LEGION BOYS UP IN AIR— BUT LAND ALL RIGHT

The first of this week it seemed that the boys of the American Legion were up in the air, as to their announced "Flying" circus. But they came down feet first, all right. They sent a wire to Editor and manager Kelly of the Sioux City Tribune and that concern promptly came to the rescue, and made a liberal contract with the committee for a real flying circus at Wayne the 4th. They promise one of the best outfits and their best men. That tells why the boys were up in the air, and how they came down, far better satisfied than they were with what they had in prospect before the blowup.

At the regular Legion meeting Tuesday evening the committees reported that all things are going forward in fine shape for the greatest celebration ever held at Wayne and the biggest and best in all this part of the state. The speaker is not yet ready for announcement, but they have some very strong men under consideration.

The free dance is to be a feature. The boxing bouts will please. The baseball game gives every promise of being splendid. The morning parade in which business men will have floats, and cars from all over will be competing for the best decoration give promise of a real parade.

The preparations for the comfort of the visitors is not being neglected. Reports from outside communities indicate that thousands will be at Wayne July 4th.

OMAHAN'S WANT KOHL TO RUN FOR TREASURER

Lincoln, Neb., June 9.—Omaha petitions asking Phil Kohl, former state senator of Wayne, Neb., to accept the democratic nomination for state treasurer were filed today with Secretary of State D. M. Amberry. The petition is headed by James C. Dahlman, mayor of Omaha, Wallace H. Wilson, Fremont, circulated the petitions.

Another voter's petition, not yet accepted, asks Roy Harrop, Omaha, to become democratic candidate for congress in the second district.

The above dispatch appeared in the World-Herald, and the State Journal of Monday carried a picture of Senator Kohl in its last edition at least, but we failed to find it in the earlier edition which reaches Wayne at 11 o'clock each morning.

STORM HEAVY IN PLACES

The Monday evening rain must have been much heavier northwest Wayne than here. The engine on the Bloomfield branch came in Tuesday morning with evidence of having bucked a bunch of mud. The cow-catcher was filled between the bars with mud to the top, and the top beam of the frame carried a bunch of good Wayne county soil. The worst was between Carroll and Stoles, where a piece of track had to be braided up with some underpinning before the train could cross.

Trammen tell that it was hailing quite hard when they came from Wakefield Monday evening; but so far as we can learn it was not bad enough to make much damage visible.

In the vicinity of Concord there was considerable hail and a lot of rainfall. The streams are either bankfull or out.

Down in Plumcreek the rainfall is reported from two to four inches. At any rate the stream went out of banks in short order.

BETTER SAFE THAN SORRY

Madison Star-Mail: We notice in many of the publications that come into this office that game wardens are putting in appearance in many places in the state. Their chief object seems to be the picking up of nimrods who have failed to provide themselves with the necessary licenses. There is only one outcome of their discovery of anyone fishing without paying the fee and that is a trial before authorities and a fine of several times the license fee. There are possibly very few in this vicinity who are violating the law in this manner but these should see the county clerk at once. The fee is only dollar and this will allow you to fish and hunt for the remainder of the year without fear that at any time some warden might step in and spoil the fun by taking you to court and causing you to be assessed a healthy fine for disregarding the state law.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

The Wayne Woman's Club held their regular meeting at the Community House Friday afternoon. Mrs. O. W. Crabtree delighted her hearers with her pleasing rendering of Cadman's, "I Hear a Merry Thrush at Eve." Mrs. Lutgen read from the Nebraska Farmer a rather lengthy article on the very fine Community House at Lake City, Iowa, a town of about 2000 people. The building was erected at a cost of 80,000 dollars in 1919, and there remains at the present time a debt of only $15,000. Although the Iowa law permits of bonding a town or political unit for the erection and maintenance of Memorial community houses, the cost of this building was entirely met by donation and subscription, but every organization of the town and surrounding country worked in co-operation and harmony to erect this beautifully artistic and exceedingly practical and useful memorial building.

An enthusiastic, informal discussion followed Mrs. Lutgen's paper, and it was the desire of all the ladies present that Wayne do something immediately to make our community house serve better the community's needs. All felt that the most immediate need is a rest room. The president will appoint a committee to consult with the American Legion and the Commercial Club as to some co-operative plan for making additions and improvements, to the end that Wayne may have a Community House that will be just that in the real true sense of the term.

Various committees for the home talent performance "Cheer-Up" were named as follows: Talent—Mrs. Clyde Oman, Mrs. D. J. Cavanaugh, Mrs. W. E. Beaman, Miss Edith Beecher, and Mrs. O. W. Crabtree. Tickets—Mrs. H. H. Hahn and Mrs. A. A. Welch, Advertising, Mrs. J. G. W. Lewis.

Mrs. Henry Ley reported $20 clear from the food sale of the previous Saturday.

"CHEER-UP"

Sounds good—doesn't it? And that is just what you will do when you see the big home talent musical extravaganza given for the benefit of the Wayne Woman's Club at the Community House, June 22 and 23. That show is sure to drive Old Man Trouble and his sister Worry clear out of town. It is the brightest, merriest jollification one can imagine. The director, Mr. Coe has put all the best of Wayne talent in front line stuff—and it has been whispered by those who know that all the members will "go over big" for this isn't a show with one "hit", it's a show of "hits"—every one from the rise of the curtain for the tiny tots to Grand Finale, which will be an ensemble of talent, beauty, shining costumes and electrical effects such as has never been seen here before.

CELEBRATE AT WAYNE

The 4th is to be celebrated at Wayne, and all want to dress the best possible for that occasion, and Mrs. Jeffries wants to do her full part in aiding the ladies, young and old to appear at their best. So she has her store filled with all of the late styles and patterns in summer dresses. Be it silks, rattines, dotted swiss, organdies, Canton Crepes, ginghams or other wash goods, you will find them there to please. To top out with there is a lot of hats just the thing for summer wear, and we will have a lot of summer yet. The hats are priced down already, and you will please come in and make a selection and learn the price.

It is possible, says Mrs. Jeffries, that it will feel much more like a celebration if you come in and get a pair of those white oxfords for only $3.50. You cannot go wrong at that price and with that shoe.—adv.

THE RAIN

Two good rains have visited Wayne since last issue of the paper. The first was the evening of the 8th, and the precipitation was nine-tenths of an inch. The second shower came Monday evening and the same amount of rain fall was registered. That makes 1.8 so far this month, which is plenty, perhaps for the immediate need; tho this soil will care for that much weekly during June and July if it is properly administered.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE MEETING

Saturday was the regular meeting of the Democratic County Central Committee, and they gathered at the court house and fixed the representation to which each precinct will be entitled at the county convention, the delegates to be elected at the primary July 18th.

The precincts are entitled to one delegate for each 100 votes cast at the last general election for the democratic candidates, and that makes one delegate to each precinct, except Wayne 3rd ward where the vote entitles them to two delegates. The delegates are to be elected at the primary, July 18th. At that time one man and one woman each are to be elected as members of the county central committee for the next two years. Candidates for these places may file before midnight of the 17th of June, and have their name printed on the ballot. One candidate has already filed, C. J. Rundell, as delegate from Wayne 1st ward.

Saturday night, at midnight, the filings close, and then the race will be on between the candidates. If you want to try your speed and wind as a runner, kindly make your filing without delay.

HOMEcoming OF NORMALITES FEATURE OF COLLEGE WEEK

This week Friday is the annual homecoming day for graduates from the Wayne State Teachers College, and it is expected that fully 200 will participate in the banquet spread in honor of the occasion tomorrow evening.

Chapel exercises will be in charge of the alumni organization, and will begin at 10:30, and in addition to talks from members of the different classes, and the chapel hour will close with the unveiling of the Nelhardt bust, which has been presented to the school by his mother.

It is to be gala day, and the program is so arranged that but one class will be missed in the forenoon. The afternoon will be given over to entertainment.

Mr. Nelhardt arrived at Wayne this morning, and was met by President Conn and C. E. Blivernicht, president of the Nelhardt club. The annual meeting of this club occurs this week, and a banquet in honor of the poet will be given at Ft. Calhoun.

EDITORIAL MEETING AT NORFOLK LAST SATURDAY

At the editorial meeting of Northeastern Nebraska editors at Norfolk last Friday evening and Saturday a good meeting was reported, but not many newspaper men found time to go, we are sorry to say. The real treat of the occasion was the excellent lecture given by Dr. Palmer of Davenport, who is a great advertiser and a great believer in advertising. He spoke to an audience of several hundred, which included the business men of Norfolk and some neighboring towns, the handful of newspaper men and the Chiropractors of this corner of Nebraska, who never miss opportunity to hear their patron saint—the man who studied out and put in practice a science of healing that has apparently been a wonderful help to mankind. His lecture was full of facts, and referred chiefly to the power of printer ink applied to white paper in the right shape, and the distribution of the printed sheets. He said the old story of the world finding some good thing, and beating a path to its retreat in the forest was wrong. He said tell from the hill-top of your good things and the path will be beaten to your door.

SOME WINDOW DISPLAY, SAY THE JUDGES

Along about Easter time when spring windows began to blossom, Wm. McEachen fixed up an Ed. V. Price window display at the Frank Morgan Foggery that was good. So many praised it that a photo was taken of the window and it was entered in a window dressing contest which the Price people were staging, and the other day Mr. McEachen received a letter praising the work, and also a check for the first prize money in that class. The feature of the window was the giraff which stood among the goods shown and the statement that even with a form like that the Price Tailors could make one a perfect fit. They seem to be strong on perfect fits.

WAYNE STREETS MARKED FOR PARKING

One by one the improvements come to our city, the latest being the proper marking of the streets for car parking. The work is going forward on Main street at present. A zone is marked in the center of the street, and it is spaced in proper strips and at the right angle for cars to stand, to leave the most room on either side and still take no more room than is necessary lengthwise of the street. When not marked, cars were run in most any manner, some too far to one side or the other, some at right angles with the street, and others nearly lengthwise. Some were parked too close together, others too far apart.

The next thing will be to see that all park according to the marked plan or pay the penalty.

FATHER WALSH WILL VISIT NATIVE HOME

Rev. Father Thomas Walsh of Battle creek left last Sunday for New York from which place he will sail for Europe for a tour which will require some six months time. During this time he will visit his native home in Ireland and will also have an audience with Pope Plus in Rome. Father Walsh is a pioneer priest in this part of Nebraska having spent a great many years here. His many friends are elated that he is able to take this vacation after so many years of labor and wish for him the most pleasant journey possible. He is well known at Wayne, and has frequently visited here.

ENSIGN REESE HOME

Last evening Ensign Owen Reese, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howell Reese of Carroll arrived home from Annapolis, Naval school, having completed his four years of schooling and training, and been appointed an ensign in the navy. His leave of absence is three weeks, when he will report at San Pedro for duty on board the battle ship, New Mexico.

Owen Reese won the appointment to the Annapolis school four years ago, and was recommended for appointment by Congressman Dan V. Stephens. He has made good, and tells the writer that he likes the life of a sailor well. During the summer cruises, he has visited many foreign ports.

A BIG DAY AT EMERSON WEDNESDAY

Yesterday Emerson celebrated with volunteer firemen the arrival of their new fire truck and steamer. The Wakefield firemen with their new equipment were there joining in the parade. The firemen of the two towns played a 5-6 score baseball game, we cannot tell which won. It was a great day for Emerson. At night there was a merry dance.

A place may well celebrate the installation of adequate fire protection. It is a crime not to be ready to prevent excessive fire loss when there is so much need of blinding.

JUST AS THE SUN GOES DOWN

This evening, at 8:30, there is to be a twilight game of baseball between the State Normal team and Wayne players at the Wayne diamond. The admission is free, and if you can go and miss your supper one may really make quite a saving. We do not see why this should not be a really good game. Better go once and see what a ball game is like these days.

LADIES OF THE COUNTRY CLUB

The ladies of the Wayne country Club will have their regular social afternoon Tuesday June 20th at 3 P. M.

The following will be hostesses: Mrs. Perry Theobald, Mrs. Linn McClure, Mrs. Ben McEachen, Mrs. H. J. Miner, Mrs. Henry Ley, and Mrs. E. S. Edholm.

FIRE MARSHAL'S POWER CURBED

Lincoln, Neb., June 13.—The supreme court yesterday held invalid that section of the law authorizing the state fire marshal to condemn alleged fire traps as nuisances which declares that anybody who fails to comply with the order of the department shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor. The court says this is unconstitutional because it is lacking in due process of law.

SOCIAL NOTES

The P. N. G. met Tuesday with Mrs. N. J. Juhlin, with Mrs. Harry McMullan as assistant hostess. Flag day was observed by the following program: Paper, "The Origin of the Flag" by Mrs. Ingham; Paper, "How to Treat the American Flag", by Mrs. Lamberson; Mrs. Ley, leader for the meeting, asked a number of questions regarding the flag which were very instructive. Mrs. Geo. Stringer of Wrenshall, Minnesota, and Mrs. Myrtle Milton of Long Pine, were guests. The hostesses served refreshments.

The Bible circle met at the A. E. Laase home last Tuesday, and Miss Anna J. Gohrman from Honduras was the principle speaker. She also spoke at the Girls Bible study circle at the E. B. Young home Saturday evening. At each place she gave a wonderful talk, and told of the work carried on in Central America. This was an unusual opportunity of hearing one of America's leading missionaries, and a wonderful message may be expected. Everyone was cordially welcomed.

The student class of the M. E. church enjoyed a party Friday evening in honor of the summer school students. A program consisting of speeches music and readings was given in the League room. After this feature of the evening, everyone went to the basement where games were played and refreshments served. About one hundred fifty young people were present. The class extends a cordial welcome to all who care to come and attend its meetings every Sunday.

Misses Hattie, Martha and Alice Crockett were hostesses at a social meeting of the Queen Esther Circle Wednesday evening. The guests took part in a guessing contest in which Mabel Britell won the prize. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing "Some" set. Very delicious refreshments were served.

G. S. MEARS FILES FOR REPRESENTATIVE

County Clerk Reynolds rings us up to say that G. S. Mears will ask the republican nomination for representative from this county in the lower house of the legislature. Mr. Mears has filled that office three or four terms, and is still willing to serve.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER

W. W. Evans from east of Wayne has filed as a candidate for the office of commissioner from the First district, subject to the expressed will of the republican voters at the primary voting July 18. That makes three republican candidates for the place.

A PROGRESSIVE FILES FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Charles Sellenberg of Garfield precinct, with Winside as his postoffice, has filed as a candidate for representative from this county, on the progressive ticket. It is not our fortune to know the gentleman, but his friends vouch for him as a good man.

VISIT KANSAS

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Carhart and two grandsons, John and Charles returned Friday evening from a visit of two or three weeks at the home of their son Dr. Carhart and family. He says that the wheat crop in the vicinity of Hutchinson, where they visited, is going to be fairly good, tho they had no moisture to start it last fall after it was sown. They made the home run of 350 miles in a day, starting at about five o'clock in the morning, and driving in home before sundown.

PEARL SEWELL FILES FOR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT

Miss Pearl Sewell, has filed on the non-political (we near said non-partisan) ticket for county superintendent for another term. Miss Sewell is the present superintendent, and thus far no one has filed to oppose her nomination and election.

Claude Mitchell wife and Miss Ada Cash and Miss Lella Mitchell autoed to Sioux City today.

NE AS A CITY TO PAY ALL PAVING

R. P. Williams hands us the following Lincoln dispatch, which he clipped from the Sioux City Tribune, and the question above naturally arises after reading the dispatch. You read it:

Lincoln, Neb., June 13 (Special). Cities of the second class in Nebraska that have been doing a lot of paving will do well to sit up and take notice of a recent decision of the supreme court. The city of Red Cloud ordered district paving done in the usual way and charged the cost up to the property owners benefited. Suing bonds to cover the cost. The property holders defaulted in their payments, and now the court says that as there is nothing in the law making these a first lien on the property and as the ordinances and bonds issued said nothing about it, these are all general obligations of the city and must be paid by a general tax levy.

The city had started to refund the bonds, but taxpayers intervened, and the lower court enjoined any further proceedings.

WILL BE TRIED AT BUTTE IN JULY

Walter Simmons, who is charged with the murder of Frank Pahl in Knox county about five weeks ago, and was taken to Lincoln for safe keeping, was brought back to Butte the first of the week for a hearing. He waived examination, and plead "not guilty" and is sent to the jail at Butte to await his trial which will be in about five weeks.

There was much feeling against Simmons when he was first arrested on the charge, and attempts were made to lynch him, but sheriff Heenan managed to outwit the mob and saved the prisoner and the county the disgrace of a lynching party. Upon his return to Butte there were great crowds there, but all appeared quite and willing to let the law take its course.

BRIEF MENTIONS

Harding pays tribute to Francis Scott Kay, author of "Star Spangled Banner".

Austria is in need of food and some berries including mul-money.

Miners reject arbitration offer of operators. Operators formerly rejected offer of miners. The public stands to lose. Why not make all such differences subject to arbitration, or a decision from impartial interests?

The next conclave of Schriners will convene at Washington. Quite a jump from San Francisco to Washington. Is there no middle ground on which to light?

Another rail wage cut is due for today, and expected. It will probably come on schedule time.

Interest on Victory bonds ceases today. Farm money interest is off a little at the same time.

The capitol commission at Lincoln yesterday opened, read and rejected all bids for the first section of the new capitol building. Too high.

The McCumber tariff bill is having hard sledding even within its own party.

President Harding, according to the papers, is going to be boss for a while and make some of the things go his way—the ship subsidy, for instance.

You may go to sea and get a drink yet, until that question of how far prohibition extends is settled in court.

W. C. T. U. PICNIC— DRINK FURNISHED

Friday afternoon, the Wayne W. C. T. U. ladies and their families are to have a picnic at the city park in connection with their regular meeting. The press agents tells us that those who attend are expected to bring all of the eats they think they will need; but that the organization is going to supply the drinks, and plenty of it—pure and cold, is the announcement. If it rains the regular meeting will be held at the C. O. Mitchell home.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Rollie Haker was a visitor at Sioux City this week, going down Monday morning.

Miss Evelyn Unruh, of Columbus, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Dowling, returned home the last of the week, and Mrs. Dowling accompanied her as far as Norfolk.

The office of the Madison Star-Mall was struck by lightning, but no damage done except to burn out the fuses and break some of the lamps.

Last Thursday night lightning struck a pole of the telephone or light wires, and entered the V. A. Senter home, burning out the phone and some of the lamps. Several other homes in the vicinity suffered the same sort of a shock.

You must file before Sunday, if you want to get in the game this fall.

Wm. Buetow and family are planning to leave Friday for a visit at Sioux City, and possibly on to some points on a vacation trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rusmus, from Elkhorn were guests of Maybelle Andresen, who is employed at the Carhart Hardware store, over Sunday, returning home Monday.

Mrs. Dean Hanson from Concord was shopping at Wayne and visiting her home folks. Miss Helen, who is taking violin lessons here came with her and visited with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Buetow.

Miss Marion Preston left Wednesday morning to attend summer school at Boulder, Colorado. At Omaha she was to be met by Colla Potras, who was one of the Wayne teachers last year, and together they will attend the school.

J. H. Kemp and L. A. Fanske left the first of the week by auto on a fishing trip, with Brown lake, near Sally, Iowa, as their destination. At Sioux City they took C. Wells on board, and sped on their way. We hope they have the right kind of bait, and that the fish will almost climb into the boat to get it.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Milton came from Long Pine a few days ago to visit here at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Juhlin, while he is rallying from a recent serious illness. Wednesday they visited at Sioux City. It is their plan to leave soon for California, where he hopes to have the climate aid him in returning to health.

For a market for poultry, eggs and cream, remember Fortner.—adv.

James B. Edgell spent Sunday with home folks at Lyons. He tells that Lyons is one of the progressive towns in the matter of providing home attractions. They have a place for swimming, for boating in summer and a place for skating in the winter. At a point at the border of the town they are encouraging the growing of water lilies. Also have a pretty park.

The preachers are now trying to spread the glad story by radio. A number of churches are supplied with sending sets, and the preacher never knows how many or who may be listening. He might step on some one's toes, and never know it—but not many of the preachers say anything in these days that gets under the hide enough to really hurt. The Presbyterian church at Omaha has an equipment.

The man who was out collecting from the public in the name of the Father Flanagan school, without authority, and without turning his collections over to the proper authorities, was sentenced to 60 days in jail at Columbus. We have had a number of crippled beggars at Wayne in the past week, and they seemed able to dress pretty well, and pay the high price of railroad tickets, for they came and went on the plush cushions.

W. C. Fox, who has served a long apprenticeship in a garage has opened a shop this week in the Grainland Highway garage a block west of Main street on 1st street, and asks you to tell your car troubles to him. He feels that he can make them right in prompt order. This little garage is not oversized, but it is well equipped, and he does not expect to have to turn down any ordinary job because it cannot be handled there. Read his announcement.

Take your cream, eggs and poultry to Kearns.—adv. tf.

This Nebraska country is too hot or too cold to please some people the year around. So Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Jacobs left Monday for Portland, Maine, where they spend their summers. When it begins to get too cold there, they come to Wayne, visit their friends, and look after their home a little while, attend to any business that may need their attention, and as the cold begins to pinch a bit here, they depart for southern California, and escape the winter by tarrying there until about the first of May.

Early Garden, is what we would call the one planted and tended by John Morgan. Mr. Morgan dug new potatoes and picked a mess of peas from his garden for last Sunday dinner. The spuds were size of a large hen egg, and enough in a hill to assure a good crop when this last rain has had time to swell the little ones. Tuesday morning he had from his digging for dinner that day a potato as large as a goose egg, and he said that two weeks now will easily double the size of every potato he has growing, and that means a good crop. Mr. Morgan has the preliminary work done for a pretty flower garden on the corner where he lives. Last year he had a fine corner, and this season, profiting by the mistakes in arrangement last season, he expects to have one better than last year.

There are bad men and desperate ones in the world these days, and a few of them come to Nebraska, or perhaps belong here. This week some one secreted himself near the road between Stanton and Norfolk, and took a shot at every car passing along that way, for two hours. Five cars reached Stanton with marks of his gun. No one was injured, but there was some close calls. A man hunt was inaugurated, but no one caught that we can hear of.

CHEER-UP

Rehearsals for the Bock Producing Company's big production of "Cheer-up" are being held every afternoon and evening at the Community House. Mr. Coe, the director arrived Monday morning and an enthusiastic crowd was on hand for the first rehearsal Monday evening, in spite of the heavy thunderstorm and rain. Much interest was manifested in try-out for the various song and dance numbers and practically all parts have been assigned.

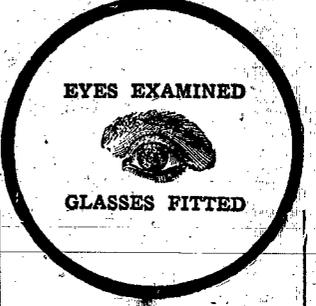

For the benefit of those who have not yet been informed, "Cheer-Up" is a big musical revue, which is to be staged at the Community House, June 22 and 23, under the direction of the Bock Producing Company for the benefit of the Wayne Woman's Club. The show is made up entirely of local talent with a cast of about 150 people. It is a variety production combining snappy music, song and dance, with eccentric specialties and comedy situations. Mirth and pathos, gaiety and soulfulness travel hand in hand throughout the program, making a splendid versatile evening, which satisfies the most exacting. There are elaborate stage settings and electrical effect such as are seldom seen in amateur productions.

The party in power has much to answer for—especially when they use that power for political ends.

A shoe dealer in Madison had a contest as to which woman of that place had the most perfect foot, and about 120 entered the contest. One woman received a $3.00 pair of silk stockings for the most perfect foot, and the dealer is trying to square himself with the other 119 women by saying in the paper that one was a close contestant, and that the winning foot was not nearly perfect, and that many of the contestants had excellent understanding.

RED CROWN GASOLINE

Why you will prefer Balanced Gasoline

QUICK starts, plenty of power, big mileage and a minimum of carbon are results you want from your motor fuel. You can only get them all when you use balanced gasoline.

Volatility at all temperatures is not enough. Besides the fractions that vaporize at low temperatures, gasoline should have a proper proportion of other petroleum fractions in order to provide maximum power and mileage. These heavier fractions should not lower the flame speed enough to reduce pressure development or prevent clean, complete combustion.

Such a balanced motor fuel is Red Crown Gasoline. It is carefully refined—certified to meet all U. S. Government specifications. Its use is your best guarantee of dependable, economical power.

Drive in where you see the Red Crown sign. Wherever you go you can get Red Crown Gasoline. Wherever you buy Red Crown Gasoline you get properly balanced motor fuel.

WAYNE RESPONSIBILITY TO THE STUDENTS

In our summer school there are registered this year 900 or more students of whom over 500 girls are living in residences down town. Therefore, since only 210 can be accommodated in dormitories, the majority of our girls are under the supervision of the women in whose homes they are rooming, and a great responsibility as to the conduct of the students rests with them. We have adopted a set of rules, printed below, a copy of which has been mailed to every house where girls are rooming. Failure to observe rules should be reported at once, and failure to report means lack of cooperation, without which we will be unable to maintain as high a standard of conduct as we desire.

In the past we have heard some criticism as to the conduct of some of our students but we wonder how much the public realizes that many of these misdemeanors such as "fail-

4. All students must be at their respective rooming places at 10 p. m. on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings and callers must not stay later than that hour. Normal school functions are justifiable exceptions to this rule. If a student wishes to be out later than ten o'clock she may do so only with the approval of the Dean of Women.

FACULTY RECEPTION GIVEN FOR STUDENTS

Semi-annual Function Held Last Thursday Evening

(From The Goldenrod) "The time has come the walrus said, but it really was not a walrus. It was Dr. House who said that the time had come for the annual summer Faculty Student reception.

Elaborate plans had been made to have the reception on the college campus. Myriads of lights had been strung between the trees in readiness for the evening. Everything had been provided and prepared for an open air entertainment.

But, "the best laid plans of mice and men gang off a-gley", as we all know! The great god Thor, or whoever it is who manages such things, took matters into his own hands so to speak. A pale yellow light, a sinister light, was followed by thunder and lightning and sprinklings of rain. The great black cloud gave promise of a drenching downpour. The idea of an open air reception was abandoned. Plans had to be hastily rearranged. The affair was given "in reverse" as someone remarked.

One would never have known that everything was not as it had been planned, however, for things went along with a seeming studied smooth serenity.

Besides the interesting speech that he gave, Dr. House, being chairman of the entertainment in the auditorium, amusingly introduced Mr. Conn and the orchestra.

Mr. Conn, who by the way, is Dr. Conn now, made a very worthwhile speech that made one feel as if he were being talked to directly. He said he believed in eliminating all preliminaries and getting to work. He also said that students often feel that they hold too important a position in the home to allow them to go away to school. When he first left home to go to school, he said, he wondered if "the old horse and the dog and the rest of the folks" would miss him, if they could get along without him. When he returned everything was much as it had been when he had left. He added that this usually was the case. Mr. Conn graciously gave full credit to the faculty for their admirable cooperation and help.

The orchestra was directed by Mr. Hunter and gave the following selections:

- Night Errant March ----- King
- Moonlight ----- Conrad
- Iron Count Overture ----- King
- Vanquished Democracy March --
- Wang Wang Blues

Everyone enjoyed the music as was evidenced by the loud applause after each selection.

In his speech, Dr. House confessed that he liked to feel like an autocrat twice a year, the annual reception being the occasions. He said he felt that now he was entitled to be called a veteran, having been here twelve years. He recalled the early days of the school and observed how much younger and more beautiful the women of the faculty are now, what "hail fellows" the men of the faculty have become. But he went on to say, the improvement that was the most marked was in the students themselves. "When the new students first come in one can tell by merely looking at them that they are young people with ideas and aspirations," he said.

The faculty adjourned to form the receiving line in the main hall. After they had gone Dr. House announced that there would be something to drink in the gymnasium for us after we had gone down the line. Someone in the balcony leaped to his feet and started for the door. It was supposed that he was on his way to the gymnasium, so he was called back to wait until we were all dismissed, that we might all have a fair chance.

The receiving line began at the foot of the stairs and extended to the east door. Everyone felt very jolly and pleasant so it was no ordeal, rather a genuine pleasure to meet the various members of the faculty, as it was for the faculty members to meet the students.

There were prettily arranged tables around the gymnasium where punch was served from punch bowls banked with roses, sweet peas and peonies.

One might say in summary that the rain really added to the enjoyment of the evening. It provided a topic for conversation when all others failed; but that is not a good word, nothing failed. It was all a huge success.

WHERE SOME OF THE FACULTY SPENT THEIR VACATIONS

(From The Goldenrod) Miss Jessie Jenks visited for the vacation week with her sister and family at Ames, Iowa.

Miss Edith Stocking and Miss Alwine Luers visited at their homes in North Bend and Columbus, respectively.

Miss Clara Smothers spent Saturday and Sunday in Sioux City and in South Sioux City.

Prof. John Gray spent the vacation in Omaha and Lincoln.

Miss Elizabeth Bettocher visited friends in Lincoln.

Miss Gladys Kline visited in South Sioux City and Miss Mamie McCorkindale in Wakefield with home folks.

Miss Louise Wendt visited in Ames, Iowa, from Wednesday to Sunday with friends where she was a student last year.

Prof. I. H. Britell visited wireless stations in Omaha, Wahoo and Lincoln.

Prof. E. E. Lackey and family went by automobile to Kimball County where they own a farm. They also visited relatives in the western part of the state.

Professors Chinn and Hunter played in an "invitation golf" tourney at O'Neill on Monday and Tuesday. Both men qualified for the championship flight and made commendable showings.

Miss Minnie Marquardt spent the vacation with her sister in Stanton.

Miss Marie Scheinflug visited with home folks at Boscebel, Wisconsin.

Prof. O. R. Bowen delivered the commencement address at Emerson recently, on the subject "Our Chief Business." The address was especially well received. The statement, "Not educating my boys so that they will have to work less hard than I did but to work harder or at least to accomplish more" was one which gave to many a different idea of education.

SCHOOL HONORED BY GIFT FROM MRS. NEIHARDT

Bust of the Poet Presented to the College By His Mother, Mrs. Alice Neihardt.

(From The Goldenrod) The bust of John G. Neihardt, gift to the Teachers College by the poet's mother, Mrs. Alice Neihardt, and the work of his wife, Mrs. Mona Martin-Neihardt, will be unveiled on the forenoon of June 16, 1922, the day of the annual home-coming of the alumni. The donor of this gift lived for many years in Wayne. Here she watched over the youthful days of the future poet and saw the beginnings of his greatness. Here she made many friends, many of whom yet live in this village, and was deeply interested in the institution which she now so graciously remembers.

The talented woman who made the bust was once a pupil of the great Rodin and exhibited in the Paris Salon. One has but to look at the sculptured features of this work to know that not only the love of the wife but likewise the skill and cunning of the artist have gone into its making.

It is fitting that, in this institution of all places, should be found the bust of the Poet. Here where he lived his eager boyhood, discovered the world of beauty, dreamed his great dreams and began his creative endeavor is the place where his likeness should stand till the material of which it is formed shall have crumbled. Of all great days in the history of Wayne none is likely to be so long remembered as this sixteenth day of June, 1922, and the town and the College feel a profound appreciation of the significance of the occasion.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order of sale made and entered on the 12th day of May 1922 in the above entitled proceedings, I will on the 19th day of June 1922, at the hour of two o'clock P. M. offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the entire right, title and interest belonging to the estate of Paul Brueckner, bankrupt in and to the said Northeast Quarter (NE 1/4) of section Thirty-Six (36), Township Twenty Five (25) North, Range (1) One, East and the Southwest Quarter (SW 1/4) of Section Thirty, (30), Township Twenty Five (25) North, Range Two, (2) East, all in Wayne County, Nebraska.

Said sale will be held on the land first hereinbefore described.

Said tracts or parcels will be offered separately and then together and the highest bid or bids as the case may be will be reported to the court for confirmation.

Said sale will be subject to all liens which are prior or superior to the interest of the trustee in said real estate.

Said sale will be kept open for one hour.

Dated this 15th day of May 1922.

W. B. Rice, Trustee.

Helen—"Meet you tonight, same place, seven o'clock."

Howard—"Right! What time will you be there?"

Helen F.—"I want to buy a fashionable skirt."

Saleslady—"Yes, miss—will you have it too tight or too short?"

ure to observe the ten o'clock rule and "absence from rooming places without permission" have not been called to our notice and so have recurred again and again without reprimand or disciplining.

On the other hand the success of our school has depended on the cooperation we have received from the majority of the women who have the interest of our school at heart, as much as do the members of the faculty. The responsibility that rests upon the people of Wayne is much greater than many realize and the success and future of our school depends not only on the faculty and management but upon every citizen of Wayne.

Elsie Ford Piper
Dean of Women

The following rules and suggestions are intended to assist in securing the cooperation of Wayne State Teachers College students rooming in private homes and of those who take roomers.

1. Rooms must not be rented to

7. A room suitable for receiving callers should be accessible to students, as under no circumstances must a young woman entertain a young man in her room.

8. During the summer session Miss Elsie Ford Piper will be Dean of Women. One of these ladies will call occasionally and will be pleased to render any needed assistance.

9. Any unbecoming conduct upon the part of the student roomer, or any failure to observe the foregoing rules, should be promptly reported to Miss Piper or to the Normal School office.

BASEBALL SUNDAY AND SUNDAY

Last Sunday Wayne won a well fought game from Pilger, the score being 5 to 11 in favor of Wayne. Next Sunday Wayne is to play Wakefield at that place and they tell us that Wakefield has a team that will make it interesting for the Wayne nine. There was a large attendance at the game here last Sunday, the gate receipts amounting to near the $200 mark.

Several of the powers are preparing to ratify the naval treaty. Has any one discovered what our senate will do about it? It is in their power to make or break-rule or ruin, perhaps, as they did so far as the United States is concerned, with the treaty three years ago.

New York in the vicinity of the city was struck by a high wind, which attained a velocity of 80 miles per hour, and many were killed. It is known that nearly forty were drowned in Long Island sound, many pleasure boats and skiffs being caught in the storm. The death list may reach an hundred.

Congress is now at work on the new tariff bill, which is a booster. The special interests who have written their particular schedules for their special benefit are urging its early passage—and the congressmen who want to be elected again are afraid to push the measure. It may mean political death to them.

SCHOOL BOARDS MET SATURDAY

Last Saturday representatives of just about one-fourth of the schools of the county met at the court house to see what could be done about reducing taxes, and the burden of the talk was to reduce the salary of the teacher. Of course, teacher salary is the big item in school costs—but if the school gets the teacher worthy of the place, the salary is a small item—that is the difference in salary between a competent teacher and one not so competent is a little thing. Results is what should measure the salary, not the inclination of patrons to reduce taxes.

It was a million dollar rain all right at Wayne Friday. It was more than that twenty miles northwest. It came down too fast and too much. Took out some bridges on the small streams, flooded fields, and hay and pasture lands, washed some of the hillsides, and buried bridges and the approaches to them beneath the water along some of the bottom roads. It took out some railroad track not far from Coleridge, and filled Dog creek bank full north of Wayne.
The women of America have asked for and been granted a great responsibility. They asked for the ballot, and it has been given them—and it is and was right that they should have it. Now it will soon be time for them to vote. First upon the selection of candidates—later upon the election of the men best fitted, and who stand for the best policies, as the voter believes. This will mean that public questions should be studied—that candidates should be known. Party prejudices should cut but little ice—look rather to party principles and how they have been lived up to; how well you may expect them to be followed, judging the future by the past. There is plenty of need for every citizen to carefully study government—the government under which we live. It is what we have made it—it will be what we make it. It is strictly up to the citizens. Their power is supreme. Do your full duty in peace as in war. Patriotism is as desirable in peace as in war.

A scientist is working out a scheme for perpetual life. It is some sort of a grafting process, according to the story of the surgeon, who is an Englishman, living in London. That makes one wonder the more—why one living in London should try to live always, unless it was because of the graft he expects from working those who are afraid to meet the consequences in the hereafter of the deeds done here. Take a fellow who believed hell, and knew that he was entitled to go there, he might submit to a pretty heavy tax to save his bacon—or baking.
Otto Mutz of Lincoln, who wears the title of ex-senator, in a speech before the tax reduction meeting at North Platte, made some startling statements as to why taxes are so high for some people in this state. It is largely because so much of the property escapes taxation entirely; either by exemption laws (which he says are wrong) and by those with short memory while in the presence of the assessor. He stated that $1,963,432 had been listed with the assessors, as shown by the records of the county clerks, and $140,000,000 had been filed in new mortgages. He said that senate file No. 65, known as the revenue law exempted more than $2,000,000,000 of the best property in Nebraska from taxation, and that law is in effect at this time. Then he asks why a $20,000 farm should be assessed for $20,000, when if it is converted into cash it is only assessed at one-fourth what the land would have to pay. More than a half a billion of real estate mortgages are exempt from taxation in this state, he said; and in his opinion it is time to make the dollar and the mortgage assessment stand on an equality before the law with other property. It was also one of his claims that there is more merchandise in two Nebraska counties than is returned to the assessors in the entire state. When such charges go unchallenged, it is time for the people to wake up and see that all are given a square deal.

Where Your Taxes Go

How Uncle Sam Spends Your Money in Conducting Your Business

REMEDY IN YOUR HANDS

I have been asked many times, and particularly since this series began: "What is the remedy for the condition and situation of government business that you have described? What can we, the average man or woman without influence, and with no knowledge of politics, what can we do about it?"

Well, the answer is that you can do everything about it. The remedy lies wholly within your own hands, as I have tried to point out in each one of the articles that have preceded this one. It is a remedy easy to prescribe but, I confess, difficult to put into effect.

Difficult, I mean, in the sense that you will have to give up time from your own engrossing private affairs to pay some attention to what you probably think of as public affairs and, as such, not concerning you. The whole point I have to make is that public affairs are your affairs.

I do not suggest that you go into politics. I do not suggest that you attend political meetings. I do suggest that you take an interest, a direct personal interest, in the business of government as distinguished from the politics of government.

A part of the remedy you ask for the conduct of the business of government has been applied when the facts and the conditions are spread broadcast and made known to every taxpayer. Bad conditions are in a way to be remedied when they become known.

But some hundreds of you have written me and asked: "How can we help? What can we do?" Let's take a concrete case.

Congress has committed itself to the policy of building twenty first-class battleships in the next few years. Armed and equipped, those battleships will cost in the neighborhood of $45,000,000 each. That will make a total cost of $900,000,000; that is, just short of a billion dollars.

Do you approve that expenditure? Do you think it wise and necessary? Do you think we ought to spend our money that way? Do you think we ought to spend 80 or 90 per cent of our total national income for wars, past, present and prospective? That is what we are doing. If you approve of it you have only to sit still and say nothing. If you disapprove of it, let your congressman know.

You live in a congressional district and every two years you send a man here to Washington to attend to your public business. Do you know him? Do you know what he is doing here? Your state has two senators, who also represent you here. If they do not represent you fairly, you can keep them at home. Whatever a majority of you want you can have.

To this moment a majority have approved, at least by silence, the great military expenditures that have been made from the money you have paid in taxes. If now you have come to the conclusion that it is too much, you have only to say so.

Do you realize that this

VISIT AFTER 38 YEARS OF SEPARATION

Last week was one of real pleasure for Mrs. Christina Vennerberg of the neighborhood north of Wayne, for the time was spent visiting with her brother, Adolph Anderson and wife of Minneapolis, whom she had not before seen for thirty-eight years. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson came last week Sunday for the visit with his sister, and at the home of John Vennerberg and Arthur Carlson. They also came to attend the wedding of a nephew, the Allgün-Ireland wedding.

A MAN CAME TO WAYNE

From a neighboring town one day within a week came a man and two women to Wayne, and while their real mission was for the pleasant drive and bit of petty shopping, they decided to look over some of the offerings in dresses here, instead of going to a city, as they had evidently fully intended to do. They were convinced after looking about here a bit, that it would be a waste of time to visit any other city in hope of finding that which pleased them better or of saving on the purchase price, unless they accepted inferior quality in the city. They brought here, some people go to Sioux City or some other point and look and return to Wayne to make their purchase. It is worth the cost of a trip lots of times to be sure you are satisfied. Others visit a city and purchase and come home sorry that they ever went on such a mission. The moral is "Buy it at Wayne."

SCHOOL COSTS

Superintendent Gates of the Columbia schools, who has been called to Grand Island for next year, has written an article on taxes and schools, bringing the idea into prominence that if the schools are properly planned and managed they will do so much good that the lightest community in the state cannot afford to cut down their cost enough to interfere with their efficiency. If the schools have been operated on a business basis, have not gone to seed on fads, and have added new work only in accordance with the needs and approval of the community, then he is doubtful if any can be eliminated without taking a backward step. That is to say, the mere fact that schools are costing more than they did once does not necessarily condemn them. One of Mr. Gates' paragraphs is worth repeating: "Whatever a community needs, it is going to pay for whether it gets it or not. I know a man with several decayed teeth in his mouth. He has not visited a dentist because of the expense and now the ill health which they cause has seriously interfered with his work and has cut down his earning power. A community may prefer bad roads to the expense of providing good roads, but when it takes twice as many horses to haul half the load on the poor road that it takes on a good one, the community is paying for it just the same. Are the Nebraska schools suffering from a multiplicity of fads and fads? It is a fair question. Mr. Gates answers it with the statement that more useless things will be found in any store in the community than in the schools. Where attempts have been made to weed out the fads the protests of the patrons indicate that they have already become necessities. Here is in fact one of the troubles of the whole school system. It is becoming increasingly expensive because children are the most precious possessions of the average citizen, and nothing that really helps in their mental and physical and moral development can be omitted once it has demonstrated its usefulness. For this reason it may be that all hope of materially reducing school taxes must be set down as an iridescent dream."

WISHES THE SECRET OF DISCONTENT

"Man wants but little here below Nor wants that little long." "Tis not with me exactly so, But 'tis so in the song. My wants are many, and it told, Would master wish a score; And were each wish a mine of gold, I still should long for more." —John Quincy Adams.

THE CUT IN FREIGHT RATES

The Interstate Commerce Commission has ordered a ten per cent cut in railway freight schedules. It is not very great concession to public demand, but it is something. That the result will be an increase in net earnings by the roads would not be strange, since any increase of business can be accommodated without increase of expense. The cut, however, is not deep enough. The claim to returns on investment is extravagant, for investment actually is smaller than capitalization. It is estimated that about one-half of the capitalization of the railroads of the country is water. That can best be determined by a careful estimate of the cost of physical reproduction. It is known that the big transcontinental lines were built more to enrich the projectors than for public service at reasonable rates. It is also known that in other ways the manipulators of railroads have used them more for stock-jobbing than for their legitimate purpose, and that "Big Business" is the profiteer. The values in shares held by small holders vary, but rarely will a case be found where the investment has been at par. A small holder of stock bought at say half its face value is an clamorous for full returns on his investment—six per cent on its face value—as if it had cost him the full amount. The effect on the labor situation remains to be seen. It should have none. The addition of one car of freight to each train, either in local or through service, will take care of ten per cent cut and the entire wage cost of the train. This can be demonstrated by taking the charges for carrying one extra car for the distance run; the cut in former rate and wage cost of that car. Take from the earnings the two latter items, and the net remainder will be larger than many would imagine. The action of the Interstate Commerce Commission is praised, but if it had been taken a year ago, whatever benefit it may show would have been proved by this time. But a year ago the commission was of the opinion that rates must be higher or the railroads would lose money. Even later voluntary reductions in some classes were denied permission. LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Edna Cross, who has been here visiting at the Harry Barnett home for a time, left Friday for her home at Climbing Hill, Iowa. She formerly lived at Anthon. Small buildings were upset and blown to pieces in a small tornado at O'Neill last Friday. The wind spent its force between local showers; and considerable damage was done by rain and storm.

The State Journal is responsible for the statement that the democrat dries are not especially anxious to have Senator Hitchcock remain at Washington as senator from this state, and they have induced J. O. Shroyer of Richardson county, a farm leader, to enter the campaign for the nomination.

There were enough democrats in the county to hold a meeting of the county central committee at the court house Saturday afternoon, proving that they are not yet all dead. In fact, we believe that when the votes are in this fall there will be no lack of democrats to make it an interesting story for those who read the election returns.

No, the judge—the federal judge, we mean, did not convict the fellow of using the mails to defraud the public in selling oil stock for prospects that contained no oil, though the evidence was quite conclusive. When asked for a reason, he said that he did not want to establish a precedent that would enable the courts to convict the entire management of the republican party of using the mails illegally.

Harry Lamb, aged 24, and a soldier of the late war was drowned in the Elkhorn at Arlington last week. With others he had gone swimming in the river, and stepped off from a sandbar into deep water, and the body failed to rise again. Lamb was able to swim, but it said that he never ventured into deep water. Walter Echtenkamp, who was working near went to the rescue and finally brought the body up after diving a number of times. Lamb had been down under more than a half hour, and could not be resuscitated.

Edgar Howard makes the claim in his editorial column that the Burlington road made a profit of 23.10 percent on all of the legitimate capital invested in the road; and when some one claims that he is wrong, and that the stock of the company has been greatly increased recently, Editor Howard admits that if they count the stock dividend they had voted themselves to keep the dividend percentage down, apparently; the Telegram man still asserts that the Burlington paid a net profit of 15.90 percent. Of course Brother Howard does not seem to be able to account for it. We think we have solved the question. The Burlington advertises for business. We notice their advertising matter in practically every local paper along their line. Beyond a doubt the "Omaha" line that ambles through this rich corner of Nebraska could issue stock dividends and show better profits if they would do a bit of intelligent newspaper advertising.

LIGHTNING STRIKES NEW BARN

The new barn about completed by Chas. Roggenbach, near Altona, was hit by a lightning bolt during the storm Friday night, and racked and splintered up a bit, but did not catch fire, so it was a lucky way to escape. The damage was slight.

We will be closed all day July Fourth. Theobald-Horney Lumber Co. Carhart Lumber Co. C. H. Fisher. adv. 2c.

ENROLLMENT EXCEEDS ALL FORMER RECORDS

(From The Goldenrod) The enrollment to date exceeds that of any other summer session since the founding of the school. It is expected that when registration is complete the total enrollment will be well over nine hundred. A departure has been made from the old plan of giving a full semester's work of each subject during the summer session. Hereafter with few exceptions the five hour subjects will be divided into two sections, one being given one summer, the other the next. This plan has the advantage of making two recitations a day in each subject unnecessary, and at the same time increasing the number of courses it is possible to offer. This, it is believed, will greatly increase the usefulness of the summer school.

Each year the number of alumni who come back to take advanced work becomes larger. Among the seventy alumni now in attendance the members of the class of '22 are most numerous but all classes since 1916 are represented. The list of alumni now in attendance is as follows: —(22)

RADIO DEVELOPMENT

(From The Goldenrod) The interest in radio reception and in the radiophone in particular has grown beyond all expectations during the past year and mostly during the last six months of the year. This is the result of the installation of a few large radiophone sending sets by some of the large Electrical Companies whose splendid concerts have been heard in thousands of homes, miles from the stations, broadcasting the choice selections by the best of our artists. As a result it is now considered very progressive for commercial clubs, public schools, colleges and private individuals to install receiving sets; many have also installed sending sets. Communities are inclined to make very extravagant claims when a radio receiving set has been installed in their locality. These claims are often misleading and add nothing to the prestige of the community for progressiveness.

The Wayne state teachers college has had a licensed radio station during the past eight years. Prof. I. H. Britell, the head of the physical science department has held an operator's license since 1915. Professor Chinn and Mr. Earl Schroer of the department are both able radio men. With these men the radio game is science work of the school. During the past two years they have had a radio club of 150 members in which a course in radio reception is studied. The school grants one hour credit to those becoming able to receive at the rate of twelve words per minute. Thirty-eight members have earned this credit. Those receiving this credit this year are Charles Sheets, Elgin; Cedric Anderson, Wausa; Lyle Mabbott, Wayne; Grant McEachen, Wayne; Howard McEachen, Wayne; F. Irwin Moses, Wayne; Arthur Southwick, Norfolk; George DeKay, Wausa; Mildred Bacon, Wisner; Lloyd West, Wisner; Claude Welch, Stanton; Archie Schultz, Clarkson; C. Stewart

Johnson, Oakland, and Catherine

Morse, Wisner. The college radiophone has been heard 250 miles from Wayne and the spark set has a daylight range of 300 miles. The two steel towers just erected are ninety-five feet high and 100 feet from center to center. This equipment made possible a new departure in the construction of the antenna. A caged antenna consisting of eight copper wires 80 feet long formed about copper hoops eighteen inches in diameter takes the place of the usual flat top aerial. Instead of a ground a counterpoise of twenty-one wires is used spaced one foot apart, placed about ten feet from the ground. This new system has increased the range of the station to twice its former distance. Professor Britell was able to send a message to his daughter who teaches in a high school in West Bend, Wisconsin, air line 500 miles, thru a rather heavy static interference. During the winter months this station will reach both coasts and from the Gulf to Canada. Such sending stations must not be confused with the many small receiving stations being installed in most of our schools and many of our homes. It is the purpose of the men in this department of the college to render service to all radio enthusiasts in this section of the country and to prepare teachers to instruct in radio reception, transmission and construction of effective receiving sets.

DOES EDUCATION PAY?

Does education pay? The answer is yes. The increased numbers of students enrolling in colleges each year proves that this fact is becoming recognized and appreciated more and more. As civilization advances and life becomes more complex, more special training is needed before young people are prepared to make a living for themselves. The age of entering upon business and professions life is therefore from five to ten years later than it was fifty years ago. It follows then that each individual should devote a longer period of time to his educational life than was required of his forefathers, if he is to meet the conditions of an ever changing society. Statistics show that in America, out of five million men with no schooling, only 31 attained distinction; out of 33 million with elementary schooling, 808 attained distinction, out of 2 million with high school education, 1,245 attained distinction, and out of 1 million with college education, 5,768 attained distinction. These figures show that the child who receives no education has only one chance in 150,000 of performing distinguished service; with elementary education he has four times the chance; with high school education, 37 times the chance; and with college education, 800 times the chance. It not only pays the individual to continue his education as long as possible for the money value it will have for him, but it pays the state to educate as well, for education increases productive power. In Massachusetts the average person goes to school seven years; in Tennessee the average person goes to school three years. In Massachusetts the average production is $200 per capita, per year; in Tennessee $116 per capita, per year. In the United States as a whole the average college graduate earns $2000.00 per year, the average high school graduate $1000.00, the average elementary school graduate $500.00. Each day spent in high school is worth $25.00 to each pupil, each day spent in college, $55.55. This is more than the average boy or girl can earn by leaving school and going to work. Only one in a hundred of our people is a college graduate, yet 36 per cent of every 100 Congressmen are college graduates, while 50 per cent of our presidents, 54 per cent of our vice-presidents, 69 per cent of our supreme judges and 87 per cent of our attorneys-general have had a college education. There is a book called, "Who's who in America" This book contains the names of persons who are well known because of their good works. The person who cannot read and write has one chance in 150,000 of getting his name into this book; the grammar school graduate one in grammar school graduates one in 1,600; the college graduates one in 180, and the honor student in college one in three. In the face of all the facts, who can say that education does not pay?

OPENING OF THE SUMMER SESSION

(From The Goldenrod) On Saturday, June 3 registration began for the summer session of the Wayne State Normal School. As early as Friday students were arriving in order to secure accommodations during the term. A few had been foresighted enough to make their arrangements by correspondence during the early spring. Others procrastinated until the last moment and so were confronted by difficulties. Travel-stained students, with suit cases in hand, were to be seen at various places enquiring for rooms. Our numbers have largely increased since the last semester, and the resources of the community were severely taxed. Those of us who have attended the school during the past year and are familiar with rules, regulations and curriculum, and know the town may help these new comers to adjust themselves to their surroundings. During these early days we frequently meet some one much perplexed in regard to location, conflict of classes, practise periods or some other obstacle. It is easy for those who are familiar with the contingencies arising at such a time to see the possibility of clearing the situation and it is our duty as worthy students to gladly give any aid we can. We are here with idea in mind of educating ourselves. The aim of education is to fit the individual to hold a useful and serviceable position socially, by developing all his desirable capacities and abilities and inhibiting the undesirable qualities and to inspire him to be willing to use his powers for the common good. Let us welcome all former students who have returned to the Normal for study and also the new students who have come to us and may we all strive to spend a happy summer together.

DENMARK MAY FOLLOW U. S. IN BOY AND GIRL CLUB WORK

Although agricultural extension methods are older in Denmark than in the United States, work with boys and girls as conducted by the United States department of agriculture in cooperation with state agricultural colleges has not been organized there. A plan however, is being considered for forming similar clubs, says S. Sorensen, agricultural advisor attached to the Danish Legation at Washington. At present the work in Denmark is for people from 18 to 70 years.

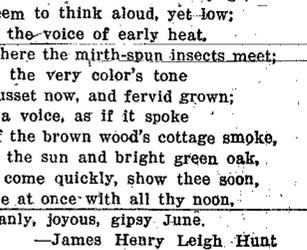

TO JUNE

May's a word 'tis sweet to hear, Laughter of the budding year; Sweet it is to start and say On May mornings, "This is May!" But there also breaths a tune, Here it—in the sound of "June." June's a month and June's a name, Never yet hath had its fame, Summer's in the sound of June, Summer and a deepened tune Of the bees and of the birds And of lottering lover's words, And the brooks that as they go, Seem to think aloud, yet low; And the voice of early heat, Where the myrrh-spun insects meet; And the very color's tone Russet now, and fervid brown; All a voice, as if it spoke Of the brown wood's cottage smoke, And the sun and bright green oak, O come quickly, show thee soon, Come at once with all thy noon, Manly, joyous, gipsy June. —James Henry Leigh Hunt

NORTH HALL

Forty-six girls have entered North Hall to occupy its rooms during the summer session of school. Although first the rooms appeared very cheerless they are fast becoming more homelike. The remodeling of the hall and the new furnishings since last summer are certainly appreciated by all the girls of this hall.
