

GALA DAY AT THE NORMAL

A Magnificent New Building Properly Dedicated to the Cause of Education. Able Addresses and Popular Program.

The enthusiasm of the school and the patrons was constantly in evidence during the gala day in which was celebrated the completion of the new administration building at the Normal. It was a fitting climax to the five years since the state took charge of the institution and placed President U. S. Conn in charge. Some days before the celebration former students and alumni began to drop into town until there was a considerable number of them. On the morning of the festivities came many more from nearby towns and from greater distances. The people of Wayne and vicinity came in crowds, filling the new auditorium and the halls of the new building and all expressing admiration of the artistic and convenient structure that now crowns Normal hill.

The Stanton Ladies' Quartet opened the program at ten o'clock, for thirty minutes singing to a delighted audience. Seldom do four voices blend so well or singers display such taste and technique. Our neighboring town of Stanton may properly take pride in this popular organization.

At the close of this part of the program, President Conn extended greetings and Dean Hahn, the presiding officer of the morning session, introduced Superintendent A. O. Thomas as the first speaker. Dr. Thomas is always a favorite with a Wayne audience, and on this occasion maintained his place in the esteem of his hearers. After paying a tribute to the memory of President Pile and speaking glowing words of appreciation of the work of President Conn, the speaker presented the following considerations: First, the need of greater freedom to executives in charge of state institutions of learning; second, the need of protecting such institutions by the establishment of endowments; third, the need of a movement for rural uplift.

The second speaker of the morning was Chancellor Samuel Avery of the University of Nebraska. This was the first visit of the Chancellor to Wayne and his greeting to the people was in happy vein. After the friendly words of introduction, Dr. Avery presented an original and substantial argument in justification of the state in the expenditure of money for educational purposes and for such buildings as the one in which he spoke. The school he said, is in large measure the creator of the valuations that we call civilization; it is the place in which the people learn to use the things already created and to demand more. The Yankee school master made America far more than any other one factor. The people of Nebraska are rapidly learning to appreciate Chancellor Avery for what he is, not merely a successful executive, but an original and careful thinker as well.

After music by the quartet, Mr. Rogers appeared costumed as a jester and megaphoned to the crowd throughout the afternoon, led in the singing of the Normal school song, composed by Miss Mabel Banks of the class of 1913, and thereafter the Wayne yell was given with a hearty will.

From twelve to two p. m., citizens of the town, students, faculty and out-of-town guests enjoyed a picnic dinner on the campus or had a spread in an improvised dining hall within the building.

Students' Carnival

After the classic, cultured and dignified program of the morning, and the schoolmasters' love-feast of the early afternoon, the program was turned over to the students for a few hours' revelry.

"A little nonsense now and then, is relished by the best of men." The audience anticipated a treat in real fun and merry-making as the "stunts" were well advertised. The halls were literally covered with indoor posters, which were produced by magical artists from Colfax county.

The announcement of the program was made by the carnival jester, E. R. Rogers. It is needless to say that it was appropriate and caused much laughter. The program was interspersed with college songs, cheers, and yells, showing the spirit and zest of the life

New Buildings Going Up

Mrs. Ada Rennick has commenced the construction of a modern residence in the northwest part of town, J. H. Foster having the contract. The new building will be on the Slater lots, and will be modern in every particular.

Wm. Rennick has the excavating completed for a modern home in the northwest part of town, but at this writing has not let the contract.

Wm. Mellor has commenced a modern farm house on his place two miles west of town, which Sam Barley, who is building it, tells us is to be very complete—a basement and two full stories, 28x28 with large porches front and back; the one in the rear being the same height as the house. Heat and an electric light and a system of water works will be installed making the home the equal of any of the homes in Wayne in the matter of conveniences. The old house is being shoved to one side to make room for the new one on the site of the old one. Last season, Mr. Mellor added a new barn to the farm improvements. Himself and family plan to move to the farm upon the completion of the new home.

John Scofield has commenced work on a new home for himself and family near the college adding another to the dozen or so of residences now under course of construction here. Watch Wayne grow.

Wallace Graves Killed by Lightning

Tuesday evening O. E. Graves and Ed. Sellers received a message telling of the sudden death of Wallace Graves that day at Oldham, South Dakota, and later word came that the body would be sent to Stockton, Illinois, for burial beside that of his wife and children. Wm. Graves went from Norfolk to accompany the body to its burial place. Ed. Sellers, his father-in-law, and granddaughter Sarah and O. E. Graves left on this morning train to attend the funeral.

He leaves three children, a daughter and two sons, aged 11, 9 and 7 years. The youngest boy makes his home with his uncle, O. E. Graves, the other boy with relatives in Illinois, and the daughter with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sellers. His father, H. Graves, O. E. of this place, Will of Norfolk and a brother George and two sisters survive him. His wife died in March, 1913, at Stockton, Illinois. He was about 37 years of age, and a man respected by all who knew him.

Britton-Porth

Miss Hazel Britton and Mr. Harry Porth, both of this city, were married June 30th at Davenport, Iowa. After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends at Sanborn after July 14th. The bride is the only daughter of J. E. Britton. She has always made Sanborn her home, where she has made many friends. She had the distinction of being the valedictorian of the class of 1915 of the Sanborn high school, where she was held in high regard by teacher and pupils. The groom is one of our prosperous, young farmers and is an exemplary young man.

The above is from the Sanborn, Iowa, Pioneer, and the bride is a relative of the Britton families here, and was visiting here last year with her father.

WALTHILL AND WAYNE WIN

Championship Cups in N. E. Nebraska Tennis Meet. Bad Weather Delays Games but Interest and Attendance Good. Next Meet at Norfolk.

The Northeast Nebraska Tennis tournament held on the courts of the Wayne Tennis club was a great success in spite of all the efforts of one Jupiter Pluvius to put it out of business. While rain fell nearly every day the courts were kept in pretty good shape whenever it was possible to play at all. On two occasions it was necessary to burn gasoline to dry the surface so play could go on.

There were 41 entries in the original draw and out of the entire number of out-of-town visitors only two or three left before the meet was over. A banquet was served to the visitors Wednesday night at the Gem Cafe. Following this a business meeting was held. Norfolk was chosen as the next meeting place of the association and the following officers were chosen: Chas. Mathewson of Walthill, Pres.; F. S. Morgan of Wayne, Vice-Pres.; L. P. Pasewalk of Norfolk, Secy.-Treas.

Frank S. Morgan of Wayne won the championship in singles by defeating Paul Langenburg, of Walthill in a red-hot five-set match, score 6-3, 3-6, 6-8, 6-4, 6-2. Harold Oldham 1914 cup holder failed to appear to defend his title so lost it by default.

Chas. Mathewson and Paul Langenburg of Walthill, 1914 cup holders won the doubles title. Millard South and Chas. Durland of Norfolk won the championship round but were forced to default to the Walthill boys as they could not get back here for the challenge round Saturday.

Answer to Road Complaint

Editor Democrat: I saw last week in your paper, complaint of the two miles west of Wayne on the Winside road and as that is my section to work, drove over it and found it is certainly in very poor condition, but as I liked the advice President Wilson gave, in remaining neutral, until I was bawled out by some one through the paper, then my neutrality looked like cowardliness to remain so any longer, as I have never been notified of any culverts down. But I found they had all been taken out and that the Commercial club of Wayne was fixing up that road. Now brother friend, who ever you may be, do you expect me to step in and put culverts in when they want them out? Now this complaint is getting somewhat tiresome, and still I don't hear all of it. I have been told of people inquiring on that road who the road boss was. The road boss has not had a thing to do with it, so you can't count his name on the bad list. But, my complaining friend, if the Commercial club wants to donate that much towards our roads we certainly ought to be patient as every one knows how the weather has been for that kind of work and if men are put out there to build dams or expect water to run up hill, why then your road boss will follow up after awhile and put culverts in, as he did on the road north of town.

EXTREME RAINFALL IN JULY

July Rainfall Breaks All Recent Records—Nearly Five Inches First Half of Month—Damage Comparatively Light.

July has been a wet month in Nebraska, and the rainfall at Wayne, while less than in some other places is considered a little too much. Wednesday morning early a severe shower passed this way and from 2 o'clock in the morning until the rain ceased about 9 o'clock an inch and one-fifth fell—the most of it coming before daylight when it rained very hard at times. The rain west of here was much heavier, and as a result the Logan went out of its banks Wednesday evening and the water extended back over the bottom land half a mile or more wide. The raise is rapidly subsiding and the stream was four feet below the high water point of last night this morning. Such a raise at this time of the year will cause much damage to crops on the bottom land, but the extent cannot be told at this time. If the water recedes at once corn will not suffer as much as small grain, which is so nearly ready for harvest that it cannot recover from a wash that knocks it down. Pastures and meadow land are also damaged.

The Norfolk line of the "Omaha" suffered several washouts near Winside, and Wayne has been the terminus of the Sioux City run, the morning train from Norfolk reached here eleven hours late Wednesday, and no trains were sent west that night. Track was washed out both sides of Winside, and as one of the places broke after the train had passed it could not return.

High water at Pierce, where it is reported that more than four inches of rain fell, followed down the Elkhorn flooding the country from that point to Fremont. At Norfolk the water is reported to have been in the streets.

Frank Sederstrom, who drove to Pilger Wednesday, reported that the water was running from 2 to 4 feet deep on the streets, and his load had to be transferred to a dray nearly a mile from the town.

News reports say that the railroad along that line sustained several bad breaks so that all passenger service was abandoned.

Local damage is comparatively light. Lightning struck a tree in the Ed. Owen's yard Wednesday morning, and in one of the storms last Thursday night Ted Perry lost a valuable steer by lightning. Farm work in both corn and hay is delayed, and small grain has suffered much from lodging, it being very heavy.

At Wausa, it is reported that two or three people were drowned last night, but names and particulars are not known, and the bodies had not been found at daylight this morning.

The total rainfall for July here has been 4.78 inches, coming .62 the 2d, .32 the 3d, .11 the 5th, 1.15 the 7th, 1.36 the 9th and 1.21 the 14th. The total for the year is given at 17.68 inches.

The funeral of the late R. A. McEachen last Saturday morning was largely attended by his former neighbors, friends and relatives, showing in a marked degree the respect in which he was held in this community. A wealth of floral offering, such as is seldom bestowed, smothered the casket which contained the body of one the donors had loved and respected. Among those from other places who attended the service were: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Burke, University Place; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Burke, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Burke, Bancroft; Mrs. E. R. Moran and two children, Hartington; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Graff and baby, Bancroft; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pilgrim, Bancroft; and Mr. Paul Feyerham of Yankton, South Dakota.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the kind sympathy and services of friends and neighbors and for the beautiful floral offering so generously given, during the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father.

PAUL CHIPPERFIELD DROWNS

Seized with Cramps, Sinks in Eight Feet of Still Water, While in Swimming Near Wayne. Home at Morning Side.

Paul Chipperfield, the 17 year old son of Rev. and Mrs. R. T. Chipperfield of Morning Side, Iowa, drowned Wednesday forenoon in a small pond of backwater from Plum creek near the Anton Granquist home southwest of this place about eight miles, where he was working.

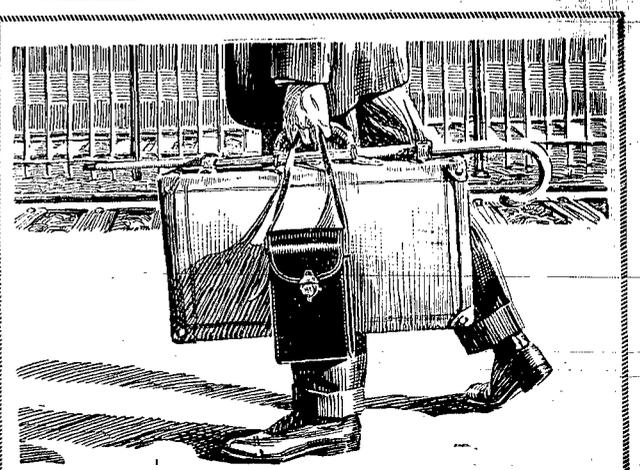

As the young man was known to be a good swimmer his death is attributed to cramps which prevented him from swimming out. As reported he went for a swim, accompanied by Ed Granquist a lad of about twelve years, who could not swim and did not enter the water. A ditch into which a meadow drained filled with water from the field and held from any current by the back water from the creek made his watery grave. He went under almost as soon as he entered the water, came up once and called for help and sank again.

The lad with him at first thought he was joking in his call for help, as he is said to have done on other occasions, but when he realized the true situation ran for help, but it was impossible to reach the house a 100 rods away and return to be of any assistance. The body was not found until a raft had been made from which to work, when it was soon brought to the surface, within a few feet of where he entered the water.

Paul came to Wayne last fall and attended the high school, boarding at the home of Noah Williamson and wife. He was a likeable young fellow and popular with his classmates, and a bright pupil. The body was brought to Wayne, and taken from the Williamson home to Sioux City this morning, accompanied by his father, who came on the evening train the night before. His parents and three sisters mourn his death.

It is needless to say that they had a good time. The Wisner chautauqua last week took in enough with the amount on hand from last season to pay their guarantee and have $69.42 to apply on local expenses, which the report says will just about pay them.

Last week the legislative act adding Cuming county to the 9th judicial district became a law, and A. R. Olson of Wisner became a judge, and will divide the district's work with Judge A. A. Welch of this place.

Last Sunday the corner stone was laid at Osmond on a new Lutheran church being built at that place. The new building is to be 32x55, and will cost completed and furnished $6,400 and have a seating capacity of about 300.

Nebraska is getting to be a great state. A letter from Butte where they had more than 2 inches of rain at one rain last week has had more than two feet of rainfall thus far this year. At Chardon they had a frost as a sort of 4th of July celebration.

A report of the rainfall of Madison county for 20 years furnished to the Star-Mail by Dr. F. A. Long shows that the precipitation has varied from 19.25 to 37.24. 1898 was the dry year, 1902 the wet one. This year to July the fall totaled 21.58.

In Iceland they have equal suffrage by grace of the King of Denmark. We do not know what political power the men have, so cannot say that the women of that frigid land have many privileges. But they are treated as equals in the political domain of that land.

The German financiers were strong in their demand for a "sound" money, if we remember right, a few years ago. Now, according to Charles Edward Russell, they are financing their war on paper money. Most of the great financiers are about the same. Paper money is good enough to fight on and for the common people, if it is paying to them a tribute of interest in gold. But the financier must have the real gold or nothing doing—that's what makes him a financier.

The board of commissioners of Thurston county are going to submit to voters a bond question, asking that they be given authority to issue $60,000 of county bonds at a rate not to exceed 5 1/2 per cent interest and clean up the outstanding warrants and then do business on a cash basis.

Plainview had $300 surplus cash when their celebration was over, and they are now disagreeing as to how to spend it, but so far as the report comes all are agreed that it should be spent. Some want to have a bird man come and give an exhibition—others want to apply it on lots for a new library site.

Plainview is discussing the question of adding a bit more territory to their village, as some of the adjoining farm land is being sold as town lots. Sure they should take it in, for how else can they make town lots out of farm land. If they want the benefits of a town let them come in and become a part of it.

Huerta appeared to feel rather sore because of his arrest by United States authorities—but now he is hoping they will keep him under arrest to such an extent that the leaders of some of the Mexican numerous revolutions cannot get hold of him. He may find that our officials and people are not wholly bad.

The home of Henry Meyer was the scene of a big Fourth of July celebration Sunday. Mr. Meyer and Charles Moeller were the promoters of the enterprise, which was enjoyed by a large number of people. There was a ball game between Wisner and Rock Creek, a Bowery Dance and many other amusements.—Wisner Free Press.

During the first eleven months of service as farm demonstrator or agricultural agent in Kimball county, now completing a year there, that useful man visited 462 farms at request of their owners, and in addition answered some 900 inquiries received at his office in that time. The co-operative sale of seed and live stock through the Kimball County Farmers' association, of which the county agricultural agent is secretary, amounted to $10,874 in the eleven months. The members of the association are co-operating also in crop tests, in prevention of disease among live stock, and in encouraging boys' and girls' clubs and community clubs.

Bill Turner was a farmer, he labored all his life. He didn't have no schoolin' and neither had his wife. But Bill was built for business and made the wheels go round, and left a healthy fortune when they put him under ground. He was always taking chances, paid a hundred for a bull. His neighbors called him crazy, but he left a stable full of cows that broke the record, making butter by the ton, an' Bill had his picture printed in the Sneedunk Weekly Sun. He had newfangled notions of making farming pay. He even bought a fool machine to help him load his hay. The neighbors fairly snorted when they saw the bloomin' thing; said Bill would never make it work. It wasn't worth a ding! Bill didn't say a single word, an' didn't care a darn 'bout what they said, fer sliex as grease, his hay went in the barn an hour before a thunder storm came sailin' out that way and caught his neighbors in a pinch and spoiled their new mown hay. Bill's neighbors put their milk in cans, and set 'em in a tank. Bill skimmed his milk with a machine and turned it with a crank. Smith chops his firewood with an axe. Bill used some gasoline and saws a hundred cords a day with another blame machine. Today Bill's wife rides in a car and dresses up in silk. Smith's wife rides in a wagon and keeps on skimming milk.—Taylor County, Ky., Enquirer.

Farm Management Association
A regular business meeting of the board of directors of Dakota County Farm Management association was held at Hubbard Friday, June 25. After the reading of the minutes of the April meeting Mr. Raymond reviewed the work account listed for the association during the months of May and June. "During the months of May and June I visited 70 farms; have had 90 office callers; 40 telephone calls; have written 85 letters and sent out two circular letters of 300 copies each; have prepared 2 articles for the county papers; have held 4 indoor meetings with an attendance of 105 people; one field meeting with an attendance of 20, have secured 25 farm records, vaccinated 180 hogs and 5 calves and have traveled 936 miles." Bills amounting to $207.72 were allowed. A list of those delinquent in their subscriptions will be obtained as will also a financial report for the first 6 months of 1915 at the July session of the board.—Dakota County Record.

Comment From Exchanges

Creighton Liberal:
Under the auspices of organized labor twenty thousand persons thronged Madison Square Garden in New York Thursday evening to Mr. Bryan plead against war and war preparation, and to hear him flay the "kept press" as he characterized the New York daily papers. Twenty-five thousand others were unable to gain admittance to the greatest assembly hall in America and yet the press associations ignored the meeting. On the other hand magazine articles are appearing every day and newspapers associations supplying the rural and farm papers with plate matter are loaded with warnings that if a hundred thousand foreign soldiers were transported to our shores that they would be able to march, in defiance of any obstacles we would be able to meet them with from New York to San Francisco. This campaign, every line of which is paid for, is treason. Every statement that a foreign foe could march across this country insults the memory of those brave but inexperienced farmers and mechanics who on that fateful afternoon came near to annihilating the British regulars between Lexington and Concord. An Irish-American, John P. Holland changed the tactics of national defense when he invented the submarine. Our nation is building this type of defenders continually. Every farmer and every laboring man knows that if war preparations are fastened upon our people that they will foot the bill in indirect taxes. General Sherman said that war was Hell and those that want war, ought to go to —war.

Hartington Herald:
The 1915 motor races have been distinguished by the killing of several intrepid drivers and the maiming of several more. Motor racing is a kind of sport that calls for a certain amount of brute courage, but there is nothing elevating about it and it serves no good scientific end. That a man is able to drive 100 miles an hour in a racing car may be spectacular value and thrilling but it is of no particular value to humanity. And, then you consider that the attainment of this terrific rate of speed is almost invariably accompanied by the sacrifice of human life, the motor race appears the more foolish and indefensible.

Butler County Press:
Printing from The Press an editorial paragraph telling in some detail of extensive advertising by business men of Aurora and some other towns in Hamilton county in the Aurora papers the Geneva Signal of July 1 makes comment as follows: "A few days ago a real estate man tried to convince the Signal that real estate dealers do not advertise and the above clipping of evidence in contradiction. The contention of the Signal, however, is that the most successful real estate dealers do advertise, and that what the common run of people do is not always what the most successful people do. This applies to all lines of business. The 1910 census gave Aurora 900 more people than it gave Geneva. All of the above clipping is about Aurora. Aurora has never had any natural advantages that other county-seats have not had. The population around Aurora is no greater than it is around Geneva. Aurora has grown faster than most of the other county-seats. Aurora has some paved streets. Aurora business men are among the best advertisers in the state. They do not stop advertising when it rains. They do not stop advertising because of a cramp in the foot or a boil on the nose. When business is slow they advertise and make it better, instead of waiting for it to get better of its own accord. The evidence is worth studying."

About Times in Canada
Ernest H. Busch living near Luseland, in the great Saskatchewan province of Canada, in sending in the thing needful to keep the Democrat solvent, writes of conditions there as follows: Crops are looking fine here, but a little slow on account of too much rain, of which we have had our share so far this summer. Also had some very cool weather. I am not working very much this summer—there is plenty of work but no money. Money is about as hard to get up here as the proverbial hen's teeth. Most of the young men have gone to war, but I am staying at home—let those who want to go, go, but E. H. is going to stay at home and help his brother put up hay, and I think it a very good place to be for there will be no 12 or 16 inch shells cracking around me in the hay field, and hay is very good this year.

WAYNE MARKET REPORT

Following are the market prices quoted us up to the time of going to press, Thursday:

Table with market prices for Oats, Corn, Barley, Spring wheat, Wheat, Eggs, Butter, Hogs, Fat Cattle.

Some of our high tariff friends are in a sad plight. They predicted such a fall in prices if a lower tariff law should be passed...

A campaign is under way to bring the next national democratic convention to Omaha, in 1916. The Nebraskan is at least agitating the question.

It is quite evident to one who has watched Wayne gradually grow during the past four years that property here is bound to advance in price.

Down in Georgia they have a sort of recall. The governor commuted the death sentence of Leo Frank to life imprisonment...

One who had been traveling in the states south of Nebraska during the past few months tells the editor that nowhere did he see such evidence of prosperity in farming communities as manifested by the class of permanent improvement as right here at home in northeastern Nebraska...

One or more of our exchanges are saying that Bryan is now dead—if the newspapers will but just let him alone and quit printing things about him.

of the school, and the fraternal feeling was everywhere in evidence. The first number, was a "fancy dance" by Douglas county.

Following this, a wonderful "Auto Stunt" was performed by Holt county. Jimmie got out his automobile, not a "tinner's dream", and just as he was ready to speed down the highway, he was besieged by a bevy of Holt county's daintiest maidens...

The next number, "Knox Relay" by Knox county. This was a splendid parol relay race, which created hearty applause.

"Absolute Necessities" by Dodge, Washington and Cuming counties, was the next in order. A medley of performers entered, which looked as though they had stepped out of the last pages of the Ladies Home Journal...

The students next entertained by some good, old college songs, and, as the sounds died out, the scurry of feet and repressed laughter were heard back of the scenes.

Immediately after this the clouds all dispersed, the flowers were in bloom, and the trees were full of singing birds.

Following this, "Iowa in Two Parts". This was a concert in two parts, the first being a song dedicated to Iowa; the second a hilarious song, accompanied by all the primitive musical instruments.

South Dakota next produced the "Colored Supplement, Miss Mutt and Miss Jeff". The audience realized that this was not the imagination of an artist, but the real thing, as South Dakota can produce a "Mutt" eight feet tall, and a "Jeff" seven feet in circumference.

Wayne county was fortunate enough to be able to produce the "Great Knights of Uncle Remus", from Alabama. These minstrels could not be surpassed even by the Dixie Concert Company.

The West Hall boys entertained next with a "kangaroo stunt". While this may be a type of the student life in college, it is not the predominant spirit of West Hall; but it afforded a great deal of merriment.

This closed the indoor, or side show, program for the day, and the Field Marshal, or Commander, "Woodrow" Wilson, announced the order of the parade.

The circus proper by Cedar county was the first outdoor number, and without a doubt it was the "greatest show on earth".

The next was "The Indian War Dance" produced by Burt and Thurston counties. This was an excellent reproduction of Indian life.

The last in order was the "Merymakers". Platte and Stanton counties, anticipating some of the real work of play in this work-a-day world, entered into the true play spirit and gave two folk dances, entitled "Tantoli" and "The Hungarian Folk Dance".

Artists' Recital

By far the largest attendance of the day was at the evening session, at which time, following a formal reception by the faculty, more than one thousand people gathered in the new auditorium to listen to a joint recital by Miss Helen Axt Brown of Chicago and Mrs. Marie Monfort Keckley.

The song recital was all that could be expected. Miss Brown again proved herself a singer of much force and finish. She possesses an excellent soprano voice of great flexibility and beautiful quality.

The part of Mrs. Marie Monfort Keckley on the program came fully up to the anticipations of her friends. In accordance with her custom she took as her selection that which has first rank in literary merit, Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew".

Notes of the Tournament

The greatest surprise of the meet was the defeat of Chas. Mathewson of Walthill by C. E. Gaydov of Blair. "Matty" was the favorite and battled Gaydov to a 11-9 count in the last set. Gaydov has improved greatly in the last year.

Part of the silverware is back in Wayne for the first time in two years. It didn't look very much like it would be here when the score stood 2 sets to 1 and 3 love in the fourth set of the finals Saturday.

The best tennis of the meet was shown Saturday afternoon when Paul Langenberg of Walthill played Frank Morgan 5 sets to decide who was the best player in N. E. Nebraska.

Frank won 3 out of the 5 sets and is the justly proud holder of the silver cup which goes with the championship. He certainly had a battle to prove to Mr. Langenberg that he was the better player as this young man won two out of the first three sets and gave every indication of having his heart set on winning the fourth. In fact if we remember rightly he had three games on this set to his credit before Frank stopped him by playing a quality of tennis that ought to carry him a long way in his fight for the state championship at Lincoln July 26th.

He began playing his return shots for the base line with such force that Langenberg was unable to work his way up to the net where he is especially dangerous and by placing these returns mostly on Paul's backhand Frank made them count for points enough to win 6 out of the next 7 games and the 4th set. The fifth set was all ours—Frank started by serving 4 aces—he won the next game by a series of return smashes and volleys that could not be handled and finished the set in short order by playing the best tennis we saw during the meet.

We want to give this young man from Walthill credit for the tennis he played in this match and all through the tournament. When he has developed a backhand stroke look out for him. We were all glad to see Frank win. He has given a great deal of time and work in the last three years toward establishing our fine tennis courts and making it possible for us to enjoy this splendid game under the best of conditions.

Our best wishes are with him in his fight for state honors at the tournament in Lincoln, the latter part of the month.

Farmers' Congress in Omaha

Farmers from practically every agricultural state in the Union will attend the annual convention of the Farmers' National Congress, which will hold its annual convention in Omaha the last week in September. Governor Morehead has signified his intention of appointing a half hundred delegates from Nebraska while Omaha will be represented by as many more. With Nebraska and Iowa strongly represented, the success of the convention is assured.

W. L. Ames of Oregon, Wisconsin, president of the association, will have a delegation of about eighty. They have been appointed and represent every community in the state of Wisconsin.

A Five Year School Review

Henrietta Moler

The history of the Nebraska Normal college is of great importance, but still more important are the labors and successes of the last five years of the Nebraska State Normal. In 1910 the state paid the sum of seventy thousand dollars for the college. There were two main brick buildings, five dormitories and the president's residence.

When the school assembled for work in September 1910, the outlook was very discouraging. There had been a rumor during the summer that the school would not be opened for another year, as no provision had been made by the state for the financial support of the institution. There had been but little advertising and the members of the faculty were not selected until late in the summer. When the term opened there were eighty students present and seventeen members in the faculty. This summer of 1915 four hundred thirty-five students were enrolled the first week. Two hundred twenty-five out of this number are high school graduates.

Another means of showing the growth of the institution is by the increased size of the graduation classes. In 1911 the class numbered three, in 1912 twenty-three and in 1914 there were thirty-nine in number.

The new science hall was completed in 1913 at a cost of fifty-five thousand dollars. A sum of four thousand has been spent for the equipment for laboratories. The library contains about two thousand eight hundred seventy volumes.

The registration fee of five dollars for each normal student is used for the purpose of purchasing books.

The new administration building has just been completed at a cost of one hundred thousand. In this building is found one of the finest auditoriums in northeast Nebraska. The office and reception room are on the first floor. Large class rooms, the music, art and mechanical drawing departments, are found on the second and third floors. All the dormitories have been remodeled and the campus is being leveled and concrete walks are being laid in the most artistic designs around the buildings.

The State Normal has for its definite object the training of teachers. For this reason, the training school has been organized. The advantage of the school is that it shapes all theory for immediate practice and the real school condition under which the teaching is done. Manual training is of great importance which is proved by the number of boys and girls who are taking work in this department.

The spirit of the student activities is an important sign of the satisfactory condition of the school. There are base ball, foot ball and basket ball teams, which have won fame and honor for the school. The two literary societies—the Crescent and Philomathean—organized in the W. N. C. are in excellent condition. Christian organizations have done a great deal for the school. There has been a strong class spirit displayed, which arouses student's interest.

There is a great demand for the graduates of this school which is a strong evidence that the institution is a successful one. Many graduates have gone into the work of teaching, while others who have been inspired for further knowledge from the training received in the school are attending higher institutions of learning.

Weldon Crossland Addresses Students

The students and faculty of the State Normal School enjoyed a rare treat Wednesday morning when Weldon Crossland delivered an address at the convocation hour. In his talk Mr. Crossland touched upon different phases of the European war, prefacing his remarks by saying that it was not his purpose to discuss whether England or Germany was right or wrong in the war, for all nations involved were, perhaps, more or less to blame. The real question was, which was more right or more wrong.

The speaker described the hospital work in England and told how public buildings had been turned into hospitals for the relief of wounded soldiers. Among the buildings in Oxford being used at the present time for hospital purposes were ladies' colleges and the Masonic temple.

To show how willingly the citizenship of England have responded to a call to arms, an instance was given of a men's college with 125 students enrolled where all but three had enlisted in the army. The war situation was presented by Mr. Crossland without prejudice for or against either side engaged in the struggle, and the address throughout was given the closest attention by his hearers.

In closing, Mr. Crossland called upon those who are to go out as high school teachers to interest their pupils in the advantages of the Rhodes' Scholarship. He said his first interest came through the suggestion of Professor E. P. Wilson, formerly superintendent of the Wayne public schools, and further stated that in nearly every case American students at Oxford have won scholarships because they were interested and encouraged by some superintendent or principal.

Mr. Crossland's address was well received, and the students of the Normal hope to have the privilege of hearing him again before the summer session ends.

They find much in common to work out for the benefit of their patrons and themselves.

Her brother is also planning to join them at Ashland with a new car which he goes east to purchase, and a joy ride home is one of the pleasures Miss Mason is anticipating for the trip.

Chautauqua Notes

Our chautauqua is on this week, and like other events and the crops is taking its chances with the roads, the weather and a very busy season. The attendance has not been large because of local conditions, but those who have been privileged to attend are unanimous in praise of the talent employed. The lecture by Homer B. Hulbert Sunday afternoon was praised by all who heard it. The Chicago Male Quartet gave a splendid concert that evening appropriate for the occasion, and on Monday evening their popular concert was good.

The fact that a late train kept Harold E. Kessinger from reaching Wayne was in fact no loss to the patrons, for Mr. Hulbert had remained in town, and ably filled that hour. More than one was heard to say that his two talks were worth the price of the season ticket. He told of conditions in Korea and other places in the far east—and has a remarkable insight into the affairs of that part of the world. All who heard him feel that they have a better understanding of the affairs in the Orient than before. We have not the space to do his talks justice in a review.

The largest audience yet gathered filled the tent full Tuesday evening to hear Louis Williams explain and demonstrate in chemistry and electricity. He has a happy manner of mixing his gas with other gases and the explosions of laughter from the audience were as hearty and spontaneous as those he produced with his experiments. In his talk he made a lot of things look plain and simple that have taken a world of study and work to discover just how simple they are—and yet when the question of WHY came about these wonderful chemical changes, who could answer? They have learned much, but much is yet to be brought to light.

Wednesday afternoon Dr. Brushingham, the noted Chicago minister-politician, spoke, and the Apollo concert company concluded their engagement with a splendid entertainment in the evening. They were here two days and pleased all of the time.

But the best of the wine is always saved for the last of the feast, and so the remainder of the program is counted stronger than that of the first part of the week. This afternoon Frank Stockdale is speaking. He is an orator, humorist and business man. The Waldens will enteratin this evening, and are worth your while.

Friday's program is among the strongest and should be heard by thousands. In the afternoon the lecture by Governor Hodges is awaited by many, and we hear from far and near of those who want to hear this man. He is governor of Kansas, and a man of nation-wide fame. He talks of the vital questions of government—the proper conduct of which has more to do with a nation's happiness and prosperity than any other one thing. A just government and a wise one is the greatest boon to mankind.

At the evening session, Nat M. Brigham will entertain and instruct with his wonderful fund of knowledge acquired by travel and study. His lectures are unsurpassed from a pictorial point of view.

Signor S. Bellino will entertain as a prelude to the Friday entertainments and no one wants to miss hearing the music made by this "accordian king".

Saturday and Sunday the Dixie Jubilee concert company will be a splendid part of the attraction, but not all of it, for children of Wayne yours and mine and your neighbors' children will be seen and heard. Let us tell you:

The Children's Play

No part of the chautauqua movement in Wayne, we believe, is of greater importance or of more value to the community than that which gives attention to the children and their play. Miss Grace Lamkin from a suburb of Chicago has been here since the first day of the chautauqua lecturing to the children and their parents each morning, and drilling the little ones in play, instructing in new games and many and womanly sports.

Saturday afternoon she and the children will provide the entertainment at 3:15, following a prelude by the Dixie Jubilee folks. The editor called on Miss Lamkin and learned that the Wayne children have co-operated most heartily in making this part of the chautauqua a success. More than 100 children will appear in the play Saturday afternoon, and it will be well worth the time necessary to witness their play work. Below is an outline of the program to be followed:

1. Flowers Folded on the Field (Blue-eyed Marys, Daisies, Sweet Peas.)
2. Enter Herald.
3. Enter Spirit of Spring.
4. Dance—"Awakening of the Flowers"
5. Game—"Chasing the Daisies" (Played by Blue-eyed Marys, Daisies and Sweet Peas.)
6. Dance—"Flight of the Blue-birds"
7. "Rhythm of the March Winds" (By All Groups.)
8. Enter Groups of Girl and Boy-land, representing: (a)—See saw, Jack-in-the-box, Windmill, Jumping Jack; (b)—Round and round the village; (c)—Trip around the world.
9. Dance of the Wood Nymphs.
10. Dance of the Butterflies.
11. Group of Boys in Confusion.
12. Enter Spirit of Play.
13. Boy's Group of Games. (All other groups in games.)
14. Enter Greek Athletes in Contests. (Freehand work, Pyramids Soldier boys and Greek athletes.)
15. Enter Spirit of Summer.
16. Song and Three Cheers, and all dance off the field.

The Lamkin play idea is to teach and practice organization, loyalty and honesty, and the motto is "Play Square". In a lecture or talk which Miss Lamkin frequently gives where she is engaged, and which formed a part of her splendid talk before the students at the normal summer school, many of whom are teachers, embodied these principles.

It has been the idea of Miss Lamkin to grow and broaden with her work, and the ten years she has given to this work have enabled her to become most helpful to the little folks.

Sunday the chautauqua closes with a lecture by that great pulpit orator, Spurgeon, one of the greatest the world has produced. He ranks with the worldknown father of London—with Beecher and Moody—and he comes to your very door that you may hear him, Sunday afternoon. In the evening the last session of the best chautauqua ever staged at Wayne will be a sacred concert by the Dixie Concert Company.

Double Service AUTOMOBILE TIRES

Guaranteed 7000 Miles Service
ABSOLUTELY PUNCTUREPROOF

Double Service Tires are double the thickness of the best standard make tires.

This 100 per cent greater wearing surface naturally gives that much more mileage and service. The average of 12 miles of tough fabric and one inch surface tread rubber make these tires absolutely puncture proof.

These tires excel all others for use in the country over rough and rugged roads as well as on hard pavements. They are as easy riding and resilient as any other pneumatic tire—the air space and pressure being the same.

They are the most economical and "care free" tires made and are used where tires must be depended on and tire troubles cannot be tolerated.

Many Double Service style tires are in use in the United States government and European War service.

Our output is limited to a certain amount, but for a short time we offer the following reduced special offer as an Introductory Offer:

Among the Churches of Wayne
German Lutheran Church
Rev. Moehring, Pastor
Because of the pastor being called to preach at Norfolk Sunday next, there will be no services at this church on that date. The ladies of the church, however, will hold a bazaar at the store south of Rundell's.

Baptist Church
(Rev. B. P. Richardson, Pastor)
We are glad this week to let the chautauqua have full sway. Large numbers of people have heard its message. It was most pleasing to hear Mr. Hulbert's estimation of foreign missionary work. He paid a noble tribute to the character and work of our missionaries. He emphatically upheld the native genius of the native Christian. He believes that missionary work is the most vital factor in the development of the people of these heathen countries. He exalted Christianity as the one universal religion. Mr. Hulbert's convictions here are the same as held by all who know mission work at first hand. What he said about the basis of universal peace ought to be repeated and preached everywhere. The only possible basis of peace he believes is found only as men come to know and love one another and incorporate into their lives the spirit and character of Jesus Christ.

Dr. Wm. Spurgeon who speaks next Sunday afternoon is the son of the former late Charles H. Spurgeon of London. In many respects Mr. Spurgeon was the greatest preacher of the last century. His son possesses many of his noble qualities. Let every one who can do so, hear this great Baptist preacher. Sunday morning the pastor will preach on the subject, "Common to Man", or "The Universal Elements in Human Experience". All evening services will give way for the chautauqua. Next week the regular church services will be resumed.

Presbyterian Church
(Rev. S. Xenophon Cross, Pastor)
There will be the regular services of the day on next Sunday except the evening preaching. The sermon subject at the hour of morning worship is: "Friendship". All people are invited to the services of this church. Everybody should be interested in keeping up the attendance of the Sunday school right through the summer weather. We will miss you if you are not in your place next Sunday and you will miss a great blessing. The Y. P. S. C. E. will meet at 6 o'clock in order to give those who desire to do so an opportunity to attend both the endeavor meeting and the evening Chautauqua program. Miss Bessie Durrie will lead the meeting. We do not meet this week in the mid-week social prayer meeting, but we want to see everybody there next Wednesday evening. The topic will be, "The Kingdom of Heaven on Earth". Don't miss your prayer meeting.

Church going is a means of grace, and divinely appointed. It is helpful, and restful. A fine investment of your time. It develops the best powers of the man. But how easily neglected. Absence from next Sabbath's services will make it easy to stay away the next week. The slightest irregularity in attendance will work serious havoc with the best habit. Then we begin to seek for some excuse. There are plenty of poor excuses, but not many good ones for lack of regularity in church attendance. Most excuses analyzed mean simply, "I don't wish to". If you will attend church regularly one quarter, you will want to go.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church
(Rev. Blessing, Pastor.)
Sunday school every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. We were glad to see so many at Sunday school last Sunday. Pleased to welcome the new members and hope the attendance will continue to be as good. Morning worship at 11 o'clock. The subject of the sermon will be "The Message of the Empty House"—Matthew 12:43-45. In every discourse of Jesus Christ there is conveyed some great and vital truth. In the discourse in which our text is found, He is speaking to the Pharisees, a class of individuals who thought themselves wiser than Jesus. In this discourse Christ describes the Pharisees condition exactly. He likens the heart of man to a house. The former tenant of the house was an evil spirit, but the man realized that the evil spirit was not a good tenant and therefore drives it out, leaving the house empty. But the emptiness of the house did not prove satisfactory, so the man allowed the evil spirit to return to its former abode—the house, the heart and the condition of that man was far worse than at first. He likewise suggested the remedy for the man's condition. There will be no services Sunday evening because of the Chautauqua. The Ladies' Aid society met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. D. Erickson. The meeting was very well attended, and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Christ Flohr on Thursday, July 22. Mrs. Flohr is the oldest member of our Ladies Aid and a charter member of the church. The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. N. J. Juhlin this week. Let all members be present and bring your friends. A cordial invitation is extended to all who wish to worship with us.

Methodist Church
(Rev. A. S. Buell Pastor).
That was a great message that Reverend H. B. Hulbert of Springfield, Massachusetts, gave us at the morning service last Sunday when he spoke on "Missions in the Far East from a Layman's Standpoint". The theme for next Sunday's sermon will be "The Way Cast Up for the Ransomed", or "The Highway and Its Signboards". Remember that we have a splendid Sunday School but the school must not be allowed to run down even during chautauqua. Come next Sunday. The pastor wishes to take this opportunity to express his appreciation of the splendid Sunday program of the chautauqua last Sunday. Both the address and the concert were in perfect keeping with the day. Surely only good could come from such a program. If the chautauqua holds up the standard throughout with which it has started it should by all means have a thousand people out daily to hear the program.

The Reverend W. A. Main, a brother of the late D. C. Main of this city spent several days in our midst last week. It is to be greatly regretted that Mr. Main's voice was bothering him so that he was unable to give a public address while here. Brother Main has been nineteen years in China and has been holding some of the most responsible places in the development of the great mission work among the Chinese. He has for several years been president and instructor in our theological school where the native preachers are trained for effective work in the churches. Brother Main brings a most encouraging report of the work in that great and growing field. He says that the war has not seemingly interfered with the great awakening. The people of China are not especially surprised that Europe should be at war. Europe has never been China's ideal. They reason that if they will rob and steal from other people at all times it is not strange that they should rob and murder each other at the present time. China's ideal is America. The American missionary is held in high esteem. The present revival movement is among the upper classes. Many and remarkable are the works of grace that are being wrought among these peoples. While there is great need for support for the mission field from the home land it is also true that the Chinese are rapidly becoming self-supporting in their evangelistic work. Surely the challenge to the young man in the Christian ministry or in business is in China today.

The Nebraska Epworth Assembly
This great league meeting is becoming of interest in more than a statewide zone, and the annual gathering from August 3 to 12 will be equal to any in previous years. To those who can spare ten days or less for a vacation we would suggest that they investigate the possibilities of an outing at Lincoln. Some of the most noted men of the nation will appear on the program, among them the vice president of this nation, Rev. Buell, who is of the conference directors will be glad to tell you more of the program than we now have time to place before you.

Hessian Fly
It will pay the farmer in the eastern part of Nebraska to make an especial effort to eradicate the Hessian Fly from next year's wheat fields. To obtain this result the stubble field should be first thoroughly disked and then plowed deep during July, the earlier the better. It is too late after the middle of August if your work is such that it is impossible to plow the field as suggested burn the stubble but do this only as a last resort. Infected fields should not be sown prior to September 20th.

Lincoln Letter
Mr. J. Murphy, of Table-Rock, formerly connected with the food department, has accepted the position of chief clerk in the department of banking, vice Mrs. Heffley, resigned. Governor Morehead has announced the appointment of Eugene A. Walrath, of Osceola, to be state printer, vice N. J. Ludi, resigned. This is an appointment that will please Gene's many friends over the state. Mr. Ludi gave excellent service during his term, but Uncle Sam needed him for postmaster at Wahoo. A 77-page pamphlet entitled "Statement of the Auditor of Public Accounts" showing appropriations made and money expended by the 34th session of the Nebraska legislature (1916), has just been received from the printer by Auditor Wm. H. Smith. A copy will be mailed free to any person making application by letter. Beginning at page 29 of this statement is a summary showing in parallel columns a comparison of 1916 appropriations with those of 1913. Heretofore the various auditors have failed to make an estimate of the different cash funds appropriated, but in the present pamphlet Auditor Smith has covered every item of appropriation, with explanatory notes wherever necessary, making this statement complete in every detail.

Notwithstanding the 1915 legislature appropriated for the University and Normal schools over $910,000 more than they had in 1913, yet the remaining appropriations for state purposes are cut down more than $642,999 as compared with 1913. The auditor's balance sheet for June, showing condition of the state treasury, shows a number of items of more than passing interest to the public. For the first time in a good many years the general fund is on a cash basis. In other words, State Treasurer Hall has on hand more than $325,000 of general fund money to pay warrants on presentation. This condition is directly due to Treasurer Hall's policy of requiring monthly remittances from the various county treasurers. Considerably more than a million dollars was received at the state treasury in June, and the disbursements ran nearly as much. Balance sheet totals are as follows:

On hand June 1.....	$1,193,597.95
Total receipts in June 1-11, 1916	1,116,562.27
	$2,310,160.22
The treasurer's balance on hand June 30 was distributed as follows:
On deposit in depository banks.....	$1,128,749.61
Cash on hand, not yet deposited.....	20,140.75
University fund warrants held as cash.....	49,794.53
Normal school warrants held as cash.....	16,865.54
Total.....	$1,215,550.43

Notwithstanding the June school apportionment was 35 per cent greater than under the republican management of the state treasury, and more than $430,000 of apportionment warrants were paid in June, the treasurer has better than $91,000 on hand as a nest egg for the December apportionment. The University special building fund has a balance of more than four hundred thousand dollars, although about $188,000 has thus far been expended in purchase of land for extending the city campus. The state aid bridge fund has a balance of $91,000 on hand, and it may be that the state board of equalization and assessment will not need to make the customary two-tenths of a mill levy this year.

$500,000 yearly. And nearly all for things you never see—things you never miss until the tire falls down. Yet our late price reduction saves our users about five million dollars this year. And that was our third reduction in two years, totaling 45 per cent.

How to Judge
Judge tires by the maker. Judge them by known features. Each exclusive Goodyear feature combats a major trouble. Judge, above all, by records. Not by mere good luck or mishap, but by Tiredom's general verdict. In its 10th year the Goodyear tire far outsells any other. It has outsold for years. By any measure you can use, Goodyear tires are best. Adopt them. Any dealer will supply you.

Blindfolded Tire Buyers
This is to point out the way to the light. Tires which seem identical are often most unlike. There are dozens of standards. The fierce competition compels many a compromise, affecting what you seek.

Features Which Cost Millions.
Goodyear Fortified Tires have five great features found in no other tire. They have others which are rare—hidden features, never missed until the tire meets trouble. These Goodyear extras, on this year's output, will cost us $1,635,000. Our 1915 improvements alone will cost us

Winside Notes
(From the Tribune)

John Mettlen met with a very painful accident Friday evening, when he, and some other young men were shooting on the Fourth of July. They had a small cannon and were shooting blank shells, when the machine was turned around and fired into the bunch. The wad of the shell struck him in the face just below the eye, and it was necessary to take seven stitches to close the wound. He is doing nicely at this time.

Our Soldiers Camp at Fremont
Wayne has no militia company yet, but we have a goodly percentage of the membership of Co. G of Stanton who reside here, and they have an organization for drill purposes, under command of Sergeant Jas. Pile. The number of recruits here is 22, and they are meeting several times a week for drill, and have orders to go to Fremont for a week encampment from August 9 to 17. Following is the roster:
Sergt. Jas. Pile; Acting Corporals, W. Briggs and J. Jinks; Privates, F. Mildner, F. Learner, G. Church, A. Chinguist, R. Meirs, L. Miner, E. Jones, M. Powers, P. Rickabaugh, P. Leslie, E. Hoguewood, P. Mears, E. Duel, G. Weber, C. Foster, C. Duncan, A. O'Connell, R. Hunter, E. Rennick.
This at present comprises the standing army of Wayne, and perhaps it is plenty—it is but a small start, but it makes a starting place should the time ever come when men are needed to defend our flag, and the members of this and similar organizations should fit themselves to fill the better and more responsible places in case there is a call for men, and so far, as competent they should be given a place in such a time rather than the son of some one with a pull. It would be just to these men and tend to give us better service. Mr. Pile says that there is room for a few more recruits, and if they enter now they will be entitled to attend the encampment.

Watchful Waiting Shows
That the lawn from which the dandelion were industriously dug less than six weeks ago, the crop harvested being piled and gathered up and hauled away, is today golden with the blossoms of the persistent plant. It will require constant work for more than one season to eradicate this plant from a lawn. How nice it would be if some of the more desirable garden crops were as easy to produce. Another lawn on which the owner has been fighting faithfully in season and out for the past two seasons at least is comparatively free from the "pest".
A jury of his peers has declared that Harry Thaw is sane—then why not send him to the chair? If he was crazy it would be wrong to kill him—if sane it could be legally done.

We hear no more of the talk about refusing to sell Nebraska horses for war because of pity for the horses, but we heard that a bunch of about 6,000 head of Nebraska horses were started for the front last week. In some cases the refusal to sell was because the owners felt that it was more than they could stand to have their domestic animals sent to endure the hardships of war—others did not think it right to sell anything to help the warring nations, and some because they were opposed to the Allies, and the Germans could not have the animals delivered. No doubt the sentiment exists today the same as it did four or five months ago, but there is but little said about it.

Arm Action, Body Balance and the Proper Leg and Foot Motion.
In starting on the track the novice should hold himself as erect as possible, without, however, leaning at all backward, the arms at the sides, with the forearms in a horizontal position, at right angles to the part of the arms above the elbows. He should have a feeling of being "well balanced on his pins."
The weight must be kept on the heels—therein lies the chief secret of walking fairly. Speed depends on two factors, the length and the frequency of the stride. Experiments prove that the length of the stride becomes greater as the frequency increases.
Arm action should be carefully cultivated. Properly used, the arms seem to act as levers to lift forward the body, besides helping to balance it. In each stride one foot should be always on the ground and at same moment of the stride some part of both feet should be on the ground simultaneously—that is, the first necessity. Second in importance is to have the walk "heel and toe"—that is, the heel of each foot should strike the ground unmistakably first and the toe of each foot should be the last part to leave it. One should not walk flat footed, with the ball of the foot or any part except the heel striking the ground before the heel does. Lastly, the knee should be "locked" at the end of each stride—the grounded leg should be stiff and taut as the loose leg swings out for the next stride—Outing.
