WAYNE CITY CAUCUSES HELD

Wayne is to have Election This Year With Two Tickets in the Field. Municipal Improvement Party and Citizen Party Nominate

For the first time in a number of years Wayne has two tickets in the field for city officers, and it is evident that there will be much more interest taken in the city election than for a number of years, and let us hope less fault finding with the result than usual. Below we give results:

Municipal Improvement Party.
For Mayor, Chas. E. Carhart.
For Treasurer, H. S. Ringland.
For City Clerk, J. M. Cherry.
For City Engineer, Robert H. Jones.

For Members of the Board of Education, W. M. Orr, Phil H. Kohl.
For Councilman First Ward (one year), T. T. Jones, (two years) S. R. Theobald.

For Councilman Second Ward, Herman Lundberg.
For Councilman Third Ward, John Harrington.

As the ticket placed in the field by the Municipal Improvement party Monday evening at a well-attended and harmonious caucus held at the city hall. Before the nominations were made the following platform or declaration of the purposes of the members of the party was read and unanimously adopted. It is progressive, yet conservative.

Dr. T. B. Heckert presided and R. N. Donahy was secretary.

We, the Municipal Improvement Party in caucus assembled, wish to go on record as favoring especially the following items in a program for the improvement of our city, and we hereby pledge our nominees to all reasonable efforts for the accomplishment of these ends.

First. We wish to express our approval of all efforts under way to enlist pupils of the public schools, parents and householder in the matter of cultivating all vacant lots in our city during the coming summer. We ask our mayor and city council to co-operate in every possible way with said movement, believing that it will result in somewhat better civic spirit among the people and better living conditions. In connection with this movement we believe the city should set an example to private citizens by keeping public property free from weeds and also such private property as is not cared for by the owner.

Second. We desire to express approval of such efforts as are being made in the Nebraska legislature to provide a means whereby cities of our class may adopt the city manager plan of city government.

Third. We favor the proposition of the drainage and paving of our city streets, on general principles, and hope that such details may be worked out as to permit some actual construction work on these improvements within the coming municipal year.

Fourth. We earnestly recommend to the mayor and the city council the reopening of negotiations with the C., St. P., M. & O. R. R. for the construction of a side track leading to the city light plant. Pending this improvement, we recommend that the mayor and council consider the proposition of letting out the hauling of the city coal to the lowest bidder during the months when the street commissioner may perform needed work on the crossings and streets and mow weeds.

Citizens Party
Wednesday evening more than 100 voters assembled to determine who would be asked to make the race for the various city offices on the Citizen ticket.

F. S. Berry and Rollie Ley, officers of a year ago, were re-elected to preside and to record the proceedings.

L. C. Gildersleeve and George A. Lamberson were placed in nomination for city mayor, and a ballot which resulted in a victory for Lamberson by a vote of 43 for Gildersleeve to 64 for Lamberson; Chas. Carhart receiving 3 votes and Paul Harrington, who was present his one vote. The nominees for the other offices were the same as above, except Frank O. Gamble was named for the board of education in place of Kohl.

Their ticket will therefore be Lamberson for mayor; Ringland, treasurer; Cherry, clerk; Jones, engineer; Orr and Gamble for members of school board.

In the first ward, Frank Powers was named for one year term and Ernest Poulsen for the two year term. The second ward named W. A. Hiscox to succeed himself, and the third ward named John Harrington.

State League Debate

Wayne won in the State League debate against Bloomfield Friday evening, March 9. The question was, "Resolved, That the United States Should Abandon the Monroe Doctrine." Wayne debated on the affirmative with Orvin Gaston, Virginia Bowen and Donald Gildersleeve defending with able argument. The Bloomfield team was composed of Melvin Birdsall, Conrad Healey and Alta Maxwell.

Mr. A. R. Davis presided throughout the debate. The program opened with two musical numbers. Misses Madeline Bohner and Edna Hansen played a piano duet, and the girls' glee club sang two songs.

Although the Bloomfield team was strong and presented a good argument, they did not meet the standard of the Wayne team in the opinion of the judges. The Wayne team is to be complimented on their delivery and the arrangement of their argument. Their rebuttal, too, was very strong and settled in the minds of the audience the question.

After the decision of Attorneys Raynes, Mann and Dr. Hauman, all of Lincoln, the high school burst forth with cheers for the teams. All were then invited to the gymnasium to a reception given in honor of the teams. The cooking class had the room prettily decorated, the main decoration being that of the punch table. The girls then served very delicious punch to the guests. The entertainment here was Victrola music.

Wayne will hold its next debate with Creighton, and at the drawing the first of the week the negative fell to them.

Would Build a Community House

There will be services helpful in character at the Baptist church Sunday morning at which time the regular morning worship will consist of inspiring music and a profitable discourse upon an eloquent theme.

The evening program will be another number in the interesting series now scheduled and advertised for the months of March and April. Sunday night the musical contest is on. The men will have charge and with no ladies in the choir or on the musical part of the program they alone will be responsible for the music. They will go in competition against the ladies who will furnish the music the next Sunday evening. This will ensure a great musical program. Come and hear the men sing and perform.

The reading number will be by one of the members of Miss Mack's class of expression.

The subject for the evening sermon will be a Community House. Mr. Gaston will describe the kind of an institution he thinks Wayne ought to have and the one he thinks they can get. This is a live and up-to-date subject and one that is in the fore front of community discussion. The business men and every body are invited to turn out and hear what is to be said on the subject.

Stanley-Melburn

Wednesday, March 14th, 1917, at the Presbyterian parsonage in this city, occurred the marriage of Miss Mabel Melburn and Mr. Newell Stanley of Dixon. Miss Stanley, a sister of the groom and Mr. Carter were the witnesses to the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. S. X. Cross. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley will make their home in Dixon.

Music Pupils Opportunity

I am now in position to instruct about 25 pupils in music. I teach any band instrument, and make a specialty of violin and clarinet. I have 35 years of practical experience in music, and can guarantee satisfaction. Phone 284, or call south of track, A. G. Bohner, for information.—adv.

Death of D. M. Davis of Carroll

Died at his home in Carroll, Sunday at two o'clock p. m., D. M. Davis, aged 72 years, 6 months and 4 days.

He is gone! Another name is stricken from the ever lessening roll of our old settlers, but it must be so for it is appointed unto man once to die and after that the judgment. These tender humanities cannot be severed without a pang, yet in such a death there is really no cause for grief. His life's work was done, and well done. He had filled the various relations of life, as son, husband, father, brother, friend, and filled them well, and weary of waiting he lay down to rest to awake in the morning light of a fairer land.

David Morgan Davis was born in Montgomeryshire, North Wales, on September 7, 1844, and was one of a family of ten children. At the age of 13 years he began work for himself on a farm and in slate mines. In 1869 he came to America, landing at New York. From there he moved to the state of Wisconsin; thence to Louisa County, Iowa, where on the 2nd day of March, 1872, he was married to Miss Ann Owens. In 1875 he moved to Montgomery county, Iowa, and in 1894 he came with his family to Wayne county, Nebraska, settling on a farm west of Carroll where he lived for eight years.

It was just 15 years ago last January when he retired from active farm life, and moved to Carroll where he resided until the time of his death.

He was the father of eight children as follows: J. T. Davis of Sholes, Miss Maggie Davis, Mrs. Grace Jones and Mrs. Gwendoline Hilder of Carroll, Mrs. Katherine McKay of Luverne, Minnesota, Mrs. Sarah Owens of Carson, North Dakota, a son who died in infancy and a daughter who died at the age of three years. The wife died about one year ago.

In early life he united with the Congregational church to which faith he remained true to the end.

He possessed a strong constitution and was quite active until six days before his death, when he was stricken, with pneumonia. He was a member of the village board of trustees, being elected last spring to fill vacancy for a one year term.

The funeral services were held from the Methodist church at 2 o'clock p. m., Wednesday, conducted by Rev. R. J. McKenzie, Rev. D. Penry Davis and Rev. D. T. Davies. Interment was made in the Carroll cemetery.

Not for him be our tears! rather let us crown his grave with garlands. Few of us will live as long or as well and fewer yet will the Angel of Death greet with such a loving touch.

Such is the tribute paid by a neighbor to a grand character we had come to love, honor and respect during an acquaintance formed a few years ago. D. M. Davis was one of that sturdy people who come to America from Wales, and like many others of his country men succeeded in gathering wealth and honor. Honest, industrious, frugal, yet generous, he was one of a type of splendid people who have helped make America what it is today, the land of opportunity and progress. He will be missed by many in his home community.

The Public Service Club Dinner

Monday a number of members of the Public Service club met at the Calumet dining room for dinner and talk. As things appeared to be moving nicely with a special committee work to be reported, it was more of a social and less of a business gathering than any that have before taken place. An hour was passed happily and the good-fellowship feeling appeared to grow as the inner man was filled with one of the best three-course dinners that could be prepared. The reports indicate that the plans for the teacher meeting are working nicely and with the permission of the weather man the meeting at Wayne will be a mark in the history of the association.

Draining and Paving Petition Out

The petition for drainage and paving is being circulated, and tax-payers are quite generally signing it. It is hoped to have the canvass completed in time that we may publish the list of signers next issue.

The Eastern Star Meeting

The few members of the Wayne Chapter of Eastern Star who were not present at the meeting on Monday evening must have thought of it with keen regret when they heard the happy remarks made by those who were there. Everything seemed to be unusually felicitous, even the flowers used in the initiation services were especially beautiful.

The Misses Ella Redmond, Elizabeth Durrie and Minnie Will were initiated and welcomed into the order.

The hall was then converted into an auditorium and a program of living pictures presented. While the quartet, consisting of Mesdames A. R. Davis, E. S. Blair, J. G. W. Lewis and Miss Fleetwood sang "Annie Laurie", Miss Jessie Grace dressed in the Highland plaid and cap made a charming picture of the Scotch Jassie in the sweet old ballad. Mrs. Hufford was then presented as "Kathleen Mavourneen" while Mrs. T. T. Jones sang the beautiful solo. Next came Mrs. Fred Philcox wearing the white fichu and cap, and with knitting in her fingers she made a good representation of Mother Machree as sung by Mrs. Main in a touching manner. Mrs. Ingham with veil and beads impersonated "The Rosary", the touch loved song being given by the quartet. This was followed by Mrs. Senter in the picturesque garb of an Indian Maiden, Cadman's "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water" being effectively rendered by Mrs. Morris. The climax of the series was reached when Mrs. Davis beautifully personated the spirit of "America", while the whole audience stood and sang our grand old patriotic anthem.

Games, festive converse, and particularly nice refreshments in which the 17th of March was emphasized finished the happy evening. Miss Craven certainly has proven an ingenious worthy matron. The Charlie does say that she makes the whole family work.

Out of town visitors were Mrs. McElroy of Vinton, Iowa, Mrs. Watkins of Evanston, Illinois, and Mrs. Ferrin of McIntosh, Florida.

The Declamatory Contest

Miss Mae Hiscox won first place in the declamatory contest held Tuesday evening in the auditorium of the State Normal school, and will represent the Junior high school in the district contest to be held at Wayne on March 29. Miss Hiscox read the humorous selection, "A Pleasant Half Hour on the Beach", and her impersonation of Mrs. Hardinspiker was exceptionally well done.

The second place was awarded to Miss Louie Sprague, who showed marked ability as a reader in the selection entitled "The Lie."

The following program was given:
Vocal Duet, If I Were Maying—Misses Abbott and Cassidy.
Susan Cleg—Olive Helt.

The Judgment Day—Aylene Nelson
The Mother and Son—Mildred Dennis.

A Pleasant Half-Hour on the Beach—Mae Hiscox.

The Lie—Louie Sprague.
Instrumental Duet, Barcarole—Misses Carson and Pearson.

The three judges were, Superintendent Bowen and Miss Flock of the High school and Professor J. G. W. Lewis of the normal. A. F. Gulliver presided.

The contestants had been trained by Elizabeth Buol and Henrietta Moler, both students of advanced expression under Miss Mack.

Pure Stock Men Meet

Wednesday afternoon a number of the pure stock breeders of the county met at the city hall, in spite of almost impassable roads, and laid the foundation for what it is hoped will become an organization of great help to the community. J. H. Miner was named as temporary chairman and V. L. Dayton secretary. Committees were named to enlist members and a meeting is called for the afternoon of Tuesday, March 27th to form a permanent organization.

All who breed pure stock of poultry are eligible to membership and are urged to attend whether your hobby is cattle, horses, hogs, dogs, cats, chickens or ducks. You are wanted to take a hand.

A Surprise For Their Friends

A social event of surpassing significance occurred at the home of Judge A. A. Welch Saturday evening. About thirty-five invited guests had been enjoying themselves to the utmost for nearly two hours and delicious refreshments had just been served when "like a flash of lightning from a cloudless sky" the purpose of the occasion was disclosed.

Miss Florence Welch appeared in the center of the assembled company and announced that Mr. Harry M. Armstrong had a stunt which he was enthusiastic to perform and eager to have everyone watch, whereupon that gentleman immediately appeared carrying a traveling bag and hiding his enthusiasm behind a very blushing countenance. Needless to say everyone watched and everyone seemed apprehensive. Perhaps they thought that some regrettable circumstance made it necessary for Harry to betake himself to distant parts, but Mr. Harry M. Armstrong didn't go away. Instead he stepped right in front of everybody set the traveling bag down on the floor and opened it and lo! a small maltese kitten with a large bow of white ribbon about its neck jumped from the bag to the floor "the cat was out of the bag." The coming marriage of Miss Welch and Mr. Armstrong was announced.

To most of the guests this announcement came as a complete surprise, but a few had thought for some months past that they heard the stifled meows of an imprisoned kitty and they and all the rest seemed exceedingly joyful when it made its escape and while Miss Welch and Mr. Armstrong were receiving a host of congratulations and best wishes and while everyone was wondering "when it was all going to happen" each guest was given a favor consisting of a small basket trunk labelled on the outside, "Bon Voyage". Inside were the cards of Miss Welch and Mr. Armstrong joined to a little bluebird by a white ribbon. In the lid of the trunk was pasted a small calendar which indicated that the marriage would occur either in August or September.

Some of the friends of Miss Welch and Mr. Armstrong are taking advantage of this "leak" to speculate in rice. Even the small boys about town, who have accumulated quantities of old shoes are holding them for the August and September market.

Both Miss Welch and Mr. Armstrong are prominent in social circles of Wayne and the hospitality of the Welch home is famed among the younger element of society. Truly a host of friends wish these young people well.

Strike and War Situation

In these critical times one may not know what an hour will bring forth. There are and have been rumors of a railroad strike, but the morning papers bring us the news that the men who threatened strike have modified their terms, and will wait another month at least for a legal settlement of their differences, which is good news.

The sinking of an American ship—one but recently changed from British to American registry by a submarine, unwarned again makes the situation acute as to war. The Albatross was the vessel sunk, and no lives were lost, March 12th. On the 9th a British vessel, East Point, was sunk without warning, but no American lives lost.

Former Ambassador Gerard just from Berlin reports that the Germans were very confident of their sub-sea warfare, and appear to be fully determined to continue to wage it to the bitter end. Food shortage in Germany was serious, but not critical.

The British have captured the city of Bagdad from the Turks, and as it is one of the Turkish centers, its capture means much to be cause of the Allies. The Turks have made quite a stubborn fight in many places but their power appears to be waning. They have many German officers we hear reported, for the Turk is said to be a pretty good butcher but not much of a fighter when it comes to conducting a campaign.

The British claim that the first six weeks of unrestricted sub-sea warfare has taken a toll of but 78 boats out of a total of 3,731 boats of over 1,600 in capacity, and of course a number of smaller ships in local carrying trade. Ships sunk have mostly been old tramp steamers, too slow to be other than easy prey. The English now claim to have adopted measure of protection which have been in a large degree successful. It is plain to be seen that some one is being misled or deceived as to the importance of the submarine warfare. Perhaps it is the German people, possibly the English or the Americans.

Wayne Scouts Lose Close Game

In a close, hard fought game at Carroll Wednesday evening, the Wayne Scout team, was defeated by Carroll High school by a margin of five points. The final count was 32 to 27. The small playing floor handicapped the Wayne boys. Ralph Hickman starred with nine field goals and one free throw. A return game will be played here in the near future.

Owing to the high price of potatoes and their scarcity, it might be well to get a bunch of eyes sprouting and transplant them when weather is fit. A man who has tried that plan thinks that he saved two weeks time one season in getting the potatoes to his table.

W. H. McNeal and wife came from Laurel Saturday evening to visit with their daughter, Miss Helen McNeal and greet their many Wayne friends before going to Omaha where they plan to remain for some time. Monday they went to Norfolk to visit their daughter Bessie a day or two.

Why not practice economy and have your wall paper cleaned instead of new paper put on. It saves expense, worry and work. O. N. Eicker of this city is ready to do the work and guarantee a good job or no pay. He has had many years' experience, and says that it is much easier for the housekeeper than to tear up for the paper hanger. See Mr. Eicker, or leave word at phone 145, and he will call.—adv.

A Lincoln man, not identified by name, says an exchange, described as in demand for addresses to clubs and community gatherings, as well as at college and high school commencement exercises is thus quoted in the Lincoln Journal: "The audience that gives me the most worry is composed of club women, especially if some of them are doing fancy work. Between the struggle of half of the ladies to get every word and the effort of the other half not to drop any stitches, the poor speaker is left where he doesn't know whether he is afoot or on horseback."

Quite a number of those who received more than one vote at the Democrat's pre-primary vote are wondering who the other fellow was, for repeating was guarded against—every voter being honor-bound to vote but once.

A class of 39 pupils are to graduate at Columbus this year from the high school, according to the roll as it now appears. They will not have their commencement exercises all in a bunch, but plan to string them out for a month or more, on account of the series of revival meetings to be held there at about the time of the close of the school year. Evangelist Rayburn is engaged to save the sinners there this spring.

George Rohwer is again at his headquarters at the Union hotel, after nearly a week at the Wayne hospital, where he had his crippled hand cared for. The right hand has been troubling him for a number of years as the result of an injury, and it finally reached a point where surgery must again be resorted to, and one finger was taken out. He is doing nicely, but not yet free from pain. He will soon have an x-ray taken of the arm and wrist, and then if advisable have another round with the surgeon.

The wild geese and ducks are migrating to the north, they are hard to catch. Consequently meat prices remain high. Foods prices are soaring skyward. Let us help you to keep down expenses by ordering your next grocery order of us. Why not, when we will sell 14 pounds of fancy head rice for one dollar, 20 pounds of bulk oatmeal for one dollar, or 16 pounds of fancy Jap rice for one dollar. We have the best of everything at the most reasonable price. L. W. Roe. Phone 101. adv.

"Twelve hundred pounds of pork per sow by November 1" is the slogan of a self-feeder demonstration campaign just launched by C. E. Gunnels, county agent of Seward County. Mr. Gunnels is arranging to hold (in the self-feeder) with common dry lot feeding. He proposes to start the demonstrations as soon as the pigs are born in the spring, and to continue them until the first of October, when he hopes to have realized the production of six 200-pound pigs per litter. Mr. Gunnels believes this will have the effect of drawing attention to the better care of pigs, the use of greater care in feeding, and the necessity of securing a longer growing season.

A meeting was held at Hoskins last week to organize a farmer union, and we are told that about the same time one was likely to be held at Carroll, where a union has been in active operation for some time, that might disorganize one. The same is said to be true of Creighton where they have had a "prosperous union" until it was discovered that it would take a dividend of about $7,000 from the members to wipe the red from the ledger. We believe in farmer unions, but as a rule the farmer store and mercantile business projects fail for want of proper management. Farmer Jones may be and is a good business man and a good farmer. If he is put at the head of a farmer store and then tries to run his farm at the same time the store is apt to suffer, and no one should blame him for looking to his own business first. In our humble opinion a farmer union should deal with larger things than a mercantile business. See that the laws are fair to them and to their neighbors.

Wm. Orr went to Omaha Tuesday, and after a day or two on the markets there goes on to Chicago to buy for the Orr & Orr store.

Mrs. C. G. Atz returned to her home at Omaha Saturday, following a week visit here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Whitney.

Mrs. Chas. Murphy went to Wakefield Saturday to visit at the home of her brother-in-law there, their 12 year-old daughter Margaret being ill.

The O'Neill creamery, by the way, furnishes steam heat and electric light and power for the use of the majority of O'Neill places of business. Its plant pumps the city water, in addition.

Dan Albers from Denver has been here visiting at the country home of his sister, Mrs. Robert Shindler, and left Monday to visit at Kansas City and other places in Missouri. He has made his home in Denver and Boulder for a number of years past, and says he has not noticed any of the Colorado climate in this vicinity during his stay of about two weeks.

In announcing the coming teachers' meeting at Wayne, the Stanton Picket editor volunteers the following information, for he has been here:

"Anyone who has ever been entertained at a Wayne gathering knows that nothing will be spared by that little city to make their guests have an enjoyable and profitable visit. Wayne has won a name all over this section for its splendid hospitality and an invitation for a few days visit there means a real happy event."

The creamery at O'Neill is an institution in which north Nebraska should and does take special pride. It is furnishing a wide territory a market place that offers prices most attractive. Its products are such that the consumer may feel safe about their use and it is a pleasing bit of O'Neill's loyalty to home industries that O'Neill stores handle the butter in preference to all others and that O'Neill people almost without exception use the home butter and ice cream.

Last week a deal was completed whereby Frank S. Morgan purchased the entire stock of men's footwear from the Baughan shoe stock, and will keep it for the public of Wayne at the yellow front store. Mr. Baughan sold the women and children's stock to other people, and he has gone to Lincoln for a short time, after which he will go east and accept a position with a big shoe house, for Mr. Baughan thoroughly knows the shoe and the shoe business. Mr. Morgan informs us that he is to have the spring and summer stock which had been purchased before the deal was made, thus assuring him a stock for spring which would not have been possible to have secured on the market at this late date.

Wm. T. McDonald, one of the pioneers and active influential men of Stanton county died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. E. Best at Norfolk, last Tuesday. He came to Nebraska in 1896, and married in Stanton county in 1873. He left his farm on account of health, and taught school, served as a county officer and was postmaster at Stanton for a number of years. He was a soldier in the late rebellion, and active in G. A. R. circles.

We paid a brief visit to the editorial sanctums of the Independent and the Frontier and we were given a cordial welcome. Both are nicely equipped offices and both are excellent weekly newspapers. Editor Cronin is in Lincoln helping make more Nebraska laws. His two handsome sons are in charge and their efficiency and ability are such as to keep the Frontier at its usual high standard. The Independent is true to its name, the editor being of that mould that brooks no interference with what he believes to be right. Just now he is enjoying the fulfillment of a prayer of years, that democracy might rule. It will be remembered that he is the editor who told the story of a shooting scrape in which a Norfolk lawyer figured prominently. Mites was sued for libel and it is easy to see the O'Neill editor has lost no sleep over that gentleman's "side-tracking" in the recent state election.

The past week has been moving week in and around Hoskins. Among some of those who moved are as follows: Henry Starkel to the J. G. Foster farm east of Hoskins; Peter Starkel to a farm west of Norfolk; Henry Heberer to the Gus Schroeder farm east of Hoskins; Clyde Tidrick to a farm near Stanton; Leon Glaser to a farm near Pilger, says the Headlight.

The New DeLaval Is A Wonder!

For It Is a Bigger and Better Separator Than the Old Model for the Same Money

The Greatest Improvement in Separator Construction in the Last Thirty Years

If you are trying to get along without a cream separator, or with a half-worn-out or unreliable machine, why not get a New DeLaval NOW and stop your cream waste? You don't need to count the cost because the DeLaval will soon pay for itself. The farmer who gets a DeLaval now, will get a better machine, a simpler machine than any previous DeLaval. Furthermore, the capacity is larger although the price has not raised a cent. Only the tremendous volume of DeLaval sales makes it possible to give the farmer more for his money when others are giving less.

Every New DeLaval is equipped with a Bell Speed-Indicator, which warns you if the speed is too fast or too slow. This is a simple, but necessary attachment.

KAY & BICHEL

Some of the Points of Superiority of the NEW DELAVALS—Models No. 12 and No. 15

The New DeLaval bowl design gives a greater capacity and makes possible closer skimming.

The much lower speed of the DeLaval insures minimum wear on gears and much longer life to the machine.

The concave, self-centering bowl, supported on a detached spindle, runs true and does perfect work after long wear.

There are fewer discs; they are unnumbered, interchangeable. The bowl is, therefore, much more easily washed.

All parts are automatically bathed in a film of oil.

The tinware is sturdy, well suited for long, hard wear.

Inconsistent Protection

Those protectionists who claim that the present price of sugar is due to the war, and that the tariff has nothing to do with it, will have an opportunity to use some of their Alice-in-Wonderland logic in explaining the bill now before the House of Representatives for the government of the Danish West Indies. Articles grown, produced, and manufactured in the islands are to be admitted to this country free. But sugar, the most important agricultural crop of the islands is to be subject to an export duty of $8.00 a ton.

It would appear to people who depend upon ordinary logic that when there is a tariff netting home producers protection of one cent a pound, and when New York refiners are selling sugar one cent a pound less for export than for home consumption, that American producers received an extra cent a pound because of the tariff. It is evident that this is the view taken by Congress. For if the sugar growers in the Danish West Indies do not receive more for their sugar now that they are inside our tariff wall, it would be grossly unjust to tax them four tenths of a cent a pound on what they raise.

Nor if the protectionist's contention that the tariff does not advance the price be true, is it quite clear that they have not been discriminated against. For if the growers receive the same price as before, the tax of four tenths of a cent a pound is a tax not borne by other natives. And even if the growers do receive one cent a pound more for their sugar inside than they did outside our tariff was, the fact that the Government takes four tenths of the cent is discrimination against the Danish West Indies, as compared with the people of Hawaii and the Philippines, who are not subject to the export tax. Since a protective tariff cannot be honest, it might at least have the single virtue of consistency.—The Public.

Federal Road Aids

The secretary of agriculture has given out a statement to refute the report that states desiring to obtain money for roads under the federal aid road act, which appropriates $85,000,000, must build only expensive roads, and to make it clear that no particular kind of materials will be required or favored by the department of agriculture to the detriment of other materials.

"There is not the slightest truth in the report," said Secretary Houston. "This department, which is charged with the administration of the federal aid road act, has placed absolutely no restrictions, either direct or implied, upon the kinds of highways to be constructed. States may submit for approval any kind of road, even an earth road, and approval will be given if the construction be substantial in character, suitable for traffic needs, and meets the terms of the federal acts. To give state legislators and highway officials the impression that this department favors only costly types of road or discriminates in favor of any particular material, results not only in spreading misinformation, but in placing barriers in the way of states which wish to avail themselves of federal aid in road construction."

Packers tell us that their profits on meat are very small; that the by-products are what pay the dividends. Those by-products are those parts of the animal once considered worthless and destroyed, and that are still destroyed to a great extent in small plants where they have not the facilities for converting them into articles of value. The south once threw away all its cotton seed as worthless. Last year the value of cottonseed products amounted to $180,260,000. The future of any business lies in the converting of the waste into valuable material. This is true of farming as well as of other business, and the less there is thrown away on the farm or in the factory the greater the profits will be.

Big Display Dresses for these two days

I have secured Miss Alice Musel to take charge of my millinery department this season. She is an expert in the profession, and we invite all to come to our spring opening and see what a splendid line of millinery she has prepared for you. The exhibit is one of the most complete showings of up-to-the-minute millinery ever shown at Wayne, Miss Musel has made a special effort to have on display the latest creations in millinery. We invite you to our spring opening Friday and Saturday, March 16th and 17th.

NOTE—On these two days we will have on display a number of pattern hats from the wholesale house.

Come and view our window dressing. Come, ladies, and see the spring and summer styles.

WAYNE MARKET REPORT

Following are the market prices quoted us up to the time of going to press Thursday:

Oats	52c
Corn	92c
Spring Wheat	1.65
Eggs	21c
Butter	30c
Hogs	18.50
Fat cattle	$7.50 @ $9.20

Swat the first fly the first time you see him and save the trouble of swatting or feeding a million other flies, more or less.

But why, we would like to know, do the cream stations here pay less money for butter fat to the farmers than do the cream stations at O'Neill, when the latter have the larger freight rates to pay? There was a difference of two cents the pound in the prices paid by an Omaha creamery in the two places last Monday and Norfolk farmers were the losers.

As a result of investigation and government intervention or prosecution there is prospect that the price of print paper will be restored to something near its former figure, and the fact has been demonstrated that the price never should have advanced except a small percentage. From the present outlook the country publisher will eventually get paper at an advance of about 25 to 35 percent over former prices. Now let Uncle Sam get after some other things.

If you want to know just how sadly the democrats are muddling legislation, especially if it refers to taxation other than a protective tariff, read the American Economist. They are not even satisfied with the act which stopped the reduction of the tariff tax on sugar. It should have added to the sugar tariff protection rather than simply leave it as it is. But we do not believe all we read of their doctrine, and we doubt if they believe it themselves.

An earnest advocate of the county agent plan for increased agricultural results, an up-to-date farmer himself, has given The Press the following: "Would it pay the farmers of Butler county to make $100,000 more on their oat crop in 1917 than they did in 1916, by simply treating the seed for smut? A county agent, at an expense of $1500 to the county, or 41 cents per quarter section of land, would assist the farmers in treating the seed. Would it not pay the county to spend $1500 to get a return of more than $100,000?"

The above logic is taken from the Butler County Press David City, and it is unanswerable. But the editor and the farmer might have gone much further along the same line of business logic. The improvement made possible in dairy stock and the saving in purchasing the same under the guidance of one who is trained to judge and who has the time to search for the best and the best price; the gain that might be made in marketing crops, and the study of the whole county with a view of securing a balanced crops—that is enough of many things which the farmer so frequently purchases away from home. One county near here in other years grew corn quite exclusively, and bought their potatoes. They now grow more corn, and under the advice and direction of the county agent they are keeping the potato money at home. The saving in treatment of the swine herds is frequently more than the salary of the agent, to say nothing of the animals saved. As a business proposition we fail to understand why there is not an agent in every county. Perhaps if some shrewd fellow came along with a merchandising proposition which glittered in bright generalities of money saved in wholesale buying (while he was connected with the selling-end by a hidden string) he could entice the farmer. But a plain plan to enable the farmer to produce more and the farmer receive the increase does not appear to appeal.

Social Notes

The Minerva Club enjoyed a social afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. R. Ellis. A short program was given. Mrs. Bright discussed the Prussian Food Situation and the problems faced by the Allies in regard to food. Mrs. Fortner told of the laws recently passed in Ohio and Indiana granting partial suffrage. Mrs. W. R. Ellis added to the pleasure of the Club by playing a piano solo, "Whims" by Schumann. Mrs. E. B. Erskine read an article on "Grafting with skin taken from the thigh of a Frog". She also discussed some short articles relating to music. Mrs. W. E. Beaman and Mrs. E. B. Erskine played a piano duet, "Charge of the Uhlans" and "Spanish Dance" as an encore. The hostess assisted by her committee served a delicious two course lunch. Mrs. Brittain was elected a delegate to represent the club at the District meeting at Oakland, Nebraska, March 27, 28, and 29. The club will meet with Mrs. Bright in two weeks.

About a dozen and a half of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Weeces, quite unexpectedly walked into their home Tuesday evening about 8 o'clock and took possession, reminding them that it was their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary. The surprise was complete. A good social evening was enjoyed by all. Light refreshments were served and all departed at a late hour wishing this worthy couple many happy returns of the day. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Lundberg, Erickson, Fetterolf, Juhn, Martin, Rogers, Bastian, and Madames Liveringhouse, Miller and Bruner.

The Acme Club met with Mrs. Hamer Wilson last Monday afternoon, and continued their study of the History of Nebraska by Sheldon. Members responded to roll call with an epitaph. The following subjects were read and discussed: "Nebraska's Great Storms," "The Story of the Poncas," by Mrs. Jacobs; "Bright Eyes" (Inatha Theamba) "The Grasshoppers," by Mrs. Wilson; "Why is the Goldenrod especially fitted to be Nebraska's Flower?" The next meeting will be with Mrs. Bressler.

The Junior Music Club met with Mrs. J. T. House Saturday afternoon. In addition to the regular program, Helen Gildersleeve, in a clever manner, played Fritz Spindler's arrangement of "Tannhauser" March by Wagner. Among the guests were Mrs. Chas. Reynolds, Mrs. L. C. Gildersleeve, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goldsmith and Mr. Wm. Morgan. Committees were appointed to arrange for the annual banquet which will occur sometime in April. Mabel Britell was received as a member of the Club.

The U. D. Club met with Mrs. Harry Fisher for a one o'clock luncheon which was served in four courses, the tables were decorated with flowers and St. Patrick place cards and nut cups. The afternoon was spent in playing cards. The guests of the club were Mesdames Ben Carhart, A. R. Davis, Don Cunningham, A. M. Jacobs and Miss Fay Britton. Mrs. Charles Craven will be hostess at a musicale next Monday afternoon, Mrs. James Miller leader.

Last Tuesday was the 52nd anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Henry Bartels, near Wakefield, and a number of the neighbors took advantage of the occasion to visit the home, much to the surprise of that worthy lady, and spend a few hours with her in honor of the day. It is needless to tell any who know that neighborhood that ample refreshments were provided, and that all gave most hearty congratulations and good wishes.

The P. N. G. club met Wednesday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. McMillan. The members met at the Hiscox store, and were taken to the farm in a hayrack, and spent a few pleasant hours with the lady of the house. Fancy work and reading from the Rebecca engaged the attention of all for some time. At six o'clock a delectable two-course dinner was served and enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. A. Hiscox.

Mrs. Emma Liveringhouse entertained at a family dinner Tuesday at 6 o'clock in honor of her daughter Mrs. L. C. Thomas of Alliance who is visiting in the Liveringhouse home. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Auker and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bastian and daughter Viola and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Liveringhouse and son.

Mrs. Perry Theobald entertained at cards Saturday afternoon, complimentary to Miss Howard of Sioux City who is visiting in the Theobald home. The afternoon was spent in playing 500 at seven tables. The decorations were spring flowers. At 5:30 the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Rollie Ley and Mrs. Don Cunningham served delicious refreshments. A very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by those present.

The Monday Club met with Mrs. Kostomtalsky on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Welsh read a paper on the "Opera Aida" by Verdi, Mrs. Moran read a paper on "Opera Carmen" by Bizet. The hostess assisted by her daughter Miss Helen served a tea at the close of the program. Mrs. Main will be hostess the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carhart, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carhart will entertain the Early Hour Club tonight. 500 will be played thruout the evening. Light refreshments will be served. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gamble, Mr. and Mrs. Judson, Dr. and Mrs. Ingnam will be guests of the club.

The Pleasant Valley Club will have a meeting this afternoon, with Mrs. Will Wrobel. Mrs. Morgan will read a paper on "System in Housekeeping", Mrs. Noakes will read a paper on Housekeeping Devices. At the close of the afternoon the hostess will serve a three course luncheon.

The D. A. R. met with Mrs. A. H. Ellis last Saturday afternoon. Members responded to roll call with peace quotations. Mrs. Mines read a paper on "Our State". Mrs. Britell read a paper on "Inventions and Their Influence". Mrs. Mines will be hostess April 14th.

Miss Ella Redmond entertained the ladies of the Bible circle Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Cross was present and spoke encouragingly and helpfully, and his talk was enjoyed by all. The meeting next Tuesday afternoon will be held with Mrs. Heaton.

The Junior Bible Circle met with Miss Opal Robbins Saturday evening. Miss Ina Dean led a very interesting lesson, and several new members joined. The meeting Saturday evening will be with Mrs. E. B. Young.

The Central Social Circle postponed their meeting last week owing to weather. They will meet today with Mr. and Mrs. Elder at their home near Carroll.

The St. Mary's Guild will hold its regular meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Miester.

The Senior-Junior banquet of the State Normal occurs Friday evening at the Baptist church.

The Rural Home society will meet with Mrs. Edward Perry next Thursday, March 22nd.

The P. E. O. meets with Mrs. H. S. Ringland next Monday evening.

The W. C. T. U. meets with Mrs. Noakes Friday afternoon.

School Notes

Professor A. V. Teed of the State Normal faculty addressed the high school Tuesday afternoon, describing some of the unusual features of Nebraska. His talk was full of interest, and teachers and students hope that they may be privileged to hear Mr. Teed many times in the future.

The Junior-Freshman class presented their first class program yesterday afternoon and in this, as in all other things, acquitted themselves well. The following numbers were given: Piano solo, Faith Philleo; magazine article, "Teaching Aviation," Donald Miller; reading, Helen Reynolds; Irish Jokes, Lynette Rennick; magazine article, Maurice Gamble; piano solo, Bonnie Hess.

Professor Pugsley of the University of Nebraska will be in Wayne Tuesday, March 20. He will address the students of the high school in the afternoon, and in the evening the Public Service club, women's clubs and school patrons. He comes in the interests of the school garden project.

Recent visitors were, Mrs. F. G. Philleo, Mrs. G. J. Hess, Mrs. J. J. Lane, Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mrs. E. Rippon, and Ben Peterson.

New pupils are Emma Reibold and Edward Martz, seventh grade, Albert Reibold and Bruce Martz, third grade, Bernice Reibold second grade and Marian Martz, first grade.

Fay Goeman has left the kindergarten, having moved to the country.

Keeping Record Straight

A. R. Davis and W. L. Gaston were named to draft a resolution condemning the action of Senator Norris, and wire it to him. Later we learned that the message sent was as follows:

"Wayne Public Service club by unanimous vote today disapproved your course in connection with armed ship bill. We urge that you support Senate amendment to change senate rules."

The statement in the above telegram is correct but for two things. It was not a vote of the Public Service club but a committee of twelve or fifteen members.

The vote was not unanimous.

Samuel Barley went to Omaha Wednesday, to spend a few days there with his brother, who appears at one of the leading theatres there the remainder of the week. This brother is a member of a theatrical company which travels from coast to coast, and that make a mid-way stop of a day or two at Omaha.

Next Monday and Tuesday, afternoon and evening, that popular film—or rather films of the "Birth of a Nation" are to be seen at Wakefield. No other moving picture event can compare with this wonderful production. Weather and roads permitting we expect to see many Wayne people there. An advertisement on another page tells the particulars.

County Attorney Berry and Commissioner Farran were at Wakefield Monday consulting with interested parties relative to the drainage ditch being put in along the bottoms in that vicinity. The ditch in some manner effects county interests. Down in Thurston county they are going to have to move in the matter of extending the ditch, as they will have to provide a way for the water which this drainage will send tumbling down on them much faster than under the present conditions.

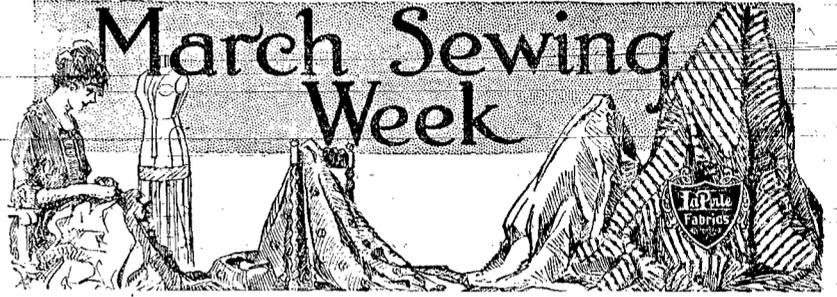

J. Anderson of Wausa passed through here Saturday afternoon with his little son Viels, on his way to consult an eye specialist at Omaha. The lad, he thought would lose his left eye as the result of his morning sport. Not being allowed to have a gun, the lad, who is but 11 years of age, was given a small cartridge and with this he proposed a little shoot. He fastened the cartridge in a vise, and struck it with a hammer. It exploded, and the shell or piece of it, cut the eyeball so badly that it was feared that he would lose the eye.

Mary Pickford's appearance is always one of charm. No matter whether she is in rags, the silk kimona of Butterfly, the riot of colors of far away India, the worn out home garments of Tess and the Foundling or the clattering wooden shoes of Hulda, there is always the same charm, the same sweetness and winsomeness that makes her so appealing to everyone. In her latest Artcraft picture "The Pride of the Clan," to be seen in this city shortly, she portrays the Scotch Lassie and when clad in kilts and with her golden hair thrown about her gracefully poised head she is more beautiful than ever. It is a character too that holds out every opportunity to the star for making it one of the most popular parts she has ever created. In other words, it is an ideal Mary Pickford part and that is just what all of the many Mary Pickford admirers most want.

And save yourself just that much work in the hot weather this summer. You can get your materials and trimmings now better than later on because you can now have first choice of all the new materials which have just arrived. The new styles for summer wear are all decided and the patterns are here to guide you in your sewing. Choose your materials now and get the spring sewing out of your way this month.

THE SPRING GOODS ARE HERE

All the materials and trimmings for your summer dresses are now in. We can't describe all the varied styles and cloths here but we have arranged them all on tables in the center aisle at the store where you can see for yourself just what is to be worn this spring and summer. Come now and see them and choose your materials while our stock is at its very best.

New Curtain Materials

There are styles in curtain materials nowadays just as in dress goods and we have the correct ones to show you. Scrims, nets, Swisses, and cretonnes are here in designs suitable for the different rooms in your home and we can help you plan pretty and effective ways to make and hang them.

New Home Sewing Machine

We have only two of these splendid machines which we can sell at the old price of $35.00. They cost more now so if you are planning on a new machine get one of these before the price advances. There is no machine made at any price that will do better work or wear longer than a New Home. They are very simple to operate and every part is guaranteed.

Now that the city caucuses have been held it is right and proper for every voter to look to the good of the city and cast a ballot where he thinks it will do the most good to all. Wayne needs to spruce up the down-town district a bit to have it in keeping with the residence portion. These lines are written before the caucuses and will not be considered as in any manner saying who to vote for—those you think the best men.

The Chalk Butte News, of which Mrs. H. M. Gaffin formerly of this place is editress, and also postmistress of that little burg, comes regularly to our desk. The advertising columns tell us that H. If it prove that the Gaffin family have made good by going to pioneer in a new land, far from railroad, their Wayne and Iowa friends will be glad to know it.

John Moler has sold his residence on Pearl and 7th streets to Fred R. Dean, who is to take possession the first of next month. Mr. Dean has been a resident of Wayne two or three years and has frequently had to move because of sale of property and other reasons and questions beyond his control. This will be the seventh move. He will now go to a place to which he will have title until he desires to relinquish. $3400 is the price paid, which is certainly cheap enough. Mr. and Mrs. Moler have lived in Wayne five or six years, coming here for school privileges for their sons. The sons are now away, they having land interests near O'Neill where they long lived before coming here, will move back to that place next month. Mr. Moler, an industrious man who knew how to care for lawns, trim trees and work of that kind, will be missed by those who have depended on him to care for their places, and being a good citizen at all times we are sorry to see them leave.

A New Political Party Possible
It has frequently been said that the republican party without an issue on which to unite other than that of get the office, would fall to pieces. The Monday papers tell us that a move to hasten its death is under way, as follows:

Announcement that negotiations are under way with progressive republicans and democrat-prohibitionists, socialists and representatives of other parties "to meet with a committee of progressives and discuss plans for the formation of a league of liberals," was made today by Matthew Hale, acting chairman of the progressive national committee, in issuing a call for convention of enrolled members of the party in St. Louis, April 12, 13, and 14.

Mr. Hale asserted that the "radicalism" of the progressives of 1912 now had largely become the law of the land. The solid south, he said, would yield only to a third party. He urged that the progressives unite the liberal elements in all parties into a "dominant power for good government."

It was announced that a committee on resolutions had been appointed and that it would sit at the national headquarters in this city until a week before the convention which is expected to adopt permanent working plans for the future of the party.

All resolutions should be submitted to this committee for reference to the convention, it was said.

The call of the convention contained copies of resolutions passed at a meeting of progressives last December, reaffirming "in every detail the platform adopted at the birth of the party in Chicago in August 1912.

Order of Hearing on Original Probate of Will

The State of Nebraska Wayne County, ss.

At a County Court, held at the County Court Room, in and for said County of Wayne, on the 8th day of March, 1917.

Present, James Britten, County Judge.

In the matter of the estate of Henrietta A. Chambers, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of J. G. Chambers, praying that the instrument filed on the 8th day of March, 1917, and purporting to be the last Will and Testament of said deceased, may be proved, probated, allowed and recorded as the last Will and Testament of said Henrietta A. Chambers, deceased, and that the execution of said instrument may be committed and that the administration of said estate may be granted to Edward J. Chambers as Executor and Henrietta Yarrington as Executrix.

ORDERED, That April 2nd, A. D. 1917, at 11 o'clock a. m., is assigned for hearing said petition, when all persons interested in said matter may appear at a County Court to be held in and for said County, and show cause why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted; and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Nebraska Democrat, a weekly newspaper printed in said County, for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.

James Britten,
County Judge.

BETTER YET

There are some improvements on the Old Trusty Incubator this year that all will appreciate. The old machine had no place for the thermometer, except to lay it on the eggs. The new provides an automatic thermometer holder hinged onto the door, so that the thermometer is always in the same place and same position without any attention from the operator.

The oil tank of an improved shallow pattern extends the under side of the machine, holding a large quantity of oil and giving uniform combustion whether full or almost empty.

This being the day for the opening of bids for bridge work and bridge material, being steel concrete and wood, the board having deferred the opening of the bids from February 6, 1917, to such time as all members of board were to be present; and all companies having bids on file having been notified that all members of board would be present on March 6, 1917, and that the bids would be opened.

Board opened and read the bids, and the Standard Bridge company of Omaha, Neb., was found to have the lowest bid on steel and wood. On motion it is the unanimous vote of this board that the bid of the Standard Bridge company of Omaha, Neb., be accepted, and that the contract for the ensuing year be awarded them, for the furnishing of all material, and the erection of all steel and wood work, and that the Norfolk Bridge & Construction company having the lowest bid on concrete material and erection of concrete work, their bid is accepted, and the concrete for the ensuing year is on motion, unanimously awarded them.

This being the day for the opening of bids for lumber, the board having also deferred the matter from February 6, 1917, under the same terms and conditions, the bids were opened and the Wheeler Lumber & Bridge Supply company was found to have the lowest bid on car load lots, and the contract was awarded them, the board reserving the right to buy locally any dimension lumber, outside of car load lots.

C. A. Chace & Co., is hereby awarded the contract for the furnishing of lumber adjacent to the territory of Wayne, the board however reserving the right to buy in car load lots from other contractors.

Superior Lumber and Coal company is hereby awarded the contract for the furnishing of lumber adjacent to the territory of Winside, the board however reserving the right to buy in car load lots from other contractors.

Comes now J. H. Massie and appoints Frank Erleben, assessor for Plum Creek precinct, which appointment is approved.

A. H. Carter is hereby appointed justice of the peace for Winside, Wayne county, Neb., and bond approved.

Bond of R. P. Williams, as a member of the soldier's relief commission is hereby approved.

Ernest Harrigfield is hereby appointed overseer of road district No. 39 and bond approved.

Henry E. Lage is hereby appointed overseer of road district No. 24 and bond approved.

James B. Grier is hereby appointed overseer of road district No. 17 and bond approved.

Condition the Wayne County bank is hereby designated as a legal depository of county funds, and no bond required under the guarantee of deposits law.

The following claims are on file against the county, but have not been passed on at this time, nor warrants ordered.

1915-519 for $9.
1916-290 for $10.50; 470 for $7; 763 for $7; 883 for $4.08; 998 for $2; 1356 for $80; 1478 for $104.50; 1735 for $73.50; 1844 for $31.50; 1880 for $35.

1917-69 for $68; 104 for $64.27; 105 for $326; 119 for $62; 153 for $30; 157 for $30; 158 for $30; 164 for $10; 165 for $10; 166 for $10; 190 for $10; 191 for $10; 207 for $2.50; 208 for $2.50; 209 for $54.70.

Whereupon board adjourned to March 20, 1917.—Chas. W. Reynolds, Clerk.

What Edgar Howard Writes

The first real oratory of the winter was heard in the senate chamber last Tuesday. The cause of it was Senator Moriarity's resolution of censure against United States Senator Norris because of his refusal to support the bill to give President Wilson power to arm trade ships and thus give them opportunity to protect themselves from the attacks of German submarines. The quiet and scholarly Senator Beal, of Custer, splendidly advocated his own substitute, which sought to take the teeth out of the original resolution, but at the same time expressing disapproval of the action of the filibustering senators at Washington. Senator McMullen, of Gage, speaking for the general republican view of the situation, offered a substitute which sought to lay the blame for the defeat of President Wilson's pet bill to the party in power alleging that the president and his party had the power to change the senate rule which provides for unlimited debate. His address was dignified and logical, wholly free from partisan bias. Senator Sandall, of York, discussing the history of the United States senate, held both the republican and democratic parties responsible for the retention of a rule which can be employed by a very few senators to utterly defeat legislation which may be desired by an overwhelming majority. He cited some of the time-killing speeches made by the great democratic and republican leaders, and particularly the fourteen-hour address of Senator Allen, of Nebraska, when he took one of President Cleveland's hobbies to death. He did not believe it fair to condemn any senator who employed the senate rules to prevent legislation which he did not approve, and he favored killing the original resolution and all amendments. Senator Moriarity, the author of the resolution, defended it manfully. He believed plain words should be used in a case like this. He regarded all United States senators who opposed the ship-arming bill as lacking in patriotism and he thought his resolution was even more mild than it should be. Senator Albert opposed the resolution. He said he was well aware that his motive might be assailed, and that he might in ignorant quarters be charged as a sympathizer with Germany. He did sympathize with the German people but not with the German government. His sympathy ran out to the common people in all the war-cursed nations over the sea, but his first and only allegiance was to America, and he protested earnestly against any resolution which would brand George Norris as a traitor when he had exercised the privilege of doing that which he believed would keep America out of the awful war. Senator Albert said the time had come to look the situation in the face, and look at it honestly. To the congress of the United States alone belongs the power to declare war, and yet the passage of the bill to give President Wilson such vast power was practically a declaration of war against Germany, because the placing of guns on the merchant ships was for the purpose of enabling them to sink the first submarine encountered in the war zone and that would be virtually an act of war. Senator Albert's address created a profound impression. I am confident that if a vote had been taken yesterday the Moriarity resolution would have been adopted, but so favorably was the view of Senator Albert regarded that at the close of his speech the senate, on motion of Senator Mattes, voted to lay the original resolution and amendments on the table, thus killing it.

Jim Brennan, living on Red Bird creek, north of O'Neil, trapped a rabbit with small horns resembling those of a deer.

Lincoln was permanently denied the right to construct a municipal incinerator when Judge Stewart in district court issued a permanent injunction for that purpose.

William F. Button, former county judge of Hastings, died at Kansas City, Mo., of Bright's disease. He had spent several weeks at Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Several thousand people gathered at the Boatrace station to welcome Company C, Fifth Nebraska, home. The boys were escorted up town by the band.

Herman Stalling of Scribner marketed a shipment of 127 head of young hogs on the Omaha market and received $4,460 for the porkers. The pigs were under 1 year old.

Rural Mail Carrier Schwartz on Route 3 of Grand Island, has been presented with $200 by patrons of his route in order to enable him to purchase a car for his work.

Mrs. O. E. Jones, living four miles southwest of Osceola, received injuries which proved fatal, in an automobile collision at a crossroads point three miles southwest of there.

DELCO-LIGHT

ELECTRICITY FOR EVERY FARM

DELCO-LIGHT MAKES ELECTRICITY UNIVERSAL

For the first time electric light and power are available to anyone—anywhere. Heretofore, the benefits of electricity have been confined to those who live in the larger towns and cities. Now Delco-Light makes electric current universally available.

Delco-Light is today furnishing thousands of farm-houses with brilliant, convenient, safe and economical light. It is furnishing power to operate pumps, washing machines, churns, cream separators, milking machines, vacuum cleaners, etc. It is lighting country churches, stores and public halls. It is furnishing light and power to summer homes and camps, to houseboats and yachts, etc.

It is lighting rural railway stations and construction camps. It is lighting the camps of United States troops on the Mexican border and it is disclosing heretofore undreamed-of beauties in the depths of Mammoth Cave, Kentucky. Altogether, over 15,000 Delco-Light plants are in operation, and Delco-Light offices are to be found in almost every part of the world.

Delco-Light is a complete electric plant—the engine and dynamo in one compact unit combined with a set of specially long and wonderfully efficient batteries for the storing of current. The plant is so simple a child can care for it, and so economical that it actually pays for itself in time and labor saved. It operates on either kerosene, gasoline or natural gas.

The Nebraska supreme court denied to the executive council of the supreme forest of the Woodmen circle the right to apply for an injunction to prevent Mrs. Emma B. Manchester, supreme guardian, from calling a meeting of the order in Memphis, Tenn., March 22.

Official list of letters patent of invention, issued from the United States patent office at Washington, D. C., to inhabitants of Nebraska for the week ending February 24, 1917: Cornelius P. O'Brien, Omaha, indicating attachment for vehicles. John A. Pixler, Benkelman, self-leveling click. Pembroke N. Squires, Tekamah, headlight adjustable for vehicles.

Henry P. Fowler of Washington, D. C., connected with the National Chamber of Commerce, spent some time in Omaha securing a list of Omaha business men to be submitted to the war department for its use in case of national exigency. In accordance with a plan announced he said these lists are being taken in all the prominent cities of the country.

The board of supervisors of Gage county placed on file the report of two expert accountants who have been checking over the books of the county judge's office from 1906 to the present year. The report shows that County Judge Spafford owes the county $262.61 and Judge Walden $120.57. The matter of having accountants check over the books of the county clerk was also discussed.

Lincoln railway men were apprised by their traffic chiefs that Kansas had passed a bone dry law effective at once. This law effects shipments of liquor into Kansas. Instructions were received to accept no shipments of liquor to that state that could not be delivered before the law went into effect. The orders received were positive and showed that the roads, at the start, at least, will obey the law passed by the Kansas legislature.

Twenty-five hundred dollars in damages were awarded by a district court jury to John M. Baker of Hastings for alleged alienation of his wife's affections, by Samuel A. Westing, wealthy and prominent church and business man and farmer of Kansas. Westing's attorneys will file motion for a new trial. If over-ruled, they will appeal to the supreme court. The Bakers still live together. They have five children.

Theft was the principal cause of delinquency among children held before the juvenile court in 1916, according to statistics compiled from data gathered for Chief Probation Officer Miller submitted to the court shows that 114 children were brought before the juvenile authorities on the charge of theft. The next highest ninety-six—were wayward children, runaways and the so-called incorrigibles. Eighty-six owed their downfall to fighting, trespassing and disturbing the peace. Truancy was also a chief cause, forty-four children being classed as "habitual" and sixteen for their first offense.

Miss Eva Randa, who has been visiting and looking after business matters in Sholes for the past month, returned to Niobrara Tuesday. Miss Edna Larson who has been absent for the past six months in Wyoming, returned home Saturday night, and has taken a position in E. W. Clossons store as clerk. Saturday afternoon Mrs. John Davis was called to Carroll on account of the serious illness of Mr. Davis' father, D. M. Davis. He passed away Sunday afternoon. Mr. Julius Choan and family attended the funeral of Mrs. Choan's mother Wednesday. Mr. Choan and the boys returned Wednesday evening but Mrs. Choan staid over. John McGinty was called to Neola Friday by the serious illness of his aged mother. Ashur Hariburt received word from him Monday that his mother passed away shortly after he reached her bedside. Mrs. E. C. Bragonier left Tuesday morning for Omaha to visit relatives, and from there will go to Hopkins, Missouri, for a visit with her mother. She expects to be absent for two or three weeks. Mr. Thomas Hennesy of Carroll was in Sholes Tuesday to assist in moving a house for Mr. W. H. Root from one farm to another. Mr. Root has rented to Mr. Hansen who recently moved to Wayne county. Mrs. Gus Bodenstaedt, accompanied by her husband and attending physician from Belden, left Monday for Rochester. Her sister who has been visiting her for some time, left for her future home in Oklahoma. Five or six of Gus Danger's neighbors took their teams and helped him haul hay recently purchased from Rudolph Schmidt. The roads being so bad, a kindness like that makes one think the world is a good place after all. Mrs. Julius Choan returned from Wayne Monday where she and sister had been breaking up the home of Mrs. Choan's mother, who recently passed away. Mrs. Choan said they had secured a fine renter, one who would look after the property. Flag Union News Mr. and Mrs. John Arp of Belden spent Sunday with her parents D. A. Michel. D. A. Michels shipped a load of hogs to Sioux City Monday. He accompanied the shipment. Misses Olive Swanson, Esther Swanson and Clara Reimers came from Omaha to attend the Reimers-Dahlquist wedding. Lundquist's in Laurel Friday evening in honor of a rural school class taught by her, all six members being present. Mr. Levi Reimers and Miss Helen Dahlquist were united in marriage last evening at the home of the bride's parents, G. Dahlquist. They are to reside on the farm now occupied by Mr. Dahlquist and they will move to the new home they recently purchased from N. P. Nelson. We extend congratulations. Granquist-Thompson On Wednesday March 14th, 1917 at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the St. Paul's Lutheran parsonage occurred the marriage of Miss Sarah Jane Thompson, youngest daughter of Mrs. Rebecca Thompson, and Mr. Carl William Granquist eldest son of Mrs. E. Granquist. The Rev. J. H. Fetterolf performed the ceremony. Miss Myrtle May Suhr a niece of the bride and Mr. Edward Granquist brother of the groom attended the bridal couple. The bride is a most competent young lady, accomplished along the most practical lines of life, having lived in Wayne county the greater part of her life. The groom is a most prosperous young farmer having lived in Wayne county the greater part of his life also. The bride wore a beautiful ivory chiffon taffeta dress, the groom a suit of blue. Following the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Alex Suhr, where a wedding dinner awaited them. The Table Rock commercial club has just been reorganized with the following officers: President, J. N. Phillips; vice president, George Belshaw; secretary, Frank T. Taylor; assistant secretary, E. E. Hanel; treasurer, R. A. Kovanda. After a meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance union at the home of Miss K. Knudson, at Geneva the ladies donated a framed picture of Frances Willard which will be hung on the wall of the public library. The Osterman bill to require a uniform right-of-way on the Union Pacific, dispossessing that road of 200 feet of land in every section along its line in the state, was approved by the house committee of the whole to day after a sharp battle. Heavy winds added materially to the damage, already considerable, to the wheat in the vicinity of Falls City. The surface of the ground has been bare all winter and the lack of moisture has put the soil in the right condition for wind damage.

PART OF THE DEUTSCHLAND'S CARGO WILL BE SOLD IN WAYNE. Cyanide of Sodium Carried on Famous German Blockade Runner Is Used in Article Sold in Local Store. Articles made from a part of the cargo of the famous German submarine blockade runner, Deutschland, which twice escaped the clutches of the British high seas fleet and brought to America chemicals and dye stuffs are on sale in the Range Eternal. A malleable range, parts of which are made from material brought over from besieged Germany by the Deutschland is being displayed by W. A. Hiscox. The builders of the range sold by W. A. Hiscox in the flues of the range with Eternametal, a patented metal which can only be made by the use of Cyanide of Sodium, which comes from Germany. When the Deutschland arrived in American waters, the range company bought the cyanide which composed a large part of the Deutschland's cargo. It was impossible to buy this chemical in the United States. The cyanide was shipped to South Bend and used in the manufacture of Eternametal. Part of the ranges built with Eternametal made from the Deutschland's cyanide have been purchased by W. A. Hiscox and are now on display. The public is welcome to examine them.—Adv. The following is from the Wilmington, California, Journal, and tells a story of interest to the little folks who used to play with Master Walter Goldie a few years ago: "Twelve years old and a chance to have a birthday party will be grabbed up by most any lad, but no boy ever enjoyed such an occasion any better than Walter Goldie Jr. did last Saturday. Thirty of his boy and girl friends arrived about six o'clock and there was nobody sleeping in vicinity of the Journal home until after eleven. Walter's mother slyly turned the clock a half hour ahead, but Sunday morning the time-piece was half an hour slow. Walter's intentions, like his mother's, were good, and he beat her to it. We enjoyed the party as much as the boy, with exception of the presents—which Walter Jr. frankly admitted was why is a birthday party. We can remember how we hungered to hug an eight or nine year-old little blond lass many years ago. Well, the kids of today are smarter than we were a half century ago; they don't go hungry for anything nowadays that is so easy to get. Punch, ice cream and cake disappeared like pouring water in a gopher hole. It was a mighty fine bunch of little folks, who will be the men and women of the nation tomorrow. We'd like to see them all again, but if that is not to be maybe they will send their children next time. It is interesting to note time's changes—if one can stay here long enough to glimpse it." 6 Room Residence For Sale The Mrs. Donner house and lot 1 block east of M. Among the Churches of Wayne Presbyterian Church (Rev. S. Xenophon Cross, Pastor) The local Y. P. S. C. E. is sending the following delegates to the Annual District Convention this week: Beryl Maxwell, Joe Ringland, Elizabeth Mines, Ruth Ingham, Mae Hiscox, Wilma Gilderleeve, Genevieve Roberts. All who have been connected with the Sunday school during the past year are cordially urged to be present in one of the classes next Sunday. We are striving harder than ever before to make all departments of the school up-to-date. Junior Endeavor was organized last Sunday with a charter membership of 18. Miss Georgia Moore will be the Junior Superintendent. The pianist will be Miss Mae Fiscox. Names of officers and committee chairmen may be published next week. Come to the meeting Sunday evening at 7:30. The sermon subject and text will be: "To Whom Shall We Go? There will be special music under the direction of Mrs. Horace Theobald, chorister. This will be one of the most attractive evening services of the season. The hour of morning worship is 10:30. The subject next Sunday will be: "Shiloh". There will be special music under the direction of Mrs. W. E. Johnson, chorister. You are invited to spend the hour with us. All brothers of men are welcome in the house of the All-Father of mankind. Fathers and mothers are reminded that there will be a meeting of the "Juniors" at the church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. St. Paul's Lutheran Church (Rev. J. H. Fetterolf, Pastor) Sunday School every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The usual preaching services next Sunday in the morning at 11 and in the evening at 7:30. The morning subject will be "The Church at Thyatira and Its Lessons for Us." In the evening the third sermon on Pilgrim's Progress: "Pilgrim at the Cross." The Teacher Training is growing in interest and favor among the workers of the Sunday school. This week are five new members to join the class. This is an important feature in Sunday school work and we feel that there should be others to take up this study as an education even tho they do not intend to become teachers in the school. Rev. C. B. Lewis, the Synodical Sunday school superintendent, held a conference with our school officers and teachers last Tuesday evening. His talk was full of helpful suggestions to all interested in this phase of christian work. Mr. Lewis is an expert in this line of work having spent four years in connection with the state Sunday school association. Miss Henrietta Hurstad will lead the Luther League meeting Sunday evening. The topic is "Ashamed of Jesus (Peter). This is a timely subject for young people to consider. We would like to have all our young folks out and also to be prepared to take part in the meeting. Methodist Church (Rev. A. S. Buell Pastor) All the regular service for the week will be held at this church, with the usual special features in music etc. The pastor was called away the first of the week, and has not returned to give detailed program of the week. The work on the interior of the church will be completed in time for the Sunday services and the entire church will again be available for public use. German Lutheran Church (Rev. Moehring, Pastor) There will be Sunday school next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock and divine worship at 11 o'clock. In the afternoon services will be held at Winside at 3 o'clock. LOCAL NEWS ITEMS Mike Coleman went to Omaha Tuesday with a load of fat cattle. He has his farm rented and plans to live Wayne for a time now. Mrs. C. Shulteis, who has been visiting in Omaha, and with relatives in Michigan for a number of weeks, returned to Wayne Tuesday evening. Miss Olive Griffith, who is teaching at Blair came home Wednesday evening to spend a short vacation with home folks, E. L. Griffith and wife. Fred Schrader of Carroll was looking after business here between trains Wednesday, while on his way to Winside to do a stunt of plastering. Rev. W. L. Gaston is spending his evenings and night at Carroll a few times, having been engaged to deliver a short course of lectures at that place. Henry Lessman went to Omaha Wednesday afternoon, and that night a car of hogs from his farm were wheeled into the stock markets at that place. Mrs. L. C. Thomas of Alliance, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Emma Liveringhouse and other relatives, returned to her home this morning. Miss Winnifred Fleetwood spent Sunday at the Ed A. Johnson home in Sioux City, helping her brother-in-law, the aforesaid Johnson, celebrate his birthday. Mrs. J. W. Peitz of Hooper, who has been here visiting at the home of uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Dixon, and to see the twins, went to Sioux City this morning. Mrs. J. G. Hess was called to Wall, South Dakota, this morning by a message telling that a brother at that place is seriously ill with but little prospect of recovery. Every groundhog has his day—and this is his last day of the six weeks retirement, and it is as bad as the day he was supposed to have come out and scared himself back with his shadow. Landlord George Box of the Boyd, who has been wrestling with an attack of pneumonia, is reported this morning as rallying nicely. A host of friends hope to see him about again shortly. There will be a meeting of the members of the Wayne Country Club Friday night, March 16th, at 8 o'clock at the city hall, for the purpose of electing a board of directors and any other business for the good of the club. H. B. Shook of Omaha, came this morning for a day or two at Wayne. He was for a number of years sexton here, and went to Omaha about three years ago to accept a position for similar work there, and is still engaged in such work, and a very efficient man. Mr. and Mrs. Claud Courtright, who have been visiting at Wayne since early in January, left this morning for their home at Fairmount, Minnesota. Mr. Courtright is a painter and paper hanger, and returns to begin the season's work there. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stone were callers Wednesday. They have a fine herd of Holstein cattle growing on their place northwest of town, and left a sample jar of the cream at this office. A trial at to-days dinner proved it to be of excellent quality, and we do not wonder that the Stone family are enthusiastic boosters for the black and white cow. Word came from Luverne, Minnesota, Wednesday that Mrs. McKay, a daughter of the late D. M. Davis, is seriously ill at her home there and not only unable to attend her father's funeral, but that her recovery was considered very doubtful. It was planned that her brother John Davis should go at once to her bedside, as she expressed a desire to see him or her father, not knowing that the father had been called home.
