Russel True Prescott To Deliver Commencement Address May 22

When Wayne high school's graduating class of thirty-four, the fiftieth Senior class to be graduated since the founding of the school, is honored at commencement exercises in the municipal auditorium Friday evening, May 22, a former graduate, Russel True Prescott, will deliver the main address. His subject will be the "Spirit of Wayne High".

Mr. Prescott, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. True Prescott of near Wayne, is now assistant professor and agricultural editor of the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture. He was graduated from Wayne high school in 1918 and attended Wayne State Teachers college for two years before enrolling at the University of Nebraska, from which he received his A. B. degree in 1924 and his M. A. degree in 1935.

All of Mr. and Mrs. True Prescott's six children are graduates of Wayne high school. They are Russel True of Lincoln; Harry, a graduate of 1920, now a mining engineer at Great Falls, Montana; Florence, now Mrs. Millard Story of Lodgepole, who was graduated in 1923; Miriam, a graduate of 1926, now teaching at Bayard; and Miss Truma, a 1933 graduate who is at present attending Wayne State Teachers college, as did all of her brothers and sisters.

College Yearbook To Be Distributed on Monday

About 600 copies of the 1936 Spizzierinkum, Wayne State Teachers college yearbook, will be distributed among the student body Monday morning at seven o'clock. The book is considerably larger than last year's edition and has numerous improvements. The athletic section is larger and more complete, all pictures are slightly larger, and the six distinctive etchings in the front of the book make a lasting first impression. As it was Theodore Roosevelt who coined the word "Spizzierinkum", which means pluck, courage, energy and the will to succeed, the theme of Roosevelt's life is carried out in the entire yearbook. The Spizz staff consists of Gale McGee, editor; Joe Larson, associate editor; Frank Beckner, business manager; Prof. J. Q. Owen, sponsor, and Prof. E. J. Hunter, faculty advisor. The book is a product of the Woodruff Printing company and the Capital Engraving company of Lincoln.

Rain Much Needed Falls Here Over Three Days

We asked for it and we got it. Praises be to Allah! Rain fell throughout the midwest beginning last Friday and continued to fall intermittently over a three day period. Friday, according to official reports, .45 of an inch fell. Saturday showers played a return engagement leaving .35 of an inch of water and during Saturday evening and early Sunday a total of 2.1 inches fell.

Un-official reports coming from farmers living southeast of town stated that as much as 8 inches fell Saturday night, causing fences to be washed out and damaging plowing on hillsides. Anyway, it rained. We asked for and we are glad we got it.

Enthusiasm Runs High Over Track

College Conference Meet Here Friday Causes Speculation

Though Kearney is doped to win, considerable uncertainty is felt over the outcome of the forthcoming conference track and field meet on the Wayne State Teachers college athletic field Friday when cinder track stars from Peru, Kearney and Chadron compete against Coach Ray Hickman's men.

Probably the most outstanding spectacle will be when Tegeler of Wayne, ace 220 runner undefeated in that event for three years, races with Riggs of Peru, 100 yard dash man who has not been defeated this season. They will run in the 220. At the recent Colorado relays Tegeler, with a running start, came within 5 seconds of tying the world's record of 20.4 seconds in the 220 dash. Track fans are speculating on the outcome of the contest between Tegeler and Riggs.

Preliminaries begin at ten o'clock Friday morning, May 15, and the finals begin at two o'clock in the afternoon.

Cullen Grants Race Permit For July 4th

Wayne Association Secures July 4, 7, 8, 9 Dates for Pari-Mutuel Meet

Officers of Wayne County Horse Racing association last Thursday were optimistic over prospects of a pari-mutuel racing meet which, if local arrangements can be made, will take place here on July 4, 7, 8, 9.

The Wayne men had just been in conference with Art Cullen, state racing commissioner in Omaha, when they were contacted.

Later in conversation with Jim Ronen, racing director for Ak-sar-ben, they found him enthusiastic over the prospects of a race meet here this season. He also informed the Wayne men that he would lend his assistance whenever and wherever it was needed and promised them a Wayne Day at the Ak-sar-ben races if they would secure a booster organization and the municipal band for the day.

Wayne men who conferred with Cullen in Omaha see great possibilities for an old fashioned Fourth of July celebration for Wayne. They point out that Wayne should be the logical place for all northeast Nebraska to celebrate inasmuch as no other city in the immediate territory has yet made known any such intentions.

Because July 4 this year falls on Saturday, there would necessarily have to be a break in the celebration here, inasmuch as the pari-mutuel laws in Nebraska do not permit race meets to be conducted on Sunday.

Last year's races were successful from a financial standpoint. Interest manifested in Wayne and the surrounding territory clearly demonstrated that there are many horse racing lovers here. Merchants and farmers who had underwritten the meet by putting $25 each into the "kitty" had their money returned to them. All other money on hand after expenses were paid was used in paying for improvements made at the fair grounds.

The only criticism heard concerning last year's meet was that it was staged at a poor time for farmers to attend.

Officers of the association hope by setting the dates ahead and beginning the show on July 4 it will attract more racing enthusiasts.

That a good lineup of horses will be here for the meet is virtually assured, due to the fact that the Ak-Sar-Ben meet closes on the opening day of the meet here.

Heilman of Iowa To Operate Pool

Ida Grove Man Improves Purifying Plant To Specifications

Improvements are being made at the old Kay swimming pool which has recently been secured by F. B. Heilman of Ida Grove, Iowa. These improvements will consist mainly of a new and enlarged filter and recirculation system, so that all the water of the pool will pass through the filter every twelve hours. In this way, it never becomes necessary to empty the pool through the summer, and thus there will be swimming every day. A system is also being installed so that the shower water will be heated by Old Sol and everyone will be asked and compelled to take a shower with soap, naked, before using the pool. Modern foot baths will also protect all patrons. Modern sanitation requires that the pool water shall contain minute quantities of chlorine capable of killing bacteria. Chlorine is a powerful gas capable of killing any living organism. It is used by the army and navy and in many cities to purify their drinking water. This chlorine addition will be provided and tests will be made three times daily to insure proper amount in the pool water.

Mr. Heilman has had nine years experience at pools. He is a qualified chemist and knows sanitation of pools. He and his family specialize in Red Cross swimming and instruction, and courses in swimming, diving and life saving may be secured at the pool. Mornings at the pool will be devoted, perhaps entirely, to swimming lessons and various classes will be organized for this purpose. Any person from 5 to 70 years of age may enter these courses. Lessons, one lesson per week for ten weeks, tests being given at the close of each course. Those completing the tests will be awarded Red Cross buttons or awards and also diplomas which may be issued by the Jantzen School of Scientific Swimming in which Mr. Heilman has served as instructor. Efforts will be made by the pool management to maintain such a degree of supervision and purification of the water that membership in the Jantzen Association of Swimming Pools will be secured. This association is a national body, having about 400 members and emphasizing clean water.

Most Wayne Merchants Favor Closing May 30 After 10

Indications late Wednesday were that for the greater part Wayne merchants were favorable toward making Friday, May 29, a trade day extending over to a late closing hour in the evening, so Memorial Day might be observed. Grocers and meat market operators favored remaining open until 10 o'clock Saturday morning, May 30.

Though the matter is not definitely settled as yet, it is consensus, as the Democrat is informed, that all stores will take part in a trade day event on Friday and only food markets will stay open until 10 a. m. the following day. It is hoped that a definite announcement one way or the other can be made in next week's Democrat.

"It is a fine custom which the two Wayne clubs have been following in recent years in welcoming these graduates into community affairs," said Dean Hahn. "They need someone in touch with them as individuals, they need your continuous interest in young people especially in the next few years following their graduation."

In his after dinner remarks Dr. Dienst disclaimed belief in "lost generations." He is of the opinion that "humanity has tough fibers in it and that even though potentialities are somewhat obscured at the present they bloom forth later." Dr. Dienst also lauded the two clubs for "stretching out a helping hand to the graduates."

"We are sending out into professional life," he said, "a fine lot of well prepared, earnest, sincere young people. We want them to feel they can come to us for advice and help. 'Carry On' is the slogan adopted by this year's high school graduating class. Whatever the requirements or situations, let's not take the easy way. Another Proof-- The following letter was received from Mr. Hal Thompson who recently ordered a seed corn advertisement to run two weeks in this newspaper. The advertisement appeared in but one issue. Here is what Mr. Thompson has to say: "Gentlemen:— Please do not run my seed corn ad this week as I am sold out. I certainly appreciate what the advertising did for me. Thanking you, I am, Yours truly, Hal E. Thompson." Mr. Thompson, like many others, has received excellent service from the Democrat's thorough circulation of this rich agricultural area. STEEL MAKERS say—"Ford buys the best steel." Other suppliers of materials and parts will tell you—"Nobody checks up as closely on quality and price as Ford." This means a great deal to you as a motorist. It is our way of safeguarding the interests of every purchaser and it leads to this—"The mechanical depreciation on a Ford is less than most cars, especially after the first year." This is one sign of the extra value in the Ford V-8. Accuracy in manufacturing is another. (The Ford is made to unusually close precision limits.) And there is a long list of fine-car features that are exclusive with Ford in the popular field. Have you a V-8 engine in your car? You pay $1645 for it in any other car but Ford. Does your car have Center-Poise Riding? Ford gives you this modern feature—"a front-seat ride for back-seat passengers." Does your car have fool-proof Super-Safety Mechanical Brakes? The Ford V-8 gives you this proved design, with 186 square inches of braking surface. Does your car have a genuine steel body structure? Does it have Safety Glass all around? Ford is the only low-price car that gives you this extra protection without extra cost. You get these fine-car features in the Ford V-8 because of Ford manufacturing methods and low-profit policy. $25 A MONTH, after usual down-payment, buys any model of the new Ford V-8 car—from any Ford dealer—anywhere in the United States. Let's Celebrate

Officials of the Wayne County Horse Racing association last week made a trip to Omaha where they conferred with Art Cullen, secretary of the state racing commission. There they were able to secure dates which should be favorable for an even better race meet than was staged here last year.

It has been some years since Wayne has had a good old fashioned Fourth of July celebration. This year the present plans call for the race meet to open on Independence Day and take up again on Tuesday July 7, extending through July 9.

With horse races already planned, a good band to provide music and a Big 10 baseball league team which could probably arrange for a game or two for the day, Wayne is in a very favorable position to provide a good old fashioned Fourth of July.

Conditions are much better than they have been in several years. Confidence is being restored more and more every day. People in this part of the country have had their noses to the grind stone too long for their own good.

With prospects of a good celebration in the offing everyone must make an earnest effort to get the job done. Ak-sar-ben will grant us a Wayne day at their races in Omaha and want us to bring the band and a live booster organization. Sioux City people should be favorable to celebrating the Fourth in Wayne, inasmuch as the good time their booster organization had here earlier in the spring still lingers among them.

We know of no other city in this section of the country where a celebration is being planned. Wayne is well located and can provide everything it takes for a good old fashioned Fourth of July. Let's everyone get on the band wagon, stage a real blow out here and let them know all over northeast Nebraska that Wayne is a real live progressive city.

What if our taxes are a bit higher than they were? Our country is growing! Surely it costs more to operate a bigger and better nation. We must spend if we are to have and what we have is well worth the price. It is far better to spend and have than to hoard and rot due to want.

It's been a long time since we've heard a prettier "melody from out of the skies", than the patter of rain on housetops and window panes.

Indeed it is gratifying to learn that Wayne is soon to have a modern swimming pool with pure water assured at all times. Swimming is a fine sport. Everyone should be able to swim at least some. Nobody ever knows just when the need for the ability will arise.

Three public enemies of the toughest kind caught in one week and flown to scenes of crime to stand trial! "The mills of the gods grind slowly but they grind exceedingly fine!" The record of J. Edgar Hoover and his G-Men is one that can be envied by every department of justice in the world. Bringing of these tough mugs to justice in record time is just another fulfillment of promises made by the Roosevelt administration. Getting the thing done pronto by means of scientific crime detection, which incidentally costs money, too, is what we consider something better than sitting around deploring the situation and wishing that something could be done.

Orchids to Germany for producing a beautiful big airship, the Hindenburg, and placing it in active service on a regular trans-Atlantic passenger schedule. Hurling a 200 ton luxury liner of the skies through the storm thrashed atmosphere over the north Atlantic is a real accomplishment. Again we say Orchids to Germany and her great lighter-than-air engineers.

It's a funny thing that some of the most severe cranks we have to-day on the matter of ethics are those most prone to disregard them if they can see a chance to sneak by. But that's okay, we were long ago told to always beware of the person who was constantly trying to impress us with his honesty.

"The devil will find use for idle hands", is an old expression. In like manner the old cuss will also find missions of questionable merit for tongues of those who have little to do. We wish that some of these persons who are harmless otherwise would lay off their small talk and gossip. A friend tells us that the person who packs tales to us about ourselves is likewise packing other tales. Djever think of that?

Natural wish of Congressmen in an election year is to wind up national business as soon as possible and return home to apply themselves to the serious game of politics. This year, with all forecasters holding that the warfare waged by the major parties will be unusually bitter and relentless, Congressmen have been more than eager to say goodbye to Capitol hill. But a crowded legislative calendar long ago dissipated hopes for an April or May adjournment. At this writing, there is a reasonable expectancy that Congress will write "finis" by mid-June—but don't be at all surprised if the session continues into the sweltering weather. For little has been done in the way of law-making, and a large number of important bills will have to be either passed or rejected before quiet falls over our legislative halls.

Here is the status of major proposed legislation at present:

Corporation Surplus Tax: First forecast was that this tax would pass easily in just about the form asked by the President. However, there has been something of a shift of sentiment, and a number of leading Democratic representatives seem very cool to his ideas. Business is making felt its belief that such a tax would be ruinous. Upshot is that the House bill is likely to be relatively mild, though what the Senate will do to it is still in the realm of conjecture. One thing is certain: There will be a great deal of debate and plenty of hard feelings, before a bill goes to the White House.

Chain Store Bills: A number of these are pending in one branch of Congress or the other, and some have been entirely lost to view. Bills dealing with "price discrimination," rebates, etc., have met the opposition of powerful groups which believe them basically unsound and unnecessary, and inimical to the consumers' interest.

Thirty-Hour Week: A bill to force this on business has been pending for several Congressional sessions, has a certain amount of support. But, unless all signs are wrong, it has no chance to pass, may not even come up for vote. It's a ticklish subject, either way Congressmen vote they will offend powerful interests. They would rather just forget it.

Wheeler-Crosser Bill: This act would make it just about impossible for railroads to dismiss any employees without large compensation. It has unified the support of labor, the unified opposition of railroad magnates. Outlook for passage is highly uncertain.

Ship Subsidy: The merchant marine is vitally interested in regaining lost mail subsidies, claims they are essential to operation. But many Congressmen are on the other side of the fence, and it is doubtful if shipping lines will get pay in line with old levels.

Rural Electrification: This, like all power legislation, is close to the heart of the President. Seems sure to pass both houses. Some of the points business thought objectionable in the original bill will probably be eliminated or changed.

Better Housing: Chaos seems to have struck the housing movement, and the proposed bill to carry on is not given much of a chance of becoming law. Odd fact is that Federal backing of more and better homes was one New Deal idea that had wide support, and was criticized to a much smaller extent than most other controversial proposals.

Congress is going to have to move fast if it covers its calendar and is home in June. About the only thing completed so far has been the Senate's impeachment and removal from office of a Federal judge—one of the very few impeachment trials on record where an official has been found guilty by the necessary two-thirds vote. So, the newspapers of the next few weeks should carry considerable volume of important news from the Capitol.

The extremely conservative publication "Annalist" forecasts that business improvement will continue throughout the second quarter, and in this is seconded by other financial and industrial periodicals. The Annalist adds that "on the basis of economic factors alone the logical expectations would be two or three years of generally active conditions. But the presence of artificial elements suggests that likelihood of intervening peaks and valleys, the timing of which cannot be readily foreseen."

One of the artificial elements is the veterans' bonus, which is believed to have had a strong influence in stimulating business, particularly business whose products are sold on the time payment plan—automobiles, kitchen appliances, real estate, etc. Concerns throughout the country have widely advertised plans whereby veterans can buy now, later when they get their Baby Bonds.

Irrespective of that, basic conditions seem favorable to continuance of business betterment. Wholesale prices have long held to a stable level. There is a vast unfilled market for all manner of goods and services. Heavy industry is reviving. Interest rates are very low, and show no signs of rising. And the purchaser of goods, whether a vacuum cleaner, a car or a home, can get what he wants on much easier terms than ever before.

EIGHTH-GRADE EXAMINATIONS

138 eighth graders and 118 seventh graders took the examinations in April.

The examinations will be given again in the different towns of the county on Wednesday, May 13.

Eighth graders who have passed in all the fourteen subjects with an average of at least 75 and no grade below 60 will not retake any subject.

Seventh graders will take no extra subjects this year as the state department does not approve of their being allowed to take more than four. They may, however, retake a subject, if they wish to, in which they have a grade below 85. No one is to retake a subject in which he or she has a grade of 85 or above.

Only grades of 75 or above hold good from one year to the next for either seventh or eighth graders.

The Promotion Exercises will be held on Saturday afternoon, May 23, at the Municipal Auditorium in Wayne.

Mr. J. T. Anderson, President of the Nebraska State Teachers College will give the address. The Rhythm Band from the lower grades of the Wayne schools will take part. Miss Hazel Reeve, third grade teacher, has charge of them.

I hope that all pupils who pass will be present at these exercises, and that all teachers and parents will try to see that they are here. It is really a great event in the life of a child, something that each one will remember always. The chance comes but once, and if missed can never be recalled. If some child for any reason feels he cannot get here, why couldn't some friend or neighbor who is going, be called and asked if they would have room for an extra person?

Pictures which show something of the progress made in Wayne during the last half century are being displayed in the office window of Martin L. Ringer on Main street.

Wallace Cautions Against Tariffs

Cabinet Man Says Farmers In Danger of Being Sold Down River

That a high tariff policy is no "cure-all for agriculture" was the theme of Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace's talk before the largest crowd ever to gather recently on the University of Nebraska college of agriculture campus. Farmers from several states attended.

"The real question is not whether we want a tariff for farm products," Secretary Wallace declared. "We already have one. The real question is, are farmers going to accept high tariff ideas as a cure-all for agriculture?"

"If they do, I tell you frankly farmers are going to be sold down the river again. Need I remind you how often in the past American farmers were sold down the river on the tariff issue?"

Farm imports in 1935, the secretary said, including tropical produce were worth a good deal less than the 10-year average of one and two-thirds billion dollars. Imports just now are approaching normal. All such imports come over the regular agricultural tariff walls.

Regarding "publicity" on AAA payments, Secretary Wallace diverted from the text of his talk to say that he welcomed such a report. However, he urged that "all hands be put on the table" and that the benefits of the protective tariff to industries be made public also.

Flake, Helen Jones and Kathryn Greenslit, sang numbers and the brass quartette, composed of Dorothy Hook, Frank Gamble, Stanley Johnson and Adele Eddy, played. Refreshments were served.

Annual Poppy Day Saturday, May 23

Poppies will bloom in Wayne on Saturday, May 23, glowing on the coats of remembering Americans in honor of the World War dead. The women of Wayne Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary with Mrs. E. E. Galley, chairman, will offer the poppies on the streets, giving everyone an opportunity to pay tribute to the war dead and to help the war's living victims with contributions given for the little red flowers.

The American Legion poppy not only gives us a means of rendering personal tributes to the memory of those brave young men who sacrificed their lives for America, it also gives us a means of aiding those who also sacrificed but are still within reach of our help. From the annual wearing of the little flower come benefits reaching into every corner of the country and touching the lives of thousands of unfortunate men, women and children.

The vast program of welfare and rehabilitation work carried out by The American Legion and Auxiliary draws its principle support from the poppy. The dimes, quarters and half dollars we drop into the coin boxes of the poppy workers supply the means for local, state and national activities for the benefits of disabled veterans and the families left in need through the death or disability of veterans. The Poppy Day contributions make aid available during the other 364 days of the year to those who are still paying in steady installments the war's bitter debt of suffering and privation.

When we pin on our poppies this year, there should come to us all a vision of the part we are playing in the effort to heal the nation's war wounds. We should look upon our poppies not only as flowers of memory for the dead but as flowers of hope for the living.

Public School Honors Mothers

Mrs. Mary Brittain Honored As Wayne's First Mother In Program Friday

School activities ceased for a short time Friday afternoon in order that all public school children might pay tribute to Mrs. Mary Brittain, Wayne's first mother, at a special Mother's Day program presented in the municipal auditorium by all departments of the school.

"More than fifty years ago," said Supt. C. F. Dienst in introducing Mrs. Brittain, "you became the first mother of Wayne when the town itself was yet in its infancy. That was a long time before we had a day designated as Mothers' Day. But someone has said that 'God couldn't be everywhere, so he gave us our mothers,' and as you represent Wayne mothers here this afternoon, we are happy to have you with us."

Mrs. Brittain Responds

Mrs. Brittain's gracious response was, "A mother is always a mother, and it is impossible for her ever to forget her children. When my children were little, I used to worry about leaving them, and I didn't leave them with hired help though I often wished to attend social gatherings in the evening." Mrs. Brittain also added that today's youngsters are superior physically to those of her generation because modern mothers are better informed as to the best way of rearing them. "Science," she said, "has greatly improved the physical child through more enlightened motherhood."

Following Mrs. Brittain's brief talk, she was presented with a bouquet of flowers by Miss Betty Jean Petersen, a representative of the first grade.

The talk was preceded by a history of Mothers' Day given by Miss Malinda Stuthmann, and two vocal solos by Robert Gibb, representative of the faculty, who was accompanied at the piano by Miss Jeanne Wright. His selections were "Little Mother of Mine" and "Mother Machree".

Miss Joanne Jenik of the fifth grade read "Nobody Only Mother", after which the high school girls' sextette sang, accompanied by Miss Bette Blair. Personnel included Miss Delores McNatt, Miss Betty Wright, Miss Verona Hahlbeck, Miss Lois Thompson, Miss Marian Vath and Miss Betty Hawkins.

Interpret Whistler's Mother

An interpretation of the famous picture, Whistler's Mother, was presented by the Junior high school. Suspended from the stage drapes at the side was an enlarged tinted print of the picture, which added effectiveness to the interpretation as Patty Brown, clad in clothing closely resembling that of Whistler's mother, sat in peaceful repose with hands folded while Margaretta Einung recounted the picture's history, together with a description of its finer points. She concluded by saying, "If Whistler had painted but this one painting, his fame would have been assured."

Shirley Powers concluded the program with the reading, "Mother's Hands."

A Few Amusing Answers From Eighth Grade Examination Papers

Each year Wayne county district school eighth graders turn the tables on their teachers and tell them a few things. Here are a few of the strange answers turned in to questions asked in examinations:

"Why We Celebrate Arbor Day" is because after the World War they signed a paper and since that we had Arbor Day.

Virginia was settled because people wanted to worship freedom as they wished.

The results of the Revolutionary War was a boundary line.

"The Courtship of Miles Standish" is about a man with a gun going to shoot turkeys.

Three characters in "Evangeline" are mother boy and man.

Write a paragraph in appreciation of the sacrifices made by our soldiers, of the cost of wars, and of the price paid in blood for our liberty. Answer—We were the pocket book of all the main wars.

The Declaration of Independence is a paper with all kinds of things made by the president and his cabinet.

The First Continental Congress was organized in 1863 and was a written piece of paper which said the France had to leave the U. S. alone.

Care of the eyes. See your dentist once a year.

We celebrate Arbor Day in honor of birds.

The organs of respiration are nose, eyes, mouth, ears, legs, arms and lungs.

Care of the ears. Do not shout in your ears.

The frame work of the body is the object upon which people grow. The ears will clean themselves.

We celebrate Arbor Day because it is when the people go out to the grave yards and shot over them.

We celebrate Arbor day because that was when the Civil War ended. On Arbor Day we put flags up and sometimes plant trees to replace the ones cut down during the war.

Two purposes of the framework of the body—"To keep the body in shape and to keep the body from bending like a jelly fish.

The eyes must not be het. They must not be picked with pins or other articles.

By respiration we mean sweating. Two organs of respiration are the skin and the pores.

The eyes are very timid. You should take care of your eyes because when you are blind you cannot get any more eyes.

To care for a cold when caught one should always have a handkerchief. Two good habits of eating a meal are not to cough in other things that others eat of, not to comb your hair while eating.

Respiration is breathing in and out air.

One should keep his ears lean.

Do not eat while we are eating.

A good habit one should have when eating you should eat slowly and have a balance bill of affair.

Car for the ear — let it grow freely.

If an insect gets in the ear take it to a doctor.

A desirable quality which a good citizen should have is "Stand by your country as you would by your own dear mother."

McCormick-Deering Mowers Have Always Been Good and the No. 7 Enclosed Gear Mower Is the Best Yet

Come in and go over the entire mower. You'll agree that you have never seen anything like it.

WE are anxious to have all our friends see the new McCormick-Deering No. 7 Enclosed Gear Mower. We think it is one of the finest pieces of farm equipment we have ever sold!

For example: The entire operating mechanism, including drive gears, differential, and countershafts, is assembled compactly in an oil-tight gear housing and runs in a bath of oil. There are four high-grade roller bearings. Operation is so smooth and noiseless that you can scarcely hear the light hum of the sickle!

Special oil seals at the ends of the main axle and fly-wheel shaft, and the oil-tight gear box prevent leakage and protect all working parts against the entrance of dirt and other abrasive materials. Floating action of cutter bar provides ample play without disturbing knife registration.

This compact nest of enclosed gears runs in a bath of oil—a full gallon. The cover, B, makes the gear case dust-proof and oil-tight. Clutch is thrown in and out by lever, A.

The Bystander

By Stan

The recent passing of Mothers' Day causes me to think of not only my good mother but her mother as well. Next to my parents, brothers and sisters, I am sure she was the best friend I ever had. She had beautiful eyes—so dark and penetrating. They had a merry twinkle to them too. She was an excellent cook and housekeeper. Her little brown bungalow was always kept in tip top shape and there was always a bit of well prepared food of some kind in her ice box for the hungry grandchildren she was always glad to see.

Though she was happy all of her life, the last few years were composed of many days of torture with a malady that confined her to her home. She liked to read and took much interest in needlework of various kinds. One of her hobbies was raising plants and birds. She had one of the most remarkable vines I have yet seen. It grew over the tops of doors and windows in her living room. Carefully she trained the vine and each time a grandchild visited her she would mark a place on it and could say on the next visit, "here's how much the vine has grown since you were last here."

Interesting to me was J. P. O'Furey's account of his trip by plane to the nation's capitol, which appeared in the last issue of his good newspaper, The Cedar County News. J. P. with former Governor Arthur

Weaver representing the Nebraska Memorial Commission conferred last week with David Lynn and Charles Fairman architect regarding the placing of life size bronze statues of William Jennings Bryan and J. Sterling Morton in Statuary Hall some time during the coming year. The statues will cost approximately $25,000. In the article the Hartington publisher writes praising of air travel. I had missed seeing brother O'Furey at the Democratic state convention in Omaha last week.

The state convention was something of new experience for me. I had never attended a large political meeting before and consequently seeing at first hand the operation of the machine which makes public officers from Nebraska citizenry was fascinating. True enough there were heated debates. There was lots of oratory and not always the most strict adherence to parliamentary procedure. There were bodesome speakers as well as those who by their eloquence were able to capture and hold attention above the rabble. Wayne delegates were at all times orderly and well behaved with the exception of the one group headed by Martin Ringer who insisted upon lunching with the Republicans at the Fontenelle. That was okeh though inasmuch as they were the guests of Martin's brother Harry who is connected with the company which operates the grand old Omaha hostelry. The great Fleetwood said he ate there because he didn't want the Republicans to get lonesome.

Edgar Howard was at the convention, long white locks, black hat and all the properties which have for so long distinguished him. Frank Korff and I went over to where Mr. Howard was standing in the lobby of the Paxton to say a word of greeting. Shaking our hands, he advised us that he wanted "you kids" to take over the meeting and made it clear that he was back of us.

Friday evening's mail brought me a word of greeting from a newspaperman I would like to meet some time soon. It is Vic Bovee who is employed on J. P. O'Furey's Cedar County News. Vic is a former Wayne college student and was graduated last spring at Iowa State Teachers college at Cedar Falls, where my parents live. I don't believe I know any of those folk you mentioned, Vic, but their names sound familiar. I will look forward to meeting you in the very near future and thank you for the nice comments you made regarding this so-called colyum.

Mary Jane Simpson of Sioux City, visiting here recently wonders about a placard in a Sioux City department store window which states in substance that the men's shop in the store guarantees to fit all men with their shoes and backs up the statement by saying if they can't fit a man they will give him a pair of shoes free. Now will someone be so kind as to inform Mary Jane, myself and others just what in thunder they're getting at. Looks like they're going to have somebody wearing the shoes whether or not!

Mrs. Auker reviewed a story as yet unpublished, "Drouth", which centers around the life of a pioneer family who lived in North Dakota and later Nebraska in the late '90's. The story deals chiefly with the oldest daughter who undergoes the numerous hardships and meets the difficult problems only understood by the early pioneers. At the conclusion, her life is crowned by great happiness, the result of a life of unselfish service. Mrs. Auker surprised her listeners at the close of the review by informing them that the author of "Drouth" is Mrs. Grace Welch Lutgen. Hostess committee for the Friday meeting was Mrs. E. W. Huse, Mrs. F. C. Mills, Mrs. C. L. Pickett, Mrs. J. G. Mines, Mrs. Alice Rickabaugh and Mrs. D. S. Wightman. The next meeting is on May 22.
