ARRIVES FORM OKLAHOMA

W. L. McNatt, father of L. W. McNatt of this city, came Monday by auto from Devoil, Oklahoma for an extended visit with his son and family. BUSY WEEK PRECEDING COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT

Bishop Leete To Deliver Baccalaureate Address.

Gov. Weaver Will Speak

Commencement week, which marks the culmination of the college careers of several students and a milestone in the schooling of others, will be filled with the traditional events of this occasion.

Starting Thursday evening, May 22, with a recital of the Music pupils, the events will occur in rapid succession. It has been customary to have the Music recital on Monday preceding Commencement, the earlier date this year is due to the graduation exercises of the Training school on Monday evening, May 26.

Sunday, May 25, is the date for two of the principal events of the week. At 4:30, vesper services of all the Christian organizations will take place in the Auditorium. Baccalaureate services will take place at 8:00 in the evening. Bishop Frederick D. Leete of Omaha will deliver the sermon which will be on the subject "The Authority of the Teacher." Music will be furnished by the college choir under the direction of Miss Sulerud.

The Dramatics Class play, "The Admirable Crichton" by J. M. Barrie will be given at 8:15 Tuesday evening. The play is one of the most difficult given here. It is wonderfully well suited for a commencement play for beneath its humor lies a subtle satire based on a serious question about society that confronts everyone. It is to be presented by the students of Dramatics under the direction of Miss Lenora P. Ramsey. The college orchestra, directed by Prof. W. C. Hunter, will furnish music for the occasion.

Graduation exercises for the three hundred and four candidates for the various degrees will take place in the Auditorium Wednesday morning, May 28, at 10:30. Governor Arthur Weaver will deliver the Commencement (continued on Editorial page)

Issues Warning of Chain Menace

"The Chain System is Detrimental to the United States of America" was the topic of the radio address of Mr. E. M. Baumann of West Point, Nebraska, and president of the Federation of Nebraska Retailers, starting off the Community Building and Educational Campaign of the Federation, over radio station, KFAB, Lincoln, Friday evening.

Said Mr. Baumann, "We have no grievance with an individual, either chain store magnate, manager or employee. It is the principle involved of the so-called economic chain store distribution of merchandise, and the economic freedom of our rural districts, our communities, our state and our country, and we intend to place squarely before our listeners the harmful effects of chain store practices."

Mr. Baumann emphasized the concentration of wealth in the hands of a few, the squandering habits of chain store magnates, and cited as an illustration the following incident:

"The head of one of our large chain stores has spent approximately $1,200,000 in building a Paris home, this money coming from the small communities where such extravagance is unheard of." He calls attention to the fact that with the untold wealth piling into the laps of the "Wall Street Princes," they are doing little for the betterment of physical and cultural conditions in our communities. To quote, "While chain store magnates travel about the world in their private yachts, or erect palatial homes in Europe, what aid are they giving to the building up of our communities, our roads, our schools, our churches, and of giving aid to the needy, sick and crippled? If the chain stores are not curbed in their rapid expansion, what will the future hold for the great majority of the American people?"

As the campaign continues, several topics of vital interest will be discussed by speakers of reputation,

First Open Air Band Concert

Friday, May 30

Local Band To Give Weekly Programs At City Park.

Held Every Thursday P. M.

Wayne Legion Municipal Band will hold the first of its outdoor evening concerts at the city park on the evening of Friday, May 30 (Memorial Day).

The concert will be dedicated to the American Legion and will have included in the program a number of selections in keeping with the spirit of Memorial Day and music identified with those stirring days of 1917 and 1918.

Soloists for the evening will be Miss Gretchen Teckhaus who will give two vocal solos with band accompaniment; and Benny Kay, clarinetist. A clarinet quartette composed of Erlehen, Davis, Zimmerman and Jones will also lend variety to the program with a special number.

The band has practiced faithfully all winter and through the able direction of their leader, F. C. Reed, has even improved since they won the state championship at Omaha, last fall. The members are especially anxious that the concerts this summer be favored with a good attendance, for every encouragement given them adds to their proficiency.

Prof. Reed states that the services of two excellent players may be added (continued on last page)

ATTENDS CONFERENCE

The Rev. Wm. Fischer of this city left Tuesday in company with the Rev. R. Hickman from one of the neighboring towns from Syracuse, Nebraska to attend a church conference of the Evangelical Synod held there yesterday. They are returning today.

Stores To Close On Memorial Day

In order that Memorial Day may be observed in its proper spirit, all business houses in the city have agreed to close for the entire day.

This request has been cheerfully complied with by every business man in town, who were approached on the subject by a committee from the American Legion and it is hoped that the promise made will be strictly adhered to.

In order that the public may not be inconvenienced, most of the stores will remain open the evening previous and the public is asked to take note of their needs in advance.

A full cooperation on the part of the stores and the public in general will be greatly appreciated by those who have charge of the local observances.

Wakefield Depot Holdup Men May Be Identified

Pair Held In Sioux City Believed To Be The Men.

Held For Many Crimes

The identity of the two young men who one evening last March attempted to rob the Wakefield depot took the telegraph operator, Edward Gemar, for a ride and after releasing him drove to Winside and staged a dramatic oil station robbery, may be learned if the hunch that two young men held by Sioux City authorities proves true.

The two young men, Harold Dominisse and Arthur St. Cyr, both former residents of Norfolk, were arrested at Omaha last week at the request of Sioux City authorities and are now lodged in the Sioux City jail charged with staging a number of holdups of filling stations in that city. Dominisse is held on nine counts and St. Cyr on six and the bail of the former is set at $27,000 and the latter at $21,000.

The attempted robbery of the Wakefield depot took place on the evening of May 15.—Gemar was alone in the depot at the time and was ordered to open up the safe and deliver its contents. Claiming that he did not know the combination of the safe, the holdup men gave up the contemplated robbery, but blindfolded Gemar and took him in their car, releasing him after they had gone out into the country about six miles.

About an hour later they drove up to the Benshoof garage at Winside, where they held up the attendant, David Denhardt. When they went to make their departure they couldn't get their car started and tried to appropriate the car of a customer of the station who arrived about that time. They were unsuccessful in this attempt and made their getaway by walking away and disappearing in the darkness. Later in the night a car was stolen at Hoskins and it is believed that they made their get away in it. The car was later recovered.

The pair held at Sioux City have been indicated by the grand jury for their alleged crimes in that city and will be tried in the near future.

No official information as to how they have been linked up with the Wakefield and Winside episodes has been given out by local authorities although it is believed that railroad detective, who have been investigating the case, may have furnished the connecting link implicating them.

should set a good example and stay out of the chain store himself.

In conclusion, Mr. Baumann explained that the Nebraska Community Builders Campaign was being sponsored by the Federation of Nebraska Retailers with a membership in practically every town and city of the state, and that the campaign would be continued over station K. F. A. B. Friday and Tuesday evenings of each week so long as those who believe in it give it their financial support.

High School To Graduate Thirty-Two

Commencement Exercises At M. E. Church Friday.

Lincoln Man Will Speak

L. C. Oberlies, of Lincoln, will deliver the commencement address at the exercises at the Methodist church this evening, when a class of thirty-two from Wayne High school will receive their diplomas of graduation.

The past week has been crowded with many activities attendant to the grand finale of school days, prominent among which were the Junior-Senior Banquet, Friday of last week and the Junior-Senior breakfast at the fair grounds Wednesday morning.

The baccalaureate services were held at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening, the sermon being delivered by Rev. P. A. Davies, pastor of the church. Rev. Davies spoke on the subject "The Law of the Harvest," impressing upon the young people the importance of "weeding out" the unwholesome and unprofitable "tares" of life which if not continually fought against would crowd out the better things in life which they wished to attain.

The commencement program is as follows: Organ prelude, Miss Florence Phillips; Invocation, Rev. W. W. Whitman; song, "Friend of Mine", double quartet; address, "Individuality, a Tangible," L. C. Oberlies; presentation of class, Supt. H. R. Best; presentation of diplomas, C. E. Carhart; presentation of scholarships, Miss Glennie Bacon; song, "Speedwell," chorus; and benediction, Rev. H. A. Teckhaus.

BUY A POPPY NEXT SATURDAY

Keep Faith With Those Who Have Sacrificed Their Lives.

Everybody is urged to buy a poppy next Saturday.

That day has been designated as "Poppy Day" in Wayne, and members of the local Auxiliary, under the direction of Mrs. Max Ash, will conduct an intensive sale throughout the town.

The poppy is emblematic of the sentiment "Lest We Forget" and the wearing of it is significant of the remembrance of the thousands of disabled veterans in the government hospitals throughout the country. The flowers are made by these disabled men and the funds secured through their sale goes to the veteran relief work in cases where the government does not touch the situation. There are numerous cases where veterans are suffering infirmities which may be traceable to service, but open to question. In many such cases the veterans and their families are in serious need and this welfare work will alleviate the situation while their claims for compensation are pending.

There are many other causes, equally worthy which funds from poppy sales provide and it behooves everyone to do their bit in keeping faith with those who have sacrificed, and to help this noble cause along.

Rudolf Saegerberth of Stanton and Miss Bernice Luken of Brunswick were united in marriage yesterday noon, May 21st, at the Evangelical Lutheran parsonage, the Rev. H. A. Teckhaus, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church of this city, officiating.

Farmall Cultivator

Triple Control Makes Operation Easy

The Most Efficient and Practical
Cultivator on the Market Today.

One man can cultivate up to 25 acres a day with a Farmall 2-row Cultivator. Turning the steering wheel guides the tractor and at the same time shifts the gauges, making it easy to follow the rows. When the front wheels are given the angle to make the turn at the end of the field, the rear wheel on the inside of the turn is automatically locked, and the outfit pivots on that wheel—the outfit turns on an eight-foot radius. This is the triple-control feature. It makes it possible to cultivate all rows consecutively, and is the reason for the easy, accurate control of the outfit.

The gangs are adjustable for the rows 36, 38, 40, and 42 inches apart.

Refrigeration For The Farmer

A three year test of electric refrigeration on six farms during which detailed records of performance and cost were kept, shows not only that electric refrigeration is more efficient for the farmer, but less costly than ice.

Two methods of using refrigeration were included: (1) Individual refrigerators for the house, (2) combined with dairy cold storage. The refrigerators varied in size from 5.5 cubic feet of food storage space to 30 cubic feet.

The average yearly cost of the single unit operation was $20.97, against the average cost of $41.63 for ice used in the same capacity boxes.

Distinctly superior results were obtained from the electric method than with ice, from the standpoint of quality of refrigeration. From Electric Refrigeration News, May 7, 1930.

What's in a name? We hope there is a lot in this instance. Miss Meek and Mr. Good, both of Allen were married last week. Now wasn't that lovely.

"Morrow Opens the Fight" is the caption at the head of an editorial in a recent issue of the Omaha World-Herald. We wonder what our bewhiskered friend Aaron Reed will say to that. He came out for the dry law repeal several weeks ago.

We read an article the other day compiled by some statistical crank who claimed that American women spent over a billion dollars each year for cold cream, toilet soap, lipstick, rouge, powder and perfume. Them's staggerin' figgers. But on second thought, after comparing the women who contributed nothing to those figures with those who exceeded the per capita quota, we have come to the conclusion that it was money well spent. As a matter of fact considering the army of the unwashed included in our population, another billion dollars spent for toilet soap could hardly be termed extravagance.

THE SHOE ON THE OTHER FOOT

Another negro was killed by a mob down in Texas last week. The negro had murdered a white man and the infuriated populace took justice in its own hands. Fifty miles away from the scene of this negro lynching and burning another negro was burned to death because he had assaulted a white woman.

We heard of these two incidents discussed the other day by two local people. One man, while admitting that the action by the mob was terrible was inclined to justify the action with: "The niggers have to be shown their place."

"You may be right," said the other, but if the niggers took the law in their own hands every time some white man murdered a nigger or took indecent liberties with one of their women, there'd be a dern'd site more lynching than there are now a days. And, isn't it true?

Our civilization may be far advanced in many respects, but our sense of justice and fair play is just about as primitive and lop-sided as it was during the dark ages.

THE SITUATION IN INDIA

One need not be well versed with the situation in India to understand and sympathize with the people of that land. One has but to visualize how we, ourselves, would chafe under the over-bearing domination of a race of people with whom we had little or nothing in common.
One can sympathize with the people of India, but the coming of the day when these people throw off the yoke of British domination, is one that is not pleasant for Western civilization to contemplate.

Two File For County Clerk

The office of county clerk is the goal of the political aspirations of two local men who filed for office this past week. Howard M. James seeks the nomination on the Republican ticket and V. A. Senter on the Democratic. Both of these men are well and favorably known throughout the county and have lived most of their lives here. Mr. James has for a number of years had charge of the office work of the Wayne Monument Works. Mr. Senter was formerly associated with Frank Gamble in the clothing business and at present is employed at the Golden Rule Store.
Thus far filings for office have been at widely spaced intervals, but as the date approaches setting the time limit for filing there is very likely to be a scramble on the part of those politically ambitious. July 3 is the date set as the time limit in which candidates for county offices may file. The primaries take place August 12.

Gives Impression Of Old Mexico

Impressions received on his recent trip which took him through Texas, Arizona, New Mexico and Old Mexico, formed an interesting diversion for the members of the local Kiwanis club at the regular meeting last Monday. His talk, proved very interesting to those present and presented in his rapid fire auctioneer style reminded the guests very much of Floyd Gibbons of radio fame.
Mr. Cunningham recounted many practices inaugurated by communities which he visited which it would stand this community well in hand to emulate.

Miss Gretchen Teckhaus and Miss Ruby Long also provided special numbers for the program.
A number of local Kiwanians went to Sioux City Wednesday to hear an address by International President of the Kiwanis, Horace McDavid, who paid Sioux City an official visit that evening.

Piano and Piano-Voice Recitals Are Presented

Monday evening, students of the piano department of the Wayne State Teachers' college, Prof. Albert G. Carlson, instructor, gave a very delightful recital of piano numbers at the college auditorium. Compositions from Debussy, Rachmoninoff, Lehetzky, Grainger, Handel, Rheinhold and others were given with careful technique and splendid interpretation. Those taking part were Miss Martha Markytan, Miss Marian Mulford, Miss Ethel Wald, Miss Mary Renner, Miss Mina Inhelder, Miss Anne Kohls, Miss Mary Bills, Miss Elaine Winter and Wayne Root.
Tuesday evening, the college music department presented Miss Martha Markytan and Franklin Philleo, in a joint voice and piano recital at the college auditorium.
Miss Markytan sings with a freedom and buoyancy that captures her audience. Her lovely soprano voice was well suited to sing the groups of enjoyable songs presented. Her rendition of the "Blue Danube Waltz" by Strauss and "Will O' the Wisp" by Spross was especially fine. Her final number, "At the Well" by Hageman, was a fitting climax to a delightfully given program.
The piano groups played by Mr. Philleo was highly enjoyable. One classic, the Beethoven Sonata, showed his best form. This number requires a beautiful tone and skillful technique. His group of modern numbers by Debussy, MacDowell, Dett and others was well received. His grasp of the moods and fancies of these compositions was nature in conception.

Miss Markytan and Mr. Philleo are to be congratulated on their splendid attainments in music.

Appearance Not All, But It Is Important

Bananas are not cultivated for the sake of the skins, yet the skins are a valuable part of the fruit. The sale of the fruit often depends upon the kind of skins it has. There is a place for these external, but how many make them the first test. Appearance is not all of life, but has its place. When in their order, all the things of life are important.—Selected.

Letter Written in 1864

Carroll, May 15—This week Mrs. Ivor Morris found an old letter written Dec. 7, 1864 from Dover, Ill., Bureau Co. by her great grandmother to her father, Marion M. Burress. It told of 8 inches of snow on the ground and that corn picking was nearly finished. It stated that new corn was $1.00 a bushel, wheat $1.50, oats, 55c, butter 40c, and eggs 25c.

The letter also told of Marion Burress' brother, Phillip being home on furlough. He was in the army, it being during the Civil War. He told of how the "Loyal Ladies" of Quincy, Ill. fed the soldier boys on Thanksgiving Day.

Another letter written June 4, 1873 from Mrs. Morris' grandmother Burress to her father tells of prices and crop. It said money was scarce and the weather was so dry that things could hardly grow. She told of selling a pair of twin heifer calves and 2 yearling steers for $40 and a sow and 10 pigs for $20. Rye was 15c a bushel and eggs and butter were so cheap it hardly paid to take them to market.

Ingenious, recently perfected devices are now holding ruptures firmly which heretofore never had been retained.

No elastic belts nor filthy leggings are used.

I guarantee the durability of my absolutely sweat and moisture proof, sanitary appliances.

They were attended by the bride's daughter, Miss Earline Meek, and by Harold Flood of Waterbury. Mrs. Good has been a clerk in the Sherman Bros. store the past few years. Globe Trotter at 68

Hartington—Mrs. Christine Jurgensen of Odense, Denmark arrived in Hartington about two weeks ago to visit at the home of her brother, John Miller, who has been ill for several weeks. Before coming to Hartington, she visited two sons in Canada and from there went to California to see relatives. She will spend an extended visit with her brother here and with another relative, Holger Nelson, of Hartington, before returning to her home in Denmark. A trans-oceanic trip and a train journey across a vast continent hold no fears for Mrs. Jurgensen, whose courage, considering her years and the handicap of not having a word of the English language at her command, is admirable.

Wakefield to Celebrate

Wakefield—The American Legion, the Daughters of Union Veterans, and the Legion Auxiliary have united in planning for the Memorial Day exercises. Attorney Gilbert S. Brown of Omaha will be the speaker of the day. The afternoon service at the auditorium will be followed by services at the cemetery and the decoration of veterans' graves. The D. of U. V. will have charge of the decoration of the graves and the arrangement of the program.

Johnson-Lawrence

Wakefield—A party, which started with a shower, ended with a wedding on Thursday night, May 1st, when friends of Miss Maxine Johnson, 18, of Dakota City, and Earl Lawrence, 23, of St. Edward, were entertaining for them. Someone suggested that a suitable ending to the party would be a wedding, and when a wedding ring was supplied by one of the party, the group motored to Glenwood Iowa. The Rev. Arnold of the Methodist church read the marriage lines at 3:00 a. m. Friday. After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence will make their home in Omaha. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. E. C. Bachman of Dakota City, formerly Mrs. Marie Johnson of Wakefield. Wakefield Republican.

Nelson-Borg

Wakefield—Of interest to the Wakefield people is the marriage of Walter Borg to Evelyn Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nelson, of Boulder, Colorado. They were married in Colorado Springs on February 15, and have kept it a secret since that time.

Mr. Borg graduated from the Wakefield high school in 1923 and attended the Wayne State Normal. He received his Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Nebraska in 1928. Since that time he has been teaching in Yuma, Colorado. Mrs. Borg is a graduate of the University of Colorado and has been teaching in Yuma for the past year.

They plan to visit at home for a few weeks in the summer and spend the remainder of the summer in the Mountains. Wakefield Republican.

Health Board Lifts Ban

Allen—There will be no further restrictions on social activities at Allen. It is believed no further trouble will be experienced from the scarlet fever epidemic and the local health board has lifted the ban.

NEW KITCHEN UTENSILS

NEW YORK CITY is famous for its interesting stores and shops. One of the largest of one type of these stores bears under a well-known name the term "Household Equipment." It is unique in that while its salesmen are catering to women whose chauffeurs have driven them in from perhaps million-dollar estates, its mail order staff is serving women in small homes throughout the country. The wealthy woman may be furnishing her gardener's cottage in authentic English reproductions, and the woman of moderate means may be writing in for a door-bag for her bedroom closet. But since the "Colonel's Lady and Julie O'Grady are sisters under their skins," it's ten to one they are both seeking a hot pan lifter or an improved can-opener.

Women talk theoretically about being emancipated from the kitchen, but actually few women can resist a new kitchen appliance. And this particular store features the newest time and labor-saving devices. Suppose we browse among the shelves—because you can browse among pots and pans just as well as among books, if your interests are there—and see what's new.

Ice Picks and Squeezers

Here is a new ice-pick and shredder. For temperamental ice that sometimes defies the usual pick, this nicked steel pick has a very sharp point and a heavy cap on the handle to crack ice into the right-sized chunks. If you want ice shavings, you simply drag the steel-toothed shaver over the ice and shreds collect inside an aluminum bin.

And what is this that looks like a pair of pinchers with a perforated trough between the jaws? The clerk informs us it is a lime squeezer for those little limes that are such good mixers but so hard to squeeze. He calls to our attention a number of new fruit squeezers that extract the juice by turning a handle. But for the popular tomato juice, which is being universally extracted for tomato cocktails, the salesman recommends a potato ricer of the sort where two handles are pressed together. He predicts, incidentally, that there will soon be a special tomato juice extractor on the market which can be used on both canned and fresh tomatoes to supply the demand for this well-liked juice.

Parers and Can Openers

A peach parer interests us, because peach paring is such a slippery undertaking. This one is a machine which holds the peach firmly on triple prongs and when you turn the crank it sends the wheels around, a little knife paring the peach—or the apple if you like.

Can openers—the kind that really open cans without any fuss — are always a source of interest to women. And here is a goodly array. The simplest is one that cuts the top out of all sizes and shapes of cans with ease. It is designed like the old-fashioned can opener, but it works on the ratchet principle, and cuts quickly and clean. Then there is another can opener that you hold in your hand and its jaws grasp the can tightly while you turn an attached handle which can be set to fit the can and makes a clean cut.

Many women, the salesman tells us, prefer to pay a little more and own one of the very satisfactory can openers which screw tight to the table and hold the can in place, while the attached knife cuts the entire top from the can. One of these works automatically, so that after adjusting it to the can you simply turn a handle and presto, the top is off. This is especially nice if you have a can the contents of which you don't want to break, and you desire the whole cylinder to come out intact.

Cutters, Cork Pullers and Cookers

Potato cutters are fascinating things, especially if you have a weakness for French fries with your sirloin. They can be had now in scoops that produce little round balls of potatoes, screws that make novel-curling spirals, julienne for the shoestring variety, ribbon cutters for decorative ribbons of potatoes, and potato cutting boards for latticed potatoes.

And here is something your husband will appreciate, when he wants to show the guests how well he does it. It is called a Partry Wall Unit and it does three jobs well: it pulls the corks from bottles, removes the caps from ginger ale, and keeps a towel handy. It remains fixed to the pantry wall, so he won't even have to ask the usual where-is-it.

If you have been yearning for some of the new cooking utensils that cook vegetables without water, and if you haven't been able to negotiate with your pocket-book concerning them, you will be interested in a new device to make waterless cooking possible with any covered saucepan. It is a disk which can be used over the stove burner, forming a hot air pocket between the bottom of the saucepan and the concave surface of the disk. This pocket acts as hot water does in a double boiler, maintaining an even safe heat for waterless cooking. This is also excellent for heating canned vegetables such as corn, which require close watching to prevent scorching.

New Engine

Emerson—New Engine has purchased a new Diesel, 240 horse power engine for the electric light plant. The new engine, when installed, will enable the city plant to keep up with the growing demand for electric "juice."

TO BE FORD PLANT DOCTOR

Randolph—Arthur Abts, Randolph boy, who finishes his medical course next year, has been named as doctor for the big Ford assembling plant in Omaha, where 700 men are employed. Dr. Abts will take care of first aid cases and look after minor injuries. The appointment to this place is considered a high honor for a medical student. —Randolph Times-Enterprise

Menzies-Johnson

Miss Mary Menzies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Menzies of Ponca, and Leo Johnson of Minot, North Dakota were married at Minot Monday, April 21. Mrs. Johnson is a trained nurse and has been working at her profession in this community the past several months. Prior to coming to Ponca, Mrs. Johnson worked in the south for nine years, her headquarters being at Dallas, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their home on a farm near Minot.

Jeffrey-Marking

Announcements recently have been received of the marriage of Harold Jeffrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jeffrey of Martinsburg, to Miss Rose Jacqueline Marking, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Marking of Harrison, the wedding taking place Saturday, May 3rd. The young couple will make their home at Harrison where Mr. Jeffrey is cashier of the bank.

Loses Life in Creek

Stanton—Little Floyd Benson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Benson, living near here, lost his life Wednesday afternoon, May 7th, when he slipped from the muddy banks of the usually docile but recently swollen Butterfly Creek and disappeared in the swirling waters. Called to the scene, his father and Carl Schultze who had been building a fence about a half a mile away, ran with all haste to the scene but could see nothing of the body. Jumping into an automobile they drove half a mile downstream to a point where a fence lined with accumulated underbrush crossed the creek. While they were searching in this underbrush, the tiny body came floating down the stream. It was still warm and Mr. Schultze, a former superintendent of schools in a Missouri river town, drafted the child's lungs and attempted to revive him by the use of artificial respiration but was unable to do so.

Eagle Killed

Carroll—A large eagle, having a wing spread of 7 feet and spread of its claws being 7 inches, was killed on the Lloyd Morris farm four miles west of Carroll Wednesday, May 7th.
