

OUR STOCK SHOW AND FALL FESTIVAL

Next week comes the Wayne county live stock show and fall festival, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, October 15, 16, and 17 and plans are moving forward toward a very successful show. The showing of stock of all kinds promises to be splendid and complete. The poultry show, under the charge of Superintendent Hufford promises to be very complete. Last week we told of prospects of cattle, horses, hogs and sheep.

Read's band of Sioux City is to be here, one of the best that may be had from anywhere, and they also have an orchestra which will make the young folks step lively Friday evening.

Other amusements are to be provided, and free attractions, the extent and nature of which we cannot fully tell just now. On Thursday evening the Woman's club will put on a comic opera with home talent that promises to be one of the popular events of the week, and a program will appear later. On Friday evening a committee from this club will give a grand ball at the opera house, and the proceeds from these two evening entertainments will go toward paying for this property and the new building which is being planned as a community house.

Tickets for the opera will be on sale at the Rexall store Saturday.

CLOSING OF DISTRICT COURT

Last week as we went to press the Patrick Coleman will case was being heard, and went to the jury that evening. A verdict was given holding that the will was valid. Plaintiffs report that the case will be appealed.

Judge Gives Sentences

Saturday Judge Welch sentenced three of the men convicted during the term, as follows: John Wright for carrying concealed weapons, not to exceed two years in the penitentiary; for bootlegging, not less than six months or more than two years in the penitentiary; for gambling not more than one year.

John Nugent was sentenced to not more than two years for carrying concealed weapons.

Fred Broscheit from one to twenty years for forgery.

Sheriff Lewis and Deputy Benshoof left Monday morning with the prisoners, for their home at Lincoln. Not many months ago people were gathering at the station frequently to bid farewell to friends, sad, but yet proud that they were going, for it was to enter honorable service for their country. Few indeed were those who gathered to bid these young men farewell. We saw no fond parting from proud parents, but we know that there was a deep sorrow in the homes they left—a sorrow which it is hard to comfort. Then there was the young wife, whom the one who promised to cherish, protect and defend had cast a mantle of shame and disgrace upon her. It is well for the young men who are headed the same way as these young men to consider themselves and their friends—for the shadow of prison walls looms close to those who persist in violating law.

Monday Judge Welch called Ted Gossard and Wm. Moran in for sentence, each having pleaded guilty to the charge of taking an automobile for a joy ride. The sentence was the minimum which is a fine of $100 and 90 days in jail. It is just and it is we hope for the good of these lads as well as others that this sentence was given—for it shows that the penalty of law breaking is sure, if prosecution is once started, and citizens and officials are duty bound to start action against wrong doers if they wish to claim to be good citizens.

Ernest Lewis, who was charged with being in some manner connected with the disappearance of a shipment of hides, was fined $50 and given a short jail sentence which terminates this week.

BUYS STANTON PICKET

Bert Atkinson, who recently sold the Carroll Index has purchased the Picket from G. A. Mayfield at Stanton, and taken possession. We failed to receive a copy of Bert's first issue, but are assured that it was a good one. Bert had long been pining for a larger field for his activities, and his friends are glad that he has found it in this good part of Nebraska.

PRINTER WANTED AT DEMOCRAT

Increasing work at this office makes call for a printer necessary. Call, wire or write The Democrat, Wayne, Nebraska.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB ENTERTAINMENT GOOD

A large and appreciative audience attended the first meeting of the city council at Wayne when it was called to order at the beginning of the new city year in May, 1925. In the preceding election the women voters had been united and aggressive, and carried every office, defeating some of the candidates who had held a place on the city official roster from near the beginning of the city career. Naturally all were anxious to know what a woman council would do. The local papers were each well represented by professional reporters, who took turns at telling the merits and plans of their respective papers as well as helping to map out the policy of the new administration. Wayne had attained the dignity of a city of five wards, and each ward was ably represented. Mayor Chace presided with dignity from behind a bunch of flowers. In response to roll call the following responded, City Clerk Berry calling the roll: Welch, Craven, Jones, Oman, Forbes, Philico, Gilderleeve (successor to L. C.), Hahn, Theobald, Kostomlatsky, Carhart, Piper and Pryor. Mrs. Fanski for the Democrat and Mrs. Lutgen for the Herald. Each member of the new administration told how she won over her opponent of the sterner sex, and why they lost. Most of them had a record to meet—and could not get past. An opening song was sung after the preliminaries were through, and during intermission Councilwoman Jones sang, and others gave readings and told stories.

The administration mapped out many improvements, and a number of the members of the council appeared to be looking for a fat job for their husbands—just to keep them busy, we suppose.

As most of the business was secret, and the women cannot keep a secret, it will not be necessary to publish the council proceedings, and we will pass on to their adjournment.

The Normal quartet gave some splendid selections as a part of the evening entertainment. The Iris dance under direction of Misses Betcher and Luers was a most charming exhibition, and perfectly executed.

Dr. Soakem was one of the real old school medical fakery, and he skinned all of the prominent citizens with his preliminary talk. He should get a patent for his tapeworm remover.

As a result of the show, the treasury of the Woman's club was filled with $110.

OBITUARY OF MRS. J. R. PHIPPS

Harriet Emma Davis was born November 2, 1861, in Whiteside county, Illinois, and died at her Wayne home October 2, 1919, at the age of 57 years and 11 months.

Mrs. Phipps came to Washington county, Nebraska, from Illinois when but an infant, and ten years later, in 1871 they went to Guthrie county, Iowa. She was united in marriage July 2, 1882, to J. R. Phipps, who with a son and daughter survive her. The daughter is Mrs. Chas. Messelroad of Attica, Kansas, and the son, Walter L. Phipps, of Yankton, South Dakota. Besides these she leaves to mourn her death five grandchildren, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. J. W. Smith of Pender and Mrs. L. G. Phipps of Tekamah, L. J. Davis of Craig and J. H. Davis of Sioux City.

She was converted at the age of 15 years and united with the Christian church, and since coming to Wayne she was a member of the Presbyterian Bible class.

Her funeral was from the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon, the pastor, Rev. Beard conducting the service, which was attended by relatives from away and neighbors and friends. Mrs. Phipps has been a resident of Wayne for three or four years past, and has won a friend in every acquaintance. A splendid woman has been taken to her home above.

PHILIP SULLIVAN DIES AT SIOUX CITY HOSPITAL

Sunday night, October 5, at a Sioux City hospital where he had been taken for care a few days before, Philip Sullivan, for about forty years a resident of Wayne county, died of cancer. Mr. Sullivan had been in failing health for a number of months and was at the hospital several weeks earlier in the summer, then came home for a few weeks, but his disease was beyond the power of medical aid to stay.

Mr. Sullivan was a native of Ireland, and came to America with his parents when but a child, and with them finally came to Iowa. With his brother, Eugene, who died a number of years ago, he was doing grading on the railroads as a contractor. First he lived in northeastern Iowa, McGregor and Dubuque—then near Boone, and finally finishing his railroad work with a contract between Villisca and Clarinda, Iowa. Then the brothers secured land in the vicinity of Imogene, Iowa, in about 1873. He came to Wayne county in 1884 or 1885, and has since been a resident of the county, moving to Wayne about ten years ago.

He had a mania for acquiring land, and had large holdings in this county, in Knox county and also in the Dakotas, as well as city property in Denver, and his estate value is variously estimated at from $500,000 to a million. He was a bachelor, and his only brother died leaving no children, so the heirs to his estate are mostly distant relatives.

The funeral and burial are to be at Imogene, Iowa, today, and Mrs. Mary Sullivan and Mrs. Franks, her adopted daughter, both from Bloomfield, John Williams and his sister from Denver and Father Kearns, H. S. Ringland and John L. Soules from here went to attend the funeral. Mr. Soules has been caring for him much of the time for several months, and went with him to Sioux City and stayed until the end came.

SALVATION ARMY FUND GROWS

Work of the Salvation Army drive moves slowly in this county, and the quota is not much more than half raised, but the committees are still working. The county quota is $3,317, and the funds thus far raised are $1,709.04. It should be the pleasant duty of every one who has not given, to do so at once. There is a committeeman in every precinct, and you can easily find him.

Treasurer Herman Henney makes the following report this week:

|                      |           |
|----------------------|-----------|
| Wayne, First ward    | $111.80  |
| Wayne, Second ward   | 128.75    |
| Wayne, Third ward    | 169.00    |
| Chapin precinct      | 67.14     |
| Wilbur precinct      | 64.00     |
| Plum, Creek precinct | 16.25     |

| Hancock precinct     | 67.50     |
| Leslie precinct      | 30.00     |
| Hoskins precinct     | 31.70     |
| Strahan precinct     | 38.00     |
| Brenna precinct      | 85.50     |
| Winside City         | 219.00    |
| Garfield precinct    | 36.75     |
| Deer Creek precinct  | 250.00    |
| Sherman precinct     | 90.00     |
| Logan precinct       | 150.00    |
| Miscellaneous        | 132.75    |
| Total                | $1709.04 |

Chairman Armstrong has handed in the following statement which should appeal to every citizen of the county who has not before taken opportunity to aid this cause:

The precinct chairmen and the personal workers for the Salvation Army drive have attempted to see each person who has not contributed to this campaign.

If they have been unable to see you will you send a check to H. C. Henney, Wayne, for your part of this drive. If every man will do his small part Wayne county will yet go over. The drive will be continued into next week. The executive committee hopes it will not be necessary for them to report that Wayne county has failed to make good.

Write that check now or if in town leave the money with your banker. The Army is doing a great work and needs your help.

A LETTER FROM VICTOR CARLSON TO WAYNE

Below we give a letter from Victor Carlson, written on ship, while on his way to visit his native country. The letter was to Herman Lundberg, whom Mr. Carlson asked to translate a part of it for Democrat readers:

On August the 10th we left New York City on one of the biggest steamships now afloat, the Bergenfjare of the Norwegian-American line, with about 2,000 passengers on board mostly Scandinavians, who went for a visit to the old mother land. As the weather was very fine throughout the whole trip everybody had an excellent time, spending the days playing, singing and in the evening some games and dancing. The officers and men aboard the ship did everything to make it a pleasant journey for all of us.

The board and rooms were excellent and no first class hotel could have a better accommodation for its guests. I myself had a very fine room close to the dining room, so of course, I was always on time when the call was sounded.

A friend, Mrs. Nordberg, and little daughter from Sioux City, were also passengers and the ship and the little girl certainly was enjoying herself, she is everybody's friend. Her mother told a little joke on her which took place on the Pullman between Chicago and New York, the black porter was making up the bed and the little girl came running to her mother and said, "he can't sleep with us can he mamma?"

As we are now getting close to the Norwegian coast, and will stop at Bergen, I will mail my letter there from that place we will proceed to Christiania and will land there August 22, from there we will go by rail to Stockholm, Sweden.

With kind greeting to all Wayne friends,—Victor Carlson.

JOHN WARNBERG KILLED AT WAUSA AS PLANE FALLS

Monday evening, John Warnberg, a mechanic for the club at that place that recently purchased a new Curtis plane at Des Moines, was instantly killed when the engine stopped as they were coming down after a trial flight before taking on some passengers for an evening spin. G. A. Renard, who was driving the machine was quite seriously injured, but it is thought will recover.

Lt. Renard served in the aviation here as an instructor and is a member of the reserve force of aviators, but he did not get across because needed here as instructor. The mechanic was also in government service, and was a motor mechanic and saw duty overseas.

Mrs. Renard from Oakland was here Tuesday on her way to see her son, and told the reporter that he had been at Oakland over Sunday, and flew home that morning, and had called her and told of his safe arrival home. Renard is assistant cashier of the Commercial National bank.

Each must present both his reservation and admission tickets at the door on the evening of the entertainment. Should holders of tickets be unable to secure reservations before, they may be had in the corridor at the Normal school on the evening of the entertainment.

THAT BABY SHOW

It seems to have been overlooked in the story, but it will be at the opera house Wednesday, and we are assured that the building will be properly warmed and everything in readiness—and that the announcement is the only feature neglected, and here it is—short and sweet. It will be the most interesting part of the show.

WALTER SAVIDGE PROCLAIMED KING

Yesterday Walter Savidge of this place was at Grand Island, where he had gone for a new Pullman for his next year show business, and the train men were pulling his special car into the station from out in the yards at the end of a few other coaches just as an expectant crowd was waiting the arrival of the special with the king and queen of Belgium. Some openeyed kid saw Wait and immediately announced him as "The King" and a thousand people ran to get a glimpse of him. Our citizen did not have time to get his crown on before he was surrounded, and he wondered why such a demonstration. When they asked "where is the queen?" he knew a mistake had been made, and informed his admirers that the lady had not yet made her appearance, and expressed regret that she could not appear. Wait and the car arrived here this morning, and he is no longer king.

The Savidge Amusement Company is playing here this week, and that may account for the weather man. But the tent is now properly warmed, and the performance is good each evening, we know for Savidge always has that class of a show. Closes Saturday night.

HOME FROM 2,500 AUTO TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clark returned home Saturday evening from a visit and sightseeing trip, during which they traveled nearly 2,500 miles by automobile, visiting in Iowa, Illinois and Missouri. They were accompanied by his mother and sister from Sioux City, and had a very enjoyable trip. Ralph tells us that he really saw no country that he thought any better than his home county, but he found some better country and more progressive people in Missouri than he had expected to see in the show me state. They visited his old home in southern Illinois, and tells that it seemed the poorest country that he saw—an acre here for a farm there, it seemed would be a poor trade for the Wayne county land man. In northern Illinois he saw a fairly good country, but the people seemed to be slower than he had expected to find the Missourians.

They visited many places of interest. Were at Springfield and was at the tomb of Lincoln—saw his old home and many of the letters written to him and by him. They also saw his old surveying outfit, which had once been taken from him to satisfy a debt—for Abe used to be poor and honest. He saw his old desk and chair and many other articles of furniture as used by Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln before they went to Washington. An admirer of the War president, they came away from his old home and his tomb with a better and broader knowledge of this simple great man who stood at the head of our nation at its most trying days. It was a month well spent.

A BLAZE CHECKED

Monday evening about 7 o'clock the firemen were called to the W. B. Vall building, fire having caught there on the second floor where some new tenants had put up the stove with the pipe too near a wooden partition and the heat catching the paper and partition. Timely discovery and a prompt service by the firemen saved the building, and thus perhaps several of the adjoining buildings. The damage was slight.

As an expression of his appreciation for the prompt work Dr. Vall sent $10 to the fire ladders, and at their meeting Tuesday evening the boys tendered him a vote of thanks.

WENBERG-SWANSON

Wednesday, October 8, 1919, by Judge J. M. Cherry, Miss Mabel E. Wenberg and Mr. Ernest L. Swanson were united in marriage. The bride and groom are both of Wausa, where the lady has been engaged in the millinery business, with her sister, and the groom is a partner in the meat market. They were accompanied to Wayne by the bride's sister and the groom's brother, and after the ceremony the newly weds went to the Wayne home of the bride's parents for a few days. The groom and his brother both gave their business over to their father and went to serve in the army until the war was over.

INSTALLATION OF REV. J. W. BEARD AS PASTOR

Last evening the ceremony of officially installing Rev. Beard as pastor of the Wayne Presbyterian church took place. Rev. Orr of Wakefield, Rev. McIntyre of Emerson and Rev. Harper of Laurel being present for the impressive ceremony.

The sermon was by Rev. Orr, the charge to the people was delivered by Rev. McIntyre, and Rev. Harper charged the pastor, who accepted the responsibility. Music appropriate for the occasion was furnished by the choir members.

Following this impressive ceremony an hour was given over to social conversation and the ladies of the congregation served refreshments. It was regretted that weather conditions prevented the attendance of the members from the country, and some of those in the city did not brave the rain to participate.

All will be glad to know that this church once more has a pastor, and that its good work will be aggressively carried forward. In Rev. Beard they have an earnest worker, and with hearty cooperation of church and public the causes of right and good will be strengthened in Wayne.

"INDEPENDENT AS A HOG ON ICE," IS F. R. DEAN

Fred R. Dean is fitting to be absolutely independent of the ice man—and he won't care whether or not we have a winter that will make an ice crop, so far as he is concerned, but we suppose he will feel sorry for those who need cooling off if it happened that there is a short ice crop.

Mr. Dean is having installed at the Central Market an Arctic refrigerating plant sufficiently large to keep him cool and his refrigerator. This plant is not designed to make ice, but the coils will be placed inside his large refrigerator and the temperature kept as low as needed. When this is working, the man here installing tells us that so far as the ice man is concerned at least, Dean will literally be as stated in the heading, perfectly independent.

This move was made necessary by the fact that last winter was not a good season for building ice, and while Mr. Androsen harvested all of the ice the weather man would make last winter, his supply is practically exhausted, and ice is being delivered for those who must have it, by truck from Laurel where they have put in an ice making equipment.

REPORT FROM THE STATE NORMAL BOARD

The public will be interested in the following information received from President Conn, who was in attendance at a meeting of the state board last Monday:

"At the meeting of the State Normal Board held at Lincoln on October 6, the reports from the various schools show that the attendance at Wayne is not only the largest in the history of the school but is larger than the present attendance of any of the other state normal schools of the state. As has been done at several previous meetings the matter of salaries was discussed. It was decided, however, to postpone until the next regular meeting any further readjustment; at that time there will doubtless be some advances in the salaries of those who are in secondary departments. Plans for buildings at Kearney and Peru, together with bids submitted; the bids, however, were so far beyond the available funds that action was indefinitely postponed on both projects. There is a general feeling that any building program other than emergency matters may well be passed over.

"An important ruling of the state superintendent makes the city certificate no longer a necessity for graduates of the state normal schools. The diploma issued to the students on graduation is a legal certificate and qualifies for work in any school in the state of Nebraska."

MORRIS-LEE

Thursday, October 2, 1919, J. M. Cherry said the words which united the lives of Miss Ada Gale Morris of Boone, and Mr. Warner F. Lee of Hartington, two young people who have known each other from childhood, and were together much until the young man entered service and the bride moved with her folks from Cedar county. They are now settled on a farm west of Hartington, and all wish them a life of happiness.

ANOTHER VIEW

About a month ago the Democrat quoted from the Randolph Times the report of a non-partisan league meeting, and gave credit to the Times. A week later August Honneke from Hoskins was a caller, and stated that the article did not quote the speaker fairly, and we asked him about a correction for the same, and now we receive from him a marked copy of the Nebraska Leader, an organ of the league, containing the following, with a request that we publish the same, which we willingly do, for a newspaper should be, and this one is open for correction or communications on public questions. Mr. Honneke says:

Hoskins, Nebraska.

To the Editor of the Leader:
As you urge our members and your readers to write letters I thought I would do so and let you know what one Randolph paper said about Mr. Shoemaker's speech at that place. I was there and heard what Mr. Shoemaker said.

The Randolph paper said that Mr. Shoemaker spoke against the small town people so as to keep the town people and the farmers divided. He did not. Instead he pleaded for the people in the small towns not to believe Big Business too much and urged them to make common cause with the farmers especially at the ballot box.

Of course he criticized them for not being very hospitable at previous meetings in Randolph, but since I saw in the Leader that they tore off league banners and strewed the roads with nails and tacks, of course I cannot blame the Randolph papers for attacking Mr. Shoemaker.

Now let me tell you what I told a certain Mr. Stageman at Randolph. He asked me about the $16 league membership and I told him the following story:

In North Dakota some time ago a banker and farmer were talking on the streets when a league organizer drove by them in his car.

"You've got $16 in that car," said the banker to the farmer, pointing to the organizer.

"Yes, I know it, but it is not bothering me near as much as the $16 I have in that car," said the farmer, pointing to the banker's automobile. Aug. Honneke.

INCOMES OF $150,000 AND OVER DECREASED

Washington, Oct. 7.—Despite the popular belief that the number of large fortunes has increased during the last few years, income statistics made public today by the bureau of internal revenue showed a considerable decrease for 1917, in those reporting incomes in excess of $150,000 but a marked increase in those reporting net incomes of less than $150,000.

The figures were considered even more surprising as regards incomes of a million dollars and over. There was a decrease of sixty-five in such incomes, only 141 being reported in 1917.

A total of 3,472,890 personal income tax returns were filed during the calendar year 1917. The net income reported on these returns amounted to $12,552,383,207, an increase of $7,353,505,587 over the corresponding figures for the preceding calendar year. The large increase is attributed to the lower exemptions of the October 3, 1917, law and partly to the general rise in the scale of wages, salaries and other forms of compensation.

MOONSHINERS' STILL RAIDED AT PILGER

A moonshine still located near Pilger was raided Monday night by federal and county officials. Luke Stafford and E. L. Pulley, both of the Pilger vicinity, were brought to Norfolk during the night by a federal revenue man and Sheriff Eli Best of Stanton county. Both of the prisoners were to be taken before United States Commissioner Hays Tuesday for arraignment.

The officers after bringing their prisoners to Norfolk told the police that they had unearthed a big still. Two barrels of mash, ready for the distillery and illicit whisky ready for the market and illicit whisky-making apparatus were confiscated and are being held at Stanton as evidence. Evidences that whisky was distributed from the still are said to have been found by the officials.

First Hint of Federal Sleuths
The arrest of alleged moonshiners in Stanton county is the first intimation that "revenooers" have begun their activities in this vicinity, although it is known that moonshining has been practiced in this part of the state ever since the state went dry. Apparatus needing only the "worm" or what is called by illicit whisky makers, "the missing link," has been sold in large quantities throughout this vicinity. Reports that "moonshine" whisky has been sold here and throughout north Nebraska has attracted the attention of the officials and operations of federal officers have been expected. Several moonshine stills are reported to be in operation in several counties in this part of the state.

Fake "Tea" on Market
The scarcity of regular whisky was made conspicuous when "tea" or "fake" whisky was dumped on the market by bootleggers, is said to have made the moonshine variety popular. Whisky brought through the quantity of official watchdogs is costing as high as $22 per quart, according to common gossip. In St. Joe where once the market for bootleggers flourished whisky is becoming scarcer every day and even in that city it is bought up for $75 and $80 per case and shipped into other states where it brings fancy prices.

150 HEAD Of Selected Boars and Gilts 150 HEAD

In the three sales 150 head of spring pigs will be offered. The principal part of the good boars and gilts selling are by BIG SPECIAL, a splendid breeding son of Mouw's Special and BOB AGAIN, the Big Bob boar in service in the herd.

Over 250 head of pigs were raised on the McEachen farms this season. Nothing of spring farrow is being retained in the herd and the great lot of gilts going in this sale are decidedly attractive to good breeders and stockmen of northeastern Nebraska.

At WAYNE on Saturday, October 11th will be offered some of the choicest gilts of the season. A LITTER Sired by MABEL'S

J. P. Coleman will represent The Nebraska Farmer at the Wayne sale on Saturday, October 11. For the other sales bids sent to Mr. McEachen will be given the best of care.

JUMBO, the $18,000 boar, will be sold in this sale. There are four gilts and one boar in the litter. They are very choice and something no herd is so good that they will not look good in it. TWO FALL GILTS BY COL. JACK. THREE FALL CHOICE SOWS BY BIG BOB. All sell open. The addition of the best things by BIG BOB AGAIN and BIG SPECIAL makes this Saturday offering one of the bonanzas of the season for the breeder in the market for gilts that are in everyway desirable. There will be boars in this sale of herd-heading material.

The catalog will tell you all of the particulars of the different sales and no breeder of Poland Chinas should fail to get one of them.

STUDIES IN GENESIS

H. B. Dinwiddie, who was here last spring giving bible studies so pleased many people that he was asked to return when he could, and the Normal students appear to be especially interested, and in response to their request, he is this week giving a series of lessons, one each evening at the Normal, closing this evening. The students gather at 6:30 each evening, and spend the time until the evening study hour. Below are the subjects:

Monday—The Key to Genesis.

WAYNE MARKET REPORT

Following are the market prices quoted us up to the time of going to press Thursday:

Table with market prices for Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye, Hens, Springs, Roosters, Eggs, Butterfat, Hogs, and Cattle.

Many things have doubled in value measured by the dollar, in the past few years—perhaps the dollar took a tumble. Perhaps we are using the Bryan 50 cent dollars, the kind which frightened a lot of people in 1896.

Nationalization of the world natural resources is said to be coming. In Great Britain coal is certainly going to belong to the people—and it should.

The prospect of Philippine independence is growing brighter. Now here is a chance for our republicans in the senate who are so worried because Japan has taken the place of Germany in China.

The senators who oppose the ratification of the league and who oppose the treaty should get together a bit and form some reason, real or imagined for their opposition.

SOCIAL NOTES

The Wayne Woman's club entertained the teachers of the high school and of the normal and members of the four rural clubs at a reception in their opera house building Saturday afternoon.

Of the program of the initial meeting of the Woman's club at Sioux City yesterday morning, the Journal of that city gives the following, telling that three former Wayne people had an important part in the interesting program:

The program was given by Mrs. Maude Fleetwood Johnson, assisted by Willis Fleetwood, baritone. The selections to be given are by American composers, including three British songs writers, as follows: "In a Garden" (Hawley), "Sad Memories" (Lulu Jones Downing), "Shoogy Shoo" (Grace Mahew), Mrs. Johnson; duet, "King Fisher Blue," from the suite, "On Jhelum River," (Amy Woodford Flinden), Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Fleetwood, "The Rose in the Wind," "Go, Fragrant Rose" (Wm. Polla), "The Night in the Desert" (Gertrude Ross), Mrs. Johnson; "King Charles" (Maude Varerie White), "Entreaty" (Wilson Smith), "Uncle Rome," banjo song, (Sidney Homer), Mr. Fleetwood; "The Moon Drops Low" (Cadman), "The Worldly Hopes Men Set Their Hearts Upon" from "In a Persian Garden" (Liza Lehman), "What the Chimney Sang" (Gertrude Griswold), Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. Harold Long was the accompanist.

Monday Club Notes.

(Reported by Miss Elsie Ford Piper) The Monday club held its opening meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Mellor, October 6, when the members were guests of Mesdames Mellor, Chace and McMaster, at a delightful one o'clock luncheon.

The members were all seated at one large table which was beautifully decorated with pink and white roses. A delicious three-course luncheon was served, the course scheme being carried out in the menu and the dainty place cards.

The president, Mrs. Ley, greeted the club in a charming and sincere manner, and also welcomed Mrs. Bratnard as a new member. Mrs. T. J. Jones sang "A Rose, a Kiss and You" by San Souci and the "Ventian Song" by Tosti. Each member related her interesting experiences of the summer.

The next meeting will be Monday, October 13, with Mrs. McMaier.

The Alpha Women's club held its first meeting of the year at the home of their president, Mrs. Wm. Beckenhauer Tuesday evening, with all of the new officers. Mrs. Beckenhauer gave a paper on the aim of the Alpha Women's club; Mrs. Maude Wright gave a reading entitled "Why I am Single," Mrs. B. W. Wright favored the club with some very fine instrumental music. Mrs. L. C. Gildersleeve, Mrs. Ed Samuelson and Mrs. J. W. Beard were taken in as new members. Mrs. Beckenhauer was elected delegate to the state convention which is to meet at Fairbury October 21.

The Junior class of the Stanton high school, twenty-five in number drove to Wayne Friday afternoon, and witnessed the football game between their home team and the Normal squad. They were entertained by their class sponsor, Miss Dorothy Huse. Mrs. E. W. Huse, assisted by her daughter, served a picnic supper. The young people spent the evening playing games and had a very enjoyable time. Miss Hattie Crockett, another of the Stanton teachers, was a guest. At 10 o'clock the Juniors departed for home, voting Miss Huse a royal entertainer.

Mrs. L. A. Fanske entertained seven little girls Monday afternoon.

honor of her daughter, Margaret's seventh birthday. The party was a complete surprise to Miss Margaret. One of the most pleasing features of the afternoon was the beautiful birthday cake with seven lighted candles. The little girls spent a very pleasant and happy afternoon. Mrs. Fanske served a splendid two-course luncheon at 5:30. Margaret received a number of nice gifts. The little folks departed wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. A. E. Laase was hostess at a largely attended meeting of the Women's Bible Study Circle Tuesday afternoon. H. B. Dinwiddle of New York City, general secretary of the Victorious Life Conference, being in the city in response to a petition sent him by Normal students asking for a week of Bible studies in Genesis, was invited to lead the lesson study which was a delight and enrichment to all present. Mrs. Walter Bressler will be hostess next week and all are cordially invited.

Tuesday evening the Royal Neighbors entertained at their hall, and the members of the M. W. A. camp enjoyed the occasion greatly. At the close of their program which was good, a substantial supper was served—fried chicken being one of the staples on the bill. The editor regrets that he had to send his regrets to the Royal Neighbors and the chicken.

MAY RECOVER WORKS OF ART

Possibility That Waters of the Rhone Will Give Up Sarcophagi Long in Their Keeping.

An ancient story of the greed of kings has been resurrected by an erudite member of the Institute de France, Mr. Adrien Blanchet. The fact is there is some prospective work on hand for the utilization of the Rhone water power. Thus do ancient history and modern enterprise come to hobnob in the revue des etudes anciennes. The story tells how the king of France, Charles IX, coming one day to Arles, saw the Roman sarcophagi and wished them his. He did not covet long, for the next act in this kingly episode was the shipping of the most perfect of Rome's monuments en route for the capital city. This may have furnished a later king of France, namely, Louis XIV, with the precedent for the removal of the statue of Mes-salina from Bordeaux; not that that monarch ever needed either precedent or encouragement for his actions. The sarcophagi started on their journey. It was in the year 1585. They had unfortunately not gone beyond the famous Pont-Saint-Esprit, before the boats sank beneath so unusual and weighty a load. Now, the congress for the development of water power, which sat in February this year, discussed among other schemes the transformation of the Pont-Saint-Esprit. The question is—and it will be admitted to be an absorbing one—during the excavations in the bed of the Rhone will those sarcophagi, lost nearly four centuries ago, be recovered?

MORE THAN WILLING TO GO

Senator's Suggestion, Meant as Sarcasm, Probably Was Wish Closest to Adventurer's Heart.

MaJ. Cushman A. Rice of Minnesota, the original "Soldier of Fortune," dropped in to see Senator Knute Nelson the other day, on his way back from war. This last war made about the fortieth Rice has been in, so the veteran Minnesota senator thought Rice had had enough.

"Cushman," the senator said, "why don't you quit roaming around, go home and run for office? Your male relatives have been governors, senators, etc., and there is no reason why you should not serve your state."

Rice did not seem greatly impressed, so Nelson became somewhat warmer in his remarks.

"If you're bound to fight, why not get over into Russia, among the reds, and get some real action?" Nelson said, sarcastically.

Whereupon Rice leaped into the air. "Say, senator," he shouted, "if you'll fix it up so I can get over there, there isn't anything I wouldn't do for you."

That's the curse of the wandering foot, as the poets would remark.—Washington Star.

Didn't Know Ty.

Hiram Johnson, Republican senator from California, is one of the hottest baseball fans in the country, Jim Phelan, Democratic senator, knows nothing about the game. Here is proof of the latter statement.

The other day Walter Johnson, premier pitcher of the American league, and Ty Cobb, the greatest ball player in all history, perhaps, paid the senate a visit. After they had been introduced all around and been the subject of a great deal of hero worship, Phelan went over to Eddie Halsey of the senate staff, and asked:

"Who is this Ty Cobb, anyhow?" Halsey almost passed away, but he managed to tell Phelan that "Cobb is a fellow who plays ball for a living." Meantime Johnson was enjoying hugely the visit of the two ball players.

Next Morning.

My brother told me this. Marie is his lady friend, Mrs. Hemming, the mother of his chum. He said: "You know Marie has one of these bright-red sweaters. I took her to a dance in the park one night and she wore it. Some of the fuzz from the sweater rubbed off on my coat sleeve. Next morning I was in a rush to catch my train and forgot to brush it off. Mrs. Hemming and Dud were on the train and we all sat together. While I was talking Mrs. Hemming leaned over and began to pick this lint off my sleeve. Well, that was an embarrassing moment.—Chicago Tribune.

The Engineer's Eyes.

The importance of the eyesight test is understood in a general way, but few people realize the tax laid on the eyesight of an engine driver during a long run. It takes years for a driver to learn thoroughly all the signals on a complicated system, and he must be able to pick out his own at a glance in the maze of a great junction. On the Northwestern railway alone more than 17,000 signals are lit every night, and a driver working from London to Crewe and back is controlled by nearly 800 signals.—London Chronicle.

Aunty Would Help.

Bill Bush of L.A.A.C. was showing an elderly lady the virtues of the car he sells. He made many turns and at the proper times extended his arm as a turning signal. The old lady watched the proceeding for some time. Then she craned her neck and looked at the sky. "Mister," she said sternly, tapping Bill on the shoulder, "you just tend to your driving. It don't look like rain no how, but if it should, I'll let you know."—Los Angeles Times.

SHORT MENTION OF FARM NEWS

In Tennessee the farmers are organizing county councils to aid in the work of cooperation. About a dozen counties are now organized in that state.

During July and August the mileage of the federal aid roads approved was nearly 3,000,000 miles, and the total proposed improvement is estimated at about eighteen million dollars, and of the sum the federal government will pay more than one-third.

Florida farmers are fighting rats scientifically and systematically. They must exterminate the pests or lose their crops.

The truck is becoming more and more popular in stock hauling, and they are now being made double deck for hogs and sheep, thus increasing the carrying capacity nearly 100 per cent.

The largest individual hog shipment ever received at the Kansas City market, consisting of 949 hogs which averaged 280 pounds apiece, a total of 265,720 pounds of pork on the hoof, recently was received from a Livingston county, Missouri, farmer. These porkers had rail service deluxe, as the sixteen cars they occupied were handled as a special live-stock train. The extra attention accorded this shipment was worth the trouble, as only three hogs, or about three-tenths of 1 per cent were lost.

BEFORE YOU TAKE CHANCES

Before you take chances on crossings when trains or street cars or automobiles are coming remember this: If the train is coming at the speed of fifty miles an hour and you would start across 75 feet ahead of it. The danger point is fifteen feet wide. Running at the rate of ten miles an hour it takes you just one second to run fifteen feet, and the train is moving at the rate of 75 feet a second—there is not one pulse beat between you and death. Apply this rule to the street car or automobile coming at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour covering a danger point ten feet wide. If you try to cross less than forty feet ahead of car or auto, there is just one pulse beat between you and death or mutilation—better apply safety first and wait the second it will take the vehicle to pass you. It is wiser to sue car company or auto-driver for your shock of nervous prostration by being just missed than to arrage for your heirs to sue them for the expense of your funeral.—Ex.

A GREAT EDUCATIONAL WORK

Few realize the extent of the educational work being done in Nebraska by the boys' and girls' clubs in connection with the state fair and the department of agriculture and home economics. Below we copy a letter written by Ruth Barnhart of Hartington, who was one of the Cedar county class who went to Lincoln this fall, for we know the story will interest and instruct our younger readers, and perhaps encourage some of the Wayne county young folks to enter the contest another season. It will do any community good to have such a class working. Here is what Ruth said:

The Bread Baking Teams Trip from Cedar County

On the Saturday morning before the week of the state fair the winner of the Cedar county bread baking contest and their county leader, Miss Riley, started for Lincoln. There were also three of the boys going from Hartington that are in the boys' encampment and one boy going with his pig. We all left on the early morning train and arrived at Lincoln about 4:30. Miss Riley's home is in Lincoln, so she had the bread baking team out to her house. The four boys stayed out on the fair grounds.

The next day being Sunday, we spent most of our time resting.

Monday and Tuesday we went out to the fair grounds. Both days we went up in the balcony of the agricultural hall to see if there were any demonstrations going on. We found there were, so watched them. After the demonstrations we went and saw many other things.

Wednesday was the day for our demonstration. Our demonstration was at 1 o'clock. In demonstrating bread it is necessary that you have on a clean apron and cap. The last thing to do is always wash your hands. The first thing we did in the demonstration after we all washed our hands the captain, Helen Eby, set the sponge and told how to do it as she worked. Next Eunice Moran showed a baked gluten ball and one as it is ready to put in the oven and explained the purpose of this. She then mixed the sponge into a stiff dough, explaining every step. The next thing to be done was for myself, Ruth Barnhart, to show how to knead bread, explaining the purpose. After the kneading I molded the loaf for the pan and showed how to put it in the pan. Helen then took the baked loaf of bread and told how a loaf of bread should look, how it should be shaped, told about its texture and the flavor. We then closed our demonstration with a song. Before the demonstration as preparation we had a sponge ready to mix into a stiff dough, a gluten ball, a batch of dough that has had its second rising, and a baked loaf of bread.

Our work is now to bake our bread. While we were baking a pig demonstration was going on, so we enjoyed watching this, for it was near to us. I noticed that as soon as the demonstrations were over with that the agricultural hall began to clear out. There was the largest crowd at the pig demonstration, because people were anxious to find out what it was like.

Club work is a wonderful thing. There was canning and garden things that boys and girls have canned or raised. I hope that next year there will be even more that will join different clubs.

One evening some of our friends came and took us girls out for a ride. This way we saw many of the sites in Lincoln.

On the following Saturday we returned to our homes.—Ruth Barnhart, Hartington, Nebraska.

GOING HOME
(Milwaukee Journal)

"I have no plans other than to go home," is the statement of Herbert Hoover, and since August, 1914, has been engaged in war work, and in those five years has spent only nine months with his family.

How familiar the words have grown. In five years, millions of men have learned that the greatest boon in life is just to be at home. Perhaps this discovery will prove the greatest compensation of the war.

The home is the foundation of society and the state. Yes, we have all heard that scores of times. But now his home is revealed to the individual as the one thing that means everything, the value that has not changed except to increase in a word of changing values and chaotic ideas.

For a score of years we have been throwing our conventions, our laws, our economic and social ideas into a melting pot with no clear idea of what is to emerge. Suppose that the criterion is now to be, "Will this promote the cause of the home? Will this guard the sacredness of home ties? Will this restore our old-time reverence for the family? Will this offer every man who is willing to work the opportunity of building up

BY A TWO TO ONE VOTE

By a vote of 598 to 294 the people of Norfolk at the special election Saturday authorized the city council to issue $50,000 intersection paving bonds. The First, Second and Third wards gave liberal majorities in favor of the bonds but the fight put up against the bonds was felt in the Fourth ward where the opposition ran up a vote of 150 against the bonds. Only sixty-two votes were cast in favor of the bonds in that ward. George Hodson, former councilman from the Fourth ward, gave most of his attention to the Fourth ward during the day.

INVEST IN NORTH DAKOTA

John Brockman and Arnold Wyss went to Cando, North Dakota, last week Thursday and after a look at that country John bought a quarter near town and Arnold bought 240 acres, improved with buildings, in the same neighborhood. The quarter John bought is all under cultivation but without buildings.

Mr. Brockmann returned a short time ago from a trip to various parts of South Dakota and was very favorably impressed with two sections in particular that he saw in South Dakota. He, in fact, had about decided to buy in South Dakota but due to the number from here who have been investing around Cando felt he owed it to himself to investigate that country before coming to a final decision. He found that the best land he saw in South Dakota was no better than the North Dakota land and that the latter had advantages in less rock, better water, better school privileges and more good improvements indicating unquestioned prosperity.

Mr. Wyss was up in the winter country the week prior to going to North Dakota with a view of buying. He says that he saw some good land there and a few places with good water but that as a rule the land was not so good as around Cando and that anything like the Cando land, with such improvements as he got would cost about three times the money.

After looking over other sections of the country the one thing that impresses everyone who goes to northeastern North Dakota is the class of good improvements. Only a country where the people are prospering can show good improvements all over it, not just here and there a well improved place. And the prospective home seeker at once concludes that if others can prosper like that, he can.

G. W. Harris, of Paulina, Iowa, joined the editor at Alton and we came back to Fargo and Breckenridge on business matters laying over there Sunday. We were considerably surprised to learn that land was turning fast around Fargo and that $200 an acre was not an uncommon price. Farther out the going price now is about $125 an acre. Yet that country is so flat that some of it cannot be drained and thus is subject to drowning out in the spring and this class of land sells for from $15 to $40 an acre. There is much gumbo in this locality.—Cleridge Blade.

THOSE BABY DOLL GIRLS

A young woman wrote to the "heart-interest" department of a big newspaper and complained of the difficulty that nice young women who are working and boarding in a strange town have in meeting pleasant young men. One of her worst grievances seemed to be that the young men pass by the quiet, sensible girls, and shower their attention on the "baby dolls." The latter, she is sure, will not make such good wives when it comes to marriage, since they are frivolous, vain, and do not know how to cook. On the other hand the girl "who is neat and pleasant, but perhaps looks a little pale or tired and serious; though not flaunting visible charms, is the best sort of girl to tie to, and probably can make pies to beat mother all round the lot."

There is some sense in what she says and yet the "baby doll" girl is not always as silly as she looks. Often she has preserved the instinct for dress in spite of as hard a fight for life as the more sober-hued damsel ever made, and often she is astonishingly thrifty and competent.

Any girl who has noted the frivolous male a tendency to seek the dressier damsels might try a little enhancing of her own personal charms. Then when she receives the attention of the men she craves, let her clinch it with a well-made pie. Will she ever lose him? Never! But if it's beauty alone that gets man's eye, where do all the plain, wholesome, sensible wives and mothers come from?—Norfolk News.

G. O. P. CONVENTION URGES RATIFICATION

Boston, Oct. 6.—Prompt ratification of the treaty of peace without amendments, but with "unequivocal and effective reservations" was adopted in the platform offered at the republican state convention Saturday. The reservations include such unequivocal and effective reservations as will clear the unconditional right of the United States to withdraw from the league upon due notice, as will provide that the United States shall assume no obligation to employ American soldiers or sailors unless congress shall so direct, as will clear that no domestic questions such as the tariff and immigration, will be taken from the control of the United States and that the United States shall be sole judge as to the interpretation of the Monroe doctrine.

Just remember this—if it had not been for the 39 courageous republican senators who signed the round robin on March 4, 1919, the peace treaty would have been ratified long ago just exactly as the president agreed to it. Shantung provision, league of nations, surrender of Monroe Doctrine, obligation to participate in all foreign wars, agreement to protect political independence and territorial integrity of practically all other nations, submission to a league assembly in which great Britain had six votes to our one, and all the rest of the folly included. But for those 39 men there would have been no amendment, no reservation, not even an interpretation, for the president and his echoes in the senate wanted his treaty ratified without the dotting of an I or the crossing a T. When you realize what such a surrender of American nationalism means, don't you feel grateful to the 39 senators?—Harrison Herald. Sure, and that is the way it is to be ratified after all of this delay and fuss, by these same senators, or we miss our guess.

MAKE NEWSPAPERS

MORE VALUABLE

One thing that makes newspapers more valuable these days is the fact that bargain and clearance sales are advertised therein. Progressive merchants move their goods faster by advertising them, thus turning their stocks oftener and actually reducing the percentage cost of doing business by spending money. That is why you see the best stores always using newspaper space, and find the best stocks and best prices in such stores. And you will always find the best buyers and shoppers posting themselves through the newspapers. What is publicity advertised is apt to be based on fact and sound business than fly-by-night or under-handed concerns that don't take the public into their confidence. Watch the advertising pages.—Denison, Iowa, Bulletin.

GOVERNMENT BELIEVES IN ADVERTISING

Such wonderful results have been obtained in late years by advertising campaigns, especially so in the Liberty Loan and various war drives that the government has reached the conclusion that advertising is the surest and most expedient manner of reaching results. Hence the country newspaper campaign that they are now putting on.

This is the first advertising campaign that the government has ever placed on so large a scale. It is for the navy, advertising for recruits in the various special branches of the

What's the use, Folks— What's the Use!

WHY take honest-to-John Tobacco that nature grew for us all—and then "spill the beans" by messing it up with lolly pops?

Velvet isn't fooled with that way.

Velvet has just naturally relied on Nature since it was knee-high to a grasshopper.

First off, it was bred in old Kentucky, wonderland of Tobacco.

Next come, it was cured in the open air, right out with the good ole sunshine. Yes sir.

THEN it was gentled along by its lonesome for two years, while it just kind of thought things over and decided to have no bad qualities.

After these two years in wooden hogsheads it was packed in the jolly red tin you see everywhere, if you're not color blind—and we hope you're not.

As Velvet Joe says:

"The way Nature does things is best for man and his tobacco. You can't fool Nature—an' she won't fool you."

FIFTEEN cents seems a pickayune price, doesn't it, after all that?

Can you think, right off, of anything more or better for a dime and a nickel? And for cigarette smokers—there are 45 mellow cigarettes in every Velvet tin.

Velvet sure will be right glad to meet you this very day.

As with most matters in controversy in North Dakota, a suspension of judgment is called for in connection with the closing at Fargo of what is known as the non-partisan league bank. This was a state bank. A majority of the banking board which ordered the bank closed is hostile to the non-partisan league. Governor Frazier and the league spokesmen say the action is politics purely. Their opponents say the bank was rotten. Who knows? Partisan bitterness has reached such a pitch in North Dakota that it is incautious to take at par the views of either side.—State Journal.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Thursday convocation was devoted to the following program: "Life of Alma Gluck" by Madge Rippon. By the courtesy of Jones' Bookstore the following records by Alma Gluck were greatly enjoyed: "Bring Back My Bonnie to Me," "Will-O-the-Wisp," "Perfect Day" and "The Swedish Cradle Song."

During convocation on Friday the high school students enjoyed the speech, "The man who is putting Nebraska on the map," by Dr. J. T. House. He discussed the poem "Song of Hugh Glass," the work of John G. Nelhardt. He also emphasized the

The result of the spelling contest Monday, was 3-3.

Mrs. Alis Pollard was unable to meet her class on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Wakefield Versus Wayne

The H. S. played its first game of football at Wakefield Friday, October 3. For an initial game the team made a splendid showing. Not only did they keep the ball in their opponent's territory much of the time but they succeeded in carrying it almost two yards to one of the opposing team. Three times they had all but tucked a goal under their wing when a fumble gave the ball to Wakefield.

The Wakefield line was much heavier than that of the local team but by playing low the light H. S. line succeeded in holding Wakefield repeatedly for downs. In the second quarter Wakefield got the ball on a fumble on the Wayne 15-yard line and a 10-yard penalty gave them the ball on Wayne's 5-yard line with four downs to make the distance. They plugged the line for the necessary downs and pushed the ball over for the only score of the game. Wayne expects to return the compliment October 31, when the teams will again meet at Wayne to again test their skill in handling the pigskin.

The H. S. will play the Coleridge team Friday, October 10.

STATE NORMAL NOTES

The movement for organized recreation among the classes was distinctly manifested last Thursday afternoon when three different classes gathered for special forms of enjoyment. The seniors had a picnic at Bressler's grove with Miss Piper, the class sponsor, as chaperon; the juniors had a spread in the recreation room in the industrial building under the charge of Miss Louise Wendt who is class sponsor; while the sophomores under the care of their newly chosen leader, Professor Hunter, had a "hike" to the deserted farm, so called, northeast of the Normal. These special occasions are encouraged by the management of the school as they develop a fine spirit of cooperation and interest on the part of the students.

It is interesting to note the presence of teachers and graduate of the Normal who take part in public meetings concerning educational matters. At the Emerson meeting which occurs next Saturday, the following have a share in the occasion: Prof. A. V. Teed, of the Rural department of the Normal is the president of the meeting; Mrs. Homer Space, '12, will preside at the meeting of the primary section, while Miss Grace Nettleton, '13, and Miss Vena Werner, '19, will read papers and Misses Dorothy Bessie, '19, and Fern Rahn, '19, will sing. Supt. Conrad Jacobsen, '14, Ponca, will preside at the grammar section and Miss Elizabeth Schrad, '17, and Supt. Clarence Linton, '15, Lyons, have part in the program. The rural section will be presided over by County Supt. W. F. Richardson, '17, Dixon county, while Helen Hofeldt, a former student, and Elsie Butterworth now enrolled in absentia work will have part in the discussion.

Dean H. H. Hahn and Prof. A. V. Teed were in attendance Tuesday at a meeting in the rural district consolidated school near Allen. The occasion was that of a school fair at which exhibits of school work were presented and a royal good time was had. In the evening Dean Hahn

MARVIN BOWLES HOME

From the Randolph Times we learn that another Wayne county lad is home from service after two and a half years service. The Times says: "Last week Marvin Bowles returned from the navy with his discharge. He enlisted April 27, 1917, went to Great Lakes and entered the hospital corps training school. For about 14 months he did sanitation work at the great naval camp and was in charge of a division of this work. In August, 1918, he was transferred to the pharmacist mate school at Newport News and later went to sea on the transport Huron as a part of his training, on this cruise the Huron went to Erzerum, Persia, and it was at a time when the war was in full swing.

"About Jan. 1, 1919, he received his certificate as a graduate and was rated as first class pharmacist's mate. He then went to sea on the transport Bedford to Bordeaux and made two trips to St. Nazaire, France. In August this year he sailed from Newport News to New York and thence to the Panama canal. He traveled the entire length of the canal by railway and saw Calabra Cut, the Gratun locks, the beautiful lakes, mountains, etc. It was a very enjoyable trip. In Panama Mr. Bowles saw the natives bringing bananas to the city markets, using native canoes fashioned out of logs. He was in Colon for five days, and also visited Panama City, but likes Balboa best of all, declaring it to be the most beautiful city he ever saw. Balboa is a government city and the people are mostly employes of the government.

"On his return to New York the Randolph lad was transferred to the Brooklyn navy yards for a short time and sent to Los Animas, Colo., to be discharged."

PRINTER'S INK AND BILL LEAMER'S FIG

One day last week Wm. Leamer's red hog took a notion to leave home for a visit to the surrounding neighborhood, causing Bill to look all over the township for him with no results. It seems that the said Bill did not have much faith in printer's ink, so he offered us $5.00 if we could find the hog through the classified columns of Star, and nothing if we failed to locate him. Well we got the five alright, and have spent most of it. It only goes to show that the Star ads bring results: "Strayed from my place in town, a red hog, weighing about 75 pounds, ring in nose. A reward of $2.00 will be paid for its recovery. Notify the Star office."

The real value of the local is thirty cents and it brought us a clean profit of $2.70, a nice profit for our efforts and only another evidence that it pays to advertise. The hog had strayed to the Charles Lebahn place west of town.

If you have lost anything or found some article of value, just let the Star want ads do the work for you, and you will be surprised at the quick results.—Homer Star

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Mason and their son from Meadow Grove, were here Friday and Sunday visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mason. They were accompanied by J. K. Saturday they all drove to Emerson to participate in a family reunion of the Paul family, where more than half a hundred members of that family gathered about the home fireside.

A stock company with a capital of $15,000 is being organized in Madison county to establish a non-partisan league paper or purchase a plant and business already established. This is said to be the first county paper of the kind to be considered in this state. The paper is to be known as the Madison County Leader. The following men were named for the temporary board of directors: Henry Sunderman, Madison; Andrew Dahlsten, Meadow Grove; Frank Pose, Humphrey; J. T. Green, Tilden; Wm. Rattler, Madison. At a meeting of the board of directors, Henry Sunderman was elected chairman; Frank Pose, vice chairman and Wm. Rattler, secretary-treasurer.

Dr. L. B. Young returned home Tuesday from Atkinson, where he was called to attend the funeral of a cousin, Harold Nellis, who came to his death in a game of football at Butte last Friday. Harold was one of two twins, and when little fellows, lived at Wayne with their parents, leaving here about fourteen years ago. The lad was fifteen years of age.

A number of Yankton-bridge boosters have been over in Cedar county selling stock for the proposed bridge across the Missouri at that point. It will be to the advantage of a lot of farmers in the north end of Cedar county to have a chance to cross the river at this point. It will make a short cut for a lot of automobile travel between the north and south. At present much travel goes as far east as Sioux City because of the uncertainty of making a ferry crossing or risking a pontoon bridge in the winter, for the pontoon is not the safest bridge ever made.

Wm. Blonder, agricultural agent for the United States Railroad Administration, was a caller at the Democrat office while at Wayne last Thursday. His duties now have to do with the lands along the Great Northern railroad, and there is being an earnest effort made to have the larger land holdings in the most fertile part of the territory penetrated by the Great Northern cut up and owned and farmed by the owner. With this end in view an effort is being made to interest the people of this good farming country to investigate this country and learn whether or not they are not offering a land as fertile as this at a price within the reach of the man of moderate means. Land prices in this county are beyond the reach of many a young man and many a renter who would like to own his home are finding that they can own one of these farms offered, while they could not hope to buy a Wayne county farm and feel that they would be free from debt. He calls it the poor man's opportunity. Elsewhere you may read their advertisement, with a list of names of those who have purchased there during the past few months. The offering is good enough that nine out of ten of those who have gone from this part of Nebraska to investigate, have bought. That makes it a proposition worthy of the investigation of any one who is looking for a farm home.

THINGS THAT ARE HAPPENING

Governor McKelvie wishes the soldier boys and the home guards to act as a reserve force to check riots. He also seems to be planning a reorganization of the home guards.

President Wilson is reported to be gaining in strength and improving in appetite. He is still kept very quiet, and not permitted to interest himself in the daily affairs of government.

A move is on foot to relocate an auto road west from Norfolk to and beyond Valentine. From the report, we judge, that they are trying to find a way to avoid the sand. Sand is a fine thing when dirt makes mud, but otherwise sand is not very good auto road material.

King Albert and the queen have visited Niagara, and seen the falls, and were impressed greatly by their grandeur.

Italy has officially signed the peace treaty, and now has to wait upon parliament to approve. Let us hope that they are not as foolish about it as are our senators. Probably they won't be.

Senator McCumber, republican, of North Dakota, gave his fellow senators a scolding at Washington the first of the week for their deceit and political chicanery. Perhaps having the non-partisan league strong in his state, has convinced him that the league idea is not so bad—and again, he may be considering the people, with an eye upon another term.

FARM HANDS DEMAND BATHS

While the railroad workers want the public to buy the railroads for them the farm laborer has perked up courage to make an astonishing demand. He wants a bath.

The employing farmer must now install shower baths, provide soap and towels, and, perhaps, hire fan-bearers to accompany the farm hand to the fields.

Even with the $7 a day wages plus board as a lure the farmers complain that they cannot get enough help unless they agree to give the hired help cool, airy quarters and shower baths.

The next thing we hear will be the I. W. W. Have expelled the farm hands from the union for taking a bath.

Know what a drink of cold water does for your thirst?

Sure! "It touches the spot."

Well, that's what Chesterfield cigarettes do for your smoke-hunger. They touch your "smoke-spot." They let you know you're smoking. They satisfy!

And satisfy is something that no other cigarette can give you—regardless of price.

Because the Chesterfield blend—fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos—is the manufacturer's private formula. Unlike a patent, it cannot be copied or even closely imitated.

Light up a Chesterfield, sometime today, and see how quickly your smoke-sense will put the O.K. on "satisfy."

Jones Calls No. 648 Instead of His Wife

Bill Jones is a traveling man.

He telephones his home almost every day when he is on the road.

In placing his call, he says, "I want to talk to Number 648 at Brownsville."

He uses this method instead of saying, "I want to talk to Mrs. Bill Jones at Brownsville," because it is cheaper and just as satisfactory.

Jones uses what we call "station-to-station" service, which means he will talk to any one at the telephone called.

"Station-to-station" service is furnished at a lower rate than "person-to-person" service because it costs less to provide it than when a particular person must be summoned to the telephone.

OLD HOUSE TO BE MUSEUM

Movement for Preservation of Structure Identified With Early Days of Southern California.

A movement is on at Riverside, Cal., for the preservation of a number of the old landmarks of the vicinity, buildings and spots intimately connected with the early-day period of southern California. The plan is being fostered by the local chapter of the Daughters of the Revolution and the Pioneer society.

The first project to be undertaken is the restoration of the old Rubidoux home, an adobe structure, which was built by Indian labor three-quarters of a century ago. The Rubidoux family was one of the most prominent of the early Spanish residents, and the home was a social center for the interior section. Many of the notable events of history of the period just previous to the forty-niners are more or less intimately connected with this old building which in recent years has been abandoned and has begun to crumble away.

After the work of restoration is completed, the building will serve as a nucleus for a pioneer museum for the housing of many relics of the early days.

Mediterranean Air Base.

A far-reaching program of aviation in the French colonial possessions in Africa has been drawn up by the commission on aerial transports at Tunis, Algeria, which recommends that a great aerial transport center be established, with Tunis as its base, in order to centralize aerial traffic over the Mediterranean sea. Inasmuch as Tunis occupies an advantageous position, at the junction of French and international colonial possessions, a regular aerial service, it is urged, between Tunis and outlying districts would benefit the French protectorate. Already a line of airplanes is in operation between Gabes, an Algerian seaport, and the frontier of Tripoli; and this, in the expectation of colonial officials, will be extended to Tunis. So the "unchanging East" is fast becoming a by-word only of times past.

Flax in the War.

With restoration of the industry on a peace-time basis cotton once again goes ahead of linen in the world's favor. The exigencies of the recent conflict raised flax to the position as leader among fabrics, a rank which it had held for centuries but lost almost simultaneously with the advent of the cotton gin.

With realization of the importance of cotton in the making of munitions, there came a speedy reversion to linen for the more commonplace usages—waistcoats, suits for ships, even "wings" for airplanes having lately consisted of linen. But flax has reached the end of its days of monopoly. King Cotton now rises to the fore in ordinary pursuits, and linen once again becomes the aristocrat in this field of supply.

Modern Radio Methods.

In these days of the radio compass and instant wireless communication, a ship at sea is in little danger of losing its way, says Popular Mechanics magazine. Recently the Louisville Bridge lost its bearings in a heavy fog off the coast of New Jersey, and was unable to find Ambrose channel into New York harbor. The operator called the navy yard, and within five minutes received the answer: "Your true bearing at 4:43 p. m. from Rockaway beach two-hundred-ten, Sandy Hook sixty-seven, Mantoloking fifteen." The auto tourist asking the best route to town could hope for no more definite information than that.
