THE STOCK SHOW AND FALL FESTIVAL GREAT SUCCESS

In spite of a bad beginning because of bad weather and nearly impassible roads, the Stock Show and Fall Festival at Wayne last week will be known as a success in the history of other fairs and festivals which we hope are to follow this venture, which was gotten up on the spur of the moment as one would say. The enterprise was financed by the farmers and citizens and business men of Wayne and vicinity, something like 150 subscribing $10 each. It was not run for revenue, and no admission was charged to any of the attractions—absolutely free—a fact that was much appreciated by all. It was not staged for the profit of Wayne merchants during those days, for the business houses closed during the hours of the afternoon attractions. It was just a free exhibition by Wayne county people and others.

The band from Sioux City was the best that could be procured, and their concerts were splendid. The orchestra for dance music was high class, and the dances Friday and Saturday nights were well patronized, one for the community house and another for fair funds. The Carroll band appeared on the scene for a time Saturday with some of their splendid music. The Welsh sextette from Carroll pleased the evening audiences who gathered for the concert and other free attractions.

The free attractions, consisting of the Shipman Rubes and their trained geese and the rube stunts they distributed among the people, the two DeArmands with their bar and trapeze show and the Arabs were all good.

In fancy work, fine arts, school displays, canned fruits and baked goods the city hall was converted into a real paradise for those who admire such things at their best, and the women certainly appreciated the show. In grains, vegetables, we have seen larger shows, but none that had more quality. The fruit display was good, but small, and consisted of apples, mostly, other fruits being out of season.

The display of implements was good, but not large, owing to the fact that it was not possible to place them before Thursday morning, on account of weather. Kay & Biffel had on display a binder and grain shucker which perhaps more than any other one thing took the eye of the people. They also had tractors, washing machines, separators, wagons and some lesser things.

C. W. Hiseox shows an elevator, tractors and washing machines. I. C. Trumbauer put on a splendid display of the oils he sells for all kinds of lubricating. He is the district salesman for the Pennsylvania Consumers Oil Company.

Jack Liveringhouse installed a Lally light plant that made light for the tent in which the agricultural exhibits were shown. It is a farm lighting system.

Ralph Clark had a display of his famous trucks; H. Griggs was showing his new truck box of which he is making many, and also showing his new endgate for truck or wagon, on which he has made application for a patent.

Anderson Bros. & Baker had a showing of a car and truck, and so did the Wayne Motor Co. C. C. Forney showed cars, and so did B. W. Wright have those of his offering on exhibition.

The School Exhibit
Was indeed a marvel and a wonder to many people who are not keeping in close touch with the school development of the day. The writer is sorry that more time and space cannot be given to it, but there was so many articles of merit that the judges might well be excused if they failed to make an award just as some others would have done. Miss Sewell was the superintendent, and Mrs. Homer Seace, Mrs. C. A. Chace and Mrs. Ben Carhart were judges, and below are their awards. The numbers given are the district number in each case.

Best Rural Exhibit—First, No. 51; second, No. 23; third, No. 15.

Best Town Exhibit—First, Winside; second State Normal Training school (5th and 6th grades); third, Wayne public school.

Penmanship—Under 8 years, first, Edith Prescott, No. 66; under 12 years, first, Ida Baier, No. 10; second, Mabel Lewis, No. 10; third, Howard Ellensburg, No. 10; over 12 years, first, Gladys Richardson, No. 10; second, Mildred Westlund, No. 69.

Best Map of Nebraska—First, La Vern Lewis, Winside; second, Bernice Hanson, No. 59; third, Clare Jeffrey, No. 15.

Best Map of United States—First, Mercedes Reed, No. 48; second, Dorothy Meyers, Carroll.

Best Drawing—Under 8, Marion Trautwein, Winside; under 12, Frances Erkleben, parochial school; over 12, Arnold Erkleben, parochial school.

Best Garment—Rural School—Zetta Buetow, No. 15.

Best Garment—Town School—First, Blanche Leary, apron, Winside; second, Blanche Leary, petticoat, Winside; third, Margaret Mines, gown, Wayne.

These were given a blue ribbon for the special quality of work on exhibit, Blanche Gilderleeve, Papex exhibits; Marion Agler, booklet of sewed maps; Loretta Buetow, quilt.

Rural schools carried off all prizes in penmanship. Many specimens were barred from prizes because of no age given—nearly all of the town schools gave name and grade instead of ages.

The Winside schools drew first for the entire exhibit not only because of quality and quantity, but for the many phases of school work exhibited. The exhibit from the Wayne school was indeed excellent, but covered only a few phases of school work.

HAROLD MEARS MARRIES MISS VERA VAN HOUSEN

Harold G. Mears, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant S. Mears of this city and Miss Vera Gertrude Van Housen of Schuyler were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Van Housen of that city on Thursday, October 16, at 8 o'clock p. m., Rev. George M. Gates of the Methodist church officiating. It was a pretty home wedding with only close friends and relatives present. Archie Mears, brother of the groom acted as best man and Miss Stella Van Housen, sister of the bride acting as maid, the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Grant S. Mears of Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Mears and little son, John and Miss Nita Van Housen of Sioux City, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Woods of Columbus, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Veleba of Ord.

The groom was born and raised in Wayne where he attended the high school and the State Normal college. He enlisted in the Nebraska national guard in February, 1915, immediately after he became twenty-one and left Wayne with his company for service on the Mexican border in June, 1916, where he served until January, 1917, when he was mustered out at Ft. Crook. He immediately went to Schuyler where he took a position as manager of the Nebraska Telephone Company at that place, which position he held until December, 1918, when he resigned to take a position in the auditor's office of the Wells, Abbott, Nieman Milling Company of Schuyler, which position he holds at the present time.

The bride was born in Colfax county and has spent most of her life in Schuyler, where she graduated from the 1917 class of the high school of that city. She is a member of the Methodist church. Immediately after a delicious wedding dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Mears in order to evade a chajvari party were driven by friends to Columbus where they caught the limited for Omaha and Sioux City. After a short honeymoon trip they will make their home at Schuyler.

"THE EYES OF THE WORLD"

Jane Novak is admittedly one of the most beautiful women in the realm of the film. She doesn't have to be starred to attract attention, or base-drummed or press-agented. Nobody is starred in "The Eyes of the World"—although the cast of the real multiple-reel production of Harold Bell Wright's story was carefully selected for type and ability, but that will not prevent Miss Novak shining as a real beauty when Clune's "The Eyes of the World" has its first local presentation at the Crystal theater Monday, October 27.

The makers of "The Eyes of the World" hunted a long time before they found just the right young woman for the part of Sibyl Andres. Scores were looked over critically and the search extended clear across the country to the most eastern field of the motion picture industry.

When Miss Novak was picked it was not because of her beauty, but because she answered minutely to the description of Sibyl by the author. Mr. Wright, who assisted in the filming of his book, said this young woman was precisely the kind of girl he imagined when he wrote the tale of California love and adventure which has reached a sale of over 2,000,000 copies.

FOR ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL

People of Wayne county wishing to contribute to the Roosevelt Memorial fund may leave their contributions, by Saturday night, October 25, with any one of the following banks, provided they have not already been seen by members of the canvassing committee:

Hoskins State bank and Farmers State bank, Hoskins.

Wayne County bank, Sholes.

Farmers State bank, Altona.

Farmers State bank and Merchants State bank, Winside.

Citizens National bank Wayne State bank and First National bank, Wayne.—John T. Bressler, Chairman for Wayne County.

WAYNE WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

The regular meeting of the Woman's club was postponed last Saturday, because of the fair being continued another day. This meeting will be held at the opera house Saturday at 3 p. m. A varied program will be given, consisting of music, readings by Miss Martha Dewey, head of the department of expression at the Normal, and a discussion of the work of Maxfield Parrish by Miss Pierce will have some examples of Parrish's work to exhibit. Every member should be present to enjoy this excellent program and take part in the business meeting. The club holds its regular meetings the first and third Saturdays of each month, and any woman who is interested in the work of the organization is privileged to attend, whether a member of the club or not.

Mrs. A. R. Davis has been appointed to take contributions from the members of the Woman's club for the Roosevelt Memorial. Only small donations are asked, and any contribution, large or small, entitles the giver to membership in the Roosevelt Memorial association. Come to the meeting Saturday, prepared to hand your donation to Mrs. Davis.

Parents who have not yet received the score cards from the Baby show can get them from Mrs. Eva Lucas, chairman of the committee. Mrs. Lucas can be found at the Wayne hospital.

Approximately $400 will be added to the treasury of the Woman's club from the various activities carried on during the fair. This will be used in paying off the debt on the opera house.

The twenty-fifth annual convention of the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs is in session at Fairbury this week. Thirty new clubs have affiliated with the State Federation since the state convention meeting at Lincoln last November. The Wayne Woman's club is among these. Mrs. E. E. Lackey is representing the local organization in the meeting at Fairbury, going as the president's alternate.

THURLOW-LASS

(Rock County Herald)
Anna Elizabeth Thurrow, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thurrow of Laverne, Minnesota, and Bernhard M. Lass of Wayne, Nebraska, were married October 15, at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of relatives and a few immediate friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. H. Ristan, and the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude Thurrow and the groom by Mr. Johannes Thurrow, brother of the bride. At 5 o'clock a bountiful wedding dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lass left for Wayne Friday where Mr. Lass is engaged in farming.

They will be at home to their friends after March 1, 1920.

A $30 ROOSTER

One of the little side features which added a bit to the community house fund was a fine milk-fed capon, a bird which Mrs. H. J. Miner had presented to Mrs. Henry Ley, and she said the highest bidder might eat the bird, and Auctioneer Cunningham sold and resold him until he had netted the sum of $30, and we do not know who had him for a Sunday dinner. John Hufford first bought him at $12.50 and turned him back for others to buy, and the last we heard he had been sold at $2.50 to one not quite as flush as John, perhaps. Mrs. Ley tells us that if anyone else wants to give a chicken, a duck, a goose or a cow, she will see that it brings in cash for the fund all that can be gotten out of the people for the offering. It is a very nice way to make donations.

LAND AT AUCTION

Next Monday Auctioneer Cunningham has a double land sale in this county. The J. K. Johnson farm of 320 acres, a well improved place, south of Sholes and west of Carroll. It will be sold as a body or in quarter section lots. The same afternoon the W. L. Fisher farm of 160 acres two miles west of Sholes and six miles southeast of Randolph will go on the market to the highest bidder, and you may read a full description of these places on another page.

Tomorrow the Iller Hanson 80 is to be sold at auction, as the last week's paper told. This place is just north of Pilger. No one should be without land when they can buy it at auction, and land has been increasing in price for many years, and will continue to go up, for they are not making any new land these days.

WAYNE STATE NORMAL VS. OMAHA UNIVERSITY

Before a surprised and delighted throng Saturday afternoon the Normal football team, with five substitutes in the lineup, won from Omaha University by a score of 62-0. The surprise was due to the fact that the expectation was general that Omaha would certainly win. This feeling was due to the fact that the Wayne team was made up almost wholly of new players and that this was the first game of the year against a college. The Omaha men were considerably larger than the Normal and some of them were known to be old players. Hence a spontaneous roar arose from the crowd as, on receiving the ball at the kickoff, Wayne immediately started down the field with a bewildering assortment of line plunges, end runs, and successful forward passes, which swept the opponents off their feet and won the first touchdown in four minutes. At the end of the first quarter the score stood 21 to 0 and it was evident that the local team outclassed their opponents in skill as greatly as they themselves were outclassed in weight. At the end of the half, Wayne had 42 points to their credit, having made six touchdowns and six goals. In the second half twenty points were added to this score, one field goal having been missed.

The fine spirit of the school spectators was manifested in songs and yells, which had been practiced in the chapel on Friday morning under the leadership of Professor Hunteimer and Professor Coleman.

The marked improvement of the team since the earlier games of the season shows fine skill and energy on the part of Coach Serfling.

State Normal Notes

On Monday morning at the chapel hour Prof. J. G. W. Lewis discussed the coming constitutional convention. He called attention to the fact that the present organic act has been operated for nearly a half century and that it no longer meets the needs of our state, which has grown greatly in population and the complexity of its life. He gave many specific instances in which the constitution is inadequate and he showed the necessity under which we live to often violate it.

Wednesday morning the entire chapel session was turned over to the Orpheus club, a musical organization of the school. The chorus lead the hymns and sang two special numbers, Flow, Stream, Flow, and Gounod's Praise Ye, the Father. A quartet of young men, Maxwell, first tenor, Armour, second tenor, Russell, first bass, Hauge, second bass, rendered two selections with fine spirit and good technique. Miss Katherine Strickland, senior at the Wayne high school played a piano solo from Liszt.

Miss Jessie Jenks, librarian at the Normal, is in attendance at the twenty-fifth annual meeting of the Nebraska Library association at Omaha. Miss Jenks will present a paper on "High School Libraries in Nebraska" this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Edwin Puls, a senior in the Normal, was called to his home in Hoskins on Saturday by the news of the death of his grandfather. He returned to the Normal on Tuesday.

TO ATTEND GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Dean and daughter, Lucile, and Clifford Dean, wife and children left Monday afternoon to go to their old home at St. Croix Falls, Wisconsin, to be present at a family reunion in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Dean. Eight children born to this union are all living, and are to be present at the meeting around the family hearthstone. It is now twenty years since they all gathered under one roof, and, it may be their last complete family reunion. Mr. and Dean visited at Wayne a few summers ago.

SPECIAL COUNCIL MEETING

At a special meeting of the council Tuesday evening the First paving district was agreed upon with engineer who is to prepare specifications and advertise for bids, and contract be let as soon as possible. Thus we are moving.

The storm sewer work is moving forward, and outlet construction work north of the railroad is moving forward. When this large sewer is complete the work will cover territory faster.

WAYNE HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATS EMERSON HIGH

Friday, October 17, Wayne high school played its first game of football on the home ground. This was their third game of the season as they had played Wakefield and Cole-ridge and had lost both games by scores of 6 to 0. The loss of these two games was perhaps the best thing that could have happened to the home team because the loss of these games they realized that it takes hard systematic training to handle the pigskin in a scientific manner. Proceeding the week of the Emerson game the team really got down to business and learned many of the fine points of the game as was apparent by the fact that they scored on the visiting team within two minutes after the ball was put in play.

The Emerson team was of about the same weight but it lacked the skill and training of the home team. John Carhart, playing the position of quarter-back, barked out the signals and shot plays through the Emerson line and around the ends for good gains almost every time. Don Miller, was perhaps the most consistent ground gainer of the day. Ralph Carhart and Harry Prescott, playing the left half and full-back positions did splendid work in carrying the ball, as well as running interference. The work of the ends, Marion Surber and Floyd Carpenter, was very gratifying to the coach and the high school students in general. Orville Thompson, who went in for the second half of the game, also did star work on the right end of the line. Perhaps George West was the strongest individual man of the line. Not only did he show his ability to stop the charges of the other team but repeatedly he broke through the line and tackled the man with the ball. Howard McEachen, Gurney Lase and John Hufford playing the positions of guards and right tackle, displayed many points of ability to withstand the charges of the enemy and also in breaking up the plays of the visiting line. All of the subs including Ellis Miner, Merritt McConnell and were allowed to play positions on the line. As a result of their superior training and skill in handling the pigskin the score was 78 to 0 in favor of Wayne.

The team and high school wish to thank the Wayne public for their loyal support of the high school athletics.

SCHOOL NOTES

Jimmie Morris of the second grade is enjoying a three days' visit in Omaha this week.
Tuesday Mrs. Harry Craven visited the second grade.
Mrs. C. T. Ingham visited the first grade last week.
Phyllis Auker of the first grade has been absent for two weeks on account of illness.
The total score for the spelling contest this week is 16-15 in favor of the North.
The presidents of the classes met Tuesday to make arrangements for the program which is to be given Friday afternoon. This day has been set apart throughout the nation as Americanization day and is to be observed by all schools. Professor I. H. Britell will address the high school.
Miss Myrtle Kaufman of Norfolk, visited the high school Wednesday.
Friday afternoon the high school was excused in order to attend the fair and the football game.

OMAHA BOND MEASURE PASSES LEGISLATURE

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 18.—Final passage by both houses of the Nebraska legislature of legislation deemed necessary because of the recent Omaha riot was completed today.
This includes a bill allowing the Douglas county commissioners to issue bonds without an election to finance repairs to the Omaha court house which was damaged during the rioting, and an act permitting the city of Omaha to raise the pay of its policemen and select a man from any part of the United States as police chief. At present the chief must be an Omaha resident.

NOTICE

Owing to the extremely acute coal situation it will be necessary to curtail operations at the city plant. Tomorrow, Friday night, the plant will shut down at 11 o'clock until 5:30 in the morning, and on Saturday night at 12 o'clock. The street lighting will also be curtailed. It may become necessary to curtail operations even more if the coal situation does not ease up.

J. H. KEMP, Mayor

Election Nov. 4, 1919

We recommend as Delegate to the Nebraska Constitutional Convention from the 20th Representative District (Wayne county)

J. G. W. LEWIS . . . X

BECAUSE his special education and present work should render him one of the best qualified men in the Convention.

BECAUSE he will stand for a scientific revision of the Constitution.

BECAUSE he has had a broad experience in different lines of work, as a farmer, as a public officer, and as a student of public affairs.

BECAUSE his knowledge and independence of judgment will make him more than merely a follower of any leader or faction in the Convention.

BECAUSE he believes in justice as a great preventive of disorder, and the spirit of co-operation as a general rule of action.

BECAUSE he will stand for the rights of the farmers, and the rights of men in other occupations insofar as they render service to society.

BECAUSE he will stand for government of the people, for the people, and by the people.

Nels Nelson was a visitor at Carroll the first of the week.

Carl Wright went to Omaha last week on a business mission.

A post of the American Legion is to be organized at Creighton.

Miss Alice Owens of Norfolk was here over Sunday, a guest of Miss Helena Baker.

Nebraska teachers are to meet at Omaha during the first week in November, closing the 7th.

Herman Doose from Pierce came over last week to visit friends, look after business matters and attend the fair.

Miss Helen Sweeney of the Wayne teaching force was a guest of Miss Bessie Durrie at Laurel over Sunday.

A. B. Clark left Sunday to spend a week looking after business and visiting friends in Illinois. He will be at and near Peoria.

W. O. Hanssen is helping out at the Central Market this week so that the Dean boys may go home and see the family—all of it, back in Wisconsin.

Miss Marguerite Forbes from Sioux City spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Forbes, returning to her work Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Mort McCrea and son, Lester, came last week by automobile from their home at Bushnell, South Dakota, to visit here with his mother, and his sister, Mrs. Chas. Madden.

Miss Anna Culbertson of the Normal class of '17, was an over Sunday guest of Miss Clara Smothers. Miss Culbertson came from Sergeant Bluffs, Iowa, where she is teaching.

Miss Dorothy Huse, who has been teaching in the Stanton high school since the first of September, has resigned to become one of the Herald force in this place, assisting her father.

Next Saturday the Nebraska-Oklahoma university football teams are to play at Omaha. On the same day and on the same field Creighton university and Marquette university will meet.

Miss Pearl Madden, who is finishing a business course at Omaha, commenced last year, was home to spend Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Madden, and visit with uncle and aunt who are here from South Dakota.

L. H. Branch of Bloomfield, accompanied by his daughter, was here Monday, as guests of Stephen Nichols. The daughter was on her way to Leed, South Dakota, and the father accompanied her this far, and returned home on the evening train.

We want to read a list of the members of the legislature who while pretending to represent the people of this state urged the senators to oppose the ratification of the treaty in its present form. That may be the sentiment of Nebraska citizens, but we doubt it very much, and for our part, we do not like to be classed on that side.

Miss Jewell Fanske of Pierce returned home Monday following a few days' visit here at the home of her uncle, L. A. Fanske. Miss Fanske came last week and accompanied her uncle to Sioux City where they were engaged for the day Friday in purchasing jewelry. Mr. Fanske for his store here, and the young lady for her father, Ed. Fanske of Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Sheer from Creighton, who came some weeks ago to visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Sibert Tekler, returned home Tuesday. While here, one day last week, Mr. Sheer was stricken with paralysis, his right arm and leg being quite seriously paralyzed, though he had no visible signs on his face, and his speech was but little troubled. A son came Friday and accompanied them home the next morning.

At Bloomfield a war of extermination is being waged against rats. Of the war started the Journal says: Bloomfield boys are hot on the trail of the rat these days and every conceivable way is being employed to lure him to his destruction. If consternation has not spread abroad through the ranks of the rodents it will be because there have none returned to camp to tell the tale. Rats have become quite numerous in and around the old town and the amount of destruction caused by them would mount into thousands of dollars annually. Mayor Cunningham decided that it was time to get busy and has summoned the boys of the community to the colors in this war. A reward of 5c for each and every rat taken—dead or alive—is offered and, in addition to this three prizes are hung up for the boys who turn in the most rats: $3.00 for the first, $2.00 for the second and $1.00 for the third. No rats are to be shot on account of city ordinances and the danger of someone getting hurt or killed. Rats must be delivered every day and may be caught or killed anywhere within the city limits. The contest started with Monday of this week and will continue up to and including October 31. Reports are to the effect that the boys are taking hold of the proposition with zest and zeal and the rat population has already suffered great inroads.

You Can't Find Better Clothes Than Ours Anywhere

If there were any suits better made than ours we would have them. But there are not. This you will agree with us once they come within range of your eye.

We have them in all fabrics and colors styles and sizes, and so are well equipped to cater to every masculine requirement.

See our boys' Hart Schaffner & Marx all-wool clothes.

Fine line of 44-inch leather reversible coats. Priced moderately.

Gamble & Senter

Mrs. James Miller was a Sioux City visitor Friday.

Mrs. C. C. Beebe of Wakefield was a Wayne visitor Friday.

Carl Wright returned Friday morning from a visit at Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Sprague spent Friday visiting at Sioux City.

Mrs. James Stanton from Carroll was among the passengers going to Sioux City Friday morning.

Jas. Strahan left Friday to visit at Lincoln and be a spectator at the great football game staged there Saturday.

The second district meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps will hold its annual meeting in Omaha, October 29. All meetings will be in the Council Chamber of the city hall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Benning returned last week from a visit of several weeks with relatives in southern Minnesota. Mr. Benning tells us that their small grain crop there suffered much the same fate as did the crop here—not very satisfactory.

Mrs. Slaughter from Burk, South Dakota, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Dixon.

Miss Grace Nettleton, who is teaching at Pender, and living at Sioux City, came to Wayne Sunday to visit a few friends here, returning to Pender for her school work that afternoon.

Mrs. E. S. Blair, our city librarian, went to Omaha the first of the week to spend the week at that city listening to lectures on library work and attending the annual meeting of the state library people, which began Wednesday. Mrs. M. S. Davies is in charge of the library during her absence.

They struck artesian water at Wynot last week at a depth of 330 feet and the flow comes to the surface and is to be pumped into a tank for fire protection. The Tribune implies that it is not considered fit for drinking purposes. Perhaps mere water is not gladly accepted as a drink at Wynot. People have to become accustomed to new drinks.

Mrs. Alex Scott was a visitor at Sioux City Friday.

Mrs. J. C. Forbes went to Sioux City Tuesday to visit a day or two there with her daughter, Miss Marguerite.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Conger, who are now living at Bloomfield were Wayne visitors Saturday, stopping while returning from a trip to Omaha.

The Nebraska clothiers will hold their annual meeting at Omaha, February 4 to 6, 1920. The Men's Apparel club of Nebraska will hold their meeting in conjunction with the Clothiers' convention. Schuyler M. Durfee of Pierce, Nebraska, is president of the Clothiers' association, and N. C. Holman of Lincoln is secretary. Mike Kelley of Columbus is president of the Apparel Club, and Dan Dorsey of Omaha is secretary, and they should try to do something in the interest of their patrons, the consuming public, rather than work out new schemes for boosting prices and increasing their profits.

I make your glasses while you wait.

The Ford One-Ton Truck

Is one of the sure business utilities and likewise just as big a necessity on the farm. Farming is surely a business proposition wherein success depends upon economical methods, with up-to-date machinery. The Ford Truck will prove a great economy on the farm. It has all the strong features of the Ford car, made larger and stronger. It has the powerful worm drive; extra large emergency brakes; acting on both rear wheels, and controlled by hand lever; 124-inch wheelbase, yet turns in a 46-foot circle; with demountable rims and pneumatic tires giving sure footing on all kinds of roads; speed and efficiency. We know it is absolutely dependable. We would advise ordering now as we can make prompt delivery on trucks now.

CELEBRATE YEAR OF PEACE BY SAVING

A $10,000,000 Investment Offered to People of Tenth District

AN ARMISTICE DAY CAMPAIGN

An opportunity is offered Wayne and every other community in the Tenth Federal Reserve District to celebrate Armistice day, November 11, in a substantial manner. The celebration will end a savings campaign just launched by the district to clean up its share of the 1919 war savings stamps and their big brothers, the new treasury savings certificates of $100 and $1,000 denominations. The savings organization expects to announce on November 11 that it has sold $10,000,000 in these securities which are presented as a "peace offering" to commemorate a year of peace.

The amount to be raised has been apportioned among the banks of the district. Wayne county's quota is about $25,000 or the sum of the quota given to the banks in the community. Customers of the banks are urged to ask their banker about these certifi-ates which are governed by the same general regulations as war savings stamps.

Rollie W. Ley, who is county chairman of war savings, has been asked to superintend the campaign in this county, but any banker can order certificates, and postoffices are authorized to sell those of $100 denomination.

During October the $100 certificates will cost $84.20 and those of $1,000 will cost $842. In November they will cost $84.40 and $844 respectively. When they mature on January 1, 1924, they will be worth face value. Those who cannot take advantage of the offer of these certificates may aid the campaign by buying war savings stamps and thrift stamps. If the people of this district buy the ten millions before November 1, they will not only save the original ten millions but will make $1,580,000 in interest accrued in the four years and two months from November 1, 1919.

CALL FOR CENSUS TAKERS

The director of the census, Hon. Sam L. Rogers, announces that 80,000 enumerators will be needed to take the next census. The work begins on January 2 and will last about two weeks in cities, and a month or more in rural districts. Rates of pay will vary, depending upon the locality and character of the district to be canvassed. The average pay per enumerator at the census of 1910 was about $70. At this coming census it will probably be not less than $100.

Active, intelligent and reliable men and women, not less than 18 years of age, are needed for this work.

It is hoped that public-spirited, energetic people throughout the country will volunteer to act as census enumerators even though they may not care for the positions so far as the pay is concerned.

Harry E. Phelps is supervisor of the census for the Third district of Nebraska. The district includes the counties of Dodge, Colfax, Platte, McPherson, Boone, Madison, Stanton, Cumings, Burt, Thurston, Wayne, Antelope, Pierce, Knox, Cedar, Dixon and Dakota. Mr. Phelps states that he will need about 225 enumerators for this district. Applications or requests for application forms should be sent to him on or before October 25. His address is Howells, Nebraska. As a test of their fitness for the work applicants will be required to fill out

WAYNE MARKET REPORT

Following are the market prices quoted us up to the time of going to press Thursday:

Table with market prices for Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye, Hens, Springs, Roosters, Eggs, Butterfat, Hogs, and Cattle.

The supreme court says that the constitutional convention was constitutional and that the constitutional convention election may be held, and also a constitutional convention. Otherwise, if such a move be unconstitutional how could we ever have any other constitution? Let us make the new one a bit more flexible.

Of course it had to be a mistake, the statement that shoes are in for a fall, says an exchange. The world is on a gas basis now, and the only direction anything can take, save hogs, is upward. Ultimately we must return to earth. The water which ascends as vapor must fall as rain. The shoe boosters and all price boosters should note the disadvantages of cloud-bursts.

The league of nations is about to meet, and this country not yet a member— all because a bunch of peanut politicians in the senate have been playing horse with affairs of much importance. No greater question has even come before the world powers for settlement, and the people of the greatest nation of all—the nation that has led in the great reform contemplated is blocked by a paltry half dozen politicians, who have bought their way to a place of power—a place where they may act as the dictators of their bosses, the monopolies of the world. They have met defeat in everything they have permitted to come to a vote. Their obstructive tactics are all there is to them—just like cur dogs in a manger. They can't enjoy or appreciate what civilized people believe to be good, so they just get in the way and growl and show their teeth—just obstruct—not a thing constructive about them.

SOCIAL NOTES

The Girls' Bible Study Circle drove out to the J. W. Gildersleeve place in five autos Friday evening. Mr. E. Sywulka addressing the company in earnest words using the third of Romans as basis. After the interesting study, songs and personal testimonies kept the meeting moving until adjourning time when Mrs. Gildersleeve invited the guests to a cup of coffee in the dining room. Mrs. Agler and Mrs. Thompson came down from 12 miles north of Dixon to participate in the meeting and to plan for a like organization in their community. Quite a number of young folks accompanied these friends home and a fine Bible Circle was started on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Agler with Ruth Lendgren as president and Miss Belle Thompson, vice president. The young folks are invited to Concord next Friday evening in a joint meeting and a good meeting is planned for that occasion. Don't miss it.

The members of the Coterie met at the home of Mrs. C. A. Orr, October 20, to enjoy "Music day." After a short business meeting each member of the club responded to roll call with some musical entertainment, which resulted in a very interesting meeting. We enjoyed especially the song "The Farmer's Pets" sung by Bobbie Theobald, accompanied at the piano by his sister, Marion Joe, also the piano solo, "Tarantelle-Stephen Heller," by Ester May Ingham. Katherine Strickland favored us with two instrumental solos the first was Ofrus Animan—Franz Liszt and March from Athens, a Rubinstein. Evelyn Mellor sang "Lullaby Land." At the close of the meeting Mrs. Orr, assisted by Mrs. Cavanaugh, served light refreshments. There will be no regular meeting next Monday. The Coterie members will entertain their husbands at the Country club on Halloween.

P. E. O. Sisterhood met with Mrs. H. F. Wilson, Monday evening. After a short business meeting a program was given on the life and work of Abilene Fellows Mason of Evansville, Indiana. Miss Jenks gave a paper on her life. She was a great clock worker and was instrumental in getting the "Mason law" passed which was in regard to tenement houses. Miss Piner read one of her sermons which was very interesting. The hostess served delicious candy. Next meeting will be November 3 with Mrs. Chace.

The Monday club met October 20 with Mrs. A. B. Carhart. The topic for the day was "Interior Decorating." Mrs. C. A. Chace read a very interesting paper on the subject, which might be summarized as follows: "The most important criticism in the furnishing of our homes is too much furniture, too many and too carelessly selected pictures, too little care given to harmony of color." The hostess served a delicious two-course luncheon. The meeting October 27 will be with Mrs. H. H. Hahn.

The Alpha Woman's club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. B. Walters. Mrs. Lucas gave a paper on the life of Jane Adams. Mrs. Whitney gave a paper on Andrew Carnegie. Mrs. Walters gave a paper on Mary Lyons. The hostess served refreshments. Next regular meeting will be with Mrs. L. E. Young, November 3. A Halloween party will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Brown to which the husbands of the members will be invited.

The Pleasant Valley club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Eric Thompson. Members answered roll call with facts about song writers and songs, followed by a business meeting. Programs for the new year's work were given out. At the close of the afternoon a two-course luncheon was served. The next meeting will be the third Thursday in November with Mrs. Andy Thompson.

Last Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 Mrs. Paul Meyer entertained nine little folks in honor of her son, Harold's sixth birthday. The little ones enjoyed the games and the birthday supper which followed. The decorations were yellow and the birthday cake with six lighted candles made an attractive centerpiece. The little host received a number of pretty gifts.

W. F. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. Charley Gildersleeve Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was opened with song and prayer. Mrs. C. O. Mitchell sang "The Old Home Town. The lesson was led by Rev. Kilbourn. Next meeting will be November 20, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Kilbourn.

The members of the U. D. club met at the home of Mrs. Harry Fisher Monday afternoon. Mrs. Kemp gave a piano solo, Mrs. James Miller gave a splendid book review, entitled "The Mills of the Gods," by E. Phillips Oppenheim. Mrs. Felber will be hostess next Monday afternoon.

There was a social surprise Saturday evening at the Harry Lessman home when a party of the neighbors dropped in for an evening of enjoyment. Dancing was one of the features of the amusement, and all voted that they had a happy evening.

Miss Charlotte Ziegler was hostess at the ladies circle Tuesday afternoon. A splendid lesson, a good attendance made the meeting most interesting. Mrs. Griffith will be hostess next week in the south part of the city.

Members of the Acme club met Monday afternoon with Mrs. Ingham. Members responded to roll call with current events. Mrs. Mines read extracts from the life of Washington. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Crawford.

The Rural Home society meets today for an all-day meeting with Mrs. W. A. K. Neely, and will spend the time sewing for the hostess.

WITH THE WAYNE CHURCHES

English Lutheran Church

(Rev. J. H. Fetterolf, Pastor) The government says that next Sunday morning we are going back to the old time. Turn your clocks back on Saturday night and on Sunday morning go to church as you did heretofore. There need be no confusion. The time of services has not changed.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. Divine worship 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Luther League 6:45 p. m.

The confirmation class will meet on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 for organization. We will be glad to have the younger boys and girls join the class though they do not intend to be confirmed. The instruction they get will be helpful to them.

Last week the ladies of the church shipped 800 pounds of canned fruit and clothing to Tabitha Orphans' Home at Lincoln. A call from the orphans always meets with a hearty response. We are sorry that some of the fruit came too late for this shipment. There will be another opportunity a little later.

Next week an effort will be made to collect clothing for the suffering Lutherans in Poland. If the people of that land are to be kept from freezing this winter friends from outside their country must come to the rescue. No fancy clothes are wanted, but warm clothes that will cover their nakedness during the rigors of winter. Do not bother about clothes for little children. They are not needed. There are no children. They have all died. Will you look over your stock of worn clothing and have it ready when some one calls for it. The need is urgent.

First Baptist Church

(Robert H. Pratt, S. T. M. Minister) At the morning service at 10:30 the pastor will preach on the topic, "The Compelling Power of a Divine Message." And in the evening the subject will be "The Simple Way of Jesus."

The Sunday school is making some changes which will make it more efficient. We need your help and presence. The hour is 11:30.

At our Young People's meeting we will have a Bible study conducted by Mrs. Carlos Martin. This will be interesting and valuable.

The midweek meeting on Wednesday needs your help. Come and bring your Bible. The topic will be Paul's Iden of Love.

Have in mind the fall assembly which will be held here on November 5 and 6. We expect Dr. Collins, Rev. Bancroft and others as speakers at that meeting. The assembly is short. Plan to take in every service. Note the change of time. Set your clock back one hour. Evening service at 7:30. Young People at 6:30.

Wayne Methodist Episcopal Church

(Rev. W. Kilbourn, Pastor)

The change of time will take place on Sunday, October 25. The services will commence at the usual hour, with the exception of the evening which will be at 7:30 p. m. instead of 8 p. m.

The Junior League met at the parsonage on Monday evening for a social time. A large number were present.

The yearly district retreat was held at Norfolk last week. A number of laymen were present as well as pastors. Professor Britell was the lay representative from Wayne.

The First Presbyterian Church

(Rev. J. W. Beard, Minister) Morning worship at 10:30. Theme of the morning sermon, "Where is the Kingdom of God?" Evening service at 8 o'clock. Theme of the evening sermon, "The Vital Impulse." Sabbath school at 11:30. Classes for all.

Lutheran Church

(Rev. H. A. Teckhaus, Pastor) Sunday school 10 a. m. Regular morning service 11 a. m. Please remember the offering. Wednesday their practice. Every Sunday catechetical instruction.

GATHERING THE JUICE OF CORN

Nine hundred quarts of whiskey, some of it six years old, according to the labels on the bottles, was transferred at Norfolk Saturday afternoon by government agents for Omaha where it may be used as evidence against violators of the liquor laws. The whiskey came from Center where two agents told railroad men in South Norfolk, about 300 more quarts may be obtainable. Although the agents gave out no official statement, it was declared the whiskey made up part of an accumulation which had been rounded up in the vicinity of Center.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

Again the annual Red Cross roll is to be called. Will you stand and answer "present?" You should do so, each and every one. Why, the war is over? True the war is over, but there is now known to exist a greater than a war need for organized aid, terrible as it was. Back of this organization of active workers must stand a determined people willing to supply the necessary funds. I wondered, and you wonder what could be more appalling than war—that greater need than that caused by The Hell of War?

BLOOMFIELD GIRL WINS SPELLING HONORS

Miss Theo Liddell won first place in the written spelling contest staged at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, last Saturday, afternoon, October 11. She also took third place in the oral spelling contest staged at the same place that afternoon. Sixteen contestants, including the Iowa state champion, were represented in the contest. The states represented were: Iowa, Minnesota, South Dakota, and Nebraska. The contest was under the management and direction of R. W. Eaton, who staged the contest in Bloomfield at the time of the teachers' institute—and in which contest Miss Liddell won first honors. The Sioux Falls contest was put on in connection with the National Conference on Rural Education and Country Life, which met in Sioux Falls the latter part of last week and the first of this.

Miss Liddell is certainly to be congratulated on her ability in the spelling line, it being no small honor to win out in competition with contestants who have been selected by a process of elimination through township and county contests.

However, it but shows again that Nebraska can deliver the goods in whatever line she is called upon to do so. First place in the oral spelling went to a Minnesota girl and South Dakota took two seconds and one third. Iowa failed to register among the winners.

The above is from the Bloomfield Journal, and tells of the success of the young lady but entering her teens, who won the championship of Knox county, and was delegated to go forth and conquer more worlds. Her father is in the newspaper business, and if the young miss shall be given the proof reader's desk it is quite possible that the Journal will become as much of authority for orthography as is the Webster book. She was accompanied by her father, who went along to take spelling lessons.

The Story of a Tarret Captain

Promotion in the Navy comes quickly to those who qualify for higher ratings. In March 1899 A. P. Nilsson enlisted in the Navy as an Apprentice Seaman, 3rd class. In April 1907 he was rated Chief Turbine Carpenter. His pay today is $165.76 per month.

A man's life — among men!

Reel them off—"Rio", Gibraltar, Ceylon, Yokohama—all the great ports of the world—are they only places on the map to you—or are they ports where you've gone sailing in from the high seas with every eye along the shore turned admiringly on your big ship—your ship! Every ocean has a United States ship sailing for some port worth seeing.

If you've any call in you for a full life—join, and color all your years ahead with memories of things worth seeing—with knowledge worth having—with an inexhaustible fund of sea tales and adventures picked up ashore and afloat that will make you a welcome man in any company.

Work?—sure, and a man's work it is, among men.

Play?—well, rather, with a bunch of men who know how to play. These comrades of yours carry in their ears the sounds of great world cities, of booming guns, of swashing seas—sounds you will share with them and that will never die away.

And when you come home, you'll face life ashore with level eyes—for Uncle Sam trains in self-reliance as well as self-respect. The Navy builds straight men—no mollycoddles.

Enlist for two years. Excellent opportunities for advancement. Four weeks holidays with pay each year. Shore leave to see inland sights at ports visited. Men always learning. Good food and first uniform outfit free. Pay begins the day you enlist. Get full information from your nearest recruiting station. If you do not know where the nearest recruiting station is, ask your Postmaster. He knows.

RED CROSS NEED OF MONEY TOLD

Work Must Be Carried on Across the Waters and in the United States.

PEACE PROGRAM PLANNED

Enrollment is a Vote of Confidence in the Future and an Appreciation of Tasks Accomplished.

The American Red Cross is preparing to launch its third Roll Call, to be held from Nov. 2 to 11, for 20,000,000 annual members and $15,000,000.

The first question that will arise is:

"Why does the Red Cross need money? The war is over."

National headquarters of the American Red Cross has answered this question, and has outlined graphically the reasons why it is necessary to raise $15,000,000 for its international, national and local work.

In brief the answer is as follows:

Because: The actual war work is not completed. The Red Cross cannot lay down its responsibilities to the American soldiers, sailors or marines until everyone of them has been released from service, recovered from illness or wounds or receiving proper care, or back in the place in the world from which the war snatched them.

Because: The American Red Cross is planning to launch a comprehensive program for peace times, designed to prevent the needless waste of human lives through preventable diseases and accidents in America; continue and broaden its home service work and public nursing, first aid, home hygiene and Junior Red Cross activities.

Because: By a recent act of Congress medical, surgical and dietary food supplies valued at $35,000,000 were turned over to the Red Cross by the government, the supplies having been purchased for use with the American forces. These supplies are scattered throughout Europe, many of them far from the places where they are most needed. The prompt and efficient distribution and handling of these supplies means the maintenance of a force of trained workers where the supplies are and where they are most needed.

Because: Pestilence and starvation have gripped many European countries because of the war. These countries are unable to cope with their own difficulties, and the only force organized with facilities capable of stepping into the breach and bringing order from chaos is the Red Cross. Typhus is snatching the man strength of many countries, and the American Red Cross is using every available power to check it.

Because: The Red Cross must be prepared to meet emergencies arising from disasters at home and abroad.

The Red Cross membership must be maintained at its present high standard. Every enrollment is a vote of confidence in the past performances of the American Red Cross and a reaffirmation of the belief in the principles for which it has stood in the past and its plans for the future.

The Red Cross, having committed itself to a definite and comprehensive program, cannot turn back, and to go forward it must have as general a membership as possible and ample funds to provide for any contingency.

LOCATES MOTHER AFTER FOUR DAYS IN DESERT SANDS

Four days by camel from Damascus, in a little, desert village nestled in the blazing sands, lived the Syrian mother of an American soldier, waiting, yearning for word from her son who had gone to far-off America.

George Hamway, the son, enlisted with the American colors when this country went to war, and fell fighting in the Argonne, leaving to the mother a $5,000 government insurance policy. The address of the mother was vague. She lived in the heart of the desert, four days from Damascus—that was the only address George knew.

The task of finding the mother was given to the Red Cross mission in Palestine, and the search was started immediately. Strange by-ways of that land of mystery—the great desert—were visited by Red Cross workers, and at length the mother was found.

She was taken to Damascus by camel, accompanied by witnesses establishing her identity, and after much palaver it was explained that the American government would make remittances to her which meant comparative affluence for her declining days.

CLUBS TO AID RED CROSS.

A series of club days are being arranged by the Red Cross as a forerunner of the Third Roll Call to be conducted from November 2 to 11. Business, commercial, rotary, Kiwanis, advertising, fraternal, women's and other clubs are being invited to set aside one meeting day to be devoted to the Red Cross.

The Velvet tin is twice as big as shown here

There's a World of Solid Comfort In the Rich, Red Tin

YES, sir, we mean that same warm red and gold tin that smiles a welcoming "Howdy" to you in every tobacco store. Know what those colors mean?

The red is for the friendly warmth, the mellow cheeriness, that Velvet puts into your old pipe. And the gold is where the Kentucky sunshine, that ripens good old Velvet, has just sort of soaked through.

Remember what Velvet Joe said about it?

"You've met canned meat and canned music. Ever see any tinned sunshine? Well, look into any Velvet tin."

And think this over:

We don't have to hide Velvet's taste or smell with a lot of this, that and the other thing. Because Velvet has naturally what pipe smokers want—real simon-pure tobacco taste and fragrance. It's just good, honest Kentucky leaf, made still more friendly and mellow by two years' ageing in wooden hogsheads. Just good tobacco. That's all. But it's mighty near enough for the man who wants a pipeful of tobacco and not a box of bon bons.

The picture of a pipe on the tin needn't keep you from rolling a jim-dandy cigarette with Velvet.

How's the Velvet holding out in your old red tin?

GRANDMA METTLEN DIES AT NEARLY EIGHTY-FOUR

Mrs. Salina Mettlen died at 10:30 October 14, 1919, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Candor, having been bed-ridden since five weeks ago last Sunday, when she fell, breaking her right hip.

Salina Guss was born at Mifflintown, Pa., March 5, 1836. In November, 1861, she was married to John T. Mettlen and shortly afterwards moved to Wayne county, Neb. Mr. Mettlen died August 16, 1897, at Wayne, and two years later, following the marriage of her daughter, Jennie (Mrs. W. O. Sand) Mrs. Mettlen became a member of the Candor household and came here with the family eleven years ago.

The Mettlens were prominent among Wayne county pioneers and closely connected with the Presbyterian church at Wayne from its organization, Mr. Mettlen serving in the capacity of elder for many years.

Mrs. Mettlen endeared herself to all who knew her and at her death is generally and sincerely mourned. Though nearing the age of 84, she carried her years well and with the exception of about a year when she was ill a few years back was, up to her last illness, always a help rather than a burden to her family and friends. She will be sorely missed in the home and her friends in the church will note with sadness her empty place—never vacant when it was physically possible for her to be present.

The church always held a large place in Mrs. Mettlen's life and many of her relatives "back in Pennsylvania" were prominently connected with its work. Recently a Lutheran minister from Omaha visited her, being one of her several preachers.

nephews. He said to the writer that his father (a brother of Mrs. Mettlen) may not have started out to make all of his three sons preachers but they all became such and the only girl of the family married a prominent Chicago divine, so they are a family of preachers.

The immediate relatives left by Mrs. Mettlen are four sons: W. J. of Omaha, F. L. of Winside, A. G. of Wakefield, and Dr. J. H. of Bloomfield; and two daughters, Mesdames W. O. Sand of Oterle, Kansas, and H. J. Candor of Laurel.

J. F. Guss of Vermillion is a nephew of Mrs. Mettlen.

Mrs. Sand visited here in the summer, only a short time previous to her mother's last illness and is not expected for the funeral. The sons have all been here and are coming again today. The funeral will occur at the Candor home tomorrow (Thursday) at 2:30, old time, and the remains will be taken to Wayne Friday morning for burial.—Laurel Advocate.

DO WE MEASURE UP?

Americanism, as defined by Attorney General Palmer in a speech at Easton recently will be a mighty fine thing for a lot of us to study and get into our system. It has been summarized as follows:

"Some of our immigrants have come from autocratic countries where revolution is the only avenue to reform. They come to a country where every man—and soon every woman—has his chance to a vote in the government. Revolution in the former case can be justified. In the latter it cannot be. A peaceful method of change has been provided here. Here no man is without peaceful recourse when he feels oppressed. No man unwilling to wait on that recourse has, accordingly, any right or business in the United States.

"Thus the attorney general put the case to the immigrant. He went further. We cannot justify this restriction upon the citizen unless we see to it that the legal way of change is kept clear for him. So Mr. Palmer says: 'I would not halt for a single moment any movement designed by its promoters to bring better conditions to any portion of its people; but I would use all the power of the people's government to make certain that such a movement shall be conducted in the peaceable and orderly way provided by the people for the accomplishment of all reform.'

"This is Americanism. It isn't exclusively those of us more recently from across seas who need the reminder. We have elements in America some of them high in the economic and social scale, many of them self described as surplus per cent Americans, whose minds are dim on this subject. Some such would deny the fundamental American right to agitate peaceably for changes where the changes proposed seem radical. This attitude is un-American, as much so as that of the direct action foreigner. We can't limit ourselves to political action if we limit political action. The attorney general spoke as usefully in pointing out this fact as in driving home the other.

"If radical America is made to keep the path of lawful political method as it can be if conservative America will lawfully keep that path open, America will suffer no danger of losing its balance."

OBSERVATIONS

The tendency at this time of some so-called democratic newspapers in the state to criticize every public act of President Wilson simply because it is not just along their particular ideas of what should be done, seems very ill-advised. With these newspapers the fact that Senator Hitchcock (whom they have always opposed, with good reason in many cases) is leading the president's fight for the adoption of the league of nations, seems to have embittered them so severely that they can see nothing good in the league or in any other act the president stands for. To these disgruntled democrats the president's industrial commission is packed with plutocrats and the conferees representing the "public" are all of the capitalistic class. These papers forget that labor has an equal representation with the public and that manufacturers and farmers also have representation. The "public" conferees are a sort of balance wheel in the industrial conference that will serve to head off any wild or visionary action and yet prevent action that will have a tendency to prejudice the interests of the producing class. The "public" is represented by hard headed men who realize that the interests of labor and capital are identical and that industrial problems must be settled along lines that will give them equal protection. They were selected after careful deliberation and counsel and the unreasonable criticism of these peanut politicians leads one to believe that such newspapers are being run in the interest of bolshevism and anarchy.—Wynot Tribune.

PAYS CHURCH TO ADVERTISE, SAYS CLERGYMAN

How can ministers of the gospel content themselves with preaching to empty pews? Pews do not need to be converted. Such a question is asked by Dr. Christian F. Reiser, president of the church advertising department of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World.

"I have never seen a church advertise without building up a good attendance," he said, "and considering that fact in connection with the fact that it does not pay to preach to empty pews, one would wonder that more churches are not employing paid advertising space.

In speaking of the church advertising conference which will be held in connection with the world convention of advertising at New Orleans, September 21 to 25, Mr. Reiser predicted an unusual interest, because, he said, the original objection to the use of advertising by the church—that it tended to rob the church of its dignity—had fallen, especially since the government has employed advertising so widely and with such marked success to help win the war.

"The church must sell itself by advertising," said the minister. "It must meet the competition of Sunday golf and automobiling. If we accept the statement made recently to the effect that fifty million people do not go to church we may then consider every other person a possible customer," says Building Trade with Farmers.

RED CROWN GASOLINE

Burns Up Completely

You don't enjoy grinding the valves and scraping carbon off pistons and cylinders.

It is a dirty job that nobody likes.

You'll have less work of this kind to do if you standardize on Red Crown Gasoline.

Because Red Crown Gasoline is uniform, standard high grade gasoline wherever you buy it. It vaporizes evenly and burns up completely. Gives most power on a lean mixture—is most economical.

For all types of automobile engines, under all service conditions, there's no better oil than Polarine.

Sold at Red Crown Service Stations, garages and dealers everywhere.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Amelia Meyers from Carroll was a visitor at Sioux City Wednesday.

This week is the anniversary of the death of some of the first flu victims of this vicinity.

My stock of millinery has never contained a more complete assortment of all that is desirable than this season, says Mrs. Jeffries.

Mrs. Ernest Rippon was visiting at Sioux City Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Bannister left the first of the week to visit relatives at Gordon.

Miss Eulalie Carroll of Randolph spent Sunday in the Carroll home in Wayne.

Mrs. W. F. Wright left Wednesday morning to visit her parents at Knoxville, Iowa.

Mrs. Geo. Hoffman from Fremont has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Newman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chace went to Stanton Wednesday to be present at a family reunion of the Chaces at that place.

Skirts and waists in great number and varieties and the popular patterns may be seen at the Mrs. Jeffries' store.

Miss Effie Stedman from Washington, D. C. came Tuesday evening to visit here, a guest of her sister, Mrs. E. Kostomlatzky and family.

Mrs. Forbes of Rylander, Wisconsin, came Wednesday morning to visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Armstrong, and greet friends of other days, for she was a girl at Wayne.

I have some of the prettiest and best sweaters for the girls and young ladies now in stock, says Mrs. Jeffries, and all who see them agree with her as to the truth of the statement.

Fred Benschopf went to Omaha Wednesday to bring home a car belonging to Chas. Baird which was stolen in that city from a garage the day before the rioting in that city. Having insurance on the car made it possible for its recovery.

Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Senter returned to Rochester, where he is again undergoing examination and with the opinion growing that it will be necessary for him to undergo an operation before he can be assured a return to health. Mrs. Senter continues to improve.

Fredolph Anderson is the latest arrival here of the soldier lads who left this county and saw service overseas. His experience was perhaps different from many others, for he was with American troops in Russia. He is stopping at present at the Oscar Jonson home north of Wayne.

Rev. Pratt went to Norfolk Wednesday evening as a representative of the Baptist church of this place at a district meeting in the interest of the inter-denominational religious world movement. A get-together plan of fighting the devil and hisimps. It should have happened years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson and daughter, Miss Esther, returned Saturday from a visit and auto trip of several weeks in Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Missouri. They were accompanied from Missouri by a lady friend, Miss Whithead, who left Wednesday morning for Yankton, after a short visit here. From same point in Missouri or Iowa they were accompanied by a family in another car who came to visit here.

C. M. Ammidown made a business trip to Norfolk Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wilson went to Omaha this morning for a short stay.

Madison Brown of Sioux City was here Tuesday and Wednesday morning.

Wanted—Restaurant help of all kinds and at all times, apply at the Gem Cafe—adv.

Mrs. Claude Ferrell went to Lyons this morning to spend the week end with home folks.

A small party of young folks were entertained at the Geo. Lamberson home Tuesday evening, and report a most happy hour.

Mrs. Jeffries has been buying a complete line of shoes for ladies, misses and children, which will be here in about five weeks.

Mrs. O. A. Hedge from Conrad, Montana, came the first of the week to visit here with her sisters, Mrs. Marcus Kroger and Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Henry Klopping went to Omaha Wednesday morning to visit her son, Albert, who is attending the school for the deaf at that place, and accompany him home for a short vacation.

Miss Maude McLean of the millinery firm of McLean & McCreary has been here from Stromsburg to visit the Wayne store and her partner. She was much pleased with the prospect here.

New coats continue to come to the Mrs. Jeffries' store direct from the factory each week—you should see them before buying.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hunt from Kennewick, Washington, who made this their home about thirty years ago, stopped to visit here and see the old town while on a trip through Nebraska and Iowa to visit relatives and friends. They were guests at the home of their former neighbor, Mrs. M. A. Pryor, and left for Blair Wednesday morning.

Fur weather is coming, and the exclusive lady store is ready for that kind of weather, says Mrs. Jeffries. Ladies who will need some furs, worth the money will find a more complete line from which to make selection by looking early. If one is in need of furs, it will be the act of wisdom to come in and see this complete line.

A meeting of the Irwin B. Sears Post, No. 43, American Legion will be held Monday, November 3, 1919, at 8 p. m. in the city hall. All former soldiers, sailors and marines are requested to be present. If you are not already a member, you are asked to attend this meeting and join the local post. This will be an important meeting as officers are to be elected and plans for a smoker or some other form of entertainment will be made.

Baby blankets, pretty patterns, light and yet so warm, because of the fine wool, are just what is needed for the little one for the approaching winter weather, says Mrs. Jeffries.

SOME THINGS HAPPENING IN THE WORLD

Canada is Canada, voted by a majority to remain dry, another job for John Barley Corn's eye. The winter was rolled high in the rural districts.

Petrograd, the Russian stronghold of the Bolsheviks, cannot hang resist the forces that are going to run it out.

A hot air plot at Alsace was exposed when discovered last week. It is going to be hard to find some of the data for a lot of bent out of these days when the world gets another regular again.

King Albert has found out that we are the fellows who won the war, and if he never had come over on scene he would have been better off. We are too strong in men, money, and resources.

Wholesale sugar must not be sold for more than 10 cents a pound.

Germans are planning a great colony in Mexico, where a half million acres of land are to be put under irrigation and divided into small tracts for the settlers.

Rev. Geo. Batzel, for five years a pastor of the Baptist church at Fremont, hanged himself at Omaha this week. His health is the cause attributed.

An English flyer is going to try to wing his way from London to Australia for a prize of $50,000.

The presidential bee is still buzzing in Gen. Leonard Wood's bonnet, and a headquarters for him has been opened in the south at Birmingham, Alabama. Perhaps he can capture the southern and colored delegate.

AMERICANIZATION DAY

Governor McKelvie has designated Monday, October 27, Roosevelt's birthday, as "Americanization day" and urges the people of the state to so observe it. After a lengthy preamble the governor says: "Therefore, in order that we may properly respect the name of this great American, and, through a study of his life, instill in the minds of the people, a new appreciation of the meaning of true Americanism, I hereby designate October 27, which is the Birthday of Theodore Roosevelt, Americanization day, to be observed throughout this state and by all the people. Samuel P. McKelvie, Governor."

Will the influenza come again? Surgeon General Blue of the U. S. Army Medical Department recently made the statement that the influenza had reappeared in a number of cities in mild form. There are a few cases in Omaha.

Discussing the matter, a high official of the Nebraska Chiropractic Association said: "The medical men in government service have asked congress to appropriate five millions of dollars to pay for an investigation of causes of the influenza and methods of prevention and cure. The medical men declare that there is no serum that may be used to prevent influenza. It is a fact known to all medical science that there has been found no antidote for the influenza, therefore medical men want the government to expend millions of laboratory research work in the hope of finding some way to prevent another epidemic."

"The National Chiropractic Association has compiled statistics showing that last winter 886 doctors of Chiropractic professionally cared for 35,314 cases of influenza of whom all but 41 recovered. This is a death ratio of one-tenth of one per cent, and this low death rate is due to the efficiency of Chiropractic Spinal adjustments. There is nothing known to the art of healing or to the efficacy of curative agencies that can compare with this record of Chiropractic in its conflict with the "flu."

"Chiropractic is no less effective when applied to other diseases than it is when applied to the "flu," and it is moreover a preventative, for Chiropractic fortifies the system against the approach of disease."

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. John Harrington visited at Sioux City Tuesday, going over on the morning train.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Savidge and mother, Mrs. F. M. Griffith, spent Tuesday at Sioux City.

Mrs. Carson Peterson from Winside came Monday to visit at the Frank Peterson home near Wayne.

Mrs. Wm. Beckhauer went to Fairbury Tuesday morning, a delegate from the Alpha Woman's club to the annual meeting of the State Federation of Women's clubs.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Aid society will give a chicken pie supper including vegetables, rolls and jelly, cake and coffee, at the home of Mrs. J. J. Williams on Friday evening, October 24. Supper to begin at 5:30. Price 50c. All are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dean came last week from Denver to visit a few days with relatives and friends here, and look after a bit of business. They tell us that they like Denver for a home—like the "climate." A. C. admits that he has not been doing much the past summer—just fishing and visiting and studying the country and the irrigation question and water rights and priorities of water claims. He went west with a notion that he did not want to monkey with an irrigated farm—that the dry was good enough for him, but after six months careful study he jumped out and laid hold of three eighty's between Denver and Golden, with a Clear Creek water-right which dates back as far as 1863, and the Indians who held it prior to that date are now all "good" Indians, so he feels that he has a slinch on the water, and water counts in that country. His new farm is just at the edge of the truck patches which extend out from the city. It has a good orchard, and 120 acres of alfalfa, the crop from which is always worth $20 per ton, so Mr. Dean thinks he has made a good summer's wage in finding this place. Of course, he could be induced to sell, he confidentially told the editor. They left for home Monday morning.

C. H. Hendrickson went to Ponca the first of the week on a business mission.

Leo and Winifred Collins of Carroll were Wayne visitors Monday, guests of Mike and Margaret Coleman.

While we are getting a rain and thunder storm here the first of the week it was rain and then snow in the Black Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Theobald were passengers to Lincoln Tuesday morning, going down to visit a few days with his brothers there.

Norfolk voted a bunch of high school bonds at an election there last week, $450,000 was the sum voted, and the women helped to vote it, and we suppose will do their full share toward paying them—they generally do in one way or another.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis, who have been spending the summer on their farm near Dalton, came Friday to visit here for a short time, before going to California to spend the winter. They make headquarters while here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. June Conger.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. West of Bellwood returned home Tuesday following a visit at the home of Gomer Jones and wife at Carroll. They enjoyed their Carroll visits very much, but to get to Bellwood by train or from there here, as a rule takes all of twenty-four hours of continuous travel or waiting. It is a short five-hour trip by auto.

Cold weather is bringing out a number of the army overcoats. Somewhere near 500 Wayne county men were in service and the greater part of them have returned home, and until a month ago it was not at all uncommon to see a number of men in uniform as they were coming home with their discharges in considerable number. But most of them soon laid the uniform on the shelf, and appeared in citizens clothing. But the little flurry of this week brought out quite a sprinkling of those comfortable looking overcoats, and gave people an idea that there were still those who had seen service among us, though not on dress parade.

Mrs. U. S. Conn was a passenger to Sioux City Tuesday morning.

J. A. Erickson, formerly of this place, but more recently of Shenandoah, Iowa, writes us to send the Democrat to him at Mt. Vernon, South Dakota.

Now the newspapers are getting pictures by wire—why not make it wireless and be done with it. By the way, the restriction on private and school owned wireless plants has been removed, and it is now legitimate to string up the wires and catch what flies your way.

In the big air race across the continent and back, Maynard won first place and Captain Donaldson second place. Nine of the forty who started were killed, which is such a large percentage of the bunch, that few will care to take the risk of this mode of travel as a pleasure, or in fact in any but emergency cases.

Corn husking is well under way now, but at this writing we have had no big crop stories nor big husking stories. So far as we can learn the crop is above the average in yield and quality. Huskers are being paid from 8 to 10 cents the bushel, and apparently wanting more. If some of them can crib as much corn as they claim, it makes a pretty fair wage. For the husker gets his board and a place to sleep—and some have availed themselves of this privilege for a day or two of bad weather and then when real husking weather came, forgot to come back from town, where they thought they would go to visit a day or more, which is not a fair proposition for the farmer.

VANISHING LEADERSHIP

The republican leadership in the senate, much more than in the house or anywhere else, has been entrusted by events with the task of preparing the republican presidential campaign of 1920. It has chosen to make the peace treaty the issue, so far as it lies in the power of any organized political body to tell the people what shall be the issue. At the present moment it seems evident that this leadership has made great mistakes, that it has failed to present its chosen issue in any way satisfactory to the people, and that it has rent asunder its own party, says the New York Times in an editorial appraisal of the political effects of the present fight in the senate.

The vote on the Fall amendments plainly showed that Senator Lodge cannot control his own party and that Senators McCumber and McNary come nearer to speaking with the authentic voice of republicanism than he does. He renders thanks to high heaven for having been able to collect thirty votes for the Fall amendments. If this makes him thankful, then he is a true descendant of those early Puritans who celebrated Thanksgiving day even when the crops had failed and the Indians were warring against them.

From the beginning the rival leaders, Lodge and Hitchcock, have made contrasting and irreconcilable claims about their strength. The vote on the Fall amendments shows that up to date, at least, Mr. Hitchcock was much nearer the truth. It leaves Mr. Lodge congratulating himself that he could muster thirty votes. There are other votes to come, but the showing on this initial test will tend to inspire confidence in Mr. Hitchcock's statements and in his modest but forceful leadership. It will not tend greatly to increase or rather restore confidence in the statesmanship and leadership of Senator Lodge, who has managed singularly to decrease himself in stature ever since the primogeniture of republicanism passed from the hand of Theodore Roosevelt into his own.

The west is against him, and we doubt if the east would express itself differently if it had a chance. His is a losing cause. Are we mistaken in thinking that Mr. Lodge's real concern is not whether he can beat the peace treaty and the league of nations, but whether he can hold on to the state of Massachusetts, the state of David I. Walsh and Winthrop Murray Crane?

Fancy Work Department
Mrs. L. M. Owen, Supt.
The exhibit in this department was all that could possibly be expected. Lack of room prevented the most advantageous display of the more than 200 articles entered, and the fact that it was so ably managed that each piece placed on exhibit was properly accounted for and returned to the owner without a mixup speaks well for the system used. Pointed Paragraphs On An Important Matter
Our present state constitution was made in 1875, about forty-five years ago.
The great development of Nebraska in nearly half a century has rendered some parts of the constitution obsolete and suggests improvement in other parts.
To make all needed changes by amendments would be a slow and very difficult process under the present constitution, and the results would partake of the nature of patch-work.
A number of the states have revised their constitutions since 1875 or are contemplating revision.
The people in 1918 voted to call a convention to suggest changes in the constitution; the 1919 legislature passed an act providing for the election on November 4th, for delegates to the convention. The convention will meet in December and may last two or three months.
So important is the election of delegates to this convention that the law fixes the election on an "off year" and devotes the whole election to this one purpose alone.
In order that party and class differences may be forgotten and that only broad-minded and well qualified men may be chosen, this election of delegates is to be like the selection of judges—by a non-Partisan ballot.
And why is the election of a constitutional convention more important than an ordinary election? Because in a constitutional convention the people are exercising their highest right of sovereignty, except the right of revolution. They are establishing equitable institutions. They are issuing positive commands to all their future officers.
The work of the convention must be submitted finally to the people for approval or rejection. In order to justify the trouble and expense incident to the whole undertaking, the work must be of such broad and intelligent character, that it will be worth adopting by the people as a whole.

Every Dot represents Ten Satisfied Delco-Light Users

More Than 75,000 Satisfied Users

DELCO-LIGHT was designed and built by men who were raised in farm homes—who experienced the comforts and inconveniences of farm life—and who set out deliberately years ago to develop an electric plant that would provide city advantages for rural communities. They were the same men whose engineering talent had made DELCO Starting, Lighting and Ignition Equipment for automobiles the standard of the world— They knew electricity—and they knew the needs and limitations of farm life— They knew that an electric plant to give service in a farm home must be simple, so that it would not get out of order and require complicated repairs— It must be easily operated and require little attention— It must be very economical in operation— It must be built to stand hard usage and it must last indefinitely—

It required five years to develop a plant that would measure up to these specifications. There were five years of hard engineering effort back of DELCO-LIGHT before the first plant was put on the market three and a half years ago. Today DELCO-LIGHT is furnishing the conveniences and comforts of electricity to more than Seventy-five Thousand farm homes. It is providing an abundance of clean, bright, economical electric light for these homes. It is furnishing power to pump water, operate washing machine, churn, separator, vacuum cleaner, electric iron, milking machine, and other small machinery. And everywhere it is demonstrating its wonderful efficiency—and actually paying for itself in time and labor saved.
