Interest In Co. Atty., and U. S. Senator Fight Draws Vote.

Sheriff Fight On Both Tickets Especially Interesting.

Norris Lead Here Large

Local political hopes and aspirations rose and fell in Tuesday's primary election, which brought to a termination a quite but very determined political fight for a number of county officers.

In several instances the status of several of the nominees hung in the balance until the last precinct was reported. Especially was this true of the candidates for the nomination for sheriff on both the republican and democratic tickets. George Lamberson secured the republican nomination by a majority of 58 over Earl Lewis and Archie Stephens bested Ed Surber for the democratic slate by 23 votes.

The race between the two democratic aspirants for the nomination for county clerk was also very close the victory going to V. A. Senter by a majority of 55.

Chief interest, however, centered in the three cornered fight for the republican nomination for county attorney. H. D. Addison established an early lead which increased as the returns came in and at the close of the tabulating registered a vote of 721. C. H. Hendrickson, present county attorney, followed with a 502 vote with Miller trailing with a 344 vote. Addison's vote in the city of Wayne, was especially impressive, the three wards giving him 333, Miller 123 and Hendrickson, 106.

The vote in general throughout the county was unusually high for primary elections although the democrat vote recorded was lower than usual. This is accounted for in the interest in the fight for county attorney and for United States Senator.

In the sentiment toward state and national officers, Wayne county cast an average vote. Norris was the popular candidate for republican nomination for U. S. Senator by a wide margin—almost a two to one vote. Unofficial tabulation gives him 1008, Stebbins 522 and Reed 51. Hitchcock held a majority of 490 over Mrs. Callifas for the democratic nomination for that place. Weaver out distanced his opponent Palmer by a majority of almost 1,000 for the republican nomination for governor and Charlie Bryan made the same sort of a showing against Jensen in the democratic listings.

Attorney General Sorenson also proved a strong favorite, besting his two opponents Hardenbeck and Morearty by a two to one majority.

Hugh Drake proved a big favorite in the local fight amassing as large a vote as the combined vote of the other nine candidates seeking the nomination for railway commissioner.

Edgar Howard still holds a warm spot in the hearts of the Wayne county voters as his vote for democratic congressional honors was almost unanimous.

Frank Klopping made a very fine showing in his bid for the democratic nomination for representative from the forty-fifth legislative district, besting his opponent H. W. Burnham by a substantial majority.

John Matzen had a large lead over Charles W. Taylor in the county but was not so favored on the face of state returns though his standing will entitle him to a place on the ticket in the fall election. Miss Pearl E. Sewell led Miss Richardson for county superintendent, by 411 but this also has no real significance as both names will appear on the Non-political ballot in the fall election.

Local returns were efficiently handled and the county results were all in by eleven o'clock Tuesday night though some of the returns listed are subject to change when the official returns are all recorded.

The local campaign has been an extremely quiet one. There have been no political rallies or demonstrations of any kind, outside of the stir in

Plenty Rain Fall In Colorado Say Tourists

While the people of the Wayne vicinity were complaining about the excessive heat and drought of the past two weeks, three Wayne families who were sojourning through western Nebraska and parts of Colorado and Wyoming, were encountering rain practically every day. The party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Piepenstock, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ringer and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Vath, spent two weeks on a sight seeing trip through the scenic regions of Wyoming and Colorado, visiting en route, Laramie and Cheyenne, Wyoming, and Denver, Colorado Springs and numerous other points of interest in Colorado. They found crop conditions very satisfactory throughout the mountain states regions and encountered rainfall on ten of the fourteen days that they traveled in the region.

state and national offices, there have been no personalities and no underhanded work in evidence. It was a battle fairly contested and fairly won.

Four Fishers Set Out On a Trip to Wilds of Minnesota

He riseth up early in the morning and disturbeth the whole household. Mighty are his preparations. He goeth forth full of hope. When the day is far spent he returneth smelling evilly of strong drink and the truth is not in him.

The foregoing may well serve as a text for each of a party of four local men who are soon to figure in a Walthonian classic in the sylvan wilds of northern Minnesota.

Friday morning bright and early Bunt Fleetwood, Frank Thielman, Oscar Liedtke and Lynn McClure start out on a fishing trip through the northern part of Minnesota, and into those reaches beyond, where the natives pay homage to King George and look upon Andrew Volsted as a heretic.

Winside Extends Welcome to Fete

Elaborate Program Arranged for Entertainment of Guests.

A whole day of excitement and entertainment is the assured prospect of those who attend the 1930 Wayne County Old Settlers reunion at Winside, on Thursday, August 21, according to the program of events announced this week.

The festivities begin at 9:30 and from then on throughout the day some event will take place to amuse and entertain the crowds. The day's activity begins with a band concert by Winside's 25-piece concert band, and a horseshoe tourney in which some valuable prizes are offered. This will be followed by a ball game between Carroll and Hoskins.

Hon. Chas. B. Morearty of Omaha is scheduled to deliver an address at 11:00 and at 12:30 a vaudeville attraction furnished by Roberts & Co., secured specially for this event, will be given.

Later in the afternoon there will be a double header ball game, races of all kinds, more acts by Roberts & Company and a pavement dance to wind up the affair.

Winside makes much of this day and sends the invitation to all to come and enjoy the day with them. Plenty of shade, good seats, free lemonade and a hearty welcome. Elsewhere in this issue is a program of the events scheduled.

Mrs. Sadie Stone and three children of near Dixon were guests at the home of Mrs. Stone's mother, Mrs. Henry Isom, last week-end. Miss Elinor Isom, sister of Mrs. Stone, who has been spending a couple of weeks with Mrs. Stone returned home at that time.

making preparations and have amassed a most amazing array of paraphernalia and fish lure with which to seduce the unsuspecting muskelluge and walleyed pike. Bunt as spokesman for the crowd states that they will adhere to the letter of good sportsmanship and keep no fish measuring under three feet in length.

The quartette has also practiced diligently their own version of "Sweet Adeline," and may be depended to render it with pathos feeling and fervor when they arrive at Rat Portage, Ontario, where they are to take part in a national "Sweet Adeline" contest conducted among way-faring Americans at that place some time this coming month.

They have promised to favor the Democrat with a daily bulletin concerning their sojourn in the land of the moose, big fish and laughing water. So be prepared for some whopping tales.

Laundry To Re-Open In Near Future

Omaha Man Takes Over Equipment—Plans Improvements.

To Re-Open August 25th

The re-opening of the Wayne Laundry under the auspices of an experienced laundryman who may be depended upon to make a success of the venture, is an announcement which will, no doubt, be a source of much satisfaction to the housewives of Wayne and vicinity.

A. L. Jacobson of Omaha, a laundryman of many years experience, has completed negotiations whereby he can soon reopen the local laundry. He is delaying temporarily, the opening of the business, however, in order to install a water softener and other equipment which will enable him to offer a maximum service to the public, and expects to have everything in readiness about August 25.

The new owner is not at all perturbed over the ill fated venture of his predecessor in the business and comes here much impressed with the possibilities this city has to offer for his line. He will make an active bid for business and should, no doubt will, have the hearty support and backing of the community.

Bonawitz Safe In California Wires Family

H. W. Bonawitz, whose disappearance several weeks ago has been the cause of much anxiety on the part of his family and friends, notified his family of his whereabouts in a telegram received by them last Saturday. He stated in the telegram that he was at Sacramento, California, and that he was safe and well. He did not explain the reason for his mysterious disappearance which caused anxiety to his family to the extent that aid of the authorities was enlisted in a search for him. At first it was thought that he had met with foul play, but a week ago an Omaha resident acquainted with Bonawitz, stated that he had seen him there.

Wife of Former M. E. Pastor Dies In Calif.

Mrs. H. H. Millard, who came to Wisner in 1884 as a bride of Rev. H. H. Millard, Methodist pastor, and who lived in Wayne when her husband had charge of the local M. E. pastorate, is dead, passing away at the home of her daughter Mrs. E. D. Moore, in Hollywood last Saturday.

Rev. Millard, who died four years ago, spent all of his ministry in Nebraska, serving at Wisner, Omaha, Oakland, Blair, Wayne, Albion, Norfolk and Lexington and later as presiding elder of the Grand Island district, residing at Columbus.

After Rev. Millard's retirement from active duty they moved to California and since his death Mrs. Millard has resided with her daughter. She will be buried beside the grave of her husband at Glendale.

Gov. Weaver and Att. Gen. Sorenson Also Get Big Vote

Old Colleagues to Battle

George W. Norris has won the nomination for United States Senator. By a majority that grows in impressiveness as the belated returns come in, Senator Norris has won the right to head the Republican ticket in the fall election.

Returns from 1,418 precincts throughout the state give him 79,215 Stebbins 55,671 and Reed 5,026. With each new precinct from the farm regions reporting the majority for the senator continues to swell.

Returns from 1,393 precincts give Callifas 12,007 and Hitchcock 45,912 for the Democratic senatorial nomination. Thus by a strange twist of circumstances Hitchcock and Norris, for a number of years senatorial colleagues, are pitted together as opponents in the fall battle of ballots.

Governor Arthur J. Weaver will try conclusions with former Governor Charles W. Bryan, both of these having gained the republican and democratic nomination respectively, for governor. In both cases their majority over their opponents was large.

The widely heralded opposition to Attorney General C. A. Sorenson failed to materialize. From the very beginning he maintained an overwhelming lead over his opponents, running strong even in Omaha, the home of one of his opponents and where much opposition to his candidacy was said to have sprung up. Sorenson maintained a lead of 30,000 over Hardenbrook and Morearty on the face of late returns.

Dr. T. W. Bass had a slight lead over Fred E. Ericson in the republican contest for State Treasurer, although the ultimate result is still in doubt.

With half of the state precincts reporting, Hugh Drake had a lead of about 1,200 over the field of candidates seeking the republican nomination for railway commissioner. This vote is also close and late returns may change the situation, though the change is hardly expected.

Congressman Ed Howard is assured the democratic congressional nomination holding a 4,000 lead over his opponent Joseph E. Daly.

For the non-political office of state superintendent of schools Charles W. Taylor has 41,739, John M. Matzen 38,692 and George L. Jackson 15,470 votes in 852 out of 2030 precincts.

The vote throughout the state, although retarded in a few sections because of rainy weather, was large and marked by the unusually heavy republican vote cast and the correspondingly light democratic vote.

NO CALAMITY SEEN IN THE CORN BELT

Corn Isn't Badly Damaged As Yet, Says Crop Expert

Omaha—Iowa and Nebraska will not produce bumper crops of corn as they did last year, but in spite of drouth and extreme heat, the yield will be heavy, according to C. L. Harlan, statistician of the division of crop and livestock estimates in a recent statement.

"I feel certain that while undoubtedly much damage has resulted to crops and pastures from the dry spell and continued dry temperatures, there has been nothing approaching a calamity to the corn belt," Mr. Harlan said.

"We will have plenty of good corn to feed this fall and winter. Iowa and Nebraska will be in the best condition of any midwestern states.

"I am on my way west from a trip to the Atlantic coast in which I had an opportunity to observe the changes in crop conditions brought about by the unfavorable weather of the past. There is no use disguising the fact that east of the Mississippi river there has been considerable damage. In Pennsylvania, parts of New York and Ohio, grain and vegetable crops as well as pastures are almost a total loss.

"I found conditions pretty bad in Indiana and southern Illinois. Corn cannot make much in these states, but an improvement is noted as soon as the Mississippi is crossed.

"From reports I have received from Nebraska, corn is not badly hurt. I believe I will find conditions much the same in Nebraska as I found them in Iowa and I am fully convinced that in these two states there will be no sacrifice of livestock because of feed shortage.

"Furthermore, I cannot see where there will be any serious curtailment in these states in the demand for stocker and feeder cattle and sheep this fall. A little more rain will change sentiment quickly. Corn is strictly a hot weather plant."

TREE BLOSSOMS TWICE

Carroll—An unusual bouquet of apple blossoms, from a tree bearing apples at the same time, was on display at the post office recently. The blossoms were picked Monday last week from a Siberian crab apple tree on the H. L. Harmer farm northeast of Carroll. This is the second time the tree has bloomed this season and the fact that it is bearing apples at the same time is causing considerable attention.

Forward March!

The latest U. S. Census contains food for much thought.

The distinct trend of population shifting from smaller to larger towns can be interpreted as both a warning and an opportunity.

It is clearly a fact that future years will see FEWER but BETTER towns. This is inevitable, for, as transportation becomes speedier service facilities expand, making it possible and desirable for fewer towns to serve a given area.

How is this condition going to effect Wayne? Before answering, let us ask and answer another question. What are the main things that govern a town's growth and progress?

1. Commercial advantages: . . . The existence of a steady, dependable outlet for the merchant, and an up-to-the-minute, attractive market for the buyer.

2. Living advantages: . . . Healthful climate; congenial friends; religious, social, educational and recreational facilities for young and old; quick, easy access to the outside world via rail, highway and airway.

These advantages are already assured in Wayne. Vision and energy only are needed to make this one of the outstanding business and home centers in this section of the state.

FORWARD MARCH! is the command. Opportunity beckons and we are ready. Only our own inertia can hinder our progress.

SOMEBODY HAD TO LOSE

The primary election is over and the season of congratulations and condolences is at hand. Some people had to win and some had to lose. For those who won we can say that we are glad that they did so, and for those who lost we can truthfully say that we are sorry. For some mighty fine men and women took part in the late campaign.

Politics has much in common with bridge. We have the cards dealt to us, we take long chances, success depends on how the cards are played, and when it's all over we like to deal in post mortems. Then, in the course of a day or two it's all forgotten.

It's mighty comforting, however, to know that in spite of the predictions of dire calamity in event of the defeat of some of the political aspirants, the world still turns serenely on its axis and the rule to the effect that no man is indispensable still holds true.

"TRUTH CRUSHED TO EARTH"

In a neighboring state, not long ago, a judge did a very surprising thing—he sent two men "over the road" for perjury.

The two young men came to grief when they tried to get a friend of theirs out of a jam. He had been arrested for driving while intoxicated and the young men testified that he had touched no liquor prior to his arrest. Their testimony was too brazen to bear weight and the outcome of the whole matter was a ninety-day workhouse sentence for the drunken driver and a five year term in the penitentiary for the two perjurers.

The case drew widespread attention because perjury convictions are so rare, and also because of the sharp contrast of the sentences meted out.

But why should perjury convictions be so rare? With practically every term of court this abuse of justice is resorted to. It is this curse that is breaking down the administration of justice in this land of ours. The Mooney case furnishes a striking example. Mooney was convicted a number of years ago on the testimony of certain witnesses and then after many years these same witnesses declare that they perjured themselves. They either committed perjury then or they are doing so now, but chances are a hundred to one that when Mooney's case is disposed of the perjurers will get off with a light rebuke from the court.

A majority of the people when they raise their right hand and promise to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help me God, really feel that they have established a covenant with their God to tell the truth. But there are others who have neither respect nor awe for their oath or their God. For them something should be done to "put the fear of God" into them.

THE BEGGERS ARE COMING TO TOWN

There may be an "Easy Mark" sign outside of our shop door. We are not positive on that point, but we are sure that itinerant beggars have been very numerous this summer. Some of them have lead pencils to sell, others packages of needles or other articles of small value and they give you a look that grinds on your conscience for a month if you give them less than a quarter.

We confess that we are of the chicken hearted sort and though we know very well that in nine cases out of ten we pay tribute to causes far from deserving, we feel that maybe some poor bum really might be hungry and in need, so we continue to play sucker.

One of these beggars stepped into our shop the other day and handed us a sheet of paper which introduced him to us as an epileptic trying to raise money enough to secure medical treatment, etc. etc. We took the trouble to examine this document a trifle closer than any similar ones handed us in the past and noted that the list of signers were practically all local people and that the amount paid totalled $4.35. It was practically certain too, that a number of people donated who did not sign the slip. The man had come in on the four o'clock train and it was about five o'clock when he visited us. Very likely he had made three or four towns in the course of the day and Wayne isn't the only abiding place of soft-hearted suckers in this neck of the prairie, so chances are that the visitor realized very profitable returns on his ailment.

We hope the medical treatment he secures will be effective.

Governor Clyde M. Reed of Kansas fell by the wayside in the primary election runcus down that way last week. His defeat marks the passing of another grand stand politician. During a recent visit to that state by Chairman Legge of the farm board, Governor Reed took views drastically different to those expressed by Mr. Legge. Speaking on behalf of the farmers of the state, he resented the suggestion by the farm board chairman that farmers curtail their wheat acreages. Governor Reed in all pervaded Kansas at that time, but his probability voiced a sentiment that his rantings partook too much of the nature of a ballyhoo for Governor Reed to set well with the people of the state and he got the nook. And so the curtain has gone down—prematurely—on another political opportunist.

The present unemployment situation is justly a cause of deep concern, but in certain sections it is far from an unmixed curse. Take, for instance, the wheat producing sections of the country. A few years ago, about harvest time, those areas had their annual visitation of men seeking work in the harvest fields. The I. W. W. element usually dominated the situation and the farmer was forced to pay wages way beyond reason for the services of these unreliable roughnecks. The combine has taken the place of the "wobble" a character the Northwest was mighty glad to be rid of.

Charged With Drunkenness, Gets Thirty Days

A change in the charge preferred against him saved Pat Brown from a very serious encounter with the law. Brown got into difficulties when he tried to cash a clumsily forged check last Friday and was placed under arrest on the charge of forgery. When he was brought up for hearing the court was convinced that there were mitigating circumstances and the forgery charge was dropped and one of drunkenness substituted to which he pleaded guilty and drew a sentence of thirty days in the county jail.

The hearing brought out that Brown came to town one evening last week with more than eighty dollars in wages in his pocket. After a few "slugs" of moonshine he became the easy prey of a couple of "tin horns", who not content with parting him with his roll, induced him to raise some more money, which he is alleged to have tried to do by attempting to pass a forged check.

The authorities did not have a clear case against the men responsible for Brown's predicament, so no arrests were made, but one of these days they are going to make a false move, and according to those who had consideration of the case, they have very little by way of leniency to expect.

Carroll Wins Extra Inning Game Sunday

Patrons of the National sport who witnessed the set-to between Carroll and Wayne at the Carroll diamond last Sunday saw a real thriller. Carroll won the game by a 8 to 9 score, but not until after ten innings had been played.

The game was not a fast one and errors were far from infrequent, but the two teams seemed to be evenly matched with neither side showing and advantage over the other. Carroll was first to score, running in two tallies in the fourth inning and three in the fifth, to which Wayne retaliated by getting three runs in the sixth and two in the seventh. Carroll started a bombardment in the eighth and scored three runs and Wayne in order to convince them that they "weren't so hot" handed them the same package in the ninth, tying the score.

Carroll wrammed the ball with sufficient consistency in the tenth to get in a run and Wayne, not quite so lucky, failed to connect and the day belonged to Carroll.

There were no sensational hits or plays during the game, but the way the two teams managed to keep an even balance in the scoring, made the game an interesting one.

Clasen Had Interesting Trip To Omaha Plant

Mr. and Mrs. C. Clasen were in Omaha several days last week the guests of the Red Arrow Burner Company, manufacturers of Hotentot Oil Burners of which Mr. Clasen is local dealer. The trip through the plant where these burners are made was especially interesting to them for they saw every detail involved in the manufacture of them. Mr. Clasen has noted a great deal of interest in these type of heating plants and several orders already have been placed with him for their installation.

Thank You

Now that the Primary election is over and one can review the many things that entered into the campaign, I find many reasons for expression of gratitude to the people of Wayne county.

First, of course, I appreciate the vote and support given me, which has made it possible to submit my stewardship before the voters in the fall election.

Then again, I am grateful to my opponent in the recent campaign. He conducted a clean and square campaign and I appreciate it.

I have tried to serve you to the best of my ability and hope and trust that such efforts will merit your endorsement in the November election.

LESS LABOR... CLEANER CLOTHES

FAST WORK! Yes, indeed, the new Haag 75 makes fast work of laundering. And it takes just about all of the work out of it, too. You'll never go back to hand-rubbing and soaking again, once this Haag does your laundering. It cleans clothes clean—even heavy pieces, work clothing and blankets.

And you can trust it with your finest, sheerest things as well. The safety agitator protects them from all chance of injury. The new wringer, with its balloon-type rolls of soft rubber, "smoothes" water from the clothes, and is most careful of the buttons.

You'll surely want to see this washer. It is available either with 4-cycle Briggs & Stratton gasoline engine (as illustrated) or 1/4 H. P. General Electric motor.

Wayne Monument Works has on display at present, a newly acquired stone that is unusual in its beauty and impressiveness even among the many beautiful memorials with which it is placed. IT'S WISE TO  CHOOSE A SIX

Announcing a new production record

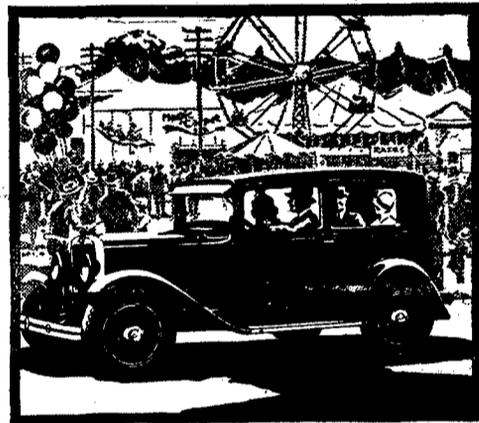

2,000,000 Chevrolet Sixes now on the road

Since January, 1929, Chevrolet has produced and sold over 2,000,000 six-cylinder automobiles—nearly five times as many as any other manufacturer has ever built in an equal length of time.

These 2,000,000 buyers have chosen Chevrolet because it offers many desirable qualities not obtainable in any other car so low in price—

—the smoothness, silence and flexibility of a modern six-cylinder engine—the comfort and roadability of a modern, full-length chassis—and the style, safety and distinction of bodies by Fisher.

Yet, despite these fine car advantages, the Chevrolet Six is unusually economical. Its gas, oil, tire and upkeep economy is unsurpassed. And

CORNER STONE OF NEW LAUREL CHURCH LAID
Corner Stone of New Immanuel Lutheran Church Is Laid Sunday, Aug. 3rd. Large Crowd.

Sunday, August 3rd, was a great day for the members of the Immanuel Lutheran church of Laurel and their friends, it being the date of the annual mission festival which was held that day at the Auditorium. The corner stone for the new church was also laid with impressive ceremonies. The festival brought a large crowd to the city and interesting services were held in the morning and afternoon. At noon the multitudes feasted a chicken dinner at the St. Anthony & Dakota Lumber Co.

The laying of the corner stone was a very important part of the day's program. The following articles were placed into the stone before it was put into place and sealed: the history of the constitution, and English hymnal, the Lutheran Catechism, a financial report for 1929, and a copy of all the Sunday school literature from the congregation; a copy of the different periodicals published by the synod from the church at large; and a current copy of the Laurel Advocate and of the Omaha World Herald, an old penny dated before the Civil war, and a present day nickel, dime, quarter, fifty cent piece and a silver dollar from the state.

The Rev. E. J. Moede of Wayne gave the afternoon address and the local pastor, the Rev. Wille, took charge of the laying of the stone, the Revs. G. Pullman of Wausau, Krahn of Carroll, and Moede assisting him.

Work is progressing nicely on the new church which when completed will be a building of which the entire community may be proud.

FIRE AT BECKENHAUER FARM

Wakefield—About 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, July 20, the Wakefield Volunteer Fire department was called to the Ezra Beckenhauer farm to fight a fire in the barn caused by spontaneous combustion. Mr. Beckenhauer first noticed smoke issuing from the cupola of the barn which was filled with oats hay. The fire originated in the northeast corner of the barn. Although it required all the available supply of hose, a line was playing a stream of water on the fire in short order, and in spite of the suffocating gas fumes which filled the mow, the fire was soon subdued. Because of the condition of the hay, it was necessary to move several loads out of the barn to prevent a recurrence of the fire. As the hay was being moved, several forksfull burst into flames as soon as it was exposed to the air. Prompt action saved the day and the barn was not damaged.

IT DEPENDS LARGELY ON THE PRICE

In one's quest for the proper connotation of the English language, one is often beset with serious difficulties. Take, for instance, the word "vase," meaning an earthen or porcelain receptacle for holding flowers. We always pronounced the word sounding the "a" as in the word "play" and the "se" as we did the same letters in the word "base."

But we went to the talkies the other evening and heard that always correctly speaking Richard Dix pronounce the word sounding the "a" as the Englishman sounds it in the word "bath," and the "se" as we generally pronounce the last two letters of the word "buzz."

A few nights later we heard the equally correct Lionel Barrymore refer to the same receptacle as a "vase." So in bewilderment we sought Webster on the subject. The dictionary was vague, so we brought the matter to a court of last resort—a local merchant who had some of these articles on display in his jewelry shop window.

"What do you call one of these things?" we asked of Paul Mines. "That sir," replied Mr. Mines, "is a vazz."

"What's the difference, if any, between a vazz and a vase?"

"Just this—Any of these dingesses that cost over $1.75 are vazzes, and any under this price are vases."

And thus we were once again brought face to face with the grave reality that mercenary influences are corrupting the language of the realm.

BARS AUTOMATIC GAS PUMPS

Attorney General Sorensen, in an opinion recently given in regard to the coin-in-the-slot automatic gasoline pumps, states that the operation of the same are prohibited by statute in Nebraska. The opinion was given at the request of the Lincoln city council on account of an application made by a representative of a Denver automatic pump company for installation of a machine in Lincoln. The Attorney General is quoted as saying that he would proceed against owners of such equipment anywhere in the state. Objections were based on alleged fire and explosion hazards and because they are liable to throw men out of work. Joseph Saitta, Lincoln fire inspector, said his investigations convinced him that the pumps could not be operated without violating half a dozen sections of the fire safety code. A number of these machines are in operation in Central Nebraska, but the city commissioners at Lincoln made it plain that they would vote against installation there.

SEWARD GIVES MOVING ORDERS-TO WOBBLIES

Seward county authorities took action recently in breaking up a "jungle" of the I. W. W. organization and ordering the "Wobbly" occupants to beat it. This action was done after the number of "bums" around Seward and neighboring towns had become so numerous that the situation became intolerable. An investigation disclosed that the I. W. W. organization would not permit anyone seeking work in the harvest fields to work for less than $4 a day and further restricted the right to work to those who had taken out membership in their organization. The authorities are determined that all but bona fide harvest workers be kept on the move.

In the trial of Thomas J. Mooney, convicted bomber who is seeking release from a life sentence of which he has served fourteen years, an alibi has been presented by one witness to the effect that Mooney at the time of bombing was in another part of San Francisco squirting acid on automobiles, these duties being a part of a program of a mechanics strike he was conducting. Well, people who make their livelihood in such occupations are apt to get into trouble once in a while.

Forgotten

That's the sting of death.
So mark my grave.
Someone, some time, may want to know
My name, my age, and when.

The past week we have unloaded two carloads of granite selected in person the first of June from the blocks just as they come from the quarry. Color and texture were watched very closely and wish to say that the most beautiful granite we have ever had is now on display in our show room. Due to our good buy we are able to offer to the buying public a very attractive low price on work for this fall delivery. We invite you to come in and see our display.

Remember: We manufacture; we can make you anything that can be made from granite.
