

ESTABLISHED 1884

WAYNE, WAYNE COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1933.

$1.50 PER YEAR

College Sets New Record on Attendance

Fall Enrollment Highest in History of Local School.

Wayne State Teachers college enrollment for the fall term, according to unofficial figures available yesterday afternoon, is the largest in the history of the school for this time of year.

Approximately 750 students have matriculated, and never before has the figure quite reached 700. The training school enrollment of 255 will bring the total over the 1,000 mark.

An unusual number of students are taking preparatory work for medical, law, engineering and other professional courses.

While no definite checkup of the junior and senior classes has been made, enrollment is believed to be much larger than usual. Students have transferred from other colleges and universities all over the west. The attendance from Iowa is much larger than it has previously been.

An exceptionally large group of fine students is enrolled from Norfolk. Some of these students are taking advantage of low railroad rates and are commuting between Norfolk and Wayne.

Assignments were given Wednesday in all courses, and work was running along smoothly. Freshman English placement tests were held Wednesday afternoon, and organization of English classes will be somewhat unsettled until the results of these tests are compiled.

Local Golfers Play in Norfolk Tournament

Fred Dale won third flight of a one-day medal play golf tournament given Sunday by the Norfolk Country club. C. E. Wright and D. P. Miller qualified in first flight. Other Wayne men participating were Dr. L. F. Perry, F. S. Morgan, D. H. Larson, C. C. Stirtz, Frank Koff, W. R. Hickman, W. P. Canning and Dr. A. D. Lewis.

Scarlet Fever Takes Four-Year Old Girl

Loretta, four-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Doring died Wednesday noon, Sept. 13, at home of scarlet fever. Arrangements have not yet been made for her funeral. She is survived by her parents and two sisters, Laverta, 6, and Bonita, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Baker and Mrs. Mary Doring.

New Drug Store to Open Here in October

R. K. Kirkman of Gretna has rented the building formerly occupied by F. E. Gamble's clothing store and plans to open a modern drug store on about Oct. 15. E. J. Hunter, owner of the building, closed the deal Monday. Mr. Kirkman will be here within the next few days to oversee remodeling operations.

Whittacre Is Victor in Carroll News Case

Judge Mark J. Ryan of Pender, in a decision rendered on Thursday, Sept. 7, found in favor of H. J. Whittacre in the case of Whittacre vs. Warth. Mr. Whittacre was awarded possession of the Carroll News property.

Lappin Pays Fine on Intoxication Charge

Eugene M. Lappin was fined $10 and costs of $5 in County Judge J. M. Cherry's court Saturday on a charge of intoxication, to which he entered a plea of guilty. Complaint was filed by Chief of Police Wm. Stewart. Mr. Lappin paid the fine.

Elmer Kibborn of Schuyler visited friends in Wayne Sunday.

Air Circus To Be In Wayne Sunday

Wayne will have an air circus Sunday, when the Burnham-Miller flying circus appears at the air field one mile south and two miles east of town, on the Elmer Harrison farm.

The program will open at 12:30, with a parade of six planes over Wayne, one of which will be piloted by Irven Erleben of Wayne. The program at the air field starts at 1:30 o'clock and lasts until six, when a German-trained pilot will make a parachute drop.

A public address system will be in operation during the show. All planes and pilots are licensed.

The program will include acrobatic flying, ribbon cutting, dead stick maneuvers, balloon bunting and stunt flying.

Services for Pioneer Are Held Monday

Franklin P. Bressler Is Laid to Rest Monday at Wakefield.

Franklin Pierce Bressler, pioneer settler and builder, passed away at his home in Wakefield on Friday, Sept. 8, 1933. He was 80 years, seven months and five days old at the time of his death. Mr. Bressler had been in failing health for several years and had been confined to his bed for about 12 weeks.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Methodist church at Wakefield, with Rev. Rollie Poe in charge. Interment was in the Wakefield cemetery.

Mr. Bressler was born at Sinking Valley, Clair county, Pa., on Feb. 3, 1853. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bressler.

He was married to Mary Alice Smith at Harrisburg, Pa., on Oct. 30, 1878. The couple moved to Nebraska in the spring of 1879 and settled on a farm nine miles south of Wakefield. In 1925, he and his wife retired from farm work and moved to Wakefield.

Seven children were born to the couple. One passed away in infancy and another, Mrs. Inez Pond of Powell, Wyo., died in March, 1928. He is survived by his wife, five children: Mrs. Mary L. Schlotfeld of Dixon; George Bressler of Wayne; Harvey Bressler of Coleridge and Lindley Bressler of Pender, two brothers, John T. Bressler of Wayne and S. C. Bressler of Pender; one sister, Hannah Bressler of Wayne; nineteen grandchildren, many other relatives and a host of friends.

He was a member of the Pleasant Valley Methodist church, where he was Sunday school superintendent for several years.

RURAL CHORUS TO BE AT FAIR TODAY

Students and Teachers to Present Program This Afternoon.

Rural teachers and pupils of Wayne county will comprise a chorus which will be a feature on this afternoon's program at the Wayne county fair.

The children have learned to sing the songs with the victrols. The fair association will give one dollar to each school bringing at least five pupils, and if a school has less than five pupils and they all come, they may receive the dollar award, also.

The songs to be sung at the fair are chosen from lists selected by the state department for the past three years for use in the schools.

Carl Finup, teacher of Trinity Lutheran school at Hoskins, will lead the chorus. Alma Lautenbach, teacher in district 47, Bulatle Brugger of district 40 and Earl Miller of district 77 will assist. Ruth Morris of district 44 will play the piano accompaniment.

The group will meet to practice Thursday afternoon at one o'clock in the county court room.

Wildcat Grid Squad Faces Hard Season

Lack of Experienced Men Is Problem for Coach.

Lack of seasoned material is the complaint of Wildcat grid coach Ray Hickman, who is putting Wayne State grid candidates through their paces at the college field every afternoon.

Copeland, Hockett, Grubb and Hungerford, outstanding backfield men on last year's team, should be back this year—but none of them are. Kramplan, stellar lineisman, is registered in Valparaiso law school.

The only letter men available for the line are Paul, Owens, Cook, Lamson, Fisher and Wendell. Gnet, Manning, Kunkel and D. Evans are Coach Hickman's only backfield letter men.

The squad numbers about 60 men, 43 of whom are upperclassmen. Coach Hickman said yesterday that prospects for a winning team look the most distressing of any season in recent years.

Wayne's first game will be on Sept. 29, with Wesleyan at Lincoln. On Oct. 6, the locals will go to Le Mars, Iowa, to play Western Union. The first home game of the season will be on Oct. 13, when Kearney plays here. On Oct. 20, the Wildcats go to Omaha. Wayne's homecoming game will be on Oct. 27, with Chadron playing here. The Nebraska "B" team comes to Wayne on Nov. 3, and Southern Normal plays here on Nov. 10. The last game of the season will be on Nov. 24, with Peru at Peru.

MANY PEOPLE TAKE PART IN FAIR WORK

County Officers, Directors and Superintendents Are Energetic.

Wayne county's fair, which starts today and closes Saturday night will be a program by the Winnebago Indians, is the result of untiring effort on the part of a large number of Wayne residents.

H. J. Miner is president of the fair board and H. B. Craven is vice president. Rollie W. Ley is treasurer and Wm. E. Von Seggera is secretary.

Directors are Phil Damme, Dr. Wm. Hawkins, Frank Erleben and G. W. Albert of Wayne; Simon Strate and Ivar Anderson of Hoskins; Wm. Biermann of Wisner; Peter Ulrich of Winside, and C. H. Morris of Carroll.

Superintendents of departments are Mr. Craven, Don Beckenhauer, George Peters, W. H. Neely, Mr. Morris, Chris Tietgen, Mr. Biermann, Mrs. H. J. Miner, Mrs. E. W. Huse, Mrs. Fred L. Blair, D. Hall, Pearl E. Sewell and Dr. Hawkins.

Speaker Expresses Views on Present Economic Situation

"There is" too much dealing in platitudes today," Sup't of Schools H. R. Best told Kiwanians Monday noon in an address at Hotel Stratton. "We need to eliminate smoke clouds and we must not pay too much attention to highpowered lecturers on communism and bolshevism, pro and con. Both sides are out to make money."

"During the summer, Mr. Best said, he found that communism is a dead issue in the east. 'The socialist vote at the last election,' he pointed out, 'illustrates the lack of interest in socialism. The present government has stolen socialism's thunder.'

"The problem today," he said, "is not the problem of ownership but the problem of control. Since the World War, we have entered a new era, and the change is worrying us. Education's greatest task today is to help people to adapt themselves."

"Political governments of today," he said, "are about as highly developed as possible and have contributed about all they have to offer. The political problem has taken our time for the last hundred years and the solution of the economic problem will occupy our time for the next hundred years."

ALTONA CHURCH HAS MISSION FESTIVAL

Fifteen Hundred People at Trinity Lutheran Meeting.

Trinity Lutheran church at Altona held the largest mission fest of the summer when 1,500 people gathered there Sunday.

Dr. Walter A. Mater of Concordia seminary at St. Louis, Mo., a radio speaker who gives weekly talks on the Luther hour over the Columbia broadcasting system, spoke in English in the afternoon. Rev. G. A. Zoch of Wisner gave the morning address in German.

Offerings, which will be used in mission work, amounted to over $900.

Scout Camp to Be Held at County Fair

Boys to Live on Grounds During Three Days of Exposition.

Lyman Burkholder, field executive of the Boy Scout organization, arrived in Wayne early this morning to have charge of the county Boy scout camp being held at the fair ground during county fair. Camp begins at noon today and extends until late Saturday evening.

Forty Wayne and Winside Boy Scouts will be stationed at the camp during the period to patrol the grounds, have charge of parking of cars, administer First Aid when needed and to provide rest tents for tired sightseers. Randolph Boy Scouts have been invited to assist. Eleven tents have been provided to accommodate the group and they will sleep on cots. All camping equipment was brought here from Camp Gifford at Omaha. Mr. Carter, cook at Camp Gifford for the summer, will prepare meals.

R. R. Larson, district chairman, and A. T. Cavanaugh were in Omaha Tuesday to attend meeting of the executive council of Boy Scouts and make arrangements for securing camp equipment.

Insurance Moratorium Is Lifted in Nebraska

Nebraska's insurance moratorium was lifted Saturday by order of Gov. C. W. Bryan. In force since last March, the moratorium has prevented Nebraska companies and foreign concerns operating in this state from making policy loans or paying cash values of policies, except in limited amounts.

The insurance companies, Gov. Bryan said, had requested the action. He said their financial condition warranted rescinding the regulations.

Wayne County Fair Opens This Morning

Edgar Howard to Attend Local Fair

Congressman Edgar Howard will be guest of honor at the Wayne county fair on Saturday afternoon and will give an informative talk on Washington affairs. This will be one of Congressman Howard's few public appearances in Nebraska this fall.

The Winnebago Indians, who will be on the Saturday program, plan to present the congressman with an Indian peace pipe. The pipe will be given to Mr. Howard in an elaborate ceremony. Leaders of the Indian group have said that they are delighted to honor this district's congressman, inasmuch as he is head of the House of Representatives committee on Indian Affairs.

City to Take Option On Site for Auditorium

Council Has Two Hour Discussion of Lot Purchase.

Wayne's city council voted Tuesday evening to take an option on lots owned by Frank Griffith and Walter Savidge, after hours' discussion. If the option is exercised, the lots will be used as a site for Wayne's municipal auditorium. The price asked for the lots is said to be $8,000.

After considerable discussion, a straw vote was taken. On the ballot to take an option on the Griffith and Savidge lots, Councilman J. G. W. Lewis voted "no" and all other councilmen voted "yes."

The lots under consideration are directly west of the city hall. First and second readings of Ordinance 378 were passed. This ordinance would force the building of sidewalks on East Ninth street. The Korsemeyer Electric company of Lincoln was awarded the contract for a new regulator for the municipal light plant. The regulator is needed to keep the plant's voltage steady. It will be installed in the immediate future.

School Land Goes on Wheat Reduction Plan

Farmers who are farming school land and who desire to sign the wheat contracts should go ahead and fill out their applications, stating that the land was rented for cash rent. It was decided at a meeting of the Board of Educational Lands and Funds. Farmers farming school lands will forward the white copy of their application to the commissioner of public lands and buildings at the state capitol at Lincoln, where the commissioner will sign as landlord for the state.

K-BALL TOURNNEY TO BE HELD AT FAIR

Winside Team and South County Stars Meet in Opener.

Kittenball competition at the Wayne county fair gets under way this afternoon at one o'clock when the Schellenberg team of Winside meets the South County Stars. Following this game, Hoskins will play Carroll and the Golden rule will play the Collest team.

Wayne All-stars meet the Clover Farm team tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock and winners of the first day's games will proceed with elimination play.

Finals of the tournament will be run off Saturday afternoon, with the winning team to be awarded a silver trophy.

Advance Indications Point to Record-Breaking Attendance.

Wayne county's annual fair opens this morning, with everything in readiness to handle capacity crowds. Exhibits are said by Secretary Wm. Von Segger to be more numerous than at any time in recent years, and an elaborate program of entertainment has been arranged for today, tomorrow and Saturday.

Parking lanes for automobiles have been laid out, and efforts are being made to handle fair grounds traffic as efficiently as possible. Wayne county Boy Scouts will patrol the grounds throughout the duration of the fair. A first aid tent will be maintained.

With numerous out-of-town entries in the racing program, race fans are expected to see one of the most attractive arrays of speed competition shown on the local track for a long time. This afternoon's baseball game will match Hoskins and Carroll. Wayne and Winside games will appear tomorrow afternoon, and the winners of the two days' games will cross bats on Saturday.

A kittenball tournament will be an additional afternoon feature. Four-H clubs and school programs will occupy an important place in the afternoon shows.

Music for all afternoon and evening shows will be furnished by the Wayne municipal band, under the direction of Prof. F. C. Reed.

Outstanding on the three-day program are the evening shows, with a complete change of entertainment each night. The opening night's show, "The Push," is a three-act comedy-drama which is said to be a high-class royalty bill worthy of presentation in the best theatres.

"Carned Hotel," a musical comedy, will be presented on the second evening's program, with an elaborate array of costumes and scenery adding to the visual enjoyment of the audience. In addition to a large cast of featured players, choruses of Wayne's (continued on last page)

Many Criminal Cases Set for District Court

District court of Wayne county will open on Monday, Sept. 18, with Judge Clinton Chase on the bench. The jury is called for Monday, Sept. 25.

Among cases scheduled are State vs. Louie Ehlers, State vs. William Evans, State vs. Donald Phillips and Ralph Bennar, State vs. Nella L. Nielsen, State vs. Grover Francis, State vs. Fritz J. Dimmel, State vs. John Ulrich, State vs. Charles Glenn and State vs. Harold Nelson.

Every fall is the worst time of year for flies. Some of our customers are putting on new screens right now to keep the pesky fly out. The screens we make will last for years and years.

The latest thing in men's clothes this summer seems to be women.

There are some other things that have to go along with CERTAIN-TREED or any other paint. There's turpentine, linseed oil, paint brushes, etc. We have these paint items at very attractive prices.

We figured a paint job this week for a farmer's barn. When we told him the price he was surprised at how little money it could be done.

It is well to remember that all our roofings, and felts are bought only in carload lots. They are bought only of the manufacturers which assures of low first cost. The carload freight is much less than truck or local freight charges. Grade for grade, our prices are as low as anywhere.

Join in the Spirit of the Wayne County Fair

The bounty of Wayne county's farms—the prize products of field, orchard, garden and stock farm are assembled in a giant exposition at the Wayne county fair grounds this Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Hosts of interesting agricultural exhibits, new machinery and farming methods, together with entertaining features to complete a gala occasion, are offered by the fair association. Surely you will want to be there to see and enjoy. Plan to attend—take the children. Join in the spirit of a greater festival, celebrating a greater, more progressive county.

THE FAIR BOARD This week-end is the proper time for us to pause a minute on so and take off our hats to the Wayne county fair board.

They have not met the economy problem of offering "cheap" entertainment. They believe that Wayne county's tastes are exacting and that Wayne county audiences are critical.

A POSTOFFICE BUILDING Now that Wayne voters have shown their overwhelming approval of the local community building project and Wayne is assured of having a fine municipal auditorium, it behooves us to think a little bit about the prospects of a federal postoffice building in this community.

He has made no guarantees, but he has said that he will do his best to see that Wayne is included on the favored list. Wayne business men are investigating possible sites for such a government building, and are going to be ready to take advantage of any possible developments.

It is popular to be cynical. And it is the easiest thing in the world. Anyone can depreciate, denounce and condemn almost anything that has ever been done.

The written word, just as soon be a critic, but would have to be known as a cynic. A critic really accomplishes something. His opinions on things that are wrong or things that are good. True criticism is an evaluation and is not destructive.

this privilege for the questionable popularity of cynicism seems almost idiotic. Yes, the writer is pretty cynical about cynics.

TOLERANCE One of the finest phrases ever written was the statement of Voltaire to Helecius. Said Voltaire, "I disagree with everything you say, but will defend to the death your right to say it."

Just so it is with the intolerant person. The man who sees only one side to any discussion and who will not concede any merit to his opponent's arguments will soon find that he is mixed up in no controversies simply because no one will argue with him.

Wheat Growers Sign to Reduce Acreage

About 25 per cent of the wheat growers in Wayne, Stanton and Cedar counties have now signed applications for Triple A wheat contracts.

Reports from other counties indicate that from 50 to 60 per cent of the acreage is being signed up on the first filing days, and that farmers continue to fill out the blanks after filing days as they get the necessary figures together.

Western Nebraska counties are now estimating that 80 to 90 per cent of the growers will sign applications.

Rules Are Tightened on Premium Pig Rates

Only pigs that are accompanied by a permit issued directly to the original owner will be accepted by the government at the premium rate now in effect at Omaha and Sioux City.

Each shipment must be accompanied by a letter or telegram from an authorized packer or commission firm directly to the original owner of the pigs.

The permit ruling does not affect pregnant sows, but the minimum weight of these sows has been lowered from 275 to 240 pounds.

Official board of the Wayne public library met Tuesday evening for the transaction of routine business.

The library will be closed Thursday and Friday evenings, Sept. 14 and 15, during county fair.

July and August circulation figures were unusually large this year, the July total being 2715 and the August, 2901.

SCOTT SHOTS by "SCOTTY"

This is being written as I prepare to go to Waterloo, Iowa—a city that in last week's Scott Shots I longed to visit.

I have just received word that Uncle Dick is dead. None of you ever had the privilege of knowing Uncle Dick, although a few of you may have met him when he visited at the Scott Shot home here one time.

He and Aunt Belle were childless. They were my godfather and godmother when I was baptized.

And I remember one time when I was visiting him and was sick. He offered me a dollar to take a dose of castor oil.

When I graduated from high school, he gave me a hundred dollars. I planned on staying out-of-school a year, and when fall came, he gave me another hundred dollars to get me to go to college.

The first trip my best girl and I ever took together was to Waterloo, and she immediately decided that I had okeh relatives.

Once in a while you find an older man who can meet a boy on even terms. He was one of those—and I thing no greater tribute can be paid to any man.

He had a heart as big as space itself—and this trip to Waterloo is unlike any I've ever made before.

I don't know how he died—but I know that he died with a smile on his lips and with the bravery that was a part of him.

Main Street Mutt: She may be an artist to you, but she's just a loud-mouthed come to me. They saw me drinking a mug of beer and went right out and blabbed about it.

Paul Harrington confided the other day that one of his biggest faults is visiting. Too much visiting, he claimed, has lost him enough time to have made him a lot money.

Visiting, all kidding aside, is one of the most graceful and gracious of arts. Real visiting, it seems to me, is not practiced by young 'uns of my generation with nearly so much polish and delightful polishing of points, as it is by that World War generation who just preceded us.

Once upon a time there was a fellow who went into a restaurant and asked the waitress for vegetables.

And once upon a time there was a fellow who went into a clothing store and said, "I want to buy a hat."

"The Best Short Stories of 1933" by Edward J. O'Brien is among the new books.

"The Farm" by Louis Bromfield is a remarkable panorama of American life in the making.

Those who loved the character of Abbie Deale in Bess Streeter Aldrich's "A Lantern in Her Hand," will want to read Aldrich's newest novel, "Miss Bishop."

A widely discussed book is George Bernard Shaw's "The Adventures of a Black Girl in Her Search for God."

The most powerful religious argument known is poverty.

"Love's a Puzzle," by Faith Baldwin has its plot based on the theory that love is a jigsaw in which all the players are unhappy until they are fitted into a pattern.

"She Loves Me Not" by Edward Hope is a gay story of a little night club singer and the hilarious events that ensued when some Princeton men tried to take her under their wing and protect her from the third degree evil of the criminal code.
