J. S. Carhart Passes Away Here Monday

Rites for Local Man Are Held Wednesday Afternoon.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon, June 21, 1933, for John S. Carhart, 84, who passed away suddenly at his home on Monday afternoon, June 19, 1933. Heart failure was the cause of death.

A short service was held at the Carhart home at 312 West Eighth street, with Rev. Wm. E. Braisted in charge, and Masonic services were held at the cemetery. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were Don Cunningham, Paul Mines, L. B. McClure, Fred S. Berry, James H. Pile and Amos T. Claycomb.

John Samuel Carhart was born on a farm near Platteville, in Grant county, Wisconsin, on April 5, 1849, and grew to manhood in that vicinity. He was united in marriage with Elizabeth Ivey at Platteville in 1874. To this union were born three sons, C. E. Carhart and A. B. Carhart of Wayne and Dr. E. C. Carhart of Los Angeles, Calif.

Mr. Carhart's earlier years of married life were spent in farming in Iowa county, Wis. In 1885 he moved with his family to Monona county, Iowa, onto a farm previously purchased, and there spent the remaining years of his active business life.

He retired from active business life in 1906, residing in Mapleton, Iowa, until 1915, when he moved to Wayne. Mr. Carhart was an active worker in the Masonic Lodge and on June 12, 1931, was presented with a 50-year Masonic badge.

Friendly himself, he made many friends and maintained a keen interest in life. He was especially fond of young people and was known to many Wayne youngsters as "Grandpa" Carhart. His cheerful disposition endeared him to all who knew him.

He is survived by his wife, who has been seriously ill for several months, the three sons mentioned above, and their families.

Out-of-town people attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davies and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lehman of Wakefield, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cody and Mr. and Mrs. Robert White of Sioux City, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huling of South Sioux City, Dr. and Mrs. Hansen of Emerson, J. N. Culver, of Anthon, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Carhart of Randolph, G. G. Garhart of Omaha, Mrs. E. C. Carhart of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cameron, Mrs. D. D. Farmers Hoping for Heavy Rain

Light showers Tuesday night and early Wednesday morning failed to fill the need of Wayne and the surrounding territory for a heavy rain. While local farmers agreed that the corn crop had not yet been damaged by dry weather, they were unanimous in the opinion that rain must come before long.

Opinion as to small grain crops varied. Some farmers in the Wayne vicinity said yesterday that the small grain crop was ruined, while others said that there was still hope. Ted Perry substantiated his claim that small grain had not been seriously damaged on his farm by bringing in to The Democrat office a bunch of rye, most of the stocks of which were four feet high and heads of which were in good condition.

Weather report for today indicates continued heat with possible showers this evening.

COLLEGE THESPIANS TO PRESENT PLAYS

Group of Four One-Acts to Be Given on July 11th.

Four one-act plays will be given at the college auditorium on Thursday evening, July 11, by the dramatics class and the class in play directing and producing at Wayne State Teachers college, under the supervision of Miss Florence M. Drake. "Pierrot of the Minute, Home Sweet Home, As the Tumblins Pass and Thank You, Doctor," compose the program.

A dramatic fantasy, "Pierrot of the Minute" shows Pierrot, played by Thora Ford, before the temple of Venus in search of love. The Moon Maiden, Ivy Joy Nelson, comes to Pierrot, giving her interpretation of love. Thiel Lathem and Margaret Leffler are the directors.

"Home Sweet Home" concerns the drab existence of an old ladies' home. The typical New England spinster, impersonated by Miss Susan Rust, grudgingly permits the inmates to come to her room to listen to the only radio in the place. Parts of the inmates are played by Rachel Bracken, Magdalene Reznicek and Helen Hetzel.

The part of Aggie, the young slave, is taken by Mrs. Marvin Olson. Ralph Higbee is director and Rena Mae Gibson is production manager.

"As the Tumblins Pass" is a costume play of the French revolution period. The cast includes Rena Mae Gibson, Pearl Westphalen, Margaret Leffler, Flora Rhoades, Ruth Schenkel, Thelma Stromquist and Zola Wilson. Margaret Kohlmeier is in charge of production and Inez Nelson is director.

W. S. Ickler will direct "Thank You, Doctor." Parts in this play are taken by Helen Steele, Ralph Higbee, Thiel Lathem, Mr. Ickler and Marvin Olson. Barbara Seabury will be in charge of production.

Hit-and-Run Driver Makes Hasty Retreat

Maybe he was drunk.

At any rate, onlookers said that the automobile driver who crashed thru the stop sign at the corner of Fourth and Main streets Saturday night and banged into another car looked as if he had no desire to be caught.

After hitting the other car, he swung his automobile up over the parking in front of Dr. T. T. Jones' office and darted up the street before anyone had a chance to get his license number. He was gone, but not forgotten...at least by the owner of the car he damaged.

RITES FOR WINSIDE MAN HELD SUNDAY

Henry Rellman Succumbs
Friday After Long Illness.

Funeral services for Henry Rellman, Winside retired farmer, were held Sunday afternoon, June 18, 1933, from the Winside St. Paul's Lutheran church with Rev. H. M. Hilpert in charge. Interment was in the Winside cemetery.

Henry John Rellman was born on Feb. 15, 1865, in Vernon, Luxen, Germany, and died at his home in Winside on Friday, June 17, 1933. Death was due to a lingering illness which had confined him to his bed since Dec. 18. He was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith in 1879.

Mr. Rellman came to America on Sept. 5, 1889, and went directly to Talmage, Neb., in Otoe county, where he worked as a hired hand for a year and a half. He was married on Feb. 13, 1891, to Louise Jacob of Talmage, and to this union three children were born: Minnie and Anna, who predeceased their father in death, and Mrs. Chas. Temme of Winside.

Shortly after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Rellman moved to Wayne county and lived until March 1, 1917, on the farm now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Temme. At that time they moved to Winside.

Surviving are his wife, one sister and two brothers living in Germany; a brother, Wm. Rellman of Balaton, Minn.; a daughter, Mrs. Temme, and four grandchildren, Alvin, Elsie, Herbert and Donald Temme.

Miss Edith Granquist, daughter of Mrs. E. Granquist of Wayne, and Clarence Beck, son of Mrs. Hannah Beck of Wayne, were quietly married in Fremont Thursday, June 8, by Rev. Wm. Bruggeman in the parsonage of Trinity Lutheran church. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Granquist, the former being the bride's brother.

The bride wore a formal dress of pink and crepe with pink hat, white gloves and gray shoes. Her attendant, Mrs. Granquist, wore dress and hat of pale blue and shoes of gray.

The four spent several days in Lincoln before returning to Wayne, where the newly married couple are residing on Mr. Beck's farm. Both Mr. and Mrs. Beck received their schooling in Wayne, and have many friends in the vicinity.

been harder to get to — But with times as they are it's hard for my family to afford much amusement after we've paid for the things we have to buy — and you can count on us trading in Wayne when your merchants are considerate enough to treat us so nicely."

A farmer's wife south of Wayne called in to say, "You wanted to know what we think about the free programs and I just want to tell you that I think it's a mighty fine thing. It makes Saturday night shopping a pleasure."

A postcard from a farmer living near Randolph said, "I'll hand it to Wayne for being smart. Those free programs are good and I'm trading in Wayne from now on."

One farmer said, "The show Saturday night didn't appeal to me but I know that some of them you're going to have will be more my style. I told me they'd be back here to do more trading."

These are but a few of many comments. Present plans are for the continuation of the "Happy Saturday" programs at intervals throughout the summer.

Dance Revue to Show Here Saturday Night

Actors Get Good Chance to Worry

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy O'Herran, members of the Hugo Players company that appeared in Wayne on Saturday night, had reasons to worry.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Herran were sent here Saturday morning to supervise erection of the scenery. They had been instructed by Harry Hugo, company manager, to start the show promptly at 10:15 and to keep going until the rest of the troupe arrived, following an appearance at Norfolk theater. Another act was to be here by 10:30 o'clock.

At 10:35, when no members of the company had put in their appearance, Mr. and Mrs. O'Herran were beginning to wonder how much longer they would have to keep the crowd entertained. When they heard footsteps of other members of the company behind the scenes they breathed huge sighs of relief and made hurried exits. A punctured tire had caused the delay.

Surviving are his wife, one sister and two brothers living in Germany; a brother, Wm. Rellman of Balaton, Minn.; a daughter, Mrs. Temme, and four grandchildren, Alvin, Elsie, Herbert and Donald Temme.

Shorty after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Rellman moved to Wayne county and lived until March 1, 1917, on the farm now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Temme. At that time they moved to Winside.

Merchants Co-Operate in Free Entertainment Program.

Wayne merchants and professionals are co-operating with The Nebraska Democrat in the second of a series of "Happy Saturday" programs, which will be presented Saturday night at 10 o'clock in the business district.

The show will be the "Happy Saturday Dance Revue," a program of stage dancing presented by a skilled company of 25, under the direction of Miss Virginia Hodgeson. This sparkling show was presented at the Shrine auditorium in Sioux City on May 29 and received laudatory comment in Sioux City newspapers. It consists of comedy and eccentric dances, acrobatic numbers, ballet groups, and tap dancing numbers. Brilliant costuming is a feature of the show.

Miss Hodgeson, instructor at the Carroll Studio of Dancing in Sioux City, promises that the program will please the most discriminating.

These "Happy Saturday" shows are being paid for entirely, by Wayne business and professional men who appreciate the trade territory's patronage and who want to bring new friends to Wayne from a still wider area. They want Wayne to improve its already good reputation for hospitality and friendliness.

The show is a complete, full-length entertainment consisting of twenty sensational and entertaining numbers. This attraction of guaranteed merit is absolutely free to the public.

In addition to free entertainment, local merchants are preparing to offer special merchandise values for Saturday shoppers. You'll find Wayne a place where you can have a good time and save money on your purchases.

The Inquiring Reporter

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION
Do you think Nebraska would vote wet or dry on the proposition to repeal the eighteenth amendment?

Business man: "Nebraska has always been predominantly dry. I believe that the state would go into the dry column, although not by as great a majority as it would have a few years ago."

Physician: "I believe there is enough wet sentiment at the present time to make Nebraska vote wet, although it would undoubtedly be a close fight."

Farmer: "Although I, myself, would vote dry I believe that the state as a whole would have a wet majority. Recent propaganda has had a powerful effect."

Merchant: "Nebraska would go dry. The drys in this state will outnumber the wets at least two to one if my guess is any place near right. The daily newspaper stories don't reflect the sentiment of the state."

Clerk: "One guess is as good as another. It would be a close race, but I believe that the women's vote would be enough to put the state against repeal of the eighteenth amendment."

A COMPANY THIRTY YEARS OLD

Last Friday the Ford Motor Company completed 30 years of automobile making.

It is also my fortieth year at the same job. I made my first engine in 1893, and it still runs. This is the engine that won the Selden Patent Suit—which took the motor car out of the exclusive class, and opened the automobile industry to hundreds of manufacturers who started during the last 30 years.

Some of the men who began with me that June day in 1903, are working here yet. All of the principles we laid down then, are still operative; we find that they have great survival value for the future. To date they have produced and sold over 21,000,000 Ford cars.

Although we created the automobile market we have never thought it was good for anyone to monopolize it. We have always believed that before business could be good for one, it must be good for all. Our discoveries and improvements have always been open to other manufacturers without patent restrictions.

Of course, there is one thing we cannot share—everyone must get it for himself—and that is experience. Money could duplicate our buildings and machines, but it cannot duplicate 40 years of experience. And it is experience that makes a motor car.

But the past does not especially concern me; it has all been a preparation for the future. For myself, I feel that I have just been gathering the tools to do something worth while, and that my real task is still ahead.

Great changes are upon the world. False ideas of every kind are vanishing in the general upheaval. Those who built truly on principle will survive—their service will carry over. Business integrity and commodity honor will be fully justified. And newer and better ways of living will appear.

That is the outlook for this young thirty-year old Company of ours.

ENEMIES OF THE REPUBLIC

Edgar Howard made a speech in the House of Representatives the other day in which he echoed the sentiments of most of his constituents, phrasing those sentiments more aptly than most of us could have done.

"The woes and misery imposed upon countless millions in recent days by the monied interests," Mr. Howard said, "is not less than that pictured by St. John in his vision upon the Isle of Patmos as attendant upon the ravages of the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse."

"Now that we have a leader who is marshaling the forces of humanity to prevent further ravaged by four modern horsemen, representing the gigantic combinations of money whose greed in times of peace is exceeded only in times of war," he continued, "those mighty interests are determined to hamstring President Roosevelt in his fight to secure a measure of economic justice for the weak and to promote a permanent peace between all nations. Those interests will not readily surrender the control of commerce and industry—yes, of government as well—which they have long exercised. They will stop at nothing to thwart the efforts of our President. They work cunningly and in secret. Paying handsomely obedient servants, they readily find able men willing to prostitute their talents in an unholy undertaking, and they control most avenues of information and propaganda."

"Never," Mr. Howard charged, "was a newly installed President so violently opposed in his efforts to work the welfare of all the people as President Roosevelt is now opposed by the mightiest organization of wealth the world has ever known. That murderous group—and I weigh my words when I say it is a murderous group—exercising the power of the Federal Government through a long term of years, secured enactment of legislation to make that organization as much the money master in America as Napoleon made himself the military master of Europe. The emissaries of that master have launched against Franklin Roosevelt a campaign of propaganda as violent and as scathing as that propaganda spread by England and France to drag the United States into the terrible World War."

Mr. Howard was not referring to any anonymous group in his charges. "What is the name of the murderous organization which has driven thousands of American citizens to suicide graves, and in recent years driven millions of others to the dual doors of poverty and despair?" he asked. "It may be best designated as the Morgan-Mellon group of international bankers."

"By the might of its power during the past two decades," he charged, "it has wrested from the Congress of the United States the constitutional right to control the financial policies of the Republic. By master cunning and worse if succeeded in gaining absolute control of our Federal Reserve system, and through that control it has enabled one family in that organization to amass property which, if sold on the market at prevailing low prices, would carry to the coffers of that family an amount of money greater than the assessed value of all the land and all the personal property in two of our once most prosperous farm states."

"It is high time," he demanded, "that lovers of the Republic and true friends of President Roosevelt should be speaking and writing in plain words about that mighty murderous group now so industriously endeavoring to stay the steps of President Roosevelt on the pathway upon which he plans to carry the cause of humanity to the goal of success. I feel duty bound to banish from my vocabulary every soft word when speaking with reference to the four men more responsible than all others for driving both the Republic and the people of the Republic to their present and state."

"What," he asked, "is the signal duty of an American citizen right now? It seems to me the finger of deity points every citizen to do all within the limits of his or her ability to stand squarely with our president in his efforts to lead the way from the jungles of War and Want to the plains of Peace and Prosperity. I am hoping—aye, and believing—that every lover of our Republic will play his or her best part to guard and shield President Roosevelt against every malicious attack upon the man or upon his measures for the promotion of peace and prosperity at home and abroad."

UNEARNED INCREMENT

You'll find them in every community those fellows who collect unearned increment. You know them. You've seen them sit back and knock or sit back and do nothing at all while their more energetic and pulse-spirited neighbors got out and brought the world to the front door.

They devote all their time to their own selfish interests and, in all probability, never even stop to think that the other fellow is contributing to their support. If they do think about it, the thought doesn't bother them enough to make them change their ways.

Their community advances—in spite of them. Their super-critical sense of each advancement fails to deter progress and as their town goes ahead they do a greater amount of business and find their property more valuable. They probably refer to themselves as self-made men and undoubtedly think that their methods of business operation have been highly successful.

Were you to tell them that they had little to do with the success of their business, they would be insulted. Were you to point out that their firms had increased in value because of the efforts of the community to push ahead they would probably tell you that firms such as theirs had put the town ahead.

They're always with us. There's nothing to do about them. Maybe they are sincere in their misguided beliefs and practices, but the unearned increment receivers can't help but bring the blood off the more progressive business men to the boiling point.

Wayne is fortunate in that it has fewer of such individuals than do most towns. In Wayne, the business men unite with uncommonly fine show of community spirit, paying little attention to the drove bee. We are fortunate.

Main Street Murmurs. Yeah, he's going to be in Lincoln for a while, poor devil. What time does the tree show start tonight? I hope they'll let me exchange that dress, 'cause I don't like it at all since I saw Mrs. — with one just like it. It looks funny, but it don't mean a thing. We had some of that Canadian beer that comes in green bottles. She had another date with him and her old man was burned up. Doggoned if I don't think my next car will be a Cadillac or Packard. He just simply wouldn't take No for an answer.

Marion Jones graduated from high school this year and he sent an announcement to an uncle in Texas whom he had never seen. The uncle can't be blamed for what followed, and, certainly, neither can Marion. The uncle sent him for a graduation present a lovely headed bag. Now Marion appreciates the sentiment behind the gift, but he really has little use for a headed bag, being a perfectly live-wire young fellow. And it burns him up the way the rest of his buddies have been razzing him about it—so he wishes they'd quit.

P. S. He didn't order this announcement, and it isn't paid for.

Jim Tully, a swell writer in this city's opinion, once made a classic entry about Hollywood. "Put a fence around it," that ex-hobo scrivener said, "and it's Armour's packing plant!"

The Democrat is scouring the middle-west for ace entertainment to be used in Wayne's Happy Saturday programs. If you like them and want them continued, you can do us a favor. You who read this column can tell local business men that you appreciate the shows and that you think they should back 'em to the limit with advertising and co-operation.

It's a fact that a live town is a prosperous town. If Wayne can get the trade territory to come here instead of to other trading centers and can make folks feel that Wayne is a dandy place for trading and recreation, Wayne business will improve. We don't want to let anybody get the idea that all Wayne is after is their money, because it's not so. Wayne can give you real bargain prices on your purchases and can show its appreciation by making you happy while you're here.

The business men, too, can do us a favor. The Happy Saturday programs can bring crowds to town and can make the people enjoy their visits here—but that's all. The merchants can co-operate by offering quality merchandise at bargain prices—and the merchants can let folks know about the values that are offered here. Yeah, we're talking about newspaper advertising. If the Happy Saturday programs aren't backed up with advertising, they can't be continued. So give us a lift. Thank you!

We wondered what kind of entertainment you preferred. So far, from the opinions that have come into the Democrat office, the wrestling matches are out a little bit ahead. And you'd be surprised at some of the mild-mannered men and women who have evinced their desire for another view at the rough-and-tumble sport.

Our idea of a great entry for the What-if-it department: Hollywood gossip articles and Hollywood gossip magazines.

Wouldn't it be swell to have a wooden tag so you could use a thumb tack for a garden?

Here's an orchid for the Wayne Herald—for that paper's very kind offer to let us broadcast an announcement of the Happy Saturday entertainment over the radio... without any charge. Your kindness and cooperation was appreciated, Mr. Huse.

One local gent who played two games of kittenball publicly announced that from now on his sport is golf. He was old enough to know better than attempting to use muscles that had rusted, anyway.

This running a newspaper is a tiring proposition; the advertisers tell you that you ought to have more subscribers to read the ads and the prospective subscribers tell you that more of 'em'd take it if it published more ads. Well, do, won't do?

After you hear some ardent militarist spout off about the dangers of not having a big army, you turned near decide that it's time to stop the public's craze for not killing each other.

You might get a laugh out of this notice which appeared in last week's Wisner News-Chronicle:

I guess the big idea is that he wants everybody to keep out.

Here's a headline from the Bute Gazette:

You wouldn't believe it were you to know the names of the characters, but it's true, anyhow. A certain local fellow that you wouldn't even pick-as-a-gambler won a neat little piece of pin money in a crap game the other night. One of his friends, who has had lots to do with dice and other gambling implements, bawled him out for getting into the game and gave him a scolding lecture on the evils of gambling. This friend should, and probably does, know, too.

A local guy who says loud and often that he is a hundred per cent for anything that is—for the good of Wayne has been checked up on and found short. He has been encouraging certain of his friends to make certain purchases out of town—and nobody who really wants this place to get ahead would do a thing like that.

The New Yorker finds a ray of sunlight for the railroads in this amusing piece:

We advise all air lines and all busineses in the country to keep their eyes on a new upstart, the "railroad." The railroad is an invention which somebody patented in the early part of the nineteenth century, and then abandoned. For almost a hundred years no new note was introduced in rail travel except a slot to put razor blades in. For at least ninety years, the only way to get a train window open was with a baseball bat and a chisel. But we notice that the rail executives are now looking about them, on a new world. They see that the air has been conquered. They see motor buses plying the highways. So they have finally got out a new kind of train, modeled after an inchworm. It looks to us, from this distance, like a sure-fire hit; and we'd like to have a little stock in it—except that we don't really want any stock in anything any more, particularly anything that carries people about from one place to another, catering to their restlessness.

Fred Howard bursts forth from the front page of the Clay County Sun with the following Sunbeams:

Morgan's "silent partners" insist that the silence should never be broken.

Life consists of one-third doing and two-thirds attempting to justify your action.

Funerals and funerals always draw well though they never change their programs.

Talking religion may secure local prestige, but nothing other than having lived it will spring the Pearly Gates for you.

The one who wins most frequently and most consistently is the one who plays the hand dealt to him honestly and most intelligently.

An acquaintance of mine likes to aggravate people by talking too much and then dissecting what comes from their minds peeled into unguarded candor. He is so unchristian as to think that more people display their true character when anger makes them than those who are honest speech with a smile.

The expression, "A New Deal," we believe of wider significance than even its originators contemplated. A sober minded, well balanced friend of mine who for forty years has gone to the polls and cast a republican ballot, confident that in doing so he was best serving good citizenship, told me a few days ago that he was sorry that he could not claim the honor of having helped to make Mr. Roosevelt president. For this man, and thousands of others, a new day has arrived in politics. Party lines have fallen and candidates of the future will have to stand the test of a thorough examination before their acceptance or rejection.

SYSTEM OF BANKING IN CANADA IS DISCUSSED

"Banking in the United States," Mr. Simpson said, "is a job; in Canada it is a profession. The young man who takes on a banking career has at least eight years intensive training before he is made a branch manager. He learns valuable information concerning every phase of banking. He knows that when he is made a manager he will have a good salary and he knows that he will be pensioned when he is 60 years old."

"No bank officer in Canada," Rev. Simpson said, "can secure a loan for himself of over $1,000 without the approval of the board of directors. Funds cannot be used to finance real estate; loans must be kept liquid." Rev. Simpson read an excerpt from a letter in which a Canadian bank official said that most of the Canadian bank's assets could be converted in 48 hours.

A rigid system of examination, Rev. Simpson pointed out, is another reason for the success of the Canadian banking system. There is internal inspection. Each bank has its own auditor, plus an efficient government system of inspection.

HOPPER PEST SAID TO LOOK SERIOUS

Report Shows Danger in Few Northern Counties.

State agricultural experts reported Monday at Lincoln that grasshoppers are hatching by the millions in sections of Knox, Boyd, Keya Paha and northern Holt counties. W. H. Brokaw, director of agricultural extension at the University of Nebraska college of agriculture and L. M. Gates, three-day tour through northeastern Nebraska.

Governor Bryan indicated Monday that some state funds will be available to buy poison bait and said that a plan of purchase and distribution will be worked out as soon as possible. Mr. Gates said that the poison, to be effective, would have to be spread this week and next. He believes that the situation is as serious in some areas as it was two years ago.

The cast is believed to be one of the most elaborate ever assembled.

Every role, no matter how small, was filled by a recognized artist. Among those in prominent parts are Diana Wyvord, the English stage star; Ted Alexander, who scored as Norma Shearer's son in "Strange Interlude"; C. Henry Gordon and Edward Arnold.

"Trick for Trick" stars Ralph Morgan, Victor Jory and Sally Blane. In this picture tricks of magic are revealed as two magicians vie with each other for superiority. The film is said to show in a simple manner just how two adepts practice the black art. One of them suspects the other of a murder. The other, guilty or not guilty, wants at least to throw the first one off the track.

The story is reported to be entirely different from the type of mystery thriller usually seen. It sets forth a unification of every element of mystery and suspense known to the cinematic art.

Victor Jory plays the part of La Tour, a magician, and partner of Azra, another magician played by Ralph Morgan. The story has comedy of a novel kind and "kids the life out of" the average mystery story.

Morgan and Jory, in their efforts to outdo themselves and in order to show each other up, reveal a repertory of magic tricks that are reported as amazing. Some of the most mystifying feats are perpetrated in this battle of magic, a number of them explained so that they became both clear and simple. The locale of the story is a bleak cliff of the Palisades.

"Rasputin and the Empress," sensational drama of the fall of the Romanoffs, brings John, Ethel and Lionel Barrymore together on the screen for the first time.

Evelyn, known as the first lady of the stage (you probably heard her in Rudy Vallee's program last Thursday night) plays the Empress. John, long beloved of screen fans, is cast as Prince Chegodeff, and Lionel (remember him in "Sweeps" and "Grand Hotel") plays the role of the "Holy Devil" in the picturization of the downfall of the Empire and the rise of the Bolshevik regime. In every case, perfect makeup makes the characters exact replicas of the real ones.

Based on happenings within the memory of the present generations, the picture's episodes present a replica of the most colorful royal court in the world, plus a modern story.

Intense dramatic material is contained in the hypnotizing of the little prince by Rasputin, in his intrigues and orgies and in the vengeance of the nobles after his tempering has sent the empire on its way to ruin.

The cast is believed to be one of the most elaborate ever assembled. Every role, no matter how small, was filled by a recognized artist. Among those in prominent parts are Diana Wyvord, the English stage star; Ted Alexander, who scored as Norma Shearer's son in "Strange Interlude"; C. Henry Gordon and Edward Arnold.

Presbyterian Church Notes

P. A. Davies, Pastor

Our usual service will be held next Sunday morning with Sunday school at 10 a. m. and morning worship at 11 a. m. We are not sure as to the evening services as there is some thought of presenting the play "The Lost Church" in a nearby town and that in great part would take our young people away. The announcement in regard to the evening service will be made at the morning hour.

The play "The Lost Church," was given to a full house last Sunday evening. It was very well rendered. We wish to thank and congratulate those who took part as well as Miss Elizabeth Wentworth who trained them on the success of the evening. The offering amounted to $8.70.

The young people of the church have partially planned to serve ice cream and cake on the church lawn next Saturday evening. Wait for further notice. Next Monday the pastor will accompany a number of our young people to the conference at Bellevue, which will be in session from June 26 to July 3.

Institute. Arrangements are not yet completed so that a definite announcement can be made.

Our District Superintendent, Dr. C. G. Gorman, was with us Wednesday evening for the local conference meeting.

We are nearing the close of our church year and all our members and supporters are asked to help the officials close up the business of the year as efficiently as possible.

U. S. Farm Exports Boosted by Cotton

Volume of Products Leaving Country Is 120 Per Ct.

Pre-War Record.

The index of the volume of exports of American farm products in November was 120 per cent of pre-war, reports the bureau of agricultural economics, United States Department of Agriculture. Cotton exports continued to bolster the exports index since if this commodity is omitted the index of exports would be only 88 per cent of pre-war.

The index of all farm products exported in November, 1931, was 137 per cent of pre-war, and with cotton omitted the index was 114 per cent of pre-war. A smaller volume of nearly all agricultural products was exported in November, 1932, than in the preceding month when the index of exports was 126 per cent of pre-war.

Fruit exports in November were in volume 423 per cent of pre-war, cotton 140 per cent, and unmanufactured tobacco 144 per cent of pre-war. All other commodities were exported in smaller volume than pre-war, viz: Grains and products, 73 per cent; animal products, 63 per cent; dairy products and eggs, 68 per cent; wheat and flour, 67 per cent; ham and bacon, 27 per cent; and lard, 91 per cent.

Cotton exports for the five months ended November 30, 1932, totaled 3,873,000 bales compared with 3,237,000 bales for the corresponding period of 1931. Total exports of wheat and flour in the five months ended November 30, last, were 25,087,000 bushels, which was a decrease of 84 per cent from the exports for the corresponding period in 1931. Although exports of unmanufactured tobacco were 144 per cent of pre-war in November, the bureau says that the volume exported in that month was smaller than in any corresponding month since 1924.

World Wheat Bins Groan; Shipments May Be Larger

The world wheat market is burdened by heavy stocks which are largely the result of restricted demand in importing countries, says the bureau of agricultural economics, United States Department of Agriculture, in its report on world wheat prospects.

Shipments of wheat and flour from July through December, from the principal exporting countries, have totaled 261,000,000 bushels as compared with 255,000,000 bushels in the corresponding period last season.

This low level of shipments, the bureau continues, has left the principal exporting countries with somewhat larger stocks of wheat as of December 1, 1932, than on December 1, 1931. Total stocks available for export and carryover from the old crop in the United States, Canada, Australia and Argentina are estimated to have been about 745,000,000 bushels on December 1 compared with 708,000,000 bushels on December 1 last year. Also, the new crop of both Argentina and Australia is estimated to be somewhat larger than last year.

World shipments, it is expected, will be larger during the second half of the crop year because supplies of wheat from the large European crops in 1932 are being reduced, and although some countries have such large crops as to make it unlikely that they will import significant quantities, other countries, says the bureau, will have to depend more largely upon supplies of foreign wheat—Missouri Farmer.

Residence of Presidents

There is nothing in the Constitution to prevent men who are residents of the same state holding the offices of President and Vice President of the United States. The Twelfth Amendment to the Constitution reads in part:

"The electors shall meet in their respective states and vote by ballot for President and Vice President, one of whom at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves." No party has ever nominated candidates for these two offices from the same state. Obviously it would be unwise to do so because the electors from that state could vote for only one of them, even if the party carried the state. But the electors from all the other states could vote for both candidates.

When Drama Came

The earliest European drama is the Greek, which, growing up in connection with the festival of Dionysus, culminated in Attica, where the festival came to be celebrated by the performance of a tetralogy, consisting of one comedy and a trilogy of serious plays or tragedies celebrating a connected series of mythic episodes. In Medieval Europe mystery, miracles and morality plays, acted in connection with the church festivals preceded the appearance during the Renaissance of the modern drama which has developed besides tragedy and comedy, tragicom-edy, melodrama, opera, burlesque, farce, etc.

Cannon Recall 1807

Two muzzle-loading cannon with the words "Woolwich Arsenal" on them, together with the date 1807, found in the Riachuelo river, near Buenos Aires, are made of brass and are in a comparatively good state of preservation.

They are believed to have been spiked and thrown into the river by the British forces when they were dislodged from their entrenchments during the second British invasion of the River

Platte in 1807. They were placed in the National History museum, in Buenos Aires.

Humming of telephone and telegraph wires is caused by the wind. The wire has a natural frequency of vibration the same as a piano string and the wind sets it to vibrating. The fundamental frequency is too low to be heard, but some of the harmonics are audible. The fundamental is given by the wire vibrating as a whole, the harmonics by the vibrating in sections;

many of these are ordinarily set up at the same time.

CORNISH PLAYERS SHOW AT COLLEGE

"Heathers at Home" Wins Hearty Approval of Audience.

Appearing as the first number on the summer lecture course arranged at Wayne State Teachers college, the Cornish players presented "The Heathers at Home" last Thursday night before an enthusiastic audience which so crowded the auditorium that many were forced to stand. Each of the cast of eleven played his role so humanly and so naturally that selection of outstanding characters is difficult, but Martha Nash as Julia Heather, the mother, is generally conceded to have done the most able characterization.

The Heathers, a family from great American middle class, are shown completely dominated by "poppa"

"Poppa" decided what shall be eaten, worn, said, done and thought. As the play opens the family has been eating fudge, attending a movie and selecting its own bill of fare during the absence of "poppa."

The family includes Mrs. Heather, a married daughter and her husband, a son and his wife who live in a nearby town, an unmarried daughter who "poppa" has decided is to marry his secretary,

Oscar Smith, and Mr. Heather, himself.

Other characters are Fred Swanson, whom Bessie chooses instead of Oscar, Mike Heaton, an architect, and Dr. Graves, exponent of breathing as a road to health and success.

The theme of the play centers around Mr. Heather's well meant domination of his family and the revolt of Bessie, the unmarried daughter, who shrewdly gains the upper hand so that she may carry out her plans and operate a lunch room.

Oscar, the thick-skinned secretary, furnishes much of the comedy.

Scenery and lighting effects were well worked out to depict the conventional living room in the Heather household with yellow afternoon sunshine streaming in through the south window.

Second number on the summer's program, given this Thursday evening, will feature the Quartet trio of New York. The group, sponsored by the Juilliard school of music, will present instrumental program of violin, cello and piano numbers.

Next Thursday evening, June 29, Josephine Lucchesi, soprano, will appear in a return engagement singing a program of semi-popular and popular numbers.
