Four Big Days In Store For Golf Enthusiasts Of Region.

Some Fine Prizes Offered

Gold devotees of northeast Nebraska are looking forward to four eventful days beginning with Sunday July 6, at the course of the Wayne County club where the annual golf tournament of the Northeast Nebraska Golf Association will be held.

This tournament is open to all amateur golfers, and in view of the constantly increasing interest in the sport, it is expected that, with fair weather conditions prevailing, it will be the best attended meet of its kind held in this part of the state.

Some very attractive prizes are to be awarded medalists and the winners and runners up in all flights and consolations and elaborate provision for entertainment of entrants in the tourney is in the making.

There will be three or more flights of 32 players and consolations in each one. The following scheme of the program will be carried out:

Sunday, July 6, Qualifying round. Monday and Tuesday, 18 hole matches in all flights.

Wednesday, Final championship.

An entry fee of $2.50 will be charged each entrant who will be required to qualify on or before Sunday, July 6.

The following committees have been named to look after arrangements in behalf of the tourney:

Tent and Showers—Will Beckenhauer and Will Von Seggern.

Entries—Fred Dale, Roy McDonald and Russell Larson.

Banquet and local entries—Dean Hahn, Carl Wright and F. S. Morgan.

Address all entries and communications to F. S. Morgan, Secretary of N. E. Nebraska Golf Association, Wayne, Nebraska.

STRAWBERRY SEASON IS ON IN WAYNE

Crop Large And Demand For Product Best In Years.

Strawberry season is on and the crop in the Wayne vicinity is unusually large this year. This condition is in sharp contrast with the situation obtaining in the strawberry producing areas of the country, especially in Arkansas and Missouri where the crop has been very poor this season and is responsible for the highest price in years for the product.

D. Hall, proprietor of the Wayne Nursery, bids fair to make a "cleaning" off his five acre patch to the east of town. About twenty-five pickers have been on the job each day since the season began, garnering in fruit each day. The harvest from this fruit has been far in excess of the local demand, but a brisk demand from commission houses at St. Louis has taken care of the surplus.

Mr. Hall has purchased two thousand crates to take care of the crop and states that he believes that all of these will be used this season.

FORMER WAYNE BOY IS WED MONDAY, JUNE 9TH

Announcement has been received here of the marriage of Dr. J. Levoy, former resident of this city, and Miss Lilarae McCallum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. McCallum, the marriage taking place at Wauneta on Monday, June 9th. They will make their home at Benkelman.

Dr. Levoy went to school here as a boy and undoubtedly has many friends here who remember him. His parents formerly lived in the present S. A. Lutgen residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Savidge called at the home of Mrs. Savidge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Griffith, Friday and were entertained at dinner there. The Savidge Amusement company was at Stewart last week and is showing at Ainsworth this week.

Street Flusher Purchase By City Likely

It is more than probable that a street flusher will be added to the city's street cleaning equipment. At a recent meeting of the council the provision for such equipment was discussed and steps were taken to purchase a truck and the necessary other equipment for the construction of one. The truck and flusher, it is estimated, will cost in the neighborhood of $3,000, and is of a type in common use in Omaha. A fully equipped flusher of latest approved type would cost in the neighborhood of $7,000, which the council considered a larger outlay than was warranted.

New Buildings Near Completion

3 New Buildings In Use—Other Improvements Under Way.

Wayne boasts three new business buildings that are now housing four business establishments. The new Huntermer block is now fully completed and is occupied by the Mabbott Bobber Shop and the Frank Gamble clothing store. The Baker garage while still uncompleted is being put to regular use. Construction of a partition separating the sales room and office from the repair department still remains to be built and the floor in the sales room remains to be laid.

The new Super Service Station, occupying the site of the old community building is rapidly nearing completion and will be ready for public service in a few days. The building and its surroundings are very attractive and provide a sharp contrast to the unsightly barnlike structure it replaced.

Among the new building improvements now underway are additions to the Larson & Larson store and the Wayne Monument Works. Larson's store will be extended clear to the alley and will have a full basement. The addition to the monument works is being made at the rear of the building to provide extra space to facilitate work in the cutting department.

Robert Gulliver Second To Become Eagle Scout

At the meeting of the Boy Scouts' Court of Honor held at T. S. Hook's office last Friday evening it was found that Robert Gulliver had earned enough Merit badges to entitle him to become an Eagle Scout and to receive the Eagle Scout badge, he having earned the required 21 Merit badges, four of which were applied for and approved at the Friday meeting. They were the Merit badges for athletics, scholarship, safety, and carpentry.

Other scouts who received Merit badges Friday evening before the Court of Honor were Jack Morgan, Alfonso Martischang, and Myles Tyrrell who won badges as follows: Jack Morgan—badges for cooking and bird study, making him a total of 12 Merit badges; Myles Tyrrell—camping, mining, and scholarship, making him a total of 20 badges; Alfonso Martischang—wood carving, personal health, handicraft, first aid, public health, swimming, path finding, civics, woodwork, leather craft, fireman's craft, pioneering, athletics, poultry keeping, carpentry and cooking, making him a total of 16 Merit badges.

It requires much careful work and study to become an Eagle Scout, and Robert and Myles, the latter having but one more badge between him and Eagle scoutship, are to be congratulated on their fine achievements. Dale Hanks had the honor of becoming Wayne's first Eagle Scout, he having won his Eagle badge last winter.

Prof. A. F. Gulliver, Dorothy, Mary, and Arthur Gulliver, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gulliver drove to Omaha Sunday morning to visit Mrs. A. F. Gulliver who is recuperating nicely at Lord Lister hospital from a major operation underwent about three weeks ago. They returned that evening.

WAYNE FRIENDS FETE FR. KEARNS ON ANNIVERSARY

Hundreds Of Friends and Parishioners Celebrate In His Honor.

Pastor Here For 24 Years

Twenty-five years in the priesthood and twenty-four years as pastor of the local parish of St. Mary's Catholic church were anniversaries of too great significance in the estimation of the friends of Rev. Wm. Kearns, to pass unnoticed and Monday evening he was the guest of honor at a community picnic at the Country Club attended by several hundred of his parishioners and friends.

The esteem of Father Kearns as a friend and citizen was attested by the fact that it was a community gathering in which Catholics and Protestants alike met to extend congratulations and to contribute to the festive aspect of the occasion.

At the close of the picnic dinner, J. H. Kemp, who presided over the gathering, presented Father Kearns with a purse of money donated by people of the community, with the suggestion that it be used to pay the fare for a long cherished European trip.

Father Kearns, to use his own expression, was "flabbergasted" at these manifestations of good will but not so dum founded that he did not have recourse to his Irish wit and resourcefulness as a speaker to voice this thanks for the kindness shown and his appreciation of the constant good will that has made his twenty-four year sojourn in Wayne such a happy one.

At the church the previous Sunday, the anniversary was also duly noted by special decorations suggestive of the occasion. Especially noticeable were the decorations at the doorway to the church where garlands of greenery formed a framework about the entrance. Two wreaths, each entwining a gilded "25" and a placard bearing the following quotation from Holy Writ: "What shall I return to the Lord for all that he hath done to me," made significant the nature of the occasion.

Among the many out of town guests to honor Father Kearns by their presence were a number of pastors from neighboring parishes: Rev. Thomas Walsh, Battle Creek; Rev. D. Morarty, Norfolk; Rev. Geo. Jonatis, Stanton; Rev. Boshek, Crofton; Rev. F. Latch, Constance; Rev. D. O. Sullivan, Coleridge; Rev. John Brock, Dixon; Rev. Kelly, Ponca; Rev. C. Collins, Emerson; Rev. J. Rose, Wisner; Very Rev. J. McNamara, Bloomfield; Rev. B. Lordemann, Randolph.

MASONS INSTALL OFFICERS

Installation ceremonies at the local Masonic Lodge took place Friday evening when the following officers were installed and are now in charge of the destinies of the local body for the coming year: Kenneth N. Parke, W. M.; John C. Carhart, S. W.; Chas. E. Wilson, J. W.; Harvey S. Ringland, Treasurer; J. M. Cherry, Secretary; Ralph L. Crockett, S. D.; Henry E. Ley, J. D.; Wm. M. Hawkins, S. Steward; J. G. Grier, J. Steward; Charles J. Ruback, Tyler. Past Master O. R. Bowen, conducted the installation assisted by L. B. McClure, who acted as marshal.

Cooperation

Mr. Webster, who is often spoken of as a good authority on correct English, says that "co-operation" means:

"Collective action in the pursuit of common well-being."

Through frequent usage a word sometimes loses some of its power to make a strong impression on our minds, and we wonder if this might not be true of the good, old-fashioned word "co-operation."

In its true sense, co-operation is a fine word. It is truly a winner. It has won every war that was ever won. It has established nations, and held them together. It has raised the wages and elevated the living standard of our country. It has won every athletic contest where team

Aaron B. Clark Passes Away In Los Angeles, Cal.

Former Wayne Resident Dies Following Long Illness.

Funeral Here Friday P. M.

The body of Aaron B. Clark, who passed away at his Los Angeles, California, home June 13, arrived in Wayne Wednesday evening and funeral services will be held at the Beckenhauer Funeral Home Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock.

Mr. Clark had been in failing health for a number of years and had gone to California in the home that he might be benefited, but his condition took a serious turn for the worse a few days ago and death followed shortly after.

The deceased was one of the pioneer settlers of Wayne county having resided here for more than forty years. He was a man of better than average business acumen and is reputed to be one of the most wealthy men in these parts.

He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Mabel Clark Wilhelm, who is married to a major in the U. S. Army, stationed in the Philippines. Mr. Clark was 77 years of age at the time of his death.

Wayne Folk Return From Visit To Minnesota

Return Friday Eve After Attending Graduation At Which Their Son, Paul, Received His Degree.

The following article will be of interest to friends and acquaintances in the city, as it concerns one of the former Wayne boys who has been unusually successful in his chosen line of work:

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Crossland of this city and son, Wm. of Lincoln returned Friday evening from Minneapolis, Minnesota where they attended the graduation exercises of the University of Minnesota at which their son and brother, Paul, Crossland, was graduated from the four-year course in medicine, receiving his Bachelor of Medicine degree.

He has attended the University and Medical school for the past five years. Clem C. Crossland and wife of Kansas City, Kansas joined the family and were present for the graduating exercises, all of the family being present except the Rev. Weldon F. Crossland of Pontiac, Michigan who was unable to attend.

Some time ago Paul received his appointment as an assistant surgeon in the Medical corps of the United States Navy. He has just received word that he will be stationed at the Naval Base hospital at San Diego, California for his internship. The Naval Base hospital is one of the several larger hospitals maintained by the United States Navy for those connected with the Naval service.

WAYNE COUNTY UNIVERSITY GRADUATE

Wm. A. Crossland WAYNE

Of especial interest among the numerous local recipients of graduation honors is the graduation from the law department of the University of Nebraska of Wm. A. Crossland, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Crossland of this city and of Burr Russell Davis, son of the late A. R. Davis. Both are graduates of Wayne high school and of the Wayne Teachers college. Burr Davis has already entered the practice of law and is associated with county attorney C. H. Hendrickson.

Trains on Main Line Motorized

Change To Take Place As Soon As Time Change Is Effective.

"Galloping Geese" or "what you may call 'em" are soon to be substituted for "choo-choo trains" on several branch lines of the Omaha road as soon as the change in train schedules permitted by the railway commission become effective.

The class of service on the main line between Sioux City and Omaha will be changed from steam to gas-electric cars of 60-passenger capacity. Service will also be reduced. This change in this one division will realize a saving of $85,000 a year for the railroad, Omaha officials declare.

A new schedule is made on the train leave Sioux City at 9:00 a. m., returning to Wynot, which it left at 6:00 a. m., at 12:50 p. m.

Steam train service will still be used on all trains operating to or through Wayne.

Rev. H. M. Hilpert and Winside Girl Are Wed

A pretty June wedding was solemnized at 10:30 o'clock Monday, June 16th, in St. Johns Evangelical Church at Pierce, when Miss Golda Fleeer became the bride of Rev. H. M. Hilpert, Rev. H. J. Hilpert, father of the groom read the ceremony that united the young couple in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The bride was lovely in white satin with long lace veil worn cap effect and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Dorothy Fleeer and Miss Agatha Hilpert as bridesmaids were pretty in dresses of pale green and pink silk and each carried pink roses. Hubert Fleeer and Irwin Erlehen of Wayne attended the bridegroom.

Mrs. Hilpert is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fleeer of Winside. She is a graduate of the Winside High School, graduating with the class of 1927. Rev. Hilpert is the son of Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Hilpert of Pierce, Nebr. He has been pastor of St. Pauls Evangelical Church the past seven years. He received his early education in Pierce and in 1924 graduated from Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, Mo. Rev. and Mrs. Hilpert left by automobile for a honeymoon trip of two weeks visiting various points in the Northwest. They will visit Minneapolis and Minnesota Lakes, they will be at home to friends and parishioners in two weeks at the St. Pauls Evangelical parsonage in Winside. Rev. and Mrs. Hilpert have the congratulations and best wishes of the entire community, both being prominent young people and general favorites in society.

Bank Installs Ventilators In Vaults

Ventilators have been installed in the two vaults of the State National Bank. This improvement is so arranged that ventilation is insured even though the doors of the vaults may be closed. These ventilators have been provided to insure the safety of the employees or patrons who have access to the safety deposit vaults. Should they be in the vaults when the doors might become locked, they would be in no danger of suffocation even though locked in the vault for hours.

Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Van Patton returned home Monday evening after spending about two weeks in Sioux City.

Not Guilty Is Jury's Verdict In Holmes Case

Verdict For Acquittal Of Sensational Charges Is Given.

Large Crowds Attended

"Not guilty" was the verdict of the jury Tuesday afternoon after deliberating several hours on the State vs. Vergil Holmes case which occupied two days of a continued session of court the first of the week.

Holmes was accused of immoral conduct with a 16 years old girl, the parent of whom entered the complaint against the accused. Holmes was arrested last January and being unable to raise the bond fixed for his release, has spent the entire intervening time in the county jail.

The findings of the jury exonerates him of the serious charges brought against him and he is now back at his old job with the Coryell Auto Company where he was working when placed under custody.

As is usually common in such cases the court room was filled to its capacity with crowds eager to hear the sensational testimony brought out during the trial. County Attorney C. H. Hendrickson, assisted by Burr Russell Davis handled the prosecution of the case while the defendant was represented by F. S. Berry and James Brittain. One interesting feature in this connection was the state's plea to the jury by Burr Davis. This was Davis' first plea, he having received his law degree from the University of Nebraska, but a few days ago.

What are MERIT Merchants?

The term "MERIT MERCHANT" is rightly applied to any business concern in any line whose unwavering purpose it is to MERIT the business and friendship of every individual in its trade territory.

The fulfillment of this purpose imposes a definite obligation upon proprietor and clerks--an obligation of SERVICE and of INTEREST which starts with the sale of meritorious goods at fair prices.

The MERIT MERCHANT recognizes and accepts a responsibility to both his customers and his community, and endeavors to handle every transaction so as to earn more and better customers.

A good community must have good merchants. A good merchant must have good customers. A good citizen must have both good merchants and a good community. Good citizens are therefore customers of merchants who Merit their custom.

THOSE AWFUL BLUE LAWS

At times one is led to wonder if the present day intolerance of anything that smacks of "Puritanism" hasn't been carried a bit too far. Because the early New Englanders followed the common practice of the period of the treating witches rough, any custom or usage ascribed to them is at this present time denounced as bigoted, narrow minded and intolerant.

There is no question but what the "Blue Laws" of old were stern and uncompromising and that they embodied many mandates which could not be tolerated today, but they served the useful purpose of enabling a person to distinguish between right and wrong.

As a result of this propagated tendency to scorn the "straight and narrow" way, we have thrown aside the only definite guide we have. There is a vagueness today to the lines of demarkation that would enable one to distinguish between good and evil. We have come to pick out our own ideas as to how the Ten Commandments should be interpreted. Several of them have come to be totally disregarded. Many people look upon the Decalogue in the same way they look upon the 18th Amendment—"Something imposed upon them without their consent and they are, therefore, not duty bound to observe it."

Our notions have become vague regarding moral conduct. Older people stand agast at the unconventional liberties taken by the younger generation of today. The young folks see nothing seriously wrong in their conduct, they have a vague idea that they may at times overstep the bounds of propriety, but they have come to look upon the code of their elders as a relic of those dreary old Blue Laws, whose only reason for existence was to take joy out of life.

When they are admonished to "Honor thy father and thy mother," or to "Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy" or the commandments beginning with "Thou shalt not" they smile tolerantly at those old fashioned ideas.

It is against human nature to do wrong, and many of the actions of young people deplored today create no qualms of conscience on their part. Things that were considered evil a generation ago have come to be considered quite all right today.

Such a tendency has led to extremes, one of which is the recent gangster murder in Chicago. We have no idea who did the killing, but we are quite certain that the killer really believed that he was doing right. The law "Thou shalt not kill," was only an old fashioned notion of a bunch of religious cranks who "burnt witches at the stake."

The most ridiculous clown on earth is the small town "high hatter" and the next on the program is his wife.

CHICAGO DECLARES

"WAR ON CRIME"

The city of Chicago has launched another "War on Crime". A reporter on the staff of the Chicago Tribune was murdered by a Chicago gangster and an outraged public egged on by virulent newspaper comment and publicity, is demanding that the city be combated until the murderer is caught.

It is not at all improbable that the murderer will be apprehended. It is not at all improbable that he will be convicted. But what does a gangster or two matter? Left unmolested by the authorities, he would very likely be "bumped off" any way.

Chicago will never come any where near coping with its crime problem until it cleans up its boss racketeer, its boss bootleggers, its unscrupulous criminal lawyers, its professional bondsmen, its vascellating judiciary and unscrupulous politicians. And Chicago never will.

OUR GOVERNMENT ISN'T SO BAD

America is a pretty decent sort of a country after all.

We criticize her public men—we question their good faith—sometimes we accuse. Sometimes we even wonder if our form of government is really the best form of government on earth.

Maybe it isn't, but—

Consider Rumania.

A young man of Royal birth regarded his responsibilities to his home and to his country so lightly that he forsook his family, wife and his country for the companionship of a Paris courtesan. Entreaties from his family and from his countrymen to return and rule over his people were of no avail until after tiring of his paramour, and until after his government had made arrangements to do without him, he engineers a coup and has himself proclaimed king.

Fancy a profligate whipper-snapper working a job like that on the American people! Just imagine it!

Local Family Attend

Birthday Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Ray R. Larson and family of this city drove to Homer Monday morning to attend the birthday celebration given at the home of Mrs. Larson's aunt, Mrs. Carl Larson, the occasion being her 74th birthday and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Larson's 21st wedding anniversary. She is a twin sister of the local Mrs. Larson's mother.

In all, about 200 guests were present for the dinner served at the Larson home at Homer, the guests staying to spend the day and enjoying a reunion and social time until midnight that night. Some of them were relatives who had not seen one another for 18 or 20 years past.

Among the guests were Dr. Tony Larson and his wife and family of Curley, whom the Larson's of this city had not seen for 48 years; L. W. Larson and family of Wynot; Mrs. George Jensen and family and Mrs. John Jensen and family of near Homer; and Mrs. Will O'Dell and husband of Homer, all of them named being cousins of Mrs. Ray Larson and children of Mrs. Carl Larson; besides Mrs. Ray Larson's sisters, Mrs. Ruoff of Sioux City, and M. H. Larson of Leeds, Iowa.

The anniversary reunion was a rare event and much enjoyed.

KUDLAC-ADAMS

Wakefield—Miss Mary Rudlac and Carl Adams were married Wednesday afternoon, June 4, at the St. John's manse, the Rev. W. A. Gerdes performing the ceremony. They were attended by Miss Eunice Volberding and Arnold Schulz. They will make their home at Wakefield.

WITH THE WAYNE CHURCHES

First Presbyterian Church

P. A. Davies Pastor
The Children's Day service at our church last Sunday was appreciated by the large crowd in attendance. In every sense of the word it was a worth while program. Each department had given much time in preparing for the occasion. We wish to commend the leaders upon the success of the day. Mr. and Mrs. Fitch and Mr. and Mrs. Neeley presented their little children for baptism. The offering taken at this service for Sunday school work in needy fields amounted to over $61. The greater part of which came from the children of the school.

The Aid society held its annual picnic at Bressler Park Wednesday afternoon. The members and friends going at four o'clock for a business meeting and their families joining them for supper at six thirty.

10:00—Sunday school.
11:00—Morning service.

First Baptist Church

W. E. Braisted, Pastor
The pastor expects to be back from Colorado for this Sunday.
10:00—The church Sunday school session with classes and welcome for all. Lesson topic: "The Great Commission."
11:00—Morning Worship hour, music and preaching. Subject of message: "Thought Controlled Life and Living."
8:00—The Evening Glad service. Song, fellowship, and gripping worthwhile message, subject: "Adam's Fall and Ours". Which is the more important, at least, to us? Think it over then come, and hear what one preacher thinks about it. Do we "fall" up or down? Men and women have argued both ways.
Choir practice at the church Saturday evening at 8:00 o'clock.
Monday afternoon and evening, 2:30 and 8:00 o'clock, the Northeastern Baptist Association will meet with the local church in annual sessions, and all day Tuesday; 10:00 a. m.; 2:00 p. m. and 8:00 p. m. The public is cordially invited to any or all these sessions.

SUCCUMBS TO BLOOD POISON
Pender—Delores, nine years old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Siemers of Pender, passed away at the Beemer hospital at about midnight Saturday, June 7. Funeral services were held last Thursday afternoon.

Several days previous to her death, the little girl had run a large silver into the calf of her leg while playing in the barn yard with her brother and the baby sister triplets. This silver was removed as thought and the sore seemed to be all right. Then it began to get worse. Dr. Louis McGuire performed an operation which was understood from the first to be serious. As a desperate means to save the little girl's life, Mr. McGuire phoned to Omaha to send a certain trusted boy by motorcycle with serum to Beemer. Seventy-five minutes later the serum was delivered, but it was impossible to save the little girl's life.

WHERE DOES THE WEST BEGIN

Randolph—A Chicago high school lad of about 16 dragged into Randolph Sunday, June 8, and rested his weary body at the Euol Oil Station.

"Where does the West begin?" asked the Chicago lad. "I have heard about Western hospitality, but had to walk the last 20 miles."

This boy was hitch-hiking from Chicago to Sheridan, Wyoming, and was finding the free rides rather scarce. He carried a pack and declared it was getting mighty heavy. As a safety measure, the boy carried a card by which he could send telegrams collect to his mother if he needed funds.

Asked where he slept the night before, he said: "between a bush and a fence post."

"Out where the West begins" is a place of fascination for eastern boys. This lad will find it before he leaves Nebraska.—Randolph Times Enterprise.

YOUNG FARMER DIES

John Heinemann, brother of Herman Heinemann of this community passed away at the Lutheran hospital at Norfolk Wednesday morning, June 4th, following an illness of ten days.

Mr. Heinemann was born in Pender on July 23rd, 1892, and passed away on June 4th, at the age of 37 years. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, Mrs. Marie Heinemann, three sons, Harry, Lloyd, and Lester, and one daughter, Mildred Heinemann. Three brothers, Henry Heinemann of Ogallala, Herman Heinemann of Wayne, and Louis Heinemann of Pilger, besides four sisters, Mrs. M. Topp and Mrs. A. Willers of Pilger, Mrs. M. Mohr of Ogallala, and Mrs. Brock Moller of Big Springs, Nebraska also survive.

Early Signs of Genius

"Has my boy," wrote the proud parent, "a natural bent in any one direction?"

"He has," replied the headmaster. "He gives every indication of being a captain of industry some day. He gets the other boys to do all his work for him."

Wayne Boy Is To Go To San Diego, California

Relatives here received a phone call last Saturday evening from Minneapolis, Minnesota informing them that Paul Crossland had that day received his commission from Washington, D. C. and signed by President Hoover assigning his Navy internship at the Government Navy hospital at San Diego, California where he will serve as assistant surgeon during his one year "internship." Mr. Crossland was graduated from the four year medical course at the University of Minnesota this spring and won the Navy internship last winter, he being one of the few applicants who competed in the examinations to win a Navy internship. He did not know until Saturday however whether he would be assigned to a Boston, Philadelphia, or a western hospital.

Paul and his wife expect to be back here this week-end to visit home folks.

WORK BEGUN ON NEW SCHOOL

Concord—Work has begun on the new school building here recently. The new building will be located on the hill west of the old structure and will face the south. It will be 64 by 64 feet with a 63 foot front wing at the southeast and southwest corners. The building will be made of face brick stone trim and backed with tile and brick. The first floor will consist of three grade rooms, high school assembly room, two recitation rooms, office, and girls' toilet. One of the grade room floors will be raised 2 1/4 feet above the others so that it may be used as an elevation for stage purposes at school affairs or community gatherings. This room is divided from the high school assembly by accordion doors which can be raised, making an auditorium large enough to accommodate about 200 people.

An eight-foot corridor or hallway will extend throughout the entire length of the building.

The basement will be 20 by 54 feet, with a fuel room 10 by 28 feet, boiler-room, lunch and play room, and boy's toilet.

The total cost of the structure will be about $16,000.

The structure will easily accommodate 150 pupils and is being so built that an addition can be built that an addition can be built on later if needed. It will be modern in every way.

The old school house will be kept for the present so that in case the new one is not completed by the time the fall term begins, it can be used again.

PROPAGANDA

The Nebraska Farmer—It is doubtful that in the entire country any group is carrying on a more consistent and persistent campaign of propaganda against the Federal Farm Board than certain elements of the private grain trade in Nebraska. This is being done through the medium of paid advertising in country newspapers. These advertisements are signed by a farmer and in turn are circulated to the country elevators to be posted where they will come promptly to the attention of farmers. In the entire transaction the names of those who are bearing the expense do not appear; the impression being left that the farmer writes the advertisement and pays for having it circulated.

Propaganda is as old as time. During the war it was used on both sides of the lines by aviators, who flew across the lines and spread literature of a misleading character among the contending forces. It was recognized then for just what it was and no one was seriously misled by it. In the conduct of business, this character of attack has been largely abandoned. Concerns that have any respect for themselves or their cause are willing to attach their names to their advertising and literature. Why should it not be so among those who are opposed to the policy of the Federal Farm Board?

No one would object to the activity of the private grain trade in publishing its advertisements and circulating its literature in support of its position upon grain marketing. Those who have a grievance, or think they have, against the Board would thus receive a respectful hearing. If their arguments were sound and their methods of doing business were better, they would win out a lot sooner by this approaching the question than to follow the course they now are of circulating propaganda that is misleading as to its source.

Our suggestion is, that when a farmer sees one of those alleged farmer advertisements posted in his favorite co-operative elevator, he had better go to conference with the manager of that elevator and ask him "How Come?" The very presence of these advertisements posted in co-operative elevators should raise a question in the mind of the farmer about whom his elevator is serving.

WAKEFIELD RESIDENT DIES

Wakefield—Mrs. Maude Samuelson, wife of C. A. Samuelson, passed away at her home here about noon Wednesday last week, June 11, after a lingering illness. Though she had been ill a long time, she had taken an active interest in life up to the last and her death came as a shock to the community where she has been a life long resident. She is survived by her husband and one son, Mervin; by her mother, Mrs. Mary Terwilliger, and a sister, Mrs. Joe Johnson in Wakefield. She is also survived by a sister in Minneapolis and one in Omaha, besides a brother, John Cooper, of Bozeman, Montana. Funeral services were conducted last Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Presbyterian church, the Rev. C. H. Rumbaugh officiating.

OLD SETTLER PASSES AWAY

George W. Hutton, one of the old settlers of this part of the state, passed away Tuesday afternoon, June 10, at the age of 78 years. He came to Norris in the fall of 1881 and moved to Coleridge when the town was started in the fall of 1883. Several years later he moved to Orchard and then to Harrison where he spent the latter part of his life. Two years ago he suffered a paralytic stroke and, has since been taken care of in Lincoln. He was buried in the Memorial cemetery in South Lincoln Wednesday last week. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Della Hutton, a son, Charles N. Hutton of Long Beach, California and by two daughters, Mrs. H. B. Ware of Wakefield, and Mrs. Alice Cobligh of Lincoln.

BEEMER WOMAN DIES

Beemer—Emma Estella Nellor, wife of Percy E. Nellor, passed away Sunday afternoon, June 8, having attained the age of 38 years. She was ill but three weeks and all that medical science could do for her was done. Funeral services were held from the home and at the Congregational church of which she was a member. Interment was made in the Beemer cemetery. She is survived by her husband, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Long, and by one brother and one sister.

BABY PHEASANTS ON DISPLAY

Among the newly hatched chicks on display in the window of the Coleson hatchery are a number of tiny, but unusually active chicks of a mottled black and brown coloring. They are pheasant chicks which were brought into town the other day by a farmer who inadvertently destroyed their nest while mowing in a patch of alfalfa. Strange enough, the tiny mites of life are far tamer than the baby leghorn chicks with whom they

There Are Many Improvements On the New McCormick- Deering Binders

That are Not On Your Old Machine

Among the improvements you will notice if you compare a new McCormick-Deering grain binder with the earlier models, is the increased strength of many parts without additional weight. Examples of this are found in the main frame, the bracing of the platform and elevators and outside reel support. Better construction means longer life and more satisfactory operation. Parts are held in better alignment which means lighter draft and less strain and wear on shafts, chains and bearings. Compare these details with other less carefully designed machines and you will decide in favor of the McCORMICK-DEERING.
