ANNOUNCEMENTS.

CLERK. I hereby respectfully announce to the voters of Wayne county that I am an independent candidate for the office of County Clerk for the ensuing term.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT. I hereby announce myself as an independent candidate for County Superintendent for the ensuing term.

EDWARD NELSON. The entire republican ticket will be elected.

Guy A. Brown, clerk of the supreme court, is dead.

There is a strong reaction to some of the campaign yaras.

See that the ticket you vote corresponds to the one at the head of this column.

The republican ticket needs not a single scratch. It is a good one to vote straight.

Another change is to be made in the two-cent postage stamp. It will be considerably smaller than at present, and will be a bright carnation instead of green.

The executive committee decided Saturday to place the name of J. E. Hanson on the republican ticket for surveyor. He is doubtless the best qualified for the office of any man in the county. See that his name is on the ticket you vote.

The government has made arrangements with the Union Pacific and the Central Pacific by which the fast mail from Chicago will connect with a fast train at Omaha which will run through to San Francisco on a schedule of forty-four miles an hour.

With a national republican majority of more than two hundred in Wayne county there is no excuse for permitting any republican on the ticket to be beaten. It is time to lay aside the personal grudges and dislikes and with a hearty good will support the ticket as fairly nominated.

A gentleman asked the other day why we had said nothing in regard to Mr. Wittler, the candidate for commissioner. It is not necessary. He will be elected by a big majority without any question. He is one of the most progressive, intelligent, and best-pedigreed German-American farmers in the county. It has been a complaint on the part of the Germans in the county that they have had no representation in the board of commissioners, but that will remedy this. It is the pleasure of Mr. Wittler to make no attempt to enervate his acquaintance. If a visitor says to the dog, "Hello, I want to see you," Gibbon is at once by his side, and even his master can not call him away when his tongue has been loosened under his guidance. He will lead the way to the entrance of the glen as sedately as though he knew the responsibility of his duty, and will conduct him through unerringly, going a few steps in advance and stopping now and then as if to call attention to the beauties of the scenery. He will never desert anyone whom he sets out to escort and he will follow the Jefferson house besides to take a meat in the glen Gibbon will wait until he is ready to return. He is more to be depended upon than a school-girl, and giving him some of this delicacy is the surest way to win his favor. When he rides he always sits upright on the seat of the carriage by the side of the person in whose company he has started out. In going through the glen if a fortuitous case on the wrong path Gibbon will at once drop a few steps behind, and nothing on earth will get him ahead again until the way has been retraced—the right path regained, when he will bound ahead with every manifestation of pleasure. At no moment will he try to catch the person he is with by the clothes and pull him the right way.

It is reported that the democratic candidate for county superintendent has an idea that he will be elected. We do not believe it. Mr. Panabaker is an excellent teacher, and a young man of altogether too good judgment to believe that he can beat Mr. Howard. As he himself said to us a short time before his nomination: "The progressive teachers in the county, who wish to improve, are all in favor of Howard and hope to see him re-elected." And they will. The republican defection is small and is a purely personal matter. For every republican vote Howard loses he will gain a half a dozen democratic votes. The county has never had a better superintendent than W. E. Howard, to say the least, and the voters of the county recognize that fact and will be governed by it. We supposed that of course Mr. Panabaker understood that he was running merely as a matter of form.

At a union labor meeting in Garfield precinct Monday night, Warner Starr, who thinks he carries the union labor vote in his little vest pocket, denounced it as an outrage that the county should send to Germany for a commissioner to stand between the county's wants and the people, and tried to be smart by making fun of the "one-eyed Dutchman." Just as though Mr. Wittler did not know more with one eye than Starr does with two, or as if the people cared a pinyon what his nationality is as long as they know that he will make a good commissioner. They prefer an honest, intelligent German like Mr. Wittler to the prize crank who is the union labor candidate for the same place. The man who tries to secure votes by denouncing Germans is simply showing what an ass he can be to his toes.

Rosewater, of the Bee, asked permission to answer a charge made by Helen M. Gouger in an address at Tekamah, that he had accepted a bribe of four thousand dollars for opposing the prohibitory amendment. Instead of permitting him to be heard, Helen caused him to be arrested for disturbing the meeting.

Nothing has induced us on the part of the republicans can possibly be. Mr. Dilts for clerk, and there should not be a question of his election by a good big majority. He is well qualified, was fairly nominated, and should receive the vote of the party.

We have heard different democrats claiming that some certain candidate on the republican ticket would be defeated, but we have yet to hear of any one rash enough to say there is a doubt of Judge Martin's election.

When the votes for treasurer have been counted Perry will have about as many as both the other candidates together. Will the gentlemen who were going to beat Jack so easily just make a note of this.

The floozies at the county convention drew a strict line. It would be a foolish thing for the republicans to step over it.

THE FOUR-FOOTED GUIDE.

A remarkable dog which comes from the State of Wisconsin was once the guest at the Jefferson house in Watkins will be greeted on its arrival by a large, handsome, well-fed dog with a tony name, says The Elmira (N. Y.) Advertiser. This is Gibbon, famous far and near as the only living guide to Watkins glen. Gibbon is a remarkable animal, with more sagacity even than the dog which the girl with the laughing eyes possessed in Glenville Murray's tale. For the past eight years Gibbon has accompanied every tourist, and has been petted and caressed by thousands of women and children, and Gibbon is a very gallant dog, and a great admirer of the ladies, whom he is particularly proud to stir through the glen, watching after their safety with great care. The dog is an aristocratic fellow, too, and only likes well-dressed people. He will growl at the approach of a man in poor clothes, and when escorting ladies he has been known to snort on a woman who possessed a zealous was he his protection of the fair tourist; but ordinarily Gibbon is one of the best-natured dogs in the world, and will allow ladies and children to pet him all day long, accepting their attentions with quiet dignity. He never plays with the other dogs about the street, but holds himself apart from the canine company, and is a curious trait in that although ready to guide a guest of the Jefferson house to the glen and through it he will never mix with a pack of the village dogs. He seems to know the tourists and pleasure seekers he invites, and will come up to them and draw their attention by a rub of the nose or a touch of the paw. He seems to know that the republican ticket does not want to visit the place.

A Fight to the Death. We learn from an observer that a bull was waded along in the edge of the Flint River swamp last Monday, nipping ears and keeping cool, when a large alligator made a dash at its nose, but missed a hold. The bull made fight, and prodded the alligator with his horns. Then commenced a fierce and bloody encounter in the shallow water that beggars description. The yator struck with his tail and snapped furiously with his huge jaws, tearing the skin and flesh in big strips from the bull. The bull got his horns into the yator's sides and flung his huge carcass toward a high and dry on the ground, and following up with a deep lunge rushed again upon its foe. The alligator met him with a terrible blow of its tail, knocking off one horn and bringing the bull to his knees. The other horn got it under a fore leg of the yator and the yator getting a frog's foot of the bull in its mouth they became locked and rolled and scrambled ferrially. They got into the water again, where after a brief struggle, both expired. The carcass of the yator was proceeding to several places, while the bull was nearly stripped of hide and flesh.—Sumner (Tex.) Republican.

WELL FIGHTED THE U. P.

A BARRAGE OF THE U. P. WILL NOT BE TOLERATED.

Other Companies Proposed to Have a Share in Western Traffic—Dakota Wants Highest Discrimination—Report of the Supervising Inspector at Steam Station.

War on the U. P. Arrangement.

Omaha, Oct. 25.—The situation of the Union Pacific under its new traffic arrangement with the Northern states will not be of long race.

Really there is a tacit if not a written agreement on the part of the U. P. to let the Union Pacific get every possible point.

To understand the situation thoroughly it is necessary to go back to 1885, when the famous tripartite agreement was made between the U. P., the Rock Island and St. Paul.

A cast-iron contract was at that time entered into by the three roads which provided for the highest discrimination in their every particular.

The agreement was for twenty years and could be terminated out on a year's notice. Up to this notice has been given by the U. P. to the Rock Island and St. Paul.

Soon after the agreement was forced the Burlington branch of the U. P. was established, and the U. P. was forced to fight the Rock Island and St. Paul.

"See you departing tramp's wretched pants look?" "Yes, that is certainly wretchedness in the extreme."

A Pennsylvania man referred to his having made a fortune out of a sand bank. Few succeed in making a fortune without sand.

The old-fashioned self made man in politics was not perfect, but he was much more than the machine-made article of the present day.

"Mr. Banks are you a socialist?" "No Bobby, why?" "I expected that you were some agin' hold fire first, son of a gun out of the window."

It is an odd fact, but it is truer than most preaching, that the more young writers correct of what they write the more they can sell of what they write.

"I will relieve the people of the burden of taxation" said the alderman as he shouldered a bag containing the city's funds, and bought a ticket to Ontario.

"Look here, my friend, you'd drink." "Yeshir," "But I understand you are a strong prohibitionist." "I am prohibitionist, but I'm noh big led."

Charges of plagiarism still continue. It is hinted that successful and hitherto unsuspected farmers crib the stores of their corn magazines from nature's cereals.

"Now really, what was the most astonishing thing you saw in Paris, Mr. Spicer," asked Miss Gusher, and without a moment's hesitation Seth answered, "My hotel bill."

The man who is putting up a store for the first time in his life can't see for the life of him what there is in the operation that the blamed newspaper paragraphs find so funny.

SPOKANE FALLS NEW LINE.

The Union Pacific Railway, having completed its new line to Spokane Falls, Washington Territory, is running its trains direct to that point, thus forming the most desirable route from the East on account of its Pullman palace sleeping cars, Pullman dining cars, and other Spokane colonist sleepers.

Spokane Falls is situated in the Pacific country and the shipping center for a section of the Northwest, the resources of which are unlimited. As an illustration, the raising of crops has been raised from 1,000 acres of land. Another feature of the country greatly conducive to the raising of crops is the raising of stock, no rain falling while crops are being harvested.

Many desirable farms may be had in this remarkably productive region on reasonable terms, and a more favorable opportunity for procuring a farm cheap than has ever been presented before.

For pamphlets descriptive of the country, or for rates, times tables of maps pertaining to the Union Pacific Railway, apply to your nearest ticket agent, any agent of this company, or the undersigned.
