INTEREST GROWING IN REVIVAL

Tabernacle Meetings Continue Center of Attraction at Wayne. Many Out-of-Town Visitors Daily Come Program until the Close

The sawdust trail at the big tabernacle is beginning to be traveled as the call is given every evening and many converts are going forward to consecrate their lives to noble thoughts and deeds. The meetings are now more than half over and the last week is going to see interest run high for all the members of the evangelistic party are working hard and the climax is going to make things hum.

Thursday evening nearly two hundred young people were in attendance to the banquet supervised by Earle Fife at the Methodist church. A most splendid time was had, the eating and the talkfest after being much enjoyed. Thursday evening the sermon was "Going Away From God."

The men's meeting at the Theobald store Friday morning was the last to be held until further announcement as personal work from house to house has been inaugurated. The popular concert Friday evening was well attended and most thoroughly enjoyed, the Fife company proving themselves to be royal entertainers of exceptionally fine talent, living up to their name of the "world's most musical evangelists."

Saturday afternoon the children met with Earle Fife in the tabernacle where he told them stories of the bible and bible characters. At three o'clock the second street meeting was held at Winside which was well attended and carefully listened to. In the evening the sermon was on the subject "Influence."

Sunday morning instead of preaching on the subject of "Heaven" Evangelist Fife took charge of raising the required $1000 to pay for the rent of the tabernacle and other expenses. The amount was successfully raised by pledges which are to be paid to the members of the finance committee. Large delegations from surrounding towns were present and although not solicited subscriptions were received from many of the people from outside of Wayne.

In the afternoon the evangelist preached a red hot sermon to the men and boys on "Cleaning up the town." A fine men's choir added much to the meeting. Mr. Fife said that in order to clean up any town, bad profanity, gambling, drinking, adultery, dancing, alley joints, any places that breed the wrong spirit of life should be done away with. Mr. Fife did not couch his thoughts in velvet but struck truths straight home to his listeners in such a way that there could be no mistake as to his meaning when he went after things he does not believe to be for the upbuilding of the community. Many men consecrated their lives to God in this meeting. At the same time that Mr. Fife was speaking to the men and boys, Miss Yockey spoke to the women and girls at the Baptist church on the subject "Responsibility of the Women of the Community." At seven-thirty in the big meeting in the tabernacle which was full to overflowing with people from surrounding towns and community, the preacher spoke on the subject he was to have spoken on in the morning, "Heaven, what and where is it."

Tuesday afternoon Mr. Robert Fife, one of the greatest living impersonators of Abraham Lincoln, spoke to the high school on the "Life and Times of Abraham Lincoln" and read to them from documents telling of the life of Lincoln from letters written by men who were near him when he lived. These letters or documents possessed by Mr. Fife are the original minutes of many priceless facts telling of the man of whom we all love to hear. Tuesday evening the evangelist spoke on the subject, "The Woman Who Moved to Town." This was women night, the ladies having a section of the seats reserved for them, the choir being composed of men only. This was one of the big feature sermons full of splendid truths concerning community life.

Wednesday at four o'clock Miss Yockey met the girls at the Presbyterian church. These meetings are very popular with the girls and much interest is being displayed. Wednesday evening the sermon was on "Excuses", excuses that are offered by the many people, both in the church and out, as to why they stay away from the meetings and why they refuse to live the things that are pure and clean.

This evening at the Methodist church over two hundred young people are expected at the banquet, under the supervision of Mr. Fife. Thursday evening the sermon will be on "Amusements"; Mr. Fife will speak on all kinds of amusements, their value or their harm. Delegations from the surrounding towns are expected.

Starting with tomorrow's program we give below the program for the ensuing week in condensed form up to the time of the closing of the meetings, October 8th:

Welden Crossland to Detroit

Rev. Welden Crossland, who graduated from Oxford, England, this year, and came last summer to visit his parents, Geo. Crossland and wife for a short time, then married the lady of his choice at Lincoln, after spending a few months in chautauqua work and considering location for the start of his life work has been tendered and accepted the place of assistant pastor to Dr. Smith, pastor of the Central Methodist church of Detroit, the largest church in Michigan. Dr. Smith is an able man, in a commanding position among the church workers of that denomination and to be selected for so important a place by one standing high as does Dr. Smith in religious work is a recognition of merit which his Wayne friends have long thought he possessed. That Rev. Crossland will make good in his new home is the confident prediction of all who know his ability.

Gardner-Donner

At Glenwood, Iowa, Wednesday, September 20, 1916, Mr. Henry Gardner of Emerson and Mrs. E. S. Donner of this place were united in marriage, to the surprise of numerous relatives, acquaintances and friends.

Mrs. Donner left here last week for Malvern, Iowa, and was joined at Emerson by Mr. Gardner, and together they went to the home of Mrs. Donner's sister at Malvern, and Wednesday accompanied by her sister went to Glenwood and were wed. They returned to this place Friday, and from here Mr. Gardner went to his Emerson home, where the bride is to join him this week. Both are well known here, the lady having made this vicinity her home for a number of years. Mr. G. is employed at a comfortable salary at the city light plant at Emerson. May joy attend them.

The Passing of Russell Rubeck

Thursday morning last, September 21, 1916, the body of Russell Rubeck, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Rubeck was found in his bed still in death, his arms folded across his breast in position natural to one in a peaceful sleep, showing that when the messenger came for the soul there had been no struggle or pain.

Russell Rubeck had been for years in poor health, his heart never becoming normal since a child when he suffered from a severe attack of scarlet fever, and physicians predicted that death might come to him in this manner in spite of all that medical skill could do to avert it. So while not unexpected it was a shock to the members of the family, and the sympathy of the entire community goes out to them in their sorrow.

Russell was born at Wakefield and moved with his parents to this county when but a small child, and most of his life has been spent here. Because of his ill health it was not his privilege to enjoy to full extent the advantages of school and many of the pleasures of childhood, but he was ever a patient sufferer, and he will be most sorely missed by the family.

The funeral from the Baptist church Sunday afternoon was largely attended, and Rev. W. L. Gaston spoke words of comfort to the sorrowing friends, and the body was laid to rest in the Wayne cemetery. Father, mother, brothers and sisters gathered at his grave, all except his brother Leslie, who was with the soldier boys on the border when news came of the death, but was hastening home, arriving one day late for the funeral. Had it been known that he was coming the funeral would have been postponed until his arrival, but the message telling of his coming miscarried, and was not received until after the funeral.

THANKS We desire to express our most sincere thanks to friends and neighbors for their many acts of sympathy and thoughtful aid extended to us in our hour of bereavement and deep sorrow, deeds and words which cannot we repay, nor can we fully express our appreciation of them.

Chas. Rubeck, wife and family.

Fire at the Clyde Oman Farm

Last Thursday noon as Ed Surber and family, who are farming the Clyde Oman farm about four miles southwest of Wayne were at dinner, they discovered that the farm buildings were burning. Neighbors had seen the fire before the Surber family did (they dined in a room from which they had no view of the barn) and were hastening to aid all that was in their power. The origin of the fire is not known but apparently it had started in a stack of hay and had gained such headway that it was not possible to stop it while there was material near at hand to feed it nor could they rescue much from the buildings.

Two good granaries were burned a barn and cow shed, about 1800 bushels of grain, three hay stacks, straw from 80 acres of grain, four horses, harness and a new wagon. The loss was divided between Messrs. Oman and Surber, most of the grain hay and straw belonging to the tenant while the buildings were property of the owner.

Mr. Oman had nearly $500 insurance on the barn and about the same on the granary, while Mr. Surber had $600 on his horses and some on other things. Both still sustain considerable loss after insurance is paid. The work of erecting a new barn has already commenced, and to this other buildings will be added as demanded.

Woodman Meeting Postponed

On account of the sickness of Head Constable Talbot, who is suffering from blood poisoning at his Lincoln home, the county rally to which he was to have been held the 29th at Wayne has been indefinitely postponed. Notice of a new date will be given when it is fixed.

September Rain Record

September 5, .26; Sept. 6, .28; Sept. 10, 1.05; Sept. 12, .20; Sept. 24, .15; Sept. 26, .62. Total to date 2.56. Total for September 1914, 2.62. Total for September 1915, 2.08.

Conover-Rickabaugh

The marriage of Clinton E. Conover, son of the late Mrs. J. I. Conover, to Miss Rue L. Rickabaugh, daughter of Mrs. Emma Rickabaugh, was solemnized at the Baptist church at Sioux City Thursday, September 14, 1916, Rev. Stevens, the pastor, performing the ring ceremony. Mrs. Emma Rickabaugh and Miss Ethel Huff were witnesses to the marriage.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Conover are well known in Wayne and vicinity, having been born and raised here. Miss Rickabaugh for the past seven years has been bookkeeper in the German store where she has won many friends. She has been an earnest worker in all the Baptist church work, especially the Sunday school, where she gave much of her time to teaching the classes among the little folks. Mr. Conover is a young man of fine character, a farmer and a business man that is bound to succeed.

The newly married couple will make their future home on their farm near Colome, South Dakota. Mrs. Emma Rickabaugh will also make her home with her daughter and husband. Mr. Conover will depart the last of the week with the household goods, his wife and her mother following a few days later.

The Democrat extends with the many friends of this excellent young couple the hope that they will enjoy the best of success and all the happiness that life can give them.

Nat'l Prohibition Candidates Here

Station agent Moran received notice a few days ago that the prohibition candidate for presidency, J. Frank Hanley and the vice presidential nominee on the same ticket, will stop at Wayne October 4th at 11:50 a. m. The party is traveling in a special train, and will leave Omaha the morning of October the 4th, stopping at Fremont, Norfolk and Wayne. These four points are the only points to be touched in Nebraska. The train is due to arrive here at 11:50 and stay here until 12:20, going on from here to Sioux City. The time of the coming is very convenient for all business men and a large number will no doubt listen to a man who is of presidential size even though he can have no hope of election this year.

Randolph Methodist Church Burns

A severe storm visited the section northwest of Wayne Saturday night, and did more than $20,000 damage at and near Randolph. The Methodist church was struck by lightning and burned, together with the pastor's library, valued at $2,000. The church was built quite recently at a cost of $17,000, and carried $12,500 insurance.

Two barns were struck and burned at the same time, one belonging to Venslack in the town, the other on the Leise place four or five miles out. At the latter place a number of horses were killed or burned.

All the country northwest of Wayne appears to have suffered from much heavier rains than we had here.

Wed Fifty Years Ago Tomorrow

William Hill and wife, formerly of this place but now living at Winnebago will tomorrow celebrate the 50th anniversary of their marriage. When residents of this county they owned and lived on a farm about three miles south. They have been away from here about eight years, and still have numerous friends here who will be glad to congratulate them on the attainment of a half century of married life.

Lost Their Drummer Boy

Sherman Lyons, secretary and trap drummer as well as general utility man with the Fife Brothers evangelists left Sunday to go to the border with Co. F of the Wyoming soldier boys, they having been called last week to go to take the place of some other guards now in the south. He will be missed much by those whom he worked with and by friends made since coming to Wayne, but such is war and preparedness.

A Great Historical Picture Play

The truth of what Sherman said many years ago regarding a favorite pastime of crowned heads and men with great political ambitions about war, was demonstrated to 3,000 people of this vicinity this week as they witnessed the greatest of all photoplays, the "Birth of a Nation" which James Brittain with characteristic enterprise had secured for an attraction here.

It is a most wonderful production, educational and entertaining. In no other way could a people so vividly realize the horrors of war and the train of sorrow and suffering which follows in its wake—converting happy homes into houses of mourning, crazing men to do deeds of valor—deeds of murder and rapine. The fearful sacrifice of life, property and regard for the rights of the weak were portrayed in a most realistic manner. To men who had taken a part in such scenes, mothers and relatives who had suffered the anguish and anxiety of those who must remain at home and await the results of carnage; and to the young who had never learned more than the glory side of war it came as a reminder of other and darker days, an opportunity for a glimpse of the hell which most of Europe has been living and dying for the past two years, with horrors greater than those portrayed—where the art of killing is modernized and carried on to an extent never before possible.

The inception of slavery in America, the growth of the institution, and the final culmination in internal strife; the ambitions and jealousies, loves and hates; the wisdom and justice of Lincoln and his conception of reconstruction, and reconstruction as it was made by those who had desire for place and power with revenge were portrayed most true to history—in brief it is a history of the greatest mistake ever made by a free people to attain perfection in self government.

The picture is accompanied by a fifteen piece orchestra of talented musicians who play continually throughout the three hour show, music that adds a human touch to every one of the five thousand scenes. The orchestra is well worth the price of admission, the musical score being composed of airs of the old songs of the days gone by when the old south was happy and free and the north not yet stirred by the slavery question. The war music is played with that spirit that only war music can arouse. The final fall, the cry of a defeated people, the Call of the Klu Klux Klan, all are mixed in a hundred melodies.

Democratic Caucus

It is hereby announced that the Democrats of Wayne will meet in caucus at the city hall on Saturday, September 30th, at 3 o'clock for the purpose of placing in nomination precinct officers and transacting such other business as may rightfully come before it.

J. H. KEMP, Secretary.

L. A. KIPLINGER, Chairman

Big Democratic Dinner at Norfolk

Arrangements are completed for a get-together dinner of democrats at Norfolk Thursday, October 12th—real old fashioned pow-wow—at which state and district candidates will speak. There will be room for about 350 to be seated at the tables, and the Democrat has been assigned four tickets to sell to those from Wayne who may wish to go. The price is but $1.00.

The dinner is at 6:30 at the Elk hall. On the list of speakers will be Senator Hitchcock, Keith Neville, Prof. W. R. Clemens, Congressman Stephens, Attorney General Reed, Edgar Howard and others high in the councils of the party. The Wayne Normal Quartet has been asked to sing, and doubtless they will. Jack Rice is toastmaster. Seats should be secured before October 5th.

Gun Club Notes

On Friday last members of the gun club went to their potato patch and made the following scores: Miner, 23; Fisher, 21; Weber, 18; Wendte, 16; Clyde Fife, 16.

Wednesday evening two events were shot and the following scores were made in 1st and 2d shoots: Wiley, 22-23; Weber, 21-20; Fife, 16-17; Carhart, 13-19; Conn, 17.

This leaves Wiley the proud man with the medal.

By the way that potato patch was due to the same Irish Wiley. He said to keep the weeds down on the lots rented for gun practice, plant and tend potatoes, and as a result the nine men who started the game in the spring now have the potatoes or about $14.00 to show for their labor.

"Buy It In Wayne"

Thousands of little metal signs to be placed at every farm and at every cross-road and in each and every available spot will be seen from this time on all about. This was a move of the business men, who subscribed the cash for this advice to all the people, and one farmer says he hopes the fellows who paid for the signs will remember what they say, and hereafter make it their habit to "Buy It In Wayne."

Real Estate Transfers

(Reported by Forrest L. Hughes, Bonded Abstractor.)

Bagley-Renard Company to E. Crawford, lots 4 and 5 in block 10, original Carroll, Nebraska, consideration $1,000.

John T. Bressler and wife to William P. Gabler and John L. Gabler, lots 26 and 27 in block 1, original Winside, consideration $1,000.00.

Local Weather Forecast

Will Weber, the local weather prophet, is again on the job. Last week he came home too late to get his predictions published, he said frequent showers until the 27th. The coming week he says "Fair and Frosty." And then adds, "this is the week to gather your seed-corn."

R. B. Judson was a passenger to Sioux City the first of the week on a business trip.

Herman Mildner was a passenger to Creighton Tuesday on business for two days.

John Bush was visiting at Hay Springs on a business mission the first of the week.

SEED RYE FOR SALE—See Fred Ellis, 3 miles west of Wayne, phone 21-409.—adv. 38-2.

Miss Beth Yaryan of Carroll spent Saturday and Sunday visiting at the J. McIntosh home.

Misses Hilda Gustafson and Anna Jacoba were visitors at the Ed Dotson home a Winside Sunday.

For Rent—A 6-room house with electric lights and city water and good cistern. L. M. Owen.—adv.

Art Larsen and wife from this place and Chas. Kolo of Winside went to Cheyenne county Tuesday with W. O. Hanssen.

C. O. Fitch of Emerson visited with his parents, J. Fitch and wife, the first of the week and with his brother, Don Fitch and family.

S. E. Auker was at Omaha Monday where he purchased three cars of cattle for Arthur Nygren, who lives between here and Concord.

Rev. A. Ollenberg and family from Bloomfield were greeting Wayne friends Tuesday, while on their way to visit relatives at Seward.

For Sale—A Chace & Baker piano player, fits any make piano, and may be seen and particulars learned at the home of Geo. Grunemeyer.—adv. 39-4.

Fred Larsen is carrying his left hand in a sling because the band cutter of the threshing machine at Jas. Spahr's caught his little finger and cut it about half off Monday.

If you happen to ask Kiplinger how he came to have his eyes dressed in deep mourning he will tell that he was not heavy enough, and that is true, beyond a doubt, and then he will go on with some story of being thrown up and bumping his head on the top as he ambles away. At any rate it is a bad looking pair of eyes.

J. M. Ellenburg and son Harris were passengers to Omaha Monday afternoon on business for a day or two.

Mrs. Caroline Cieseman went to Scribner Monday to visit with her daughter, Mrs. A. Soll and family for a week.

Irvin Auker returned home Monday from Rushville where he has been visiting with relatives for a short time.

Don't forget that Mrs. Jeffries' stock of ladies ready-to-wear garments is complete in quantity and quality—a women's store for women's wear.—adv.

Mrs. Geo. E. Drebert and Mrs. Emma Drebert from Pierce came Tuesday from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where they have been visiting their father and a sister, to visit at the home of their brother, L. A. Fenske at this place.

Wm. Orr and wife went to Lincoln Tuesday to visit at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Cavanaugh. Mrs. Orr is planning to remain for more extended visit than Mr. Orr, who will return this week.

S. D. Relvea and wife were called to Norfolk Tuesday to attend the funeral of his uncle, W. E. Gleason of that place. Mr. Gleason for many years was a resident of this county, being one of the pioneers in the vicinity of Hoskins, where he settled in the early '80's.

W. Furchner left for his home in Plankinton, South Dakota, Friday after a few days visit with his sister, Mrs. Herman Mildner and family. This is Mr. Furchner's first visit here in the past twenty-five years. Naturally he finds a few minor changes in the natural scenery, in the size and quality of the town and other things. He was much pleased by the change too.

Olaf Servens and family from Villisca, Iowa, came last week to visit a few days at the home of his brother, N. O. Servens, near Wakefield, and they drove to Wayne Monday and paid the Democrat a visit. This was the first visit of Mr. Servens at Wayne, and he will go back and report that it is a splendid farming country—one that is hard to beat. His son, who attended college here last winter was with them, and he regrets that it now seems that it will not be possible for him to return to school this year.

Mrs. C. Ash and daughter Grace went to Sioux City Friday for the day.

A. R. Davis was a passenger to Norfolk Friday evening on legal business.

M. T. Munsinger, wife and daughter were passengers to Sioux City Friday on business and to attend the fair.

Friday and Saturday Mrs. Jeffries will have a special display of ladies' coats—an assortment to fit and please all—Friday and Saturday. Come.—adv.

People wanting to own a Nebraska farm will profit from reading of the "Ideal Ranch" in this issue of the paper. Price and terms are said to be right.

Mrs. H. W. Robinson and daughter Marion June, returned to their home in Hayward, Iowa, Monday morning after several weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lund.

Mrs. Lou Owen and Mrs. H. J. Miner returned home Monday morning from Chicago and Kaneville, Illinois, where they have been visiting the past two weeks with relatives.

Mrs. Davis of Craig, who has been visiting her daughter here, went to Ponder Tuesday morning to visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Smith and family for a few days. Her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Phipps accompanied her as far as Emerson.

Dr. C. T. Ingham and wife returned home from Wisner the first of the week where he has been visiting with his brother, Ed Ingham, for the past few days. Dr. Ingham will resume his practice now, having recovered from his sickness of the past summer.

I am still doing business at the old stand and have some real bargains in Wayne property, prices and terms right. Can sell some on the monthly payment plan which beats paying rent. See me for fire and windstorm insurance or first-class loans. I. W. ALTER.—adv. 38-3.

W. M. Hansen and wife of Correctionville, Iowa, returned home Tuesday after a week visit with Mr. Hansen's brothers, Henry and R. H. Hansen, and with their son Nick Hansen who is in the Wayne hospital recovering from blood poisoning of the jaw. Mrs. M. C. Maroney of LaFayette, Indiana, who has been here visiting with her uncle, Nick Hansen, returned with them to visit a short time before returning to her home.

Today Jack Denbeck is opening a cash meat market at this place, and in another place invites all to come and purchase if they find it to their advantage so to do. Jack was a citizen of Onawa, Iowa, as a lad, and came to Wayne from Omaha about three years ago, and has since been employed as meat cutter at the Central Meat market. Now he is going to try a shop for himself. He has numerous friends who will be glad to see him succeed, for he thoroughly understands the handling of meats. Tuesday he went to Sioux City and Omaha on a purchasing trip.

Lars P. Larsen and family came by automobile last week from their home at Canby, Minnesota, where they went five years ago last spring. They spent a busy week here with relatives and friends, his parents being Lars Larsen and wife southeast of Wayne and her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Detrich Meyer, next neighbor. They also found many friends of other days. They left for home Tuesday morning, and expected to be once more at their own home before tonight. Mr. Larsen tells us they have had good crops ever since locating there, and their crop this year is good. Coming from a corn country he had faith in corn, and planted 100 acres the first year there, and most of the people thought he was wild but time has proved that he was right and now many farmers outdo him on corn, and find a diversified crop and rotation pays. Land has practically doubled in value since he bought, and his is not for sale at twice what he paid. Nebraska looks pretty good to them, however, but it seems too hilly now after more than five years in a very level land.

S. E. Auker went to Omaha on business Monday.

Furnished rooms for rent. Mrs. L. A. Fenske.—adv.

Jas. Harman returned Saturday from a visit of several days with a daughter at Bloomfield.

Miss Lena Jorgensen from south of Wayne went to Wausa Saturday evening to visit with friends a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Acton from Wakefield came over for a Sunday visit at the home of Gus Wendt and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Broger and son from Leigh came last week to visit at the Henry Mier home for a few days.

Mrs. Gus Defuis left Friday morning for Truman, Minnesota, to visit with relatives three or four weeks.

W. C. Wrobel and wife went to Sioux City Friday to visit with Mrs. Wrobel's brother, M. Brink, for two days.

C. L. Colburn returned to his home in Dunlap, Iowa, Monday after a brief visit with his aunt, Mrs. G. J. Hess.

L. C. Nettleton was a passenger to Hoskins Friday between trains on business, returning home in the afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Bannister went to Tilden Friday morning to visit with her son, Frank Bannister, for two or three weeks.

Miss Nelle Cole returned to her home in Council Bluffs, Iowa, Monday after a short visit with Mrs. D. C. Main and family.

It is said to be a mistake for a man to try to select clothes for his wife. They are not apt to fit, especially in style and color effect.

Mrs. L. E. Panabaker went to Bloomfield last week to visit a sister, and Saturday Mr. Panabaker went to join her and remain over Sunday.

B. F. MacDonald and wife returned to their home in Thurston Monday after a short visit with their daughter, Mrs. Earle Lewis and family.

A. J. Ferguson and wife left Friday morning for Rochester, Minnesota, where they will consult the Mayo's concerning Mrs. Ferguson's health.

Miss Edna Hyer and brother returned to their home in Winside Friday morning after a few days visit here with their sister, Mrs. Ed Denesia and husband.

California is now selling of another new one-seedless grape fruit. Why not develop a seedless blackberry? That is the kind that gets in your teeth.

Misses Anna Peterson and Esther Westman of Sioux City came Friday evening to visit at the P. J. Johnson home. They returned home the first of the week.

Come to see the great display of fall millinery shown now at Mrs. Jeffries' store, just west of the State Bank of Wayne. It will please the ladies.—adv.

Mrs. Jos. Myers and sons Joe and Glenn and daughter Dorothy from Oakland, Iowa, returned home Saturday after a week visit at the home of her brother, M. W. Simpson and wife.

Mrs. D. W. McGregor, son Albert and little Misses Elenor and Bertie McKeckney of Tekamah came Friday evening to visit with Mrs. McGregor's daughter, Mrs. Will Rennick and husband.

Fred Ruser, who has been employed for several years past by Henry Lessman on the farm, went to Omaha Monday to attend a wedding—his brother August wedding a Miss Newton of that city.

Eight million women are working for salary in this country now, we are told. Half a century ago but few women did other than the home and household work, either as servant and wife, or both.

Mrs. Jack Cherry was a passenger to Omaha Monday morning, going down to assist Miss Bertie Cross home, who has been in the St. Joseph hospital the past two weeks, recovering from an operation.

Miss A. Luers left Friday afternoon for Crete, Illinois, where she attended the wedding of her brother, Adolph Luers, of Columbus, to Miss Minna Meisler of Crete, Saturday evening at the German Lutheran church of that place. Following the marriage a reception was held at the bride's home after which the newly married couple left for a trip through the east. Mr. and Mrs. Luers will make their home at Columbus.

Eye strain relieved. Fenske Jeweler and Optician.

Make Happy Homes!

You cannot have a happy home unless it is warm and cosy during the cold months just ahead. By installing a Favorite Base Burner you are assured of a comfortable home even in the coldest weather. Your children will be warm and healthy, and while you are at work you will know your whole family is comfortable.

You can walk clear around a

and you can't see a spot on the entire surface that is not emptying heat into your home. This is due to the fact that the flues are separated from each other and from the back of the stove, thus furnishing much more radiating surface than you can get in any other stove. This is the reason Favorite Base Burners produce heat at such a low cost. Come in and we will show you how you can comfortably heat your home this winter and use only 2½ to 3½ tons of coal.

State House Letter

Secretary of State C.W. Pool has made a record for the collection of corporation licenses not before equaled by any secretary of state since the corporation law went into effect. His collections will show $75,000.00 more turned into the state treasury than any predecessor. Which goes to show that Charley Pool has been on the job ever since he took charge of the office in January 1915.

State Auditor Wm. H. Smith has succeeded in collecting about $27,500.00 of old insane funds during his term of office. This indebtedness has been running for twenty-five years or more, and only during the last two or three years has there been any effort made to collect it. When Auditor Smith took charge of the office he began a systematic effort to collect up the state's delinquent claims, and the collection of the above mentioned amount is the result of his labors along this line.

It has been customary in the past for state departments and institutions to run large deficiencies toward the end of the biennium. Taking the records for fifteen years back or since 1901 to 1913, the year Governor Morehead was inaugurated the first time, big deficiencies were a common thing. Governor Morehead inherited deficiencies coming out of the Aldrich administration that seemed to have reached the climax of wasteful extravagance. A large number of departmental offices and state institutions created in that biennium deficiencies amounting to many thousands of dollars, and the legislature of that year was forced to take care of these debts in the form of deficiencies. For fifteen years back of this, however, legislatures were compelled to wrestle with this form of republican extravagance. We say republican, because in all these years republicans controlled the state government, and in that period only one democratic governor was elected, and he was alone. The balance of the officers were of republican extraction. In view of this past record the taxpayer will no doubt be pleased to learn that the present democratic state administration will go through two years without the extravagant deficiencies which have obtained heretofore. This in addition to reducing the state levy $1,018,000.00 is a showing that cannot be duplicated by any administration in the state's history.

It is with a great deal of satisfaction that state democratic headquarters received the news of the New York state primaries which were held Tuesday, September 19. Like the Maine election, a large falling off of the republican vote was noted, and the democratic vote was increased correspondingly. It is estimated by both republican and democratic authorities, although somewhat reluctantly by the former, that more than forty per cent of the progressive (Bull Moose) vote of New York went for Judge Seabury, who is the democratic candidate for governor. Governor Whitman was the republican candidate for renomination. What makes it more significant is the fact that New York state is the home of the republican presidential candidate, Chas. E. Hughes, Col. Roosevelt, G. W. Perkins, Chairman Wilcox of the national committee, as well as many others, who had used every effort at their command and spent much Wall Street kale, in order to bring the progressives back to the republican fold. A few days ago Col. Roosevelt issued a stirring appeal to New York progressives to vote for Whitman instead of Seabury, because the latter was for the re-election of Wilson. The primary vote showed a very large per cent of progressive voters in New York are for President Wilson's re-election.

An Election Forecast

Last week we received a tabulated forecast of the presidential election, which summed up gave President Wilson 211 votes; Candidate Hughes 117; doubtful 203 of the 531 votes of the college. In the Wilson column the writer put Alabama, Arkansas, California, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, a total of 211.

To Hughes he gives Connecticut, Idaho, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Montana, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont, a total of 117.

The following are classed doubtful: Arizona, Colorado, Delaware, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, South Dakota, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming, a total of 203.

This view was taken two weeks ago, but from all reports received since then it might be revised now so as to make the election of Wilson certain. The above figures were compiled by taking as a basis the vote of the three leading parties four years ago, and comparing them with the returns from Maine. If that ratio is only carried out it leaves a number of states that have nearly always been republican on the ragged edge.

It is a Business This Time

Creighton Liberal: During the discussion of the railroad dispute with their employees and the aftermath dissatisfaction expressed by the railroad managers, Henry Ford, the great automobile manufacturer, and one of the biggest shippers in the country, expressed himself in a way that makes M. F. Harrington, Edgar Howard or the editor of this paper conservatives in comparison.

"The President of the United States did all that he could in calling the presidents of the various railroads together, but they are only the nominal heads. It is too bad that he could not in some way get at the real power back of them, a power that we all know is located on and around Wall street, the place from which orders are issued, orders that make mere messenger boys of many of the railroad presidents.

"The railroads act as if they were the only ones interested," and again the fire of defiance appeared and the voice became deadly in earnest. "How do they get their right to run their roads through the country?" From the people.

"If the roads were run more to serve the public, run more by the men who really have to operate them, run as railroad properties, and not as mere instruments of financial juggling, we could have lower rates, better service, better wages, and still leave a profit for every dollar legitimately invested. The roads could make double the profits at present rate of fares and pay all increase on wages demanded.

"Of course, if forced to an eight-hour day, we can expect to see the messenger-boy railroad presidents sent back to the public by their Wall Street bosses with a wail for higher rates. Let the public come back with the demand that the roads be run as railroads and not as footballs for financiers. Let them learn the real value of the roads and give to every owner of actual property a liberal income on his real investment. I believe the American public will be willing to pay whatever rate is necessary to provide such an income, and I don't believe it will be a strain on any, either, to meet any raise that such an adjustment might call for."

Schwab Doesn't Work on Salary

In the October American Mag. the zine, Charles M. Schwab relates an incident of his relationship with late J. P. Morgan. The writer of the article on "Charlie" Schwab says:

"Mr. Morgan wanted to pay him a million dollars a year as president of the United Steel combination.

"I don't want to work for a salary, said Schwab. 'You expect the company under my management to make seventy million dollars this year, I believe.'

"That is right," said Morgan. "Good! Instead of paying me a salary, will you give me two per cent of all we earn over seventy millions?"

"You bet I will," said Morgan.

And yet Morgan is one of the fellows who appears to think the wages of the common laborer are too high. It is the fellow who can work the worker who pulls down the pile.

The President to Visit Omaha

Saturday word was received that President Wilson had accepted the invitation of the Nebraska Historical society, the board of governors of the Ak-Sar-Ben, labor and other organizations, and will visit Omaha Thursday, the 5th of October, witness the great historical parade of the Ak-Sar-Ben on the occasion of the celebration of the semi-centennial anniversary of the admission of this state into the Union of states, as a full sister to the other states. It will be a great day for Omaha and Nebraska, as well as the most popular and truly progressive presidents since the days of Lincoln.

Prohibition and Lower Land Values

The U. S. Government has gathered reliable figures as to the value per acre of Farm Land in every state in the Union.

The Government takes the value of all the lands in a state, the high-priced land and the low-priced land, and then strikes an average.

On Page 36 of the "Monthly Crop Report" for April, 1916, published by authority of the Secretary of Agriculture, is found a comparison of the average value per acre of land with improvements, as follows:

NEBRASKA—Average value per acre, $76
KANSAS—Average value per acre, $58

The U. S. Government states officially that the average value per acre of land with improvements is $18.00 per acre less in Kansas than in Nebraska. On a quarter section this amounts to $2,880.00.

The soil of Kansas in every way is equal to that of Nebraska. Climatic conditions are the same.

THEN WHY THIS DIFFERENCE IN FAVOR OF NEBRASKA? THE ANSWER IS SIMPLY THIS: PROHIBITION!

PROHIBITION LOWERS LAND VALUES AND INCREASES TAXES.

Now let the fellows who criticize congress and the president for the action they took to avert a strike try their hand on the trouble at New York city. That is a comparatively little affair, and will do for the knockers to practice on, if the citizens of New York can stand it for a month or two.

If Candidate Hughes retains his voice so that he can complete the speaking campaign he has set in motion, it is safe to predict that President Wilson will carry the election in November by the greatest majority ever given a president. It will be quite a handicap for Wilson if Hughes keeps silent.

One of the best methods of curing the high fever which some people are stricken with over some real or fancied public wrong which cannot be righted without something scathing in the paper, is just to simply ask the fellow to write his sentiment and sign the article and it will be given to the world. We have seen a fever heat turn to a chill under that remedy.

It is just too bad to think that President Wilson's habit of talking has made this land of the free very unpopular with the warring nations of the other side. Because he has said "we are too proud to fight" hurts us, in their opinion. But it does not hurt like war over there where the foolish people were not wise enough to refuse to fight. In November the people will have a chance to say whether or not they want war. If they really want war they should not vote for President Wilson, for he will use every honorable means to avoid such unpleasantness—such hell.

Minerva Club's Opening Meeting

The Minerva club held its first meeting of this season at the normal. The topic for the year is Current History. The program for the first afternoon consisted of a lecture by Prof. J. G. W. Lewis on what to look for in current history and how to evaluate present-day facts as set forth in our best current magazines and daily papers. Mr. Lewis pointed out that in the study of current history, one should not look for merely the unusual, more or less startling events, but for the things which have a more immediate bearing on the great movements of the present day and that this relationship should be constantly in mind. He said further as an aid to the understanding of the trend of present day affairs:

1. That we are living in an age of industrial revolution—an age of applied science, hence we are crowded with such problems as the relations between capital and labor, the trust question, tariff policies, control of transportation and communication, etc.

2. That we are in the midst of a great political revolution, and that the trend is decidedly toward democracy the world over, and in the direction of socialism. Witness the revolutions all over the world in recent years and the prospect of revolutions over Europe after the present war, and in our own land the division between progressives and stand-patters and the agitation for equal suffrage; also the recent talk of government owned railroads.

3. That the present is particularly marked by humanitarian interest or interest in the well-being of the less fortunate classes of people, hence we have the new sciences of sociology and criminology, movements for prison reform, minimum wage laws, workmen's insurance, workmen's compensation and widows' pensions.

4. That we live in an age of world relationships, that perhaps the most fitting title that could be applied to our own country's history of the last generation would be "America as a World Power." So we have the President declaring in a recent speech that our traditional policy of neutrality is no longer possible.

5. That the present trend in literature and art is towards democracy and scientific construction—art for all the people and based on design.

The statement as to the trend in art was kindly furnished by Miss S. J. Killen. Miss Killen, always a favorite with the women's club, gave a talk fully up to her standard, although called upon after entering the room.

As an introduction to the year's work, Prof. Lewis' was stimulating and enlightening.

Monday evening September the 25th, about forty young people and older members of the Baptist congregation gathered at the home of G. A. Wade and wife for a farewell surprise party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Conover and Mrs. Conover's mother, Mrs. Emma Rickabaugh, who are to leave this week for their new home in South Dakota. The evening was spent most profitably and socially, for the newly married couple were given some most excellent advice by those "who knew" the married life. Games for the young and old were played. Mr. and Mrs. Conover were presented with several beautiful gifts from members of the Baptist congregation and the Sunday school in appreciation of their work in the church. Also several individual gifts were given them. Mrs. Rickabaugh was presented with a fine gift by the ladies of the Baptist aid society for her untiring work in that organization. Light refreshments were served later in the evening, shortly after which the guests departed for their homes, first having expressed their sincere wish that Mr. and Mrs. Conover and Mrs. Rickabaugh would find their new home both pleasant and at not such a distance that a return visit could not be hoped for once in a while as friends here will always be glad to see them.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kopp entertained at dinner last week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Milliken but recently married, the bride being their daughter. Relatives and friends to the number of two dozen enjoyed the hospitality of the Kopp home. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hornby, Mr. and Mrs. O. Milliken, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Long, Mr. and Mrs. Kopp and C. Nelson besides home people. The bride and groom of a few weeks were recipients of several tokens of love and esteem from the guests. All departed expressing best wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Rennie entertained the Fife Brothers, Mrs.

Kuhn and baby, Miss Yockey and her parents, Rev. D. W. MacGregor and wife from Tekamah, who are visiting in the Rennie home, Monday evening at an elaborate six-course dinner served at six o'clock. The color scheme of yellow and white was carried out. The guests were entertained in the early part of the evening with Victrola music, after which the Fife Brothers rendered some very fine music.

The W. C. T. U. will have a meeting Friday at 2:30 p. m. at the Baptist church. Bro. Fife and Miss Yockey will speak. A report of the state convention will also be given. Everybody is invited to come.

The U. D. club met with Mrs. James Miller on Monday afternoon at a covered dish luncheon. Mrs. Stewart of Minneapolis was a guest. Mrs. Harry Craven will be hostess at the next meeting.

Mrs. Kiplinger will be hostess to the Monday club next Monday afternoon.

The Acme club will meet next Monday with Mrs. John T. Bressler.

State Normal Notes

A meeting of the board of education will be held at Lincoln October 9.

Miss Yockey favored the school with a solo at convocation Wednesday morning.

Harry C. Cooper of Chambers, a member of the sophomore class, is a candidate for county surveyor of Holt county.

Don Mayfield of the junior class has withdrawn from school to accept a position in a rural school near Leigh.

Several pieces of statuary were received the first of the week and placed in the library and in the reception room of the administration building.

Miss Beatrice Miller of Battle Creek has resumed her work as violin teacher at the normal. Miss Miller will be here on Tuesday of each week.

Miss Elsie Ford Piper is receiving the congratulations of friends upon her election to membership in the Woman's Educational club of Nebraska.

Harold H. Boyce, a student of the University of Nebraska, has enrolled for a course in advanced Latin, to be carried in absentia during the year.

Robert Fife's address on Abraham Lincoln at convocation Thursday morning was greatly appreciated by students and faculty. Mr. Fife is a popular man on the "Hill".

President Conn has arranged an alumni reunion and luncheon to be held at the Rome hotel, Omaha, on Friday noon, November 10, during the session of the State Teachers' Association.

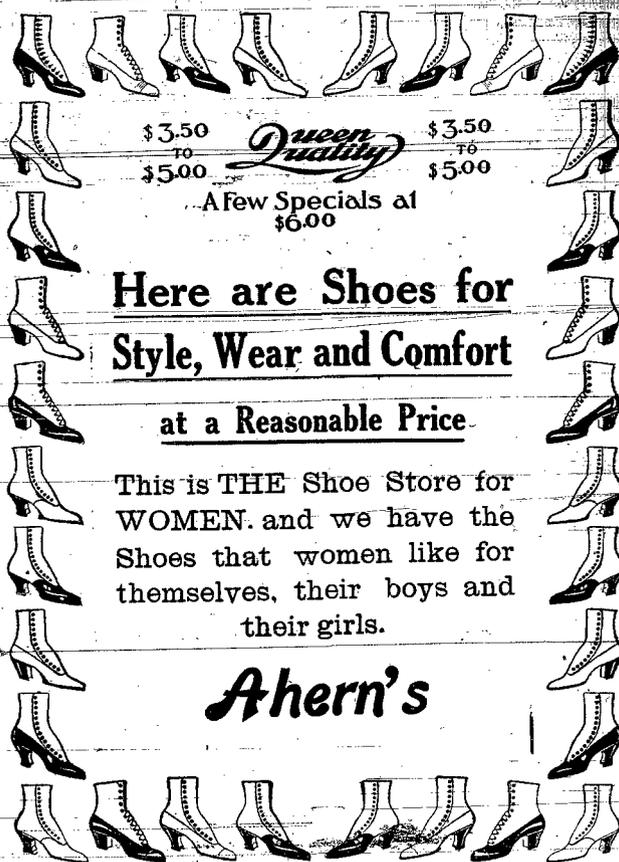

The registration of three new juniors at the beginning of the week increases the membership of that class to 85. This should insure a graduating class of 100 in 1918.

School Notes

The Wayne Watchword editor has received notice from Professor M. M. Fogg, professor of journalism at the Nebraska State university, that the editor-in-chief of the Watchword has been named a member of the executive committee of the Nebraska High School Press association for this year. Miss Helen Main of the senior class was last year associate editor and this year becomes the editor-in-chief. Wayne high school has reason to feel proud of the record made by her publication. The paper should have the hearty support of not only the high school but of the community that the management may be able to make the paper self supporting. New officers for the year will be elected soon and the first number will be issued early in October if a circulation can be secured large enough to justify the continuance of its publication.

J. E. Mahaffey and family were at Illiopolis, Illinois, last week where they went to visit at his old home for a week or two. They were at Springfield and saw the state fair and its attractions. Urged by friends to once more make his home in the "Sucker" state he declined with thanks, saying that "Nebraska is good enough" for him. Speaking of the crop condition there he said that their corn was caught by frost before matured—otherwise they would have had a big crop.

J. L. Gildersleeve is home from Rochester, where he went for medical examination two weeks ago. He had his case diagnosed, and it is an ulcerous condition of the intestine, and he is under treatment for it, and expects to return in about two months for another examination which will determine whether or not an operation will be considered necessary. He reports that John Sherbahn, who accompanied him is at the St. Mary's hospital, where he underwent an operation for the removal of a growth that was not normal. He is doing nicely, and hopes to be out of the hospital in a few days. Mr. G. had ample time to look around Rochester while waiting for his turn at the examining room and he says that the hospital has made and is making Rochester. An average of 3,000 transient people are there most of the time. Paying is being extended, new business and residence buildings are going up on every side.

On the charge of selling uninspected coal oil, State Food Commissioner E. Harman has filed a complaint in court against Robert L. Nix of Nebraska City, agent of the Collins Oil company. Mr. Harman had difficulty in getting this oil company to comply with his requirements in regard to the inspection of oil in tanks in Nebraska City.

The validity of several thousand dollars of municipal paving bonds which the state bought and holds as an investment for its educational trust funds, is involved in a suit from Buffalo county, argued before the supreme court. The case was brought by property owners of Kearney who objected to paying for pavement on the streets fronting their real estate.

Secretary Shaban of the state board of charities and corrections believes a match applied to the York county poorhouse would go a long way toward ridding it of bedbugs. He inspected jails and poor farms in seven central Nebraska counties and filed his report with the governor. The York, Saunders, Butler, Polk, Merrick, Hamilton and Seward county jails were reported to be in good shape.

University Place was chosen as the meeting place of the 1917 Nebraska Methodist state conference and may be made the permanent meeting place. The statistician made his report at the Hastings meeting showing a net increase in membership of 7,000. The treasurer made his report showing an increase in benevolent collections of $51,000. The total amount of special collections was $280,000.

While the Burlington railroad has discontinued the issuance of weekly crop reports, it is out with a supplemental report, dealing with the prospective corn yield in Nebraska. It is figured that the total yield for the year will be about 199,000,000 bushels. Although there have been several frosts the assurance is given that little, if any, of the Nebraska corn was damaged. It is estimated that the seeding of winter wheat is about 50 per cent finished.

Firemen and policemen of the state won the victory in their test fight for higher wages when District Judge Troup handed down a decision in the action brought against the city of Omaha by Fireman Charles Adams. According to the decision, the findings of County Judge Crawford are upheld and Adams is awarded $50.92, the difference between the $35 salary fixed by the city commissioners, and the $30 fixed by the state legislature in the statute of 1915.

It is now none too early to get in some good work on the roads. The winter will soon be here when no man can grade roads. Mend your ways.

According to the Sioux City Journal the sluths of that part of Iowa were busy hunting desperadoes forty years ago. The James brothers and Younger boys were then in their prime.

Miss Goldie Chace left Saturday morning for Pomona, California, where she will enter the Pomona college. C. A. Chace, wife and daughter, Marguerite took her as far as Norfolk in the car where she took the train.

It is better farm politics to have a good cow come fresh during the months of October or November than during any of the three preceding months. In fact, if properly cared for the winter cow returns the best profit.

Mrs. Forrest L. Hughes went to Lyons Friday to be gone a few weeks assisting in caring for her sister's, Mrs. Fred Schwager, children. Mr. Schwager is very ill at a hospital in Omaha and his wife is there taking care of him.

Dr. A. B. Cherry and wife of Winside went to Sioux City Monday to visit for a short time. Later they will go to Washington and other points in South Dakota, where Dr. Cherry has land interests. They came from Winside to visit here last week.

Before the war, German exports of annually more than $25,000,000 worth of toys—but now this industry is practically ruined, for they cannot export much of their manufactured goods. A shortage of raw material has also tended to retard that business.

Wm. Thies and wife went to Winside Saturday evening to visit there over Sunday with his brother, Fred Thies and family, who are seen to start to a new home purchased in Colorado. It was to be a sort of a farewell gathering before these people leave for a new home.

In outling the Monday trip of the dry forces in the Democrat two weeks ago we said that they were invading the enemy's country that day, and word came back that the party was bombarded with hen fruit at Niobrara. The age and condition of the fruit was not stated.

J. H. Smith and wife went over to Wayne last Saturday morning for an over Sunday visit with their daughter, Mrs. Don Fitch. Mr. Smith said he was positive his trip would bring on a storm as he had not been out of the town of Pender for eleven years.—Pender Republic.

S. Larsen returned to his home at Dalton Friday, after a two week visit here. He formerly lived here, and went to Alamosa, Colorado, and invested in land and water, but when he mixed the two alkali was brought to the surface in such quantity that he could grow no crop, so he is once more back in Nebraska.

Sunday Fred Wright, who has been here for ten days visiting his mother, Mrs. Wm. Wright, left for Duluth for a short stay before returning to his home at Spokane, Washington. Mr. Wright finds many old friends here at his boyhood home—and many strangers too for he has not lived here for several years. Later his mother is planning to visit him for the winter, or else go to California during the cold months.

Fred Martin has brought in a bunch of about 700 lambs to trim up the part of his corn field which would dry up and blow away before spring. He plans to secure a good fleece of lamb wool from each and then let them trim the weeds and corn blades. Sheep are high, costing close to 10 cents a pound for the class he purchased. In spite of the fact that we have a democratic tariff on wool which was promised to kill the sheep industry long before this time, these lambs will return wool enough at the shearing now to pay well for their keep since birth, and the owner still has the lambs for profit.

Americans have given nearly thirty million dollars to relieve war distress in Europe. Is that a "tithe" of our profit from the war? Of the general net profits it is doubtless more than that, for many Americans have lost more than they have gained by the war. A look at the cost of living proves that. But the powder men, the steel men, the munitions men in general and to some extent the wheat and live stock producers have profited to more than ten times thirty millions. The war has materially shifted the ownership of the wealth of the world.—State Journal.

Mrs. W. R. Hoyt of Bloomfield came Tuesday afternoon to visit with Mrs. W. R. Ellis for a brief time.

Jim Hostettler and wife and children returned to their home in Bloomfield Tuesday after a short visit with Mr. Hostettler's brother, J. E. and family.

H. M. Pense of Chicago, who has been visiting at several points in Iowa the past week, came Tuesday morning to visit with his sister, Mrs. J. C. Forbes for a short time.

Jack Davis and wife came from near Emerson, Iowa, last week to visit at the home of her parents, June Conger and wife. They report farm conditions good with them.

J. E. Britton came Monday from his home at Sanborn, Iowa, to visit his mother and look after business matters a few days, after which he will return to Raymond, Minnesota, where he is spending most of his time this season.

Miss Fannie Britell left Sunday afternoon for Evanston, Illinois, where she will attend the Northwestern university the coming school year. She and Miss Ardith Conn, who went last week to that place, are planning to spend the year together there.

A new study center has been organized for the teachers at and in the vicinity of Winside, of which Dr. J. T. House of the normal is instructor. The class started Saturday last, and there is an enrollment of 28 and they are to meet each Saturday.

Mrs. T. E. Worley left Tuesday for Saltville, Virginia, where she will make her future home. Mrs. Worley has been here the past year with her daughter but the climate she finds is too cold for her so is returning where the air remains warm the year round.

Mrs. Fred Evers of Emerson was called to Spaulding Monday by the death of a sister's three-year-old daughter. Mr. Evers accompanied her as far as Wayne, where he spent the day, and was a guest of F. O. Martin and wife. He is looking for a farm to rent in this good county.

H. F. Straight and wife left Monday for Cheyenne county where they will look over the land. On their return home they plan to stop at Sargent where they will visit with their son, Witford. They will also visit with Mrs. Straight's sister, Mrs. L. McCarthy at Aurora for a few days.

Miss Hazel Norton, who is teaching near Niobrara, was home for a Saturday and Sunday visit. She reports that she is much pleased with her school and the school work there. Of course, Niobrara is somewhat different from Wayne, but that does not need worry the teacher in the near-by country district. From her school she has a splendid view of the Missouri river as it flows onward to the gulf.

"What a pity Edgar Howard is a Democrat. But he believes he is right or he wouldn't be a democrat. If there is any one man in the state of Nebraska who says what he thinks, and does what he thinks is right, that man is Judge Howard of Columbus".

The Stanton Picket pays the above tribute to the democratic nominee for the office of lieutenant governor of this great state, and the fact that he is a democrat is the reason this republican editor can truthfully say what he did after the opening sentence. Many a republican might stand well in the eyes of his political opponents if he had the courage at all times to speak his convictions. It is not what a candidate pretends to think that counts, but what he has the courage to tell of his thoughts. He must be honest to win and hold the confidence of the people.

R. E. Heckert came up from Omaha Saturday night to visit a short time at the home of his brother, Dr. T. B. Heckert. Mr. Heckert lives at Lexington, and had been at Omaha attending the annual meeting of the men in his line of business, and the World-Herald has this to say of his view of the political situation, which Mr. Heckert takes no pains to deny are his views, although he did not know he was talking to a newspaper man at Omaha when he uttered his sentiments:

R. E. Heckert, proprietor of the Cornland hotel at Lexington, Neb., who states that he has been an ardent republican all his life, has gone on record that he will vote

The Ideal Ranch

Your Choice of Fifty Thousand Acres in East Central Nebraska

Have you pictured to yourself the Ideal Ranch? It would be within 150 miles of Omaha, adjoining the corn belt, embracing a valley of unfailing hay in which flowing wells would furnish the purest of water, and adjoining this valley would be the cheap pasture land required to finish the picture and make this Ideal Ranch both complete and profitable.

Such a combination seems too good to be true. Yet it is true. We can furnish you a ranch fulfilling every element of this picture in the famous Beaver Valley in East Central Nebraska. Read the following statements—You can bank on them.

- For 20 years it has been my business to purchase large bodies of land belonging to individuals or estates and Subdivide them, selling them out at a very moderate profit to smaller purchasers. I buy at wholesale and sell at retail and can make a moderate profit on my wholesale price and still sell the land for less money than a man would have to pay the average occupant of the same territory. The very process of subdivision enhances the value of the land so that any man purchasing at or near the start can take a substantial profit the day I am through. I have never subdivided a single tract where the men did not, within 5 years from the date of purchase reach a point where they could double their investment. To take a place near at hand, I sold out most of Boone county by buying the larger holdings and subdividing them. I am safe in saying and can readily prove that every purchaser made from twice to four times what he invested within the first six years. For five years I have been buying back and re-selling at a profit land which I sold less than ten years ago at $35.00 to $40.00 per acre, and I have been paying $75.00 to $110.00 per acre and then making a profit on a re-sale. What I did in Boone county I will do to the adjoining lands on the Beaver Valley and I will do it in less time because the class of customers who are coming today are more able to do things and do them faster than the customers to whom I sold the Boone county land.
- I have purchased from the Allerton-Thompson people 50,000 acres along the Beaver Valley. The Beaver joins the Loup river just west of Columbus and runs Northwest through Platte, Nance, Boone and Wheeler counties. Our lands begin some twenty miles Northwest of Albion and fourteen miles West of Elgin. I am subdividing this great tract. It now lies from fourteen to twenty miles from a railroad but the railroad is only a matter of development and days. The man who goes there now will double his money if the railroad never comes and will treble or quadruple his money the day a railroad is assured. A man must make his choice whether he will go ahead of the railroad and have the railroad come and make him independent or whether he will wait for the railroad and then buy, paying for the railroad three or four times over. There is no point on this ranch ten miles from a good market town in East Central Nebraska, right in the corn belt. It is the best buy in Nebraska today. We will take Eastern Nebraska property in exchange at its real value but will not stand for inflation as our prices are uniform to every customer.
- Nature made the Beaver Valley the best hay land in Nebraska. To nature's great assortment of grasses man has added Timothy, Clover, Red Top and Blue Grass—all of which thrive when the seed is merely sprinkled over the sod—until today the mixed grasses of this valley will produce as much beef and more milk per acre than the highest priced corn land in the state.
- We have abundance of grass thirty days earlier and from thirty to ninety days later than the average Nebraska pasture.
- We have water that cannot be beaten in the world—pure, ever flowing, cool in summer, warm in winter, cheap to obtain, costing nothing for maintenance, and inexhaustible.
- One of these valley quarters properly managed, with less labor, less expense, less risk and therefore less worry, will produce more profit per acre than the highest priced corn land.
- Adjoining these hay flats are the Summer pastures where stock can be raised at less expense per head than in the olden days when range was free. Posts and wire cost less than range riders and the percentage of loss is infinitely less.
- We can divide this property to suit. If the tract you select is short of buildings we will build to suit and have the buildings completed for your occupancy. We have started out to make this a valley of homes and the man who buys now will win a home and fortune at once. Our prices are cash prices but we can give you terms because Loan Companies will loan as large a per cent of the selling value of this land as they will on the highest priced corn land in the state.
- The cutting up of this great ranch means a tremendous development in Nebraska's most beautiful valley.

COME. Don't wait to write but telephone at our expense. Our cars will meet you any where. We can suit you. Opportunity is knocking now.

ADDRESS _____

this year for a democratic president, governor and senator.

To quote Mr. Heckert, "While I have been a republican all my life and have always voted the republican ticket, this year will see a change in my party affiliations. I am convinced from the showing made by the democratic party that their representatives who have been in office for the last four years have had the best interests of the country and people at heart and have acted for the benefit of the said people. I am a sincere admirer of President Wilson and Senator Hitchcock, and want to see them in office again."

Perhaps fate willed it, or maybe the guy ropes were just tired, for the big derrick that is to be used to hoist large stones and timbers in the construction of the new gymnasium at the normal persists in lying down and quitting. Two weeks ago both boom and mast fell, breaking both and requiring several days to repair them. Friday the big mast fell a second time and five men working on the scaffolding upon which the mast will rest escaped death by the small fraction of an inch.

The boom and the mast must be lifted to the top of the scaffold that is to be as high as the completed building. To get these up requires skill, clear thinking and quick action. The mast had been raised to the platform and the five men had started to put it into place when a guy rope clamp slipped and several ton of derrick work went crashing to the ground. Fortunately it tore through the planking, missing by the smallest possible margin the plank upon which the men were standing. Had it struck this they would have been thrown to the ground. As it was J. Riddle had a hand badly cut by the cable he was clinging to. Walter Hanson had a foot badly wrenched and G. A. Smith face and arm was cut and bruised somewhat.

The wall was uninjured by the falling mast and as good fortune would have it there were no men under the derrick. It was just another one of those "lucky accidents."

A Price for New Corn

There is always speculation and interest in the price at which the new corn crop will sell when it comes to market, and a deal was closed here Monday by which 80 acres of corn sold at 50c the bushel in the field, measurements to be by weight as husked. J. C. Good, who bought a place near Bloomfield, selling 40 acres each of his crop on the Sullivan place to Neils Nelson and Joe Ellenberg.

Joe Stecher's Experience
The athletic young manhood of Nebraska will be interested in anything said by Joe Stecher, of the "sensors," on the making of a strong man. Stecher has "out-classed" every man who has been induced to tackle him. We believe there is a technical exception. That was a case in which his opponent made it a footrace instead of a wrestle and the "footrace" was a draw.
Stecher said to a party of dry workers who day before yesterday passed through Dodge county village which he has made famous: "I am for a dry Nebraska. I have never touched intoxicating liquor. Any man who uses it is foolish."
Stecher is a Bohemian, and Bohemians have liked their beer. But of them he says: "The younger generation of Bohemians see the evil of the saloon and they are going to vote against it."
Nearly everyone knows now that practically every athlete who holds his own for any length of time has the same report to make. Liquor and athletics are sworn enemies. That means that liquor and physical strength and soundness are sworn enemies.
The present issue in Nebraska is not directly the issue of drinking or not drinking. Prohibition means merely that we, the people, go out of the liquor business. Men may still go abroad for liquor, but Nebraska will not bring it to them nor put it under their noses and divide the profit of selling it to them. Joe Stecher has abstained notwithstanding the public's invitation to drink. But he knows that men's chances for abstaining and enjoying the ensuing benefits are better if the pressure to drink is removed. He is not only a teetotaler, therefore, but "for a dry Nebraska." Joe Stecher's is one of the most convincing prohibition speeches Nebraska has heard.
John L. Sullivan, who tried to be a boozier and an athlete at the same time, has turned his experience into a temperance lecture. Joe Stecher, who has refrained from boozing, turns his experience also into a temperance lecture. All experience now leads that way.—State Journal.

IT is the purity of a soap that most interests the doctor. For the purer it is, the better its action as an antiseptic.

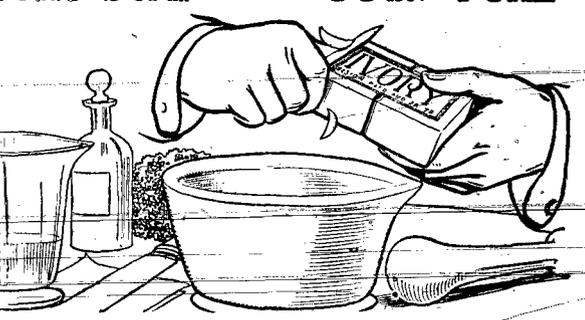

The fact that Ivory Soap is generally used in the great hospitals is scientific proof that no purer soap can be made.

To you this means that Ivory Soap cleanses not only pleasantly but so thoroughly as to produce an aseptic condition which is cleanliness at its best.

A piece of Ivory Soap 1 1/2 inches by 1 1/2 inches by 1 1/2 inches dissolved in a gallon of water makes a one per cent. solution which is excellent for sterilizing articles in the home.

Winside Notes

(From the Tribune)

Etsel Wilson is the new mail carrier on route one, having commenced his duties on Monday. Wm. Aawlius has been carrying mail on this route for the past six months.

On Friday evening the seniors and Juniors entertained the seniors and juniors of the Carroll High school at an informal affair. The Carroll people arrived at 7:30 and were served supper after which a general entertainment followed.

Hans and Fritz Press were east bound passengers Monday morning. Hans was bound for Detroit, Mich., where he will secure employment. He will visit relatives at Watertown and Wauweta, Wis., enroute. Fritz will go to Valparaiso, Ind., where he will attend college the coming year.

The wireless receiving station has been set up and the boys have it in working order. Wayne sends twice every day, in the morning at 8:40 and at 4:15 p. m. The boys are manifesting a great deal of interest, and some are planning on building sets of their own. We expect to make a trip to the Normal to examine their outfit soon.

Last Saturday the teachers enjoyed a picnic outing at the Elkhorn. The party left for the river about seven-thirty making the trip in Messrs. French and Carter's cars. Arriving there they prepared breakfast after which the day was spent in fishing and catching. It was decided to repeat the pleasant time as often as possible.

Messrs. Fritz Woehler and Otto Willers, received two car loads of hogs from Billings, Mont., Monday. These hogs were of various sizes ranging from 75 lbs. to 350 lbs., and will be fattened on Nebraska corn this fall and winter. Mr. Woehler was short 22 head in his car and it was thought they jumped through the opening while enroute to Winside.

RUNDELL'S COLUMN

Illinois for 50 years under republican rule is a sorry spectacle indeed. Fifty-four banks failed in the past four years, thirty-seven in the past three years and one a day for the past week. The depositors who lose their savings are mostly laboring men and women whose grief cannot be described in words.

Why are there no bitter tears being shed in Nebraska since 1910 over the loss of money by depositors in State banks? Listen while I tell you, there is a greater percentage of democrats without fear or favor of Wall street in Nebraska than in Illinois. Ten years ago the democrats of Nebraska touched by the grief and misery of depositors of failed bank passed a guaranteed deposit law for state banks through the legislature that makes deposits therein as safe as in the state treasury. While this bill was pending the bankers descended on the legislature to kill the bill. Among them was a very knowing gentleman from the far east warning the senators that it meant ruination to the bankers as well as the country.

This Wall street special told a country State banker was a fool to oppose the bill. The democrats of Illinois have repeatedly urged the passage of a law that would secure depositors. Wall street influence prevailed and the bill died in committee. A New York national bank recently declared a dividend of 71 percent. Guess its preferred candidate. Wall street hates Wilson for the Regional Bank law that cancels 5 per cent annually of the bonds deposited to secure the redemption of their note which terminates national banking in 20 years. Wall street will hand out liberally to beat Wilson. It has deposited $100 in a Wayne bank as a bet on Hughes. It fears the success of the democrats as it means a repeal of the National Bank Act, which would cancel all of the bonds deposited now drawing interest and free from taxation. And the redemption of their notes in regional bank money, a radical departure from the republican way of paying the war debt which was to burn the money and issue bonds on the ashes. The democratic way will be to burn the bonds and issue

Regional bank money on their ashes, then all our money would be democratic Gold, Silver United States notes and the Regional Bank notes. Not a dollar has been lost by depositors in the State Banks of Nebraska since that democratic law was passed but the same cannot be said of the National banks. This Nebraska act makes a National bank eligible but a republican controller of the currency notified them that he would cancel their charters if they accepted.

C. J. RUNDELL.

Nebraska's needs for a land bank will determine largely whether a bank will be placed in this state. High interest rates, the oard which is now holding hearings through the country, hopes will be lowered. Evidence that Nebraska needs a bank should be submitted at the Omaha hearing on Sept. 18. Anyone having evidence of this sort or suggestions where Nebraska will be benefited should communicate with the Omaha bureau of publicity at once.

Fifteen thousand people saw "Red" Shaffer, driving a big racer, plunge through the backfield fence at the state fair grounds at Lincoln when he lost control of his car after a tire had blown out. The car, traveling at terrific speed, skidded across the track and into the fence, crumbling it up like paper. Shaffer was hit in the back of the head by a wooden beam, but escaped serious injury. Elfrida Mals, in an exhibition mile, established a woman's record, doing a mile in 1:18 1/2.

Editorial worries were laid aside for a day when nearly 150 Iowa and Nebraska newspaper men accompanied by their wives, dined at Hotel Fontaine, Omaha, as guests of Manager Letton. Before the dinner the editors watched a baseball game and after the dinner special street cars carried the masculine members of the party out to the Ak-Sar-Ben den where they were initiated, while the wives of the editors were entertained at a theater party. Winding up the long and strenuous day, an informal dance was tendered the visitors after the theater and den shows at the Hotel Rome.

LIVE STOCK PRICES AT SOUTH OMAHA

Cattle Market Steady to Lower; Liberal Receipts

HOGS STEADY TO 10c LOWER

Season's Biggest Tuesday Lamb Run. Two Days Supply Largest Since 1913. Trade Rather Dragg. Along Towards Noon When Bulk Starts to Move. Killers Hold Up Well. Fat Lambs Steady to 10c Lower. Muttons About Steady. Feeders Sell Steady in Spots.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Nebr., September 27, 1916.—Receipts of cattle for Tuesday were again very liberal, arrivals counting out 424 loads or 11,000 head. Offerings of corn-fed cattle were of very meager proportions, and supplies this week have been most too small to afford a very satisfactory line of the state of the market. Prices look somewhat lower than a week ago, except perhaps for the strictly choice beefs. Good weighty cattle sold at $10.00 and the fair to pretty good beefs brought $8.50@9.50. Due to the unusually liberal offerings of cows and heifers the market developed still further weakness Tuesday, and practically all classes of the stock had to move at shaded prices.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice beefs, $10.00@10.60; fair to good beefs, $8.50@9.50; common to fair beefs, $6.50@8.25; good to choice heifers, $6.70@7.00; good to choice cows, $6.35@6.75; fair to good cows, $5.50@6.25; canners and cutters, $4.50@5.50; veal calves, $8.00@11.00; bologna bulls, $5.25@5.85; beef bulls, $6.90@7.00.

The hog run for Tuesday was the largest for any one day since Wednesday, two weeks ago, all told eighty-six loads, or about 5,500 head, were reported in. Shippers bought more than they have on any one day in more than a week, but although their orders were heavy, indifference on the part of the packers, heavy receipts and weak markets elsewhere enabled them to get their hogs steady to in many cases around a dime lower. Killer buyers were very indifferent, and bought their hogs at prices that were in some cases 10@15c lower.

The market for lambs for Tuesday was a rather dragg proposition from any angle. Good feeder lambs were scarce, and buyers picked up some of the better strings during the early part of the forenoon at prices that were steady to not over a dime lower.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Lambs, good to choice, $10.25@10.35; lambs, fair to good, $10.10@10.25; lambs, feeders, $9.50@10.30; yearlings, good to choice, $7.75@8.50; yearlings, fair to good, $7.00@7.75; yearlings, feeders, $6.50@8.00; wethers, fair to choice, $8.50@7.75; ewes, good to choice, $7.00@7.15; ewes, fair to good, $6.25@6.90; ewes, plain to culls, $4.00@5.75; ewes, feeding, $5.50@6.75; ewes, breeders, all ages, $2.00@9.00.
