

OVER THE STATE.

Northern Need Not Fear.

The following letter from the commissioners general of the land office to ex-Senator Van Wyck regarding a man in whom many persons have confidence is believed to have been made public:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 21st inst., relative to lands patented to the St. Joseph & Denver City railroad company, and to the St. Louis & San Joaquin, which certain said companies never constructed its road. You refer to the unequalled feeling of the purchasers of such lands, and to the fact that other parties are trying to take the same up, but you will note, said company never constructed its road.

The man who has had his name mentioned in attempting to take the St. Louis & San Joaquin up, is Mr. Frank Runyan, a citizen of Omaha, who has had a good reputation.

The man who is the author of the letter, John Barrett, the R. & M. friend who was sentenced some time ago to Omaha by a court of justice, died in St. Joseph's hospital in that city last Friday. Barrett's sentence there was a year, but it may be longer, and otherwise impairs him.

Although the distiller at Nebraska City is slow, June 1, the mail house will continue to do well, the price will remain steady, and the price will continue to be paid to him.

In reply you are advised that there seems to be no present cause for uneasiness in the market of the purchases, and that the friends of the railroads, etc., do not see that it is necessary for them to do anything further at present in regard to the claim, while the rights of the railroads to said lands are outstanding, no further action of that kind can be made by the United States.

With the exception of the railroads, etc., at the end of the United States, the preference right to purchase is given to the railroads from the country, and the railroads, etc., do not see that it is necessary for them to do anything further at present in regard to the claim, while the rights of the railroads to said lands are outstanding, no further action of that kind can be made by the United States.

In reply you are advised that there seems to be no present cause for uneasiness in the market of the purchases, and that the friends of the railroads, etc., do not see that it is necessary for them to do anything further at present in regard to the claim, while the rights of the railroads to said lands are outstanding, no further action of that kind can be made by the United States.

The present cause of anxiety on the part of the citizens of said company is the fact that they claim, is probably due to a misunderstanding of a recent order issued by this office (by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue) to the interior, to reduce or to eliminate, and homestead entry all lands in the interior limits of the state, not covered by the original patent.

This order, as you will readily perceive, does not in any manner affect the title of the railroads, etc., to the lands received in this office it appears that the impression exists in Nebraska that all lands, etc., and company's, which have not been patented, will be subject to the same, and that the same have been approved and patented to the company.

Morris F. T. Pounds.

Alma special to The Omaha. Two more bodies from the wreck at Dove Creek have been discovered. The first is the body of a man of about 20, weight 150 pounds, height 5 feet 4, dark complexion, hair brown, mustache, very thin.

Little Morris, 10 years old, is fully dressed. It was found in the lower portion of the water place as the first body while below the wreck.

The search was suspended until night and adjourned until tomorrow. The leading towards the business a Missouri in Alma is strong that they should be able to find the bodies to recover the bodies of the missing.

Sheriff Allen observed great credit for those who were lost, and the search was continued every day, until the results showed no justification. The Burlington & Missouri company was represented in force at the meeting, and there were two more bodies recovered. Charles Faden is improving.

Douglas, at Orliss, is between His and death.

Killed by a Knocking Match.

Edmund special: A young man named Harrison, son of Mr. Raymond, in this service, was killed by a knocking match yesterday, dying from his injuries the day following. The brother of the young man, Jacob Harrison, was in the city yesterday, and was engaged in searching for his father, who had been in the city for a week, a contractor, and had been working on the new bridge, and was not known where he was. When found, he was not yet over his sorrows, and he departed for home a badly broken-up man.

GENERAL STATE NOTES.

Birds will soon have among her possessions a home of historic note. General L. W. Colby has purchased one of the houses built by the Indians on the site of Turkey Hill, Grand Island, in 1870. It was purchased by General Colby, of U. S. Grant, Jr., and will be shipped to New York in April.

The two state birds, "Lancaster," "Lindens Tree," "Stevens," "Cuckoo," are in a thoroughly Argus home, a solid silver tray about fifteen hours high.

The annual meeting of the state homoeopathic society, held in Lincoln last week, elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Dr. B. Bailey, president; Dr. J. C. Alford, first vice-president; Dr. J. F. Ross, second vice-president; D. E. Forrestal, treasurer; Dr. S. Wood, Omaha, trustee.

The Demarest mill manufacturing company of Boston has laid in articles incorporating under state laws, the value of $100,000, to manufacture windmills, water wheels, and other water supplies. The capital stock is $100,000 in shares of $100 each.

The sale of stamps at the Omaha postoffice during the month of April was $12,621.67, compared with $12,562.67.

The Presbyterian delegates, who are to represent Nebraska at the general synod of that denomination soon to convene in Philadelphia, have been appointed. The names of the delegates are the Rev. Mr. Hamilton of Denver, C. T. Crismon of Kearney, Conest. of Columbus City, W. G. Oliver of Lincoln, Dr. Clark of Omaha, J. H. Wooley of Grand Island, and Mrs. Gamble of Niobrara.

The fourth Omaha session, which last week was $100,000, the total will be $12,500,000. The man who has sold his interest for $10 will have to hand over more than he had.

The Masonic Temple craft of Friends have let the contract for their building to Oliver Smith for $10,775. The building is to be completed December 1st.

Mrs. Edwin E. Philbrick, an Omaha woman who had been described by her husband, engineer, mining and oil worker, as being a woman of good character, and bears a good reputation. The man, who is in the habit of getting drunk, gave two men a revolver, and shot himself, but 7 years, are left to the care of the charitable inclined.

Nebraska City officers arrested Mrs. Frank Runyan on a charge of conspiracy in attempting to take the St. Louis & San Joaquin up, but he was released on bail, but 7 years, are left to the care of the charitable inclined.

John Barrett, the R. & M. friend who was sentenced some time ago to Omaha by a court of justice, died in St. Joseph's hospital in that city last Friday. Barrett's sentence there was a year, but it may be longer, and otherwise impairs him.

Although the distiller at Nebraska City is slow, June 1, the mail house will continue to do well, the price will remain steady, and the price will continue to be paid to him.

The R. & M. has put a new passenger train on the Palmer and Barrell branch.

One of the prominent real-estate dealers two saloonkeepers, two druggists and a number of members of Congress were arrested and brought before the police judge. To show cause why these men were arrested, the bill of indictment was read, which went into effect May 1. The tax was promptly paid by some, while others will probably contest.

Congressman Mrs. Duryea, attorney from Fremont until after the congressional and state conventions.

Quite a number of the Methodists of Omaha held a meeting last week to appoint a committee to go to the general convention of Methodists in New York city, in session in New York city. The purpose of the committee's visit will be to secure the next general assembly of that denomination in Omaha for 1892.

The board of education of Saline is now receiving applications for a male principal of the Sidney schools, and will pay a salary of $125. He must be well educated.

STUDY A MYSTERY.

The Verdict of Artillery
In the Case of the Boys.

AMHERST, N. H., May 8.—Special to the Granite Bee.—The Froese brothers, whose hideous still forms the center of a subject of conversation in all the towns in the state, were yesterday in court on the subject by the deputies, this morning, Miss Emma Froese and her Rev. and Mrs. Froese, brother in law and sister of the former, to Amherst, Washington county, N. H. It was thought here that the party would meet over in the city, but the Froeses, who had been to Boston, were at home.

Mr. Froese, but it was known that he would be but a short stay, because the reverend gentleman was obliged to return to his Kansas charge as soon as possible. When the party left here, it was understood that both Rev. and Mrs. Froese would return to their home at Leavenworth, Kan., where their son would return was not known. It was also understood that the latter was about to go away from his home at Leavenworth, but he had not yet done so, and it was believed that he would be accompanied by his friends, and that if he did, it would be temporary.

When Mrs. Froese, of Kansas, arrived to attend the funeral, after her sister Emma and three sons were interred in the cemetery, she told the coroner they had died, and when we see them are doing it again. They have not died, it is all the same, and they are doing it again.

The Froeses, in their efforts to conceal the presence of several members of the Smith family, who lived on an adjoining farm, and who were present at the same time, were the first to cover the secret. The members of this family as well as the family of the deceased, however, were the last to learn of the secret.

An Immense stock of Wall Paper at John E. McFarland's.

The Wayne Herald.

GOSHORN, & MENTAL Editors.

Largest Circulation of any Paper in Wayne County.

Official Paper of Town and County.

THURSDAY, MAY 17, 1868.

Mrs. Grant has already realized $41,000 from the sales of her husband's memoirs.

Laird was nominated by secessionists in the second district for a third congressional term.

The Mississippi is causing much trouble in the lower country, flooding towns and destroying crops.

Balv Lockwood was nominated again by the equal rights party at Des Moines Tuesday.

Since the Des Moines club so completely shut out the Omahans the city is wearing a wide crepe band on its silk tie.

Nearly all the political Solomons seem to have settled down to the opinion that the Chicago nominees will be either James G. Blaine or Walter Q. Gresham.

Patrick Egan, John M. Thurston, George W. Heist and R. S. Norval were elected delegates at large to the national convention by the republican state convention at Omaha Tuesday.

A large crop of candidates for state treasurer is budding up, seriously and otherwise, all over the state. Nearly every county has, or will have, one in the field. It's the only real fat job among the state offices.

If the name of the man who can carry New York were generally known, how easy it would be to work up the biggest kind of "saloon" for him! He is the man for whom republican politicians, from Maine to California, are anxiously looking, and unless he is discovered by the Caledon committee, the deliverance of that body will be labor thrown away.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

At the Norfolk convention the mention of Allianis called forth some cheers, as did the names of Sherman, and Gresham, and Harrison, and Sheridan, but when the man from Maine was mentioned, the convention burst into cheers as one man, and hats and canes went into the air, and by every means in its power the delegations expressed its admiration for the plumed knight. There was no mistaking where the choice of that convention lay, nor that they fully represented the sentiment of the district.

It was apparent for several weeks before the congressional convention that Mr. Dorey would be renominated, but the majority was larger than anyone expected. Practically there was no organized opposition, the other candidates recognizing the fact; there was no hope of breaking his strength. The newer and western counties were especially enthusiastic.

The representative from this district is called upon to attend to a vast amount of work for his constituents in matters coming before the pension and postoffice departments. This work Mr. Dorey has done cheerfully and thoroughly, while he has not neglected any of the ordinary duties of his position. He has a remarkable capacity for work and is not afraid to do it. Acceptable as his work has been heretofore, the experience he has gained will enable him to accomplish still more for the district the coming term. Of his election there is, of course, not the slightest doubt. It is simply a question of majority.

The "favorite son" will play an important part this year at the national convention of the republicans. Ohio, Iowa, Indiana and other states will send their general delegations pledged to work for a "son" whom the "favorite sons" hailing from those various communities. It is difficult to say just how far state pride should be allowed to go in the selection of a man who may come to rule the nation.

To bind any set of delegates by pledge to a particular way that they only vote for one man, is, of course, what the forces of circumstance may make it propositious and degrading. A delegate who goes into a convention fitted with instructions, and with no right to make his judgment, is positive injury to the party. It may be well enough for the delegations from any state to agree to this, but it is a reasonable hope of carrying the convention for him, but to vote for him blindly at the end, by way of carrying out important instructions is worse than foolish—it is mischievous.—America.

TERENCE CAPFLY says that his sister, Victoria C. Woodhull, will bring $100,000 to this country to found a school of marriage.

ELIJAH ALIX of Melodeboro, Mass., is a lineal descendant in the sixth generation of John Alken of Mayflower fame. He is 97 years of age, but is able to dance a jig with a good deal of vigor and some grace.

A BUFFALO merchant has in his possession the gun from paddock which was used to repel the great gales of Fort George during the war of 1812. It weighs about five pounds, and is considerably eaten with rust.

The Chinese language is spoken by 400,000,000 persons, English by more than 100,000,000, Hindostani by upwards of 100,000,000, Russion by more than 70,000,000, German by 50,000,000, Spanish by 45,000,000, and French by 40,000,000.

MRS. CHRISTINE NILSSON says in a letter to a Philadelphia friend that she is a constant rheumatic sufferer and she fears that she will be obliged to close her professional career at once. She adds that she has not even contemplated another American tour.

PRAIRIE CLEVELAND has adopted the habit of slipping away from his desk for half an hour at short intervals for a sharp walk of two miles through the unfrequented portions of the West End. He is said to have already reduced his weight about twenty pounds.

The greater business in this country is now in railroad construction. More than 100,000 men of all kinds have been shipped from the Maryland beds along the Atlantic coast. In the industry in the state, it is supported besides 1,500 schooners and steamers.

The state of Western Mass. is reported to have a larger income than any other subject of Great Britain. He owns upon now tenement houses and farms, and many square miles of farming land. He receives $50 a minute the rear road, or $2,000 an hour, or $72,000 a day.

A PRASER glass tumbler nine inches tall, with a capacity of eighty ounces, the largest in existence, has been made in Rochester. A special press was constructed to shape the glass and glass-workers regard it as much of a masterpiece in its line as the great steel gun barrels at Pittsburg recently.

In New Jersey the law is that for killing deer out of season the sportsman is fined $50, which goes to the informer. The law is relaxed, however, in the following manner: Two hunters go out together, they kill an equal number of deer, and then one informs the other. By both doing this each one receives the other's fine and they lose nothing.

The Chinese government is, it is reported, about to employ a dozen highly young men as reporters of civil station. They will be chosen by competitive examination and will be sent abroad for two years to study foreign countries. Each will take a speciality to work upon, such as the art of fortification, etc. After two years the government will use the services of each in the department in which he has done best, and the most promising young men will be enrolled.

GEORGE WASHINGTON, George Cleveland, Henry Clay, Edward Everett, U. S. Grant, and Matthew Arnold, among the men who draw salaries from the government as policemen and marshals on the Indian reservations, Benjamin F. Butler receives $8 a month for his services as a policeman on a Nevada reservation. Washington Irving is paid $500 for working a government farm in Washington territory, while Schneider Coffey obtains $60 a year as a carpenter in the same locality.

AN old Plymouth Rock hen that had been for ten years the pet of a lady in Norwich, Conn., died recently. She weighed four pounds, but was appreciated chiefly on account of her intelligence. She knew when it was meal time as well as a regular boarder, and ate regularly for her food, all raw. Her hen, Mrs. O. O. O., a black and white fowl, was the lion of the neighborhood. She always wanted a chat with her mistress daily, and when she was not feeling well would cease to be held in her lap and rocked by pulling her mistress' apron.

This curious custom of sending cards to each member of the family, according to an etiquette, has long caused much trouble in the States. A Wisconsin woman says that one day a servant brought his mistress a dozen cards. She went into the drawing-room prepared to hold a reception on a small scale, and her consternation may be imagined when she found that one woman came to represent the numerous cards she had received. Her quizzical glance, as it passed over her, told her that she was not up to the new etiquette of Washington, and she was unable to call for a card and had sent up her own, with her husband's and her son's, and had to the three members of the household.

The message of Governor Hill telling the high license bill is simply a quit claim deed transferring the state of New York to the republican column. This is the one true ruling feature of the transaction.—Philadelphia Press.

It is just as well to note the fact that no other candidate except Judge Gresham has received the full endorsement of any state except his own. It can be further remarked that this was not given because it was asked for by Judge Gresham, but for the reason of lack of men who are statesmen, and even "favorite sons"—Interior Ocean.

SIBERIA.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE, George Roman's

WISCONSIN JOURNAL.

MOST interesting contribution to secret history is the "Journal of a Journey to Siberia and the Baltic System," by George Roman, of Milwaukee, who is the May Century magazine. They will embody the results of his researches, which he believes to be the first successful and complete personal investigation to make a thorough study of the Arctic regions.

Mr. Roman, author of "The Life of Lincoln," was thoroughly conversed with the people and the land, and the Russian Government had been misrepresented, and that the station of Siberia was not so bad as was commonly known.

Knowing that Mr. Roman had these facilities, the Russian Government gave him every facility for a thorough extraction of mines and resources.

He has written a book which had ever been made by a traveler. Armed with his knowledge of the Russian interior and other high officials, he went everywhere inspecting mines and forests, and the like, and made a complete tour of the country, traveling with chariot teams along the great Siberian road. He made the intimate acquaintance of the Tartars, the hundred exiled "liberals" and nihilists, of whom were cut their banners for his use, and the Tartar women, whom he met in the course of his travels, were very hospitable.

This searching investigation, far exceeding any previous one, has resulted in a thrilling narrative fifteen months of privation and adventure will show.

Mr. Roman's preliminary paper has resulted in the "Black List."

ON THE BLACK LIST.

BY THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT, and consists of a list of names of persons who have committed acts of treason, or of a性质 of article torn out by the custom officials before being allowed to enter the country.

"I expected, of course," says Mr. Roman, "that I would be put on the Black List, but I am only thankful that I succeeded in crossing the frontier that way. I became satisfied before I got half way across that I was safe."

PERTINENT POINTS.

"Papa, what is a 'fable'?" "A tall story made up for the sake of fun that we tell each other just for fun, and we have a good time."

What mainly puzzles the small boy when he begins to study politics is this: How can it happen that a dream master has never been elected president? Unknown Author.

Col. Mustafa, of guerrilla fame, is making money practicing law in California. Practicing law is as near as a man can come in times of peace to being a guerrilla. Mosaic Reporter.

Journalism is evolving, working out our results when the New York papers have editorials daily on the condition of the poor monkey. Senator Blaine, who was a good old boy, when he died, didn't say "Goodbye."

The word "diarrhoea" is pronounced four ways in the senate. The statesmen who have but little of their own will say "diarrhoea" with the accent on the "oe," while the boozers say "diarrhoea" and have down hard on the "u." Minneapolis Tribune.

The critics go right on assailing Willard Huntington and William Dean Howells, giving right of packing one out of his typewritten manuscript, the interesting little slates of the outer edge of his government bonds just as if he were the favorite of the whole nation. Chicago Tribune.

The woman's suffrage idea is truly great. One phase of it is but just now illustrated by a letter from a Nebraska lady to her husband, who is visiting in Pasadena, asking him how she should vote on a certain school question soon to come before the people in her town. Passaic (N.J.) Citizen.

An honest American lumberman can not cast his nets within three miles of the Canadian shore under the new treaty, but a dishonest American lumberman can land at any port in that country without molestation. This is the sort of international justice that strains at a bird-seed and swallows a gnat. Montgomery (Conn.) Constitution.

St. Peter, the boy George Washington at the drug store, and son of the baking powder at the grocer's, and son took them home and placed them lovingly side by side on the pantry shelf. That night when she mixed the biscuits, that is, the enjoyment of perfect health.

But why go into further particulars? Only four of the family died. Detroit Free Press.

St. Peter, at the gate, to strangers: "Well, what do you want?" Stranger: "We want to enter." St. Peter: "We're not open." Stranger (anxiously): "May we wait?" St. Peter: "Where's the earth?" Stranger: "I left it when I came here." St. Peter: "Oh, did you?" Walk in. I guess the newspaper has been lying about you." Washington (D.C.) Star.

The Great Carnot.

Some foreign journalists are called up by the Swiss newspapers, the famous grandfathers of the present president of France. The last of the Carnots in the Vanu, Victor von Bernstein, gave a magnificent hall in the castle of Nyon, at which Mme. de Staél and other French emigrés were guests. When the gentry were at the highest, the guests were astonished at seeing a lean and hungry-looking man with a very pale face, clothed in rags, with dead-toothed teeth, who had just come out and was appearing in their midst. Her von Bernstein ordered his servant to eject the intruder. But the man slowly dragged his way toward the host, and exclaimed: "Sir, I am dying of hunger. I have come to beg you for shelter. I am Carnot!" The music ceased, the dancing stopped, and everybody cringed eagerly around the door, at the end of September. Herr von Bernstein led him into another room, where he gave him a change of clothes and a supper. The following day he received money and a passport from the "high and mighty lords of Nyon," which was then the most aristocratic of republics, to continue his melancholy odyssey. When Carnot, some years later, was minister of war under the first consul, he learned that Vicomte de Bonaparte had been born near Nyon, so he invited his old benefactor to Paris, where the Swiss exile enjoyed the hospitality of Napoleon Bonaparte.

A Shrank Story.

The most unaccountable story related for some time is wafted from the northwest quarter of the city. A certain family had been troubled by the presence of one of the odorous animals and an enterprising domestic had the courage one day last week to set the family dog onto him. After coming in contact with the shrank the canine master, rushing into the room, showed he had gone mad, and at once proceeded to roll upon the carpet and make use of the same for a handkerchief. The result has been that the good people of the house have taken up the carpet and given it a bath, and have tried nearly every available scheme to rid their domestic of the terrible pestilence that pervades it, but with little avail. The story is a sorry one, and it may be formed necessary to furnish the entire time now before the gods will hear. Oakland Northern.

"What is your idea of a true gentleman?" "A true gentleman is one who always acts in a series of acts and never says he needs a bath." Boston Courier.

The Reason Why

Ayer's Pills are so popular in the white stable, especially as a cathartic medicine, they never leave any other stable, and are sold in every grocery, and entirely free from pain, and entirely safe.

In all cases, therefore, whether the patient be old or young, they may be confidently administered.

In the Eastern and Western States, where degeneracy of the liver has proved an estimable blessing. D. W. Bain, New Haven, N. C., writes:

"I find a long time with stomach trouble after a drive, rather rank, but received no benefit until I commenced taking Ayer's Pills. The benefit has been great. I took regularly for a few months, and my strength has increased."

Throughout New England, next to long diseases, Stomach and Bowel Complaints are the most prevalent.

Dyspepsia.

and Constipation are almost universal.

Mr. Gallacher, a practical chemist, of Roxbury, Mass., who was long troubled with Dyspepsia, writes:

"A friend induced me to try Ayer's Pills, and I was greatly pleased with them, however, I was disposed to quit them, but urged perseverance, and Mrs. Harriet A. Marsh, of Foughkeugh, N. Y., who had been suffering from a severe attack of dyspepsia, and never found anything to give her more than temporary relief, recommended Ayer's Pills, since which she has been in the enjoyment of perfect health."

The head and stomach are in sympathy, hence the cause of most of our intestinal trouble, we are not alone, especially women, are subject.
