He has 'pecone' disgusted with the elections bill failure_gowing to the eight republicans voting with the democrats, and a true blue republican can not feel otherwise in state and national affairs. state and national affairs.

In state and national affairs. The senate of the 5 and com-gress will contain a republican majority of ten unless the legisla-tures of Dakota and Illinois elect alliance or democratic senators. In that case the republican major-ticy will be six. With a republi-can state and republican presi-dent, the democratic house can do but little toward carrying out their radical political measurers.

Senator Keiper, of Pierce, in arging a resolution recommend-ing the defeat of the federal elecing the determine the redermine the south secret or reform methods of bal-loting have been adopted it has changed republican majorities into democratic majorities. If this to democratic majorities. If this argument was pertinent to Sen-ator Keiper's purpose he should have voted in favor of the pass-age by congress of the bill in order to aid the democratic party -which is his -party. But he didn't.—Fremont Tribune.
