TO PAVE OR NOT TO PAVE

That's the Question Uppermost in the Thoughts of Wayne Citizens at Meeting. Engineer E. M. Rohrbough Talked at City Hall Tuesday Evening

It was an earnest, thoughtful audience of Wayne men who assembled at the city hall Tuesday evening to hear something of paving. Mr. Rohrbough, an engineer who devotes practically all of his time to the study of such questions as grades, curbs, parkings, walks and paving—and who was here last fall running the lines for the uniform grades recently adopted by the city, told of Wayne as he had imagined it years ago, and as he found it last fall. He also told what experience and observation had taught him was best manner to beautify and permanently improve such a city as we have here, with prospect of steady growth for many years yet.

He believes that all interests would be best served by a system of storm sewers to be installed in advance of paving. That is, he would plan the drainage and keep it ahead of the paving, and so plan it that it would conform to a plan for a complete system of drainage and be ample in the capacity of outlet to properly care for all the waters in the territory to be drained. By installing the sewer system the drainage would all be cared for without much water on the surface, and there would need be no depressing the crown of the street at street intersections, to permit water to flow over, these depressions being quite unfavorably commented on by those who ride in automobiles, for they make something like the old-fashioned "thank-you-mam" of a drifted snow road. They are hard on the vehicle, disagreeable to the occupants, and really make a weak point in the paving which will permit it to break there first of all. The cost of the drainage system complete (which would not, however, have to be done at once) he estimates at $45,000. This he suggested could be raised from the sale of "improvement bonds."

Of paving he said that there were several kinds, but that for a business section brick was acknowledged the best, and also the highest priced. For half of a 54-foot street, such as Main street between curbs, he estimates that the cost would be $7.92 per front foot, making nearly $200 for the single lot. An asphalt concrete paving he estimates at $5.88 per front foot, which would reduce the cost per lot about $50.

Judging the cost in the residence district, allowing for a 30-foot street between curbs, and a 24-inch gutter the cost should not exceed $3.11 per front foot with an asphalt paving. If a narrower street should be decided upon the cost would be slightly less.

So far as we have been able to judge from the experience of other places where contracts have been let these figures are as high as the work would be at all likely to cost. Payment may be made annually if desired, paying but one tenth each year, but of course, in that event there is an interest charge which would follow.

Looking at the cost one is tempted to say "no". But in the face of that it is a fact that in nearly every place where paving is once started no money could induce the people to permit it to be taken out, and the thing appears to be contagious, and spreading. It is the history of paving that once a district is paved new districts follow in rapid succession, and that may be taken as evidence that people like it once they try it, and Wayne is much like the rest of the world and the people much the same as others.

Personally the editor favors paving at the earliest opportunity consistent with good business principles. Possibly the cost might be less after the war—perhaps, also the interest rate on bonds might be higher and money less plentiful. While the cost of labor is high the price of most of the products we have to sell are also high, so it is possible these things may equalize. At any rate, with these figures at hand it will be comparatively easy for each one with property in the proposed paving district to estimate quite accurately what his cost would be, and consider whether or not it is worth the cost.

School Notes

For the first time the system of mid-year promotions was put into operation this week. A class of fifteen entered the high school. The following are members of that class: Lynette Rennick, Francis Kroger, Edith Huse, Gurney Laase, Bonnie Hess, John Carhart, Faith Phillio, Donald Miller, Helen Reynolds, Dorothy Jones, Maurics Gamble, Hazel Theiss, Howard McEachen, Lyda Griggs, and Frank Martin.

Professor C. H. Bright of the State normal faculty addressed the high school Tuesday afternoon. In a very interesting, entertaining manner, he related some of his experiences abroad. Many of the incidents related were full of human interest and delighted his hearers. Miss Frances Oman, president of the class of '16, was a guest at the high school Tuesday afternoon. While here she presented in behalf of her class a beautiful oak victrola record cabinet. This gift is especially timely in view of the fact that the music department is acquiring a large number of records to be used in the course in musical history and appreciation recently introduced.

Recent visitors were Mesdames G. J. Hess, Ray Reynolds, Perry Theobald, Rollie W. Ley, Wm. Andressen, Keyser, F. R. Dean, Jas. Nichols, Frank Gaertner, L. E. Panabaker and A. D. Erickson.

Report cards showing the results of the semester's work were issued in the high school. If any parents have not seen such report an investigation should be made, and the record carefully examined.

State Normal Notes

President Conn attended a meeting of the Board of Education at Lincoln Monday.

The work of the second semester will begin Monday, January 22. The close of the regular school year will be on Friday, May 25, commencement day.

Frank S. Perdue was a visitor Monday. Mr. Perdue was formerly deputy state superintendent of public instruction.

Miss Ruth Kile was elected to a position in the grades at West Point, beginning her work on Monday of this week. She will return to Wayne for the completion of her work in the summer session.

Professor A. V. Teed addressed the Y. M. C. A. at its regular meeting Wednesday evening.

The Normal Male Quartet will fill an engagement at Pilger on the evening of January 26, appearing under the auspices of the Pilger high school.

The following advanced electives appear on the schedule of work for the second semester: Social psychology, sociology, trigonometry, political economy, college chemistry, microbiology, advanced Latin, advanced German, advanced art, advanced music, advanced expression, regional geography, domestic science and domestic art.

A. P. McDonald Dies

Sholes January 18.—Special—A. P. McDonald, for 37 years a resident of Cedar county, died at his home three miles east and two miles north of this place Wednesday, January 17. He was a soldier of the Civil War, a member of the Masonic and Odd Fellow orders. The funeral will be from his late home Friday at 10 o'clock, and burial will be at Belden. The Odd Fellows will have charge of the funeral. A citizen respected by all has been called to his reward.

Improvement on College Hill

F. C. Salmon has purchased a pair of lots just southwest of the college grounds and has commenced the erection of a building thereon about 25x50 which will be fitted as a restaurant for the student trade, and will be run in connection with his down-town eating house, where he has a large student trade. With two places and meal tickets good at either, his venture should pay and also be a convenience to his patrons.

Last Chance Saturday at $2.98

Ladies, Saturday will be the last day when I can make the special price on silk waists, so it will be to your advantage not to miss this last opportunity, says Mrs. Jeffries of the lady-Ready-to-Wear store.—adv.

Soldier Boys Return Home

Without warning to their friends, and without information as to when they might be released to come home in time to send word, about twenty of the members of Co. E. 4th Nebraska National Guards, landed at Wayne Tuesday morning on the belated morning train. But few citizens were at the station when they arrived which would not have been the case had the time of their coming been known in advance.

The boys all appear to be in the best of physical condition and all had clothes on, contrary to what might have been expected from the news dispatches. Since the first bunch arrived they have been dropping in by ones and twos and threes—some of them not getting off on the early Tuesday train, others being detailed to look after the baggage, while some stopped to visit relatives and friends before coming to Wayne. Then there was a squad from Decatur who stopped to go home, and three or more belong at and near Wakefield.

Below are the names of the first installment to arrive:

Capt. A. L. Burnham, 1st Lt. James Pile, Lloyd Powers, Herald Mears, Fritz Lerner, Fritz Mildner, George Church, Frank Carr, I. C. Jagstrom, James Steele, Richard Hunter, Peter A. Larson, Guy Meade, R. B. Berry, Clyde Duncan, Art Davidson, Carl Juhlin, John Meyer, Leslie Rubeck, Lee Miner At Wakefield, Loren Patterson, Walter Howard, A. G. Chilquist, Roy Meier, Dale Rickabaugh and others came on the evening train with baggage. Wednesday evening 2nd Lt. Mahaffey and wife arrived.

All agree that Wayne people fix things just right for their Christmas, and then with the other Christmas offering came the order to pack and be ready to move north the day following. Nevertheless the boys observed Sunday as Christmas, and had their big time and then made ready to leave.

Doubtless a formal welcome home will be arranged for in the near future, but as yet no arrangements have been completed or date set.

All rejoice that the company returned home without the loss of a man and without a case of sickness in the entire company at the time of being mustered out of the Federal service, which leaves them still members of the N. N. G. the same as tho they had not been called to guard the border. The condition of the men speaks well for the officers of the company and those of the regiment; and shows that the soldier life in time of peace is much better guarded from disease than most of us are at home. In fact, so far as we know there was but one death in the entire regiment during the six months they were in the south, and that was from drowning, a soldier being taken with cramps while bathing in a lake near the camp.

Wayne Boys Win

The basket ball team of the Wausa high school came to Wayne Friday evening and were defeated by the Boy Scouts team by a score of 20 to 12. The game was played in the Normal gymnasium and was witnessed by a large number of the normal students. The line up is:

Wausa	Wayne
Hansen	L. F. R. Hickman
Banks	R. F. Rennick
Plank	C. Carhart
Swanson	R. G. Shull
Holst	L. G. L. Hickman

Honey Man Comes Again

The honey man is coming again. Mr. R. T. Frederick of Randolph writes he will visit Wayne with his home-made honey in either comb or strained, and guaranteed pure and choice. He said he would be at the White Livery from the 22nd to 28th—and as the White Livery is no more, you may see him where it once was or learn there where to find him, for he evidently does not realize that the old barn has given place to the modern garage of the Wayne Motor Co.—adv.

Social Notes

A large company of interested woman gathered at the Wm. Beckenhauer home Tuesday afternoon to celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of the Ladies Bible Study Circle. Mrs. Harry Ferrel leading the lesson study. Reports for the years work were read, also letters from evangelists and missionaries abroad and greetings from members who have moved away. After these reports Mrs. A. R. Davis sang a beautiful solo and the devotional meeting was participated in generally by the Wayne ladies and the visiting guests. The program closed with a delightful solo by Miss Emma Abbott. Mrs. Horace Theobald presiding at the piano throughout. While refreshments were being served Miss Frances Beckenhauer and Mrs. Lewis furnished music adding to the enjoyment of the occasion. About seventeen ladies and Rev. Mr. Wiley were present from Winside, and there were some who came from the country. The next meeting will be with Mrs. C. W. Hiseox.

The Minerve Club met Monday, January 15th with Mrs. E. W. Huse. Mrs. Britton, leader of Religion and Social Science told of some interesting development along her subject, including the teaching of the "Hate Songs" in the schools and churches of England. Mrs. Huse read an interesting article on the late Professor Munsterberg. Mrs. Lou Owen, leader of "Industry and Commerce," in absence of Mrs. Miner, read an important synopsis of the growing commercial intimacy between the North and South. Mrs. Roe contributed a large amount of information along the line of conservation of our present resources and also of the great possibilities of enlarging upon them. The program closed with some very enjoyable Victrola music. The ladies of the club and their husbands will enjoy a 6:30 o'clock dinner next Tuesday night at Domestic Science Hall, State normal, with Miss Agnes Finigan in charge. Next regular meeting will be January 29 with Mrs. E. J. Hunter as hostess.

Last Monday evening the Acme Club held one of their enjoyable social evenings. At seven-fifteen the members and husbands met at the corner of First National Bank forming a theater party, afterwards going to the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Davies, where they listened to some excellent music and old songs were sung. Mrs. Ingham gave two very fine vocal selections which were very much enjoyed. About ten o'clock an oyster supper was served. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games. A most delightful evening was spent by all. The committee in charge was, Mesdames Davies, Jacobs, Wilson, Williams, Bressler, Senter, Ingham and Crawford.

The Douglas King chapter, D. A. R. met with Mrs. Fred Philleo Saturday afternoon. Each member responded to the roll call with a patriotic quotation. Mrs. V. L. Dayton read a paper on "Nebraska as a Territory," and Mrs. A. N. Jacobs a paper on "Nebraska as a State". Mrs. Philleo served refreshments at the close of the program. The next meeting will be with Mrs. A. N. Jacobs on Saturday, February 10th.

The Bible Circle girls met last week with Mrs. Reeg. After the usual meeting, officers were elected for the next three months: Anna Granquist was elected president; Mae Hiseox, first vice-president; Nannie Steele, second vice-president; Florence Gardner, secretary; Bernice Brant, treasurer and Mable Gossard, organist. The next meeting will be with Anna Granquist. Nora Gilbert was the leader last week.

Mrs. John Hufford entertained the members of the U. D. Club last Monday afternoon at a three-course luncheon served at one o'clock. The afternoon was spent with the regular program. The members responded to roll call with current events. Mrs. Kinne gave a splendid paper on the Holy Land. Mrs. Christensen of Winside was an out of town guest. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Ray Reynolds.

Last Saturday evening Miss Ethel Patterson, chief operator at the telephone central, entertained a dozen of her young lady friends at the D. A. Jones home in honor of Mrs. Walter Howard, one of the former operators who lives at Wakefield since marriage. After an evening devoted to music and social enjoyment choice refreshments were served. The evening was a happy one for all.

The P. E. O. Sisterhood met with Mrs. John Hufford last Monday evening. The members responded to roll call, giving their favorite amusement. The evening was spent in discussing plans for making money for the Chapter. The hostess served light refreshments. Mrs. Rollie Ley will be hostess at the next meeting, Monday evening, January 29th.

The Monday Club met with Mrs. McMasters last Monday afternoon. Roll call was answered with current events. Two excellent papers were read. Mrs. Rollie Ley read a paper on "Ancestor Worship in China;" Mrs. Welsh read a paper on "What Missionaries are Doing for China." Mrs. Mellor will be hostess next Monday afternoon.

Last Saturday evening, Miss Mata Key entertained a dozen of her friends in honor of her 15th birthday, the main feature of the evening was a victrola concert. Songs were sung in both English and German. At ten o'clock a delicious two course luncheon was served. Miss Mata was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

The Helping Hand society meeting, which was to have been held today, was postponed on account of sickness. The next meeting will be the 25th at the Jens Anderson home, when the hungry husbands will be permitted to attend, and enjoy one of those excellent dinners for which the members of that society are famous.

The Queen Esther had a social meeting at the home of Misses Frances and Fern Oman last Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in a social way, kensington and music being the entertainment. The hostesses served delicious refreshments after which they adjourned to meet with Miss Mable Gossard, February 6.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. Kiplinger. The Carroll and Winside W. C. T. U. ladies have been invited to come. A very interesting program will be given, after which a picnic supper will be enjoyed. All members are urged to come and bring something for the supper.

The Farmer Union held a meeting last evening at the home of Linn Hanson, and nearly every member was present, and it is easy to guess why when you learn that an oyster supper was served, and in addition to the business of the evening a social hour was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Corbett served a sumptuous dinner Sunday, in honor of the sixteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Perry. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs.

C. K. Corbett, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Perry.

The Early Hour club meets with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Fanske this evening. The time will be spent in playing 500. At the close of the evening a delicious luncheon will be served.

The Guild of St. Mary's church will meet with Mrs. A. Pryor this afternoon for a business and social afternoon. At the close of the meeting refreshments will be served.

The Rural Home meets with Mrs. Weeces next Thursday afternoon.

The Young Ladies Bible Circle will meet on Saturday evening with Miss Anna Granquist.

The Democrat has just received word from the office of Reclamation Service at Washington that a tract of 4,000 acres will be opened February 8 in the Belle Fourche valley of South Dakota. This tract comes under an irrigation project and is the last, probably to be opened thus in that valley. The land is beyond the Black Hills from all Nebraska view point, and will be opened for homesteading in tracts of 80 acres or less. The total cost for land and water right is about $45 per acre, payable $25 an acre down and then the remainder divided into 15 annual payments, but not due except the first for five years. The terms are easy, and the price is simply enough to pay the cost of getting the water to the land. Now that will look good to a lot of people, and it is good, but still we believe that we can point to better opportunities for the landless man who has a bit of capital and the knowledge of farming, to be purchased of private individuals. A fertile land with coal at the door, where hay, alfalfa and grains thrive.

The Democrat received a pleasant call Monday from a bunch of democrats from Madison, who were here for a hearing before Judge Welch in the matter of the contest in that county for county commissioner, the present commissioner, Watson Purdy, holding over until 1917, tho a candidate who figured that term of office expired in 1919 claimed that he was elected to the place. But the courts have held that there was no vacancy, and hence could be no place to fill, and Judge Welch made a temporary order to that effect permanent, the opposition failing to even appear to defend their claim. Our visitors were Barney Gill, county attorney; Judge M. S. McDuffee, county judge; Frank Conley, editor of the Star-Mail, and Watson Purdy, commissioner.

Mrs. L. A. Panabaker left Saturday morning to visit her daughter at Des Moines, expecting to be absent several weeks. Mr. Panabaker accompanied her as far as Omaha. Inez Quits, the little girl under the care of Mrs. Panabaker, accompanied her to Des Moines.

George Davis was taken ill at Laurel last week, and taken to his home near Carroll when the physicians diagnosed his case as small pox. But then smallpox don't amount to much anymore. Perhaps if the physician could give it a new name it would be more terrifying.

Henry Lessman, who is a member of the Federal jury now, in session at Omaha, returned to that place Monday morning. He was one of the jurors who heard the famous wild horse case evidence, and at the close of that case which lasted several weeks he was given a leave of absence, but called again for Monday.

S. E. Auker and wife went to Lincoln the first of the week where they will attend the meeting of the different societies of organized agriculture this week, something more than thirty different organizations being represented there, with a long and varied program. While there they also expect to meet and visit with friends and relatives from the western part of the state. At the close of the week Mr. Auker will possibly go to Excelsior Springs, Missouri, for a time instead of at once returning home.

Henry Lutt and family from their farm near Colome, South Dakota, left for home this week following a visit of two weeks with friends and relatives in this county. They divided time between the Altona neighborhood where they formerly lived and Hoskins, where they were "at home" with F. Pfeil and wife, the parents of Mrs. Lutt. Mr. Lutt was one of the many who went from this county to the Rosebud drawing, and one of the few who drew a good number, coming before the 600 mark was reached, and he secured a good farm, and now has title to it. He said it was hard sledding the first few years before the country was subdued, and before there were many farmers there, for the first fellows there were many of them a class who knew nothing of farming. They sold out for what they could get in a few years, and they are now settled with farmers. Mr. Lutt had the advantage of knowing the farming game, having been one of the renting farmers of his county who could hold a farm as long as he cared to stay. He was farming the Henry Hansen farm at the time he made the trip that brought him a farm. He reports that they have had good crops there for the two seasons last past, and is confident that the good crop will be the rule now, for they have learned better how to farm that soil, know more of the climatic conditions and what crops do best—things which must be worked out in any new country by the pioneer and early settler. He says that the towns and Rosebud lands are prospering greatly.

Mrs. Flora B. Abbott and son Sidney were at Sioux City Saturday.

Mrs. George Yaryan and son Ross of Carroll visited Mrs. George Porter Saturday between trains.

Will Rennie and wife were at Sioux City Saturday, Mr. Rennie having an invitation to a big Ford banquet there.

Misses Anthony and Piper from the college and Miss Madsen of the Winside schools were visitors at Sioux City Saturday.

Mrs. May Bryan from Randolph, who has numerous acquaintances here, was here Saturday on her way to visit at Chicago.

Miss Ruth Ingham visited friends at Coleridge last Friday. They formerly lived there and have a host of friends in that place.

Mrs. Chris Anderson of Winside, who was visiting at the Chas. Riese home last week went to Laurel Friday morning to visit friends.

Fred Benschopf went to Lincoln Monday morning to attend the annual meeting of the Nebraska Mutual and Dwelling House Insurance company, of which he is the Wayne county representative.

Wm. Pipenstock was at Omaha and Plattsmouth the first of the week, where he doubtless was looking after the interests of the Sons of Herman, he being the head of the of the state organization.

The Laurel Advocate editor has boosted his advertising rates a small percent in an effort to meet the advance of about 200 percent in the price of print paper. Possibly his patrons will holler more than Bro. Nevin did at the increased cost of print.

The educational and co-operative union of this state in session at Omaha last week held secret sessions, and only those who had the proper credentials were admitted. If they can keep the proceedings secret no one will know what they did if he was not there. Perhaps they have been taking lessons from some other organizations and not telling to the world what their next moves are to be, or when made.

H. C. Bartells, who recently sold his farm northeast of Carroll, could not seem to think that there was a better community to call home, and so last week he just simply purchased another quarter section nearer town, and at a little higher price per acre than he received for his 160 a few months ago. It frequently happens that when one is free to go the going does not look so good. But really Mr. Bartells sold without expecting to do so, but he would not back out after making a price and it being accepted. He has purchased the Henry Peterson farm a mile east of Carroll on the Wayne road at $170.00 per acre.

Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Lutgen left Sunday afternoon for Auburn where they were present Monday and Tuesday at the formal opening of a hospital just completed there by his brother, Dr. C. A. Lutgen. The hospital habit appears to be in the Lutgen family, and it is a good thing for the communities in which they live, for it is a truth, we believe, that as many sick people fail to recover because of the lack of a proper place in which to care for them as from lack of medical care. In fact, many physicians admit that proper care will do more than medicine to build up the sick. In typhoid and pneumonia nursing is a most important part of the healing.

Mrs. L. Carter of Carroll was a Wayne visitor Friday.

Mrs. Peters from Sioux City came Saturday to visit her brother, E. S. Blair and family.

John Shannon was visiting at Sioux City the first of the week and looking after business at the same time.

H. C. Bartells and wife from Carroll were Sioux City visitors the first of the week, going down Monday morning.

J. H. Massie, wife and son were visitors at Winside the first day of the week, going over to dine at the E. W. Cullen home.

Ralph Ingham of the Norfolk News force was home between trains Sunday afternoon. Ralph says that he likes his work in the new field, and that it keeps him pretty busy to do the stunt six days in the week.

Gus Hansen of Randolph was here Monday on his way to Omaha with stock. He asked kindly about the new county treasurer, and wondered if he would be able to handle the money both in and out as fast as necessary, and was assured that thus far he was doing well.

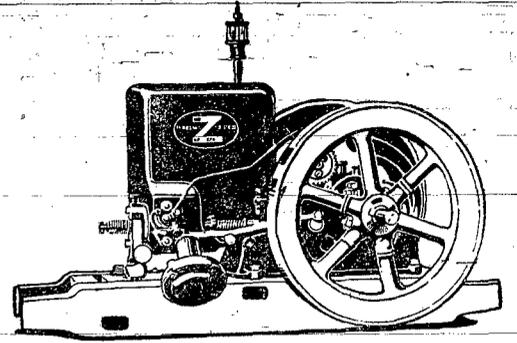

Miss Bess Plumleigh left Friday morning for Waterloo, Iowa, where she will join the other members of the Arch-Sherbahn-Plumleigh orchestra, who will furnish music at a movie theatre of which J. E. Hostettler is proprietor. Mr. Sherbahn went a day or two earlier.

W. F. Auker was here Saturday and Sunday visiting home folks and looking after business. He returned to his farm-home near Ponca Monday morning. He reports that he likes it well there, but that the farmers of that county admit that they do not hold anything over the farms and farmers of Wayne county.

Emil Miller, northeast of Wayne, was rushed to a Sioux City hospital Thursday morning, having been accidentally shot through the neck at the charivari, following the Victor-Seiks wedding, the latest report being that no serious result will follow. Two other boys narrowly escaped injury, one being shot through the coat, the other through the trouser leg. Better be more careful next time boys.

Some of this good Wayne county land is beginning to change owners. Henry Puls, near Altona, has sold a tract of 120 acres at $150 the acre to his neighbors, Will and Frank Woehler. That deal being consummated it is now the understanding that the Woehlers will part with an 80 acre piece adjoining Altona, and that Messrs. Christ Holst and J. G. Bergt each to have 40 acres at the same price per acre as the other deal.

J. G. Senter from Butte, Montana, who was called to his Bancroft home by the death of his mother last week, came to Wayne the last of the week to visit his brother, V. A. Senter for a short time. He left Sunday afternoon.

C. P. Turner of Hastings, one of the Nebraska missionaries for the American Sunday School Union, was here last week, a guest of E. B. Young and wife. He had been at Wakefield visiting relatives and friends and stopped here over night on his way home.

Mrs. Frank Wilson of Winside returned Saturday evening from a visit with home folks at Kansas City. Mr. Wilson went to Omaha to meet the wife and children, and they came as far as Wayne Saturday evening and visited his parents, Hamer Wilson and wife until Sunday, then drove home by automobile.

P. A. puts new joy
smoking!

YOU may live to be 110 and never feel old enough to vote, but it's certain-sure you'll not know the joy and contentment of a friendly old jimmy pipe or a hand-rolled cigarette unless you get on talking-terms with Prince Albert tobacco!

P. A. comes to you with a real reason for all the goodness and satisfaction it offers. It is made by a patented process that removes bite and parch! You can smoke it long and hard without a comeback! Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

Prince Albert affords the keenest pipe and cigarette enjoyment! And that flavor and fragrance and coolness is as good as that sounds. P. A. just answers the universal demand for tobacco without bite, parch or kick-back!

Introduction to Prince Albert isn't any harder than to walk into the nearest place that sells tobacco and ask for "a supply of P. A." You pay out a little change, to be sure, but it's the cheer-fullest investment you ever made!

Prince Albert is sold everywhere in tippy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins. They hold some pound and half-pound tin humidors—and that clever crystal-glass pound humidior with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in each splendid condition.

Doings of Nebraska's Legislature

At the close of the second week of the session there are less than one hundred bills introduced in the legislature, all of which indicates that the total number of measures proposed will not reach as high as in previous sessions. And yet the House rejected a motion by Liggett, of Seward, which was intended to limit the number of bills that any one member might be permitted to introduce to five. This action was taken largely on account of there being no rule or law which deprives a member fathering as many measures as he may see fit.

It was not until Thursday last that the standing committees of the House and Senate were finally announced and rectified by the two branches and it is generally understood that even now there is very likely to be some minor changes in the personnell of these committees. Norton, of Polk, heads the big Judiciary committee in the House and Senator Albert, of Platte, heads the same committee in the Senate. These men are well equipped for the places.

While there was a time when much speculation was being indulged in by a certain class of people as to what the legislature proposed doing on the subject of prohibition legislation, there now appears to be a well settled policy of allowing the friends of strong prohibition ideas to have their way in offering and recommending through the committee having charge of that subject, such a bill or amendments as will serve the purpose of making Nebraska just as dry as a majority of voters expressed a desire in the recent election. In the Senate there was appointed as chairman of the committee on prohibition legislation, Mr. C. W.

Beal, of Custer, and in the House, Mr. Norton, of Polk, will head the committee.

Both branches of this legislature are after the railroads of the state for having failed to deliver cars in which to handle the wheat crop of the farmers during the fall and present winter months. A joint resolution has been adopted inquiring into the conditions and there will be hearings held before a committee of the House and Senate until such facts are ascertained that will throw light into places that are keeping in the shadow at this time. The farmer's Congress at Omaha also took notice of almost intolerable affairs that prevailed for a number of months and will no doubt be ready to cooperate with the legislature in getting before the world such information as needed in the premises.

At the funeral of Colonel Wm. F. Cody, held in Denver, Colo., the legislature was represented by gentlemen appointed from both House and Senate. Governor Neville also delegated Lieutenant Governor Howard to do the honors for the office of Chief Executive. In connection with this solemn and to all Neraskans an especially mournful affair, it is suggested from many persons that the last resting place of Col. Cody should have been on Nebraska soil, at his home near North Platte, where at least forty years of his life was spent.

Editors Meet at Ponca

Monday evening editors of Dixon county met in Ponca and revived the Dixon County Editorial Association. F. J. Dunn of Dixon was elected president, Miss Anna Hunt of Ponca, vice-president, and S. E. Mills of Wakefield, secretary-treasurer. Provision was made to hold meetings in the near future. A joint bid for the county publishing was prepared and submitted. Other cooperation activities were discussed.

Those present were C. E. Paul of the Emerson Enterprise, D. E. Kunnaman of the Newcastle Times, F. J. Dunn of the Dixon Journal, E. A. Dietrick of the Allen News, S. E. Mills of the Wakefield Republican and Miss Hunt and Mr. Sturtevant of the Dixon County Advocate. The meeting was exceptionally pleasant and harmonious through.

E. B. Kingsbury of the Journal-Leader, for what seems to us wholly inadequate reasons, refused to attend the meeting or to have anything to do with its plans, or to cooperate in anyway with the other members of the fraternity.—Wakefield Republican.

Story of Two Young Men

Two boys, both of foreign parentage, lived and worked on farms in adjoining counties in Nebraska. When they arrived at manhood, both decided to study law and both enrolled in the State University of Nebraska. For a few years they roomed together and pursued the same course of studies. The spring before entering on their final years work at the University, both entered the race for the state legislature. Both filed before the primaries for the democratic nomination for representative. Both won in the primaries and again in the general election. They secured seats next each other in the representative's hall and are now laboring together to make creditable record for themselves by serving their constituents faithfully and efficiently. These ambitious and capable young men are Hon. Franz C. Radke of Cedar county and Hon. Leonard T. Fleetwood of Dixon county.—Wakefield Republican.

The message of Governor Neville is so sensible and progressive that it cannot help but please all who believe in good government. On the proper enforcement of the prohibitory amendment, the governor is especially insistent, and one especially good thing that he recommends is a law doing away with liquor clubs. If we are going to have prohibition, let's have the genuine article.—Wynot Tribune.

LOCAL NEWS

John T. Bressler went to Omaha Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dean spent Tuesday at Sioux City.

Walter Savidge was locking after business at Sioux City Tuesday.

Wm. Assenheimer from Altona was a visitor at Winside Monday.

Anderw Stamm sent two cars of fat cattle to the Omaha market Monday.

H. Griggs, who is working at Bloomfield, was home Sunday and Monday.

J. W. Keeper was looking after affairs at Sioux City the first of the week, going down Monday afternoon.

Miss May Wolf from Springfield, South Dakota, came Monday evening to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Griggs, her uncle and aunt.

Henry Rethwisch from Carroll went to Florence Tuesday to attend a hog sale and greet a few of his former neighbors, for he did not always live at Carroll.

W. E. Watkins and family, who have been residents of Wayne for the past three years have moved to Norfolk, the wife and babies going over Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Erskine were visitors at Omaha the first of the week, he to assist in completing an operation commenced last week for his little niece.

Gasbler Bros., of Winside are reported to have sold their new garage and automobile business to Anderson Brothers, who have already taken possession.

G. E. Paulsen from Carroll was a passenger to Perkins, Iowa, where he attended a sale of Poland China hogs. He tells us that he has a sale dated for February 13th.

Miss Teressa Edwards left Tuesday morning to visit her grandfather at Moulton, Iowa. She was accompanied by her father, Wm. Edwards, Jr., who has been here for the past two or three weeks, and who then returns to Little Rock, Arkansas.

George McEachen went to Orange City, Iowa, Tuesday, and we rather expected to see him return wearing a pair of wooden shoes, but instead he brought a pig, having been down to select one, having bargained for first choice from two litters.

Mrs. S. M. Swanson has been visiting at the home of L. C. Trumbauer and wife, her sister, returned to her home at Emerson Monday, and Mrs. Trumbauer accompanied her for a short visit while recuperating from the effects of having tonsils and adenoids removed last week. The operation was at the Wayne hospital.

In his recommendations to the legislature as to measures for enforcement of the prohibition amendment Governor Neville is neither radical nor conservative. He is simply sensible, practical and earnest. His message to the legislature is sensible and practical and earnest throughout.—Butler County Press.

Dr. W. F. Lewis from Anoke came last week to visit at the home of his brother, John S. Mr. Lewis formerly lived at Wayne—and he also lived in Mexico, and was at one time reported to have been the victim of the unpleasantness so common in that land—but he was not—at least not to the extent of being murdered, as was reported.

A successful farmer institute was held at Plainview last week. Farm products, fancy work and the product of the kitchen were entered for exhibition and judges awarded the prizes to the best. Such meetings are of much benefit to a community, or at least may be if properly conducted. At Humphrey they also had a successful farmer institute.

The English ammunition makers have under bid the American shell makers for making shells for American cannon in spite of their contracts to make ammunition for the English to "pot" Germans with. These American manufacturers are the patriotic citizens whom Charles Evans Hughes, a candidate who also ran for office a while back, said where the only ones to save the country and keep it saved. He was their 100 per cent efficient candidate who would have helped them to a stranglehold on the American people had it not been for the west and south. If the American manufacturers would charge their home government $200 more for a shell than the English manufacturers would, it must be that they had to cut prices on shells to kill Germans with more than the British did. The United States government should make its own ammunition.—Albion Argus.

CHIROPRACTIC

Chiropractic is based upon a knowledge of the structure and function of the human body especially that of the brain, vertebral column, spinal cord and the nerves emanating therefrom. The brain is the power plant of the body, the nerves are the wires which conduct its power. Pressure on a nerve at the opening where it leaves the vertebral column will permit disease in that organ or tissue at which the nerve ends, for without power it cannot either live or function. Both acute and chronic cases yield readily to Chiropractic.

And the war goes merrily on.

Will some one please tell us what all this war is about—what for? And but an echo replies: "What for?"

It looks good to one who saw or thought he saw in Candidate Neville the best man of the nominees for governor to read of those who thought and fought on the other side come and say they are glad they were defeated. Neville is O. K.

How would you like to be a socialist? We mean that one particular member of that political faith who appears to hold the balance of power or the deciding vote as between democrats and republicans in the next congress. If he is the right sort of a politician he will do his cause a lot of good by advocating and securing the passage of a few of their best things of an economic nature.

Exchange advertising columns tell us that some of the loan companies will now make a loan on more favorable terms than the government farm loan, which we are glad to hear, and we often wondered that they were not long headed enough to do that thing before Uncle Sam opened up a loan shop. They then might have had many things their own way. This now looks much like death bed repentance.

Now that the law makers have asked for $3,000,000 with which to build a state house we suggest that they provide for raising at least $50,000,000 with which to commence work of conserving the waters of the state and harnessing them for the use of the people. Lots of Nebraska people are mighty tired of paying just any old price for the coal refused by people near the mines as unfit for use. But it appears to be good enough to load onto cars and add a heavy freight charge thereto and let the people of Nebraska burn it for they simply have to take any old thing offered, and pay just the price asked. Yet it is within our power to be in a great measure independent of such a combination. If this legislature shall start such an enterprise for the people they will need no other monument to insure their names in the hearts of the people for all time to come. Besides, the people voted to run the state by water after the first of May next.

They appear to be having a heck of a time at Washington over an alleged leak of the fact that President Wilson sent a peace note to Europe, and the claim that those on the inside made a nice cleaning gambling on the stock exchange because of the inside knowledge; and the thing is being investigated as such things should be, but never were under republican rule. For then it was the proper thing to consult the Wall street money kings, and give them advance information which must have helped them to skin and fleece a lot of lambs. Perhaps the proper thing to do would be to simply shut up the stock exchange, which is simply a gambling combination of the bad kind, for some gamblers will play a square game and take a loss if it comes to them. But we are glad the matter is being investigated. Tommy Lawson, a smart guy, who claimed to know so much, was called as a witness, and when he came to the committee he refused to talk, and as a result he will be recalled and given a choice of talking or being held for contempt. When a man makes a serious charge against high officials he should be both able and willing to prove the truth of his assertions. A few examples will help to clear the atmosphere.

The organization of farmers which took control of North Dakota state government thru a non-political league, is devoting itself assiduously to the problems connected with marketing. The officers claim to have made a complete demonstration of sharp practices, if nothing worse, in connection with grain grading and grain buying by the elevator men. The president of the non-partisan league predicts that the next step in freeing the farmer will be the creation of "federal grain elevators and other important and necessary adjuncts to marketing." The North Dakota farmers are going after the solution of their problems with tremendous vigor. It appears that they have used considerable skill in organizing to get control of their government. Their opponents predict that they will break down when it comes to putting some of their theories into effect. So says the State Journal of Lincoln. And the news reports tell us that Nebraska, Iowa and Minnesota are to be organized next, and then other states. The farmers certainly carried things in North Dakota to their own liking, and now that they are in control will come the test of their ability, and the sincerity of those who have led the movement. It has been too often the case that voters have been misled into placing unworthy representatives in places of power and learn only when too late that they had been betrayed. Deserted and betrayed by those who had been leaders, they drifted back to their old parties feeling that they could be no worse off in that way than the other. But the time is coming when the expressed will of the voters will be better observed than it has been in the past.

A number of local merchants have been too busy this month to write advertising for the local papers—and besides—"trade is quiet now, not much doing, nobody comes to town in such cold weather, and they have bought what they have to have, and you cannot make them buy if they don't want to," so the joke is evidently on a big catalog house, for they have sent a ton of catalogs here this week to distribute among those people who have already done their buying. We had dinner, yesterday, too; but we hope to have another today.

Among the Churches of Wayne

Presbyterian Church
(Rev. S. Xenophon Cross, Pastor)
The Rev. David R. Kerr, D. D., LL. D., president of Bellevue College, will be with us next Sunday and will speak at the hour of morning worship.

The attendance at and the interest in the Sunday evening meetings still continues. One of the best programs yet offered will be presented next Sunday evening. We will appreciate your presence and that of your friends.

The Sunday school will celebrate in an appropriate way, Washington's Birthday on the last Sunday in February. The contest for attendance between two of the adult classes is growing daily in interest to all concerned and that means to all members and friends of the Sunday school and the church.

Ask anyone who was there about the meeting at this church last Sunday evening. Take their word for it, and then come and see and hear for yourself. The meeting will be wholly evangelistic in character. The music promises to be extra good next Sunday, and every effort is being made to make the meeting an interesting and helpful one to everybody and in every way.

Joe Ringland will lead the Y. P. C. E. meeting next Sunday evening. The topic will be: "Seeing the Good in Others." Read Phil. 2: 1-11. The young folks are making plans to celebrate Christian Endeavor week from the 28th of January to the 4th of February, inclusive. The Sunday evenings will be given over entirely to the work of the young people, from the standpoint of evangelism, in which this society has always been supremely interested.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church
(Rev. J. H. Fetterolf, Pastor.)
Sunday school at 10 a. m.
Public worship at 11 a. m. The sermon will be on the subject: "The Believer's Assurance of Salvation." At 7:30 p. m. the sermon will be the sixth in the series on Joseph—"Joseph Makes Himself Known to His Brothers."
The Luther League meets in the lecture room at 6:45 p. m. Subject: Lutheran Missions in Madagascar.

Our teachers in the Sunday school have recognized that teaching is a responsible work and that to do it efficiently requires training of heart and mind. With a view of better equipping themselves for these duties they have decided to take up the work of the Teacher-Training Course. The class will hold its initial meeting some evening next week, probably Wednesday. We would be pleased to enroll others who are not teaching now, but who are willing to become either regular or substitute teachers. Any one, sixteen years or over is eligible. This is an opportunity of which many should take advantage.

Methodist Church
(Rev. A. S. Buell Pastor.)
Last Sunday's services were all well attended. The morning theme was the responsibility of the older members towards the young people and children in the church. In the evening the Y. M. C. A. of the Wayne State normal had charge of the services. The audience was pleased with the program which consisted of musical numbers by the boys Glee Club and Quartet. Ward Randol presided and read the scripture, Lee, Wells and E. A. Hering were the speakers.

The theme for next Sunday morning at the Methodist church will be "Individualistic and Socialized Christianity."
The evening message will be "Christianity's Challenge to the Nations."
These are live themes to-day, they contain much of vital interest to you. Come next Sunday to both services, Make this homelike church your church home.

Baptist Church
(Publicity Committee)
Do not stay at home next Sunday morning to sleep. If you must sleep come to church and sleep. Come to church in any event. There will be the usual good-morning program with a sermon that will be helpful to all who hear it. In the evening the young people will hold another of the same kind of meetings that was held last Sunday evening when Prof. Lewis discussed responsibility. The pastor will give a Sabbath evening discourse that all should hear. Good music will be programed at this service.

German Lutheran Church
Rev. Moebing, Pastor
There will be Sunday school a 10 a. m regular services at 11 a. m. In the afternoon the pastor will preach at Winside at 3 o'clock.

Casper Korn and his son Adolph went to Omaha Wednesday and after a visit there will go on to Lincoln where Mr. Korn wished to visit a friend of other days and other lands, Mr. Rees, whom he knew as a boy before coming to Nebraska.

There was meeting of the officials of the Wayne-Altona telephone line at the city hall in this place last Thursday and J. R. Almond of the Nebraska telephone Co. was with them and gave a short talk on the subject of telephone service, showing how important it is to both country and town patrons of a telephone line that everything be kept in the best of working order. Poor service is a trouble to all patrons of a line. Saturday Mr. Almond was at Emerson and attended a meeting of the Elkhorn Valley company people, and there he gave a short talk on what would be the result if a giant cut the telephone wires. These meetings if continued will naturally lead to improved lines and better service.

Farmers who are planning to build up and improve their herds of Duroc swine and those now having pure bred herds will not overlook the opportunity offered in the Stuthman-Koehlmoos sale north of Piager, Thursday February 1st to get some of the best of that bred near home. Most any farmer in Wayne county can easily drive to this sale and home the same evening, and not only that, but with hogs at the present prices he will not let any good sow go for a song. Pure bred high class individuals has been the hobby preached by the Democrat, for the reason that it costs no more to grow a good one than a runt, and they are worth so much more, and the extra value is all velvet, as compared with the inferior hog. It pays to have the best.

While the countries of Europe are spending money and going into debt for war purposes, Japan is not only paying off liberal amounts of the war debt made a few years ago, but is loaning to England more than half a billion yens, or about $260,000,000 as we measure money.

C. F. Carroll, who formerly lived at Wayne, but is now a resident of Ekalaka, Montana, has been at Creighton visiting his father, and from there came to Wayne to visit at the homes of Peter and Mrs. Emma Baker. He left Tuesday to visit at the Niess home in Sioux City, his brother-in-law. Then he is planning stops in South Dakota and other places before returning to Montana.

John Dunn, for many years a resident of this county, now living near Randolph, was a caller Wednesday to help out in meeting the high cost of paper. He tells us that he has rented a farm near St. Charles, South Dakota, and will move there about March first. Speaking of early days in this county he said that he was a resident of Winside before they had a depot there. It may be a pretty good country around St. Charles, and it will have to be to make it seem home-like to one so long a resident of this good farm land.

The farmer and breeder no longer has to leave Nebraska nor go far from home to secure as good as there is offered in the way of pure-bred stock, we are glad to say, for while the cost may be as great the value is surely as great if not greater, and the nearer home you can get what you want the better for the people of Nebraska, because it my come back. Next Thursday, the 25th Robert A. Schug of Colledge will hold his eighth annual sale of Poland China brood sows. The editor has watched the reports of these sales for a number of seasons, and they indicate that Mr. Schug is building a business on the quality of his offering—and quality is what counts. A glance at his advertisement on another page will convince one that he has the truly big and prolific strains of this popular hog family. He has evidently built a herd of the best families and then picked the best individuals. This sale is within easy driving distance for many of our farmer readers, and they should attend if for nothing more than to get the free dinner and see the herd and how they are kept.

The Wayne M. W. A. basket ball team defeated the Carroll town team by a score of 12 to 10 in a game played in the high school gymnasium in this city last Friday. The game was so closely contested that when time was called the score was a tie and a short time was allotted to make the victory and again a tie. The referee then said play until one side made a score, and soon thereafter the home team played a ringer and won two points, and the game.

It is the belief of the advertising experts of the country that one billion dollars will be expended in advertising in the United States during the coming year. There is scarcely any kind of business that can get along without advertising and business men in general realize that there is no better medium of advertising than the newspaper. The country newspaper especially is becoming more and more recognized as an effective advertising medium. The country paper is strictly a home paper and reaches the buying public in a more thorough manner because good country newspapers have the confidence of whole communities of their own. Therefore, since so much money will be spent on advertising this year we hope to see the country newspaper gets its just proportion, and the only way they can do this is to treat the agencies as good business men and demand the same for themselves.—Cornbelt Publisher.

Commissioner's Proceedings

Wayne, Nebraska, January 9th 1917.
Board met in regular session. All members present.
Upon motion it is hereby resolved that each member of the Board be and is hereby appointed a committee of one to investigate claims of demand upon the county for pauper maintenance at the poor house, and for temporary relief, and also to investigate claims and demands of any party on county road and bridge funds to be expended in the several road districts of the county. P. M. Corbit is hereby directed to act as such committee in the 1st district. Henry Rethwisch is hereby directed to act as such committee in the 2nd district. George S. Farran is hereby directed to act as such committee in the 3rd district.

Provided, however, that in case of emergency anywhere in the county, coming to the knowledge of any of the commissioners where it is necessary to give immediate relief to a pauper, and no other commissioner being present, the commissioner present shall see that the necessary relief is provided. Each member shall report to the full board at its next session, and all acts performed by him as such committee with his recommendations for action by the Board. All Justices of the Peace, and the county clerk are hereby forbidden to give any aid whatsoever, except as stated below, and all persons requiring county aid, such as medical attendance, admittance to the poor house and other necessities shall make application direct to the commissioner of the district for which he acts.

Under this resolution the county clerk and superintendent of the poor house are given authority to call the county physician for medical attendance when they deem it necessary.

On motion the following resolutions were adopted: Resolved:

1. That a Board of Health for the county be appointed by the County Board, the same to consist of three members, one of whom shall be a practicing physician.

2. That said Board of Health be and they hereby are empowered to enforce such regulations as may be adopted by this Board to prevent the introduction of contagious, infectious or malignant diseases into the unincorporated territory of the county, and to enforce quarantine rules made for that purpose by it or the Board of commissioners.

3. That in case in their judgment it shall become necessary to establish a pest house, and if the pest house be established by the County Board, the same shall be under the supervision of the Board of Health, and the said Board of Health shall have power to cause such person to be removed thereto as they may deem necessary in order to enforce the quarantine rules and prevent the introduction and spread of such contagious diseases.

4. The said Board of Health or any member thereof may enter any premises in the county not within the corporate limits of any city or village for the purpose of determining whether or not contagious disease exists therein and shall adopt such rules and regulations for their own control and for the carrying out and enforcement of the quarantine rules and regulations adopted by this board as in their judgment they may deem necessary. They shall elect such officers from their own body as they deem necessary and shall keep a record of all their proceedings and persons quarantined.

5. The expenses of said Board of Health which are not properly chargeable to the persons affected with such contagious diseases or persons occupying the premises where the same exists shall be paid from the county treasury upon bills duly allowed by the board of the county commissioners, in the same manner as the other indebtedness against the county.

The compensation of the members of this Board of Health shall be 25 cents a mile one way, and for examination and quarantine of each family $2.00. They shall be allowed by the county board and paid from the county treasury, in the same manner as other bills against the county.

6. The County Board may at any time remove any member of said Board of Health and appoint another in his place.

7. All persons who have been quarantined, shall be thoroughly fumigated in the manner provided by the rules of quarantine and adopted by this board, at the expense of such persons and the occupant of the quarantined premises and no quarantine shall be raised until such persons and premises have been thus fumigated. Provided that paupers and premises occupied by paupers may be fumigated at the expense of the county. All fumigating shall be under personal supervision of one member of the Board of Health, under the personal supervision of a practicing physician.

On motion the following regulations and rules for quarantine of contagious, infectious, or malignant diseases were adopted.

1. Whenever within the limits of this county, and without the corporate limits of any city or village, a person is suspected of having small-pox, scarlet fever, diphtheria or other contagious disease he shall be immediately isolated within his own household as carefully as possible and as soon as a contagious disease is recognized it will be the duty of the attending physician and householder, to give written notice of the same to the clerk of the county, giving the name of the disease and of the family where it exists, with the number exposed and all other particulars that may be of any value.

2. The premises where the above contagious disease exists shall be duly quarantined by the county Board of Health through its proper officer or any appointee (a) by placing upon the house or some conspicuous point upon the premises, a placard giving the name of disease in letters not less than three inches (3) in height. (b) By a verbal or written notice to the householder to remain on the premises and in no way mingle with other persons nor to allow others (except the physician) to approach nearer than thirty (30) feet to any house or person thus quarantined. This rule to apply also in case of exposure.

3. Such quarantine to continue until in the opinion of the medical advisor of the Board of Health, the last case of the disease likely to occur therein has completely recovered and is ready for disinfection, provided however that in case of extreme necessity one free from disease may be released earlier after thorough disinfection of person and clothing and with a certificate from the above medical advisor.

4. The necessities of life, as often as occasion demands may be carried within thirty (30) feet of the quarantined house by a neighbor or other duly appointed messenger, but no nearer, nor shall any effects whatever be brought away from the household until thoroughly disinfected.

5. In case of death from contagious disease there shall be no public funeral and the body of the deceased shall be closely wrapped in sheets well saturated with disinfectants and closed in a tight casket, this to be again wrapped with a disinfected cloth, and in such cases the corpse shall not be carried to or near any body of people while on its way to a cemetery.

6. When in any school district or community several families, say five to eight are infected with contagious disease or very many exposures have occurred the Board of Health may prohibit all gatherings of people in that community including sessions of school, until in their opinion the emergency is past.

7. All physicians should use due precaution in their visits to quarantined households to avoid the danger of contagion to the well.

8. When in the opinion of the medical advisor of the Board of Health quarantine can be safely raised, it shall be done with fumigation with a 40 per cent solution of formaldehyde, using at least five ounces to each 1000 cubic feet of air space, solution to be applied by an approved evaporation or by the sheet method. The room to be sealed at least six hours. All persons to receive a disinfecting bath and their clothing to be fumigated and the house thoroughly cleansed. This to be done in accordance with the "Suggestions of the State Board of Health to Physicians."

9. When in the opinion of the Board of county commissioners a hospital is needed to which individual cases of contagious diseases may be removed or when such method will accommodate those without homes at much less public expense or for any other reason it is deemed best a building suited to their needs shall be provided.

10. Whoever in any way willfully or negligently disobeys these rules of quarantine and disinfection shall by such disobedience render himself subject to prosecution and a fine of $25.00 for each and every offense and shall meanwhile if infected and subject to quarantine be held at the quarantine house or hospital until the time for disinfection.

On motion the following persons are hereby appointed as members of the county Board of Health: George T. Porter Dr. J. G. Neeley and Dr. J. J. Williams.
On motion J. E. Harmon is hereby appointed janitor of Court House and grounds for year 1917 and salary fixed at $60.00 per month.

It is hereby resolved that the Board allow for the year 1917 the following wages for road work.

$3 50 per day for man and team and $5.00 per day for man and two teams and $2.00 per day for single man, and further that all overseers shall show the dates that this work is done on the receipts, and also show location as to where work is done, also show just where all lumber purchased by them is used, also to account for all old lumber. All overseers are hereby notified to purchase lumber from party with whom the county has the contract also to sign for all lumber before leaving the yards.

On motion the Board hereby makes the following estimate of expenses for the year 1917.

County General Fund.....$35,000.00
County Bridge Fund.....$30,000.00
County Road Fund.....$30,000.00
County Road Dragging Fund.....$ 5,000.00
County Soldier's Relief Fund.....$ 1,500.00

It is hereby resolved that the Board allow for the year 1917 the sum of $2.00 for sharpening small grader lays and $2.50 for the large ones.

On motion the salary of the deputy county clerk for the year 1917 is fixed at $800.00.

County Board hereby adopts the Richardson Road Dragging Law, as set forth on page 305 of Session Laws of Nebraska of the year 1913. The county is hereby divided into three road dragging districts. Road dragging district No. 1 shall comprise the precincts of Logan, Leslie, Plum Creek, Hunter and Strahan. Road dragging district No. 2 shall comprise the precincts of Wilbur, Deer Creek, Sherman and Garfield. Road dragging district No. 3 shall comprise the precincts of Hoskins, Hancock, Chapin and Brenna.

P. M. Corbit is hereby made overseer of road dragging district No. 1. Henry Rethwisch is hereby made overseer of road dragging district No. 2. George S. Farran is hereby made overseer of road dragging district No. 3.

County commissioners as overseers of the respective road dragging districts are to receive no extra compensation or fee.

Report of Pearl E. Sewell, county superintendent, showing $138.67 in the Institute Fund on January 9th, 1917, was examined and approved.

Forrest L. Hughes, Clerk of district court, showing amount of fees collected by him for the quarter ending January 3rd 1917, amounted to the sum of $270.80 was examined and approved. Report also shows that he collected $1094.15 for the year, which was approved.

I. W. Alter, is hereby appointed Justice of the Peace for Wayne.

Report of Soldier's Relief Commission showing complete report of all transactions from January 19th, 1916, to January 9th, 1917, was examined and approved, and which report is as follows:

Balance on hand January 19th, 1916.....$198.91

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Omaha Horse and Mule Commission company, Perry W. Simpson, formerly president of Hilliker-Simpson company of Grand Island, was elected general manager and treasurer.

Springfield is without fire protection, and the only drinking water available is that obtained from private wells, as the result of the bursting of the village water tank. The flood of water demolished several barns.

The Hart and Megann revival meetings, in session at Fairbury for five weeks, have closed. Forty converts were secured. A free will offering aggregating nearly $1,000 was raised for Mrs. Hart and Megann the closing day of the meeting.

The total receipts of live stock at the Omaha yards for the year 1916 was the greatest in its history. In actual figures 7,654,205 head of stock reached the yards. This is almost a half million head more than was received there the previous year.

Reservation of sub-surface rights in the leasing of school lands is advocated by the new land commissioner, G. L. Shumway. He believes that there may come a time when oil may be discovered in Nebraska and he believes that the state should reserve its rights.

According to the budget prepared by Governor Morehead from reports from the departments of the state and from an estimate of the probable income of the state, there will be an income for the coming biennium of $11,182,475, as against $10,381,377 for the last biennium.

In an application to the state railway commission for permission to cut its freight service 50 per cent on the Tallmadge branch, the Missouri Pacific railroad denies that the commission has any authority over train schedules. The road admits that the commission has authority over service.

On a street crowded with theatergoers near the center of the business district of Lincoln, John Stearns, a restaurant man, shot and instantly killed Mrs. Nora Nelson, a dressmaker, and then shot himself, dying in a few minutes. Both man and woman were about thirty years old. Stearns was jealous of the woman. Meeting her on the street he upbraided her for going to Omaha with another, as he claimed, and receiving no satisfactory explanation, shot her.

The hotel commission, through the business management of Colonel Phil Ackerman, saved $3,988 from the appropriation of $11,800 made by the legislature.

The Nebraska state music teachers concluded their sessions at Lincoln by selecting the following officers in addition to President Willard Kimball: Vice president, John Reed of Hastings; secretary, John Gilbert Jones of Omaha, and treasurer, Miss Hazel Caman of Beatrice.

The body of a young man about twenty-four years of age was discovered in a room of an Oxford hotel with his throat cut. He had registered at the hotel as Henry Wood, Overton. There was a note in his pocket showing the act was premeditated and indicated an unbalanced mind.

The Nebraska supreme court has upheld the constitutionality of the legislative enactment of 1909 requiring all railroad companies, express and telegraph companies to install telephone instruments in their stations and public offices for the convenience of the public when so ordered by the state railway commission.

There is a movement on foot to split the Nebraska State Teachers' association into two organizations. According to the proposed plan the state association would be divided into eastern and western associations. It is argued that the programs are too extensive and could be well cut in half as far as the benefit derived is concerned.

Frank Havir, seven-year-old son of Mrs. Joseph Havir of Plattsmouth, was probably fatally burned when he tried to "play plumber" and make a blow torch by forcing air on a pan filled with burning kerosene. In manipulating the torch, the boy threw kerosene over his body. He was burned from his knees to the crown of his head. His ears were burned off.

The following officers were elected by the Nebraska Bar association at the concluding session of its seventeenth annual convention at Omaha: President, Frank M. Hall, Lincoln; vice presidents, B. E. Hendricks, Waterloo; L. H. Cheney, Stockville; A. A. Welch, Wahoo; secretary, A. G. Elick, Omaha; treasurer, Raymond Crossman, Omaha.

The case in county court at West Point, wherein it was sought to probate the will of the late Francis Gatzemeyer, a pioneer settler, was stubbornly fought on both sides, the estate being very valuable, and some of the heirs objecting because of the alleged incompetence of the testator. At the conclusion Judge Dewald admitted the will to probate.

Director Page of the bureau of good roads, department of agriculture, announced that Omaha has been selected as headquarters for the fifth good roads division, comprising Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri. Quarters will be in the Douglas county court house. The offer of office quarters decided the contest between Omaha and Kansas City in favor of Omaha.

Compliance of the failed Ulysses Grain company with the provisions of the public warehouse law would have prevented a loss to the farmers thereabouts, according to the conclusions reached by Attorney Fleharty, special investigator for the state railway commission. Attorney General Reed will be asked by the commission to prosecute the defunct company for operating a public warehouse without a license.

Nine of the defendants in the famous Arizona "wild horse" case on trial in the federal court at Omaha were found guilty of conspiracy to defraud through use of the government mails. They are: J. Dick Rutherford, "Nebraska's greatest athlete," and now assistant all-year coach at the state university, will probably be head coach at Grinnell college, Iowa, next year. Dick is being considered for the position and is the favorite, according to word received from the Hawkeye state. Rutherford is receiving a salary of $2,000 a year as assistant coach at Nebraska. No friction has arisen between Mr. Stewart, Nebraska's head coach, and his assistant.

While the family of Oliver Kuke was seated about a table in the living room of their farm house, near Shubert, an unknown person shot at them from a distance of about eighty yards. The lead of shot smashed the glass of the window and entered the room just over the heads of the family. Bloodhounds were put on the trail and three times the dogs went to the house, a note for the man was found in possession of a slacker who had been recently freed. He explained that he had been hunting raptids. There has been considerable trouble in the neighborhood.

Government food inspectors and deputies from the United States marshals' office are considering what to do with the case of 25,000 pounds of beans consigned by the United Packing company of Omaha to a Kansas City wholesale grocery store and ordered confiscated under the pure food act. A deputy marshal went to the grocery house to seize the beans. The firm denied all knowledge of the food inspector's act and said they had been sold to different retailers. The beans were not ordered confiscated because of being unfit to eat. The government inspectors say the beans were branded baked when they were prepared in a different way.

Evidence which the police say convinces them that Bernard W. Lewis, son of a wealthy retired Pittsburgh coal operator, who ended his life in an Atlantic City hotel, was the slayer of Maizie Albert, the artists' model of Philadelphia, was revealed by an examination of the young man's body.

Scientists at California university have discovered the substance that produces growth in the human body. Tethelin is what they call it; it is located in the pituitary body at the base of the brain and by retarding or accelerating its functions it may be possible, according to the Berkeley scientists, to control the stature of humans.

The Limousine Look.

Perhaps it is hypercritical of us riding in a limousine is a magnificent and awful thing, and how should any plain mortal be expected to endure it without amendment to his soul? Still, from our sidewalk, we do observe and protest. Can no human being, even though to the limousine door, learn to ride in a closed car and avoid the closed-face, that blank, top forty mooniness of expression so alien to normal American worry and cheerfulness?

The limousine look attacks any happy, laughing debutante or bank president the instant the door slams and they sink back in what is technically known in motorcar literature as "milla-di's drawing room on wheels." It comes on or off the face very much as do the detachable tops that convert an ordinary touring car of commerce into a miniature palace fit to stand before the blazing glory of an opera house with unformed attendant handing in a very charming and expensive wife.—New York Tribune.

A Japanese Composing Room. The most interesting department of a Japanese printing plant is the composing room. Great cases of type of all sizes extend the whole length of the mammoth room. As the Chinese and Japanese characters used in a printing office run far into the tens of thousands, the life of the compositor must be a continual search for the letter he desires to use.

The compositors were scuffling around the aisles of the room hunting for these characters and all singing at the tops of their voices, which apparently caused them to forget the terrors of their work. There seemed to be hundreds of them, and the din was deafening.

After the proof is finally corrected the forms are made up, quite as they are in an American newspaper office, stereotyped and sent down to big cylinder presses.—Archie Bell in World Outlook.

Harriman Told Him. Harriman had an almost supernatural instinct for knowing what was going on and who was doing it in the mysteries of stock manipulation. Once when Southern Pacific had been going up fast, Harriman and various banking houses buying in concert, he called up on the telephone one of his private brokers. "Somebody is selling," he said. "Yes, sir," was the answer. "Well, hand the market 25,000 for me." Immediately he called up the head of a banking firm much interested in the market. "Who's selling Southern Pacific?" he asked. "I don't know. We haven't been able to find out," was the answer. "I'll tell you," snapped Harriman; "it's your house." And he cut off the connection before any reply to him could be made.—Exchange.

Somewhat Different. Fred—There are times when I care nothing for riches, when I would not so much as put forth a hand to receive millions.

Kitzie—Indeed! That must be when you are tired of the world and its struggles and vanities, when your soul yearns for higher and nobler things. Is it not?

"No; you are wrong." "Then when is it?" "When I'm sleeping."—London Mail.

Success or Failure. "How's that young doctor getting along in your neighborhood?" "It depends." "On what?" "If that crowd that visits his office daily are patients he's doing very well; if they're bill collectors he's having a hard time of it."—Detroit Free Press.

An Easy Task. Lover (mournfully)—Have you learned to love another? Flirt (who had just broken off her engagement with him)—Oh, no, George. I didn't have to learn. The man is very, very wealthy, and the love came spontaneously.

Raised the Ante. Small Elmer—Papa, give me a nickel. Papa—Why, Elmer, you are most too old to be begging for a nickel. Small Elmer—I guess you're right, papa. Make it a dime.—Chicago News.

+++++ PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT. +++++

Boils and Carbuncles. The appearance of boils in crops is mainly an indication of impaired health. Single boils are generally due to local irritation.

The location of the boil or carbuncle determines the amount of danger it may be to the patient.

If a boil or carbuncle occurs in a locality where there are rich blood and lymphatic area it at once becomes a source of danger because the vessels spread the infection.

Boils and carbuncles are due to infection by the streptococcus microbe. This means there are inflammation and pus present in these affections. Unless active treatment is instituted at the very beginning of inflammation there will be grave constitutional involvement which cannot be checked.

To avoid serious results it should be impressed upon every one suffering from boils or carbuncles the imperative need of having a physician at the first appearance of the affection. Delay will cause destruction of tissue or bone, deformity of a part or systematic infection, which results in loss of life.

+++++ BRIEF FARM NOTES. +++++

Correcting Soil Acidity. For correcting soil acidity one ton of burned lime is practically equal to one and one-half tons of slaked lime or two tons of ground limestone in case all three forms are of equal grade of purity.

ORCHARD WORK IN JANUARY. Many Things May Be Done to Improve Conditions. January is the off season for orchard work, but by making use of the slack times the good orchardist keeps ahead of his work. A little observation will disclose a number of things that may be done at this season to improve the condition of the orchard.

Some pruning is likely to be needed, especially in bearing orchards. In mid-winter, however, pruning is best confined to the removal of dead and broken limbs and the thinning of particularly dense portions. Very heavy pruning at this time is apt to result in more or less sun scald, especially if the trunks or principal limbs are much exposed.

After the pruning is completed all brush and dead limbs should be removed from the orchard and burned since such debris provides a good harbor for pests of various sorts, including rabbits, mice, borers, bark beetles, curculio and tarnished plant bugs.

Scraping off the very rough and scaly bark with a dull hoe or similar implement will reduce the number of harbors for apple worms or larvae of the codling moth. Some of these worms will thus be killed directly, and the rest will be exposed effectively to attack by their chief natural enemies, the nuthatches and the hairy and downy woodpeckers. A little suet hung in the trees occasionally may attract these natural tree inspectors in the orchards.

The dormant sprays for San Jose scale and similar pests are best applied in the fall soon after the leaves drop and in the spring just before the buds start. In midwinter, however, spraying machinery may be put in good running order, or the necessary equipment for making one's own supply of lime-sulphur concentrate may be secured, provided the amount of spraying is sufficient to justify it.

Such an equipment will usually save from 40 to 60 per cent on the cost of lime-sulphur required, and its total cost need not exceed $15, so that any one using seven barrels or more of the ordinary commercial concentrate should be able to save enough in the first year to pay for his equipment.

It is well to locate sources of good lime and sulphur before they are needed. If enough of the lime-sulphur concentrate is made up, sales to neighbors may provide an additional profit.

W. J. Rennick Attends Banquet

Last week, W. J. Rennick of the Wayne Motor Company was one of more than 60 Ford agents who attended a banquet given at Sioux City by the Ford Motor Company to agents in this part of the world. Geo. B. Taylor, manager of the Sioux City branch, was one of the speakers at the dinner and he talked on the subject of "Winter Sales".

Mr. Taylor outlined to the agents the absolute necessity of selling and delivering cars at this time of year and owing to the fact that the south, who have had an unusually prosperous year, selling their cotton at 17 and 18 cents a pound, were taking practically all of the output of the Ford Motor Co. at this time of year—in other words taking cars that have heretofore been stored thru the north to take cars of spring sales. The Ford Motor Co. estimate that there are three men waiting for every Ford car built, and under these circumstances if the farmers in Iowa, Nebraska and Dakota, expect to drive Ford cars the coming year it will be absolutely necessary that they place their orders and take immediate delivery of the car, as the Company is not making any shipments into the territory for storage purposes, preferring to take care of the trade in the U. S. that are ready to take their cars immediately.

Mr. Tyler outlined very thoroly to the agents the subject of "Winter Sales", and the importance of the agents going after their spring prospects with a view of taking cars while it is possible to make deliveries. He further stated that 3500 sales were lost in August, September and October in these states because of shortage of cars, and further estimated that the spring business would exceed three times their production and that unless deliveries were made immediately and cars gotten into the territory while deliveries were possible the spring business would be one-third of what the Ford agents had counted on.

The subject of Service was very thoroly discussed; the cleaning up of a man's place of business; of providing immediate service to Ford owners; and further, the necessity of carrying a complete stock of parts, as the company's policy from now on will be to discontinue any retail selling from the Ford branch, expecting all of this to be taken care of by the agents in the territory.

Economy--Efficiency

Two words with one object represented — the most and best for the money. In these days of high priced grain — corn, oats and wheat — it is economy to feed ground feed, because of the greater efficiency of such feed — it is said by experts to be one-third more efficient. A balanced ration for stock is also in the line of economy and efficiency, for it takes less of it to accomplish better results.

Geo. Fortner, at his feed store and mill is prepared to help you practice this economy. He can grind your grains for you at short notice and thus add to their value. He also carries in stock a line of the feeds needed to make balanced ration for your stock and poultry.

Bran and shorts—a car just in and another coming. Pan-a-c-a and "Justrite" mash for the poultry—makes them feel good and lay.

SALYX to tone the stock up and put them in condition to receive full benefit from the feed.
