WORLD CONFUSION.

The House of Representatives
Again in Convulsions.

SPEAKER REED IS DENOUNCED.

Amending the Interstate Law—A Special
Tax on Foreign Goods—Davenport's
Accounts—Good and Bad Indiana—The Oldest Claim Before Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The house was the scene of wild confusion precipitated by the refusal of the speaker to allow debate on the question of the approval of the journal. Mr. Mills in a very excited manner ran down the aisle and shaking his fist at the speaker denounced him as practicing a fraud upon the house. But the speaker was immovable and called upon those opposed to approving the journal to rise, and counting "one, two, three," declared the motion to approve the journal carried—92 to 3. Further demonstrations were made by Mills and the time was consumed until 1 o'clock, when the journal was finally approved. The District of Columbia appropriation bill was then carried into committee but beyond a number of political speeches no action was taken on the bill proper and the house adjourned.

In the senate Senator Aldrich at 1:50 asked for the consideration of his resolution for a change of the rules. The question was discussed until 2 o'clock when the yeas and nays were taken. Yeas 46 and nays 46. Senator George, who had the floor, declined to yield to anybody and continued his speech against the bill. At 6:30 the senate adjourned.

Reciprocity Negotiations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The dispatches from Ottawa that the United States has made an offer of unrestricted reciprocity to Canada are a little confusing. Negotiations are undoubtedly going on, but the best president and the secretary of state can do is to recommend to congress legislation looking to reciprocity concurrently with the reciprocity provision in the McKinley tariff bill applicable to countries producing sugar, coffee, hides and tea, and Canada doesn't come within this class. His Ohio constituents, who have large interests in Canada, Senator Sherman proposed a Canadian reciprocity amendment to the bill, but did not press because conditions were unfavorable. Erastus Wiman and other Canadian advocates of reciprocity are in New York that Mr. McKinley had made a fortune in sugar trust certificates and would henceforth grow in addition to his McKinley and Bartlett propositions Senator Sherman is now in Canada and is making a resolution for a joint reciprocity commission.

What the Major Will Do.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The report out from New York that Mr. McKinley had made a fortune in sugar trust certificates and would henceforth grow in addition to his McKinley and Bartlett propositions Senator Sherman is now in Canada and is making a resolution for a joint reciprocity commission.

Amending the Interstate Law.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The house committee on commerce reported favorably to the house a bill amending the interstate commerce law so as to allow railroads companies to carry reduced rates of transportation and to permit them to carry a freight of sample baggage to commercial travelers who travel for wholesale houses. The bill also permits the companies to carry their own employees free of charge. It is now in committee.

Oldest Claim Before Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The house committee on claims reported favorably to the house the bill introduced by Mr. O'Neill, of Pennsylvania, for the relief of the heirs and legal representatives of Richard W. Meade of Pennsylvania. The claim has been pending since the Sixteenth congress and is now before the committee.

THE KANSAS FIGHT.

The Alliance Men Opposed to Candidates.

But a Wall on Division to Ingalls. TORONTO, Kan., Jan. 21.—The Alliance members have not yet agreed upon a caucus to nominate a candidate against Senator Ingalls, and are meeting with some opposition. The prominent leaders are confident the caucus will be held. The candidate for the Alliance nomination manifestly distrusts of the caucus, fearing that their own chances are better in an open contest than in a caucus where the members will be forced to pledge themselves to some one. The Alliance candidates feel that they will have an opportunity to draw from Ingalls the votes of the Alliance men. The Alliance men are not in favor of a caucus, but they will be forced to pledge themselves to some one. The Alliance men are not in favor of a caucus, but they will be forced to pledge themselves to some one.
