WAYNE COUNTY PEOPLE OBSERVE PERSHING DAY

Wayne had one of the largest celebrations in its history Friday afternoon when our new flag pole and service flag were dedicated. The day was General Pershing's birthday and the two events were fittingly observed by a splendid program. The pole failing to arrive caused a disappointment but the celebration never lacked in its enthusiasm and the flag, with its 400 stars, was there, a blaze of glory and a delight to all. Many people from over the county were here and our own people turned out in a mass.

The Welch band of Carroll, our dependable allies, were on hand and furnished music for the occasion. The Victory sextet, also from Carroll, a general favorite with Wayne people, responded to our call and their selections furnished the pep and vim for the occasion. One of their number is across the pond but the others sang with a pleasing harmony and every one of their numbers was a hummer.

A large platform was built over the spot where the pole will be erected and the speakers occupied seats there. Rev. S. X. Cross presided at the meeting in his usually pleasant manner.

Rev. Jorden of the Baptist church offered the prayer, and before the speaking proper began President U. S. Conn of the Normal was asked to explain the opportunities for the young men to enter training at some school, and get regular soldier pay and rations, and yet have much time to devote to other school work, thus better fitting themselves for a more important part in the war work. With the vast number to be recruited within the next few months, there is much need for men trained as much as they may be for the different official positions, and it is indeed such an opportunity as comes but to few in their lives. The opportunity is to fit ones self to be of greater service, and at the same time have advantages of the school in other branches.

Rev. E. J. T. Connelly was the speaker of the day. Rev. Connelly is a splendid speaker, an earnest, devoted, red-blooded American. His address was one of the best ever heard at Wayne. He gave the fellow who has little time for reading an insight into things as they really are. Facts, plain, simple, burning with eloquent fire seldom equalled, poured into the hearts of his listeners. He held the attention of everyone present during his entire speech. He said he could talk twenty-four hours and his hearers called "Go on." He spoke but an hour, however, but from the learned down to the least favored of his audience, he had a message for all. His personal magnetism, his interesting, diplomatic method of handling the pro-German side of the question, put everyone at their ease and the writer noticed several people of German decent near who drank in every word and when the speaker said the Hun would think H—ll a summer resort after the Sammies got through with them, these people applauded earnestly.

Rev. Connelly has traveled much about the camps where our boys are learning the art of perfect soldiering, and his word picture used in describing the different groups of boys, were most beautiful. The writer appreciated most, perhaps, the Nebraska boy, "from the sunny plains of our fair state; cheeks browned from the out-door life of the farmer lad, honest face and smiling eyes—there can be no better material in the army." And one more brought a quick appreciation "the western youth, fresh from the mountain country, clean, straight, manly, with the breath of the pine lingering on his clothing."

This man sent his hearers home with their hearts full of patriotism, fanned into a flame by the fire of his eloquence. Hearing a man of this sort cannot fail to broaden a man, make him bigger, better, and it is such as he who sacrifices much to be with our boys in the camps and over there, and to give of his time and money to such occasions as these.

ATTENTION REGISTRANTS

Upon receiving your questionnaire study it carefully and answer the questions so far as possible. Then go to some member of the legal advisory board for assistance on questions you do not understand, and completion of the questionnaire. Such is absolutely necessary in order for the board to complete the work within the limited time. There are members of the legal advisory board in every town. Fred S. Berry, Chairman.

WHERE THE PREACHERS LOCATE

Monday noon the annual conference of the M. E. church of Nebraska came to a close when the appointments were made, assigning to the different pastors their home for the coming conference year.

They decided not to longer consider the federated church a good thing for Methodism, and made no arrangements to longer consider that as one of the church questions. They will ask an additional $35,000 with which to build an extension to the Methodist hospital at Omaha. They favor an extension and continuation of the Brotherhood system. They will hold their next annual convention at University Place, the same as this year. The appointments in our district follow:

V. L. DAYTON SELLS FARM

Last week J. Hale from Randolph came to look for a good farm near Wayne that his children might be at home and attend college, and has purchased the V. L. Dayton 120, three miles east of Wayne, paying therefore the sum of $250 per acre, which is twice the sum paid for the place by Mr. Dayton seven years ago. Of course, this increase does not near all represent a bonus to the owner, for during that time he has added much improvement in building, fencing, waterworks, and bringing the land to a much better state of cultivation.

Mr. Dayton was not planning to sell, and did not have the place listed, and consequently has made no plans for his future—but will probably look for another farm in this vicinity, for he will not feel right since living in this land in any place not its equal.

FIVE BOYS TO TRAINING

Wednesday morning five more of the young men of this county went to the training camps and schools, under the conscription act. They are as follows. The usual farewell program was given at the court house Tuesday afternoon, and as many as could attended to give them a pleasant memory of home people:

Alexander Christian Gabler, Claude Ross, McConoughey, Harold R. Gildersleeve, Manhattan, Kansas.

To Camp Funston, John Fred Gottsch.
For Camp Dodge, James Edward Miles.

THE BREEDERS' BOOSTER TRIP

October 8, is the day set for the people who will visit a lot of the farms in this county, and see what they are raising in the way of good stock. There is to be a meeting of the members of the association Tuesday, September 24, to make additional plans, map the route and decide where to visit. If the day and roads shall prove to be good October 8, there will be a large number make the trip.

Notice About Conserving Paper

The pledge is asked of this paper, and every other newspaper in the land to conserve paper—and while the publisher is free to sign or not as he wishes, unless he signs he can get no paper. One of the rules for the conservation of paper is to discontinue sending free papers, exchanges unless within a 40-mile radius, and also not to send papers unless paid for in advance. We have some in this latter class yet, though a number have read their label and heeded the notice in the last issue—but there are others. We may be able to give a week yet, perhaps two weeks—but you should not ask it—you should show appreciation of credit extended and help us keep the spirit and the letter of the ruling without loss of money or patronage. Trusting that those in arrears on subscription accounts will be prompt.

We are yours for World Democracy,

GARDNER & WADE, Publishers.

SUGGESTIONS TO WAR SAVING STAMP SOCIETIES

J. G. W. Lewis went to district No. 56, near Carroll last Friday evening to assist in a war saving stamp meeting. Mr. Lewis reports from his experience in several places in the county, a perfectly loyal spirit on the part of the people and a willingness to do what is asked of them in the matter, but he also finds that there is considerable perplexity as to what to do.

In the opinion of Mr. Lewis the most feasible thing to do after organizing the society, is to make its meetings, community meetings in which the people get together for neighborhood intercourse, somewhat as they used to do in the old-time lyceum or literary society.

At these meetings, the people of the district or community may discuss current events, listen to patriotic addresses, or listen to programs provided by the school children of the district.

The meeting then can also be made the occasion for casting up results in the matter of war stamps purchased, or the occasion of getting new members. Some of these meetings can also be timed to coincide with Liberty loan meetings or Red Cross work.

It would seem that these meetings should very materially assist in arousing the people to greater conservation of all resources, besides materially increasing the amounts of money loaned to our government.

Then too, these meetings may acquaint the people with the great issues before them, which are to be fought out in every country after the Hohenzollerns have been vanquished. No other agencies could be more effective than these centers of democratic awakening.

All our best thinkers agree that the defeat of German autocracy will be only half the battle. The rest of the battle will be to put the people in control of their governments everywhere and keep them in control. Will the people study the issues so that they may recognize their true friends and the far-sighted policies amid the bewilderment of short-sighted leadership and demagoguery?

SAFELY OVER AND

A LETTER BACK

Warren Shultheis has been across long enough to get word back to home folks, according to a verbal report from his mother. He had an uneventful voyage of twelve days, and was not much seasick. They awoke one morning with land in sight all round, and while he could not spell out the names of the places, it was inferred from what he said that they were in the waters between Ireland, England and Scotland, and expected to soon be in London. He said the scenery was fine—at any rate it looked fine after a time on the water where there was no land in sight. It was good news to have the personal assurance that all were well on the ship.

C. CLASSEN GETS CALL

C. Clasen, who has had application in for some time for over-seas Y. M. C. A. work, and who has successfully passed the required examination, and has been given his final papers, and told to be ready for a call about October 10 to 15 for sailing. Mr. Clasen is enthusiastic and anxious to go, and with nothing more in the way, will probably be called within a month.

JUSTICE TO ALL—FAVORITISM TO NONE

The reason why more than 13,000,000 men were registered in one day for military service in the United States, with not a riot anywhere and no protest from any one, was because the plan showed no partiality. No matter how high his station, or how many millions the man was worth, he had no favor shown him, and he stood in that regard on an exact equality with the day laborer. The whole people recognized the equal and exact justice of the law and immediately submitted to its requirements.

Any effort on the part of men in important industrial positions to secure deferred classification must meet the test of the following official rule:

"That any such person must be prepared to convince his district board (1) that the particular enterprise in which he is working is necessary to the maintenance of the military establishment, or the effective operation of the military forces or the maintenance of national interest during the emergency, and (2), that he himself is necessary to the operation of the enterprise."

Another thing that commends the law to the common people is that the execution of it is wholly in the hands of civilians; not a military officer has anything to do with it. It is only when these civilian boards have made their decision, and there is an attempt to disobey, that the military take action. The whole law is a demonstration of the democratic axiom: "Equal justice to all and favoritism to none."—World-Herald.

GRAIN STACKS BURNED

Monday a call for help was sent to Wayne from the Oscar Johnson place about six miles north, as a setting of grain stacks had caught fire from the machine, and were burning and endangering the buildings near by. The fire chief and a few men handy belonging to the volunteer department were at once on the truck and hitting the high places only between town and the farm. The machine had been pulled away to a safe place, and the fires on the stacks could not be stopped of course, but the equipment was there to stop the flames from spreading. All unthreshed grain in the setting was lost, but the straw of what had been threshed did not burn.

Three stacks of wheat and two of oats were burned, and the estimated loss is not less than $500, which was partially covered by insurance.

OUR LIBERTY LOAN ACTIVITIES

As the time approaches for launching the Fourth Liberty Loan drive in this community, the people selected to take an active part in the work are beginning to "line up" for their part, and it is not asking much that each individual also "line up" and stand ready to cooperate with the different committee members in any manner they may need your aid. The sum to be asked from this community or this county has not yet been announced, but there is small doubt but that it will be over-subscribed and very early in the drive, too.

The women with their organization are preparing to take an important part in the work, and relieve the men of much of the detail of the work, and Mrs. Rollie Ley of our city, who has been named as chairman of the committee of a large district in this corner of the state was at Lincoln last week, and was accompanied by Mrs. A. T. Chapin of Winside, county chairman of the women organization, and attended a meeting of the State Woman's Liberty Loan committee Friday and Saturday. Three distinguished women gave talks. Mrs. Bass of Chicago, the secretary of National Liberty Loan committee, Mrs. George Fuller of Kansas City, chairman of Tenth Federal Reserve district of National Woman's Liberty Loan committee, Mrs. A. G. Peterson of Aurora, state chairman of Woman's Liberty Loan committee.

We are informed that Mrs. C. A. Chace is recommended as chairman of a publicity committee, to act in conjunction with the men who have a committee as well, or are to have committees, and we are told that Rev. S. X. Cross will have the chairmanship of their publicity work, plans for which have been sent out by those higher up. These plans, of course, are merely suggestive, and to each community is left the question of handling the matter much in their own way, and beyond a doubt the good plans sent out will help, but may not all fit the needs of this and every other community.

When the story is told, beyond a doubt, Wayne and Wayne county dollars will be found backing the nearly 500 Wayne county men in the service and training camps. Be ready to do your best, each and every one and it will help to can the Hun.

ENGINE COLLIDES WITH AUTO

A serious accident happened at an early hour Monday morning near Emerson, when an automobile with five people was run into by an engine backing into Emerson. The three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. Griggs and two young men of Thurston were occupants of the car, on their way home from Sioux City where they had been to attend the fair Sunday; Robert Nash, George Merry from Thurston and Misses Lydia, Inis and Fern Griggs were the victims and all were more or less seriously injured. Both Nash and Merry were badly bruised, as was Miss Fern, and Miss Lydia has her spine seriously injured, so that she is unable to walk, and Miss Inis has a broken ankle. Mr. Merry came to Wayne Tuesday, and while he wears his head in a bandage, he is able to be about.

Mr. Merry tells us that they were run into by the engine which was backing toward Emerson, and running without any light on the rear end, so they had no warning until struck. The car was nearly clear of the track, but the hind wheel caught the force of the blow, and the car was thrown to one side and badly wrecked.

SUGAR FOR CANNING

Some people have the idea that they may have all the sugar they want for canning, while others think they are actually limited to a specified amount. Let me say once more, that every family is entitled to just what sugar they actually need to do the maximum amount of canning and preserving on the minimum amount of sugar. This has been my interpretation of the rules all the time and that this is what the federal and state food administrations want, was reiterated at our meeting in Omaha last week.—J. H. Kemp.

FROM THE HOSPITAL

The week has not been a real busy one, but the healing has gone on successfully just the same. Mrs. E. Ferrel, who was taken last week for a major operation was able to return home this week.

Mrs. Carr from Carroll who submitted to an operation as the one last chance for life is able to return home.

Mrs. Chas. Brown for a time quite seriously ill following an operation is gaining daily.

GREAT INTEREST IN THE HANDICAP GOLF TOURNAMENT

The handicap match play tournament now going on among the members of the local golf club is arousing lots of interest. After a series of medal play contests the handicapping committee has a pretty good line on the abilities of the various players and almost every match to date has been won by a very close score. The drawings and the result of some of the matches follow:

Fred Berry-Frank Gaertner.
J. J. Arern-Don Gildersleeve.
Jas. Brittain-J. S. Carhart.
Oscar Liedtke-Roy Carter.
Lloyd Powers-Joe Ringland.
H. B. Craven-J. E. Hufford.
A. A. Welch-Forrest Hughes.
J. H. Kemp-C. H. Fisher.
C. M. Craven-H. H. Hahn.
L. B. McClure-A. T. Cavanaugh.
A. B. Carhart-Von Seggern.
H. S. Ringland-H. Lundberg.
Wm. Rennieck-J. W. Jones.
Dr. Heckert-Dr. McMaster.
A. M. Jacobs-B. F. Strahan.
J. G. Miller-W. E. Jenkins.
F. L. Blair-R. B. Judson.
Frank Gamble-Ray Reynolds.
C. F. Whitney-H. Theobald.
Morgan-W. R. Ellis.
A. R. Davis-Chas. Carhart.
L. W. Carter-J. G. Mines.
McEachen-Senter.
Frank Hughes-R. W. Ley.

Results

Gaertner defeated Fred Berry 2 up and 1 to play.
J. J. Ahern, by default.
Brittain-J. S. Carhart, four down and 2.

Hufford wins from H. B. Craven by default.

F. L. Hughes defeated A. A. Welch. Fisher defeated J. H. Kemp 3 and 2.

C. M. Craven defeated H. H. Hahn 1 down.

McClure from Cavanaugh 2 and 1. Ringland from Lundberg 1 up.

Rennieck defeated J. W. Jones by default.

Jacobs defeated Strahan by default. Ray Reynolds defeated F. Gamble, default.

Frank Whitney-H. Theobald 5 and 4.

Morgan-Ellis, 4 and 3.

L. W. Carter defeated J. G. Mines 7 and 6.

McEachen defeated Senter 3 and 1. Frank Hughes-R. Ley by default.

The following matches should have been played before last Tuesday and in order not to be defaulted must play these matches and the one immediately following before next Tuesday.

Lloyd Powers vs. Joe Ringland.
A. B. Carhart vs. Von Seggern.
Heckert vs. McMaster.
J. G. Miller vs. W. E. Jenkins.
F. L. Blair vs. R. B. Judson.

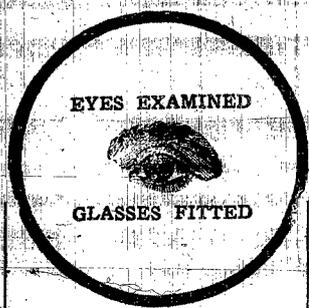

Failure to play your matches on time not only delays your match but the whole tournament and it will be necessary to default those who do not play promptly.

The secretary has received from the U. S. Golf association the trophy won through raising $100 for the Red Cross on July 4. It is on display at the secretary's office.

THE COUNTY COUNCIL OF DEFENSE MET

There was a meeting of the County Council of Defense held this morning and fixed the corn husking price for this county at 7 cents the bushel where the farmer has an elevator, and 8 cents where the loads are to be shoveled. Of course, the council had some other business, and as a result some of those who had been bashful about offering their plenty to the good government which had made it easy for them to gather plenty, were earnestly urged to put their shoulder to the wheel and push—and we are told that they decided that preferable to a trip down to present their objections to the state organization. They are a lot of big-hearted fellows who are almost too busy grabbing dollars to think of the boys over the pond fighting for them, but when their attention is called to the little oversight they are glad to come across—or go across—of two evils as it appears to them, they choose the least. We are sorry that the council deems it best not to publish the names and donations these fellows make—for they are entitled to the credit the same as others but it is to be otherwise. Some more are coming next time or we miss our guess.

John Shannon has bought two cars of cattle from Dean Hanson for delivery here tomorrow at probably the top price ever paid at Wayne—$18.75.

With my modern lens grinding equipment I can duplicate any lens AT ONCE, no matter by whom fitted. Prices reasonable. Work and Service of the Highest Grade.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Ethel Barton, trained nurse, Phone 201.—Adv.

Miss Pearl Madden, who is attending college at Omaha, was home for Saturday and Sunday.

Henry Schmidt and Henry Kreiger went to Wakefield Friday to spend a day at the home of a friend.

Peter Krach of Millard has been here visiting daughter, Mrs. Milo Kremke, and returned home today.

Miss Elsa Mildner left Friday evening for Douglas, Wyoming, where she is to teach school the coming school year.

Wanted—A grocery clerk, steady position, good salary. Apply, The Dixon Mercantile Co., Dixon, Nebraska.—Adv.

Mrs. J. T. Bressler and daughters, Dorothy and Mrs. Wm. Von Segger and her children were Sioux City visitors Saturday.

Mrs. W. J. Crosser from Bloomfield visited here Thursday last with her daughter, Mrs. Gordon Becker, while on her way to visit her father near Omaha.

Miss Angelina Funk of Bloomfield, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mitchell Saturday between trains, while on her way to visit friends at Sioux City.

Mrs. Geo. Rohwer was called to Sioux City last Friday by the illness of a daughter, who was taken to a hospital at that place for an appendix operation.

Miss Bessie Durle left Sunday on a vacation trip, and plans to visit several places of interest in the state west of this, and will also visit a brother at Saratoga, Wyoming.

Dr. Young's Dental Office over the First National Bank. Phone 307.—Adv.—23-ft.

Bert Hyatt, wife and all of the children went to Sioux City Monday to take in the fair. Bert said it was no more than right to give the little folks a chance to see sights once in a season.

Jos. Coleman, who has been spending about two weeks here with headquarters at his father's Patrick Coleman, departed Friday morning for Vermillion, South Dakota, and after a few days there, will return to his home at Everett, Washington.

Mrs. D. C. Main and daughter, Helen, went to Lincoln the first of the week, where the young lady will attend school the coming school year; and it is possible that the mother will rent an apartment there and with the other daughter spend the school year at Lincoln.

Bev. Strahan was an Omaha visitor the first of the week.

C. E. Sprague was at York and other places in the south part of the state the first of the week on a business mission.

Al Holtgren and his mother went to Magnet Saturday evening to visit for a few days with relatives and friends there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boyce, received a card last Thursday telling of the safe arrival of their son, Harold, at a port on the other side.

On account of sickness or threatened sickness among his hogs, the sale announced last week for Robert Leisy at Wisner has been postponed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brooks from Sioux City came Saturday evening to spend Sunday with Wayne friends, as guests at the home of the lady's father, Geo. Rohwer.

Wm. Dammeyer was looking after business at Sioux City the first of the week—in fact quite a number have found this fair week the proper time to visit the city on account of their business there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nevin and daughter, Hazel, of Laurel, were Wayne visitors Saturday, coming over on a business mission, and C. E. dropped in to give fraternal greetings to the Democrat force.

Mrs. Mary E. Jones started Monday on her annual trip to Pasadena, California, where she spends the winter. There she enjoys comparatively good health—a thing the Nebraska winter weather will not permit her to do here.

Ernest Rippon is spending a vacation week with folks at Slayton, Minnesota, his former home. He went to Sioux City Sunday, and Monday morning his mother went from here to join him there, and go on with him for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cullen returned on Wednesday from Spalding where they had attended the funeral of the late Mr. Mike Healey on Tuesday. Mr. Healey was a brother of Mrs. Cullen and passed away on Saturday from cancer trouble.—Winside Tribune.

Last week was the Cedar county fair, as our friend found out Monday of this week when he came to learn the date, expecting to attend. In this case it would have paid the fair association to have spent a bit of money for printer's ink and spread it out in the outlying districts. In fact it "Pays to Advertise."

Herman Mildner went to South Dakota Monday morning, looking for potatoes to reduce the high cost of living. Spuds are rather high here just now, and the home crop is reported light—though some of our garden men tell us that their digging is panning out better than they had expected. Not many of the farmers have harvested their crop yet, though one farmer told us last week that he had mowed his patch, so that he could dig it, explaining that the late growth of weeds had been very considerable.

Wm. Beutow left the land of plenty Saturday morning to bring some of the lean swine from the land of drouth to fatten. Perhaps had they had railroads, telegraph, telephone and other modern conveniences in the days of Joseph and his brothers and the fat and the lean kin that story might not have had much place in history, for perhaps a few hundred miles away there might have been plenty, but no good way to transport the goods or the news of the land of plenty. Modern distribution has been a means of preventing want—but that is no reason why the system of distribution should have tried to own the country. Such necessities should be the servants, not the masters of the people.

Prepare For Winter—Let Us Aid You

ALLAWAY & HASSAN

JUST WEST OF THE STATE BANK WAYNE NEBRASKA

The Cedar county fair is reported as a record breaker this year.

Mrs. E. C. Bigger from Gregory, South Dakota, came Monday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Griffith.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller returned to their home at Sioux City Monday, after a short visit here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Miller.

Mrs. L. A. Marousek and daughter, Frances, from Sioux City, returned home Monday, after a week's visit here at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. S. L. Owen.

Alya Olson, son of O. W. Olson and wife of Hartington died in France as the result of wounds, and a great memorial service was held at the home town in his honor.

Claude Wright has purchased the Mrs. Henry Gardner place in this city, and is to have possession the first of October. Mr. and Mrs. Gardner were here from Emerson Monday to make the contract. The price was $1,300.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Mason and son from Meadow Grove drove over Saturday evening to spend Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mason. Miss Mary Mason, who had been at their home for a visit accompanied them home.

Dr. P. P. Dorsey, for twenty years a practicing physician at Hartington, a square man of many friends, has been called to service. He is given a captain's commission. He will be missed, but the home folks must miss much these days of war.

It is said that there will be plenty of men available for corn husking, which is now almost upon us. The fact that large districts in Kansas, southern Iowa and the south part of this state has little or no corn to husk in a measure accounts for the supply. If the corn crop were normal south of us a different story might be said.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Damme, and her sister, Mrs. Theo. Loose from near Winside, returned Monday from a trip to Camp Funston, where they visited. The Damme people have a son, Herman, whom they visited. Then they went on to New Haven in Missouri, and must have gone beyond the dry strip, for they report good crop prospects in the visit to Missouri, and that rain came at Funston just as they were leaving. This boy was getting along well, but was not yet through with all of his vaccinations, and was not yet really in the camp proper.

John Davis of Carroll, was here Monday enroute to Sioux City.

L. C. Nettleton went to his farm near Hoskins Monday to look after matters.

Miss Ella Fiege of this place and her uncle, C. Baurisder from Norfolk were visitors at Sioux City the first of the week.

Mrs. Long who is here visiting her parents, went to spend Sunday with relatives at Winside, and Miss Ruth Davis, who had been visiting at the Kopp home accompanied her.

John P. Golden of this place has accepted the agency of the National Surety company of New York, a bonding company, and is authorized to act as their representative.

Ralph Hoskins has embarked in business for himself, buying from L. Ruback the light dray and delivery business formerly conducted by the Will boys. The lad has a chance, now to show his business ability.

Lincoln Pierson from Atlanta, in Phelps county, has been visiting at the Walt Hurlbert home, and with other friends near Carroll, and Mr. Hurlbert and family came to the afternoon train with him Sunday as he started for home.

Superintendent Wells and wife from Wakefield were Wayne visitors Sunday, coming Saturday evening to spend the day with their friend, Mrs. Minnie Hoskins, to whom they lived neighbors in the western part of the state. Mr. Wells is superintendent of the schools at Wakefield.

Dr. B. M. McIntyre of Winside, whose first application for war work was not accepted, has received word from the surgeon general that a reconsideration of the question had resulted in his being offered a commission and he is making his plans to be ready when wanted.

Robert Skiles and D. Surber, who have been rustivating near Wessington, South Dakota, came home last week, and look as though they had been given work enough to keep their appetite good and eats enough to keep in good working order. Mr. Surber tells us that crops are fine there. Small grain was good, wheat

In a number of places we note from our exchanges, the sorghum industry is going ahead nicely, and mills are grinding the juice from the cane and it is being boiled down, but so far as we can learn, no one near here grew cane for sorghum this season, and yet they tell us that a barrel of sorghum in the cellar is worth as much as a ton of sugar in Cuba.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bannister from this place and James Davidson and wife from Meadow Grove are planning to leave today by automobile to visit their son, Clark Bannister at Camp Funston. If plans go as expected they will spend Sunday with the boys at camp.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Maxwell and son, Buile, returned last week from an automobile trip to their lands in Cheyenne county. Mr. Maxwell tells us that some of the wheat there, and some on his land does not this season pay the cost of harvesting, but that it must be cut unless excused by the County Council of Defense, and they

Eight Good Farms For Quick Sale

As I have decided, on account of my health, to locate permanently in California I will sell my eight farms in the vicinity of

Wayne, Laurel and Coleridge, Nebraska

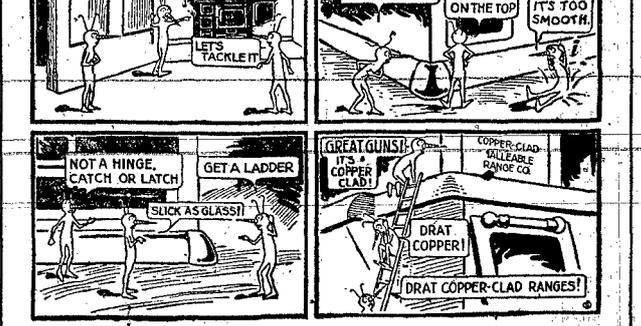

These farms are in the very garden spot of Nebraska, and contain 160 to 320 acres and up. In good state of cultivation, much of it having been rotated with grasses (timothy, clover and alfalfa) for from 15 to 20 years. Bottom lands tile drained.

Price $150 per acre up
This offer includes my home place, located just north of Wayne.

Help Is Scarce! Use Horse or Engine Power!

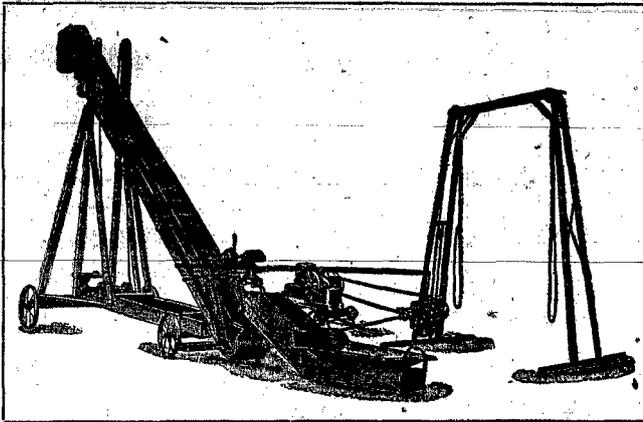

One of the great benefits which will come—is coming from the evils of war is the enforced education of the people to the economy and advantages of labor-saving machinery. Its use becomes a necessity to help the limited manpower left on the farms meet the great needs of the day for food. Realizing this, and knowing of the great corn crop now almost ready for harvest we have secured a double stock of FARM ELEVATORS for our patrons.

Sandwich Elevators

We purchased a car of these great elevators, a machine which has been thoroughly tested and proven a very popular aid for the farmer. It is so well made, using the time-tried cypress wood for its wood parts, that their life is so long and the repairs so slight that the first cost is lost sight of in the saving they make from year to year—and the convenience of having a dependable help in time when the emergency comes.

They make work easier, faster and less expensive. Huskers who have to scoop their loads want an extra price, and they lose time and energy.

In no essential feature is this elevator deficient.

Meadow's

Portable and Stationary Grain Elevators

Are the culmination of sixteen years of study and improvement, until they are considered the equal of the best for practical service. Ease of operation durability and satisfactory service.

These elevators are made in different sizes, of wood or steel, all castings are of gray iron, cast at our foundry, and made of the right kind and proportions of the different irons to produce the greatest strength and durability. Every department of our factory is in charge of experienced mechanics, specialists in their line, assuring a perfect elevator.

Never before have we taken the care in the purchase of quality implements, and we feel that in all reasonable farm machinery we are in shape to provide our patrons with that which has no superior. This, we feel to be especially true in our selection of the two makes of elevators offered above.

We invite inspection, confident that your judgment will confirm our judgment as to the quality of the offering. Yours for the best labor-saving machinery.

G. L. SHUMWAY, OF PUBLIC

LANDS AND BUILDINGS

From a slight acquaintance with Mr. Shumway prior to the last election the editor felt that he was the proper man to be given the office of Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings, who also has a voice in the irrigation affairs of the state, and supported him in our feeble way. We are now glad to publish a little sketch of what he has accomplished on the commission, and tell the readers that he has again received the nomination for that office, and if you are pleased with his work you may say so at the voting booth in November. He writes as follows:

Lincoln, Nebr., September 13, 1918.

Dear Mr. Editor:

Your attention is called to the work of this office since January, 1917. The record shown is to July 1, 1918. The good work is continuing and will be maintained until January next, and perhaps two more years. That depends upon the patient people of the press for we know the potency of publication as an educating factor.

Value of school lands increased more than one and one-half million dollars in one and one-half years. Annual rental receipts increased $95,804, or $17,591 more than the total in ten previous years. This means an average of over $1,000 to each county annually for support of common schools.

Lost, unused, escheated and exchanged lands have been found, reclaimed, recovered, and selected, adding $50,000 value to permanent school funds.

A mineral law enacted and the spoilers stopped from a big grab at the state's resources. Potash exploiters must come clean and pay the state.

Activities of this office have encouraged the test drillings for oil in six sections of the state. We hope for a big source of wealth, but in any event we will know whether to look further for oil and gas in Nebraska.

In handling state educational funds we have supported investments that would mean safety and good returns assisting government undertakings, federal farm loans, and improving Nebraska's schools, communities, and industry.

As a member of the board of equalization we have tried to make each class of property pay its just proportion of taxes.

As a member of the board of irrigation, highways and drainage we have urged the more mileage with materials at hand, rather than the few expensive miles in construction of roads. We have gone the limit on substantial, permanent bridges, and pushing irrigation and water power. Irrigation enterprises are extending into hundreds of millions of wealth, and power is showing signs of life as a fuel saver since recognized in such manner by the United States.

The high cost of living, low salary, and not much reserve finance impels us to commend the future of this office to your judgment, charity and good wishes, and to invite friendly criticism and suggestions for our guidance. We believe, we have made a good business record and if it suits you, please do what you feel is justified, and remember with your votes. It will be appreciated in good service for two years more."

A DISCUSSION

On the street corner the other day in which home stayers and men who travel developed the fact that men who stay here object, and men who visit other towns of the size and dignity of Wayne, and even smaller affirm that the burning of papers in the street is a nuisance which should be abolished here as it has been in other places. One man complained because ashes blew in his eyes, another because it looked too primitive, and still another because the wind carried half burned papers to his home and they lodged in his chicken fence, and he had them to clean out. The verdict was that when John Kate was mayor, he had that nuisance pretty well squelched, and while they did not vote to ask him back, they said, without any apparent intention of casting reflections on any mayor since his time, that they thought he would have stayed at Wayne if they had kept him in as mayor, and that in that event, we would have had paved streets. Perhaps. But then a curbstone argument seldom gets very far, though some good things are said in such debates.

THE NEXT TAXES

Congressman Longworth says that the new revenue bill taxes wealth to the limit and that any further taxes will have to come out of the non-wealthy by means of taxes on food and other necessities. Whenever wealth is taxed to the limit, the non-wealthy will expect cheerfully to bear additional tax increases.

But their tax should not be levied by way of excises on the food they eat and the clothes they wear. They are already heavily taxed there by way of present high prices. Besides, that taxes men according to their poverty, not according to their wealth; for the poor need exactly as good food and as warm clothing as the rich. Besides, this indirect method is a wasteful one. It makes retailer, jobber, manufacturer, and producer in turn collectors of revenue from the consumer. Each must charge something for his services. If the consumer's dollar, added to the cost of living to cover taxes, is more than fifty cents when it reaches the government, the government is lucky. That is poor finance and bad justice.

What congress should do when it is obliged to cut still deeper for revenue is to go still lower with its income tax minimums and still higher with its rates. Let the humble consumer pay a tax directly to the government on his $75 a month income rather than reach him by increasing the cost of his bread and clothes.

As a matter of fact, none of us who now pay income tax are hurt by the levy. That is the fact which, in the actual experience of families with more than $2,000 of income, gives the laugh to congressman Longworth's solicitude for the sufferings of the rich under present taxes. An income of $10,000 is to be taxed only $850 under the new law. An Englishman with that income pays $2,250. If any American doesn't know how to live and pay still more taxes out of a net income of $9,150 a year, his millions of neighbors who are managing to keep fat and healthy on incomes one-eighth as large can show him how. When Mr. Longworth intimates that the man of a million dollar income has reached the limit of tax paying though still left a net $600,000 to live on, he makes himself ridiculous. The same is true of the family of $2,500 income when it has paid its tax of $20 a year. Of course they may not be able, if higher taxes are levied, to live in the style to which they are accustomed.

But in war time that isn't the question. All anyone has a right to expect during the war is to have enough left, after taxes are paid, to live in health and comfort. The millions of families which are doing this on incomes of less than $1,000 a year are the standing refutation of those who think congress has not reached anywhere near the limits of our tax paying capacity.

The above is from the Nebraska State Journal, and it tells the story well, as the Democrat has tried to tell it in other times, when the Journal and other republican papers were fighting the income tax and advocating the same kind of a tax the Ex-President Roosevelt's son-in-law, Mr. Longworth, is advocating. That paragraph relating to the wastefulness of the indirect tax is good, but it does not go far enough, for it does not say that in many instances the consumer pays five dollars tax to the manufacturer and seller in the shape of advance in prices on competing articles on which there is no tax, to one to the government. In other words five-sixths of the tax really collected does not go to the government but to monopoly.

We are glad the Journal is seeing things and showing them to its readers.

THE BOYS NOW HAVE THEIR DAY

The shortage of man power is making demand for help from both old and young. Many boys are learning—or at least having opportunity to learn that which should be useful to them in other years—they are having to assume responsibilities and burdens greater than usually come to boys. They should meet them intelligently and manfully. It is no time to become "smart" and swell up with importance simply because you can be more useful or more used than the boys of other and easier days. For while the boys are doing their best, they are of necessity leaving much extra for older people to do, and the work of supervision over the best they can do is much more than it usually is when men of more experience are employed.

Too few of the inexperienced people realize what it means in work, watching and instructing to make things run even fairly smoothly with new help. On farm, in shop and factory the same inexperienced help must be made efficient—and it is a great privilege for the young to meet these opportunities. In many instances it is more beneficial than exclusive schooling—for so much of that is not practical for us in the work to which many are coming.

A NEW BARN FOR OTIS STRINGER

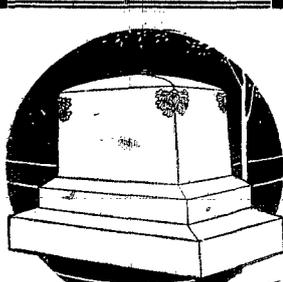

Last spring lightning struck and burned the barn of Otis Stringer, just east of Wayne, and the barn was a new one finished too late to have much of the last year crop in it, but what was there burned. He now has a new barn completed on the same foundation that held the old one, 40x46 feet. He had some insurance on the barn which burned, and that helped some—but the high cost of building pulled the other way. He did not have the figures all in his head, but there was a substantial increase over last year cost. In 1917 the cost was approximately $1,500. This year, counting the foundation the same as it cost last year, and his barn cost was approximately $1,500. This year, counting the foundation the same as it cost last year, and his barn cost $1,900. There is the war tax a lot of people are paying, and they do not count it that way—while it does not go to Uncle Sam directly, it is a war tax all the same. Perhaps some of it is a profiteer tax—not that the men who sold here or did the work are profiteers—but the cost of living made high by profiteers has made the expense go high, whether or not the people who got their money from Mr. Stringer had to pass the most of it on or not—and they probably did if they ate or wore clothing.

Many wrongs are committed in the name of patriotism—and no one can deny that. So are many offenses given in the name of religion, yet there is and may be and should be much good in both.

In this war, thus far the ratio of deaths from battle and disease, are practically 50-50. In the Mexican war of 1845-7 it was one in battle to seven by disease. In our civil war the ratio was two to one and a little more. In the Spanish-American war the ratio was one to five. The soldier risk is less than ever before, in spite of the fact that weapons are more deadly—for the care and surgery are so much better.

The Kaiser's stool-pigeon—ruler of Austria by grace of the William—has again put out a peace offering, but no one takes it seriously. The rulers of the Central Powers should well know by this time that peace offers are to come from the other side, unless they come from a penitent and conquered people, and in line with the just terms laid down by our president—otherwise it will be FORCE—FORCE TO THE UTTERMOST. And why not? Does not Germany merit it?

The State Journal assumes to think it strange that labor leaders are so generally opposed to prohibition, when enforced prohibition really does so much for the laboring man. Nothing strange about it. The liquor interests simply looked ahead and helped to place that class of men in office. The same has been true as to many economic reforms. The common people have always to take the lead and go in advance of the so-called leaders. Every reform is won in opposition to the self-styled leaders.

This week and next week are seed corn weeks in Iowa, and every farmer is urged to go into his field and select seed enough to do his needs for two years at least. The plan is good for the reason that seed thus selected may be cared for so as to insure the largest percentage of seed that will germinate. Will give farmer opportunity to select seed from the best type of corn, and its economy over the manner of selecting from a load at husking time or from a crib later. Nebraska farmers should try the plan.

RATIONING GASOLINE

Automobile owners in the west should take warning from the experience of those east of the Mississippi river while they have time. The fuel administration declares that unless the wasteful methods in the handling and use of gasoline are corrected at once, it will "undoubtedly be necessary for the government to control the distribution and uses made of gasoline." Automobileists, it is pointed out, would then be made to conform to the more severe control and, therefore, it is to the automobileists that the appeal must be made for the saving of gasoline.

The fuel administration is issuing his warning in the hope that strict compliance will make it unnecessary to take more drastic steps. It is not desired to put the nation on a fuel ration but it is necessary that all wasteful practices be stopped.

"Motorists should not run their engines when the car is not in motion," says the fuel administration warning. "They should avoid overfilling tanks and see that no oil or gasoline is spilled or allowed to leak. Carburetors should be adjusted to operate on the thinnest mixtures. All unnecessary driving should be discontinued.

"If sufficient gasoline and oil cannot be saved from what is now wasted in the ways above suggested, then such mandatory control as will assure the quantities needed for the conduct of the war will be inevitable."

It seems to be up to the automobile drivers.—Norfolk News.

Dear Friends:
Received your welcome letter about six months ago and have often thought of writing you a few lines so you would know that I am able to be about yet. News is scarce on account of the censor. If it was not for him I could write a little book but might find it difficult to find somebody to read it. I am sitting in our Y. M. C. A. at the present time and the gramophone is going at full speed. Our cyclone cave is handy too, so we are sitting pretty. The Y. M. C. A. surely does a lot for the boys and establish their stations all along the line pretty near up to the front line trench. Yesterday morning I was eating plums in practically no-mans-land. You bet your sweet life Mr. Wes Hughes missed it unless they change the draft age (what I hope they do) by being born too soon. This morning we got up bright and early and rounded up a big bunch of gutie and had them lined up against the wall and then went after them with the bayonets and offensive grenades and had most of them either killed or crippled up in no time. I also had to wash a suit of underwear and take a bath, which is the sad part of this war business, it aint much better than boche in that respect. How is everything up around Wayne, I hope that you had your annual fourth of July rain in time to save crops.

I think that everyone you know here is O. K. yet any how; I haven't heard of any of them getting married since we left home. Well, I guess I will have to close, hoping that these lines will find you in the best of health and sending my best regards to everybody, also hoping to hear from you soon. SOCIAL NOTES

Pupils Have Happy Evening

On Friday evening, September 13, in the high school gymnasium, there took place the annual reception to the junior high school and the new members of the faculty.

Helen Felber favored those present with a piano solo. This was followed by a vocal solo by Martha Crockett, who also responded to an encore.

The next number on the program was a contest in "animated spelling." Two complete sets of the letters of the alphabet were given out, one to each of fifty-two students, who formed in two lines in alphabetical order. Fifteen words, appropriate for General Pershing's birthday, were pronounced. The "living letters" raced to their proper places at the head of the line and the side first forming the word correctly, was given due credit. The score was 11 to 4.

At the conclusion of this lively contest, the new members of the faculty were initiated into Wayne High. They proved their metal and adaptability to circumstances by running a race. Each was given a suit-case, filled with nondescript articles of attire. They ran to a certain point opened the grips, donned the garments contained therein, then returned to the starting place, doffed said garments, and repacked them.

Having survived this ordeal, they were asked to retire and were then brought in one by one to receive the token of affection that marked their welcome into the high school.

The popular games were then played for an hour after which refreshments were served.

First Fall Meeting of D. A. R.

The first meeting of Douglas King Chapter, D. A. R., was a "Knitting Bee" held at the home of Mrs. Albert Jacobs. A short business session was held first. The chapter has completed arrangements for supporting a French orphan.

Letters were read from the boys on the honor roll and the remainder of the afternoon spent in knitting and sociability. At the close of the afternoon the hostess served a very dainty and appetizing buffet lunch with the president, Mrs. Britell, presiding at the coffee tray.

The Coterie club met Monday afternoon, September 16, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Ahern. A short business meeting was held. At the close of the afternoon a delicious two-course lunch was served by Mrs. Arthur Ahern, Mrs. Warren Sulthuis and Mrs. Carroll Orr, members of the program committee.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Walter Norris of Kansas City, Mrs. Stanley Huffman of Elgin and Miss Clara Heckert of Red Oak. The next regular meeting will be held September 23, at the home of Mrs. P. A. Theobald and will be devoted to Red Cross sewing.

Yeomen Meeting Friday

With the opening of the fall months social and lodge life is reviving, and the committee in charge of Yeomen social life ask that we tell that their season will begin with the meeting of this Friday evening. There will be candidates to initiate, officers to elect, and a social time when refreshments will be served. Each member is warned to bring a plate, a cup, a spoon and sugar if any sweetening is needed. Do not fail to attend and start the season right.

The Young Ladies Bible Study circle met with Mrs. Young on Saturday evening to plan the work for the coming year. Music, light refreshments and an hour of sociability followed the lesson study and business meeting. It was voted to meet on Friday evenings instead of Saturday and to continue the use of the Sunday school lesson.—Mrs. E. B. Young will entertain the girls again this Friday evening and all are cordially invited.

The Rebekah lodge No. 122 Wayne will observe the 67th anniversary of the degree in the I. O. O. F. hall Friday evening, the 27th of September. All the brothers I. O. O. F. are invited to spend the evening. A short program will be given after business session.—Lydia M. Sellers, Secretary.

Mrs. B. W. Davis in the west part of town will be hostess at the Bible Study circle Tuesday afternoon. The ladies enjoyed a fine meeting with Mrs. I. E. Ellis this week with Mrs. Chas. McClennen as leader of the fine lesson study.

There will be a social meeting of the P. E. O. sisterhood at the home of Mrs. W. H. Morris Monday, September 23, at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Ellis and Miss Jessie Jenks will be hostesses.

The Rural Home society will meet Thursday, September 26, with Mrs. Wm. Von Seggern for an all-day meeting. All members are urged to be present. Red Cross work will be done.

JUST got back home and the sale dates are already going fast. There will not be many open dates left after a short time. If you contemplate holding a sale Better See Me Soon. I want to do your work.

The Helping Hand society will meet next Thursday in an all-day session at the Dean Hanson home in Concord to sew for the Red Cross or other worthy cause. Of their Red Cross sale of the week before, they report a purse of $300 for the cause. A flag quilt was the top price, which Ted Perry purchased at $25 and had it resold, when it brought $11. In addition to the offering of these good ladies, Auctioneer Neely told us that some Wayne ladies sold quite a lot of things for the same worthy cause.

The Missionary society met with Mrs. Harvey Ringland last Thursday afternoon. Each member invited a guest. The society have pledged themselves to buy enough embroidery from a young girl who is in school in Corea to support her, and they sold over sixty dollars worth that afternoon. The hostess with help of members served a very fine supper on trays. An exceptionally good afternoon was spent by those present.

Queen Esther society met with Mrs. A. C. Dean Tuesday evening. The members enjoyed a social evening. The hostess served ice cream and wafers.

Mrs. Arthur Ahern was hostess to a card party Thursday evening, "500" was played, delicious refreshments were served.

The Guild of St. Mary's church holds its regular meeting this afternoon with Mrs. James Finn in this city.

LETTERS FROM FRANCE

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Ash permit the Democrat to have access to a number of letters from their son, Maxwell L. Ash, who is somewhere in France waiting his call to the front line trenches, or wherever the commander says to go. His brother, Charles, is also in France, but they are not near together. He has within a few weeks written a number of letters, but like other letters from the front, they are not permitted to tell much that the people would like to know, and that the boys would like to write.

He tells that they are well, well fed and cared for, and that one or two other Wayne boys are near him, but as he calls them by their first name only, we cannot tell just who they are.

He tells of the harvest there, and the grain crops produced—of the work the women do, because the men are not there, and wonders about neath it all one reads of the desire for news from home, and it would be appreciated if the boys and girls and older ones too at home would write frequently—or send papers to as many of the boys as the address can be found for.

The young man shows a vein of humor in referring to conditions as rather dry here, most of the time—in fact except when the Wright man happens along, (by the way, he does not now seem free to come.) We wish that we might have published more from his letters, but they seem mostly to relate to home affairs, and that is not public property.

His address is given as Pvt. Maxwell L. Ash, Co. A, 4th Inf. American Expeditionary Forces, via New York. Send him a letter, some of you classmates and neighbors.

The New Tire Trouble Stop Shop

Is now open for business in the Witter building, recently occupied by the Basket grocery, just opposite the Union hotel. Here they do hot water vulcanizing, and mend your inner and outer tubes without burning.

They make you money by adding to the life of your automobile tires.

We have exclusive agency for the famous

GATES HALF-SOLE TIRES

and are one of their authorized service stations

More than 300,000 motorists now use this wonderful protector to double the life of their tires.

Gates Half-Sole Tires transform your worn tires into the most beautiful, brand-new, over-size, puncture-proof tires that money can buy. They carry a stronger guarantee than the tires now on your car, because they are guaranteed puncture-proof. YET THEY COST ONLY 1/2 AS MUCH. Before you spend another dollar for tires, investigate.

Furs at Mrs. Jeffries.—Adv

Miss Clara Fry from Winslow was a Wayne visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Noelle were visitors at Norfolk the first of the week, going over Sunday, and the lady remaining a short time.

Yeomen meet Friday evening—election of officers and well, its a secret order, and we should not tell just what might happen.

Mrs. G. A. Gansko and son, Master James, went to Albion Wednesday to visit her mother who has been in poor health during the summer.

Tuesday, the twenty-fourth, is the meeting date for the stock breeders to complete arrangements for their booster trip, which is being planned for October 8.

Carl Noelle, having sold his neat bungalow home to Mr. Strahan, he is busy these days building a neat cottage home on an adjoining lot in the east part of the city.

Mrs. H. Wahlen and daughter, Edith, came from Stanton Tuesday to greet Wayne friends and see about a place for the young lady at the Normal, where she hoped to have her begin study.

J. C. Martin came out from Council Bluffs, Iowa, the first of the week, and after a short stay here at the home of his brother, Fred Martin, went to Elgin Wednesday to visit another brother, Frank Martin.

D. H. Cunningham is home from a trip to Idaho where he went to look after farm interests and greet old friends. Of crop conditions there he says all is well, and as good as can be; and that he had a great trip.

Come to the store, ladies, where all the stock is bought for the ladies, and the assortment is complete, carefully selected by one who knows the styles, and has years of experience back of her work. Mrs. Jeffries.—Adv

A. P. Gossard is employed at Wakefield for a time, going over daily to take charge of the business matters of the Farmers' Union Exchange. He finds plenty to do there between trains—the morning and the evening trains, we mean.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jacobsen and their son-in-law, S. Williams and wife from Omaha, drove to Wayne last week to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jacobsen, his brother. The young man returned home Tuesday morning, and the other three are spending the week here.

Fortner is ready to sell you real flour—the Splendid—and that is what it is. Adv

Mrs. M. T. Healey from Spalding and her sons, one of the navy and the other of the army were here visiting at the home of J. H. Massie and wife, her sister. The boys were given furlough to come home on account of their father's death, who passed away last week at his Spalding home. Thomas is in training for the navy at Pellan Bay, Washington, and Daniel at Camp Cody, New Mexico.

John Morgan went to Yankton, South Dakota, Tuesday, and from there he planned to go over into Minnesota and visit at the home of his son at Granite Falls, where John always goes when he gets hungry for fish and fishing. Seems to enjoy the catching more than the eating. Then we heard him say something about it being about time for ducks, and that it is open season when the ducks head south if not when they go north to breed. Here's luck to you.

Paul Williams from Camp Dodge was home the first of the week, being granted a short furlough on account of the illness of his mother near Wayne. He returned Wednesday morning.

Fortner pays top market for eggs and poultry.—Adv

Hats at Mrs. Jeffries.—Adv

Mrs. Earl Neilen came from Norfolk Wednesday to visit at the J. H. Foster home with her aunt.

Mrs. Warren Shultheis and her sister, Mrs. Stanley Huffman from Elgin, who has been here visiting her sister, went to Omaha Tuesday for a few days.

The attention of the economical buyer is called to the advertisement on another page of the store of Allaway & Hassan, just west of the State bank.—Adv

Mr. and Mrs. James Stanton and Phil Burriss and sons from Carroll were Sioux City visitors, going over Tuesday morning to see the fair and the stock show there.

George Eickhoff is to return home from Camp Dodge as soon as he is able. He has been sick from typhoid pneumonia. He has been in the hospital for nearly two weeks.

Fred Martin unloaded two more cars of the double-deck pattern which came to him with sheep for feeding. He now has nearly 900 in the feed lots or grazing on the farm.

Don Gildersleeve left Tuesday to enter the training school at the University, where he will have military training and also the advantages of such other school work as he elects to follow.

For dresses, see Mrs. Jeffries. Adv Miss Bertha Peterson from Neola, Iowa, has been here visiting her cousin, Jack Denbeck and family, and Wednesday went on to visit at Norfolk and in South Dakota, planning another stop here on her way home.

Harry Tidrick and Peter Jensen from Winslow were visitors at the Sioux City fair Monday, and each purchased from the exhibit there a Duroc boar which they selected as prize winners, whether the judges who make the awards hit on the same pigs or not. Mr. Tidrick tells us that he plans a sale about the fifteenth of October.

Naturally one looks for something for the ladies at a store full of goods for the ladies and children only, and they are sure to find it in a seasonable line if they accept this invitation to call at Mrs. Jeffries' store down Main street to see the coats, suits, waists, skirts, furs, hats and other wear apparel for the ladies. Stock is very new and complete.—Adv

R. G. York and family are residents of Wayne, and when their household goods arrive from Scribner they will be at home in a residence in the north part of the city. Mr. York comes to Wayne to take charge of the erection of the new elevator for the Farmers' Union people, and is now busy getting the old building removed and foundation trenches ready. They expect that the work will last until spring at least.

Rev. Moehring is just home from attending the synod of his church for this state at Leigh. He reports that the attendance was good, and the interest deep. While the church has been German for many years, the Swiss people participate with them in about equal numbers. Their services were partly in English and partly in German, as many of the older ministers were not as conversant with the language of this land as they should have been.

Robert Skiles and D. Surber, who have been rusticiating near Wessington, South Dakota, came home last week, and look as though they had been given work enough to keep their appetite good and eats enough to keep in good working order. Mr. Surber tells us that crops are fine there. Small grain was good, wheat going as much as forty bushels per acre. Mr. Skiles says that help was so scarce there that it was a question as to when and how they would get done. Threshing outfits are running shorthanded or sometimes idle for want of help. He tells a rather pitiful story of how he had to work from 4 o'clock in the morning until the going down of the sun; and yet he looked pretty well when he reached home.

Rev. Connolly of Norfolk, was met here Tuesday morning by Clay Chase, one of the home guards of Laurel, who took him into custody and in an automobile to that city, where the guards celebrated their first birth anniversary in fitting style, and had this eloquent speaker as orator of the day. If Rev. Connolly tells as much truth about the Germans and their propaganda there as he did here, he will leave a lot of people there with a better understanding of the cause of the war than they have had before—for a lot of people do not read in the right places to get the straight goods, boiled down and presented in plain United States so that they get the correct conception of the situation. It is something every American should know and be able to tell. With the preacher as talker, the Laurel people had a real celebration whether they had anything else on the program or not.

A. C. Dean is at Omaha this week, going down Wednesday on a business mission.

Mrs. Schuster is visiting relatives at Sioux City this week, going down this morning.

Donald Wightman of Long Beach, California, is attending the Wayne State Normal.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mitchell drove to Sioux City Wednesday to take in the fair and look after business matters there for a day or two.

J. H. Kemp was at Emerson Monday afternoon attending a meeting of the different county food conservation agents of this corner of the state.

Mrs. Clyde Oman and daughters, Fern and Frances, departed Tuesday to attend the university at Lincoln—that is the young ladies are to attend, and the mother expects to return after assisting them to locate, and look after Mr. Oman.

Tuesday evening Rev. S. X. Cross went to Norfolk where he took a part in the sessions of the Niobrara Presbytery, and where the church work of that denomination is planned. Rev. Harper from Laurel was here and joined him in the trip, for the same purpose.

Mrs. A. P. Gossard was called to Sioux City today to visit her sister, Mrs. McConaha, of Hartington, who was taken ill a few days ago and taken to the hospital at that place for an operation. The lady was reported quite seriously ill, and Mrs. Gossard will remain for the day, and longer if needed.

Rev. E. E. Sala was here Tuesday while returning from conference. He has been appointed to the Carroll church, and will soon move a bit nearer the center of the universe. Rev. McKenzie, who was at Carroll for the past two years was sent to Osceola, and is moving to that place. He won many friends in this county during his stay here.

Superintendent J. R. Armstrong went to Omaha Tuesday evening to take a part in a meeting there to plan for the complete organization of the Junior Y. M. C. A. work for the state. He has a district in this corner of the state. It is the plan to organize this work to make the organization a means of materially aiding the work of the war prosecution and maintenance of such great aids as the "Y" work.

Harry McMillan was called to Glenwood, Iowa, today on a business mission. He was named to administer the estate left by his father at death, and has to make frequent trips there. He tells us that as administrator he had sold a quantity of walnut trees to the purchasing agent of one who has government need for the lumber; and in reply to the price question said that the size of tree and quality governed the price, which varied from $25 to $100 per 1,000 feet of lumber the tree measured. The larger the tree the better the price, other things being equal.

Coats at Mrs. Jeffries.—Adv Miss Margaret Finn is visiting relatives at Sioux City this week.

J. H. Foster is attending to business at Sioux City this week.

Mrs. Luther Milliken from Randolph was here Tuesday visiting her parents, S. C. Kopp and wife.

V. L. Dayton tells us that he sold a bull last week from his Holstein herd to James Foye of Tekamah.

Mrs. Hamer Wilson returned Wednesday evening from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Smith, at Colorado Springs.

Lieutenant John Ahern spent a night with Wayne relatives and friends Monday night while enroute from a camp in Virginia to report for same duty at Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Keiper were in this morning on their way to Sioux City, and tell us that they have just received a card stating that their son, Will, is safely landed on the other side. He was for some time in training school at Lincoln. It is possible that he may help chase the Germans back until he may visit the places where his parents were born in Germany.

Where Did You Get Your Ideas?

(Villisca (Iowa) Review)

Such ideas as—children should go to school, that men should labor but a certain number of hours a day and should receive a living wage, that women should be respected and womanhood revered, that might is not right, that you should give money to the Red Cross, that America should fight as one man in the fight she is now making, that you have the right to select your rulers, that slavery should not exist on the face of the earth, that prevention is better than cure—where did you get such ideas?

Christianity taught them to Civilization and Civilization taught them to you, and your Civilization of tomorrow depends on your Christianity of today.

Perhaps you may find new ideas by serving Christianity in one of our churches. Perhaps your ideas may be a new and modern interpretation which will advance Civilization a hundred years ahead of its present stride. It has been done and will be done again.

Share your ideas with Christianity.

Stand in front of your mirror—look yourself in the eye and produce one good reason why you should not go to church that will balance any one of the many reasons why you should go. Will you do it?

Attend some church next Sunday.

FAIR DEAL DEMANDED

Congress is planning to tackle the living cost problem again. In view of the added tax burdens the war entails, it is hoped something more will come out of the forthcoming investigations than has resulted from those preceding it.

As has been repeatedly pointed out by this newspaper, the American people do not object to paying war taxes. They do object strenuously and righteously, however, against paying bills that are padded by profiteers.

The report of the federal trade relations commission made recently was a scandal on American business. It showed that one food dealer made 2,183 per cent increased profit under war conditions on a capital of $1,000. Millers, coal dealers and clothiers were found to have made profits of 191,437, and even 504 per cent.

Only congress can relieve the situation. The food administration has done all it possibly could under the limited power conferred upon it by the legislative body.

The excess profits tax does not get at the horde of comparatively petty profiteers like the food dealer referred to in this question of profits.

In any case the excess profits tax does not relieve the average individual. The 80 per cent on excess profits taken by the government, comes primarily out of the pockets of the consumer.

While investigating the living cost problem which is so closely related to the whole question of government revenues, the public will appreciate it if congress will devote some attention to the question of federal expenditures. It should pass the Kenyon resolution providing:

1. Central executive review and final preparation of estimates in easily understandable form.

2. Central legislative review and final preparation of appropriations.

There is a general feeling among those who bear the burdens that the spigot should be watched as closely as the bung. The average American will work harder, save more, and pay more taxes cheerfully, if he is sure he is getting a fair deal at both ends of the line.—Sioux City Tribune.

AK-SAR-BEN, 1918, SEPTEMBER 25 TO OCTOBER 5

Patriotism will play a larger part than ever in Ak-Sar-Ben festivities this year. Patriotic pageants and floats will predominate throughout the electrical parade on the evening of Wednesday, October 2. The promise is that this year's night parade will excel all previous efforts in this line.

Grand Military Parade, Thursday afternoon, October 3. The Douglas County Fair, to be held in conjunction with Ak-Sar-Ben, promises one of the best agricultural exhibits yet shown—one admission for Ak-Sar-Ben and County Fair. The Amusement Committee have determined to make this year's carnival the best ever. Special efforts were made to secure the best show on the road and the Con. T. Kennedy Shows have accordingly been booked. Make your arrangements to come to Omaha September 25 and stay ten days.

Wm. Weinstein left for Sioux City Saturday on business.

The Branch House Man

This is one of the Swift & Company Branch House Men.

They are all pretty much alike in the way they feel toward their work—and that is what this ad is about.

They know that most people couldn't get such good meat promptly and in good condition if it weren't for the branch houses of which they are in charge.

They know that the branch house is one of the most important links in the chain of preparing and distributing meat for a nation.

They know that Swift & Company must have its branch houses run at the highest notch of usefulness; that even a Swift &

Company branch house won't run itself, and that it is up to the branch house man to run it properly.

Any branch house man who doesn't see his work in this light is transferred to some other place with Swift & Company to which he is better adapted.

They are picked men, these branch house men. Every time you sit down to a steak or chop, or cut of roast, you can give a grateful thought to the whole crew of them.

And remember, in a general way, that everything that makes life smoother and more convenient for you, is the result of the thoughtfulness and effort of a lot of people of whom you have never heard.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

WITH THE WAYNE CHURCHES

English Lutheran Church
(Rev. J. H. Fetterolf, Pastor)
Sunday school meets at 10 a. m. Our school aims to meet the present day needs of old and young in furnishing religious instruction.
Public worship with sermon at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. We invite all who have no regular church home to worship with us. We have no other aim than to assist you in strengthening your Christian life.
Luther league holds its meeting at 7:15 p. m. Since the recent change in our programs and the different method of handling the subjects, we have both increased the attendance and the interest in these meetings. We want to enlist every young person in the church in these services. Come next Sunday and see if you will not be interested and profited by the program. The subject is "Studies in the Life of Elijah," Miss Anna Thompson will have charge of the meeting.
Saturday, October 5, at 2:30 p. m. the pastor would like to meet all the young people who intend to take a course in catechetical instruction during the winter. The parents should see that their children receive instruction in the fundamental truths of Christianity.

Baptist Church
(Rev. Fletcher J. Jordan, Pastor)
Divine worship in the Baptist church next Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. Strangers in our city, Normal school students and all those without a church home are always made to feel at home in the church.
Sunday school after the morning worship. Let us give more consideration to the Sunday school than we have in the past. The boys and girls will feel more like staying for the study of God's word if the older members do. Remember you are invited next Sunday to meet with us.
The B. Y. P. U. has its meeting each Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. This service is conducted by Group IV.
There is choir rehearsal next Saturday evening at 8. If you have ever sung in the choir we wish to have you come back and help us, and glorify God. The college students are requested to join our choir. In numbers there is inspiration.
The young people of the Baptist church will give a reception to the Normal students next Friday evening at 8. Be sure and come because you will have a good time. This is free to all the church and congregation.
State Mission day will be observed by the church September 29. The program this year will be in the form of a play entitled "Wide-Awake." This play is a true reproduction of a state convention board meeting. A further announcement will be made later.

Methodist Episcopal Church
(Rev. D. W. MacGregor, Pastor)
Our services begin with the Sunday school at 10 a. m. Let us make this a banner day for attendance.
Sermon, 11 a. m., subject: "The Fruits of Doubt."
At 7 p. m. young people's societies will meet.
At 8 p. m., sermon.
As a church let us plan, work, pray and believe for the greatest year in history of Wayne church. We are living in a great age.
The centenary movement is on in the Methodist Episcopal church. This implies a stewardship of prayer. A stewardship of service to the kingdom of God. "Thou shalt be to him instead of God." A stewardship of the "Tithes," which belong to God.
We are planning for a series of special meetings to be held in the near future. Watch for announcements.

Presbyterian Church
(Rev. S. Xenophon Cross, Pastor)
We were pleased to welcome the usually large number of college students at both church services last Sunday. Come again. We are pleased to have you make your church home with us during your stay in Wayne.
The text for the next Sunday morning sermon will be: "But We See Jesus Crowned." All are invited to attend this, as all the services of this church. There will be special music under the direction of Mrs. A. R. Davis, chorister.
The hours of public Sunday services at this church are as follows: Preaching, 10:30; Sunday school, 11:30; Y. P. S. C. E., 7; Preaching, 8. Your special attention is called to the Sunday school. The adult classes are anxious for your presence next Sunday.
Miss Bessie Hiscox will lead the Y. P. S. C. E. next Sunday evening. The topic will be: "Lessons from Bible Characters." The members of this society are always pleased to have visitors attend these meetings. Plan to be present next Sunday and stay for the evening preaching service.
The sermon for next Sunday evening will be on the theme: "Applied Religion." There is today a serious recognition of the racial problem. Much it will mean for the race if men

WE, THE LIVING, HIGHLY RESOLVE
(From The Goldenrod)
One year ago the Normal opened with a consciousness, more or less confused, that the nation was at war and that changes in educational conditions would result. Today the stark and grim reality grips us. Nearly all the young men who were with us a year ago are now in the army, most of them already beyond the sea. Those who remain are either in the draft, or within a few months, will be. With spirits sobered by the world tragedy they seize the brief remainder of opportunity for school life and we who are with them feel as never before how precious are the ideals for which our young men die.
It is easy when we sing "Keep the Home Fires Burning" to sentimentalize and enjoy the luxury thereof. But what is to keep the fires burning? How shall we objectify the sentiment? Surely it is to keep alive ideals of honor, of industry, of knowledge, of achievement! It is to develop in ourselves, our school, our country, those who shall lead our nation, not only during the bitter hour of struggle but in the years of reconstruction when a nobler world is to be builded. Surely the young hearts will leap to the task! Surely we shall all "highly resolve" that this shall be the best year in the history of the State Normal.
—Julius T. House.

shall appreciably come to apply to themselves the gospel truth which they know! This sermon will be preached not to be admired, but to be acted upon.

Evangelical Lutheran
(Rev. Rudolph Moehring, Pastor)
Sunday there will be the usual services at the Wayne church—Sunday school at 10 o'clock, preaching in English an hour later. At Winside, only the Sunday school service will be held, and that at the usual hour.
The confirmation classes of the two churches will be held as usual Saturday.

NORMAL NEWS NOTES
The second week of the Normal has brought new students until it is evident that the autumn enrollment will fall little, if any, below that of last year.

Several graduates of the school are now continuing work in the Normal, having in view ultimately to secure the A. B. degree. It is hoped and believed that this phase of the Normal will largely increase.

Additional enrollments in absentia work are being received by mail, together with inquiries in regard to the establishment of study centers. These two features of the work of the school distinctly extend its influence.

The class in the radio buzzer work numbers twenty. Professor Britell meets the class every evening from half past seven to nine and besides this meets sectional groups during the day. Edwin Puls, a former student who has taken radio work under Professor Britell, assists in the instruction.

The Zarathustra society held a meeting for the proposal of new names and in order to outline the year's work. Another meeting will be held shortly for the election of officers and to decide upon the time for the first program.

On Tuesday evening the usual semi-annual reception of the faculty to the students was held in the administration building. The young people were greeted by President and Mrs. Conn at the head of the receiving line. After the hand shaking all repaired to the chapel where an interesting program was given. Miss Piper gracefully presided and introduced the speakers and musicians. President Conn, who according to custom always gives the address of welcome at these meetings, spoke in very serious vein with regard to the necessity of utilization of time and conservation of effort on the part of all students. Nevertheless he expressed hope that all would have a good time while in the Normal. Professor Lewis had chosen as his topic "The Schoolmaster Above Par." After recounting amusing stories of the absent-minded professor he asserted that today as never before the schoolmaster has become the leader of the world. He held that society has fallen into disaster because it is bankrupt in ideals and that men have now turned to school teachers for the only realities, which are the realities of mind and aspiration.

The last address of the evening was made by Miss Martha Pierce, of the department of art. It was a cheering, heart-to-heart talk. Miss Ina Hughes, Miss Fern Rahn and Professor Lackey each sang acceptably and Mrs. J. T. House gave a piano solo. Thereafter the young people enjoyed a social time and light refreshments. The faculty reception is a popular institution that has come to stay.

John Deo Hash, who was taken into the service of Uncle Sam about a fortnight ago, is again here, he having been given order to come to Wayne and await instructions. He is supposed to be assigned to some clerical work, and to make a guess it would be that he is to assist the local board, for they have much to do to get things in readiness for the next draft. Questionnaires for the new registrants are beginning to arrive, and the work will have to be looked after.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL
Unless it clouds up this evening, better cover 'em up.

Wm. Beutow picked up a load of good shoats this week.
Wm. Rennick is at Norfolk serving on the federal jury this week.
James Finn headed east Wednesday morning, and kept talking about Mankato.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Alter went to Norfolk on the morning train today for short visit.
W. J. McInerney, who has been on the farm near Leigh most of the summer, is here again for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hart from Des Moines are here visiting her father, W. J. Geary, and with former friends here.

Mary and John O'Shea from Bloomfield were Wayne visitors Saturday and the day following drove on to Sioux City to attend the fair.

Rev. W. M. Purce from Norfolk will be here Monday evening and hold Episcopal services at the Judson home at 8 o'clock that evening.

Patrick Coleman and his daughter, Margaret, were at Sioux City the first of the week, going to the fair and to have the gentleman's eye treated.

J. H. Brugger and family and Thos. Pryor of Winside, were Wayne visitors the last of the week, visiting at the home of their mother, Mrs. M. A. Pryor.

Mrs. Dotson of Pierre, South Dakota, who has been visiting on the west coast, arrived today to visit her son, E. H. Dotson, before returning home.

Carl Clasen received word yesterday evening that his father, is very ill at his home in Chicago, and with his sister, Esther, left at once by car for Sioux City to catch a train to go to his bedside.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Madden and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy DeWitt from Griswold, Iowa, have been visiting at the Chas. Madden home, and Sunday, with the Madden family were entertained at the J. H. Foster home.

Otto Vogel was home last week. He has sold his conservatory of music at Norfolk, and has gone to his farm in South Dakota to rough it a time, and develop flesh and muscle enough to enable him to pass examination for war service.

The federal food administrators of Cedar, Dakota, Dixon, Thurston and Wayne counties held a conference at Emerson on Tuesday afternoon. Uniform plans and rules for conducting the food administration of these counties were adopted.

Just as the sun was its full size above the horizon this morning four auto loads of Carroll people trundled into Wayne on their way to Sioux City for the fair. In spite of being well wrapped none of them appeared to be perspiring. We noticed Garwoods, Jenkins, Jarvis, Evans and others in the bunch.

MINTOSH-BECKMAN
At the Presbyterian Manse in this city Monday evening, September 16, 1918, Rev. S. X. Cross officiating, Corporal Fred Lewis Beckman and Miss Jeannette Laurine McIntosh were united in marriage. Bride and groom will be at home at Camp Funston until such time as the regiment Mr. Beckman is with is ordered to move on toward the other side.

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION FOR COUNTY COMMITTEE
Last week there was a school of instruction at Sioux City for the different county committees named to give instruction to registrants as they are called to the training camps, and the members of the Wayne county organization named for that purpose were all present. The committee is composed of A. R. Davis, F. S. Berry, S. X. Cross and W. O. Hansen. They

CHEATING THE CASUALTY LIST.

Passed by the Censor. Copyright 1918.

Nothing that the Kaiser's hordes can send at them will deter these fellows. Armed with stretchers and simon-pure nerve they take the wounded from the wires and shell holes of No Man's Land and start them back to the treatment that makes each day's casualty lists look very different. We have these boys and they have the nerve, but it is our money, subscribed to Liberty Bonds, that makes their work of rescue and cure possible.

"Tommy Smith," American soldier, went over the bags with the rest of them. He was in the act of hurdling a bit of wire in front of his platoon's objective, in fact, when the shrapnel caught him. His fine fighting vigor left him like the wind from a burst toy balloon and he collapsed inertly into the entanglement. His rifle quivered upright as the bayonet plunged into the ground. "Tommy Smith" was done.
Right behind that first wave, however, came the stretcher bearers, armed, not with bayonets, but with plain, simon-pure grit, and they picked Tommy off of the wire, got him back through a withering burst of fire and slid him dextrously over the parapet he had so lately left.

Down a communication trench was a dressing station. Tommy was a bad case and he didn't stop there long. Back to the first aid station and into an ambulance he went and, after a dash over shell torn roads, he was unloaded at a casualty clearing hospital where, in his turn, he was operated on. Again he moved, this time to a huge base hospital far from the sound of the big guns where a fine, healthy constitution, gained behind a plow in the Middle West, brought him back to health.

Six weeks later he was back with his company, proudly displaying a new wound stripe on his sleeve. On a more that dread casualty list heading "Killed in action," was cheated.
We'll soon have millions of "Tommy Smiths" on the firing lines, and we must have more first aid stations, more ambulances and hospitals to cheat the casualty lists. A 1,000-bd base hospital will take the proceeds of $500,000 in Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds. One $1,000 bond will buy an X-Ray outfit like the one that found the shrapnel in "Tommy Smith's" body. The American who subscribes for $1,600 in bonds provides an ambulance.

FLAG UNION
Rev. and Mrs. Linn and little son are being entertained at the Fred Forsberg home. He preached his first sermon here Sunday.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the Dixon county fair at Concord last week. There were some excellent exhibits.

A good many old friends went to Concord Sunday afternoon to attend the funeral of Mrs. Swan Anderson, of Collegeport, Texas, who passed away at the home in Collegeport Tuesday.

Mrs. Otto Hogelin recently returned from visiting her daughter, Mrs. Roy Nelson, at Fallon, Montana.

Miss Myretta Kraft of Westside, Iowa, returned home Saturday after a visit at her uncle's, L. D. Bruggeman.

B. H. Cross shipped a car of hogs to Steele & Siman of Sioux City Monday.

R. H. Cross and family spent Sunday at Rudolph Klinker's of Martinsburg.

September 12, 1918.
Rev. A. W. Peterson and family have been visiting old friends in this vicinity. They are on their way from Genoa, Nebraska, to their new charge at Burke, South Dakota.

H. Harmeters were Sunday visitors at Clem Harmeyer's near Sholes.
Miss Gibson of Randolph, began school duties at Flag last Monday. Miss Berkle of Beldep at Golden Gleam.

Tuesday evening the friends of Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Weaver gathered at the church to bid them Godspeed. They were to depart the following morning for their new charge at Lock Ridge, Iowa. A substantial token was duly presented and refreshments served.

SOME LIBERTY LOAN SLOGANS
Wear your old clothes and buy Liberty bonds.
Liberty bonds or German bondage.
"Come across" or the kaiser will.
The soldier gives; you must lend.
Liberty bonds or German taxes.
Buy 'em here to win over there.
It's billions for defense or billions for indemnity.
For Foch and freedom; buy bonds.
A bond slacker is the kaiser's backer.
A man who won't lend is the Kaiser's friend.

were addressed by representatives of the department from Washington, and report a most excellent meeting from which the members received many valuable points.

BOYS HOME FROM LINCOLN
Three of the Wayne young men had permit to come from Lincoln last week and spend thirty-six hours among friends. They were Arthur Hinnerichs, Wm. Thielman and Roy Masten. Relatives met them at Wisner with a car and returned them to that place, thus shortening the time required for the journey over what it would have taken by rail.

MORE MEN CALLED SOON
The next draft call for late this month or early in October is for 181,808, and Nebraska's quota is said to be 5,945, and that will mean about a half hundred men from this county, if our quota is the average percentage.

SOLDIER BOY BOOSTS LITTLE OLD NEBRASKA

The bureau of publicity of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce recently mailed a circular entitled "What Nebraska is doing to help win the War" to all Nebraska soldier boys whose addresses were available. The following is an example of the replies: "It sure makes a fellow feel good to know that his state is standing behind him as Nebraska is. It puts a kind of pep in one that just cannot be beat, no matter what the pressure may be. I for one am mighty glad to be able to call little old Nebraska my home."

COMFORT KIT REPORT
Mrs. E. W. Huse makes the following report of the funds given to the comfort kit fund, since last report:
Busy Bee Circle.....$1.31
Fern Wamburg, Crystal Dragon, Theodora Duxbury, Genevieve and Lucile Schmidt gave a show, and donated the proceeds to the fund, in the sum of.....3.00
Mrs. J. H. Rimel.....2.00
Herman Vahkamp.....1.00

The more bonds you buy the fewer boys will die.
Be one of the millions to lend the billions.
Dig up the gun and bury the hun. Buy bonds before it's verboten. Idle dollars are pro-German. Put the "pay" into patriotism. Bonds speak louder than words. If you can't fight, your money can. Freemen buy bonds; slaves wear them.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

The following proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 5th, A. D. 1918:
A JOINT RESOLUTION to amend Section one (1) of Article seven (7) of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.
Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:
Section 1. That Section One of Article Seven of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska be and the same hereby is amended by striking out the following words:
"Second. Persons of foreign birth who shall have declared their intention to become citizens conformably to the laws of the United States, on the subject of naturalization, at least thirty days prior to an election."
And inserting in the place of the words so stricken, the following words:
"Second. Persons of foreign birth who shall have become citizens of the United States by naturalization, or otherwise conformably to the laws of the United States at least thirty days prior to an election.
Sec. 2. That at the general election nineteen hundred and eighteen (1918) there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection the foregoing proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage. At such election, on the ballot of each elector voting for or against said proposed amendment, shall be written or printed the words: "For proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage," and "Against said proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage."
Sec. 3. If such amendment shall be approved by a majority of all electors voting at such election, said amendment shall constitute Section One (1) Article Seven (7) of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.
Approved, April 9, 1918.

Attest:
KEITH NEVILLE, Governor
CHARLES W. POOL, Secretary of State
