Boy Scout Anniversary to be Observed

Kiwanis Will Be Host to Boys Scouts at Twentieth Anniversary Celebration.

NATION WILL OBSERVE EVENT

Boy Scout week, commemorating the twentieth anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America will be duly observed in Wayne at a meeting sponsored by the Kiwanis at which the members of the boy scouts will be guests of honor.

The meeting, which is scheduled to take place Monday evening, Feb. 3 will be in the nature of a banquet followed by a program in which the scouts themselves will participate in.

This meeting is in keeping with observances that will be general throughout the country in recognition of this great organization. Boy Scout week proper occurs from February 7th to 13th inclusive but the local observance is anticipated slightly so as to co-incide with the regular meeting date of the Kiwanis.

The original incorporation of the Boy Scouts of America was on February 8th, 1910, and since that time Scouting has enjoyed a remarkable growth. Two outstanding features that have contributed to this growth have been the fact that the Boy Scouts of America is a strictly non-sectarian organization, and the high type of men who have and are continuing to voluntarily devote their time to the promotion of this good work. The principles and ideals of Scouting are beyond question otherwise it would have been impossible for the Boy Scouts of America to be one of only three organizations granted National Charters by the Congress of the United States.

During this week there will be (continued on page four)

WAYNE RESIDENT TAKEN BY DEATH

Mrs. Sarah Jane Lamberson, Mother of George Lamberson of Wayne Passes Away Saturday

Mrs. Sarah Jane Lamberson, known to her friends as Mrs. Jennie Lamberson, passed away at the hospital here Thursday, Jan. 30, following an illness of a little over two months. She had a bad fall Dec. 12, breaking her hip, and had not been very well since.

Sarah Jane Van Horn was born at Newton, N. J. Feb. 29, 1848, and passed away at the Wayne hospital Thursday Jan. 30, 1930, at the age of 81 years.

The deceased was married to James P. Lamberson at Schoolcraft, Michigan, Nov. 22, 1866. To this union were born three children, namely: Corrella Lamberson, deceased, Geo. A. Lamberson of Wayne, and Clifford J. Lamberson of Fullerton, Nebraska. Since the death of her husband in 1914, and until about three years ago, she has visited relatives and friends and spent a part of the time at her own home. About three years ago, she came to Wayne to make her home with her son, George and family. Her death came as a result of a hard fall which she sustained Dec. 12, from which, with her declining years, she failed to rally, and from which she suffered severely for two months, six weeks of which time she spent at the Lamberson home. As the efficient care necessary could not be given at the home, she was removed to the local hospital, but she failed very rapidly.

She leaves to mourn her loss her two sons, eight grandchildren, two brothers, George Van Horn of Newton, N. J. and S. S. Van Horn of Fremont; and three sisters, Mrs. Arvilla Van Horn of Newton, N. J., Mrs. Mary Hough of Plattsmouth, and A. S. Esther Enover of Fremont; and many old time friends. Two sisters preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church at Hooper at 11 o'clock Saturday, February 1st, and interment was made beside her husband in the cemetery at that place. The deceased was a member of the M. E. church at Fremont, and of the Order of the Eastern Star at Hooper. Services at the grave were in charge of this order.

Pioneer Wayne County Passes

Mrs. Frank Weible Passes Away at Her Home in Winside Tuesday Afternoon, February 4th.

Mrs. Katie Weible passed away at her home in Winside at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, death being due to dropsy. She had been confined to her bed the past two weeks.

She came to Wayne county in 1884 and made her home with her sister, Mrs. Henry Wittler of Wayne. While here, she met Frank Weible to whom she was married February 14th, 1887 at Berger, Missouri. They made their first home on a farm southeast of Winside where they resided two years, and then moved to Winside.

She was a member of the Lutheran church, and will be remembered as a devoted wife and mother.

Mrs. Weible is survived by three children, F. W. Weible, Ed Weible, and Mrs. Cora Schmode, all of Winside. She is also survived by her mother, Mrs. Wm. Damme of Berger, Missouri, two sisters, Mrs. Henry Wittler of Hartington, and Mrs. August Kahle of Berger, Missouri; by five brothers, J. H. Damme, Talmadge, William Damme, Wayne; Herman Damme, Silver Creek; Fred Damme, Boydon, Oklahoma; and Louie Damme, of Haskell, Oklahoma; besides eleven grandchildren.

Mr. Weible preceded her in death by 12 years, having passed away in 1918.

Funeral services will be held at the home at one o'clock this Thursday afternoon, Feb. 6, and at the St. Paul's Lutheran church at 2 o'clock, the Rev. H. M. Hilpert, pastor of the church, to be in charge. Interment will be made in the Pleasant View cemetery at Winside.

Prominent Club Woman Spoke Before Kiwanis

A Washington, D. C. conference of officials of the Federation of Women's clubs, in which Gen. Jan Smuts, of South Africa, was the principle speaker, formed the theme of a talk by Mrs. W. E. Minier, who spoke at Monday's meeting of the Kiwanis club.

Mrs. Minier was formerly state president of the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs and at present is General Chairman of Community service in that organization in the state. In this latter capacity she attended the Washington meeting.

The Washington meeting was largely taken up with efforts to bring about the promotion of world peace and Gen. Smuts' talk, she reported was chiefly devoted to the important part that Great Britain and America have to play in the realization of that great objective.

LOCAL UNIT OF MINUTE MEN HAS BEEN FORMED

Wayne Businessmen Have United to Wage Determined Fight Against Chain Stores.

WILL COOPERATE WITH KWKH

Declaring the chain store to be a menace and a detriment to the community, local business men have formed an organization to combat these enterprises.

The new organization, which will be known as the Minute Men, is being formed along the lines of those which have sprung up in all parts of the country at the suggestion of W. K. Henderson of Shreveport, Louisiana, who, through his broadcasting station, KWKH, has been waging a very effective fight against chain stores of the country.

Similar organizations have sprung up in numerous towns and cities in northeastern Nebraska and western Iowa and the reports of their activities have been noted with interest by local people who have listened in nightly to Mr. Henderson's station.

The primary purpose of the Minute Men, as far as the local body is concerned, is to acquaint the public with the grievances which the local business men have against the chain stores. The sponsors claim that the rise of the chain store mean the decline of the home owned and operated stores which will retard the growth and progress of the community. The chain store owners, residing in some city many miles from Wayne cannot have the interest in the progress and up building of the city that a merchant who makes his home here can have, they assert.

While the Minute Men will give their whole hearted moral, and to a certain extent financial, support to Mr. Henderson in promoting his work, they will devote a major portion of their energy to an locally waged campaign.

"This will be no spasmodic campaign" one of the sponsors stated to the Democrat reporter this week. "There will be no dealing in personalities or sensational accusations; but we are going to keep up a steady and determined fight against the chain stores that will show the people how they are undermining their town, their schools, churches, social and business life when they slight their home merchants to the advantage of these outsiders."

About twenty-four local business houses are thus far represented in the new organization with several more expected to join in the course of the week.

Mrs. Albert Kramer of near Dixon, who has been seriously ill the past month with a severe attack of pleurisy, is able to be up and about again, and is getting along nicely. She was formerly Miss Irma Hughes.

Home Merchants vs. the Chain Stores—The Democrat's Stand

Whatever may be for the best interest of Wayne and the territory it serves, this publication is for it and will fight for it if necessary.

In conformity with this principle we state without any hesitancy that we are whole heartedly in sympathy with the home town merchants of Wayne in their fight against the chain store evil.

In taking this stand we are not taking up the fight of any individual merchant against his competitor nor have we any grievances to air—It is the chain store principle that we are unalterably opposed to.

Throughout the country today there is a tendency toward the merging of business interests. Such a tendency if carried on would mean the eventual concentration of business in a few hands. The American people have fought the encroachment of the policy ever since this country began and the American people are walking up to the fact that never before in the Nation's history have these trusts (we'll use the old fashioned word) entrenched themselves more strongly than they are doing right at the present time.

And no where is the deplorable phase of this tendency asserting more plainly than in the ascendance of the chain stores.

Dairy Calf Unit of 4-H Club Has Been Organized

Members Will Raise Pure Bred Holstein Heifer Calves to Maturity. Work Covers 4 Year Period.

D. WIGHTMAN DONATES CALVES

A dairy calf club is the newest feature of the work of 4-H club members in Wayne and vicinity. Such a club having been organized under the direction of Club leader Dr. Wm. Hawkins, at the Legion club rooms last Thursday night.

A Mr. Liebers, a representative of the Dairy Improvement Association operating under Carl Grey, was present to help the club get organized and to lay out a program and schedule under which the youthful members are to operate.

Each of the members present at the meeting that night are to be given a pure bred Holstein heifer calf which they are to raise to maturity and to raise calves from.

These calves have been graciously donated by Don S. Wightman of the Fairacres Dairy Farm who made the offer of a limited number of calves to boys entering the project. The calves thus donated are to be property of the boys, the only condition involved that the first calf from each of these heifers shall be turned over to Mr. Wightman.

The membership has been made up of five boys, namely: LeRoy Stamm, president; Leonard Blecke, vice president; John Von Seggern, secretary and treasurer; Walfred Carlson and Leonard Nelson.

The program scheduled covers a three year period and involves the most phases of breeding and raising of livestock of any of the 4-H club activities.

John S. Lewis passed away at his home here this morning at about 4:30 o'clock following a severe attack of pneumonia. Tryout of Cadets' Planes Saturday

Members of the American Cadets, are requested by their leader, E. J. Huntemer, to meet with him at the college gymnasium next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock and to bring their planes with them.

This organization formed a short time ago to guide boys of this vicinity who may be interested in aeronautics along practical lines, has met enthusiastic response among the boys. Fifty-five have already joined the organization and it is expected that many more will enroll before long. The construction of air plane models has formed an interesting diversion to the boys. Several boys, it is reported have already made planes that actually, will fly.

Harvey's duties which include supervision of the company's business at Hartington and Coleridge, keep him away from the Wayne business a great share of the time and the coming of his brother Marvin Sorensen was largely for the purpose of relieving him of many of his duties and to take care of the company's constantly increasing business.

Sol Hooker In Automobile Accident

Highway Commissioner Sol Hooker figured in an automobile accident Tuesday in which the car he was driving was badly damaged, but he fortunately escaped injury. He was driving on a highway west of Randolph and while turning out to meet a car coming in the opposite direction struck a slippery place in the road which caused the car to swerve and stall diagonally across the road. The oncoming car, unable to stop, struck Hooker's car broadside causing considerable damage to both cars.

Small Blaze Damages Roof Local Residence

The Wayne Fire department was called to the H. W. Bonawitz home at 403 Walnut street about 8 o'clock last Thursday evening when the roof was discovered to be ablaze. Outside of a hole burned in the roof no serious mischief was done, the fire having been put out by the time the fire truck arrived, and before it had burned into the inner part of the house. It is thought the fire was caused by sparks from the chimney falling on the roof.

Prominent Wayne Matron Is Stricken

Mrs. Rollie W. Ley Passes Away After Illness of a Few Hours. Funeral Held Tuesday.

WHOLE COMMUNITY MOUING

Local business places were closed Tuesday afternoon as a mark of respect and mourning for Mrs. Rollie W. Ley, for whom funeral services were held at that time at the Methodist church.

Mrs. Ley passed away at her home in Wayne last Friday night following a brief illness. Her sudden passing came as a shock to the community for even her friends were not aware that she had been ill. On Thursday afternoon she had entertained the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church and was at that time active and in her characteristic good health. That evening she became ill. At first it was thought to be but a slight indisposition, but when she continued to become worse, a doctor was called. Friday morning she appeared to be much better and later in the day seemed practically over her illness.

Later in the evening she suffered another attack. The doctor was called, but she suffered a sinking spell from which she failed to rally.

In the death of Mrs. Ley the community has suffered a distinct loss. Her active life was filled with good deeds that will be remembered with gratitude for many years to come. Although a devoted wife and mother, her active life encompassed many activities outside of her home circle on behalf of her church, her friends and the community in general.

During her life here she was a devoted member of the Methodist church, took a prominent part in its activities and never stunted in working for its advancement. She was also prominent in activities of the P. E. O., the Rebekah Lodge and the country club.

Pearl Reynolds Ley, daughter of Edward and Mary Jane Reynolds, was born at Elkader, Iowa, October 1, 1879. When a child of six she moved with her parents to Nebraska, moving to Wayne. She was married to Rollie W. Ley at Fullerton, on October 8, 1902 and continuously since her marriage has resided in this city.

Besides her husband she is survived by her five children, Henry, Mary Alice, Marjory, Joy and Josephine V., also three sisters and three brothers, Mrs. C. S. Beebe, Mrs. Gene Gilder sleeve and Mrs. H. B. Craven, all of Wayne; Chas. Reynolds of Wayne, DeLos Reynolds of Kearney and Clyde Reynolds of Atlanta, Ga.

The services were conducted by Rev. W. W. Whitman and the music by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Oman, assisted by Mrs. John T. Bressler, Jr. The following served as pall bearers: C. M. Craven, J. J. Ahern, Homer Seace, J. Miller, J. W. Jones, F. S. Berry, Clarence Corbit and Harry Fisher. The body was laid to rest in the Greenwood cemetery.

A VERY PERTINENT QUESTION

The pioneer spirit and sacrifice of the early settlers which gave birth to the small towns, and the cooperative and community effort exhibited by men who have built them to their present state, is wholly lacking in the mail order houses and chains. The mail order houses or the chains do not come into a town until it is a thriving city. They send an advance man out to make a survey of conditions, checking the agricultural productivity of the trade territory from which they draw. It does not seem prosperous they seek a location in some other territory.

If the chains and mail order houses are permitted to extend their financial power until it checks the growth or causes a decline in population in small cities and towns, is it not also possible that it will reduce the valuation of land, destroy competition and leave us at the mercy of monopoly?—Hartington Herald.

CURSE OF LACK OF SCHOOLING

A very touching incident is revealed in last moments of a 19 year old condemned murderer who paid the penalty for his crime in Booneville, Missouri, last week.

The lad, practically illiterate, had turned to the Bible as a solace from the anguish caused by his approaching doom. Laboriously he spelled out each word as he read, and reviewed each sentence to catch its meaning. He harbored the ambition to read the Book before the end came, but came far short of realizing the ambition.

His greatest regret lay in the fact that he hadn't "gotten educated" for, he reasoned, if he had, he never would have come to such an end.

The lad may have been right. Who knows? In the final analysis it may be revealed that the boy's father was more concerned with the boy's help on the farm than allowing him to get a few months' schooling.

Compulsory education in practically every state in the Union is doing away with the possibility of the recurrence of such cases as this. Thank God for that.

CHICAGO HARD UP

Chicago, somehow or other, has a habit of making itself a horrible example for the rest of the world. The muddle which that city finds itself in at present in regard to its depleted finances is only one of the many deplorable states of affairs emanating from that city of strange complexes.

In reality the situation presents a most hopeful outlook for that city. Chicago's system of administration of public affairs has not only been wasteful, but it affords an easy opportunity for graft that serves to entrench most strongly the most undesirable type of politicians.

Businessmen of Chicago are offering to help the city out of its financial muddle, but in return for the favor demand that the finances they furnish the city be safeguarded through their being given the right to dictate as to how the expenditures shall be curbed.

This suggestion, naturally, does not set well with the politicians, but they are in a tight place at present and will have to grant some concessions before long.

Chicago should profit by the experience.

CROSSING ACCIDENTS

ON THE DECREASE

In spite of the fact that automobile accidents are alarmingly on the increase, there is one significant fact in that connection that is of an optimistic nature. The number of railroad crossing accidents are on the decline. According to a report by an official of the Omaha Line the number of crossing tragedies along that system during the past year has been reduced 36 per cent from the year previous.

The railroads of this country have spent millions of dollars in publicity to drive home to the public the utter folly of taking chances with death while crossing a railroad track. It must be a matter of much satisfaction to the sponsors of these safety first campaigns to see that their efforts are eventually bearing fruit. Their progress in this work has been slow, but the results show that certain human shortcomings such as carelessness and recklessness can be curbed to a certain extent through publicity.

Howard Endorses Fight Against Chain Stores

Wholehearted concurrence with the sentiment of the home town merchants of his district in their fight against the chain store evil, was expressed by Congressman Howard in a letter last week to Editor F. J. Dimmel of the Winside Tribune.

The letter was in the main, a commentary on the action of Winside Merchants in wiring their endorsement to the KWKH radio broadcasting station of the work that it is doing in combating the chain stores throughout the country.

Mr. Howard's letter follows:
January 25, 1930.
Mr. F. J. Dimmel, Editor,
Winside, Nebraska.

Dear Brother Dimmel:

"I have just been reading in your Tribune of January twenty-three an account of the endorsement of the business and professional men in your home town that has been given to Henderson, the famous broadcaster at Shreveport, Louisiana. I think you and your home folks are doing a good work in this direction. I have not always endorsed some of the rough language used by Henderson, but I am a great believer in the liberty of the press, and today the broadcasting station has taken in a measure the attitude of the press, and that same liberty which we good Americans demand for the press should also be guaranteed to all radio broadcasts. Of course every broadcaster should be held to strict accountability for his speech, just as a newspaper is held for its printed words. I believe Henderson is doing a good work in calling attention to the evils of that element which is seeking to drive individuals out of all manner of merchandizing in the United States, and placing the retailing of merchandizing in the hands of gigantic combinations of organized wealth. I congratulate you and thank you and the business men of Winside for their action in this matter.

"For your information I will convey to you the best view that I can receive here regarding the attack on Henderson. His license has been again extended but only for a short time. I feel that the activity of many members of congress from all over the country in his behalf will finally result in brushing away all charges, and restoring to him his license permanently. However, I must not underestimate the strength and the power of those vast combinations which are fighting Henderson. And while I hope to see him win his fight, yet I shall not be surprised if the enemy shall prevail against him."

Fraternally,
Edgar Howard.

Boy Is Injured When Sled Is Overturned

Elwin Ruebeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ruebeck of near Wakefield, had the misfortune to break his collar bone while coasting on his sled last Thursday afternoon. The sled rope caught underneath the sled in some way, throwing the sled over and injuring Elwin. Although he found his experience quite painful, he is getting along just fine.

Radio Broadcasting, Speeches, Civic programs, and other features to mark this Anniversary.

On Saturday evening, February 8th over the network of the National Broadcasting Company, the Scout oath and Law will be presented by a National Speaker. Over the chain of Columbia, the Broadcasting Company between 8:30 and 9:00 o'clock, there will be a Scout Program of half an hour's duration, including Dr. Jeha H. Finley, Associate Editor of the New York Times, and by Chief Scout Executive, James E. West. This program includes selections by Seymour's Boy Scout Band of Brooklyn, New York. In addition to this, more than 135 local Radio Stations will participate, either on Anniversary night, or at other times during the week in programs.

The various activities for this week in which the Scouts are to participate are as follows: Friday, Feb. 7, Sponsor's Day; Saturday, Feb. 8, Anniversary Day and Mobilization Day; Sunday, Feb. 9, Scout Sermon; Monday, February 10th, School Day; Tuesday, Feb. 11, Home Day; Wednesday, Feb. 12, Patriot's Day; and Outdoor Day; Thursday, Feb. 13, Citizens' Day.

This Community is under the jurisdiction of the Covered Wagon Area Council which comprises 29 counties of Nebraska and has 168 Troops of whom 88 are outside of Omaha. The total membership of the Council today is 3,550 Scouts. This shows a net increase of 536 Scouts since June 1, 1929. Schools of Leadership for the training of men in Scouting are being conducted continually over the entire Area and yet the eligible boys are seeking admittance into the Boy Scouts of America faster than these men can be trained. Certainly a healthy condition for the organization and a credit to the Communities that have boys of this type.

Snooker Tournament Drew Big Crowds

"Snooker", a certain form of the game of pool, may not call for the science of a Slosser or a Hoopes, but it certainly can generate rivalry and competition as is demonstrated in the interest shown in two "Snooker" tournaments held recently in two local pool halls. Patrons of the Peterson Billiard Parlor were pitted against those of the Fred Ellis Pool Hall, one match being staged Thursday and the other Tuesday. Each side, knowing the grooves in their favored pool halls did the best in their accustomed haunts, consequently the Peterson crowd won the match at the Peterson parlors and the Ellis crowd in their pool hall. The matches attracted wide attention and standing room was at a premium when the games were in progress. A rubber match will be held in the near future.

Making Improvements In Local Phone System

A crew of seven men, who have been working on the local telephone system since last November, have completed a major portion of the improvement work scheduled for them to do and are being transferred this week to other points in the territory.

Most of their work during their stay in this vicinity has been changing telephone poles, replacing the old ones that have done service for the past twenty years with new, specially treated ones that will bear better the increased weight of extra wiring and not be subject to decay.

The new poles have been set between Wayne, Wakefield and Concord. The crew, it is expected, will return to Wayne in the course of a month or so and install other improvements in the local system.

He Didn't See His Shadder

If the weather following ground hog day may be taken as criterion, that porcine weather prophet must have emerged from his winter quarters some time during the morning for the weather has been unusually fine since that time. Sunday, February 2, ushered in a cloudy but springlike day with fine weather prevailing since. Snow has practically disappeared.

Nebraska Farm Outlook Very Good

Nebraska agriculture made good in 1929. Gross farm income for the year ending June 30, 1929, was nearly a half billion dollars. Three new crop records were made. Twenty-one crops exceeds the average yield and only seven were below.

Livestock did even better, says A. E. Anderson, state and federal agricultural statistician in his final summary for agriculture for the past year. Conditions are not pessimistic. A steady, conservative forging ahead of agriculture into the new year is certain, provided reasonably good prices prevail.

The past year was outstanding in livestock. A new record for sheep was made with over one million and a half head marketed. Market receipts for hogs were second on the record and may even be first after all of the records are received. The sale of livestock and its products during the past year is the highest since 1920 and nearly twice the low point of 1922.

Prospects for the new year's production are good. The subsoil moisture supply is better than usual and this is an important factor in the state's crop production.

Pig surveys indicate the hog supply will be as large as in the year just past and present information on sheep indicate even larger numbers than last year. The cattle supply is due to be larger due to decreased marketings last fall. The poultry business is due for an expansion, but dairying is due for a reduction unless present depressed prices improve.

Oats moved up from seventh to fourth place while other leading crops maintained their previous high rank. Nebraska is first in wild hay; second in winter wheat, alfalfa and sugar beets; third in corn, all wheat and rye; fourth in oats and all hay; second in hogs and sheep feeding; third in cattle and fourth in creamery butter.

The production of grain crops was 6.5 per cent over the year previous and 15.6 per cent above the five year average. This is noteworthy in view of the fact that this year's wheat average throughout the country was markedly lower. The oat crop was especially good, last year's yield being 9 per cent above the year before and 25 per cent above the average.

Livestock contributed about 71 per cent of the gross farm income for the year ending June 30, 1929. In addition, over 55 percent of the total value of Nebraska's manufactured products were derived from livestock and its products.

What agriculture has done, despite the price disparity, is sufficient evidence that Nebraska would have a new era of prosperity if the industry could be placed upon a price equality with other industries.

Swan TorKelson went to New York this spring determined to make a little money pulling skin games on innocent strangers. Things would have gone all right, but the first fellow he tried to sell the Brooklyn bridge to turned out to be the owner of the darn thing, and if Swan hadn't paid him ten dollars to keep quiet the man would have arrested him.

Telephone Adventures of the Bright Family

"Of Course, You Can't Find It," Said Mom. "You're Using the Old Directory."

"I've looked high and low all through this directory and old Sherlock Holmes himself and his whole gang couldn't find Jim's telephone number in it," Pop said, Mom saying, "Well, of course, you can't find it; you're using the old directory."

"Well," Pop said, "where's the new one? And what's this old one doing here?" And Mom said, "You'll find the new one right in the drawer there." She wasn't home when the new one was delivered, so they couldn't pick up the old one.

Pop found it and saying something about using out-of-date directories wasn't fair to good dispositions, he took the old directory downstairs and threw it in the furnace, meaning it's best to get rid of old directories and always use the new one.

The weather having moderated some, the ice skating rink at Laurel is again a popular place. A large crowd gathers each evening to spend the evening skating. Police and other large dogs have been doing considerable mischief in the Emerson locality, two goats and four hogs having been killed recently. Fire completely destroyed the Logan View school building located northeast of Laurel, Thursday of last week. The fire, it is presumed, was caused from a defective flue, and had a good start when discovered. School was in session at the time the fire was discovered and the children were marched out of the building in orderly fashion. The fire was beyond control by the time help arrived and very little was saved from the building. School has been suspended for the time being pending the finding of a suitable place in which to hold sessions.

Cute in a Baby—Awful at Three—and it's Dangerous
by Ruth Brittain

Thumb sucking does look sweet in a baby, but it is disgusting in the three-year-old and sometimes it hangs on until fifteen or sixteen! The habit may cause an ill-formed mouth or induce adenoids; and it always interferes with digestion. Pinning the sleeve over the hand; attaching mittens, or putting on cardboard cuffs, which prevent bending the arms at the elbows, are some of the ways to stop the habit.

Another bad habit—irregularity in bowel action—is responsible for weak bowels and constipation in babies. Give the tiny bowels an opportunity to act at regular periods each day. If they don't act at first, a little Fletcher's Castoria will soon regulate them. Every mother should keep a bottle of it handy to use in case of colic, cholera, diarrhea, gas on stomach and bowels, constipation, loss of sleep, or when baby is cross and feverish. Its gentle influence over baby's system enables him to get full nourishment from his food, helps him gain, strengthens his bowels.

Castoria is purely vegetable and harmless—the recipe is on the wrapper. Physicians have prescribed it for over 30 years. With each package, you get a valuable book on Motherhood. Look for Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper so you'll get the genuine.

Laurel—Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Felber returned home Tuesday evening last week from Omaha where Mr. Felber had been in the hospital three weeks with stones and appendicitis. He is feeling as well as can be expected but is still very weak. He is a brother of recovering from an operation for gall H. J. Felber of Wayne.

The carnival staged by the students and teachers of the Laurel high school Friday evening, Jan. 24, at the high school building was a great success, over $100 being cleared above all expenses incurred. The money will be used for athletic activities and to furnish a musical instrument of some kind for use in the school.

The weather having moderated some, the ice skating rink at Laurel is again a popular place. A large crowd gathers each evening to spend the evening skating. The rink will be kept in shape as long as weather permits, and if one has not visited the rink, he should walk down to the ball park some evening and see the enjoyment the youngsters are getting out of it.

Mrs. August Hesseman of Swiss, Mo., sister of Herman Fleer of Winside, passed away recently. Mr. Fleer left Saturday, Jan. 25, to attend the funeral services which were held Monday, Jan. 27, at Swiss. Word has also been received that Mr. Fleer's mother, Mrs. Wm. Fleer Sr. of St. Louis, Mo., is seriously ill.

Miss Anna Kay, former telephone operator at Emerson, has been transferred to Wakefield as chief operator. She succeeds her sister who resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Bracken of Emerson were pleasantly surprised on their 25th wedding anniversary Saturday evening, Jan. 25, the surprise having been arranged by their daughter, Miss Rachel Bracken who is principal of the Winside high school. They received many nice, and useful gifts, besides congratulatory letters, some coming from friends in Pennsylvania where they were married 25 years ago. Paul Bracken of Sioux City, as well as all members of the family were present.

Police and other large dogs have been doing considerable mischief in the Emerson locality, two goats and four hogs having been killed recently. Dog owners are advised to keep their dogs at home especially at night as these losses mean a good deal to the owners of the lost stock, and innocent dogs are apt to suffer the consequences.

Charles C. Merritt renewed his subscription to the Nebraska Journal-Leader (Ponca paper) recently for the 59th time. He has taken the paper ever since its first issue, and helped to shingle the roof of the first building in order to pay for his first subscription.

A son was born last Saturday, Jan. 25, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Obloom near Laurel. Mrs. Obloom is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelserven.

Concord Band Festival Brings In Nearly $400

The Band Festival sponsored by the bands of Concord Saturday evening, Jan. 25, was a success in every way, almost $400 being cleared from the supper and sale.

A delicious supper served by the Concord Women's Welfare Improvement club for the benefit of the band, was the first event of the evening. It is estimated that about four hundred people were served from five until eight o'clock.

Following the supper a donation sale was held for the support of the band. A four weeks old Shorthorn heifer calf was won by John A. Olson who gave the animal back to the band and it was sold to John Manz. Mr. Manz also gave it back to the band for re-sale. It was purchased this time by Thomas Erwin. Charles Sherman became the next owner, and not being a cowboy, he too turned it back to the band, at which time it was bought and claimed by Roy A. Johnson, of Concord.

Immediately after the sale there was a splendid program, sponsored by the band and rendered by the new 45-piece Junior band, the Concord Owl band, Saxophone band, Male Quartet, and Mrs. Thad Curley as soloist. Mrs. Curley sang "A Smile On a Rainy Day," a number entirely composed and written by her. It is hoped that her number will be on the market so that it may be used in the band.

Concord is proud of its band and the band is proud of those who live in and around Concord, to whom it is heartily grateful for their untiring support. The band wishes in this simple way to express their heartfelt appreciation to the Concord Woman's Welfare Improvement club for their excellent support and co-operation, and to the people of the community for their liberal donations, purchases, and assistance in making up the program.

Rustlers Active Near Hartington

Hartington—Thefts of live stock in the vicinity of the Lammers ranch near here has reached a stage that has thoroughly aroused the people to the need to drastic action in putting a stop to the depredations. Henry Lammers has been the hardest hit having lost, to date, 80 hogs and three head of cattle. Tire tracks furnish the only clue to the thieves thus far.

Sioux City Market Report

(Furnished by Steele-Siman Coin. Co.)
Sioux City Stock Yards—Quality and weight continue to be determining factors in the various markets for live stock along with supply and demand. Good quality light weight material rules the favorites in all departments while the plain and heavy kinds meet with discrimination.

Cattle receipts amounted to about 90,000 head at the 13 leading markets of the country on the first two days of the week, slightly less than on the same days of the previous weeks.

Fed yearling steers held close to steady on the opening day of the week and ruled strong to 15c higher on the following session. However, weighty steers eased off a little on Monday and failed to show improvement in price on the second session although activity was a trifle better. Plain kinds of all weights were sluggish.

Bulk of the beef steers and yearlings cashed at $10.50 to $11.75 with several sales at $12.00 to $13.00. No real good weighty short feds were offered but two loads of yearlings brought $14.25 for the week's top. Choice long feds were quoted above $15.00.

Butcher stock sold at steady to weak prices on the first day and little change was in evidence on Tuesday. Quality was on the plain order and shippers were uninterested while the packers acted rather indifferently.

Short fed heifers brought largely $9.50 to $11.00 with a few better grades at more money. Choice long fed yearling heifers were quotable to better than $14.00. Most of the beef cows turned at $7.00 to $8.25 with a few choice koshers to around $9.00. Cannors and cutters brought $5.00 to $6.25, mainly.

Stockers and feeders were received in rather light numbers and demands were broad enough to absorb the offerings at mostly steady prices. As in the killer department, light weights were wanted and heavy types were neglected.

Hogs receipts totaled 284,000 at the 13 main markets on Monday and Tuesday, showing only a few thousand difference compared with the like days a week and year ago.

Broad demands were noted from all quarters for all kinds of hogs on the first day of the week and the light butchers ruled stronger again on Tuesday, reaching new high levels for the season and since late last summer. The top hit $10.25, a dime above last week's best price.

The market slumped after the opening rounds of the Tuesday trade and closed weak to a quarter lower. Bulk of the light and medium weight butchers sold at $9.35 to $10.15 with strong and heavy weights on down to $9.60 and under. Sows brought mostly $8.50 to $8.75 and stags from $8.00 down. Good native pigs topped at $9.50.

Sheep receipts were 141,800 at the 13 leading markets on the first two days of the week, 19,000 more than the same days last week.

Fat lambs dropped 25c to 35c on Monday and took a further loss on the second day. Light weights were quoted from $11.75 down and heavies from $11.25 down. Ewes were weak to a quarter lower with the best light weights quoted around $6.00.

NERVOUS FATIGUE, NOT WORK, OFTEN CAUSE OF WEARINESS

One often feels weary at the end of the day, not so much because of the physical work done, but rather because of the nervous strain of the day. Perhaps one has planned to have baked potatoes for dinner, but just as one is about to prepare them for baking the telephone rings and before one realizes it, it is too late to bake them. A frown passes over the face, the muscles tighten, an unconscious urge to hurry comes over one. Then with a nervous hand the paring knife is grabbed and the potatoes peeled with an unnecessary effort and force, and so on through the day one is kept on a continual jump and hustle. Little wonder that at the day's end one finds herself "all fagged out."

A very charming old lady who is growing old gracefully gives the following advice: "When things go wrong, when I feel discontent creeping upon me, when I get worked up inside, I relax. I take long, deep breaths. Sometimes I sit down in a comfortable chair, but more often I stop a moment and look out of the window. Usually I see something which takes my mind off myself—a tree covered with snow, a distant hill or a courageous little snowbird. Every muscle becomes limp. I relax."

To be able to relax is an art. It requires self control to relax and be calm when one feels like fussing and fuming instead. But in that moment of relaxation, especially if one accompanies it with deep breathing, one will find a sudden calm, a feeling of peace that makes our troubles almost vanish; at least much easier to bear.

Wisner Young Man And Bancroft Girl Are Wed

Francis Noonan, son of Mrs. Michael Noonan of Wisner, and Miss Esther Erb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Erb of Bancroft were united in marriage at a beautiful wedding which was solemnized at the Catholic church in Bancroft Tuesday morning, Jan. 28, at 9:00 o'clock, the Rev. Quinn officiating. Miss Helen Noonan and George Noonan, sister and brother of the bridegroom, and Miss Vida Erb and Albert Erb, sister and brother of the bride, acted as attendants.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white silk. She wore a veil, and carried a bouquet of roses. The bridesmaids wore rose and green and carried bouquets. The men wore the conventional dark suits.

Following the wedding ceremony, a delicious wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents.

The young couple left immediately on a short wedding trip following which they plan to make their home on a farm east of Wisner with the bridegroom's mother. The wedding guests accompanied them as far as Lyons, where an ample supply of rice was used to send them on their way.

Opportunity In The Coast Guard Service

An exceptional opportunity is offered young men of the right calibre between 18 and 22 years of age, to complete their education at government expense and to become commissioned officers in the United States Coast Guard, one of the military services of the United States afloat and ashore.

This branch of service is not to be confused with the type entering the service through ordinary enlistments, in that the cadets entering this type of service must pass certain requirements in regard to their physical and educational fitness to develop into the commission of ensign, which is the opportunity acceptance into this service has to offer.

Cadets are trained and educated at the Coast Guard Academy, New London, Connecticut and receive while taking training $780 per annum and quarters, subsistence and medical attention. This is the same pay and allowance as that given midshipmen in the navy.

Educational examination for entrance into this service precedes the physical and takes two days. Applicants for cadetship must show satisfactory vouchers of their moral character, physical fitness and present certificates that they have completed an equivalent of a four year high school course. In addition they are required to take a written examination in mathematics (algebra and geometry), English and history. The examinations will be held June 13 and 20.

Successful candidates who are tendered appointments, will be required to report for duty August 15, 1930.

All young men of this vicinity interested in the proposition would do well to write to Edgar Howard, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

NEBRASKA WOMAN IS MASTER FARMER

To Miss Charlotte F. Worley, Alliance, goes the distinction of owning and operating the largest farm operated by a lady. Miss Worley became a farmer by necessity. When her mother's estate of 1,800 acres of land was jeopardized by falling prices after the close of the war, Miss Worley resigned her job as a school teacher and became farm manager. She bought for herself 1,200 acres of land against the advice of bankers and business friends.

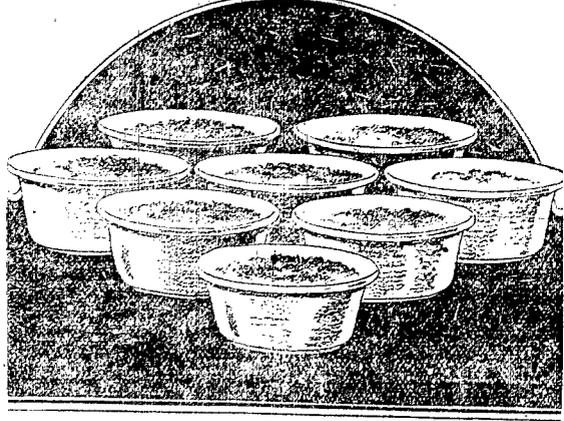

Last year the last mortgage was burned and the successful farm manager is able to survey with some complacency a record of industry and achievement—that shames the business sagacity and extensive experience of men farmers of her neighborhood.

Miss Worley manages her farm activities and employs men hands. Her extensive lands are cultivated, planted and harvested under her personal direction. She has reduced all farm work to a close system.

The books of this master farmer for 1929 show these yields: Corn, 210 acres, 4200 bushels. Oats, 300 acres 600 bushels. Potatoes, 325 acres 42,350 bushels. Alfalfa, 100 acres, crop fed on the farm. Hay 100 acres, crop used on the farm.

Pasture—400 acres. Hogs 100 head bringing an average of $20 each. Horses—80 head. Cattle 60 head.

Some New Fish Recipes

EVERYBODY knows innumerable ways in which to use canned salmon, but how many housewives have heard that the canned mackerel industry has been growing so fast lately that dietitians have been busy devising separate recipes for this delicious fish? Many of the appetizing recipes used for salmon apply to mackerel equally well, but here are a couple of recipes recently devised especially for this latter fish.

A Royal Dish

Mackerel à la King. Melt four table spoons of butter in a skillet, add one-half a sliced green pepper for one pointed onion (sliced), and the mushrooms cut in halves from a 4-ounce can. Sauté gently for about five minutes. Add four tablespoons of flour and stir smooth. Add slowly the liquor from the can of mushrooms and two cups of milk, stirring constantly until creamy and of right consistency. Season to taste with salt and paprika, and add the flaked mackerel from a one-pound can, being careful not to stir to make messy. Serve very hot. Serves six.

Mackerel Surprise. Remove the skin and bones from the contents of a one-pound can of fresh mackerel, and flake coarsely. Put layers of the fish, one-half cup of sliced stuffed olives and two cups of white sauce in a buttered baking dish or in individual ramekins, having the sauce on top. Sprinkle with two thirds of a cup of crushed salted peanuts, and bake in a moderate oven until the peanuts are crisp but not browned. Serves eight.

Teas for Little Tots

Is there a little boy or girl who falls to enjoy afternoon tea—even though "tea" is represented by milk?

And how much more the child likes his tea when dainty cookies or sandwiches appear as the main food. One of the most popular sandwich spreads is peanut butter—the kind that comes in a pail, which, when empty, becomes a sandpile toy.

Peanut Butter Pleases

Mothers, too, like peanut butter combinations, for they are rich in food value and easily prepared. Here are a few peanut butter recipes which are just the thing for the little tots—
Peanut Butter Wafers: Cream one-half cup butter with one-half cup canned peanut butter; add one-half cup sugar, and cream again.

Add one well-beaten egg and one and one-third cups of flour sifted with a few grains of salt. Add one-fourth teaspoon lemon extract and roll very thin. Cut in small rounds, press a peanut in the center of each and bake in a slow oven, 300 degrees F., for eight to ten minutes.

Peanut Butter and Honey Sandwiches: Slice and butter white bread. Spread half the slices with peanut butter and the other half with honey. Put the pieces together, press them firmly and cut in appropriate sizes.

Fruited Peanut Butter Sandwiches: Mash a banana and cream with enough peanut butter to make an easily workable paste. Moisten with lemon juice, spread on buttered bread and cover with another slice of buttered bread.

the addition to their local staff of Marvin C. Sorensen
of Coleridge

Who has moved to Wayne and will devote his entire time, in the service of the company, with the local store. He has spent many years in the work and is well qualified to do justice to the local field having been in charge of the company's implement store at Coleridge for the past four years.

The move was made to relieve Harvey Sorensen of much of the work connected with the local store which has grown to such an extent that added help was necessary. Harvey will continue in the same capacity as heretofore as will his assistant Arch Grantham.

By this addition of experienced and competent assistants they hope to be of increased service to the agricultural need of this territory.
