ESTABLISHED 1884

WAYNE, WAYNE COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, APRIL 25, 1929.

$1.50 PER YEAR

DISTRICT CONTEST HELD HERE FRIDAY

Both Wayne Entrants Honored in Northeast Nebraska District Contest Here.

FANSKE CALLED OUTSTANDING

Both Wayne entrants placed in the Northeast Nebraska District Declamatory Contest held at the local college last Friday afternoon and evening, Richard Fanske being the unanimous choice for first place honors in the extemporaneous group and Harriett Craven placing second in the dramatic section.

Fanske was referred to as the premier speaker in his group and was accorded special honors, being the unanimous choice of the three judges.

Twenty-four high school students from all parts of this corner of the state who were successful in preliminary contests competed for honors here. This will close the declamatory work as the state contest has been abandoned for this year.

Winners were announced as follows:

Extemporaneous: Dick Fanske, Wayne, first; Edgar Ewing, Hartington, second; Lester Danielson, Wauson, third; Robert Davis, Butte, fourth. Because Dick Fanske won first honors in this department last year, he is not eligible to claim that place the second time. Therefore first place was awarded Edgar Ewing who was given second place. The judges were unanimous in ranking Fanske first.

Oratorical: Leo Skalowsky, Norfolk, first; Willard Witte, Beemer, second; Leland Dannels, Newman Grove, third.

Dramatic: Florence Tousegant, Madison, first; Harriett Craven, Wayne, second; and Grace Kellogg, Cedar Rapids, third.

Humorous: Maurice Leamer, South Sioux City, first; Virginia Peters, Stanton, second; and Donley Pedersen, Naper, third.

COLLEGE FACULTY MEN TO VISIT MORNINGSIDE

The men of the Wayne college faculty will be entertained by the faculty men of Morningside college Saturday at a dinner and program.

The visitors will convene in the main hall of the Administration building of that school for a social time preceding the dinner to be given at 12:30. Following the dinner a short program of entertainment and speaking will be given, after which the visitors will inspect the new dormitory recently constructed at the college there.

LLOYD RUBECK FAMILY HAVE SCARLET FEVER

The Lloyd Rubbeck family who live on a farm near Wakefield have been quarantined for Scarlet Fever for several weeks and have no prospects of being released for some time as some of the family are still sick, although none of them are regarded as serious.

Lloyd Rubbeck is a son of Chas. Rubbeck of Wayne. The sickness has been a great handicap as he is farming a half section and has been alone, not being able to get a man because of the dreaded disease. Mr. Rubbeck stated.

GEORGE BAIRD WILL SAIL FOR IRELAND, WEDNESDAY

George Baird left Wayne this morning for New York City, where he plans to sail for Ireland on May Basket Day. Mr. Baird will spend several weeks visiting in Ireland and other parts of the British isles. He has five brothers and a number of other relatives living in Ireland and England.

MRS. F. H. JONES BETTER

Mrs. F. H. Jones who has been confined at the Methodist hospital at Sioux City, according to her physicians, is somewhat improved in her condition although regarded as still dangerously ill.

She is suffering from an infection of her foot, and her condition was considered very alarming when she was taken to the hospital.

LITTLE SON OF J. M. STRAHAN UNDERGOES OPERATION, SUN.

Jimmie, the 22 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Strahan underwent an appendicitis operation at a Norfolk hospital Sunday, and is reported to be recovering nicely.

WAYNE STATE BANK BUYS CITIZENS NATIONAL, THURS.

The Wayne State Bank bid $5,000 on the Citizens National Bank property sold at referee sale here last Thursday, and will become the owners if the sale is authorized by the National Comptroller at Washington, D. C.

Announcement of any plans are being withheld pending the confirmation of the sale, but it is intimated that part of the building will be used by the bank, and that the rest will be available as a rental, for some small business.

It is generally thought that the sale will be confirmed as the price paid is considered a fair consideration for the property.

R. W. LEY ELECTED BANKER'S V. PRES.

J. T. Bressler on Program of Annual Convention of Group at Norfolk Monday

PLEGGED FOR STABILIZATION

Rollie W. Ley, president of the Wayne State Bank, was elected vice president of the Group 3 of the Nebraska Bankers' association at their thirty-second annual meeting at Norfolk Monday, which was attended by officers of both Wayne banks. H. L. Gerhart of Newman Grove was elected president of the group.

J. T. Bressler, Sr., president of the First National Bank of this city, was a member of the nomination committee and appeared on the program as one of the speakers.

Pledged to Use Influence

Resolutions were passed parts of which are given as follows:

"Be it resolved, that we reiterate our determination to continue as in the part to not only render such assistance as is in our power and ability to meet the financial requirements of this district but especially endeavor to secure a return to proper values of our land and products, which will be in keeping with our location adaptability and resources.

"We appreciate the able efforts of the officers of the state association in handling the various problems before them.

"Be it resolved, that we commend the efforts of the members of the Nebraska legislature for their earnest efforts in behalf of the state banking situation in Nebraska and we further urge definite action before adjournment.

Raps Unslightly Places

Nebraska is too beautiful a place for its residents to allow the carcasses of thousands of motor cars, rusty tin cans and cook stoves to disfigure the banks of its rivers, Bess Gearhart Morrison, Lincoln, reader and entertainer, said at the banquet held last evening in Hotel Norfolk.

Near the entrance to many beautiful cities of Nebraska there are too many mutilated cans and automobiles, something that does not desecrate the entrances to European cities she added. Mrs. Morrison also criticized the appearance of so many billboards along Nebraska highways.

WAYNE REPRESENTED AT STATE COMMERCIAL CONTEST

Friday afternoon five Wayne high school students leave for Lexington to enter the state high school commercial contest to be held there Saturday in which over 200 contestants will be entered. There will be competition in typewriting, shorthand, and book-keeping.

The Wayne high school students entered are, Esther Thies and Fern Wamberg, shorthand; Harriett Craven, novice shorthand; and Jeanette Lewis and Audrey Lewis, typewriting. Fern Wamberg won first in the state novice shorthand contest last year. Esther Thies was also entered in last year's state contest.

PARTY WHO "SWIPED" HOE MAY LEAVE IT AT NIGHT

A hoe he has had for 17 years, and which was regarded as quite a relic was taken from John Morgan's premises one night last week, and its rightful owner is very desirous of having it back, he states.

If the party who "borrowed it," he said, will return the hoe it will be greatly appreciated. "If they are ashamed to bring it back in the daytime, they can leave it at night." They can leave it anywhere about the premises where it will be found, said Mr. Morgan.

Wayne Boy Scouts Place Second At Sixth Annual Meet Held at Norfolk

Coleridge Lads Forge Ahead by Taking Final Event Beating Wayne by Two Points.

CLOSE COMPETITION FEATURES

Not until the final event did the Coleridge boy scouts forge ahead of the Wayne scouts and captured the A. L. Killian cup for the third time in successive years, at the sixth annual Invitation Rally of boy scouts at Norfolk April 18-21. Until then the Wayne scouts led all competition.

Friday night the Wayne boys had won first in knot tying, second in the signaling contest and third in first aid, which placed them in the lead, 20, to Norfolk's 18 and Coleridge's 16 points. Saturday noon competition was even closer, but Wayne still led, 30 to Coleridge, 29, and Norfolk, 28. But Saturday afternoon Coleridge forged ahead by placing first in the water boiling contest, Wayne placing third. The final score was Coleridge, 44, Wayne, 42, and Norfolk 40.

Six troops, Randolph, Albion, Tilden, Coleridge, Wayne, and Norfolk, with 60 scouts attended the rally, which was the best held in years, and the keenest competition, according to A. F. Gulliver, local scoutmaster, who accompanied the Wayne scouts to Norfolk.

The local scouts who attended the meet were, Kenyon Lewis, Dale Hanks, Miles Tyrrell, Robert Gulliver, Jack Morgan, John Kemp, Llewelyn Whitmore, William Mellor, Jr., Alfonso Martischang, Robert Theobald and Billie Ahern.

The list of events and the winners are as follows:

First Aid—Norfolk, first, by Junior Carlisle and John Dugeon; Albion, second, Norman McFarland and Gilbert Thompson; Wayne, third, Dale Hanks and Miles Tyrrell.

Knot Tying—Wayne, first, Kenyon Lewis; Norfolk, second, Lawrence Dayton; Tilden, third, William Lenseser.

Signaling—Coleridge, first, Vyan Stone and William Steffins; Wayne, second, Robert Gulliver and Dale Hanks; Randolph, third, Delno Stage-man and Dwight Cain.

MRS. HENRY JANS, PIONEER, PASSES

Funeral Services for 88-Year-Old Pioneer Held From Lutheran Church Saturday.

Funeral services for Mrs. Henry Jans, 88, who died at her home here last Wednesday evening, were held from the Evangelical Lutheran church with Rev. H. A. Teckhaus in charge of the final rites, Saturday afternoon. Burial was in the Greenwood cemetery, here.

Mrs. Jans died Wednesday evening following a lingering illness of several months duration at the age of 88 years, 6 months and 19 days. With her family she came to Wayne county in the early eighties and had lived in this vicinity since that time.

Miss Apple Jensen was born in Schleswig-Holstein, Germany, September 28, 1840. She was confirmed in the Lutheran faith there and had been a faithful member of the Lutheran church all her life.

In 1874, a few years following the death of her first husband, she was united in marriage to Henry Jans; the family emigrating to America that year locating at Avoca, Iowa, where they resided about 10 years, following which they came to Oakland and later to Wayne.

She was married to Hans Petersen, her first husband, in 1862, who passed in 1889. Three children were born to this union all of whom survive: Mrs. Anna Albers, Pierce; Mrs. Johanna Lutt, Wayne and P. F. Petersen of Beiden. Twenty-one grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren also survive here.

Mrs. Oscar Liedtke, a granddaughter, from the time she was two years old until grown lived with Mrs. Jans. Mrs. Liedtke and the three surviving children were all with her when she answered the final summons.

CRADLE

MEYER—To Mr. and Mrs. Adolph W. Meyer, of six miles northwest of Wayne, a daughter April 24.

YOUNG MOTHER IS CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. E. C. Rhoades, 36, Passes Following Attack of Tonsillitis Monday Afternoon.

HUSBAND; 6 CHILDREN SURVIVE

Following an attack of tonsillitis, which at no time was considered serious, Mrs. E. C. Rhoades passed very suddenly Monday afternoon when only one of her little children was with her.

A neighbor, Mrs. Davis, who came to the home to visit Mrs. Rhoades that afternoon found the little daughter crying because "her mother wouldn't talk to her any more," she said. Entering the home Mrs. Davis discovered that she apparently had died and immediately called their physician, but all efforts to revive her failed.

She suffered an attack of tonsillitis four days before, but as her condition was not regarded as serious, Mr. Rhoades, a bridge construction foreman for the M & O railroad, returned to his duties the day before she passed. The older children were all in school, at the time of her death.

The untimely death was a great shock to many friends and neighbors who referred to her with greatest admiration.

Miss Gertrude B. Gray, was born April 26, 1893, and departed this life April 22, 1929, lacking four days of being thirty-six years of age. She was married to Mr. E. C. Rhoades October 20, 1910. To this union were born six children: Maxine, Orville, Flora, Ruth, Ruby and Elaine Jane.

Besides these she leaves to mourn her departure, her mother, Mrs. Margaret Wallace of Council Bluffs, also two brothers, Wesley and Earl Wallace of the same city. Other relatives and a host of friends also mourn her death.

Mrs. Rhoades was a charter member of The Church of Christ in Wayne. Funeral services were conducted by the pastor of this church, W. H. McClendon, at the Beckenhauer funeral parlor Tuesday April 23 at one o'clock. The body was taken to Blair for interment.

MUSIC WEEK WILL BE OBSERVED HERE

Organizations of Wayne Planning Appropriate Program for Annual Observation.

As usual, Wayne is preparing a big program for National Music Week, which is May 5-11 this year.

The Song Story of Our Nation, arranged by Mrs. S. A. Lutgen, Wayne author and well known club woman, will be given at the Community house by the Wayne Woman's club, Friday, May 10. The proceeds from the entertainment will go to the boy and girl scouts.

The Song Story of Our Nation is a unique combination of art, music, and literature. At the Convention of the Third District of the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs Mrs. Lutgen gave a talk on this production and others of a similar nature.

Most of the Wayne clubs are planning special programs for music week. The U. D. club will give a program on American composers May 6. The Monday club will hold its Music Week program a week early, April 29. The Minerva club will meet with Mrs. S. A. Lutgen for a music program. There will be observance of Music Week at the college, and Wayne piano instructors will give recitals at that time.

Nebraska, My Native Land, official state song of the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs will be sung in schools all over the state during Music Week, in compliance with requests of the individual Woman's clubs. The song, a Wayne production, was written by Mrs. S. A. Lutgen and set to music by Prof. Leon F. Beery, formerly of the Wayne State Teachers college music department.

COUNTY JAIL EMPTY

For the first time in many months the Wayne county jail is empty, Sheriff Stephens reports. No prospective arrests are in sight and it is thought that this ideal condition may be of some duration.

WAYNE WOMEN SEE PLAY "AS YOU LIKE IT"

Three Wayne women, Mrs. Clara Heylman, Miss A. L. McNair, and Miss Cora Staples, who saw the Shakespearean play, As You Like It, in Sioux City last Saturday afternoon, found the production of the cast led by Genevieve Hamper charming.

Miss Hamper is a noted actress who has been playing Shakespearean roles for a number of years, and has everywhere been captivating her audiences by the expressive portrayal of her parts. She is now playing the lead, Rosalind, in As You Like It. Saturday afternoon at the close she appeared in the bridal robes of her part, and gave a farewell talk which brought the house down.

SAVIDGE FEATURES NEW ATTRACTIONS

Opens 23rd Season Here May 6th With Greatest Shows and Entertainment Ever.

DAILY FREE ACTS AND CONCERTS

With six up-to-the-minute-plays and side shows and attractions galore Walter Savidge, announces the opening of his 23rd season here Monday May 6, which will be his only appearance in Wayne this year.

Show-goers all through the territory, he covers annually, have for years looked forward to the "Savidge week" and this year, according to his posters, will be his greatest. He is offering an entire week of showing of the latest plays, which will be given under the "big top" with a daily complete change of program.

On the opening night his players will present "Gossip" a comedy drama with a moral—truth and fun. This will be followed each night with appropriate up-to-date presentations all of which are considered very high class, and all are different.

Free Acts Daily

One of the features of every Savidge carnival is his free acts and hand concerts, which this year are said to be equal to any he has ever offered. The free act is entirely different from any ever presented, and said to be one from which the whole family will get a "kick" in watching.

A new feature of the Savidge amusements is "Whoopee" which completes a long list of side shows, curiosities and entertainments open every afternoon and evening of the six days.

WAKEFIELD MAN'S TRUCK CRUSHES BABY TO DEATH

Crushed when the wheel of the truck his father was driving passed over his body, Landon Bahda, nine-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bahda, died a few minutes later last Thursday evening.

Mr. Bahda, proprietor of a filling station at Wakefield, was leaving with his truck to deliver in the country and as he backed the machine out of the drive-way he noticed that one wheel "hit a bump" and fearing the worst called to the little tot, who failed to respond. Getting out of the truck he found his son lying beside the wheel and picked him up and rushed for aid, but the lad died a few moments later.

The child is survived by his parents, two brothers and a sister.

The Bahda family for several years lived on a farm near Altona, moving to Wakefield about a year ago when Mr. Bahda purchased a filling station there. Mrs. Bahda is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Erxleben.

Funeral services were held from the Altona church last Sunday which were very largely attended.

AUDITORS ARE CHECKING RECORDS OF OFFICIALS

The auditing of records of Wayne county officials was started yesterday. The records of County Clerk C. W. Reynolds are the first on the list and will be completed within a few days.

The Wayne county board a few weeks ago voted to have the records of all county departments checked by registered auditors.

INFANT DAUGHTER OF HARRY ECHTENKAMP DIES

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Echtenkamp, aged but a few days died Thursday, April 18, 1929, and was buried Saturday, April 20, in the German Lutheran cemetery, northeast of Wayne.

NORFOLK JUNIOR NO MATCH FOR WILDCATS

Hickman Pupils Have Easy Afternoon Licking Norfolk Youngsters 187 to 18.

STATE MEET HERE MAY 18TH

The Wayne Wildcats loped away with an easy victory over the Norfolk junior college in their dual meet here last Friday piling up a total of 137 points to the visitor's 18.

The Norfolk school was no match for the locals and barely succeeded in taking two firsts, two seconds and as many third honors. Ray had a good afternoon and was high individual with a total of 16 points. Stansberry, who was the whole show for the visitors, accounted for thirteen of their 18 points taking the javelin and shot put events and second in the high jump.

Ray took the high honors in the discus and both the high and low hurdles and third in the broad jump, beating his mates by a considerable margin for personal glory.

Andrews Big Hearted

Getting into trouble when he lost his stride in the low hurdles, Tigus Andrews finally got straightened out and had second stinched, when he became afflicted with a softening of the heart and waited for LuLow, Norfolk, to catch up and beat him to the tape. He copped the broad jump, placed second in the javelin and third in the shot.

The visitors were able to muster very little competition in the track events, LuLow being awarded second in the low hurdles, via Andrews' neighborly act, for their only honor in this competition.

State Meet Here

Facing the triangular meet at Wesleyan next week and the state meet which will be held on the local field May 18, Coach Hickman has been sending his proteges through a number of stiff workouts during the week.

Although entertaining some hope of copping the championship bunting in the annual state meet, which this year will be held at Wayne with all four state colleges competing, the Wildcat mentor is anticipating a tough afternoon, and the entire squad will have to be in top form to come through the four cornered struggle with a win, he intimated.

Champion Coming

Chadron will furnish the toughest competition in the middle distance track events in which the local school's hopes seem to hinge.

Bailey, Chadron quarter-miler who won the 440 event at the Chicago high school invitation meet last spring when he galloped the distance in 50.1 seconds, will make plenty of trouble for Dennis, who is by far the best the Wayne school has ever turned loose on the cinders.

Hertz, the big giant of Peru, is conceded first in both the discus and the shot.

Go to Lincoln

The Wildcats will hike to Lincoln next Friday where they will meet Cotner and Wesleyan in a three cornered meet. Although the latter school is favored to grab the majority of the honors in this meet Hickman is hoping to give them a lot of trouble and perhaps upset the dope bucket for the Methodists.

WAYNE WOMEN ARE IN ATTENDANCE AT SIOUX CITY

Tuesday morning Mrs. Mae Young, Mrs. T. S. Hook, Mrs. Fenton Jones, and Mrs. J. H. Kemp went to South Sioux City where they attended the 42nd annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of Nobrara Presbyterian church, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. On the subject of Attainment of Our Goals, Mrs. Fenton Jones spoke Wednesday morning. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. J. H. Kemp gave a talk on Our Duties as officers. Mrs. Wm. Gildersleeve also attended the meetings.

Wayne delegates were Mrs. Mae Young and Mrs. T. S. Hook.

COLLEGE OBSERVES ARBOR DAY

Professor A. V. Teed gave an Arbor Day talk at the college chapel Wednesday morning, at which time he said 5,000,000 trees are being planted in Nebraska this year, according to estimates.

For the last week the college has been planting trees and shrubbery about the campus.

Three Seward business men are about $100 worse off from cashing checks for a longer last week. The man who signed his name as Carl Owens cashed the checks on Saturday night and left town. The car in which he pulled out was found parked in front of the Rome hotel in Omaha.

Miss Amber James, who has been doing stenographic work in Omaha, was home with her father P. G. James, relatives, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of last week. Saturday afternoon she left for Sioux City, having secured a fine position there. She will live with her sister, Irma James, who is teaching in Sioux City.

Tekamah high school has a boy, Erwin Peterson, with only a few weeks to go to have a perfect attendance record for his twelve years of school, though he lives seven miles from town. His record had a close call once when he had the whooping cough, being saved by the rest of the school, including the teacher, having it at the same time, so school continued as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gibson, Laurel pioneers, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home in that place last Friday. The couple held open house to friends from 2 to 5 o'clock. They have lived in Cedar county 48 years. Mr. Gibson almost lost his life in the big blizzard of 1888 when he got lost while going from the barn to the house. They own several farms in the Laurel vicinity.

Mrs. P. Hancock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Crockett, and two children arrived here from Dallas Texas last Friday, planning to spend the summer with her parents and other relatives and friends here. Her mother who spent a month visiting at the Hancock home in Dallas returned with her daughter and children. They report that the spring has been unusually rainy in the Dallas territory, and that they have experienced a number of damaging floods. Mr. Hancock is employed by the telegraph company in Dallas.

DRAMA CLASS PRESENTS TWO PLAYS AT OPEN HOUSE SHOW

(from the Goldenrod)

The class in Drama held open house on Thursday evening in the auditorium, giving two plays, the results of their class work.

The presentation of Moliere's, "A Doctor by Compulsion," was the more ambitious of the two. The type of humor belonging to those times is difficult for amateurs. Hugo Berg showed most marked ability to project his character into the types he attempted. Harry Ellis Fisher as the old man was quite interesting. The class had worked out settings and costumes and made up very suggestively. In the second play, "A Little Mistake," the amusing situations appealed to the audience. Lillian Whitmore, as the little Miss Take was charmingly naive. David Koch caught the sympathies of the younger part of the audience in his portrayal of the cook. Between acts Hugo Berg played the piano.

The casts for the two plays were as follows:

A Doctor by Compulsion
Act I In a wood.
Act II In the Garden of Geronte
Act III Same as Act II

NEW RULING MADE

In accordance with the state ruling which requires high school teachers in Nebraska to have a minor or major in subjects taught, Dean Hahn announced that practice teachers in the college high school would be required to have a major or minor in the subject taught. This will necessitate the closing of a minor or major early during the sophomore year. If the minor is being completed during the time the practice teaching is done, this will be acceptable, Dean Hahn stated.

NEWS
Emerson once said that the man who wrote a better book or who made a better mousetrap than his neighbor would soon find a beaten path leading to his door. That statement was more true at the time it was made than it is now, for people of today are greatly influenced by extensive advertising. The sad feature of this is that not all advertisements are true. Therefore when you make a purchase first investigate the facts regarding the principles, ideals and honesty of the manufacturer who is behind the product. LAD WHO "DEVILED" FOR DEMOCRAT IS HONORED

W. Harrison, Lived Here 20 Years Ago Heads Newspaper Society.

Walter H. Harrison, editor of the Daily Oklahoman at Oklahoma City, who lived in Wayne when a young man, was elected to succeed himself as president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors at its annual convention in Washington.

Harrison, when a school boy started his newspaper career "devilizing" for the Democrat when Goldie was editor of the paper. He left Wayne about twenty years ago and for several years has been connected with the Daily Oklahoman of Oklahoma City.

His father was well known through northeast Nebraska for his interest in racing, and often drove fast pacers on the race tracks, in this section of the country, it is said here. Harrison, when a lad, also worked for Sam Davis, when he operated the News Stand.

Plenty of room in the NEW SUPERIOR Whippet

THE larger bodies of the new Superior Whippet Four and Six afford more spacious interiors, with extra head room, leg room and elbow room.

The beautiful and ultra-modern design of the new Superior Whippet makes it the style authority in both the Four and light Six classes. Many tasteful refinements include longer lines, higher radiator and hood, chromium-plate, and sweeping one-piece full-crown fenders.

The faster speed and pick-up of the new Superior Whippet result from a higher compression engine, giving more than 20% added horsepower. Low consumption of gasoline and oil, and dependable performance insure exceptional operating economy and minimum service costs.

Winside Teachers Selected

At a meeting held recently the Winside school board elected, Prof. George Hall, head of the Magnet schools this year as superintendent for the coming year. Miss Rachel Bracken of Emerson has been elected principal and Mr. Geraki M. Cherry of Laurel was chosen assistant principal. All the grade teachers were re-elected. One more teacher for the high school will be chosen which will complete an entirely new faculty for the four upper grades of the Winside school.

Winside Track Meet Ends in Hair-pulling Match.

The Interclass track meet of the Winside high school was held on the baseball grounds on Friday afternoon. One of the events not scheduled on the program was the scrap between the Junior and Senior classes over their class pennants which preceded the meet. Hair-pulling was resorted to and one boy drew a black eye as a result of the fracas.

The senior class easily won the meet, piling up 51 1-3 points; the juniors earned 20 1-3, the sophomores 11 1-3 and the freshman 7 points.

The individual winners were James Troutman, a senior with 23 points won, Ross Holcomb, also a senior, second with 18 points, and Raymond Wylie, a junior was third with 8 points.

UNIVERSITY'S GREATEST STUDENT EVENT, MAY 4TH

Elsie Carhart to Help With Clothing Exhibit at Farmers Fair.

The entire student body of the college of Agriculture is organized into committees that are preparing for the eleventh annual Farmers Fair to be staged at the college of agriculture campus, May 4th.

Elsie Carhart, College of Agriculture student from Wayne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carhart, is helping put on the clothing exhibit for Farmers Fair, which has been an annual event at the University since 1916 with the exception of three years during the war. The purpose of Farmers Fair is to give the students an opportunity to advertise and display the College of Agriculture and to entertain the visitors on Fair day.

The Fair has grown each year in magnitude until it is now known as the largest student event at Nebraska and one of the largest in the United States. Last year, this purely self-supporting activity, managed entirely by students, drew a crowd of over ten-thousand people from over the state. Even a larger crowd is expected this year.

State Riding Contest

Plans for this year's Farmers Fair indicate that it will surpass all former Fairs in the way of new and interesting features and educational exhibits. The main attractions of this year's Fair will be; a riding horse show, a pageant, parade, educational exhibits, a pony and petstock show livestock parade and a number of entertaining features.

The riding horse show program will feature such events as a polo game, an inter-sorority riding contest, a Coded balloon race, exhibitions by show classes, a shetland riding contest, and an exhibition of the Omaha Union Stockyards six horse team of Clydesdales.

The pageant "A Day At Nottingham", will be presented by the Home economics girls and will be interpreted entirely by dancing, music and costumes. The play, presented in a natural campus setting by a cast of eighty girls, contains no spoken parts and is considered one of the most artistic productions of the University.

Parade Through Lincoln

The parade, depicting Industrial Nebraska on fourteen motor driven floats, will pass thru the business section of Lincoln at noon May 4th. The Farmers Fair parade has become a traditional event in Lincoln and always draws thousands of people to the street to watch the procession. The exhibits, emphasizing efficiency in agriculture and home economics will be educational as well as interesting and will give spectators a conception of the value of an agricultural education.

The livestock parade and pony and petstock show will display the prize-winning livestock of the college herd and exhibit some of the well bred ponies and petstock from Lincoln and vicinity. The entertaining features of the Fair are included to make the day a day of fun for visitors and students alike. Entertainment will be offered in the form of vaudeville shows, concessions and dances.

NEBRASKA HAS A FOREST FIRE LOOKOUT STATION

Nebraska now has a forest fire lookout station, according to the Nebraska Farmer. This is the Nebraska-National Forest, the 13,000 acre plantation of the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture, in the sandhills near Halsey, and which is around twenty-five years old. Already the trees loom up to quite a height, and make a good showing over those hills.

Every effort is being made to protect the forest from fire. There is a regulation against smoking within the boundaries of the forest, and violators are subject to fine and imprisonment.

The lookout station is a 12-foot square glassed-in-house on the top of a 30-foot tower. Here during the spring fire danger season, when the sand-hill grasses are driest and the winds are high, E. E. Welch, the lookout, will make his abode, and report to the forest headquarters any fire which may get started within or near the forest.

POULTRY FIELD DAY AT LINCOLN IN JUNE

A big poultry field day program this year is planned for June 13 and 14 at Lincoln. OLD DOBBIN LOSING GROUND There were 150,000 less horses in Nebraska in 1927 than there were in 1920. In the meantime tractors are gaining at the rate of 4,000 a year, with one farmer in four owning one; one farm in ten has a truck; and there is more than an automobile per farm among Nebraska farmers, who own a thousand more cars than they did last year. There are 3,000 combines in the state, half again as many as there were a year ago.

Surely not very slowly old Dobbin is fading from the picture, and it may not be another generation before he will be only a memory, with fire-splitting iron Dobbins doing the hauling and pulling.

WAYNE MARKET REPORTS

Following are the market prices quoted us up to the time of going to press Thursday.

Table with market prices for Corn, Oats, Eggs, Butter Fat, Old Cocks, Hens, and Hogs.

Recent exposures in the power monopoly, including the buying by power companies of Boston newspapers, is further proof that Wayne's city council acted wisely last fall, when they voted for the improvement in the Wayne plant in preference to buying energy from a privately owned concern.

Good "Old Dobbins" is gradually making way for motor power. According to recent statistics, during the past year four thousand tractors were added to the equipment of Nebraska farmers while during the same period the number of horses and mules were reduced by several thousand. A noticeable feature of the increase in tractor owners is that of recent years the conservative farmers are buying them, and are finding the tractor to be a wise investment.

A lot of voters who cast their ballot for Hoover last fall apparently expect him to return the compliment, now, and turn democratic. There is only one kind of relief defined in the G. O. P.'s book of etiquette, and that's more tariff and that, it develops, is the only kind that Hoover is in favor of. While the farmers are getting a little more protection from this angle big business will also get a cut to offset it and the middle west will be no better off.

TIME TO THINK

Referring to the appalling number of crimes in America, Hoover pleads for obedience of our laws. No civilized country, he intimates, experiences so many crimes and so low a percentage of convictions as does ours—and the fault cannot all be due to the Eighteenth amendment, either, he believes.

While commendable an appeal for respect of law will, we fear, fall considerably short of getting tangible results. Those who will heed his request already refrain from violations. Hoover's appeal should, however, be inductive to thought, and serious thinking can do much.

We believe that thus far students of our crime wave have merely scratched the surface of the real causes. Most of them have been prejudiced in one way or another and have not faced conditions as they really are. Some blame the Eighteenth Amendment, others the automobile, still others lay the cause in laxity of the homes, some contend that it is the fruit of seeds sown during the war. Thus one might list an almost endless number of causes that have been advanced as responsible for our law violations.

If it were possible to eliminate any one of these so-called causes of disrespect for our laws... It is doubtful if the crimes would be materially reduced. If the crime wave is the fruit of the war then surely European countries should share this menace with us, but they haven't. Mobility, while affording means of quick travel and being an asset to criminals, is also inductive to enforcement efficiency tending to offset the advantages gained by the offenders.

A little thought along these lines indicates that the problem is one for serious and extensive study of minds not handicapped by prejudices or the influence of misinformation.

Undoubtedly such a commission would find that we have thousands of laws which should be repealed—that instead of a complicated systemless enforcement we should have one system with one head and a fixed responsibility—that our courts should intelligently exercise their power when a criminal is brought to trial. Such a commission probably would find that there are an endless number of causes for our crime wave, rather than a few specific reasons as some would have us believe.

In the meantime it would certainly be well for every citizen to give the matter serious study. We all have our responsibilities, whether or not we recognize them. A democracy cannot continue to function if the citizens refuse to analyze its problems... and certainly the crime wave has reached the magnitude where it is one of the most serious of our problems.

WAYNE DELEGATES ATTEND THE COLUMBUS CONVENTION

State's Possibilities Not Even Scratched Says President.

That the Nebraska Business and Professional Women's clubs are not even scratching the possibilities of the state of Nebraska was the declaration of Lena Madsen-Phillips, president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, who spoke last Thursday at the 11th annual convention of the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs, held at Columbus Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

It is Miss Phillips' belief that Nebraska business and professional women are hardly living up to their opportunities. Miss Phillips, who is a New York City lawyer, helped to organize the national federation, and is now trying to promote an international federation of business and professional women. She is leading a tour to Europe this summer.

Miss Pearl Sewell and Miss Ethel M. Stephens were the Wayne delegates. Miss Sewell says she was well impressed with the convention. Of the 1248 members in the state, there were 160 delegates in attendance at the convention, and 250 at the banquet Thursday evening. Of the 19 Women's Business and Professional clubs in the state, all but one were represented.

Thursday noon the convention met in four divisions for round table lunches, at the Thurston and Evans hotels. The groups were, Education and Finance, Publicity and Independent Woman, Membership, and Program.

The Business and Professional Women's clubs, says Miss Sewell, are organized for any community projects that may be of benefit, and for the furtherance of women in business and the professions. One of the projects they have carried on in some communities is the organization of loans to high school girls who desire college education.

The meeting of the National Federation of Women's Business and Professional clubs will be held at Macanac Island, Michigan, in July. Five delegates, selected by the state board, will represent Nebraska at this meeting.

HISTORY OF ARBOR DAY IS GIVEN AT KIWANIS, MONDAY

Morton One of Well Known Nebraskans Prof. Teed Declares.

Prof. A. V. Teed, of Wayne State Teachers college, gave the history of Arbor Day in his address before the local Kiwanis Monday noon. The first Arbor Day was April 10, 1872, when J. Sterling Morton induced the Nebraska state board of agriculture to set aside that date as Arbor Day. More than a million trees were planted that year. In 1885 the state legislature enacted a law which changed the date to Morton's birthday, April 22. Nebraska, said Professor Teed, was the first state to observe Arbor Day. Now every state in the United States has an Arbor Day.

J. Sterling Morton established his home, Arbor Lodge, on a quarter section of land near Nebraska City, planted large numbers of trees, and developed one of the most beautiful, and the most noted homes in the state. Upon his death, Morton's sons gave the estate to the state of Nebraska. It has been converted into a park, Arbor Lodge State Park.

Professor Teed called attention to Morton's work in Nebraska territory and the early state of Nebraska. He was frequently advanced by friends for important offices, running for governor four times and several times for United States senator, but, due to his refusal to play politics and his unyielding principles, he was almost always defeated. Professor Teed declared that his integrity and ability deserved far more recognition than they received at the time.

Next to William Jennings Bryan, Morton was the best known Nebraskan man the world over, according to Professor Teed.

BABY BEEF CLUB MEETS

Discussion of the good and bad points of Baby beeves and various feedlot problems was the program of the Wayne Baby Beef club at its regular meeting Friday evening, April 19. A baseball team was organized, with LeRoy Stamm as captain. The team plans to play the Wayne Sow and Litter club some time soon. The debate on the question, The beef cow versus the dairy cow, was postponed until next meeting.

For milk or cream for daily delivery or for special occasions call phone 117-R-2 the Logan Valley Dairy. We are always on the job.—adv. M18-11.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The students of the lower grades of the Wayne school will give an art program the afternoons of Thursday and Friday, May 2 and 3 in the different grade rooms for the entertainment of parents and patrons of the school. Each grade will have an art exhibit and a short program arranged at such hours so that those desiring may attend the program in all the rooms.

The program is as follows: Thursday afternoon, Kindergarten, 1:15 to 1:45, folk dances, with the kindergarten orchestra; First grade, 1:45 to 2:15, The Bird's Party, costumed; Second grade, 2:15 to 2:45, Color Parties, a playlet, The Bow and His Dog, a color demonstration; Third grade, 2:45 to 3:15, picture posing.

Friday afternoon, Fourth grade, 1:30 to 2:00, thrift play in costume; Fifth grade, 2:00 to 2:30; a playlet, The Land of Color; Sixth grade, 2:30 to 3:00, picture study; Seventh grade, 3:00 to 3:30, color Fantasy, a play; Eighth grade, 3:30 to 4:00, Romance of the Willow Pattern Plate (history of the common pottery pattern). All programs will begin promptly.

Win Certificates

Two students were awarded attendance certificates this week. Orville Graham, in the third grade received a large certificate for attendance and punctuality during 108 weeks, having a perfect record since he started to school. And Paul Bernston, in the seventh grade, was awarded a middle size certificate for having won six small ones, each the result of six weeks perfect attendance.

Kindergarten—Visitors to the kindergarten last Thursday were Mrs. Clarence Sorenson and Evelyn, Mrs. Clarence Rockwell and Doris Jean, and Mrs. L. W. Powers and Norma. First Grade—Mrs. B. F. Strahan was a visitor to the first grade Monday afternoon. There was a perfect attendance in the first grade last week.

Second grade—Mrs. L. W. Vath, Mrs. Martin Ringer and Miss Felber were second grade visitors this week.

Third grade—The students of the third grade surprised their teacher, Miss Ross, on her birthday last week. They presented her with a box of candy and silk handkerchiefs. The students in the third grade receiving perfect attendance certificates for the first six weeks are: Robert Baker, Betty Blair, Fern Egan, Marjorie Hook, Dorothy Liedtke, Kathryn Young, Orval Graham, Wayne McMaster, Franklin Simonin, Donald Sundt and Lloyd Surber. Those receiving certificates for the second six weeks are: Roberta Baker, Fern Evans, Dorothy Liedtke, Leola Murray, Robert Good, Orval Graham, Chester Jensen, Wayne McMaster, Franklin Simonin, Donald Sundt, Lloyd Surber. The third grade students have been doing free hand cutting in art work. They have been studying about rice culture in geography. Marjorie Hook and Betty Blair gave special reports on the topic.

Fourth grade—The A class finished the geography test this week, and will now study the book, Around the World with the Children, by Carpenter. Eva Liveringhouse was absent Tuesday. Mrs. B. F. Strahan was a visitor Monday.

Fifth grade—Margaret Randall one day this week led a discussion on Arbor Day. The English A class is correlating health with language. The students made art booklets in which they are keeping records of their health choros. The B language class is memorizing The Charge of the Light Brigade, by Tennyson. The A history class are studying the expression of the United States. Tomorrow there will be a declamatory contest, in which each student will take part, and the winners will appear before some of the other grades.

Sixth grade—Mr. Hook visited the arithmetic classes Monday. In arithmetic class the students are studying banking. Wednesday they operated a bank with real money. English class is studying punctuation. Arithmetic class is working on reasoning problems. Marjorie Ellis was absent Monday and Tuesday. Vivian McCall was absent Monday, and Stanley Norton was absent Tuesday. William Luters treated the sixth grade to bananas on his birthday last Friday.

Seventh grade—The seventh grade sent flowers in sympathy for the loss of the mother of the Rhoades twins. The Cartwright and Beckman teams are tied in baseball this week. In spelling the Spirit of St. Louis still leads the Question Mark, but only made one more point than did the Question Mark this week.

Eighth grade—The art class is painting clay pottery designs. Parts will be soon given out for the art day play. Several of the eighth grade students are entering the American Legion safety first poster contest. The B arithmetic class have taken up the study of bank discount. Roumaine Simmerman was absent Tuesday. Marcella Weber and a birthday Wednesday.

RECTANGLE OUT SOON

The spring issue of The Rectangle, publication of Sigma Tau Delta, national literary fraternity, is to appear next week. The Rectangle, of which Prof. J. Q. Owen, national secretary of Sigma Tau Delta, is in charge, receives contributions from college students in all parts of the United States, and it rates as one of the best of college literary publications.

Sigma Tau Delta has over forty chapters located largely in the stronger small colleges of the country. The requirements for membership in Sigma Tau Delta are high. Besides a high scholarship average, the students must publish a minimum of 3,000 words while in school, and an original article each year.

The president of the Wayne State Teachers college chapter is Miss Genevieve Wright.

SCIENTIFIC PROGRESS THEME AT SCIENCE CLUB BANQUET

A scientific atmosphere prevailed at the Science club banquet attended by 50 faculty and student members Monday evening at the Hotel Stratton, and which was declared by those present to be the biggest and best Science club banquet that has been held. The theme of scientific progress was used in both the toasts and in the table decorations. A small electric train sped around on its track on each table. Here and there over the tables were scattered toy airplanes and automobiles. Watch glasses from the chemistry laboratory were used as nut cups. And the place cards were small paper airplane propellers.

Glen Felix acted as toastmaster. The following toasts were given, Pioneering, Prof. I. H. Britell; Reading, Inez Armstrong; Omnipresent, Bill Lerner; Grades, Don Simpson; Railroad, Dr. U. S. Conn; Excitement, Dorothy McCandlish; Soaring, K. R. Hunt; Solo, Anne Kohls. The first letters of the toasts spell the word, Progress.

Inez Armstrong and Dorothy McCandlish were in charge of decorations.

AT THE WAYNE HOSPITAL

Miss Margaret Beardshear, of Homer, entered the hospital Wednesday for medical treatment.

"THE MEETING WILL COME TO ORDER NOW, PLEASE"

"The meeting will please come to order!" And bang! goes the president's gavel. Chairs stop their shuffle, the medley of noises and voices hush. All is attention.

"The secretary will call the roll." The roll is called.

"The secretary will read the minutes of the last meeting." The minutes are read and approved.

"Any old or new business to be brought up at this time?" A boy rises to his feet in the back of the room. "Mr. President, I move that we have a baseball team, and play the Pig club one of these days."

So goes the meeting of the Wayne Baby Beef club conducted in true Roberts rules of order style, by boys and girls—yes there are three girls in the club—in their teens. Such is the work under the direction of Wm. Hawkins, county Baby Beef club leader. The members learn the best methods of caring for their baby beeves to put the growth and the finish on them that prepares them for exhibition and for market. They put these methods into practice in the feedlot. Each boy or girl watches over his calves day by day and week by week, noting carefully their gains, or lack of gains.

But they not only do this. They must learn to rise in meeting and compare their results with those of other members, weigh opinion against opinion, and reasons for their beliefs and be ready to stick to them under fire.

The feeding of livestock is an art. So are public speaking and debating. The members of the Wayne Baby Beef club and the other livestock clubs in the community are learning both, and in so doing are at the same time stamped with the marks of good citizenship.

SPIZZERINKTUM STAFF AT WORK

The Epizzerinktum, annual publication of the students at Wayne State Teachers college, is due to appear about May 20. This year's Spizzerinktum will be dedicated to the improvements made in the last fifteen years at the college, and will be a history of the college up to date. Paul Murray, sophomore, is the editor in chief.

"WHERE WAS MOSES WHEN THE LIGHTS WENT OUT?"

A ground caused when a light line wire came in contact with a telephone cable in the northeast part of the city last Thursday evening made it necessary to shut down the plant for about an hour, and citizens were scurrying about their home resurrecting old lamps, lanterns or what other means of lighting they could find.

The ground pulled all the power from the plant and it was out of the question to keep it running, workmen at the plant stated. As soon as repairs could be made the engines were again set in motion.

Due to the telephone cable being served a number of homes in that section of the city were without that service for a few days.

Book Chat

The May number of the Cosmopolitan Magazine is now at the city library. In this issue begins a new S. S. Van Dine detective story, "The Man in the Blue Overcoat." The author brings his three familiar characters into the forward. "The story of 'The Man in the Blue Overcoat' was related to Marikhan and me by Mr. Philo Vance recently as we sat together in a corner of the lounge-room of the old Stuyvesant Club." And so the story begins. S. S. Van Dine continues to be the favorite among detective story-fans.

And with detective stories flooding the book markets, he alone is able to capture the praise of both the common reading public and the literary critics. The Boston Transcript, in its review of literature for last year, occupied itself chiefly with the new popular trend toward history and biography, and gave but little attention to fiction, excepting alone the S. S. Van Dine stories, to which it devoted a column.

Who is this S. S. Van Dine? His identity is something of a mystery, to us common readers at least. He poses as a well known writer of heavy philosophical works, who prefers to keep his real name a secret when writing detective yarns. He was led into detective story writing by nervous prostration, which kept him from work. He diverted himself by reading hundreds of detective stories, and finally began to write them himself in order to replenish his bank account. He succeeded so well that his former earnings looked like a penny savings account. Now, he says, he has about all the money he will ever need, and after he has written a few more stories he will quit and return to his serious work. We will watch with interest to see if the Philo Vance stories do cease so their author may go back to philosophy.

In the May Cosmopolitan Calvin Coolidge begins a series of articles giving reminiscences and his views on public questions. In the current issue he tells why he did not choose to run for president and what he did to prevent his nomination.

On Mother's day the talkies come to Wayne; a short time ago E. H. Sothern, white-haired, one of the last of the great Shakespearian actors, was in Omaha. It is interesting to compare the old theatre of Sothern with the new theatre, the talkies.

In his early days the theatre was a place of romance, of enchantment, where graceful actors spoke graceful lines to an intellectual audience. It must go a little hard with him to see the stage on which he acted become almost a part of the picture by the mechanical stage—the movies and talkies.

But in all progress there is bound to be some disappointment as those of the old school see the things for which they worked passing away. If the movies and talkies lack the elegance of the old theater, they reach hundreds of us while the legitimate theater was reaching one. And some day perhaps something of the old romance tempered with a little of our modern realism may come to the talkies.

CARROLL HIGH SCHOOL HAS JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The juniors of Carroll high school banqueted the seniors last Friday evening at the Hotel Stratton in Wayne. Carrie Wilson was toastmaster. The program consisted of music by Miss Bross and Mr. Fowler; toasts based on the senior motto, Today and Tomorrow, by Gilmore Sals, Charles Gorwood, and Elizabeth Gemmel; the class history, prepared by Marion Stephens; the class will, by Gertrude Lynch; and the class prophecy, by Raymond Luik. The room was decorated in purple and gold, the class colors, and with yellow roses.

PIONEER SURVEYOR WEDS HIS YOUNG STENOGRAPHER

T. T. Linkhart, pioneer, who surveyed the present town sites of Randolph, Wausa, Bloomfield, Concord, Hartington and Coleridge and conducted the first lot sales in these towns was married to his stenographer, Miss Helen Hofeldt, on March 14th, it was learned last week.

The groom is a wealthy pioneer of Cedar county, and is well known throughout this corner of the state. His young bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hofeldt of Laurel.

INTEREST IN HOGS REVIVING

With a falling off in the number of hogs to be marketed this spring, and in the number of sows for spring farrowing this year as compared to last, the mid-month crop review sent out by Lincoln predicts that there will be a 14 percent shortage in marketable hogs, and notes a reviving interest in hog raising among the farmers.

The review states that there has been sufficient rainfall for crops all over the state in all but a few counties, and that farmers are as well along with their spring work throughout the state as usual.

"SOCIETY FOR DOING GOOD" ORGANIZED BY "HEALERS"

Organization Articles Filed for Evangelism and Healing.

"The Essene Brotherhood" is the name of a new association effected at Neigh following the acquittal of J. Perry Philbin, barber healer, who was charged with violating state laws.

The association is formed with the idea of "doing good" spiritually and physically according to papers filed with the Antelope-county clerk last week.

J. W. J. Johnson, influential in organizing the new cult, is to be head evangelist of the group; J. Perry Philbin will be head magnetic healer; Frank Philbin, assistant magnetic healer; Jose Philbin, secretary and Treasurer. A board of control and trustees is also provided for.

Plugged to do Good

Religious worship will be conducted every Sunday at 3 p. m. in the old Commodore hotel, and there will be occasional services during the week.

The membership pledge of the organization reads: "I, the undersigned, desire membership in the Essene Brotherhood on probation, with the privilege of becoming an active member on or before the expiration of the probation period of one year, as brother or sister member.

"And, as a member of the Essene Brotherhood, I declare I will not use profane language, as per state law, section 9,794. I will endeavor to do all the good I can to every person needing help, so far as is possible according to my strength and ability.

"I will endeavor to exemplify the motto to 'Touch not, taste not, handle not', anything that will in any way injure myself or my fellow being.

"I agree to practice the insignia of the brotherhood—Love to God, love for good, and love to mankind.

"This does not sever my connection with any other church membership."

PREHISTORIC ANIMAL PARTY (From The Goldenrod)

A very unique all school party, called a Prehistoric Animal party, was held in the college gymnasium Saturday evening, April 20.

Two groups of animals were formed Reptiles making up one group and Amphibians the other. Dwight Farrow was the leader of the reptiles, and Harold Jeffreys, of the amphibians.

These animals were pitted against each other in contests of different kinds, each engaging in forays characteristic of his nature. They prowled, drank, ate, fought, roared, pursued, and played. Points were scored for the side winning in each event. Wayne Putnam was master of ceremonies and Jack Ray was first assistant.

Refreshments were served, manna in shape of animal crackers, and apples from the Garden of Eden.

Those on the committee were Merrill Whitman, Duane Kneeland, Will Lerner, Evelyn Manson, Genevieve Wright, and Lucile Langley.

22% MORE POWER

5 MILES AN HOUR MORE SPEED

2 EXTRA MILES FROM EVERY GALLON OF GAS

UNTIL you have driven the new Nash "400" with the Twin Ignition motor, you can have no adequate idea of how much pleasure it has added to motoring.

Here are some plain, unvarnished facts and figures which may serve to convince you that you owe yourself a ride in a Twin-Ignition-Motored Nash.

With Twin Ignition instead of single ignition (two spark plugs per cylinder firing simultaneously, instead of one higher compression is practical, and a much more efficient combustion of the gases is accomplished.

The result is that the identical Nash motor, by actual test, produces 22% more power than with single ignition, 5 miles per hour more speed, and gives you 2 extra miles of travel from every single gallon of gasoline you buy.

In fairness to yourself, don't think of buying any motor car today, until you have seen and driven the brilliant new Twin-Ignition-Motored Nash "400."

"A POUND OF CAKE"

A POUND OF CALF
Three times as much cottonseed cake was shipped into Valentine, Nebraska this winter for cattle feeding as was shipped three winters ago. And the reason ranchers in that neighborhood are discovering that a little cottonseed cake along with their prairie hay makes their calves keep putting on weight all winter. Otherwise they merely mark time. "A pound of cake made a pound of calf," declared E. M. Brouse, superintendent of the experiment station at Valentine, at the Feeders Day meeting at Lincoln April 19. He told of a feeding test run this last winter on calves of the 1928 crop. One lot was wintered on prairie hay alone, and other lots received from one half pound to a pound and one-half of cottonseed cakes per calf per day. The calves limited to prairie hay came out gaunt in the spring and averaged but 13 pounds heavier than they had in the fall. Those given one-half pound of cake a day gained 108 pounds during the winter, and those fed one pound a day gained 163 pounds or a pound for every pound of cake. Cottonseed cake costs two and one-half cents a pound. Calves sell up to 12 cents. It was not hard to figure where the profits lay. But, Mr. Brouse said, oats or alfalfa hay in the ration produce about as good results as cottonseed cake, and can be fed to better advantage when produced on the farm. So cottonseed cake is becoming popular in Valentine.

RUN OVER BY DISC; PIERCE FARMER SERIOUSLY HURT

Frank Rawlings, 60, of Pierce, was critically hurt when he was run over by a disc last week when the horses he was driving became frightened and ran away. Rawlings fell in front of the machine as it bumped over the field being drawn by the run-away horses and was badly bruised and cut by the disc, which passed over his body. Little hope is held for his recovery, it is reported.

Very Neat Jackie

At a reception given at one of the Hollywood studios, a feminine visitor no longer in her first youth, chucked a boy star under the chin and said, "Are you too old to be kissed?" Jerking his chin away, the youthful genius replied, "No, but you are."—Pittsburgh Sun.

BUT MABEL... way upstairs had just stepped out of the tub or perhaps she was dressing for the evening. In either case—in the living room sat the boy friend directly between the telephone and Mabel. Such perplexing situations are frequent in homes with only one telephone. They are unknown in homes that have extension telephones upstairs in the hallway or bedrooms. Telephones can be located throughout the home so that all members of the family can get the calls that come to them without delay or inconvenience. The up-to-date families are having their homes equipped with telephones in bedroom, living room, library or den and kitchen.

Sour Stomach
Sweetened instantly

Just a tasteless dose of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia in water. That is an alkali, effective, yet harmless. It has been the standard antacid for 50 years among physicians everywhere. One spoonful will neutralize at once many times its volume in acid. It is the right way, the quick, pleasant and efficient way to kill the excess acid. The stomach becomes sweet, the pain disappears. You are happy again in five minutes. Don't depend on crude methods. Em-play the best way yet evolved in all the years of searching. That is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drugstore. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

SOCIAL NOTES

W. C. T. U. Meets.
That the work of the W. C. T. U. is worldwide in its scope, was stressed by Miss Ernest Elder, county president of W. C. T. U., in her talk before the monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. held at the W. C. Heidenreich home last Friday afternoon. Her words spoke an intense interest in the work and her contagious enthusiasm carried over to her audience.

Rev. W. W. Whitman, pastor of the local Methodist church, discussed various phases of the temperance work, and stressed the fact that propaganda is still being actively circulated by the wets. He urged that W. C. T. U. members secure a better knowledge of such propaganda.

Interspersed with the talks was a varied musical program. Miss Verona McNatt played a piano solo, "The Edelweiss Glide." Miss Faunlie Beckenhauer, a piano solo, "Salute to the Colors." A group of vocal solos was sung by Gretchen Beckenhauer, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Laura Belle Johnson: "Mission of the Rose," "Cowan; Death and the Maiden," "Shubert, which was sung in German; "The Bird with the Broken Wing," "Goldsen, Miss Ruby Long gave a piano solo, "Murmuring Zephyrs."

Reverend Heidenreich closed the meeting with a prayer. A covered dish luncheon followed.

Acme Club With Mrs. Wilson.

The Acme club met Monday at the home of Mrs. H. F. Wilson for a one o'clock two-course luncheon. The decorations were spring flowers. The members answered to roll call by reporting on an editorial. The lesson was Current Events, conducted by Mrs. W. R. Weber. The annual election of officers was held, and the following officers were elected: Mrs. V. A. Hiscox, president; Mrs. V. A. Senter, vice-president; Mrs. E. S. Blair, secretary; and Mrs. J. T. Bressler, Treasurer. Acme club meets May 6 with Mrs. C. T. Ingham for its music week program. Mrs.

Spring Announcement of New Method in Waving

Within the past year has been developed an entirely new process of permanent waving which seems destined to revolutionize the industry. The French Beauty Parlor, in keeping with its usual service, will install for the benefit of its patrons the new "FREDERICKS PROCESS" in combination with the superior "CROQUINOLE" channels, changes which will not only add to the beauty of the wave, but lessen the discomfort of the individual while receiving wave. The benefits may be summed up in the following statement:

"The Frederick's process is distinctive in its application, as well as in results. Ease in re-waving old waves, is combined with a new winding process which allows each strand of hair to receive the same amount of heat as the others. This, in its turn, produces a wave which is softer, easier kept, and blends with the old wave as a continuation. Totally eliminated is the chance of slight burns by a simple contrivance which insulates holds, and allows a much firmer winding without a chance "pull" to the individual."

Appointments made up to April 20 will be privileged the very reasonable price of $8 in the introduction of the process. The usual guarantee of satisfaction holds with the new process as well as with the old.

Just ring 527 or 249W, or better yet, drop in and get further information at

The Wylie family presented the Life of Moses in Drama to a full house at the M. E. church Sunday night. Mrs. I. O. Brown and Mrs. Fred Bright sang two duets; Miss Mildred Moses sang two solos, and Miss Reba Jones played an instrumental number.

Glenn McMilian and "Hutch" Fleeer left Monday for a fishing trip to Marsh lake, near Wood lake.

Lewis-Allen

Monday afternoon at Wayne, by County Judge J. M. Cherry, occurred the marriage of Miss Elsie Allen of Havelock and Laverne Lewis of Winside. The newly weds will go to housekeeping at once on the groom's fathers farm north of town.

SOCIALS

The regular meeting of the Odd Fellows Lodge was held on Monday night.

with fifteen members present. After the regular business session, a social hour was enjoyed with a lunch of rolls and coffee.

Woman's Club Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Woman's club was held on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Wm. Misfeldt as hostess and Mrs. John Brugger as program leader. Eleven members and two visitors were present. The program was a Nebraska program and each member had something on the subject either in the form of a paper or clipping. The club sang America. The hostess served a two course luncheon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Art Auker as hostess.

Wedding Anniversary Party.

Friday night was the thirty-third wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Walde. About forty of their neighbors and friends surprised them on that evening. A part of the evening was given to a mock wedding, and cards were played. A picnic lunch which the guests had provided was enjoyed.

A party was given at the Chris Lautenbaugh home Saturday afternoon for five little girls by the Misses Louise and Alma Lautenbaugh. Games were played and lunch was served.

THERE is nothing quite like Bayer Aspirin for all sorts of aches and pains, but be sure it is genuine Bayer; that name must be on the package, and on every tablet. Bayer is genuine, and the word genuine—in red—is on every box. You can't go wrong if you will just look at the box when you buy it.

Ready for Your Fields

JOHN DEERE No. 999 CORN PLANTER

Get into your fields this year with a John Deere No. 999—the planter that has increased the profits of thousands of farmers.

Here are some of the points of merit of the "999" that have made it such a popular favorite throughout the entire corn belt:

1. John Deere Natural-Drop Seed Plates, sloping hopper bottom, improved metal cut-off and roller knocker—make the most accurate dropping device.
2. Plants any kind of corn.

There are many other features of the "999", but we want you to see them for yourself. Come in any time.
