Chinese Presbyterians Want a Change WASHINGTON, March 23.-A report

Washinoros, March 23. — A report to he dopautiment of state from the late United States minister to Japan says that alter long doliberation the native Presbyterian church in that country has seen fit to recash the time-tied doctrines of the Presbyterian church and even to make additions to the aposites creed. He further says that is is intropuestand common claim by Christian converts that the splitt counder has the astronome claim by by Christian converts that the spirit and meaning of Christianity in 153 broader scope has never been properly presented among the vestern nations, and that faith is needed to be trans-ported to Japani for final development and perfection. Consequently he ap-prehends that the changes noted will be followed by other and more radical changes. nges
