HUMAN WEAKNESS

A Dakota Legislator Succumbs to a Cross-Eyed Syren.

A GASTLY FIND IN TRIAL FOR WIFE SLAUGHTER.

FINANCE, S. D., MARCH 11.—

Representative Samuel S. Darrah, of Minnehaha county, Saturday night attempted suicide by poisoning and remained in a precarious condition all night and Monday. The facts show that he was bewitched by one of the demagogues of the city called "Frankie," who he secured to go with him and become his mistress. This she refused to do, and in a drunken frenzy over the matter he attempted to take his own life. It is stated he disgraced him in the eyes of the world, and he would give the greater part of his life had the affair not occurred. He was one of the most popular and able men in the legislature last session, and has a wife and five children at home. The ail or creates intense surprise and commiseration among politicians, state officials and citizens generally.

It Was a Ghastly Find.

New York, March 11.—The partly decomposed body of a well-dressed woman, about 35 years old, was found in the cellar of No. 3 Eldridge street. The head was cut off, and the body was found in a pool of blood. A pair of gold rings was in the case. The murder was probably committed some time ago. The body has been presented from decay by freezing. The whole body was terribly bruised, as if by kicks. The nose and jaw are broken and the skull fractured. Shreds of human skin clinging to the shoes had indicated that the woman fought hard for her life. The beginning of the letter was found in the woman's pocket. It contained the words "Feb. 16, 1890, My Dear Fred." This was written in Hebrew. The remainder of the letter had been torn off. The upper part of the house was searched, but no body was found. The woman's name was Jacob Jacob, the man who on Feb. 16 last was killed in the street. Kogetski, badly wounded Mrs. Kogetski, sat on her son, and finally committed suicide. Jacobs had a very bad reputation in the neighborhood, and was said to have had trouble with several women. The police think he was the murderer.

Explosive Failure.
Columbia, Mo., March 11.—A mob of several hundred men prepared a cannon and rode into the town of Sny Leary with the avowed purpose of attacking the jail and freeing George Turner, who had killed his brother-in-law, Edward Gray, on Friday. When the mob reached the jail, they were met by the police force, armed with pistols, and killed 14 men. After making further hostile demonstrations and threats of returning for Turner later on the following day, the mob finally dispersed, but further trouble is feared. Sheriff Nichols, with a strong posse, is searching the jail, and is determined to shoot the prisoner at his hazards.

The Romance of a Murderer.

Dallas, Tex., March 11.—Tom Angus, who is held on the charge of shooting and killing Charles Bradley, the well-known baseball man, on Jan. 24, 1889, was married on Feb. 22 to Martha E. Shipp, a pretty brunette of this city, for whom he had formed a strong attachment prior to the murder. The young woman's frequent visits to the jail had given her a much greater knowledge of the case than she desired to reveal by marrying his devoted sweetheart. Angus was now acted by the sheriff to the home of the young woman, where the ceremony was performed. He was then returned to jail.

Crow's Victim Not Recovered.

Chicago, March 11.—Police Officer Emmett Brincoe, who was shot Friday evening by the young Iowa thief, Patrick Crowe, is still alive at Mercy hospital, but there is a slight chance for his recovery. His injuries, which are extensive, were such that the wound is still festering, and will not heal in a few days. The prisoner is still confined in the Alcatraz and is suffering greatly from his mangled hand. He is now devoting himself to praying for the recovery of his victims, declaring that if either of them dies he will commit suicide.

Ownership Life Shifts with the Water.

Washington, March 11.—The court affirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of Jeffers against the East Omaha Land company. This case involves the title to a tract of land on the bank of the Missouri river opposite Omaha, formed by gradual accretions and deposits of sand and gravel. The court decided in favor of the land company and holds that where a water line is the boundary of a lot, the limit of the lot is bounded by the water line and shifts with water.

Ball Player on Trial for Wife Murder.

New York, March 11.—The trial of James Sloum, the base ball player, for the murder of his wife, began here. Several witnesses testified that Sloum had threatened to kill his wife. Counsel for Sloum said that he had no testimony for him and he would offer no testimony for the defense.

The Law's Lastity.

Nonstrous, Pa., March 11.—Frank Hanson, a young German who last week brutally outraged a 7-year-old girl, was sentenced to eight years' imprisonment.

A NEBRASKA PLEADY.

Charles W. Heard by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Lincoln, Neb., March 11.—Frank G. Kretschmer, a special agent, is here to arrange the preliminaries for the session of the late state-commerce commission. Attorney General-Lesse has formulated a complaint entitled the Nebraska State Board of Transportation against the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, the Chicago and Northwestern, the Union Pacific, the Chicago Rock Island and Pacific, and the Missouri Pacific railways. These roads, with their various branches, do the carrying business between Nebraska points and Chicago, St. Louis and other eastern markets. The complaint asserts that Nebraska is an agricultural state, producing large quantities of corn and other grains, which are now ready for shipment to the city of Chicago, which is generally the best market for all grain raised in this state. That the same demand and, consequently, are so high, unreasonable, exorbitant and excessive as to almost amount to a prohibition on shipments.

A Prohibition on Shipments.

That prior to the taking effect of the interstate-commerce act corn was shipped from Lincoln and common Nebraska points to Chicago, or to other eastern points, at a rate of 10 cents per 100 pounds; that since that time the rates have been greatly increased and the rate now is 20 cents per 100 pounds; that the rate per 100 pounds is a just and reasonable rate for such grain, which is a quantity of corn shipped has increased at least 100 per cent. in volume in the last year; that the distance to the eastern markets via St. Louis is much greater than the distance to the east from Chicago to the seaboard, while the amount of freight to the seaboard is double that from St. Louis to Chicago; that the actual cost of the same goods and services from St. Louis to Chicago is less than one-half of the cost from Chicago to the seaboard.

THE IOWA LEGISLATURE.

The Resolution Providing Uniformity in School Text Books Passed.

The Iowa legislature has passed a resolution providing uniformity in school text books. The resolution was introduced during the session of the legislature in April, 1889, and was passed by a vote of 21 to 2. A special order for Monday next, and the bill introduced, was requiring the display of United States flags on schools in towns of 1,000 inhabitants and over, and providing favorable instruction. A joint resolution favoring the same was also passed. The resolution was discussed at some length. A resolution was introduced calling for a joint resolution reducing the rate of a tax levied on April 1, 1889, and was passed.

went over under the rule. A concurrent resolution was adopted calling a joint convention for Thursday, March 13, at the University of Nebraska, to elect delegates to the state institutions.

VICTORY FOR HENRY.

Changing the Legal Status of Colorado's Big Irrigating Canals.

Denver, March 11.—The master's report in the celebrated case of T. C. Henry against the Travelers' Insurance company of Hartford, was filed. The report finds a cash balance due Henry of $24,000.00 and there should be a return of $1,000.00 on the cancellation of Henry's obligation. The master finds that these obligations have been paid to the Travelers' Insurance company by reception of bonds of various irrigation companies of Colorado with which Henry has been connected. All claims made by Henry for misappropriation of money by Henry to Adams and Colorado are denied by the master. This result affects the most important agricultural interests and changes the legal status of many of the big irrigation canals of Colorado.

A Contract Labor Problem.

Washington, March 11.—The board of immigration of Florida have taken in hand the difficult problem of supplying domestic servants to households in that state. They have agreed to supply 1,000 servant-girls with places in that state at wages ranging from $10 to $10 per month. These girls are to come from Norway and Sweden. That there might be much in the arrangement, the board has asked the secretary of the treasury if there are any provisions of the alien contract labor law which will prevent the girls from coming into this country. The board explains that no contract is made in advance and that the law exempts domestic servants from becoming a public charge. This law, when they arrive here, provide for them, removes them from the danger of becoming a public charge. This law is comprised of Governor Fleming, Secretary of State Crawford, and Commissioner of Agriculture Womack. Secretary Womack will in a day or so answer the request in the affirmative, sending out the servants to be thrown around their plans to prevent the law from being abused.

THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1890.

Norfolk is going to have a sugar starch factory, and a government building—nearly time.

Since O'Neill has had two disastrous fires it proposes to have some protection before any more come.

Illino and Wyoming will be called by authority to enter the silver road of states before congress adjourns.

Fremont's building bill has received a favorable report from the congressional committee and will probably go through.

Madison is determined to have a better sugar establishment and is willing to put up any reasonable amount of money to get it.

Chicago has satisfied the congressional world's fair committee that the ten million dollars pledged can easily be raised by the city.

When the Missouri Pacific gets ready to build it, the Omaha & Yankton road will be built. Until that time it will be nothing but a dream.

The Harrington branch, which has been extended to Yankton regularly every summer since it was built, is being extended again in the same old way.

Commander McCulla was out west his inhuman treatment of him would be likely to result in a lynching with McCulla in the principal position.

Another paper railroad under the title of Kearney, Denver & Northwestern has filed articles of incorporation. Wayne county is mentioned as one of some dozens that it will pass through in northern Nebraska.

It is apparent that Melkethoff, Cully, Kinkaid, Norris, McKish, Valentine and others of the big three are growing more and more restless from day to day. They have their eyes on west under the dome of the capital—Fremont Tribune.

The Norfolk News had an editorial last week on "Independent Journalism" that was really a notice to the business men of the city that while the News was given a better support, Norfolk would be without a daily paper pretty quick.

We fail to see any good reason why the people of the Missouri and Mississippi valleys should take any great interest in having congress appropriate money to establish a system of irrigation in the arid belt. If it should be successful it would add millions of acres to the crop area and vastly to the produce seeking a market. What the farmers of the country, and the central agricultural states need is an increase in the number of consumers, not an increase in the number of producers.

A THURSTON COUNTY MAN ON THE SITUATION.

FENDER NEB., MAR. 8TH, '90.
EDITOR OF WAYNE HERALD:

Dear Sir:—I want to say just a word or two in regard to an editorial in the Fender Times, distorting some of the facts for the benefit of the WAYNE HERALD.

Kind sir, I am a taxpayer in the precinct referred to, and can furnish proof by five-tenths of the taxpayers in this precinct, that the Wayne county is paying $4.00 for the privilege of residing in Thurston county on every dollar legal tax they pay. That is, where taxes are five times higher in Thurston county than in Wayne county.

He says that it is no use in contributing it because no intelligent man will believe it. Perhaps not, but this thing is certain; every man in this precinct, intelligent or otherwise, will have to believe it. There may be a few instances where there are not much difference, but on an average they are about $3 in Thurston county and $1 in Wayne county.

When the prime movers for the new county circulated their petition they had had work to get a majority of signers. Quite a number of their signers were voters but not taxpayers, and some signed the petition in opposing a boom that would give them a chance to sell out. The boom went the other way, and some were sorry for their action in less than twenty-four hours after signing the paper. One man said he didn't sleep any for a week. He was giving penance for his foolishness. Quite a number who signed the petition, after re-considering, signed the remonstrance.

Now, friend HERALD, fully one-half of the taxpayers on this reservation were not in favor of the new county, and I'll tell you why. 1st, we came here to stay and can't afford to be taxed out of existence for the purpose of furnishing a few soreheads their bread and butter. 2nd, while not doubting the area of Thurston county, we thought the time had not arrived for a new county, and since the assessment and levy of taxes, we are more than convinced that the time had not come.

Just think of it Mr. Editor, thirty sections of land in our county, six sections less than a government township. And these thirty sections settled by men who came here to get a home and if they had to come right down and pay for their land, the benefits of them are not able to meet it. Our valuation (and it is a high one, too) including the county seat of Pender, is $250,000, and $100,000 is what we are going to get from the Indians, making $240,000. Now I don't know just what it takes to run a county but my estimate would be about $10,000. Our valuation will raise about $3,000 for county expenses. We are in the $10,000, and only eight months old. It's going to be tough on us, to make the best of it. As a granger stated a few days ago, if it don't suit the county it'll quit us. If the rest of the reservation, or a portion of it, were opened to settlement, it would help us out some, but the Indians have their land and have the privilege of living on it or get most of them take the latter. Their land is not taxable and will not be for twenty-five years, so we have the privilege of paying an outrageous tax just for the privilege of living in Thurston county.

With regard to the county commissioners, I think the taxpayers had better take the time in hand and have a guardian appointed for them. I would like to see the money enough to pay a year's subscription to the paper, but I can't do it. Taxes are so high that it will take scratching to get our taxes this year, and the commissioners encourage us by saying they won't do so high next year, but we don't believe it. K. KICKER.

MISSIONS.

THE SEYMOUR DISTRICT MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The question is often asked, "What part the money I pay for Missions goes directly to the cause of Missions?" A careful reading of the following will give the person a correct idea of the expenditures of the Seymour Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Support a man gives one hundred dollars to missions. It can be certain it will go as follows:

1st. To Home and Foreign Mission field $34.68. A little more than one-half of this into the foreign field, the rest is used in the U. S.

2nd. For incidental expenses $2.70. This includes traveling expenses of the bishops to visit our missions throughout the world. The expenses of the General Committee, which meets once a year to say how the missionary money received shall be used, the traveling expenses of the missionaries to and from the fields of labor, postage on missionary correspondence, bills of exchange, legal services and for money placed in the Annual Fund, which in a short time comes back many fold. Money is often placed at our disposal upon which the donor received an income during life. For instance, Harold Dalmer, seven years ago, donated to the Seymour Society $6,000, upon which the society paid interest at 6 per cent. That interest was charged up to incidental expenses from year to year. At the death of Harold Dalmer the whole sum was available for use in the general work. The larger part of the money used in the incidental expense column goes to pay interest on these annuity funds.

3rd. Official expenses $2.08. These are the salaries paid to missionary secretaries. Their traveling expenses in visiting our annual Conference, and the necessary expenses of their already occupied by our churches and the establishing of new fields, stationery used, etc.

4th. For disseminating Missionary literature $4.00. Printing tracts, maps, etc., to give a more intelligent idea of the work of this great society. Study these facts and you will be satisfied that none of the funds you contribute to the cause of God, by giving to the cause of missions will be misapplied, but all will be used secretly for the glory of God and the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom.

A Serap of Paper Saved Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physician that she was incurable and could live only a short time. She weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery and got a sample bottle. It helped her breathe, a large bottle it helped her more, bought another and gave better food, continued his work and now stands in healthy, robust, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, Douglas-Fort Smith. "Put a Bottle of this wonderful Discovery Free at E. E. Perrine's Drug store."

Two ladies stood at a street corner at about 9 o'clock the other evening waiting for a car. The word of the Street Crier's Examiner for it that both were young and pretty. An elderly man, whose mustache was white, but carried up at the ends by the barber, and whose tie and clothing were a credit to his hair, and hurried up to the ladies and stared at them. He shifted around, and besides staring made his best effort at a fascinating smile. Then he cunningly wiped his lips with a dainty silk handkerchief and smiled again. At last he lifted his hat and bowed. "Louise," said one of the young ladies to the other, "certainly 'twere the best man I have ever seen. He evidently tried to ask for it."

EUPESY.

This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dulling agents are searching for it, but they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee that Electric Bitters, if used according to directions and the use persisted in, will bring you good digestion and cure the demon Dyspepsia and install Eupesy. We recommend Electric Bitters for Dyspepsia and all diseases of the stomach and kidneys. Price, 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at E. E. Perrine's Drug store.
