a limited number can be admitted to each grade, parents who wish to have their children enrolled in the work of this summer session should report at once to President Conn.

Judging from the correspondence and from the number of rooms already engaged in the dormitories the attendance during the summer session will be exceptionally large. The rooming and boarding facilities of the school will not be sufficient to take care of the students. A number have already offered to open their homes to those who want places in private families. If there are still others who will take students either to board or to room they are asked to report the same to the office not later than Saturday, June 1.

On Tuesday evening a spelling contest was held in the chapel of the Normal school. This contest was open to all students of the school and twenty-six young people took part. From a list of 100 words pronounced by Mrs. Lewis in the written test those who mispelled fewer than ten words were as follows: Walter Scott 99 per cent; E. W. Hesse, 99, Nina Thompson, 97; Elvira P. Roberts, 91. As this resulted in a tie between E. W. Hesse and Walter Scott these two young men engaged in an oral contest as a means of deciding first and second places.

In this honors were carried off by Mr. Hesse, who received a cash prize of $2.50, and Walter Scott the winner of the second place was awarded a Webster Academic Dictionary.

The class in Advanced Writing and Speaking, which has been at work during the semester under the direction of Professor House, gave a practical exemplification of their work when they appeared before the public last Friday evening in an oratorical contest. Two young women and four young men entered this contest and gave orations as follows: Restriction of Immigration, James McEachen; Labor Organizations-Beneficial to Society, Alfred H. Lewis; Woman in Industry, Bessie J. Marsteller; Foreign Immigration, Fay Clough; A Plea for the Immigrant, Mable Bently; Conversation of Forrests, Milo J. McGee. The first place was awarded to Bessie J. Marsteller, who received a cash prize of five dollars offered by Professor House. Alfred H. Lewis won second place and received a cash prize of three dollars. The orations were all good and Professor House is to be congratulated upon the excellent showing made by his class.

A large number of the students attended the high school field meet held at Bloomfield last Friday. Al-

Old Soldiers Visit Public Schools

On Monday morning the old soldiers of this city visited our public schools and for an hour entertained the pupils with interesting facts about the great civil war of 1860-1865. Those present were Messrs. Ferguson, Ramsey, Ott, Grimsley, Sala, Church, Perrin, Dorset, Moler, Harmon, Fox and Henderson. Two of the grade schools were assembled in a room and to each audience one or two of the old soldiers spoke. Mr. Harmon told the first and second grades all about the battle of Shiloh and described to some extent the hardships the soldiers had to endure. Mr. Grimsley and Mr. Perrin spoke to the third and fourth grades. Mr. Grimsley spoke on Good Citizenship and Mr. Perrin very fully and interestingly told all about the battle of Pea Ridge. Messrs. Ramsey, Moler and Church spoke to the fifth and sixth grades. Mr. Ramsey spoke about the great war in general and emphasized the patriotism of peace as against the patriotism of war. Mr. Moler and Mr. Church told specific incidents of the war and especially referred to the negro. To the seventh and eighth grades Mr. Ferguson spoke about the obedience and loyalty of the soldier and urged his hearers to be loyal and obedient to their superiors. Mr. Ferguson was followed with brief talks by Mr. Harmon and Mr. Ramsey. In each room the children added to the program by saluting the flag and singing America.

All enjoyed the visit of the old soldiers and what they said very much and we hope next year they will visit us again. It will not be long until young Americans will not be able to get information regarding the greatest war in history first-hand—from those who served in the ranks that preserved this nation. God bless the old soldiers and let them live many more years among us that we may enjoy their fellowship and show our appreciation of their noble service.

Heyer-Pryor

A very pretty wedding occurred in Wayne Tuesday, May 21st, when Miss Bessie Viola Heyer and Francis Raym Pryor of this city, entered the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony took place at six o'clock in the morning at St. Mary's church, the Rev. Father Kearns administering the sacrament, preceding the nuptial mass. The officious attendants of the ceremony were the brother and sister of the groom, Miss Margaret and Leo of Omaha. Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast of three courses was served at the parental home following which a brief reception was held. The happy young couple boarded the west bound train for points of resort in the mountains.

The bride was handsomely attired in a gown of white Ratinae profusely trimmed with baby Irish lace and light blue messaline, while the groom wore the conventional black.

The bride has spent the past year as instructor in the schools of her home town, Gordon, but is probably better known and remembered here by her many friends with whom she was very popular, as the competent and efficient chief operator at the local telephone exchange.

The groom has grown to manhood in this county and for the past three years has been engaged in the lumber business. At present he is one of the board of directors of the Brown & Evans Wholesale and Retail Lumber company and is resident manager of the company's yards at Creighton, Nebr.

Mr. and Mrs. Pryor will return from their honeymoon the first week of June and will be at home to their wide circle of friends at Creighton Nebraska.

 In the inter-state oratorical contest at Northfield, Minnesota, last week, a Michigan student won first place, an Iowa second, with four other state orators straggling along between Iowa and Nebraska. Our contestant was unfortunate in the selection of a subject. As we now understand there is a difference in the subjects and the selection of a biography as was the case with the Nebraska representative was not as favorable to a high rating as would have been some question of the hour of an economic nature, and to those having such subjects was given the first places.
 Ed E. Ellis returned last week from the country now being opened in South Dakota. He drew number 1804 in Uncle Sam's lottery—the only lottery in the world that has right of way in the mails—and filed on a "come-back" claim No. 458, so you see they are not all thinking it worth while to stay with the free land. Mr. Ellis says that his selection is six miles northeast of White River; that the best of the land is taken by Indians and for school land. The rough land is what is left for the white folks. He estimates that not more than one-fifth of his claim will do to till, the balance being too rough.

Judge Moses and his son, F. E. Moses, have returned from California, where they spent the winter at Pasadena. Both are well, the judge appearing as lively as when he returned a year ago, in spite of the fact that he is upwards of 80 years of age. The son likes California very well for a winter home at least and has purchased property there so that he may return when it pleases him to. He spoke of the political situation there and is of the opinion from talk he heard that while Roosevelt carried the primary there by a large majority, he could not win the state in a general election. Says that many men who voted for Teddy at the primary declare that they would not support him at the general election. It was more a stab at Taft than a boost for Teddy, in his opinion.
Some Things Doing at Wayne
 Wayne is always advancing. Here are a few improvements that are now on the way. The new college building almost ready for occupancy, the city hall walls going up higher every day, the foundation for the library building completed, and the work to go forward at once to completion. Uncle Sam has promised to provide better quarters for the post office in the near future—at least he asked for and received bids for such an improvement. A number of comfortable residences are under construction, and others are contemplated and will doubtless be built this summer.
 Free city mail delivery is coming just as soon as the citizens will prepare for it. The business of the office is sufficient to warrant it. The matter is to be taken up at once, the buildings numbered and application made for the service.

FRAUD IN INDIAN AFFAIRS

Clyde H. Tavenner Tells How Poor Lo is Robbed by Rascally Officers at the Expense of the Government.

Washington, May 18—It has been thoroughly demonstrated during the present session of Congress, that the Indian wards of the United States government have been getting anything but a "square deal." On the other hand, it has been shown by competent witnesses that these Indians have received and are still receiving the rawest kind of a raw deal from the government which is supposed to have their interest and welfare at heart.

Martin J. Bentley, a farmer from Oklahoma, told the Senate committee on Indian affairs recently that of an appropriation of $2,000 for the support of seventy Kickapoo Indians, $45 went for supplies, and $1,897 for salaries to officials and clerks who bought and distributed those supplies.

In 1911 Congress appropriated $35,000 for the support of the Cheyennes and Arapahoes of Oklahoma. Of this sum, $29,361.10 went for salaries to employees of the Indian department; $3,635.30 went for the support, traveling expenses, etc., of these employes, and only $905.22 went to the Indians in the way of subsistence, and $108.40 for furniture and household goods, thus giving the Indians $1,052.62 out of a total appropriation of $35,000.

A perusal of the report of the hearings before the House Committee on Indian Affairs, which comprises the testimony of the commissioner of Indian affairs, given as a basis for legislation for the Indians, shows dozens of instances of this kind. The figures given by this official reveal the startling fact that of all the money appropriated for the care of Indians, about 90 per cent goes to officials of the Indian office, for salaries, traveling expenses, etc., and that only about ten per cent goes to the Indians.

The Federal records show that for years past Congress has been asked to appropriate for the maintenance of 117,247 Indians, and money has been paid out for the support of that number. The Federal Census for 1907 discloses that there are only 75,012 Indians in the state of Oklahoma, thus revealing that Congress has been contributing money annually for the support of more than 42,000 Indians who do not exist.

It has been shown that while the government pays out more than a million dollars annually for salaries to employees and officials of the Indian department, the condition of the Indians in Oklahoma has grown gradually more desperate, until today they are in a state of poverty closely bordering on destitution.

As a result of these disclosures Senator Owen has introduced a bill in the senate for the abolishment of the Indian office. Commissioner Valentine, of the Indian office, admits that the best thing that could be done for the Indians would be to abolish the Indian office.

The administration of the Indian trusteeship is one of the darkest blots on the Republican administrations of the last sixteen years.

Light From High Places

A Washington correspondent says: "When thieves fall out, just men get their dues, and when republican presidents and former presidents fall out the people learn how they have been misgoverned."

Since President Taft and former president Roosevelt entered upon their wild scramble to obtain delegates to the next Republican convention, the people have come into the possession of the following information, which they never knew before, except as it came to them through unproven charges or unverified rumors:

That Mr. Taft, by his own admission, has been "a man of straw."

That Mr. Taft, in his advocacy of Canadian reciprocity, was not thinking, primarily, of any benefits that would come to the American farmer and wage earner, but that he believed reciprocity would make Canada "an adjunct" to the United States, which "would transfer her important business to New York and Chicago." By his own confession, the president was thinking of the Big Business interests when he was advocating reciprocity.

That George W. Perkins, organizer of the harvester trust, and member of the board of directors of the steel trust, was "highly pleased" with the present administration's methods of prosecuting the trusts.

That there is a close of political alliance between Mr. Perkins and Theodore Roosevelt, as evidenced by the fact that Perkins, in a sworn statement to the Secretary of State of New York, admits he spent $15,000 to help Roosevelt win the primary election in New York city this spring, thus revealing that the "Big Interests" would be perfectly satisfied to have either Taft or Roosevelt president.

That Mr. Taft, in the present campaign, and Mr. Roosevelt in his previous campaign, made free and unrestricted use of federal office holders to obtain the nomination. That Mr. Roosevelt, while constantly writing messages and giving out interviews, while he was president, all professing the deepest hatred of trust and illegal corporation, secretly and clandestinely suppressed a report showing that the harvester trust was an illegal combination in restraint of trade, and later ordered that a contemplated suit against that trust be dropped "until he gave the word to start it," which word he never gave.

That Mr. Roosevelt's trip to Africa was financed by Andrew Carnegie, the greatest beneficiary of a republican high tariff that ever lived.

That Mr. Roosevelt was so frightened by the possibility of tariff agitation during his more than 7 years in office, that in all his messages and official papers he never made any mention of the tariff, except to say, once, that he "would discuss it in a later message," which statement he withdrew from the message before it reached Congress.

If the present scramble for delegate continue a while longer, it may safely be said, therefore, that both Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt, at the present rate, will thoroughly demonstrate that neither of them is fit to be president.

THE PENGUIN.

It is Awkward on Land and a Gymnast in the Water.

A kind of penguin, the adelle, is a laugh provoking bird. Adelles are most inquisitive and at times are in such a hurry to follow up a clue that they will scramble along the ice on the belly, pushing with their legs and using their flippers alternately like the paddle of a canoe. They get over the ground at an astonishing rate, and it is hard work to overtake a penguin when it takes to this means of locomotion, especially when it doubles.

In the water the penguin is perfectly at home, diving and steeplechasing in grand style. It can jump clean out of the water and pop down on the ice exactly like some one coming up through a trapdoor on the stage and dropping on his feet. The penguins collect in enormous numbers and are sometimes seen marching about like a regiment of soldiers in Indian file, all acting in unison.

A much larger penguin, the emperor, weighs sixty or seventy pounds and stands well over three feet high. It possesses the most extraordinary muscular powers in its flippers. When presented with the end of the ski stick the emperor gives it such a smack that one's hands tingle. At the same time it utters an angry guttural exclamation.

SPEED OF OSTRICHES.

The Swiftest Birds Are Chosen by Buyers For Menageries.

In selecting ostriches for menageries or zoological gardens the swiftest are chosen, not because it will be necessary for them to run in their new quarters, but because swiftness is a good indication of health and robustness.

A buying agent visited a pen of ostriches in Africa. At his call two beautiful birds came up to him. Being desirous of testing their speed, he arranged with the keeper that they should run a race. So he caressed the birds and showed them a handful of figs, of which they are very fond.

The ostriches were held while the visitor walked to a certain distance. At a signal they were set free and began to run for the figs. They came bounding along at a terrific rate, taking twelve or fourteen feet at a stride.

They ran neck and neck for more than half the distance, their wings working like arms and making a great sound. Presently one drew ahead, and, looking behind, as you may have noticed a boy in a foot race do, to see where his rival was, and finding him beaten, the winner slackened his pace and gently trotted up for the prize of figs.—Exchange.

The "Anchor" Shot in Billiards.
The "Anchor" or "cradle" shot, as it was called before it was excluded from all professional billiard matches, was made when two balls were jammed to one of the six pockets of the regulation English billiard table so that the player, by extremely delicate cue work, could keep them there indefinitely and practically run his score as high as he wanted to. Billiardists quickly recognized that it was not strictly sportsmanlike and therefore abolished it in their contests. Frank Trees may properly be called the discoverer of the shot, although he stumbled upon it by accident rather than by careful computation of billiard angles. In a match with John Roberts in London for the world's championship he jammed two balls in one of the pockets and held them there until he ran out and won the trophy. His run of 2,540 points was a world's record.—New York Times.

Studebaker Flanders Automobiles EMF Two Models

You Want the Best—Not the Cheapest

Flanders "20" Roadster, $750

Don't be alarmed if somebody tells you you can buy an automobile for less money than the $750 Studebaker-Flanders "20." You can, but you better not. The Flanders "20" corresponds point by point with the best and highest priced cars sold. Cheaper cars at every vital point are built on ideas long ago discarded for good cars. Don't take our word for it. Make comparisons and see.

The Studebaker-Flanders "20" is a marvel—a high grade modern car at a low price. If you pay less you buy much less. And the cheaper car today will cost you far more in the long run. The competing car isn't sold which the Studebaker Corporation, the greatest automobile manufacturers in the world, couldn't reproduce for less money; but we won't build a cheap car, because the name "Studebaker" means the best for your money.

If you are content with a car that runs today and dies tomorrow, don't buy the $750 Flanders "20." It will wear for years. Remember this—the Studebaker-Flanders "20" will outwear 2 to 1 any other car under $1100 and give you double satisfaction, confidence and comfort into the bargain.

We can prove it—Send for new catalogue

GOOD ROADS AND THE FARMER

Better Highways Mean More to Him Than Any One Else.

HE SHOULD HELP FIX THEM.

But a Great Many Men of This Class Are Foolishly Opposed to the Work of Improvement—Would Increase Their Earning Capacity 25 Per Cent.

The future progress, development and enrichment of the United States are contained in the present good roads movement. One of the astonishing and unexplainable things is the opposition of the farmer in some sections to the construction of good roads.

The farmer is ordinarily a thoroughly practical, common sense individual. He has to be succeed in his business. He knows how to economize and to take advantage of circumstances and opportunities to his advantage. He is generally a shrewd buyer and seller. He has taken readily to modern improvements and inventions in farm machinery and operations. He has readily adapted himself to scientific methods of farming and to the improvement of stock by breeding and the purchase of high priced animals. It is an exception now to see a poorly furnished farmhouse or one without its piano and the telephone.

Yet in the matter of good roads the average farmer has not been a willing or active advocate. He seems to have laid aside the good horse sense he employs in the conduct of his own business when it came to road construction. He forgot his ideas and practices of economy and yearly largely squandered the money and labor appropriated to road construction in impractical and improvident methods. No one will ever be able to calculate the loss to the farmer that bad roads have entailed.

The modern farmer studies the markets and crop conditions as closely as does the operator on the board of trade. The ability to realize on his crops when prices are high means many dollars to him. The ability to haul maximum loads to the markets at all times of the year is absolutely essential to him to enable him to get the greatest profits out of his crops. Yet there are large sections where for long periods the roads are practically impassable. During these periods of impassability the markets may be at the highest points of the year and hundreds of farmers wholly unable to take advantage of it.

Three or four months every year their business is at a standstill on account of bad roads. Good roads will permit them to haul either to or from the farm every day in the year and to do business every day.

Good roads will increase the earning capacity of every farm at least 25 per cent.

How to Improve the Ordinary Earth Road.

Common sense seems to be the striking characteristics of "Earth Roads," a small pamphlet issued by Frank W. Gilbert, vice president and acting secretary of the Spokane County Good Roads association.

There is no elaborate discussion of good road building or glittering generalities of the good road enthusiast, but attention is focused upon the betterment of dirt roads in the state, which are now and will remain for many years the type of road representing the greatest mileage.

Particular attention is paid to the drag method of improving the ordinary earth road, which, as the booklet points out, can be maintained at practically no expense if farmers who live along the road will be public spirited enough to do their share of the dragging or, if teams must be hired, at an expense of but $5 or $6 per mile per year.

Abutting Property to Help Roads. An ordinance for resurfacing the streets and alleys of Covington, Ky., one half the cost to be borne by abutting property owners and the other half at the cost of the city at large, has been passed by the council. Herebefore the city has borne the entire cost of resurfacing work.

SHORT SERMONS ON GOOD ROADS.

No farming section which has once had good roads would ever go back to bad roads.

High freight rates are not nearly as heavy a tax on the shippers of stock and other farm produce as bad roads are.

Only a very rich county could afford the tremendous financial drain of bad roads.

A good road is to a country district what a paved street is to the city property tax collector. It makes business for that neighborhood.

A farmer living on a good road is a free man. He is not dependent on weather conditions. He is able to sell his stock and grain and fruit at the best market prices. The railroads have to serve the man who can get his stuff to a shipping point any day in the year.

Money spent for good roads is as good an investment for improving the farm as is money put in stock sheds, grain cribs, fences, seeds or anything else that makes the farm pay.

Brains are as essential as money and muscle in roadmaking.

ROAD SCHOOLS TO BE CONDUCTED IN OHIO.

Highway Officials to Go Through Course of Training.

Schools for the instruction of local highway officials will be held in every county in the state of Ohio within the next three months with engineers of the state highway department as instructors.

The sessions are to be held at meetings appointed by State Highway Commissioner J. R. Marker, who under the provisions of the recently enacted McGuffey law becomes the chief instructor. Mr. Marker has been preparing for the instruction work, together with his various state department heads. Under the law the commissioner has the authority to direct the commissioners of each county to call together all road officials and township trustees of the county for the purpose of receiving instruction. Their expenses are to be paid by the counties, together with a per diem allowance for the state officials who attend.

GOOD WORK IN GEORGIA.

Troup County Officials Use Convict Labor on Roads.

Commissioners of roads and revenues of Troup county, Ga., report that since the $200,000 bond issue for good roads has been passed by the people a total of about 100 miles of good roads has been completed under their supervision and that fifty more miles of road have been contracted for.

This work is all done by county convicts and contractors together and has proved highly satisfactory so far. Most of the main roads of the county have been completely rehabilitated, and every section of Troup county is now easily accessible at all times of the year.

EXPERIMENTAL OILING.

Douglas, Ariz., May Use It on All Its Streets.

The streets of Douglas, Ariz., may all be treated to a coat of oil as a result of recent experimental oiling of two blocks.

The street and alley committee of the city council was empowered to investigate probable cost of the improvement, cost of equipment and necessary street repairs before it could be undertaken. Universal satisfaction has been expressed with the blocks of oiled street. The local soil, caliche, furnishes an ideal firm base for the oil.

• Good roads are the earmarks of civilization, the emblem of intelligence, education and refinement, whereas bad roads are the sign of backwardness, indolence and indifferent citizenship.

Good Road Helpers.

Don't be jealous of the automobile owner, for if he doesn't happen to own land in your township he is paying taxes in some other place and thus contributes his share toward the making of better roads, and in many instances he is advancing money to aid in road construction. If a road is made better for an automobile it is also made better for a buggy with a load of eggs in the back end.

Tar on Roads Disinfects.

Medical authorities have announced that in addition to its dust laying qualities a tar preparation is highly beneficial to the community using it on its roads owing to its disinfecting properties. According to the health authorities of Battersea, England, infantile mortality has largely decreased in that populous district since its streets were surfaced with tar macadam.

An Educational Campaign.

"Let the farmers know what a good road really means, and you will have no difficulty in getting them in plenty," is the comprehensive statement of a Missouri man. Good roads work is everywhere simply a campaign of education.

How to Get Good Roads.

Get together, agree on a policy, select representatives to put that policy into effect and you will have good roads.

METHODIST CHURCH

(Rev. Wm Gorst, Pastor)

The High School Commencement exercises will be held in the Methodist church tomorrow evening.

At the morning services June 2nd several people will be received into membership. If any have friends in whom they are interested in this direction, please call the pastor's attention to them and also personally invite them into this Fellowship. Let the congregation make common cause in this interest for that day.

Next Sunday morning the Grand Army Post and the Woman's Relief Corps will be guests and the Pastor will preach the annual memorial sermon. The services begin at half after ten o'clock. On reaching the church, the veterans and the ladies will enter the north door, proceed down the aisle to reserved seats in the center section and at the close of the services will leave the house by the south aisle and door. All others in attendance will remain quietly in their places until the guests have passed out. Misses Nettie Craven and Mary Mason have charge of all decorations and proper persons to consult in that interest.

The Sunday school and Epworth League will hold their regular services, but at 8 o'clock in the eve-

FREE LECTURES

Under the Auspices of the International Bible Students' Association.

Dr. C. W. Farwell of Omaha will give a series of three lectures on the following topics:

"The Three Worlds," "The Kingdom of Heaven," "The Kingdom on the Earth," at the I. O. O.
F. Hall Sunday, May 26, June 2,
June 9, at 8 p. m.

That our Lord intended his disciple to understand that for some purpose in some manner, at some time, he would come again, is generally admitted and believed by all familiar with the scriptures.
But opinions differ greatly as to why, how and when He "will come again."

Dr. Farwell will show in this course of lectures by scripture quotations, and sound reasoning what we may look for the time when our Lord returns.

Dr. Farwell travels continuously through Iowa and Nebraska, giving these lectures. By special arrangement of the Bible Students Association these lectures are free to all. Come and hear how Justice and Love are to displace present conditions. Special musical selections will be rendered by Miss Blanche Paul of Emerson.

Listen!

Do not be alarmed if at the hour of 3 o'clock p. m. Friday, May 24, you hear an unearthly sound. It may not be Gabriel blowing his trumpet, though some might perhaps think so. At that hour the city is going to test its new fire alarm whistle and see whether or not it will awaken the dead-tired sleeper in case there is a fire some dark night to which all should be invited.

Last winter the city placed a new whistle and fire alarm at the light and pump plant, and it broke or blew off when the steam was turned into it for business.

We now have another which is to be tested tomorrow. The city will then blow the whistle at 7 in the morning, noon 1 o'clock and at 6 in the evening.

A code of signal should be arranged to be used when the fire whistle is sounded for a fire so that the people may know at once in what part of the city the fire is.
This can be easily arranged so that the whistle will tell where the trouble is.

Live Stock Prices at South Omaha

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, May 21.—A very respectable run of cattle showed up today, about 4,400 head. Prices for fat cattle steady to a dime lower. Best beefs on sale brought $8.85. There was no material change in the market for cows and heifers, as compared with Monday, the desirable heavy cows and the best yearlings going at fully steady prices.
Veal calves were in tolerably liberal supply, but notably about steady, and bulls, stags, etc., found a good demand at not far from recent figures all around. Stock cows and heifers are still good property and the limited arrivals find a ready outlet at full recent quotations.

Quotations on cattle: Choice to prime beefs, $8.50@9.00; good to choice beefs, $8.00@8.50; fair to good beefs, $7.50@8.00; common to fair beefs, $6.50@7.50; good to choice heifers, $6.75@7.75; good to choice cows, $3.75@4.75; fair to good grades, $5.25@5.75; canners and cutters,
$3.00@5.00; veal calves, $4.00@8.25; bulls, stags, etc., $4.50@7.00; choice to prime feeders, $6.75@7.25; good to choice feeders, $5.80@6.50; fair to good feeders, $5.25@5.75; common to fair feeders, $4.25@5.00; stock cows and heifers, $4.00@5.25.

Receipts of hogs were the largest that they have been any day since the last of April, about 18,500 head arriving. Prices were 10c lower.
Best heavy hogs on sale brought $7.65, as compared with Monday's top of $7.65, while the bulk landed within $7.35@7.50, as against $7.45@7.65 last Tuesday.

Receipts of sheep and lambs amounted to about 4,000 head. Shorn lambs were 10c higher, several bunches selling at $8.60. Not enough sheep were on sale to cut any figure in the trade. What few clipped ewes are coming in sold to very good advantage, a bunch this morning bringing $6.25. A string of common-wooled lambs brought $8.35.

Although President Miner has been practicing on the side at dogs besides treating his eyes, he could not defend the medal but said as long as an officer of the club could win it, he felt consoled. If you see Prof. Wiley flashing the medal at the boys, just smile. The boys wanted to see how he would act.
Frank Berry says next Tuesday it will be his solemn duty to break the Professor's heart.

The club has ordered a new Legat trap and is making plans to have one of the best gun clubs in the state. All new members welcome. Come out and be a good fellow at clean sport.

fied customers. The superiority of FOL-
