"So far as heard from," says the Lincoln Journal, "the republicon state press is overwhelmingly in favor of the state printing bill." Which shows that the Journal has not heard from any portion of the republican state press except the part represented by the Lincoln Journal.

The southern papers are using the memorial sent to congress some time ago by the Nebraska state alliance, s an immigration document. They draw w distressing picture of the con-dition of the farmers of the northwest and cite the official declaration of the alliance to prove that the picture is not overdrawn.

The passage of the bill granting a bounty on all sugar produced in the state is expected to give a great impetus to the raising of sugar beets and pessibly sorghum. If the culture is as great a success as the promoters of the scheme predict, Nebraska will econ be producing her own sugar.

This is sufficent proof, if proof were needed, that the twine trust is a twine steal.

The town of Oskaloosa, Kansa gained a great deal of advertising by electing a mayor and council entirely by women. They made such an im ement in the moral and material condition of the town that the expe iment begun last year as a joke is to be repeated this year because it is believed that the women will administer the city government better than any men that could be elected.

This is about the course a saloos order takes in Omnha. The mayor sends orth an edict that the law must be ed, and all saloons bermetically sealed on Sunday. A week later it is understood that no objectim will be made to a side door business. Another week goes, and the enty restric-is that the places must be kept quiet and orderly. One week more and the band plays and they go on just the rame as before the mayor had his pasm of virtue.

John Rosenbarger, a farmer living near Creighton, shot and killed a neighbor named Castaline, Tuesday, n a quarrel over some cattle. Ros nbarger then went home, dng a hole in the cellar, and arranged a quantity of shavings so that they would fire the building. He then got into the hole, set fire to the shavings, and shot himselt through the head. The huild-ing burned to the ground, and Ros-enbarger's remains were found by the neighbors burned to a crisp.

John Bright, the famous English orator and statesman, died yesterday His course during the civil war, when his sympathies were strongly enlisted on the side of the Union at a time when it was the popular thing in Eng land to side with the confederacy, gave him a warm place in the regard of the people of the North.

The Thurston county bill passes the house yesterday, and now if the courts decide that the matter was one over which the legislature had con trol, the part of Wayne county known as the reservation is gone from us forever. We are sorry to lose it, but if it must go the rest or the county will try to get along somehow.
