THE GRAND ARMY.

SOME ELABORATE DECORATIONS.

Ex-President Hayes in the Rank—Commander Vesper's Testimonial—Washington Leader for the Next Encampment—The Business Section Formally Opened.

DETROIT, Aug. 5.—It was precisely ten minutes after 7 when, with a cheer of relief, Commander in Chief Vesper swung his slop hat on his head and grasped the hand of ex-President Hayes.

The commander-in-chief was surrounded by his staff and a special detachment of 100 Massachusetts veterans mounted magnificent, gaily caparisoned steeds.

The parade commenced last night in very fine form, marked by division banners borne on horseback, and the drum corps of the Rhode Island advanced.

At the head of the hall over the platform is a large (A. R. badge), bearing on the shield the letters "A. R." in the center, and the words "The Grand Army of the Republic" around the border.

There was an interesting scene at the parade grounds, where the parade was held on Tuesday morning, when the parade was held on Tuesday morning.

It is pretty well conceded that Washington will get the next encampment. The Western press have made a gallant fight, and the Lincoln delegation especially have spent many lively wits.

For the first time in the history of the order, an ex-president of the United States marched with the past of his native state. It was Rutherford B. Hayes that won this distinction.

There are four triangular arches. The Washington Arch is the largest and is made of massive proportions. It is of the shape of an arch, and is of the shape of an arch.

AN OHIIOAN COMMITS UCKBROIDE

The Webster-Goodwin Tragedy—A Showed Ohiosans That Murder was a Down-Sensational Shooting Case in Oakland, Cal.

DATON, O., Aug. 5.—Henry Gensher, a prosperous gardener, was arrested, charged with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Gensher, died suddenly under suspicious circumstances.

The interior of the Detroit rink is one of the handsomest places imaginable. The ceiling of the skating rink is the ceiling of the skating rink.

The Webster-Goodwin Tragedy. New York, Aug. 5.—The well known criminal lawyers, Howe & Hammett, have been retained by Elisha C. Webster, who shot Charles E. Goodwin Sunday night.

STOLEN PAPERS RECOVERED. BELLEVUE, Wis., Aug. 5.—A stranger recently left notes, mortgages and other papers representing values of over $200,000 in his possession.

IT IS PRETTY WELL CONCEALED THAT WASHINGTON WILL GET THE NEXT ENCAMPMENT. THE WESTERN PRESS HAVE MADE A GALLANT FIGHT, AND THE LINCOLN DELEGATION ESPECIALLY HAVE SPENT MANY LIVELY WITS.

THE ENCAMPMENT OPENED. THE session of the twenty-ninth annual encampment opened this morning at 10 o'clock. The most important matter that will come up for consideration is the trouble over the colored issue.

A FUGITIVE CAPTURED. PITTSBURG, Aug. 5.—A telegram from the chief of police of Toledo, O., was the cause of the arrest of S. F. Lewis. Lewis is wanted for forgery and was captured by the police in a "sneaky" way.

THE ENCAMPMENT OPENED. THE session of the twenty-ninth annual encampment opened this morning at 10 o'clock. The most important matter that will come up for consideration is the trouble over the colored issue.

Local Points

Money to loan on farms at reduced rates. W. M. Wright, 200 Broadway.

Wm. Griffith shipped a car load of cattle and a car of hogs to Omaha Wednesday night.

Dr. Bradford was summoned to Windsor to attend to the serious illness of Will Horton.

Miss Cora Simmons will entertain a social party at her home on Wednesday evening.

The premium lists will be completed and ready for distribution Monday or Tuesday next.

The new subscribers who have joined the Herald since our last issue are Dr. A. J. Cherry, John Elliott, and F. M. Grier.

There will be a meeting of the Presbytery at Wayne next Thursday to discuss the matter of the merger of the Presbytery and the Christian church.

A number of the teachers from Pines who have been attending the summer school at the city of Pines, are expected to attend the county teachers institute.

Wm. Gregory has opened a bowling alley on the lot just back of the residence of those who wish to indulge in game of "ten pins" will find an opportunity.

A new time-table went into effect Sunday but only the change of any connections on the City of Pines line goes east at 8:20 P. M. and returns west at 8:30 A. M. from Sioux City.

The county school at the Selma building is now in session. The teachers of the respective schools of the ladies of the Presbytery church was a decided success both socially and socially, proving the value of the children.

The lecture given by Reuben Mack at the M. E. church, Tuesday night, was an interesting and instructive treatise relating the various phases of the water works.

A trip to Winfield Friday, planned to take on the new bridge is growing. The committee on the bridge will meet on the course of erection, among them being a religious and barn for Frank Weible, and a new building for the school.

The fact that the water works will be a success is being demonstrated by the fact that the water works will be a success.

Now "these" are too bad. We didn't think we were going to have to issue the bonds, we thought the council through the city's business.

The journal to touching on an item in last week's issue, which was a report of the fact of "these" water works not being completed does not lie upon the shoulders of the water works.

Wm. Gregory has opened a bowling alley on the lot just back of the residence of those who wish to indulge in game of "ten pins" will find an opportunity.

The students at the Summer Normal school are in receipt of the list of the names of the graduates.

Our Congressional Views.
WASHINGTON, July 30.—The national republican executive committee met at the Arlington hotel of this city at 10 o'clock.

The thirteen members of the committee were present, namely Chairman, J. S. Clark; Vice-Chairman, J. S. Clark; Secretary, J. S. Clark; Treasurer, W. W. Dudley; Indiana, Samuel Fessenden; Ohio, Garrett A. Hobart; New Jersey, and J. M. Hayes of Maine.

The first business before the committee was the consideration of the accounts growing out of the last campaign, submitted by Treasurer Dudley. A report was made by him and agreed for a time in order to allow Dudley of Omaha, Neb., to make a closing speech in favor of holding the next republican national convention in New York.

When he had concluded the matter was referred to the general committee and the executive committee resumed consideration of the treasury account. A large mass of correspondence was also laid before the committee. The state of the treasury account was discussed. Many active politicians in different parts of the country had suggested to make and contribute to the treasury account of the republican national convention.

Some discussion followed as to the time and place of meeting of the full national convention. The meeting was finally decided to be held at the selection of the place of meeting and the Chairman J. S. Clark was authorized to call the Secretary Robert for determination with the proviso that the meeting shall take place sometime in November. It was also decided that the national convention should meet on the 15th day of the month of November, or as soon as possible thereafter.

After the election of W. J. Campbell as secretary of the executive committee in place of George R. Davis of the same state the committee took a recess of two hours.

The next meeting of the committee was held on Wednesday at 10 o'clock. All approaches to the room were closed and no communication was allowed. The business of the evening was the presentation of Chairman Quay's resignation, which came before the committee in the shape of the following letter:

Respectfully to express to the committee my resignation of the office of treasurer for his faithful and efficient service to the party in this capacity. J. S. CLARKSON
SAXTON FESSENDEN,
Committee.

The chairman then read the following letter:

WASHINGTON, July 29.—To the Executive Committee of the Republican National Association: Inasmuch as you are about to reorganize the executive committee of the party, I am preparing to withdraw my name from consideration of the nomination of 1892, and as my business engagements will demand my attention to the fall of the year, I am compelled to sever the pleasant relations which have existed between us for many years. I therefore tender my resignation of the office of treasurer of your committee and of the national committee. Respectfully yours,
SAXTON FESSENDEN

The committee immediately adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That while we are sorry for General Dudley's resignation, we have no other course than to consent to his retirement from the committee, we feel that the best course is to accept his resignation and the party of the invaluable and loyal services of one who has proved himself to be the ablest and most faithful of public men, and as a patriotic friend of the nation, and as a union army, as a public official, serving with equal fidelity his country in prominent places, in the political field of the country.

Since the resignation of Chairman Quay and Treasurer Dudley were then accepted and laid on the table subject to the next meeting of the executive committee it is to be noted that Mr. Clarkson was elected chairman of the executive committee and Mr. Hayes was elected secretary in place of Mr. Clarkson. The chairman being authorized to select a treasurer to succeed Mr. Dudley. The committee then adjourned.

Prisoners in County Jails.
WASHINGTON, July 31.—The census office has issued a bulletin on the subject of prisoners in county jails. It shows that the total number of prisoners in county jails on June 1, 1890, was 12,699, an increase of 84.87 per cent. over the number in 1880. The increase in total population was 24.86 per cent. In 1880 the ratio of prisoners in county jails to the population was 259 in each 1,000,000; in 1890 it was 322 in each 1,000,000. The largest increase has been in the north Atlantic division, where it was 95 to 100.

Of the total number of prisoners in county jails 13,921 were white and 6,778 were negro. The increase in negroes, 131 Chinese and 118 Indians. About four-fifths of the negro prisoners were in jails in the south and west, and the remainder in jails in their immediate descendants, the bulletin says, contributes directly or indirectly to the increase in the population of the county jail, or 1,234 more than the entire native white population. Of the total number of prisoners 17,901 are male and 1,727 women.

Pennsylvania leads with 2,386 prisoners, the reason for the large number being that the state has a very large prison and is authorized to retain a territory and is authorized to retain a territory.

Commerce of 1890.—The report of statistics of the commerce of the United States for the year ending June 30, 1891, is at length made available to the public. The report has been issued in a summary statement and review of the foreign commerce and immigration of the United States during the fiscal year, and June 30, 1891. It gives also a comparison of the commerce of 1890 with that of the previous years, during which the new tariff law has been in effect, as compared with the corresponding nine months of the preceding fiscal year.

The statements say that the total value of the commerce of the United States for the year ending June 30, 1890, was the greatest in the history of the government, and exceeded the total value of the commerce of 1890 by the sum of $82,191,808. The commerce of 1890 was the largest for any year in the history of the government since the commencement of the commerce of the prior year by the sum of $139,606,068. Our total commerce during the past fiscal year amounted to $1,795,792,200.

Of the total commerce there was an increase in the imports of merchandise in our order of magnitude in the following articles, namely, refined hides and skins, furs, chemicals and drugs, Indian rubber and gutta-percha, sugar and molasses, and tea. There was also an increase in the value of exports of wool and silk and manufactures thereof, iron and steel and manufactures thereof, and iron and steel and manufactures thereof.

The total value of our exports of merchandise during the same period was $884,430,000, which shows an increase of 14.7 per cent. over the total value of our exports of merchandise during the fiscal year of $809,511,914. There was also an excess of exports of domestic merchandise over such exports of the United States, as compared with the increase in these exports has been in the following articles, stated in order of magnitude, namely, refined sugar, provisions, refined sugar, cotton manufactures, copper and manufactures thereof, iron and steel and manufactures thereof, and iron and steel and manufactures thereof.

Since the new tariff law has been in operation from June 1, 1890, to June 30, 1891, inclusive, the total value of the imports of merchandise was $820,556,068, as compared with $768,768,000 in 1890. The excess of imports of merchandise for the corresponding period of 1890 shows an excess for the nine months of $51,788,068.
