ESTABLISHED 1884

WAYNE, WAYNE COUNTY, NEBRASKA, OCTOBER 30, 1913

$1.50 PER YEAR

At Rest

Emma Orvilla Brookhouser was born March 26, 1860, died Oct. 17, 1913, aged 53 years, 7 months and 1 day. She was married Aug. 1, 1878, to Trustam Sautorn Goss at Emerson, Iowa.

In 1881 the family moved to Wayne, Nebraska, where they lived in Wilbur Precinct for twenty-seven years, until April, 1910, when they went to the present home at Morningside, Iowa.

The deceased is survived by two brothers, Henry Brookhouser of Morningside; William, Orchard, Nebr., and her family, consisting of Mr. Goss and four children, Blanche, now Mrs. Earl Gibson of Omaha, Fred Gibson, Colo., and Grace and Wilma of Morningside.

Mrs. Goss has been a patient sufferer for nearly a year and a half, early becoming reconciled to her incurable condition, ever ready and non-complaining, until the final summons she asked the Savior to take her and passed quietly from the earthly to the heavenly home.

The body of Mrs. Goss, accompanied by relatives and friends arrived this morning from Morningside, and the funeral is being held at the Presbyterian church this afternoon, conducted by Rev. Alexander Corkey. There are many in attendance of the old friends and neighbors, who come to pay a last tribute and drop a tear at the bier of one whom they had long known as a kind and loving mother, a good neighbor and a true Christian woman. The burial was at the Wayne cemetery. We extend condolences to those in bereavement.

The Land Drawing

As Uncle Sam's lottery is the only one which we can speak of in this paper and have the edition admitted to the mails we will tell you that of the first hundred names out of the box more than 60 were those of citizens of this state; but it is possible that the proportion was about right, for no one doubts but that the Nebraska people did not stand back and let outsiders take all of the chances. The first name out of the box was a man from Missouri. Below we give the first ten names, and as there was no one else in the list especially known at this place, and those interested will see the list before we issue, others will not be given unless it be presons from Wayne or known here:

Marion Fitch, Kirksville, Mo.
Arthur Stromberg.
Charles S. Reynolds, Loup City, Neb.

Louis E. Huson, Alliance, Neb.
Hans Dubs, Columbus, Neb.
Odell Crouse, Napoleon, Neb.
Albert Erickson, 4006 Grand Avenue, Omaha.

John Thieder, Garrison, Neb.
Jim Bacok, Verdgie, Neb.

W. H. Marse, Atlantic, Iowa.
The next day's report showed that Wayne was represented, Dr. A. G. Adams of this place coming out of the pile smiling as number 602, so that he will no doubt have a chance as there will be at least 100 ahead of his number who will not be in shape for some reason to follow up their chance, judging this drawing by those that have preceded it.

School Notes

Natalie Harrington entered the Seventh grade this week.

Recent visitors were Mesdames Ley, Miner, Lane, Richardson, Davis, Hanssen, Rippon, Bressler, Barnett, McConnell and House.

Mrs. James Kegley of Wyoming, Iowa, was a visitor on Tuesday.

The high school students are taking examinations this week.

Mr. Jacobson, a college student was a recent visitor.

The Freshman class gave the following program last Friday morning: Piano solo by Dorothy Bressler. The important current events were then discussed by the members of the class, the following participating: Louise Biegler, Gladys Whitney, Floyd Conger, Lee Miner, Mable Hanssen, Marsaline Lewis, Francis Moran, Iva Laase, Jessie Watson, Beulah James, Julius Hurst and Carl Juhlin.

The Military Girls

The second number of the lecture course, The Military Girls, appeared at the opera house last evening before a large audience with an extra good musical program.

Around the Court House

Marriage licenses have been issued to Hugo Weige and Anna Miller. Also to Otto Greenwald and Lena Pfeil.

Judge Britton is anticipating a strenuous day today, as the Brueckner cases from Hoskins are set for hearing, and there is promise of a sharp legal contest.

In the office of the clerk of the district court Simon Goemann has filed notice of appeal from the decision of the county court which found for Harry Simon of Winside, who was seeking to collect attorney fees for services rendered to said Goemann.

The case of Maude I. Kenrick against Wm. E. Kenrick for divorce was heard before Judge Welch Saturday and the lady will be granted separation at the expiration of six months if she then so desires.

Clara B. McVey has filed petition for divorce from Ward B. McVey, alleging among other reasons is infidelity, non-support and desertion.

According to the proceedings of the county commissioners, which are given on another page it will be noticed that Mrs. Irene Snell has been granted a pension for the support of her children, the first one issued in this county under the law which provides that mothers who have dependent children to support shall be allowed a pension from the county. A similar pension was granted in Cedar county about two months ago.

The record of births and deaths for the months of July, August and September are 54 births and 17 deaths, or more than three births to one death.

The county treasurer says that Texas on personal property are now due, and may be paid at any time; and they become delinquent December 1st. Don't be bashful in walking up to the captain's office.

Sheriff Porter was at Hoskins Tuesday night and Wednesday serving subpoenas on those who are wanted here to testify in the Brueckner cases. He went over with fifty names to serve notice on, and had a busy time, but got round by darting some extra help. He says that as all of the business in that line appears to originate at Hoskins that they want the court house moved to that place as a matter of economy and convenience. Might have a little court on wheels.

A Farm at Auction

But a few years ago a farm that was put up to be sold at auction was thought to be not much of a farm or else that it was sold to settle an estate or a forced sale—perhaps a sheriff sale, but the world moves, and it is now no uncommon thing to see a farm or several of them put up at auction and sold too at their worth. And why not? It is a fair way for both buyer and seller. The man selling gets the top of the public estimate of its value and the buyer simply offers what in his judgment the place is worth and the one to whom it is worth the most gets the place.

Elsewhere in this paper is the advertisement of a good farm which is to be sold by that method, and in referring to the advertisement we wish to say for the benefit of those who are not familiar with this county and land values here that there is no better agricultural county in this state of Nebraska—and when you say that, you may as well take in a lot more territory, for Nebraska has some of the best of farm lands. Then this is an alfalfa country, and land that will grow good alfalfa will produce and return dividends up to $400 per acre—some say $600; but on either basis Wayne county land is selling far below its value, and the man who buys the farm advertised this week at less than $200 per acre is getting it at a bargain—for it is alfalfa land, close to market, near a good town and right in every way. This is not an advertisement, but an opinion of the editor as to farm values and farm land prices in this vicinity, and for that reason may not be worth much.

The land which Christensen Bros. sell at Auction Saturday, November 8th is well improved, is good in quality and is favorably located. All these things lend enhancement but are valued only to the man who buys the land.—adv.

Social Notes

On Monday evening last a number of the members of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Parry to bid them Godspeed on the occasion of their departure from Wayne to Worthington, Minnesota. The company met first at the home of Mr. Henry Bush and proceeded in a body to the Parry home, completely surprising the family who had no intimation of the gathering. After enjoying a social hour Mr. F. G. Philleo made a short address of appreciation on the part of the session of the church for the work of Mr. Parry as an elder. Rev. Alexander Corkey was next introduced and after seconding the remarks of Mr. Philleo he presented Mr. and Mrs. Parry with a beautiful India paper bible as a parting gift from their many friends in the church. Mr. Parry responded, thanking the friends for their kind words and for the gift, which was greatly appreciated. He expressed himself as having enjoyed doing his part as a member and officer of the church. Short talks were also made by Mr. A. J. Ferguson and Miss Charlotte White, after which the meeting was closed with a reading of the Traveler's Psalm (Psalm 121) and the singing of "God be with you till we meet again." Mr. Parry and his family leave in a few days for their new home in Worthington, Minn., where he will move onto his farm, which adjoins the town. During his residence in Wayne the family have made many friends, who regret to see them leave this community. The Democrat joins in wishing them success in their new home.

About sixty-five guests responded to invitations issued for the reception given in honor of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Grant S. Mears last Saturday evening. Upon entering the home the guests were ushered into the living room by Messrs. Harold and Archie Mears, which room was artistically arranged in chrysanthemums and other cut flowers. At an appropriate hour a mock ceremony was performed in which Mr. Clyde Oman, acting as officiating clergyman, joined the lives of the bride and groom. Mr. Geo. Lamberson and Rollie Ley, were the "little" flower girl and ring bearer, which part these gentlemen carried out with alacrity and precision. Mrs. Clyde Oman presided at the piano. Those who assisted in the music during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Oman, Mrs. A. R. Davis and Mrs. Ed Johnson. Miss Cross presided in the dining room, where the color scheme of pink and white was carried out. Those assisting in serving the delicious luncheon were the Misses Izetta Johnsons, Hallie Lamberson, Edna McVicker and Fern Oman. At a late hour the company dispersed wishing that the happy couple might live to celebrate many more such occasions. Because of the extremely bad weather many from out of town were unable to be present. Among those who came from away were Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Root of Sholes, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reed of Winside and Archie Mears of Sioux City.

On last Friday evening Mrs. Wilson Rickabaugh entertained nine little boys at a party in honor of the ninth birthday of her little son, Phil. The rooms were artistically arranged in autumn colors. At the plate of each little guest a tiny pumpkin containing candy was placed and after the candy was eaten, each boy was given one of the candles which were on the big birthday cake, which he put into his little pumpkin. The room was then darkened and these candles lit, much to the delight of the children. Appropriate games, guessing contests and music made the hours pass all too soon. A dainty luncheon was also served at an appropriate hour and the guests left with good wishes for many happy returns of the day for their little friend, and with the memory of a party they would not soon forget.

W. Y. Miles and wife entertained a large number of their friends from their old home neighborhood near Grace church, at their home one mile west of Wayne last Friday evening, the 24th. About sixty were present, old and young, and passed a most happy evening with games and social chat, and as the midnight hour drew near a splendid lunch was served, and all departed voting they had spent a happy evening. Rev. and Mrs. Connell, Misses Wilson, Nellie and Ellen Connell, Ida and Ina Reed and Roy Reed of Winside were among the guests.

The Acme club met with Mrs. S. R. Theobald Monday afternoon and carried out the following program: Roll Call; How Can a Woman Help "Outside"; "Legal Status of a Woman in Nebraska"—(a) Property Rights of a Wife; (b) Property Rights of a Widow; by club members. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Mines.

Mrs. E. Cunningham was hostess to the Monday club this week. An interesting paper on Hallowe'en was presented by Mrs. G. J. Heas, and Mrs. A. A. Welsh delighted the members with a nice review of the legends "Tam O'Shanter" and "Sleepy Hollow." Mrs. T. B. Heckert will entertain the club next week.

The Minerva club met Tuesday with Mrs. C. H. Bright when the lesson study was ably led by Mrs. J. G. W. Lewis. On account of the inclement weather, the attendance was light. At the close of the lesson the hostess served dainty refreshments. The next meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. Grothe.

A number of girls and boys, classmates of Harold Mears, spent an informal evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant S. Mears the first of the week. Music and games furnished amusement and at an appropriate hour delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Mears.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. K. Neely entertained at a birthday party on last Thursday afternoon. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ferguson and Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Corkey. The birthdays of the three gentlemen occur within a few days of each other, so that the celebration was threefold.

The Bible Circle met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Fisher Wednesday afternoon when the lesson study on Balach and Balaam was led by Mrs. Noah Williamson. The attendance was light owing to the cold weather. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Gossard.

Mrs. Arthur Norton entertained about twelve young ladies at a seven o'clock dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. J. A. Farnsworth of Sioux City who is here visiting relatives. A social hour was then enjoyed. All report a most pleasant evening.

Mrs. Dan Harrington and daughter, Miss Natalie, recent arrivals from California, and Mr. Paul Harrington were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chace Tuesday evening.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. E. C. Tweed entertained a small party of her lady friends at luncheon. A social hour was passed by the ladies before refreshments were served.

The Shakespeare club had no meeting this week because of bad weather conditions and will meet next Tuesday evening with Miss Nettie Craven.

The U. D. club will enjoy a Hallowe'en party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reynolds tomorrow evening.

Miss Dora Lewis entertained the Bridge Whist club at a Hallowe'en party last evening.

The P. E. O. meets with Mrs. M. S. Davies next Monday evening.

The Rural Home society will meet today with Mrs. Verner Dayton.

80 Acre Farm For Sale

Modern house, good barn, double crib and hog house. This farm is adjoining Wayne city limits, near State Normal, lays well and in good state of cultivation. I have help for larger farm. For price and terms see J. H. Rimel, Wayne, Nebr. Phone 429.—adv.

Wayne is a good town surrounded by good lands in the hands of good farmers and one more good farmer has a rare opportunity to buy a good farm close to Wayne, Saturday, November 8th.—adv.

Yes, Farmers, Martin pays cash for eggs and the top price. Successor to Geo. Fortner.—adv. ff.

Wayne Council Proceedings

The city council met at the council room in regular meeting, Tuesday evening with all present.

The committee appointed to investigate the matter of utilizing the exhaust steam from the power plant for heating purposes, reported as follows:

We, your committee appointed for the purpose of investigating the proposition of heating the garage of Ralph Clark with the exhaust steam, beg leave to submit the following report:

We recommend that from all data we are able to obtain, that we believe the proposition of Mr. Clark would not result in any material detriment or loss to the light plant and that we believe the sum of fifty dollars would be a reasonable price for granting to Mr. Clark the privilege of attaching to the exhaust pipes of the power house for the term ending May 1, 1914. Provided that if at any time the above arrangement should prove a detriment to the working of the City Light Plant, said connections shall be removed upon the order of the council. On motion the report of the committee was adopted.

It was moved, that permission be and the same is hereby granted R. A. Clark to attach to the exhaust pipes of the city light plant for the purpose of heating his garage and utilize same until May 1st, 1914, under the direction of the mayor and council, he to pay for the privilege as follows: $25.00 on or before Dec. 1, 1913, and $25.00 on or before Febr. 1, 1914.

All members voted "Aye" and the motion was declared carried. The question of permitting electric signs to be erected on and over the sidewalk on Main Street was discussed; also the matter of dumping ashes on the streets and alleys and the erection of wood buildings within the fire limits.

High School Again Victorious

The Wayne high school football team went to Pender last Friday afternoon and for the second time this fall defeated the team from that place. The Pender team was made up of five town fellows and six high school boys and though they were much heavier than the Wayne team they showed lack of training and team work. The Wayne team lacked pep the first half of the game and the half ended 7 to 3, Pender scoring first on a drop kick by Wenke. Wayne scored a touchdown on a pass to captain Sears on right end.

The last quarter the Wayne boys played in their usual good form and scored two more touchdowns, one by Sears and one by Miner. Miner kicked two goals. The Wayne goal was at no time in danger. Final score 20 to 3. The Wayne team will play the Neligh high school team at Neligh on Saturday this week.

A. Pierce they have a W. O. club, whatever that may be, and it must be a good thing for it is planning to have a public rest and recreation building built at that place. The "Brain Stormer" of the Pender Republic seems to be glad that the democrats elected a congressman back to his old home district in West Virginia because the standpat republicans had no need or just cause to crowd the progressive element out of the party. Brother Hughes appears to want his standpat brothers in the party to feed on husks until they are willing to admit that the progressives have an excuse for doing as they did.

The Pierce County Call last week came out with six pages of home print, but they carried two pages of patent which contained a lot of foreign advertising which the Call had no voice in fixing the rate for, nor spending the money which paid for the advertising. So long as the country publisher carries advertising for nothing for the patent house so long is he fostering a competition to his own business. The advertising carried on those two patent pages should have brought the Call nearly $10.

Wilt thou take her for thy "pard," for better or for worse; to have, to hold, to fondly guard, til hauled off in the hearse? Wilt thou let her have her way, consult her many wishes, make the fires up every day, and help her with the dishes? Wilt thou give her all the "stuff" her little purse will pack, buy her a monkey boa and muff, a little seal skin sacque? Wilt thou comfort and support the father, mother, Aunt Jemima, Uncle John, thirteen sisters and a brother? And his face grew pale and blank, it was late to jilt: as through the chapel floor he sank he sadly said "I wilt."—Ex.

Mrs. S. T. Wilson, formerly of Laurel and known to some of our readers, writes to the Laurel Advocate a letter from which we clip the following paragraph. They are located at Milliken, Colorado:

"Our farmers are very busy now getting their sugar beets pulled, and doubtless you know that the sugar beet here means the same to the farmer as the corn crop does there. They are averaging about 15 tons to the acre, but some fields yield only about 12 tons, while others yield over 20 tons, and the price is not less than $5.00 and from that to $6.00, and the sugar test is about 16 per cent, which is only fair, but will be some better as the beets get riper and dryer. It is a very interesting crop to me, never having seen any grown before, and I am watching it closely. We are close to six sugar factories, the farthest being only 24 miles distant, and the nearest 12 miles and I intend spending a day there soon. The Loveland factory and grounds are just grand.

Present Day Discontentment

At the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening Rev. Alexander Corkey spoke on the discontent and social restlessness which is one of the outstanding characteristics of our times. "No one is contented any more," declared the minister. "Everyone anxious for more of this world's goods and this world's pleasures, and covetousness has now become a religion with multitudes."

In the face of this universal covetousness he declared that God's law stood unaltered. "Thou shalt not covet." In speaking of the unrest amongst the working classes and their constant efforts to raise wages he said that John the Baptist, who preached to the employees of his day, "Be content with your wages," would be mobbed today in any of our industrial centres. Not only the workmen, but the employers also were actuated by the spirit of greed and covetousness, and a larger income was the object of their strenuous endeavors.

"Ministers of the Gospel are as restless as others," he admitted. "The majority of the preachers of today are longing for a change of pastorate. They want less worldly churches and more active congregations. They covet the larger salary and the more congenial surroundings. Demas, who left Christ through his love of the world, is far more honored practically than is Paul who for Christ's sake forsook the word." The cure for this evil of covetousness is found in making God the partner of life and accepting our place as His appointment. "We should have no ambition," he proclaimed, "except to do the will of God. His will is not that we should seek to increase the number of men who serve us, but that we shall become more effective servants ourselves of the common good."

When men covet righteousness, honor, usefulness, goodness and eternal life these nobler desires crush out the baser lusts which lead men to haste to be rich and to be greedy after this world's deceptive pleasures.

Medical Inspection for Pupils

The board of education has decided to have a medical examination of the pupils in the public schools twice a year and the first will be made in the near future. A doctor, says the Walthill Times, has been employed to do the work and will make a card index record of every pupil, which will be submitted to the parents. If a pupil is found to have some defect or trouble which needs attention or correction the parent will be advised to consult the family doctor for advice or treatment.

The object of the examination is to detect and advise the parents of defects which may not be known and may interfere with the normal and healthful development of the child. The doctor's judgment and recommendations will be shortly conscientious. The examination will extend to the sanitary conditions of the school rooms.

They never called on a doctor forty-five or fifty years ago as we well know. The teacher seemed competent to detect all of the defects it was necessary to have known, and "applied" a home-grown remedy with great vigor and some visible effect.

An Earned Increment

Here is an article published by our stand-pat friend, the Nebraska Farm Journal, and entitled "The Unearned Increment." Please read it, not because it expresses a truth, but as a sample of stand-pat logic in arguing against the single tax. Here it is:

It does look as if a quarter section is not worth $24,000, or $150 an acre. It does look as if the man who sells it for that price is reaping an unearned increment. But let us figure up on his side of the ledger, doing it fairly and honestly. A town man goes into business, he may have a family of half a dozen, but he is the only one that adds to the family income. The city schools take the children and club and society affairs take his wife. No wonder they think we get fictitious prices for our farms at $150 an acre.

When a farmer settled on this land thirty years ago he put in 350 days of labor every year. His whole family was busy. It would be fair to say that three persons have worked steadily on every quarter section of land in this vicinity for the last thirty years. At $1 a day, they have, by working 300 days a year, earned $27,000. But $1 is too cheap for that sort of labor. The city man has received more than that for every day he has worked. We will say $1.50, and that is low. Then the farmer and his family have worked more hours than the city man; the farmer has earned his living while the city man has sat upon his front porch after 6 o'clock, or attended amusements, or slept under the rising sun.

Three persons working for 30 years at $1.50 a day, besides earning their living in longer hours, figures up around $40,000.

I have helped to bring a farm from the raw prairie to the $150 an acre stage and I feel as if there was not much unearned increment in that farm. It will not more than maintain those who worked it out, for the remainder of their days. In this case from four to six persons have worked constantly on this farm and worked hard and steadily.

One of these writers estimates that we have not improved to that value. He may not see all the improvements, on a farm, even the assessor does not see them. The grape vine may be assessed at four cents but I would like to see you keep an account. Every pulverized clod, every grain of that soil mulch, every capillary in it, attests to improvement. If you think that trees, vines and plants are all sentiment, just set your shanty on an unbroken prairie; you will find the sentiment rather strong from the northwest sometimes.

We believe that with the exception of speculators, the farm family that moved on a raw quarter in the 70's has not an acre of $150 land that was not honestly earned and paid for in full. We may be tending toward a time when things will be different, but so far, while $150 land is too high for investment, it is not too high to compensate the life of the family that has brought it up to that—Nebraska Farm Journal.

Did the farmer whose land was carved out of the wilderness make it worth $150 an acre? He certainly did. He has earned that $24,000, he and his family, by hard knocks, many of them, and long hours and maybe a good deal of worry. Yes, they have earned every cent of it.

And then some. They have made that farm worth $24,000 and served the community besides, furnished them bread and meat to eat, and shoes and clothes to wear.

They have earned that $24,000 honestly and fully. And they have earned a whole lot more that they do not get, but which goes to somebody else, who has not earned a dollar of it.

Just across the road from the farm owned by that family is a piece of land owned by a man in New York. His father bought it years ago from the government at $1.25 an acre. He has never done a dollar's worth of work on it, never sent a dollar to be used for improving it. There is not a fence on it or a stick of lumber. He has not earned a dollar.

But the family who worked their place have made his land worth $125 per acre. There is your "unearned increment," your friend Journal and it is the farmer and his family.

Do You Go To Church?

Miss Elizabeth Murphy is the charming young saleswoman in the employ of the Welsh 5, 10 and 25 cent store. Mr. and Mrs. Welsh are new comers in Norfolk, having recently bought the business and they brought Miss Murphy from their home town in Iowa because they knew her to be trustworthy and capable. And now if these good people will pardon us growing personal we want to make the subject of this editorial. Mr. and Mrs. Welsh are members of the Congregational church. Miss Murphy is a Catholic. In speaking of Miss Murphy, Mrs. Welsh not knowing the writer's religion, pointed out that the young lady was faithful to her church duties and attended not only the Sunday mass but the weekday masses as well. She considered this commendable to the point of comment.

And the Press wants to say this, that if every boy and every girl were to attend the service of some Norfolk church each Sunday there would be a better Norfolk; there would be fewer broken hearted mothers, girls who had gone wrong and boys who have a future to fear. Too many Norfolk fathers and mothers are negligent in their duty about sending their children to Sunday school and church. The logical order of development of civilization is first religion, second the formation of good habits and customs and third the moulding of those into laws and ordinances. There is nothing more demoralizing in a community than laws that are disregarded and as soon as men forget their allegiance to God they likewise forget their allegiance to law.

Norfolk has many fine churches, her ministers are men of more than usual power and willingness for service. The Sunday should be kept holy. Your boy and your girl, yes and you, should attend some church at least once a week. Show us the girl who gads the street at night, who keeps questionable company, who knows much of the world and its sordidness and we'll show you the girl who doesn't go to church, who thinks Sunday school a joke and her mother and father mere figure heads in the home. The girl who is faithful to her church is loyal to her employers, to her parents, her friends. She is the girl whose name is kept clean and she is the girl who makes good.—Norfolk Press.

The Low Cost of Living at Panama

In the November American Magazine Ray Stannard Baker writes a remarkable article entitled "The Glory of Panama," in which he gives a most interesting and detailed account of Uncle Sam's success in building the Canal. On the subject of the cost of living in Panama Mr. Baker writes:

"Living is cheaper today on the Isthmus than anywhere in America. Meats, groceries, clothing, all cost less there than in your town or mine, and the quality and purity is assured. Refrigerated meat from Chicago, the choicest cuts, sell at Panama, two thousand miles away, for less than they do in Lansing, Michigan. Not only this, but the prices in these stores (at which only canal employees are allowed to trade) are from twenty-five to fifty per cent cheaper than in neighboring native stores. I made, personally, many comparisons of prices. A linen suit of clothes for which I paid nine dollars in Panama City was priced at six dollars in the government store. These low prices are possible because the Government buys in immense quantities, because its credit is perfect, and because all middlemen are eliminated. Every employee, black, yellow, or white, has an equal chance to buy at the standard government prices."

Farmers' Congress Program

Omaha, Nebr., Oct. 28—Many interesting subjects appear on the program of the Nebraska Farmers' Congress, which will be held in Omaha, December 9 to 12. "University Consolidation" is slated for discussion, both pro and con.

Another topic appearing on the program, "Should the State Board of Agriculture be re-organized" has created much comment. President Coupland of the Congress says it is the intention to have these subjects presented from both sides and then have the members of the organization discuss them.

President Coupland and Secretary Delano are in communication with well known eastern men, and are trying to secure them to fill places on the program.

For the first time in years, the Congress will meet independently of the Farmers' Co-operative Live Stock and Shipping Association, which will hold its meeting a week later. The headquarters of both meetings will be at Hotel Rome.

The Youth's Companion in 1914

Seven college presidents and a number of college instructors, including ex-President Taft, will contribute to The Youth's Companion during 1914.

Then there is Gene Stratton Porter, whose stories of Indiana woods and swamps have made her famous, and Kate Douglas Wiggin, who never wrote a dull line in her life, and Mrs. Burton Harrison, who remembers when conversation was really an art as practiced in Washington and in the manor houses of Virginia. And this is just a beginning of the list.

If you know The Companion, you have a pretty clear idea of what is in store for next year's readers. If you do not know, ask us to send you sample copies—for instance, those containing the opening chapters of Arthur Stannard Pier's fine serial—"His Father's Son." Full Announcement for 1914 will be sent with the sample copies. For the year's subscription of $2.00 there is included the Companion Practical Home Calendar for 1914, and all the issues of the paper for the remaining weeks of 1913, dating from the time the subscription is received.

A Lovely Face But Ugly Hair

How often you see an otherwise lovely face spoiled by homely hair—a face that would be most charmingly beautiful if she only had prettier hair. What a pity!—and how foolish! Because that ugly hair, stringy, dull, lifeless looking though it may be, can be made as glossy, soft, silky and beautiful as the heart could desire if only taken proper care of.

Harmony Hair Beautifier is just what it is named, a hair beautifier. It is not a hair dye or hair oil—it is just a dainty, rose perfumed liquid dressing to give the hair its natural gloss and brightness, its natural wavy softness, its natural rich beauty. Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet-smelling cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony laboratories in Boston where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made. News Notes

There was no choice of a president in Mexico, as the vote was not large enough to make a constitutional election. Huerta the dictator, received more votes than any other candidate, but that is not to be wondered at, for a ruler who will throw the entire congress of a nation into prison because he cannot dictate their action might easily have it so that one would feel safer not to vote at all than to vote against such a force.

The mine disaster at Dawson, New Mexico, when all reports are in and total fatalities of the explosion are known is a fearful one. The day shift of nearly 300 men had just gone to work when the explosion came, and there are 263 known to be dead.

In the evening the sermon will be based upon the second letter to the seven churches. The subject will be 'Words of Comfort to a suffering church.' We were glad to have such good attendance both morning and evening and hope that it will grow even more.

In the currency committee at Washington yesterday there was a dead-lock, Senator Hitchcock of this state voting with the republicans in favor of the central bank scheme advanced by a New York banker. It is thought that there will be a report later which will be practically the same as the administration measure.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

J. B. Hinks was at Sioux City Tuesday.

A. R. Davis was at Dakota City on legal business Tuesday.

H. F. Wilson and wife went to Omaha Tuesday for a short stay.

Ed Shannon of Sioux City spent Sunday here with his brother, John.

Mrs. L. A. Fanske and children went to Sioux City Friday to visit home folks a few days.

Mrs. R. N. Williams and children are here from Elgin to visit at the home of R. P. Williams and wife.

Mrs. E. R. Williams and daughter were here Saturday from Randolph, guests at the home of Dr. J. J. Williams and wife.

Oscar Johnson, Gus Hanson and Lee Mason went to the western part of the state Monday night to bring in a string of feeders.

Special for Saturday ONLY—A good Two-Thumb Double Faced Husking Mitten, 90c a dozen pairs at Gamble & Senter's, of course.—adv.

Fred E. Giesecker of Portland, Oregon, who has been here for a short visit, at the home of Gus Bohnert and wife, his sister, departed Tuesday morning for his home.

At Hastings there was a gathering recently of 182 people whose average age was 80 years. They don't all dry up and blow away out here in Nebraska before they pass the four-score birthday.

James Grier and H. Schroder autoed from north of town to the Paulsen Brothers place near Carroll last week where the latter purchased a couple of good big male pigs of the Poland China breed.

Clay Center has just completed a new cement water reservoir of 55,000 gallon capacity, and it is roofed with cement, which reminds us that our standpipe is yet without covering, and many think it should be screened.

There was quite a number from Winside who came over by automobile Sunday to attend Mass at St. Mary's church at this place. E. W. Cullen and family, the McCoy brothers, J. T. Pryor and John Jaskowskiak and others.

M. VonSeggern and wife, who have long been residents of Wayne, left Tuesday morning for Portland, Oregon, planning to make their home at that place in the future. The best wishes of all who know them will follow to their western home.

Mrs. Irve Reed was called to her old home at Oakland, Iowa, Tuesday morning by a message telling of the sudden death of her father, John Albright, of that place. Mr. Albright closed a visit here with his daughter but a few weeks ago and being in usual health at that time, news of his death was a great shock to the family here.

A change of weather came Monday night, and the storm which had been raging in the country south and east of Nebraska came this way. There was about an inch of snowfall during the night and wind enough to drift it accompanied. It was the first snow of the winter, and will doubtless be followed by our "Indian Summer."

The Wausa Gazette now comes to our desk with that excellent all-home paper enclosed in a patent folio which hides the good home news and distributes a lot of foreign advertising taken at a low rate for which the Gazette editor gets no return. It does not pay for a newspaper that is equipped as the Gazette is, to enter into competition with itself.

The first advertisement telling of the fall in price of goods to the consumer and laying it to the tariff reduction has come to our desk, but as it comes from a mail-order house and we trade at home when we trade at all, it has not been considered, but as this comes from one of the trust-ridden, tariff-boostered industries, it makes us hopeful that tariff reduction will mean something to the people and something from the combines.

In the "Exchange" department of the Woman's Home Companion—a department devoted to house hold news—an Iowa woman tells, as follows, how to make buttons stay on in the wash: "At last I have found a way to prevent the laundress from tearing buttons from underwear. I button all garments up securely and turn them wrong side out and tell her not to turn them. They come clean as easily as before and I haven't lost a button from the wringer since I tried it. This is an amicable adjustment of a long standing source of friction."

A Trip to the South

Chris Wischof and Herman Henney, who made a trip to Texas left Omaha over the Rock Island road, and bid farewell to everything green as they journeyed south through southern Nebraska, and on down across the great states of Kansas and Oklahoma and northern Texas, passing through many pretty towns such as Fairbury and Bellevue in this state, and half a dozen places in Kansas and Oklahoma to Terrell, a distance of 876 miles. In this great corn belt from Lincoln south showed a little or no corn—all burned and dried out. Corn is now selling at Oklahoma City at 85c per bushel. From Waurika, in Oklahoma, along down the Red River there was some cotton, but it was small and the yield was about 150 to 250 pounds per acre, and the selling price was from 13 to 15 cents per pound.

From Fort Worth, Texas, we rode over the M. K. & T., to San Antonio, passing through a very good strip of well-improved country, 155 miles to Hillsboro. All kinds of grass, corn and alfalfa were plenty, but from Waco and Austin and down to San Antonio it had been all dried out, but they now have plenty of rain and will have good pasture this winter.

From San Antonio they went through good country toward Corpus Christie. The last 100 of 150 miles is through the level country called the Gulf Land. Mr. Wischof went over the same line in February, 1910, and knows that the towns and farms are wonderfully improved.

The towns of Karnes City, Kennedy and Beeville, Skidmore, Taft, Gregory and Corpus Christie have grown and improved, in his judgment 100 per cent in the last three years. One can see by all surroundings that northern men and money has been in there doing things.

Three years ago Corpus Christie had the worst streets, now there is much improvement, and street cars are running over many of them and old ramshackle frame buildings have been torn away to make room for good, modern buildings, and half a dozen good new hotels have been built. The city now stretches away along the bay for miles and new towns have sprung up in all directions.

From Corpus Christie we went by train to Brownsville on the Mexican line passing through the towns of Robstown, Alice and San Diego, all of which as well as surrounding country shows wonderful development in the past three years. Alice has grown from just next to nothing to a fine place with 2 and 3-story brick buildings, and substantial banks and business. The State bank has a capital stock of $75,000, surplus and profits of $97,491.83 and deposits of $427,529.87, making a total of $630,021.70.

In the past two years they have put up a $75,000 court house and fine school building. Land which one could have bought at the time of his first visit for from $15 to $20 per acre is now selling at $40 to $60. I saw nine steam plows at work near Alice in the cotton fields breaking out new land. Alice is 14 miles from the bay, and as they stayed here three nights they say they had cool nights. They are having most too much rain there at this season, which is not good for cotton crops. There is plenty of grass there for the winter.

Northern farmers have come in here and built silos and cut and filled them full of fodder to feed during the dry times of June, July and August, and the southern men look in wonder to see the cows giving as much milk on silo feed as though pastures were good. They do not appear to like it very well and say they don't need or want them there.

Down in the Brownville vicinity as great or greater improvement has been going on. Discoll was but a station three years ago and now it is a city with modern improvements such as sewer, water and electric lights, parks and bath houses. The surrounding country is settled and land sells at $65 to $125 per acre, and so it is with other places along the line, from Kingsville down. There is oil in some of this territory which is shipped both by rail and water.

Respectfully,
CHRIS. WISCHHOFF,
Wayne, Nebraska.

Late October

Marshalltown Times-Republican: Along in late October in this part of Iowa life is the time when men hate death most and desire life overmuch. The days are bright with sun, but touched with enough of cold to give a tang to living. The starlit night grows crisp with the tonic chill that comes with sundown and sharpens into frost before sunrise. The trees are bare but not cold. The mornings are fringed with mists above the ponds and rivers, mists that flee and dissipate when the October sun rises suddenly and in full power. Smoke from hundreds of chimneys rises straight like a plume in the quietude before an October sunrise. The early coal wagon hurrying for its load, rumbles like a train. Men going by toward work or play, step briskly whatever their errand. The children's cheeks are pink and their eyes bright. The laziest man in town becomes brisk. The whole earth is stimulated and lively with the wine of autumn, the tonic of late October. In all the world anywhere, there is no season like that of late October in Iowa.

Stamping Out Hog Cholera

The United States department of agriculture, co-operating with the University of Nebraska and the state sanitary board, has formed a special district composed of Johnson county and the north half of Gage in which to attempt the extermination of hog cholera.

A survey will first be made of the district to ascertain the present condition of hogs. Beginning next spring men will be placed in the field to prevent the spread of any disease which may present, to cure herds where the disease is raging and to instruct the farmers of the community as to the best methods of preventing the spread of the disease.

Liberal use will be made of serum and virus where it seems advisable. It is hoped that this will prove that hog cholera can be stamped out if sensible precautions are taken. The government's share of the expenses will be paid from a special appropriation of $75,000 made by the last congress.—Norfolk News.

Appoints Miss Lathrop to Take Place Vacated by King.

SILVER CREEK WANTS BANK.

George W. Creese and Others Desire to Organize State Bank in Merrick. Ridgell Investigates Fire in Soldiers' Home at Grand Island.

Lincoln, Oct. 28.—State Treasurer Walter George, one of the members of the state normal board who opposed the removal of Dr. A. O. Thomas as president of the Kearney normal, received a petition signed by thirty-five business men of Ogallala, asking that the normal board hold another session and give Dr. Thomas a chance to appear and answer to any charges which would tend to disqualify him from continuing as president of the school. The petition deprecates the action of the board and hopes that it will reconsider its action. The matter will be referred to Secretary Hooley of the board with other petitions which have been received.

That the board expects to stand pat on its action in removing Dr. Thomas is evidenced by the fact that Superintendent Delzell appointed Miss Edith Lathrop of Clay Center to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of H. C. King, who was a member of the office force in the state superintendent's office, and was sent to Kearney to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of M. R. Snodgrass to the head of the school. Miss Lathrop is county superintendent of Clay county.

Bank Asks Charter.
The Farmers' State bank of Silver Creek has filed application with the state banking board for a charter, and the same has been granted. The capital stock of the bank is $20,000, and its officers are George W. Creese, president; Otto H. Shumaker, vice president, and E. C. Shumaker, cashier.

Ridgell Investigates Fire.
Fire Commissioner Ridgell went to Grand Island to investigate the fire at the soldiers' home.

JAIL DELIVERY FRUSTRATED

Deputy Sheriffs Stop Attempt at Escape by Prisoners.

Omaha, Oct. 28.—A daring plot by twelve prisoners in the "bound-over" and "sentenced" tier of the Douglas county jail to escape by overpowering the jailers and fleeing the county in stolen automobiles was frustrated only after Deputy Sheriff Walter Hanger and John Pospichal were severely beaten. The officers, wielding heavy jail keys, beat the mutinous prisoners into submission and then finally confined the ringleaders in "solitary."

Marvin De Lor, gunman and bandit, now under sentence for highway robbery; George Carlson, held for grand larceny, and Aldrich Meer, held by the federal government on a white slavery charge, were the ringleaders, according to confessions afterward obtained from others connected with the plot.

READY FOR DEDICATION

Lincoln Highway to Be Given Good Sendoff in Omaha.

Omaha, Oct. 28.—H. E. Fredrickson, Nebraska consul in the Lincoln Highway association, is working hard to make the big celebration Friday night one long to be remembered and the business houses in Omaha are backing him. Twenty houses have promised to decorate either their windows or buildings.

Mr. Fredrickson is now trying to get permission from the board of county commissioners to hold the monster bonfire in front of the court house. All the bands in the city will take part in the celebration.

DOCTORS BUSY ON HUSKERS

Players Being Worked into Condition After Indian Games.

Lincoln, Oct. 28.—Nebraska's football squad is under the care of a corps of doctors—the result of the Haskell Indian game. Twisted necks, and bruises on the back, legs and arms, where the Indian players played a lute have left the squad in the worst physical shape since the opening of the season. Until an osteopath had worked for an entire day with the players, the majority of them were so badly crippled they were unable to leave their beds.

Ashes of Frank R. White Interred.

Lyons, Neb., Oct. 28.—The funeral of Frank R. White, who died in the Philippines, was held here in the Presbyterian church, the Rev. James O. Clark preaching the sermon. The body had been cremated and the ashes were sent here for burial. Interment being made in the Lyons cemetery, the Masonic lodge taking charge.

No Change Yet at Kearney.

Kearney, Neb., Oct. 28.—No transfer of authority has been made at the state normal school, as yet, and Dr. Thomas is still in charge. Mr. King, sent here by the board to manage the school as business agent, has returned to his home, but will probably return.

High Wind Does Damage in Superior.
Superior, Neb., Oct. 28.—Oliver & Mohrbacher's store front, comprising two large plate glass windows, blew out in a hard wind. The total damage to the Superior garage by fire will be close to $25,000.

APPLE AND CORN SHOW

Domestic Scientists Will Give Demonstrations at Lincoln.

Lincoln, Oct. 28.—The various methods of cooking apples will be explained in detail at the apple and corn show at the Auditorium, Jan. 19 to 23. Miss Loomis of the domestic science department of the University of Nebraska, assisted by her pupils, will give demonstrations.

According to domestic scientists there are 157 ways, with a hundred added, to cook apples. Many of these methods will be demonstrated. Recently the government published a bulletin describing the various uses of corn as a food. The latest authentic information on these subjects will be given free of charge to visitors to the mid-winter show.

The exhibit of home-cured meats will be a unique feature. The economical cutting and cooking of the meat products will also be explained in free lectures.

EARLE LOSES SECOND ROUND

Judge Stewart Dismisses Suit Against Secretary Roysse.

Lincoln, Oct. 27.—Homer Earle of Ulysses lost the second round in the Ulysses State bank trouble, in which he sought to compel the state banking board to re-examine the bank. He lost out in his attempt to secure the writ to compel the board to act and the present case was one brought for damages against Secretary Roysse of the banking board, in which Roysse filed a demurrer.

Earle sued for damages claimed to be sustained by reason of letters sent to Roysse being sent by Roysse to the bank people, who in turn sued Earle for damages because of the letters. Judge Stewart of the Lancaster county district court held that Roysse was not liable because he had general duties toward the public.

STATE ALFALFA CROP

It is Material Item in Prosperity of Nebraska.

Lincoln, Oct. 27.—The 1913 alfalfa crop is a material item in the prosperity of the state. According to the figures of the state board of agriculture the value of the crop is $31,206,481. The acreage is 970,965, and Nebraska is easily the second state in the union on acreage and is perhaps first in the number of tons produced. Including the counties where dry weather prevailed to such an extent the average yield in Nebraska is 2.57 tons to the acre for 1913, according to the tabulations. The price per ton was estimated at $12.50. Alfalfa is now selling in eastern Nebraska in carload lots for $14 a ton.

To Test Law as to "Central's" Hours.

Technique, Neb., Oct. 27.—Labor Commissioner C. W. Pool entered complaint against the local manager of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company for an alleged violation of the Nebraska law relative to hours when women can work. Mr. Pool complained that the night operator works from 9 o'clock in the evening until 7 in the morning, when the law is that a woman may work but nine hours in one day. The telephone company contends that a couch is provided and the operator can sleep a part of the time each night.

Nolle Entered in Hall Case.

Wahoo, Neb., Oct. 28.—Samuel J. Hall, an actor with the Hillman Stock company, who was arrested here on a complaint sworn out by Miss Neva Phipps of York, was discharged and the case dismissed. County Prosecutor Bergeron filed a nolle prosequi, which stated that the evidence was not sufficient to warrant the belief that a conviction could be had and that the state could not establish beyond a reasonable doubt that the complaining witness was under eighteen years of age.

Governor Fixes Day for Fire Study.

Lincoln, Oct. 27.—By an act of the legislature it is the duty of the governor of Nebraska to set aside and designate the first Friday in November as state fire day, and in accordance with that provision Governor Morehead has set aside Friday, Nov. 7, to be observed by the public and all schools, both public and private, will be expected to have some exercises along the lines of education against fire.

Thomas May Become Rural Teacher.

Hastings, Neb., Oct. 27.—Dr. A. O. Thomas, whose removal from the presidency of the state normal school at Kearney has been ordered by the state board of education, declared that he has been offered a position as teacher in a country school and will accept it if forced out of his present position. As a rural teacher, Dr. Thomas will still be eligible as a candidate for president of the State Teachers' association.

Mortgage on Newspaper Foreclosed.

Columbus, Neb., Oct. 27.—The First National bank and John R. Lueschen of this city foreclosed the mortgages they held against the Tribune-Journal newspaper plant of this city. Henry Ragatz is in charge and looking after the interests of the mortgagees. The paper will be continued by those in charge until it can be advertised for sale.

Assessment Figures High.

Lincoln, Oct. 27.—According to figures prepared by Secretary Henry Seymour of the state board of assessment, the assessed valuation of all express companies in the state this year is $206,954. Telephone companies show a valuation of $1,919,162 and the telegraph companies $229,757.

LIVESTOCK PRICES AT SOUTH OMAHA

Beef Supply Light and Market Steady to Stronger.

A 5 TO 10c GAIN IN HOG VALUES

Lively Trade in Fat Sheep and Lambs. Values Are Steady to Strong--Feeders Are Fairly Active and Steady.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Oct. 28.—Cattle receipts totaled about 5,000 head today. The corn fed cattle market was active and fully steady to possibly a little stronger than Monday.

Trade in range cattle was active and fully steady for the general run of beef and "near beef" as there was very little competition from feeder buyers. Cows and heifers sold more freely and to rather better advantage than on Monday, but the trade in stock cattle and feeding steers was slow to a little lower for all but strictly attractive offerings.

Cattle quotations: Choice to prime beefs, $8.80@9.00; fair to choice yearlings, $8.25@9.50; good to choice beefs, $8.35@8.75; fair to good beefs, $8.00@8.30; common to fair beefs, $7.50@8.00; good to choice fed heifers, $6.50@7.50; good to choice grass heifers, $6.50@7.00; good to choice cows, $6.00@6.50; fair to good cows, $5.25@5.75; canners and cutters, $3.25@6.25; veal calves, $6.50@9.75; bulls, stags, etc., $5.25@6.50; choice to prime feeders, $7.50@8.00; good to choice feeders, $6.85@7.35; fair to good feeders, $6.40@6.80; common to fair feeders, $5.75@6.35; stock cows and heifers, $4.75@6.75; choice to prime grass heaves, $7.00@8.00; good to choice grass heaves, $7.30@7.60; fair to good grass heaves, $6.85@7.25; poor to fair grass heaves, $6.00@6.75. About 5,000 hogs arrived today. Trade was fairly active and the market can be quoted as 5@10c higher than Monday. The bulk of the sales was made around $7.65@7.70, with quite a sprinkling up to $7.75. A few hogs sold as high as $7.75, top price for the day.

Sheep and lamb receipts amounted to 35,000 head. Most all kinds of killing sheep and lambs were steady to strong, trade being brisk right from the start. There were no strictly choice offerings, consequently the range of prices was much the same and no real top sales were made. The best lambs sold up to $7.00, with the bulk of the good ones selling from that on down to $6.65. Fat ewes, wethers and yearlings were again scarce. The market for feeders was fairly active and prices were fully steady. Some good feeding lambs brought $6.80.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Lambs, good to choice, $7.00@7.30; lambs, fair to good, $6.50@7.00; lambs, culls, $5.00@5.75; lambs, feeders, $5.25@6.35; yearlings, light, $5.25@5.65; yearlings, heavy, $4.85@5.25; yearlings, feeders, $4.50@5.50; wethers, good to choice, $4.35@4.70; wethers, fair to good, $4.25@4.35; wethers, feeders, $4.00@4.40; ewes, fair to good, $3.75@4.00; ewes, feeders, $3.25@3.40; cull sheep, $2.00@3.00.

Continues to do a most satisfactory business because he Buys Right for Cash and Sells Right.

In seasonable goods he is daily selling bargains that are not duplicated here or elsewhere.

His Flannel Shirts for men at 50c each are being taken by the dozens.

His line of Sweaters at 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50, and up are all big values for the price, and the number sold is proof that the buyers so consider them.

These cold nights make one think of bed covering. McClary has a line of Blankets and Comforts that are as good as the best for the price. He also has the batting and cloth for covering if the ladies prefer to make their own—in fact he sells from a brand new general stock of merchandise.

Because of the cold wave announced, and that came, he did not have that car of choice Rural New Yorker potatoes on track early this week, but it is coming when weather conditions get right—and you will hear about it if you listen.

 Perry Francis and wife, who have been spending the season on their claim in Wyoming, arrived at Wayne this morning and will probably remain here for the winter. Mr. Francis says that farm life is fine.
 Bert Francis of Carroll who underwent another operation at an Omaha hospital last week for eye trouble, is said to be getting along well now and it is thought that he will not again have to be treated for this trouble.
 E. P. Olmsted of Colorado is here visiting among his numerous friends. He was for many years in business here, starting the hardware business now owned by Barrett & Dally. He is now in the apple growing business near Florence, Colorado.
 You may know today within reasonable limits the value of the land which Christensen Bros., sell at auction Saturday, November 8th, but you can't make a good guess at what it will be worth in ten years.—adv.
 Madison Brown has been working diligently for the past two months building a house on some lots purchased in the east part of this city, and he now has it completed, and yesterday moved in, so that they are now at home in the new home.
 Land values are largely a matter of market facilities and social opportunity. The land which Christensen Bros., sell Saturday, November 8th is located at the door of an excellent school, within the call of many good churches and at the market gate of the best town in northeast Nebraska.—adv.
 There is money in this copy of the Democrat for the man who reads the advertising early and acts promptly. In fact that is true of each issue of the paper, but it is not always in coupon form.  Joseph Coleman of Everett, Washington, who has been here for a month past visiting his father, Patrick Coleman, and other relatives and friends, returned home this morning. He will stop a short time in South Dakota enroute home. Mr. Coleman is an attorney, and has business interests which call him east annually, and he always stops to visit his aged father.
 Over 76,000 people registered for land at the recent government lottery. Those most familiar with its district contend that almost none of this land is worth the cost of filing, but this registration shows the scarcity of land in the United States and the land hunger of her citizens. The wiser man will avail himself of the opportunity to buy the land adjoining Wayne which will be sold by Christensen Bros., and at the purchasers's own price, Saturday, November 8th.—adv.
 J. A. Piper of Lincoln was here Tuesday night visiting his daughter, Miss Piper, of the Normal faculty, and transacting a little business for the building and loan association, of Lincoln which he represents and that reminds us that it has been some time since the Democrat has said that Wayne people should have their own association and not be enriching the fellows in other parts of the state. We are intense believers in home industry and patronizing it.

 S. E. Auker is going to try hogs again, and brought in a load of young hogs from Tecumseh this week, and also a couple of corn huskers to get his corn crop out. One of the men who came to husk says that they have no corn there this year, and he has finished harvesting apples in another part of the state and now comes here to husk.
 Now that Christmas is coming it will be in order to receive and send little packages marked, "Don't open until Christmas," which will generally insure the opening at once. But the parcel post will play an important part in the distribution of Christmas offerings this year, and the saving to the people will be great. In other days many a present was sent where the express company got more of the present than did the one who received it. A friend once sent the writer a present that was greatly appreciated, and when later the history of it came, he learned that the express toll of $1.15, which was more than twice the cost of the article where it came from—and it was not sent more than 550 miles, and would now have been handled by the post for less than half the amount paid.
 J. R. Barton of Lincoln, a D. G. M. W. for the A. O. U. W., is in the city a few days in the interests of that order. There is a good sized lodge of that fraternal insurance order here, and he hopes to add to its membership. The A. O. U. W. as an order of nationwide membership has gone through various stages of experiment which all of the pioneer fraternal have undergone or are undergoing, and are now on a sure footing, they think. They have each state in a jurisdiction to itself, and for a state like Nebraska this is a good thing, for here the death rate is naturally lower than in some other climates and older settled country. In this state they have a feature which gives the man who lives to three-score and ten the money he has paid in at 4 per cent interest. That is, settlement may be made that way if desired.
Savidge-Manning
 The Omaha World-Herald contains the following belated account of the marriage of a young man favorably known, not only here at his home, but throughout this part of Nebraska:
 "Omaha friends of Miss Violet Manning are extending congratulations to her on her recent marriage to Mr. Arthur Savidge, better known under the stage name of Elwin Strong.
 Miss Manning took an engagement last May to play leading roles for the Savidge Brothers Stock Company, who played Nebraska and western cities. The leading man was Mr. Elwin Strong, who is also an owner of the stock company.
 On Wednesday, August 27, Miss Manning and Mr. Strong were married at Central City. They arrived in Omaha Sunday evening to spend a few days with Miss Manning's mother, Mrs. A. M. Lang, before going north for winter stock work.
 Miss Manning is a Denver girl, but is well known to Omaha theatre goers for her connection with Miss Lillian Fitch, and has played leading roles in a number of plays presented at the Boyd and Brandies theatres.
Wilbur Precinct.
 Miss Stella Bruggeman is working in the J. H. Cobourn store at Laurel.
 Miss Mabel McIntosh spent Sunday with home folks.
 W. S. Larson and D. A. Michels were the first ones to finish husking corn, finishing last week.
 John Halladay of Vailand, S. D., spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Wm. Young. He expects to pick corn for Frank Mellick.
 Messrs. H. C. Lyons, A. E. Halladay and G. W. Wingett and families visited at the Kelley home Sunday.
 Mrs. Irve Reed received the sad news from Iowa Monday of the death of her father.
 The Epworth League will have an oyster supper at the H. C. Lyons home Friday evening, November 7. All are welcome.
 The land which your father refused to buy has made two men rich. The land which you have an opportunity to buy Saturday, November 8th will make some one rich. Are you it?—adv.

State Normal Notes
 The next meeting of the board of education will be held at Lincoln on December 19.
 Jesse H. Wichman, class of 1912, will receive his A. B. degree from Northwestern University at the close of this year.
 A debating class has been organized and will meet regularly on Tuesday evening of each week.
 Special numbers on the chapel program this week were an address by Dean Hahn and a vocal solo by Marjorie Kohl.
 The Crescent literary society will give a program on Friday evening, October 31, to which the public is cordially invited.
 Superintendent C. A. Jones of Lynch writes that Miss Bertha B. Preston, 1913, is doing excellent work as principal of the Lynch high school.
 The headquarters of the Normal during the meeting of the state teacher's association at Omaha will be at the Rome hotel.
 On Thursday morning at convocation a rally was held in the interest of an annual to be published by the senior class of 1914.
 The next number of the Goldenrod will contain a half tone of the new central building, made from a drawing by Professor Huntermer.
 Mr. Earl B. Moles writes from 2543 Capitol Avenue, Omaha. Mr. Moles is in the employ of the Union Pacific railroad.
 Professor F. E. Marrin is now director of athletics in the O'Neill high school. Mr. Marrin will be remembered as football coach at the normal during the season of 1912.
 Leo Carroll of Randolph was a visitor Monday. Leo has been elected to a position in the office of register of deeds at Wheeler, S. D., and will not return to school this year.

E. H. Hering, a member of last year's junior class, is taking advantage of a brief vacation in his school work by spending the time in our training school, studying methods of teaching reading under Miss Stocking.
 President Conn has recently had a call from Superintendent Clark of the Sioux City, Iowa, schools for two grade teachers to begin work after the holidays. Four members of the class of 1913 are employed in the Sioux City schools at the present time and this request gives assurance that their work is highly satisfactory.
 The following item appeared in the last issue of the Imperial Republican: We are in receipt of a copy of the Goldenrod, a very neat little journal published in the interests of education by the students of the state normal school at Wayne. Charles E. Meeker of our city is the business manager. We are glad to see the ability of the young man recognized by his fellow students and the faculty of the school and we trust he may succeed in his studies.

Normal Trounces Redskins
 On Saturday, October 25, the Wayne Normal football team defeated the Walthill Indians by a score of 51-0. It was a miserable day for a football game, but nevertheless a fair crowd of rooters were present. The Indians won the toss and with the wind at their backs forced the Normal team to fight hard for the one touchdown they got in the first quarter. The second quarter proved the undoing of the Indians, and after this time the game was never in doubt. The Normal scored heavily in both the second and third quarters, but were content to hold their opponents even during the last period. Straight football and shifts together with an occasional pass were used by the home team. A great improvement in team work was noticeable. Dick was the star of the Indian team.

 Following is Wayne's line-up: Lamberson, Becker, R. E., Weber, R. T.; Johnson, Sidney, Van Norman, R. G.; Mines, C.; Van Norman, McKeegan, L. G.; Jacobsen, L. T.; Van Camp, Mears, L. E.; Marsteiler, Noakes, Q. B.; Welch, R. H.; Gildersleeve, Lower, L. H.; Leahy, F. B.

Cheaper Rates Where Nations Own
the Wires. We Use Wire Less Than Any Other Nation.

By Congressman Clyde H. Tavener
Washington, Oct. 29—In 1900 the latest year for which figures are available—in Belgium the people sent one telegraph message to every 23 letters by mail; in Switzerland the proportion was 1 to 30; and in England the proportion was the same, 1 to 30. In the United States the proportion was 1 to 42.
These figures show that the American privately owned telegraph systems are not serving the people, but they do not show the full extent of this failure to perform public service. Distances are much greater in the United States than in Belgium, Switzerland and England, and the possible time savings in the use of telegrams is so much greater. One would expect, even with the high American rates, that sheer necessity would force a greater use of the telegraph by the people.

Moreover, of all telegrams sent in Switzerland, Belgium and England more than half in each country are social messages. In this country less than 10 per cent are social messages. The United States proportion is kept low by stock, food and race track gamblers, who are willing to pay the extor-tionate rates to make sudden profits by means of quick communication.
The telegraph now is chief aid of Wall street and is in possession of Wall street. The people do not realize the possibilities of its use.

The history of government telegraphs in England is one of the best arguments for a postal telegraph in this country. Prior to 1870 British telegraphs were in private hands. The service was poor. Competition was pretended, rates being everywhere uniform.
And those rates, though seemingly low to Americans, were in comparison to present British government rates, very high. It cost in 1870 from 24 cents to 48 cents to send a 20-word message, depending upon distance.

A British study of telegrams found (a condition today duplicated in this country) that "companies whose aim it is to secure a profit for their share-holders restrict their operation to the principal towns. The rural districts of England, just as the American rural districts today, wanted the telegraph. Foreign government systems were studied and admired, and in 1870 England took over the lines.

The rates were at once reduced and the lines extended thousands of miles. And in the first year of British government operation the use of the telegraph by the people doubled.

About twelve years later there was another reduction of rates to a level of a cent a word for 12 words as a minimum, and there was another vast increase in the popular use of the telegraph. The average British telegram now costs the sender between 15 and 16 cents.
Compare this with the American minimum of 25 cents for 10 words and a much higher average charge.

The British rates are regardless of distance.
The British service has been much admired by American consuls who have studied it. The American companies have stifled inventions, such as the automatic sending machines, for the reason that they would have to discard their present sending apparatus, entailing a loss of investment. The British government has adopted all inventions, with a consequent saving in cost and time. Telegrams are sent the length of England within 30 minutes between sender and receiver.

This has been done without injury to labor. On the contrary British telegraph operators are now much better paid than those in this country, and in addition they have the benefit of old age and disability pensions.

One feature of the British system is the very low rate given to newspaper dispatches. By combining to receive the same messages, English newspapers pay an average of 9 cents per hundred words for press matter—the lowest press rate in the world. The result is that practically every newspaper in England, the smallest country weeklies, receive regular telegraphic news service.

Deputy hire for quarter $200.00
Excess fees for quarter 28.40
Comes now Chas. W. Reynolds, county clerk, and presents county treasurer's receipt showing the payment of the excess fees amounting to the sum of $28.40 into the county treasury, and on motion the report is duly approved.

Comes now James Britton, county judge and shows that the fees collected by him for the quarter ending September 30, 1913, amounted to the sum of $288.95, which report was duly approved.

Comes now Forrest L. Hughes, clerk of the district court, and shows the amount of the fees collected by him for the quarter ending September 30, 1913, amounted to the sum of $322.79 which report was duly approved.

Report of Geo. T. Porter, Sheriff, showing amount of fees earned by him for the quarter ending October 8, 1913, not including mileage for traveling expenses, amounted to the sum of $72.34, and the sum of $72.34 has been turned into the county treasury as shown by county treasurer's receipt, which report is duly approved.

Report of L. W. Roe, county treasurer, showing all fees received by him for the quarter ending September 30, 1913, amounted to the sum of $4.75, which report was duly approved.

Whereas a decree has been rendered in the county court and this day filed with the county clerk, the substance of which is as follows:

Now on this 10th day of October, 1913, it being a regular day of the October term of the County Court of Wayne county, Nebraska, this cause came on for hearing upon the petition of Mrs. Irene Snell in the matter of Opal Snell, George Snell and Jack Snell, dependant children and the Court finds,

1. That all the facts and statements set forth in the petition filed in said case are true.
2. That the said Mrs. Irene Snell is the mother of Opal Snell, George Snell and Jack Snell; that she is willing and capable of acting as guardian of her said children and that she is unable financially to properly care for said children.

Wherefore it is hereby ordered and decreed that the said Mrs.
Irene Snell be and she is hereby made legal guardian of Opal Snell, George Snell and Jack Snell and it is hereby ordered and decreed that the County Commissioners of Wayne county, Nebraska, shall pay the said Mrs. Irene Snell for the support of said children the sum of twenty dollars ($20.00) per month payable on the first day of October and on the first day of each month succeeding for the period of six months.
Therefore be it resolved and ordered that the county clerk draw a warrant in compliance with the order of court for the sum of $20.00 and payable to the order of Mrs. Irene Snell, Guardian for Opal Snell, George Snell and Jack Snell, same to cover the period from October 1st to November 1, 1913.

Whereas at a meeting of the County Board held on October 7, 1913, a claim was allowed to C. A.
Chace, Mayor for supplies for the families of a Mr. Walker and a Mr. Clasen, typhoid patients, that through an oversight the amount was omitted in the copies to the printers, and which amount should have read $244.67, and this correction is made to properly show the amount.

The Executive Committee from the Commercial Club of Wayne met with the county board, and

Returns From Abroad

Mrs. Robert Pritchard arrived home Tuesday evening after spending three months visiting relatives and friends in England and Wales.
She reports a joyful visit and excellent weather abroad, they having only four rains during her stay which is a rare coincidence for those countries. Mrs. Pritchard boarded the Mauretania at Liverpool September 20 and arrived at New York at 9:00 a. m., September 26, where she was met by her husband and two more pleasant smiles were recorded on the pages of history. Together they spent a week sightseeing in the metropolis and in visiting their cousins at Holland Patent near Utica, New York, after which they visited relatives and friends in the following Iowa towns: Columbus Junction, Mediapolis, Burlington, Winfield, Cotter, Oskaloosa, Givin, Washington and the Welsh settlement at Long Creek. They also spent a week with Robert's brother at Garrison, Iowa. Mrs. Pritchard expressed her grief at finding Mrs.

D. T. Davies' health so poorly and says that she has a warm spot in her heart for the people of Carroll and community. Mrs. Pritchard made the remark that after all the fine scenery and the notable structures she saw in her travels she would not exchange her little home in Carroll for any of them, which is quite a boom for Carroll. She also says that during her entire journey that fear never bothered her for she felt secure in the hand of God to keep her from all dangers.—Carroll Index.

BALANCED RATIONS FOR DAIRY COWS

In order to economically feed a dairy cow it is always desirable to supply as much of the nutrients required in the roughage part of the rations as possible, says the Kansas Farmer. Alfalfa hay contains relatively much larger amounts of protein than corn silage. Both are very palatable forms of roughage and in combination form a most satisfactory and economical basis for a milk producing ration. For a cow of moderate production giving in the neighborhood of three gallons of milk a day, fifteen pounds of alfalfa hay and all the corn silage the cow will consume, which will ordinarily amount to thirty or thirty-five pounds daily, will supply sufficient digestible nutrient material for the production of this quantity of milk.

In order to produce larger quantities of milk if a cow has a capacity for producing more milk, it will be necessary to supply additional nutrients. Additional roughage cannot be consumed, so the extra nutrients required must be supplied in a more concentrated form. It is commonly estimated that about one pound of a properly balanced grain mixture must be supplied for each ad-

Nearly one-fourth of the Guernsey cows or helpers which have lately made high records of milk or butter fat production are owned in Wisconsin, and almost without exception the owners are members of co-operative county breeders' associations which, with the aid of Professor George C. Humphrey of the College of Agriculture of the University of Wisconsin, have been formed in their respective districts. One of the best monthly records was that of Taylor's Cream Cup, owned by C. C. Allen of Kenosha. This cow in one month produced 1,536 pounds of milk which yielded 82.62 pounds of butter fat, or the equivalent of 96.39 pounds of butter.

ditional four pounds of milk. For supplying this additional nutrient material in a concentrated form a combination of four parts corn chop, two parts bran and one part cottonseed meal would probably be the most satisfactory ration. One pound of this mixture would supply .12 pound of digestible protein, .52 pound digestible carbohydrate and .5 pound fat. Ten pounds of additional milk would require about four pounds of this mixture, or, in other words, a cow that is capable of producing thirty-five pounds of good average milk can be fed fifteen pounds of alfalfa hay, thirty or thirty-five pounds of corn silage and four pounds of this grain mixture. If the extra grain fed with this roughage ration should be cottonseed meal only, much more digestible protein would be supplied than would be needed for milk production. Since cottonseed meal is more expensive than cornmeal or bran, such a ration would necessarily be less economical than the properly balanced ration suggested.

How Much Seed Corn to Select.
It will require about seventeen ears of corn per acre to plant three kernels per hill in thick rowed corn. If you list, it is the editor's judgment that no more seed than this should be used on average good upland, and the kernels should be dropped as nearly as possible one in a hill and the space should be as equally distributed as possible. Remember, however, that in selecting the corn in the field you go over it rather hurriedly. When winter comes and you look the ears over carefully you will find many that will not suit you. Of those that do suit a number may not grow strong, unless the corn is properly dried and stored. A good rule is to select twice as many ears from good plants in the field as are needed to plant the required number of acres next year. This allows a very close selection to be made during the winter.—Kansas Farmer.

Hogging Off Corn.
There is no better way to fatten hogs with profit to the owner than to turn them loose in the cornfield and let them pick the corn themselves. Experimentation has proved and the experience of practical farmers in all parts of the state is that this method is a profitable one. Every one who has tried it agrees that it is an economical method of fattening pork. The time required to husk and crib the corn is saved. Not only that, but the hogs get the corn when it is fresh and more relished. More pounds of pork can be made from a bushel of corn by "hogging off" than by eating husked corn.—Orange Judd Farmer

Farm Water Supply.
A season such as we have just passed through should be a warning to every man handling stock in any considerable numbers to establish a thoroughly reliable water supply, says the Kansas Farmer. A thoroughly dependable water supply is an absolutely essential of every good live stock farm. It would seem that the tendency has been too much in the past to depend upon hogs or circumstances in a great many cases to supply water for cattle and other stock.

THE FLOCKMASTER.

Sheep require water. See that they get it.
Don't keep old sheep; market when about six years old.
Don't let the sheep stand on damp manure or sickness will result.
Cleanliness is a factor in successful sheep raising. Disinfect troughs and pens weekly.
Foul odors in the sheep barn will bring pneumonia. Keep your mind on having them well ventilated.
A ewe in good flesh almost invariably is a good breeder and a good suckler, something that thin ewes cannot very well do.
Avoid crowding the lambs in the feeding quarters. They need a lot of room on account of their natural habit of crowding.

THE CREAM SEPARATOR.

Machine Should Be Firmly Set For Efficient Operation.
The best temperature for separating the milk is 85 to 90 degrees F., or about the temperature at which it comes from the cow, writes T. A. Leadly in the Kansas Farmer. It is obvious that the milk should be separated immediately after milking, or it will be necessary to warm it, and this is troublesome and takes time. Milk is usually in its best and healthiest condition when first drawn, and any delay in separation adds to the danger of contamination and an increase in the number of bacteria in the milk.
To obtain the most efficient separation adjust the cream screw to skim between 30 and 35 per cent cream. The richness of the cream depends upon the temperature of the milk, the speed of the bowl, the richness of the milk and the position of the cream screw. Thin cream does not keep so well, and separating very rich cream will cause a loss of butter fat in the skim milk. Each machine has a certain speed at which it gives the most efficient separation. In different machines the bowl makes from 7,000 to 14,000 revolutions a minute, while the handle makes from 45 to 60 a minute. A few revolutions of the handle under this limit will make quite a difference in the cream. Considerable butter fat will be left in the skim milk and the cream will be thinner. The machine should be firmly stationed, otherwise the bowl will be thrown out of balance by the vibration and the effective separation will be impossible.

Separator agents often maintain that cold milk can be separated as well as warm milk, but this is a mistake. A richer cream is obtained if this is done, but more cream is left in the skim milk, and there is danger of clogging up the separator.

Another point which the dairyman should not overlook is the care of the separator. Efficient separation and the quality of the cream depend largely upon this. The separator should be thoroughly washed after each operation. If not washed sediment will collect in the bowl, making an ideal place for the growth of bacteria and thus becoming a means of contamination for the next lot of milk separated. If the milk and sediment are allowed to dry on the different parts of the bowl they will be more difficult to wash. The use of a good washing powder is good to clean the separator and in preventing the growth of bacteria. The most important problem for the dairyman of today is the production of clean milk. To do this absolute cleanliness is necessary in keeping the separator in the proper condition, in keeping the milk in a pure atmosphere free from contamination, and in keeping the dairy barn and animals free from filth.

Will Capture Fever Ticks.
A novel method of clearing a forest district of the fever ticks which produce spotted fever is to be tried by the government in the Bitter Root national forest in Montana. Two bands of sheep are to be grazed in the parts of the forest where the tick is most abundant, and it is expected that the ticks will attach themselves to the sheep in large numbers. Whenever occasion requires the sheep will be dipped in an insecticide which will kill the ticks and the sheep will not be at all injured. It is hoped by this method to eventually clear the district of the dangers.

The Banner Corn Field

So far as we have learned Frank Weber has raised and harvested the best field of corn in this part of the country. He had a field of 34 acres, and it has been looking like good corn all of this dry season. When harvested last week, Mr. Weber says that it measured in the wagon box according to the standard of measuring in use here more than 60 bushels per acre, and of the quality he says that he believes that half of it or more is good enough to make good seed corn. The Democrat congratulates any farmer who has been successful in growing 60 bushels of corn per acre such a season as the one just passed, and that convinces us that if one man can do this others may, so we asked Mr. Weber for the rules.

He says that his theory is to plow early and good and follow the plow with a harrow the same day in most instances, and then continue to harrow often and especially as soon as possible after a rain, thus forming a mulch which preserves the moisture. Thorough cultivation until time to lay the corn by, and make that time as early as possible—then no other cultivation unless there should be a heavy rain soon after corn is laid by—in which event another light cultivation would be beneficial. His experience has been that late cultivation unless it follows a rain is of no particular benefit, and is really detrimental if it continues dry both after and before a late cultivation. Mr. Weber carries mail over a rural route and therefore has opportunity to judge pretty closely of crop conditions, and he thinks his farm methods have had most to do with his good crop, which, the season through has been well ahead of the average corn of this county.

Teachers Mentioned for Presidency

Omaha, Nebr., Oct. 28.—Candidates for the presidency of the State Teachers' Association are as thick as flies and when the preliminary ballots are taken at the meeting, interest is going to be keen.

Among those mentioned for the presidency are Miss Kate McHugh of Omaha, A. O. Thomas of Kearney, Chancellor Avery of the University, and Superintendent Bowen of West Point.

Miss McHugh has the backing of the Lincoln and South Platte teachers, according to Superintendent E. J. Bodwell of Beatrice, who tendered the Omaha woman the nomination. Bodwell assured her of nomination if she would consent to stand for election.

Thomas has many friends throughout the state, who are backing him. Chancellor Avery has indicated that he does not want the nomination, which may result in his name not being considered.

Omaha teachers are taking no stand in the issue, preferring to let the teachers out in the state determine whom they desire for the office.

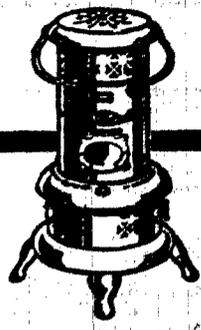

T. F. Mathews of Grand Island, the present treasurer, is the only one who has been mentioned for this position and it is likely he will be nominated by a big majority.

How Range Prices?

With the early sales of a season there is always a curiosity to know how things sell, and to answer the question we asked Col. Fred Jarvis of Carroll who had just cried a sale for Mr. Lewis near that place last week. We were almost afraid to ask since the democratic tariff law is in full force, and we had heard that it was going to kill all business, but we feel that the farmer at least is safe for a time. A span of 7-year-old mares went through the ring a $477, two year-old colts a span of them brought $400, and a sucking colt $100. One cow—just cow with no pedigree brought $106 and another one $89.50; a two-month-old grade Jersey heifer went up to $22.50 and spring shoats sold as high as $18.50 each. This is the first sale of common farm stock we have known of this fall and it was a small sale, but evidently pretty good stock. If these prices are to prevail this fall and winter there will be lots of sales.

Lining Up For Fight

Anyone initiated in politics, can feel that this congressional district will be the scene of a great fight next year. The machine politicians led by Howard, Kohl, et al will do their best to find a man who can defeat Congressman Stephens in the democratic primary. The fight on Stephens is over the post-office primary but deeper down is the real reason. Stephens will not work hand and glove with the machine. We're for Stephens in this fight because in these two principles he is in the right and so far his vote in congress has been on the right side.—Stanton Register.

Otto Krempke a farmer from near Sholes was in our village on a short business visit Thursday and stated that the farmers in his neighborhood have organized a Farmers Grain Co., and that they intend to purchase one of the elevators in the near future at Sholes.

The new German Lutheran church northwest of town was dedicated last Sunday. A large representation for German Lutheran churches in all parts of this section were present. Rev. Mr. Hilbert is pastor of the new church.

B. C. Gentle, assistant postmaster and a member of the local examination board of Norfolk was in our village Saturday and gave the fourth class postmasters examination to the persons as follows: H. E. Ruhlow and Miss Marguerite Parchen.

At two o'clock at the German Lutheran church in our city occurred the marriage of Miss Anna Miller to Mr. Hugo Weigel who were united in marriage by the Rev. John Aron. Miss Emma Miller and Anna Weigel, sisters of the bride and groom acted as brides maids. Mr. Charley and Walter Miller acted as best men. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Miller living two and one-half miles east of Hoskins. She was richly gowned in white and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The groom wore a suit of conventional black. The groom is a farmer living on the J. G. Foster farm five miles southeast of Hoskins where the young couple will make their home. After the ceremony the party convened to the home of the bride's parents where a delicious supper was served. The evening was spent in a social manner. The many friends of this young couple wish them many years of married life.

Winside Notes

(From the Tribune)

Mrs. Alex Gabler is still in her parental home at Omaha, having been there since the auto accident of a few weeks ago. She is getting along nicely.

Chris Nelson moved his family here from Pilger Monday and will occupy the H. P. Peterson house. The Nelson family are well known in Winside having lived here thirteen years before moving to Pilger. Chris will take up his work and masonry and to have him on the job, will mean a good job of work, done by a man with experience.

Last Friday evening, October 17th, being Henry Trautwein's 35th birthday, twenty-five Knights of Pythias from Virgil Lodge No. 62, formed in line at Lantz's Drug store at 8:30 and marched to the residence of Mr. Trautwein, a brother Knight with the intention of giving Henry, more commonly known as "Butch" a genuine surprise. When the party arrived they found that their victim was not there so they decided to go in the house and lie in wait for him. He arrived shortly afterwards.

In honor of Mrs. Mattie McGill, a former resident of Winside, who was visiting in Winside this week, Mrs. Lute Miller entertained a company of friends. The afternoon was spent in social visiting and fancy work. During the intermission Mrs. Miller served a dainty luncheon. The number present were only those who lived in Winside at the time of Mrs. McGill's residence here. They were Mesdames Mattie McGill, D. J. Cavanaugh, H. Tidrick, I. O. Brown, Chas. Reed, Chas. E. Shaw, J. A. Clayton, E. W. Cullen and Frank Ferrin.

A. H. Carter enjoyed a visit last week from an old army comrade, F. L. Munn, of Trumble, Nebr. Mr. Munn and Mr. Carter were boys, back in Wisconsin; learned the printers trade in the same offices, were in the army together, and after forty-nine years apart, they certainly enjoyed their visit. In talking over by-gone days, and looking up incidents, the saddest moment came, when in looking over the Company roster, they discovered that there was not another soldier in their memory alive today.

John Delfs passed away Tuesday October 21st, 1913, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jerry Jerguson, after an illness covering a period of eight years. Death was due to infirmities of old age. He had been suffering with partial paralysis for a number of years and was a continual care to relatives. Five weeks ago he was taken ill with summer complaint and this grew worse until the angel of death appeared and relieved his sufferings.

The deceased was born at Bensburg, Germany, March 30, 1834. In 1868 he came to America, locating in Sarpy county. Later he moved to Douglas county. In 1890 he came to Wayne county and has practically lived here since; first locating south of Winside; later moving north of town, remaining there until he moved to town in retirement several years ago.
