Crops Begin to Show Effects of Sweltering Heat

Corn Tasseling Out Before Mature Growth Is Attained.

Little Rain Thruout N. W.

Blistering heat and unrelieved drought continues in this region with prospects none too encouraging for relief. A cloudiness prevailing last Monday brought some relief from the intense heat prevailing the week before, but not even dew has come to the relief of the parched ground and crops are beginning to show the effect.

Corn stood the weather well up to about the first of the week but since that time has given signs of succumbing to the weather conditions in a way that is anything but encouraging to the farmers. The corn has shown a tendency to tassel out before the plant had received its full growth which indicates that the yield will be curtailed to a great extent.

Small grain such as barley and oats, has been harvested. The straw has been short and the yield light, but the quality is reported as excellent and the yield not nearly as light as indications warranted. Gardens have suffered seriously—especially sweet corn and potatoes, indications are that there will be very little of the former and a greatly reduced production of the latter.

Saturday was the hottest day of the season with the thermometer at the power plant registering 104. Sunday bid fair to outdo the record, the thermometer registering 102 degrees at one o'clock, but clouds came up shortly afterward bringing relief.

There have been intermittent showers in various parts of the state, but none of an extensive area.

PHEASANT SHOOTING PERMITTED IN FALL

Game Commission Declares Open Season From Oct. 23 To Nov. 2

Nebraska sportsmen this fall will be permitted to shoot pheasants from Oct. 23 to Nov. 2, inclusive, the state game and parks commission announced today.

The limit of game was changed to permit possession of four cocks and one hen. In previous years only the male pheasants could be hunted.

Useless waste by hunters, who shot hens and left them in the fields because of the law, prompted the board to revise the regulation, believing less waste would result.

The counties permitting pheasant hunting will be determined later, Frank B. O'Connell, state game warden and secretary to the commission, announced.

The commission has purchased ten acres of shore land on Lake Champion in Chase county near Imperial for fishing purposes. The price was $100 an acre.

The commission authorized Frank O'Connell, chief warden, to take such steps as he may deem necessary to prevent power companies on the Cedar and Niobrara rivers from operating their dams in a manner that causes the streams to become dry at times.

Three carloads of bluegrass seed were shipped from Wayne to Omaha by the Nebraska Seed Company the past week representing a total of about 45 tons of the commodity. There is a wide demand for this seed and although there is no definite cultivation of blue grass for seed purposes in the county, the amount produced represents an item of no small importance.

Funeral For Mrs. Hyatt Tuesday

Beloved Matron Is Dead Following Extended Illness.

Many Years Neb. Resident

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. A. J. Hyatt who passed away at her home in this city last Saturday after an illness of about three years.

Mrs. Hyatt was 76 years of age at the time of her death, being born in Missouri on December 27, 1853. Her maiden name was Hester Ann Saal. When but a small child, she moved with her parents to Iowa, settling on a farm near Lineville, where she grew to womanhood.

On July 7th, 1875, she was married to Monterey B. Hughes and spent three years of their married life in Iowa, coming then to Nebraska settling near Dixon. Here their five children were born. Mr. Hughes died at Dixon in 1883 and the family then moved to Plainview, where they lived for several years. It was at Plainview that she became a member of the Wesleyan church, which she had maintained up to her death.

From the farm at Plainview, she came to live in Wayne county, where she was again united in marriage, becoming the wife of A. J. Hyatt on November 2, 1919. Wayne has been her residence, since.

She is survived by her husband and four sons, Joseph M. and Wilfred Hughes of Plainview; George W. Hughes, of Wayne, and Pingre C. Hughes, of Chicago. Weston D. Hughes, her eldest son died in April 1924. There are also two sisters, thirteen grandchildren and one great grand child.

Mrs. Hyatt was a woman possessed of virtues of kindness and sympathy that endeared her to a wide circle of friends who will long cherish the memory of her life among them. She was always thoughtful of others and was especially solicitous to the sick and the needy.

Funeral services were conducted at the Beckenhauer funeral parlors, Rev. P. A. Davies officiating and the body laid to rest in the Greenwood cemetery.

CITY TAX LEVY HIGHER COUNCIL ANNOUNCEMENT

Assessment Lower And It Will Make No Difference In Taxes

Total Levy Ready Soon

A levy of 22.45 mills as a basis for city taxation for the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1930, was made by the city council at its regular session last Tuesday evening. This makes an increase of 2.5 mills over the previous year but will affect little or no increase in city taxes, according to County Assessor William Assenheimer, as assessed valuations in the city are correspondingly lower.

The levy is divided into twelve items, the largest of which is an eight mill levy to pay interest for paving of street intersections and to provide a sinking fund to pay off the debt.

The levys are as follows:
A—5½ Mills for general revenue purposes.

B—3 Mills for operation, maintenance and extension of city light plant.

C—1.5 Mill maintaining and repairing sewers.

D—2.5 Mills, City Parks.

E—2.5 Mills toward purchasing equipment and maintenance of fire department.

F—1 Mill, city library.

G—1 Mill, interest and creation of sinking fund for payment of refunding bonds on paving Dist. 3, 4 and 5.

H—1½ Mill, Street improvement bonds and creation of sinking fund for their payment.

I—3.5 Mills, water extension bonds and sinking fund.

J—1.5 Mill, interest city hall bonds, and sinking fund.

K—8 Mills Intersection paving and sinking fund.

L—1 Mill for musical organizations.

The state board of equalization is in session at Lincoln at this writing and is expected to establish a basis for city taxes about August 2. The county levy fixing body is expected to be in session next week so that tax payers may have somewhat definite idea of the "bad news" they are apt to receive in the very near future.

Drew Heavy Fines On Moonshine Charges

Fines of $200 and costs each were assessed against Leslie "Skeets" Rundell and Wm. Jorgensen last Saturday evening in Judge Cherry's court.

Following their arrest a few hours previous on charge of sale and possession of moonshine liquor. The latter was first arrested and when faced with the charge, readily admitted his guilt stating that "Skeets" had supplied the booze. "Skeets" was then placed under arrest and pleaded guilty to the charge. The fines were paid and the liquor, three pints taken from Jorgensen and 25 pints from Rundell, were destroyed.

Primary Election August 12th Be Sure To Cast Your Vote

Tuesday after next, August 12, is Primary Election day in Nebraska.

To many people who have heard the issues of the campaign and the relative merits of the various candidates discussed, the above announcement may seem superfluous, but if the results of primary elections in other states may be taken as criterion, the danger of apathy on the part of the voters is apt to cause a situation which the people of the state will have cause to regret after the votes are counted.

It has held true in many instances that the will of the majority has been defeated, not so much by the machinations of unscrupulous politicians and dirty politics as by the failure of otherwise patriotic citizens to cast their vote.

It so often happens that the undesirable candidate is strongly entrenched. He usually has money and influence behind him and can depend on his following to cast a full strength vote. For that reason, a light vote is always in his favor.

It is the patriotic duty of every

Pretty Wedding Is Solemnized At M.E. Church

Prominent, Wayne Couple Exchange Vows Here Thursday Eve.

Many Guests At Wedding

Before an altar banked with greenery and baskets of vari-colored flowers, and lighted only by the soft light of tall white tapers, Miss Florence Beckenhauer and Willard Whitse took the solemn vows which made them man and wife. The marriage took place at the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city at 8:00 o'clock Thursday evening, July 24th, the Rev. W. W. Whitman, pastor, performing the ceremony in the presence of a large audience of relatives and friends.

Immediately after the singing of two vocal selections by Mrs. J. H. Volk who sang, "At Dawning," and Prof. Horn who sang, "Because," Mendelsohn's Wedding processional was played, Mrs. J. T. Bressler Jr. at the console, and the bride and her attendants proceeded from the back of the church, marching formally toward the altar. Four bridesmaids, costumed in long, old-fashioned gowns each of a different pastel hue, led the procession. Two little flower girls dressed, one in peach and one in blue, followed, strewn rose petals in the pathway of the bride. These were followed by the maid of honor, the ring bearer, and the bride and her train-bearer. At the altar they met the bridegroom and his attendant for the marriage ceremony, during which the soft strains of the pipe organ selection, "Leibestrom," could be heard. Wm. Beckenhauer presented the bride in marriage.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white chiffon with a coronet style veil of silk tulle embroidered with pearls. Her costume was of old-fashioned mode with long skirt fashioned with tiered ruffles finished in silk net. She wore white kid slippers with rhinestone buckles and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, baby breath, and lilies of the valley. Little Lloyd McNatt acted as her train-bearer.

Miss Faye Beckenhauer was the maid of honor and wore an old-fashioned gown of blue organdie fashioned with close-fitting waist and floor-length skirt, and finished with a large blue silk bow with long appendant streamers at the back of the waist. She wore a hat to match and carried a shower bouquet in which blue predominated. The ring bearer Dorothy Jean Casper, wore white

Fed. Highway 20 To Be Graveled

Federal Highway No. 20 is soon to have a stretch of road graveled between Laurel and Allen, which when completed, will provide completely graveled roads from Sioux City to O'Neill. News of the letting of the contract for graveled this stretch was announced by C. W. Peasinger, of Laurel, president of Nebraska Federal Highway No. 20 association.

The work will be completed by November 1. This improvement is of great importance to motorists from this vicinity who will find the road of great convenience especially during rainy spells when the ungraveled portions of state highway No. 35 are impassible. The route then would be from Wakefield to Allen and then on to Sioux City. There would be little difference in the distance traveled.

SEVERAL CASES OF HOG CHOLERA EAST OF TOWN

As if to make good the warning issued early in the season that the dread disease of hog cholera would make its appearance in Northeast Nebraska, several serious cases have been reported to the east of Wayne. Old Farmers Union Elevator Threatened

Fire in the planking of the drive-way leading to the old Farmers Union elevator brought out the fire department Saturday afternoon. The blaze had made good headway in the dry, roted planking and seriously threatened to extend to the elevator. A considerable quantity of water was required to put out the fire and for a moment things looked serious, but the fire was confined to the planking. The close proximity of the old mill and two gasoline bulk stations made the fire hazard a grave one. The cause of the fire is not known. It is thought however, that it began in some tall weeds near the drive-way. The elevator is the property of L. L. Way and has not been in use for a long time.

Grading and graveled of Highway No. 25 is listed as a portion of the million dollars in road contracts that are being let this month, according to announcement of Roy Cochran, state engineer. The definite time for the letting of the contract has not been announced, but it is expected that the bids will be let in the near future. The work of graveled will be done some time next year.

MELON RIND COSTS $20

Because he threw a melon rind from the wrong side of a car, hitting the windshield of the car driven by John Brandt, farmer living near West Point, Edward Tooley and his cousins, Willard and Charles Tooley, were brought into court and ordered to pay Brandt's doctor bill, car damages, and court costs. The three were on their way from South Dakota where they had gone to find work in the harvest fields. Their capital amounted to $5.25 and they bought a melon in West Point to save food cost. The rind thrown heedlessly from the Tooley car broke the windshield of the Brandt car and severely lacerated Brandt's face. The rind set the three back about $20.

La Porte News

The people of this vicinity are rejoicing over the unexpectedly good yield of small grain. Several farmers received a yield of 45 bushels on a small acreage. One 50 bushel average was reported and a number received over 30 bushels.

Threshing is the order of the day. The men work from daylight to dark as every one is anxious to get his grain garnered in before the hoped for rain arrives. Almost all the small grain will be threshed this week.

Hog cholera has reared its unwelcome head in this community. Those who were tardy about vaccinating are now getting it done in haste. Hundreds of hogs were vaccinated Sunday.

Mr. John Meyers and children and Grandma Grimm spent Sunday at the August Kay home.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Brudigan were among a group of relatives who spent Sunday evening at the George Giese home in honor of Mr. Giese's birthday.

Mrs. Robert Hanson, Helen and Robt. Jr. spent Friday and Saturday helping Mrs. Harrison cook for threshers. A threshing crew south of Wakefield volunteered to thresh a sick neighbor's grain free gratis last week. The offer was accepted.

The La Porte community club sponsored a neighborhood picnic last Sunday at the Pow Wow grounds at Winnebago. The group went en masse to the S. E. Morgan home where they were joined by a group of local Winnebago people. All had picnic dinner together.

The Indian dances were unusually artistic this year.

Speakers for the afternoon included Chas. Bryan and Congressman Edgar Howard.

The regular club picnic will be in two weeks at Crystal Lake.

FORMER WAYNE BOY WED

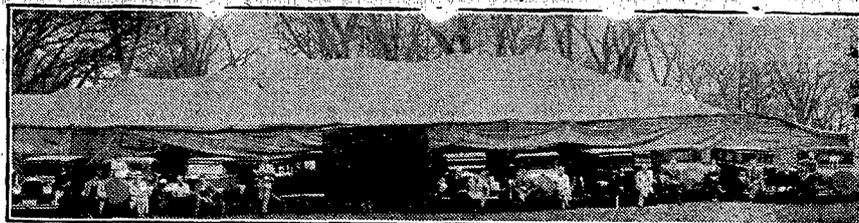

Norfolk—Frank Caauwe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Caauwe of near Wayne, and Miss Grace Wenke of Norfolk were married Saturday morning, July 19, at Madison, the ceremony taking place at 11:00 o'clock. Mrs. Caauwe has lived near Norfolk most of her life and is well known in that community. Mr. Caauwe lived near Wayne a number of years, attended the Wayne State normal and was for a time employed by the Wayne Greenhouse. He is now in the employ of the Norfolk Floral Co., and of the Graham Ice Cream Co. The couple left immediately following the wedding for a motor trip through Colorado from which they plan to return to Norfolk to make their home.

GRANDMOTHER 63, IN ESCAPE

Randolph—Mrs. Rosa Williamson, 63, a grandmother, evidently does not believe in sitting at home in an easy chair with her mending and knitting, but prefers the open spaces and the thrills of the present generation. That this is true is evidenced by the fact that she and her male companion, Rosenbaum, 40, both of Minneapolis were found at the Randolph tourist camp Thursday evening, July 17, and held on advices received by Marshal Carroll.

Frank Williamson, 65 of Minneapolis, when he discovered on July 3rd that his Ford sedan was gone, also his wife Rosa, and the man Rosenbaum, started out on a hunt and traced the pair to Sioux City from where he phoned our chief of police to watch for the couple, giving the license number of the car and a good description of the pair. The chief found them in the tourist park. They posed as man and wife. Rosenbaum claimed to be a laborer, looking for work so the marshal promised him a job if he could stay over a day or two, in fact, the marshal did find him a day's work in the hay fields.

Modern equipment, with many special features, is used by the original McQwen Stock Company, which will play at Wayne all next week, beginning Monday evening, Aug. 4th. Not the show that was here in June, but the original company.

In the meantime the husband and son about 27 years of age came upon the scene and identified the outfit. Grandma Williamson repented of her foolishness and willingly, and it is thought, thankfully, returned with her husband and son. Rosenbaum was told to "beat it" and walked out of town, the victim of a badly shattered romance. Even at that he was lucky.

SUPPERLESS THRESHERS

Stanton—Last year Mrs. Ed. Mod-erow prepared supper for threshers on Saturday night, but the help, all anxious to get to town, did not stay for supper. Ed and the hired man ate left overs most of the next week. This year to prevent such a thing happening again, about a dozen families of the neighborhood met Thursday night two weeks ago at the Emil Raabe home and decided by a vote of eight to three not to feed the threshers in the Elkhorn precinct just west of town must go supperless.

Highways and Buy-Ways

Everyone welcomes goods roads.

There is a sense of freedom in the knowledge that we can travel far and wide with comfort, speed and safety.

Good roads are a blessing - but they offer a challenge, too.

Modern automobiles and modern highways exert a great influence upon buying habits. They might even tend to build up one community at the expense of another, but for one important fact. . . . They transport trade in either direction impartially.

MERIT Merchants of Wayne are meeting the challenge of good roads squarely and fearlessly. Well they know that trade goes where it is invited and stays where it is well treated.

Any advantages which the larger city may claim in luring trade are more than offset by the enterprising merchant in the smaller city. The knowledge which he alone has of customers' needs and desires enables him to serve them with unrivaled efficiency.

Ease of access - saving in time and transportation cost - freedom from traffic congestion and parking problems--all weigh heavily in favor of the local market.

About the only advantage his big city brother can boast is larger sales volume, and even that will be eliminated through co-operation with and from the buying public. With your aid in building volume, your merchants can reduce costs surprisingly.

Savings thus effected will be promptly and cheerfully passed along to customers in the shape of constantly lowered prices.

Let's all work together and make the prosperity of our community keep pace with the improvement in (state) highways.

COUNTY FAIRS

County fair season will soon be with us again. Horse races, big pumpkins and fat cattle will have their day and those who have been complaining about short crops and an off year, after seeing the fruits of the season, will come to the conclusion that, maybe, it wasn't such a bad year after all.

County fairs are merry, happy go lucky occasions, where people congregate, meet old friends and are entertained, but the underlying purpose that governs it is a mighty serious one. It advertises to the world the good features of the territory it represents and sets examples to the people of the region, which if heeded improves their general standard of living.

The past couple of decades have seen the passing of many time honored institutions, but the county fair is not one of them. As a matter of fact, county fairs, as a general thing have kept abreast with the times and many of them are as replete with entertainment, instruction and high quality exhibits as were a lot of the state fairs of the country a generation ago.

County fairs should be given active support.

"LOTS OF SQUEAL—NOT MUCH WOOL"

The recent George W. Norris mix-up, it would seem, was simply another case of dirty politics. Senator Norris has, no doubt, profited by the coup designed to cause confusion among the voters. It was too grossly apparent that the move was simply designed to rob him of a lot of votes he was justly entitled to and the public, quite to resent political chicanery, could have been de-ended upon to produce a formidable protest vote.

The senator, however, lost a great deal of this indirectly acquired prestige through the recent visit to the state of Senator Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota, chairman of the senate elections committee. Senator Nye was called here to investigate the real or alleged irregularities of the candidates opposing Senator Norris in the coming primaries.

Like Scipio of old, Senator Nye is a very suspicious person. In his single tracked way of looking at things he simply cannot see anything but evil in people or organizations that are not wholeheartedly in accord with himself. Senator Norris being one of his political coteries, he quickly sensed that some dreadful conspiracies were under way to put the Nebraska senator out of the running.

Senator Nye has a way of getting his suspicions aired in the daily press and soon the Nebraska senatorial fight was in the limelight with intimations that Senator Nye suspected that political corruption, "slush funds," and "violation of corrupt practices acts" were being resorted to to defeat his colleague.

He visited Nebraska the other day. How much he investigated and what he found out is very much a dark secret. Chances are he found very little to confirm his suspicions for if he had he would have "hollered" about it.

That's Senator Nye all over again. He is quick to spread damaging, character besmirching suspicions, but seldom if ever is able to confirm them—and, never has been known to have the good sportsmanship to tell the public that he was mistaken.

Plans are being formulated at the National Capital for the celebration, two years hence of the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of George Washington. The sponsors of this celebration plan to make it the most elaborate celebration of its kind ever held in this country and it is well. The great debt the people of this country owe to the name of George Washington has not been as fully emphasized as it should be. The American people should come to have a more intimate acquaintance with this great historical figure.

That was a most deplorable disaster that happened at the Omaha Amusement Park last Thursday, where four lives were snuffed out and a number of people badly maimed when the rail of a roller coaster gave way. A bit more care in checking over the weak spots in the amusement device would have averted this incident which has saddened so many homes. It seems that something like this has to happen every so often to make people realize the criminal quality of carelessness.

The young lad who murdered his mother at Holstein, Iowa, has pleaded not guilty to a first degree murder charge. The contention is that the bootlegger who sold the booze that made the fourteen year old boy crazy drunk shares a major portion of the responsibility for the crime. It would seem that a booze peddler who sells hooch to a fourteen year old kid should when convicted, draw a stiff prison term. And that type of gutter spawn doesn't ply his trade in Holstein, Iowa alone, by any means.

Minerature Golf Makes Bow In Wayne

Minerature golf made its debut in Wayne Monday evening when the "Putter Here" course, recently installed by E. E. Galley was opened to the public. It proved to be a very attractive innovation to both the seasoned golfer and the novice and provided much of the lure that followers of the real thing find in the game.

The course represents a golf course of eighteen holes each hole protected by some hazzard which makes it extremely hard for even an experienced golfer to make the course in the established par.

LOTS OF MUD ENCOUNTERED IN ARID COLORADO

The weatherman seems to be possessed of a perverse streak if we are to judge by weather reports emanating from various parts of the country. Take for instance from southeastern Kansas and eastern Colorado—sections which under ordinary circumstances seldom experience a rain from June first to October. In a post card received from the I. E. Ellis party vacationing in Colorado, the card stated that they had encountered muddy roads from Western Kansas to Holly, Colorado, the rainfall having covered a wide area.

Lots Of Ice Used During Hot Spell

"All you get from the ice man is ice" is the burden of a once popular song, hit, but even though the ice-man's stock in trade may be limited to one commodity he has been a decidedly important person these sweltering days of the month just past.

In spite of the fact that iceless refrigeration has come to be a big factor in the general scheme of things, ice has been very much in demand in Wayne in the summer just past. Kingston & Son, proprietors, of the local artificial ice plants reports that in spite of the fact that their plant has been running twenty-four hours a day turning out about 600 pounds of ice an hour, the demand has been so great that all the ice manufactured and the 200 ton reserve supply have been nearly exhausted.

Mr. Kingston stated that he has never stood in danger of a shortage for should one occur he could draw on a plant in Omaha or Sioux City to replenish the supply. "But it sure has kept us humping while this 100 degree weather has been holding out," said Mr. Kingston.

LAD HAS LEG BROKEN

Randolph—Raymond Beltz, 14, son of Mrs. Otto Beltz of Pierce and visiting in the Randolph community, suffered a fracture of the left leg below the knee Friday evening, July 18, when the horse which he was riding slipped and fell on the paving. Local surgeons reduced the fracture and the lad is now getting along nicely.

Wayne Folk To Leave On Three Week Tour

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ickler and son, Willis, plan to leave on August 5th for Eureka, South Dakota from whence they will go to the Black Hills and Deadwood, South Dakota. At Deadwood on August 7th, they plan to attend the "Days of '76", a splendid pageant put on by the Indians and the white people. The festivities in connection with this event last throughout three days. The Indians who take part act their parts wonderfully well, and the grand costuming and pageantry bring one back vividly to the days of the Indian and the pioneer.

From Deadwood, the party plans to go on to Rapid City, Spearfish, and Wall where they have relatives. They also have a homestead about 25 miles from Hot Springs and Bellefourche they will go on to Montana to visit the towns of Baker and Ekelaka where they used to live many years ago. While living in Montana they went through some experiences which have stamped themselves vividly upon their memories, for well do they remember their old log cabin home where they were snowed in for many days one severe winter and forced to live on brown sugar and sweet potatoes. Cattle, including milch cows, died by the hundreds from sheer starvation and cold. There was no food in the country for the stock which were driven nearly wild from hunger. Mr. Ickler made a living for himself and family that winter by making skinning knives to be used in skinning the scores of dead critters. Pork at that time was almost lard-less, as the hogs were fed on the remains of dead cattle. Beef-fed pork proved to be strange, dry stuff. Even to travel along the road was made unpleasant by the pitiable sight of dead animals lying along the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ickler and Willis plan to be away about three weeks. Miss Irma Hoffer and Miss Edna Lauch of Creighton, nieces of the Icklers, will go with them on their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frevert and the Misses Carry Stamm and Marion Beemer were visitors at the E. O. Beemer home at Hoskins Friday evening.

A LUXURY but not an EXTRAVAGANCE

"A DISTINCTLY FINER GASOLINE"

THE GAS COST per mile for the lowest grade fuel legally sold as gasoline is never more than a fraction of a penny less than for the gasoline that out-performs all others. So it is not surprising that motorists by the thousand have switched to the new Red Crown Ethyl.

The luxury of instant power—plenty of power on high gear for hard hills—less gear shifting in slow traffic—a smoother running motor and no gas knocks—absolutely dependable performance at low gas cost per mile—never having to bother about getting carbon removed!

These make the new Red Crown Gasoline a luxury but not an extravagance. At Red Crown Service Stations and Dealers everywhere in Nebraska.

STANTON COUNTY FAIR AUGUST 19th TO 22nd

Second class mail matter, outside of our exchanges, is not always accorded the attention which the sender intended that it should have. There are exceptions, however. Notable among these exceptions are the premium lists of the county fairs of the region.

The first harbinger of county fair days to come to our office was the premium list of the Forty-third annual Stanton County fair to be held at Stanton from August 19 to 22. The fair has long born the reputation of being one of the best fairs in the state and from the premiums offered and the attractions booked, this year's fair should be well up to its regular standard.

Fire Dept. Answers Two Calls Thursday

Fire in a freight car loaded with haled hay brought out the fire department just as the morning freight from the east pulled in last Thursday. The fire no doubt had started from sparks from the engine and had started a blaze in the roof of the car and one or two bales. The car was side tracked and the fire department made short work of the blaze. The fire might have been of very serious consequences had it not been checked at the outset for directly in back of the hay car was a string of tank cars filled with gasoline.

On the afternoon of that date another fire call was made by the department in response to an alarm from the Country Club golf course, where the burning grass had got beyond the control of the caretakers. The fire damage was negligible.

EARLY OBSERVERS SURE- LY MALIGNED NEBRASKA

An immense amount of satisfaction could be derived if one of those early historians who took surface indications and hearsay for his guides could be brought back from his long absence from the land of the living and made to visit the land he belittled and despised.

One of the chief of these would be a writer in the Brattleboro, Vt., Messenger, who in 1824, gave the description of the land we now know as Nebraska and said: "There is an extensive desert in the territory of the United States; west of the Mississippi which is described in Long's Expedition to the Rocky Mountains". It extends from the base of the Rocky Mountains, 400 miles to the east, and is 500 miles from north to south. There are deep ravines in which brooks and rivers meander, skirted by a few stunted trees, but all the elevated surface is a barren desert covered with sand, gravel, pebbles, etc. There are few plants but nothing like a tree to be seen on those desolate plains, and seldom is a living creature to be met with. The Platte, the Arkansas and other rivers flow through this dreary waste."

One hundred and six years have elapsed since the Vermont observer penned his findings. That is not a long time in which to work a miracle in nature, but if the traveler could return and see the desert, now a place of fertile fields, fine farms, prosperous towns, contented people and nature at its best, his lower jaw would drop with amazement and he would be able to utter only one word, "Miracle!" It is a miracle but not one of legerdemain. It is a miracle that is produced by fertile land, industrious people and the marvelous gifts of nature.

FLOWING WELL STRUCK
Crofton—Residents of Crofton are now in hopes that the water shortage in their village has at last been solved. Experienced well men in sinking test wells on the C. A. Anderson farm at the south edge of town struck a flowing well at a depth of 56 feet. A two inch pipe was driven down. The flow has a 27-pound pressure. The village board plans to sink a six-inch pipe and connect with the water mains.

Peaches Preferred

A wanderer in tropical America tells the story of his visit to the home of a wealthy planter and the treat which he was afforded there. The traveler and his host sat on the wide veranda looking away the hot afternoon, and looking out over endless fruit trees—some of the most varied which the tropics afford. A native servant brought cooling drinks, and inquired what fruit was preferred with the afternoon tea.

"Open a big can of California peaches," the planter replied. "For good eating, you can't beat them."

More Peaches Consumed
And because that is the general consensus of opinion, more canned peaches are consumed in this country than any other fruit. In 1927, the latest census report, of a total of 27,564,321 cases of canned fruits, 11,805,057 were peaches.

For afternoon tea, a new tart that you will meet this summer at many porch parties is Peach and Nut Tart made as follows: Add two tablespoons of sugar and three-eighths teaspoon of cloves to one No. 1 can of sliced peaches, and cook five or ten minutes until the peaches are very tender and the syrup somewhat thickened. Remove the peaches, and, when cold, arrange in baked tart shells. To the syrup, add one-half tablespoon of cornstarch smoothed with one tablespoon of cold water, and cook again until thick. Cool and pour over the peaches. Sprinkle one-half cup of chopped nuts on top, and garnish with whipped cream. This makes eight or ten tarts.

Be Sure To Sign This Petition

Since last week's issue of the Democrat, we have learned to our deep chagrin that we took the wrong angle in our writup of the situation affecting the blowing of the seven o'clock siren. We take comfort, however, in the fact that we were not the only ones mistaken—in fact it was a case of mistaken identity all around for it wasn't the siren at all that disturbed the slumbers of the hotel guest who made such a fuss. After everything was sifted down, it was learned that instead of the seven o'clock alarm that created such a disturbance, it was the four o'clock braying of Charles Thompson's Spanish jack. So now a petition is being drawn up to have the tonsils of that perverse and disturbing creature inoculated with tonsillitis germs or some other silencing agent, or else have Charley put it to bed a couple of hours later so as to get it out of its daylight saving notions.

180 TONS OF ICE IN 30 DAYS

Randolph—The Randolph artificial ice plant is a busy place these hot, dry days, and has been since our last rain some time the latter part of June. It operates 24 hours daily at full capacity, and in the past 30 day period has manufactured 180 tons of fine quality ice, or six tons per day. Deliveries to the residence section total about ten tons a week, and three times that much is sold at the plant every week. The ice storage room, with a capacity of 75 tons, was cleaned out July 5th, and the plant has operated with empty storage since then.

A Dollar Dinner for Four

Lima Beans with Shrimp Cover	$0.38
Catsup	.02
Creamed Onions	.14
Sliced Cucumbers	.08
Bread and Butter	.08
Pear and Roquefort Salad with Crisp Crackers	.26

Total	$0.99

Would you like to have a dollar for every dinner you've cooked? "A dollar saved is a dollar earned"—so if you cultivate the dollar-dinner habit, you'll have a dollar for every dinner cooked. But your dollar dinner must be as delicious and as dietetically correct as the average two-dollar dinner, if it is to be a real saving. This can be attained by forethought in planning your menu. Above, is a model dollar dinner.

Lima Beans with Shrimp Cover: Drain one No. 2 can of lima beans and turn into a shallow buttered baking dish. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Drain one 5-ounce can of shrimps, and spread over the beans. Add two tablespoons of cream. Cover lightly with buttered crumbs and bake in a hot oven until brown on top.

Pear and Roquefort Salad with Crisp Crackers: Drain and chill half of a No. 2 can of pears; then place half a pear on each lettuce leaf. Crumble one-half wedge, or package, of Roquefort cheese over the top and sprinkle lightly with paprika. Pour over four tablespoons of French dressing. Serve with skinkies crisped in the oven.

Swimming Silver

SOME 12,000 years ago, when the northern countries were in cold storage under the glacial ice-sheet, a rough hairy man sat and slowly, but skillfully, traced upon a piece of reindeer bone a picture of salmon swimming in a stream. This was the first record we have of one of the most widely-known fish on today's market.
In 1653, no less famous an angler than Izaak Walton wrote: "The salmon is accounted the king of fresh-water fish"—and this genial old fisherman was well acquainted with salmon both on the hook and on the platter.
Perfect Salmon See Cans
Could Izaak Walton have tasted this king of fresh-water fish in its present day quality can, he might have turned to canning instead of fishing. For salmon drawn from the clear, cold waters of the north, with their surging tides and restless waves, are "swimming silver"—clean and wholesome. They are perfectly fit at the moment of canning. They have just come up from deep ocean in their finest form—their flesh firm and hard, layers of fat solidly built, and the color the deepest it will ever become.
The intricate "iron-chink"—a machine which prepares them for the can—does a miraculous job in removing the head, tail, fins and entrails, putting them in readiness for the right inspection which they must undergo before entering the can.
An old gentleman and his wife, returning to the tourist boat after inspecting a salmon cannery, voiced the universal approval of visitors who have watched the careful methods used in canning salmon. "Yes," the old lady said with a satisfied sigh, "they clean and prepare them, just as one would do in one's own kitchen."

WISNER BALL CLUB

DEFEATS WAYNE 4-2

A "gracious" initial inning in which Wayne allowed Wisner to score three runs, on two hits coupled with two costly misplays, proved to be runs enough to "salt away" the ball game for the Cumings county slugger Sunday. Sund started on the mound for the locals but gave way to Lerner in the third inning, who held Wisner to three hits and one run during the remainder of the game. Schierman, Wisner's southpaw pitcher was in great form, holding Wayne to five hits and striking out 12, when hits meant runs. Lerner for Wayne also was effective in the pinches striking out 8. The local endeavor to turn the tide of defeat in the last inning when Reed was hit by a pitched ball, but Hansen and pinch hitter Collins, fanned and Reed was "nipped" off third base for the last out. Both clubs played good ball after the hectic first inning. Sundays loss makes Wayne's record in six starts.

Batteries: Wisner—Schierman and Jacke, Wayne—Sund, Lerner and Simpson.

FUNNY ANIMAL

Rosalie Rip Saw—A person wouldn't think of putting sand in the bearings of a thousand dollar car, but he will pour great quantities of rot-gut poisonous liquor into a $10,000 stomach. Funny animal, man.

WITH THE WAYNE CHURCHES

Grace Ev. Luth. Church

First Presbyterian Church
P. A. Davies, Pastor
Vacation time is here. The pastor and his family will leave early Thursday morning for Minnesota to spend a large portion of their vacation time with Mrs. Davies's people at Elbow Lake. Our stay there will be all the more pleasant because we shall be near the waters of beautiful Ten Mile Lake. From there during our last week away we shall go to other places in the state of Ten Thousand Lakes.

Our plans are to be back for the last Sunday in August which is the 31st of the month.

We wish to thank all who have been faithful to the services during these warm summer Sundays and a special word of thank for those who have been in attendance upon the evening services which we have held upon the lawn.

The young people had a fine time at the social which they held at the manse last week. They also did well at the ice cream social which they held on the church lawn last Saturday night. Besides having a pleasant time they cleared about twenty dollars which is to be used in paying past state and mission dues.

The solo by Einar Lindberg Sunday morning was greatly appreciated. We hope that we shall hear him again in the fall.
