CALL COMES FOR 36 MORE OF OUR SOLDIER BOYS

Second Contingent of County's Draft left Wednesday Morning Amid Cheers and Tears of Relatives and Friends

A reception was given at the court house Tuesday afternoon and evening in honor of the boys who were called to join the army. Thirty-six of the cream of our county answered the call, every one being present when their name was read by Clerk Reynolds. A large crowd of relatives and friends gathered at the court house grounds, the Carroll band furnished excellent music and the scene is one never to be forgotten. The boys were a happy bunch and are going cheerfully and willingly to lend their aid in this great war of ours. Their smiles and the tears of the aged mothers, the sisters and sweet hearts made a heart breaking picture and the noble boys who went out to join the comrades at the front will no doubt prove not only a help but a blessing with their undaunted courage.

Judge A. A. Welch gave a splendid talk. The judge is always a favorite with Wayne people and we have but one criticism to make—his talk was too short. He was followed by the Rev. Mr. McKenzie of Carroll. While Rev. McKenzie's talk was rather pessimistic he voiced many truths and we cannot fail to admire the love of country that was so evident thru his entire discourse. He said it was not true that Christianity was against war. God and His people are for war in this great struggle now on and their motto is, "Righteousness Before Peace." Rev. McKenzie warned us to beware of the people who have sympathy with the enemy. "Why, they may even be in our midst today," he said. That is one of the saddest things we have to face. We are sending our dear ones to fight for peace that will benefit the neighbor, perhaps, who, underneath a sullen silence, is only awaiting a chance to show the fangs so carefully concealed. It is well to keep this in mind. The foolish twaddle we hear now about sympathy over the pro-German's feelings and some of the articles we read about teaching our children the German language, are the rankest folly. We are an American people, we are giving the lives of our children to a great principle. Are we going to nurse the enemy at home while our boys are dying on the battle fields? We have just as loyal German people among us as we are ourselves. They are among the best of our citizens everywhere and they too are giving their boys just as cheerfully as anyone. It is not of these we speak, but the sympathizers who are a menace to our fair land, they are the ones we fear.

We realize the horror of this conflict but Rev. McKenzie's pessimistic words can have no weight with a calm, thinking people. We are going into this war to win and we believe an optimistic attitude will go a long way toward the winning.

Rev. F. J. Jorden offered prayer after which A. R. Davis presented each one of the boys with a "comfort kit" as a gift from the Red Cross. Then the boys and their immediate families and friends were invited inside where the good ladies of Wayne gave them a supper of all the good things one could name. The reporters of both papers were in on the feed and we say from personal knowledge those boys had the best in the land. The County Defense Council gave ice cream to top off the feast and the hospitality of Wayne people will be remembered by the boys and here is hoping that Uncle Sam treats them as well.

A call was sent out Sunday thru the different churches asking any lady who could to volunteer to furnish enough luncheon for herself and family and two soldier boys. And the citizens having this in charge wish to thank the patriotic ladies who responded so quickly and generously to the call.

Tables were spread in the different rooms at the court house and the abundance of good things given shows the loyalty of our ladies. Following are the names of the ladies who were the hostesses of the boys and their relatives and friends:

Mesdames A. A. Welch, M. S. Davies, A. M. Jacobs, E. J. Jorden, A. R. Davis, D. W. Kinne, James Miller, Fred Berry, L. A. Fenske, Fred Philico, J. H. McIntosh, S. X. Cross, J. Woodward, James, E. H. Jones, ad-

J. J. Williams, E. Kostomlatsky, Carroll Orr, J. G. Mines, P. H. Kohl, J. H. Fetterolf, Peter Baker, Chas. Reynolds, P. C. Crockett, A. R. Richardson, S. E. Auker, H. F. Wilson, Will Martz, J. T. Bressler, and Misses Monte Theodore and Hannah Bressler.

Other ladies who wish to lend their aid will have an opportunity at the next call as Wayne will give all the boys the same kind of a reception.

Wednesday morning a great crowd of people escorted the boys to the train and gave them a rousing send-off. It is hard indeed this parting with loved ones and to the fathers and mothers, sister and brothers of the boys who went away Wednesday there can be nothing said to cheer them more than the assurance that God is with us and all must work out for the best.

It is expected that the rest of those drafted will go within a couple of weeks. All who are named in the draft will be examined so they will be ready on short notice.

Following are the names and addresses of those who went Wednesday:

Frank Leopold Krueger, Winside; Her Hansen, Winside; Irvah Leary, Winside; Hans Chris Jensen Graverholt, Wne; James Miller Strahan, Winside; Ray Delto Cross, Laurel; Josef Theodore Johnson, Winside; Max Paul Henschke, Wakefield; Herman David Kai, Pender; William Jennings Loberg, Carroll; Harry Milton Bressler, Wakefield; Charley Hubert Apgar, Wayne; Otto Bennet Miller, Wayne; Fred Herman Bruner, Winside; Clarence Wiley Arnold, Wayne; Oscar William Machmuller, Hoskins; James Arnold Matherson, Wayne; George Lee Smith, Wayne; Harvey A. Haas, Wayne; Leonard Bock, Carroll; Clayton Mho Chilcott, Pender; Walter J. Haglund, Wakefield; James Hansen, Carroll; John Francis Ahern, Wayne; August Henry Wittler, Wayne; Hans Peterson, Winside; Irvan Charles Sala, Wayne; Gustav Julius Splittgerber, Wayne; Ernest Fredrik Deckgerber, Hoskins; Emil Dangberg, Wayne; Virgil Vernon Chambers, Wisner; Edward John Rogenbach, Wisner; Maxwell L. ## W. C. T. U. COUNTY CONVENTION

The county convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the Methodist church at Wayne Friday afternoon. Mrs. A. A. Wollert, county president, will preside. The Carroll and Winside unions will be here and the following program will be given to which everybody at Wayne and vicinity are urged to attend. Instrumental, Mrs. Horace Theobald, Wayne. Devotional, Mrs. Anna Jones, Carroll. Welcome Address, Mrs. J. H. Boyce, Wayne. Music, Ladies Quartet, Wayne. Paper, "Beer," Mrs. Jessie McKenzie, Carroll. Reading, "Goodnight, Papa," Miss Clara Fry, Winside. Music, Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Holpine, Winside. Paper, "The Soldier and the Cigar-ette," Mrs. Wm. Beckenhauer, Wayne. Paper, "Is the Work of the W. C. T. U. Done?" Mrs. Margaret Yaryan, Carroll. Music, Ladies Quartet, Wayne. Immediately following the program a business meeting will be called after which "America" will be sung as a closing number by the audience.

TAG DAY GREAT SUCCESS

Last Saturday was tag day and the receipts amounted to something over $228. The members of the Library board and the young ladies who assisted feel elated over the amount received and their dream of a library for the soldiers will no doubt come true. The whole of Wayne county had something like $300 to raise and as Wayne has done so well the rest of the county should well the total far above the required $300.

W. C. T. U. MET AT WINSIDE TUESDAY

The W. C. T. U. met in regular session at the home of Gertrude Bays Tuesday evening September 11. The meeting was called to order and prayer was offered by Mrs. Holcomb, president. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

Mrs. Wollert, county president, was present and gave the members some valuable information and helpful suggestions about the work of the organization.

On motion, it was decided to continue the W. C. T. U. work for another year and in connection with the regular outline take up the Red Cross work.

The following were allowed: State dues forty cents per member. County dues ten cents per member.

The officers elected for the following year were as follows: Mrs. Laura Gress, President. Mrs. Fitzgerald, Vice President. Clara Fry, Secretary.

Mrs. Clayton, Treasurer. Committees appointed: Program—Josephine Carter, Mrs. Holcomb, Mrs. Halpin.

Social—Mrs. I. O. Brown, Edith Carter, Gertrude Bays. Mother's meeting—Mrs. Fitzgerald. Young people—Josephine Carter, Gertrude Bays.

Mrs. Cross was elected delegate to the state convention which meets in Lincoln, October 8 to 11.

The next meeting is to be held Tuesday evening, September 18, at the home of Mrs. Gress. Suffrage in Nebraska will be the topic for discussion and each member is expected to come prepared to take part.—Winside Tribune.

THIS EDITOR'S VACATION

Everyone needs a vacation at least once in six or seven years, and this was the time when the editor got his day off, thanks to the kindness of C. H. Hendrickson and wife, who were called to their old home near Villisca, Iowa, and kindly invited the editor and his daughter, Lila Gardner to seats in the car. It was a splendid ride of 200 miles and most enjoyable these splendid autumn days. We find it hard to tell which afforded the most enjoyment, the trip over splendid roads between fields of corn that hid fair to prove a record-breaking crop, past farm homes in which beauty and convenience combine to make life in the rural districts one of pleasure, or the genial greeting of the friends of other days, men and women whom we had long held as friends true and tried, who gave the glad hand to a former citizen. Both were most fully appreciated and combined make four happy days.

Being somewhat of a crank on the road question, I wish to give to the automobile credit for putting road improvement fully 20 years ahead of where it would have been without the need of good roads which has been created by the automobile. And while speaking of roads I wish to say that no where on nearly 300 miles of dirt roads traveled did I find any more perfect than the few miles in Wayne county which have been undergoing a grading under the supervision of our county highway commissioner, P. M. Corbit which he calls finished now. Smooth and well rounded the "buzz" wagon glides over them like a boat upon a placid lake.

WAYNE COUNTY HOGS WIN MANY AWARDS

Honors came in numbers to the herd of Hy Paulsen & Son of Carroll at Sioux City this week, and we are indebted to D. H. Cunningham for a list of the herd's winnings, and their good points placed them way up in the list. First on boar over 18 months, first on sow 2 years or over, second on sow under 6 months, third and fourth on sows two fourths. Fair Mollie 6th won the championship, competing against the championship sow of the Iowa state fair at Des Moines. "Of all that's good, Wayne has the best."

CLOSED FOR REPAIRS

Owing to the fact that the work of remodeling the First National Bank Building is under way, I will be compelled to close my shop for two or three weeks while the Barber Shop is being remodeled. Homer Wheaton.

BAPTISTS MEET AT CARROLL

The Northwestern Baptist Association met at Carroll in a three days session last week. A goodly number of delegates from the churches of this part of the state were present. The reports from the various fields in many respects showed advancements being made. Among the things appearing that would merit special $12,000 church building now nearing completion. Also the raising of a $15,000 fund by the Norfolk church for the erection of a new church building, which plan will take definite form with the coming son of Rev. F. W. Benjamin to this field from Glenvil.

From the state workers there appeared on the program Rev. Ray E. York of Lincoln, Superintendent of state Missions. His message was one full of hope and wide in vision calling the attention of the association most forcibly to The Forces, Fruitage, Finances, and Field of the Neb. Baptist state work and to the fact that this year marked the fiftieth anniversary of this work.

Also another of State workers present was Rev. C. H. Bancroft of Omaha, State representative of the Missionary enterprises of the Denomination at large. His message was one taking into its scope the uttermost parts of the world, strongly emphasizing the part the denomination is to play in a world conquest in Kingdom interests and that amid a world crisis.

The women's session was one full of interest. From among the state representatives of the women's work Miss Sterner of Lincoln and Mrs. Johnson of Omaha were present with messages of inspiration and helpfulness.

Much regret was manifest in that State S. S. and B. Y. P. U. director Rev. J. D. Collins was unable to be present on account of sickness in his home. Also the absence of Pres. Jordan of Grand Island College was a keen disappointment.

Matters of vital associational interest to the denomination in this part of the state were discussed from the floor and in addresses by men from the local churches. Among those who appeared on the program were Rev. F. J. Jorden of Wayne, Rev. S. Miller of Battle Creek, Rev. S. E. Bishop of Creighton, Rev. B. J. Minort of Tilden, and Rev. M. L. Dilliey of Carroll. The association closed Wednesday evening with an evangelistic sermon by E. J. Minort from the text "What then will you do with Jesus?" The deep interest shown at this session was only added strength to that which had been shown in every other.

BE A BOOSTER THURSDAY

Next Thursday is the day set for the people of Wayne county and especially those of the town to pack up a picnic lunch and take a trip to the home of the farmers who have organized to advance the interest of pure bred stock breeding in this county. We feel confident that you will not regret it, and that you will come home with a broader and better view of the possibilities of this county so rich in farm values. We hope that the Wayne citizens will join and add another tie to those which should bind all community interests in this county together. "In union there is strength." Below we give a schedule to guide you.

STOCK BREEDERS MEET NEXT SATURDAY

At the city hall Saturday afternoon there will be a meeting of the members of the county organization of the pure bred stock breeders to complete arrangements for their booster day trip, which is to be Thursday, September 27th. The invitation is for all to go out and see what the farmers are doing in the matter of raising pure bred stock. The schedule of the trip appears elsewhere.

DISTRICT BOARD EXEMPTS 23 FROM WAYNE COUNTY

C. W. Reynolds, secretary of the local exemption board, Wednesday received the discharge of 23 of the Wayne county men whom the local board had certified for service. Most of the exemptions were asked because of dependents and for reasons that those asking were engaged in agriculture. Below we give the names of those who received their discharge:

- Ed Willard Arnold
- Leo James Rodgers
- Chas. Meyer, Jr.
- Chas. Warren Shulteis
- Wm. H. Krueger
- Herbert H. Honey
- H. B. Steckberger
- G. A. Albers
- Wm. H. May
- W. J. Bowles
- Ed A. F. Bernhart
- Guy H. Dilts
- Lloyd C. Gildersleeve
- Earnest Lloyd Prince
- Emil Harry Lund
- Chas. Wilber Foster
- Walter Joseph Simonin
- Albert Carl Hogelen
- Fred C. Sandahl
- Jan. F. Stephens
- John Jake Johnson
- William James Dalton
- Edward T. James

With the exemption of so many, it is the opinion of the secretary that another bunch of men will have to be called at once to take the examination as not enough are left to make the county quota full. It is not known how many will be called, but if all are soon to be examined the local board will probably call enough to make sure that the quota will be filled.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Mrs. A. Hennegar underwent a major operation at the hospital Tuesday. At this time she is getting along as well as could be expected.

Jack Bly is getting along nicely and will soon be able to return home. Miss Mary Dixon of Emerson had her tonsils removed last Thursday.

A. Mosseman of Lyons had a tonsil operation Monday of last week.

FIFTY MORE MEN CALLED

Upon receipt of the news of the exemption of 23 men by the district board, the local exemption board realized that it would require more men to fill the Wayne county quota, and are today sending notices to 50 more men to appear for examination; 25 September 26th and the same number on the 26th. They begin with No. 188 on the list.

SLAYS SCHOOL TEACHER AT COUNTRY SCHOOL HOUSE

Miss Cora Hantz of Hartington, Killed by Frank Faust, who later Commits Suicide

Hartington, Sept. 17.—Frank Faust, aged 20, shot and killed Miss Cora Hantz, aged 18, school teacher, employed in district No. 31, about half way between Hartington and Coleridge, at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning. When about to be captured Faust, a few minutes later, committed suicide.

The shooting took place at the school house where Miss Hantz was employed. Faust suddenly entered the room, drew a revolver and fired. The bullet pierced the girl's heart and she died instantly. Pandemonium reigned in the school room, the school children being witnesses to the tragedy.

Unrequited love is supposed to have been the cause of the murder and suicide. Faust was employed as a farm hand by Miss Hantz's father, Jack Hantz.

Shortly after the murder of Miss Hantz a posse formed to hunt him down. The slayer hid in a corn field not far from the school house. When he was discovered, he placed the pistol against his own head and fired. The bullet penetrated his skull just back of the ear. He died instantly.

FACULTY RECEPTION GIVEN TO STUDENTS

On Tuesday evening, September 18 a reception was tendered by the faculty to the students of the school. The students were introduced to President Conn, who stood at the head of the receiving line, by Miss Mabel Senter. After passing down the line the guests were seated in the auditorium, where a brief program was rendered. President Conn, as presiding officer, spoke a few words of welcome to students, and introduced those who appeared on the program. Following a vocal duet by Miss Sarah Saunders and Miss Ramona McElroy the various activities were presented. Mr. John D. Hash spoke for the Y. M. C. A., Miss Eunice Preston for the Y. W. C. A., Professor Hunterman for the Catholic club, A. W. Christensen for the Zaratustras, and Frances Oman for the music and art club. Professor O. R. Boyan gave an address, filled with helpful suggestions and good advice for the young people. Vocal solos by Miss Marjorie Kohl and Professor Coleman were greatly appreciated. The serving of fruit punch and wafers closed the program for the evening.

Standardized Columbus Wagons

The Fifth Wheel Farm Wagon

Fifth Wheel

Prevents serious rocking or pitch of bolster while out of position it is still in line. Made of malleable iron. It distributes the strain on the front bolster and sand-board. The pulling up of the front bolster is entirely done away with. It is one of the greatest improvements in farm wagons. Overcomes breaking or bending of circle of iron as the strain is distributed. Over comes pitching of bolster, thereby prevents bending or breaking of the king bolt. The top plates are wider than the lower plates, thus preventing dirt from getting between.

The gear is incomparable for completeness and quality.

We recommend the purchase of gears with square reach. Square reach furnished with the Columbus wagon is heavier than common kind.

Standardized

When we say that the Columbus wagon is standardized we mean that it has reached a degree of perfection superior to any other make we ever handled. When you come to look at the Columbus wagon, ask us to show you the points of difference. Every part is absolutely up to specifications, this applies to everything about the wagon but the box, and that subject is taken up under another heading. Standardization of parts means that each part is accurate as to measurements, an innovation in wagon making. Thereby giving wagon greater capacity. No more three and one quarter wagons.

Come in and we will convince you that the standardized wagon is the kind you have always wanted.

Wheels

The most important part of every wagon is the wheel. The timber from which the these wheels are made is thoroly seasoned, carefully selected and inspected. THE HUBS are made of oak, turned, shaped, and bored for the skein boxes and mortised for the spokes by automatic machines which are carefully adjusted to gauge. THE SPOKES are made of A-grade hickory and oak. Great care is used in shaping so that ample material is left in the tenon. THE FELLOES are sawed from straight-grained oak. THE RIMS are made from straight-grained oak, carefully bent into position while green. THE TIRES are made from International steel—a combination that is very tough and wears longer than ordinary iron. THE SKEINS AND SKEIN BOXES fit accurately because all hubs are bored and axles turned alike.

Box

The Columbus box is the best ever offered for the money. Only the best grades of bay poplar and cottoawood (thoroly seasoned) are used in the sides. THE BOTTOMS are made from long leaf yellow pine, free from knots, windshakes or other imperfections. They are tongued and grooved and held securely by oak cross sills. THE CENTER BOARD prevents bulging of the sides and by its use the spreader chain cannot split the box sides. THE GRAIN CLEAT is made of steel angle iron and renders the Columbus box absolutely flax and grain tight EACH SIDE is made from one solid piece, there being three board tongued, grooved, glued and strapped securely inside and outside. Heavier loads can be hauled with the Columbus box.

CELEBRATES SILVER WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Thomsen, who live southwest of Wayne celebrated their silver wedding anniversary last Thursday at the pretty country home. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Klinschky of Tilden, Rev. Fischer, the resident pastor of the German Lutheran church being out of town on account of sickness.

Over sixty guests, old friends and neighbors, were present and a very pleasant time is reported. The bride was dressed in a becoming gown of black silk and, altho Time has placed a few lines on the face so fair at the last ceremony and some silver threads gleamed among the gold, the bride of yesterday was no more happy than the bride of today. The anticipations and hopes of that time long ago may have been dimmed at times when adversity and grief crossed the path but love has burned brightly thru the years and made life worth while.

A very elaborate six o'clock dinner was served and it was cooked in the good old country style. The evening was spent in merry-making and playing various games.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomsen were married at Cedar Bluffs, twenty-five years ago and came to Wayne county immediately after where, thru years of thrift and industry, they have accumulated enough of this world's goods that they may live in comparative ease thru their declining years. Sorrows and joys have intermingled but side by side they have shared them, making the sorrows less deep and the joys more bright. Three children came to bless this union, all of whom are living. They are, Anna, Carl and William.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Paasch, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kuhr, Mr. Otto Kuhr, Mr. Bernhard Kuhr, Mr. and Mrs. John Gosch, all of Walnut and Mrs. Herbert Kohlscheen of Avoca, Iowa.

FOOD ADMINISTRATION NOTES

Reports that speculators are attempting to corner the potato market have been received by Food Administrator Wattles of Nebraska. The department is investigating these reports, and if any definite proof is found, Mr. Wattles will take definite and immediate action. "The interest of the consumer must be protected," said Mr. Wattles.

Requests that men on the farms of Nebraska, especially corn huskers and sugar beet harvesters, who have been drafted, be permitted to remain on the farms until December, have been received by Food Administrator Wattles. Mr. Wattles has referred the matter to Washington with definite recommendations, but is not hopeful of favorable action on the request.

"If sacrifices are necessary, it is our duty to make them," said Food Administrator Wattles. "The boys in the trenches are entitled to the best there is. There is no half-way measure. They must have food. It is more important than ammunition. Men can't fight unless they are nourished. The Allies will win the minute they can feed their men one day longer than the Germans. It's up to us to do it. On the most conservative rationing, The Allies are short 500,000,000 bushels of wheat right now. Only 80,000,000 bushels are available in the United States. That's one reason why conservation is of first importance."

CARE OF THE TRACTOR

Whether or not the tractor is housed, all gears and other wearing surfaces should be protected from the rain by a covering of heavy grease that will not wash off. Otherwise the tractor is likely to suffer serious damage and the operator may experience long delays in getting the machine ready for use next season.

THROWING SCARES

It has been well said that much of the effort to evade the draft has resulted from undue prominence given to portrayals of the horrors of the war. By means of graphic descriptions, and pictures of portions of battlefields, the dangers and sufferings are emphasized until the possible soldier has a distorted impression. Men who might not otherwise be cowards are made such by continual presentation of depressing and terrorizing prospects. It is asserted that as a matter of fact not more than one in ten soldiers are killed and not more than three in ten seriously wounded. Life in the fighting region is not all spent on the firing line but ample opportunity is given for rest in protected places in the rear. No one will dispute General Sherman's statement that "War is Hell" but it is well to keep in mind that many of the horrors of hell may have no real existence.—Ex.

A BOY'S WHISTLE

(By F. D. Stone)

One of the most cheerful and encouraging things in this dark world of sin and misery is a boy's whistle. It penetrates the clouds of weariness and pessimism thru which humanity gropes its way, and banishes the mists of doubt and despair with its merry notes. It sounds forth like a trumpet call to hope and action on the world's bloody battle fields, and fills every heart that hears it with a new hope and a fresh enthusiasm. A boy's whistle is the realest, merriest, sincerest thing in the world, and as long as that abides, hope will live in the human breast, and the republic will be safe from its enemies. It is a sure guarantee of peace, prosperity and progress.

We often think of that when, in the midst of business cares, we hear a boy's merry whistle coming down the street. The storm and stress of the average life are so great that at times they seem almost overwhelming—it is not any particular burden or trial that oppresses, but the mere fact of life itself that bears down so heavily at times; and this sense of endless routine and ceaseless activity impresses itself occasionally upon everyone with great acuteness. It seems at times almost intolerable—human endurance, human patience and human self control seem almost to have reached the breaking point—when a boy's whistle is heard resounding thruout the circumambient air, and hope revives. The merry notes of that whistle, lingering loud and long on some popular refrain, have a refreshing and revivifying effect upon the weary brain of man, and fill his heart with fresh ambition. What tho the fates knock with sure and steady blow, what tho friends forsake and cares oppress, what tho the world is filled with gloom—the boy whistles still, and there is hope.

One of the epochal discoveries of a boy's history is his ability to whistle. A boy grows up from infancy, and all at once some day he discovers that he can whistle. This is a great, an important discovery. And from that time forth, the boy devotes a large part of his time in developing and cultivating his talent. He allows no opportunity to go by to improve and enlarge his natural gifts, and in a short time he is master of an extensive repertoire. He can whistle almost any tune which has ever been written and a great many which have not been written, and on every occasion his piping and merry notes float out upon the air. A boy's whistle is the most spontaneous, the most unsophisticated and the most genuine thing in the world. It brings hope to the downcast, joy to the sorrowful and rest to the weary, and is one of the bright and beautiful things in a universe which is not all sunshine, and where somber shadows lurk in every corner.

A boy's whistle may not be, from a technical point of view, an absolutely perfect form of vocal composition. Some notes may be too high, and some notes may be too low, and the whistle may not always accord with the best artistic standards. A boy's whistle may not always be a faultless form of metrical composition—but, O, men and women, the joy and the cheer of it! It is the sweetest music this side of heaven, and its strident and irrepressible notes do more to fill the world with hope than all the finest operas and symphonies that were ever written.

GARDEN SUPERVISOR LEAVES

Garden Supervisor Herman Siems left for Chicago Saturday morning where he will specialize in chemistry at the University of Chicago this winter. Mr. Siems has made many friends at Wayne who will miss him greatly. He has put in some hard work this summer superintending garden work and leaves the following suggestions to his fellow workers.

"I hope it will be possible to continue garden work in an organized way next summer. There were about 125 children enrolled this summer and many did canning beside. The year has been a very pleasant one and I thank the people of Wayne for their co-operation. I would advise the cleaning of gardens of all weeds as soon as possible and burn in order to get rid of the seeds. To insure crops next year haul to the land well rotted fertilizer. Do not put fertilizer where potatoes are to be planted as it causes rust. Prune all tomatoes to one stem in order to get a larger yield and better tomatoes. In case leaf blight or insects should attack plants spray with the right kind of solution. Do not leave a garden plot idle in Wayne next year. The world needs everything that can be produced. Do more cold pack canning next year. Dry more vegetables and fruits by Dr. Gore's method than you did this year."

You begin to think of SAUSAGE for Breakfast

You may never know the delights of a meal at this season of the year until you have tried an order of

- Home-made Sausage with tongue.
- Home-made Chicken Loaf with tongue
- Home-made Ham Loaf with tongue.
- Home-made Liver Cheese with tongue.

College students will find these loaf slices appetizing and healthful for lunch, and most students want a lunch now and again.

A few slices from one of these loaves make an acceptable meat for a meal, at a great saving of fuel and labor for the busy house-keeper.

They may be had at the home of good meats of all kinds,

WAYNE MARKET REPORT Following are the market prices quoted us up to the time of going to press Thursday:

Table with 2 columns: Commodity and Price. Includes Corn, Oats, Wheat, Hay, Eggs, Butter, Hogs, Fat Cattle.

Europe has her great war. Villages has her Kelly trial thus all have some affliction.

Corn husking is the next problem confronting the Nebraska farmer. He will meet and solve it, even tho he have to ask the women to aid.

Maine went against the suffragist by about 14,000 votes at the recent election to count noses on that question. Well, Maine is not very progressive at the best.

It is proposed in some countries now at war that the men in the trenches be given land at the close of the war as their just due for it is they who will save the land if it is saved. To be sure each call for land increases the price asked by those who are speculating in land; but a properly adjusted land law will surely tend to discourage land monopoly and land speculation.

An army of more than 30 million people has been assembled in this country this month—an army without weapons of war—but an army which will do more in the next generation to eliminate war than all the armed forces of the world are doing today. This we believe, and we refer to the great army of teachers and pupils who have assembled for a nine-month campaign against ignorance, 30 million in a great army. May it never be less.

It is said that the Kaiser has offered a generous prize and an iron cross and a two week leave of absence to the soldier bringing in the first American soldier, dead or alive, Good. Now we suggest that a million men of America make up a purse of $100,000,000 for the soldier boy from America who will capture the Kaiser and bring him in dead or alive. It is more than he is worth, perhaps, but then America is far more generous in offering prizes than any king can or will be—for we give people political freedom; they hold a people in political bondage.

Yes, they park their cars nearer to the street crossings than the ordinance permits and no one says nay. But it should be a part of the ordinance that is rightly enforced. Why? Because it is unsafe to park a car nearer than 20 feet to a street crossing. Why? Because the car driver cannot see a person on a crossing if he is close beside the car, and the footman cannot see the car. This week a car almost caught a little fellow who was toddling across the street, hidden from the driver of an approaching car by one parked too near the crossing. When they came in sight of each other but a few feet was between them. The driver veered the car short, the little one saw and stopped suddenly, and what might have been, and what may happen did not occur. Let's all obey the law and let the city again mark the "dead line" by the crossings.

In the towns and cities where the newspapers took it upon themselves to urge women to register and kept the facts of registration before them from the time the first notice was received, there was a large number registered. It was simply a matter of getting the facts before the people and the government realizes that without the aid of the press little could be accomplished in the way of getting the interest of the people in the great matters now so important to our welfare. It pays to advertise these things as Uncle Sam has evidenced by sending out a little "want" for everything needed in this great war now on. Of course the newspapers are very patriotic and don't ask Uncle Sam a cent for his ads and in this way the newspapers are giving more to aid in this struggle than any other business in America. Some of the boys believe in asking pay for the next ad for Liberty Loans and they deserve it.

A newspaper and a public speaker should try to confine themselves to the truth as much as possible and avoid sensational statements not founded on fact—and in not adhering to that principle the Reverend speaker from Carroll, Mr. McKenzie laid himself liable to much criticism and he is getting plenty of verbal rebuke behind his back if not to his face. His remarks about the great danger the Wayne county boys may encounter were ill-timed if true—and the figures given by the authorities almost daily show that the statements were exaggerated. The death loss in battle is shown to be but about one in fourteen, and the seriously wounded about one in ten, and for the preacher to exterminate the entire thirty-six from this county before their fathers and mothers and other relatives and friends by a single bursting shell was very spectacular and entirely out of place. The boys will forget his predictions, for they will soon know how largely they were drawn from imagination; but to the relatives waiting at home, they cannot but add worry and suffering already too acute. Unkind is a mild word to use regarding his utterances—they were brutal.

A SMALL BLAZE

Wednesday morning the water-heating equipment used by Eric Thielman at his barber shop in the basement under the Gaertner furniture store blew off the lid and started a fire, while the barber was at the depot to see the soldier boys depart. Early discovery and a prompt application of water kept the fire in the room where it started, and the damage was slight, being water in the basement and smoke in the building. It was, however, dangerously near the trouble line, for furniture makes a bad fire to subdue once it is started. Eric will discontinue his shop and be employed at the Boyd Hotel shop. His loss was about $50.

WITH THE WAYNE CHURCHES

Baptist Church (Rev. Fletcher J. Jordan, Pastor) Since the vacation is over let us begin with renewed energy the work of the church. There is always a very hearty welcome to be found at the church of the glad hand. We earnestly desire that students from the Normal and all strangers in our town may be present next Sunday. The music furnished at these services is always inspiring.

The pastor will speak at both services. In the morning at 10:30 the subject will be "Christ and Abundance of Life." In the evening at 8 o'clock the theme will be "Sowing and Reaping" based on Galatians 6:7. The Sunday school meets at 11:30. The attendance came up again last Sunday. Classes are provided for all ages. You are made to feel welcome in our school. The stranger is especially invited to remain for the Bible school.

The young people's meeting convenes Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. The topic is "How we Should Work Together." John 17: 20-26. Special music is provided for this service. All young people who attend this meeting are kindly asked to remain for the after service. Choir Practice Thursday evening under the efficient leadership of Prof. Davies. Come and let each member be in his place by 8 o'clock promptly.

All Normal school students of Baptist preference are cordially invited to be present at a student reception at the Baptist church parlors Friday evening at 8 o'clock. All Baptist young people whether in regular attendance or not at our sessions are especially invited to be present at this time.

Presbyterian Church (Rev. S. Xenophon Cross, Pastor)

All the churches of Wayne or the young people's societies in these churches, keep open house to the young folks from the college tomorrow (Friday) evening. The presence of the college young people is a great blessing in all the churches thru all the year.

At the hour of morning worship at this church, next Sunday morning, the sermon theme will be "Open Windows." This will be a sermon for the soul with a view. We want you to see a vision of the city of Daring Hope. We may escape from littleness, tho the house of our soul be but a hut.

Any who desire to unite with this church by letter or on profession of faith may meet the session next Sunday morning at 10, or on either of the two following Sunday mornings at the same hour. The Communion and Rally service will be on the first Sunday of October. Save that day for the service.

An appropriate service of music is being prepared for next Sunday evening service. The sermon theme will be "The Master's Consolation." Each Sunday evening sermon is preceded by a story or sonnet for the boys and girls. Come and hear about the richest, fullest, life the world ever saw.

Our greatest desire is to be of service to you. Do not be afraid to come to the church for any aid that can possibly be given. Be free to offer suggestions as to how we may be of larger helpfulness.

St. Paul's English Lutheran Church (Rev. J. H. Pitteroff, Pastor)

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. The subject of the morning sermon is "The Angels That Sinned." The evening subject "The Doom of Sacrilege." The Luther League meets at 7:15 p. m.

Friday evening the young people of the church will give a reception to the Lutheran students at the Normal. All of our young people are urged to be present. A short pleasing program will be rendered. Refreshments will be served.

Methodist Episcopal Church (Rev. W. D. McGregor, Pastor)

Also the new pastor here, the Democrat, is authorized by his predecessor to state that the usual services of the church will be held Sunday and on thru the week. Rev. and Mrs. Buell are preparing to leave at once for their new charge at Tekamah, Wayne and that place having made a change of pastors. Rev. Buell served the church here four years, during which time the organization has grown and prospered. All will be welcome at the services by the new pastor.

German Lutheran Church (Rev. Rudolph Moehring, Pastor)

The pastor is home from the meeting of the synod, and there will be the regular services at this church next Sunday. Sunday school at 10 o'clock and preaching an hour later. At 8 o'clock in the afternoon the pastor will preach at Winsted.

Wayne County Pure Bred Breeders' BOOSTER DAY

Thursday, September 27th

On that date pure bred breeders of live stock and their friends and all others interested are invited to enjoy a tour of inspection. All people from towns and country are invited to join the excursion and bring picnic dinners. They are guaranteed a revelation in fine stock.

The crowd will start in automobiles from Wayne at 8 o'clock in the morning and will inspect the herds of the following men in the order named: Wm. A. Meyer, Wm. Lessman, V. L. Dayton, Fred Sundahl, H. J. Miner, Henry Cozad, Harry Tidrick, Bert Prince, Burrell Brothers, Cradoc Morris, H. C. and Gus Paulsen, Henry Billiter, Albert Sals, Geo. McEachen.

Carroll or vicinity will be reached by noon when a picnic dinner will be served.

Prominent stock judges from a distance will be present and lend interest to the occasion. Speeches will be made, and each farmer whose herds are visited is expected to give a brief talk.

The Welsh Brass Band, well known musical organization of high merit will accompany the crowd and enliven the day with stirring music.

Let people join in making September 27 a gala day for the pure bred live stock interests of Wayne county.

A 160-acre farm one mile east and one mile north of Elkhorn, Douglas county, sold recently for $280.60 per acre. It was a record price for land in that vicinity.

Each company of Nebraska troops at Deming has acquired some kind of a mascot. Bulldogs of the most vicious aspect seem to be the favorites. One of the men of Company C of the Sixth captured a kangaroo rat and has tamed it; another of the Nebraska companies boasts a monkey, and still another a goat which already is famous in the regiment for its fighting qualities. Nearly every tent has a horned toad or lizard of some description in captivity.

Three thousand seven hundred Nebraskans, members of the Fifth and Sixth Nebraska infantry regiments, left the state on a dozen special trains last Friday for Deming, N. M., to continue their training before starting for the battle front in France. The departure of the last two Nebraska regiments for the border leaves the state with but seven companies in the reserve regiment which is now being formed.

Ashar L. Halbert, a prominent farmer and stock man of Shiwo, was instantly killed and his wife was probably fatally injured in an automobile accident near Norfolk.

According to estimates made by railroad crop experts, Nebraska's 1917 corn crop will be more than 225,000,000 bushels.

The Thayer county fair held in Deshler was a success from every standpoint. Gross receipts will approximate $7,000. More people were at the fair than ever assembled at one place in Thayer county before.

During the week ending September 8 the South Omaha market received almost as many sheep as were culled at Chicago, Kansas City, St. Louis and St. Joseph combined.

Seventeen cases of infantile paralysis, two of which proved fatal, have been reported by the state board of health from Omaha.

CARE OF BROOD SOWS

The way a sow is handled before farrowing has much to do with the value of her litter, according to the University department of animal pathology.

The sow does best when kept in a healthy condition but is not allowed to become too fat. Heavy corn feeding makes sows fat, and they are not likely to produce large, healthy pigs. For this reason breeding stock must be separated from fattening pigs if best results are obtained. Feeds that produce bone and muscle are best.

Any one of the following rations supplemented by alfalfa hay in the rack will give good results.

Dinnerware

On account of the extreme scarcity of imported China, American potters are finding it difficult to keep pace with the demand for domestic ware. This is one reason for the high prices of all crockery. Shortage of fuel and labor are others. But you will pay more before you pay less than what the Variety Store asks.

All dinner patterns are carried in open stock. Any broken piece can be duplicated. Every piece is guaranteed against crazing. I am carrying five distinct patterns, any one of which is the best in its class and price range I could get hold of. The "Countess" line is the plain white with fancy embossing. 100 piece set $13.50.

The Gold band is the most staple of all dinner-patterns. It has a clear white glaze and every piece is perfect. $15.00 for the 100 piece set.

The "Gem" white and gold pattern has the famous Hudson shape, has a heavy gold edge and an inner gold Hump Lace Border, 100 piece set $16.50.

The "Alice Blue" pattern has the new jewel shape, a dainty blue tile border, gold edge and inner gold hair line, 100 piece set $17.50.

The "Belmont" is a high grade pleasing pattern, delicate small pink roses with alternating conventional designs, conventional tan and black outlines, and gold band edges make this pattern a decoration for any dinner table, 100 piece set $17.95.

CHURCH NEWS

(By the Democrat Reporter)

At the Baptist church Sunday morning we listened to a very able sermon by the Rev. Fletcher J. Jordan, on the subject of "Giving." That subject is a very hard one for a minister to handle for, if there is one place more than another where people dislike to spend their money it is in the upkeep of the Church. Rev. Jordan didn't handle the subject with gloves on either and it is to be hoped his words will sink deep into the hearts of his hearers and bear a golden fruit which will help Rev. Jordan to realize his dreams for the betterment of church conditions at Wayne.

Following is an outline of the sermon and we print it that those who failed to hear it will benefit by the lessons it contained.

"The supreme opportunity of every man, of every generation, of every nation, must be the spiritual opportunity. The deepest needs in the universe today are spiritual needs. The most powerful forces which make themselves felt are spiritual forces. The only permanent values in the world are spiritual values. The things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. We are facing spiritual bankruptcy as a nation, as individuals except as we invest our lives and our earthly possessions in something which does not pass away. The Blessed Master said: 'Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth where moth and rust doth corrupt and where thieves break thru and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt and where thieves do not break thru nor steal; for where your treasure is there will your heart be also.'

"The Old Testament and the New Testament plainly teach that generous giving is essential to true religion. Experience too often has shown that where a man's treasure was there his heart was also. Prophet and seer alike have thundered out rebukes to their people to be careful lest the acquiring of wealth might cause them all to forget whence came all their temporal blessings. 'The love of money is the root of all evil.' The getting of money is legitimate if it is spent for the good of humanity; if not it becomes a curse. Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God when thy silver and thy gold are multiplied.

Jesus taught that life consisted not in the abundance of things which a man possessed. True religion is more than a code of morals. It is the life of love and sacrifice for the benefit of others. All giving involves love, sacrifice, and self denial on the part of the giver. 'God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son,' etc. Nothing so helps a man to grow in Grace and the knowledge of Jesus Christ as giving. It is a joy to watch the sinners and penur-lous man open up his heart and really discover the true secret of life. Giving affects character. We are responsible to God for all our actions for every idle word and deed. If our whole attitude of life is one of withholding then we are going to present that kind of a character to God in the last day when all the hidden things shall be made manifest. Often the best result of giving is the effect on the giver.

"Give and it shall be given unto you, good measure pressed down, and shaken together and running over, shall men give unto your bosom." For with the same measure ye mete with it shall be measured to you again. The poet Emerson says that "Life consists in benefit," and then asks which receives the greater benefit the one who gives or the one who receives. Jesus Christ has answered that satisfactorily to all consecrated Christian men and women. It is more blessed to give than to receive. Freely ye have received, freely give, without looking for any return. When thou makest a feast call in the poor, the maimed, the halt and the blind, etc. For what reason? Because says Jesus, they cannot recompense you.

"Giving by God's people should be considered an act of worship. It is as acceptable to God as an act of prayer or praise. One cannot develop a symmetrical Christian life if he fails to contribute of his means. Our godliness is measured largely by our stewardship to the Master. The inexhaustible resources of God are only promised to those who adopt God's program.

"But the question comes back to each one of us, 'When shall we give?' Again the New Testament must be our final authority. 'Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give, not grudgingly, not of necessity; because God loveth a hilarious giver.' When shall we give? 'Upon the first day of the week, let every one of you lay by in store, as God hath prospered him,' etc. Shall the poor give? Yes, most certainly. Why should the poor be deprived of that blessing? The poor widow threw into the treasury two mites which comprised her entire living and was commended for it by her Lord. There is scarcely anyone but what could give five or ten cents a week to his or her Lord if there was manifested the spirit of sacrifice. How much shall we give? Give as much as you can. Give adequately in proportion to the need at hand. If a man were starving you would not think of offering him a cracker, would you had abundance of bread in your home. Some men ought to give more than the tithe, others less. Many could give twenty-five percent of their income and never miss it. The Jews gave a tenth of their income and more, but they were poorer as a class than we are today. Jesus endorsed the tithe but not as a statutory enactment. He told the Pharisees that they ought to have tithed and not to have left the ministrations of the poor out of their program. The tithe is the only sure way of giving God what belongs to Him. We have not taken the matter of giving seriously enough as yet. Why not put God to the test and find out whether He will do what He said. This principle adopted, may bring the great religious expansion and awakening for which we long.

In conclusion let us hear the end of the whole matter. 'Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.' Ye are cursed with a curse. For ye have robbed me, even this whole nation. Bring ye all the tithes unto the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of Hosts if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.'—Mal. 3: 8-10. Everything belongs to God because he made the world and all things therein. The cattle on a thousand hills are His. If this be so, then not only does one tenth go to Him, but everything which we have, for we have been bought with a price.

We had the pleasure of hearing a splendid sermon Sunday evening by the Rev. Mr. Cross of the Presbyterian church. He took for his text "The Excellency of Things Ordinary." Rev. Cross has a pleasing way of getting the interest of the young folks with a story or two and it is also a good way to get close to the older hearers. And his sermon had the beauty of simplicity throughout. Beautiful word pictures and rhetoric above the common people seems to be the modern minister's way, but we are glad Wayne ministers are content to give us good wholesome truths in simple language and it is always a pleasure to visit the various churches after a hard week in the grind and we take away something to help brighten the busy days.

Following is an outline of Rev. Cross' sermon:

"When the Israelites, on the desert were faced by the specter of Starvation, God worked the miracle of the Manna. When the people came to the Promised land, manna ceased.

"1. There is a Divine agency wisely providing for man according to man's circumstances.

"The greatest help God gives us is when He helps us to help ourselves. God needs us and we need God; the tenure of land and life is essentially mortal.

"2. The natural and proper place for us is to find God is in the commonplace of every day life. Perhaps no man knows God till he sees Him in common things and realizes His presence in field and forest. Providence has as much to do with the ripening fields of corn as with the manna miracle and any common field may be as full of Heaven as is a feast of angels.

"The bigger thought of God does not demand frequent manifestations of the marvelous and the miraculous. Judging from what we know of His earth-life, I should expect to find the Savior of mankind in the wheatfield and meadow and where little children play and where are those who need our assistance.

"They lost the manna and gained the Promised land. There is no higher good attainable without the loss of a lesser good. The wise and good person is willing to turn his back on Galilee and face toward Jerusalem."

To make the great thought of the sermon clear Rev. Cross told a dream he had one time. It seems that he had been wishing that he had lived in Jesus' time, and had gone to dreamland with the thought on his mind and he dreamed that Jesus was on a throne in Jerusalem; a beautiful throne of gold and he traveled over land and sea to see for himself this Master of Men whom he had learned to love. When he arrived at the crest of a hill overlooking the city of Jerusalem he saw a great multitude crowded about Jesus but he made his way close enough to hear the message. And he was amazed to hear Him say, "Go home, you can find Jesus anywhere. He is with you always. Go back to your work with the assurance that you have but to seek and you will find Him." And the thought thru the sermon was to the effect that we lose golden opportunities each day to make God's love a blessing to some one's life. We are looking for worlds to conquer when we have our personal fight with the ordinary things every day.

We would like to give the entire sermon but can use only enough to give Rev. Cross' idea that it is the ordinary things in everyday life that really should count. People who dream of a tomorrow are losing sight of today and are blind to the opportunities all along life's pathway. The heart you cause to ache today by your unkindness and thoughtlessness is not going to be happy tomorrow just because you may wait until then to awaken to your responsibilities. Remember that success spells mastery of one's self. Position, wealth and power will make no difference in God's eyes unless love of your fellow man and love of God's teachings have found a place in the heart. Do the ordinary things as He would have them done and begin TODAY, tomorrow will take care of itself.

Rev. W. M. Purce of Norfolk, an Episcopal missionary, held services at the home of Mrs. R. B. Judson Monday evening. He preached a very interesting sermon on "Personal Religion." And it seemed good to hear the teachings of the Episcopal church once more. Quite a number of people were out to hear him and it was decided to begin Sunday school next Sunday, September 23. Every child at Wayne who is of Episcopal parents and every child who is not in the habit of attending Sunday school elsewhere is most cordially invited to come and help to organize this school. The meeting will be held at the R. B. Judson home. It is also planned to hold a mission week later and it is hoped by the members of that church at Wayne to be able to hold regular services at least once a month or oftener if possible during the fall and winter.

UNITED STATES LEAST IN DEBT

An Exchange says: The national debt of the allies range from $27 to $160 for each inhabitant, while that of the United States is only $11.

In view of the fact that a new liberty loan is among the probabilities of the near future, these figures have significance. They teach us that our Uncle Samuel is really rich, a plutocrat, in fact; and not only that, but that he has no poor kin. His children, too, are prosperous and out of debt.

In fact many of our brothers and cousins are veritable Crosses. They have been protected and encouraged in the pleasant pursuit of the dollar until their coffers are full to overflowing. Uncle Sam has been to them a most indulgent guardian. He has smiled as they piled up their dollars, asking only that they contribute to his modest needs and allowing them to keep the lion's share.

The ancient Hebrew gave the tithe of his increase to the God who prospered the labors of his hands and granted the increase of his herds and his fields. And he thought himself not at all ill used at that.

But remember that the Hebrew gave "as the Lord had prospered him." Are Americans going to do as well?

Are the representatives of Big Business ready to give as they have been prospered? Where they have amassed millions, will they give in proportion? Special stress was laid on the effort to make the last loan a "popular" loan. Those whom the "Lord had prospered" were not importuned.

The next loan is up to the Midases, the Crosses, the favored sons of an indulgent parent. Will they rise to the occasion and prove that their wealth is in worthy hands?

Big Business, it is up to you. Of what mettle are you made?

LAUREL AND VICINITY HAVE A HOME GUARDS COMPANY

Some sixty men met at the Auditorium Thursday evening and organized a home Guards Company. F. P. Voter, who had been appointed by the Council of Defense as committeeman for Laurel and vicinity, called the meeting to order, stated its object and what was expected of the Home Guards. J. R. Durrie was elected chairman and F. P. Voter secretary. All those present were enthusiastic for the organization, and 55 signed their names to the oath. The following officers were then elected:

R. E. Nunemaker, Captain.
C. A. Morten, First Lieutenant.
Albert Andersen, Second Lieutenant.
These names as the officers of the company have been certified to Governor Neville, who will issue them commissions as such.—Laurel Advocate.

TREATING OATS

In demonstration tests conducted by R. H. Camp, county agricultural agent of Thurston county, in co-operation with seven farmers, it was found this year that treating oats for smut saved 7.3 bushels of oats an acre. Only a trace of smut was found in fields in which treated seed was sown; while in fields where untreated seed was sown, 3 to 10 per cent of smut was found. Treating for smut costs but 5 cents an acre. In these tests, treated and untreated seed were sown in adjoining fields. In estimating the percentage of smut, a barrel hoop was thrown out into the different parts of the field, the smutted and the unsmutted heads counted, and the percentage calculated.

HIGH SCHOOL DEMOCRACY

A splendid spirit is reported to have characterized the student body at the Lincoln high school as it met for the new year's work this week. That is the more gratifying because of the new condition under which the school is to work this year. The long deferred disbandment of high school fraternities is required this year. This puts the loyalty of a large body of students to the test. The fraternities have persisted thus far in spite of a state law against them. The members enter the school this year avowing their present and future freedom from these associations. A good spirit at the high school now probably means that the new order is being cheerfully acquiesced in.

The improvement in high school life and work which this involves, is no mere matter of guesswork. The statistics of scholarship and school attendance which the school board has published, ought to be a death blow to the high school fraternity by parental intervention even though there were no rule of the state or of the school authorities against it. Twice as much tardiness by fraternity as by non-fraternity members; a third more absence; over twice as many "flunks"; only a little more than half as many grades above 90; such is the doleful record. If students go to school for education, the conclusion is obvious. It is hard to conceive of a parent willing, in the face of that showing, to permit his son to belong to a high school fraternity.

With the cheerful renunciation of the fraternity there will be further improvements in the spirit of the high school. Simplified social life, with corresponding democratic reductions in school expenses, will naturally follow. Loyalty to the school will tend to supplant loyalty to an inner circle. And out of that should grow the broader loyalty of the citizen which is so much needed in place of the gang spirit which has been the curse of American political life.—State Journal.

Peter Lazybones one day saw a fitney come his way. Man invited him to ride; Peter took a seat inside, and away they went, indeed, at a rather breakneck speed. Peter's homestead was remote and swift travel got his goat. Long the miles had borne him down, slow but sure from farm to town, and as slowly hauled him back from the village to the shack. Took him nearly half a day for the journey either way. "Gosh all hemlock," muttered Pete, "here is where I save my feet. I'm a-goin' to have a car I can ride in every-whar. And on Sundays we can start if Samantha does her part, at 9:30 from the barn, and arrive there like a darn; and then get back home, you see, anywhere from two to three." Back came Peter that same night with a brand new car all right, which he thought that he could run just as well as anyone. First he took Samantha out for a little spin about—but he brought her from out doors in good time to do the chores. Then alone o'er hills and draws, "nicest work that ever was," thus said Peter as he went on his joyride, well content. Hay that should be stacked! Ah, well, everything could wait a spell. So he flivvered all next day, and forgot about the hay. Second morn he woke and wept; rain had fallen while he slept and destroyed about ten tons of alfalfa, sure as guns. Peter said it was "a shame, and Samantha was to blame." Weariness o'ertook him soon and he slept the whole forenoon.—Bixby.

A preacher came at a newspaper man in this way: You editors do not tell the truth. If you did you could not live; your newspaper would be a failure. The editor replied: You are right, and the minister who will at all times and under all circumstances tell the whole truth about his members, alive or dead, will not occupy his pulpit more than one Sunday, and then he will find it necessary to leave town in a hurry. The press and the pulpit go hand in hand with whitewash brushes and pleasant words magnifying little virtues into big ones. The pulpit, the pen, the grave stone are the great saint-making triumvirate. And the great minister went away looking very thoughtful while the editor turned to his work and told of the unsurpassing beauty of the bride; while in fact she was homely as a mud fence.—Ex.

FOR BETTER ROADS

D. J. Malone, president of the Pierce Commercial club, was at Creighton on Monday and represented Pierce in connection with the marking of the public automobile highway between Omaha and the Yellowstone National park. Harry Kreuzfeldt, Osmond and W. L. Mote of Plainview represented their towns. The Commercial club of Omaha was represented and the towns of Pierce, Osmond, Plainview, Creighton, Winner, Verdigré, Red Bird, Lynch, and a number of other places, had representatives in attendance. A most interesting meeting was held. The object of this meeting was to lay out the Black Hills Trail, and we are gratified to state that the Meridian road in Pierce county will run thru Pierce, Osmond, Breslau, Plainview, and to five miles west of that town, thence north to Creighton and up to the Black Hills and on to the Yellowstone National Park.

This Meridian road means much to the towns of Pierce county. In the course of a year there are an unlimited number of automobiles passing thru these towns and the business coming therefrom is enormous. The people of Pierce county should realize what this traffic means to them and to make it a point to see that the roads of our county are in as good condition as it is possible to make them. Any one who has traveled over the roads in Pierce county knows that there is room for great improvement in the highways.—Pierce County Leader.

Santee Agency Discontinued

Word reaches us here that the government has decided to discontinue the agency for the Santee Indians at Santee and the business will be transferred to Greenwood. Supt. Chas. E. Burton has been transferred to Fort Belknap, Montana, which is also in the nature of a promotion. L. B. Crew and County Attorney Peterson went to Santee today to investigate the feasibility of taking over the land and buildings from the government to be utilized as a poor farm for Knox county and to make a report to the Knox county board which will be in session at Center next Tuesday. It is probable the board will endeavor to take action in acquiring the former agency. There remain a number of Indians whom it may be necessary to sustain and the data available is insufficient to warrant action until the matter has been investigated, about 160 acres of land and numerous substantial buildings comprise the agency proper and if the feasibility of acquiring the property by the county is substantiated in the investigation it is presumed that concerted effort will be made to acquire the entire project.—Creighton News.

We see nothing wrong in the proposition that those who enjoy superlative wealth should pay large sums into the treasury. A man with a $1,000,000 income is being treated fair enough when the government takes only half of it during war times. When a nation is in a death struggle, and young men are offering their lives; what could be more equitable than those who have surplus money should supply the government generously. And who is it that must have more than $500,000 a year. The taxation of incomes is a just tax, because it places proportionate burdens upon the people. A struggler pays little because he has little to spare. Affluence business men pay not on their business capital, but on their annual income. So long as they are left enough to live on they have no just ground of complaint—in war time people should not expect to save much money—they do well if they support their government and continue to live in the face of present conditions.—Madison Star-Mail.

The Monitor wishes that every editor in the state could read an article in the Saturday evening Post, under date of September 3, entitled "What We Have Seen," by Grace Ellery Channing. If they did so, and read it with a full understanding of its entire significance in regard to a higher plane of world civilization, we are quite sure there would be fewer dreamers who still pretend to believe the Prussianized German language to be a cultural asset in our public schools.—Bloomfield Monitor.

Married

Mr. Austen Bressler of Wayne county and Miss May Neligh, a daughter of Ed Neligh, who has been making her home at Wisner, were united in marriage by the Rev. L. J. Powell on Tuesday afternoon. The ceremony took place at Grace Lutheran church.—Westpoint Democrat.

TWO GIRLS

As I was walking down the street,
A little girl I chanced to meet.
Her hat was trimmed with ostrich plumes,
Entwined with rhododendron blooms,
Her gloves they were immaculate,
And I should judge a perfect fit;
The stylish skirt that matched her waist,
Was in the very best of taste;
Her dainty boots, I must concede,
Were very, very smart indeed.
Her face? Well, now, I couldn't say;
Perhaps her veil was in the way.
I didn't notice—and, what's more,
I only thought of what she wore!

As I was walking up the street,
Another girl I chanced to meet.
No hat adorned her lovely hair,
Her dimpled arms and hands were bare;
But heavenly blue was in her eyes—
She seemed an angel from the skies.
The dogwood blossoms in her arms,
But added to her many charms;
And, oh, the sunshine of her smile!
Its sweetness made life seem worth while.
Her dress? Well, now, I couldn't say;
I didn't notice anyway.
I only saw her face—no more,
I never thought of what she wore.

GAS IN SILOS DANGEROUS
Death lurks in the carbon dioxide gas formed when silage passes thru the process of fermentation, especially in pit silos, says the agricultural engineering department of the University of Nebraska.
Carbon dioxide is transparent, heavier than air, flows over the ground like water, and collects in the low places. Pit silos are very dangerous during the first few weeks after filling. After starting to put in the corn, one should never enter a pit silo without first testing for gas by lowering a lighted lantern. If the flame goes out, gas is present. Remove this by means of air currents.

ARTICLES OF INTEREST FROM THE GOLDENROD

The Young Woman's Christian Association stands at the beginning of another year. The possibilities of this year are many, perhaps more than those of many of the years that are past. With these possibilities come many responsibilities. We must work along different lines in some cases. We must not shirk the common tasks to do this but must consider the new as added work.

In order to make the coming year highly successful we need the co-operation of every girl in the weekly religious meetings, in the Bible study, in our good times and especially in our war work, which will be explained more fully later. To show your co-operation come to our meetings and social functions and if possible join the Association.

Miss Josephine Mack has been improving her property on Logan street by remodeling her house. Miss Sara J. Killen will make her home this year at Miss Mack's. Her little niece Mary Louise Killen of Lincoln, will stay with her and attend the public school.

Miss Rachel Fairchild has rooms at the home of Mrs. A. H. Ellis; Miss Edith Stocking and Miss Alwine Luers at S. D. Relyea's; Miss Edith Beichel and Miss Jessie Jenks at Scace's; Miss Agnes Finigan and Miss Alma Fritchoff at Fortner's and Miss Elizabeth Betcher at the home of Mrs. Brockway.

Miss Elizabeth Kingsbury reports a delightful trip to Denver, Colorado Springs, Estes Park and other interesting points in the Rockies in the company of Miss Etta R. Spier of North Carolina, who taught in our Normal last summer. Auto trips thru canyons and over mountains culminated in the ascent of Pike's Peak by the fine new auto road and made a trip never to be forgotten. The remaining three weeks of vacation were spent by Miss Kingsbury with her brother's family in Ithaca, N. Y. Miss Spier spent some time with her sister's family in New York City and at New Jersey watering places.

The Training school opened Monday morning with the regular teachers in charge and a full attendance as follows:
Kindergarten ..... 16
Primary ..... 25
Intermediate ..... 31
Grammar ..... 27
Junior High ..... 41
Total ..... 140

One pleasing addition to the Training school building is a change in the front stairs, while, on the inside stairs, the rubber matting adds much to comfort.

Considerable interest is shown in the study of French at the Normal this year. Miss Kingsbury reports a beginners' class of twenty, and some inquiry as to a second year class. While the enrollment in the German classes has fallen off greatly, it has not been felt necessary at the Normal to discontinue the study of German.

The next issue of the Goldenrod will be under the management of the newly appointed editor, Miss Dorothy Huse, the associate editor, Miss Anna B. Nielson and the business manager, John D. Hash.

HAVE COWS FRESHEN IN COOL WEATHER

The breeding of cows during September, October and the first half of November is not good practice, because cows bred at this time freshen in June July and the first half of August, says the dairy husbandry department of the College of Agriculture. At this time, poor pastures, heat, and flies cause rapid falling off of milk flow.

The best time to have cows calve is in October and November, as they will then give the largest flow when prices for milk products are highest and they are nearly dry when hot weather comes. To calve at this time, cows must be bred between December 20 and February 20.

This chart shows the extraordinary increase in long distance calls in the Bell Telephone System caused by war activities.

This year—15,000,000 long distance telephone calls per month.

Before the war—11,600,000 calls per month.

Over 30% more long distance calls are made now than were made in time of world peace.

You can help us meet these unusual demands upon our facilities by making no unnecessary local or long distance calls.

SOCIAL NOTES

Tomorrow evening the Young People's societies of the various churches of Wayne will entertain the students of the Normal in the class rooms of the different churches. Refreshments will be served and a general get-together meeting will be held. This is a move in the right direction and will no doubt help the students to feel at home. If the churches would pull together more they would accomplish more for the public good. Wayne churches have a wonderful influence in the lives of the young folks who come here to study each year and the kindly pastors who extend them a royal welcome have surely God's love in their hearts.

The Monday club gave a theatre party Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. L. A. Kiplinger who is leaving for the east soon. Mrs. K. has been a very faithful member of the Monday club and she was presented with a silver fork as a slight remembrance. After enjoying the movies the party went to Roberts' Drug store where Mrs. T. W. Moran, president of the club presented the party with ice cream. Other members treated with popcorn and peanuts and candy. The ladies had a very pleasant evening. Mrs. E. O. Miller of Portland, Oregon, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. O. R. Bowen was an out of town guest.

Last Saturday evening the Bible Circle girls were entertained at the home of Mrs. E. B. Young with a six o'clock luncheon. After dinner they went to the Gilbert home where a homecoming meeting was held, it being the first meeting after vacation. A goodly number of young folks attended and the visiting students especially were made welcome. The young ladies have taken great interest in the study of the Bible and expect to have many pleasant and profitable times this winter. The next meeting will be with Miss Opal Robbins, Saturday evening at 7:30.

Shirley Sprague was given a party Monday evening at his bachelor home north of Wayne when about twenty of his friends walked in and proceeded to make merry. A weiner roast took up the time of the guests and they also toasted marshmallow and finished up on apples. A very jolly time was had and no doubt Shirley will think of the "good old bachelor days" if he lives up to the report of Madam Gosselin, takes unto himself a wife. The party returned to town in the wee sma' hours and tell us they had a splendid time.

In Honor of Lee Smith
Last Monday evening a group of neighbors of Lee Smith, one of the soldiers who left for training last Wednesday morning, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Malmberg and gave him a farewell reception.
After a social hour spent in playing various games a delicious luncheon was served. In behalf of those gathered, Mrs. E. M. Laughlin presented Mr. Smith with a fountain pen which he is to use to send word when he has ended the kaiser.

The Central Social Circle met with Mrs. John Grier last Thursday and had a very enjoyable afternoon. Each guest gave a short talk on some topic pertaining to school work. Mrs. Margaret Grier and Mrs. Clara Lessman were guests. All members except two were present. Mrs. Grier served a very elaborate two-course buffet luncheon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Geo. McCachon, October 11.

The first meeting of the D. A. R. for the season was held at the home of Mrs. Ray Reynolds Saturday afternoon and they took up their work where they laid it down in the spring. The summer vacation has given them a rest and they are more enthusiastic than ever in their order. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Reynolds assisted by Mrs. Cora B. Ellis. The next meeting will be with Mrs. V. L. Dayton, October 6.

The primary class of the Presbyterian church enjoyed a picnic at the city park Saturday afternoon. About thirty kiddies were present with their teachers, Mrs. A. A. Welch, Mrs. C. A. McMaster, Mrs. C. H. Fisher and Miss Loraine McIntosh. The afternoon was spent playing games and at 5:30 a picnic supper was served.

Today the Helping Hand society met with Mrs. Ray Durant. A dinner will be served at noon and the ladies will devote the afternoon to sewing and visiting. This being the first meeting after a month's vacation the ladies have not planned a regular program as they expect to have the balance of the year.

Douglas King Chapter D. A. R. will entertain at a silver fork on Tuesday afternoon, September 25, at 3 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Carroll Orr. An invitation is extended to all ladies to come and bring their knitting and spend a social afternoon. The silver collection will be used for the Red Cross work of the chapter.

The Bible circle ladies met with Mrs. Wm. Beckenhauer Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was presided over by Miss Elsie Gilbert. Mrs. P. C. Crockett led the lesson study. The ladies have decided to hold their meetings afternoons instead of evenings as heretofore. The next meeting will be with Mrs. I. C. Trumbauer, Tuesday, September 25.
The Y. M. C. A. entertained the students of the Gymnasium at the Normal Wednesday evening. Games and folk dances helped to make up a very merry one. Refreshments were served. Everything is being done to make the students feel at home in our little city and to make their stay with us profitable and pleasant.
The Queen Esthers met in social session with Miss Madeline Bohnert Tuesday. It is planned to take up Red Cross work at the social meetings this winter. Refreshments were served.
The Minerva Club will meet with Mrs. Dan McCachon Monday, September 24 at her country home. A musical program has been planned and a luncheon will be served.

SCHOOL NOTES
New pupils are Marie Courtright, and Mary Louise Killen in the eighth grade, and Leroy Sherbahn in the tenth.
Many high school girls and the faculty registered September 12th. Girls who are not yet old enough to show their willingness to do their bit regretted their being unable to register.
Recent visitors were Rev. S. X. Cross, Miss Elizabeth Taylor, Miss Sara Killen, Geraldine Johnson, Mrs. Edward Paul, and Misses Elizabeth Mines, Helen Main, Marsaline Lewis, and Beulah James.
The Tuesday and Thursday evening gymnasium classes organized by superintendent Armstrong are becoming very popular with the boys. Plans have been made for basketball for both boys and girls, and gymnasium classes will be organized for the girls.
Four of the second contingent of drafted men to leave for camp were former Wayne high school boys. These were John Ahern, J. M. Strahan, Max Ash and Irven Sala. Wayne High school is proud to be so well represented and sends best wishes with the boys as they go.
Plans for issuing the first number of this year's Watchword are well under way. Miss Virginia Bowen who last year was elected associate editor is now editor in chief; and Knox Jones who was assistant business manager assumes the place of business manager. A recent election resulted in the election of Ralph Carhart as associate editor and Marlon Surber assistant business manager. Class editors remain to be chosen. The staff hopes to make the Watchword better than ever.

DRINK PLENTY OF WATER
As the hot weather ends people are apt to cut down on one of the essentials of diet, and the cheapest one—water. The body can stand fasting for weeks. But death ensues if it goes without water for more than about five days. More than half of the body is made up of water, and plenty of fluid is necessary to preserve it in a healthy condition.
—Not only does water wash out waste material and supply a necessary ingredient for the body, but it also provides the fluid medium for the chemical process of digestion. Foods are absorbed better when in solution with plenty of water. This fact disposes of the old superstition that water should not be drunk at meals. Experiments have shown that copious water drinking at meals is, if anything, beneficial.
So water drinking should not be slighted just because cooler weather has quieted the thirst of summer. There is no danger in drinking too much. All danger is the other way.—Kansas City Star.
CARD OF THANKS
We take this opportunity to express our appreciation and heartfelt thanks to the kind friends and neighbors for the many acts of assistance and evidences of sympathy extended to us in our hour of bereavement. Such deeds lessen the burdens of grief, and aid us in bearing our sorrow, and fill our hearts with gratitude.
