School Board Plans Heavy Expense Cuts

Directors Hope for 1932 Saving of $3,000 to $4,000.

Wayne's board of education decided Monday night to eliminate expenditures for 1932 as far as possible, with expense cuts to be made where they will not seriously cripple the educational program.

Despite the fact that the Wayne school has "hewn to the line" in the matter of financial expenditures in the past, it is planned to make a saving of from $3,000 to $4,000, through rigid economy measures expressed at the board meeting.

The budget is not yet completed, but a tentative budget is being worked out. All building bonds in the Wayne school district had been paid previous to 1929, and paving bonds were paid out of the surplus this year. The result is that the district is completely out of debt.

A program of repair and rehabilitation which has been going on for the last two years will make it possible to eliminate school-building repair expense almost entirely.

School board members feel that an additional saving may be effected over the heating plant's past cost, since it has been remodeled.

Cutting of expenses generally in every possible way is expected to help the economy measure.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE ORGANIZES CHURCHES

State Superintendent Is In Charge of Union Meeting.

Nearly 200 people attended a union meeting of Wayne protestant churches at the First Methodist church last Sunday evening, with the state Anti-Saloon League acting as sponsor for the assemblage.

A dialog-drama, "The Harvest," was presented by J. A. Sandefur and E. G. McDaniel, anti-saloon league workers, and Rev. F. A. High, state superintendent of the league, gave a short talk in which he stated his opinions as to the advisability of modifying the eighteenth amendment. The dean of men at Nebraska's greatest educational institution, he said, told him that drinking among undergraduates has decreased nearly 90 percent since prohibition.

Those who want a modification of the eighteenth amendment, Reverend High said, are the multi-millionaires, "the cocktail drinking crowd." Their reason, he said, is to save themselves millions of dollars in taxes.

Solicitation for contributions to the league was made.

Music was furnished by the Wayne high school girls' glee club and mixed chorus, under the direction of Miss Arline Urban.

WORLD PRAYER DAY IS FRIDAY, FEB. 12

Wayne Missionary Council to Hold Services at Baptist Church.

Friday, Feb. 12, will be observed by women of Wayne Protestant churches as World Day of Prayer, in accordance with an inter-denominational observance which annually occurs on the first Friday in Lent.

The Wayne Missionary council will have charge of services, which are to be held at the First Baptist church with Mrs. P. A. Davies presiding. The topic of this year's program is "Hold Fast in Prayer."

A consecration service, consisting of meditation and prayer, will occupy the morning hours. Project work, which includes discussion of Union Christian colleges, interdenominational work and Christian literature, will be discussed in the afternoon.

All ladies of the community are invited to attend, and are asked to bring box lunches. Coffee will be served at the church during the noon fellowship hour.

Weather Recalls Pioneer Stories

Pioneer days are being brought back to the minds of Wayne county people this week, with many side roads and some main highways blocked by heavy snowdrifts, some of them 12 feet deep.

The horse has replaced the automobile as a means of transportation for farmers who live on side roads, and a few who live in territory which has been isolated from town by snow have walked into Wayne for provisions. One farmer, in town Monday, said that he had walked four miles. His horses could not navigate the treacherous roads.

Like a story from the Early History of Nebraska is the true tale of a Wayne family that was marooned for three days at the home of a friendly farmer. The family had attended a play at Allen last Thursday night and were unable to negotiate the road between Wakefield and Wayne.

Havana Trip Is Added to Prize Award

Cuban Tour to Be Routed via Picturesque City of New Orleans.

How would you like to take a vacation trip to Havana, Cuba?

If the Wayne county girl who wins The Democrat's Popularity Contest wants to take such a trip, she will be at liberty to do so, with expenses paid.

The trip extends from Wayne to New Orleans by Pullman, and from New Orleans to Havana by one of the ships in the Great White Fleet, with stateroom accommodations.

In Havana, sightseeing trips will be taken to the House of Representatives, Old Convent and Church of San Francisco, Old Market Place of Havana, Plaza de Armas, Temple, marking place where first Mass was said in 1519, La Fuerza Fortress, Senate Building, cigar factory, sea wall drive, now President's Palace, and Prado; evening automobile tours through the city and suburbs to the Cuban national game of Jai Alai; and to one of the first class cabarets of Havana; automobile trips to bathing beaches, the Casino and to pineapple and banana plantations, Tropical Gardens, Miramar section and Prado. A launch trip will be made to the ancient and historic Morro Castle.

Peter Baker Services Are Held at Winside

Funeral services for Peter Baker were conducted from the Trinity Lutheran church at Winside on Monday, Feb. 1, with Rev. W. F. Most of Winside and Rev. Martin Schroeder of Bloomfield in charge. Interment was made in Pleasant View cemetery.

Mr. Baker was a member of St. Marks Lutheran church at Bloomfield and also of the Sons of Herman at Winside.

He died in a Norfolk hospital following an operation for ruptured gall-bladder. Mr. Baker was born on October 28, 1862, in the province of Rhine, Germany, where he lived until he was 19 years old, at which time he moved to P.O. He worked there until he was 22 and then came to America. He first settled in town for several years and then moved to Wayne county, Nebraska. He moved to Bloomfield in 1922. He was united in marriage to Magdalene Reeg in Wayne, and ten children were born to this union.

He is survived by his loving wife and five children, Mrs. Hattie Reemus, Paul, Ernest, Fritz and August Baker, and a host of friends.

Scouts Hold Annual Meet Friday Night

Blocked Highways Caused Postponement from Last Week.

Annual meeting of the Boy Scouts of America of the Covered Wagon area will be held tomorrow night at the Wayne State Teachers college gymnasium. The meeting, which was to have been held on Friday evening, Jan. 30, was postponed because of impassable condition of roads leading into Wayne.

Approximately 400 scouts from the 84 towns in the area are expected to attend, and many special entertainment features have been arranged. Gunnar H. Berg, national director of volunteer training for Boy Scouts, will be the principal speaker.

Six men will receive Silver Beaver medals. The award, next to the Silver Buffalo in rank, is presented by national headquarters to men who have performed outstanding service to boys within the jurisdiction of a local council. The Silver Buffalo, highest award in scouting, is given only to men whose service to boys has been national or international in scope.

Each troop in the area will furnish one boy for participation in a pageant which will dramatize the advance of scouting in the area during 1931.

Ray R. Larson of Wayne and John H. Beveridge and Raymond A. Baur of Omaha compose the committee on arrangements.

Scout towns in the Logan Valley district are Crofton, Winside, Ober, Randolph, Wausa, Sholes, Coleridge, Beldam, Wayne, Emerson, Bloomfield and Wynot.

Editorial Association To Hold Convention Friday and Saturday.

Editors of northeast Nebraska will assemble at the Hotel Norfolk tomorrow and Saturday for the annual Northeast Nebraska editorial association convention, which was postponed from Jan. 15 and 16 until Feb. 5 and 6 because of the death of Joseph O'Furey, son of J. P. O'Furey, editor and publisher of the "Cedar County News at Hartington and secretary of the press association.

Faculty Club Party at Stratton Hotel

Tuesday evening the faculty club of Wayne State Teachers college was entertained at a George Washington dinner at the Hotel Stratton. There were fifty-eight present. Both the decorations and the program carried out the idea of Washington's birthday. The theme of the program was his life and accomplishments. Miss Martha Pierce acted as toastmistress. Toasts were "Washington's Mother," by President U. S. Conn; "Washington's Expeditions," by Professor I. H. Britell, and "Washington, the Man, the General, the President and the Citizen," by Professor O. R. Bowen. Special music was furnished by Professor Howard Hanscom.

The committee in charge included Mrs. Elva Brockway, Miss Mary Currier, Mrs. Mary Trostefiga Honey and Miss Arle Sutherland.

Personal taxpayers in Dawes county can this year make their payments on the installment plan.

Here's Information On Contest Prizes

Whoever wins The Nebraska Democrat's Popularity contest will be given a choice of three trips, with expenses paid. In answer to a question submitted by several probable contestants, The Democrat will pay the winner's actual expenses, not including any merchandise or unnecessary incidentals which the winner might care to buy.

Expenses included in the prize offer are carfare, meals, hotel bill, ship fare, approved tours and certain specified entertainment. The trips are regulation vacation travel tours and are being outlined by the Bock Travel Agency of Omaha. The winning contestant may take her prize tour at any one of various dates of sailings during the summer months.

Another question which has been asked is "How much does it cost to enter the contest?" It costs absolutely nothing. Votes will be distributed by various Wayne merchants, starting Monday, Feb. 15, and the girl for whom the largest number of votes are cast will win the trip.

Lewis Talks to Kiwanians

Tells of National Political Science Association Convention.

Education for citizenship, Dr. J. G. W. Lewis told members of the Wayne Kiwanis club Monday noon, was the outstanding topic of the National Political Science association convention in Washington, D. C., during the latter part of December.

A citizenship-training campaign for the youth of the nation which is being instituted by David Lawrence, famous newspaper correspondent and editor of the United States Daily, was explained by Dr. Lewis. The plan calls for a mock-governmental system of elections, a congress, and all other features of the United States government, with the organization and operation to be carried out by school children. A newspaper explaining governmental functions would be a part of the system.

Dr. Lewis said that he was greatly impressed with the large-scale building operations being carried on in Washington, including the new Washington monument and the Mount Vernon to Washington highway, which is said to have cost seven dollars per lineal inch to construct. Many millions of dollars, he said. (Continued on Page 4)

WILDCATS WIN TWO BASKETBALL GAMES

Wayne Hoopsters to Play Kearney and Hastings This Week-End.

Wayne's Wildcat basketball squad kept out of cellar position in the N. I. A. A. conference last week-end by administering two defeats to Chadron college. Final score of Friday night's game was 41 to 27, and Saturday's count was 36 to 29. Baker, Alexander and Decker were high point men for the locals.

Coach Ray Hickman believes that his basketeers are finally ready to win games and has hopes for favorable outcomes in tilts to be played tomorrow at Kearney and Saturday at Hastings.

The next home game will be played on Tuesday evening, Feb. 9, with Morningside invading the local court. Peru plays here on Friday, Feb. 12.

Dorm Corner Stone Laying Is Postponed

Laying of the corner stone of J. M. Pile hall at Wayne State Teachers college will not be held this afternoon and has been indefinitely postponed, because of disagreeable weather.

Nominations Open Today For Popularity Contest

Wayne Sends Stock Feed to Drouth Area

Six Carloads of Hay Are Shipped to Bloomfield Territory.

More than $2,300 in contribution to the relief fund being raised in Wayne and the surrounding territory for the north-central Nebraska drouth area is reported by Fred L. Blair, in charge of contributions solicitation.

With four carloads of hay ordered Monday, a total of six carloads of hay has been sent to the drouth area, by funds raised in Wayne and its trade territory in the past week. Another carload of hay and feed will be sent from Wayne as soon as weather permits the assembling of contributions from farmers.

Contributions are still being received, and the committee in charge says that, while donations have been highly gratifying, still more money will be needed if the farmers in the drouth and grasshopper area are to be pulled through the winter without serious losses.

Stock in the Bloomfield territory is said to be in pitiful condition, and the recent cold wave is said to have made the need for stock feed more imperative than ever.

Members of the committee in charge of the Wayne relief fund campaign plan to publish a complete list of all contributors in Wayne newspapers at the conclusion of the drive.

SCHOOL BOARD TO GET PUBLIC OPINION

To Hold Referendum on Question of Rural Withdrawal.

A petition, signed by about 150 taxpayers of the Wayne school district, was presented to the local board of education Monday night. The petition asked that rural territory of the district which lies to the south, southeast and southwest of Wayne be set out of the Wayne school district.

In such case it would be mandatory by law for the county superintendent to create a new rural district from the territory eliminated from the Wayne district.

The board of education decided that, since the petition included the names of less than one-half of the actual voters of the district, it would be practical to get a more representative expression of public opinion on the matter.

The board members decided that a referendum should be printed on a special ballot at the regular spring election, and that people of the Wayne school district should thereby express themselves to the board.

Permission to the petitioning territory to withdraw would, it is estimated, increase Wayne district school taxes about 25 per cent.

Wayne Man's Brother Passed Away Friday

Joseph Pawelski, brother of J. C. Pawelski of Wayne, died suddenly Friday night at his home in Neola, Iowa. He was unmarried. Mr. Pawelski was well known in Wayne county, having spent several summers here and at Carroll.

TO PRESENT CLASS PLAY

Juniors of college high school will present their class play, "Bo An Optimist," at the college auditorium on Thursday evening, Feb. 12.

Contestants Are Urged to File Entrance Ballots Immediately.

This is the week for nominations in The Democrat's Popularity Contest! Any girl or woman who is a resident of Wayne county is eligible for participation in the event, and the one receiving the greatest number of votes may take her pick of an all-expense-paid trip to Bermuda, via New York; to Havana, Cuba, via New Orleans; or to Alaska, via Seattle.

The contest starts Monday, Feb. 15, and ends on Monday, March 22. Nominations start today—and each girl whose nomination blank comes in to The Democrat office before next Thursday will receive a 1,000 vote credit.

You do not have to sign your name to the nomination blank. Merely put down the name of the person you wish to nominate for participation in the vacation contest. It is perfectly permissible for contestants to send in their own nomination blanks and a large percentage usually do this.

The contest is easy to understand: votes will be distributed with $1.00 purchases at certain business places. Customers will cast these votes for whatever Wayne county girl or woman they favor to win the contest. The person who receives the greatest number of votes will get her pick of the three marvelous vacation trips mentioned at the start of this story.

Now is the time to enter. A list of competing candidates, each with a credit of 1,000 votes, will be printed in next week's Democrat, so that people who buy merchandise on the following Monday will know who to vote for.

Fill out the nomination blank at the top of page three for your favorite free vacation trip candidate and either mail it to The Democrat or bring it into the office.

A list of rules by which the contest will be governed appears on Page Three of this issue.

The Inquiring Reporter

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Were you to have your choice of a trip to Bermuda, Alaska or Cuba, with expenses paid, which would you take?

Genevieve Kingston: "I would choose Cuba. At least it would be warm."

Ethel Swanson: "They all sound pretty good. I'd just as soon have one as the other."

Faye Winagar: "It would be hard to choose between Cuba and Bermuda. I believe I'd choose Bermuda because the trip includes New York and I've never been east."

Helen Nuss: "I've always wanted to see Alaska but the Cuban trip through the southern United States appeals to me, too."

LaVern Stratton: "In this kind of weather, I certainly wouldn't choose Alaska. I believe Bermuda would be the better choice."

It was a privilege to have Rev. SandeFur with us Sunday morning and have him bring us the message of the Anti-Saloon League. The pastor had to leave Sunday evening to attend a council meeting of our synod at Lincoln, and so was unable to be at the union services at the Baptist and Methodist churches, but we have been informed that they were both inspiring and helpful services.

The School of Missions met this Wednesday night with Mrs. England, Mrs. A. R. Davis, Mrs. Horace Theobald and Mrs. H. J. Felber having charge of the supper. Next week the school will be changed from Wednesday to Friday night for that is the date upon which we were able to book Dr. McLean of our National Board. We are asking all of our people to keep that Friday (Feb. 12) open. Dr. McLean will bring a message that you will want to hear.

The women of the church are all asked to keep in mind that Feb. 12 is the Day of Prayer for Missions. Services are to be held in the Baptist church.

The Ladies Aid was entertained at the church Wednesday afternoon.

The West Minister Guild had supper together at the parsonage Thursday evening. This group, consisting of about 30 of the young ladies of the college, meets every two weeks for the study of one of our mission books.

LET'S TALK BUSINESS PARTNER!

YOU AND I are partners in a gigantic organization--one that offers a real service to Wayne. We can be proud of our affiliation with this splendid firm.

What is it? Why, partner, do you mean to say that you don't take any more interest in your business than THAT?

Our Business, Yours and Mine, is the Municipal ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT

Because we own the firm, we offer each other the lowest possible rates consistent with efficient operation. We do not try to "get rich" from our co-operatively owned business. What profits we do make from our firm come back directly to YOU and ME in the form of tax reductions.

We should allow electricity to do everything for us that we can possibly make it do, shouldn't we?

Think it over, partner. Remember that when you patronize the Wayne Municipal Light Plant, you get the most possible return for your money... you patronize a firm that belongs to us, every citizen of Wayne... you take advantage of the opportunity to use Electricity, the greatest gift of Science of Mankind.

THE BASIS OF FEAR

Someone has said the country is passing through a "slow panic" which, of course, is based upon fear, as is true of panics of any kind of dimension. Banker Albert H. Wiggin says all values and volume of business are held down by fear, but that both are capable of substantial revival "with a mere change in the emotional attitude."

The people have heard much of this sort of thing in recent months but very little about the cause of fear, "frozen confidence," improper emotional attitudes and lack of faith. A little discussion of this negative side of the situation seems to be in order. Fear may have its source in a threat, an impending event, an interpretation of facts, self evident truths, an inexplicable situation or the supernatural. The present emotional attitude of the American people may be attributed in part to all of them, even the supernatural, for a lot of good folks believe the devil has had something to do with the world's present plight.

Fear is an emotion which generally vanishes after the shock resulting from the first contact with the generating influence. The emotion lingers only while the generating influence remains.

If national fear refuses to be banished—and it does—it is only because the cause of the emotion remains visible or its presence is still felt. Hence the "slow panic" and the "emotional attitude" of which the pollyannas complain.

Fear developed when self evident facts killed public faith in the national political and business leadership. That fear has not been dispelled because the national business and political leaders have not impressed people with their capacity to substitute policies and, in fact, utter unwillingness to deviate from their philosophy of government for the benefit of the few.

The emotional attitude of the people will change only when the principles of human rights and equal opportunity have been restated and leaders are chosen who will at least attempt to translate those principles into law and the administration of the law.

Banker Wiggin and all the others can talk until they are black in the face but the element of fear will not subside in the presence of the present leadership which has forfeited whatever claim it had to public confidence. —Sioux City Tribune

SOCIETY and Club

Snow and ice caused an appreciable lull in social activity for the week. Perhaps this is partly due to the fact that this is the period between Leap Year and Valentine parties. We'll wager that every eligible young man in Wayne has been entertained at least once by some ambitious young maiden. Perhaps that is why the number of Leap Year parties is falling off. Just wait! It won't be long until there will be plenty of Valentine parties, and perhaps these hounded young men will reciprocate (or should we have said retaliate?) by inviting these forward female go-getters to some of the festivities in honor of St. Valentine.
