Attempt To Pass Car On Hill Meets With Great Disaster.

Injured Men In Hospital

An attempt to pass another car while ascending a hill proved very disastrous to Art and Otto Claussen of Pender, both of whom are now in the Wayne hospital recuperating from injuries received last Sunday evening when their car crashed into a car belonging to Emil Brader.

Both of the cars were badly wrecked and the occupants of both cars were injured, though the Claussen brothers emerged a little bit the worse in the deal. Art Claussen sustained a broken left wrist and Otto received an ugly gash from broken glass across his upper lip just below his nose which required several stitches from the doctor. Brader was bruised about the head and minor injuries to his hip. Miss Marie Sund, who was with him in the car was slightly scratched by flying glass.

The accident occurred at the crest of a hill three and one-half miles east of Wayne. The Claussen car was attempting to pass another car while going up the hill and was abreast of the other car when the top of the hill was reached. The Brader car did not come in sight until it was too late to avert an accident. Claussen tried to slow up his car and get behind the other car but the car had too much momentum and when the two cars met the Claussen car side-swiped the approaching car their car bearing the brunt of the impact along the left rear while the left front of the other car received a similar fate. The impact turned the Brader car over on its side into the ditch while the Claussen car swung clear around and faced a direction exactly opposite from where it was headed.

The other car sped on its way, the driver evidently being unaware of the accident.

A passing car motorist took the injured people to town where first aid treatment was given.

Both of the cars were Model A Fords. The Claussen car a coupe and the Brader car a sedan. The Claussens were on their way to Wayne and the other car was on its way to Wakefield. At present all of the injured people are recuperating very satisfactorily.

Seek Guardianship For The "Hermit"

Steps are being taken by people of the Altona vicinity, to have a guardianship appointed for August Mueller, an aged recluse, whose place was the scene of a serious prairie fire a week ago.

Neighbors of Mueller have complained to the authorities that through his persistent neglect of his property the land has become overgrown with rank weeds and brush which constitutes a very serious fire hazard to the farms adjacent.

Mueller, who leads a hermit like existence, has not set a plow to the land for many years save for a period during the World War when he was required to farm it. Efforts to have him rent the land have been unavailing and the neighbors, for their own protection, have sought to have some arrangement made whereby the land can be farmed again and the fire hazard abated. There are 120 acres in the tract.

Wayne Residents Home After Winter In West

Mr. and Mrs. John Harrington arrived home last Saturday night from California where they have spent the winter, having left here about the 1st of November last fall. Mr. and Mrs. Harrington report a most pleasant winter in the sunshine state which they very much enjoyed. They spent most of their time there at Glendale. Their many friends here will be glad to know that they are back again and that they are now both enjoying the best of health.

Wayne Boy Builds Fine Model Plane

There is a very attractive model cabin airplane on exhibition in the north show window of Fred Blair's clothing store. It is silver in color and is certainly an evidence of keen interest and careful construction on the part of the lad who made it. It was made by Junior Savidge, one of the members of the Wayne chapter of the American Air Cadets. Junior and the other boys of the Cadet who are busily working with model planes are to be congratulated on their fine work.

Hon. W. H. O'Gara and R. R. Allison each addressed the meeting during the course of the evening. Following the business session a lunch was served at the Sweet Shop.

SPRING TERM OF DISTRICT COURT CONVENES MONDAY

Long List of Cases To Be Tried, According To Docket.

Citizen Applications Heard

Forty-three cases are listed on the docket of the spring term district court which convenes here next Monday morning. Six of the cases are criminal cases, the remainder being for the most part cases continued over from the last term of court.

While the docket presents a list formidable in numbers, it is hardly likely that the session will last over two weeks and the services of the jury will require less than that.

Of the criminal cases, but one, it is expected will be tried during this term that one being State vs. Virgil Holmes, who has been held in the county jail since last February on a statutory charge, the complaining witness being a 16 year old girl of Randolph.

The opening session of court will be taken up with the hearing of petitions for naturalization of sixteen people.

There is very little promise of cases of a sensational order from among the civil causes and the services of the jury will be required on but few of them.

Following is the list of jurors selected: George Amend, Claude McCannouhey, Hans Brogrem, Otto Sals, Hans Tiögen, Jens Peter Jensen, E. E. Fleetwood, Charlie Chapman, Walter J. Ulrich, Otto Greenwald, Harry Lindsay, Perry Brodd, John T. Bressler Jr., C. Schellenberg, W. H. Root, Frank Baker, Wm. Erxleben, Frank Bendick, Fred Wagner, Joe K. Corbet, Herman Kohl, A. T. Cavanaugh, Ernest Harrigfield.

Miss Bertha Berres Appointed Co. Clerk

At a meeting of the Wayne county board held last Tuesday, April 15, at the county court house, Miss Bertha Berres was appointed clerk of Wayne county to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of the late Charles W. Reynolds, and will serve in this capacity throughout Mr. Reynolds' term of office. Miss Berres has served as deputy county clerk during the past two and one-half years, and served five years as assistant clerk before attaining the office of deputy. She is a very efficient young lady and is well fitted for the office she now holds. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Berres of this city.

Independent Merchants Cause Succeeding

There is more than a little reason for the agitation now engaging so much of the thought and effort of public and press regarding the independent merchant. In the prosecution of his own interests the independent merchant has been slow to act in past years to his very great detriment. To many retailers, possessed of only moderate means, the cause looked hopeless and there seemed no way around or but to get out.

The past few months have witnessed drastic measures taken to advance the claims of independent merchants to popular favor and results are plainly evident.

The National Chain Store Association authorizes the publication of their own measure of the present state of affairs by stating that they are not alarmed. Their recent propaganda through magazines of national circulation to minimize the movement against them shows only too plainly however that they are genuinely concerned over the situation. In the meanwhile, it will surely profit the independent to look to his own defenses—to diagnose his own case from the standpoint of the consumer he is seeking to persuade back into paths of constructive community support and away from the penny-wise and pound foolish patronage of absentee owned business of any and

Member College Faculty Injured

Head Of Art Department Is Injured In A Fall Saturday.

Miss Martha Pierce, head of the Art Dept. at the Wayne State Teachers' college, was seriously injured in a fall at the home of her mother at Lincoln last Saturday afternoon. Miss Pierce and Miss Margaret Schemel, also an instructor of the local Teachers' college, had just arrived at Lincoln by auto, Miss Schemel driving Miss Pierce's car. Upon arriving at the Pierce home, Miss Pierce went into the house to get someone to drive the car on to the home of Miss Schemel's people in that city, and to bring the car back. The accident occurred as Miss Pierce was leaving the house by way of the side door. Descending a short flight of steps leading to the door and branching off from a landing to the basement, she fell some way and severely injured her left side, breaking her left hip and fracturing her left wrist in two places.

Miss Pierce is now staying at a parental home at Lincoln and is doing as well as can be expected considering the nature of her injuries. Her physician advises her that she must take to her bed for six weeks to recuperate.

Winside Census Report Shows A Slight Loss

Returns of the recent census turned in by Miss Gertrude Bayes, Winside enumerator, show that Winside's population shrank a total of five people in the last ten years, the present total being 483 persons. The census report for 1920 showed a total of 488 persons and the 1910 census totaled 450 persons. Taking into consideration the fact that a number of new homes have been built since 1920 and that every residence building in town is occupied, the falling off in population shown in the recent census came as a surprise. However, many retired farmers have since moved to town, which in many cases means that these homes now house but one and two people whereas the average family contains at least three persons.

288 Pupils of 7th And 8th Grades Take Exams

Grades earned by the pupils participating in the exams, will be sent out the latter part of this week or the first of next.

Double Wedding Solemnized Here

Friday, April 11

Two Couples Married At Evangelical Lutheran Church Friday.

Recently From Germany

Four young folk were married at a double wedding that took place at 3:30 o'clock last Friday afternoon, April 11, at the Evangelical Lutheran church of this city when Miss Elizabeth Holscher became the bride of Herman Huntemann and Miss Matilda Meyer became the bride of George Schweers, the Reverend H. A. Teckhaus, pastor of the church, performing a double ring marriage ceremony. Each couple acted as witnesses for the other and there were no guests at the weddings.

All four of the young folk are of German parentage, none of them having been in the states for longer than five years. Mr. Huntemann came over from Germany three years ago, and his bride came over five weeks ago; they having been acquainted with one another in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Huntemann are at home on a farm seven or eight miles south of Wakefield between Wakefield and Pender. Mr. and Mrs. Schweers are making their home on a farm south of Winside.

The Democrat joins their friends in extending them the heartiest congratulations and best wishes for happiness and success. It takes determination, grit and courage to go to a new land to make a home amid the difficulties of a strange language and different social customs and these young folk are to be congratulated.

Seymour, proprietor of the establishment, who reports a very busy day meeting new friends and customers and acquainting them with the numerous details involved in the manufacture of butter and ice cream. SOFT RUBBER MORE RESISTANT THAN GRANITE

"You wouldn't think that a soft, gelatinous substance would resist a blast of sand that cuts deep into the hardest granite, would you?"

Such is the case, however. The Democrat reporter, the other day, while making a business call at the Wayne Monument Works took occasion to inquire into the means by which all these beautiful designs that feature the company's product are blazoned with such nicety.

"How do you get those inscriptions on?" we asked one of the craftsmen.

"With sand!" was his reply.

Then he showed us a stone that had been besmeared with a gelatinous substance which he termed—"rubber." On this a design had been cut and soon the stone would be subjected to a blast of sand which would go into the parts of the rock where the "rubber" had been cut, but leave the rest of the stone entirely protected.

"The boys seem to be mighty busy," we ventured to Mr. Mitchell, the proprietor of the works.

"Yes, indeed," said Mr. Mitchell. "This is our busy season. We are taking orders now, so as to get memorials ready for Decoration Day. It is none too soon to have these memorials taken care of. And I'll venture to say, you haven't seen a finer display of memorials than those we have in our display room.

In all truth, we agreed with him.

NEBRASKA PEACH CROP IS SAID TO BE GONE!

Apricots, plums, and peaches in Southeastern Nebraska suffered severely from the recent cold weather, but the outlook for the cherry crop is exceptionally bright. E. C. Aucher of the U. S. Department of Agriculture says that the 1930 crop of peaches is "gone" and that the prospect for peaches looks bad for the next several years. He further states that the extremely cold weather during December and January not only killed the buds in many parts of the country but has killed the trees as well. However, it is believed the trees in Richardson county are not damaged much. Berries, grapes, are in good condition.

Happy Chick News

We sure have had a dandy rain. Just what the farmers needed. Of course not enough, but it will keep down the dust.

Carl Frevert purchased a 9x12 Happy Chick Brooder complete with roosts. This makes the second house for Carl. He sure thinks they are great.

More team play—"Is your wife having any success in learning to drive the car?"

"Well the road is beginning to turn when she does."

We sent a 9x16 Happy Chick Brooder out to John Reeg's last Thursday.

Man is like a tack—useful if he has a good head on him and pointed in the right direction. But even tho' he is driven he can only go as far as his head will let him.

Levi Geise purchased one of our 2 pen farrowing houses. Last year I sold Levi a 9x16 also 9x12 Brooder House and a Simplex Stove. That is the way when folks once get one of our houses they know the quality and come back for the second or third one.

"John" called his wife from the bed room, "I heard the clock strike two when you came in." "Yes, Dear, it was beginning to strike ten, but I stopped it for fear it would wake you."

Since it rained the pastures are beginning to show nice and green. How is your pasture fence? We just received a shipment of Red Top steel posts, also have a new low price on wire. It would also be a good plan to move your individual houses on the new grass. Maybe fence off a patch of alfalfa.

John James has just finished repairing Mrs. S. W. Dayton's house. John repaired the roof, put a new floor on the front porch and, later when she paints the house, John is going back and re-screen two porches.

G. H. Hurley bought a 9x12 Happy Chick Brooder for May 1st delivery.

We are expecting a shipment of that white picket garden fence this week. We sold a lot of it last year and this year's patterns are still more attractive. This makes a very neat fence around the garden taking the place of lattice.

Bernard Meyer purchased two of our 2 pen farrowing houses this week.

If your car rattles, try traveling in Scotland, you will find everything has tightened up.

Harry Wert was in yesterday and told me to save him another Simplex stove. This makes two for Harry this year.

We admire a man when he follows his own bent, especially if bent along graceful lines, but it looks like some who think they are following their own bent are simply giving away to warped dispositions.

George Roggenbach bought a 9x12 Happy Chick Brooder complete with Simplex Stove.

It was late last night when I got home. I attended a meeting at which Ivan Wood, head engineer from the State Agriculture Extension Department, gave a lecture on installation of houses, farm buildings brooder houses and such. He had some very good ideas and figures to prove some.

This is the Happy Chick Brooder House factory, Wayne, Nebraska. Station P-E-T-E signing off until next week.

Airplane Arrives At Winside Sunday Noon

Although originally scheduled to be delivered to him Thursday, Dr. Siman's new Travel-Air airplane was not delivered until Sunday, April 6. It was sighted about noon, coming in from the east and piloted by Irvin Brixleben who was given the assignment of driving the new plane directly from the factory at Wichita. After circling the town several times the plane landed on the hill west of the school house, taking off soon after and landing in the Weible pasture south of town. The delay in the delivery of the plane was caused by a rush of orders for new planes, several of these orders being placed ahead of Dr. Siman's. The plane is a beautiful one with orange wings and gray body. Several passengers were taken up during the afternoon but a strong wind made it advisable for the pilot to exercise caution and only one passenger was taken up at a time. The plane will be kept in a Norfolk hangar for the present. — Winside Tribune.

CECIL WORTHMANN TO MEET REAL PARENTS

Cecil Worthmann, the boy who found his real parents last February after 18 years of separation, left for Brooklyn, N. Y., Monday April 7 to meet the father and mother who are anxiously awaiting him. How long he will stay, Cecil does not know, but if he doesn't like Brooklyn he is coming back to East Bow where Mr. and Mrs. Henry Worthmann, Sr. his foster parents, live.

Cecil's story is a dramatic one which begins almost 19 years ago when he was placed temporarily in an orphanage while his mother was ill and his father was too poor to care for him. By mistake the babe was sent west to Cedar county for adoption and the orphanage officials, as is the custom, were sworn to secrecy of his whereabouts. But last Thanksgiving the foster mother wrote to the orphanage asking if the boy's mother wanted him. And immediately the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Vilth of Brooklyn, sent long distances calls, telegrams and letters planning a reunion with their long lost son for whom they had been searching intensely all the years of the separation.

And now Cecil is going home to his real parents who remember him only as a small baby who needed the care they could not give. All of his 19 years are behind him and a future little dreamed of before last February is stretching welcome arms toward him. — Cedar County News.

YOUR BILLS

It is an honor to receive a bill. Instead of getting all riled up when the mail brings you a statement, of account, you should be genuinely pleased. For a bill is an indication that some one has faith in your honesty! If you never received any bills, it would indicate that your credit is worthless, and that no one is willing to take your word that you will pay. When you receive a bill then, meet it if you possibly can. If you cannot, frankly tell your creditor why you can't. You'll find him more than ready to meet you half way.

Cherish your credit as you do your health, happiness, and other priceless boons equally rare and elusive. — The Minneapolis Bulletin.

RABBIT WITH HORNS

Wakefield—Believe it or not! Levi Acton, after shooting a small rabbit, that was destroying his shrubbery a few days ago, found it had horns. The horns were shaped and placed near its ears like those of a deer and were over two inches long. Supt. W. C. Jackman has sent the head in to the Biological department of the state university for examination.

GOSSIPS GIVEN SHOT IN THE NEW BANKING LAW

The new banking law passed by the recent state legislature meeting includes one section which makes it a felony to peddle false stories about solvent banks, a practice which has been noticed in some parts of the state. This section of the law was put in the bill at the request of Gov. Weaver and the officers of the state banking department, the section being promoted by the knowledge that a certain state bank failed not long ago as a result of the stories circulated about it, while the banking department found that there was no foundation for the gossip. The new law provides also, for the authorization of the attorney general and the county attorneys to file complaints against persons deemed guilty of violating the law. The following section is quoted from the new law:

False statements or reports concerning banks—whenever shall make, utter, circulate, publish, subscribe to, or exhibit any false statement or report, oral or written, concerning the solvency or financial condition, status, or standing of any solvent corporation transacting a banking business under the laws of the state, knowing such statement or report to be false, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars, or shall be imprisoned in the state penitentiary not more than two years.

El Moore Kills Self

Coleridge—The funeral services were held last Thursday afternoon at the Geo. Stone home for El Moore, of Coleridge, who committed suicide Monday night last week in his room over the Ritchie store, having shot himself with a shotgun while in bed. D. E. Moore, or as he was commonly called El Moore, was a stepson of Mrs. D. E. Moore of Coleridge, and was a pioneer resident of that community. He was about 64 years of age and is described as a sober and industrious citizen who had been employed on the farms of the vicinity for many years. He had never married. Mr. Moore was a half brother of Mrs. George Stone of Coleridge and of Mrs. George Pranger of Wakefield, and is said to have had a brother living near Randolph. No theory was advanced for the unfortunate man's rash act.

Tree Planting Bee

Laurel—Arbor Day is April 22, and it's going to be a big day at Lo-Val Lake. On that day a tree planting-bee will be held. As the work of beautification is to be done with a set plan, the work will be supervised by a competent force of men who will be on the job on Arbor Day. Wallace Youngberg and Bob Nunemaker with a force of workers went to the Missouri river Thursday to dig the trees and load them and haul them to the lake where they will be cared for until Arbor Day when they will be planted permanently to comply with the plans and specifications for beautifying the park. Folks having trees and bushes or flowers at their homes that they wish to donate to the work are asked to have them at the park also on Arbor Day. Lo Val is one of the beauty-spots of this part of the state and the work is well worth while.

Mr. and Mrs. Chace Are Back From The West

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chace came home Sunday from Long Beach, California, where they have spent most of the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Chace left Wayne about Thanksgiving time last fall to spend the winter in sunny California, where they have a host of friends and many relatives.

They spent most of the time at Long Beach but also visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Wheaton at San Diego, a part of the time. They report a very pleasant, mild winter in California, this last season, the weather being delightfully mild throughout practically all the winter. When they left California the orange trees were bearing fruit, and peach and other trees were in blossom. Flowers of nearly every description were in full bloom, making a riot of varying colors.

In spite of the fine weather and the semi-tropical beauty of the Sunshine state, however, Mr. and Mrs. Chace find Nebraska a very pleasant place, and are glad to be back again. Their many friends here are happy to welcome them back into their midst. It may be of interest to know that Mr. and Mrs. John Harrington, who also spent the winter in California, as stated elsewhere in this paper, came back via the same train as did the Chaces, as far as Fremont, where they were met by relatives and came the rest of the way by auto. Mr. and Mrs. Chace came by train all the way.

In spite of the fine weather and the semi-tropical beauty of the Sunshine state, however, Mr. and Mrs. Chace find Nebraska a very pleasant place, and are glad to be back again. Their many friends here are happy to welcome them back into their midst. It may be of interest to know that Mr. and Mrs. John Harrington, who also spent the winter in California, as stated elsewhere in this paper, came back via the same train as did the Chaces, as far as Fremont, where they were met by relatives and came the rest of the way by auto. Mr. and Mrs. Chace came by train all the way.

They report a very pleasant, mild winter in California, this last season, the weather being delightfully mild throughout practically all the winter. When they left California the orange trees were bearing fruit, and peach and other trees were in blossom. Flowers of nearly every description were in full bloom, making a riot of varying colors.

Winside Seeking To Improve School Bldg.

A petition is being circulated at Winside proposing the building of a $20,000 addition to the Winside high school and the issuing of bonds to carry the indebtedness over a period of ten years. It is understood that 25 per cent of the eligible electors must sign the petition before it can be brought to a vote. It is claimed that this number has already been obtained but more will be secured to insure a legal number of signers before turning it over to the board of education which will call a special election and the taxpayers and eligible electors of the district given an opportunity to support or reject the proposition. It is claimed by those working in behalf of the new building that the additional tax levy would be less than 3 mills and this added to the present levy of 8 mills would total only 11 mills which is less than the present school levy of some adjoining towns. The school is badly in need of a gymnasium and is one of the few institutions in northeast Nebraska which does not have one. The new building, according to the petition would provide for a gymnasium an assembly room, and two class rooms.

Lying Peddlers

As a reader of the good old Nebraska Farmer, and especially the Protective Service I took your advice to "turn the stove agent down." My! If you only knew how he cussed and raved when we told him of your warning, and what we thought about your warning and what we thought of the good work that you are doing. He could not say things mean enough about The Nebraska Farmer. He said that you folks might pick on chicken thieves, because they were poor; but that you were afraid of a big concern which is backed up by ten million dollars.

My husband put his fist under this agent's nose and told him that the Nebraska Farmer is dead right in warning folks against lying stove agents. This added fuel to the fire and I was scared stiff, as I feared that there was going to be a fight. Having just gotten up from a sick bed I am sort of a nervous wreck anyway.

Anything you can do to put these lying blackmailing agents out of business will certainly be a God-send to this community.—Mrs. C. J. F.

The above is just a fair sample of some of the letters we receive daily in regard to the conduct of some of these crooked peddlers. The company this particular man was representing is rated well in Bradstreet and we do not know any thing against them, more than the fact that they seem to tolerate a bunch of dishonest agents, who lie about their goods when the truth would be much better; and the more we contact such claims the more we are convinced that lying is the most despicable of all traits and that the liar is the king of all criminals. The last clean spot of a man's raiments turns crimson when he takes up the business of lying. Then you may

Don't Make a Toy Out of Baby—Babies Have Nerves

Much of the nervousness in older children can be traced to the overstimulation during infancy, caused by regarding baby as a sort of animated toy for the amusement of parents, relatives and friends. Baby may be played with, but not for more than a quarter of an hour to an hour daily. Beyond that, being handled, tickled, caused to laugh or even scream, will sometimes result in vomiting, and invariably causes irritability, crying or sleeplessness.

Fretfulness, crying and sleeplessness from this cause can easily be avoided by treating baby with more consideration, but when you just can't see what is making baby restless or upset, better give him a few drops of pure, harmless Calumet. It's amazing to see how quickly it makes baby's nerves and soothes him to sleep; yet it contains no drugs or opiates. It is purely vegetable—the recipe is on the wrapper. Leading physicians recommend it for colic, cholera, diarrhea, constipation, gas of stomach and bowels, feverishness, loss of sleep and all other "upsets" of babyhood. Over 25 million bottles used a year shows its overwhelming popularity.

With each bottle of Calumet, you get a book on Motherhood, worth its weight in gold. Look for Calumet's distinctive signature on the package so you'll get genuine Calumet. There are many imitations.

wonder why we are continually telling "our folks" to "not do business with strangers representing concerns of unknown responsibility and to not lose sight of the fact that the lying statements of a peddler do not bind the firm that he is representing and that more often than not, the company would much prefer that he tell the whole truth in selling their goods.—April 12 issue of The Nebraska Farmer.

Subscription frauds

There have been certain agents working in various parts of this state offering subscriptions to groups of magazines for a specified number of years at a very reasonable price. This may be well and good and many of the agents may be honest and reliable; but there are some of them who are not. Many subscribers to the magazines through these agents have found that they paid their cash for nothing; having never received as much as one issue of the magazines for which they subscribed. As a safeguard against this sort of fake subscription trader, ask him to show his letter of authority, signed and stamped with the signature and seal of the firm that he claims to represent. If he cannot produce such a letter beware of dealing with him; all worthy and reliable publishing concerns provide their agents with letters of authority to represent them. It is also very doubtful if any respectable man would go around in the country gathering up produce in payment for subscriptions. Nevertheless, there are a number of such agents in the field.

Concerning this sort of practice, the following paragraph is a quotation of the Nebraska Farmer.

"We are positive that we have no agent in the field that we could get to do this even if we permitted the practice and we certainly would not wish to employ that type of a salesman. This sort of practice simply encourages the stealing of chickens and we are receiving letters daily from some of our subscribers telling us of crooked deals being pulled off by this sort of subscription traders who take advantage at every opportunity to learn the lay of the land, while making their calls, that they may come back again after dark and help themselves to the contents of your chicken house; and if perchance, you are away from home when they call in day time it is no trouble to slip in a half dozen nice fat hens in the crate on their car, all ready for business. We know whereof we speak as we aided in putting one of these boys in jail for six months, not long ago, for doing this very thing."

TREES FOR FARMERS

Nebraska has almost completed the distribution of a million forest trees, to farmers all over the state. Broad leaved varieties were sent out recently from Lincoln, Nebraska. Pines were sent out last week from the nurseries in Halsey. Extension Forester Wiggins anticipates that the state will be in the business of giving away trees for the next ten years. There were many more applicants for trees this year than could be satisfied, and when the time for shipping came, Scotch Pines were the only variety uncalled for. Only Banner county was without an applicant, and Custer put in the most orders. The trees were sent out free and express-paid; the applicants remitting only $1 to cover the cost of packing or nurserymen's charges.

NATIONAL CONGRESS OF PARENTS AND TEACHERS

Nebraska members have an unusual chance of attending the national congress of parents and teachers this year. The meeting will be held in Denver, May 17 to 24, and this state is expected to be well represented.

Every phase of Parent Teachers' association work from organization, to major projects will be taken up during the convention, according to Mrs. H. H. Karlin, President of district No. 2 of the Nebraska association. The theme of the convention will be "A new World Challenge to parents and teachers." Nationally known speakers will give addresses on this topic.—The Columbus Daily Telegram.

A census taker asked the woman at the door, "How many in your family?"

"Five," snapped the answer. Me, the old man, kid, cow and cat.

"And the politics of your family?"

"Mixed. I'm a Republican, the old man's a Democrat, the kid's wet, the cow's dry, and the cat's a Populist."

RECOVERING NICELY

Laurel—Allan Wickett who had his hand crushed in a feed grinder recently, is recovering from the accident nicely and is expected soon to be able to return to his home north of here. Mr. Wickett did not lose the entire hand as was reported last week but the operation performed following the first operation was for the removal of the little finger of the hand instead of the entire hand as had been reported. This makes four fingers lost, but the thumb remains.

All talkie machines are equipped to use alternating current, hence the delay.
