CONGRESS' WORK

The Business of the Second Session Fairly Started.

INCREASE IN THE PUBLIC DEBT.

The Congressional Apportionment Under the New Census—Senators and Representatives Charged With Making Big Profits Out of the River Legislation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—There was an unusual large attendance of senators at the opening of the session. After opening exercises the credentials of the two senators-elect from Wyoming were presented and Senators Cady and Haines took the oath of office. Resolutions were adopted fixing the daily hour of meeting at 10 o'clock and providing for a committee for informing the president and short notice that the senate was in session and ready to proceed to business. After an hour recess the president's message was read. When it was finished the senate, at 8:45, adjourned.

With the exception of a few senators elected exclusively for members of the president's family, and a few diplomatic corps, every available seat was occupied early in the forenoon by speakers, including the two senators-elect from Wyoming. The 65th-66th congress Democrats were joyous and the Republicans were obliged to put up with a great deal of jesting and ribaldry. With smiling countenances in the cloak room before the house was called to order by the speaker, the clerk proceeded to call the roll. It showed the presence of 227 members, and the clerk was directed to inform the senate that a quorum of the house had appeared, and the body adjourned to proceed to business. A resolution was adopted for appointment of committees to join a committee on the part of the senate to wait upon the president and notify him that congress was ready to receive any message in any way so fit to transmit. The credentials of C. B. Beckinger, Second Arkansas, Willis Sweet, Idaho, F. W. Stone, Twenty-second Pennsylvania, and Clarence D. Clark, Wyoming, were read and those names approved and qualified.

The speaker laid before the house the credentials of David A. Harvey, delegate from Oklahoma, and the oath of office was administered to him. The house then took a recess till 1:30. As the expiration of the session the president's message was received and read at the request of their colleagues, the Republicans warmly applauded his sentiments.

On motion of Mr. McKinley (Ohio) the message was referred to a committee of the whole. Mr. Morrow reported the pension appropriation bill and it was referred to a committee of their hands. The house then adjourned.

The November Debt Statement. WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The treasury department debt statement issued shows an increase in the public debt during the month. November's total amounting to $3,130,819. Unusually heavy payments during November accounted for the annual statement. The total amount of the debt for the month was $3,130,819, against $2,828,389 on Nov. 1. The surplus in the treasury aggregates $19,044,024, against $27,207,263 a month ago, a decrease of nearly $8,000,000 since Nov. 1. Government receipts from all sources during November past aggregated $28,958,124, against $28,165,847 in November last. Customs receipts aggregated $19,227,141, against $18,727,887 in November last. Internal revenue receipts aggregated $11,232,047, against $11,159,060 during the same month.

The New Apportionment. WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Sponsor of the census bureau has prepared, at the suggestion of Chairman Burdette, Dec. 2, the census apportionment, a set of tables showing the apportionment of members of congress under the new census. The total number of members of congress under the present aggregate of membership is 573. If the existing law is to prevail, Arkansas would gain a member; Colorado, 1; Indiana, 2; Michigan, 3; Missouri, 4; Maryland would lose one; Minnesota would gain 2; Nebraska, 3; New Jersey, 1; New York, would lose one; Oregon would gain 1; South Carolina and Tennessee lose each; Texas gain 2; Virginia lose 1; West Virginia, 1; and the representation from the other states remain unchanged.

Green Charge Against Legislators. WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The House Representative Dockery of Missouri offered for re-consideration a resolution reciting that it is alleged that twelve senators-elect from Missouri were guilty of the passage of the silver bill, were admitted to participate in various negotiations, and that they received $25,000 to $30,000 to induce them to vote in favor of the bill. The committee on ethics, of which the committee on ethics, and measures to be taken.

Consistent with the approval and sale of silver. The committee shall have leave to send for papers and persons and to report by written report. Hargest to Brazilian—Question Officers. WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—A dinner was given by the secretary of the navy to the admiral and senior officers of the Brazilian squadron last night. Blaine, Maj. Gen. Schaff and Seaman Brown, the chief clerk of the state department, were the only guests. The officers of the navy department. The banquet was given at the Arlington house.

"GOD BLESS YOU ALL."

The Parents of Murderer Miller, Entered on the Seal.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 2.—Ellis Miller of Union county was lying in the center of the penitentiary here shortly after midnight. Miller remained cool and firm to the last, and died with a "God Bless you all. I hope to meet you in heaven." Miller was 47 years of age, seven feet and six inches, and did not make a perceptible motion after the fall. It was twelve minutes after the drop fell before life was pronounced extinct, death having resulted from strangulation.

Miller's case was never brought before the state board of pardons, and the case was made to save his life after sentence had been pronounced. His crime was peculiarly heinous and cold-blooded, and with other circumstances which often mitigate the commission of murder. He had been a great husband, and a devoted father. He was a member of the church, and a member of the community, and he was a member of the community, and he was a member of the community.

RECORDARY WORK.

Fire Bug: Make Several Attempts to Burn a New Hampshire City.

NASHUA, N. H., Dec. 2.—Fire in Benson's block caused a loss of $50,000. A second fire occurred in C. A. Lebar's laundry on Water street, doing $1,000 damage. A third attempt was made by incendiaries to burn the postoffice building, a katydid attempt being broken on the outside, and a fire was started in the basement of the gas house, while the firemen were at work outside. Both fires were discovered in time for removal of the buildings. There is much excitement over these attempts at incendiarism. Late at night a fire was discovered in the basement of the First Baptist church. An incendiary having broken through the windows and set a "saw-whet" back the material inside and applied matches. The building was lost. The mayor has increased the force of police, and business men will seek to protect their properties.

A Loss Signwayman.

TYLER, Tex., Dec. 2.—A robbery of passengers on a mixed train on the Cotton Belt road is reported between Big Spring and Winona by John Highwayman. He encamped the passenger train and ordered the passengers to hold up their hands. The train was shut through the breast by the robber and will probably die. A first rifle with German bullets, three live shots and then fired dead away.

Bombastic at Term Trial.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—Advice received from Tien Tsen state that a vast number of the people of Tien Tsen and vicinity are in a condition of great agitation owing to floods. They are desperate from starvation and are increasing the number of their assassinations and murders. They threaten to march upon Peking and loot the city and will not flinch from the acceptance in their own province.

A Drowning Family.

AUBURN, N. Y., Dec. 2.—The body of Ferguson, one of the men who were hunting on Bald Rock Bay Thanksgiving day was recovered. A peculiar circumstance is that first the body of the small one, the son and mother of the boy Bennett, was found, and then the bodies of the father, sister, and her only son drowned in the waters of the Ontario near Fairport.

Run Down by a Train.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 2.—Ed Dobbie, supposed to live at Goshen, Ind., was fatally injured and his only son was instantly killed near Rockland on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railway. Dobbie and his son were on board a train, and when the conductor demanded the fare refused to pay it. The train was put off, and walking on the track were run down by a train from the opposite direction.

New York Press Clippings.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Col. John A. Cockerill, principal author of the Wray act, was elected president of the New York Press club for the third time without opposition. The president-elect, Cockerill, was elected president of the New York Press club for the third time without opposition. Ex-Treasurer Hittingly in the Pen.

JACKSON, Miss., Dec. 2.—The supreme court rendered its decision in the case of Ex-Treasurer Hittingly, who was found guilty of the loss of $100,000 in every particular, and the execution was taken by the sheriff to the penitentiary, where he is to serve five years, and was taken over to the ward.

THE ARMY OF REDS

The Warriors of Four Reservations Under Arms,

AND HEADED FOR THE BAD LANDS.

Secret Report Increased Preparations for War and Government Officials Are Growing Apprehensive—Sitting Bull Must Be Captured—More Troops.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, Dec. 2.—Advice were received that the warriors from all four of the reservations, Standing Rock, Chasanyan, Sisseton, Brule and Rosebud, are sweeping across the country, fully armed, toward the bad lands to join the rebel ranks there. This will end the hostile force to over four thousand.

Little Wound has made another effort to persuade his braves to forsake hostilities, but barely escaped with his life. Scouts are patrolling constantly, and report increased preparations for war. Gen. Brooke is preparing over the sub-section of orders to get the best troops for the rounding up of 2,000 government cattle and horses. The weather is turning cold and bleak, the horses are becoming scarce and are going for a buzzard.

Capt. Paul Thibault has reached the reservation, and the Secretary of War is headed toward the bad lands. Hurling reports were received at the agency about the preparations for the future. Signal fire north of the Standing Rock reservation, in the Cheyennes. Four scouts have been sent since Friday morning, and it is thought they have been killed.

Urgent Details.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Reports received at the war department from the locality of the threatened Indian hostilities are much less favorable than for several days past. They indicate that between one thousand and two thousand Indians who refused to come to the agency have started westward toward what is known as the bad lands. The Secretary of War has communicated despatches on the cable and sent the military information to the agency. Gen. Brooke telegraphs this information is not from the agency, and is of a very alarming nature. These alarming reports have again been the subject of communication to the Secretary of War and Gen. Scofield and Miles.

It is understood his request for more cavalry troops to be placed at the agency. It is understood his request for more cavalry troops to be placed at the agency. It is understood his request for more cavalry troops to be placed at the agency.

Sitting Bull Wounded.

STANLEY ROCK AGENCY, D. Dec. 2.—It is considered probable that Sitting Bull will be captured in about Saturday, and when he does he will be arrested. Agents have been ordered to go to reason why Sitting Bull should not be arrested as soon as he comes within reach of our forces. It is suggested to send his children to school, and he did not do so. He has not been arrested. I have ten scouts out, and if they return comes within the limits of the agency, they will bring him to the agency. The sitting Bull should be captured and taken to the agency. The sitting Bull should be captured and taken to the agency.

Depredations.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 2.—The Pioneer Press correspondent of the Pine Ridge agency telegraphs that John Dwyer, chief hater of the government braves, has been compelled to keep a constant guard on his family. He has had to leave to save their lives. Of the herd of 3,000 head the Indians have taken 1,000 head. The Indians are driving the remainder to the bad lands for winter consumption. There will be no more cattle for the Rosebud agency have also been captured by the Indians.

Increased Nations for Sioux Indians.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Secretary of War, Dec. 2.—The conference with Miles on the Indian trouble at the Pine Ridge agency issued an order directing that increased supply of rations be sent to the Sioux and Cheyenne and the appropriations of the present fiscal year be used. It is thought that the Indians during the next fiscal year.

Just keep your eye on 'Bob' Lincoln during the next presidential campaign.

The Farmers Alliance of both South Dakota and Iowa, observe a strict silence in regard to prohibition in its statements for political purposes.

If the ideas of Jay Gould are worthy of consideration, money will be plenty by the middle of January, in fact will be a drag on the market. Oh, happy thought may the vision not vanish.

Senator Stanford of California, will occupy the presidential chair in '92-Carroll Tribune.

Just why he will occupy it in '92 we don't understand.

Adams has been compelled to leave his garden of Eden in the U. S. upon the eve of prosperity. The apple in his eye was so great that he could not resist the temptation of fasting—and could come running after him.

The month of November has come and gone, but the political storm it brought will ever remain fresh in the memory of republicans and especially candidates for office. This month also brought with it the Indian scare.

If the Gould combine ask for the modification of the inter-state coinage law they will get foolhardy. Their request will not be granted. Neither the pooling prohibition nor the long and short haul clause will be brought by congress at this time. They will never be repealed for the purpose of bolstering up watered stock and fraudulent bonds. -Saxton City Journal.

The President's message presented at congress last Monday, will appear in the next issue of the Herald. It is a strong and defensive argument in favor of republican principles, and will commend itself to all thinking people. Even the most radical democratic papers fail to find anything therein worthwile to vent their spleen.

It is stated by many papers that there is no money in raising beet and that the sugar beet factories will not pay high enough prices to warrant the farmers in raising beets. However the fact still remains that if the factories do not pay paying-prices the farmers can combine and not raise them but go on with the general line of farming, therefore the farmer can make it pay or shut down the sugar factories.

The Industrial edition of the Norfolk Daily News of Saturday speaks volumes for the enterprise of the management of that journal. Not only is it the best advertisement the city of Norfolk ever had, but it is also an advertising medium which will doubtless attract the attention of many business men who will want their wares and become citizens among us. Hence success to the News, may the live long and prosper.

Any appointment bill that may be introduced by the republicans at the present term of congress will meet with fatal opposition from the democratic masses. They do not want a fair appropriation but one that will largely increase the power of the debt South and Tummy, to the solid South of the West. Thus the very thing which will insure the most decided opposition will be the fairness of a republican appropriation.

To give an idea as to how much is known about the McKinley bill by the average person, the following remarks made by one of our prominent and intelligent farmers during a conversation with a citizen of Wayne a few days ago, will throw some light thereon. He stated "that as the people were raising such a hubbub about the bill, and there was such a large surplus in the treasury, he did not see why they didn't pay it off."

The Indus Appeal, of Petersburg, Va., one of the strongest democratic papers in that state, has the following to say in regard to the tariff falsehood which was so effective in the late campaign: In that campaign, in every campaign, many "trifles" were said—and many "trifles" were said which could hardly be justified by any standard of morals about of the old maxims that everything is fair in war and politics.

The exigency, however, for this questionable method of warfare is now past, and it is high time to give a quietus to the campaign lie, of "watered stock." It has already been made, that all the necessities of life have been increased in price by the tariff bill. No paper can longer justify itself even on the ground of partisan service, for giving circulation to the falsehood, and the papers that continue to publish such indelible statements are making themselves allies of speculators and extortionists are enemies of the great consuming mass of the people.

POST OFFICE HINTS. Over six million pieces of mail matter are sent annually to the Dead Letter Office by reason of incorrect, illegible or deficient address, insufficient postage, insecure inclosing, whereby matter mailed becomes separated from the envelope or wrapper, or the failure to be mailed for or delivered to the person addressed. This is a daily average of over twenty thousand pieces. Of these the greater portion either are not called for at the post office to which they are directed, notwithstanding every known means is resorted to on the part of the postal officials to effect delivery. Matter sent to the Dead Letter Office, which cannot be delivered to the person addressed, is required to be opened in its treatment for the purpose of returning to the sender, and if the name and address of the sender be not shown or cannot be ascertained from the contents, and contains no valuable inclosures, it must be destroyed. Letters opened and found to contain any inclosure of obnoxious value are entered upon proper records, and, of such, those which do not disclose sufficient information to enable them to be returned are filed, and subject to reclamation upon proper application and identification.

A large proportion of the packages and parcels sent in the dead letter office fail to be returned to the owners because of the absence on the wrappers or the inclosures of anything to indicate ownership thereof.

Postage and parcels are recorded, and where they do not disclose the name and address of the owner are filed—if not called for at once—within two years they are deposited at public auction—and the proceeds covered into the U. S. Treasury. Misdirection, incorrect, illegible, and deficient address are given as leading causes, which occasion the failure of mail matter to reach its proper destination, and effect alike that which is so addressed to either city, town or village. Mail matter should be plainly and correctly addressed, the name of the post office to which it is to be sent should be clearly and distinctly stated, the name of the street or other place also be given in full. In the case of mail addressed to small offices of like names in different states, the name of the county should be added. Where mail matter is addressed to cities or free delivery offices the street and house number, or post office box number of the person addressed are important, and should always be given when it is possible to do so.

In sending packages had parcels—books, pamphlets, and other articles by mail, the address should be placed on the article enclosed, as well as on the wrapper.

SUPPER COST WINTER RESORT. For the past two seasons the winters have been a very mild, even in the North and Northwest, that there has been little food for the winter sportsmen. But from every indication, and judging from the signs that have been given, the winter of the winter to come, we are to have the coming season an old fashioned cold, frosty, snowy, blizzard winter. The inquiry will soon be, "Where can we find the best climate, the most comfortable, with good accommodations, convenient to any home, at reasonable rates?" THE LITTLETON CENTRAL spot, "New Orleans, the most attractive city in winter on the continent, has no winter as a winter home. It is within three hours ride on the MEXICAN GULF from the most wonderful hunting and fishing grounds. Deer with deer and turkeys abound, and the fishing for red-bellied is the delight of the angler as well as the old settler. Then, the oysters direct from the finest oyster beds, the riding, towing and sailing, and the fishing, if you please, in mid winter with the invigorating and healthful sea-breeze and salt from the ocean, with a climate unexcelled, and all within a short distance from the city of Littleton, on the MEXICAN GULF Coast an ideal spot for a winter home.

By applying to J. F. Mery, Asst. Gen. Post. Agt., Manchester, Iowa, you will be furnished with an illustrated pamphlet entitled, "Mexican Gulf Coast Winter Resorts." A. H. HANSON, Gen. Post. Agt.
