FREE FIGHT IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

East Day of the Home Rule Debate. Marked by Dr. Brown's Row—Members Clinging to the Yellow-Bill Through the Committee.

LONDON, July 29.—On the government program to abolish the Home Rule bill... The House of Commons was the scene of a heated debate... Mr. Chamberlain rose to deliver the final broadside of the opposition... He was still standing when Mr. Gladstone swung his arms... The speaker's words were received with a rattle of fists... The House was so full of noise that it was impossible to hear the speaker... The debate was adjourned until next week.

Mr. Chamberlain plainly was startled... The speaker's words were received with a rattle of fists... The House was so full of noise that it was impossible to hear the speaker... The debate was adjourned until next week.

EUROPE BUYS STOCKS.

THOUSANDS OF SHARES ARE GOING ABROAD.

Capitalists in Europe Evidently Confide in the Conclusion that American Securities Are Not Such Bad Investments After All.

New York, July 31.—It was said yesterday that the higher prices for American stocks in London confirmed the news published that New York capitalists had combined with other interests to buy stocks here and carry them abroad... The market was turned, London is ready to carry all the stocks that we want to send over there.
