CITIZEN NATIONAL BANK CUTS ANOTHER MELON

Last week the assets of the Citizen National Bank had accumulated in legal tender to an extent that permitted the payment of a 10 percent dividend to depositors, and that is what is being paid as fast as the claims are being presented says the assistant receiver E. E. Ruzicki. This with the previous payments brings the depositors 80 percent of what was frozen in when the bank closed its doors.

DICK FANSKE WINS IN SUB-DISTRICT

"Every Pupil Contest," Sponsored by Emporia State College is Held Yesterday.

CHAS. TAYLOR WILL SPEAK HERE

The "Every Pupil Contest" sponsored by the Kansas State College of Emporia, Kansas, which was held yesterday was entered by the local school with the hope that much good would come from it in the way of a comparison in the rating with other schools of the middle states.

These contests have been held two times each year for the past three years and the last one which was held a short time ago was entered by hundreds of schools, indicating the popularity of the event.

It is believed by local teachers that it will go a long way toward giving them a check on Wayne's standing as compared with other schools of the middle states, in as much as it is quite generally entered.

Superintendent Taylor Here

State Superintendent Chas. Taylor will be in Wayne on April 19, at which time he will give an address at the school auditorium for the parents and friends who are interested.

M. C. Lefler, superintendent of the Lincoln schools, will give the Graduation address for the Wayne class on May 18.

The play "Not So Fast" has been selected as the senior class play and will be given during the last week of school.

Civics Class at Polls

The Civics class, accompanied by Prof. Maynard, visited the polls Tuesday and were instructed in voting and other technicalities of election.

All classes except the Kindergarten and the first and second grades have been resumed. Not many pupils are absent above these grades.

Dick Fanske, who was entered in the Extemporaneous section of the Declamatory contest held here Friday, was a winner in that group and will be entered in the District contest held at the local college on April 20.

H. V. CRONK PASSES FROM PARALYTIC STROKE WED.

A few days ago H. V. Cronk, for many years a resident of this part of Nebraska, suffered a stroke of paralysis, and was taken to the local hospital for care, but cure was impossible, and he passed away Wednesday afternoon, April 11, 1928, and the plans are for a funeral service from the Methodist church of this city Saturday, and burial will be at Pender, his former home.

Mr. Cronk was well along in years, and an energetic highly respected citizen. His obituary will be given next week.

LARSON-JORGENSEN

At Ewing, Friday, April 6, 1928, occurred the marriage of Leonard Larson of that place and Miss Eunice Jorgensen of Wausa.

The groom is a student at the State Normal school here, and is a senior due to receive his state certificate here next May. The bride was formerly a student here, but not attending this year. They plan to remain at Wayne during the remainder of the school year, and were seeking suitable rooms when the Democrat learned of the marriage.

County Pioneers of Winside Celebrate Their Sixty-Second Wedding Anniversary

Reported in the Best of Health in Spite of the Many Years of Active Life.

GUESTS PROVIDE THE DINNER

About twenty-five of the children, grandchildren and immediate relatives of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Oman helped them to celebrate their 62nd wedding anniversary this week. Of the seven children, one is dead and one son and one daughter in South Dakota were unable to be present.

Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Oman of Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. George Oman and children of Wakefield, Mrs. Martin Hansen and children from near Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Warnemunde and children of Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brader, William McMillan and Mr. and Mrs. William Benschopf. The guests provided a big dinner which was enjoyed by all. The afternoon was spent in visiting.

Mr. Oman is in his 82nd year and his wife is a few years his junior. They were both born in Pennsylvania, were married in 1866, came to Michigan in 1871 and to Iowa in 1875, later on moving to a Wayne county farm where they have lived continuously for forty-eight years. They moved to Winside from the farm about 13 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Oman have been quite active in church work, being among the founders of the Methodist church at Wayne and the country church at Brenna which was discontinued about two years ago. Mr. Oman has filled every official position held by a layman held in any local church. He is a student of the Bible and is thoroughly informed along religious lines. In politics he is an ardent and intelligent Democrat and takes a very active interest in state and national affairs but will not vote for Al Smith for president.

It would be difficult to find two people more active for their age or two folks who do more work than Mr. and Mrs. Oman. He has one of the largest and best gardens in town, has the finest flowers in the community and his many friends sincerely hope that he may be spared many years of activity and usefulness.

AMERICAN LEGION WILL NOT SPONSOR CELEBRATION

At the regular meeting of the American Legion held last Thursday evening the executive committee reported that they had found it advisable to abandon any idea of holding an Independence day celebration, after receiving a report of the committee selected to investigate that proposition.

A rising vote of thanks was extended the Auxiliary for the fine chairs that organization purchased for the parlors, and a letter of appreciation voted for Dean Hansen for a large Oak chair he gave the Legion.

It was voted to hold an open house, for all former members of the local post, at the next meeting when special entertainment will be provided. This is not to be a membership drive, but merely an old fashioned get-together affair to which it is hoped many will find it convenient to come.

—E. R. Love, Curtis Foster, Paul Mines and L. E. Robertson were selected to arrange a program for the special night.

The second Sunday in May has been designated as the day on which the necessary work at the La Porte cemetery will be done. At this time a steel fence, furnished by the county, will be put up.

LOCAL KIWANIS CLUB TO ENTERTAIN TONIGHT

The local Kiwanians will be hosts to a dinner and dance at the Community house tonight for their wives, when the Wayne Woman's club will serve the seven o'clock dinner, and a special program will be given.

Music for the occasion will be furnished by the high school orchestra. Miss Lura Belle Randolph, music director for the high school, will sing some songs.

J. Harwood Helme, district lieutenant governor for the Kiwanians, will give an address.

Following the program the evening will be spent at dancing and other social functions.

FLAG PRESENTED TO LEGION AUXILIARY

U. S. Flag That Floated Over Relief Headquarters in Russia is Presented to Auxiliary.

PRESENTED BY WM. ASSENHEIMER

The flag which first floated over the quarters of Wm. Assenheimer, captain of the home guards of the Altona district during the World war, and which later was sent to Tracy Kohl, who was a Director of Relief Work in Russia, and was brought back with him and recently returned to Mr. Assenheimer as a keepsake has been presented to the local American Legion Auxiliary by him.

The flag was used during the war by Mr. Assenheimer, and after the war, was sent to Tracy Kohl, director of relief, who had been transferred from Vienna to Moscow, Russia, and later to Sevastopol, in the Crimea on the Black sea, adjacent to the historic battlefield Balaklava.

Here, as the official U. S. Standard, it floated over the Administration building of the U. S. Relief Director Tracy Kohl during his stay.

Mr. Kohl was in charge of this office in administering relief to the poverty and plague stricken inhabitants for several months after the war ended.

The following year he returned via Constantinople, Athens, Confu, Venice, Rome and London and brought the flag with him, which he gave to his mother. Recently she returned it to the original owner, Mr. Assenheimer, as a keepsake.

Mr. Assenheimer has presented the flag to the Auxiliary believing that organization to be the proper one to preserve it.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Wm. Assenheimer, Spanish War veteran, has received announcement of, and invitation to attend, the celebration of the anniversary of the declaration of the Spanish American war at Lincoln on April 22, which is called "Annual Muster Day."

Major General Harry Smith of Omaha, commander of the seventh corps area, will be the principal speaker of the day on the topic, "Our National Defense."

The exercises will be under the auspices of William Lewis Camp No. 2, Department of Nebraska, and the ceremonies will include bugle calls and advancing of the colors by a squad in blue uniforms worn in service in '98. The oath of allegiance will be renewed.

Mr. Assenheimer, indicated that he would probably not find it convenient to attend the program.

The National Convention will be celebrated on the thirtieth anniversary of the winning of the war, and will be held in Cuba this fall, according to Mr. Assenheimer.

FRED MARTIN AND WIFE LOSE BARN AND CONTENTS BY FIRE

Word came to the Democrat this week that fire destroyed the barn and contents on the Fred H. Martin farm near Sidney, Iowa, the 13th. The origin of the fire is not known, and with the barn was lost three head of work horses, two sets of harness, 16 tons horse hay, 70 bales of straw and 300 bushels of corn.

There was no insurance except $750 on the barn, and nothing on the contents; but good friends in Sidney, where they had lived so long made up a purse of nearly $300 to help them bridge the loss as far as that would reach, an act which they greatly appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin lived near Wayne for a number of years, and last year moved to their home farm near Sidney during the winter. Many friends here will be sorry to learn of the misfortune that has overtaken them—but Mr. and Mrs. Martin seem to be of the class of people who ever keep their face toward the front and struggle on, tho' misfortune seem to smite them often in some unexpected form.

Mrs. Wm. Stewart, who has been on the sick list for a week, is reported to be much improved.

MR. AND MRS. AUKER HOME FROM CALIFORNIA VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Auker returned last week from a visit in California, where they have been spending the winters the past few seasons.

They report that the past winter was one of the most enjoyable they have experienced there so far as the weather is concerned.

Mr. Auker believes that Nebraska is about the best state in the Union and aside from a vacation prefers it to any other. The main difference, he says, is that they are great advertisers in California, while we Nebraskans seldom say anything about our fine state.

He referred to the defeat of the band as an indication of not recognizing the value of good advertising. There are bands everywhere out there he said.

The main interests of California are fruit, vegetables and "suckers," he said, mostly the latter.

J. C. SCHMALSTIEG PASSES THURSDAY

Succumbs to Languing Illness From Which He Had Suffered for Several Years.

RESIDENT HERE FOR 21 YEARS

At Norfolk, where the patient had been taken in a last effort, for relief Joseph Frances Schmalstieg died Thursday evening, April 5, 1928, as the result of a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Schmalstieg had been an invalid for more than seven years, gradually becoming worse as the years passed. In spite of his affliction he was a faithful worker, and an expert tailor, doing all manner of sewing as neatly as ever we saw.

He was born in 1875 at Leipsig, Germany, after coming to America he was married at Minneapolis, in 1898 to Mary Ellen Wall, who survives him besides two brothers and three sisters and four children most of whom were present at the funeral services which were held from the St. Mary's Catholic church, with Rev. Father Kearns saying high mass, Monday, April 8.

The pall bearers were Jas. Jno Pawelski, Wm. Andresen, Wm. Sharer Frank Thielman and J. C. Nuss, and burial was in Greenwood cemetery.

Among those from away, present at the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Quigley from Sioux Falls, South Dakota, L. H. Wagner and family from Hidden Lake, South Dakota, and Mary Schmalstieg of Des Moines, Iowa. Mr. Schmalstieg and wife came to Wayne in 1901, and have since made their home here much of the time, and had the respect of all who knew him.

MAIL VOTES REDUCE MARGIN OF BAND DEFEAT TO FOUR

Mail ballots counted at the regular meeting of the city council Tuesday evening reduced the margin of the vote on the band issue to four, and a check of the poll books failed to reveal any irregularities.

It has been indicated that a recount of the votes will be asked for, a representative of band boosters attending the meeting of the council intimated that they are desirous of learning whether or not any errors might have been made.

Although it is not held likely that a recount will alter the situation it would settle the dispute as to a possible chance of an error having been made. With the present margin of only four votes an error of three might be enough to change the situation.

HOTEL MOVEMENT HERE

For the past ten days between spells of freezing weather the work of excavating and pouring concrete for the foundation for the new hotel, has been progressing nicely, and today they begin laying tile for the structure.

Then up on Main street the work of wrecking the old Union hotel has been going forward, until there is now but little left standing of the old building, a part of which is to be used in the construction of a modern buxgalo by Mr. Box on West 2nd street the basement of which is dug, and foundation partially in.

Watch Wayne grow.

Carl Bose is at the hospital, with a fractured leg caused by being hit by a car on the streets of Wayne.

PRIMARY MAIL VOTE COUNTED TOMORROW

A. E. Bressler and Martin Ringer Selected to Assist County Clerk Canvass Votes.

CLOSE RACE AROUSES INTEREST

The county canvassing board, which consists of the county clerk and a member from each party selected by the county clerk will meet tomorrow at 10 o'clock for the purpose of canvassing the primary ballots.

Charles Reynolds, county clerk, has selected A. E. Bressler as the republican member and Martin Ringer as the democratic member of this board.

The mail ballots will be counted at this time of which there are eight in all, and equally divided between the two parties.

Much interest in the democratic ballots is caused by the close race of the candidates for state representative.

The present count gives Schellenberger a majority of three votes and it will require all four mail votes to turn the table in favor of the local candidate, Mr. Clyde Oman.

The mail ballots are reported to be from Wayne citizens, and therefore Mr. Oman is conceded a chance to gain all four.

SNOW BOUND IN FACT—A GENUINE BLOCKADE

That is what happened last Friday between Fremont and Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Judson and daughter Ruth left Wayne on a nice, clear morning bound for Omaha, where he had some business matters to look after, and where the wife and daughter were to meet the other daughters, Pauline and Doris, who came to the city from Inman, and thus the entire family spent the week-end with relatives in the city. All went well until near Fremont, when they were met by snow, which fell fast and driven by a rising wind. They kept going until at Elkhorn, about 40 minutes drive from Omaha, where they were blocked. Two buses had evidently met there, and in attempting to meet and pass each other they had tangled in the snow drifts and fast drifting snow until they were standing crossways of the road, occupying the graveled surface from gutter to gutter. There was no turn table and no backing out in the storm and drifting snow; nor was there any way to tell of their predicament without wading out, as telephone and telegraph wires were down. It was a waiting game, and the number in waiting increased from time to time as others struggled into the trap, thinking that there must be a way out. After hours of waiting, Mrs. Judson and daughter and other women waded to a farm house a quarter of a mile away. Relief finally came in the form of snow scraper pushed by a caterpillar tractor—their mission being to clear the track. When they came to the stranded buses, they hooked onto them and dragged them out to where they could navigate on their own power. This made a track thru the snow which enabled the cars on the pike to begin to crawl along. Mr. Judson had started his folks toward Omaha in a bus, but as he was fortunate enough to be one of the first out he soon caught up and took them on his own car to the city.

Many of the stranded cars were in the ditch, and the tractor had a busy time pulling them out on the pike. Most of the cars in the ditch got there trying to pass some other car that was stuck, and always landing in the ditch.

To be within such a short distance of the destination and then be held up by a blockade for hours was not very pleasant; but they had plenty of company in their waiting, as no less than a hundred people and perhaps twenty or more cars joined in the enforced wait. They reached Omaha at 3 o'clock a. m.

The storm, the heavy snow and the high wind, and the night advancing made it a time not to be forgotten or made light of, for it was a full-fledged blizzard, lacking only the very low temperature that accompanies them in the earlier winter to make it real death dealing storm.

Up in the Chalk Butte land of western South Dakota, according to the News of that place, the Farmer Union is strong—stronger than horse radish or mustard, up that way. Well there are not many farmers up that way to the section, but there are a lot of sections, and they will all help some in breaking the deadlock of the east on the west—if only they work and push and pull together.

It did not take quite so much of a strain on the community to supply a full election board this year in each precinct, the legislature having decided that with two to receive ballots and two to record them the work may be as well done and for less money. The counting boards are also each two short of the last election half dozen. That's right give more voters a chance to work at some other occupation on election day.

Pilger, and some other places may need an awakening to the responsibilities of civic pride and citizenship. The Herald complains that it was pretty dead there for the village election. Only 84 votes cast, and but one ticket in the field. Yet they were right and alive on the band question, the community supporting their musicians, and the vote in favor of taxes to pay the fiddler were practically two to one in its favor.

Last week the school board at Emerson elected teachers for the next school year. E. P. Hodapp was elected for another year as superintendent. Looking over the list we noticed the following well known here named: E. E. Bruce, assistant principal; and Louise Adams as teacher of normal training. Perhaps there are others in the list of seventeen teachers, not known to the writer who belong at Wayne. Several of the present year instructors were elected but declined, in order to take what they considered more desirable.

Lyman Brown of Enfield, Massachusetts, who is now a student at Grinnell, Iowa, came to Wayne last Thursday to spend a part of the Easter vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Loomis. His mother and Mrs. Loomis were friends more than a quarter of a century ago when both were taking nurses training in the east, and the many years have passed since they met as young nurses they kept in touch with each other by correspondence. So when the young man had a week vacation and hardly time to visit home and return, he accepted an invitation to come on out and see a bit more of the west world and spend a few days at the home of his mother's old friend. WILL HELP

Not long ago we overheard a merchant berating the fact that the automobile and good roads were taking business to other towns some distance away. At the time we were inclined to sympathize with him and thought that surely his lot must be pretty hard, but recently we had the opportunity of visiting that man's town and to our surprise found that this good, hard-surfaced road that he spoke of passed directly in front of his store. A little investigation showed that the retailers in those distant towns were beckoning to prospective customers in a wider trade area through consistent advertising, while the local merchant was so busy counting the automobiles that passed on their way to spend their dollars with some neighboring city, that he forgot to put a stop sign in front of his store in the form of good advertising.

We put it up to this retailer, who decided immediately to try out some well written, well laid out, well illustrated advertising, telling the folks of his community how they could secure the same merchandise right at home stores and save dollars in gas-o-line, tires, and general wear and tear on their cars, to nothing of time. Letters also were planned to go out from time to time, telling of special merchandise, or some unusual selling event and in some cases, telling of merchandise to be had at the neighboring hardware store or grocery or meat market. It took on the appearance almost of a community advertising plan with all the stores combining their efforts in one great boost for their town and for keeping local money at home where it would do the most good.

A retail merchant from one of our nearby cities gave a pretty good answer to this whole situation. He said, "The time a merchant spends in watching to see who goes into his competitor's store could better be spent in advertising to induce the trade to bring their dollars to his counters."—Rollins News.

NOT ALWAYS IN THE BLOOD
(Denver Evening News)

One by one, science compels us to scrap our time-honored proverbs. The latest to fall is the old adage, "Blood will tell."

Investigators from the University of Chicago have just made an extended study of eight hundred children, half of whom were orphans adopted by foster parents. It found that a child's intelligence depends far more on its home environment than on its ancestry. It found that 26 orphaned children were brought to normal intelligence by their foster parents. Furthermore, the general behavior of orphans whose parents had been morally defective was fully up to standard of other children.

"Blood will tell" seems somewhat at fault. Perhaps a future generation will say, "Environment will tell."

This warning telephoned to inhabitants of the lower valley enabled them to save thousands of dollars worth of livestock and other property.

Millions of Model T Fords are still in active service

FOR nearly twenty years, the Model T Ford led the motor industry and it still is used by more people than any other automobile. More than eight million Model T Fords are in active service today—an indication of their sturdy worth, reliability and economy.

Because of the tremendous investment which people have in these cars and because so many of them will be driven for two, three, and even five more years, the Ford Motor Company will continue to make replacement parts until, as Henry Ford himself says, "the last Model T is off the road."

For the Ford Motor Company has always believed that its full duty consists not only in making a good automobile at a low price, but also in keeping it running efficiently for you as long as possible at a minimum of expense.

No matter where you live, therefore, you can still buy Model T Ford parts with the same assurance as formerly, knowing that they will give you the kind of service you have a right to expect, and at the same time protect the money you have invested in your car.

All Ford replacement parts, as you may know, are made of the same materials and in the same way as those from which your car was originally assembled, and are low in price because of the established Ford policy.

So that you may get the greatest use from your Model T Ford over the longest period of time, we suggest that you take the car to the nearest Ford dealer and have him estimate on the cost of any replacement parts which may be necessary. You may find that a very small expenditure will maintain the value of your car and will be the means of giving you thousands of miles of additional service.

Yes, we read the other day of the band of near ruffians who were accused of grabbing our venerable and gray-haired senator Norris and literally forcing him to get into the race at the presidential primaries, because it was intimated, because this band of fellows wanted to get something for themselves regardless of what Senator Norris wanted. But some way, it has seemed from watching the Norris smoke these many years, that it is not always proving an easy matter to force Norris to do that to which he had objections. At least a lot of his republican colleagues appear to think he has a rather stubborn disposition. Then we thought how unfair it was for the fellows who are trying to make Coolidge ride another trip round the presidential ring, to criticize this little group to induce Senator Norris to make a start on the trip.

Is that happy state of free love coming in our time? Sylvia Pankhurst of London has announced the birth of a son, the she is an unmarried suffragette. She explained her views on parenthood in which she favored "free marriage" as opposed to "legal marriage." If the parents have great love, strong mutual sympathy, great knowledge of each other and perfect frankness. That's fine, and all those qualities should go to make marriage—but in such case, why object to legal marriage? But suppose one of the contracting parties is not true, is not playing fair—then, if it be the husband and father, as might easily be the case, then the child and mother would have no recourse, that we can see, and in such circumstances the mother might be very glad to have the protecting arm of law of the land to bring the truant father up to the rack with the food and clothing. Of course, the other partner might desert the ship in the same manner which would be equally as disastrous to the company and all interested. Perhaps the old time marriage is best.

The County Vote

For presidential preference on the republican ballot, George W. Norris had 561.

The two slates of republican delegates was mostly won by the McMullen slate—the bunch standing for farm relief regardless of the views of the president and a later report tells that the delegates divide in the proportion of four for Norris and three for the administration forces. In this county, A. R. Davis was the high man with 695 votes. McKelvie is next high man in this county and high man of the candidates.

The third district delegates are not known at this writing, but F. S. Berry of this place and Chas. Abbott of Fremont were high men, Mr. Berry having 515 votes and Mr. Abbott 484. Finley had but 288 and Thompson 394 to their credit in our county.

For National Committeeman Chas. McCloud carried the county without opposition, getting a vote of 639. Viola Cameron was named as national committeewoman.

For United States senator, Spillman carried this county, 449 to 386 for Howell.

For Governor, Arthur J. Weaver carried the county with 493 votes, and Robert Ross had 182 votes and Ray M. Harrop 85.

Geo. Williams carried the county for lieutenant governor over John Riddell. Frank Marsh won the county for Secretary of state.

For attorney general, H. E. Siman carried the county with a vote of 439 to Sorenson 238—but Sorenson won in the state.

Chas. Randall carried the county for Railway commissioner with 452 votes, and the other candidates five in number dividing the remainder of the vote.

The candidates for congressional nomination from this district divided the vote nearly even, James Nichols getting 342, and W. A. Baker 309.

McGowan was without opposition for senator of this district, with 623 votes.

In the legislative fight August Witter carried the county with 447 votes to Burle Craig 303.

Henry Rethwisch for commissioner in the second district without opposition had 168 votes in the district.

The Democrat Vote

For president Gilbert M. Hitchcock had 273 votes and 17 admirers of Al Smith wrote his name in.

For delegate to National convention from the State this county was carried by J. Keith Neville and James Dahlman by 270 and 268 votes respectively.

For national committeeman Mullen carried the county with 161 votes to Ritchie's 154—and Mullen carried the state by a safe majority.

For governor Chas. W. Bryan carried 286 votes to 54 by James F. Christie.

Chas. Pool won the county, having 300 votes, and no opposition.

Edgar Howard carried the county by 309 votes, and the district, having no opposition.

F. S. Gatenby carried the county as nominee for state senate from the 14th district.

Much interest centered in the fight for representative candidate from this county, with Chas. Schallenberger getting 173 votes to Clyde Oman 173—but there are four mail ballots cast by Democrats, to be opened when the votes are canvassed, and it is possible that these may reverse the totals, and possibly not.

In the non-political ballots, Judge Clinton Chase carried the county with 858 votes, while 258 voted for the late Judge A. A. Welch, and Chas. H. Stewart had 650 votes, and the two will doubtless win in the district.

For County judge J. M. Cherry, without opposition carried the county 1060 votes.

POLITICAL COMMENT

One candidate learned in this campaign over the state that the railway commission as now running is considered a very dependable body whenever public service corporations want help.

Six of the 96 members of the United state senate are candidates for the presidency. With but one president to name out of about 125 million voters the senate percentage is rather large. The house with more than 400 members has fewer candidates.

Senator Welch, with a position that might have been used to his advantage as between himself and Governor Smith, both with friends asking them to accept the democratic presidential nomination, might have given Smith a black eye, by keeping silent as charges that Smith was greased with oil, but he did not. In a talk before the senate last week, he took the time necessary to say that nothing connected with the committee oil investigation had in any manner implicated Governor Smith in any form with the oil robbery and bribery. A square shooter.

Governor Donahy of Ohio has named Cyrus Loehler, a democrat, as the senator to succeed Willis, republican, who suddenly died last week. In Michigan Senator Norris passed away, a democrat, and the republican governor named a republican to serve until his successor is elected. Thus the proportion of the party membership in that body is not changed by the two deaths.

Congress is now having a bitter fight over tax reduction, so far as the income taxes are concerned. The republicans who follow the lead of the secretary of the treasury are asking for a scant two hundred million reduction, while the democrats and some insurgent republicans are urging a reduction of three hundred millions. In fact, one cause of the fight is not so much, perhaps, the sums involved as who is to get relief. The Mellon bill would slice the tax on those who pay large sums in income, while the members favoring a greater cut of taxes have a plan to make the cost less to many small contributors. It looks as tho the fellows and corporations making millions should pay for the protection that enables them to tax the people as excessively as they do, and permit the poorer man to pay less direct to the government as between the two plans. But a more just law, we believe would be a law which does not permit the rich and the big corporations to tax the people unjustly in the price making possible under our protective tariff laws.

Sheriff Cunningham, who was held in contempt of the senate investigation committee for refusing to answer the questions as to the source of his campaign funds, is given liberty on $1,000 bond for appearance later. Is it fair to assume that the "source" from which the questionable funds came are responsible for the liberty given. A thousand dollar bond for contempt of senate makes that great body of representatives of the various states appear rather cheap. The arrest was when Cunningham refused to divulge the source of a $50,000 campaign fund he had reported as given to the Vore senatorial campaign fund.

ASSURES A NEW ROAD LEADING TO WAYNE

A good booster for Wayne and for the best roads that can be afforded leading to our city, calls to our attention the movement on foot to make a little change in the Sunshine highway, carrying it straight south from the corner eight miles south to the county line, and then continuing it south until it unites with highway No. 8 along which traffic might go west to the place where the Sunshine goes thru Pilger, and thus get a graveled highway from the turn west, and thus doubtless saving the turn to the west eight miles south of Wayne. As told in the Pilger Herald the plan and the result when completed are to be as follows:

"It has been the privilege of this paper to work with Representative W. A. Brown relative to securing some definite action on the locating of Highway No. 15 north from Pilger to Wayne instead of the round about way of Wisner.

The letter below will be most welcome news to Pilger people, coming as it does from State Engineer Cochran direct to Representative Brown.

"This routing, when completed, will give a splendid trade route for the farmers in the north part of Stanton county, a graveled road to Pilger, connecting with No. 8 here, and giving an outlet for traffic.

"Read the letter below and rejoice with us over the good news it conveys.

Lincoln, Nebr., March 24, 1928.

Mr. W. A. Brown, Stanton, Nebr.
"In reply to your inquiry as to whether or not it would not be possible to have a federal highway located between Pilger and the Altona-Wayne road through the northeast part of Stanton county, instead of having to go to Wisner and thence north and west, this is to advise that we expect to submit a new Federal Aid map in the near future and we are making some corrections in various parts of the state. We will be glad to include on this map a route connecting the Wayne South road directly with Pilger. I have no doubt whatever that we will be able to get this approved.

"With reference to your further inquiry in regard to the routing of No. 8, this is to advise that it is not expected to make any change in the location of No. 8 between Pilger and Norfolk. In other words, it will continue to run through Stanton to Norfolk as now traveled with the possible exception that in a few years, a slight relocation might be made to the North side of the track just east of Norfolk in order to eliminate the two grade crossings. However, this will not affect the location through Stanton.

"With further reference to your inquiry in regard to the next roads to be graveled in Stanton county, this is to advise that the north and south road through Pilger will be the next road graveled. At the present time, we have a grading contract under way and it is expected to have gravel surfacing follow this work or at a later date and it will take precedence of any other work in Stanton county.

Said the politician, "Boys, the one that can give the best political account of himself, can have the Woodchuck." . . . Johnny said, "Mister, I am a republican. . . My father is a republican, and my mother and brothers are republican." . . . Said Billy, "I'm a democrat, for they are the best people." . . . To the third boy the politician, "Now my little man what can you say?" . . . Georgia replied, "Mister, I am not a democrat. I'm just anything to get that Woodchuck." . . . He got it. . . GEORGE WOLZ AND THE LINCOLN HIGHWAY

By declaring boldly for the eventual paving of the Lincoln highway clear across the state, the highway association centers attention on the fact that on heavily traveled roads in Nebraska now the cost of maintaining gravel is more than the cost of paying interest upon and retiring the bonds for paving.

The Lincoln highway some time will be paved across Nebraska and the state may consider a nine million dollar investment for that purpose money well spent. For the immediate future, however, other paving will have to come first. The road from Omaha to Lincoln, carrying the heaviest traffic load in the state, will be among the first paved. Careful traffic surveys, with especial reference to truck loads, should determine priority.

The election of George Wolz of Fremont to be president once more of the Lincoln Highway association in Nebraska is a deserved recognition of the invaluable work he has done as a pioneer in the movement for good and for hard-surfaced highways in Nebraska. He has been indefatigable, enthusiastic and convincing. When the pavement is finally laid from Omaha across the state along the valley of the Platte, making this one of the most traveled paved links in the greatest national highway, the result will be due largely to the vision and energy of Mr. Wolz.—World-Herald.

ETERNITY

Though winter whirls her fluty skirt Of white and dons her cloak of gray, The buds of spring shall shyly peep, Then wedge through soggy ruts of sleep.
When I shall rest beneath the turf, And you shall think my heart is dead, My love shall burst through emerald pods
And greet you from my coppery bed.

People should be very careful about their food, especially in hot weather only the purest food should be secured, and then it must be kept in a sanitary condition. This can only be done by using plenty of ice. We make the purest of ice every day and will be glad to serve you. Wayne Artificial Ice Co., Phone H29. adv.

Mrs. H. Arnold Karo arrived Monday evening from Oakland, California, for a visit of several weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Mitchell. The U. S. S. Pioneer on which L. Karo is now stationed, is leaving Oakland for the northern Oregon working grounds where the summer will be spent. Mrs. Karo plans to join her husband there when the ship is permanently based at Marshfield later in the season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fisher returned the last of last week from California, where they have made their home most of the time for the past five years. After a short visit here they go to Lincoln, planning to make their home in that city for a while at least, he having a business in prospect. W. L. looked in a few moments yesterday, and is looking well, and he says that Mrs. Fisher is as well as feels. They like California, but he intimated that it was no longer the easiest place in which to secure work tho they had work all the time there. They drove thru, stopping a few days in Denver to look after some business matters.

Conductor Owen of the Bloomfield freight run had an automobile back into him the other night at Bloomfield. He was visiting with friends when a car was starting out from where it had been standing, and the lady had asked permission to drive, and it had been granted. She started the car not noticing that it was in reverse, and with the track clear ahead, she did not start that way. Mr. Owen who was a short distance back of the car was hit and bumped over and one wheel ran over his knee. A few bruises that still show dark—but the bruise was not bad enough to cause the conductor to lay off for repairs. That was lucky.

Elmer Hayes, who was once a devil—a devil in the Democrat office—came back to look Wayne once over again, and see if perchance there is a place to work on some good farm in this vicinity. Yes, Elmer reformed from the calling in which he acquired the title of devil, and attended high school as his grandfather, E. Q. Sala, used to want him to do. He graduated from high school at Tekamah, and took a little turn in the state agricultural college at Lincoln, and of late years has been getting practical demonstrations in agriculture on a farm near Tekamah. But last year was not a good season for farming Missouri river bottom gumbo land—too wet too long, and then too dry too long, and then the frost hit the tender corn on the bottoms too soon and the crop was gone—so he is now here in search of a farm job for himself and wife, if it be that he can find a place for both. Mr. Hayes told that, in common with other tillers of the soil he had been in hard luck—the one good crop did not sell any too high—and the one poor crop took what he had made the better years. He does not like the present brand of prosperity. He had been spending a day or two at Oakdale, his boyhood home, and said that the time was when he could get a job there any day—but now with banks in hard luck and business quiet and plenty of empty houses in that once prosperous village, he found no employment. A farmer feeder for whom he worked many seasons, and who kept three or more men employed, and who fed several hundred head of cattle, now has but one man, and is feeding three cars of cattle only. So he came to look here a greet some of his former friends, and he has a prospect in sight for a farm job. He was not kicking about the particular brand of prosperity which is just now overrunning the farming country and slowing up the farm and feeding business but it was not just the kind of prosperity he likes best. Elmer says that he is yet young, and will outgrow this little financial stunting given his bank account last season.

Allen Norman, a member of the senior class of the Fairbury high school is a firm believer in the benefits derived from membership in the 4-H clubs. He purchased a pure bred sow for $74. This sow farrowed ten pigs, seven of which were saved. Total costs amounted to $104.50 and when he sold the fat hogs and figured the value of those kept the figured he had made $93 on the deal. Then the report of his project work gave him a $100 scholarship and now he plans on entering the state college of agriculture this fall. A few years ago the people of the entire nation were shocked at the freedom with which convicted criminals were pardoned by the governors of Texas and Oklahoma. Now comes a report from Colorado showing that Governor William H. (Billy) Adams has completed a full year in the gubernatorial without granting a single pardon. Prior to his election Governor Adams was a member of the legislature for more than 40 consecutive years. He is an extensive rancher.

O'PUREY'S NEWS, VIEWS AND GOSSIP

Some folks have an idea that the church is losing both membership and influence. Yet churchmen advance figures to show that this is not generally true. Cardinal Mundella, of the Catholic archdiocese of Chicago has announced a building program which involves the expenditure of $12,000,000 during the next fiscal year. The cardinal will shortly visit Rome to make an official call on the pope. The work which he will outline to the church officials includes the completion of many projects already started and others planned this year which will add 26 churches, 16 schools, nine rectories, eight convents, five hospitals, two orphanages, two colleges and another cemetery to the properties of the church. Such a program is a sure indication of material growth.

THE WEATHER COLD Monday morning the mercury as reported from a government tested thermometer was only 8 degrees above zero, and the coldest April day, except one since 1924, when the mercury was reported at zero the morning of the first day of that month. We may not appreciate the cold weather, but we can well be glad that we were not under the snow-sift that hit in the vicinity of Omaha the last of the week. The snow storm in that vicinity was reported the equal of any winter blizzard in fierceness, tho the temperature was not low—and possibly that made it worse, for the snow carried such a weight of moisture as to make it very hard to resist by man, beast, auto or electric or phone wire. Many districts were a tangle of wire, poles and great banks of snow carrying tons of water—loaded to saturation point. NOT PEAS IN A POD (Dayton News) Paul U. Kellogg, editor of the Survey, makes the happy discovery that Americans are not becoming peas in a pod. The current charge to that effect is a slander. No two people are any more alike than ever they were. We hope he is right. The idea that personality and individuality are perishing from America has had several sources, of which the chief is our passion for uniform dressing. Our women would rather die than wear a shirt an inch shorter or longer, than every other woman's skirt. No American man, unless he be a poet, which few American men are, dares call his sartorial soul his own. Aside from some latitude in color of necktie, the American man dresses his clothes from the clothes dictator exactly as Italian men now take their politics from Mussolini. As far as clothes go, American freedom is too dead to bury. Whether or not Mr. Kellogg is right depends on whether the clothing dealers are correct in their doctrine that the clothes make the man.
