District Court Doings

There has been but two cases thus far this week before Judge A. R. Oleson, who is presiding over the district court for this county this week. The first was Clyde Tidrick vs. William Gutzmann, in which defendant refused to pay within $42.50 of as much for pasturing a number of horses as the plaintiff claimed, on the ground that the pasture was overcrowded and he had to take his horses out before the proper time for the season to close. Plaintiff proved to the satisfaction of the jury that the contract was for the season at so much per head, and he was awarded a verdict for the sum asked.

The case now being heard is between Simon Goemann and the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha Railway Company, and Mr. Goemann has a claim for damages, alleging that obstruction of the natural waterway by the railroad adjoining his place in the west part of Wayne has been of much damage to himself and family and the improvements and property in general. At this writing plaintiff has had more than twenty witnesses examined and has not yet given the defendant a chance to introduce any testimony. The Democrat refrains from comment at this time, the issue now being one for the jury to decide when they have heard all.

Jurors not serving on this case were excused subject to recall in two weeks, when other cases may be up for hearing, but nothing beyond this case will be considered this week. The attorneys in the case are Kingsbury & Hendrickson of Ponca and Wayne for plaintiff, and McLaughlin, Dressler and Hubbard from Omaha, for defendant.

Word Received From Sunday

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 15, 1915. Mrs. Helen Young, Secy. Union Bible Study Circle Wayne, Nebraska.

My Dear Friend.—Your telegram to Mr. Sunday today touched him deeply. He really regrets very much that he must decline the sincere and cordial invitations that have come from Wayne. But if you could understand how hard the extra day at Lincoln yesterday was, if you understood how strenuously he works all of the time, you would know that it is not unwillingness but simply lack of strength and absolute need of at least a little rest which makes him refuse. He asks me to convey his appreciation and his best wishes to your Bible study circle. He is glad you are a praying crowd. If some of you are able to come to Omaha we will remember who you are and will be glad to see that you are well taken care of.

Very truly yours,
ROBERT MATHEWS,
Secretary.

Fall Festival at Wayne

That is the prospect at this writing. Just what or when it will be is not yet known, but at a meeting of the business men at the city hall last evening the matter was placed in the hands of the following committee and the committee was given the authority to go ahead with arrangements for the best attractions that are to be had. It may be a barbecue, a wild west show or a street fair and carnival. Here is the committee and they surely can put over something good with the aid of all: Don Cunningham, V. A. Senter, A. G. Adams, Ralph Randall, C. H. Fisher, Fred Blair, Paul Harrington, C. E. Carhart, Frank Gaertner.

Manzer--Hutchinson

At the Methodist parsonage, by Rev. Buell, Wednesday, September 15, 1915, Harvey D. Manzer and Miss Ethel Hutchinson, both of Randolph, were united in marriage. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Manzer and Mrs. W. H. Hutchinson. The bridal couple went west on the morning train, and after a wedding trip will be at home to their friends at Randolph.

Baird-Burkett

At the county court room by Judge James Britton, Wednesday, September 15, 1915, Mr. Emmett Baird and Miss Mary Burkett were married. Both of these young people are of this county and have the well-wishes of many friends for a happy life journey.

Wayne Normal Largely Attended

The new school year which opened at the Normal last Monday promises to be a record breaker in attendance. At the close of the second day the registration reached nearly 300, which is about sixty in advance of what the records show for the corresponding period of 1914. Last year the enrollment for the first semester was 425, and, based on the figures of one year ago, present indications point to a school of 500 when the enrollment for the term is complete.

Since its organization, the school has been attracting each year a larger number of students who enroll for advanced work. This is best shown by a comparison of the Senior class rolls since 1911.

In 1911 three students were graduated from the advanced course; 23 in 1912; 30 in 1913; 45 in 1914 and 51 in 1915. Prospective Seniors in the present enrollment indicate a graduating class of 60 in the class of 1916.

This year the Junior class will be unusually large, with nearly all the best high schools of northeast Nebraska represented in the class roll. At the present time all required collegiate subjects are crowded to the limit, some of which had to be sectioned. Dean Hahn has an enrollment of 80 in Psychology, Dr. House has a class of 60 in College English, and Professor Hickman has an equally large number in his Zoology work.

With the equipment offered by the new building the State Normal at Wayne has entered upon a period of growth and development, and everything points to a prosperous year in 1915-1916.

News Notes

Rev. Mr. Cross was the first chapel visitor this year.

Several Juniors who dropped out in 1914 are returning to complete the advanced course.

The "Model" high school has made a good start. Miss Fairchild has a class of 19 in the ninth grade.

The large number of young men enrolled from Hartington was one of the pleasant surprises. There is in it a suggestion of the effectiveness of personal work.

Miss Alice Root writes from Jackson, Minnesota, that she has been detained by rain. She is anxious that her room reservation in Terrace hall not be cancelled.

J. E. Vakoc and Clifford Schreier of Verdigre, sophomores in last year's class, are enrolled for the agricultural course in the University of Nebraska.

The name of Maurice G. Philleo was among the number registered on the opening day of the school five years ago, being classified as a preparatory student. Maurice has returned after completing his school education and is now ranked as a junior.

The great demand for dormitory rooms made it necessary to open North hall for ladies. Heretofore this dormitory has not been used for young women until the summer session.

Miss Winifred Gantt, class of 1914, is holding down a claim in Dakota, has charge of the schools at Headquarters, and wishes to devote her spare time to absentia work at the Normal. Persons graduating from this institution seem to find their greatest enjoyment in hard work.

Church Officers Elected

Last evening being the time set for the election of officers for the Baptist church, the following were elected for the ensuing year:

J. H. Rimel and R. J. Dempsey were elected as the new members of the board.

I. W. Alter, Clerk.

S. R. Theobald, Treasurer.

G. A. Wade, Budget Treasurer.

Miss Pearle Hughes, Organist.

H. C. Henney, Art Norton, John Larison, C. M. Christensen and Prof. A. G. Lewis, Members of the Finance Committee.

I. W. Alter, S. S. Superintendent.

Prof. M. S. Davies, Asst. S. S. Superintendent.

Miss Pearle Hughes, Organist for S. S.

Miss Ethel Huff, Superintendent Primary Department.

Miss Elsie Gilbert, Superintendent of Home Department.

Miss Vallie Armacost, Secretary and Treasurer of S. S.

See the Democrat for wedding invitations.

School Notes

Since the opening of school there has been a gradual increase in the enrollment. As a result some of the rooms are crowded in spite of the fact that classes are provided in most of the grades at the normal training school.

Classes in domestic science and manual training are now well organized and science laboratory work has been begun. The class in physics is so large that it has been found necessary to divide the class for laboratory work.

Sponsors for the high school classes have been announced as follows: Senior, Mrs. M. A. Phillips; Junior, Miss Margaret Killian; Sophomore, Miss Alwine Meyer; Freshman, Miss Mabel Dayton.

Class organizations have already been effected, the officers chosen being the following: Senior, president, Frances Oman; vice president, Ward Randol; secretary, Anna Granquist; treasurer, LeRoy Owen; Junior, president, Jesse Randol; vice president, Marsaline Lewis; secretary-treasurer, Helen Main; Sophomore, president, Knox Jones; vice president, Don Gildersleeve; secretary-treasurer, Ralph Porter; Freshman, president, Alice Blair; vice president, Netha Wright; secretary, Ralph Carhart; treasurer, Eloise Miner.

In an election held yesterday Ralph Ingham was elected editor-in-chief of the "Watchword" and Helen Main, assistant editor. The first number of the "Watchword" will appear this month.

Rev. B. P. Richardson addressed the high school last Friday morning on the subject of the importance of high ideals and a definite purpose in life. He reviewed the story of "The Great Stone Face" and based his remarks on the theme of that story.

Weather Conditions Everywhere

The weather reports from different parts of the country indicate that it has been and yet is quite warm in the east and south with prospects that the warm wave will continue. At Chicago yesterday the temperature reached as high as 93, breaking the heat record for the season at that place.

Some parts of the west, too, are unduly warm, and as near as Omaha the heat has been reported as oppressive.

Here at home the temperature was dangerously near the frost line Wednesday morning, but while there are claims of a white frost in some low places we have not yet heard of any tender plants being stricken by frost. Wednesday there was a rising temperature.

There has been more rain the past week than those who had threshing to do thought necessary, and it delayed that work very much. About one inch of rain fell Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights, the heavier fall being Sunday night. The fall for the week was 9th, .08; 10th, .10; 12th, .42; 13th, .70; 14th, .17; 15th, no trace.

Cattle Coming To Feed

There is quite a movement of feeders to the fall feed in this county. Tuesday Andrew Stamm, Wm. Blecke, L. Schroeder, F. R. Dean and Jas. Grier were at Sioux City for cattle. All purchased except Grier, who did not find what he wanted. The purchase of Fred Dean was for a different purpose than the others, for he purchased fat stuff for the blocks of his market.

Henry Klopping received a car load of feeders from Omaha Wednesday morning.

John L. Soules, armed with due authority from the government and other necessary papers, and his trusty repeater, sallied forth one fair day this week to the land of the Omahas in search of two noted characters, Sun-In-The-Face and Moonshine. "We know not what part of the reservation these braves may be hiding in, but it is dollars to doughnuts that they have no more chance of escaping John than has the sinner who faces Sunday a chance getting away unconverted."

Weather Report

This week will be one of generally fair and cool weather with some probability of frosts the last half of the week in the middle and northern plains states and the extreme upper Mississippi Valley.

Chautauqua Association Meeting

The last chautauqua at this place did a little better than break even, according to the figures furnished by Treasurer H. C. Henney. They had a little more than $175 more money in the bank after all debts had been settled than they had at the beginning of the season. To this has been added a considerable sum from the sale of stock to increase the membership of the association. It was not so much for the money that the stock was offered as to secure more active members in the association who are now residents of Wayne. Death and removal from the city of fully one-third of the first membership of the association made it seem desirable to place more of the community people on the roll. This will add new interest in the work, which is not for profit, but for community good. There are now about 75 members of the association, about one-half of them being new members.

At the association meeting, after reading and approving the minutes of the last previous session and accepting the reports of the secretary and treasurer, elected the following board of directors for the ensuing year:

A. R. Davis, J. G. Mines, J. M. Cherry, H. C. Henney, S. X. Cross, C. E. Carhart, F. E. Gamble, T. W. Moran, D. H. Cunningham.

After discussing the plans for the future and learning that the sentiment of those present was favorable to an independent chautauqua if possible, the meeting adjourned.

At the meeting of the board of directors immediately following, A. R. Davis was elected president; F. E. Gamble, vice president; J. G. Mines, secretary, and H. C. Henney, treasurer. The meeting then adjourned.

The Democrat is glad that the officers were enabled to make such a good report of the business of last year, and that there is interest enough in future chautauquas to enable the membership of the association to be increased without the least bit of trouble. Wayne will continue on the map as a chautauqua town.

Rural Carrier Examination

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the County of Wayne, Nebraska, to be held, at Wayne on October 23, 1915, to fill the position of rural carrier at Winside and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other postoffices in the above mentioned county. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meets the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. This form and application blank may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

Sunday Cancels Sioux City Date

The Sioux City papers announced Monday evening that Rev. William Sunday had been obliged to cancel his partial promise to appear at Sioux City or a sermon Monday the 20th. This will leave that place with no other attraction for the week than the Inter-State Fair. A number of Wayne people had been planning to go to the city to hear the evangelist.

Drouth Strikes South Carolina

South Carolina voted for statewide prohibition Tuesday by a vote of practically two to one, to take effect January 1st. All of the counties that were dry under local option voted to continue so, and one of the wet ones voted for prohibition.

Claim No. 1773 of H. J. Luders for refund of special assessment $14.82, and claim No. 1775 of Otto A. Voget for $1000 damages, were read and no action taken.

On motion the council adjourned to Thursday, September 16, at 8 p. m.

Hog Sale Announcement

The undersigned announces a public sale of thoroughbred Poland China and Duroc Jersey boars at his place south of Winside, October 5th, when he will sell 20 head of each breed. The sire of the Poland China pigs weighs more than 800 pounds as a two-year-old, in just fair condition, and could be made to weigh 1,100. The sire of the Durocs is a low-down, heavy set hog standing on the best of feet and legs and is growing into a big one. This is the best bunch of boars we have ever offered, and you are not buying culls, but have a chance at top of herd, so if you want good ones, come to the sale. A postal card will bring you a catalog telling all.

Social Notes

A number of the Royal Neighbors gathered at the home of W. O. Hanssen and wife Tuesday evening in a pleasant surprise for Mrs. Gus Hanssen, who was to leave the next day for a home at Randolph. After a social hour refreshments were served by Mrs. W. O. Hanssen, and the member who was to leave the camp at this place was presented with an emblem pin exemplifying the great principles of the order. It was a happy thought that inspired this gathering.

The ladies of the Bible Circle met with Mrs. Bracken on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Fred R. Dean as leader. There was a good attendance. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. B. Young.

The Ladies Aid of Presbyterian church met with Mrs. Clara Ellis Wednesday afternoon and considered the plan of building a Parish House to be used as a place of meeting for different church societies and suppers.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Wm. House Friday afternoon and as this will be a very important meeting all members are urged to be present, and bring supper with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ringland will have a family dinner party this evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Shulthies' first wedding anniversary.

The Junior Bible circle met with Miss Ella Benschhof on last Saturday evening. They will meet with Mrs. E. B. Young this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reynold and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morris will entertain at cards this evening.

Presbyterian Ladies Aid had a picnic supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ash last Thursday.

The Guild of St. Mary's church will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Bumgartner.

Sudan Grass

Bloomfield Monitor: W. E. Van Pelt has about seventy-five acres of Sudan grass sown this season, all of which is doing fine, and giving promise of a splendid crop. He has forty acres in one field, twenty-two in another and about thirteen in another, which looks very splendid. As an experiment, he has three rows in his home garden in town, which stands higher than a man's head, and quite a sight to the uninitiated. It looks to the Monitor like this new forage crop was a winner in this part of Nebraska.

O. N. Eicher, who is working at Cherokee, Iowa, engineer for the contractor who is building a hospital and school building at that place, was home here Saturday.

J. C. Rundell left Saturday to visit relatives at Craig, Missouri, and secure a shipment of the best fall apples—Jonthans and Grimes Golden, grown in that corner of Missouri.

One day last week Elmer Hoskins had the misfortune to turn his ankle, making a painful injury, tearing some ligaments loose and fracturing some of the small bones of the ankle.

Mrs. Mary E. Jones left Sunday for her winter home at Pasadena, California. She thinks this is not the climate for her except in the summer, and this year we have had very little summer.

Miss Anna Peterson returned to Sioux City Friday to begin school work at that place, where she teaches, Monday, after spending the summer vacation at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. J. Johnson.

Chan. Norton returned Sunday from a two weeks stay at his farm in southern Minnesota where he went with a car of his belongings and teams to fall plow and put in a crop of winter wheat. He reports conditions there as to crops and crop prospects much the same as here. Much depends upon the time when a frost comes for the corn.

Mrs. F. Severance and daughter from Sioux City were here over Monday visiting at the home of Stanley Woodworth and wife, the ladies being sisters.

C. J. Lund and Clay Robinson went to Omaha Sunday afternoon to look for a few ears of feeders. They have so much pasturage that they need a lot of young animals to care for it.

W. G. Archer and wife from Bentonville, Arkansas, formerly residents of this place and Winside, are here visiting relatives and friends. At Winside they visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. M. Kiefer. Here they were guests at the homes of Wm. House and Robert Perrin and wives. Mr. Archer sees numerous improvements in Wayne since they left about five and a half years ago, and admitted that he got lost in college addition while out trying to locate some lots they own there. Trees have grown and new buildings hid the old landmarks.

Time moves on, a fact of which we are reminded by noting in our exchanges that "Bryan" Jones, Smith, Clark or some other name is leaving for college, and they were doubtless named after the presidential candidate of 1896.

Mrs. C. U. Keckley returned Saturday evening from Kansas City where she has been with Mr. Keckley since the summer school closed. She reports that Mr. K. is improving in health, but that the physician who is treating him advises him to remain for a little time longer before returning to work.

Alfred Grant, a nephew of R. R. Smith, who has been working during the summer on the farm for Gus Wendte, left last week to attend the Kansas agricultural college at Manhattan, where he proposes to add some "book farming" to the practical demonstrations a lad gets while shoveling hay and plowing corn on a steady by the month job.

Mrs. Dora Baker and children went to Omaha Saturday, where they will make their home for a time, the children attending school at the St. James Orphanage, where the mother expects to remain and assist in their care and the care of other children. Mrs. Peter Baker accompanied her. In leaving Mrs. Baker expressed her appreciation of the many acts of kindness of the people of Wayne during the dark days of care for her husband during his lingering illness, and wished the Democrat to carry an expression of her thanks to one and all.

One customer came in last week who did not understand our catalogue house offer. He expected to take the article he wanted out of our stock at the catalogue price; but when we explained to him the various items entering into the cost of the SERVICE we are rendering by having a well assorted stock right here for him to draw on for immediate requirements, he said the SERVICE was worth several times the difference in cost to him that day as he would have sustained several dollars worth of damage if there had been no hardware stores in Wayne and he had been compelled to wait until he could get that article from Chicago. Use our service. It costs something. It is worth something to you, Carhart's.—adv.

E. B. Young and wife were at Ashland visiting relatives last week, and it is a safe guess that they attended the Sunday meetings at Omaha either going or coming or both.

O. E. Dudley of the telephone force was here from Hubbard last week exchanging greetings with a bevy of the fair ones of the Wayne central exchange. All appeared to enjoy the exchange.

Among the farmers from here at the state fair last week we noted Oscar Milligan, August Wittler, Henry Miers, and Chas. Ash. They report a good exhibit and large crowds. Some of them managed to edge in and hear "Billy" while at Omaha.

Dr. S. A. Lutgen left Sunday to visit his mother and brother at Colby, Kansas, and watch some of the operations in harvesting, threshing and caring for the largest crop of wheat ever grown in that country. His mother expects to return to Wayne with him.

A "Home Products Show" is being planned as one of the features of the Norfolk festival the last of this month. Prizes will be offered for the best displays and products, and the News is authority for the statement that the show is to be bigger and better than ever before.

John Gettman has commenced the erection of an elegant country home on his farm just southeast of Carroll, and has the foundation well toward completion. David Granstrom has the contract for the building. Two stories 32x36 is said to be the plan of the new home, which is to be a model farm residence.

Martin Sorenson of Chicago, who has been spending the summer at the home of his uncle, C. J. Johnson and wife, left Friday for home to again take up his studies. Miss Anna Peterson went to Sioux City with the little fellow and put him in charge of the train men on a through train for his home city.

C. N. Derry, the Reliable Rug Man of Des Moines, will be at Wayne about October 1st to gather material for rugs. Save your old carpets, old rags, burlap sacks—any and all otherwise worthless cloth material and have it made into rugs. If you wish him to call, you may leave word at the Democrat. Phone 145.—adv. 35-4.

Messrs. Todd & Todd, the new proprietors of the Bloomfield Journal, think the publishers of Knox county should get together in an association. They are right—they can do more for the country by pulling together than by each pulling in a different direction. Better kiss and make up, you Creighton and Bloomfield pen pushers.

Several customers have taken advantage of our catalogue house offer by coming in with their order accompanied by the cash in advance and will get the goods from the depot in a week or so and we will pay them half the freight. If you are not in a hurry for the goods, this plan works admirably and saves money for the customer. Carhart's.—adv.

C. Clasen has just completed a carpenter shop at his home place of ample dimensions to house his new machinery for planing, sawing, ripping and other machine work so convenient for the builder in these days when gasoline is doing so much that "main strength and stupidity did" in other years. He is equipped with machinery to take much hard labor from a building contract—and yet there is plenty of hard work for the hands to do.

The Wisner Chronicle has recently enlarged to a 7-column paper with four pages of home print and four of patent. It is a good paper, the Chronicle, and this editor believes it would have been better for that editor to have kept the pages at the former size of six column and made it all at home. It is thirty years old and should be old enough to go without the aid of any patent house sheet. No charge for this advice if you take it.

Mrs. F. Hammer and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Erick Nelson from Meadow Grove came Saturday to spend Sunday at the home of Nels Nelson and wife, parents of Mrs. Hammer. Each of the ladies brought a grandson to Mr. and Mrs. N. who had never before met their grandparents. The women were accompanied by Mrs. Munger, a neighbor woman. Sunday, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson met at their home with their children and made a complete reunion of the eight grandchildren of the family.

A. B. Conyers and wife, who went west from this county four years ago are here again, having purchased the Merchant hotel at Carroll, where they are now in charge. The traveling public will be glad to learn that this public property is now in the hands of people who are interested in serving the traveling public well, and they propose to redeem the place from the rather indifferent reputation in which it has been held by the public while it was trading stock. While away they lived in Idaho, where they have a farm and at Seattle, Washington, and in Minneapolis, coming from the latter place to Carroll. A new piano is one of their purchases since getting settled.

After considerable tedious delay incident to building and improving in the rainy season the basement under the Crystal is at last ready for occupancy, and W. L. Welbaum's new bowling tracks are here and in place and after tomorrow he hopes to have the place open to the public. He has three tracks in the new building and this will enable him to better meet the demands of the public. The tracks are laid on a concrete floor which means a solid foundation, free from vibration, and near perfect alley. The new room is much better than one would imagine, and is light and well ventilated. Mr. W. tells us that he proposes to run the place in first class style, and strictly according to the rules of the game in all respects.

R. R. Smith and family have returned from their visit at Hebron, North Dakota, where they went by automobile nearly three weeks ago. Mr. Smith reports that they found plenty of rough roads nearly all the way, and that it was the universal verdict of the people that they never had better crops or as much rain. Corn everywhere is late. On the return trip they found a small section in eastern North Dakota that had been touched by frost in the low places. Of the country he visited just west of the river he brings a good report as to its possibilities for both farming and grazing. In his opinion dairying will be one of the means of producing much wealth in North Dakota. Their trip was an enjoyable one in spite of the long drive and bad road. They made their record run the last day, coming 210 miles and reaching home in good season, considering that they stopped to visit relatives and take supper at Cole-ridge.

DRESS UP, BOYS!

We suggest, Boys, that you Dress Up!

A Backward Step

The Teachers' Institutes are over and what good have they accomplished, except to take a few dollars from the pockets of the teachers and put it into the people's pockets? So far as being benefitted by talks of those in charge, the teachers who have a normal course in high school, college or university, have had that sounded in their ears time and time again, then why have the county institutes? Let us do away with them as we did with the junior normals, which cost the state thousands each year and put a nice bunch in the pockets of the third raters. The institute and state normals should go, and that quickly, and thus save $500,000 a year, and not injure our public schools at all. Get busy and elect a legislature that will wipe them off the state.—Crete Democrat.

The Crete Democrat editor is off his base when he says the state normals should go as these institutions do more for the advancement of education than any other institution. As to the abolishment of the county institute we can not say so much but to do away with the state normals would be a big loss to the state and to our young people.

The comment on the Crete Democrat article is from the Stanton Picket, and this Democrat will endorse the Picket's position as to normal schools, and while we think our teachers institutes could be made more practical than they have been in the past it seems as though the great improvement in our educational system may claim the institute as one of the helpful factors. To be sure our school system has been slow in recognizing the great benefits that could have come to this country by teaching more of the practical things. We are proud of our educational system and institutions, but if we will quit looking at ourselves vainly in a mirror and look to some other lands we will find much that may be adopted with profit. Germany has efficiency in other than military lines as great as in that particular field, and it is due largely to the school system. Public spirited men paid expenses and salary to E. G. Cooley, for ten years superintendent of the city schools of Chicago, to have him go to Germany and study school methods there for the benefit of the Chicago schools, and in spite of the politics of the Chicago school board it is doing good. Denmark, too, has a system of teaching agriculture which has made a productive land of that almost barren soil. They taught old and young at first, and now the young come to know it before they are old. We should not do away with the institute until we have something better to take its place, but we should help to make it more and more practical.

The Part the Press is Playing

The campaign inaugurated by the Nebraskan to "Keep Nebraska money in Nebraska" has struck a sympathetic cord among the small country retailers of the state. And it is gratifying to note the enthusiastic manner in which the Nebraskan is being backed up in its fight by the newspapers of the state. Public opinion is moulded largely through the press. If every newspaper in Nebraska would join in this movement millions of dollars that now go out of the state, would probably be kept at home.

The burden of this fight, however, must not be placed entirely upon the state press. The wholesaler and the retailer must bear some of the responsibility. The people must be educated. The way to educate them is through the press. Yet there must be a spirit of co-operation among the wholesalers and the retailers.

Mail order patronage is largely a matter of habit. And a habit once formed is hard to break. The press cannot be expected to fight the battles of the retailers and the wholesalers when there is no enthusiastic response from the wholesalers and the retailer. Let every retailer in the state give encouragement to his local newspaper publisher. And in turn let the wholesalers of the large Nebraska cities and towns give encouragement to the retailers to whom they sell goods and merchandise.

The Nebraskan is not fighting the mail order house, especially. We are, however, endeavoring to encourage the patronizing of home industries and home enterprises.—Nebraskan.

J. H. Luders was laid up most of last week with several broken ribs. He was at work on the new Wm. Mellor residence just west of town and stepped through the boards laid on the joists on one of the porches and fell across a joist in such a manner as to break the ribs. He was able to be about the last of the week, but it will be a week yet before he will feel like shoving a jack plane very hard.

..Bowling.. Is Healthful, Clean Sport

The New Bowling Alleys are now laid and ready for your inspection and use in the newly finished basement under the Crystal

Link Welbaum is now ready to invite his patrons to a larger and better bowling alley than he was before able to offer for their use. The new tracks are set on a solid concrete floor, true and level; the room is cool and inviting, with a thorough system of ventilation. There will be room for you to watch the game if you enjoy it, or wait in comfort for your turn to play when the alleys are crowded.

Come in and see the new place Saturday or any time thereafter, and get the kinks out of your back and get your blood to circulating right.

Billy Sunday is offering to fight his opponents on skates on ice after hell freezes over. Did not think William was going to let that place cool off for an instant, and then is he heading that way?

If our "sound money" financiers are as sound as they claimed to be when fighting free coinage of silver, they will hardly take the bonds of a nation as hard up as England appears to be for that good yellow gold they prize so highly.

Billy Sunday says that in his opinion fully half of the church people were never converted. Sure, how else can it be figured out if one will just watch them a while—or else conversion is not what it is claimed to be by some.

As this paper has remarked before, and we love to keep harping on a good thing until we get it, a seed house at Wayne should prove a profitable business, and in this land of alfalfa we cannot see why an alfalfa mill, to almost double the value of this great crop, would not be beneficial to all.

Just to think they are now charging a man with grand larceny for taking a Ford—and it was such a little matter that the owner never even missed the thing until more than a day after it was taken. Dick Lennox of Allen is the man charged with such petty stealing. He should be judged as to his sanity.

The president does not seem to be worrying about a nomination for a second term. It is doubtful if he would be allowed to decline if he would. While we do not believe he will seek a second dose of trouble, we think he will not decline if the citizens of this country ask him, to again take the great responsibility.

Henry Linke received a half dozen young Silver Campine roosters last week from Wayland, Massachusetts to mate with a flock of fifty or sixty pullets and hens. Last season he paid $15 for one young rooster and is well pleased with the laying qualities of the hens he bought at the same time. He has marketed some of his young males, but says they are such fine table birds that he wants to keep enough for his own table. Of the female bird he expresses the opinion that they are the best egg producing hens he has ever had on his place.

The initial number of the Neligh Semi-Weekly News is on our desk. The paper shows a very fair patronage of local advertising and is new and clean appearing. Editor Scofield invites the public to make use of the columns to give their views and ideas a public airing. Dr. M. F. Hall takes advantage of this privilege in the opening number with an article on economics that is good as far as it has gone. He says the farmers need education along specific lines because they are the greatest force or first in importance. The paper is independent in politics, and hopes to do good and earn a place in the community.

Secretary Weaver of the Norfolk commercial club has been visiting Wayne a day or two this week while out in the interest of the coming fall festival at that place. He said that it had been suggested to him by some of the Wayne business men that a circuit should be formed for northeastern Nebraska that would make a series of attractive entertainments in several of the better towns in this part of the state—perhaps one in each of several counties. The exhibits of stock, grain and in fact all attractions could make the circuit, and an organization be made in the interest of all this part of the state. The idea is a good one, and should be followed up for the good of all for next season. Some head on him, whoever it was who struck the lead.

The Iowa Webster City Journal says that the old fashioned county fair is surely but slowly passing away, and lays the blame to the automobile which enables most of the farmers and many other people to see all of the crops and stock of a county they wish to long before the fair time comes, and also to the fact that it makes visiting much more easy than before, and they do not have to go to the fair to see their friends and neighbors. The state fair is also said to be another cause. It is larger and perhaps better, and the farmer can drive his car 100 miles to the fair and back the same day, almost, if necessary.

Speaking of paving, and we omitted to say much of it last week, we will cite the fact that Corning, Iowa, with a population of 1702 people has more than four miles of paved streets—and Billy Sunday went to that place and gave them a big send off with their revival meetings, and we cannot get his promise (yet) to come to Wayne. We should begin now to pave the way to make Wayne a better town. Corning also has a fine string of 5-light electroliers, and but a few years ago the writer of these lines was stubbing about that place trying to find his way out by the light of two or three coal oil lamps which only made it seem more dark outside of the few feet which their rays penetrated the gloom. We will soon have the lights, and the paving will follow.

Now that all of the English gold is coming over by the shipload—which is just what the high-tax or tariff men have been wanting for years—we are wondering how long it will take our part of it to get as far west as Nebraska. With lots of gold coming in people will find it much the same as lots of other forms of wealth, both at home and coming from abroad—that it is more a question of distribution than quantity. All of the gold of the Klondyke will do the people little or no good so long as 2 per cent. of the population control 95 per cent of the wealth. We should plan for a more fair distribution of what we have. Monopoly of natural resources is one of the big wrongs which has been permitted in this land of the free. We have been too free with opportunity for greed to grab and hold for themselves what of right belongs to all.

Last week the Democrat told of some of the things accomplished by an Ohio farmer who had to employ lots of fertilizer to make things go, but the effort repaid him, and we have since been thinking that if a success could be made of the venture in the cold, sour clay bed of rocks of which those Ohio hills are composed, how great should be the reward for some real intense farming of the fertile soil of Wayne county. To be sure we would have to find a market a bit further from home than did this Ohio man who was at the doorway of a city of 75,000 people. Suppose some of the boys and girls begin now to prepare an acre for some special crop next year and show what can be done. $500 to $1,000 worth of celery might be grown on an acre. Half of that sum might be realized from onions. It will take work, and some of the preparation should be made this fall.

An editorial in an exchange says that the day is not far distant when the bankers will have money to loan to the men who feed cattle, and will consider it as safe or safer than to loan to most any other business. We hope so, and that day will be here as soon as the throat of the meat packer's great combine is cut. This is being attempted in Wisconsin by the organization of numerous small killing and packing plants close to the people, who grow the meat and those who consume it. Here we pay two freights and two or three profits and commissions on practically all the meat we eat. The great advantage which the big packing houses have is in the sale of the by-products. The horn, bones, blood, fat and hair and bristles are all saved and utilized by these big concerns, and if fairly conducted their saving on this should enable them to sell meat cheaper or pay more for it on foot. But while they control prices, both going and coming, the profit in cattle feeding will be uncertain.

What about money conditions in the United States? Not more than two years ago the money power was so short of funds that we were on the verge of a panic—in the money papers. Interest on short loans went up and still there was a shortage. But the Secretary of the Treasury had been a Wall street man and knew the financiers' game of bluff and he called them. He said if money is scarce, it will be my duty to use the powers given me to issue emergency currency, and I will do so. The next day one bank in the City of New York just happened to think that they had $28,000,000 of gold back in the corner of the vault with the sweepings where the janitor sets the broom away, and if that would save the government a bit of trouble printing paper money they would let that go for a reasonable interest if the people wanted it. Other banks of the ring also fell in line and the panic was forgotten. Now they think they can loan the tottering thrones of Europe two or three billion plunks. Well if the Wall Street crowd get a mortgage on Europe they will long rue the day they began the war.

Mrs. L. A. Fanske and children go to Sioux City Friday morning to spend a week visiting her parents.

Miss Mary Hicks of Stanton came Wednesday to attend the Normal. She came from Rockford, Illinois, where she attended a luncheon given by the college.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mason returned last week from an extended visit in the east. They attended a number of the home coming events and were most interested in the one at Ashland, Ohio, his home, before coming to this state. It was the 100th anniversary of the founding of the town, and the event was made one long to be remembered. They were in Pennsylvania, and Mr. Mason said that as far as they went the weather was all of the kind we have been having here, a little more water than was really wanted.

Lincoln Herald: There is a good deal of advertising over the state about Lincoln's brass foundry and its two million and a half contract for furnishing war supplies. That would be very good if true, since war supplies are to be furnished from somewhere, but the truth is, Lincoln has no brass foundry that could handle one-tenth of a million dollar contract and we have no brass foundry that is contracting any war supplies. A hot air vendor in this city who does a little brass foundry and who evidently has more brass than foundry told the Commercial Club a few weeks ago he could get a two million and a half contract if somebody would furnish him the money to operate on. The club told the h.a.v. they would think about it, whereupon he gave it out that he had the contract and since then Lincoln has been extensively advertised as a great manufacturing point for military supplies. Nothing doing.

Gold Filling for Teeth

By a recent invention, instead of the slow and trying process of malleting gold piece on piece, a wax model is made of a properly dove-tailed cavity and exactly duplicated by casting. It is then cemented into the cavity.

All this work is done outside the mouth, except forming the wax model.

By this new method, a badly broken down bicuspid or molar can be restored to a state of usefulness, with the assurance that the operation is permanent.

Among the Churches of Wayne

Methodist Church
(Rev. A. S. Buell Pastor),

September 19th is the date for the third quarterly temperance lesson of the year. We trust that it may be made an active factor for the advancement of the prohibition campaign. Initiative petitions are being circulated all over the state at the present time in the following form: "We, the undersigned citizens and legal voters of the State of Nebraska and County of, . . . respectfully demand that the following proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska shall be submitted to the legal voters of the state of Nebraska for the approval or rejection at the regular general election, to be held on the seventh day of November, A. D., 1916. Proposed amendment to the Constitution. Be it enacted by the people of the state of Nebraska: That the Constitution of the State of Nebraska be and the same is hereby amended by adding thereto the following, to be known and designated as Article XVII: Section 1—The manufacture, the sale, the keeping for sale, the barter or gift under any pretext, of malt, spirituous, vinous or other intoxicating liquors, are forever prohibited in this state, except for medical, scientific, mechanical or sacramental purposes. Section 2—This amendment shall take effect and be in force on and after the first day of May, 1917.

The subject for Sunday morning's sermon will be: "The Liquor Crime." This will be an attempt to deal in an interesting way with some of the more recent developments in the world campaign to dethrone the demon rum.

The Epworth League devotional meeting Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

Evening preaching service at 8 o'clock.

The young people of the church will give a reception to the students on Friday evening, September 24th.

A representative from the Child's Saving Institute in Omaha will occupy the pulpit on Conference Sunday, September 26th.

You will find a cordial welcome to all of the church services. A special invitation is extended to the student body to worship with us next Sabbath.

Come with us to the mid-week prayer meeting Wednesday evening.

Presbyterian Church

(Rev. S. Xenophon Cross, Pastor)

We really miss you from the meetings of the church—if you have not been there for a Sunday or two. We wish you every blessing as the days come and go. Come back to your place in the ranks as soon as you can.

Next Sunday is Communion Sunday. The Lord's Supper will be observed and an opportunity given to come into the membership of the church, either on profession of faith or by letter. The Session will meet at ten o'clock.

The Sunday School Rally Day will soon be here. Begin the Rally now. Bring a new scholar to the Sunday School next Sunday. There are suitable classes for all. The most important thing right now is larger membership.

The young people of the Y. P. S. C. E. met last Monday evening at the home of Miss Florence Welch and canned a barrel of fruit under the direction of the Missionary Committee, Mrs. Clasen, chairman. This is for a childrens home.

Boost the Sunday evening service. Our plan is to make the Sunday Evening the time for Happy and Inspiring Gospel Services. Be present and do your part toward making a cheerful and prayerful atmosphere. Come next Sunday evening.

Miss Florence Welch is the C. E. leader for next Sunday evening's meeting. The time is 7 o'clock. The topic will be, "World Ideals, and How Foreign Missions Will Promote Them". All are welcome at the C. E. meetings. Come and see.

The social mid-week prayer meeting of the church meets each week at 8 o'clock. The theme next Wednesday evening will be: "The One Thing Needful." Maybe the one thing needful for your larger efficiency in your Christian life is a more active interest in the prayer meeting and the Sunday evening service.

Church going is a means of grace and divinely appointed. It is helpful, and restful. A fine investment of your time. It develops the best powers of the man. But, how easily neglected. Absence from next Sabbath's services will make it easier to stay away the next week. We shall look for you.

Baptist Church

(Rev. B. P. Richardson, Pastor)

The real harvest season for the church is now approaching. The fall and winter months are our best months for effective service in the church. Every department of our work should put on a new enthusiasm, and co-operating with other branches of the work, push with all the powers that the opportunities demand.

Our church year closes the last of September. At this time all financial obligations should be met. There are a number who have fallen behind in their weekly offerings. All pledges come due the last of this month. It would save time and effort if each one would attend to this matter for himself. If you want to know how your account stands ask Mr. Sprague or Mr. Henney.

Preaching Sunday morning as usual.

The Young People's Sunday school class is arranging to do an effective work with the students this coming year. This class has Miss Graves as teacher, and she is doing excellent work.

The B. Y. P. U. meets at seven o'clock Sunday evening. It is to be a meeting for emphasizing the need and nature of Christian training.

The regular preaching service will be at eight o'clock.

To-morrow afternoon the prayer circle will meet with Mrs. Puffett, near the standpipe. Last week there were fifteen present and a fine meeting.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. A good place to be.

German Lutheran Church

Rev. Moehring, Pastor

No services of Sunday School will be held at this church Sunday, the pastor being called away to preach at a missionfest service.

The Riverton Review, with Loren Matthews editor, formerly of the Democrat force, does not appear to have lost any of its democracy, and comes out full of good things politically and live locally. The new editor is making good use of his exchanges, and a wise selection from the exchange table is better than an unwise editorial.

Walter Sigman of Fremont was killed in an automobile accident Monday when the car he was riding in turned over into the creek near Uehling.

Miss Elisabeth O'Brien, who has been working at the Herald office for the past year, left Wednesday for a vacation visit at her home at Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Fleer left Tuesday morning to visit for a week or two at the home of his parents, near Gerald, in the good old state of Missouri.

Judge A. A. Welch and Court Reporter Ellis are at Neligh this week where court is in session. Judge Andrew R. Oleson is presiding in this county this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hyatt and son, Bert from south of town, were called to Randolph Tuesday morning by word of the serious condition of their son, G. W. Hyatt, who has been ill at his home there for some time.

Frank Baker, who reported a field of oats several weeks ago as yielding 50 bushels per acre, has finished threshing. His second threshing returned 45 bushels, and he now has almost 4,000 bushels of oats in his bins.

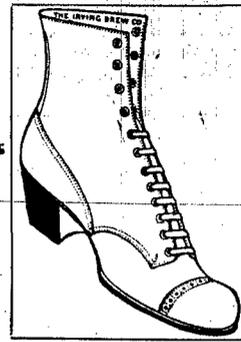

Miss Anna Paul from Jansen returned to her home Wednesday morning, following a visit of several days at the home of Rev. Fischer and wife west of Wayne. She was a member of his congregation before they came to Wayne.

Thos. Dover, wife and son Willard, and daughter Elsie came by automobile to Wayne Monday from Madison and were guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Buell of the Methodist church. The daughter remained to attend the Normal.

E. B. Chichester is home from a visit at his farm in Cheyenne county where they threshed his wheat while there. One piece of fall wheat, sown too thick, yielded but 16 bushels. The Macaroni wheat sown last spring gave back 31 bushels per acre.

Dr. G. H. Caldwell of Wisner had the misfortune to break a leg Monday. He is father of Mrs. J. L. Soules of this city, and formerly lived here and is acquainted with many. Having passed the three-score-and-ten mark, a broken bone is quite a serious matter.

G. W. Sassman from Octavia, came last week to visit at the home of his brother-in-law, W. Y. Miles and wife for a few days. Mr. Sassman had the misfortune to break a bone in his arm not long since, and as he could not work he decided to visit relatives here to help pass the time away.

Don't Let the Medicine Habit Drive You Through Life

When your stomach, liver or kidneys do not work right, you take a pill or two.

Stop and think! What makes any part of the body do its regular work? Your brain is the controlling center. The nerves carry the order from the brain to all parts of the body. When your liver goes on a strike and gives you a good headache, don't blame your liver or brain. The nerve that carries the orders is in trouble. The cause of that trouble is in your back. You have wrenched one bone a little out of place, and it is pinching the nerve.

Let me straighten your back so you will not get harnessed up to the dope wagon.

Great Western

Light Draft
Low-Down

Here is a Spreader that is not an experiment. More GREAT WESTERN machines are already in use than any other three makes combined. The GREAT WESTERN is the one that time has proved right—now built lower down, low enough for easy loading; just the right height to give the clearance a spreader must have; lightest draft; simple chain drive; roller bearings. Endless apron with 3 sets of rollers to carry apron.

Simple, Powerful, Convenient Chain Drive

The wheels are under the load—the front is positively the strongest that can be made and won't pull out. Every working part of the GREAT WESTERN is a known success; every bit of material is the best that can be bought. Be sure to see the GREAT WESTERN before you buy a spreader. Come in this week.

Evangelist Addresses Two Big Audiences in Capital City.

INTRODUCED BY W. J. BRYAN

"Ma" Sunday Speaks Briefly Each Time and Recalls Visit of Years Ago—Goliath's Fall Is Depicted by Mr. Sunday.

When Billy Sunday reached St. Paul's church in Lincoln he found it filled with a seething, sweltering mass of humanity, all women, while a thousand more disappointed ones stood vainly at the doors, finding it impossible to get in. It is estimated that there were fully 4,100 in the church, the aisles being crowded until there was not standing room left.

Mr. Sunday addressed a congregation of 3,000 men at St. Paul's church in the afternoon. He spent the last twenty minutes of his address in relating his experience as a baseball player and became so interested in his theme that he nearly missed his train. He had but twelve minutes to reach the station when he left the church. The crowd was not quite as large as at the morning service, as the fire department ordered the doors closed to prevent crowding the aisles.

The meeting for women only was opened with the singing of "America" by the audience, led by Mr. Roddeheaver. Dr. Jeffrey of St. Paul's church offered prayer. W. J. Bryan then introduced Mrs. Sunday.

"Ma" said that her mind reverted back twenty years, when she and Billy were in Nebraska and held meetings in several towns of the state and were in Lincoln a part of the time. She was glad to be back again and hoped that the people of Lincoln would continue to be interested in their welfare and the success of their work.

In introducing Mr. Sunday, Mr. Bryan said he was glad to be on the platform with a man who was doing so much to make his fellows better men and women.

Sunday Has Hay Fever. Mr. Sunday was not in his best form, his voice was badly out of condition, caused by a severe attack of hay fever, but he soon warmed up to his work and kept his audience well entertained.

He said that the foundation for the Lincoln meeting was made in Washington many months ago and gave Mr. Bryan credit for it. "Nobody can refuse Mr. Bryan anything," said he, with a smile, "and when he insisted that I should visit Lincoln at my earliest convenience I simply had to promise to do so."

His text was taken from First Peter, third chapter and fifteenth verse: "Be ready always to give an answer for the hope that is within you." He said there was only one hope, the Christian hope, and only one book, the Bible. Riches cannot always bring true happiness, for the wealthy sigh in vain for the hands that have turned to dust.

He emphasized the fact that men and women are ungrateful to God for the blessings that are given them, forgetting that from God all things good must come.

In his address to the men Mr. Sunday took his text from First Kings, second chapter and second verse, "Be thou strong therefore and show thyself a man."

"God is no respecter of persons," said Mr. Sunday, "but he is a respecter of character. A fool may have a knowing look about him, but look out when he opens his mouth, the stuff's off then. Christian character is the greatest thing in the world and I am for it. You cannot live the life of a moral blackleg without paying the price as long as you live. Some people think they have got to sow their wild oats. Let me tell you, the best time to sow that crop of oats is to do it between the ages of ninety and ninety-five."

"If every man would do right Satan would bank his fires tomorrow, hang crepe on the front door knob and hell would be for rent."

Sunday then started out on the story of David and Goliath. In telling it he appeared to regain his old fire and the telling blows given, mingled with the humorous way he told it, set the crowd in a roar.

Muzik's Appeal Acts as Stay.

Appeal of his case to the supreme court will stay the electrocution of Emil Muzik of Douglas county from Sept. 15 to some date after the argument is heard and decision rendered. Muzik was convicted for the murder of his wife, following a quarrel they had when he refused to get up one morning and go to work.

Two Injured at Tri-State Fair.

At Crawford a large crowd was present at the tri-state fair and race meet. Two horses jumped the track with their riders, seriously injuring Joe Sikorski and Colonel W. H. J. Raum, spectators. Colonel Raum is a member of Governor Morehead's staff and was acting as assistant marshal of the day when the accident occurred.

Nemaha Baptists Meet at Tecumseh.

This week the Nemaha Baptist association will hold a convention in Tecumseh and, as the association's territory includes several counties in that section of the state, it is expected that many delegates will be in attendance.

No Postmortem Touch.

"Loan me $5 until Thursday, old man. If I live till then I'll surely pay you."

"All right. But if you succeed don't send anybody around to touch me for the funeral expenses."—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Modus Vivendi.

The term modus vivendi is a mutual arrangement whereby persons not at the time being on friendly terms can be induced to live together in harmony. The term may be applied to individuals, to societies or to peoples. It signifies a mode of living.

CORN PROSPECTS BETTER

Every Day Frost Holds Off Now Simply Increases Enormous Yield.

According to the Burlington's weekly crop report, if the frost catches the Nebraska corn crop it has got to hustle.

The crop report deals with the data gathered by agents and others up to the end of last week and asserts that all of the early planted corn is out of the way of frost. Continuing, the report says:

"After the early corn comes late corn, ranging from that which will be beyond danger from day to day until the end of the month, to corn so very late that it cannot possibly make anything."

"There can be no doubt that if we go to the end of the month without freezing weather, the corn crop of Nebraska will be simply immense. There is no doubt, either, that we have reached the point now where the net results, so far as corn is concerned, will be pretty good under any circumstances. Late corn that is damaged is always valuable for feed and there is probably none anywhere that can be rendered entirely worthless by frost."

As to the condition of corn, comparison is made with its condition of the previous week, indicating a decided improvement on account of the hot weather that was general over the state.

CANNOT MEET SALARIES

Nebraska Hard Hit in Outside Call For Teachers.

President Morris of the state normal board expressed deep regret when interviewed relative to the possibility of increases in salary of state normal faculty members that the board could not meet the salaries offered in other states in order to retain instructors who were called from the Nebraska schools.

"Nebraska has built for itself an enviable reputation for schools and the Peru, Chadron and Kearney schools have developed an efficiency which placed them among the best in the country," said Mr. Morris.

"The schools have been benefited by extensive legislative appropriations buildings and equipment and they are of the most modern in every respect. But the one greatest essential, that of the selection of instructors of proven ability, has suffered because of the lack of meeting salaries offered in other states. After Nebraska has developed her faculty members many are called to other states where they 'make good' at a great increase in salary. The result is that Nebraska is hit in the most vital spot in the seat of learning."

"The fact has been pointed out on various occasions, but now with the loss of Professors Neale, Henson and Richardson, three of the most capable instructors in the Kearney school, all of whom have been called to other states, the fact is felt more keenly than ever."

THREE PERFECT BABIES

Prize Winners at State Fair Contest Are All City Born.

Three perfect babies, all city born, were found in this year's better babies contest at the state fair. They are William B. Thomas of Nelson, Horace G. Armitage of Kearney and Elizabeth M. Webster of Havelock.

Attendance at the state fair was 180,767. That is 13,803 more than in 1912, the previous best year.

Managers of the big exposition are delighted with the results. From Joe Roberts, the president, down through the list, Secretary Mellor, General Manager Jackson, General Superintendent Billy Foster and the rest have nothing but words of praise for the people of the state.

Polk Man Found Dead Under His Auto

Charles E. Harless, a farmer forty years of age, and residing near Polk, was killed when his automobile ran off a bridge on the outskirts of Polk. Mr. Harless had come in on the state fair excursion train and was on his way home when the accident occurred. The automobile was turned bottom side up and the body was pinned beneath the car when found. It is believed that death was instantaneous. Mrs. Harless had accompanied her husband to Lincoln, but did not return with him, intending to spend a few days longer visiting friends.

Omaha Invites State Board of Health.

Dr. H. B. Cummins, secretary of the board of secretaries, received an invitation from the Omaha Commercial club, asking the secretary to select that city for the next conference of the local and state boards of health. "We have also received several requests from prominent physicians that the next meeting be held in Omaha in the month of January, exact date not yet decided," said State Health Inspector Case.

Many to Practice Chiropractics.

Applicants for license to practice chiropractics in the state without examination made their appearance before the new chiropractic board. A total of 125 will likely take examinations this week, making about 165 who will practice in that school under statutory regulation, a result of the enactment of a law by the last legislature.

Morehead Will Speak at Polk.

The ninth anniversary of the founding of Polk will be celebrated on Sept. 22 and 23. On the 22d Governor Morehead will deliver an address, and on the same day the cornerstone of Polk's $15,000 lodge hall and auditorium will be laid.

Executor's Sale OF Wayne Residence ... Property ...

We will sell at public auction on Saturday, October 2, 1915

on the premises, at 2:00 p. m., the following described residence property situated in Wayne and belonging to the estate of the late Mrs. U. M. E. Tharp: The property includes a plot of ground 150 feet square, being lot 15, Taylor & Wacob's addition to Wayne. The main part of the house is 24 by 26, besides a kitchen, pantry and spare room, 14 by 20. It contains seven rooms altogether, and is in good repair. A cement walk extends along the lot and to the house. Good well, cistern, cellar, electric lights and connections with the city waterworks are among the improvements. The outbuildings which are in good condition, include a barn 16 by 28, coal house 8 by 12, and chicken house 8 by 10. A clear title will be given, and the property is very desirable. It is sold to settle the estate. For further particulars inquire of the auctioneer or executors.

TERMS: $350 to be paid on day of sale, and balance when deed and abstract is delivered.

CLYDE OMAN, Auctioneer.

R. N. Tharp and Mrs. Mary A. Killinger
EXECUTORS

PUBLIC SALE Of Real Estate

In order to close the estate of Anna A. Johnson, deceased, we will sell at public auction on the premises, on

Tuesday, Sept. 28

At 1 p. m., the following described real estate, being 320 acres, the east one-half of section 7, township 27, range 4, situated six miles north and one mile east of Wayne, seat of Nebraska State Normal, and three miles south of Concord, in Dixon county.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

The main improvements consist of a house with fourteen rooms; barn 45x48, capable of housing twenty head of horses; tool house 16x20; chicken house 24x18; two hog houses, one 50x16, one 20x24; large cattle shed; two machine sheds; double corn crib; one corn crib 10x32; also several other small buildings.

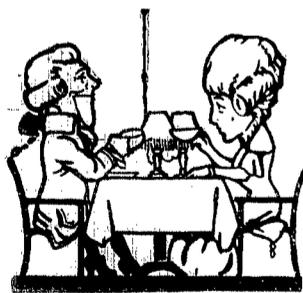

There is an excellent well on this place, with windmill, tanks and supply tank in connection. The orchard consists of bearing fruit trees of all kinds. Nearby the orchard is a vineyard. A good grove affords protection and plenty of wood. Land fenced and cross fenced with barb and hog wire.

This land lies with a north slope, and has always grown big crops, and is considered one of northeast Nebraska's best farms. This sale affords an opportunity for men of limited means to acquire a quarter section apiece, for the land will be sold in a body or divided in half to suit purchasers.

Terms:-- $3,000 to be paid down on date of sale on the 320 acres, or $1,500 down on each quarter; balance over and above a loan of $12,000, running at five and one-half per cent, and due October 23, 1923, will be payable March 1st, 1916.

For further description of the property or explanation of the terms, apply to the undersigned at the Citizens' National Bank, Wayne, Nebr.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Rev. Father Kern is visiting at Jackson this week.

Dr. S. A. Lutgen returns from his visit in Kansas, Friday.

Mesdames Henry and LeRoy Ley were visitors at Sioux City Wednesday.

Try some of our Pink Salmon, Oysters or Celery. Wayne Meat Market.—adv.

Wm. Cunningham went to North Dakota last week to look after his land and the crop thereon.

C. B. Thompson came home Wednesday from a business trip at Neligh and the Bonesteel country.

Mrs. Carl Sund, Mrs. Herman Sund and her mother, Mrs. Gus Zieman are visiting at Sioux City today.

Alice Brooks of Sioux City has been visiting here, a guest of Mrs. Harry Cox, returning home Wednesday.

C. E. Gildersleeve and wife went to Omaha this morning. If Sunday can't come to Wayne they can go to Sunday.

Miss Lou Rickabaugh is spending a vacation week or two with friends at Colome, South Dakota, and at different places in Nebraska.

Mrs. W. H. Norman is at Sioux City today, going over with Mrs. Hoskinson of Sloan, who has been here visiting her daughter, Mrs. McNutt.

Noah Williamson is moving to Sioux City this week, the wife and goods going forward today. He will be here most of the time, however, for two or three weeks.

Mrs. Wendel Baker returned the first of the week from a visit at the home of her daughter, Mr. J. Mulvay at Winner, South Dakota. She reports that they like it well there, and plan to remain.

Chas. Schroeder is hauling out material with which to enlarge and remodel his granary and cribs—evidently planning to husk a big crop of corn to go with the small grain already harvested.

C. Petersen was at Sioux City from Saturday until Monday evening arranging to move to Wayne. He expects the family this week, after which he will begin to feel at home in his new location.

Mrs. James Hammer was here last week visiting at the home of her parents, John Stallsmith and wife, while moving from South Dakota to Pierce, where Mr. H. goes to take charge of a mill. He was for several years in charge of the mill at Wakefield.

"It pays to try us First." Who? Wayne Meat Market. Next to the City Hall. Phone 9.—adv.

L. M. Owen and wife went to Omaha Tuesday for a few days' visit in the metropolis of the state and also to listen to the great preacher who is holding meetings there.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards from Omaha came Tuesday evening to visit at the home of their brother-in-law, W. B. Hughes and wife. Mr. Edwards has long been one of the letter carriers of the city.

E. L. Griffith returned home the first of the week from a visit of two or three weeks with relatives and friends in South Dakota. He tells the same story of big small grain crops and hard work to save it on account of the wet season.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Philleo returned last week from a visit in Minnesota. While there they visited the hospital at Rochester for examination for ill of the flesh, and Mrs. Philleo underwent a slight operation, and is improving in health.

One of the Nebraska men who was killed and robbed in Mexico, making another reason why we should go to war with Mexico, it happens he was not killed at all—it was just one of the mistakes of the Jingo press in naming a man who was live and on the job.

Misses Alma Craven and Margaret Heckert have gone to Lincoln to attend the university this year. They were joined at Winside by Miss Tot Chapin. Messers. James Britton and J. M. Strahan will also enter the school at that place. Mr. Jones from Carroll has also gone to attend there this year.

Roy Hurst and wife returned Saturday evening from a visit at Malvern and Glenwood, Iowa, where they went by automobile. While there he sowed some alfalfa on some land he has rented for next season, when he will move back to Mills county. Ray Maberry and wife of Glenwood returned with them, and returned as far as Lyons by train Tuesday morning.

You may believe you have the best range made and be perfectly sincere in it too, but it's just possible that some one has made a better one and you not know it. Step into Carhart's to the free demonstration of Copper-Clad Malleable Ranges any time next week and then if you go away of the same opinion still, it will be all right with Carhart's.—adv.

F. W. Tillapaugh and wife are here from Seward, New York, visiting at the homes of their cousins, S. W. Dayton and wife. They are on their way to see America for the first time, and this is their first trip toward the "jumping off place" that has extended beyond Ohio. They find farming carried on here quite differently and under different conditions than at their New York home.

Thos. Sundahl returned last Friday to Sholes from his farms near Winner, South Dakota, where he has been looking after his interests. He says they have a bumper crop of small grain, many fields of oats yielding more than 50 bushels of oats per acre. One field of wheat threshed while he was there gave more than 51 bushels per acre, which was more than wheat averaged even though it was a good crop.

I will open my sewing school Wednesday morning, September 22, at 9 o'clock. Mrs. Madden.—adv.

E. J. Trumbauer from St. Charles, Iowa, and his son-in-law, G. W. Burkhead from Sioux City came the first of the week to visit at the home of his son, I. C. Trumbauer and family.—Mr. T. is still here.

W. S. Brown and wife and L. W. Brown were visitors at Sioux City the first of the week.

Mrs. Nettie Conover, who returned to Rochester, Minnesota, a couple weeks ago for consultation with the Mayo Bros., underwent an operation at that place last Saturday, and at last report was doing well.

Fresh Spare Rib or Pork Tenderloin from best corn-fed hogs. Try some from Wayne Meat Market. Phone 9.—adv.

The Westminster Guild will meet with Miss Mabel Dayton Tuesday evening, September 21st. This is the first meeting since June and all members are urged to be present. Secretary.

Miss Jessie Grace returned Wednesday evening from a short visit with home folks at Adair, Iowa.

Rev. Blessing is improving slowly from his serious illness, and asks us to announce that there will be communion services at the English Lutheran church at the usual hour Sunday forenoon, conducted by Rev. S. L. Keller.

The Combination Bridge Company, controlling the bridge over the Missouri between Sioux City and South Sioux City, has gone into the hands of a receiver. The secretary of the company has been appointed receiver, strange to say.

The Dakota County Record gives the following history of the organization:

The bridge was erected 20 years ago by popular subscription and tax, to afford a crossing over the Missouri river for the proposed railroad which was to run from Sioux City to Denver. Donald McLean, promoter for the railroad, was behind the bridge project. After financial reverses the Combination Bridge company was taken over by the Commutation Securities company, which was officered by Sioux City men.

It is thought that when the courts get through with the bridge the ownership will fall to the present managers of the bridge, namely, Eaton, Burgess and the capitol they represent. It will mean that the stockholders, the people that have invested "real money" in the bridge will have been "squeezed out" of the company and the bondholders, who have the "water" in the bridge, will have the property.

Since the railroads quit using the bridge it has hardly paid expenses, let alone dividends on stock and interest on bonds. The bridge receives its support from South Sioux City and northeast Nebraska people and of recent years the attitude of the bridge officials has been directed against the interests of South Sioux City and northeast Nebraska to such an extent that it is now probable that a new bridge will be built by Dakota county. If the project goes through the new structure will be a high bridge and free from toll.

Editor Clark of the Butler County Press at David City has the following to say of Wm. Boll, for years editor of the Red Oak Sun, and from an acquaintance of more than a quarter of a century the editor of the Democrat knows well the truth of the statements, and regrets the passing of so able a newspaper man, such a true friend. Wm. Boll was known to many in this community who came from his home county and who have for years read his excellent paper. The Press says:

One of the most successful and most influential country editors in Iowa passed away at the Mayo Brothers hospital in Rochester, Minnesota, on Tuesday, Aug. 31, when William Boll, of the Red Oak (Iowa) Sun, passed to the great beyond. He had been a newspaper man nearly 40 years, in Red Oak 31 years. He built up a profitable property against odds, by making a paper that was thorough in news service, bright, cheery, and helpful in editorial writing, and temperate and courteous in tone, and by conducting business on self-respecting principles. His methods had distinct impress on newspaper men of Southern Iowa in general. Public-spirited, he did much in helping the growth and development of his town. It was the good fortune of the editor of The Press to be associated with him as a partner for 33½ years.

"For Rent" Bad Signs.

The following article on one of the great economic questions of the day comes to us for publication. It is different from many articles in which labor is placed in one class and capital in another. This claims that labor and capitol are both in the same class, and that "land values" in private ownership is the undoing of both. It is worth your while to study the question. L. J. Quimby is the author.

The other morning I was riding with a land merchant and a representative of an organization of capital. Said the land merchant: "Let me tell you, John, without our friend hearing it, that "For Rent" signs are becoming plentiful in Omaha." "John very solemnly answered, "You are right. Omaha is becoming overbuilt. People are leaving old houses and demanding new ones." I ventured an explanation, when "John" remarked, "I did think I was going to start a single tax discussion." For the benefit of all, let me say that you cannot speak of "For Rent" signs and "overbuilding" in the presence of a single taxer without starting something. So listen to a few facts.

Omaha has been singularly free of "For Rent" signs for many years. If you do not wish to see her join the Denver and St. Louis class in this respect, listen.

Capital and labor unite to produce wealth. The primary essential for them both is land. The land is owned by a few. Therefore both must pay tribute to these few. The more enterprising they become, the greater becomes the demand for land. Consequently the higher will rise land values and rent. The greater must then become the tribute paid to the land owner and the less will be the reward to both capital and labor. This is a plain and palpable truth, but one which, organizations of capital, in their ignorance, ignore; one which, in its ignorance, organized labor does not see.

Even the "ground hog" does not see how this injustice re-acts against himself. Since all of his income from ground rents depends upon the activity and the prosperity of both capital and labor, when the latter two factors decline, he is bound to lose. The time is certain to come when this ground rent income will not pay interest upon his "investment". So he thinks, and our friend, the representative of an organization of capitol, endorses his "think," to stop building, so that the tenants will be compelled to pay enough for old, dilapidated, out-of-date, unsanitary stores, factories and homes to make interest on this increasing land value.

To those who believe (and I am one of them) that Billy Sunday will improve the moral tone of Omaha, let me say: If he does, it will stimulate local enterprise. It will encourage people to come here. Omaha will grow. Land values and rents will rise. Both capital and labor will still pay higher tribute to the owner of the land. Finally the strain will reach the breaking point. Decline will commence. Then what will become of the moral tone? It must decline to. For a laborer who is hungry cannot view moral principles in the same light as when he is well fed. (Christ fed the multitude before he preached to them.) Nor will the manufacturer, the merchant or other employer comprehend the same ideals nor hold the same consideration for the welfare and peace of others, when he is confronted with the possible loss of his earnings of a life-time. It becomes a struggle in which the "devil" takes the hindmost.

Oh, if Billy Sunday, with his great influence could but grasp these fundamental economic truths. He would then think a little more about aiding in the building of an economic foundation upon which might rest a religious and moral structure more enduring. For the sons of men will never be reached and purified and so maintained so long as there remains a struggle for existence. Nature is not niggardly. Such a struggle need not exist. Simply stop the private confiscation of economic rent, stop taxing industry in order to enable a few to take that which is produced by all—the rental value of land.

News From The Capitol

A letter from Lincoln tells of some of the business the state is engaged in and gives the figures to show what is being done. In the food department the books and account of Clarence E. Harman have been audited and show that the deputy commissioner of food, dairy and oil have received since December 1 last, to August 1, $74,988.87, and at the beginning of that term there was cash on hand amounting to $10,692.75. The disbursements during the nine months were $59,749.41, leaving a cash balance of $25,932.21. This sum was turned into the state treasury early in September.

Some friction having arisen over the question whether Commissioner Harman's fees are all legally appropriated for the use of his department, the state accountant made a special examination to ascertain how much, if any, could be regarded as available for use. He reports the following amounts, collected since April 1, 1915, and are said to be available for use:

From seed tests $1,279.11; weights and measures $1,461.70; dairy law $8,029.22, making a total of $10,770.03.

Secretary Bernecker of the state board of equalization and assessment has given out the final figures of the 1915 tax levy. In one or more counties it was found necessary to make some minor corrections in the assessed valuation. Following is the levy based on a grand assessment roll totaling $480,814,192:

General fund, $1,971,338.25; university, $460,614.20; university building, $360,610.60; normal school $408,692.04; state aid bridge $48,081.41. This is on the basis of a levy of a total of 6.8 mills, which is a reduction of one mill from the levy of 1913 and 1914. The letter then says: Governor Morehead, Auditor Smith, Secretary of State Poole and Land Commissioner Beckmann are the board members who voted to reduce the 1915 levy one mill below the previous years, and thus save the people of Nebraska upwards of half a million dollars. In some quarters these gentlemen have been criticised for their act, the claim being that the general fund would not produce revenue enough to keep the warrants from going to a discount. Let us see if the claim has any merit:

The 1915 levy for general fund is $1,971,338.25 and the total appropriation for two years, 1915 and 1916, charged against this fund are $4,782,450.63. One half this sum is $2,391,225.32, which would apparently be some four hundred twenty thousand dollars greater than the levy. If we assume that 93 per cent of the 1915 taxes will be collected in the twelve months following the levy, and that the amounts of prior years' delinquent taxes collected in 1915 will make up for that portion of 1915 taxes collected in 1916 and later, then the available money to cover the general fund expenditures of 1915 with cash on hand will be about $2,633,794.23.

Thus it will be seen that the state has in sight nearly a quarter of a million dollars more than enough to care for the 1915 general fund expenditures—and that surely is sufficient margin to enable the state treasurer to keep warrants at par.

There is talk of Bloomfield and the railroad working together to take the kinks out of Bazile creek through that place so as to avoid their bad floods at that place. A wise thing to do, and an economical one, no doubt.

Rejected Claims.

818	Ekeroth & Sar,	supplies for Wendell Baker for $21.70 filed August 21, 1915, was examined and on motion rejected. Audited and allowed claims, but no warrant ordered.
896	Standard Bridge company,	estimate on 1915 bridges
	bridge work and bridge material claimed $4,000; audited and allowed at $4,000, but no warrant issued or ordered.

An order of the county court having been filed with this board, relative to the Baker children, Edna, LeRoy and Pearl which order is as follows:

And now on this 7th day of September, A. D., 1915, this cause came on for hearing upon the petition of Mrs. Dora Baker, asking to be appointed guardian of said children and was heard upon the evidence and submitted to the court, all parties being present in court.

Whereupon the court finds that the said Dora Baker is not a competent person to be appointed guardian of said children but that the children are dependent and are entitled to receive aid under the dependent children act, from the County of Wayne. The court further finds that St. James Orphanage of Omaha, Nebraska is a proper institution and suitable home for said children.

It is therefore ordered that said children receive support from the County of Wayne, Nebraska in the amount of Eighteen ($18.00) Dollars per month for the period of six months and that said money shall be made payable to the St. James Orphanage of Omaha, Nebraska for that purpose.

Laid over and not passed on claims.

Whereupon the board adjourned sine die.—Chas. W. Reynolds, Clerk.

Ak-Sar-Ben Festival

The Ak-Sar-Ben festivities will begin September 29, at Omaha and continue until and including October 10th, with every day featured by something that will long be remembered.

Parades, three of them, supplemented by a grand concert by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, will furnish diversion from the carnival features. Tuesday afternoon, October 5, will be the occasion of the first parade, a huge automobile floral affair, with gaily decorated cars from everywhere. The Electrical Parade, recognized, the world over for its originality, uniqueness and completeness, is set for Wednesday night, October 6. The Boston Symphony Orchestra concert comes Thursday night, the festivities closing with the Coronation ball Friday night.

The carnival grounds have been shifted. The welcome arch will be located at 15th and Howard streets, with the grounds extending from Howard to Jackson, Jones and Leavenworth streets, between 5th and 16th streets.

About the "Bell Monopoly"

Sometimes we hear the phrase, "Bell Monopoly." What does it mean?

There are 19,093 cities and towns in the United States that have telephone exchanges. An Associated Bell Telephone Company operates exclusively in about one-fourth of these places and Independent Companies operate in the other three-fourths.

What the Figures Say

Of the 19,093 cities and towns in the United States that have telephone exchanges, Independent Companies have a monopoly in 12,764, and Bell Companies operate exclusively in 4,465, while two companies compete in the other 1,864 places.

The Associated Bell Companies reach over their own long distance lines, or the lines of Independent Companies, practically all of the places that have telephone exchanges and about 50,000 other communities too small for exchanges.

The Bell Telephone organization has sought universal service and not universal ownership.

A Bit of Altoona News

This little berg was enlivened last week by a series of entertainments from the Wallace Golden Rule show company, who pitched their tent here for a few days and exhibited their collection of animals and trick mules as well as moving pictures. One of the sensations was the appearance of two "colored gents" who proceeded to take the prize offered for riding the unrideable mule, and then they washed the black chalk off and two well known young men appeared on the scene.

A new set of farm improvements is going up on the southeast quarter of section 31., the property of Robert Roggenbach. House, barn, granary and all, and it was said that it is to be the home of two very worthy young people, who are soon to wed. All congratulate. The house is to be 38x38 two stories high, the barn is to be 30x28 and a granary of ample size. A. M. Helt of Wayne is to be the builder.

The reports from the business end of the threshing outfits that have been working here between showers are very satisfactory as to oats, and but little wheat was sown in this neighborhood, and it yielded only 11 bushels per acre. Of the oats Robert Roggenbach reports a yield of 39 bushels per acre; Aug. Mattes, 49; Carl Wolters 47; W. E. and George Roggenbach, 52 and 50 respectively. The corn crop is much the same as elsewhere. There are some fields with the earliest ears almost out of the way of damage from the frost and there are others that most of the corn is hardly roasting ear stage yet. Dry warm weather is the plea of all, but there appears slight answer to the call from the weather man.

Winside Notes

(From the Tribune)

Lester, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Longcor, while playing about home Monday fell from a fence and fractured his arm. He is doing nicely at this time.

Messrs. and Mesdames Wm. Prince and John L. Williams and Miss Emily Prince were passengers to Lincoln yesterday, where they will take in the sights at the State Fair.

Mrs. C. W. Reed was hostess to fifteen members of the Woman's Club last Thursday afternoon at a Kensington party. Ice Cream and cake were served and an enjoyable time had.

The Country Club was royally entertained at the Lloyd Prince home Wednesday afternoon. Lunch was served and all feel that it was the most enjoyable time they have had for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Berger were passengers Monday morning to Rosebud, Mo. where they will spend a month in the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Berger, and with other relatives.

Clyde Hodgson, I. O. Brown and Charles Flagg and a Mr. Hartman landed about 55 pounds of fine fish Sunday night, the largest ones weighing about 7½ pounds. It was the finest bunch that we ever saw together.

While returning home Saturday evening, Wm. Bayes' horse became frightened at an automobile and plunged into the barb wire fence and received a severe cutting. It was necessary to cut the wires before they could get the horse up.

E. B. Henderson commenced work on his new residence in the north part of town last Thursday. The home will be 24x28x32 one story and is expected to be completed by October 15. The basement and foundation are nearly completed and the carpenters will soon be on duty.

A heavy rain accompanied by a terrific wind and some hail visited Winside and vicinity late Monday afternoon. The assumed gigantic proportions west and northwest of town leveling acres and acres of corn. While no damage is reported it will no doubt make corn husking difficult and very inconvenient, the enormous ears which are in evidence this year removing any possibility of the corn's retaining its upright position.

Our public schools opened Monday with an attendance of 134 pupils. The following is a list of the instructors and the number of pupils under their supervision: Prof. G. E. Cress, principal, and Miss Muril Haviland, assistant principal, 25; Mrs. Vernon Sears, grammar room, 20; Miss Gertrude Bayes and Gertrude Motson, intermediate, 47; Miss Josephine Carter, primary, 42. The directors for the ensuing year are G. A. Middlestaadt, W. B. Lewis, C. E. Needham, Walter Gaebler and E. W. Cullen.

A Japanese newspaper man has just come to America with eleven young ladies from Japan who are to be wed to Japanese laborers in the west. But for their yellow hue that might be called a violation of the Mann White-Slave law. But it does not look right to give the colored people rights which are denied the whites, under the amendment to the constitution which makes all equal.

Carroll Items

(From the Index)

The Carroll public schools opened Monday with the following teachers in charge: Gomer A. Jones, Superintendent; Mrs. Marie Porter of Silver Creek, Nebr., Principal; Miss Laura Wurtzel of Lincoln, Assistant Principal; Miss Ruth Sterling of Sioux City, Grammar Room; Miss Clara Linn, Intermediate; Miss Ina Reed of Winside, Second Primary and Miss Elizabeth Taylor, Primary.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Allensworth and son Jack returned Friday evening from a week's visit with their daughter at Worthington, Minnesota. They made the run home, a distance of 210 miles, in ten hours. Mr. Allensworth says that Iowa and Minn. roads are about one hundred per cent better than are Nebraska roads. If this is the case, what are we going to do about it?

Phil Horn left Friday morning for Akron, Colorado to bring his family and household goods back to Carroll where they will reside the coming year.

Mrs. Ed Carroll and daughters Frances and Dorothy, of Randolph, visited in the Thos. Hennessy home from Friday noon until Sunday evening.

Harvey and Griffith Garwood departed Thursday afternoon for an extended visit with friends and relatives in Ohio.

Miss Ethel Garwood left Friday for Coleridge where she has been engaged to teach in the public schools.

Legal Notice

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF WAYNE COUNTY, NEBRASKA.

The State of Nebraska, on the relation of Norris Brown, Attorney General, Plaintiff, vs. The Wayne County Agricultural Society, Frank E. Strahan, the Wayne Speed and Fine Stock Association and the County of Wayne, Defendants.

TO ALL CREDITORS OF STOCK-HOLDERS AND OFFICERS OF, AND ALL OTHER PERSONS INTERESTED IN THE WAYNE COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Notice is hereby given that claims are now on file in this case against the Wayne County, Nebraska, Agricultural Society, dissolved, and against the funds thereof in the hands of the trustees John T. Bressler, Harry B. Jones, (Substituted for D. C. Main, deceased) and Gilbert E. French, and that said trustees have filed their final report in this case accompanied by a petition for the allowance of all just and legal claims and for an order of distribution and praying that the Court enter such other and further orders in the premises as may be just and agreeable to equity.

It is therefore ordered by the Court that on October 16th, A. D. 1915, at the court house in the city of Wayne, Wayne County, Nebraska, at the hour of 9 o'clock, A. M. thereof, or as soon thereafter as the case may be heard, said Court will pass upon said claim and on all other claims which may be filed and will make an order of distribution and enter such other and further orders and judgments in the case as may appear to be just and legal. All persons in interest may file such just and lawful claims as they have before said date which will be duly considered. It is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Wayne Herald and the Nebraska Democrat, for four successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.

ANDREW R. OLESON, Judge.

The meat of the nut of the Farmer's Union stores over the country is co-operation among the farmers. In turn, the foundation of co-operation is fraternity. Now fraternity is not agrarian. It is universal. And with this same spirit of fraternity as a common meeting ground why is it that the farmers and the merchants of these country towns cannot co-operate harmoniously and to mutual advantage? It requires experience and personal adaptability to be a successful merchant just as it does to be a successful farmer. All cannot be farmers and all cannot be merchants. Each must look to others for service under our present complex system of living. The farmers do not expect something for nothing and neither do the merchants. While the farmers complain that they get the worst of it in every respect under present conditions, the merchants make the same complaint in regard to themselves. And viewed from the standpoint of investment and hours employed as compared with many other lines both of them are right, in that they do not get proportionate results. Merchandising is highly precarious and aside from the increase in land values, the actual operating of farms requires a life-time to accumulate a nest-egg for declining years. So it is that if there are any two classes of people who should and could co-operate to mutual advantage it is the farmers and the merchants. If the little spirit of antagonism which now prevails could be dispelled and all the merchants of Coleridge and all the farmers here about would hold a general conference and freely discuss their mutual affairs, we believe much of advantage to both would develop and incidentally all of us would be benefitted.

Times are noticeably better in the eastern states. The New Haven road shows a gain of about 100 per cent in net earnings in July as compared with the same month a year ago. The gross earnings increased nearly half a million dollars, showing that the improvement was by no means brought about by cutting down operating expenses. The stockholders of the New Haven ought to know by this time that if it had not been for high finance the property ought now to be approaching a permanent dividend paying basis. As it is, it will require considerable more improvement and a continuation of the policy of rigid economy and strict management to cause the dividend checks flow once more into the homes of the New England investors.—State Journal.
