LACONICS.

See that bargain table at D. E. Smith & Co's. The commissioners meet next Monday. Wm. Greek shipped a car of hogs Tuesday and one Wednesday. A Knights of Pythias lodge will be organized at Wausa this evening. There is a chance of securing a first-class cigar factory in the near future. Children will be admitted to Andrews Opera Co. tomorrow night at the usual price. Think of it! If Wayne should secure electric lights and a court house this year!

John Sherbaha shipped a car load of brick to Emerson and one to New-Castle this week. Saturday is getting to be a day when the streets of our proud little city take on a metropolitan air. A fine rain fell Monday night, and say! You never saw small grain grow so fast before in your life. The school children pined at the grove of Mark Jeffrey last Friday, and the little folks had a fine time. See the new ad of Mark Stringer and if you want to see the best hardware or power in the market call on him. Last Saturday the water commissioner reduced the time of watering lawns one half, until the new pump arrives. Bartlett & Heister, received a handsome folding desk Monday, which they had purchased for W. M. Wright. It's a beauty. Will Rieckbaugh and father have moved their barber shop into the room north of Lewis' harness shop recently vacated by E. W. Sprague. Get your seats for the Andrews Opera Company at P. L. Miller's. They are going rapidly and if you desire a chair you had best look to it at once. Mrs. F. A. Slater has opened her ice cream parlors first door north of 'Pfeiffer' & Duerig's store, where you can get them by the dish or gallon. Wakefield and Wayne clubs played a game of ball at the former town last Friday and at the end of the twelfth inning the score stood 13 to 12 in favor of Wayne.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. Fred Phillee next Wednesday June 13, to make 'suit bonnets.' Anyone wanting bonnets will speak to Mrs. C. A. Chace or Mrs. A. F. Ernst. A. J. Tracy is selling a large number of the patent hog watering troughs, and is rushed to fill all his orders. It is one of the best things known and it will not be long until nearly every farmer in Wayne county will own one. A hook and ladder truck and another pump for the water works have been ordered and Wayne's fire department and water works will soon be pretty well equipped. Mr. Coyle, the engineer thinks that with the two pumps he will be able to keep the water supply equal to the demand. At the meeting of the school board Monday night, W. W. Bower, of Winnebago, was elected principal of the Wayne public schools for the next school year. Prof. Bower comes to Wayne with the best of recommendations and his selection was no doubt a wise one. Saturday evening the Board will elect the teachers for the ensuing year. Just as the day was declining May 31, Chas. W. White and Anne B. Watson were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the Baptist pastor, after which the friends gathered at the home of the bride's parents to enjoy a sumptuous repast. The bride and groom are well loved and highly esteemed. A number of handsome and useful presents were for the best wishes of their many friends.

Fresh strawberries in any quantity every day at Miller's. For sign painting see Cook & Hayes, scientific sign writers. S. B. Seavey shipped two car loads of cattle from Carroll to day. Marshal Miner is ill with the measles and Peter Wagner is attending to the duties of night watch and marshal. We quote your Legal Tender flour, every sack warranted at $1.00, Jersey Lilly 90 cts per sack. D. E. Smith & Co. Messdames Jas. Britton, Ran Frazier, and J. M. Pile will entertain a host of friends at the College Saturday evening. Note the change in the ads of L. Shue and D. E. Smith & Co. It will pay you, new bargains are being made every day. Burson & O'Hara have handsomely papered and painted the interior of their building and have put in a handsome bottle case. It isn't Kelly's army, but an army of Wayne county people that call at Phil H. Kohl's to examine their line of beautiful wall paper prints. To be sure the Mayor is supplied with power to "knock out" most anything in the line of improvements, but will it pay him to do so? If you desire a handsome picture frame you will do well to call and look over our line of handsome new picture mouldings. Bartlett & Heister. There's a point for some postmasters to learn, and that is that Uncle Sam does not permit the post office to become a bureau of information. A word to the wise is sufficient. The Presbyterian ladies will soon call on you to donate something to the 4th of July dinner. The ladies expect to feed a large crowd and hope you will bear this in mind and respond liberally. Next Sunday will be "Childrens Day" all day at the Baptist church. Morning and evening services will be for the children. In the morning they will sing, in the evening they will speak. All come. The value of water works is painfully evident when on which the water is used, and the other where it is not. Not only is this true, but in the business houses it is a great benefit. The attendance at the entertainment given by Blind Tom Saturday evening was not as large as expected. The opinion of those present varied as to the worth of the concert. However Blind Tom is a musical wonder and he was frequently greeted with genuine applause. The Andrews Opera Co. presented the comic opera, "Mikado," to a full house Thursday evening. This excellent company of singers and actors have been in our city several times before and are prime favorites, and it is to be hoped they will visit us again. Dawson Co. Pioneer, Lexington, June 2. Some free men of Eremouth brought suit against A. F. Chacon and Carl Krakow recently before Judge Feather to collect amount of notes given for trees. As the trees were not as represented Messrs. Chacon and Krakow refused to pay for them, and after considering the matter the tree men concluded to withdraw the suit without prejudice. Last Friday afternoon a large number of people attended the exercises given at the school building by the children of Miss Regnier's and Miss Bergenson's rooms. The entertainment consisting of singing, water drill, parol drill, fan drill, etc., was a pleasing one and indicated that the teachers had devoted considerable time to drilling the children. Men's and childrens' Straw Hats. D. E. Smith & Co. Last Friday Attorney Fuller went to Madison to appear before Judge Robinson in behalf of the city of Wayne asking that the injunction granted by Singer and L. W. Newell against said city be dissolved. Judge Robinson dissolved the injunction but the defendants were given twenty days, in which to file an appeal bond. Attorneys Wilbur of Wayne, and Jay, of Dakota City, appeared in behalf of the defendants. Messrs. Ben Cook and John Hayes have just completed one of the handsomest signs in the city for Burson & O'Hara. It is an excellent piece of workmanship and could scarcely be excelled anywhere. The boys have not been at the business very long but their work clearly demonstrates that they are artists, and that in the near future their work in scientific sign writing will rank with the best in the country. If you are in need of something in this line it will pay you to call on them.

GRADUATING CLASS.

Seventh Annual Commencement of the Wayne High School.

THE ATTENDANCE VERY LARGE!

The Class of '94 Acquit Themselves in a Creditable Manner—Excellent Music under the Supervision of Prof. Davies. Diplomas Presented by County Clerk S. B. Russell—The Class Entertained Saturday Evening by the Wayne High School Alumni.

For the fourth time within a week nearly one thousand people gathered at the opera house Friday evening. This time to witness the seventh annual commencement exercises of the Wayne High School. The members of the tenth grade had arranged the stage and scenery in such a manner that in connection with the handsome divans, rugs, and plants, a beautiful scene was presented, while across the stage entrance was suspended the class motto, "Not Finished but Just Begun."

It is not the intention of the HERALD to elaborate on the worth of each member of the class as to his or her oration or recitation, but certainly the members of the class of '94 acquitted themselves in a manner creditable indeed, gratifying to the school patrons, school board, the vast audience and to Prof. Ashley who, has labored so earnestly in their behalf.

To Prof. Davies, much credit is due for the excellent music furnished for the occasion and especially the chorus, "Worthy is the Lamb." The instrumental music by Miss Effie Buffington was a pleasant feature. The following is the program of exercises: Music, Instrumental. Miss Effie Buffington. Invocation. Rev. W. W. Theobald. Music, Vocal Duette. (Mrs. D. C. Main, Miss D. A. Chace). Soliloquy, Sometime. Lena E. Hitchcock. Oration, (Selected). Lewis S. Winsor. Oration, Patriotic. Della F. Beckwith. Recitation, Burning of Chicago. Ola Childs. Music, Chorus—Worthy is the Lamb. Oration, Our Influence. Fred H. Alexander. Class History. What are We? Della A. Chace. Class Prophecy. What We Shall Be. W. H. Chichester. Music, Ladies' Quartette. Mrs. Welch, Mrs. Holtz, Mrs. Ashley, Miss Davies.

Recitation, Wild Zingarella. Lois M. Childs. Recitation, The Second Trial. Corlie Walters. Oration and Valedictory. What of the Future? C. F. Theobald. Music, Chorus—Mark Us the Midnight Bell. At the close Prof. Ashley addressed the class, after which S. B. Russell, in a few well chosen remarks presented the class diplomas. The benediction was then pronounced by Rev. Willard.

The HERALD feels safe in saying that the seventh annual commencement of the Wayne-High School was the most successful yet held. THE ALUMNI. The class of '94 was beautifully entertained by the Wayne High School Alumni at the residence of J. W. Bartlett Saturday evening. The superb harpist, Prof. Tocci, furnished music for the occasion, and taken all in all it was a brilliant affair. At 10:30 all repaired to the Boyd hotel where an elaborate banquet had been prepared and as the beautiful strains of the harp wafted forth, the members of the alumni rejoined supreme. After the banquet they again repaired to the home of Mr. Bartlett where the remainder of the evening was very pleasantly spent.

BURGLARY.

During the night Monday the two hardware stores, J. H. Goll's meat market and the Boyd hotel were broken into by burglars. An entrance was effected at each place by breaking the windows in the rear of the buildings. At Chace & Neely's two revolvers and about four dollars in money was secured the money drawer being broken open. At Mr. Goll's one package of boneless ham was all that was missed. At E. P. Olmsted & Co's, the money drawer was pried open, but it was a dry haul as there was no money there. However they took two boxes of cartridges, but apparently they did not fit the revolver taken from Chace & Neely's as they threw them down outside the building where they were found. At the Boyd Hotel a few pies and cakes and some cold meat was all that was secured. It is thought there were two "gangs" operating and that from the bunglesome work the culprits were now hands at the business. The foot prints at the rear of Chace & Neely's store indicated that it might have been boys engaged in the business. As yet no arrests have been made. School closed Friday and on Monday a number of the teachers left for their summer vacation. Miss Leona Hunter left for Pasadena, California. Miss Hays accompanied Mrs. Wolcott to Fremont, where she will visit for a week and from there she will go to her home in Iowa. Tuesday morning Miss Connor went to Chicago and Miss Bergenson will visit for several days at Concord.

Kohl's drug store and "size up" their handsome line of wall paper patterns of the latest styles. Chris Fieger, living five miles north-east of Wayne, was kicked by a horse last night sustaining probably fatal injuries, as it is thought he cannot recover. Marshal Wagner requested a noisy citizen to go home about twelve o'clock last night, but instead of doing so he drew a revolver and refused. A warrant was sworn out for his arrest this morning. The Wayne division of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, with 35 members will be installed in this city Friday night, June 29. Handsome uniforms have been ordered and the division will probably take part in the procession July Fourth. This week County Superintendent Miss White, will finish her school visiting with the exception of two schools. This makes 132 visits she has made since last September. She reports the schools where practical teachers are engaged as doing well. A special train of 13 car loads of cattle were shipped by Ran Frazier to Chicago Monday afternoon. A. J. Tracy, W. S. Brown, L. C. Gildersleeve, Chas Reynolds, and J. R. Manning of Carroll, accompanied the train to look after the stock. New potatoes just received at W. E. Brookings. Osmond Advocate—On Saturday last Prof. Hood left for Wayne, where he will open a law, loan and collection office. We certainly wish Mr. Hood prosperity and being a regular bookworm, have no doubt but what he will succeed in his chosen profession. The pupil of the country schools of this county who averages the best in examination before the county superintendent will receive a scholarship from Prof. J. M. Phil. The supplies have just arrived, so I am sending them out. C. M. White, County Supt. The York Times tartly says: "The man who never wants to see any body prosper except himself is more harm than good to the world. His room is worth more than his company. It is the same with any business that cannot thrive without tearing some other business down."

The bicycle club met Tuesday evening and decided to assist in the Fourth of July celebration. Messrs Olmsted and S. H. Alexander were appointed to confer with the fire department committee concerning races. There are about thirty wheels in the city and the wheelmen are taking a great deal of interest in the club. Wm. Frazier, of Wayne, was in this morning with a four load bunch of prime high grade Durham and Short-Horn cattle averaging 1,505 lbs. that topped the market at $1.00, the highest price paid on this market since January 9, when a two load lot brought the same figure. The cattle were purchased by Andy Haas. South Omaha Drivers Journal, (Wed.) Sugar, 20 pounds for $1.00. D. E. Smith & Co. Ralph Bingham, organologist, humorist, violinist, and his sister Ruth Bingham, an accomplished adept in elocution and music, will appear at the Presbyterian church, Saturday evening June 16. Rev. Dr. Cuyler, of the Presbyterian church Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Ralph. He is more than wonderful." Bishop Joyce, of the Methodist church, says: "He is not only pleasing, he is captivating. I never heard his superior, etc." Watch for lithographs and posters.

MORE ABOUT ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

As there seems to be a misunderstanding so far as a number of the citizens are concerned as to the purpose of the proposition or request of S. D. Relyea and H. F. Wilson, asking the city council to grant them the privilege of erecting on the streets and alleys polls for electric lights and power purposes, the HERALD will endeavor to explain. When these gentlemen conceived the idea of putting in a plant they sent a representative before the council to ascertain what steps were necessary to get the matter before that body. It was suggested that an ordinance be drafted. This was done and the same passed first and second readings at the next meeting. As the city could not grant an exclusive franchise Messrs Relyea and Wilson by their representative, requested that the city grant them the privilege of erecting polls on the streets and alleys for the purpose above stated and asked that the city take four arc lights at a reasonable price for a period of one year, but no longer unless so desired. This would not prevent any other body of men from putting in a plant if the council saw fit to grant the privilege. At the next meeting the council by a vote of four to two refused to pass the ordinance to a third reading. The question is now being asked, why didn't the council consider the matter before voting, make the necessary amendments if any were needed, and pass the ordinance that the people might secure electric lights within ninety days, as nearly everybody seems in favor of them. It would not hinder the city from putting in a plant at any time she deemed it necessary. Why the council did not act differently in the matter is known only to themselves, but if it was the intent of any member to simply defeat the project because it was certain citizens that desired to put in the plant, it will be well for him to remember that towns are not built up where that spirit predominates. It is the general impression that the city council should be progressive and enterprising, not selfish and reactionary. Wayne should continue to make improvements and must retain the name of being the best city in North-east Nebraska, and she should not be hampered in the matter, because a few individuals seek to know who will own stock in an electric plant, when it matters not so long as they are reputable citizens.

COURT HOUSE.

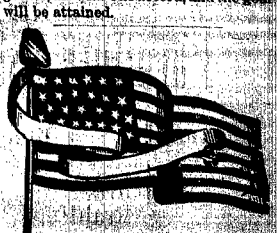

The court house question is being agitated by people all over the county. Many farmers have themselves become tired of the old "rookery" used as a court house and many have expressed themselves as in favor of a thirty or thirty-five thousand dollar structure, the only question being as to what plan will be the best to secure it. A meeting will soon be called and an attempt made to solve the question. Now to gether, all with one accord, and the goal will be attained. The Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias and the cyclone club will add greatly to the parade July Fourth. You are respectfully invited to the Ice Cream Parlor of August Pellenstock where you can procure delicious ice cream, lemonade and other summer drinks. ANDREWS OPERA COMPANY. TALMAGE'S SERMON.

HIS GREAT DISCOURSE ON WOMAN'S WORK.

No Disgrace to Work—A Strange Line of Respectability—Let Woman Do What She Can Do Well—The Dread Alternative of Starvation or Dishonor.

Song of the Shiloh. Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, who is now on his round the world journey, chose as subject Sunday "Martyrs of the Needle," the text being Matthew xix, 24.

Whether this "eye of the needle" be the small gate at the side of the big entrance of the wall of the ancient city, as is generally interpreted, or the eye of a needle such as is now handled in sewing a garment I do not say.

It is a long ago the needle was busy. It was once an honorable woman for woman to toil in olden time. Alexander the Great stood in his palace showing garments made by his own mother.

The greatest blessing that could have happened to our parents was that they were not slaves. Adam and Eve in their perfect state, might have got along without work, or only such slight employment as a perfect garden, with no weeds in it demanded.

But I am loath to tell you that industry is the only way for woman's safety and happiness. The most unhappy women in our communities to-day are those who have no engagements to call them up in the morning.

There is no happiness in an idle woman. It may be with hand, and with brain, it may be with foot, but work she must, or she is wretched forever.

The curse of our American society is that our young women are taught to be first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, tenth, fiftieth, thousandth, thing in their life is to get someone to take care of them.

Oh, the damnable schemes that professed Christians will engage in—until they are fingered to the collar of the hypocrite's robe and ripe it clear down to the bottom!

Oh, the damnable schemes that professed Christians will engage in—until they are fingered to the collar of the hypocrite's robe and ripe it clear down to the bottom!

Oh, the damnable schemes that professed Christians will engage in—until they are fingered to the collar of the hypocrite's robe and ripe it clear down to the bottom!

Oh, the damnable schemes that professed Christians will engage in—until they are fingered to the collar of the hypocrite's robe and ripe it clear down to the bottom!

It is a shame for a young woman belonging to a large family to be inefficient when the father tells his life away for her. It is a shame for a daughter to be idle while her mother toils at the wash tub.

Society is to be reconstructed on the subject of woman's toil. A vast majority of those who would have woman industrious shut her up to a few kinds of work. My judgment in this matter is that a woman has to do anything she can do well.

It is said if woman is given such opportunities she will occupy places that might be taken by men. I say, if she have more skill and adaptedness for any position than a man has, let her have it.

But it is said that her nature is so delicate that she is unfitted for exhausting toil. I ask in the name of all past history what toil on earth is more exacting than that of the needle?

Go with me, and I will show you a woman who, by her own industry, has made her children, her husband, her old father and mother, pays her house rent, always has wholesome food on the table, and when she can get some neighbor on the Sabbath to come in and take care of her family.

Such a woman as that has body and soul enough to fit her for any position. She could stand beside the majority of your salesmen and disposes of more goods than any man in our community.

God knows her trials are the severest. By her acute sensitiveness to misfortune, by her hour of anguish, I demand that no one hedge up her path to a livelihood.

I go still further and say that woman should have equal compensation with men. By what principle of justice is it that woman in many of our cities get only one-half as much for their work as men?

To thousands of young women in our cities to-day there is only this alternative—starvation or dishonor. Many of the largest mercantile establishments of our cities are accessory to these conditions.

I hear from all this land the wall of wretchedness that is being built up for that woman who is not allowed to work.

There are about 50,000 sewing girls in New York and Brooklyn. Across the darkness of this night I hear their death groan.

At a large meeting of these women held in a hall in Philadelphia grand speeches were delivered, but a needle-woman took the stand, threw aside her faded shawl, and with her shivered arms, shaking out the thunderbolt of eloquence, speaking out the horrors of her own experience.

Stand at the corner of a street in New York in the very early morning as the women go to their work. Many of them had no breakfast, except the coffee and the water that they drank the night before or a crust they chew on their way through the street.

These in flower making, in millinery, in making cigar making, bookbinding, and in every kind of thing that is done in the city, they are overworked of all and least compensated, the sewing woman. Why do they not take the city cars on their way to work?

One Sabbath night, in the vestibule of my church, after service, a woman fell in convulsions. The doctor said she needed medicine not so much as something to eat.

she needed medicine not so much as something to eat. As she began to revive, in her delirium she said gaspingly, "I wish I could get it done."

Some of the worst villains of this city are the employers of these women. They beat them down to the last penny. They try to cheat them out of their pay. The woman must deposit a dollar or two before she gets the garments to work on.

What have you to answer, you who sell coats and have shoes made and contract for the Southern and Western markets? What have you to answer, you who sell what is called "the ballot"?

Indeed, woman oppress women as much as men do. Do not women, as such as men, beat down to the lowest figure the woman who sews for them?

Never will she get it from man's hands. Her God will rise up for her. God has more resources than we know of. The flaming sword that hung at Eden's gate when woman was driven out will cleave with its terrible edge her oppressors.

But there is something for our women to do. Young people prepare to excel in spheres of work, and they will be able after awhile to get larger wages.

What will become of this goddess disciple of fashion? What an insult to hersex! Her manners are an outrage upon decency.

The dying actress, whose life had been vicious, said: "Those scene closes. Draw the curtain." Generally tragedy comes first and the comedians follow.

Compare the life and death of such a one with that of some Christian aunt that was sure to be blessing your household a hand in marriage.

When she was old and feeble, she would pray or sing "Rock of Ages" for any sick person who asked her. As she got older there were days when she was a little sharp, but for the most part amiable was a sunbeam.

THOSE who could not eat cake, hot biscuit, bread and pastry because of indigestion have found that by raising them with Royal Baking Powder they are enabled to eat them with perfect comfort. Royal Baking Powder is composed of chemically pure cream of tartar and bicarbonate of soda, and is an actual preventive of dyspepsia.

INDIAN FOOD.

Most Crickets and Other Queer Eatables of the Red Men. Some Indian tribes of this country eat for food curious things which no white man, at least, would think of eating.

In the great American desert the "screw beans," which grow as mesquite bushes, are utilized for food. Soap berries furnish an agreeable diet for some savages in this country, while in California the copper-colored aborigines do not disdain the seeds of salt grass.

In California the Digger Indians collect pine nuts, which are the seeds of a certain species of pine—sometimes called "pinions"—by kindling fires against the trees, thus causing the nuts to fall out of the cones.

These delicacies are cooked in a pit, being arranged in alternate layers with hot stones. After being thus prepared they are dried and ground to powder. They are mixed with pounded acorns or berries, the flour made in this way being kneaded into cakes and dried in the sun.

Another queer thing used for food are acorns, flowers of certain moss from the spruce fir tree and the blossoms of wild clover.

Ice Water Is Unwholesome. The ice water drinker is just as much of a "fool" as the morphine eater. In many cases the habit of the former is just as strong as that of the latter, and just as hard to break.

THE Mohawk Indians will not allow so much as a blade of grass to grow up the graves of their companions.

A Touching Demonstration. Shortly after the surrender of the Southern army Gen. E. Lee was riding along one day through a dreary stretch of country in Virginia when he espied a plain old countryman mounted on a sorry nag coming toward him.

"I beg pardon, sir, but is not this Gen. Robert Lee?" "Yes, I am, Gen. Lee. Did I ever meet you before, my friend?" "Then the old Confederate grasped the chieftain's hand, and with the tears streaming down his face, said: "Gen. Lee, do you mind if I show you the old battlefield?"

A CHARACTERISTIC LIE.
A Nebraska Veteran Scores a Soldier-Hating Organ.
Taken from The National Tribune.
Editor National Tribune:—I enclose a clipping from the Wayne County
Democrat, published at Wayne, Neb.,
The sheet is a fair representative of its class in soldier hating and maligning bourbons of the times.
But of all the miserable, contemptible, impracticable and inconsistent misrepresentations and downright false hoods in regard to fraudulent pensions which papers of this stripe are constantly regaling their readers with, as well as for pure, unadulterated partisan gall, this broadside against the old vets takes front rank in the procession of "pension howlers," and richly deserves
the title of "boss pension lie to date."
Here it is:
Speaking of pensions and pension votes the Evening Post gives the following extract from a letter received by Secretary Morton from a prominent citizen of this state and a veteran in the war. I have a list of 62 names in the Nebraska company who are drawing from $6 to $24 per month. Not one of them ever saw an enemy or fired a gun at an enemy or contracted any disability during the entire 11 months they served.
One of them who, was in the guard house a good portion of the time for robbing a poor woman of $150, a common drunkard, who has whisky rheumatism, is drawing $12 a month.
This is an alarming state of affairs. If 62 men out of one company are wrongfully receiving pensions, what must be the total number of fraudulent pensions be?One of the remarkable things of this very remarkable disclosure is that some where in Nebraska there are 62 men, all members of a "Nebraska company," who are bleeding this Government to the tune of from $6 to $24 per month for pensions. Sixty-two men, all belonging to the same company, drawing pensions; while the reasonable inference remains that there are others, survivors of the same company, who are not so basely criminal as to ask for pensions.
Now, Mr. Editor, do you suppose there is a company of veterans of the late unpleasantness in existence today that has sixty two members remaining?
And isn't it quite remarkable, at least,
that 62 men, all of one company, not one of which ever fired a gun at a Johnny, or ever saw one, during the term of nearly one year of service; and further, not one of the 62 was in any manner exposed to any hardships, privations, inclement weather, or in any other way contracted any disability during the entire period of their service to entitle them to a pension?
And yet, strange to relate, according to the statement of this, doubtless, conscientious, loyal, whole-soled patriot, every "mother's son" of these 62
"bummers," "coffee-coolers," "Government papers" etc., were dishonest enough and sharp enough to deceive and defraud the government out of the before-mentioned rates of pension, annually; and no one was aware of the fraud save the high-minded, patriotic gentleman aforesaid. Now, if the author of that letter to Secretary Morton will kindly furnish us the name and post office address of one or more of those 62 men, or the name and post office address of any reputable citizen of the town where any one or more of those men reside, he will place us under great obligation. Turn on the light and let us have the facts in the case. A. G.
BRANDE, Pierce, Neb.

THURSDAY, JUNE 7, 1894.

The state league of republican clubs meets at Lincoln next week Tuesday, and the war will then be on.

The state press is almost unanimously for Jack MacColl for Governor on the republican ticket. Jack's star is away up in the zenith.

More republican clubs have already been formed in the state than ever before. The state convention will be of unusual interest, this fall.

The Laurel Advocate of last week is sneed an excellent "write up" of that town and its "enterprising business men. The Advocate does not lack for energy.

In all probability Judge Kincaid, of O'Neill, will receive the republican nomination for Congressman in the big Sixth District, and it will be the prettiest campaign ever witnessed.

Grover Cleveland, Congress, the Coxey armies, strikes and seventeen-year locusts are a big load for the same year. There is but little chance to do any vaccination to stop them before the November elections.—Inter Ocean.

The U. S. Senate knocked Cleveland and Gresham's Hawaiian policy "galley west." The next thing in order is the knocking higher than a kite at the polls next fall of the do-nothing democratic congress.

Wm. Bryan may run for governor and U. S. Senator on a combination ticket, but there'll be a lack of takers at the polls. His mania for office reaches higher than the "portals of heaven and lower than the mud sills of the other plane and he's not particular which route he takes so he gets there.

The Democratic ship of state is floundering in a troubled sea. The republican water has struck her broadside, her mast is shattered and her rigging has been swept away. The pilot is at the wheel but she has sprung a leak, he has lost control and she is sinking fast. Billy Bryan has rolled up his pants and jumped overboard, but there is no craft in sight but the populist canoe, and he will probably be lost.—Blair Pilot.

The republicans made a clean sweep in Oregon last Monday, electing the Governor by a plurality of 15,000. Herman, republican, in the sixth district, and Ellis, republican, in the second district were elected to congress. This is a black eye for the demo-pops and they may as well bid good bye to their false gods and clamber into the republican wagon. The sweep is coming.

If Judge John S. Robinson is not a populist, and a populist without spot or blemish, independents have no business talking of nominating him for congress. If he is a populist let him say so and that in tones not to be misunderstood. We want no ungumpism on the ticket this fall and the World-Herald, Billy Bryan and all fusion independents are officially notified that we do not propose to support any such men for nomination or for office in case they are nominated.—Stanton-Picket.

A merchant has well said: "Common sense is the least common product of human ingenuity. Brains make capital. Capital does not make brains; it can cut its head off if one lets it. Capital requires feed and exercise. The demand for men of ability is greater now than the supply. The world does not stand still; changes come quicker now than they ever did, and they will come quicker and quicker. New ideas, new inventions, new methods of manufacture, of transportation, new ways to do almost everything, will be found as the world grows older. Then men who anticipate them and are ready for them will find advantages and opportunities as great as any of their fathers or grandfathers had."

The Herald wishes to again advise the farmers not to mortgage their crops if they can possibly help it. Not in order to avoid a debt but that you may sustain that credit which is ever needed in a time when nothing else will avail. To mortgage crops in advance leaves a bit impression against the farmer, that is as to his ability to pay, besides it is a detriment to the county, in that money lenders are shy of placing their money in a community where so much of this manner of transacting business is done. The banks and merchants should unite and determine not to ask for these mortgages, for when one is given others with trivial accounts will want one and then a crop is soon covered with these "sham plasters," much to the injury of the vicinity. This is not idle talk because the results of it are already being felt.

It sounds well perhaps to talk about retiring the party leaders and bringing out new men but the political party that ignores its best workers and acknowledged leaders invariably falls in to the soup, where it belongs. At the front in every political battle in Nebraska and elsewhere are the strong bold and faithful fighters who step voluntarily to the front in every conflict and carry the party to victory or honorable defeat. Right behind them is a band of cringing cowards and muttering hypocrites who profess to be seconding them in the conflict but who are really stabbing them in the back. They are anxious to lead in peace, but too cowardly to lead in war. Still behind is a vast and conglomerate mass of indifferent people and camp followers. They take little interest in the contest and do nothing toward victory, but are ready to pick up the crumbs that fall. When a man or a paper advocates thrusting aside "the leaders" he must mean that the conduct of the battle and the spoils of victory shall go either to the factious and treacherous grumblers or to the cold and indifferent followers. Either would mean dire defeat. A political party needs brave fighters, aggressive men who of course make enemies, but who lead on to victory nevertheless, and without them a political campaign would be a hippodrome.—Ex.

The editor of the Wayne Herald has visited the Norfolk asylum, and from his report one would be led to believe that he is interested in the "cobbleries" that have been perpetrated by the ring which for years has been pocketing the appropriations that have been made for the asylums. He says: "Anyone who will investigate the matter for himself will discover that the legislature has been niggardly in its appropriations for this institution. The people of the northwest portion of the state demand that a more liberal appropriation be made by the next legislature." A liberal appropriation under the present administration simply means more money to loot. Better and more thorough supervision is what is needed, and more honesty on the part of those in charge.—Ponca Gazette.

The editor of the Gazette is no doubt in the same fix of many other people, who know it all and yet know very little about some things. He has not visited the institution in question very recently and knows nothing of its conditions or needs therefore is hardly qualified to make the above assertion. The Herald defies the editor of the Gazette to show an institution that is kept cleaner, managed more economically, and under better supervision or in charge of more competent men than the Norfolk asylum. Talk is easy but proof is more substantial.

In 1892, ex-Senator Spooner in a speech at Hurley, Wis., predicted that if Mr. Cleveland were elected President with the Democrats in majority in Senate and House, it would not be one year before the miners in Hurley would be seeking work, their families in distress. In the same year Senator Vilas said to the miners at Hurley that if the Democratic party were successful wages would be increased and prices for clothing, etc., would be lower. The prediction of Mr. Spooner has come true. The state of affairs in Northern Wisconsin is described in our letter from Hurley published this morning. The facts show the falsity of democratic promises and are the best arguments. Inter Ocean.

The Tractor Populist, Again.

The Omaha World-Herald a few days ago congratulated Senator Allen, who poses as a populist, on having made "a pretty good democratic speech." Now is the time for a renewal of congratulations. Allen has gone beyond the extreme limit of democratic audacity in the matter of tariff by moving—and successfully to have the small measure of protection that the Wilson and Senate bill affords to the lumber industry withdrawn. Under ordinary circumstances his motion would not have been acceptable to democratic Senators, but under the extraordinary circumstances that now prevail he was master of the situation. Without the populist vote the mongrel tariff bill cannot pass the Senate; in order to secure that vote the democratic managers will make any concession to the populist senators.

As we often have urged upon them, it is in the power of the populist senators to protect their western constituents by forcing the democrats to give as much protection to the farmer who produces raw wool as they have given to the mine owner who sells raw iron. But they have not cared for the West-ern silver miners. We have urged them to protect the Western producer of silver ores by supporting Lodge's resolution for a prohibitory tariff against all nations that discriminate against silver. But they have not cared for the Western silver miners. And now, under the leadership of Mr. Allen, they propose to legislate against the other great industry of the West, that of lumbering.

Senator Allen's act completes a scheme that will diminish the revenue of the country by more than $10,000,000 that hitherto has been derived from duties on imported lumber. His act is likely to throw thousands of citizens of the United States out of work that hitherto has been profitable to them. But it is not likely to cheapen lumber to the extent of $10 on a house or barn that will cost $2,000. For it is but a few weeks ago that the Canadian Parliament was restrained with difficulty by sagacious leaders from placing an export duty on logs; the passage of such an act is delayed, not abandoned. The more sagacious politicians of Canada counseled delay, "for," said they, "if we place an export duty on logs Congress will not make lumber free." But after our Congress has made manufactured lumber free, what is there which may, in any way, prevent a Canadian Parliament from placing an export duty on logs, which are the raw material of lumber?

Thus, the Canadian lumberman, having a cheaper supply of the raw material of lumber because produced at lower labor cost than that of the United States lumberman, and having the United States thrown open to him free of duty, will control this market. Will they greatly reduce the price of lumber? They will be very foolish if they do. It will be in their power to cheapen the cost of lumber a few cents on the thousand feet, which will be sufficient to secure the patronage of the wholesale dealers, to whom a reduction of 25 cents per thousand feet will count largely on their annual sales of millions of feet; but when the 25 cents has been shared by the importer and jobber, there will be little or no reduction of the price to the man who is about to build a house or barn.

The populist senators and congressmen, Paffer excepted, have acted from first to last as members of the sugar trust, as friends of the foreigner, as pensioners and auxiliaries of the democrats, and as traitors to the silver miners, wool growers, farmers and laborers by whom they were elected.—Inter Ocean.

Pierce Leader—Friday closed the school year for the Osmond schools, and the teachers have departed for their respective homes, except Rev. B. B. Keister, he being a resident of this place. These schools have given fairly good satisfaction, especially the primary department taught by Miss Lulu Neihart and the intermediate by Rev. Keister.

Blair Republican.—After leaving Reed's auction store in this city L. W. Newell and a partner opened out in the same business in Wayne. The merchants undertook to haze the firm and had them arrested for violating the city ordinance which provides for a license of $10 a day. They were fined $25 and kept right on selling; were arrested and fined again until the penalty was $130 and cost. The case was appealed to the district court and it is likely that the verdict will be reversed.

We are pleased to be able to announce that the publisher of the Inter Ocean has made a special offer on the weekly edition of that paper during the present political campaign. He will send the Weekly Inter Ocean for six months to any subscriber on receipt of thirty cents. This is a very low price for one of the best and ablest republican newspapers in the country. Good republicans should try to increase its circulation. Subscriptions will be received at this price from June 1st to August 1st. After that the regular prices will be restored.

Norfolk News: Herman Schellenberg a young man 20 years of age who had been living with his brother at Hoskies died on Tuesday, from what is believed to be trichinosis, as he had been eating raw pork. Although Nebraska porkers are the healthiest in the world, the dangerous trichina spiralis is ever liable to be imbedded in their flesh, and when this minute parasite is transferred to the human body in any number, it is almost certain to cause death. Pork is not the most healthy food in the world even when cooked and when eaten raw it is a dangerous one.

NO SIGNS OF PEACE.

COAL OPERATORS AND MINERS FAIL TO AGREE.

Troops Move Trains in Illinois-Volley Fired at a Nervy Striker-Indiana Militia May Be Called-War On in the Keystone State.

News of the Strike. There is nothing in sight, according to a Springfield dispatch, to warrant the belief that the strike of the Illinois coal miners will be settled this week or the next either.

The representatives of the miners' Association stubbornly refuse to specify their demands. A meeting of the coal operators of the entire State will be held, when, it is possible, the operators will agree on what they will offer the miners.

So the strike grows, merrily on. It is hurting every class in the community now. It is working hardship on the poor, both miners and consumers. It is decreasing the revenue of corporations, factories, and everybody who uses soft coal.

The Kanakkee asylum uses a great deal of coal, and has only ten carloads in stock. This was last only a few weeks ago. Some weeks ago, by way of precaution, the Superintendent, Dr. Gopen, wrote President McBride, acquainting him with the wants of the institution, and McBride gave a written authority that the forty carloads of coal might be used for the Kanakkee asylum.

Anarchy Runs Riot at La Salle. La Salle, Ill., special: This whole region is on the verge of riot and open rebellion. Loyal American citizens in some localities are the victims of a horde of low-browed, vicious Anarchists.

At Spring Valley the Mayor is in terror of his life. The city prison has been sacked by the mob. The local police do not dare to arrest an Italian, a Pole, a Hun, or an Anarchist of any nationality, for he may contain some grains of truth.

At Pittsburg, Pa., special: The meeting of the Ways and Means Committee of fifteen coal operators appointed last week to adopt a basis or plan to settle the strike disagreed and nothing was done.

Good For Canadian Farmers.
 "As the Democratic party in the States are taking the McKinley duties off our agricultural products, and next summer farming will be more profitable than heretofore, the subscriber would hereby intimate that she is about to sell her fine farm."

The above advertisement was copied from The Weekly Patriot, published at Charlottetown, P. E. I., under date of March 15, 1894. The advertiser evidently believes that the Canadians pay the duty and that good times are coming for Canada.

Humpty Grouver sat on a wall, Humpty Grouver had a great fall. All Europe's money and all Europe's men Cannot pull Grouver together again.

Traitors of the Country.
 The Wilson tariff bill is only in favor of importers. Many so-called Democrats in congress voted for it because they do not know what is right, or for the benefit of the people at large in this country. How many senators will vote for it if we do not know at present. The elections we have lately in different parts of the country prove, however, what the people think of the Wilson bill. It is not so much the Democratic or Republican party as the tariff question, but the tenets of our present congressmen and senators who vote for the passing of the Wilson tariff bill may consider this their last term in office. I suppose the majority of the people at large will look upon them as traitors of the country.—E. Fryhill.
