CONDUCTOR PAT SALMON ON CRUTCHES

A S. O. S. call came to Wayne this week from Bloomfield for a pair of crutches for Conductor Pat Salmon, who cut his foot quite seriously last Thursday morning just as he was about to leave on his trip to Wayne. It was time for the train to get out, and the station was not open, and the conductor had to get in to register out, so in trying to raise a window he broke the glass, and crawled in. A jagged piece of the glass was hit and cut a gash in the foot several inches long, and a big sliver of the glass stuck in the flesh. The wound bled profusely, and left Mr. Salmon quite weak from loss of blood before the flow was stopped, and for a time it looked serious, indeed. We are glad to report that the invalid is able to be about the house, hence the need of crutches.

OBITUARY—MARY REED

Mary Sophia Hower was born January 14, 1855, at Danville, Pennsylvania and lived there till she was 14 years old when she came to York county, Nebraska, with her parents. She was married to John O. Milburn in January, 1874, who died September 14, 1889.

Three children were born to this union, Chas. H. Milburn of Thayer, Mrs. Minnie Bare of Rushville and Mrs. Zeila M. Craig of Topeka, Kansas. All of whom were present at the funeral here to mourn her loss.

She was married to James Reed February 5, 1892, who died on September 24, 1915.

She departed this life at her home at Topeka on May 5, 1920, at the age of 65 years, 3 months and 21 days.

The body was brought to Wayne Sunday, and buried by the side of her husband at Greenwood cemetery, Monday morning, following a short service, conducted by Rev. Wm. Kilburn of the Methodist church.

MAY NOT PAY TO PASTURE TOO EARLY

When possible it pays to not use pastures too early, suggests the State College of Agriculture, the season being a little late there is naturally a little impatience to get the cattle on pasture. Under ordinary conditions it pays to keep the cattle off the pasture until the sod has become firm and the grass has started a good growth. It is not a good plan to suddenly switch dairy cattle from dry stable feed to new grass exclusively. It is better to start them gradually, say for a few hours in the middle of the day, after they have had a good feed of hay. It is well for several days to take the cattle back to the yard after a few hours in the pasture. Such a plan is not only desirable for the sake of the pasture but it gives the cow an opportunity to adapt her system gradually to what otherwise would be too sudden a change, and which frequently results in upsetting the cow and causing a feverish condition, often resulting in badly flavored milk.

THE NEW WORLD MOVEMENT DRIVE IN WAYNE

On Wednesday and Thursday of last week, Rev. Clark Bancroft, Director of Promotion for Nebraska Baptists, was in Wayne making the New World Movement canvas. The response of the Baptist people was very gratifying. Practically every one who was approached by Rev. Bancroft, made a pledge to this work. About $1900 has already been pledged and a number of pledges are yet to be counted. Any who were not visited last week will be seen during the next few days. Rev. Bancroft expressed himself as well pleased with the hearty response of the Baptist people. He was called to Omaha on Friday by an important conference. The canvas will be completed by the pastor.

KEEPING COOL THIS SUMMER

Wayne people are to be better than ever before prepared for a hot summer, whether we get any summer or not, for we now have a plant with a capacity for congealing six to eight tons of water every day just opening for business. In addition to making ice they have refrigerating rooms for storage of several car loads of fruit, vegetables or meats, with facilities for keeping these rooms at any desired temperature near the freezing point.

The Paramount Ice & Produce Company is the name selected by Messrs. Homer Seace and LeRoy V. Ley, who are the proprietors and managers. The plant is for what is known as the ammonia system of keeping temperature down, and is of the best and most approved machinery, modern in every respect. An oil burning engine provides ample power for the freezing and a smaller engine runs the windworks of the plant not supplied by the owners, and is used to agitate the water while it is being frozen, so that any and all impurities not removed from the water by its double filtering are taken out. The principles involved are well known chemical actions, and the mechanism necessary to put the ammonia in contact with the cans or vats or cases containing the water has all been worked out to produce the greatest result at the least expense in money and labor. It will well be worth your time to call at the plant and see the work. One of their refrigerating rooms may have charms some summer day—but at this writing a room with a stove doing business like in the winter time is most appealing.

HOW TO BENEFIT FROM BAD WEATHER

"It is an ill wind that blows nobody good." Spring has been late and the weather not the best, and as a consequence the time when a lot of goods should be sold is passing and the goods are not moving. For this reason, on Friday and Saturday I am going to make a 20 per cent discount on all lines of spring and summer goods—hats, bonnets, dresses, skirts, suits, petticoats, children's dresses, and everything in my complete stock except shoes. Mrs. Jeffries.—adv

TO ANSWER ADULTRY CHARGE

Harold Clouse and Bertha McCollay are in jail awaiting a hearing on charge of adultery. They were at the Frank Larson farm near old LaPorte when complaint was filed, and had been there several weeks, Mr. Clouse and wife having hired to work there at farm work. Ida Grove, Iowa, is said to have been their home before coming here from Sioux City. The time for their hearing has not yet been set.

MAY RAINFALL

The rainfall for May at Wayne thus far has not been as excessive as people seem to think—probably because it has been at it so much of the time. The gauge at the State bank made the following record: May 2, .30 inch; 10th, .70; 11th, 1.42, making a total of 2.42 inches.

Now Is Plant Time

And I have a fine lot of plants of all kinds, ready for transplanting. True to name as to variety, and ready to go from bed to garden without knowing that they are moved, are advantages of buying Wayne grown plants.—W. B. Vall, Ash 3031 or 3032.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY OF 50 YEARS OF WEDDED LIFE

In these congratulations the Star-Mail joins and wishes them continuing health, prosperity and happiness for many years to come.—Madison Star-Mail.

THE LOT SALE SUCCESSFUL

Owing to the absence of representatives of company selling lots at auction last Saturday, until this morning, we have no detailed account of the sale. We hope to have a report for the next issue.

TRACK AND FIELD MEET POSTPONED TO FRIDAY, 21

The Track and Field meet of the Northeast Nebraska High School Athletic League has been postponed until Friday, May 21. It was impossible to have it on this coming Friday on account of the state track meet on Saturday, and another meet at Oakland on the same date.

The baseball game between the South Sioux City high and Randolph high will be played on that date at 10 o'clock Friday morning and the Girls' basketball game between Hartington and Oakland high schools will be played as heretofore advertised. All other events will also be held on the above date.

The postponing of the meet on account of the inclement weather just gives the schools two more weeks of practice and puts the athletes in better condition, the result, better time out to be made in the various sprints and races and competition much keener.

It is hoped that the same interest will be manifested in the meet then as was for the meet scheduled to have taken place last Friday, May 7. Coach Sorfing of the Normal, who is secretary of the league is now back and will resume the management of the meet.

Keep up your "pep" and "spirit of enthusiasm" until Friday, May 21. The big day in high school athletics for northeast Nebraska.

REPUBLICANS IN CONVENTION

Tuesday forenoon the republican delegates in convention assembled elected the following delegates to the state meeting at Lincoln May 18, and empowered Chairman Beckenhauer and Secretary Ellis to fill vacancies, if any: August Ziemer, Hoskins; John L. Davis, Sholes; Spencer Jones and C. E. Closson, Carroll; Rudolph Longe, Leslie; C. E. Gildersleeve, Wayne; E. M. Griffith, Wilbur; Otto Miller, Hancock.

By resolution they endorsed the acts of Congressman Evans, Senator Norris and Governor McKelvie, and in a general way the work of the constitutional convention. But they denounced the primary law, and the abuses of its purpose to give each party control of the party in the matter of nomination of candidates, as shown in the recent primary, when parties advocating different principles used the name of a party to nominate candidates.

SENIOR SNEAK DAY

The college seniors had planned to visit Sloux City today, observing the custom of a holiday before the close of the school year—but the trains could not get to the city, and so it was voted to go west, thus delaying the start. The Juniors organized an attempt to frustrate the seniors—and a little scrap was the result.

BONDS AND DEALERS

An inquisitive soul in an eastern city, having heard tales of varying prices for Liberty bonds, thought he would investigate. He took a $100 third issue, 4 1/2 percent bond, and offered it for sale at a bank. There he was offered the list price that day's quotation which was 90.17. The bank would also redeem the attached interest coupons totalling $7.86, making the entire sum of $98.03.

Since his quest was purely for information, he refused this offer, and next presented his bond to a well-known legitimate brokerage firm dealing in such securities. It made the same offer as the bank, with a fee of 50 cents for handling.

Next the investigator visited a cigar store which displayed a price quotation board in its window, but the proprietor would give only $86.57 for the bond with its interest coupons. Thence the quest went on down the line of small dealers and pawnbrokers, the prices offered gradually diminishing, the lowest one being $83, which the pawnbroker claimed was "about the current quotation," though it was in reality $7.17 less than the list price for the bond without coupons. Having learned what he wanted to know, the inquisitive soul went home and put his bond away safely.

These figures and this experience might be duplicated in many communities and amply prove the wisdom of the advice offered by a federal bank official: "Sell Liberty bonds only if necessary, and then deal only with banks or legitimate brokerage concerns."

With grain prices ruling high, did you ever figure the saving to you by having the feed ground? Forner grinds it, and when the best of authority will tell you that a bushel of ground feed is worth as much in food value as a bushel and one-third of the whole grain you can easily figure your saving by having the feed ground. tf ad

Come to Battery Headquarters

Just because some garage man says, "I'll fix it and it'll be good as new," don't trust your battery to an amateur.

Come to battery headquarters where we have the equipment to really test your battery and the knowledge of what it needs.

Only a careful hydrometer reading can show if a battery needs charging. Only the proper instruments can give it a discharge test showing that it is properly recharged. It costs a little more to make repairs in the right way, but a thorough job is always worth while.

Mr. Farmer--Uncle Sam Says South Dakota Leads All the Rest

Composite Condition of All Crops in South Dakota Declared by United States Department of Agriculture to lead all others in the union. State produced in 1918, in new wealth, an average of $4843 for every family of five in the state. South Dakota leads entire union in number of automobiles per capita. South Dakotans have on deposit in South Dakota banks an average of nearly $400 per capita, said to be best in country.

ABUNDANT RAINFALL EXPLAINS BOUNTIFUL CROPS

As shown by the annual reports of the United States Weather Bureau, the abundant rainfall which matured South Dakota's great 1918 crop is characteristic of South Dakota. The official figures on annual precipitation in South Dakota make the following record for the preceding ten years.

1907	18.92 inches
1908	25.10 inches
1909	23.69 inches
1910	15.49 inches
1911	19.18 inches
1912	18.50 inches
1913	17.89 inches
1914	21.57 inches
1915	28.54 inches
1916	20.90 inches
1917	16.77 inches
1918	25.00 inches

The conclusion of the whole matter as to rainfall in South Dakota is told by the official United States Weather Bureau in the following report:

"The average annual precipitation for that portion of South Dakota lying east of the 100th meridian is about 22.3 inches, about 83 per cent of which is received between March 1 and Sept. 30. The average annual precipitation for that portion of the State lying west of the 100 meridian, exclusive of the higher parts of the Black Hills, is about 17.3 inches, about 81 per cent of which is between March 1 and Sept. 30. The largest monthly amounts usually occur in May, June and July."

ALFALFA

Alfalfa has become the great staple forage crop of South Dakota. It is raised successfully in every county in the state. The peculiar climate conditions existing give the largest and richest yields in both hay and seed from this plant. Three crops of hay per year is the usual yield. If grown for seed, the yield is from six to ten bushels per acre and buyers from the large seed firms, with whom the South Dakota seed is a favorite, come here from all parts of the United States to buy seed for commercial purposes. The price of South Dakota seed averages about two dollars per bushel more than that grown elsewhere. The yield of hay averages from three to four tons per acre and has been selling at $16.00 to $25.00 per ton.

ONE OF EIGHT LEADING CORN STATES OF UNION

That South Dakota has become one of the greatest corn states in the union is shown by the fact that South Dakota was one of only eight states in the United States to produce more than a hundred million bushels of corn in the year 1918. South Dakota in 1918 raised a total of 108,188,000 bushels of corn, according to the United States Department of Agriculture.

South Dakota's average yield per acre of corn in 1918 was 34.0 bushels, as compared with the average for the United States of 24.0 bushels per acre.

South Dakota's average yield of 34 bushels of corn per acre in 1918, compared with 36 bushels in Ohio, 33 bushels in Indiana, 33.5 bushels in Illinois, 30.0 bushels in Michigan, 40.5 bushels in Wisconsin, 40 bushels in Minnesota, 36.0 in Iowa, 20.0 in Missouri, 17.7 in Nebraska, and 7.1 bushels in Kansas.

It thus appears that of these leading corn states, only five had a better yield per acre than did South Dakota.

South Dakota was one of only three states to plant more than a million acres to barley in the year 1918, and her yield of barley per acre was 29.5 bushels, as compared with 21.5 bushels in North Dakota, and 31.0 bushels in Minnesota, the other two big barley states.

South Dakota, Minnesota and North Dakota are the three great spring wheat states of the union. No other state produced more than 17,000,000 bushels of spring wheat. South Dakota harvested 69,350,000 bushels of this crop, as compared with 101,010,000 in Minnesota and 78,330,000 in North Dakota. South Dakota's yield per acre of spring wheat in 1918 was 19.0 bushels, as compared with only 13.0 bushels in North Dakota and 21.0 bushels in Minnesota.

South Dakota ranked sixth among all the states of the union in production of oats in 1918. The total yield in South Dakota was 84,240,000 bushels, as compared with 56,188,000 in Nebraska, 51,238,000 in Kansas, 60,512,000 in North Dakota, 44,196,000 in Missouri, 85,050,000 in Indiana and 79,200,000 in Ohio.

The yield of oats per acre for the entire state of South Dakota in 1918 was 39.0 bushels, as compared with 22.0 in Kansas, 22.3 in Nebraska, 25.5 in North Dakota, 29.0 in Missouri, 42 in Iowa, 41.0 in Minnesota, 44 in Illinois, 42 in Indiana and 44 in Ohio.

A FEW INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT JERAULD COUNTY

Jerauld is a small county but one of the best in the state. The picturesque Wessington Hills extend across the county from north to south, but aside from these hills the surface is generally smooth and level. The soil is a heavy black loam with yellow clay subsoil. The county is especially well watered—springs, shallow wells, tubular soft water well, and artesian wells. In the production of wheat, corn and alfalfa our county stands second to none in the state. Land sells from $40 to $150.00 per acre, according to improvements, location, etc. It is worth more money and is continually advancing and the time is fast coming when it will be too high for a poor man to buy. Don't wait until too late. Come now and look it over.

TERMS

We have farms that can be bought on easy terms, we own and control a number of the best farms in this part of South Dakota and can arrange terms to suit the purchaser. There is going to be a big demand for the cheaper land this year and we advise prospective buyers to come early. See our local representative who will be glad to give you any information you wish.

COME AT ONCE AND HAVE THE CHOICE TO PICK FROM

MR. RENTER COME WHERE CORN IS KING: Do you realize that land that produces good Corn and Alfalfa covers a very small portion of the U. S. A. Do you realize that the Corn and Alfalfa producing lands is being bought up by men who realize that if they do not get a home soon it is going to be impossible for them to buy a farm in the corn and alfalfa producing states. Do you realize that you can own a farm cheaper than you can rent, that you can make the advance in the price of your farm by owning it, that you actually put the increase in the farm you rent. Do you realize that Corn and Alfalfa land is being sold in the east for $500 to $800 per acre, that this land will not produce any more than the farms we are offering. Do you realize that there is going to be more land change hands this year than any year in the history of the country and that this is going to be bought by the man who is a renter today but is going to be the owner tomorrow, the man with a backbone, the man that had to rent this year but has made up his mind to own his farm next year.

Farms From $35 to $150 Per Acre---Improved and Unimproved

MR. RENTER: If you are tired of renting, if you want to own a home, come where you can accumulate wealth, come where your children will get a start in life, where you can buy proven Corn and Alfalfa land, where it is cheaper for you to own land than to pay high rent, where good farms are yet within reach, then come with me to the Sunshine State, where we have good farms improved and unimproved, farms to sell to you at prices that will make you money on the advance of land in a short time, in many cases our raw land after being broken up will pay for itself in one year. We have good land from $35 per acre up, all can be bought on easy terms and long time payments. Write us your wants or see our local representative.

The Nebraska farmer who grows wool is learning something. He is planning a system of cooperative selling the wool crop. He used to holler for a protective tariff and let the profiteering middlemen and commission houses get the benefit of that protection, if there was any benefit, which is doubted. He is getting wiser now.

GRADUATE 1,000 SERVICE MEN THE FIRST YEAR

During the first year of its existence, the Ford service course, organized January 1, 1918, by the Ford Motor Company, graduated more than 1,000 service men who came to Detroit from Ford dealers in various parts of the United States to learn the proper and most efficient way to repair Ford cars. It is the intention of the company to eventually have every service man and mechanic employed by authorized Ford dealers come to Detroit to take the course.

Appointments are made through the Ford branches, one of which sends five delegates each day. The time occupied is one month and it is divided between theory and practice. The students are paid by the Ford company for their time—a part of which is spent doing actual work on cars in the factory. In the present class are 120 students, and every state is represented.

The expenditure of $150,000 which was the cost of beginning this course, is looked upon by company officials as a good investment because it will help to give standard service to car owners.

SORGHUM MAY BE POPULAR AGAIN

The high price of sugar may mean that good old-fashioned sorghum will become popular again. Two years ago, on account of the scarcity of sugar, considerable sorghum cane was grown in the state. Old mills were repaired and started up again and new ones established in several counties. Five mills were operated in Seward county and six in Douglas county. The sirup was sold for $1.25 to $1.50 a gallon. Sugar was then selling for 11 cents a pound. According to the United States Department of Agriculture farmers' bulletin 477, "Sorghum-Sirup Manufacture," the average yield of sirup per acre of cane is about 155 gallons. Hence an acre or less will produce enough sirup for the average family. Sorghum sirup often can be substituted for sugar in cooking. This bulletin, which may be obtained free from the College of Agriculture at Lincoln, gives valuable information regarding growing sorghum cane and making sirup.

THE INCREASE IN LAND PRICES

John Wier was out from Sioux City last week looking after his good farm down near the south line of the county, which John Brocket is farming. He thinks things on the farm look pretty well considering the kind of weather we have had, and he also thinks a farm investment in Wayne county is a pretty sure thing. He informed the writer that he paid the big price of $4,000 for that quarter-section about a quarter of a century ago, when $25 the acre was the top price for land down there—but only last season he refused to accept $200 per acre for the same, which shows an average monthly increase of practically $100 per month for the past 300 months. It is no wonder that Mr. Wier can afford to belong to the over-all brigade and live in Sioux City without work, for in addition to this he has the rent from the land.

Yet, a lot of people who can well afford to invest in land—good land, are buying packing house stock and watching the concern go into the hands of the receiver.

The Skinner Packing Co. of Sioux City is in the hands of the receiver. How Many Wayne people traded government bonds or cold cash for some of the stock? Hold up your hands.

As the time for the national republican convention approaches, it becomes more certain that within its hall a great conflict is coming and we predict that the elements will not mix, and there will be a third ticket in the field. So let it be.

In reply to the question put by the New York World as to whether or not the democrats should support the treaty, A. F. Mullen, Nebraska member of the National Democratic committee, says support the treaty and reject the Lodge reservations. Right he is.

Lewis Holcomb of Mullen has been sentenced to 25 years in the penitentiary for murder, and his wife says that she will not appeal the case, but later plans to apply for a parole. Those who want this man turned loose should vote for McKelvie. He has a way of letting it be done.

If the profiteers can manipulate wheat and wheat products as they have sugar and sugar products when it is released from government control, we will have to turn again to substitutes and swarting. Some thought government restrictions as to sugar were tough and unjust, but who would not again welcome the same condition, except the profiteers? As the people come to know that it was congress that kept us out of sugar, except at the profit of the profiteer, it will go hard with those responsible for the condition now existing.

You may say that Woodrow Wilson is playing politics when he tells the democrats that the only honorable thing for them to do is to stand by the treaty and the league. Democrats were in power when we went into war pledging our people and our allies that we wanted permanent peace as the result. Men died with that pledge as an inspiration to cheer their last hours; men fought for that great principle. Then the republicans stole or purchased a membership in the U. S. senate, and that fact has been proven in court by ample testimony. By the aid of this majority of one, stolen in Michigan, the foreign relations committee was packed to do the bidding of a minority of the senate—and an effort was made to kill the treaty by indirect means. They dared not reject the treaty and the league any other way. They wanted to befuddle the people. The senate may reject or ratify. They proposed to amend to death and then ratify. And the president is taking the proper attitude. If he made a bad treaty, let the senate reject it, let the president and his party stand the blame; The senate has no right to attempt to make a treaty; but they have the right to kill one, and if they wish to do so, they should have courage to do it openly.

THE PRESIDENT STANDS BY HIS GUNS

In reply to a message from the democrats of Oregon, as to his attitude toward the treaty and the league President Wilson sent a message which carries with it no uncertain sound. It takes the consistent stand which as an honest man, any of those so largely instrumental in the making of the treaty and the league, would feel bound to take. No one could honorably ask the president to do otherwise. It is not probable that he has seen any reason to change his mind, and reject that for which he contended, and to which he agreed with others as the best possible solution for the ills of the world. In failing to ratify the treaty, the senate has not offered any better constructive measure. Their offering has all been destructive of the work of the authorized representatives of the great world-powers. Today, we stand with the kaiser and the rest of the German subjects and Mexico, outside of the league, and are we proud of the company we are in? The president says:

The reply of the president follows: "I think it imperative that the party should at once proclaim itself the uncompromising champion of the nation's honor and the advocate of everything that the United States can do in the service of humanity; that it should therefore endorse and support the Versailles treaty and condemn the Lodge reservations as utterly inconsistent with the nation's honor and destructive of the world leadership which it had established, and which all the free peoples of the world, including the great powers themselves, had shown themselves ready to welcome.

"It is time that the party should proudly avow that it means to try, without flinching or turning at any time away from the path for reasons of expediency, to apply moral and christian principles to the problems of the world. It is trying to accomplish social, political and international reforms and is not daunted by any of the difficulties it has to contend with. Let us prove to our late associates in the war that at any rate the great majority party of the nation, the party which expresses the true hopes and purposes of the people of the country, intends to keep faith with them in peace as well as in war. They gave their treasure, their best blood and everything that they valued in order, not merely to beat Germany, but to effect a settlement and bring about arrangements of peace which they have now tried to formulate in the treaty of Versailles. They are entitled to our support in this settlement and in the arrangements for which they have striven."

League of Nations Hope of World

"The league of nations is the hope of the world. As basis for the justice, I was authorized by all the great fighting nations to say to the enemy that it was our object in proposing peace to establish a general socialization of nations under specific covenants for the purpose of affording to great and small states alike and the covenant of the league of nations is the deliberate embodiment of that purpose in the treaty of peace.

"The chief motives which led us to enter the war will be defeated unless that covenant is ratified and acted upon with vigor. We cannot in honor whittle it down or weaken it as the republican leaders of the senate have proposed to do. If we are to exercise the kind of leadership to which the founders of the republic looked forward and which they depended upon their successors to establish, we must do this thing with courage and unalterable determination. They expected the United States to be always the leader in the defense of liberty and ordered peace throughout the world and we are unworthy to call ourselves their successors unless we fulfill the great purpose they entertained and proclaimed.

"The true Americanism, the only Americanism, is that which puts America at the front of free nations and redeems the great promises which we made the world when we entered the war which was fought, not for the advantage of any single nation or group of nations, but for the salvation of all. It is in this way we shall redeem the sacred blood that was shed and make America the force she should be in the counsels of mankind. She cannot afford to sink into the peace that nations have usually occupied and become merely one of those who scramble and look about for selfish advantage.

"The democratic party has now a great opportunity to which it must measure up. The honor of the nation is in its hand."

WITH THE WAYNE CHURCHES

First Baptist Church
(Robert H. Pratt, S. T. M. Minister)
Next Sunday is the anniversary of the beginning of my pastorate in Wayne. At the morning service I will preach an anniversary sermon. I especially desire all the members of the church to make a real effort to be present.

The Young People's meeting is full of life since our contest began. Your presence helps your group or if you come as a visitor you help the group, which invites you. This week the topic is, Religion Pays. Come and see if you think this is so. The leader is Mrs. Arthur Norton.

At the Wednesday evening prayer meeting, May 19, the study in the life of Jesus will center about the early opposition to Jesus. The scripture lesson is Mark 2:1 to 3:6. Do you think Jesus finds opposition in the world today and if so, is it of the same sort as shown in this scripture lesson?

Next Sunday evening the baccalaureate service of the high school will be held in the M. E. church. Our church unites in its service.

The Presbyterian Church
(John W. Beard, Minister)

Morning worship 10:30. At this morning services we will have the unveiling of the Bronze Memorial Tablet presented to the church by Mr. John Bressler. The Tablet is a work of art in Bronze containing the names of all those who went from this Church to serve their country in the Great War. A special program of music has been prepared. Miss Ship-ton and Mrs. Leslie Ellis will sing solos, the choir will sing an anthem. Sunday school at 11:30. Classes for all. You are invited to attend.

Senior Endeavor will meet with the young people of the Methodist church in a union meeting.

Buy Right—Where Quality Is Right

Price and Quality Combine for Right Buying

On these two great truths we wish to build a business structure that will endure while people buy and sell, and with that in mind, we talk to you this week, we tell of some real bargains.

YOU CAN'T BUY THIS IN THE OPEN MARKET

Anybody with the price can buy tire machinery or material and make fair tires.

But they can't buy the family conscience that safeguards every last detail of a GRIPWELL TIRE.

That's why I picked this "honor-built" tire out of the 227 that clutter up the market. I know my business reputation is safe when backed by the GRIPWELL conscience that isn't for sale.

Cord and fabric tires and tubes. Casings have advanced from 20 to 30 per cent, but we bought so that we can and do sell at old prices. With a quality high and a price low, can you afford to buy elsewhere?

HOW ABOUT CHICK FEED?

We are prepared to supply your needs, whether it be a 25-pound sack or one or more 100-pound sacks. Remember we are in position to make price and quality right.

BUY YOUR COAL EARLY—ORDER NOW

We have read the warnings to buy your coal early and avoid the rush, and the certain raise in price. It is a condition that confronts us—not a theory. It is as well known now as it is possible to know things in advance that coal of all kinds will be scarce and high—in fact it is so now, compared with other years. Hard coal is selling at not less than $16 per ton, and it will go higher—it will also be hard to get out here, on account of transportation conditions. Therefore we have selected a line of the very best of western soft coals, and urge all who can use a soft coal for furnace or heater to now place an order here, for we have a coal guaranteed not to slack in the bin during the summer months—a coal superior in many ways to any soft coal that may be had from the east—clean, clinkerless, comparatively sootless, and low in ash. We cannot store this or other coal in quantity sufficient for the winter demand—and we cannot buy it for the same low price then as now, so we ask you to help us to help you. Order now for delivery to your bin as it comes and be sure of a good coal at least possible cost.

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER COMPANY

REPAIRS made for International implements and other farm equipment by the Harvester Company are the only repairs made from the original patterns. All others are copied from copies, and in this roundabout reproduction they may lose in correctness of shape, sharpness of detail, closeness in fitting, and quality of material. These repairs are made for Deering, McCormick, Milwaukee, Titan and other International-made machines.

Are Better in Quality
Fit Better, and Wear Longer

The Harvester Company stands back of its machines. Be fair in the matter. Do not substitute imitation repairs for the genuine and expect best service. Repairs made by other concerns and marked "Made for" or "Will fit", are not genuine IHC repairs. They often lack weight, are not always correct in shape, are imperfectly finished, do not fit properly, or are made of inferior material. EASY TO PRESERVE - SUPPLY OF EGGS

Fifteen dozen eggs can be preserved in a five-gallon jar of water glass, says a United States Department of Agriculture circular. This is enough to supply an average family during the high-priced winter months. Eggs laid during May and early June have been found to keep better than those laid later in the season. Only eggs known to be absolutely fresh should be used. Infertile eggs keep better than fertile eggs. Only clean unwashed eggs should be used and the shells should be strong and sound. Circulars giving details about egg preservation will be sent free by the College of Agriculture.

FARM WOMEN WANT BETTER CONDITIONS

An extensive survey made by the United States Department of Agriculture shows that ninety-six per cent of the farm women do the family washing, and more than half of them are still using a wash board. Sixty-one per cent of the farm women carry water an average of forty feet. Ninety-two per cent do the family sewing and mending, and a large majority do the family baking. The farm woman's work day averages 11½ hours, the survey shows. The department is cooperating with state colleges of agriculture in an effort to bring about better conditions for women on the farm, especially more home conveniences. As a result of this work 1,000 farm kitchens were remodeled last year.

BRIDGES DAMAGED

The Elkhorn river has been piling up costs for the counties it runs through. Bridge after bridge has been injured or lost. Of the situation at Wisner, the Chronicle tells: The county bridge committee and the bridge contractor, Robert Drake of Omaha looked over the bridge condition here Wednesday. They decided to build at once a temporary span of bridgework from the new north bank of the river to the old bridge, which will be raised, leveled up and made passable. As soon as possible, it is hoped within ninety days, the old bridge will be placed upon new steel piles and extended to span the new widened channel of the river. The end toward town will be swung to the west, straightening the bridge with the road.

At West Point, the Democrat says the roads were badly washed, but were quickly put in shape for traffic to get over, after an interruption of a number of days. At Beemer they have not been able to get across the river for a week or more.

LOOKING AFTER AUTO LICENSES—CAUGHT SEVEN CARS

C. H. Moore, a state officer with the State Law Enforcement Division, was here from Lincoln several days last week looking after auto and truck licenses. In a conversation with him Mr. Moore said he took charge of seven autos while here and placed them in charge of Marshal Ed Walters—the 1920 license not having been paid.

Mr. Moore said that in several places he found men who own one or two autos and a truck had only one license and would change the number plate back and forth to the vehicle he wished to use at the time. In several such cases he said arrests had followed and prosecution was liable. Also that in some places he found garages using demonstrator numbers for their service trucks and cars, which he says is a direct breaking of the law.

He instructed Marshal Walters to pick up every car without a 1920 license and see to it that car was held until the license was paid.

It's from the auto and truck licenses that the roads are to be built—the most of the money being retained in the county where the license is issued.

To save trouble—if you have not already secured your 1920 tag, you better attend to it at once.—Laurel Advocate.

Sure, and Wayne county, we are told has car drivers who are skinning about and using good roads paid for by others, using their last year number. If a fine comes with the new number, it really won't be much of a saving to wait all these months

EDGAR TAYLOR SELLS UNEEDA ORION SENSATION FOR $10,000

A new state record for a purebred Duroc Jersey hog was set in Norfolk Tuesday when Uneeda Orion Sensation, son of Great Orion Sensation, was sold by Edgar Taylor to Studer brothers of Wesley, Iowa, for $10,000. This Duroc Jersey boar was crated and expressed to its new home in Iowa with considerable ceremony which was witnessed by a number of local livestock breeders. A check for $10,000 went to Mr. Taylor's credit in a local bank and was inspected with as much interest by bankers as the boar was inspected by purebred hog raisers.

It was announced that this is the highest price ever paid for a Duroc Jersey boar at either a private or public sale in Nebraska and Norfolk livestock breeders declare that it is merely a forerunner of some of the great sales which will be held here when the purebred stock breeders open their big sales pavilion where stock of all kinds will be sold.

Edgar Taylor is a breeder of Duroc Jersey hogs. He recently purchased the Arnold Pasewalk farm west of the city and has been successful in raising fancy porkers. After purchasing Uneeda-Orion Sensation, Mr. Studer announced that the Norfolk boar was purchased after a journey over many states had been made. Uneeda answered the Studer demands and was much wanted partly because it was the son of Ed Kern's world champion boar.—Norfolk News.

DRAFT HORSES IN DEMAND

The demand for draft horses should stimulate breeding this spring, says the Nebraska College of Agriculture. Good drafters weighing 1,700 or more pounds are bringing $275 to $450 in eastern markets. Only sound, mature and good draft type horses are wanted. The low price of the common medium-weight type of horses in the last few years checked breeding, and there is now an actual shortage of good draft animals. This shortage, together with the tendency to use more heavy horses, has opened up a market for the right kind stuff. Present conditions point to a continued good market for the better quality of draft horses.

I Put Soles and Heels Under You While You Wait

Why waste unnecessary time waiting for needed shoe repair? With my new machine for sewing on soles, and a still newer one for nailing on soles, I claim to be the best equipped repair shop in this corner of the state for quick work.

With the prices of new footwear going still higher, it will pay you well to hunt out shoes that may have been discarded several years ago, perhaps and have them softened with oil and put in perfect repair. It costs comparatively little and give much service as a new pair.

Our new nailing machine is a wonder—it drives as many as 450 nails a minute, so you can count the nails in a half sole and estimate how long it took to nail it on after it was in the machine. If we don't watch out and turn the shoe at the right time, it will run off the edge or the end of the shoe and drive the air full of nails.

Let us help you with your shoe troubles.

KNOX SUSTAINS WILSON (Springfield Republican)

Senator Knox's speech opening the debate for the republicans on the peace resolution embodies so much that seems novel, or directly contrary to the position held by other senators on the same side, not to mention the federal courts, that his appearance in the role of leading debater is rather mysterious. Parts of the senator's arguments are destructive of the very resolution he has drafted. He even denounces as false one of Senator

Lodge's favorite characterizations of his own work on the covenant of the league of nations.

The highest praise the Lodge reservations have received from the Massachusetts senator's admirers has been that he "Americanized" the league of nations. Mr. Lodge himself invariably rejoices in public speech over the miracle of "Americanization" he has performed. Now comes Senator Knox rudely declaring:

"It has been said that reservations proposed in the senate Americanize the league. This, of course, is not true. They tend to make it safer for America to enter the league by refusing to be bound in many important particulars by its action. But this especially insured relation created an inequality which was dangerous."

Despite all his fury at Mr. Wilson, the Pennsylvania senator in that passage has upheld the president as against Mr. Lodge. Regarding the Lodge reservations, Mr. Knox and Mr. Wilson are in substantial agreement.

When Mr. Knox says that by the reservations America would "refuse to be bound in many important matters" by the league's action, he says in effect what the president said in denouncing reservations that were nothing but nullifications. Mr. Knox is quite as scornful as Mr. Wilson in denying the virtue of the "Americanization" flubdub. He furnishes Mr. Wilson with ammunition against Mr. Lodge in declaring that the reservations "created an inequality that was dangerous." That is what the president has believed all along. The president is justified out of the Pennsylvania senator's own mouth in refusing to accept the Lodge reservations.

WHY NOT INCLUDE WAYNE

It is true, as Calmer McCune says, that milk has retailed in Denver all winter long at 13 cents a quart or two quarts for a quarter; and now sugar is selling at 15 cents a pound for a limited quantity or 16 cents if you want a lot of it. Why the difference between Lincoln and Denver prices? Wait a minute, fish has been advertised at 20 cents a pound in Denver when the Lincoln market stood firm at 42 for the same grade. Again, why? The good people of Lincoln are top-notchers. They scorn that which is cheap and are satisfied with nothing less than the highest price, regardless of quality. Would the little ones of Lincoln drink milk at 13 cents a quart when it can be had at 16? Would Lincoln housewives buy sugar of the grocer who sells it at 15 cents a pound when another in the next block charges 21 cents and no limit as to quantity? Who wants halibut at 20 cents a pound when he can get as fresh a catch for more than twice that much? The people of Denver are behind the times; first thing you know some of the men will be wearing overalls.—Sixty.

NOTICE OF HEARING

To the heirs, creditors, and all persons interested in the estate of John T. Mettlen, deceased:

You and each of you are hereby notified that J. Harvey Mettlen has filed his petition in the county court of Wayne county, Nebraska, alleging that said John T. Mettlen died intestate at Wayne, Nebraska, on the 16th day of August, 1897, that at the time of his death he was a resident of Wayne county, Nebraska, and seized of real estate in Wayne county, Nebraska, to-wit: Lots nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three and twenty-four (19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24) in block eighteen, (18) College Hill Addition to Wayne, Nebraska, and left surviving him as sole and only heirs at law, his widow, now deceased, and the following named children, viz: William J. Mettlen, Frank L. Mettlen, Abraham G. Mettlen, J. Harvey Mettlen, Mary A. Cahdor and Emma Jennie Sand; that he left no other issue nor the issue of any deceased child or children; that said estate has never been administered in the State of Nebraska, and that said children above named are the sole owners of said real estate in fee simple and in possession of the same and that all debts and claims against the estate of said deceased have been paid in full. Said petition prays for a finding and decree determining the date of the death of said John T. Mettlen; for a determination of his heirs at law, the degree of kinship and right of descent of said real estate, and for an order barring claims of creditors, and prays for such other relief as may be just and equitable.

Said petition will be heard at the county court room in Wayne, Nebraska, on the 7th day of June, 1920, at nine o'clock a. m., at which time and place the heirs, creditors and all other persons interested in said estate may appear and show cause why a decree should not be made and entered as prayed in said petition.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

Notice is hereby given that the board of county commissioners, the county assessor and the county clerk will sit as a board of equalization, commencing on Tuesday, the 15th day of June, 1920, for the purpose of equalizing the valuation of personal property of the county, as returned by the precinct assessors, also to equalize the value of real property as returned by the precinct assessors, which assessment on lands, stands for four years, unless an error is found which works an injustice.

Any and all complaints on the assessment of both real and personal property will be heard at this time. All that are assessed are especially urged to call and inspect the books, relative to their assessment, as this will materially aid us in avoiding any errors.

The board will continue in session for not less than three (3) days, and all complaints or protests must be made at this time.

To the heirs, creditors, and all persons interested in the estate of John T. Mettlen, deceased:

You and each of you are hereby notified that J. Harvey Mettlen has filed his petition in the county court of Wayne county, Nebraska, alleging that said John T. Mettlen died intestate at Wayne, Nebraska, on the 16th day of August, 1897, that at the time of his death he was a resident of Wayne county, Nebraska, and seized of real estate in Wayne county, Nebraska, to-wit: Lots nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three and twenty-four (19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24) in block eighteen, (18) College Hill Addition to Wayne, Nebraska, and left surviving him as sole and only heirs at law, his widow, now deceased, and the following named children, viz: William J. Said petition will be heard at the county court room in Wayne, Nebraska, on the 7th day of June, 1920, at nine o'clock a. m., at which time and place the heirs, creditors and all other persons interested in said estate may appear and show cause why a decree should not be made and entered as prayed in said petition.

"EVEN AS EVE"

MATINEE EVERY SATURDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Serfling returned home Monday from Random Lake, Wisconsin.

Rev. Ringer from Council Bluffs, came this morning to visit his son, Martin Ringer and family, and other friends.

Mrs. S. J. Weber, who spent the winter at Omaha taking treatment, came back to the home of her son, John Harmer, much improved in health.

H. A. Sewell of Colfax and son, Milo, of Des Moines, Iowa, who motored to Wayne and have been visiting at the home of Mr. Sewell's brother, Buto Sewell, returned to their homes today.

James Baird went to Winside Tuesday morning to help the boys from the farm car some cattle that were ready for market, and as they are so busy on the farm, he went in to Omaha market with the animals that afternoon.

J. L. Davis and wife came down from Hoskins this morning to visit Wayne acquaintances a few days. Mr. Davis is wearing one eye in a sling as the result of a gas explosion in the shops at Norfolk, where he was working two or more months ago.

James Harmon, commonly called "Jim," came down from Laurel Tuesday to visit Wayne relatives a time. Mr. Harmon admits that things are worse torn up in the streets of Laurel than Wayne, and in that case they will not need any special police to stop speeders.

Mrs. Jeffries is repeating her offer of last week Friday and Saturday for the coming Friday and Saturday, and giving those who could not come last week on account of roads a chance to reap a benefit this week. One-fifth off is quite a reduction, we are here to say.—adv

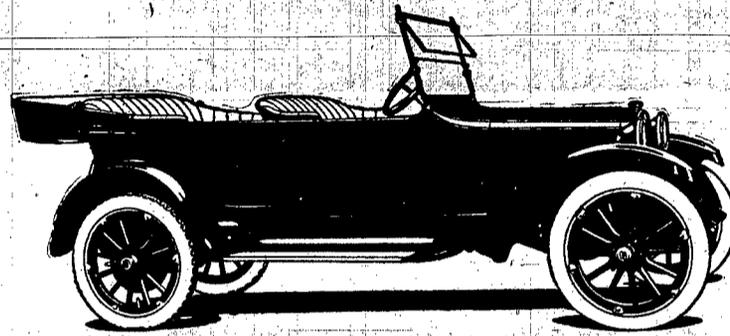

A track washout at Hubbard Wednesday morning cut communication with Sioux City, and the train and crew that came from Norfolk in the morning doubled back to that place, bringing Omaha passengers, mail and express, and the Wayne passengers who had ticketed to Sioux City.

P. J. Barnes is nursing a broken rib, which he did not get at Wayne, but at Madison, which indicates that other places have bad streets, for he received the injury by being juggled about in an automobile, and being bounced over onto the back of the seat in front of him, if we get the story straight.

W. L. Worthen and wife, for more than twenty years residents of Wayne, who went from here to Ft. Collins, Colorado, about eight years ago, were here Monday a few hours on their way to visit relatives at Randolph. While they have been in a rapidly growing city, they were glad to notice many improvements at Wayne since their departure. The new station, the Central garage, the lumber yard new building, the Wayne Motor Co. building and others caught their attention, while the improvements in the residence district and on College hill were much noticed and commented on. The condition of the streets almost shocked them, for they have a soil and climate which makes such mud as we have unknown, and with plenty of gravel at hand, the streets not paved are well graveled. Property is high there, and he tells us that he sold a five-acre fruit tract at $1,000 the acre, recently, while small farm tracts, from 20 to 40 acres find buyers at $500 the acre. Both himself and wife took a drink of our excellent water, and made wry faces, for they had been drinking pure snow water in their home town. But they admitted that when they first went there they had to learn to like the water. They met a number of friends during their short stay, and will probably visit Wayne again before returning west.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

We spare no effort to supply our patrons with these popular DODGE CARS, and to be assured of enough to fill our orders promptly, Mr. Claude Wright was sent to the factory at Detroit, Michigan, with orders to "bring home the bacon," and here he comes with two car loads of Dodge Cars to supply your immediate needs.

Most of these cars are already sold and will be delivered at once. We still have a roadster and one or two other cars ready for those who come first, and if you need a car, and realize how difficult it is to get cars and get delivery on the same, you will be waiting when we open in the morning.

The merits of the Dodge Car are universally known, and no other car in its price class can compete with it—so it is small wonder that the demand is great.

Unique Banquet Room Decorations

Streamers of gold and purple attached to a white May-pole formed the canopy, under which the tables, decorated with miniature May poles, May baskets filled with cut flowers, and tall candles, were placed. At the base of each tiny May pole was a green common of fresh smilax; the large pole was banked with flowers and ferns. On one side, facing the toast master was a white throne for the May Queen. Place cards, on which talented hostesses had painted dainty sprays of violets, and artistic booklet programs added to the charm of each cover.

The clever program of toasts was as follows:

Maytide—"Be Glad"
"Bare Boughs"—Tree Sparrow
"Awakening"—Common Dandelion
"Little Breezes"—Evening Primrose
"Bird Notes"—Clever Pick-a-Tree
"Insect Life"—House Cricket
"Shoots"—Katy-did More
"Buds and Blossoms"—Lilac Whispers
"Melody of Growth"—President U. S. Conn.

Guessing who the speakers were caused much merriment. It proved simple after the word went around that the initials of the person were the same as his alias. The Tree Sparrow proved to be Tillie Solfermoser; Charles Daley responded to the appellation, Common Dandelion; Miss Elper to Evening Primrose; the title Clever Pick-a-Tree belonged to Carl Pearson; the office of House Cricket fell to Harold Croghan; no one missed guessing correctly that Katy-did More meant Katharine Mendenhall; and of course Lilac Whispers could then be none other than Miss Wendt. There was no doubt about President Conn's identity since his initials were not such as to permit of masquerading. Each was called upon by the Herald of Spring, Lyle Miller, who presided as toastmaster. Mr. Miller's appropriate remarks and able delivery made the evening a marked success.

Resume of Toasts

Tree Sparrow's theme under the title "Bare Boughs" was discussion of the period in school life of each when as yet no friendships had been formed. Common Dandelion spoke of the joy of companionship and the preciousness of the memories of school life.

To Evening Primrose each student had been a Little Breeze. The hope that all these Little Breezes of the classes would unite and like a tornado accomplish much in the world was expressed.

Clever Pick-a-Tree reminded his audience of the joys of song and laughter. The treatise on "Insect Life" by House Cricket was replete with witticisms. Katy-did More defined "Shoots" and gave concrete illustrations from the two classes.

By "The Buds and Blossoms" Lilac Whispers meant the Juniors and Seniors. Praise for both and sincere interest in success of each was expressed.

President Conn happily correlated Harmony, Comedy and Tragedy of Growth under the topic, Melody of Growth.

May Queen Crowned

The white throne before mentioned had remained vacant throughout the evening. Now at the request of a hostess Mrs. Conn followed a guide to the foot of the Throne and at the invitation of the Herald of Spring ascended it. He then gave the address of coronation and the crown was placed upon the Queen-elect. Mrs. Conn responded with much feeling, expressing joy and gratitude in this honor the students conferred upon her.

To Miss Wendt, sponsor of the class of '21, is due much of the credit for the success of the entire program. Miss Burton and her corps deserve commendation as does also Gladys Borman, chairman of the social committee, and everyone who worked on the project. The difficulty of using a purple and gold color scheme was overcome admirably under Miss Beechel's excellent planning, and the pleasant social hour in the gymnasium ended "a perfect May day."

If the ladies are looking for a very choice stock and a complete one at bargain prices, they should not fail to be at the Mrs. Jeffries' store for ladies Friday and Saturday to take advantage of the price reduction offer in all lines of lady wear.—adv

License has just been issued for the marriage of Walter J. Herman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Herman and Miss Julia Lundahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Swan Lundahl, to wed, and the marriage ceremony is to be at the home of the bride's parents near Wakefield, by Rev. Knox of Wakefield, this 13th day of May, 1920.

Miss Margaret Coleman has sold her house on Seventh and Pearl streets to James McIntire, possession first of January. Consideration $7,300.
