ESTABLISHED 1884

WAYNE, WAYNE COUNTY, NEBRASKA, SEPTEMBER 9, 1915

$1.50 PER YEAR

September Term of District Court

Judge A. A. Welch opened the September term of the district court for this county Tuesday, and made citizens of Nels Nelson, who lives ten miles south of Wakefield, and who came from Sweden; and Robert Morris formerly of Wales, but now living west of Carroll about four miles.

In the Albert Echtenkamp vs. Aaron B. Clark a motion was made to strike the case from the docket by the defendant's attorney, but no action was taken.

In the matter of the claim of Paul Deck against the estate of August Deck, a new trial was ordered, the plaintiff to file bonds for costs within 90 days.

The matter of DeRoy Austin vs. Elmer W. Closson and McCord-Brady Co., was dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

After a brief hearing of the case of Emma Landberg vs. E. W. Closson the case was dismissed and costs taxed to plaintiff.

In the matter of Dr. C. C. Tomlinson vs. Wayne county the demurrer to the petition of plaintiff was sustained, and to this plaintiff excepts.

Wm. F. Ramsey was granted a divorce from Rebecca J. Ramsey.

In the State vs. Jay Jones, defendant plead guilty and a fine of $100 and costs was assessed.

In the Geo. W. Longnecker vs. C. W. C. Brandon, the finding was for the plaintiff. This was a case relative to land leases.

Decree of divorce was granted in the case of Violet Worth vs. George Worth, the plaintiff was given custody of child and judgment given against defendant for costs and $50 attorney fees.

W. C. Wightman vs. John T. Bressler, the motion of defendant sustained, objecting to paragraphs 1, 3, 4, 5, 6 and overruled as to paragraph 2. Thirty days given plaintiff to file amended petition and 20 days for defendant to bring answer to same.

This afternoon the Goemann case is assigned for hearing. Next week the jury cases will be heard, but we have not the assignment.

Wayne Wins First at Lincoln

Word comes back to the Democrat from V. L. Dayton that Senior Champion, the 2-year-old Holstein bull which he took to Lincoln has been awarded first place in his class. He certainly is a fine individual and of the best of breeding, and weighed almost 1,700. He was selected as a calf by Will Forbes and sent to his father here, and later Mr. Dayton purchased the animal, or at least an interest in him, and has had him at his place and in his care for the past year.

Mr. Dayton also won second place on a calf from this sire in his class. This calf weighed over 700 pounds at the age of seven months. The size of these two animals shows that even individuals of this great dairy breed may have some beef qualities—though they do not compete with some other breeds in this class.

Hogs had not been judged when this report was sent, and it is not known what Messrs. Morgan and Dayton won with their red swine.

Married

On Monday afternoon at the Baptist parsonage occurred the marriage of Geo. M. Park and Miss Frances Adams, both of Delta, Colorado. Miss Adams is the sister of Mrs. Richardson and has been visiting here for some weeks. Mr. Park is a successful young business man of Delta. Just a few friends were present at the wedding. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Richardson. The couple left on the afternoon train for the west, intending to spend about ten days visiting at Denver and various other Colorado points before reaching their permanent home in Delta.

Chautauqua

The annual meeting of the Wayne Chautauqua Association will be held Monday evening, Sept. 13th, 7.30 o'clock. All stockholders and others who are interested are requested to attend. Election of the board of directors and making plans for next year will be decided upon.

"The Christian" advertised elsewhere for the Crystal the 17th, will have a matinee also that afternoon.

Normal School to Open Next Week

On Monday, September 13, the State Normal at Wayne begins its sixth year. All departments of the school will open for the registration of students on that date and recitations begin the following day. The new administration building was completed during the summer and the equipment of the school is double that of one year ago.

From inquiries received at the office and from the number of reservations made in the halls it is certain that there will be a goodly increase in attendance over last year. All rooms in Terrace hall had been assigned before August 1st. Only a few vacant places now remain in Kingsbury hall and several assignments have already been made in the North dormitory. In addition to this many students have engaged room and board in private families.

The addition of the ninth grade will be an important change in the work of the Training school, giving the Normal this year, for the first time, a "Model High School." There will also be added to the curricula of the school a course of study for rural teachers. This meets the requirements of an act passed by the last legislature, and provides instruction in common school subjects, rural sociology, management and organization of rural schools, manual training, sanitary science, household economy, agriculture and vocal music. The course covers two years, and mature students may enter directly from the tenth grade, and upon its completion receive a county certificate.

When school convenes Monday several changes will be noted in the teaching force. Miss Elizabeth Kingsbury, who has been absent since the first of January, will resume her work. Miss Elizabeth Betcher, a student last year in the University of Chicago, will again have charge of grades 5 and 6. Miss Anna F. Anthony will spend the year 1915-6 in Columbia University, and the position of assistant in the commercial department has been filled by the election of Professor J. W. McIntyre of Shenandoah, Iowa. Professor McIntyre was for some time principal of the commercial department in the Western Normal College. Miss Mary E. Mahood will direct the work in household science, filling the position formerly held by Miss Franc E. Hancock, who has enrolled for graduate work in the University of Minnesota. Misses Piper, Jewell and Stocking, absent during the summer session, will be in Wayne for the opening of the new term. Miss Violet C. Woosley, secretary to the President, resigned her position on September 1, and the vacancy has been filled by the selection of Miss Stella Trotter of Lincoln.

A Fall Festival at Wayne

At a meeting called by President Berry of the commercial club Monday evening the first steps were taken toward arranging for a big time at Wayne. At this meeting the idea of a barbecue, a wild west entertainment and a carnival were considered, and members were appointed to obtain definite information as to such attractions and report at a meeting called for the city hall Monday evening next, to which every citizen is invited. It is hoped that the electroliers may be installed early enough that this may be made a celebration in honor of that improvement. At any event, come to the meeting Monday evening and make your ideas known.

Presents Clock to The Normal

The Wayne State Normal was recently the recipient of a large eight-day office clock, presented to the school by Mrs. John G. Grimsley. The card accompanying the gift bore the inscription:

"I am Time and I say:
'Use me well today,
For I come not again this way'."

Mrs. Grimsley has always been a good friend of the Normal, and her much appreciated gift will have an important part in the future work of the institution.

Schalnus-Eddie

Wednesday, September 8, 1915, at the county court room by Judge James Britton, Ernest Schalnus and Miss Anna Eddie were united in marriage. They are young people from Carroll.

Wayne Schools Largely Attended

The public schools opened Monday morning with indications of a very pleasant and profitable school year. As Monday was Labor Day, school was dismissed as soon as students had enrolled and lessons had been assigned. The enrollment the first day is given below. It has increased in some rooms, especially in the high school, but is given for the sake of comparison.

Grade	1914	1915
Kindergarten	22	36
First Grade	29	37
Second Grade	29	37
Third Grade	24	31
Fourth Grade	31	25
Fifth Grade	38	40
Sixth Grade	31	48
Seventh Grade	39	28
Eighth Grade	33	39
High School	88	85
Total	355	400

The seventh and eighth grades have changed rooms as there are more seats in the seventh grade room and it will better accommodate the large number of pupils in the eighth grade.

Two classes will be organized in the kindergarten this year. One begins at the opening of the school year, and the other about January 15th. Children who are five on or before November 1st may enter the class now; and those who are five on or before April 1st may enter the class which will be organized in January.

The teachers for the year are as follows: Kindergarten, Janet Garlough; first grade, Delilah Mullin; second grade, Florence Welch; third grade, Belva Nickel; fourth grade, Mary Pawelski; fifth grade, Mrs. Alice Scace; sixth grade, Mary Frances Hawkins; seventh grade, Clara Burson; eighth grade, Emma Hughes; high school, mathematics, Mabel Dayton; Latin and German, Alwine Meyer; manual training, science and athletics, Mr. A. C. Lamb; domestic science and science, Margaret Kilian; music and drawing, Eva Graves; English and history, Mrs. M. A. Phillips, principal; history and civics, O. R. Bowen, Superintendent.

The first teachers' meeting of the year was held last Saturday at 3:00 o'clock p. m. It was largely devoted to getting acquainted and Mrs. O. R. Bowen assisted by Miss Virginia, delightfully surprised the teachers by serving light refreshments. Miss Pearl Sewell, county superintendent, was also a guest.

Miss Louise Bowe, a member of this year's junior class, who expects to leave the city, visited the high school yesterday. She will attend high school in Sioux City. Miss Louise was always a loyal and active member of her class and will be missed by students and teachers.

Teachers and students all sadly miss the late Paul Chipperfield who was a member of this year's sophomore class. Paul was a general favorite and gave promise of a bright future, and all regret his untimely end.

The high school boys begun football practice with Mr. Lamb as coach. A large number are taking an interest in the work this year.

This morning the Seniors gave the following impromptu program: A piano duet by Helena Baker and Nita Foster, a reading for the benefit of the Freshmen by Ralph Ingham, a vocal solo by Edith White, a talk on Athletics by Le Roy Owen, and a violin solo by Elizabeth Mines. In LeRoy's brief talk on athletics he mentioned the football game with Walthill to be played on the home gridiron, a week from Saturday. He expressed the wish that all high school students and all Wayne citizens be out to cheer the boys. A large number of the Alumni were present and everyone enjoyed a whistling solo by Ferne Oman. Mrs. Phillips invited the Alumni to take charge of the rhetorical program some Thursday morning. Before the classes passed everyone joined in giving the high school yell, "The Old Locomotive".

Dr. J. G. Green and family returned Tuesday from their visit with home folks in Iowa. While the family remained in Iowa, Mr. Green visited Chicago and New York, stopping a time in the central part of the state, and going to the city for a few days stay.

O. S. Whitney and wife from Coleridge are visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Ingham.

A Trip to Ohio

A. P. Gossard returned Tuesday evening from a visit to the home of his son Bert at Barberton, Ohio, and he is now trying to convince himself that it was not a dream. But then lets take the trip from the start. Where ever he passed through much bottom land there was evidence of damage by water—and in many places almost failure of crops. This he noticed along the Missouri in western Iowa between Sioux City and Onawa. The same was true of eastern Iowa (he traveled at night in the greater part of the state) only to the water damage in the eastern part of the state slight frost damage was added. Low lands in Michigan and northern Ohio also showed frost tracks. But no where did he see things looking better than right here at home, and for depth and richness of soil the states of Ohio, Michigan and much of Indiana are not in our class. In his opinion the east will have to depend on this section for much of its seed corn.

But he saw another picture—one showing what money and a system will do for a country that has been neglected and farmed without putting back on the soil what has been taken from it. He had opportunity while visiting his son to inspect much of the Barber farm methods, and he was astonished at the magnitude of his undertakings and accomplishments in the development of the worn-out lands. Mr. Barber, of course, had a fortune at his hand to do with, and he set to work to show possibilities, and he has made it a paying investment, too. He bought up more than 5,000 acres of land and went to work—or rather put men at work. He employs more than 700 men on his places, and has numerous superintendents who have charge of the different departments of the work. These men are housed and fed, the superintendents each in a good house, modern in all ways, and the single men or day laborers have elegant rooms in the different barns, all fitted with modern conveniences—bath, toilet, electric lights, library and reading and amusement rooms. The stock also have a most comfortable home, and everything is kept as clean as possible. All water, droppings and litter from the barns is carried to great concrete tanks in the basement, and the water piped out to his acres of green or hot houses to be used for fertilizing as needed. The other portions are hauled to the farm lands which need it worst. The barns are of brick and concrete, both of which are made by the owner of the farm and manufactured on the place. All buildings are of this substantial make.

He has a cow barn 900 feet long, and a herd of 700 cows, about half of which are being milked for the dairy which supplies milk and cream to many at Akron—milk at 10c a quart, cream at 50c. His cows are mostly Guernseys, and pure bred. He has a half section of the land which he is keeping for experimental purposes, to learn the possibilities of the man in agriculture. Here he has his duck farm, the buildings adjoining a lake made by dredging the channel of a stream. Here he had 15,000 of all ages, from those just hatched to the mature drake and duck. He has large incubating rooms and great incubators, with warm quarters in which to brood the little ones and keep them until they are of suitable age to turn to water or to market. He has 40 acres in chickens—chickens in 40 acres—white Leghorns, mostly, and a pretty sight they are.

He tried hogs, but a plague of some kind invaded the herd, and not only his but practically all herds in that part of the state, and he slaughtered and buried a bunch of 500 pure bred hogs and pigs. The quarters he had for them will be devoted to sheep soon.

Mr. Gossard traveled over the country by automobile for 30 miles or more in nearly every direction, and found that most of the farms were sadly neglected and going to ruin—buildings without paint, barns with the boards off, and when he asked why it was so the answer invariably was "that place is rented, and has been for years". The owners, the sturdy men who built the improvements, have retired and moved to some of the many towns to live, or the place left to heirs who had established in some line of business and did not think the farm—especially one of that kind—looked inviting.

Speaking of the people, he said there seemed to be two classes, the rich and the poor, with a sprinkling of those between who work and take care of what they earn. He visited some of the amusement places, and there noted the tendency of the wage earners to visit such places as soon as their day work was done and have a good time, apparently taking little or no thought of the coming winter. Mr Gossard said that to him the visit to the Barber farm was a better exhibit than he could find at one of our great state fairs.

E. P. Weatherby Passes Away

Judge E. P. Weatherby, for many years well known in north Nebraska as a prominent lawyer, as a leader in democratic politics and federal referee in bankruptcy ever since that office was created here, died at his home Saturday evening following a lingering illness of a year's duration says the News. He underwent an operation about a year ago and several months ago was confined to his bed. He later decided to move his law office from the Norfolk National bank building to his residence. A week ago he was in the city transacting business but last week he again became violently ill. Bowel and stomach trouble complications brought about his end. Funeral services were held by Rev. Father Blunt, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, at 2:30 Monday afternoon. Interment was made in Prospect Hill cemetery.

Judge Weatherby was born in Knox county, Ohio, sixty-nine years ago and moved to Iowa when he was a boy. He was attending the Hopkington, Iowa, preparatory school when the country was in need of soldiers. With other students he enlisted in a regiment commanded by his brother-in-law with whom he read law later at Dubuque. He was a graduate of Cornell college at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and when he came to Nebraska in the early days he became quickly identified with the democratic politics. He lived at Pierce, Stanton and Creighton before coming to Norfolk. It was in 1888 that Judge Weatherby became a democratic candidate for congress and was defeated by George W. E. Dorsey.

He came to Norfolk in 1890 and on September 3 of the same year he married Miss Gertrude Warrick at Creighton. He had been living in Norfolk about three months then and he brought his bride to Norfolk and has lived here ever since.

Social Notes

Mrs. Harvey Ringland entertained at Kensington last Friday afternoon in honor of her niece, Miss Helen Northrop of Washington, D. C. The rooms were very prettily decorated in garden flowers. Mrs. Anna Gamble Johnson, Mrs. T. T. Jones, and Mrs. Ebert sang several delightful selections. The amusing feature of the afternoon was a contest to see who could select the most complete fall outfit for a given sum, from a list of styles. Mrs. T. T. Jones won the prize—a traveling case. A delicious two-course luncheon was served at 5:30. Miss Carrol Merritt of Wakefield and Miss Fiedler of Minneapolis were out-of-town guests.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Fanske entertained the Early Hour club last Friday evening, complimentary to their guests, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, of Jewel, Iowa. The rooms were beautifully decorated in garden flowers. The evening was spent in playing "500". A delicious lunch was served at the close of the evening.

The Bible Study Circle had an enthusiastic meeting led by Miss White at Mrs. Corzine's Tuesday afternoon. An after meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Philben. The women will meet with Mrs. Bracken next week and all are invited.

The Pleasant Valley Club will meet with Mrs. Eric Thompson on Thursday, September 16th.

A Double Wedding

Early Wednesday morning, September 8th, 1915, there occurred a double wedding at the Baptist parsonage. The contracting parties were Edward Rennie and Miss Zora Patterson of Pilger, and O. E. Milburn of Kansas and Miss Edith Rennie of Pilger. Both couples were married at the same time, the pastor using the simple ring ceremony. They came from Pilger in an auto, and left immediately after the ceremony for Omaha, by train. Mr. and Mrs. Rennie expect to spend some days visiting at Omaha and Lincoln, before returning to their home at Pilger. Mr. and Mrs. Milburn, after a few days of travel, will go to their new home in southern Colorado.

Lee Wells and Leonard Shurtliff from Sioux City are here visiting at the home of L. A. Fanske and wife, Mr. Wells' sister. The young men started to "hike" across country, and walked as far as Emerson when C. A. Grothe came along with a car and took them in.

George Stringer came this morning from his home at Wrenshall, Minnesota, to visit Wayne relatives and friends a few days. He reports a good season on his farm there.

F. M. Griffith returned Saturday from a visit of two weeks near Gregory, South Dakota, where he has land. He says that crops there have been good in small grain and the corn prospect is good, if the frost will give them a bit more time.

Jack Hyatt and wife, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Mr. Cooper and his daughter from Iowa, who have been visiting here, left last week to visit at the home of their son at Onawa, Iowa, a time before their visitors return to their home near Davenport.

Miss Fannie Britell went to Bloomfield Saturday to resume teaching in the city schools of that place.

Let us show you the Bradley Sweaters before you buy. For men, women and children. Gamble & Senter.—adv.

Elmer Reppert left Friday to visit home folks at West Point and spend a week or two of vacation before going to work again. He has been assisting county officials with extra work at the court house.

Miss Edna DeLaney from Emerson came last week to take the place as collector for the Nebraska Telephone Company, made vacant by the resignation of Ethel Lutz, who leaves this week for Bismarck, North Dakota, for an indefinite stay at the home of a sister at that place.

Walter McGregor, who has been spending the vacation here visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Wm. Rennick, and assisting at the Craven hardware, left Monday to visit a sister at St. Edwards for a few days before returning to his studies at Lincoln, where he is studying dentistry.

LeRoy Owen returned home Saturday evening to begin his school work at the Wayne high school where he is one of the senior class. He spent six or eight weeks at a summer school at Cluver, Indiana, and stopped to visit relatives and friends at Chicago and Milwaukee two weeks on the way home.

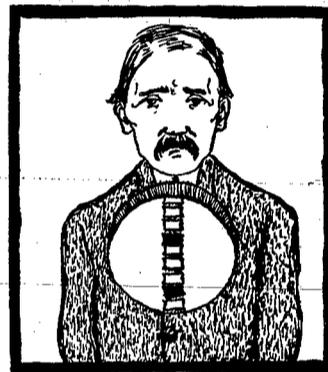

Mrs. H. G. Thompson returned home Friday evening from a visit of two weeks with relatives at Lyons. Her daughter Opal, who has been spending part of the summer there came with her mother to be ready for school. Their son Orville, who has been visiting at Marcus, Iowa is also home for school.

H. Hansen came over from Cushing, Iowa, Saturday to visit relatives and friends here a few days. He formerly lived here. Nick Hansen, who had been spending several months at Correctionville, Iowa, returned to his Wayne home with him. They report crop conditions in that part of Iowa much the same as they appear here.

John Larison tells the agricultural editor of the Democrat that he has threshed his rye and got a return of 500 bushels of the grain besides having the finest spring pasture from long before the grass came until the middle of May. He thinks it one of the best paying crops he ever grew, because it made a splendid feed just when stock needed it to thrive best.

Henry Westphal and wife from Iowa, came last week to visit at the home of his comrade of other days, Dick Hansen, with whom he soldiered in the war with France more than 40 years ago. From here they went to Norfolk to attend the annual meeting of the Kriegesbund for the western district, Sunday and Monday. They returned here to visit at the home of Carl Frevert and wife, their niece and with Hans J. Hansen.

W. F. Ramsey blew in from Lincoln the other day, where he has been most of the summer looking after his health, or having some one look after it for him, having been making headquarters at a hospital. He is feeling quite himself now, and appears to be enjoying his visit here. He reports that he was able to attend and enjoy much of the Assembly there last month.

The shrinkage in estimate of the Kansas wheat crop shows how little drouth is the sole enemy to big crops. The Kansas wheat crop looked in May like 138,700,000 bushels. A wet June brought the prospect down to 115,700,000 in July. A wet July and August makes the crop estimate a matter of less than 100,000,000 bushels, only about two-thirds the great crop of last year. Nebraska, too, has suffered in its wheat crop from too much rain. If the frost is willing, the corn will in large measure make up for the damage to wheat. Let the frost come prematurely and the year's total harvest will be less in value than in some drouth years.—State Journal.

Quite a delegation from Wayne went to Norfolk last week to attend the annual meeting of the Kriegesbund. Among them we noticed Chris Sydow and wife, Henry Lessman and wife, H. Meyer and wife, Wm. Dammeyer and wife. They report a splendid time. This is an organization of German veterans and they perhaps might be compared to the G. A. R. should any considerable number of our soldiers settle in a foreign land and wish to keep in touch with their companions of other days. Many of them wore medals, and all the little buttons, which tells so much to one of the members. We asked Mr. Chris Sydow the significance of some of his medals and learned that he was entitled to wear one because of the part he took in storming a fort in Denmark, April 18, 1864. He also wore a gold medal won as a token of four years active service in the German army. Lincoln was named as the next place of meeting, and the following officers were elected: President, Ernest Koenig, Omaha; First vice president, George Hoffman, Iowa; Second vice president, William Pepper, Grand Island; secretary, Max George, Falls City; financial secretary, William F. Voss, Norfolk; treasurer, John F. Holst, Denison, Iowa.

I wish to impress upon mothers that the early care of the child's teeth may prevent a great deal of suffering, and have an important effect upon his health later in life.

Many children of well-to-do people, are suffering from semi-starvation on account of faulty mastication caused by decayed and tender teeth.

This is one part of the body you have control of, and it is for you to decide whether your child shall have good or poor teeth.

WAYNE'S OPPORTUNITY HERE

Last Week a Suggestion Came to The Democrat That Now is Opportunity to Secure Big Meeting

Last month the encampment of a regiment of Nebraska National Guards was held at Fremont, and brought about 1500 men to the city for a week, and every man with a salary paid, and they furnished an entertainment which attracted thousands of visitors. It was suggested that Wayne enter the race and secure the next annual encampment here. It will bring with it a regiment of militia, a hospital corps (and we want a hospital), a signal corps and a number of the best airships made, and their daily flights show all of the manouvers capable of being made in the air except some dare-devil stunts which no one could witness without a shudder—and which few would care to see. Why not get into the race, and do it now?

Concord people entertained a large number of people at that place last week when the Dixon county fair was on. They had a very good showing of stock and farm products. Their races were not professional, but were good. An automobile race resulted in a serious accident, but as the men were not killed when their car blew up and left the track Concord did not get put on the map as it would have been had the accident proved fatal. It really seems as though an automobile race has less attraction for the spectator than almost any other race that could be started. In a big race the cars go streaking by you until you cannot distinguish one from the other, and unless some one is hurt one cannot see where the sport comes in.

I. C. Trumbauer, who with his wife and son returned Saturday from a visit at Grand Island, tells of the sights at that great horse market, the second largest in the world. Mondays are the big sale days, and he was not there until Wednesday, when they were disposing of what was left over from the Monday sale. These were not the best of the offering and many mares and colts and a few that were crippled in shipment were among the lots sold. There were representatives of the European warring governments there, but they were not buyers to any great extent of the offering of that day, for but few of the animals came up to the measurements required for army service. As reported they sold about 6,000 horses and colts there that morning, so one may know that they didn't move very slowly. They were sorted or graded and put into the ring in bunches of from 40 or 50 head, and all of one bunch of practically the same class. The bidding was quick and decisive, and a bunch was sold in a very few moments. Prices were low on this class of animals, the culls from Monday sale, and they were knocked down on bids ranging from as low as $10 and up to $25 or $30 each. Grand Island is a center for gathering the western horses from the countless horse ranches of the great west, and he says that one must see them move through the ring to get any idea of the extent of the business. Great barns and corrals are devoted to the traffic now, but the demand is for more room, and new barns are now under construction which will double the present capacity for handling horses.

How about your subscription.

Extract From Congressional Record

(By Clyde H. Tavener)

The increase in the cost of our Army and Navy in the last 20 years is enough to stagger the imagination and bewilder the senses. The cost of our Army and Navy is greater in proportion to its size than that of any other nation on earth. The increase in cost is absolutely abnormal when considered in proportion to the increase in our population, or the increase in wealth, or when considered with the increased cost of preparation for war in other countries in time of peace. In this connection it is legitimate to ask to what extent the awful increase in cost is due to the systematic agitating of the possibility of war by those who profit financially from the ever-increasing expenditures of the military branches of our Government.

In the last 30 years our population has increased 85 per cent., our wealth 185 per cent., and our expenditures 400 per cent.

During the 15 years prior to the Spanish-American War our annual appropriations for the Navy ranged from $14,000,000 to $30,000,000, and for the Army less than $25,000,000, averaging for both less than $50,000,000.

In 1883 our appropriation for the Navy was $14,903,559; in 1890, approximately $20,000,000; in 1914, $140,000,000! Our appropriations for the Army and Navy combined for the ensuing year will be in the neighborhood of $240,000,000.

During the year 1912 our entire revenue, not including postal receipts, amounted to $702,000,000. Of this we expended $654,000,000, to defray the entire expense of the government; $444,000,000, or 67.88 per cent., was paid out for war and on account of war. Just before the outbreak of the present European war Germany was spending 55 per cent of her revenues for war and on account of war; Japan, 45 per cent; Great Britain, 37 per cent; and France, 35 per cent.

Our Army contained 91,416 men; navy 52,757 men. German Army, during the year indicated, contained 870,000 men; navy, 66,783 men. Japan; army, 250,000 men; navy, 51,054 men, with a reserve naval force of 114,000 men. Great Britain; army, 254,500 men; navy, 137,500 men. France; army, 720,000 men; navy, 60,621 men.

Great Britain's revenue was greater than ours by nearly $300,000,000, but our expenses for war and on account of war was more than $100,000,000 greater than hers. Yet, the aggregate of her army and navy was nearly four times as great as ours.

Germany's revenue exceeded ours by $60,000,000, but our expenditures for war and on account of war exceed hers by more than $50,000,000, yet her army is more than eight times as large as ours.

The revenue of France is more than $233,000,000 greater than ours, but our expense for war and on account of wars is more than three and one-half times that of hers.

Although our revenue is nearly two and one-half times that of Japan, yet her army is nearly three times as large as ours with a naval force nearly four times the size of ours, yet our expenses for war and on account of wars is more than three and one-half times that of hers.

Probate Notice to Creditors

In the County Court of Wayne county, Nebraska.

In the matter of the estate of Mandana Conley, deceased.

Notice is hereby given, that the creditors of said deceased will meet the executor of said estate, before me, County Judge, of Wayne county, Nebraska, at the County Court Room in said county, on the 1st day of October, 1915, and on the 1st day of April, 1916, at 10 o'clock a. m., each day, for the purpose of presenting their claims for examination, adjustment and allowance. Six months are allowed for creditors to present their claims and one year for the executor to settle said estate, from the 1st day of October, 1915. This notice will be published in the Nebraska Democrat for four weeks successively prior to the 1st day of October, 1915.

Witness my hand and seal of said court, this 26th day of August, 1915.

JAMES BRITTON, (Seal) 35-4 County Judge.

The Geological Survey's annual statement on the cement industry for 1914 is now being distributed. During the year 87,257,552 barrels of the principal hydraulic cements were produced, with a value of $80,553,203. The map accompanying the report shows the distribution of the principal cement plants and outlines the Portland cement commercial districts.

Lincoln Letter

Chas. A. Williams, special agent of the Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, with headquarters in Washington, D. C., has just begun an examination of the state house records. His quest is to secure accurate data regarding the state's income and expenditures from every source and for all purposes. The government classification of income alone has 108 divisions and subdivisions, designed to cover every possible receipt of money or property by the state, and the disbursement classification is equally comprehensive.

According to the tabulated statement made by Secretary Bernecker of the state board of equalization, the cost of assessing the state of Nebraska as certified by the several county assessors is $214,822.03, with Scotts Bluff and Grant counties to hear from. This is the first time in the history of the state that the cost of assessing has been known.

THE STATE AUDITOR

State Auditor Wm. H. Smith, says the Lincoln Daily Star, believes that campaign pledges of economy and efficiency meant something, has just given a forceful demonstration of what can be accomplished in that direction when an officer and his assistants set out to do their work as conscientiously as they would in a private business. Announcement was made by Mr. Smith Wednesday that every county treasury in Nebraska, ninety-three in number, has been examined once this year, in a little less than eight month's time. The last examination was completed at Pawnee City on Tuesday, so that the month of September starts with a clean slate.

For a number of years Mr. Smith's predecessors in the state auditor's office have been asking the legislature to give the department another examiner, claiming that two could not do the work. Formerly the examiners did not attempt to examine all county treasuries each year, but during the 1913-14 biennium Auditor Howard's examiners succeeded in getting over the whole state. Now the state auditor's office goes the Howard administration one better by finishing the job in seven months and three weeks. Auditor Smith will immediately start one of his examiners, J. K. Mahoney, to make another check on some of the treasuries, but not in the same order as before. Examiner F. A. Stech will take a two week's vacation and then resume his work, Mr. Mahoney has already had his vacation.

The two examiners were helped by State Accountant DeFrance, who checked over the accounts of three county treasuries. Besides doing this and performing his regular duties, Mr. DeFrance has also examined nine out of twelve companies doing business in Nebraska and will get around to the others before long. It was formerly the custom to hire an extra man for this work.

Probate Notice to Creditors

In the County Court of Wayne county, Nebraska.

In the matter of the estate of Wallace E. Graves, deceased.

Notice is hereby given, that the creditors of the said deceased will meet the administrator of said estate, before me, County Judge of Wayne county, Nebraska, at the County Court Room in said county, on the 24th day of September, 1915, and on the 24th day of March, 1916, at 10 o'clock a. m., each day, for the purpose of presenting their claims for examination, adjustment and allowance. Six months are allowed for creditors to present their claims and one year for the administrator to settle said estate, from the 24th day of September, 1915. This notice will be published in the Nebraska Democrat for four weeks successively prior to the 24th day of September, 1915.

Witness my hand and seal of said court, this 21st day of August, A. D., 1915.

My Mother—A Prayer

(By Tom Dillon, of Seattle.)

For the body you gave me, the bone and the sinew, the heart and the brain that are yours, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the light in my eyes, the blood in my veins, for my speech, for my life, for my being. All that I am is from you who bore me.

For all the love that you gave me, unmeasured from the beginning, I thank you. I thank you for the hand that led me, the voice that directed me, the breast that nestled me, the arm that shielded me, the lap that rested me. All that I am is by you who nursed me.

For your smile in the morning and your kiss at night, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the years you shed over me, the songs that you sung to me, the prayers you said for me, for your virgils and ministrings. All that I am is by you, who reared me.

For the faith you had in me, the hope you had for me, for your trust and your pride, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for your praise and your chiding, for the justice you bred to me, and the honor you made me. All that I am you taught me.

For the sore travail I caused you, for the visions and despairs, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me the peril I brought you to, the sobs and the moans I wrung from you, and for the strength I took from you, mother, forgive me. Forgive me the joys I deprived you, the toils I made for you, for the hours, the days, and the years I claimed from you, mother, forgive me.

For the times that I hurt you, the time I had no smile for you, the caresses I did not give you, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me for my anger and revolts, for my deceptions and evasions, for all the pangs and sorrows I brought to you, mother, forgive me.

For your lessons I did not learn, for your wishes that I did not heed, for the councils I did not obey, my mother, forgive me. Forgive my pride in my youth and my glory in my strength that forgot the holiness of your years and the veneration of your weakness, for my neglect, for my selfishness, for all the great debt of your love that I have not paid, mother, sweet mother, forgive me.

And may the peace and the joy that passeth all understanding be yours, my mother, forever and ever. Amen.

PUBLIC SALE Of Real Estate

In order to close the estate of Anna A. Johnson, deceased, we will sell at public auction on the premises, on

Tuesday, Sept. 28

At 1 p. m., the following described real estate, being 320 acres, the east one-half of section 7, township 27, range 4, situated six miles north and one mile east of Wayne, seat of Nebraska State Normal, and three miles south of Concord, in Dixon county.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

The main improvements consist of a house with fourteen rooms; barn 45x48, capable of housing twenty head of horses; tool house 16x20; chicken house 24x18; two hog houses, one 50x16, one 20x24; large cattle shed; two machine sheds; double corn crib; one corn crib 10x32; also several other small buildings.

There is an excellent well on this place, with windmill, tanks and supply tank in connection. The orchard consists of bearing fruit trees of all kinds. Nearby the orchard is a vineyard. A good grove affords protection and plenty of wood. Land fenced and cross fenced with barb and hog wire.

This land lies with a north slope, and has always grown big crops, and is considered one of northeast Nebraska's best farms. This sale affords an opportunity for men of limited means to acquire a quarter section apiece, for the land will be sold in a body or divided in half to suit purchasers.

Terms:-- $3,000 to be paid down on date of sale on the 320 acres, or $1,500 down on each quarter; balance over and above a loan of $12,000, running at five and one-half per cent, and due October 23, 1923, will be payable March 1st, 1916.

For further description of the property or explanation of the terms, apply to the undersigned at the Citizens' National Bank, Wayne, Nebr.

Miss Ruby Hughes left for Grand Island Tuesday, where she will enter the Baptist college for the school year.

At Pierce they are putting in new fixtures to bring the postoffice equipment up to meet the need of the office.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bastian left Tuesday to visit for two or three weeks with their sons near Chance, South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Theobald went to Lincoln Wednesday morning to visit his brothers there and attend the fair.

Yes, the Arabic was torpedoed, but not the Gothic—the new Arrow collar. It will positively arrive at Morgan's Toggery within the next week.—adv.

Chas. Ash and Henry Mier went to Lincoln Wednesday to attend the State Fair, and they threatened to stop off at Omaha and hear the big preacher.

Misses Frances and Fern Oman returned Wednesday morning from a vacation trip, on which they visited at Harrison in this state, and Van Tassel in Wyoming.

Mrs. S. R. Theobald went to Omaha Sunday to meet her daughter, Miss Monte, there for a few hours as the young lady was on her way from the University of Chicago to her school work at San Antonio, Texas, as time did not permit her to again visit Wayne.

You'll be surprised to learn what elegant suits I can make for you at $20.00. Frank S. Morgan.—adv.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. R. Ellis. A large attendance is desired.

"Wayne lost her monument works", is the way the Randolph Times puts it, but then we are such a live bunch down here that the "monument works" was little needed.

The Pierce firemen were given a feast last week—an annual event, we judge—and fried chicken is the leading line on the bill of fare. Not so bad to be a fireman at such a time as that.

The last of this month and the first of next the Norfolk people are planning on a great festival. It is their program to have a Cowboy and Cowgirl show—and give over three days to amusements.

Geo. Crossland and wife went to Omaha Tuesday to attend the wedding of the lady's sister, Miss Charlotte Schonlou. They also expect to hear the famous evangelist, Wm. Sunday, before they return.

Fredrick Heffner from Coleridge stopped here Tuesday to visit at the home of Mrs. S. A. Iekler while on his way to Sidney, where he is attending a Lutheran theological school and fitting himself for the ministry.

On page 561 of Montgomery Ward's catalogue No. 84, U. M. C. 22 short Lesmoke cartridges (No. 60B1024) are fifteen cents per box. Well you can buy them of us at that price and save ALL THE FREIGHT. Carhart's.—adv.

J. S. Carhart was at Mapleton, Iowa, last week on a business mission. He was owner of a hospital at that place, and traded it for a farm near the town, as he could better manage the farm there while living here.

James Carhart and his daughter, Mrs. Cameron, and her little son from Mapleton, Iowa, stopped here Monday night to visit at the home of his brother, J. S. Carhart, and with his nephews, while returning from a visit west of Wayne.

Paul Young came last week from Fremont and after a short visit at the home of his parents will go to University Place and take up the study at Wesleyan. He says that Ensign is assisting with the music in evangelistic meetings at some place in Indiana.

The teachers of northeastern Nebraska will meet at Emerson October 9th in their annual convention. County Superintendent Pearl Sewell was at a meeting of the superintendents from five or six counties which make up the district, Tuesday when the time for the meet was fixed and plans started to perfect a program.

W. H. Morris returned the last of last week from his trip in the east. He spent considerable time shopping for the Orr & Morris Co., at Chicago, then visited in the farming districts of central New York and from there went to the city of New York to see the latest in merchandise of the lines they handle here. Three days in the city, he said, did not qualify him to say much about the place except to learn that it is some town.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brannister left Tuesday to visit at the home of T. C. Thompson and wife, his sister, at Gordon. They stop at Tilden where they are joined by his mother who will also visit there with them.

C. N. Derry, the Reliable Rug Man of Des Moines, will be at Wayne about October 1st to gather material for rugs. Save your old carpets, old rags, burlap sacks—any and all otherwise worthless cloth material and have it made into rugs. If you wish him to call, you may leave word at the Democrat-Phone 145—adv. 35-4.

The Walthill Times has it figured out that there is a grade crossing over the Burlington near that place where but two seconds of time intervene after the occupants of an automobile could see an approaching engine until both would be at the crossing, if traveling at their usual speed. That means a mighty short prayer for sure.

Word reaches the Monitor from Center that Fred H. Free, of Plainview, has recently filed suit against the saloon keepers of Bloomfield for $15,000 for the death of Fritz Klopp who recently suicided. We understand that he has also filed papers setting forth the fact that he is to get one-half of the sum in case he wins the suit.—Bloomfield-Monitor.

We are not "knocking" on catalogue houses, they have their useful place in the business world the same as we have. We are only trying to show you that on the same terms, we furnish you the same service, the same goods, and at a saving in price to you. In other words, we want that cash in advance trade that is going away from Wayne. Carhart's.—adv.

C. R. Chinn was over from Wakefield Tuesday visiting Wayne friends. The last of this week he goes to Lincoln where he is to teach the coming year at the Military Academy of that place. He returned last spring from the Columbia University where he finished a course of study which places him in the list of young men qualified to instruct others in many lines.

The Farmers' Union elevator is a sure thing now at Allen. Sixty shares at $100 per share were purchased by the members of the union, making a total paid up capital of $6,000. They are trying to purchase one of the local elevators, but if they cannot secure one at a satisfactory price they will put up a new building. Besides handling grain they will sell flour and feed.

Wm. Benschhof and wife, who have been visiting in this part of Nebraska since last spring, leave today for Van Tassel, Wyoming, on their way to their California home, after a short stop at the home of their son Perry Benschhof there. They have greatly enjoyed their visit here, and celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage while here among the friend made during the last half of their married life.

Volume 1, No. 1, of the Dixon County Advocate is at hand, and Anna Hunt, H. B. Surtevant are the captains of the enterprise—by lease. The paper is neat and newsy, but not burdened with advertising. It is circulating four pages of patent with four pages of home matter, and thus it seems competing with itself in the foreign advertising field. But we presume they never would have had an advertisement for an explosive to blow the stumps out of this great prairie state of Nebraska any other way. The home part of the paper is all right, but we fail to see the need of a patent with the dailies of a great city at their door, carrying all the news of a patent sheet to their readers from a week to ten days ahead of the home paper. The newspaper men of this country, many of them, have traveled in the patent rut so long that they appear unable to get out or even stay out when starting a business.

Miss Viola Will returned Thursday from a visit of six or eight weeks at the home of her brother, W. F. Will in Wyoming, and with himself and wife on camping trips in the mountains. Mr. Will is one of the head rangers in the government employ, and was called out for a great forest fire which raged for more than two weeks before it was under control. Miss Will says that she enjoyed the visit, the trips to the mountains and the delightfully cool weather. She was caught out in a snow storm in July while out with her brother on one of his trips. They were always in sight of the perpetual snow, and visited places where they could pluck mountain flowers with one hand and gather a snowball with the other, the flowers grow so close to the melting snow. The columbine was the flower that she thought the most beautiful, and she sent a fine bunch of them home.

J. W. Malholm and wife came up from Burkett Saturday morning and visited until Monday with relatives and friends here. They then left to visit at the home of their daughter, at Chamberlain, South Dakota, after which they will return for a short stay here before returning to their Burkett home. They were accompanied from here by their daughter, Mrs. J. D. Lueers, who will see for the first time some of the farm lands they own in that state. Mr. Malholm attended the regular meeting of the G. A. R. post while here, but was not here in time to attend the funeral of his old comrade, Albert Anson.

Dr. E. B. Erskine recently received a letter from Dr. F. C. Zoll in which he states that he has decided upon a place near a small town in Marion county, Florida, 16 miles from Ocala, the county seat of the county. He wrote from Gainesville, and said his farm will consist of a quarter section of land that is fertile, judging by adjoining farm crops. They can and do raise two or three crops per year from the same land, oats, corn and velvet beans, all great crops for stock feed, and have an acre value of $50 or more. He had been traveling for a month at the time he wrote, and had not received much news from Wayne. He asked very kindly about our county attorney and others—said he had not seen a Wayne paper for a long time. Speaking of the weather, he said "it is hot here, but no hotter than at Wayne or in Missouri. It is now the rainy season and rains daily." He thinks he will like it there, in fact has his mind made up to like it, so that will settle it. We are going to send him a bunch of Democrats just to let him know about the paying and electorials and the coming wild west show, and so that he may know that Sam Davies and Kip are both in a state of single blessedness yet.

Elizabeth Roberts (Grandma Roberts) who was taken ill a short time ago as she came to her Wayne home, was taken to Council Bluffs, Iowa, Saturday by her son David Roberts, who came for her. She is quite old and the nature of her complaint and her age make recovery very improbable, though she may improve and be about for considerable time. She has numerous friends here who wish for her recovery.

M. T. Munsinger and family returned the first of the week from a trip by automobile to their former homes at Tabor and Malvern, Iowa, where they visited several days and attended the Mills county old settler picnic at Malvern, where they saw most of the people they had ever known in those parts, and some strangers. Mr. Munsinger says that he believes that Wayne county corn is as far advanced as that in that part of Iowa—and that is in the banner corn land of Iowa. He thinks there is a good corn crop prospect, and says it has developed wonderfully the past ten days.

There is an ad in this issue of the paper which to our mind should appeal mightily forcibly to some one—to several some ones—and in our own interest we suggest that you go through the paper until you find that ad and then act! Read every word carefully, and then you will know THE ONE when you find it, and it will be compelling in its common sense appeal to you.

Rev. J. W. Karpenstein from Hastings stopped off Tuesday to spend a day with his many Wayne friends, while returning from a meeting at Ponca, where in connection with their annual mission fest the congregation had celebrated their 25th anniversary of the founding of their church at that place. He reports a splendid meeting. Mr. Karpenstein informed us that they will shortly move to Oregon where he has work. Before he goes he will participate in the dedication of a new church building at Hastings, built since he became pastor of the church there.

Sunday is not the only drawing card at Omaha this week, we are told. A bunch of pickpockets are said to be operating there, drawing purses from the pockets of the unsuspecting.

This, by the Knoxville (Iowa) Express, seems to completely fit Ex-President Roosevelt's case: "Teddy sees plenty of things that Wilson ought to do right away, but when Teddy was in the white house he didn't do 'em."

England sent a ship with $30,000,000 of gold to strengthen their credit in this country, due to arrive the first of the week, and when it was a day overdue there appeared to be more anxiety about it than an overdue passenger liner.

The next Nebraska primary comes on Friday, April 21, 1916, and those who are afraid to start something on that day of the week had best decline right now to be receptive candidates, for there will be plenty who do not care whether it is Friday or some other day, just so they get the office.

Judged by the cost on a peace footing there is no ground for this talk that our army and navy is not equal to the best. If we are unprepared for war it is not for the want of money spent for keeping prepared. Read extracts from Congressional Record and answer the question if you can, "What has become of the money if we are not prepared?"

W. J. Bryan and Henry Volmer of Iowa spoke from the same platform at Chicago Monday, but did not talk alike. Volmer is reported to have attacked the administration for permitting the shipment of arms and munitions of war to the allies. Volmer and Bryan were both cheered by the audience which composed of members of "The Friends of Peace" society. The ex-secretary in speaking of the President said "I want you to be thankful that this country's president loves peace and is trying with every means at his disposal, to preserve our country's peace."

A movement has been launched by President Wilson's friends, says the daily press, to nominate him for a second term, and they add that Wilson has nothing to do with it. There is where they are mistaken. The President has much to do with it, for he has so conducted the affairs of state that the politicians have nothing to do with it but bow to the will of the people, and that appears to be in favor of re-electing this man by a large majority. He is making good at every turn, and we hope that he continues to do so until all of the professional politicians fight him. We love him for the enemies he has made.

FREE PUBLICITY WANTED

The Democrat is glad to note the awakening of some of the newspaper men of this part of the state to a realization of the importance of publicity to a vast number of amusement gatherings, worthy of patronage and deserving too. But that is no reason why the editor should devote column after column of good space to tooting their horn for nothing. The last issue of the Bloomfield Monitor pays its respects to the Nebraska State Fair. The Monitor, in common with many other papers, has done good work in extending publicity for the fair, and has received its reward—$2.00 for a little space adv., and a non-transferable ticket for himself and lady to the attractions, which it is impossible for them to attend. He could not even honorably send another member of the force or a friend.

The expositions on the western coast have asked for pages of free publicity and received much. The Inter-State fair at Sioux City also asked for a page, and is getting it in some of our exchanges. The Iowa State fair has followed that practice in Iowa for years. It is a graft worked on the country press many years—and it is not right.

The Democrat has in the past been as generous as the average paper in this respect, but a new rule is being applied this season. Such enterprises as are legitimate may buy as much space as they care to use at regular advertising rates and we will give such local or editorial mention as we think necessary in order that our readers may know time, place and nature of the attractions. And we propose to give more to the home entertainment than to the one which is inviting Wayne county people to go to some city where it costs more and is often less enjoyable. If the newspaper men would unite on some fair rule of withholding free advertising from this class of space grafting it would be money in their pocket, and their readers would at the same time be kept posted so that they need not miss a show if they cared to go. We suggest that Bro. Needham call a meeting for that purpose.

ity to attend, and it should be made worthy of our patronage and co-operation. Our own state fair is a day travel each way and cannot lock for a large attendance from this part of the state—yet it is a splendid fair.

Chester A. Aldrich has his cady in the ring—a candidate for the republican nomination for United States senator. His announcement assails the democratic party as incompetent to handle the affairs of state. He says the tariff will be the issue and that the people should return the republicans to power for their demonstrated ability to handle the affairs of government, without even so much as admitting that there might be an honest difference of opinion regarding the matter. If we remember right, when a few of this state there were a few loose odds and ends neglected by this same C. A. Aldrich while he strutted about in the east firing political speeches at the people.

What shall we do with our financiers? It is not many years ago that they were short of gold or had it hidden in their strong-boxes to make it scarce for others—now it is plentiful, they tell us—so much in evidence that they do not know that they will be able to corner it, and if they can not corner the yellow dust we might as well demontize it and let the law of supply and demand fix the price. Perhaps it would be better just now to make a diamond standard and let it be the single standard. Of the shipment of about $66,000,000 just received, about seven-eighths of it, which was coined into pounds sterling, is to be taken to the mint and melted and run into bars again.

Did Not Oppose Arms Shipment

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Although speaker after speaker declared against the shipment from America to European belligerents of war munitions and criticised the attitude of the administration toward the matter, the friends of Peace made no formal declaration in

Have Hospital Plan

It has long been the opinion of many of our people that a hospital in Randolph would not only be a good thing for those who are ill or injured by accident, but would be a help to the town in other ways—make Randolph a still more desirable place to live. The Times has voiced this opinion in the past and can now announce that a definite proposition will likely be made before long for the establishment of a hospital.

Mother Gertrude and her head nurse from St. Vincent's hospital, Sioux City, were in Randolph over Sunday and meeting with Randolph physicians and others interested, the hospital matter was gone over very carefully. The conclusion reached was that the sentiment of the people was for or against a hospital be obtained. To do this it was thought best to solicit shares for a stock company, the company to purchase and own a suitable property already built or to erect a new building for the purpose. The question was put to the visiting sisters, that if such a building be provided would they assume its management. The answer was, yes. There is the proposition.

A ten room hospital is deemed sufficient for present needs. Such an institution would need three regular nurses and two or three helpers. The hospital would be used by any of our physicians, or if necessary by any surgeon from the city. There is every assurance that a ten room hospital could be kept filled and it could pay its own way, after establishment, and make enough to pay dividends on the stock.

Patients can be cared for in the home town at less cost than in the city. The expense of railway fare for relatives to visit the patient is eliminated, the matter of less costs of the visits of the physician as between the hospital in town and the sick room in the country is also an item. Besides this there is the great advantage of quick action. Very likely the lives of many people in this vicinity could have been saved had the hospital advantages been at their door instead of 50 to 100 miles away. There are plenty

Numerous articles are now appearing in the papers of the country telling of the need of a standing army and a larger navy. The most sane ones we have seen are those urging this country to pattern after the Swiss republic, if we must have a standing army, and make one that will stand, and be self-perpetuating. In Switzerland every citizen between certain ages is a soldier if his country need him, and he is like the minute men of revolutionary times, always subject to instant summons to the field. Each man has equipment at his home, where he is obliged to keep it in the best of condition for use. Beginning at school age he gets training in military drill, and on until he has given a certain amount of his time he must drill and practice target shooting. But the time required is not excessive and is but a few weeks in all, scattered over several years of the state. But it means a nation of well-trained soldiers, always ready. When the present war broke out, and it was feared that Switzerland might share the fate of Belgium, this little nation amassed an army of 300,000 fully equipped men on the border within a few hours—and all must go when called—there are no pets to be left at home, and position is based on merit. This little republic also has another good thing which we should copy, for they have no copyright on their plan of proportional representation. This is one of the little fixin's that properly go in a country that has the latest and best in government ideas.

favor of an embargo. Instead it adopted a resolution containing the following statement of principles as an expression of the purpose of the organization: "That the majority of Americans are opposed to war except for national defense. "That the time has come to discard war, the greatest relic of barbarism. "That war will cease when enlightened men and women bind themselves together to prevent unnecessary armament. "That there should be freedom of the sea and that the United States should contribute to this result by insisting that American commerce in no contraband goods with belligerents be unmolested. "That the manufacture of death dealing implements should not be for profit, but solely for national defense.

Against Foreign Loans "That foreign loans to finance war enterprises is subversive of peace, and that such actions involve the financial interests of our people with the declining fortunes of belligerent nations. "That in view of all these things the Friends of Peace pledge themselves to work, to counteract teachings of false morality regarding warfare, expose hypocritical phrases to encourage the war spirit, and to eliminate from public life every politician and every false teacher playing upon the prejudice of the unthinking, while secretly serving the manufacture of arms and armament."

of men of means who can and should give the proposition a financial lift.—Randolph Times.

The farmers who were elected to state offices by the people last year conceived the unusual plan of letting the grass on the state house lawn grow to maturity without cutting. Along in June, or maybe it was July, anyway, when the luscious blue grass, white and red clover and dandelions had reached maturity, the state officials, led by Secretary of State Charley Poole, put on their sun bonnets and went out in the garden to rake hay all the same as Maude did. They had lots of fun poked at them and the farm-like appearance of the state grounds was criticised, but in due time the hay was shocked up, and after going through the sweat was hauled away to provide sustenance for four footed animals. The wisdom of this Solomon-like procedure is now seen. The turf had been constantly dug up to get the dandelions and then closely mowed of grass each year had well nigh lost its claim to being a grass lawn. By maturing the grass and protecting its tender roots by the sheltering leaves that grew above it, a new growth of grass resulted and the state house now boasts of one of the finest lawns in Lincoln. It was the natural and rational way to treat the lawn and it will look fine until winter deadens the grass.—Albion Angus.

Methodist Church
(Rev. A. S. Biell Pastor)
The subject for next Sunday morning is "Automatic Christians".
The evening message at 8 o'clock will be "The American Liquor Crime".
Last Sunday at the close of the Communion service several new members were taken into the church and there are several others to be received next Sunday. At the Devotional meeting of the Epworth League Sunday evening plans were discussed to improve the work of the league for the coming year. A business meeting was held in the League room at the church on Tuesday evening to work out the details of the plans. The League meets every Sunday evening now at 7 o'clock. The devotional meetings are splendid and you are invited to come and worship with us. Reception to college students September 24th.

On last Friday evening the ice cream parlors of W. L. Fisher were crowded with about fifty children and their teachers, together with their pastor and his wife, from the Methodist Sunday school. The occasion being a treat at the expense of the Sunday school superintendent, Bro. Wm. Beckenhauer. At the beginning of the summer he had promised a treat to the class that kept the best regular attendance through the summer months. Bro. Grave's class of boys came out the winners but there were two other classes so close that the Superintendent included them in the treat. It was a merry bunch. They not only ate ice cream and chocolates but had many a hearty laugh. They unanimously voted the occasion a success and moved to have many more like it, if the Superintendent were willing. The Sunday school is planning a Rally Day for September 26th.

Last Sunday afternoon the King's Heralds and Little Light Bearers, had their annual election of officers. Mrs. Wm. Beckenhauer was unanimously re-elected as leader, with Mrs. Rennie and Mrs. Crossland as assistants, Grace Elder secretary and George Fortner treasurer. Plans were at once formed for the coming year's work. This society has raised between $60 and $70 this year for missions.

Baptist Church
(Rev. B. P. Richardson, Pastor)
Services were good Sunday though not so largely attended as on previous Sundays. We shall soon have the new students of the Normal. We shall welcome them into our church activities most heartily.

Next Wednesday evening will be the annual election of officers. Let all our members, as far as possible, endeavor to attend. This is an occasion of unusual significance for our church life. As we come to the close of the year, we want to thank those who have filled their office so faithfully. At this meeting we also want to have a report from every department of our church work.

"The Spirit of the Hive", will be the subject of the pastor's sermon Sunday morning.
Miss Eva Graves will lead the young people's lesson Sunday evening. We are fortunate indeed to have her helpful services in our work.

Tomorrow afternoon the prayer circle will meet with Mrs. Dragon. The home department of the Sunday school had a pleasant social time at the home of the faithful superintendent, Miss Elsie Gilbert, last week.
Ward Randol took his class of boys on a splendid hike last Monday.

Remember the annual meeting next Wednesday evening.
The pastor will preach at eight o'clock Sunday evening.

Presbyterian Church
(Rev. S. Xenophon Cross, Pastor)
The hour of the Morning Worship is 10:30, sharp. The subject of the sermon next Sunday morning will be, "A Definition of the Kingdom".

The Sunday School hour is 11:30. Every member of the church will encourage the Sunday school workers just that much by being present. The little children are asking for somebody to act as superintendent of the Junior Endeavor. "Inasmuch as you did it for the least of these".

The Christian Endeavor will meet at 7 o'clock till October. Elizabeth Mines will lead the meeting next Sunday. Come and bring a friend with you.

Whatever your years, if you are young in spirit, the Y. P. S. C. E. is for you. Bring your friend, or a stranger. How easy to increase attendance.

Boost the Sunday evening service. Our plan is to make the Sunday evening the time for happy and inspiring gospel services. Be one of us.

Your health permitting you, let us rely on you to help by being present and doing your part toward making a cheerful and prayerful atmosphere.

Every member and every friend can help by each week giving personal invitations, inviting others to the services. The evening service is yours.

What's the use of always fretting O'er the trials we shall find Ever strewn along our pathway? Travel on and "never mind".

German Lutheran Church
Rev. Moehring, Pastor
Services as usual next Sunday. Sunday school at 10 o'clock and preaching services at 11 o'clock. The pastor will preach at Winside in the afternoon.

Money For Cattle Raising

An address was delivered before the Montana Bankers Association by A. E. de Ricques, says the World Herald, that it would be well for the bankers in all the middle west to read and consider. The position was taken that the hay crop is the most important of all crops and that any country that can produce hay has a basis for the creation of wealth unequalled by any other crop. The speaker declared that the financing of stock raisers in a hay country is as safe a business as a bank could do. While that is true, he said: "At this time it is a fact that there are men borrowing money on good security in Montana, who are paying from 8 to 10 per cent, who every six months pay 50 cents a head on their cattle, or 5 cents a head on their sheep, in the form of a commission, to some commission firm for the privilege of getting this loan."

One of the things that produces that condition is the limitation placed by the banking act on loans to six months. Many of these transactions require a loan from one year to eighteen months, before a return can be made from the business. He claims that loans for cattle raising should be made by the small banks where the officers of the bank know the men and the conditions. That would be a safer business than chattel mortgages. He says that feeders of beef cattle in Iowa and other eastern states lost more money last winter on their operation than the western stockmen ever lost by bad weather in Montana in any winter.

He told of a private banker who had built up and made very wealthy one section of country, by loaning direct to the cattle raisers at reasonable rates. In some instance he had allowed them to overdraw their accounts for considerable sums, the farmers prospered and the banker made good profits. This banker said to another: "A mortgage on live stock is no good unless your man is all right. Why go to the expense of taking a mortgage?" One hundred and sixty acres of alfalfa, producing three tons to the acre will support 400 cattle and twenty horses to do the work. The cattle business, properly financed, would add enormously to the wealth of the country.

Lower and Lower

Lower and lower falls the value of English gold standard money, and at every fall the advocates of a single gold standard gasp for more breath in their mad efforts to explain why the gold standard is unable to keep the king's money at par.

A gold standard currency does not keep itself at par. It remains at par only as long as the nation which issues the money remains at par in the confidence of the world.

The English pound sterling, issued under England's decree that it is worth $4.98, is a lie. Today it is worth only $4.50 in American money. But is there now as much gold behind the English money as there was before the war?

Yes.

Then why is the gold-standard currency of England at a discount in the money markets of the world?

Simply because England's government is not now at par in the confidence of the world. No amount of gold which any nation may claim to have in reserve behind its paper currency can give value to that currency. It is the strength and honor of a nation which puts value and keeps value in paper money.

The great European war is teaching mankind many lessons, but none more clearly than that a gold-standard currency is not worth any more than a pewter-standard currency, unless it shall have behind it a government in whose integrity and strength the world shall confide.

In the face of this great lesson every old-time advocate of bimetalism should lift up its head. Never a sounder financial doctrine than the doctrine of bimetalism. Never a doctrine so false as the doctrine that gold-standard currency is necessarily good currency.—Columbus Telegram.

"Ten Nights in a Bar Room"

Terry's shows have been coming to Carthage for the past fifteen years, and always drawing large crowds, but it is doubtful if there ever was the number of people in town to a tent show that turned out last week when Terry's "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" played here. The mammoth tent theater was filled to overflowing, and when one realizes that it has a seating capacity of two thousand people, one can easily figure that there was an enormous crowd in the tent. The production was first class in every respect, and not only satisfactory to the large audience as was evidenced by their hearty applause and attention, but worthy of every patron who witnessed the show. The performance and the splendid acting was the subject of no little comment on the streets on the part of the critics, some of whom said that if T. S. Arthur, the author, could have been in the audience and witnessed the presentation of his great play of real life, he would pronounce it wonderful and as natural as life. The production was correctly staged, the scenic and electrical effects having been specially built and constructed for the Terry show and it is doubtful if our citizens will ever have the opportunity of witnessing as stirring, sensational, and awe-inspiring drama as was seen in the presentation of "Ten Nights in the Bar Room".

Terry's band and orchestra should also come in for their share of praise for their excellent musical programs, the Challenge concert band of 16 pieces giving two of the finest concerts ever heard on our streets.—Carthage Weekly News, Carthage, Mo.

Terry's "Ten Nights in the Bar Room" will be the attraction here for one day only, Wednesday, September 15.—adv.

A municipal system that should be regulated to the scrap heap is that whereby lawbreakers are given their freedom if they leave town. Not only lawbreakers but innocent men passing through town and not having to possess the wherewithal to ride in a passenger coach. It is true that there are a lot of tramps in the world, but there are also perfectly innocent men who "hike" from town to town until they find work. There are also lawbreakers, who, when convicted are not entitled to leave town. They should be sent to jail. The custom is stupid and illegal and manufactures professional hobos and criminals. Suppose any honest workman loses his job. He goes from town to town seeking work, and in each place he is officially told to "move on". In nine cases out of ten he will have to be more than human not to think of retaliation on a society that meets out such undeserving treatment.—Humphrey Democrat.

Here is what Editor Harvey of Minnesota says of the weekly press:—"The difference between a daily newspaper and a weekly newspaper is quite marked in some respects. The dailies usually expand and enlarge on their articles, while the weekly does the opposite and condenses and boils the article down to plain facts. Also the news of the weekly is far more reliable than the dailies, the facts having been verified in each case. The weekly is assuredly the busy man's paper, for therein he finds the important news of the world, boiled down to sentences instead of columns of the daily. Look your weekly over carefully each week and see if this is not true."

Mrs. K. D. Frost shipped her household goods to Emerson last Tuesday where she will make her future home. Mrs. Frost will be greatly missed by her friends and neighbors. D. C. Hogue, who recently purchased the residence of Mrs. Frost moved in on Tuesday.

Homey Items For Women

Tiny hand-painted pearl buttons and dyed pearl buttons in odd shapes, are to appear on autumn waists.

Navy is often trimmed with a certain shade of gray-blue which suggests a soldier's uniform.

The white linen skirt cut on similar lines and adorned with pockets is always in good fashion for morning wear.

Sleeveless silk sweater coats are a welcome novelty for they solve the problem of giving a little warmth without giving too much.

The smartest sleeves promise to fit closely at the top and to flare at the wrist. The dressy frock should have the flared collar of lace.

Mulberry, purple, gray, tete de negre, dark green and navy are the favorite color schemes, not forgetting the always distinguished black and white.

The Wealth of Our State

No one perhaps, who is really looking for facts gets them in a more conservative form than the assessor, if they pertain to the property of the people, hence it is safe to say that the following figures are not overdrawn for they are from the returns from the assessors of the state on April 1st to the secretary of the state board of equalization and show among other items the following listed for taxation at assessed valuations as follows:

Number	Value
44,261 automobiles	$3,220,558
246,485 carriages and wagons	1,117,580
108,485 dogs	112,378
1,107,378 dozens poultry	590,120
151,738 sheep	106,476
1,722,661 hogs	2,726,216
903,956 horses	14,589,609
105,881 mules	1,991,644
2,311,480 cattle	15,184,305
4,605,042 bushels wheat	1,079,765
29,620,371 bushels corn	3,166,645
98,722 bushels rye	12,796
7,583,002 bushels oats	610,946
778,121 bus. Kaffir corn	14,092
132,018 bushels barley	13,434
94,376 bushels potatoes	11,520

In the second congressional district the republicans are casting about for some one to beat Lobeck. Dave Mercer has been suggested, as has N. P. Dodge, Jr. Another man has come upon the scene of action. Or rather he has been placed upon the battle field by his friends. Numerous members of the G. O. P. have been mentioning the name of Ben Baker as their preference for congress in this district. Judge Baker is a strong man and one of the most popular republicans in Douglas county.

Five candidates have thus far announced their candidacies for the vacancy on the federal bench created by the death of Judge W. H. Munger. They are: C. J. Smyth, Sylvester Rush and James W. Woodrough of Omaha; W. H. Thompson of Grand Island and Seymour S. Sidner of Fremont. An appointment may be expected within the next two weeks.—Nebraskan.

Hal McKenna to Race Columbia Fire. Hal McKenna, the celebrated trotting horse, with a record of 2:05 1/4, has been substituted for Little Prince, which will not be at the state fair, in the race Tuesday arranged with Columbia Fire, the Lincoln horse, with a record of 2:04 1/4. The two horses have started in six races this season against each other, the Lincoln horse winning two and Hal McKenna four.

John T. Mallalieu is Very Ill. Information comes to Lincoln that John T. Mallalieu, a former well known citizen of Nebraska, is very ill at his home in Idaho Springs. His daughter, Miss Bess, who is employed in the state library, was called home about two weeks ago, and while she writes that her father is some better he is still very ill, though the physician believes he will improve from now on.

Insurance Companies Protest. The state insurance board held a short session to listen to a representative of insurance companies in Chicago, who protest against the changing of insurance policies as made by the board last month, which cut out the Beeson form and obliterated the electrical clause relating to the care of apparatus.

Killed by Fall in Front of Tractor. Mike O'Connell, a laborer working at the fair grounds, assisting in placing the tractor exhibit, fell in front of one of the big engines and was run over and killed; one of the wheels passing over his head.

Thompson and Oldfield Show

Fine Work at State Fair.

EXHIBITS ARE ALL IN PLACE.

All Are Up to Standard and Automobile Display is Exceptionally Fine.

Fishery Exhibit a Star Attraction. "Flat Car Baby" is Dead.

Oldfield and Thompson divided honors at the Nebraska state fair, the latter putting on a stunt in dare-devil flying that put all other exhibitions of former years in the shade. Oldfield, on account of a muddy track, did not attempt to beat the record, but did some fast work in his big French flyer that set the crowd wild as he rounded the track on the west and came down past the grandstand like the wind.

Thompson appears to indulge in the flying game because he likes it flying around above the fair grounds twice as long as any aviator has ever done before. He appears to be a complete master of the air, and turned over sideways and all other ways, finally coming to the ground in a spiral that brought the crowds to their feet.

The "flat car baby," which so many people expected to see at the fair, is dead. The baby was found at Fairbury about six weeks ago on a flat car, and when found was hardly alive. It was brought to Lincoln and taken to the orthopedic hospital, where the best of care was given it. It slowly improved, and an incubator was secured from Omaha in which to exhibit the little atom during the fair, but death stepped in and little Mary Doe, as she was called, has passed away.

All Exhibits Excellent.

Exhibits are in position and all are up to the standard, from a strawberry plant that bears the first year and continues all summer, to the big tractor engine and the threshing machine. The automobile display is exceptionally fine, several firms from Omaha having excellent displays in the big building devoted to that purpose.

Agricultural and horticultural hall is jammed full of the fruit of the farm and garden. Never before have counties responded with so large and varied exhibits. The display of A. Martin from Pawnee county is a wonderful affair, over 200 entries of different kinds, all raised on a twenty-acre farm, which last year brought in a revenue of over $500.

Apple Display Large.

Apples can be found in great abundance. Displays of individuals and of the apple association occupy a large part of the agricultural hall at the west end.

The races have been pretty good, but the damp track was not conducive to very fast work.

The fishery exhibit, under the supervision of Commissioner O'Brien, as usual, is the center of interest. He is ably assisted by Colonel Gus Rutenbeck, who looks after the crowd on the outside and explains the methods used in handling not only fish, but protecting the chickens. There is also an exhibit of Hungarian and Chinese pheasants, which, with their beautiful plumage, attract a great deal of attention.

After closing his engagement here Thompson will go to Minneapolis and meet Art Smith in a series of aerial flights Saturday. Thompson has been wanting to meet Smith for some time and this is his first opportunity. As both are daredevils, as far as operating among the air currents are concerned, it is expected that there will be many thrills when these two kings of the air meet.

Barney Oldfield is accompanied to the Nebraska fair by Mrs. Oldfield, who appears to take as much pride in the work of her husband as he does in beating records.

Judge Hamer Improving.

Chief Justice Morrissey went to Kearney and visited a short time with Judge Hamer, member of the supreme court who has been ill for some time. Judge Morrissey says that the judge is looking pretty well and is able to walk every day from his home to the hotel, about seven blocks. He will probably not be able to sit with the court at the coming session, but will come down occasionally for consultation and will, if he continues to improve, be able to attend regularly by the time the next call is made.

Information comes to Lincoln that John T. Mallalieu, a former well known citizen of Nebraska, is very ill at his home in Idaho Springs. His daughter, Miss Bess, who is employed in the state library, was called home about two weeks ago, and while she writes that her father is some better he is still very ill, though the physician believes he will improve from now on.

The state insurance board held a short session to listen to a representative of insurance companies in Chicago, who protest against the changing of insurance policies as made by the board last month, which cut out the Beeson form and obliterated the electrical clause relating to the care of apparatus.

Killed by Fall in Front of Tractor. Mike O'Connell, a laborer working at the fair grounds, assisting in placing the tractor exhibit, fell in front of one of the big engines and was run over and killed; one of the wheels passing over his head.

SUNDAY STORMS OMAHA

Revivalist Recruits Soldiers in the Army of Jesus.

Billy Sunday began his revival engagement in Omaha before three large audiences that filled the tabernacle and crowded in the ten foot corridor surrounding the seats.

In a sermon on "God's Grenadiers," he pleaded with stirring phrases and gestures and wonderful dramatics for recruits to enlist in the battle for God against the devil.

Militancy was his keynote. "I ask no quarter from the devil and I give him none," he shouted, swinging his arms in sledge-hammer blows as he hurled forth his defiance to a demon which to his hearers was almost materialized in living form, by the power which the speaker put into his sentence.

Sunday told of wars fought "in the brave days of old," when troops charged "over the dead, dying and wounded, over trenches and over horses," to win victories.

He roused the patriotism of the audience by stirring pictures of events during wars conducted by the United States. He told of the drummer boy who in a famous battle in Europe, when told to sound a retreat, said:

"I don't know how to beat a retreat; I never learned to do that."

"We don't know how to beat a retreat in the army of Jesus Christ."

As Sunday shouted these words he gave them the effect of the blare of a trumpet, emphasizing in his habitual manner phrases rather than words, and beating each phrase into the consciousness of his hearers.

In regard to Omaha, he said: "An angel from heaven couldn't come to Omaha and live for a week and associate with some of the people you train with and go back to heaven without being fumigated, carbonized, formaldehyded, dry cleaned and made over altogether."

Go to Open Bids.

Attorney General Reed and Land Commissioner Beckman left for St. Paul, where they will meet with State Engineer Johnson and the county board of Howard county in considering the letting of bids for a state-aid bridge across the Loup at that point.

Cement

You can make at home and it is much cheaper if wanted in large quantities. This recipe makes nearly two gallons, but of course, you can make it up in as small amount as you want, mix in the ingredients in the same proportions. White glue, 4 pounds; dry white lead, 1 1/2 pounds; isinglass 1 pound; salt water, 1 gallon; alcohol, 1 quart; white varnish, 1/2 pint. Dissolve the glue and isinglass in the water by a very gentle heat. Stir in the lead, mix the alcohol and varnish together and then stir in the rest. Keep in a cool place well covered. One-sixth of these quantities makes quite enough to last the ordinary household for a long time, but making in small quantities it is cheaper to buy one of the good reliable cements that are already on the market.
