A little the most ridiculous thing that has appeared lately is the pre-tense that the superintendent of the census and the thousands of enume rators all over the country are form ing an unboly conspiracy to count up a big population to the republican es of the west and northwest, and a amall population for the othern democratic states,

Judge Henderson, of Iowa is try gain notoriety by declairing he recent decision of the supreme court in the "original package" case take away all power from the states manner, That is rot. The court expressly declared in its opinion that the state governments could exercise complete control over the liquor after it had passed into the hands of the eriginal purchaser, and that they could either probabit or regulate its sale or giving away in any manner they saw fit. The point to the case is that it a person wishes to get liquo from another state for his own use doing so by siezing them while in the possession of the railroad or ex-press companies. That is all there is to it, no matter what such an able jurist" as Judge Henderson says to the contrary. But suppose that Judge Henderson is right, as the ex-treme prohibitionists seem to maintain he is; and what is the use of our prohibition friends expending time, energy and money in the attempt to attach to the constitution an amend-ment they declare amounts to ment they declare amounts to Martin Muth was down on the nothing since the decison of the court Creek last Sunday.

The statement is being made in this county that if the probibition amendment is defeated, any man who will tender the necessary fee can demand a license and run a saloon where and in what manner he pleases, and that the authorities can not refuse to grant the license. Of course that is most arrant nonsense. The defeat of the amendment would unchanged, and any man who know shough to discuss the matter know Even the adoption of the license amendment would only result prac-tically in placing the present law in the consitution. No one in the pothat the liceuse amendment will carry A great many people will vote against the prohibitory amendment largely be cause they believe that it is a had policy to encumber the constitution natters that properly belong to the policy powers of the state and they would oppose even more strong-ly the adoption of the license amendment for the same reason.
