TRAINING UNIT COMES TO WAYNE NORMAL SCHOOL

On Monday of this week President Conn of the State Normal school, was in Minneapolis conferring with Dr. Edward Nicholson, regional director for the student army training corps. Dr. Nicholson recommended to the department that the Wayne State Normal be authorized to establish a unit and on Tuesday a telegram was received from Adjutant General Harris approving the recommendation. The telegram says in part "An officer of the United States army will be detailed and upon arrival he will proceed with the organization of the unit. Rifles, uniforms, overcoats and other equipment will be shipped at an early date."

Those who are eligible to membership must be high school graduates, physically able for military service and between the ages of 18 and 46. Details cannot be announced until the arrival of an officer, but in general the student will be expected to devote one-third of his time to military tactics and the remainder of his time to academic subjects. The student will be at all times under military supervision. The federal government pays all expenses and gives the student $30 a month.

It is expected that the unit will consist of from one hundred to one hundred and fifty men. The best of accommodations can be given to this number. The boys will be housed in one of the modern fireproof buildings which is equipped with steam heat and electric lights. They will also have the use of gymnasium, the shower baths and the plunge bath. This will be far different from the accommodations which will be furnished the units in some schools where they will be housed in temporary wooden shacks for barracks. The splendid accommodations to be found in the Normal school as well as the fact that the student is in a small group are advantages which cannot well be overlooked by the ambitious young man who is capable of earning promotion.

The purpose of the unit is primarily to discover material for officers. The academic as well as the military training is all given by the government with this end in view. It is an unusual opportunity and an advantage which no government has ever offered so generally to its own men. Every young man in northeast Nebraska who is of draft age and eligible should jump at the opportunity. Registration blanks may be had by writing or calling at the State Normal school office. The last day for registration will be on Monday, October 7.

"EVERY WOMAN BUYS A BOND"

Slogan adopted by the women of Wayne county.

Every woman loves a bargain and the coupons cut from last year's Liberty bonds arouse a desire for more of these paying investments. Of course this is only secondary to the desire to help out Uncle Sam and our brave boys across the seas. What encouragement it must give them to have mother, wife or sister write "standing by you Jim, bought more bonds today."

The Women's Liberty Loan Committee of Wayne county sold over ninety thousand dollars worth of bonds the last drive.

Watch their returns for the Fourth Liberty Loan drive!

Mrs. A. T. Chapin the county chairman has appointed a woman in each precinct to sell the bonds and if you cannot wait until called upon to show your patriotism ring them up and say how many bonds you want.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

The democratic electors of Wayne county are called to meet at the county court house in Wayne on Saturday, September 28, 1918 at 3 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of selecting a chairman and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention. W. O. Hanssen, Secretary of Democratic County Committee.

CLARENCE (DEAK) POWERS SENDS LETTER FROM FRANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Powers received a letter this week from their son, Clarence, who went to France early in the game to show the fellows over there how we run railroads here—that is he is in the railway service, and in part writes as follows:

LaRochelle, France, Aug. 30, '18. Dear Folks All:—It is high time I was getting busy with my writing. It must be two weeks since I wrote you. I have not heard from you in a long time. I received a letter from John Soules today, dated July 27. He didn't say a word about you folks. I have been moving around considerable of late, but guess I am located for good now, and I hope so for I like it just fine here, and am farther from the front than ever. I guess something like 300 miles. I am just as safe here as a babe in his mother's arms, so don't worry about me.

I am in a French first class coach as I write this. They are different from our coaches, all partitioned off in apartments and entrance to each apartment on the side of the car. They are nice inside, though. I just got back from my midnight lunch. We had pancakes and corned beef hash, coffee and syrup—not at all bad?

I met Francis Jones here last night—son of F. H. Jones, who is in the navy, and he came down to see me again tonight. He was telling me much about the submarines he had seen and the different experiences he had had. He is apparently getting to be a real sailor.

This is a seaport town, and I might add a good town or city. I would like to hear from you and know where Fen and Mage are and what branch of service they are in. I see they have passed that 18 to 45 bill. Well it is time for me to do a little work, so will quit for now.

BREEDERS' BOOSTER DAY

At the meeting Tuesday to push plans for the breeder booster day the date was definitely fixed for Tuesday, October 8, and the route was partly outlined, and is to be given next week. A dozen or more farms will be visited, and the picnic dinner will be in the park at Winside, and they want each party or car load to take ample for themselves and at least one extra, for they may pick up some stragglers. Tables will be provided, and hot coffee free for the holding out your cup.

At least two men from the agricultural college are to accompany the crowd, and S. R. McKelvie of the Nebraska Farmer is also promised. The Welch band and the Sextet from Carroll county are engaged, and the day promises to be equal if not better than the one last season. They want post card size photos from each place visited, and offer a dollar prize for the best picture of that size from each place visited. If possible every business house in Wayne should have a representative with the procession.

DEATH OF MRS. H. E. GRIGGS

Mrs. H. E. Griggs died at their home in this city Monday, September 23, 1918, after an illness of a little more than two weeks of intermittent malaria, at the age of 61 years, 10 months and 13 days. Mrs. May Carr Griggs was born November 5, 1918, at Fenimore, Wisconsin, and married to H. E. Griggs in December, 1899, at Carroll, and have since resided in this county. She is survived by the husband, three daughters, Fern, Iris and Lydia and two sisters and four brothers, as follows: Wm. Carr, Blackwell, Oklahoma; Mrs. Henry Wolf, Springfield, South Dakota; Amanda Davis, address unknown; Robert Carr, Topeka, Kansas; Isaac H. Carr, Hoskins; Oliver B. Carr, El Paso, Texas. They have been residents of Wayne twenty-seven years a kind and loving wife and mother and neighbor. The funeral is from the Methodist church of which she was a devout member, this afternoon, Rev. D. W. MacGregor preaching the sermon.

GUS WILL INJURED BY HORSE

Tuesday while working at the Chas. Thompson barn Gus Will was kicked on the head by a horse and quite seriously injured. He was in a dazed condition when found, and help called, and cannot tell just how it happened. There appears to be the mark of a hoof on the top of the head, and a bruise over the temple, and his neck is very stiff and sore.

He is said to be improving, and will soon be about again is the verdict.

Notice About Conserving Paper

The pledge is asked of this paper, and every other newspaper in the land to conserve paper—and while the publisher is free to sign or not as he wishes, unless he signs he can get no paper. One of the rules for the conservation of paper is to discontinue sending free papers, exchanges unless within a 40-mile radius, and also not to send papers unless paid for in advance. We have some in this latter class yet, though a number have read their label and heeded the notice in the last issue—but there are others. We may be able to give a week yet, perhaps two weeks—but you should not ask it—you should show appreciation of credit extended and help us keep the spirit and the letter of the ruling without loss of money or patronage. Trusting that those in arrears on subscription accounts will be prompt.

We are yours for World Democracy,

GARDNER & WADE, Publishers.

OBITUARY OF CHARLES MILTON BROWN

Charles Milton Brown was born in Siddonsburg, York county, Pennsylvania, November 16, 1889, and died at Wayne, Nebraska, September 21, 1918, at the age of 28 years, 10 months and 5 days.

His death was due to injuries which he received in a runaway when the loaded wagon which he was riding went over his body Saturday evening. He was almost home when the fatal accident occurred. He was brought to the local hospital and everything was done that possibly could be by Dr. Lutgen, but it was too late. He died that same evening at 11:45.

Mr. Brown was the son of John and Catherine Brown who live in York county, Pennsylvania. He lived most of his life in his native state, but came to Nebraska in 1910 and stayed for almost two years. Later he returned to Pennsylvania and came to Nebraska again May 1, 1915, in which state he has resided ever since. On November 20, 1915, he was married to Miss Grace Billet of Pennsylvania.

Our brother joined the Lisburn Church of God in Cumberland county, Pennsylvania, in the winter of 1914 and was baptized into the fellowship of the Wayne Baptist church during the fall of 1916. Since that time he has been a good and consistent member.

Mr. Brown seemed always to be of a happy disposition and was very considerate of his wife and little son at all times. He was tried perhaps as few men are with afflictions and sorrow and yet through it all he hoped for the best with strong confidence in God. He tried always to exemplify the life of his Master. At his death he was acting superintendent of the Liberty Union Sunday school northwest of town.

Saturday night when the accident happened he realized his time was short and talked to his brother Morris about all his personal affairs, especially as he was very solicitous of Mrs. Brown and his little son, Raymond. He told his brother that he was prepared to meet his Maker. At his request his pastor prayed with him while he lay in the hospital.

He leaves to mourn Mrs. Brown, his wife, and son, Raymond, aged 2 years. Also father and mother. He is survived by five brothers and one sister. His brothers are: George Hale, Mechanicsburg, Pa.; Frank Brown, Lucknow, Pa.; Howard Brown, Harrisburg, Pa.; and Dewey Brown who is at the present time in Camp Lee, Virginia. His sister, Mrs. Clara Brown Gross lives at Allen, Pennsylvania.

A short funeral service was held in the Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. F. J. Jordan, his pastor officiating.

Morris Brown accompanied the body of his brother to Pennsylvania Monday morning. He will be buried in the Andersontown cemetery in York county and the services there will be conducted by his former pastor, Rev. Heighed.

N. J. MAXWELL INJURED

Last week while engaged at the Philo-Harrington lumber yard, N. J. Maxwell, who has been subject to fainting spells at times, fell in one of them and quite seriously injured his head, and also fractured a bone of his arm, and he has been confined to his home since, and the bump on the head is threatening to make quite serious trouble.

WALTER MILLER TAKES INDIANS FOR OUTING

A few days ago a quartet of the real native Americans were put off the passenger at this station, because they had been too much tanked up to get off at Wakefield where they should have changed cars for Crofton or some port on that line, and applied for automobile passage, to some point up near the Missouri river where there are said to be bad booze smugglers and alert officials to catch them. While Miller's passengers seemed to carry a pretty good jag within, it seems that their entire cargo of "Sagwa" was not where an officer could not find it. So, as it happened, the car was inspected up near the line by officials, and in the Brave's grip some contraband fluid was found. This put Mr. Miller in bad, for as owner of the car, and driver, he was held responsible, and with his gas wagon taken into custody. The Red Men and women were given a fine, for being drunk, and Miller had to arrange bail and bond to get home with his car. He called home for legal help, and is at liberty, but may have to appear in court later and tell all about it.

We understand that the Indians fessed to having brought the drink into the state a little faster than they could drink it, and that the driver was innocent of any part in the crime, but we imagine that Mr. Miller will be wise and make the next bunch of Indians drink all they have in stock before hiring to take them a car ride.

THE TRAINING UNIT FOR WAYNE NORMAL SCHOOL

Things move rapidly these days, and Wayne people are setting a pace. Elsewhere is told the successful effort to secure military instructions for the young men of this part of Nebraska at Wayne.

No sooner was the word received here than the citizens, through their Public Service club met and planned a campaign to carry the news personally to the different communities. Men and automobiles were quickly volunteered to go out and tell the young men who are eligible to enter this unit for training how much better will be their opportunity to be of greater help to their country and in a better position in every way by acting promptly—and they practically take no offense, for they will nearly all of them be called shortly if they do not volunteer now. Read of the opportunity, and if you are not eligible, present the plan to one whom you know to be eligible to take advantage of the opportunity.

GEO. L. MINER RESIGNS

At the council meeting Tuesday evening the resignation of Geo. L. Miner as chief of police of Wayne was read and accepted. Mr. Miner has been a resident of Wayne for many years, and for more than a quarter of a century at the head of the police department. He served in the days when it took more than a tin star to make a peace officer, in the days when booze had to be fought as well as the men who were made boisterous and ugly by it. He was fearless in the discharge of such duties, and appeared ever faithful, and a terror to evil doers.

He has gone to his farm in South Dakota, and we understand expects to remain there with wife and son who went last spring and have been farming the place the past summer.

MRS. THEODORE LOSE DIES

Mrs. Theodore Lose died at their home near Winside September 20, 1918, at the age of 58 years, 3 months and 10 days, and following a funeral service at the home Monday and another one at the Lutheran church at Winside was buried in the cemetery at that city.

Johanna Eveline Schutt was born in Germany June 10, 1860, and came to America when but a child. She was married in February 14, 1903, to Theodore Schutt, who with a sister and three brothers survive her.

John Morgan is home from his fishing trip and visit with his son in Minnesota; but we were unable to get any fish story from him this time. He said that he had recently spent a day or two fishing, accompanied by one of our local clergymen, and had resolved not to tell any more fish stories. But he failed to make quite clear to the writer whether or not it was the good influence of the man of cloth, or because he had come to realize his inability to compete with the new fisherman in the art of telling what happened.

"DEATH OF AUGUST FANSKE

August Fanske, who was born in Berlin, Germany, December 22, 1832, died at the home of his daughter, at Pierce, Monday, September 23, 1918. After a brief service at Pierce Tuesday the body was taken to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and buried beside that of his wife, who passed away ten years ago. The children are Mrs. Carrie Seldel, Seattle, Washington; Mrs. Clara Herschel, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Mrs. Lillie Ramsdell, Inglewood, California; Mrs. Emma Drebert, Mrs. Luny Drebert and Ed C. Fanske of Pierre, and L. A. Fanske of Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Fanske drove to Pierce Tuesday to attend the service held there, returning that evening.

The Guild of St. Mary's church met with Mrs. Jas. Elin last Thursday. Mrs. Carroll and Mrs. Malloy were taken in as members. Mrs. Stanton of Carroll was a guest. The afternoon was spent in Red Cross work. A delicious luncheon was served. On October 3 Mrs. Pawelski will be hostess.

APPEAL FOR SPARE CLOTHES FOR RELIEF IN BELGIUM

The destitute of Belgium and northern France need your spare clothing.

Back of the German wall that has hemmed in Belgium and part of northern France ten million human beings look to us for clothing, as well as food. We, who are clothed, can hardly appreciate in what dire need these people are for lack of necessities. Stocks of clothing and raw material are long since exhausted. There are no imports other than those the Commission for Relief in Belgium has been permitted to make, and these never have been sufficient. The world is now short of both clothing and raw material, so the commission can no longer purchase what is needed. But you can give it.

Every household in the land has spare clothing, worn or outworn, of little use here, but desperately needed by the destitute there. This extract from a letter of a well-to-do lady of Brussels shows the conditions exactly:

"Perhaps you will laugh when you hear that I wear a cloak made from my husband's garde civique overcoat, a waist made from his football shirt, and a skirt made of a dyed bed sheet. Mother has a suit made of the tablecloth. J. and M. have cloaks made of woolen blankets, and S. a dress made of burlap. But all this is only amusing in comparison with the wretchedness of the population. After all, we remain calm and confident of victory."

A recent Brussels advertisement says: "I will give up to 125 francs ($25) for new or worn bed sheets." There is an immediate need for every sort of garments, blankets, sheets, and shoes.

The very wonderful result of the clothing campaign of last March assisted in helping to meet the demands; but when we realize that there are ten million inhabitants in the occupied regions, most of whom must look to the outside world for protection against the rigors of winter, it is seen that we cannot send too much. As long as the war lasts Belgium and occupied France must depend chiefly on America for aid. To insure the steady supply of garments which are so much needed, we appeal again to the generosity of the American public to give, and give largely.

The following are a committee to care for your offering: Mesdames E. W. Huse, T. W. Moran, D. W. Noakes, H. M. Crawford, J. M. Cherry, L. W. Roe, Frank Whitney, E. E. Lackey.

Your offerings may be left at the Voegt building, recently occupied by Ed Ellis until Monday evening next. The room will be open mornings from about 9 o'clock until 11:30; afternoon from 1:30 to 5 and Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. R. Armstrong was called to the home of her parents at Albion Sunday by word of her mother's serious illness.

Berndt Juhlin from Kansas City returned home Saturday afternoon after a visit of a few days with his parents, N. J. Juhlin and wife, and with other relatives and friends.

Dewey and Goldie Folk from Bloomfield on their way to the Sioux City fair stopped off between trains Friday morning to visit their grandmother, Mrs. W. P. Agler.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jones and sons drove to Tabor, Iowa, Saturday to visit among old home friends and with his father at that place. They planned to return last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Maholm of Burkett, came Saturday from Chamberlain, South Dakota, to visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. M. C. Lower. They are old residents here, and find many friends besides their relatives.

C. H. Hendrickson, appeared for three elevators, at Rosalie, last Saturday, in a hearing before the United States food administration. The elevators were charged with profiteering, and unlawful combination. There was a great deal of feeling in the matter, and several farmers and other towns in the immediate vicinity were interested.

The sun cannot set on American soldiers in the great war. They are in France, Germany, Italy, and in Archangel, Russia, up under the Arctic Circle. They are in the Philippines, Hawaii and Samoa, in Panama, and one of the Central American republics, in Haiti and Santo Domingo. It used to be said that the sun never set on the British flag, but the same can now be said of the khaki men.

Miss Ella Rohwer from Calhoun returned home Saturday after a visit of several days at the home of her friend, Mrs. Wright.

Carl C. Thompson went to Excelsior Springs, Missouri, Saturday to spend a few days there with his wife, who is there for treatment.

C. H. Hendrickson left for Winner, South Dakota, on business matters, last Sunday, and will attend federal court at Norfolk on his return.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. White were visitors at Pierce last week, driving over to attend the fair and visit relatives and friends. They report a good fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bowman of Martinsburg, visited here Saturday and Sunday, driving over to visit at the A. A. Miller home between here and Carroll.

A trade was effected last week, whereby C. H. Hendrickson becomes the owner of the Forrest Hughes lot, in the north part of town, and he expects to build a modern residence in the spring.

Mrs. R. H. Ferrel left here Saturday morning to join her husband, who is working at Sioux City, and plans to remain there this winter at least. They have resided at Wayne several years.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bartels of Carroll, were here Sunday morning, driving over to meet his cousin, Miss Addie Bartels, from Fort Wayne, Indiana, who came for a visit at the Bartels home.

Walter Bowman from Ponca has been here to visit at the home of his uncle, A. A. Miller and family northwest of Wayne. The young man is one of the lads soon to be called to the service of Uncle Sam, and is visiting a bit before he starts after the Germans.

A little over a year ago there were some 3,000,000 United States bond holders; there are now somewhere between 20,000,000 and 25,000,000 bondholders. Awakened patriotism has made the American people a saving people, a bond-buying people. The effect of the Liberty Loan on the national character, on our national life, on the individual life is immeasurable—of incalculable benefit. Not less incalculable is the effect on the destiny of the world as our ships plow the seas and our men and material in Europe beat back the Hun.

Ray Bartels of Cherry county, a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bartels, of this county is among the young men just called for service from there, and has gone to training at Fort Omaha. Mr. Bartels also informed us that his son-in-law, Otto Smith, who is or has been living and farming in Wyoming, has entered the service. Mr. Smith was called two or three months earlier, and having a large crop of wheat in dependent upon his services for harvest, the board placed him in a deferred class until his harvest was over. The Bartels family also have another lad who registered with the last registration.

Miss Elsie Warnock is teaching at North Platte this year.

Gwilym Jones from Carroll went to Lincoln Monday morning to begin school at the Wesleyan university. His sister, Miss Winnie, accompanied him for a visit there, and to assist him in getting located.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Fanske and children drove to Pierce Sunday to see Mr. Fanske's father, August Fanske, who is ill of pneumonia, with but slight chance of recovery, because of his age, being 87 years old. Mr. Fanske has made his home here for a time with his son, and will be remembered by numerous friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Weaver came last week from Ashland, Ohio, to visit at the home of her parents, J. W. Mason and wife. They were accompanied by Mrs. C. M. Umbaugh, who grew to womanhood on the farm adjoining the Mason farm in Ohio, and who was coming west to visit a brother in North Dakota. This was the lady's first visit west of Chicago, and she expressed her admiration for this country, and the advancement it had made in the third of a century, for she knew that it had been but an unsettled prairie within a comparatively short time. She left Monday for Regent, North Dakota, and Miss Mary Mason accompanied her as far as Sioux City, and spent the day with her at that place.

Prof. Charles H. Bright, formerly county superintendent in Wayne county, graduate of the Nebraska normal college and for many years a member of the faculty of the State Normal, passed through Wayne last Saturday morning on his way to Stevens Point, Wisconsin, to attend the meeting of the rural life commission, a most important gathering of national significance. Professor and Mrs. Bright spent the past year in California where Professor Bright has important business interests. They are now located in Chadron, where the professor is a member of the faculty of the state normal, holding the chair of rural sociology and rural education. In preparation for launching his new work, Mr. Bright will visit, not only Stevens Point but also the normal schools at Bloomington, Illinois, Terre Haute, Indiana, and Kirksville, Missouri, where the most advanced work in rural life is being done. Professor and Mrs. Bright have a host of friends in this section who will be rejoiced to learn that they have returned to the state and that the professor has work so congenial to his taste and for which he is so well fitted. Many had hoped that this valued pair would again live in this community, but the letter from President Conn offering Professor Bright the vacant registrarship at the local institution failed to reach its destination before he had accepted the place at Chadron. Wayne regrets the loss of Professor and Mrs. Bright but congratulates our neighbor city and state institution on the acquisition of so valuable an addition to school and community.

OBITUARY

Ida Minnie Clark was born at Putman, Illinois, September 23, 1891, and died at Norfolk, Nebraska, September 10, 1913, thus she lacked only twelve days of being 27 years of age. In the year 1904 her parents moved to Nebraska and settled on a farm near Coleridge, and after a few years residence there they removed to Wayne county and again took up farming on a place about six miles northwest of Carroll.

On September 25, 1913 she was married to Herbert Honey and this union was blessed by the coming of a baby daughter, born October 23, 1915, who with the bereaved husband and father, remain to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother. Other immediate members of the family are Mrs. G. C. Clark, of Sioux City, mother of the departed one. Chas. Clark of Los Angeles, California, a brother; Mrs. R. N. Donahey, of Seattle, Washington, a sister; Ralph Clark, Wayne, brother; Mrs. Ed Wright, Wayne, sister; Mrs. Lewis Horn, Omaha, sister; Wm. and Geo. Clark, brothers in the service of the United States; Emma Clark, a sister who resides with the mother at Morningside, Iowa. One brother and one sister have passed on to their reward.

Since her marriage she has lived with her husband at the family home of the Honey's and it was here where the knowledge of her true worth as a wife and mother was learned. She took up her position and filled it well, never faltering in her desire to please all members of the household, and they, too, feel the loss of one who had won their heart's affection and who was near and dear to them.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Carroll last Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. E. E. Carter, and interment took place in the Carroll cemetery. The floral offerings were many and beautiful and a large crowd was present to pay their last respect to a loving relative and friend. The pall bearers were chosen from the Carroll band, of which the husband has been a faithful member for many years.

Her life was gentle but like the still waters it was deep. In her heart of hearts she carried those she loved, and her hand was never weary, her step never failed in ministering unto and caring for those who were in anyway dependent upon her.

"Then fell upon the house a sudden gloom,
A shadow on those featured fair and thin;
And softly, from that hushed and darkened room,
Two angels issued where but one went in."

(From Wayne County Teacher)

District No. 79 since the last issue of the Wayne County Teacher has turned in six comfort pillows, nine baby quilts, twenty-three wash cloths, six pillow cases, one sheet, and thirteen towels.

District No. 48, has turned in one dozen towels, five pairs pillow slips, one large quilt, two comfort pillows.

District No. 61, has turned in five towels, one baby quilt, one comfort pillow, gun wipes, and six trinket bags.

The pupils in this district have met every Friday afternoon during the summer under direction of Mrs. W. S. Young and Mrs. A. E. Halladay, members of the school district committee, fourteen pupils have been enrolled, Ardath Halladay not having been absent from any of the meetings.

The Junior Red Cross auxiliary in District No. 7 has finished nine sweaters, six pairs of socks, and nine wash rags. Mrs. George Grubb and Mrs. Amos Longe are members of the school district committee.

The pupils in District No. 12 made six wash cloths, one girl had started a sweater, and the little folks made two large boxes of snippings.

It seems that some of the articles that have been made in the schools are not now wanted. Neither the comfort pillows nor quilts seem to be needed now, but I think towels, wash cloths, and the large handkerchiefs will be accepted any time by the Red Cross.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION.

All parents who have children between the ages of 7 and 15 ought to get them in school NOW. The law requires them to attend two-thirds of the entire time school is in session. Irregularity of attendance is a violation of this law and the teachers are to report all such cases on their monthly reports. In most cases negligent parents are responsible for non-attendance and irregularity. It is necessary to send but one notice to parents or guardians who are keeping their children out of school and if the children are not sent within one week of the time the notice was received then the complaint is to be filed in the county court. The fine for violating the compulsory education law is not less than five dollars or not more than twenty-five.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. P. C. Crockett visited at Sioux City Monday.

Mrs. J. T. Bressler and daughter, Mrs. Claycomb, visited Sioux City Tuesday.

S. E. Auker went to Rushville the first of the week to visit with former friends and with relatives.

L. C. Gildersleeve was in the southern part of the state, and purchased three cars of hungry shoats.

Mrs. J. S. Gamble went to Carroll Saturday to visit a short time with her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Osborn.

Gust A. Johnson, wife and daughter went to Red Oak, Iowa, Tuesday to visit relatives and friends a short time.

Mrs. Hawieson came from Mapleton, Minnesota, Wednesday morning to attend the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. Griggs.

Mrs. L. M. Owen and son, LeRoy, returned the first of the week from their visit in Colorado, and the young man reports a splendid time.

Mrs. John Echtenkamp from Arlington returned home Wednesday, following a visit here at the home of her son, W. G. Echtenkamp and wife.

You'll be perfectly satisfied with your winter overcoat if you let us fit you out. Our stock is now ready for your inspection.—Morgan's Toggery.—Adl

Mrs. Johnson from Akron, Iowa, returned home Wednesday after a month's visit at the home of her niece, Mrs. C. Clasen. Mrs. Clasen accompanied her to Sioux City.

Mrs. L. R. Randall of Wynot, was here with her sister, Miss Matilda Feiner, who came to enter the school here, and visited friends of her school days at the Normal. She returned home Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Clasen returned Sunday morning from Chicago, where they had been to visit Father Clasen who is seriously ill, with no hope of recovery. Miss Winifred Clasen, a niece came with them for a short visit.

J. S. Carhart went to Sioux City Tuesday to spend the day with his wife, who underwent an operation last week for goitre at the St. Vincent hospital. He reports that she is getting along very well, and will be able to return home within a week he hopes.

James Stanton and his son, Matt, from Carroll went to Omaha Tuesday, where the young man will enter the Creighton university for his second year of school work there—if the war conditions permit him to finish the school year before he is called to do other things.

Robert Skiles went to Vayland, South Dakota, Tuesday morning to look after his farm interests there. Robert tells us that though they make him work there, he has had his day of fighting in the trouble of 1861 to 1865, and he will take work in his from this on.

MORGAN
SUIT BUILDER

The county agent of Dixon county has resigned to enter war work, and while those who have worked with him regret his departure, we can almost hear some of the farmers here who do not approve of any scientific help with their farming, say it is a good thing. Perhaps he can can the kaiser.

H. M. Pense from Chicago came the first of the week to visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. C. Forbes. Mr. Pense has been from his home some time, having been at Portland in attendance of the national meeting of the G. A. R., and other places in the west. He has long been active in the G. A. R. circles of his own state, and always attends the state gatherings, and this is the third national encampment he has attended. He said that in spite of the fact that they were in the war game more than fifty years ago, there were more than 5,000 veterans in the line of march, while enough to make the representation nearly 7,000 were in automobiles.

Neil Herman purchased a bunch of feeders at Bloomfield the first of the week, and we have frequently wondered why it is that more of our feeders do not pick up their feeders nearer home and from the man who grows them. It frequently happens that Jones sends a bunch of feeders to the Omaha market, and Smith his neighbor not more than ten miles away, perhaps goes to Oaah, and buys them and ships them back. Thus there is two freights and a commission man's profit and yardage added, that should be saved and divided between Jones and Smith, and the ultimate consumer. It would seem that to a certain extent there should be a way of getting buyer and seller together without so much freight, and now that the government—the people—are running the roads why not figure to save the work—for that is the substance of it all.

WITH THE WAYNE CHURCHES

Baptist Church

(Rev. Fletcher J. Jordan, Pastor)

State Mission Day will be observed in the Baptist church next Sunday morning at 10:30. The program will consist of a three-act dramatized presentation of a board meeting. The scenes will be laid in a room in a Baptist parsonage and a committee room in a Y. M. C. A. building. It will be full of interest and information to all who come. Come prepared to make a good offering for the work of missionary endeavor as we get credit on our local budget for everything we give in this way. Those back on benevolences and missions will confer a great favor on the local budget treasurer if they will pay up in full by next Sunday. All the money for six months should be in the hands of Rev. C. H. Bancroft not later than October 5.

Sunday school holds its session after the morning service.

There will be no evening service as it is necessary for the pastor to be out of town for that day.

E. Y. P. U. next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Arthur Norton is the leader. Young people are cordially invited to meet with us.

The Missionary society will hold its meeting this month at the home of Mrs. Sears, Friday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. The subject is: Work by camp pastors, and the leader is the pastor.

The Ladies' Union will meet after the missionary meeting at Mrs. Sears' for the election of a secretary and such other business as may be necessary. A full attendance is greatly desired.

The choir will meet for its rehearsal Saturday evening at 8 p. m.

The Nebraska Baptist State convention meets this year in Omaha from October 5 to 19. Let us as Baptists make this a real inspiring meeting by attending all its sessions. Speakers of power will be there.

The church envelopes beginning with the first Sunday in October are here. Plan to secure a pack and pay into the Lord's treasury in a systematic way.

Rev. J. D. Collins and Miss Nellie Lucas will hold a three-day institute in our church beginning October 16. We are hoping to realize abiding benefit from the presence of these Christian experts and people of God.

Strangers in our city over Sunday and all people without church privileges are asked to meet and worship with us.

Methodist Episcopal Church

(Rev. D. W. MacGregor, Pastor)

Sunday school last Sunday was a hummer for attendance, collection and study of the lesson. Every teacher and pupil be an evangelist, going out as Christ hath said "Into the highways and hedges," bringing in the boys and girls who do not attend Sunday school anywhere else.

Sunday school, 10 a. m., the superintendent and pastor will be looking for you to be present.

At 11 a. m., the pastor will preach subject: "The People had a Mind to work." A working church is a fruitful church, a winning church, a spiritual church. Special music by the choir. Professor Coleman and his choir will make the music and singing a soul refreshing part of the services.

Young people's meeting at 7 p. m. E. L. and I. L. meet at same hour, 8 p. m., sermon.

You will find a welcome at this church. Strangers and non-church goers cordially invited to come and worship with us.

Presbyterian Church

(Rev. S. Xenophon Cross, Pastor)

Go to church on Sunday.

Next Sunday will be Rally Day, in both church and Sunday school.

The sermon theme next Sunday morning will be: "The Christian Ministry." Every church member should be present.

Make next Sunday a real rally season in the Sunday school. Each can do a good bit by being present in some class in the Sunday school.

"New Styles in Men," is the subject for the sermon at the next Sunday evening preaching service. There will be a good program of music under the direction of Mrs. A. R. Davis, chorister.

All are cordially invited to attend any and all of the above services. You can help us, maybe we can help you, and we can all serve together. We desire to see every one who can come in his place in the church and Sunday school services next Sunday.

Evangelical Lutheran

(Rev. Rudolph Moehring, Pastor)

Wayne church: Confirmation class next Saturday at 3:45 p. m. Service next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Sunday school preceding the service. Winside church: Confirmation class next Saturday as usual. Service in English next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock; Sunday school preceding the service.

WHERE DID WE GO?
 (From The Goldenrod)

Of the many places of interest and beauty that have an attraction for the Nebraskan tourist, there is none more restful and impressive than the famous Rockies of our neighboring state, Colorado.

President and Mrs. Conn and Ardath Conn chose this mountain region in which to get thoroughly sunbathed, throw off all care and be supremely happy, next to nature. They were so kind as to invite the writer to share with them their joys, and the delightful trip by automobile brought interest and charm that could not have been obtained in any other mode of travel. Motoring on through Columbus, Kearney, Ft. Morgan, not forgetting Big Springs with its streets at flood tide, we found ourselves in Loveland at the foot of the Rocky Mountains, most anxious for the climb.

Early the next morning we wended our way upward through Big Thompson Canyon to Estes Park. The park itself was a huge disappointment to me, as it fell far short of the glowing description with which I had heard it painted. The canyon, however, was altogether a wonderful revelation of God's handiwork. The marvelous formations, with their gorgeous, delicate colorings, must be really seen and felt to be appreciated. From Estes Park we sped along to Denver, the ideal city of the West, and to Look Out Mountain on the summit of which rests the body of "Buffalo Bill." We each added a cobblestone to the rough pile of masonry already placed there in memory of the famous scout.

Those of the party who had been there before could not resist a second visit to the delightful pleasure resort at Troutdale where breathing the odor of the pines the wearied one feels that he has really found the isle of rest, and it was with reluctance that we drew away wondering if anywhere on our journey we would find a place that would so appeal to us. And yet, as we drove through Bear Creek Canyon new emotions were aroused and we felt that had we seen no other spot we would have been repaid for our trip.

Our next stopping place was at Colorado Springs and Manitou which nestles in and among some of the highest mountains in Colorado, and at the foot of Pike's Peak. These towns famous for their medical springs bring travelers from all over the world. A short drive takes one through the Garden of the Gods, Cave of Winds, and various other wonders of nature. Perhaps to me the Cave of the Winds was as interesting as any of these places, being discovered several years ago by two boys, who, after the manner of Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn, were out exploring. The cave has now been fitted up and lighted for the reception of visitors. In our meanderings from one to the other of the sixteen rooms, we found amazing, unbelievable colorings and formations. Among them were captured German submarines displaying American flags; Lot's wife turned to salt, a large piece of breakfast bacon, and Dante's Inferno, directly across from which one beholds the bridal chamber. Those of you who are familiar with all that the cave has to offer will be pleased to know that I seized the opportunity that was mine and left a hairpin in the "Old Maid's room." (Watch these columns for further announcements.) There must be many others in sympathy with me for we found 6,969,423 hairpins in the pile. You may readily understand that Colorado had no more interest for me after leaving this room.

Nevertheless, as we turned our backs upon the mountains we felt as if we were leaving all behind us. But not so! As we traveled eastward the wide sweep of the prairie more and more took hold of us and the miles upon miles of Nebraska cornfields interspersed with stacks of wheat and barley were a welcome sight. As loyal Nebraskans we realized that we could truthfully say "This, too, is beautiful!"

—Josephine M. Mack.

THE JUNIOR FARMERS' CONGRESS

(From Wayne County Teacher)

The following report was written by Edwin McDowell of Sholes, who by earning first prize in the county in the pig raising project, won a free trip to Lincoln in May to attend the Junior Farmers' Congress. I left Sholes Monday morning, May 20, 1918, arrived at Wayne about 8 o'clock, where I was met by Miss Sewell. We left Wayne about 8:30 reaching Blair at 12 o'clock, at which place we took dinner. After waiting several hours we boarded a train which brought us to Lincoln at 6:15 p. m. We were met at the depot by Mr. Sam Parks, who took us to the cafeteria where we had supper.

After supper Mr. Parks accompanied us to the University Farm where we heard a lecture and saw some moving pictures of sheep and cattle raising in the forest.

After the lecture we went to the pavillion where we played games until 10:30 after which we retired.

Tuesday Morning
The Reds and Blues were divided (the Reds represented the younger boys and the Blues the ones over 15 years of age).

At 6:45 we went to breakfast. After breakfast the Reds went to the chicken farm where we were shown different breeds of chickens, and also told the good points of each breed.

From there we went to hear a lecture on the raising of corn.

Next we went to a horse judging pavillion where we were given an exercise in horse judging.

After the horse judging we had dinner, after dinner we were turned loose for one hour. We caught a car down town where we visited two museums and one machine shop. From there we went to the Y. M. C. A. where we all enjoyed a swim. After swimming for a short time we boarded a street car and returned to University Farm. Had supper.

After supper we played ball. About 8 o'clock p. m., we were called together and assigned cots.

About 8:30 p. m. we went to a play and also saw the canning of vegetables by the use of the cold pack method.

Wednesday Morning

Wednesday morning we were awakened at 6 o'clock. We began the work of the day by taking sitting up exercises and also a shower bath, after which we went to breakfast.

After breakfast we were taken to one of the buildings and were shown slides of the different kinds of bees and also heard a lecture on the same subject.

After hearing the lecture we were taken to the horse barn where we were engaged in a cattle judging contest. When the contest was over we went to dinner.

Wednesday afternoon our work consisted of the following: After playing games for a short time we attended a lecture on wood, visited a work shop, attended a lecture on sheep, and the different kinds, visited the sheep barn where we saw them shear sheep. From the sheep barn we went to the ball grounds where we engaged in a game of ball. After we had played ball for some time we formed in line and went over to supper.

After we had eaten our supper we played "soakem" for a short time. Then we attended a lecture on tin cans and turnips, also saw moving pictures on "Dynamite Used in Farming."

We were shown some of the work of the boys' and girls' club, our work being complete for the day, we went to the pavillion where we sang songs and then went to bed.

Thursday Morning
After going through our regular morning exercises we took breakfast and were ready for the work of the day, which began by our being shown pictures of the different kinds of corn and where grown.

We attended a lecture on hot bed plants and were shown some of the beds and how they irrigated their gardens.

We also attended a lecture on the raising of pigs which completed the work of Thursday forenoon.

After dinner we played games for a short time and then heard a lecture on birds, different kinds, and also saw sixty-one different slides of birds.

After the bird lecture we visited the capitol building, returned to the farm, had supper, played games, attended a lecture and saw moving pictures.

We returned to the pavillion, sang songs and went to bed.

Friday Morning
After going through our exercises, shower bath and eating breakfast as usual we made up our bunks and swept the floors. After we had cleaned up our apartments we were shown some pictures of harmful insects and on what they preyed.

We also were shown pictures of sand storms, haying, farming of all kinds in the west and seed testing. We visited the dairy and ice cream factory.

After dinner we visited the chicken nursery where we saw all kinds of little chickens in varied stages of growth.

After watching the chickens for a short time we went to the ball grounds and had a game of ball.

At 6 o'clock we went to supper after supper we attended a show; after the show we returned to the pavillion and retired.

Saturday Morning
After eating a hurried breakfast

we took the train at Lincoln, came to Fremont where most of the party left us, from there we went to Blair where we had dinner, 2:55 we took the train from Blair and arrived at Sholes, 7:55.

There were about sixty-five boys who attended the Junior Farmers' Congress at Lincoln and for my part I think all were well pleased with work and treatment and feel that it was well worth the effort put forth to win prizes and we have come home with a strong determination to win some prizes next year.

THE FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN

This week the Democrat gives space to the appeal of President Woodrow Wilson in behalf of the coming loan, and feel confident that he will not ask the people of Wayne and vicinity in vain for funds with which to wage the war to a successful end...

The state campaign is on, and the politicians are trying to run things their way. One says the country is lost if their man is not put in, but we all know deep in our heart that the present administration has been doing great things...

Butter has been going out of sight, and the authorities of Iowa, one of the big butter producing states of the country are trying to hold the price down...

SOCIAL NOTES

B. A. Y. Have Social Meeting

Last Friday evening was election of officers at the Wayne Homestead of Yeomen at this place, and the following were named for the officers for the coming year:

- Foreman, Edward J. Deville. Master of Ceremonies, C. Clasen. Correspondent, Inez Deville. Master of Accounts, G. A. Wade. Chaplain, Rev. S. R. Cross.

Following the business session the social hour was given into the hands of Lady Rowena, and an hour was happily spent in conversation and lunching.

October is Children's Month in Yeomenry, and preparations are in the hands of a committee to see that it is properly observed at the Wayne homestead. On installation night there is to be a program by the little folks of Yeomenry, with prizes for the best entertainers.

At that time the appointive officers will be named and the degree team selected that the winter work may move forward smoothly.

W. C. T. U. Meeting

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Brittain Friday, September 20. Committees were appointed, and Mrs. Boyce was elected as delegate to represent the local union at state convention to be held at Fremont September 24 to 27 inclusive.

Two splendid papers, "Sunday Dinners" and "Sunday Pleasures," prepared and read by Mrs. Noakes, brought out an interesting discussion. Adjourned to meet with Mrs. Carrie Bruner October 4, with the following program:

- Roll call, "What I hope our union may accomplish this year." Business, Collection of dues, membership report. Special music or reading, Mr. J. T. House.

Report from state convention by delegate, with suggestions for work for the year gained from the convention.

Union Signal Quiz, Mrs. Dayton. Hostess, Mrs. Bruner.

Baptist in Annual Reception

It has been a custom of the Wayne churches to entertain for the students and the members of their own congregations once each year and Friday evening last the Baptists held their usual entertainment at the church parlors. Students of the Normal and the young folks, over a hundred in number were out and the evening was greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. B. W. Davis was hostess at a largely attended meeting of the Bible Study circle Tuesday afternoon at which Mrs. Carlos Martin was the leader.

The ladies of the P. E. O. were delightfully entertained Monday afternoon at the pretty home of Mrs. W. H. Morris. Mrs. W. R. Ellis and Miss Jenks assisted the hostess and the trio proved themselves perfect in the art of entertaining.

The Coterie met with Mrs. Perry Theobald Tuesday afternoon and spent the time in Red Cross work.

A short business session was held and the minutes of the former meeting were read and approved. The time spent making garments for the Belgian relief committee. The next meeting will be Monday, September 30, with Mrs. A. T. Cavanaugh when the regular program will be carried out.

Mrs. C. A. Chase and daughter, Miss Goldie, entertained a party of friends Tuesday afternoon.

A two-course luncheon was served. The game of "500" was played and the afternoon was very much enjoyed. Mrs. Frank Berry of Chicago and Mrs. Chapin of Winside were out of town guests.

The Rural Home society are holding an all-day session at the Wm. VonSeger home today.

The Wales Gas Machine!

The Wonder of The Age

Makes a perfect and beautiful gas flame for cooking and heating purposes from ordinary kerosene.

WHAT IS THIS MACHINE?

It is the result of many years of hard labor and experimenting by a man who made the "Fuel Problem," which is the greatest problem confronting the public today, a deep and careful study. It can be attached to any cooking or heating stove—in fact it can be used any place where wood, coal, or coke is used for fuel.

It does all we claim for it, and much more.

It is the Poor Man's Friend and the Rich Man's Delight.

INSTALLED AND GUARANTEED FOR ONE YEAR BY THE OKLAHOMA GAS GENERATOR COMPANY, —Incorporated.

This is the Daddy of all Gas Makers—Said by U. S. Experts to be the most Perfect Machine Ever Passed Through the Patent Office.

Said patent was issued October 23rd, 1917.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

On Friday afternoon, September 27, the schools of the county will give a Junior Red Cross program. There will be a patriotic program in each grade of the Wayne schools, also one in the high school assembly room.

The boys' citizenship class reports that the pupils of our school have collected 100 pounds of fruit pits for the producing of carbon for gas masks. Seven pounds are required for a mask.

The Junior Red Cross chapter school committee has sent out letters to all the teachers of the county, asking them to cooperate with the Senior Red Cross in the collection of fruit pits for gas masks and also in collecting clothing for the Belgians.

The older girls of the domestic science class are cutting garments to be made by the Junior Red Cross auxiliaries of the county.

A practice game of basketball was played in the gymnasium Tuesday evening. The score was 13 to 7 in favor of the first mid-year team. The losing team was picked from the other class of the high school.

CONCERNING THE FLAG

(From Wayne County Teacher)

Is your flag floating? House Roll No. 730 requires every public school to have a flag pole on its grounds.

Flag staff shall be not less than twenty feet high and painted white. The flags for rural schools should be not less than six feet by four feet. The colors shall be fast colors and the cloth of good, substantial material. The flags shall be so arranged upon the poles as to be raised and lowered with ease.

The state superintendent is empowered to make rules and regulations governing the use of the flag by schools and it is thereby made his duty to enforce the provisions of this act. State Superintendent Clemmons says the flag should be up every day that the weather is not too severe, that is, when it is not raining or snowing or the wind blowing too hard.

Buy Clothes For Fall Now

If you have to buy clothes for this fall ask yourself this question: "How can I do it most economically?" That's really the one vital question; be particular about this for your own sake and the country's sake; this nation can't afford wasteful clothes or wasteful anything else. That's only another way of saying be sure they're good clothes; the kind that give you the most value for your money.

SUITS and COATS

Garments That Simply Bristle
With Good Style, Fashioned from durable, practical fabrics

All garments are higher priced than they were a year ago; the thing for you to look after is, "As the price has advanced has the quality been kept up." In the case of "Wooltex Garments" the truth is the quality has been kept up, but the price hasn't advanced in proportion.
Every Wooltex customer is a satisfied customer.

The Suits

Are cleverly styled from serges, velours, silver-tones and other fabrics. All wanted fall shades are included. Smart styles for the misses—tailored, sedate models for the matron.

The Coats

Great luxurious coats, featured in all practical colors and styles. Plain and novelty fabrics that are durable, warm and serviceable.

Wool Knitting Yarn Ready

The best grades in all suitable shades, for army service and personal uses.
Make your wants known. In all probability we can assist you.

A Graceful Carriage

Because a woman is large it does not necessarily follow that she is not graceful. With proper corset—one that supports and molds the flesh into correct lines she may be eminently graceful. We have several front laces that can be highly recommended. NEMO and KAPO CORSETS.

Blanket Time

With Old Jack Frost creeping near it is high time to take stock of your supply of warm blankets. We are able to offer you exceptionally good blankets of wool, cotton and sub-wool and cotton blankets. PRICED $17.50 AND DOWN.

New Kid GLOVES

Something that is absolutely necessary to finish off a perfectly tailored suit or dress. Our stock of ladies' gloves is unusually good and at moderate prices.

FALL SKIRTS

Snappy, individualistic skirts in plaids and plain colors that are built to render service as well as looks made of wool, silks and poplins.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Good tailored-to-order clothes cost less by the year and they look well always.—Morgan's Toggery.—Adv

Mrs. W. C. Martin and Miss Alma went to Oakland Tuesday on a business mission—and to visit friends.

Dan Martin of Carroll, was here Tuesday, on his way to Marshall, Minnesota, where he was looking after land matters.

John Gemmel of Winside, went with his son Robert to Lincoln the first of the week, where the young man expected to enter school.

Mrs. Ella Albright and daughter, Mildred, from Griswold, Iowa, were here the first of the week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irv Reed.

Fortner wants to buy your cream.—Adv

The engine of the railway started a fire on the farm occupied by Mr. Lowther just east of Wayne, and burned over quite a field of stubble where grass had been sowed with the grain, and doubtless ruined the grass.

Why is it that the farmers and breeders who come to the Democrat for their catalogues and other sale printing, come again when wanting more? Just a question of service—quality right and PRICE reasonable.

Miss Fannie Britell has returned to Evanston, Illinois, to resume her studies there, and make up the credits she did not acquire last year because of her severe illness, which caused her to lose nearly all of the second semester.

Mrs. B. M. McIntyre from Winside was here last week, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Welch, of Omaha, who has been visiting her. She tells us that her husband, Dr. McIntyre, has been called to make ready to go and serve Uncle Sam's soldier boys, and he is getting ready to answer the call.

J. T. Bressler went to Lake Okoboji Monday on a business mission.

Henry Bush is at Norfolk this week a member of the federal jury now attending court at that place.

Mrs. J. H. Boyce went to Fremont Tuesday, a delegate from the local union to the state meeting of the W. C. T. U.

The longer you postpone buying your overshoes for winter, the more uncertain it will be that you will get any.—Morgan's Toggery.—Adv

Mrs. Spencer Jones of Carroll, is home from a visit at Red Oak, Iowa. She went there about two weeks ago, driving over with relatives from there who had been visiting in this county.

J. R. Phipps is sojourning at different towns in South Dakota. He left Tuesday afternoon for Sioux City, where he attended a meeting of the managers of the various oil stations of the Gasoline Supply company Tuesday. He then went to Yankton, Vollen and other South Dakota towns where he has business or relatives or land.

Paul Wagner of Norfolk, is to have a sale of Poland China boars at Norfolk in two weeks, Thursday, October 10. If you will read his advertisement elsewhere in the paper you will understand why his sales are so successful, for his herd represents some of the best of the breed, and he keeps the individuals of high quality as well as breeding in a front place in his offerings.

J. W. Dryson, Walter Howell and W. C. Darnell from Lyons were here the first of the week looking at land, we are told. They appeared rather shy of stating their mission when talking to the Democrat—and perhaps they thought they could sneak up on some land owner here when he was not looking and grab his farm for less than they thought it worth. Hard thing to do here, especially this season, for Wayne county farms are producing the goods.

Phil H. Kohl has been spending part of the week with home folks here.

I will have potatoes in car lots on track in a few days. Buy Minnesota Early Ohio at about $1.65 per bushel.—Basket Store.—Adv

There will be a meeting of the precinct members of the Women's Liberty Loan committee at the city hall on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

John Bannister reports a very pleasant trip to Funston and back. Tells us that he saw not only his son, Clark, but a number of other Wayne boys, and that all appear to be well, happy and busy. On their way home they found that their road took them within a short distance of the Kansas home of Mr. and Mrs. John Luers, who moved from Wayne last spring and they drove over and chatted a little time. He tells us that they have a fine place there, but that this season they have very poor crops. They were much pleased to greet their old-old neighbors.

Mrs. A. Schanlus from Alberta, Canada, was here over Sunday visiting her son, Harry, who for the past two years has been attending the Wayne Normal. She had been visiting relatives in Ontario and also in Michigan, and came this way on her way home to see her son. The young man had not before seen any of his home folks since coming to Wayne. He plans to stay and finish the course here unless called to fight, and in that event may return for the rest of his course after the war. The mother had not before visited this part of the west, and she thought it a very rich agricultural land.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Morgan from Oklahoma, are here visiting relatives and friends, guests at the home of Geo. Roberts, Mrs. Brittain and Mr. and Mrs. Goodyear. They had been at Parker, South Dakota, visiting their son, and A. E. Morgan and wife, who came to Wayne with them. The senior Morgan was among the first settlers in this vicinity, and tells us that he helped build the first house erected in Wayne. They moved from here twenty-three years ago, and have made their home part of that time in Illinois and part of the time in Oklahoma. He finds a few old landmarks, but also notices many improvements. The Boyd hotel looks the most natural to him of any. He was one of the charter members of the Wayne Baptist church and helped to build the first and second church buildings occupied by that denomination.

John C. Davis of Carroll, is at Oakland today.

Miss Gladys Francis from Carroll was at Wayne Wednesday, visiting at the Forrest L. Hughes home.

Mrs. August Kruse and son, Elmer, returned Wednesday evening from a visit with relatives at Charter Oak, Iowa.

Mrs. Silas Mellick, who has been spending the past three months with relatives and friends in Ohio and Pennsylvania, is home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Mears drove to Sioux City last week taking their son, Archie and his wife home, and remaining for a short visit.

Harness, Fly Nets, and everything in the saddlery line. Repairing to suit. Satisfaction guaranteed. Call on John S. Lewis, Wayne, Nebraska.—Adv. 28th.

Henry Kellogg returned Wednesday evening from South Dakota. He has been assisting his sons and also building on his own farm. They have good crops this year.

Willard Auker was over from Ponca this week, visiting his sister, Mrs. Hendrickson. He is sold out near Ponca and has bought a place near Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

Word comes to Mrs. Ida Clark of Sholes that her brother, Warren Closson, is now doing duty at Camp Dix, and that her brother, Charles, has arrived safely on the other side, where he is in Y. M. C. A. work.

Ed Miles, who went with the other boys to Camp Dodge last week, failed to pass the physical test necessary for a soldier, and came here for a short visit, after which he will return to his home in Cheyenne county.

C. A. Grothe is home from a trip to North Dakota, where he was looking after his lands, and crops. He reports conditions good in the vicinity of Juniata; that wheat was yielding about 20 to 22 bushels, and oats up to 40 bushels per acre. Barley was not as heavy a yield as usual, but flax promised well.

A Fordson tractor rambled through Wayne Wednesday, and attracted considerable attention. It was in the command of a Carroll dealer, and he had brought it from Sioux City by its own power, making the run in about five hours, which shows pretty good speed. They are a very compact and solid appearing machine, and seem to be built for business.

Fortner is ready to sell you real flour—the Splendid—and that is what it is. Adv

Mesdames Ben Carhart, Art Ahern, Carroll Orr and Warren Shultzeis are visiting Sioux City today.

Miss Ava Davis of Carroll, leaves tomorrow for Omaha where she will make her home for a time with a sister and attend business college.

Miss Margaret Coleman is spending the day at Sioux City, and Mrs. Tim Collins from Carroll is visiting her father, Patrick Coleman, for the day.

Mrs. W. R. Hickman left this morning to join her husband, Lt. Hickman, who is stationed at Camp Taylor in Kentucky. Her sister, Miss Mate Relyea, accompanied her as far as Sioux City, and spent the day there.

Geo. Buskirk had the misfortune to break a leg one day last week and is said to be resting easy and doing well at his home ten or twelve miles southeast of Wayne, with prospects good for a very complete recovery of the use of his walker, something that does not always happen to people past 70 years of age, who have the misfortune to break a bone.

Miss Vaughn from Sidney, Iowa, who has been visiting at Elgin, stopped here the first of the week to visit a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin north of town.

Mrs. Mel Norton left this morning for an extended visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Effie Twigger at Glenworth, Ontario, Canada. She has not been in the best of health, and the change and the rest will be helpful.

The use of Nut Margerine butter is patriotic. Its made from coconut meat and the shells are used in the manufacture of gas masks. Three coconut shells will save a soldier from a gas attack. # Help Is Scarce! Use Horse or Engine Power!

One of the great benefits which will come—is coming from the evils of war is the enforced education of the people to the economy and advantages of labor-saving machinery. Its use becomes a necessity to help the limited manpower left on the farms meet the great needs of the day for food. Realizing this, and knowing of the great corn crop now almost ready for harvest we have secured a double stock of FARM ELEVATORS for our patrons.

Sandwich Elevators

We purchased a car of these great elevators, a machine which has been thoroughly tested and proven a very popular aid for the farmer. It is so well made, using the time-tried cypress wood for its wood parts, that their life is so long and the repairs so slight that the first cost is lost sight of in the saving they make from year to year—and the convenience of having a dependable help in time when the emergency comes.

They make work easier, faster and less expensive. Huskers who have to scoop their loads want an extra price, and they lose time and energy. In no essential feature is this elevator deficient.

Meadow's

Portable and Stationary Grain Elevators

Are the culmination of sixteen years of study and improvement, until they are considered the equal of the best for practical service. Ease of operation, durability and satisfactory service.

These elevators are made in different sizes, of wood or steel, all castings are of gray iron, cast at our foundry, and made of the right kind and proportions of the different irons to produce the greatest strength and durability. Every department of our factory is in charge of experienced mechanics, specialists in their line, assuring a perfect elevator.

Never before have we taken the care in the purchase of quality implements, and we feel that in all reasonable farm machinery we are in shape to provide our patrons with that which has no superior. This, we feel to be especially true in our selection of the two makes of elevators offered above.

We invite inspection, confident that your judgment will confirm our judgment as to the quality of the offering. Yours for the best labor-saving machinery.

FROM GERALD E. CRESS
IN WINSIDE TRIBUNE

Sunday, August 18.

Dearest Mother:

Once more I have changed my address. I mentioned in one of my other letters that I expected to get into more active service and now I am in, although it will be some months before I have completed my training. The school starts tomorrow and it promises to be very interesting. I don't mind telling you that I have enlisted in the French army although it will be possible to transfer after I finish training with the French. This is a school of artillery and has the reputation of being one of the best in the world.

I can't tell you any thing of the work because we have not started. I thought over the matter very thoroughly, in fact for the last six months and I came to the conclusion that I would not be satisfied until I had seen more of real service than there was in the Red Cross. The A. R. C. is a wonderful institution and is doing great work but I think the work can be done by other men who are not physically fit for the other work. I wish you could see me in this uniform and these shoes. I'll try and send you a picture so you'll see what I look like.

I am sending you a copy of a letter given me by the chief of my deof the quality of work I have been doing.

"It's funny how just a little thing will change the whole life of a person for years to come. I hardly thought when I left you in June, 1916, that it would be as long as this before I should return. I had every intention of returning to Wayne and going to work but I really found myself in Chicago and quickly realized that I must go to school. I never had the slightest thought of coming to France when I arrived at Williams-town and right now I am not looking into the future. There is a lot of truth in the old saying: "Yesterday is gone, today is yours and tomorrow is God's." Don't monkey with tomorrow, it doesn't belong to you and although today is dark and gloomy and things don't go just the way we wish, yet tomorrow contains rich promises, and plan as we would today, we can never tell or even forecast the events of the next day. But today is yours to do as you will, you may waste it and throw it away or you may use and get the full value thereof and when you have then it becomes yesterday which is to be forgotten.

Friday, August 23.

Well I have been here in the artillery school for a week now and have begun to get an insight into the work. There are about twenty-two Americans in our brigade, some good and some indifferent. I am taking the work real seriously and giving my best to it. My training in mathematics is certainly a wonderful help as well as my experience with horses.

After a week's observation I can safely say that this no place for a loafer. We get up at 5:20, breakfast of coffee and black bread and out we go to the first class at 6:30. We are usually on the go either on horses, guns, physical culture or study until 6 at night. After supper we are off duty until 9:12 when taps sound and we are in bed. Oh! it is a great life. If a fellow keeps well he is all right, but believe me they certainly work you. The food is plain, quite plain, but there are many little cafes and restaurants where it is possible to get a fair meal (for a dollar.)

Of course, all of the instruction is in French, but I understand quite well. Expect to be here until the first of the year, when the course closes and we are sent to the front. The school is situated in a large, beautiful forest. The surrounding country is wonderful.—Gerald E. Cress, 115 Brigade, 32 Regiment, Ecole d'Artillerie, Fontainebleau, Seine et Marne, France.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS

We heard a republican make the remark one day this week, that he had two boys serving Uncle Sam on the western front. He added, "and if I voted for George Norris for United States senator I would be ashamed to face my boys when they returned home."

The republican leaders are criticizing the democrats for advocating the same policy which was brought out during the Spanish-American war, while Wm. McKinley was president. It was urged by no less a person than Theodore Roosevelt, that the people should continue a republican congress to back up the president in his war activities, saying that a failure to do so would be viewed by the nations of Europe from one standpoint only, that the people were not with the president and the nation in its hour of peril. Today these same republicans are asking the people to elect a republican congress to back up a democratic president. Some consistency there.

It is admitted that the mobilization of American troops in the present war has been the greatest successful achievement ever known to the history of nations. The sanitation of camps, the food and care of soldiers is as near perfect as armies can be made, with the lowest sickness and death rate of any war of which there is any record. Mistakes have been made, of course, but compare them with the blundering inefficiency of the Spanish-American war, when graft was rampant, and embalmed food, insanitation and a hundred other things of a like nature contributed to more sickness and deaths than there were casualties in all the battles fought in that war. The present tremendous task of mobilization has been brought about despite the powerful effort of some members of the political opposition to discredit the administration's war program. Would it not be good judgment on the part of the voter to ponder well before voting to send men to congress who are certain, because of rank partisanship, to hamper the proper conduct of the war?

***

S. R. McKelvie, republican candidate for governor, now touring the state in his candidacy for that office, is quoted as making the following statement: "During the past five years the democrats have had control of state affairs. During that period the tax burdened upon the people has increased from $4,367,257.31 to $9,594,189.04." Either Mr. McKelvie is ignorant of the facts, or else he is deliberately resorting to false statements to bolster up his candidacy for governor. In order to correct Mr. McKelvie's wild statement we give below the actual levies of the years to which he refers:

1913	.....	$3,671,385.32
1914	.....	3,681,085.03
1915	.....	3,277,130.08
1916	.....	3,057,194.97
1917	.....	4,484,999.27
1918	.....	4,361,839.40

Contrary to McKelvie's assertion, the first two years mentioned were not under the control of the democrats. With the exception of governor the state offices were filled with republicans. In 1915-16, when the democrats finally came into control, the state taxes were reduced for those two years more than one million dollars. This could only be accomplished by reducing the general fund levy, the only levy with which the state officers have any concern. All other levies are fixed by law and cannot be disturbed by the board of equalization. The general levy for 1913-14, under republican administration, was 5 mills. In 1915, under the democrats, it was reduced to 4.1 mills. In 1916, 3.4 mills. Owing to the war and the increased cost of everything the state was compelled to buy, in 1917 the general mill levy was increased to 3.8, and in 1918 it was again reduced to 3 mills. The state valuation in 1913 was $470,690,414, as against $567,947,914 in 1918. The special levies of the university, the road fund, the normal school and the state institutions for improvements are all fixed by law and these special levies, made necessary by the rapid growth of our schools and other institutions, and the higher cost of building and other material going into construction work, slightly increased the total sums of the levy for the past two years, but as a matter of fact did not increase the burden of tax on the people, for the reason that the valuation of the state also increased more than $97,000,000 between the years of 1913 and 1918. If Mr. McKelvie does not know any more about state levies or state expenditures than his statement would indicate, he is not a proper man to be elected governor of Nebraska. On the other hand, if he knowingly misrepresented the facts, would he not be liable to misrepresent the people in other matters, after attaining to the exalted position to which he aspires?

WALTER SAVIDGE AMUSEMENT CO.

Wayne Fall Festival September 30 and October 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5.

The Walter Savidge Amusement company opens an engagement in Wayne on Monday, September 30, this being the final week of the season. Since leaving Wayne the company has played a season of twenty-three weeks to the greatest business in its career and this in the face of war conditions and activities, which demonstrates that the National Board of Defense was right when it ruled that amusements are a necessity especially at this time. While this is the closing week, the company will come here intact. Nothing will be cut. Each and every feature will be presented as completely as in other cities. The Savidge Players will hold forth in the big tent, presenting a splendid repertoire of New York's and Chicago's latest dramatic successes. The order in which the repertoire will be presented may be seen in another column of this issue. The Midway with its many alluring features will be in full swing each night. The ferris wheel and merry-go-round will be in constant operation. A new free act that has never been seen here will be presented daily; also band concerts by the Savidge Concert Band. In closing, Mr. Savidge wishes to thank his many friends and neighbors for the loyal support they have always accorded his attractions in Wayne.

WILHELM'S DREAM

Wilhelm the Second (may his tribe decrease)
Awoke one night from a wild dream of peace,
And saw among the shadows in his room,
Making it grim and like a house of doom,
A devil writing in a book of fire—
Exceeding fear then raised the kai-ser's ire,
And to the presence in the room he said,
"What writest thou?" The night-mare raised its head,
And with a look of full fraternity
Answered: "All those who love iniquity."
"And is mine one?" said Wilhelm.
"Nay, not so,"
Replied the devil. Wilhelm spoke more low,
But cheerily still, and said, "I pray thee, then,
Write me as one who hates his fellowmen."
The devil wrote and vanished. The next night
It came again, with many a fiendish light,
And showed the names whom love of hell had blessed,
And lo! proud Wilhelm's name led all the rest.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

The following proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 5th, A. D. 1918:

A JOINT RESOLUTION to amend Section one (1) of Article seven (7) of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

Section 1. That Section One of Article Seven of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska be and the same hereby is amended by striking out the following words:

"Second. Persons of foreign birth who shall have declared their intention to become citizens conformably to the laws of the United States, on the subject of naturalization, at least thirty days prior to an election."

And inserting in the place of the words so stricken, the following words:

"Second. Persons of foreign birth who shall have become citizens of the United States by naturalization or otherwise conformably to the laws of the United States at least thirty days prior to an election."

Sec. 2. That at the general election nineteen hundred and eighteen (1918) there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection the foregoing proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage. At such election, on the ballot of each elector voting for or against said proposed amendment, shall be written or printed the words: "For proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage," and "Against said proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage."

Sec. 3. If such amendment shall be approved by a majority of all electors voting at such election, said amendment shall constitute Section One (1) Article Seven (7) of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Approved, April 9, 1918.

KEITH NEVILLE, Governor
 CHARLES W. POOL, Secretary of State

THE NEW RELIGION

Will Chamberlain

The following from a Sunday paper shows that there is a growing tendency to add to the "Go to Church Sunday" movement a something more—a real meaning to the move—a practical application of the truths taught those who go to church Sunday:

During the last year or more clergymen have alluded to something new in religion in store for the world. What one is able to glean from their expressions seems to convey the idea that no radically different system of belief is to be offered to mankind, but that there will be a more fearless and explicit setting forth of the Biblical truths. People will be clearly reminded that Christianity does not so much consist in going to church and kneeling in public places and singing with animation glorious hymns, as it does in doing the good deed that lies nearest to one's own door and doing it without ostentation or desire of earthly reward. Yet under the promised new dispensation—promised and new according to the speculators of men—there is to be no relaxation in the fulfillment of the blessed privileges which await on true devotion in the matter of association with our fellows whose feet press the same pathway as ours. We are to go to church and help to bear its various burdens, nor are we to forget the foreign field or the missionary vineyard at home—ever ready for the gleaners, but there must be new vision, or rather old vision must be made to shine with realities that bless for life and all eternity. Our prayers, so often soulless bits of sing-song, must, in the forthcoming era—and which is already at its advent—rise like a living flame to the throne of God, wherein to seek forgiveness and not strive to make ourselves fit for its reception, would be but little short of blasphemy.

Let us this hour begin to make ready for the coming of the new faith—the dear old faith of the fathers made manifest through the travail and awfulness of war that drenches the globe with blood, that that blood be not shed in vain, nor the blood of him who bore for us the pains of Calvary.

THE MAN AND THE WORK

(From the Goldenrod)

If this number of the Goldenrod had come out last Thursday it would have appeared on the eighth anniversary of the opening of the Wayne State Normal School. Let us call this the anniversary number. To be sure it may seem early to be celebrating an anniversary on Normal hill for eight years are a brief time in the history of an institution, but those early years have been very significant in the life of the school of which we are all so proud, and it is never too early to catch the meaning of pregnant events.

Carlyle said that history is the record of the lives of great men. However that may be, large human achievements certainly do center about notable personalities. In this sense at least the story of Wayne Normal is the record of the work of its president. Two things characterize the executive. He must know what he wants; he must be able to command the loyal support of others. In the mass of detail that tends to cloud the vision he must see clearly the sunlit peak. Out of the jangle and discord of conflicting personal interests, he must be able to bring the spirit of co-operation. Subjected to these tests, how may we estimate the work of him who, for eight years, has stood at the helm of our ship of learning?

To epitomize even the material growth of the school in these brief years is difficult. To say that three new buildings have been placed upon the campus does not describe the front of beautiful and majestic structures that now greet the eye as one approaches Normal hill. To say that the campus has been enlarged from ten to forty acres is likewise pitifully inadequate to suggest the outline of the beautiful park that is being placed on the slope immediately in front of the buildings. For present improvements merely foreshadow the realization of the plan toward which all material things on Normal hill are moving. A glance reveals that certain spots have been reserved for other buildings as yet unborn but surely already existent in the mind that has prepared the plan. Surely science hall on one side of the administration building is to be balanced by an equally imposing structure, perhaps a library, where the inadequate training school now stands. Looking to the northeast we know that that large open space is to be prepared as an athletic field. Sooner or later on the west, next to Main street, there will certainly be a building or a group to house the training school. The generous slope to the south and the southwest will become a magnificent park with shaded walks and circular driveways, while the low ground on the southwest will form the basin of an artificial lake.

These are not day dreams. A decade of progress such as has been made will see them all realized. Indeed the sketch is already in existence, not merely in the mind of the planner, but in actual drawings in his office. Surely we may say that, in the first test of leadership, the ability to see clearly and largely what is needed, the achievements of the past eight years have demonstrated the possession of them by our president.

As to the second test, ability to secure the help of others, the evidence is no less impressive. During these years, thousands of young people have attended the Normal. Other thousands have been influenced by speech, by letter, by printed matter. Legislators have been met and interviewed. Business and professional men of this community and elsewhere have been influenced. The large number of teachers in the Normal faculty have given their energies to the school. The results are seen in an enrollment that has leaped from five hundred to more than a thousand annually, in an increasing appreciation on the part of the public of the work of our graduates, in a fine spirit of loyalty to Alma Mater and a genuinely enthusiastic group spirit among the students. Can anyone suppose that all this has been achieved by accident, by unco-ordinated endeavor, by anything else than the effort and personality of a leader? True it is that many have contributed to the growing life of the Normal, but all have done so by inspiration and direction from one source.

If eight years reveal so great advance, what may we hope from twenty years or a quarter of a century of the same administration? With each year there will be added momentum. Present plans will be realized and new ones conceived. The rounding out of the scheme for material improvements, increase in numbers and, more than all, the strengthening of the quality of the work, growth in ideals and spread of the influence engendered by the character of the work—these we may confidently expect as the result of long continued service of him whom we honor, President U. S. Conn.

REMINISCENCES

(From the Goldenrod)

I have been asked to give something connected with the early history of the school which left a lasting impression on my mind. When I left my position in the Columbus schools to come to The Wayne Normal, I had a decided sense of promotion and eagerly anticipated the larger work. During the registration at the opening of the Normal that fall, this feeling of exaltation began to ooze away, for only a few out of town students came for registration and still fewer from Wayne. I wondered if there was to be any school at all. Then came the opening convocation. On the platform gathered the faculty of some sixteen members and facing them there were less than seventy students. About four students to a teacher. There were two seniors, none registered as juniors. The whole group had simply come for a "term or so."

That morning the faculty sat quiet, rigid and depressed. When the strain seemed almost past endurance the President winked at Professor Bright; Bright laughed and passed the wink on. The humor of the situation prevailed, the faces on the platform cleared, an audible explosion of mirth broke forth and being taken up by the students turned the convocation into a jolly "get-together" affair. That morning the "spirit of the Wayne Normal" was created and has been the optimistic atmosphere of the Normal from that day to this.

On the evening of September 12, 1910, as the Sioux City train rounded the curve and Normal hill came into view, I thought it was the loneliest looking spot I had ever seen. The few small buildings, far apart, with wide spaces between through which broad patches of sky and prairie were visible, looked indeed uninviting. The following morning Mrs. House and I walked out to Normal hill. There was but one road—Main street. The dying sunflowers on either side, the small, neglected trees on the hill, the broken board walks and weedy campus, did not cheer my spirit.

I told Mrs. House that we would take the first train out of town unless we met somebody who was half alive. Well, we met him. In the front office of what is now the training school we found a man on his knees unwrapping some packages of books. It was Mr. Redmond. In the back office we met President Conn. He smiled benignly, but I thought he looked puzzled as to what sort of tenderfeet he had unwittingly lured hither.

A week later school opened. During the first day some eighty lonesome children enrolled and it took all day to enroll them. We had quite an increase early in the winter when the "feds" came in. I remember how they smelled of the pipes that they smoked until they reached the door and then thrust into their pockets. For several years one could tell when winter had arrived by the odors in the halls. With the years, however, this feature has largely passed away and it is only occasionally that a faint aroma is wafted through some building, reminiscent of the "dear dead days beyond recall."

Well, we didn't take the next train for the next, nor any other for many months, and now-a-days when we do go away it is only for a short time and we return with ever-increasing satisfaction in Wayne, the Normal and our small part in both.

—J. T. House.

My first impression of Wayne Normal was a gloomy one. It was a very "weedy" and neglected place on the outside, and as far as the dormitories were concerned, very bare on the inside. There were no wardrobes, no chairs, very little of anything, in fact, and for the first four weeks we more or less "camped."

There were hardly enough seniors to call a class. We consisted of four members, three of which graduated. Each held an office, so there was no feeling created. In those days, Terrace Hall was not crowded, so we two seniors had the two choicest rooms in the southeast corner of the hall. About half the rooms were used for clothes presses and drying purposes. There were no quarrels over electric irons and laundry privileges. Miss Piper's nerves had not yet been tested to their limit, so she was long on patience and good humor. The other occupants of the hall consisted of three instructors, the secretary to the president, a few juniors and elementary students. Notable among the latter was Miss Wendt, now instructor in the domestic science department. Many of the present midnight activities came into being and took firm root that year.

The whole year struck me as funny. As we were compelled to be everything from yell master to class president we were all kept very busy. However, as we were so few, the instructors did a great deal of standing around for want of something to do. It was a carefree year to me and I enjoyed every bit of it.

—Miss Luers.

When we came to look over the library available for history classes at the beginning of the State Normal at Wayne, these are some of the highly edifying works we found: A wagon load of the driest U. S. government publications ever published called "The Records of the Rebellion," a wagon load of old magazines, mostly popular, and two wagon loads of Congressional Records covering a comparatively uneventful period.

We had little or no money to go on. So President Conn said we would get the most we could for about fifty dollars. It was evident that not very many large sets of books could be bought for that amount, so we made what I regard the best fifty dollar investment in books ever made for the library in point of service to the school. We got twenty copies of Elson's Side Lights in American History and twenty copies of Sparks' Men Who Made the Nation at 60 cents each. Then we got thirty copies of Harding's Select Orations illustrating American history at a dollar each.

These books are still in use; have been used more, I believe, than any other books in the library. Several of the students who took American history at that time declared they never had had such interesting work in history before in their lives. All of which goes to prove that it is sometimes better to get a few books that people can and will use than to surround students with so many books that they cannot use any of them.

It seems to me that Mr. Conn's library policy has been the same ever since the very first, to get a library for use rather than for cataloguing or advertising purposes.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Washington

Again the government comes to the people of the county with the request that they lend their money, and lend it upon a more liberal scale than ever before, in order that the great war for the rights of America and the liberation of the world may be prosecuted with ever-increasing vigor to a victorious conclusion. And it makes the appeal with the greatest confidence because it knows that every day it is becoming clearer and clearer to thinking men throughout the nation that the winning of the war is an essential investment. The money that is held back now will be of little use or value if the war is not won and the selfish masters of Germany are permitted to dictate what America may and may not do. Men in America, besides, have from the first until now dedicated both their lives and their fortunes to the vendication and maintenance of the great principles and objects for which our government was set up. They will not fail now to show the world for what their wealth was intended.

Remarkable Success of these Talented Physicians in the Treatment of Chronic Diseases

Examination and Consultation Free

The diagnostician of the United Doctors, licensed by the state of Nebraska, for the treatment of chronic diseases of men, women and children, offer to all who call on this visit, consultation, examination and advice free. They have a system and method of treatments that are sure and certain in their results.

These doctors are experts in the treatment of chronic diseases of the blood, liver, stomach, intestines, heart, kidneys or bladder, rheumatism, sciatica, dropsy, leg ulcers, weak lungs, and those afflicted with long standing, deep seated, chronic diseases, that have baffled the skill of other physicians, should not fail to call.

According to their system no more operation for appendicitis, gall stones, goiter, piles, etc., as all cases accepted will be treated without operation or hypodermic injection. If you have kidney or bladder troubles bring a 4-ounce bottle of your urine for chemical analysis and microscopic examination.

Worn-out and run-down men and women, no matter what your ailment may be, no matter what you have been told, or the experience you have had with other physicians, settle it forever in your mind. If your case is incurable they will tell you so. Consult them upon this visit. It costs you nothing for examination.

Remember, this free offer is for this visit only.

Married ladies must come with their husbands and minors with their parents.

A TEACHER'S MORNING PRAYER

Another day has dawned, another long, full day.
But ere I go to teach, O God, to Thee I pray.
I thank Thee for the will, the power, the blessed right
To lead immortal minds in ways of truth and light;
And yet I feel how small, how futile all my power
Unless Thou grant Thy help and grace to me each hour.

Teach me that I may teach; and by Thy grace, I pray,
Let me not dim for one the brightness of this day.
Grant me Thy wondrous love that I may touch their souls,
And turn their eager hearts to high and noble goals.
Give me, for I am frail, Thy patience so divine,
That I may deal with them in tenderness like Thine.
Let me be kind to them; the dull who often call
Thy trying, restless ones; the weakest, poorest—all!
Oh, let me not forget that for each little one
An angel ever pleads before Thy holy Throne!
Grant me Thy strength, Thy love, Thy wisdom deep and free,
So shall the day be bright and blest for them and me,
So shall the day be bright and blest for them and me.
