Bandits Rob Carroll State Bank Monday

Masked Holdup Men Flee in Car With $150 Loot.

Three masked bandits held up the Carroll State bank at Carroll Monday morning at 9:30 and escaped with $150 in cash. They had not been apprehended late Wednesday afternoon, but county law enforcement officers were working on several clues.

County Attorney H. D. Addison, H. L. Bredemeyer, Garney Benshoof and N. Patton, cashier were in the front room of the bank when two of the bandits entered. They carried guns, had handkerchiefs tied over their faces and wore rubber gloves.

"Stick 'em up" was the crisp order, and the four men complied. They were backed up against the wall and ordered to face it. Two of the men were jabbed in the back by the bandits' guns. Then the four men, together with Vaughn Williams, who had been in the tellers' cage, were marched into the back room where Mr. Patton was ordered to open the safe, with which order he complied.

While all this was going on, a third member of the bandit group was standing in the front room of the bank, acting as "lookout."

The two bandits in the back room kept the five men under cover while they tried to gather up the money which was on the table behind them. They were apparently nervous, and failed to get all of the money. After they had gathered up $150, they made their exit.

The bandits escaped in a car which had been stolen from Allen Wichman of Hadar Sunday night in Norfolk. They abandoned the car about 20 miles from Wayne.

By 10 o'clock Monday morning Sheriff A. W. Stephens had a warrant for the arrest of "John Doe, Richard Roe and Sam Smith, other and real names unknown." The money taken in the robbery was covered by insurance.

College Plans Usual Summer School Terms

Registration for the summer session at Wayne State Teachers' college will begin June 3 and continue until June 6. The second period will begin July 17 and close Aug. 18. Present plans call for 12 weeks of summer school, with 12 semester hours' credit possible during the entire summer.

Classes will recite five times a week, and students will be limited to three full-time subjects or two full-time subjects and two part-time subjects. No high school work will be offered.

Bulletins announcing the summer term are being sent out by the college to people requesting information regarding registration and courses which will be offered.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS ATTEND "PLAY DAY"

Two Hundred Participate in Program at College.

Two hundred girls from 11 high schools took part in the third annual Play Day, held Saturday afternoon at Wayne State Teachers' college, under the direction of Miss Esther DeWitz.

Towns whose high schools sent girls to the event were Alden, Belden, Carroll, Laurel, Pender, Pilger, Wakefield, Winslow, Wayne and College High. The Play Day was called "The Sportsland Tour" and was sponsored by the Department of Physical Education for Women and the Women's Athletic association at the State Teachers' college.

First prize for the best stunt went to the girls of Wakefield high school. "Sailing" was the title of their presentation.

The entire program was run as a travel cruise, with the girls divided up into six groups, each of which bore the name of a ship.

Voters Veto Kay Park Proposition

Over 500 voters went to the polls Tuesday to administer an overwhelming defeat to the proposal to have the city buy the Kay park and swimming pool at a cost of $10,000. Four hundred and forty-three votes were cast against the proposition and 63 in favor of it.

In the first ward, 98 voted against the purchase of the park and 16 in favor of it. Second ward voters cast 156 votes against the proposal and 30 for it. Third ward voters vetoed the plan 189 to 22.

Walter S. Miller, running unopposed from the first ward, received 103 votes. J. S. Horney, lone candidate for second ward councilman, got 161 votes. Ernest Bichel, sole third ward council candidate, received 173 votes.

L. W. Vath and B. W. Wright unopposed candidates for the board of education received 395 and 433 votes respectively.

Debate Squad on Program at Kiwanis Club

High School Students Give Talks on Debate Season.

The debaters were introduced by W. A. Behl, coach of the squad. Lucille Wright, a member of the squad for three years, spoke on the current debate season which, she said, started in the middle of January when the debaters took a trip to Fremont and Omaha. At Omaha, she said, they won decisions from two high school teams with a case which had been prepared after the start of the trip.

The squad's next trip, she said, was to Sioux City, where the Wayne teams won two decisions from East high school and two decisions from a Catholic Girls' school. Then, she said, they entered the Midland tournament at Fremont, where they placed higher than had any previous Wayne team. In a tournament at Norfolk, she continued, they won four out of six debates.

The Hastings college tournament, she said, was the most enjoyable of any tournament in which she had competed. The Wayne team won the championship flight, bringing home a silver loving cup as a trophy of their victory.

Friday evening, she said, they lost in the finals of the district tournament at Wakefield. There remain, one and possibly two debates, she concluded. The Wayne teams will be entered in the National Forensic League tournament at Omaha in about three weeks. If they place first or second in this competition, they will be entitled to enter the national competition.

Entries Pour in for Easter Jigsaw Contest

Next Thursday's paper will carry a list of the winners in The Democrat's Easter Cathedral contest, complete with a solution of the jigsaw puzzle and the prize-winning letter. Nearly two hundred entries have been submitted, although the deadline is not until Saturday evening, April 8, at six o'clock.

It's not too late yet for you to enter this contest. All you have to do is put the Easter Cathedral, published in last week's Democrat, together and send it, together with a letter of not more than 50 words on "What the Church Means to Me" to the Easter Contest Editor.

Winner of first prize will be awarded $2.00 in cash. Second place winner will receive $1.00. Winners of third to sixth inclusive will each receive a beautiful jigsaw puzzle. The contest is open to everyone except employees of The Democrat and their families.

JOHN HARMER RITES TO BE HELD TODAY

Wayne Man Passes Away Tuesday After Long Illness.

Funeral services for John C. Harmer, who died Tuesday, April 4, 1933, will be held this afternoon, April 6, from the Beckenhauer chapel with Rev. Wm. E. Braisted in charge. Interment will be in the Wayne cemetery.

John Clark Harmer was born in Rasenville, Mich., on Aug. 10, 1860. He spent his childhood in Rasenville with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Harmer, and received his education in the public schools of Michigan and New York. He spent some time in England and Canada before coming to Wayne in 1900.

Mr. Harmer was married to Miss Loretta Phillips on Aug. 5, 1903, at Wayne. To this union three children were born: Joseph Clark, Joseph Francis and John Clarence. Joseph Clark died in 1906 and Joseph Francis in 1927. John Clarence remains to mourn a loving father.

Mr. Harmer was an employee of the City of Wayne for 17 years. He leaves many friends who will remember his kindly disposition and fortitude during his long illness.

Wayne School Wins District Typing Title

Wayne Commercial Team First in Norfolk Contest.

Wayne high school scored 56 points to place first in the school competition in the district commercial contest held at Norfolk Saturday. Nelith was second with 51 1/2 points and Creighton third with 39 3/4 points.

Twenty high schools were entered in the contest and 225 students participated in the various events. The Wayne team, Jeanne Wright, Edna Baker and Helen Jones, won second place in the spelling contest with a team score of 91 2-3 per cent. In the novice typing accuracy contest Cathryn Craven won first place with a speed of 68.8 words per minute.

Helen Jones won first in the champion typing accuracy contest with a speed of 78 words per minute and Cathryn Craven won fourth place with a speed of 65 words per minute.

Cathryn Craven was first in the novice typing 10 minute test with a net speed of 56.54 words per minute and Lucille Wright was fifth with a speed of 47.9 words per minute. The novice typing team, made up of Cathryn Craven, Lucille Wright and Paul Bertson, had a team average of 49.18 words per minute to win first place.

WAYNE PLACES TWO IN DECLAM FINALS

James Davies and William Studley to Compete in District Contest.

James Davies and William Studley will represent the Wayne high school in the district declamatory contest, to be held on Friday, April 21, at Meadow Grove. Their right to enter the district competition comes as a result of their having been selected as winners in the subdistrict contest held Tuesday afternoon at Laurel.

James Davies was selected as a winner in the oratorical division and William Studley was picked in the extemporaneous division. Mavis Balfour represented the local school in the dramatic group.

District Farm Union to Hold Meeting Here

Five Hundred Expected to Attend Convention Tuesday.

At least 100 delegates from ten counties are expected to attend the semi-annual Seventh District convention of the Nebraska Farmers' Union to be held at the Gay theater on Tuesday. The total attendance at the meetings is expected to reach between 400 and 500. All farmers of the Wayne trade territory are invited to attend.

The convention will be opened by the Wayne municipal band, under the direction of Prof. F. C. Reed, Mayor Martin L. Ringer will welcome the guests. Delegates to the meeting will be taken on a tour of the town by local business men.

Addresses will be given by H. G. Keeney of Omaha, president of the Nebraska Farmers' Union; district director John D. Reynolds, and L. S. Herron, editor of the Nebraska Union farmer. Officers will be elected and general business of the organization will be handled.

District officers are: H. C. Elwood of Creighton, president; John F. Meyer of Howells, vice president, and W. D. Spiekneel of Spencer, secretary and treasurer.

Many Wayne merchants have planned to offer special bargains on Tuesday as a trade inducement to the visiting delegates and guests.

Craven Hardware Is Visited by Burglars

Some time between Saturday night and Monday morning, a thief or thieves broke into the Craven hardware store, making an entrance by breaking a window in the back end of the building. All that was taken was a little change money that had been left in the cash register. H. B. Craven, proprietor of the store, found no merchandise missing, and said that the burglar spurned the pennies in the cash register.

Scarlet Fever Patient Getting Along Nicely

Miss Marian Marsh, who is in quarantine at the F. M. Griffith residence, is reported to be much improved from her illness with scarlet fever. She is able to be up part of the time. Miss Loula Avery and W. A. Behl, who reside at Griffiths, were kept under observation last week and released Friday when they developed no symptoms of the disease. Both resumed teaching duties Monday. Miss Avery is temporarily residing with D. P. Millers and Mr. Behl is staying in the Beckenhauer home. Miss Marsh expects to be released from quarantine in ten days.

Over Six Hundred to Enter Music Contest

Hobo Thinks City Has Forestry Job

Maybe City Clerk Walter S. Bressler has been boosting president Franklin D. Roosevelt and maybe it was the bo's idea.

The city has been giving transients 15-cent trade tickets for work on the municipal wood pile. When the city ran out of wood, those who wanted to earn their food were put to work on other projects.

Monday, a Knight of the Road was given work removing shrubbery from the side lawn of the City Hall and transplanting it in back of the building.

He presented his 15-cent trade ticket to a local merchant and said, "I been workin on President Roosevelt's reforestation deal this morning and I wonder if you'd cash my ticket. I thought the papers said the jobs was to pay a dollar a day, but this ticket's only for 15 cents."

Wayne Girl Scout Troops Conduct Rally

Merit Badges Awarded at Anniversary Program Friday Night.

About 250 people attended a Girl Scout rally held Friday evening in the Wayne State Teachers' college auditorium.

Mrs. Frank Morgan gave a talk on "How Girl Scouting is Organized in Wayne." A play was presented by Lily of the Valley troop and star constellations were given by the Goldenrod troop.

Mrs. G. W. Costerisan awarded merit badges to girls of the three troops. Scouts must be of second class rank before they are qualified to receive merit badges.

HIGH SCHOOL GIVES MUSICAL PROGRAM

Concert Tuesday Evening Offers Variety of Numbers.

Over 100 people attended a music program given Tuesday evening at the Wayne high school auditorium, under the direction of Kermit Stewart, school music supervisor.

Solos were given by Frances Kiker, Everett Dennis, Jeanne Wright, Gwen Dolyn Mulvey, Marion Jones and James Davies. Group numbers were presented by the school orchestra, the boys' and girls' glee clubs, the girls' sextet, the boys' quartet, a mixed quartet, and the school chorus.

District Competition to Be Held Here Tomorrow and Saturday.

Six hundred and eighty-seven high school students will be in Wayne tomorrow and Saturday to participate in the fifth annual Third District music contest. Twenty-nine high schools have made entries.

Towns competing will be Waverly, Plainville, Stanton, Norfolk, Irving, Emerson, Osmond, Orchard, Allen, Bloomfield, Bancroft, Pilger, Pender, Dodge, Wayne, Training, Scribner, Wayne High, South Sioux, Ponca, Battle Creek, Crofton, Wauna, Wakefield, Laurel, Brunswick, Hartington, Coleridge, Wynot, and Pierce. Stanton, with 69 contestants, has the largest list of entries.

Five bands, three orchestras, many glee clubs, choruses and small vocal and instrumental groups will take part in the contest, in addition to solo competition in the vocal division and on many different musical instruments.

Judges for the contest will be Mrs. Carol M. Pitts, director of music at Omaha Central high school; Mrs. Ethel Thompson Kucinick, teacher of piano at Morningstar college, and Frederick Wick, violinist and composer, of Minneapolis, Minn.

Judges' decisions will be announced Friday and Saturday nights, and awards will be presented to winners Saturday night by Dr. U. S. Conn, president of Wayne State Teachers' college. Contest numbers will be presented in the college auditorium and the college gymnasium.

Instead of giving first, second, third and fourth place awards as in years past, a new system of grouping will be used. The highest rating is Superior, second is Excellent, third is Good, and fourth is Average. All group and solo events ranking in the superior and excellent groups at the district contest are eligible to compete in the state contest, which will be held at Kearney on May 5 and 6.

The Wayne district contest is one of seven contests which will be held throughout the state tomorrow and Saturday.

Local arrangements are being handled by Prof. K. N. Parke. The committee in charge consists of Supt. James Johnson of Stanton, Supt. Ira George of Osmond and Supt. John Weatherhog of Bloomfield.

The Inquiring Reporter

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION
Do you think postmasters should be selected by civil service examination of an "intelligence test" nature?

Democratic county committeeman: "No. I believe the office would still be a political plum but less attention would be paid to the desires of local residents."

Candidate for postmaster: "Yes. The taxpayers are entitled to have the job filled by the best man available.

Republican business man: "It wouldn't make much difference. Politics would enter into the selection, anyway, and I imagine the present system is just about as good."

Democratic business man: "Yes. The idea of the postmaster job as a political gift should be absolutely done away with. With a competitive examination, we would know that the best man got the job."

Democratic committeewoman: "Under the present system, friendship of the committee members enters into things. Under an examination system, the political leaders at Washington could make the postmaster job entirely a political plum. I prefer the present system."

With the Wayne Churches

Methodist Episcopal Church
Harold C. Capsey, Minister

Next Sunday, Palm Sunday, is the beginning of the Passion Week. Rev. H. C. Capsey, will preach at the morning service on the topic "A Rendezvous with Life." This will be the first service conducted by the pastor since his sickness and he will be glad to meet members of the congregation again. The evening service will be at 8, when a special musical program will be given by Mrs. J. T. Bressler, Jr., at the organ, and Kermit Stewart at the piano. Readings will be given by Mrs. H. R. Best. Everybody is invited to this enjoyable program.

Thursday of this week the Home Missionary society meets with Mrs. I. H. Britell at 2:30 and next Thursday in the afternoon the Foreign Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. Julia Gildersleeve.

Friday, next week, the day called Good Friday and which commemorates the crucifixion of Jesus we shall have the Holy Communion at 8 in the evening. This service will be by candle light and will be open to all who care to share it with us. It is especially desired that all members of the church be present if possible. The music will be appropriate to the thought of the day. The week will close with the services of the Easter day which include the Cantata by the choir given in the evening.

Let us give from now till Easter for God and His church.

First Baptist Church
William E. Braisted, Minister

10:00 a. m. The Sunday school of the church. Training for life and living. Cordial invitation to all to share the best with one another. Do we give as much time to cultivate moral and spiritual well-being as we do to material and mental well-being? Is it not as important?

11:00 a. m. The morning worship. Palm Sunday and its meaning, both morning and evening. Real worship, appreciation, response. Subject of the pastor's message: "Thanks Be Unto God." Why that? How shown? To whom?

6:30 p. m. The young people's meeting. Study, praise, good-will, with real life values. Topic: "What Deciding For Christ Means."

7:30 p. m. The glad hour. Special Palm Sunday message, subject: "Palms of Victory." Singing you can share, giving and receiving real life-values.

Friday night, 7:30-10:00 o'clock, the annual business meeting and social of the young people's group. All assembled or interested are cordially invited to this fine, happy evening together. Let us be as prompt as we can, do the business happily and quickly, then play together. Play is as worthwhile as work, when both are properly proportioned. Welcome for Friday night, at the church parlors.

And this Sunday and days following is the annual every member visitation to insure support for the work. "Cooperation Win".

St. Paul's Lutheran Church
W. C. Heidenreich, Pastor

The following program of services for Holy Week will be held:

THE KNOT-HOLE

No. 45 Wayne, Nebraska, Thursday, April 6, 1933. Vol. 1

The Troy Times lets slip the dogs of war in this fashion.—"Shall we have a friendly game of cards?" "No, let's play bridge."

Spring time is fence time as well as seeding time. We quote the genuine AMERICAN fencing 26 inch, light weight 25c and medium weight 30c per rod.

We can build you a beautiful trellis that is inexpensive and yet very attractive. We have a lot of designs that you'll like. Carl is building a dandy this week for a customer.

A lady customer writes us:—"Dear Editor: What must be done to have beautiful hands?" We'd say do nothing.

Many customers are calling at our yard for a sack of two of HOT NUT coal. We furnish a clean, tough paper sack for your convenience.

Drunk to policeman—"Shay, mishter, I'm worried. I left home early this morning an' I ain't been heard from since!"

It is a demonstrable fact that you save $5.00 to $12.00 per thousand feet by using 4-SQUARE lumber.

"Walter, what is this on the bill?" "Bungalow puff, sir, at 40 cents a portion." "But what is it?" "Formerly cottage pudding, sir, at 15c."

We sell you nice, straight, clean-cut, seven foot white cedar posts at 13c, 17c and 25c.

Birds are repairing nests, President Roosevelt is repairing the government, and lots of folks in this community are making repairs "around the place." We can tell by the amount of clear drop siding we're selling at $35.00 per M.

Remember, 4-SQUARE lumber is ready-cut to exact length; both ends of every piece are square and true; the cost per thousand is the same as ordinary lumber; you save all the measuring, squaring and cutting expense.

Who started this April Fool thing, anyway? Some guy called us up Saturday and asked "Is this 1933?" Of course we said "No. This is number 147."

And remember that we sell you 80 rods of barbed wire, hog pattern, for $2.75, heavy weight $3.25.

"Few men have the courage to leave their wives," says a magazine writer. Which prompts the Boston Transcript to observe that none but the brave desert the fair.

For lack of a better name we call this fellow Jim Fixit. He represents a dozen or so of Wayne carpenters who are ready and willing to free-service your remodeling and repair problems. Call 147, tell us your favorite carpenter's name and we'll send him right out to give you the information you desire.

We claim that business troubles are mostly the result of the disregard of the laws of sound practice, and their cure can only be accomplished by the return to sound practice.

Monarch 100%

Since 1884, The Martin-Sealed Monarch 100% Pure Paint has been the standard of purity. Monarch Paint is made of Lead, Pure Oxide of Zinc, Pure Linseed Oil, and the necessary pure coloring matter.

This formula is recognized by all authorities and has appeared on the list of Pure Paint for almost half a century. Monarch Paint spreads farther, covers better. Therefore, it is the standard on the American market. When used on any job, the material cost of the smaller amount required to do the job is one-third less because of the extra long and easier spread. In addition, it dries longer, making an appreciable sa

NEBRASKAN PACIFISM

The Daily Nebraskan, student newspaper at the University of Nebraska, is one of about 150 college and university papers publishing a pledge which says that the signer will not take part in any militaristic activities unless the United States is faced with armed invasion.

The Nebraskan is not asking any Nebraska students to sign the pledge and is maintaining as nearly as possible a neutral attitude in connection with the project.

It seems safe to believe that there will be a good many conscientious signers. The sentiment against war grows stronger every day. We have felt and are still feeling the effects of the last war in which the United States participated.

Time was when an anti-militaristic person was regarded as a martyrdom by of doubtful patriotism. But that time is past.

Musical Numbers in Training School Play

"Once in a Lifetime," the play to be given Thursday evening, April 20, at the college auditorium by the training school senior class, will have many musical numbers incidental to the action.

During the action, there will be five vocal selections. Mr. Hansen will sing "Little Gypsy Sweetheart," Eleanor Martin will sing two selections and there will be two choruses by the gypsy women.

College Thespians to Present Flavin Tragedy

LOCAL SCHOOL WINS DISTRICT TYPING TITLE

In the team competition, a second team, made up of Helen Vath, Edna Baker and David Likes, had a team average of 43.4 words a minute to place fourth.

Elsie Gildersleeve made a net speed of 64.2 words per minute in the champion typing 15 minute test to win first and Helen Jones had a speed of 64 words a minute for second place.

In the novice shorthand contest, Cathryn Craven transcribed the 60 word a minute dictation perfectly to score 100 per cent for first place.

Helen Jones placed fourth with a score of 98.6. The team, Cathryn Craven, Helen Jones and David Likes, made an average score of 98.73 for first place in the team competition.

Individuals winning any of the first five places and teams winning either first or second place are eligible to enter the state contest, to be held at Cozad on April 22.

How can a man recognize his own wife? A news dispatch from New York tells of the moves taken by beauticians to lend nature a hand in the matter of feminine pubictritude. They've put their O. K. on a line of demountable lips, eyelashes, noses and fingernails. The removable but malleable lips are made of a microscopically thin, flexible composition which is applied over the real lips. They come in several shades and cost about 20 cents. The inventor claims they will withstand hard usage for 24 hours.

Always before, a woman who was dissatisfied with her nose has had to put $35 on the line for a new one, custom made. Now the manufacturers have announced their plans to put out a less expensive, ready-made model for sale through department stores and beauty shops.

The detachable finger nails are a trifle shorter than a Chinese mandarin's and can be shaped and filed like real fingernails. They come in all colors, pictures and symbols. A favorite eight-letter set spells "I Love You."

Hereafter, streamlined ears and taut cheeks will be as near as the shop that sells face tacks, a plastic, invisible adhesive which anchors unvisibly ears to the side of the head and takes up the slack of loose skin.

We ask you, "Is the world going completely nuts?"

A local gent confides that his restaurant gives him fine board. "It tastes like sawdust," he says.

The prohibition lecture was all right until the speaker absent-mindedly tried to blow the foam off of his glass of water.

Maybe you've heard the story of the Scotchman who bought his children a daschund so they could all pet it at once.

"My husband," a Wayne woman was heard to remark, "is not a book-worm. He's just an ordinary one."

"This makes the fifth time I've had to punish you this week," the teacher said to a local youth. "What do you have to say about it?"

"I'm glad it's Friday," sighed the precocious youngster.

Threats that a libel suit would be filed against the Democrat were hurled at the Scott Shotter Friday by Elwayne E. Fleetwood, Mayor Martin L. Ringer and George Bornhoff. The threats came as a result of The Democrat's fearless publication last week of a story concerning charges brought against Mr. Fleetwood last week by Mr. Ringer and Mr. Bornhoff.

The warrant engineered by Mr. Ringer and Mr. Bornhoff charged Mr. Fleetwood with harboring an indecent woman. The charge was considered a compliment by the Scott Shotter to Mr. Fleetwood, who alleges that a tin statue constructed by him and displayed in the Hilsco Hardware store window looks like a woman.

Mr. Fleetwood served notice last week on Mr. Ringer and Mr. Bornhoff that unless retraction of the charges was made within three days he would file suit for $100,000 on behalf of his statue, "Minnie the Mocher."

"Blackmail" was Mr. Ringer's answer to the notice.

Now it seems that the two groups, knowing that The Democrat has more money than either one of them, have gone in together in an effort to coerce this fearless publication into coughing up some bucks. Both sides of the case say that they have been libeled.

The case would be a cinch for The Democrat. To prove libel, you must prove that your standing in the community has been injured. The Scott Shotter leaves it to our great army of intelligent readers: would it be POSSIBLE to injure the afore-mentioned gent's standing in the community? You don't need to answer unless you want to.

Fred Howard, the Sunbeam man of the Clay County Sun, dispenses the following observations: Most folks who have drunk beer will take their three point two lightly.

The story of last week telling of Roy Hunt's back horse having burned proves to have been misleading. It was a barn.

I hope that nothing happens which will make it proper for Clay county

Here's the Dope!

The scroll of history will unroll before one's eyes on the screen when "The Big Drive" comes to town. Comment of press and public on this official picturization of the World War has been sensational.

Albert L. Rule, the producer and himself a veteran of the A. E. F., has spent the last 14 years in getting together the finest collection in existence of official war films from military archives of every nation which participated in the struggle.

These separate films have been put together in one picture. One follows German troops in their invasion of Belgium, witnesses those first battles beyond the Marne and the German push toward Paris; sees British, Russian and French troops as they went into the first battles of the war.

Through the long years when nations were locked in combat, one follows the fortunes of their armies. Every scene is authentic. One is transported behind the German lines and witnesses the action of batteries whose siege guns crumbled into dust, of Liege and Namur into dust. There are pictures of desperate hand to hand combat in trenches.

George Arliss, who is recognized in Wayne as one of the most popular film players, is the star of "The King's Vacation." It is reported to be a happy combination of the light comedy of "The Millionaire" and the heavier drama of "Disraeli," the star's two most sensational pictures.

Mrs. Florence Arliss, his wife, supports him in one of the principal roles, as she did in both the other pictures mentioned above.

"The King's Vacation" is the story of a man who gave up his wife and child, his happiness in fact, when called unexpectedly to his country's throne and who, when peacefully disposed after eighteen years of pomp and power, leaves his queen consort and returns to the scenes of his earlier happiness. What he finds has taken place there and the changes he observes in the people he knew and loved eighteen years before, give Mr. Arliss a rare opportunity to display his talents for both kindly humor and depth of feeling.

His daughter's affair with the ambitious mechanic and his own mature romance with the deserted queen are parallel love stories.

As a tribute to her successful work in motion pictures during the past year, Warner Bros. studio has elevated Bette Davis to stardom and provided her with an ultra-modern story, "Ex-Lady."

The manners and morals of New York's artistic set are depicted in all the modernity of today's and tomorrow's ideas. In the title role, Miss Davis enacts the parts of a modern girl, frank and sincere, who wants her romance unfettered by the conventions of marriage. The part of her sweetheart is played by Gene Raymond.

Out-of-town friends and relatives who attended the funeral of Mrs. Henry Lessman on Wednesday, March 29, were Herbert Lessman of Des Moines, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lessman of Sidney; Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Leineman and Mrs. Director of Polton, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Russ of Okala, and Mr. and Mrs. Chriss Demke of Millard.

Book Review Meeting Miss Edith Conklyn entertained women of the book review group of the A. A. U. W. last Thursday evening.

The hostess reviewed "Dracula," after which refreshments were served. Next meeting is April 27 with Mrs. T. S. Hook. Miss Ida Fisher will review a new book.

For Mrs. Ellis Mrs. C. H. Fisher entertained at dinner Saturday evening for her mother, Mrs. Clara Ellis, whose birthday it was. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fisher and son, Harry Ellis, Mrs. Ellis, and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Cunningham and son Bob.

TO OCCUPY PULPIT Rev. and Mrs. Harold C. Capsey left early Friday morning to spend a few days of rest with friends at Geneva and returned Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gildersleeve took them to and from Wisner to make train connections. Rev. Capsey expects to occupy his pulpit at the Methodist church next Sunday morning for the first time since Jan. 1.
